City Is Seeking Bids On Sewer Extension Now

The City of Lockney is advertising this week for bids on a sewer extension project in West Lockney expected to cost in the neighborhood of $20,000.

The project includes the installation of a sewer lift, which the City hopes to install on the Fort Worth & Denver right-of-way at the north end of West 8th Street, and a main trunk line running south along 8th Street for approximately four blocks. Feeder lines will extend to the east of the trunk line in each block. Since some development has begun on the Gentry estate in this area, the city will run feeder lines into these blocks also, Mayor J. E. Cox said Wednesday.

The area west of the trunk line can also be served when and if it is developed, Mayor Cox said.

The sewer lift, a sore spot in the project with some residents, will be an underground type with no offensive sight or smell, Cox said. A connection line will be laid from the lift east to the old sewer line.

A bond issue will not be necessary to pay for the project. The City has bonds which have been voted but are yet unissued and expect to pay a part of the cost out of cash reserves in the city treasury.

Deadline for receiving bids is 2 p. m. March 12th. Consulting engineers are Roberts, Merriman and Bowden of Lubbock.

Minute Editorials

My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning, O Lord; in the morning I will direct my prayer unto Thee.—Psalm 5:3.

AN OCCASION to be marked for observance this year is Public School Week, set in Texas for March 3-10 by Governor Allan Shivers in recent proclamation. There will be special events to mark the occasion in the local schools and it is one in which all citizens should participate. Upon the public schools of our state rests the responsibility of training and teaching the future citizens of the state. It is a great responsibility and for that reason our schools need our help, our encouragement, our support in every way. Let this special week refresh in your mind the great task which belongs to the public schools of Texas.

DOES THE FACT that we have law enforcement officers on state and local level imply that all citizens are law violators? Certainly not! Neither do laws requiring publication of financial statements by governing agencies, or open meetings of governing bodies, or that public records be open to public inspection imply that all government officials are corrupt. Yet many office holders resent and resist efforts to enact such laws because they say they are a reflection on their honesty. Actually, such laws would be a protection to honest officials, just as the policeman is a protection to honest citizens.

Lack of an adequate police force tends to make people careless and they often do little things they would not do if an officer of the law were close at hand. Like speed laws, for instance. Isn't it surprising how much more carefully people drive when they see a highway patrol parked by the side of the road? Laws requiring publication of financial statements by tax spending agencies of the government are chiefly beneficial as a preventive measure. Few officials will unlawfully expend money if it has to be reported publicly. Most officials will weigh carefully what may be only an unwise expenditure if they know it is to be printed for all to see.

THERE ARE THOSE who would like to lay the responsibility of the present insurance scandals, as well as the frauds perpetrated through the veterans land program, at the feet of Governor Allan Shivers and Attorney General John Ben Shepherd, some also giving U. S. Senator Price Daniel some of the blame. In what way are these men responsible for these crimes? The truth of the matter, of course, is that they are not responsible. Those who would blame them are not being honest with themselves or with the public generally. The real core of the trouble is that these people are very angry with the three men named above because they didn't prostrate themselves before the almighty National Democratic Party in the 1952 campaign, regardless of the interest of their state. Now those who advocate the policy of voting for a yellow dog so long as he's on the Democratic ticket, are looking for any crime, any fraud, any thing of questionable nature in order to unjustly accuse the Texas officials.

AS WAS POINTED OUT recently by Kenneth Towery, the courageous young newspaper man who uncovered the veterans land scandals, both Shivers and Shepherd are on 20 or 30 boards such as the insurance board and the land board. They can't possibly keep up with the affairs of that many boards much less be familiar enough with them to detect foul play.

THE FAULT LIES, as has been pointed out by this column several times previously, with the antiquated Texas governmental setup along with the poor quality legislature we have. The Beacon is not critical of our local representatives but generally speaking the quality of the legislature is poor. The reason, of course, as has also been said here before, is the inadequate pay which prevents many really well qualified men to run for the office as is the case too many times. Just last session a law to correct some flaws in the insurance set-up in Texas passed the House of Representatives but died in the Senate, for what reason we do not know. And so it goes.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT A porchlight burning indicated to workers in the "Mothers' March" Monday night to stop and pick up a contribution. At one stop, a five-year old girl answered the door and quipped, "We ain't got nothing to give," and then as the Mothers' March worker turned to go she heard the little girl exclaim loudly to a member of her family, "Turn that damn porchlight off." — Prattler in

YOU'D BE SURPRISED

Geographical facts, which are quite contrary to established notions, are brought to light by a careful examination of the map. Relative locations of certain points are often found to be quite different from the general impression concerning them. This is pointed out by the Touring Bureau of the California State Automobile Association, which is called upon to answer requests from motorists for all kinds of information. For example, San Francisco is 100 miles farther west than Los Angeles, and Jacksonville, Florida, is farther west than Cleveland, Ohio.

The westernmost point of Alaska is further west than San Francisco than New York is east. From Detroit to Canada the traveler moves southward. New York lies to the west of some cities on the Pacific coast of South America. It is curious to reason that the location, seen the sun both rise and set in the Pacific. Through the Panama Canal the sun only rises for a trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic to the West Indies.

the direction traveled is not east, but northwest, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, not west but southeast—Scoop in Muleshoe Journal

GRAIN SORGHUM PRICE

The 2-cent boost in grain sorghum supports was welcome, indeed, but will not make any appreciable difference in the way most of us live. My estimate would be around 60 cents an acre more than last year on the average crop—and few people have enough acres to get too well off. However, the work on the grain sorghum growers had its effect, I am sure. They whittled corn sharply and without the pushing grain sorghums got from this neck of the woods, it is logical to believe that they would also have taken quite a bit again this year. Two cents a hundred isn't much, but it is better to have it added than to have it tugged off. I sincerely believe the grain sorghum growers won a much greater victory than many of them realize—Jimmy Gillen, the in Democrat Round.

BUILD THAT LAKE

Get your fishing tackle ready! Start shopping for that boat and motor! And how about that cabin on the side of the lake? Your thoughts may seem a bit premature, but that is about all Crockett people have been talking about this week—the proposed dam on White River near Kaly. But even though ideas may be a little hot soon, everyone will admit that the prospect for a state and reservoir is the brightest since Crockett people started looking a boat such a project soon after the laws were passed about 20 years ago. Leads to Crockett Review.

The 25th Constitutional Amendment is called the "State" amendment. It is a measure to change the location, seen the sun both rise and set in the Pacific. Through the Panama Canal the sun only rises for a trip from the Pacific to the Atlantic to the West Indies.

Clara Lee Smith Wins Homemaking Honor In Contest

Lockney's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow has been named. Clara Lee Smith has earned, through competitive examination, the honor of representing Lockney High School in state-wide judging for $1,500 and $500 scholarship, it was announced today by General Mills, sponsor of this home appreciation program. A quarter million young women throughout the nation participated.

Miss Smith will also be eligible to compete for a $5,000 national scholarship award to be made to the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. She demonstrated her homemaking knowledge and attitude by receiving the highest score for her school in a written examination which was given senior girls in 10,222 of the nation's public, private and parochial high schools. Her test paper will be entered in competition with 582 school winners in this state.

The girl selected state Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship and a trip in April with her school advisor to Washington, colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Philadelphia where the national winner will be selected from the state winners.

Each state runner-up will receive a $500 scholarship.

"The purpose of this program, now in its second year, is to encourage young women to think seriously and realistically about the responsibility of the home and family as a career," said Harry A. Bullis, chairman of the board of General Mills.

"Our corporation has a social responsibility over and above the sale of products and services—an obligation to help create happy homes."

The written test, designed by Science Research Association of Chicago and administered by the schools, tested the participants in 10 major areas of homemaking—family relationship, spiritual and moral values, child development and care, health and safety, utilization and conservation of human and physical resources, money management, recreation, home care, community participation and continuing education.

A profile chart was provided participating schools for pre-test study of these homemaking categories, and each girl

Final Picture Made For The Annual

On Tuesday, February 14, Jay Ed Parsons from the Capitol Studio came to L. H. S. and took the following pictures for the annual: Fire-chief; Ass't Fire-Chief; Floormen; the B&P Citizenship Girls; the Silver Bells; the Harmonettes; the Band Queen; F. F. A. Sweetheart; F. H. A. Beau; Senior Favorites; the Double W Band; the Junior Rotarians; the Best All-Round Boy and Girl; the most outstanding student of L. H. S.

The annual-staff is very happy that they were able to meet the dead line, which was Friday, the eighteenth.

Annual Completed

Mrs. Irons and her staff have worked diligently on this year's annual. The last shipment of it was sent off Friday, the 18. This was a great relief to all the staff-workers.

Both Mrs. Irons and the staff appreciate all the cooperation given them by the student-body and other members of the community.

We hope your Annual affords you as much pleasure as it did us to prepare it.

Amending Student Council Constitution

The Student Council had a meeting on Tuesday, February seventh, to discuss the amending of their constitution, the means of raising money, and the electing of new officers.

The Council found it necessary to have the Constitution amended so that they could elect new officers before the state convention meets in Midland on March the first. Our Constitution stated that we would elect new officers on March first. However, representatives to the convention must register by February, the fifteenth, consequently it was necessary that we elect our new officers before that date.

Everyone, except the seniors, voted on the new student-council officers for next year. The president and vice-president were chosen from the junior class while the secretary and treasurer candidates could be any pupils from the eighth grade through the eleventh.

The following officers of the student-council were elected: Rita Griffith, president; Katie Rucker, vice-president; LaJuan Henderson, secretary; Joe Rigby, treasurer.

Rita Griffith and LaJuan Henderson, accompanied by Mr. Forrest M. Smith, will represent the student-council at the Midland meeting; and the council will pay all the expenses.

The Student Council members worked hard and long to select two students, out of the top four nominated by the student-body, to run for president, vice-president, treasurer, and secretary of the student-council for next year.

The candidates chosen were: Jay Kemp and Rita Griffith, president; David Frizzell and Katie Rucker, vice-president; Joe Rigby and Floy Baxter, treasurer; LaJuan Henderson and Kay Golden, secretary.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Who Will They Be?

Congratulations to Kay Golden, Loy O'Brian, Gayle Rucker, Dee Nix, J. W. Dippery, and Roland Watson for being the finalists in the Most Beautiful and Most Handsome Contest.

Messrs. Dick Whitley and Barry Barker and Mesdames Ellen Wiley, Wanda Baker, and Estelle Powers were the judges who decided on the most beautiful girl and the most handsome boy in L. H. S. The judges selected them from the above-mentioned pupils.

However, their names will not be revealed until the 1955-56 Annuals are received.

After the judges' difficult decisions were made, Mrs. Irons and several of the homemaking girls served them coffee.

Lubbock Junior Stock Show Set For March 19-21

LUBBOCK—The 23rd Annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show will be held here March 19, 20 and 21, according to an announcement made this week by George W. Brassell, Jr., general chairman for this year's areawide show.

Problems of Bean Growers Discussed

FLOYDADA—Twenty-two Floyd County pinto bean growers met Friday afternoon in the district courtroom here to discuss problems and future plans.

D. W. Fyff, local feed and seed dealer and promoter of the bean program, presided and displayed samples of beans grown other places.

"Our chief problem this past year was from discoloration and stain caused by rust and early frost," Fyff said. "Bacterial blight, which is spread by unusual moisture, was evidenced in only one field."

"Under favorable conditions beans can develop to maturity within 65 days, and I have no doubt that 25 sacks per acre can be grown here in 20-inch rows under normal conditions," he told the bean producers.

In a roundtable discussion, farmers seemed to agree that the recommended planting date of Aug. 1 was slightly late to assure maturity before frost in this area. Most beans planted in the early planting, April 20, produced yields without discoloration he explained.

Fyff urged farmers to plant beans on the ridge rather than in furrows as was the general rule last year. Planting on the ridge can prevent stain from rust which might be caused from irrigation, he explained.

Fyff also advised farmers who fertilize to use nitrogen free fertilizer since the pinto bean is a natural restorer of nitrogen.

Civilian Aircraft Mechanics Wanted

Reese Air Force Base needs fifty aircraft mechanics, Col. C. P. West, base commander, announced today from the station near Lubbock.

The civilian employees are authorized in "Project Home Front," an Air Force action aimed at filling jobs for which there is a shortage of military personnel. The military shortage is caused by the establishment of additional Air Force wings and transfers to overseas bases.

The civilian mechanics will be utilized in the maintenance of aircraft which are used in training student officers and aviation cadets to fly multi-engine planes. Journeymen aircraft mechanics are needed primarily, the colonel said.

These men must have four years of experience as aircraft mechanics. Starting salary is $2.02 an hour. A few junior aircraft mechanics and aircraft engine mechanics can be utilized. Eighteen months and four years experience, respectively, are required for these jobs and the starting salaries are $1.77 and $2.02 an hour. Some junior engine mechanics also will be employed at $1.77 an hour.

Interested persons should apply for these jobs to the Civilian Personnel office, Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock, Texas, or at the nearest Texas Employment Commission office, Colonel West said.

EXCITEMENT AHEAD FOR 1956 MAID OF COTTON!

Beautiful Pat Cowden, the 1956 Maid of Cotton, gets a preview of what's ahead on her exciting six-month tour for the American cotton industry. Mrs. Ouida Wagner (right), travel wardrobe advisor for British Overseas Airways Corporation, briefs her on some of the points of interest she will visit during her international journey as King Cotton's fashion and good will emissary. Maid Pat flew to Nassau, Bahamas, January 31 aboard a BOAC Stratocruiser for the official opening of her tour. Her travels will take her to more than 40 cities in the U.S., Canada, and Europe in behalf of cotton.

WASHDAY WRINKLES

Spare the rinse and you may spoil the wash. It is very important to make sure that your water is at the proper temperature for washing. The first rinse should be just as hot as the washing water. Why? Because cooler water is said to harden the soap, thus causing it to cling to the fibers which makes them yellow and weak prematurely.

Unlicensed Driver Is Traffic Hazard

Austin. — The unlicensed driver was pointed up today as a traffic hazard on Texas highways in a statement by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

In quoting a survey made during the first six months of 1955 by the Texas Highway Patrol, Garrison said the unlicensed Texas driver is two and a half times as likely to be involved in an accident as a licensed driver.

He also said the survey of rural highways showed that when involved in an accident the unlicensed driver's mishap is half again as apt to prove fatal as that of the licensed driver.

In explaining Garrison said, "The irresponsibility of the driver in not obtaining a license is a reflection of the character of that driver and his driving habits."

"In most instances the unlicensed driver is deficient in either his physical and learned abilities, or his driving attitude. In obtaining a license and taking the driver tests, his deficiencies are brought to light before an accident occurs. By being aware of his shortcomings and making adjustments for them a driver usually is able to avoid being involved in a costly traffic accident."

Only 3.9 per cent of the driving public is unlicensed, yet 9.8 per cent of the drivers in non-fatal accidents and 13.9 per cent in fatal accidents are unlicensed.

The French flag was the first to fly over Texas.

SANDWICH STANDBY

Here's an old standby for sandwiches. Combine the contents of 1 can deviled ham (2 1/2 ounces) with 1/2 cup cottage cheese, add a little minced celery and a little pepper relish. Be sure to have these cold — keep in the refrigerator before using. This mixture is good on either white bread, rye or whole wheat.

Library News

At the February 9 meeting, the Library Board voted unanimously to purchase a sound movie projector for the library. The 16 M.M. projector, a 52 by 70 glass beaded, fire resistant screen and a folding stand for the projector are now in the library.

The projector will be available to the public under the following rules:

Clubs or individuals renting the projector will be held responsible for the care of the machine.

A fee of $2.00 will be charged for a period of 24 hours.

The projector will be checked out at the library and returned to the library.

Calls for reservation of the projector will be received during library hours.

Because of the cost of the projector, screen and stand, a little more than $500.00 it will be necessary for book orders to slow up for a while. However, the Library Board feels that the projector will be well worth the money involved.

If you are interested in receiving instructions on how to run the projector, call 1061, Floydada.

The art exhibit in the library for the next two weeks will be by pupils of Mrs. E. J. Baker. The following will exhibit work: Denny King, James McKinney, Bill Henry, Curtis Sanders, Eric Christensen and Dana Walding. The public is invited to come in and enjoy this fine exhibit of art by local talent.

Mitchell Enters State Contest

R. C. Mitchell of the Pleasant Valley community, south of Lockney, who was named Floyd County's outstanding conservation farmer in 1955, was recently entered in the Fort Worth Press' annual contest and program of recognition for individuals who are standouts in the soil conservation movement.

He was selected by the Floyd County Soil Conservation Board because of his outstanding conservation work.

On his farm he has 480 acres of cultivated land and 75 acres of native pasture. He uses a rotation of alfalfa, clover, cowpeas, soybeans and mung beans. In 1955 he had 50 acres of hubam clover overseeded in Barley, 44 acres of soybeans, 18 acres of alfalfa and 200 acres of cowpeas interplanted in grain sorghums.

Mitchell has completed 10 acres of bench leveling, seeded it to permanent pasture and over seeded midland clover. He has completed 50 acres of field leveling and plans more in the future.

To improve his irrigation systems, he installed 8,000 feet of concrete pipe to eliminate ditch loss and evaporation. His concrete pipe system ties into a lake on his farm and he watered 150 acres from lakes this year.

Mitchell tends 27 head of registered beef-type shorthorns and farrows a number of Chester White sows each year.

Mr. Mitchell has a degree from Texas Tech, and taught vocational agriculture for a number of years before he entered the farming business. He is considered a good "missionary" in the local soil and water conservation program. He recently had his "conservation plan" revised, and brought up to present standards of the district.

County Retail Sales Show 46% Increase In 6 Years

Retail sales in Floyd county increased 46% during the six year period 1948-1954, according to a report just released by the Bureau of The Census.

Vegetable Men To Investigate New Industry

Farmers, businessmen, and others interested in bringing organized production of fresh vegetables to the Plains met together at Plainview February 14 and brought into being the West Texas Vegetable Council, the first large-scale group of its type ever to appear in this part of the state.

Although the constitution and by-laws of the organization are now in the formulative stage, it is no secret that the aim of the Council will be to bring about a survey of the possibilities of large-scale vegetable production in the region, and to supervise the establishment of such.

Ronald Davis, Lazbuddie farmer, who first started the ball rolling on the effort, was elected temporary president of the organization.

Other officers, also on a temporary basis:

L. A. Marshall, Floydada, first vice-president; Don Anthony-Dumas, second vice-president; Jason O. Gordon, Plainview, secretary-treasurer.

The 35 members of the council present heard talks from several ag officials, including Dr. W. N. Williamson, assistant director of Extension Service, A&M College.

He stressed the need for a survey to determine the feasibility of such a move before production steps are taken.

The council also listened to Dr. John McNeely, marketing specialist from the A&M Experiment Station. He gave an optimistic note to the meeting by pointing out the increased growth of the fresh vegetable markets in this country due to diet changes, increasing population, the decline of backyard gardening, and other factors.

One of the major steps taken at the meeting was the issuance of a formal request to G. G. Gibson, director of the Extension Service, asking that assistance be given in making the preliminary survey, which the council feels should be gotten underway as soon as possible.

Pledges of cooperation were obtained from Dr. George Elbe, assistant dean of agriculture at Texas Tech, who said that all the facilities of that department would be available for the work; and a like expression of help from the agriculture department of West Texas College by Dr. R. M. Callihan, head of that department.

Work of the Council was divided into four categories, and committees named to proceed along those lines. Committees and their members:

Survey — Gene Quest, Lubbock; R. G. Jones, Anton. Arno Struve, Abernathy.

Finance — Don Anthony, Dumas; Hosea Foster, Canyon; E. R. Evans, Tullia.

Organization — Gene McLaughlin, Ralls; Arlon Miller, Floydada; Hermon B. Thornton, Lockney.

Education and information — Nelson Welch, Friona; Arlin Hartzog, Bovina; E. O. Baker, Muleshoe; Don Williams, Farwell.

Until the organizational committee workers can draw up a constitution and by-laws, the Council will work informally on its goals. One phase of activity that will be speeded up in the near future is the contracting of town and areas generally within the irrigated High Plains that may be interested in such a movement, but which have not yet been worked with.

Bus Fumes Make Students Ill

Six Junior High school students spent Saturday night in the Lockney General Hospital after becoming ill from fumes on a bus ride from Roaring Springs Saturday night. The students were all basketball players and had participated in a tournament at Roaring Springs.

Spending the night in the hospital were Duayne Wilson, Bobby Livingston, Lesca Dee Dorman, James Davis, Eddie Romero and Jake Wofford. Other students were less seriously affected.

The players and their Coach, Rudy Haile, had gone down in another bus but it developed engine trouble. Another bus was sent for them and those students in the rear noticed fumes soon after leaving Roaring Springs. The condition became worse and by the time they reached Lockney some of them were very ill.

By Monday all seemed to have recovered completely from their illness.

Floydada High Seniors Plan Trip To Lake Of Ozarks

Floydada—Seniors of Floydada High School have again chosen Lake of the Ozarks, Osage Beach, Mo., as the site for their annual senior outing. Current plans are for the group to leave May 11 and return May 14.

The class is staging a scrap paper drive on March 9 to raise additional funds for financing the trip. Residents are urged to save their newspapers, tie them in bundles, place them on their front porches March 9. On that date, seniors will make a canvass of the town for paper collections. Arrangements for the paper sale have already been made. Nita Jo Lightfoot, Carolyn Collier, and Mary Wilks are in charge of the drive.

Food stores totaling 37 and with gross sales of $3,425,000 lead all other types of stores in the county. Lumber, building material, hardware and farm equipment stores totaled 21, the second largest number of establishments but stood third in sales with $2,813,000. The automotive firms had only 9 retail establishments but were second largest in sales in the county with $2,816,000.

Eating and drinking places in the county numbered 12 and had sales of $276,000. General merchandise stores numbered 7 and had sales of $447,000. There were 13 apparel and accessory stores which had $663,000 in total sales. Furniture, home furnishings and appliance stores totaled 12 with sales of $557,000.

Gasoline service stations totaled 15 and had sales of $806,000. There were 6 drug stores with sales of $404,000.

FLOOR SPACE SAVED

Built-in refrigerators are hung on the wall and resemble conventional cupboards. The freezer is contained in one cabinet and the food refrigerator section, in a double-width cabinet with two doors, is hung right next to it. More wall space is required, of course, and home buyers have to decide whether they want larger kitchens at the expense of something else, or whether they are willing to sacrifice cupboard storage space in order to have the convenience of built-in refrigeration in a small room.

Carolyn Jones And Jan Widener Entertain Class

Carolyn Jones and Jan Widener gave the third period biology class a party on Tuesday the 14th at 10:45. Refreshments of cup-cakes and soft drinks were served. Favos were crepe paper baskets filled with pink and yellow candy mints.

For half an hour the class enjoyed the party. Then came the big surprise, a test. Suddenly the excitement ceased and the pupils became thoughtful and busy.

 On Friday, Shirley Warren was seen wearing a plaid shirt that matches her carrot-colored hair.
 Kay Golden looked cute in a bag in her brown striped outfit from Friday.
 Sally Cox was seen wearing a black and white checked skirt with a white long sleeved blouse.
 Our new teacher, Mrs. Winn, looked very attractive in a beige tweed suit with dark brown accessories.
 Peggy Williams looked quite "chic" in her pretty red sweater and black straight line skirt.

Senior Class Meets

On Thursday, February 16, the seniors had a class meeting in the high school auditorium. The meeting was called to order by the president, Derrel Waldrop. Senior play books were passed out to the members of the class who intend to try out for the senior play.
 Mr. Smith then spoke to them about selling the Birthday Calendars. Seniors, this is just a word of advice — if you intend to go to Florida on your senior trip, everyone must do his part in selling the calendars.
 Friday evening at seven o'clock was designated time for the seniors and members of the Honor Society to meet at the high school and go to assigned parts of town to sell those community calendars.
 Good luck seniors, for we know your Miami Florida trip depends on this last drive.

Longhorn Heartbeats

Sue, just why do you and Shirley want to go to Florida?
 Jerry McQueen was seen with several junior girls the other night.
 Jimmie B., Ernestine S., Mary M., and Pat P. enjoyed a slumber (less) party at Sandra and Betty Mae Sams' home after the Barbara, how do you like the name "Mumps"?

 Peggy, isn't it a bit lonely since Joe left?
 Pupils, isn't it nice to observe Courtesy Week? Why don't you practice politeness every week of the year?
 I wonder why so many L. H. S. girls are casting side glances and smiling so sweetly at the football boys now. Can it be that they like those new jerseys, too?
 Dan G., have you lost your teeth anymore?
 Linda Baxter from whom did you receive that big box of candy on Valentine Day?
 The bookkeeping class is striving to finish their practice sets.
 Mrs. Carpenter is having a difficult time finding the one-act play "Make Room for Daddy" for the District Inter-scholastic League Meet.
 Three cheers, Nelson finally got his car running long enough to charge the battery.
 We just wonder why Dan G., Donald P., Brannon D., Doyle M., Harold S., and Lonell H. were absent from school Tuesday the 14th?
 The flash of flash-bulbs denotes the early arrival of the Annual.
 Doylene H. is "all smiles" as she wears that new football jacket with the word "Queen" on it.

over the policy of the American Farm Bureau. I suppose that is to be expected. You know, if we were all completely satisfied with our conditions, then we would not be trying to do something about those conditions. The American Farm Bureau has some policies that do not agree with the Texas Farm Bureau or the Floyd County Farm Bureau, but those policies were adopted in Chicago last fall by a majority rule. We here in the southern region just simply got out voted. You know I told you in a previous article that the midwestern region had more members than we did here in the southern region. They are in a position to outvote us in the national convention because of that. This one fact should encourage us to work a little harder to secure more members in this region. We have the potential membership here to far exceed that in the midwestern region.

here than in any other part of the United States. Even with all of its weak points; Farm Bureau is still the largest and strongest farm organization in the world, and we receive many benefits from it that we might not be able to see just right off. Farm Bureau is supported wholly by the dues you and I pay. I would urge you to take part in the various functions of your Farm Bureau and get to know Farm Bureau better. Help us to make it a better organization. There is no way of knowing the amount of good you can do.

RETURNS HOME

Candle Light Circle Meets

The Candle Light Circle of Trinity Lutheran Church met Wednesday afternoon in the educational unit of the church. Mrs. Hubert Stoerner as hostess and program chairman. Meeting opened with the singing of "Hark I Hear The Savior Walking." Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Leo Boedeker. Article Teachings of the Church by Mrs. Mae Howard. Rev. H. L. Anderson gave a very interesting Bible Study based on I Corinthians.

Mrs. Hubert Stoerner, president, called the business meeting to order. Business included a discussion of the possibility of purchasing a cabinet for a Sunday School room. Cup towels will be made by members of the circle and sent to the Missionary society of Levelland. Vanilla has also been purchased by the circle to be sold and the premium silverware will also be given to the Levelland Missionary society.

A report was given by the following members who attended the board meeting at Levelland recently: Mrs. Hubert Stoerner, Mrs. Ben Quebe and Mrs. Ben Brandes.

The sum of twenty-five dollars will be given toward the national convention expenses. The convention will be held at San Antonio November 6-9 of this year.

A letter was read by Mrs. Ben Brandes from Rev. John Flierl a former pastor of this congregation, now a missionary in New Guinea. The Candle Light Circle sent several hundred yards of rolled bandages and personal gifts. They certainly were appreciated. The ladies voted to roll bandages again for the missionary medical cause in New Guinea and send to Rev. Flierl.

Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Delicious refreshments of cake, cookies, sandwiches and hot coffee were served to Mmes. A. D. Schafner, Mae Howard, Ben Quebe, Ben Brandes, Leo Boedeker, Ted Boedeker, Wilfred Stoerner, Hubert Stoerner, H. L. Anderson and Rev. Anderson. The March meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Mae Howard, at the church.

Pastor H. L. Anderson Honored On Tenth Anniversary Of His Ordination

Pastor H. L. Anderson of Trinity Lutheran Church, was honored by his wife on the tenth year of his ordination into the ministry. A formal dinner was held in the lovely new parsonage at Trinity church. A center piece of yellow spring flowers centered the tables. Place cards made of miniature churches marked each guest's place. Guests were the church council and their families. Mrs. Anderson gave a sketch "This is your life," depicting the serious and the more humorous sides of a pastor's life. Rev. Anderson was ordained ten years ago at Immanuel Lutheran Church at Taylor, Texas. He attended Texas Lutheran College and graduated there after which he entered the seminary at Columbus, Ohio. He was installed St. Paul's Lutheran Church Mission, Texas, where he served in that Mission congregation about two years. He then accepted a call to Trinity Lutheran Church at Providence. Since he has been here a new church has been built, a new modern parsonage constructed, and a complete outdoor playground has been built. These are all milestones in the active life of our Pastor Anderson. The church council presented Pastor Anderson with a cash gift. The presentation was made by Wilfred Stoerner.

The following guests enjoyed a delicious dinner: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brandes, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scheele, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Boedeker, Mr. and Mrs. Helmut Quebe, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Stoerner, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stoerner, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sammann, David Anderson, Stephen Anderson, David Scheele, Diana Scheele, Lyndia Scheele, Beckie Scheele, Glen Quebe, Glenda Quebe, Myra Sue Quebe, Cynthia Ann Stoerner, Wayne Stoerner, Larry Stoerner, Charles Clifton Sammann, Alfred Sammann, Larry Boedeker, and Merlin Boedeker.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the cards, flowers and every expression of love extended to us during Mrs. Bob Dillard's stay in the hospital and at the death of their infant baby. We shall always remember your thoughtfulness and kindness.

A PRAYER FOR EVERYONE

Before you say your prayers, there's something I want to tell you. Tonight, I want you to ask God to bless everyone in the whole wide world.

On World Day of Prayer children in every corner of the globe, grown-ups too, will pray that God will make this world a better place.

Remember last summer at camp when you called out at the edge of that cliff and your echo came answering back? Well, imagine all the people in the world calling out at once in prayer. Imagine how big the echo would be, and how much it would please God to hear it.

You are lucky children, because you live here in America, because you have your Church and the right to attend it. So tonight, thank God for things like that, darlings, even if you don't entirely understand them. And when you've finished ... ask Him to bless everyone.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

School Turn-Out Is Explained

Since several have asked questions as to why we dismissed school on certain days an explanation might be in order. Some of those days, of course, were not so bad except in rural areas where our buses had to run.

In the first place the weather on at least two of the five days we were out was almost the opposite to the advance reports we had gotten over radio and television. Of course, that is typical of our West Texas weather, but since we do have to plan some in advance such circumstances make us look bad at times.

However, the most important reason for our decisions concerns our daily attendance. Many of you perhaps do not know that the average daily attendance determines the number of teachers which the school board may employ for the next year. The last three days we had school before finally turning out for the week we had an average of over two hundred absentees each day. This we could not stand if we expected to retain our present number of teachers.

As we see the situation now it is going to be very difficult for us to hold our present number of teachers. This can be done only by the combined effort of everyone who has children in school. Every day that a child is physically able to be in school a parent should send him, if at all possible. Beside helping the child on that day, you may enhance his opportunity for the coming year. Remember that nothing hurts us quite so much as the loss of a teacher. We do not have as many as we need now. The loss of another one would be harmful to our program. The greatest contribution you can make to your school is to send your child each day that he is physically able to be here. These things we thought many of you would like to know. Your cooperation will be sincerely appreciated.

287 In Floyd Get Public Welfare Funds In 1955

In Floyd County last year Old Age Assistance was being paid to 287 persons, aid to dependent children to 15 families with 50 children and aid to the blind funds to two families, and family welfare service to 11 families.

Total expended in Floyd County for all assistance to aged persons, for aid to dependent children and aid to the blind was $166,051.50. Of this amount the aged group was paid $149,199.00, dependent children $13,123.50 and the blind $3,129.00.

In Texas for the year ended August 31, latest figures available, the total spent for old-age assistance, aid to the blind and aid to dependent children was $122,787,214.37 of which the state paid 29 per cent or $36,102,098.15, the federal government paying the remaining $86,685,116.22.

The recently released annual report of the Public Welfare Department of Texas indicates that the administrative costs in this state continues to range among the lowest in the nation.

The average cost for administering the Old-Age Assistance program in the United States is $3.08 per case per month, whereas in Texas the average cost is $1.31 per old-age assistance case per month.

One state, West Virginia, has a lower cost rate, with $1.25 per case per month. In New York, the highest, the cost per case per month is $9.45, in New Jersey $8.14, and Connecticut $5.69.

In Texas the Aid to Dependent Children cost per case per month is $4.38 compared with a national average of $8.72. In this respect the state ranks 40th among the states.

The cost per aid to the blind recipient was also less than the national average, $2.87 as compared to $4.51.

Assistance Average Low
As regards assistance to the aged, Texas ranks 38th in the nation. The average Old Age Assistance payment was $50 or more in 28 states. In Texas the average was $39.10. In this respect Colorado leads the states with $85.10.

The average aid to the blind payment in Texas is $44.12. The national average is $57.41. Texas ranks 37th among the states.

As to aid to dependent children families in Texas has an average payment of $56.39. The national average is $86.78. Wisconsin leads in this respect paying $136.74 per family. Texas ranks 43rd.

Land Leveling Is On Increase

Land leveling continues in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. Farmers who are doing leveling or have leveling planned are: Ray Ashton, Carl Daniel, H. F. Pratt, Ralph J. Thayer, Ned Bradley, Taylor and Fortenberry, Duncan Hollums, Malvin A. Jarboe, Tate Jones, W. S. Poole, Dorris Jones and Claude Ring.

In recent years the volume of land leveling in Floyd County has more than doubled. This is true of the irrigated districts around Floyd County also. The increased work load and the limited number of soil conservation personnel have caused some farmers and contractors to be held up while waiting for soil conservation service technicians to plan and design systems, stake, survey and calculate cuts and fills.

Keeping the old time-consuming procedures in mind, a new procedure was developed which would free technicians to assist more farmers and would not hold up contractors.

The new procedures for field leveling developed have the following steps with the person who is to do each indicated in parenthesis:

1. Plan and design system—(SCS and Farmer)
2. Prepare land—(Farmer)
3. Set grid stakes. Two rows on two sides—(Contractor or Farmer); Balance of stakes—(Farmer and/or Contractor)
4. Level survey—(Farmer and/or Contractor)
5. Prepare cut and fill work sheet—(SCS)
6. Mark stakes—(Contractor or Farmer)
7. Progress check—(Contractor or Farmer)
8. Float land—(Farmer)
9. Check elevation on all stakes and submit notes to SCS—(Contractor)
10. Final check—(SCS)

These procedures seem to be working satisfactorily from soil conservation services', contractors' and farmers' standpoints.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assigned to the Floyd County Soil Conservation District will be available to assist contractors or farmers who have trouble in carrying out any of the steps of the new procedure.

It is the desire of the Board of Supervisors for Floyd County that all leveling be accomplished by using the procedures.
