WHITE AND COLORED SCHOOLS WILL BE SEPARATE THIS YEAR

White and colored students will not go to school together for the coming year at least in the Lockney School District. That was made clear Tuesday night by Supt. H. H. Nicholas when he stated that the board had received a letter from one of the colored school teachers, Pearlene Grayson, stating that she would not release the board from the 1956-1957 contract unless they paid her the stipulated salary in full.

The school board took their recent action of integrating the schools upon the condition that both teachers of the colored school release them from contracts already signed for the coming year. The letter was received from the colored teacher Monday of this week. She is spending the summer at Greeley, Colo., where she is attending school. Mr. Nicholas said that her refusal to release the board from the contract "automatically puts things back where they were."

Nicholas was speaking to some 225 patrons of the local school gathered at the high school auditorium to ask the school board to rescind their integration order and allow the schools to continue on separate basis. The meeting was advertised as one seeking a "better solution" to the colored school problem and had attracted considerable interest in the community.

The meeting was well organized and went off smoothly and quietly. The group heard two major talks and several committee reports, adopted three resolutions and adjourned shortly before 10 o'clock. The resolutions adopted included one asking the board to rescind its action in ordering the schools integrated, another asking the school board to move the present school building to a more desirable location, improve and add to it whatever is necessary to provide adequate facilities and the third suggested that public funds be raised to provide improvements if the school district is unable to do so without depleting its funds. All were adopted.

The committee reports included one from the public opinion survey committee, presented by Mrs. Jimmy Hodel, in which she reported that 518 names had been signed to the petition asking for the meeting and suggesting a "better solution" to the problem be worked out. Of those contacted she said that 20% were opposed to integration but wouldn't sign the petition, 6% were definitely for integration, and 7% did not have an opinion on the matter. She said that 33 had been contacted and all indicated that they favored separate schools for white and colored students. She further stated that the 518 names on the petition represented 450 homes in the community.

The building and grounds committee report was presented by Fred Huggins in the absence of the chairman, J. H. Cooper. Huggins said that he and Cooper found 1 1/2 acres of land in southeast Lockney which could be purchased for $750.00. They estimated that moving the building and laying a new foundation would cost $800, a 20x20 addition to the building would cost $2500 and other repairs would run $750.00 for a total of $4800. They suggested the possibility of another building being secured at less cost than the above.

The resolutions committee report was presented by W. P. Kernickie. Dr. A. E. Hewitt, local chiropractor, was chairman of the meeting and the invocation was given by Rev. H. B. Coggin, local Methodist pastor. Minutes of the previous meeting of the committee were read by John Bickley, secretary, the minutes explaining the background action of the committee and the names of the members of the various sub-committees.

Hollis Harris then introduced Rev. Coggin who spoke to the group on the matter. Coggin stated that he was reluctant to speak on such an occasion and did so only with the hope that his speech would bring mutual understanding. He said that it was his personal opinion that neither the board nor the people of the district favored integration.

This honor entitles them to compete with winners of the other area conventions at the state meet. Bruce Lynn is in the run off of a national beef judging contest having placed a class of Hereford heifers correctly sponsored by the Farm and Ranch Publishing Company. The Lockney FFA Chapter participated in the contest in April and Bruce has been notified that he placed the animals right. The winner of the contest will receive a registered Hereford heifer.

Interest Picks Up In First Primary

Election Board Will Be Up For Election Returns

All election judges in this part of the county are urged to call or bring their returns to this location as soon as counting is completed. Likewise the people of the community are invited to attend the election party and see the results as they are posted.

Returns will probably start coming in around 7:30 or 8 o'clock but the big boxes are not expected until after 10 o'clock, if past experiences prove accurate. We are hoping to have all returns in by 11 o'clock but it could be later.

Fred Thornton Is Critically Ill

Fred Thornton is critically ill in Scott & White at Temple, Texas. He underwent an operation last Friday and relatives say that there are no hopes for his recovery. He has been in ill health since about the first of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Thornton are at Temple with him at this time.

Increasing interest in the first Democratic primary scheduled for Saturday of this week, July 28th, indicates that the vote may be larger than has previously been anticipated. Although apparent interest in the primary has been lacking until two weeks ago, it has picked up considerably since that time and now indications are that the vote may be somewhere near normal in Floyd County at least.

The county has 3341 qualified voters plus those who are over 65 and do not have to pay a poll tax, making the potential vote somewhere around 3600. However a total vote in the first primary of 3,000 or a little less will be up to the usual standards in this county. Total vote in the first primary two years ago was close to 2900.

County Clerk Margaret Collier reported 155 absentee votes cast up to Tuesday night compared with 196 the same time two years ago.

In Floyd county there are only six districts, county and precinct races which are contested. These are:

For Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, 7th Supreme Judicial District, Judge Alton B. Chapman of Floyd County is opposing the incumbent, Judge Herbert C. Martin of Lamb County. Since Judge Chapman lives in this county he is expected to poll a large vote here. How the race will go in other counties of the district is not known. Judge Chapman is now serving as judge of the 110th District Court, comprising Floyd, Briscoe, Motley and Dickens counties.

John B. Stapleton, district attorney of the 110th district, is opposed in his bid for re-election by H. A. C. Brummett, attorney of Floydada. Mr. Brummett is a former resident of Dickens County but has lived in Floydada for the past two years.

The county race which is drawing considerable interest is that for sheriff. Sheriff Earl Cooper is opposed for re-election by Walter Hollums, a former deputy sheriff under Cooper and more recently officer at Floydada.

The two county commissioner races who seek re-election this year both have opponents. In Precinct 1, Commissioner J. K. Holmes is opposed by John B. Fowler. In Precinct 3, Commissioner Carl Plumlee has two opponents. They are O. R. Beard and J. C. Ginn, both residents of the Cedar Hill area.

The other contested race in the county is that for the non-paying job of County Democratic Chairman. The incumbent, Ben P. Ayres of Floydada is opposed on the ballot by Edgar R. Hays of Lockney.

State Races Hot
Some of the races for state officers are rather warm. Of course most interest is being shown in the race for governor with six candidates on the ballot. Leaders in the race are thought to be Price Daniel of Liberty County and Ralph Yarborough of Travis county, but some are expecting the dark horse, W. Lee O'Daniel to run good with perhaps an outside chance to get into the run-off.

Others predict that J. Evetts Haley of Randall County will poll a big vote while Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba County is trying hard to get the attention of the voters. It is perhaps the least predictable race for governor the state has seen in many years.

For Lieutenant Governor the incumbent, Ben Ramsey of San Augustine county has three opponents. From West Texas, John Lee Smith of Lubbock is in the race. Others include A. M. Aiken Jr. of Lamar County, famous for his school legislation, and C. T. Johnson of Travis county.

Will Wilson of Dallas County apparently leads the race for attorney general of Texas. His opponents are Tom Moore of McLennan County, Ross Carlton of Dallas County and Curtis E. Hill of Dallas County. Mr. Wilson resigned as justice of the Supreme Court of Texas to make the race.

Running for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, place 3, are James R. Norvell of Bexar County and Robert

G. Hughes of Tom Green County.

For Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, are W. A. Morrison of Milam County and Jesse Owens of Wilbarger County.

For State Treasurer the incumbent Jesse James of Travis County is opposed by Warren G. Harding of Dallas County.

For Commissioner of the General Land Office candidates are Ned Price of Smith County and Earl Rudder of McCulloch County. Some local veterans are backing Rudder's candidacy.

Issues Create Interest
The three issues on the ballot are creating a lot of discussion and interest among voters. The issues were placed on the ballot after petitions signed by around 150,000 voters in Texas were presented to the State Democratic Committee asking that they be put on the primary ballot.

The issues require that the voter vote for or against the following:

1. Specific legislation exempting any child from compulsory attendance at integrated schools attended by white persons and negroes.
2. Specific legislation perfecting state laws against intermarriage between white persons and negroes.
3. The use of interposition to halt illegal Federal encroachment.

Those advocating the approval of the issues caution voters that they should vote "for" all these issues in order that they be approved.

H. P. Puckett Dies Saturday

Henry Pauldon Puckett, 87, a resident of Floyd County since 1919, passed away of a heart attack Saturday, July 21 at 10 a. m. in Lockney General Hospital. He had been ill about ten days. Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church Monday, July 23 at 10 a. m. Rev. R. E. Wiley officiated.

Ben June 26, 1869 in Corinth, Mississippi, Mr. Puckett was married to Miss Malindy Frances Purr in Corinth in 1889. Three sons and six daughters were born to this union. One daughter, Lannora Elizabeth Puckett passed away in 1900 and a son, James Anderson Puckett passed away in 1940.

Mr. Puckett moved with his family to McCoy community, Floyd County in 1919 and to Lockney in 1940. He was engaged in farming until his retirement several years ago. The deceased was a member of the First Baptist Church where he served as a deacon. Mr. Puckett was interested in civic affairs and was particularly active in county affairs.

Mrs. Puckett preceded her husband in death April 10, 1950. Survivors include Hayden Puckett, Sweetwater, Texas; Jeff Puckett, Midland, Texas; Miss Beulah Puckett, Lockney; Mrs. B. W. Himphill, Longview; Mrs. J. G. Kropp, Flagstaff, Arizona; Mrs. Corine Vest, Brownfield, Texas; Mrs. S. W. Ewing, Orange, Texas, all of whom were present for funeral services. One sister, Mrs. Clemmie Edmonson, of Twin Falls, Idaho, seven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren also survive.

Pall bearers were O. V. Pyant, Dwight Jackson, Son Jackson, R. L. Knox, Olan Pottef, Alton May, Oliver Holmes and Guy Jackson.

Interment was in Lockney cemetery. Out-of-town relatives attending the last rites included several grandchildren: Mrs. R. Gacy, and Earl Kropp of Flagstaff, Arizona, Harlan Puckett, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kinnard, Houston.

Minute Editorials

Let no man deceive you with vain words, for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. — Ephesians 5:6.

INTEREST IN POLITICS is at its peak this week with the first Democratic primary coming off Saturday. It is a time of decision for voters and it is important that those who are qualified to vote exercise that privilege. Inefficient, negligent citizens allow government to become corrupt and to lose its effectiveness. We urge you to go to the polls and vote Saturday.

THERE HAS BEEN so many wild charges and loud speeches made in the governor's race that it is easy to become confused about the real issues. With six different candidates in the race and half of them making irresponsible and untrue charges about the other half, it is doubtful if voters believe that there is a man in the race who is qualified to hold the office. But there are several things voters can determine for themselves and remember.

THE FIRST THING we would point out is that a vote for Price Daniel is a vote for a statesman who has proven his ability, his honesty and his fairness in past performances. Mr. Daniel has been accused of just about everything under the sun but no one has offered any proof of the wild charges. Meanwhile, in keeping with his pledge to run a clean race, Daniel has not sought to besmirch the character of his opponents nor to revile or browbeat them in any manner. It is refreshing to see that a man can conduct a political race in Texas in such a manner. Very few state races in the past have been on such a high plane. Since Mr. Daniel has proven his cleanliness and his character in the conduct of this race, he deserves the vote of Texans.

MR. DANIEL has been charged with being negligent while a member of the veterans land board, of voting for Benson's sliding scale and with being a stooge of Shivers. Any sincere voter can determine for himself whether or not these charges are true by doing a little investigating. This writer has in his files letters from Ted Connell of Killen, immediate past commander of the VFW, from Paul Spillman, chairman of the veterans land board committee of the American Legion of Texas, and from Kenneth Towery, managing editor of the Cuero Daily Record, who broke the story of the veterans land board scandals, all stating positively that Price Daniel was in no way responsible for the land scandals, and in fact was the first person to object to the promotional-type block deals in the veterans land program.

REGARDING the sliding scale vote, the records show that Mr. Daniel voted in favor of an amendment increasing the minimum from 80% to 82.5% of parity after it appeared certain that the sliding scale proposal would pass, thus trying to assure the farmer of as high supports as possible but he voted against the main bill containing the sliding scale price supports. Yet some opponents would try to mislead the voters into thinking the Senator favored the sliding scale law. The absurdity of both charges show that Daniel's opponents are grabbing at a straw in order to find something to smear his name.

JUST AS ABSURD is the charge that Daniel is stooge of Shivers. Daniel announced his candidacy before Shivers had ever announced his intentions and said at the time that what any one else did in the race would not affect his political plans. We do not believe that Mr. Daniel takes orders from anyone.

MR. DANIEL has proven his worth to the farmers of Texas by his fine record in the Senate. Though he has been in the Senate only a few years, yet he has accomplished much more for the benefit of his constituents than many members of that august body who have been there three or four times as long. Especially, it seems to us, the farmers of the West Texas region ought to support Price Daniel because of his very effective work in gaining higher support prices for grain sorghums.

TEN FORMER presidents of

THE AMERICAN WAY

Investigationitis

The Texas State Teachers Association have publicly endorsed Price Daniel for governor at the same time praising his "long and faithful support of the public schools and the teaching profession." We believe the records will show that Price Daniel is by far the best qualified man in the race for governor. We hope the voters will consider that fact at the polls next Saturday.

ALL VOTERS should read the article elsewhere in this issue of The Beacon concerning voting. Care should be used to mark your ballots correctly because, if your ballot is not marked correctly, it may be that your vote won't be counted or possibly may be counted opposite to what you intend to vote for. Read the article carefully and then vote carefully.

REGARDING the three issues on the ballot, the Texas Referendum Committee has pointed out that those who are opposed to mixed schools, mixed marriages and illegal Federal interference should vote "FOR" all three propositions. The proposition is asking if you favor additional legislation regarding the matters and those opposing the mixing of the races should vote for the additional legislation if they want to express their sentiments as opposed to mixed schools, marriages, etc.

THE GOLDEN AGE of parenthood is when the children are too old for baby sitters but too young to drive the car.

JUSTICE. Did you ever notice how things sort of even up? For every woman that makes a fool out of a man there seems to be one that makes a man out of a fool.—News, Russell, Kan.

wet areas are voted dry, and dry areas voted wet, school bond elections are called and names are placed on ballots. It is a violation of a man's civil rights to refuse him the right of petition. We have even heard of petitions being thrown into the wastebasket. That is the way dictators are born. All indications may be on the contrary, but even the white people in these United States have civil rights.

The right of petition is guaranteed in Amendment 9 of our United States Constitution, which is a part of the Bill of Rights. — Sticking Our Neck Out in Happy Herald.

ABOUT ONE IN TWENTY What is the percentage of persons who keep going the wheels of a community, a church, a club, or any other organization? Some say 10 per cent. Perhaps some figure between one and five per cent is more nearly accurate.

Where as many as three persons are involved in an undertaking, whatever it may be, we see a consistent pattern. A small minority makes the decisions, does the work. Meanwhile the vast majority sits on the sideline, heckles and criticizes those in the game. If a meeting is called, the majority stays at home. The minority must make decisions, plan the course of action. Then the side liners get together over the back fence or at the spit and whistle club and point out all the mistakes that the leaders made. What little information they may have is usually inadequate or erroneous. Yet they know exactly how the job should have been done.

Who is it that invariably criticizes projects such as the picnic celebration? Is it the chairman from past years? Is it other community leaders? It is not! The criticism comes from those persons who have never contributed one thing to the celebration of the past except their appetites.

The five per cent give of their time, labor and resources, take the criticism, false reports, and cussing of the do-nothing 95 per cent. It takes a lot of guts to accept responsibility in the face of these odds—but about one out of 20 will.

That's why we have our picnic celebrations, our paving projects, our parks, our county fairs, and other worthwhile activities. — Tulsa Herald.

HOLD TIGHT!

Ever find yourself caught out in the middle of a storm with your umbrella blowing itself inside out?

There you are, clinging like mad to that frail bit of cloth and metal... and you realize that if the wind gets one whit stronger your "protection" is going to blow right out of your hands.

Fortunately, it doesn't hurt to get wet, so losing your umbrella wouldn't be much of a tragedy. But when you're caught in one of the other types of storms life deals out... a storm that buffets at your inner sense of security... or your idea of right or wrong... a storm that tries to undermine your marriage, or your career... or a storm of sickness or strife... then it's a very different matter.

How fortunate that in those more difficult moments you don't have to rely upon something as flimsy as an umbrella. How fortunate that you can turn to the Church and find in it solace, protection, courage, and the faith to keep going. You will find that the Church is a shelter that will always protect you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Proper Storage And Motor Adjustments Cut Tractor Fuel

College Station. — Savings of 10 percent or more in fuel bills can be made by most farm tractor operators if they give attention to proper fuel storage and fuel system adjustments, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer.

Evaporation during the hot summer months takes a toll of fuel in storage. Partially filled tanks exposed to the sun may lose three to four percent of their contents within a month. Shaded tanks lose one percent or less. Over a period of three months unshaded tanks may lose up to 15 percent but those in the shade only 6 percent.

Painting storage tanks with aluminum or white paint will aid in cutting evaporation losses, says the engineer, because the light colors reflect the sunlight. Too, he adds, a small storage period and the losses from evaporation which climb with long storage.

The farm tractor which is serviced regularly and kept in top operating condition is also the most economical to operate from the standpoint of fuel consumption, says Ulich. He recommends a daily check of the air cleaner, all hose and fuel line connections and carburetor. Most of this checking can be done at a glance but in case a difference is noted in the amount of fuel consumed, then, he says, it's time to make a more detailed inspection for locating the trouble.

It must be remembered, points out Ulich, that approximately 40 percent of the operating costs of a farm tractor goes for fuel. If this bill can be cut by 10 percent or more, the difference will help cut the cost of producing a crop and take a little slack out of the price-cost squeeze.

Proper Marking Of Ballot Is Very Important

County Democratic Chairman Ben P. Ayres of Floydada urged this week that voters of the county use care in marking their ballots in the Democratic primaries, so that the ballot will be easy for the election officials to tabulate and also to make sure that it is counted as the voter would have it to be counted.

Following is the statement released by Mr. Ayres:

Under the new Election Code, a voter, in marking his ballot, may use either the old method of striking or marking out the names of all candidates in each race except the name of the candidate he wants to vote for, or he may use the new method of placing an "X" or other mark in the square beside the name of the candidate in each race for whom he wants to vote, leaving all other squares in such race blank. However, he should not combine the two methods in marking his ballot, for by doing so he makes it difficult for the election judge to determine how he intended to vote, and slows down the counting of votes.

If you use the old method of marking your ballot by striking or marking out names, you should leave on the ballot only the names of the candidates you want to vote for, striking or marking out all others.

If you use the new method of marking your ballot by placing an "X" or other mark in the squares beside the names of the candidates, you should place an "X" or other mark in the square beside the name of each and every candidate you want to vote for, including any unopposed candidates you want to vote for. If you are using the new method, you cannot vote for any unopposed candidate merely by leaving his name on the ballot as under the old method you must place an "X" or other mark in the square beside his or her name.

Whichever method of marking your ballot you use, mark your ballot carefully, clearly and completely; there is no point in voting if your ballot is miscounted, or thrown out altogether due to poor marking. The job of an election judge or clerk is thankless and poorly paid at best—don't make it any tougher by careless voting. Finally, do not strike the party pledge from your ballot; the law requires such pledge, and directs that no ballot be counted without it.

Oil Test Slated For Floyd County

Floydada— Almost $40,000 was spent last week for oil leases in east Floyd County, and the Standard Oil Company of Texas will start another drilling test in the Lakeview community this week. The site has been cleared for the Adams No. 2 to be 1 1/2 miles southwest of the Adams No. 1, on Survey No. 32, P. D. Adams.

The Adams Brothers said arrangements have been made with the Markham Drilling Company to use water from their irrigation wells for the drilling. The rigs were due to move in Monday with a deadline of Friday week. Estimated cost to probe to 7,000 or 8,000 feet is $125,000.

The new oil test will be located about four miles east and four miles south of Floydada.

Urge Farmers To Attend Institute

The Farm Bureau board of directors, in their meeting Thursday night, passed a resolution urging members and especially officers to attend the Farmer's Institute in Mineral Wells on July 29, 30, 31, and August 1st. Sessions will be held in the Baker Hotel.

Courses to be offered include History and Philosophy of Farm Bureau, Procedure and Policy Development, Parliamentary Procedure, Recreation, etc.

Labor Will Destroy Right-To-Work Law, Daniel Points Out

Hillsboro. — Senator Price Daniel declared today that if Texas' Right to Work law is destroyed, it will be a serious blow to the basic freedoms that have built our nation.

Daniel, campaigning for Governor with appearances in Hillsboro, Ennis, Waxahachie, Cleburne, Glen Rose, Stephenville and Hamilton said, "I do not favor punitive laws against labor anymore than I favor punitive laws against business, industry or any other segment of our society."

The question is simply this: Shall a man be forced to join a union before he can hold a job? I do not believe that the right of a man to earn a living for his family should be based on membership or non-membership in a union.

No one should be forced to make up his own mind and chart his own course without dictation from anybody. The main reason paid labor bosses want to seize control of Texas through their choice for governor is to repeal our State Right to Work laws. The same labor convention that heard only one candidate for governor and then collected money for his campaign, listed repeal of the Right to Work laws as its prime objective."

"Altering of registration certificates, or the carrying of certificates by unauthorized persons is subject to the same punishment," Colonel Schwartz said.

He pointed to the recent case of a youth in Houston who received a 10-month sentence from a federal judge upon conviction of having registration certificates printed for the purpose of selling them to youths under 18.

Some boys under 18 want the certificates, as it helps them to buy beer at public taverns.

Texas School Lunch Funds Are Up 22%

College Station—Texas public schools will get about 22 percent more funds from the U. S. Department than last year to serve noonday meals under the National School Lunch Program.

The increase of $833,453 brings the total to $4,686,808 for the coming school year.

This announcement was received today by Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, Texas Educational Agency.

First quarter allocation of this money will be made to Texas this month, according to John J. Slaughter, chief, southwest food distribution division, Dallas.

This office of the Agricultural Marketing Service deals with the states in this region on the National School Lunch Program.

Slaughter explained that the 22 percent increase in the Texas allotment was the result of an increase of $16,700,000 over last year's appropriation by Congress.

Mr. Coggin warned against personal criticism of anyone because of difference of opinion and urged that every man allow his neighbor to have his own opinion.

The speaker then reviewed history telling of the first coming of the Negro to this continent, and stated that although it was sinful thing some good has come to the Negro because he is much better off than his brothers who remain in Africa. He reviewed the progress of the Negro race, their growth and educational advancement.

Mr. Coggin stated that in his opinion integration is not inevitable since the matter is very unsettled in Washington as well as in Lockney. He cited the recent Federal aid to education bill and how it was killed because of the segregation rider. He stated that Congress alone has authority to force integration and that he did not believe the Congress was ready to force the issue in face of opposition by a great majority of both races. He suggested that forced integration would bring problems very difficult to solve.

He also stated that no right thinking person would expect the colored school to be continued in its present building and urged that adequate provisions be made for the school. He pointed out that the school board had asked for suggestions and received little response. He suggested that they probably considered many points which the patron does not know about or understand. One of these, he said, was probably the economic situation. Mr. Coggin stated that in his opinion and from his observation expenditures in this community do not indicate an inability to provide adequate school facilities.

He pointed out that Negro students generally are retarded because we expect two teachers to teach all grades in the school, which is virtually impossible to do. He said that the Negro school needed more teachers as well as better equipment.

He said that integration, when it comes, won't stop with schools but will be extended to the swimming pools, social activities and in some cases even intermarriage. Experience has proven this trend, he said.

Rev. Coggin said that he had been quoted as saying he could prove by the Bible that integration is not right. He said that he had never said this and stated that the Bible does not tell man what to do in such a case but he pointed out that nature itself proves that God likes variety in fruits, in animals and likewise intended that there be different races else there wouldn't be.

He stated that the only organization of any size contending for integration is the NAACP, and that these initials, commonly standing for National Association for the Advancement of Colored People could very well stand for National Association for Advancement of Communist Propaganda.

He urged that people stand for and defend states rights and the right of the people to make their own decisions in such matters as this. He pointed out that the Supreme Court had reversed itself time and again, and it might do so again.

He urged that the opinion of both races be considered and the people of the community be free hearted to provide the money for proper school facilities.

Dr. Hewitt's opening statement was as follows:

"The purpose of this meeting is not in opposition to the local school board as such, nor in any way it is intended to be an undue criticism toward their recent action. We realize the school board has many problems which they have to face without the help of the citizens of the community, and we know they try to reach decisions which are beneficial to the community as a whole. However, we do believe there is a better solution to the education needs of our community rather than mixing the white and Negro children in our school rooms. We believe integration will not solve the problem but will create many more serious problems that incoming generations will not be able to properly solve.

"As a result of the decision of the School Board in regard to integration, there has been much discussion among the people of our community until finally it was decided to call a meeting of those interested in maintaining separate schools for white and Negro students. At the meeting of these people on Monday night, July 16, a committee was selected to work out a more desirable solution to this problem which would have the approval and support of the majority of the people of this school district. And we feel positive the school board will certainly want to follow the wishes of the majority of the people in this matter, and this meeting is the means we are using to let them know our wishes.

"Furthermore, it is not the desire of this committee that personal opinions cause hard feelings between the citizens of this community. In our nation anyone has the privilege of expressing an opinion in support of their personal convictions.

"I personally, respect the individual that will take a stand for what he believes although his opinion may be in opposition to mine, FAR MORE than I respect the individual that does not have the persistence and fortitude to voice his opinion and make a stand for what he believes because of possible reactions that may arise.

"As chairman of this committee, I solicit your patience, tolerance and co-operation in making this an orderly and fruitful meeting."

After the committee reports were heard and resolutions adopted, Robert Lee Smith, secretary of the board, suggested that Supt. Nicholas tell the group something of local school problems.

Mr. Nicholas stated that the board had acted as they thought the majority of the people wanted them to, stating that some people who had signed the petition had previously advised them that integration was the only solution. He said the board wanted to do more for the white school, citing the great need for equipment in the science department along with other departments of the high school, and that they could not spend a great deal of money on the negro school and the white school both.

He said that it was becoming more important all the time that school districts pay a bonus to teachers in order to retain them and that the board was trying to get the district finances in shape to do this.

He quoted the school district indebtedness at $371,795 and said that by the time the indebtedness was paid interest would increase the amount to well over $500,000. He told of the trend toward increase in scholastics and questioned how the district would provide for the increase.

He emphasized that the negro school needed more teachers in addition to better equipment and that the district is not able to provide the school with the teachers it will require to give them equal opportunity. He differed with Rev. Coggin in the matter of inevitable integration, saying that it was his opinion and that of the board that integration is coming whether we want it or not.

He stated that he and the school board had studied the program together and had arrived at their decisions together and were doing what they thought best for the school and community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cunningham; Nelda and Carolyn, and Cieta Willis spent last week vacationing in Antonita, Colo.

FRUITS FOR FREEZING MUST BE CHOSEN WITH CARE

Nearly all the fruits grown in the United States will freeze in a satisfactory manner, and you are provided an excellent opportunity for economical and for giving your family fresh fruit the year around.

Your public service company and its service department and the County Home Demonstration Agent can provide additional help with your plans to freeze fruit by advising you on the varieties which grow best in the area in which you live.

Remove Bruised Pieces
Remove the fruits you plan to freeze with utmost care. It keeps its flavor and texture best when it is picked at the height of its maturity, the sure that all bruised pieces are removed, and excesses are removed, and excesses are removed, and excesses are removed.

To Prevent Discoloring
Use small quantities of ascorbic acid, which is the fact that fruit will become soft and soggy, and when you are ready to eat your frozen fruits, you want them to look as bright as they did the moment they were picked.

Wash in Ice Water
Fruits that have stems or must be washed before the stems are removed to prevent the fruit from absorbing moisture. Remember, too, that it is good practice generally speaking, to lift the stems from berries and not squeeze them off.

Three Different Packs
Now we are ready for packing, and here is one of the real time saving elements in freezing. Most fruits can be cut or sliced directly into the carton which eliminates extra handling.

You can freeze fruits with three different packs—sugar dry or syrup. The dry or sugar pack, of course, keeps the real fresh fruit appearance and makes a dessert that is fit for a queen's taste.

The amount of sugar or syrup you use, is a matter of personal taste and help on these problems can be obtained from your Public Service home service adviser.

Keep A Year Or More
Most fruits will keep for a year or more in a freezer and still be as delicious as the day they were picked. Don't completely thaw the fruits before serving them, for frozen dessert fruits are best in taste and appearance when they are only partially thawed.

"Out of season" is an "out of date" expression. Food freezing makes it possible to have fresh fruit every day of the year.

ITALIAN-AMERICAN

Tell you what—why not get out grandmother's tureen and serve hearty soup to the crowd? Slice two small link sausages and brown in a saucepan directly over the top burner. Add one can each of condensed bean with bacon, beef noodle, and vegetable soups, plus two soup cans of cold water, bring to boil slowly over flame. This makes a popular version of the minestrone your friends who go abroad this summer will be writing home about.

SYRUP PACK — Here is one of three methods for packing fruit for storage in freezers. Pour sweetened syrup into the container so that it covers the fruit.

SUGAR PACK — This is another method for packing fruit for storage in freezers. Sprinkle the berries with sugar, mixing one part of sugar for four parts berries.

Formby Tells Of Interstate Hi'way System

The Interstate System of highways, so much in the current news today, is a special 41,000-mile road system selected by the Federal Government and approved by Congress in 1945. Highway Commissioner Marshall Formby of Plainview explained today.

Formby said that he has been flooded with questions from people asking the difference between the Interstate System and the regular primary or trunk system of highways. He said that many people thought that any US highway that traversed several states was an interstate route. While that may be the true meaning of the word "interstate," he said it is not the meaning that the Federal Government and Congress applied to the Interstate Road System.

The 41,000-mile system was selected as one that connects 90 per cent of the cities of the United States with a population of 50,000 or more, it is a system of roads that is designed for military purposes in case an emergency should arise. It is to carry traffic from border to border and coast to coast. The total number of miles on the system is set by Congress and can only be changed by Congress.

Texas has 2,900 miles of the Interstate System and right now Formby said he sees no hope of additional miles being given to Texas. "There are more than 22,000 miles of primary routes in Texas that are not on the Interstate System, and he people should not think these roads will be forgotten," Formby said. "We are going to build an adequate highway system for 'all Texas.'" As a matter of fact, some of the primary routes will be built to the same high standard as the Interstate System."

Formby said the Interstate System would be built to the highest standards possible with 300 feet of right-of-way required in most places, no left-hand turns allowed and with overpasses at intersections. With the Federal Government putting up 90 per cent of the money for these Interstate routes, he said the Federal people will make every effort to control the exact location of the road. It is feared that some of the smaller towns will be by-passed by the Interstate.

The Interstate routes that were selected in Texas are generally described as follows:

SUCCESSFUL MEAT FREEZING DEPENDS ON PACKAGING

The opportunities for savings which are always present when you have a home freezer, are at their best when you freeze quality meats which were purchased at good prices.

Successful freezing of meat depends in a very large measure upon proper packaging. Meat that is properly wrapped and sealed comes out of your freezer appetizingly red, juicy and full flavored. But meat that is not properly packaged comes out cocoa-colored, dried-out, and sometimes with rancid fat.

No Super-Tricks

There are no super-tricks to preparing meats for the freezer. The best guide to keep in mind is to have a normal serving for your family in each package. Roasts and other large cuts should be normally of the size that is ordinarily cooked and placed on the table. Steaks and chops should be cut to the thickness that the family prefers. Individual chops, steaks, meat patties, etc., should be separated by two pieces of moisture-vapor-proof material between each portion.

The moisture-vapor-proof material that you use to package meats should be impervious to grease, adhere tightly to the surface of the meat, and be designed to protect frozen meat from drying, and from loss or exchange of flavor.

Seal Packages Tightly

All meat packages must be sealed tightly to prevent moisture-vapor loss and infiltration of oxygen from the air. Use the "drug store" wrap, folding the edges of the packing material over several times. This fold-over method expels the air and holds the wrapping tightly in place. Ends of packages should be folded over and either heat-sealed or held securely in place with freezer tape.

If you plan to keep meat in your freezer for more than three months, each package should be over-wrapped with stockinette, or other outer wrapping to protect the inner wrapping from puncturing or tearing.

Trim Before Freezing

All trimming of meat that would ordinarily be done before cooking should be done before freezing. Boning is also a good practice in most cases for removal of bones eliminates puncturing of wrappers during storage. Boned meat often requires less storage space. If bones are left, place pad of paper over sharp edges before packaging.

Beef, lamb and veal will all keep for at least one year in a home freezer, while good quality pork will keep for at least six months.

Will Keep Three Months

Properly packaged ground beef will keep for three months. Be sure to package it so that it will not be necessary to thaw more than you will use at one time.

Meat can either be cooked from the frozen state or thawed before cooking.

If meat is allowed to thaw completely before cooking, there will be less loss of juice and flavor and meat will be more uniformly cooked. Thawed meat can be handled just like fresh meat, except that it shouldn't be held for any great length of time after it has been thawed. Frozen meat that has been thawed completely may be cooked for the same length of time and at the same temperature as the corresponding fresh cuts.

Thawing Slowly Better

To obtain best results, meat should be thawed slowly in the original wrapping in which it was frozen, preferably on a shelf in the refrigerator. The slower the thawing, the less loss of meat juices.

When you cook from the frozen state, you must provide a longer cooking time at a constant low temperature to obtain best results. A "rule of thumb" for cooking frozen meats is to add 50 percent more cooking time than the cut would take if it were not frozen.

The use of a meat thermometer is especially helpful when cooking heavier cuts of meats that have been thawed. Meat should be cooked to the internal temperature indicated on the thermometer according to the type of meat being roasted and the degree of doneness desired.

ON PACKAGING MEATS

Every steak, chop, or meat patty will keep its individuality if two pieces of waxed paper or freezer wrap are placed between meat cuts when packaging for the freezer. Just the amount you wish to use may be removed and the pieces quickly defrosted or cooked from the state. (See second picture, top right). At pad of moisture-vapor proof wrapping paper placed against bony areas of some cuts of meat protect against puncturing of freezer wrap, keeping meat free from freezer burn.

Wilson - Williams Wedding Vows Read Saturday

Wedding vows were repeated Saturday night, June 21, at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church by Miss Jonell Wilson and Dean Williams. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilson of Lockney and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams of Lubbock. Rev. R. E. Wiley, pastor, officiated at the impressive double-ring ceremony performed before an arch decorated with fern, centered with silver wedding bells and tied with a pink satin bow. Tall baskets of white gladioli, palm trees and cathedral candelabra flanked the arch. Palm trees and candelabra also formed a background for the altar scene. Pink satin bows, marked the pews.

Janece Hays, organist, played the musical prelude and traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied her mother, Mrs. Edgar Hays, who sang "I Love You Truly," "Always and The Lord's Prayer." Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in a dress of nylon net and lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a front closing accented with tiny self buttons from neck to waistline, and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full gathered skirt of nylon net was covered with rows of ruffles. Her elbow-length veil of tulle fell from a coronet of white velvet flecked with rhinestones. She carried a white Bible which was topped with a pink feathered carnation bouquet showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Charlotte Ragle, maid of honor, wore a pastel pink gown of net and taffeta designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Bridesmaids, Barbara Wilson, sister of the bride, and Glenda Ford wore frocks of a pastel blue fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor. They all carried bouquets of feathered pink carnations nestled in satin and net flecked with silver. Candelights were Wayne Wilson, the bride's brother, and Danny Bowman. Serving the groom as best man was Bryan McColloch, Lockney. Ushers were Jimmy Scott and Harold Calloway. Mrs. Wilson, mother of the bride, wore a navy linen dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Williams, also wore navy with white accessories. Their corsages were white carnations. A reception was held immediately following in Fellowship Hall. The serving table was laid with a white linen cutwork cloth. Centering the table was a three-tiered wedding cake decorated in the bride's chosen colors, white and pink. Accenting each layer were clusters of wedding bells centered with pink rosebuds. Also adorning the cake were lattice-work hearts, net and confection butterflies and a miniature bride and groom. The attendants bouquets completed the table decor. Those assisting with the reception were the bride's attendants and Misses Lahoma Rowell, Henry Rowell, B. B. Vernon, Sid Thomas, Edgar Hays, Hilburn Casey and Harmon Handley. The bride chose as her going away attire a navy tweed suit with pink accessories. The bride is a 1955 graduate of Lockney. She attended Lipbert's Business College in Plainview before being employed by Cagle Insurance there. The groom graduated from Plainview High School and attended Draughn's in Lubbock. He has since been employed by the Lubbock Trucking Company and will continue his work there. The couple will be at home in Lubbock upon their return from a honeymoon to points unknown.

CHOCOLATE CREAM PIE
Everyone loves chocolate pie, especially the men, so why not make one just for Dad? Use chocolate pudding and pie filling mix for filling, cover with whipped cream and finely shaved unsweetened chocolate. Repose in a chocolate coconut pastry shell that has been already baked in the oven of your range and cooled. The result is delicious.

MIRRORED BOTTOMS
Instead of washing aluminum pots and pans in the same soap or detergent suds used for washing dishes, start with a fresh batch of hot suds. A home economics expert explains that any invisible film of grease left on an aluminum pan causes the bottom surface to burn or discolor excessively when it's used again.

ARE YOU A DIAL CHANGER?
It's common sense to sort the laundry and separate it into three piles: hand washable, white and colored. White wash responds best to very hot water; in fact it is recommended that you push the temperature control of your automatic gas water heater up to the top for 160 or 180-degree water. On the other hand, fast-colored cottons, linens and nylons do better if washed in 110-degree water so it is best to wash them separately. As for rayons, luke-warm water (100 degrees) is best, white silks and woolens require about the same temperature—95 to 100 degrees.

Corn on the cob freezes satisfactorily. However, it takes up more space and there is a greater loss of flavor when it is not cut from the cob.

Dr. Harold Loden, head of Paymaster Farm, Aiken, has announced the addition to his staff of Mr. M. D. Lacy, who has assumed the position of Agronomist in charge of grain production.

"Mr. Lacy is a man of wide experience in the field of certified seed production, having been associated with commercial seed organizations and the Texas Department of Agriculture for a number of years," Dr. Loden said. In addition to Mr. Lacy, Mr. Carlton A. Robinson, Jr., has also joined the staff as Assistant Agronomist. Both of these additions, Dr. Loden stated, are a part of Paymaster Farm's intensive program toward the development of new hybrid grain sorghums especially adapted to the Plains area.

Hay Growers And Dairymen Work Out Market Plan

College Station — Through the offices of the county agricultural agents of Hale and Washington counties, an alfalfa hay marketing program has been developed. It had a simple beginning. A conservation agreement between Ollie Linder of Hale and J. W. Stufflebeme of Washington county at last year's State Extension Service Conference started the ball rolling.

Stufflebeme reported that dairymen in his county desired a better quality of hay than they were getting and Linder was quick to point out that Hale county farmers were producing such hay. Correspondence and another visit between the agents laid the ground work for a visit to Hale county by a representative group from the Washington County Dairy Association. They liked what they saw and immediately Linder helped organize a Hale County Alfalfa Growers Association as an aid to the mutual program.

The purpose of the new organization is to see that only a good quality hay, properly baled and cured is shipped. Inspection committees have been set up and at the present an attempt is being made to get a full time hay grader in the area. Arrangements between the two groups have been made so that the producer gets his money for the hay as soon as the load is weighed. The receiving group pays for the hauling when the hay is delivered.

Linder and Stufflebeme believe the program will prove beneficial to both groups. It has made a new market for the producers and will give the users the quality hay they desire. Linder further states that it may also give Hale county farmers a chance to do more market expanding since they annually produce about 32,000 tons of alfalfa each year. Special attention will be given, he says, to see that the hay is baled and handled correctly. Plans are now being made for a Hale county group to visit the dairymen so that any problems relating to the program can be worked out for the mutual benefit of both groups.

Three Little Pigs Coming Here On Stage

"Who's afraid of the big, bad wolf?"
Now, at last, the musical stage show "The Three Little Pigs" will be brought to life on the stage of the Plains Theatre in Lockney Tuesday morning, July 31st at 10:30 o'clock.

Penthouse productions of New York City will represent its newest hot show, a musical stage production of "The Three Little Pigs" all-time favorite of all smaller small fry everywhere. This version is a fast-moving, action-packed real live stage show with an all-adult, professional New York cast featuring favorite dwarfs in the roles with their lovable antics and their many hilarious attempts to outwit the big, bad wolf.

In this stage production on tour direct from New York, you will again meet a few of your familiar fairyland animal friends such as the White Rabbit and the Cowardly Lion. You will laugh at the comic attempts of the Big, Bad Wolf to outsmart the three pigs, Porky, Piggily and Wiggily.
As the curtain opens, we find Mother Pig preparing her three children, Porky, Piggily and Wiggily for their journey into the world to make their fortunes. After they have all been washed, dressed, and have eaten, she bids them all "good-bye" with a tear in her eye and a final warning to watch out for the Big Bad Wolf. The first little pig Porky makes himself a house of straw and when the Big Bad Wolf finds Porky's house, he blows it in with one huff-and-a-puff. Porky gets away, however, and runs to the home of Piggily which has been made with some sticks. This is a little better house than Porky's but still not strong enough to stand up under the Wolf's huffs and puffs, so when the Wolf finds Piggily's house, the little pigs suggest that they escape. They succeed in outwitting him and run to the house of Wiggily who has made himself a strong brick home.

Hammond Opposes Farm Wage-Hour Law Enactment

Waco. — Expansion of the wage and hour law into agriculture would turn American farmers into peasants, the president of the Texas Farm Bureau has charged.

J. Walter Hammond said proposed legislation in Washington is already "a foot in the door" and if passed, will mean the ruin of free American agriculture.

The state farm leader said bills before the Senate Labor Subcommittee now propose to eliminate: (1) the agricultural exemption on large farms, (2) the agricultural processing exemption, and (3) the exemption for "outside salesmen" and buyers of farm products.

In addition, Hammond asserted, the proposed bill would provide for: (1) another hike in the minimum wage to $1.25 per hour, (2) payment of time and a half after 35 hours of employment in one week, (3) and payment of overtime in excess of eight hours per day.

"This means," the Farm Bureau leader said, "an increase in the costs of farm labor as well as everything the farmer has to buy to grow his crops. The farmer is already caught in a cost-price squeeze. His prices are down and his costs are up."

Hammond said passage of the bills eliminating exemptions for large farms and agricultural processing concerns would mean ultimate ruin for farmers.

"The foot is already in the door," he declared. "The inclusion of farm operators under compulsory Social Security laws is a good example of what can happen. Who knows how long it will be before every farmer, large and small, has to comply with minimum wage and hour laws? When that happens, it will mean that every American farmer will be reduced to peasantry."

Hammond asserted that farmers will not permit a further invasion of their rights by minimum wage and hour laws without a bitter fight.

"We have been pushed a round enough," he said. "It's time for us to show the world that we can stand together to protect our rights as decent citizens."

TRY THIS ON YOUR GUESTS

On July 20, 1880, "Cleopatra's Needle" arrived in the United States to be placed in Central Park, New York City, to please the citizenry. Your dinner guests will be pleased with this cheese cake. To make: Combine 3/4 cup crushed zwieback, 1 tablespoon sugar, and 2 tablespoons of melted butter. Press this on the bottom of a 3-quart casserole dish. Combine 1 package of lemon pudding and pie filling, 3/4 cup of sugar, 1/4 teaspoon of salt and 1 cup of milk in saucepan and cook until it comes to a full boil and thickens. Then beat 4 cups of cottage cheese until smooth, add 4 eggs, one at a time, mixing well. Add cooked pudding and blend. Pour over crumb mixture in casserole. Bake in 325 degree oven for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Cool, then chill thoroughly in your refrigerator before serving.

M. J. McNeill Is On FHA Committee

Malcolm J. McNeill, Floydada, was appointed to the Farmers Home Administration Committee for Floyd county this week. Delbert L. Kassahn, local supervisor for the agency, announced today. The appointment was made by Walter T. McKay, State Director at Dallas.

The new committeeman operates a farm in the McCoy community. Mr. McNeill succeeds Mr. Benjamin Sandefur, Floydada whose term expired this year.

The other two members are Hubert F. Frizzell and Ewald N. Quebe, of Lockney.

The committee determines the eligibility of local farmers who apply for Farmers Home Administration loans. They also certify as to the value of farms being purchased or improved through Farmers Home Administration loans, and make recommendations on loan servicing actions. Advice of the committeemen is sought on good farm management and on the refinancing of Farmers Home Administration loans when borrowers build up enough equity in their property to get credit from local banks or other lenders.

The county supervisor relies upon the advice of the committee in connection with all types of loans. These include farm operating loans, loans to buy, improve, or enlarge efficient family-type farms in this area, and loans to establish and carry on approved soil and water conservation practices, including improving permanent pastures, terracing, soil erosion measures, farmstead water systems, irrigation, drainage, and many other conservation practices.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I have done my best to see every voter in the county and if I have missed anyone it was certainly not intentional. I would like for each of you to consider this a personal solicitation for your vote.

If elected Sheriff, I promise that I will do my very best to enforce the law fairly and impartially to all alike, and I will make myself available at any hour of the day or night that I might be needed.

Regardless of how this election may come out, I want to thank the people for the many courtesies you have extended me.

Sincerely yours,

This space has been bought and paid for by friends of H. A. C. Brummett. Most of us supported the present District Attorney ten years ago when he ran for this office. Some of us supported him four years ago when he was re-elected to his fourth term, but we now sincerely believe that fourteen years is too long for one man to hold such an important office. Recent developments have demonstrated to the people of Texas that good men can serve in public office too long.

H. A. C. Brummett is a pioneer West Texas lawyer, well qualified for District Attorney, and he has promised the people that he will not engage in the private practice of law. We sincerely believe that a vote for H. A. C. Brummett for District Attorney will be a vote for better law enforcement.

Mr. Farmer

We are installing the new Super Cleanmaster (dual unit) Moss Lint Cleaner for the coming 1956 cotton season.

This cleaner does an outstanding class of work in combing, cleaning, straightening the fibers and brightening the cotton.

The new Moss Cleaner has 740 saws to do a better job of cleaning — Experiments show that the Moss Lint Cleaner definitely improves the cotton a full grade or more, giving the farmer more profit per bale.

The Moss Cleaner has gone through test after test over an entire season handling all types of cotton: hand picked, pulled, machine picked and stripped. Ginners, cotton buyers and others in the cotton industry have watched bale after bale come through free of motes and trash, uniform staple length and greatly improved in color — as a result, they pay you more for your cotton.

Drive in and see the greatest advancement in Lint Cleaning History — the New Super Cleanmaster Moss Lint Cleaner.

RE-ELECT

EARL COOPER FOR SHERIFF

Floyd County has been enjoying the best job of law enforcement in many years since Earl Cooper became sheriff. He shows no partiality to anyone, but goes about his duties with the same constant courteous manner that every officer should display. He has demonstrated on several occasions that he can get just as rough as is necessary to do his job and anyone who knows Earl Cooper knows that he can't be pushed around in carrying out his duties. This firm, but fair manner has severely irritated a few people and close investigation into the facts will reveal that these are the people who are leading the opposition to Mr. Cooper's re-election. The present sheriff will co-operate with city officials and all other law enforcement agencies as long as they desire strict enforcement of the law and do not want special favors. WHAT BETTER LAW ENFORCEMENT COULD WE DESIRE THAN THAT?

A vote for Earl Cooper means a vote for a hard-working, honest sheriff that always does his best to do the job the law abiding citizens want and expect.

(Political adv. paid for by friends of Earl Cooper)
