

Wheat yields 'great' as price stays high

Even the weather has cooperated to give Castro County wheat growers a great year, enabling the 1979 harvest to be rushed to near completion in the first week of June.

Yields are "phenomenal" in the words of one elevator operator, ranging up to 80 bushels per acre on irrigated land and to 30 bushels on dryland fields.

The price has remained near $4 a bushel, dropping from a $4.24 high but holding at $3.94 Tuesday, about a dollar a bushel more than last year's high.

Mostly clear and warm days since the harvest began in mid-June have speeded the wheat-cutting to an early conclusion. Rains over the county the first of last week interrupted operations only a short time, and Monday night showers were generally the cause of only hours of delay.

Irrigated wheat is averaging 60 to 80 bushels an acre this year and dryland yields were reported from 18 to 30 bushels. Dryland wheat was all harvested early, grainmen say, and the irrigated crop is all in at Sunnyside, Ricky Byers of Sunnyside Grain and Supply reported.

If the weather keeps cooperating, harvest will be finished this week in the Easter area and also at Nazareth, although showers put .10 inch of moisture on the fields around Easter and .40 inch at Nazareth Monday night.

Flagg Grain reported harvest about 90 percent complete in that area, and Farmers Grain at Hart estimated 75 percent completion.

Quality is good this year, with the grain reported "very dry." Test weights are running 60 to 62.

Protein is not as high as usual, elevator managers said, but Ricky Byers at Hart said the content in this area is better than over the state, averaging 13 or 14 rather than the mark of 15 which has been reached in some past years.

"There has been a little problem with discoloration because of our late rains, but that does not affect the milling qualities," according to Fred Bruegel Jr. of Bruegel Elevators.

He added that if this problem is widespread in wheat from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, it could possibly lower the price of the grain for export, but that is not true at present.

New phone books out; 846 prefix is dropped

New phone books for 1979-80 have been received by Dimmitt area telephone users. As in previous years, the book contains Dimmitt area numbers in the front section and Tulia numbers at the back. The Yellow Pages are combined for the two communities.

Biggest change in this year's publication is the elimination of all "846" numbers that had been assigned to the Sunnyside area. Beginning on Sunday, July 8, Sunnyside will become a part of the Dimmitt telephone exchange and telephone customers there will have new "647" phone numbers.

Reedford Burrows, Customer Service Supervisor for Continental Telephone, asks that telephone users check the new directory for any errors in their names or telephone numbers. Changes can be made on the records used by Directory Assistance operators and will be reflected in next year's book. Anyone not receiving a phone book or desiring additional copies should call or visit the telephone office on N.E. 2nd Street.

Sherman lists WTSU's growth

Max Sherman, West Texas State University president and former Texas State Senator, spoke to the Dimmitt Rotarians at its Friday noon meeting at the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

West Texas State University was started in 1909 to provide an opportunity to make good teachers, Sherman said.

The largest school at WTSU is its Arts and Science school. It has a student-teacher ratio of 19-1. The College of Education is the next largest school, Sherman said.

WTSU also has a doctorate program in nursing and teaches a nursing course in Lubbock.

Last year WTSU started a limited financial scholarship program to help students who have been members of the National Honor Society in High School to be able to attend college. Three hundred fifty-three have accepted the scholarship program for next year, Sherman said.

The Dimmitt Rotary Club is third in the district for the month for attendance, president Ron Montgomery announced.

Ambulance service charge proposed to commissioners

The Panhandle Emergency Medical Services System, Inc., proposed a new service charge for ambulance runs at Monday night's meeting of the Dimmitt City Commission. The commissioners tabled the idea.

To cope with its increased service costs, the PEMSS proposed a $3 fee for each run which city/county ambulances make. Betty O'Rourke, executive director of PEMSS, told commissioners by letter that the estimated fee for a year's service for Dimmitt would be $864, based on the average 288 ambulance runs per year in Dimmitt.

This type fee has not been charged in the past, Mayor Elmer Youts said, adding that additional cost would have to be added to the ambulance service budget for 1979-80.

The only service Dimmitt currently receives from the PEMSS, Youts said, is a computer printout showing a breakdown of the types of ambulance calls made in Dimmitt.

The PEMSS originally helped the city, county and hospital district obtain the ambulance service by securing a grant which paid 72% of the ambulance cost.

Rites held Saturday for Viola Nelson, 75

Viola Nelson, longtime newspaperwoman and Dimmitt resident since 1943, died at 1:30 a.m. last Thursday in Plains Memorial Hospital of complications following a stroke. She was 75.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in the First United Methodist Church, with Rev. Howard Quiet, pastor, and Rev. Marvin Rorark, former pastor here, officiating.

Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens, directed by Dennis Funeral Home. Active pallbearers were Bob Anthony, Fred Bruegel Jr., Jim Cleavinger, Dale Maxwell, Jack Miller and Joe Nelson.

Born Sept. 12, 1903, at Jones Prairie in Milam County, she was the daughter of Julius Henry and Mary Caroline Patzke. She was raised in a family of nine children on a farm near Rosebud, in Falls County.

She was married March 16, 1929, to Bascom M. Nelson at Buckholts.

After living at Rogers, Paducah and Matador, she and her husband established the Roaring Springs Reporter and the Amherst Reporter, then operated the Olton Enterprise before moving to Dimmitt in 1943 to lease and purchase the Castro County News. She was active in the family newspaper business until 12 years ago.

An accomplished artist, Mrs. Nelson created more than 100 oil paintings and other works of art during the past 20 years, including special paintings for the county's Diamond Jubilee celebration in 1966.

She and her husband celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Easter Sunday at the First United Methodist Church.

She was active through the years in the First United Methodist Church, United Methodist Women, Dimmitt Garden Club, Chamber of Commerce and Castro County Democratic Women. She was an alternate delegate to several state Democratic conventions.

She is survived by her husband, B. M.; two sons, Bascom Jr. of Beeville and Don of Dimmitt; a daughter, Mary Burnham of Albuquerque; three sisters, Selma Good and Essie Maxwell of Lott and Pauline Armstrong of Washington; and seven grandchildren.

Five farm workers have filed a class-action civil suit against the Castro County Housing Authority, charging "gross mismanagement" that allows crew chiefs and vegetable processing firms to evict them from their apartments.

They charge in the suit that the housing authority has forfeited its management responsibility to crew leaders and companies that rent blocks of apartments for their employees.

They claim these crew chiefs and employers actually determine who has a place to live, and that they make employment a condition for getting an apartment.

First court action on the suit is scheduled today (Thursday) at 9:30 a.m., when Federal District Judge Mary Lou Roberson hears a motion for preliminary injunction in the US District Court in Amarillo.

Plaintiffs in the suit are Arturo Gonzalez of Hobbs, N. M., Roy Rodriguez of Lamesa, Euduvina Leal of Elsa, Esequiel Garces of Flagg, and Jose Sanchez, who lives in the Agricultural Housing Project year-round.

Named as defendants are the Castro County Housing Authority; its board members, Allan Webb, Ray Robertson, Truman Touchstone, Rayphard Smithson and Bruce Fuller; and its employees, Fred Moulton, Raul Vaquero and Pete Rodriguez.

Attorneys William H. Beardal and Edward J. Tuddenham of the Texas Rural Legal Aid office in Hereford are representing the plaintiffs, while County Attorney Jimmy Davis represents the housing authority. Other attorneys for individual plaintiffs and defendants in the case may also be present at today's hearing in Amarillo.

In today's hearing, the plaintiffs are asking Judge Roberson to issue a preliminary injunction enjoining the housing authority from:

- Taking reprisals against the plaintiffs;
- Evicting tenants without an articulated procedure that provides for notice and right to a hearing;
- Conditioning tenant occupancy upon a tenant working for a certain crew chief, owner or company;
- Restricting tenants as to family size, age of children, or number of adults in an apartment;

Sheffy's Chatter

DHS Class of '49 reunion well-attended Saturday

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Members of the Dimmitt High School Class of 1949 met at the Country Club for their 30-year class reunion Saturday afternoon.

and Betty did the hostess bit. Dorothy Sheffy and son Scott went to Altus last weekend to visit her sister Eula Faye and Doyle Martin and they attended a community reunion at Duke, Okla., or the Prairie Hill, south of Duke, near Creta.

And two weddings, Kyle Touchstone and Flo Lust's at the Methodist Church Saturday, and on Sunday afternoon Kyle Collins and Glen Black of Hart were married at the First Baptist Church.

And several family reunions that I will tell you about later on.

Helen Richardson, Weldon and Ruth Skinner went to Ruidoso and are at Helen's place. Saturday evening Emmett and Sue Broderson went out there. Sue, Helen and Weldon are painting pictures and taking more lessons and Sue says Emmett and Ruth do the cooking and yard work and fish in the trout pond down the hill from the house. The daughter, Kerry Broderson will attend the summer session at Tech.

Probably 30 people from Earth went to Ute Lake to fish and cook out. Richard and Tommie Bills went but I didn't get other names but I talked to Danny Vaughn and he and Sharla and Randy Bills and Joyce Wooten left here for Ute to join the crowd as soon as the Lust-Touchstone wedding was over. Such a beautiful wedding at the Methodist Church Saturday afternoon. And we saw Jack and Mary Lou Miller down here from Amarillo.

Visitors were Bob and Phyllis Mooney of Dimmitt, Jack and Jeri Ziegler of Canyon, Bob and Delma Myers of Dimmitt and Joyce Autry of Colorado.

They met for breakfast at 8, with 24 attending. Many pictures and mementoes of school days were on display, as well as several letters and family pictures from those who could not attend.

The Cartwrights met at Jack's house to celebrate his and son Jerry's birthdays and for a dinner with family. Patti Morris and Edna Carr came from Abilene to see his sister Mrs. Lena Dunn.

Donny and Jacque George and children of Spanaway, Wash., were in Dimmitt recently for a visit with his mother Susie Reeves and his sisters Joyce Rickerd and family and Linda Powell and family. Susie's mother Mrs. Alice Neeley of Amarillo and a sister Maxine Adams of Bledsoe were here to visit Susie. All three went to Burk Burnett to visit a brother Edwin Neeley.

Mrs. Genevieve Howe was hostess with a luncheon Friday for the birthday of Bessie Mae Elder. The cake was decorated with a pretty girl playing golf. She was assisted by Mrs. Deanne Clark. After lunch bridge was played by Bessie Mae, Dorothy Elder, Loys Raymer, Tina Rawlings, Faun Welker, Bobbie Dameron, Deanne and Genevieve. And coming by for lunch and bringing birthday greetings were Kathy Thomas and Ami Glover.

Pat Driskell and son Randy and daughter Ronda came in from Longmont, Colo., for a weekend visit with their aunt Ceal Carlisle.

Don and Irene Helmcke and son Richard have been in Utah and are going to northeast of London, England. He will be stationed there in the service. Irene's sister Susan and Steve Mack of Wichita Falls have been here visiting the girls' parents, W. E. and Eunice Thornton and the Helmckes.

Stacy Wilson was the 9-year-old birthday girl June 29 so her mother baked her a cake and cupcakes and made homemade ice cream then all went to Tulia for a romp in the park. Stacy's friends at the party were Carla Summers, Carla Pybus, Kristi Petty, Tracy Hill and Dendi Hill. Stacy's parents are Edd and Joni Wilson.

Cecil and Blanche Ginn, their kin Mr. and Mrs. Lon Moore of Memphis went to Wichita Falls to visit a brother-in-law and other relatives.

Dr. Carroll Gregory of San Francisco who came for the 1949 class reunion came by my backyard for a very short visit. He is a busy medical doctor and has interest in a bank, also the gardens of that area and many films taken of the flowers and growth by London people will be shown later on TV. Carroll visited a while with mother Jo Gregory and brothers Bill and Don and their families.

celebrated their 28th wedding anniversary Saturday by going to Amarillo for dinner with friends M. L. and Polly Simpson and Emmett and Sue Broderson.

Norman and Naomi Finck of Tulia were here Saturday to visit his sister Doris Lust and to attend the wedding of Flo Lust and Kyle Touchstone.

We are all saddened by the loss of our friend Viola Nelson. I met her first 43 years ago when they bought the Castro County News I was writing the news for the Flag community. I gave news items when T. A. Singer owned the paper. I forget who the editor was then. Viola was a busy person, a good cook, artist and loved roses and flowers. She will be missed.

Garland and Susan Coleman and John and Lisa Thomas went to Amarillo Saturday evening for dinner and a show.

Pat Truelove of Amarillo was a weekend guest of her parents Curtis and Marie Tate and also here for Mrs. Nelson's memorial service, and the Lust-Touchstone wedding.

Nancy and Danny Whatley and Brigit have moved to Alvin, near Houston. Nancy is the daughter of Mrs. Allie Tisdale. All of Allie's local children were at her house Sunday.

Ray Sheffy Jr. is recuperating from recent stomach surgery at the hospital in Plainview.

Clyde and Faye Dameron, Elzie and Serena Teague,

Mable Reed of Sudan, the Teagues' son Jack and his daughter Patti from Dexter, N.M. went to Childress one day last week to attend the funeral service for Elzie's brother-in-law George Jones. George and his wife lived at Flagg in the 1920s. Later Clyde and Faye went on to Fort Worth to see their daughter Lucille and husband C. E. McCoy, on to Dallas for a visit with son Dr. John Dameron and wife Virginia and

The TIE that binds. A true love for our Lord and Saviour binds our hearts in Christian love. This love encourages us to put our energies and efforts together to serve our Lord at home, at work, and at Church. A truly wonderful fellowship exists for those who believe and worship together. Attend Church and worship with kindred minds. "That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

View from the Library

By BRICK AUTRY

On buying Spanish music: When I was a youngster I used to watch cartoons and things which, from time to time, would feature Mexican music—of the stereo-type variety—and never realized that one day I would be out trying to buy examples of it.

I am like everybody else. When you say Mexican music to me I think "mariache." As a matter of fact, that's all I think of for lack of greater experience. However, since the library has money earmarked for such things, I am obliged to gain experience through any means—which means—oh, heavens, listening to Mexican music.

Although meaning no disrespect, I am known to turn off our local station at that afternoon time when the Spanish program comes on. If I don't soon find that I am attaching my fingernails to the ceiling in a most obnoxious manner.

Yet, nevertheless, here I am blissfully trying out tapes up at Hereford with two knowledgeable friends. As far as I am concerned there are only two kinds of Mexican music—modern mariache and just plain mariache. Unfortunately, though I am more informed about Mexican music I still have not found it to my liking. I didn't think it was polite to be frankly honest while listening to tapes at the store so I just grinned from ear to ear and the lady waiting on me thought that I liked the music. Well, so much for friendly relations with those South of the Border.

We did buy plenty of tapes at the end of the new cultural experience. Even though I wasn't honest about my musical tastes the payment which I exchanged for the tapes certainly was.

THERE is a law in Idaho which states that one cannot fish for trout from the back of a giraffe.

ASCS notes

July 15th is final date

July 15 is the final date to certify your crop acreages, corn, grain sorghum, cotton, soybeans, set-aside and any other crops. Even though some of you did not participate in the program you are still urged to certify to your crop acreages by the above date.

This requirement is due to cross compliance on other farms and in the event of proven yields in the future.

Don't be careless and lose all program benefits. If you are in doubt re-check your acreage, prior to certification, and we will be glad to help you any way we can here in the office.

Corn and grain sorghum under the 3-year Reserve Program will be available for release until July. You may redeem your corn and/or grain sorghum in the grain reserve program by repaying the principal amount of your loan, plus interest, and refunding unearned advance storage payments.

Kansas City, Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis and Minneapolis are the daily markets reviewed by Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) for corn.

Interested producers are urged to contact the Castro County ASCS Office.

The 1977 amendments to the Social Security Act made major changes in the way in which a carry-over crop affects those farmers receiving social security.

Now during the first year a farmer is retired he is often eligible to receive benefits regardless of the value of his carry-over crop. However, should he have additional carry-over in future years the net worth of the crop will be used in determining the total social security benefits payable during the year.

If you have any questions concerning this or any other aspect of social security please call your operator and ask for Enterprise 8-4132, this is a toll-free number to the Plainview office.

Jancie B. Ulmer, Social Security Representative, will be glad to answer your questions.

Lawn problems flourish during summer

Summer means hot weather in Texas along with outdoor sports and long lazy days. It also means lawn problems—drouth, weeds, insects and diseases.

"Lawn problems can cause headaches for homeowners unless the problems are accurately diagnosed and properly treated before they become severe," points out Dr. Richard L. Duble, turfgrass specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Dry spots, thin turf and weeds can result from improper watering, fertilizing and mowing practices," notes Duble. "Before applying a chemical to correct lawn problems, be sure that recommended cultural practices are followed."

Drouth stress most often occurs in mid-summer and show up as wilted, discolored turf. Watering schedules should be adjusted to wet the soil to a depth of four to six inches, and only when the grass shows symptoms of moisture stress. Mowing heights might also be raised one-half inch to improve drouth tolerance in mid-summer.

"Lack of nitrogen or iron often creates a lawn problem. Grass with a nitrogen deficiency may have a pale color and be heavily infested with weeds," explains the specialist. "Abundant seedheads are another symptom of nitrogen deficiency. A light application of a nitrogen fertilizer will improve the lawn's appearance."

Grass leaves that have yellow stripes parallel to the leaf margins may be deficient in iron. An application of iron sulfate or iron chelate at six ounces per 1,000 square feet will usually solve this problem, says Duble.

If a St. Augustine lawn has symptoms similar to nitrogen or iron deficiency but does not respond to applications of either material, St. Augustine Decline (S.A.D.) should be suspected. Close examination of turf infested with S.A.D. shows green and yellow blotches on the leaves. Good maintenance practices should be continued where S.A.D. is a problem. Also, Floratam, a new St. Augustinegrass variety which is resistant to S.A.D., may be sprigged into the infested area.

"Leaf spot diseases are generally a problem when lawns are under stress and increase with high temperatures, drouth, heavy shade and close mowing," points out Duble. "Proper mowing and watering will reduce these problems, but fungicides may be required to prevent serious damage."

Chinch bugs and white grubs feed heavily on lawns during mid-summer and their damage resembles drouth injury, notes the specialist. If the turf does not respond to applications of water, insects should be suspected. Both insects damage St. Augustinegrass, but only the white grub damages bermudagrass lawns.

Chinch bugs and white grubs can be effectively controlled with applications of insecticides. Water the lawn thoroughly prior to applying the insecticide for chinch bug control a light watering after the insecticide application also increases its effectiveness. Duble advises drenching the lawn after the insecticide is applied for grub control since the grubs feed in the soil.

"The best way to keep a healthy, attractive lawn," advises Duble, "is through proper mowing, watering and fertilization. These regular maintenance practices allow you to keep a check on lawn conditions so that you'll be able to detect a problem early should one develop."

Comptroller's rep to arrive Tuesday

Gas priority requests due soon

Melvin L. Barton, Chairperson of the Castro County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, today reminded farmers, food processors, food distributors and other agricultural concerns desiring protection against natural gas curtailments to file a written priority request with their supplier no later than July 15, 1979. The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), originally designated June 15 as the last day for this requirement but extended it by one month.

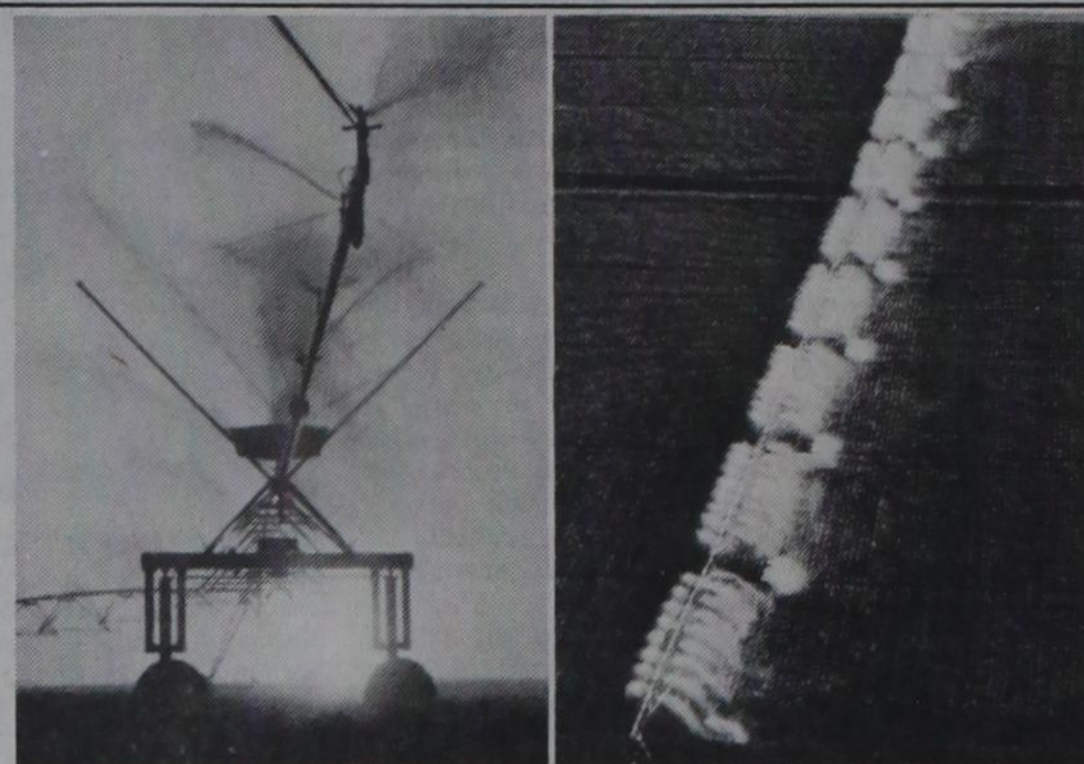

"Users of interstate natural gas have been certified by the Secretary of Agriculture to be protected up to the full requirement against curtailment", Mr. Barton said.

The request should include:
—Name and Address
—Intended end user and volumes of natural gas needed.

—Natural gas purchases for most recent 12 months for which records are available.
—Documentation to support calculation of needs.
—Standard industrial classification (SIC) code numbers such as 01 for crops and 02 for livestock, and —Signature swearing or affirming to accuracy of the request.

—Suggested that local natural gas suppliers be contacted concerning procedures for obtaining agricultural priority. "If additional assistance is needed, our state and county offices will soon have information regarding eligible 'Essential Agricultural Uses' as well as a suggested format for filing", the ASCS Official said.

REBATES UP TO $3,000 LEASES DOWN TO 7.37%

Buying a Valley system this summer could be the smartest thing you could do all year. Starting June 16th you can choose from either big rebates or long-term leases at rates that are hard to believe. Rebates on linears and corners are as high as $3,000. Rebates on regular systems are up to $1,500. You save the most by acting now, because rebates declines in value every 30 days.

Leases are at yesterday's rates. Make a 10% down payment on a linear or a corner system and we'll put the system on your farm. You don't have to make the next payment until January, 1981. The lease rate is an unbelievable 7.37%. It goes to 7.50% in July and to 7.63% in August. You can make about the same deal on a regular system and the rate is 8.64%. Another lease plan has a rate of 8.24%. We even have an interest-free finance plan to January, 1980.

Every month you wait, you're losing money.

With many persons looking forward to the July 4 holiday, most volunteer fire departments and the Texas Forest Service fire fighting units are apprehensive. During the one-day holiday, many families will be heading for the outdoors for picnics, cookouts, camping and fireworks. With many cities prohibiting fireworks in corporate boundaries, many travel to nearby open fields or woods to discharge fireworks. Traditionally, fireworks often climax a family picnic.

Fire warning is issued for 4th of July

"The wet spring weather has not eliminated fire danger, although the fields and woods look green and fireproof," said a Texas Forest Service Spokesman. "We are rating the fire danger as low to moderate, but the recent warm weather and lack of seasonal thunder showers during the past weeks have reduced moisture content of grasses and leaves to near flammable levels." The Texas Forest Service and rural fire departments hope all persons enjoy this national holiday, but urges extreme caution with outdoor fires and fireworks.

If you're feeling good, don't worry, You'll get over it.

DU-TER stops leafspot in Texas beets. Year after year.

For top sugar beet yields and profits, you need a fungicide that delivers effective, economical control of cercospora leafspot. That's why Texas beet growers depend on DU-TER fungicide, year after year.

- Dependable—In more than 10 years of commercial use, leafspot has developed no known resistance to DU-TER.
- Economical—In field trials near Hereford, plots sprayed with DU-TER yielded more pounds of sugar per acre, for the highest gross profits of any spray. Yet, DU-TER spray costs were lowest.
- Easy to use—Wettable powder formulation makes a quick, smooth mixture that won't clog nozzles. No extra expense for spreader or wetting agents. Apply with air or ground equipment.

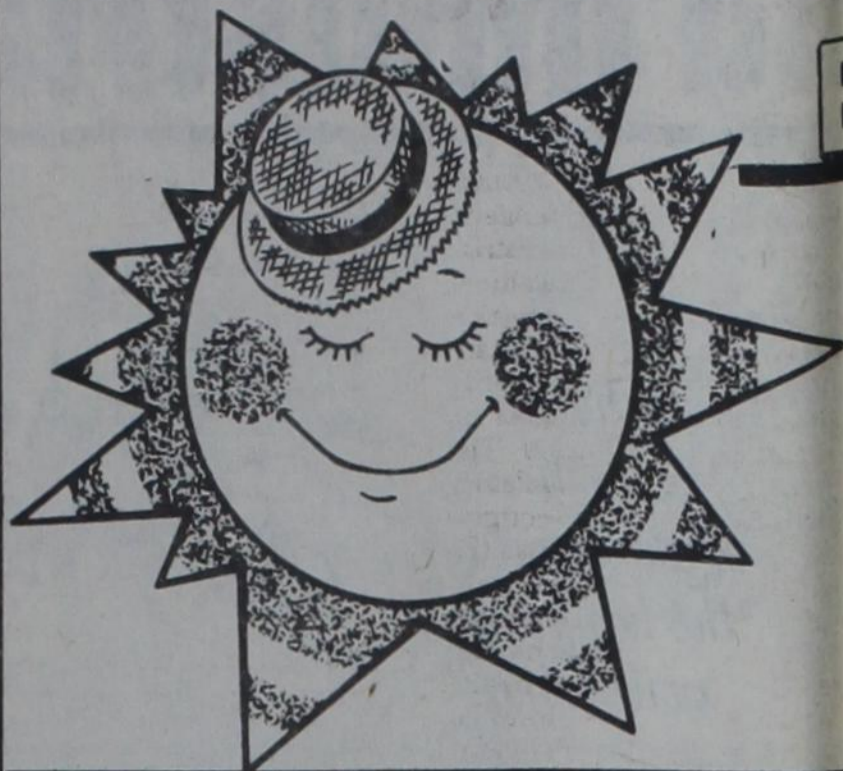

This season, ask your farm chemical supplier for DU-TER fungicide from Thompson-Hayward. Because DU-TER controls leafspot in your beets, year after year.

Dimmitt Business and Industrial Review

JOIN THE POOL MARKETING PROGRAM

The Pool Marketing Program is a way to give our member-owners more clout in the marketplace.

Many large-volume buyers are willing to pay a premium to be able to buy large quantities of grain at one time, from one source. By "pooling" our production, we can create a sizeable reservoir of grain so Dimmitt Agri Industries can effectively deal with big buyers.

With this new Pool Marketing Program, Dimmitt Agri Industries is leading the way again in Texas. Ours is the first cooperative to start a Pool Marketing Program for grain.

Big gain for cotton is seen in eighties

The cotton industry appears now to be in an excellent position to push back synthetic fiber competition in the coming decade of the 1980s, David W. Cox, Cotton Incorporated vice president for economic research and development, said recently.

In comments made to a luncheon gathering of security analysts, the Textile and Apparel Splinter Group, Cox said recent research breakthroughs and the energy shortage are factors that will help cotton build quickly in coming years upon a foundation erected throughout the 1970s.

The energy crunch is going to hit the synthetics doubly hard, The Cotton Incorporated official said.

"The non-cellulosic synthetic fibers are all petroleum based," he pointed out. "That means their prices will soar."

New study by the well-known research and consulting firm, Arthur D. Little Incorporated, to be released next month, indicates the total cost of polyester staple production from a new facility will be 90 cents per pound in 1980, with $16 crude oil, and $1.17 in 1985 with $20 crude oil.

The study shows the dramatic effect of raw material cost increases for the synthetic fiber industry.

"Higher costs of heating and cooling will also be a factor in the fiber choice in the 1980s," Cox said. He cited results of wear-test studies by the Gillette Research Institute that showed the superior performance of cotton over synthetics in terms of comfort. "As more people realize this, they will start to choose cotton for its comfort value," he told the analysts.

The Cotton Incorporated economist characterized the '70s as a "turnaround period" in the fiber market in which cotton "got its research and marketing act together and turned the tables on synthetics."

"In the early 1970s, consumers were still turning away from cotton, as they had during the 1960s," Cox said. "A turnaround came in the mid-70s, though, and has continued into the present."

Much of the credit for this turnaround goes to the marketing and research support put behind cotton for the first time by cotton producers.

"Since the formation of Cotton Incorporated in 1970," he pointed out, "American cotton producers have financed a full program of research and marketing through assessments on each bale of cotton they sold. This has led to many technological breakthroughs in the processing of cotton in the mills and an advertising program that has created a growing awareness of cotton's advantages by the consumers."

One of the biggest factors in the synthetic fibers' original success was the concept of "easy-care" fabrics.

"Consumers were very willing to accept some loss of aesthetics and comfort qualities in fabrics in exchange for no ironing," he said. "Now, science has done for cotton what it once did for synthetics."

He cited two product areas as evidence of this breakthrough for cotton.

"DuPont made a big push in 1976 to win the denim market with a cottonpolyester blend," Cox said, "but this product had little more life than a Bicentennial Roman candle."

"After an initial surge of success, repeat business didn't develop, and now the blended denim is a small item in the market. The latest denim success, designer jeans, is cotton all the way."

An adaptation of the process that gave all-cotton denim an easy-care finish has brought about the second breakthrough for cotton, Cox added.

"In the 1960s," he said, "the synthetic fiber companies wrestled away the men's shirt market from cotton with the easy-care polyester/cotton blend. Now, the leading shirt company, Arrow, is marketing, with great early success, all-cotton, easy-care shirts."

"Virtually every other shirt manufacturer and such major chains as Sears and J. C. Penney are coming into the program, and industry leaders estimate that the proportion of all-cotton dress shirts in the total market will increase from the current 5 per cent to 25 per cent or more in the near future."

The new process also is seen as the key for expanding other markets for cotton, he added. Dan River Incorporated already has announced plans for introducing all-cotton, easy-care sheets late this year.

Precautions necessary for ice cream

With hot, summer weather rapidly approaching, many people will be cooling off with homemade ice cream. However, failure to follow certain precautions can result in food poisoning, points out Al B. Wagner with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Last summer, 22 food poison outbreaks involving 292 people across the United States were associated with homemade ice cream, Wagner, food technologist, explains.

Investigators found Salmonella in most of the 73 hospitalized patients. Most often, dirty, cracked or ungraded eggs from non-commercial origin were the source of the bacteria.

"Don't cut corners on homemade ice cream ingredients," warns Wagner.

The food technologist suggests certain precautions when making ice cream to avoid food poisoning.

Begin by washing all freezer parts with hot, soapy water and rinsing thoroughly.

Use only good quality ingredients. Never use cracked or dirty eggs or milk or cream of questionable quality.

Before adding fruit, wash it thoroughly, don't use soft, overripe segments.

Lastly, always cook the ice cream mix before freezing, advises Wagner.

Lambreth, Vice-President Gary Moore, and Directors Ron Montgomery and Alan Newman. Not pictured are Director Emmett Broderon and Sergeant-at-Arms Earl Chaney.

Clayton keynotes Rotary banquet; Lambreth installed as president

George Lambreth was installed as the new president of the Dimmitt Rotary Club at the club's first annual installation banquet Saturday night at the city hall meeting room. Speaker of the House Bill Clayton gave the installation address. He told those present not to be afraid of the term "special interest," and encouraged each one to take a special interest in the way the government is run.

The first recipient of the Rotarian of the Year Award was outgoing President Ron Montgomery, who was recognized for his overall service to the club.

The Monthly Program Chairman Award was given to Doug Pybus for his "outstanding work in securing

Yanks lead Kid Minors

The Yankees topped Minor League standings in Dimmitt Kid Baseball after last week's games, with a record of 7 wins to 2 losses on the season.

It was a close decision over the Cards in a Tuesday game, won by the Yanks with a run in the final inning after their opponents tied it up in the fifth.

In the other Tuesday game the Dodgers had an easy time with the Astros, piling up 16 runs to 5. The Dodgers now have a 4-5 record.

Wide margins marked scores in Friday games, when the Rangers took the Cards 15-5 and the Braves downed the Astros 14-5.

Standings now show the Braves in second place with 6-3, the Cards close behind with 6-4, the Rangers tied with the Dodgers at 4-5 and the Astros at 1-9.

Other new officers who were recognized included Vice-President Gary Moore, Secretary Bill Behrends, Treasurer Jerry Jansa, Sergeant-at-Arms Earl Chaney and Directors Emmett Broderon, Bill Dannevik, Ron Montgomery, Alan Newman and Elmer Youts.

New Rotary Sweetheart Judith Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Smith, was presented with a rosebud, as was outgoing sweetheart Cara Miller, who has held the position for the last two years.

A film was shown on the Rotary Youth Leadership Award program for District 573, which includes Dimmitt. Tom Amason of Amarillo, chairman of the district's RYLA program, was recognized as a special guest, and Trent Armstrong and Robin Ryan were introduced as the local club's representatives selected to attend the annual RYLA camp near Taos, N.M.

Lambreth told the group that the motto for the coming year is "Let Service Light the Way," he outlined his goals for the year, saying that he would like to see the club become more active in the community, expand the flag program, participate more extensively in the RYLA program, put more emphasis on membership and giving to outside projects.

The meal included barbecued ham and beef catered by Sutphen's of Amarillo.

If you are on medication for hypertension, be sure to take the medication regularly, urges Carla Shearer, a health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

ROTARIAN OF THE YEAR award is presented to [left] Ron Montgomery for his "outstanding overall service and dedication to the club." Montgomery is also the outgoing president of the group. The presentation was made by Bill Dannevik at the club's first annual installation banquet.

Hance amendment to aid farm irrigation okayed

Rev. Charles Broadhurst, pastor, was assisted by Rev. John Street, pastor of Dimmitt First Baptist Church, in officiating. Burial was in the Littlefield Cemetery.

Worth; a sister, three brothers, 31 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

THERE is a law on the books in California which makes it illegal to plant vegetables in a cemetery.

Kiwanians hear where money goes

Money raised and spent by the Dimmitt Kiwanis Club since last October, chiefly for community projects, was detailed by Richard Stahl, club treasurer, at the luncheon meeting Monday.

Major fund-raising activities of the club each year are the Pheasant Hunters Breakfast and the Fourth of July fireworks sale which is in progress now.

Largest expenditure for the report period was $1,700-plus, on the new livestock barns for Dimmitt High School's Future Farmers Chapter. Kiwanians also gave a scholarship to a DHS graduate this spring, made regular contributions to the local Satellite Center and donated to various other funds, Stahl reported.

Further projects will be carried out with profits from the fireworks sale, which is being conducted through Wednesday at stands east and west of the city.

Key Club members are assisting, and Kiwanis President Gene King expressed appreciation for their services to Kelly Hill, Key Club president who was a guest at the lunch.

"ONLY A LITTLE EFFORT won't do the trick," Texas Representative and Speaker of the House Bill Clayton tells the group at the first annual installation banquet of the bock spent Monday night here with her mother, Meta Stork. On Tuesday they attended the funeral of Homer Hill of Hart. A number of people from here also attended the funeral.

Local minister currently leading Chili mission

Rev. M. A. Pennington of Dimmitt is currently leading one of 15 evangelistic teams of lay people and their pastors on a mission in Chile as part of a Baptist-sponsored PERU-CHILE-USA evangelistic partnership.

Elmer Albracht of Houston is here visiting his mother, Mrs. Dora Albracht and other relatives for a couple weeks. He will be here for the Ramaeker-Schulte wedding on Saturday.

A wedding shower was held in the home of Cornelia Annen Sunday afternoon, honoring Vera Lou Schulte, bride-elect of Rex Ramaekers. Thirteen friends and relatives of Vera's hosted the party. Numerous beautiful gifts were presented to the honoree. The 85 registered guests included friends and relatives from Tulia, Lubbock, Hereford and Dimmitt. The wedding will be solemnized July 7 at Holy Family Church.

The Chile teams, along with nine teams in Peru are serving fifteen Baptist churches in northern Chile and nine Baptist churches in southern Peru.

We all extend our sympathy to the family of Mrs. B. M. Nelson.

Faye Spencer and daughters, Marcia and Laura of Corpus Christi arrived Saturday to spend several weeks here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Annen and other members of her family.

While in Chile, the teams have joined groups there from local churches to do evangelistic work in specific Chilean churches from Sunday to Sunday. They are conducting services each night and are visiting in the homes, on the streets and in the market each day.

Gene and Susie Gerber and daughters of Odessa brought Virgie Gerber home Saturday after spending a week with them. They visited with friends in Amarillo and with the Vincent Braddocks Sunday evening. Natalie and Jenny stayed here to visit with grandparents and other relatives this week.

TRIVIAL matters are handled promptly; important matters are never solved.

SAVE energy by using cold water instead of hot water to operate the sink food disposer, advised Nancy Granovsky, a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Hawkins are chosen Hart Days honorees

Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Hawkins have been selected as honored pioneers for this year's Hart Days, July 18-21, and will ride at the head of the annual parade on the final morning of the celebration.

Miss Hart and her court will have a place of honor in the 10 a.m. parade, as will the Hawkins, the couple picked this year as special representatives of Hart community oldtimers. The merchant drawing will follow at 11 a.m.

A full schedule for Hart Days has been announced by Kim and Karen Williamson, general chairmen of the annual festivities which will include an Old Timers Reunion this year. A fiddlers' contest with cash prizes of $75, $50 and $25 will be a new feature.

At the same time the Old Timers Reunion will begin, hosted by the Good Neighbors Club. Members of the club will also conduct a bake sale.

Dances, a Flatland Bluegrass concert, merchants' drawing, arts-crafts show, flea market and a choice of food ranging from Mexican dishes to ice cream will be on the program which will also feature the contest in which Miss Hart, her attendants and Little Miss Hart will be named.

Fiddlers will start the afternoon entertainment at 1 p.m. with their contest which is open to all who wish to fiddle for the cash prizes.

Hart Jaycees and Lions will stage a barbecue at 6:30 p.m. A teen dance will begin at 8 p.m. in the elementary gym with music by C. C. Crow of Amarillo. Square dancers will line up at 8:30 on the east parking lot of Farmers State Bank for their outdoor dance called by Jack Thompson of Tulia.

A carnival will be in progress during the four days, opening Wednesday, July 18.

Highlight of the Thursday program will be the queens contest in the elementary school gym at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Mark Bennett will be in charge of entertainment as candidates vie for the Miss Hart and Little Miss Hart titles.

The recommendation by the Water Task Force last year was aimed at all farmers who use irrigation of all forms except trapped rainwater. Hance's amendment states that no person can be prohibited from participating in government farm programs unless specifically stated in law.

Food booths will open at 5 p.m. preceding the contest, with Mexican food served by the Latin-American Organization at one location, and the Lionsburgers which have won a reputation for Hart Lions Club chefs in past years, at another booth.

"This easily could have been one of those cases where an agency takes the authority of law in implementing a program," Hance said. "More than 80 per cent of all water consumed in the United States goes for agricultural purposes and one-sixth of all irrigation is in Texas. That proposal could have seriously crippled farm production."

Friday's schedule features a watermelon feed at 5 p.m. and music by the Flatland Bluegrass Band in the elementary gym at 8 p.m. Races and games will begin at 5 o'clock also, and the food booths will be open again.

The annual parade lineup is scheduled at 9 a.m. Saturday, when the Arts-Crafts show sponsored by Chi Psi Sorority and the flea market conducted by Xi Mu Iota Sorority will both open. Ice cream will be on sale by Zealot Club members.

More about Workers ...

[Continued from Page 1] ority over rooms or buildings to crew leaders, farmers or anyone else not occupying a room for his or her personal use;

-Increasing rent without giving advance notice; and
-Operating the housing project in a manner "that is not decent, safe or sanitary."

The motion also asks the court to order the housing authority to adopt a management plan describing in detail the policies and procedures to be followed in managing the 192-apartment complex.

If the court were to grant all points of the requested injunction, then crew chiefs and packing plants could no longer rent buildings or blocks of apartments in advance for their workers, as has been customarily done here.

"We have no argument with the crew chiefs or packing sheds wanting to pay the rent for their workers," Beardall said. "But that shouldn't give them control over who lives where, or under what terms or conditions."

Beardall agreed that construction of more housing here would alleviate the problems charged in the civil suit. When the big, 13-building housing project was constructed in the late 1960s with financial help from the Farmers Home Administration, it was considered more than adequate to provide enough decent housing for seasonal and migrant farm workers her. But in recent years it has been filled to capacity during most of the growing, harvesting and processing season.

Beardall said Tuesday that he was trying to set up a meeting with the defendants' attorneys to work out an order for a preliminary injunction "that would be agreeable to both sides, and that would set up procedures and regulations for operating the labor camp that would comply with the law."

He added, "I would think that the decision on the preliminary hearing Thursday would be a strong indication of the eventual outcome of the case."

THE sum of the intelligence on this planet is a constant; the population is growing.

Two indicted for burglary by grand jury

Two indictments on burglary charges headed the list of indictments returned by the Castro County Grand Jury in a Monday session, County Attorney Jimmy Davis reported. Terry Ray Davis and Robert Thomas Riley, both with Amarillo addresses, are charged with burglary of the Carl Kemp Farms office in March, when the office was entered and checks taken.

Jim W. Glasscock of Tulia was indicted for theft by check. The other five indictments were on charges of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Named in these indictments were O. T. Tice, Joe Barron Jr., Pedro Sifuentes, Albert C. Ramirez and Louis Fajardo.

Two other cases considered by the grand jury were passed until the next session, Davis said.

Delegates from county elected at Girls State

Castro County representatives to 1979 Bluebonnet Girls State, held recently at Seguin, were elected to offices in the mock political setup conducted to teach the girls citizenship.

Marci Wescott of Hart served as fire chief of City G, and Teresa Brockman of Nazareth was county attorney for Chili County.

Purpose of the statewide gathering, sponsored by American Legion Auxiliaries for girls who will be high school seniors next year, is to give citizenship training by participation in an imaginary state.

Miss Brockman is the daughter of the Jerome Brockmans and Miss Wescott of the J. V. Wescotts. Other girls went from Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth schools.

DPS urges care in driving during July 4 holidays

The Texas Department of Public Safety will be on full alert with all uniform services on roads and highways in Texas to control traffic during the Fourth of July Operation Motorcade 1979.

This alert period will begin at 6 p.m. July 3 and continue through midnight July 4, 1979. During this time, highway activities are expected to increase.

With this anticipation, the Department of Public Safety has estimated that 13 persons will lose their lives in traffic accidents. Operation Motorcade will last 30 hours, and each motorist will be responsible for himself and all others on the Texas highways, according to Maj. C. W. Bell regional DPS Commander.

"The responsible driver will be able to recognize the hazard, understand the defense, and act in time," Bell said. This will entail recognition of the drinking driver, and tired driver, the speeding driver, and the wreckless driver. Understanding the defense will depend on such things as alertness, knowledge of the road rules, understanding of the physical forces that act upon moving vehicles, and capabilities of the motorist to handle 3000 pounds of moving metal under stress conditions.

"Defensive Driving, is driving to prevent accidents in spite of the incorrect actions of others and adverse conditions," Bell said. He cautioned the Texas motorist to wear seat belts at all times. The National Safety Council has statistics showing that a person has a five to one chance of surviving if he remains in the auto during violent crashes.

"Despite the fact that 13 persons are predicted to die in traffic accidents this Fourth of July on the state's highways, the Texas Department of Public Safety will do everything reasonable to help the Texas motorist prevent an accident," Bell added.

"If you are in need of directions, or have engine trouble, call upon the trooper on the road to give you assistance. That black and white patrol car can mean the difference between a safe, secure trip, and that of great physical loss in many cases."

Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawals from certificates of deposit. However, penalties are only imposed on the amount withdrawn.

Regular passbook accounts earn from date of deposit to date of withdrawal. The passbook accounts, along with the thirty month, one year, and three month certificates earn interest compounded daily and paid by check or added to the account quarterly. Certificates are automatically renewed. All funds are insured in each type of account to $40,000 by the FSLIC and all funds are available at all times from all accounts.

Air conditioning tips

By TERESA CRISWELL

Now with hot weather, some of us are finding ourselves shopping for a new air conditioner. How do we know what to look for when purchasing a room air conditioner?

Manufacturers are suggesting that high efficiency with low capacity are our best buys. The efficiency of an air conditioner is measured by the number of (BTU's) British Thermal Units of heat removed from 1 watt of electricity used. Efficiency is expressed in an EER, Energy Efficiency Ratio. The higher the number, the more efficient the air conditioner.

High-efficiency units usually have more coils (heat transfer surface), and more efficient motors than the "standard" efficiencies. Therefore they cost more than the standard units.

When you go shopping for your air conditioner, know the size of the room where the unit will be used. This is very important because air conditioners dehumidify when the compressor is operating. A too-large air conditioner will cool an area quickly and cycle off before the humidity is controlled and comfort is dependent on temperature and humidity.

A small unit operates a longer time but will control the temperature and the humidity. If there is a question of which size to buy, it has been recommended to buy the smaller unit than buying the one that is too large.

Since air conditioners tend to be priced on the basis of capacity, all else being equal, a model with less cooling capacity will cost less to purchase than a larger one. And it may cost less to operate, according to General Electric.

Look for the air conditioner with lower capacity range with a higher efficiency ratio to cut down on future operating cost.

Houses with rectangular floor plans cost less per square foot to build than "L", or other irregular floor plans.

Comparison shop for drugs. Prices can vary greatly between stores.

To protect yourself while driving during your vacation, keep windows rolled up and doors locked. And always check to see that you have plenty of gasoline.

Deposit your money where the interest is

Are you losing $50 every six months on your savings account?

You could be if you don't compare savings accounts five important ways, advises Nancy Granovsky, a family resource management specialist.

Savings accounts are not all "pretty much alike," she adds.

In fact, studies show a 171 percent difference between the highest and lowest paying accounts.

To find a savings account that pays the highest interest, compare them on at least five different points—rate interest, method used to compute interest, compound frequency, grace days and penalties, Mrs. Granovsky says.

RATE OF INTEREST
The higher the annual percentage rate, the more interest the account will earn—all other things being equal.

Maximum rate allowed by law for federally chartered banks is 5 1/4 percent, effective July 1, but not all pay the maximum rate.

Federally chartered savings and loans, on the other hand, can pay 5 1/2 percent on passbook accounts, effective July 1.

Other institutions may advertise rates up to eight percent, but these accounts may not be insured, the specialist warns.

METHOD OF COMPUTING INTEREST

Method of computing interest has the most dramatic effect on how much interest a savings account will earn.

Understanding each institution's system, in fact, will help consumers understand how much money their account will not earn in some cases.

There are five ways of computing interest—DIDO, LIFO, FIFO, and LOW BALANCE. DIDO—stands for "Day of Deposit to Day Withdrawal."

With this method, money earns interest from the day it is deposited until the day it is withdrawn.

LIFO—stands for "Last In, First Out."

When money is withdrawn, the amount withdrawn stops earning interest all the way back to the date the last deposit was made in that particular accounting period.

FIFO—stands for "First In, First Out."

There are two FIFO methods.

With the first method, money withdrawn stops earning interest on the date the first deposit was made in that particular account period.

With the second method, money withdrawn never earns any interest during the particular accounting period in which it was withdrawn, even if the money was in the account for most of that particular period.

LOW BALANCE—means that only the lowest balance for the accounting period earns interest.

Flo Lust and Kyle Touchstone were married in a formal, double-ring ceremony Saturday afternoon in the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt with Lee Cole, pastor of the Cactus Drive Church of Christ in Levelland, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Lust and the groom is the son of Ann Murphy and Truman Touchstone. All are of Dimmitt.

Mrs. Charles Summers of Dimmitt served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Keith Cayton of Greeley, Colo., sister of the bride; Tricia Touchstone of Dimmitt, sister of the groom; Deana Finck of Tulia, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Gregg McKenney of Lubbock.

Kyle Broderson of Lorenzo served the groom as his best man. Groomsmen were Tobin Touchstone and Todd Touchstone of Dimmitt, brothers of the groom; Jim Birdwell of Dimmitt and Mark Merritt of Lubbock.

Ring bearer was the bride's nephew, Casey Summers, of Dimmitt. Halley Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bradley of Dimmitt, was flower girl.

Joe Lust and Rex Lust of Dimmitt, brothers of the bride were ushers as were Layne Myatt of Dimmitt and Danny Vaughan of Earth.

The altar of the church was decorated with a 15-flare candelabra flanked with two spiral candelabra on either side. Two bouquets of yellow spider mums, white gladiolas and snowflake crystal poms accented the altar.

The altar was centered with an arch covered with greenery and baby's breath. All decorations were accented with greenery and bows to match the bride's chosen colors of light blue, white and yellow.

Wedding music was provided by Ronda Wise on organ and Fred Allen on piano. Zelda Ellison sang "Sometimes," while Kathy Poer of Plano, aunt of the groom, sang "Wedding Prayer" and "It Seems I've always Loved You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white organza. A sheer yoke surrounded the Queen Anne Neckline trimmed with Venice lace and pearls.

The empire waistline and long narrow sleeves were also trimmed with Venice lace. Tiny lace daisies on the front of the skirt and on the train formed a scalloped effect.

The bride wore a long chapel-length veil and a blusher veil trimmed in tiny Venice lace daisies. The veils gathered onto a bridal headpiece covered in pearls and lace.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of pastel yellow sweetheart roses, white daisies, white snowflake poms accented with baby's breath and ribbons of the wedding colors atop a Bible given to her by the groom.

The bridesmaids wore formal length gowns of pale blue jersey. The capped sleeve bodice was covered with a layer of chiffon for a blouson look. The dresses had softly rounded necklines. The bodice was gathered at the waist, forming a flowing skirt.

Attendants carried a long-stemmed sweetheart rose accented with baby's breath and a bow. They wore a side piece of daisies and baby's breath in their hair.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Lamar Fellowship Hall of the church. A large three-tiered wedding cake was served by Cinde Sides and Angela Ross.

Four heart-shaped cakes surrounded a lighted fountain flowing in the center. Hand molded gum paste roses, daisies and miniature mums matching the wedding flowers decorated the cake. A nosegay of fresh flowers matching those used on the cake completed the cake decorations.

Serving punch at the bride's table was Ginia Shetty.

The groom's table featured red velvet cake decorated with pecans and chocolate swirls. Sharla Vaughan and Joyce Wooten served cake while Mrs. Bill McCay of Lubbock served coffee to guests.

Following the reception, the couple left on a wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nev. The bride wore a white traveling suit of vest and skirt with a yellow blouse and white accessories.

Following the honeymoon, the couple will be at home at Rt. 4 Dimmitt until fall when they will move to 4702 4th #172 in Lubbock.

The bride is a Texas Tech graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics Education and Food and Nutrition. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta and Mortar Board and taught homemaking in the Olton Public Schools.

She will teach homemaking this fall in Petersburg.

The groom attends Texas Tech and is majoring in accounting and Business Computer Science. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fraternity and is working for Dimco Corp. this summer.

Rural women untapped labor force

Rural women, roughly one-third of the female population represent the greatest untapped labor force in America today, a study by a Texas A&M University sociologist shows.

While the resource is great, few women participate in jobs outside the home even though many farm incomes are operating at or below the poverty level. Why don't they participate?

"You've got to have the opportunity first," explains the researcher, Dr. Elizabeth Maret. "There are just fewer job opportunities for women in rural areas and the jobs are relatively low paying."

Truck company purchase gets final approval

Wales Transportation Inc. has completed the purchase of J. J. Willis Trucking Co. from parent company, Temtex, announced John R. Hill Jr., Chairman and CEO of Gifford-Hill & Co. Inc. Wales is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Gifford-Hill.

"The acquisition allows Wales to better serve customers whose transportation needs include access to the western states of Arizona and California," said Hill. "Wales and Willis have direct operating authority in 28 states and four Canadian provinces, with limited operating authority in the rest of the continental United States."

The transaction has been pending since May 1978, awaiting Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) final approval. On May 14, 1979, The ICC granted authority and approved the acquisition by Wales of permanent authority to control, operate and manage the business and properties of Willis. The company fleet now consists of approximately 400 tractors and 600 trailers.

Washing laundry is shared job

Laundry has a man's touch these days, and men say they're happier with the results than most women, says Beck Culp, a clothing specialist.

A recent survey reports that males are responsible for one-fourth of the laundry—or more when wives are outside the home more than 30 hours per week, the specialist says. Ms. Culp is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

More women working outside the home is greatly influencing who does the laundry.

In households where laundry was a shared task, sharing increased 15 percent from 1977 to 1978.

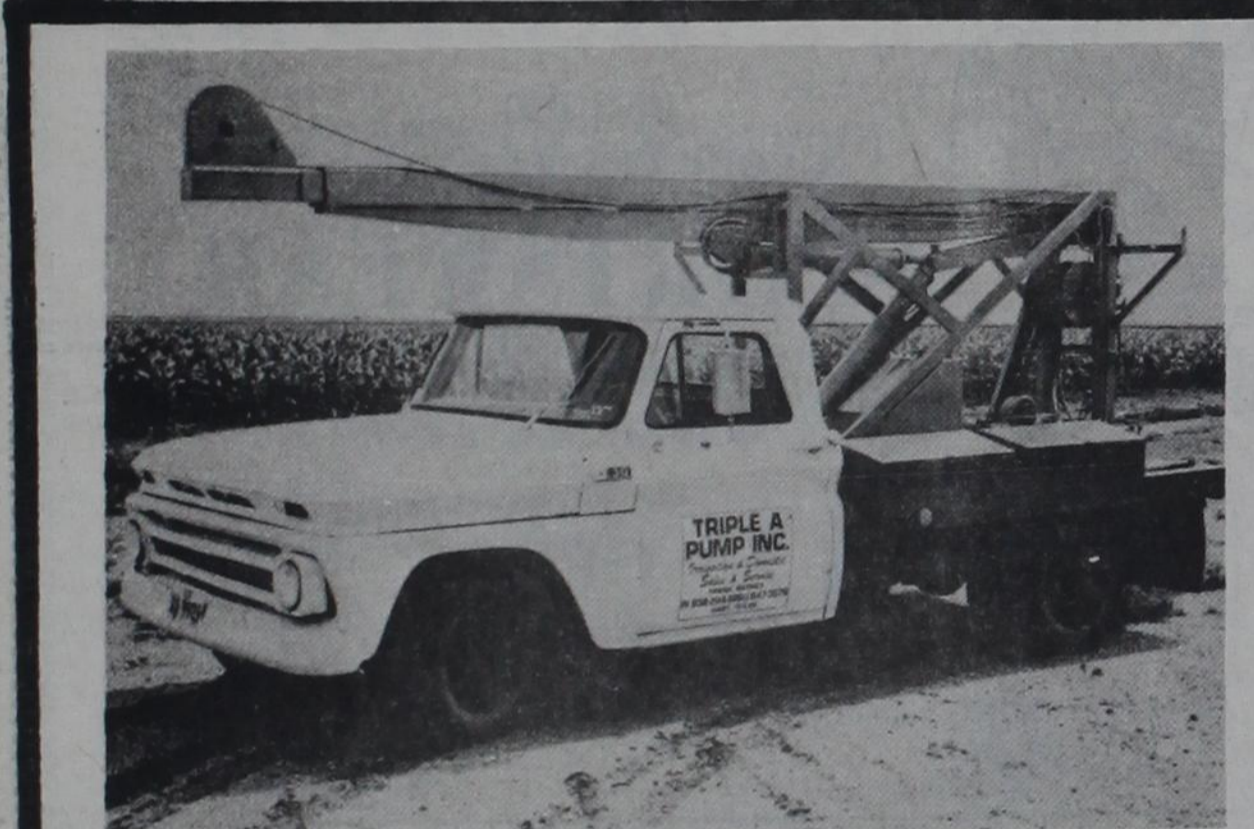

In addition, more youth under age 18 are taking major responsibilities for the laundry.

Among problems reported with laundry, most resulted from washloads with soiled children's clothing or washloads using cold-water temperatures.
