The Longhorns received the kick to start the third quarter, returning the ball to the 29. They made 8 in three plays and kicked to the Mules 36. The Mules made nothing, 3 and 3 and then on fourth down with 4 yards to go Morrison took off around his own right end for 58 yards and the score. Try for point failed and the score was 34-0.

The Longhorns received and returned to their own 14 after fumbling the ball. They were penalized 5, made 5 had a pass incomplete, made 9 and then a first down on the 24. Dairymen are advised to get ready for winter. An adequate supply of roughage, is not available on the farm, should be purchased and stored. Two tons of hay or one ton of hay and three of silage should be stored for each cow in the herd. Good hay racks and feed troughs will save feed.

HERE'S HOW

Muscular Dystrophy Campaign poster boy Richard Fowler, 7, of Apollo, Pa., learns the art of carving from Robert Alda, Hollywood, Broadway and TV star, in hopes of celebrating success of the nationwide drive which runs from November 2 through Thanksgiving. Money raised goes to further research into the mysterious disease and helps pay for therapy, wheel chairs and medical bills. Marion Cross, center, Jimmy Scott, halfback, and Lerel Foster, guard, all were injured in the Friday night game and that about finished the Longhorns who have been weak on reserves all year.

Freshman Paul Ray Williams saw quite a bit of action at the quarterback slot. Buck Duval also saw lots of action. Weldon Jones, guard for the Longhorns, played a good game for the Longhorns.

Following is an account of the game:

The Mules received and returned to their own 36. They made successive first downs on their own 47, on the Lockney 31, 30, 10 and then drove over for the score in two plays. The point was kicked and the score was 7-0. The Longhorns brought the kick-off back to their own 28, were penalized 5, made 4 and lost 4 and kicked out on the Lockney 46. The Mules made a first down on the 34, were penalized 15 and then carried over from the 49 in one play for the score. Point was good and the score was 14-0.

The Longhorns returned the kick to their own 25, made 5 and 2, had a pass incomplete and kicked to the Mules 33. Morrison carried around his own right end for 67 yards and the score. The point was kicked and the score was 21-0.

The Longhorns returned the ball to their own 39, were penalized 5 and then fumbled with the Mules recovering on the Lockney 35. The Mules lost 5, made 4 and then passed for a first down on the Lockney 18. They lost 2, made 4 and 4 and then a first on the 2. They were penalized 5, made 2, lost 4, lost 2 and lost 5 with the Longhorns taking over on their own 16. It was one of the few times the Longhorns dug in and held the Mules. The Longhorns made 1 and then fumbled with the Mules recovering on the 12. The Mules made a first down in four plays on the Lockney 2 and this time drove over for the score in two plays. Try for point was good and the score was 28-0.

The Longhorns returned the kick off to their own 35. Muleshoe was penalized 15, and the disaster struck the Longhorns last week beginning with the two key players on the team and climaxing with injuries to more and loss of a Muleshoe Friday night game. The Lockney boys were the game allowing the Mules to score two touchdowns in the last minutes of the game stopping them for long time. The Longhorns lost five times by fumbles, all of those being down in the territory and setting up points for the Mules.

Williams, quarterback, Jimmy Rankin, big tackle, outstanding defensive player, suffered knocked-down injuries in practice last week. He saw only part-time action Friday night and Rankin got into the ball game, coupled with injury to Quisenberry, only regular from last year's team apparently took all the heat of the Longhorns.

"Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil." Thus saith the Bible and sometimes we wonder if that scripture couldn't be applied to those organizations who are seeking to prevent their members from advertising. Could it be that advertising tends to lower the price of their services, as it does on other services or merchandise, and that they want to keep the price high? Already there is stirring in the state optometrist association toward introducing a bill in the next legislature to curb advertising. Such a bill was attempted last year but was watered down to Advertising serves to inform the patron where he may purchase the service or merchandise he desires. Because of its informative nature advertising has helped to reduce the cost of almost every kind of merchandise and service available. Yet some professions try to secure legislation against advertising. Their reasons, they say, are based on obscure "ethical" standards. We prefer to think that "price" standards have more to do with the matter than "ethics." And we are very sure that the public welfare will not profit from the no-advertising bill.

The matter of raising the school teachers salary has been tossed around in state circles for some time with everyone apparently agreed on the fact that school teachers need a raise but opinion divided as to where the money should come from and how much. The State Teachers Association's stand last year on "$600 or nothing" prevented a raise of any kind coming to the teachers, the legislators say, while the association claims that Governor Shivers and his administration didn't want the teachers to have a raise. Anyway the teachers association lobby probably learned a lesson—that is you gotta get along with the legislature and administration if you get anything out of them. Maybe the parties will get together and work out a raise for the teachers soon. They deserve it and the profession needs it in order to attract more people into the teaching business.

A lot of Texas people voted the Republican ticket last fall but that shouldn't mislead Mr. Jack Porter into thinking that the state has turned Republican. It just goes to show that more people are doing their own thinking and not blindly following the edict of a political party's national committee, right or wrong. Mr. Porter is over-optimistic if he thinks that the Republicans can elect a United States Senator or any other officer of any size in Texas. Lyndon Johnson won't be pushed very hard by an man the Republicans can bring out, we don't believe.

The independent voter is going to be the salvation of this country. The man or woman who looks at the issues, looks at the character of the man running for office, and votes for what he believes to be the best interest of his country is the type of voter the country needs. The "brass-collar" type party man who votes for his party right or wrong, good or bad, corruption and all is not looking at the interest of his country. More times than not he is figuring how he can best benefit his own interests and desires. That isn't good.

ABOUT A THIRD

It's in the bag now. That assurance of acreage restrictions on cotton next year. There are a lot of folks who raise cotton who won't like that. Most of them in fact. But there is something they dislike a heap more than acreage controls. That's having to go on raising cotton in an economy where nearly everything else has legal safeguards amounting almost to a subsidy, and have no way to control production or prices. You've heard of cattlemen finding the competition of other costs being too much for this free lance stuff. You know the law moves in and says if a cotton farmer wants to hire a cotton chopper, he must pay not less than 75c an hour, and if he wants a few webbacks to pull bolls the law and international treaty makes him put up a bond and then guarantee a minimum wage, etc. Here goes for cutting down acreage by about a third next year. — You Be The Judge in Crosbyton Review.

Q. There is fowl cholera in the area. How can I protect my flock?

A. Strict sanitation and isolation help most in preventing fowl cholera. And keep Dr. Salsbury's Sulquin handy in case of an outbreak. Sulquin reduces mortality and keeps losses low from cholera. Also effective for coccidiosis. Sulquin Liquid is convenient to use in the drinking water. Or, use Sulquin Soluble Powder in feed or drinking water.

FINISH EACH DAY

Finish each day and be done with it. You have done what you could. Some blunders and absurdities no doubt crept in; forget them as soon as you can.

HOW IT CAN HAPPEN

Not too many readers are concerned about mistakes that get into the paper, or how they happen, unless the mistake concerns them, but all readers may be interested in the seven reasons recently given by a Kansas newspaper for error.

In the course of printing enough reading matter each issue to fill a popular novel, here's how mistakes are made:

1. Person giving information suffers a slip of the tongue.
 2. Reporter taking information has his or her mind on love, the weather or last night's party.
 3. Copy editor needs new glasses.
 4. Compositor can't find the right keys on the linotype.
 5. Proof-reader overlooks the error.
 6. Compositor setting corrections makes another mistake.
 7. Printer replacing incorrect line pulls the wrong slug.

In commenting on bench leveling, Horton Howell, who lives south of Sterley had this to say:

There is no two ways about it those benches sure require more time to farm, possibly twice as much as straight row farming.

Horton considered plowing the borders out because of the difficulty in farming them. But fortunately he reconsidered and decided they definitely have their place.

Some of the things Horton observed about farming these borders are: When you get a high intensity rain of four or five inches there is no loss of moisture and it goes in the ground where it falls; When irrigating on the level in these borders he finds his crops will stand up under dry periods longer than where he has not prepared his land; He usually gets by on one less irrigation than on land which has not been leveled; No irrigation water is lost because there is no tail water; Erosion is completely eliminated both from rainfall and irrigation.

Many have been of the opinion that weeds could not be controlled on bench level borders; however, when they have seen the leveling on Hortons farm they immediately inquire as how he manages to keep his borders so clean. Horton answers to this problem is a small one-way on the back of his Ford tractor.

It is surely no accident that Horton has harvested grain sorghum from these borders this year which has yielded in excess of 4500 pounds per acre.

Bench leveling is not a recommended practice for all land or for all farmers but if you are interested in getting the most for your money both in land and water an irrigation system should be worked out which will fit into your overall farm plan.

Intra planted cowpeas in grain sorghum is a practice which offers a wonderful opportunity to obtain some badly needed organic matter in your soil as well as increasing the nitrogen. These two things make for conditions which stimulate production of crops which follow.

If you would like to see some of these peas growing in combine grain sorghum go by James Bobbitts before the feed is harvested, or at least before the peas are turned under.

BROILED STEAK

For best results with steak, pre-heat the gas broiler for 10 minutes. Wipe steak dry and place on a greased rack about 3 inches below the flame. Use a palette Turner instead of a fork to turn the steak for browning on both sides. Allow eight minutes on each side if you want it rare, 16 minutes for well-done steak.

Wayland Plans Homecoming November 5-7

Plainview. — With the nomination of 11 candidates for Homecoming Queen, Wayland College Student Government Association is readying plans for the annual Homecoming on the campus, Nov. 5-7, according to Glenn Clements, Ventura, Calif., SGA president. Jeff McBeth, Plainview, is general chairman.

Homecoming Queen nominees from organizations are: Freshmen, Bettie Phipps, Sacramento, Calif.; Sophomores, Jorene Clement, Amarillo; Juniors, Patsy Pylant, Plainview; Seniors, Carolyn McAdams, Plainview; Ikwias, Pat Lewis, Plainview; Mike and Mask, Happy Johns, Tulsa, Okla.; Future Teachers of America, Jody Blankenchip, Tullia; Thespians, Lois Rust, Phillips; Ministerial Alliance, Marilyn Jones, Jeffersontown, Ky.; Volunteer Mission Band, Imogene Cearley, Amarillo.

All former students are invited back to the campus but most of them will not arrive until Nov. 6, with hundreds showing up for the following day which will begin with an early morning Alumni Breakfast and end with the Queen's Coronation and the two basketball games.

The Hutcherson Flying Queens of Wayland College, 1953 runners-up in the National AAU Women's Tournament, will meet Dowell's Dolls of Amarillo in the night's opener. Sheppard Air Force Base is sending a strong aggregation against the Wayland Pioneers for the second game.

The Mike and Mask Club will give two performances of "The Night of January 16," Thursday and Friday in Wayland Auditorium. A parade of floats featuring the Queen candidates and the traditional Western theme of Wayland Homecoming activities will be staged at 10 am. The Walter Jetton Chuck Wagon Gang from Ft. Worth is returning for the third year for the traditional Western luncheon.

Saturday afternoon's activities will be the hilarious stunts and musical takeoffs by both students and former students, as well as faculty. The Future Teachers of America will honor former members with a tea at 4:30. A savage bon fire and snake dance will bode evil for the opponents of the Flying Queens and the Pioneers.

More lives were lost in the Civil War than any other war in which the U. S. has been engaged.

NIGHTLY WASH

It's true — very hot water gets clothes cleaner, but who wants to scald her hands in a wash bowl? You don't have to! If you are a wash bowl laundress, just get in the habit of washing clothes before they get too soiled, and always use bluing right in the wash water. You won't need water quite so hot to remove the soil and, in addition, the bluing carries along a water softener that helps remove light soil from the fabric.

CONSERVATION PIECE

Wash your telephone with a damp cloth that has been wrung out in hot sudsy water. An application of cleaning wax also keeps off dirt and fingermarks that make the instrument look unattractive.

WHAT IS CREDIT?

CREDIT is defined by one of the leading economists as permission to use another's capital. With this definite and clear cut definition in mind let us consider the two types of credit:

First there is credit extended on or secured by capital.

Second there open credit which rests solely on faith in the debtor. So personal is what we are interested in today. This is the oldest form of credit.

A man's credit, or a better way, the amount of credit he is entitled to is based on personal contract. The common knowledge of a debtors habits, his ability and character of his actions has been a good sound way to extend credit for generations and is true today.

Today, not even in the most isolated sections of Texas, can we consider it safe to extend credit on the basis of common knowledge alone, however. Much less is it true in a territory that is enjoying growth and advancement such as we have here.

This is the purpose of the Lockney Retail Merchants Association — to find better means of eliminating so many credit losses due to bad accounts and striving to reduce these losses to a minimum. By doing so it will bring lower prices to the consumer.

We feel that through this organization we can better serve our town and community.

Brandes' Church Starts Drive For New Building

A gift of $15,000 from one family in the church launched a drive for funds to build a new church building for the Trinity American Lutheran Church at Wichita Falls last week. Pastor of the church is Rev. Lee Roy Brandes, a native of the Providence Community in Floyd County and son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brandes.

A loyalty dinner was held on Wednesday night with about 160 members of the church present. Featured speaker was Dr. Marcus C. Rieke, youth director of the American Lutheran Church, Columbus, Ohio. Also present for the loyalty dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner of Providence and Rev. Leslie Huebner of Littlefield.

The family of Mrs. Fred S. Daume Sr., presented the check for $15,000 at the dinner, bringing the total money received to over $30,000. Goal is $75,000, estimated cost of the building.

Tentative plans for the church indicate that it will be of modern design and brick construction, housing 15 individual class rooms, three departmental rooms, a choir room, nursery and a study. The auditorium will seat 250. A tower and chimneys will complete the building.

School Bus Hits Car Wednesday

A Lockney school bus, driven by L. D. Hawkins, struck a 1953 Chevrolet driven by J. R. Wylie early Wednesday at the intersection of South Third and Willow streets in southwest Lockney. No one was injured in the crash.

The bumper on the school bus was bent slightly but the Chevrolet suffered considerable damage. It was struck in the side by the big bus and the entire side of the car caved in.

School Nurse Joan Brown examined each student who was on the bus and found them all without injury of any extent. One boy suffered a bump on his head. They were all grade school students.

Mr. Wylie's two sons, Cleon and Calvin were riding with him and they too escaped injury of any extent. Wylie's car was traveling north while the bus was going east.

Deputy Ray Hardin investigated the accident.

New Song Books At Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church will observe "Song Book Sunday" here next Sunday when they begin the use of 300 new Broadman Hymnals, Rev. R. E. Wiley, the pastor, said this week. The new Broadman books will replace the American Hymnal used by the church for many years.

On Sunday night the pastor has invited the Lockney football team and coaches to be special guests. His sermon subject will be "Downfield Blocking for Christ."

On next Tuesday night a Father and Son banquet will be held at the church sponsored by the Brotherhood. More than 100 are expected to attend. The W. M. U. will prepare and serve the meal. The program will begin at 7:30. A religious film, "Dedicated Men" will be shown.

TO STATE FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Mitchell and children, Shirley, Warren and Neil left Wednesday of last week to attend the State Fair in Dallas. They returned Saturday.

Elizabeth Handley, student of Hardin - Simmons University, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Handley. She was accompanied by two school friends.

J. V. GILLEY and wife and their son, Carl Lee and his family occupy these houses in the Cedar Hill community. This was the mystery farm picture run in last week's Handley Shop & Pump Co. advertisement and was quickly identified by Elmo Fortenberry as the Gilley farm, located a mile north, 3 1/2 miles west of Cedar Hill.

Mr. Gilley and his father, M. R. Gilley, who lived in Virginia bought the place in 1901 and the son came to the place in 1902. He has lived on it every since. Originally the Gilleys bought a full section but have since sold 120 acres to Esley Yearly. The remaining 520 acres are still in the Gilley family with Carl Lee farming part of it and Cliff another part. Cotton and feed are the principal crops on the farm and two irrigation wells help to assure a good crop. The Gilleys also have some cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilley, whose maiden name is Anna, were married in September, 1910. They have five children, Carl Lee and Eugene of Cedar, Cliff of Lockney, Mrs. Claude Hammitt, who lives six miles southeast of Lockney and Mrs. Oscar Hammitt who lives at Clifton, Texas. They attend the Assembly of God Church here.

Brunnier Contracts Two Big Jobs

Brunnier Lumber Company of Lockney has recently been awarded contracts on two big jobs in neighboring cities. The local firm was given the contract on installation of an elevator, in the Hale County Courthouse at Plainview, reflooring a part of the building and repainting much of the interior. A contract to remodel and add to the city power plant at Brownfield was also awarded to Brunnier. Contract price on this job was $31,000.

PTA Hallowe'en—

making jack-o-lanterns and other Hallowe'en decorations. Mrs. Stimson's room has a new boy, Keith Hayes from Wichita Falls. This makes 25 pupils in this room. In Mrs. Wiley's room the children are singing the song "Jack O Lantern" and making autumn posters. For a morning devotional they are learning the Lord's Prayer.

The third graders are drawing Hallowe'en pictures of all kinds. The rooms are decorated with Hallowe'en black cats and witches and Hallowe'en stories are being heard every day. They are also learning the different parts of a letter and are doing some letter writing. They have also written some Hallowe'en poems. Here's one of them: I'd like to meet a real live ghost. I'd look him up and down and boast. I'm not a bit scared of you! And then I wonder what he'd do. I wonder if he'd turn around And let his sheet drag the ground.

The fourth grade rooms are also excitedly getting ready for Hallowe'en. They will operate a grab box at the carnival Saturday night with gifts for mother, dad and everyone. They invite you to come by and get something. Rooms are being decorated with goblins, witches, black cats and the like. Some children have been out because of illness. Hope they get back soon and help get the boxes together for the big Hallowe'en carnival.

In the fifth grade rooms, everyone is getting ready for the country store the rooms will operate Saturday night at the carnival. Students are asked to donate funny books, canned goods, candy, gum, discarded toys that are in good condition, books, or anything else that could be sold. These grades are also making Hallowe'en pictures, autumn leaves and decorating rooms. In 5B Billy Jean Scott and Louise Bollman are reporters. Mrs. Jones, the teacher was out of school last week because of illness as were some of the pupils. Welcome back.

The sixth graders are looking forward to the Hallowe'en carnival. They are planning a shooting of apples with darts and other dart games for the carnival. The students are beginning the second six weeks with an interesting study of Early English colonies.

The Seventh grades will have "42" tables and dominoes where those attending may play "42." They will also have games for children and invite everyone to come. In art, they have been making Hallowe'en masks.

The Eighth grades will sponsor an amateur talent show at the carnival. A number of new students have come into the eighth grade. They are Anita Durham, Lanell Johnson, Garland McClure, Sue Thomas, Virgie Boone, Patsy Reeves, Jimmy Colson, Peggy Huley, Wenona Pascell, Arlene Johnson, Larry Jarret, Donald Farrish, Sandra Lawson and Cecil Taylor. The Eighth grade is thinking about football mostly.
