EDITORIAL

Lord, what is men that Thou hast knowledge of him. — Psalm 144:3.

LAST WEEK The Beacon editor had a few words to say about the so-called "Democrats of Texas." We stated that some DOT leaders were trying to sell the idea that farmers and labor should have no conf. of interest and that all show, work together. Of course, farms, and labor might not have any conflicts if they lived in different worlds but there are many conflicts of interest and the person or leader who pretends to please both groups must, of necessity, be hypocritical. One current conflict is pointed out by Charlie Guy, writer of The Plainsman column in the Lubbock Avalanche just a few days ago. The article had this to say:

"THE SELF-STYLED 'Democrats of Texas' aren't saying anything about the farm labor emergency in this and other parts of the State these days and their slate of candidates won't say anything when they're out here campaigning, either. But it should be of interest to South Plains farmers seeking an extension of the bracero agreements with Mexico to know that the 'Dots' are against such extension.

The 'Texas Observer,' a weekly propaganda paper printed in Austin is forever yelling about the use of braceros in Texas, which isn't surprising. The publication is owned by Mrs. R. D. Randolph, big boss and principal financial angel of the "Dots." It also is the spokesman for organized labor — which opposes braceros — which in the past has put up money for the "Observer."

Incidentally, this isn't the only area of Texas needing farm labor. Harry Provence, editor of the newspapers in Waco, called up here Tuesday to find out what South Plains farmers were trying to do to solve the problem in the field. He wanted to pass local ideas along to Central Texas tillers of the soil.

Editor Provence said crops in Central Texas are sadly in need of workers; added that the important sweet corn crop down that way is in grave danger."

THE DOTS are hypocritical in other ways too. Take for instance their insistence that they are the simon-pure Democrats and the conservative group is "Shivercrats," "Dixiecrats," and other silly names that actually have no meaning. The Democratic Party traditionally stands for free enterprise and states rights. That's the platform of conservatives now. But the "Triple L's", the Liberals or whatever you want to call them are not Democrats at all. They are pure, unadulterated Socialists. In fact, this same liberal element in the national party became so socialist-minded that they have destroyed the Socialist party in the United States, and now they are all voting in the Democratic Party.

IF A MAN wants to be a Socialist, he has a perfect right to do so. This is a free country and no one should criticize him for his political beliefs. But these Socialists who call themselves "Liberals" shouldn't jump into the Democratic party and try to root out those of us who stand for the traditional Democratic principals. The Socialists' invasions of the Democratic Party is the cause of all confusion over party lines. Yet they are the very ones who yell so loudly about party lines. Let the Socialists get back into the Socialist party, the Democrats in the Democratic Party and the Republicans in the Republican Party and end all the confusion. In other countries the Socialists come out and admit their identity, campaigning under the name "Socialists." Why not do the same in this country?

OMINOUS WARNING
Are the American people facing the "twilight of the Republic?"

According to the Palm Beach (Fla.) Post Times, that question was raised by Samuel B. Pettengill, former Indiana Congressman, in a recent speech in that city. And he offered documented evidence that they are.

Mr. Pettengill said the twilight of the Republic is approaching simply because the American people have abandoned the system of government which made their nation outstanding. They have allowed themselves to be led, bribed, conned, frightened, cajoled and pushed away from a system of individual initiative and free enterprise into the wasting disaster that is the "welfare state."

"Some call it the 'nursemaid state,' but both terms are synonymous with Socialism—the gospel of Karl Marx," says the newspaper.

Taking its cue from the remarks of the former Indiana Congressman, the Post-Times notes steps which indicate definitely that the U. S. has moved far down the road to Socialism. —Lubbock Morning Avalanche.

WEED PROBLEMS
Chronology of Weeds. The old settlers recall when there were no weeds—except broom, blue-weed and loco and the plow put them out of business with the turn of the virgin soil. It was a lazy man's life. The first fool farmers who began the ruin of the world's greatest empire planted in the spring, harvested in the fall. Then came a dry spell and there were goat heads, another and there were Russian thistles, then bindweed, Johnson grass had a precarious beginning away back. But it did not flourish until irrigation days. How serious are the latest scourges is yet to be seen. —Floyd County Hesperian.

WHAT DIFFERENCE?
"If all power is concentrated in the State, it is no importance, in the long run, whether that State represents communism, fascism, British socialism, or Welfare Statism, carried to its logical conclusion, or any other 'ism'. The men who control such a State may start with the best intentions — but they will end as bloody tyrants. It is impossible to reject capitalism except in favor of its only alternative, the omnipotent State.

under which man cannot be free and his dignity will not be respected." — Towner Phelan in The Freeman.

THIS OLD BOY HAS TROUBLES

The gentle art of being a parent—be it father or mother—often presents problems which stump the nation's industrial tycoons. Such a situation was recently demonstrated on a father in San Francisco.

The 11-year-old son played hockey from school, "borrowed" $5 from the family "new car fund" in the cookie jar and spent the afternoon downtown. The lad took in three western movies, purchased a $1 chance on a new car, played all of the machines in a penny arcade and literally "stuffed himself" with candy, popcorn and other tempting morsels.

The situation might still be undiscovered, except for the fact that a man called that night to ask the boy's father where to deliver the new automobile the youngster had won in the raffle.

What the father can't figure out now is how he will ever fully convince his 11-year-old son that crime doesn't pay. Furthermore, if you have a good logical answer, let us know. — Hereford Beard.

Dear Editor:
Foreign aid advocates are always saying same is not actually an expense to the taxpayers, on account of the money comes right back into U.S. trade channels.

My doubtful neighbor says this principle might work out on an international scale, but folks around here don't take it.

Says he tried to borrow a twenty from his grocer neighbor the other day and promised to spend it all right there in his store, but the man it seems like doesn't believe in this modern method of booming his business.

Long Ago In Lockney

Items of interest from the files of The Lockney Beacon.

June 14, 1928

There are 77 paying members of Lockney Chamber of Commerce at this time. Those who haven't joined are urged to do their part in helping develop the town.

Mrs. W. D. Long has been busy at her ranch northeast of Lockney having 1,000 acres of sod land broke and put into condition for planting, 700 acres will be planted in wheat.

Goree Applewhite, a student at Baylor University, will preach at Lone Star Baptist Church Sunday.

The marriage of Miss Jettie Wells and Carter Thompson took place Sunday at the Methodist Church with Rev. J. B. McReynolds officiating. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wells, Lockney, grew up here and returned from college to teach two successful years in the local school. The groom is in business at Post where the couple will make their home.

June 14, 1946

Next Sunday, June 16, is Fathers Day and as far as The Beacon can find out, John D. McAdams is the oldest father in this section. He will be 92 years old in September. Mr. McAdams who makes his home with his son, Carl, was born in 1854 at Pilot Point, in Denton County, Texas, where his father engaged in stock farming. He served in the Civil War. He spent much of his life after his marriage doing stock farming in Oregon and Colorado. Later he spent seven years in Cripple Creek, Colo., gold mining.

AMARILLO, TEXAS

Your Reddy Kilowatt dealer has a bonus for you if you see a demonstration of his electric range in his store. He'll give you a certificate good for two bug lamps at any Public Service office. Yellow bug lamps, which fit ordinary sockets, eliminate most of the light that insects see, yet provide a soft, comfortable light for outdoor living.

And that's good. For when this vivacious and attractive doctor's wife is out of the kitchen, she's spending much of her time making her community a better place to live. Time is important to Mrs. Garre. In addition to being a fine mother and homemaker, she is a working leader in the P-T-A, Amarillo's Child Guidance Center, The Family Service of Amarillo, and The Potter-Randall Citizen's Committee. You'll find there's more time for you — and the things you want to do when you cook — and live — better electrically.

10 CLUES TO CANCER

Clue No. 10, Prevention

One area of cancer research involves producing a vaccine against the disease. The first successes now have been recorded. It has proved possible to vaccinate mice against specific kinds of cancer — but, unfortunately, vaccination against one kind does not protect the animals against many other kinds of cancer.

Chicks also have been vaccinated successfully against a form of leukemia which costs the poultry industry many millions of dollars each year.

While these results are encouraging, they do not portend the end of the cancer problem in humans — at least, not at this time. Humans are susceptible to many kinds of cancer; and it is not possible to determine against which cancers each individual should be vaccinated.

Nevertheless, a widespread search is under way for a vaccine which might apply to many or all human cancers.

Help science help you! Send your contribution to the American Cancer Society!

Dear Editor: I note that wavy-tressed rock-n-roller Jerry Lee Lewis don't feel bad about marrying his 13-year-old cousin when he already had one wife.

He explained to the squares over in England that this was all right because he had married double once before, but they went ahead and decided they could be entertained just as well by less-wedded singers.

My musician neighbor says he sort of envies the British, on account of when Mr. Lewis gets on their nerves they can send him home.

Dear Editor:
I see where a Youth Research organization was very flabbergasted when one of their polls showed about 40 per cent of high school kids cheat on exams when there is not much danger of getting caught.

My people expert neighbor says this is nothing to get alarmed about, and ought to be looked at from the angle that it means 60 per cent of the youngsters won't cheat.

Says he once took a poll of adults by running a credit grocery for a while, and he might still be in business if grown folks scored anywhere near that high on honesty.

6.4 Percent Of Cotton Acreage In Soil Bank

Lubbock — The 23-member counties of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. in West Texas put only 6.4 per cent of the 1958 cotton allotments in the Soil Bank.

From a total allotment of 2,279,436 acres, farmers in the 23 counties put only 145,778 in the Soil Bank.

Acreage by county ranged from a low of 742 acres put in Yoakum County farmers to a high of 20,094 acres put in by farmers in Dickens County. It might be noted that the majority of land in both these counties is dry land acreage.

Farmers received slightly more than five million dollars compensation for this acreage being put in the 1958 Soil Bank. Floyd County has 7,686 acres in the soil bank. Hale County has 12,746 and Briscoe County has 2,602 acres in the soil bank.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUTIN, Tex. — Texas Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools is working toward getting a gold star when an economy-minded Legislature hits Austin next year.

Launching a new tight-purse policy, the Board voted to prohibit superintendents of individual state institutions from (1) using leftover funds without Board permission and (2) making any expenditure of more than $1,000 without Board approval.

Sometimes individual hospitals develop surplus funds resulting from smaller patient loads than had been expected, or other reduced costs. New rule puts an end to no-strings-attached spending of such surpluses. These lapsed funds could amount to as much as one million dollars, according to Board Member W. G. Kirklind of Odessa.

CHILL WIND — Hospital Board's move pinpointed the spot where the state's money shortage is expected to pinch hardest — administration of state services.

A revenue shortage in excess of $100,000,000 by next year has been freely predicted by various authorities for months.

A survey of the platforms of legislative candidates over the state shows a fairly consistent approach by those making statements on the revenue dilemma. General pattern of promises to voters:

(1) Continuation or, often, increase in state obligations for education, welfare payments, road building, soil and water conservation, etc.

(2) Opposition to certain new taxes or sometimes new taxes in general.

(3) Cuts in state spending by "elimination of waste, duplication and needless services by state agencies."

Actual achievement or near-achievement of this fiscal magic will put a real squeeze on every state department.

NOT ME — Likelihood that someone may draw the "black bean" of new state taxes has group after group telling the State Tax Study Commission how overburdened they are already.

A spokesman for the Texas Motor Bus Association told the Commission taxes on that industry are heavy and discriminatory. He said many smaller lines were having to go out of business.

A representative of retired people asked tax relief for people living on pensions. "We are no longer concerned with saving the goose that lays the golden eggs. Our goose was cooked when we lost our ability to work and earn," said W. B. Wood of Port Arthur.

On behalf of the Texas Association for Tax Relief for Texans over 65, Wood asked for tax exemption for the first $3,000 of property owned by oldsters. He also opposed a sales tax.

Discrimination is charged because the law applies to wholesalers but not to producers who sell only the output of their own flocks. Suit also objects to the provision that makes violations a criminal offense and the requirement that eggs kept under refrigeration for 30 days or more be labeled "cold storage eggs."

REPUBLICAN — Texas Supreme Court is considering the question of whether a former Democrat candidate is entitled to a position on the Republican primary ballot.

Grover Cantrell, Dallas labor leader and onetime Democrat candidate for the Legislature attempted to file against Texas' only Republican congressman, Bruce Alger. He called himself a "Stevenson Republican," an apparent parody of Eisenhower Democrats.

A lower court ruled that Cantrell, as a member of one party, was not entitled to seek nomination in another party's primary. Cantrell appealed to the high court.

Since there is usually only one nominee for each office, Republican primaries do not ordinarily attract a heavy vote. It is widely assumed that many Republicans cross party lines to vote in Democratic primaries where most state offices are decided.

Cantrell's candidacy is generally interpreted as a move to force Republicans to stay in their own primary.

DIESEL TAX CHANGE — Proposed revisions in the diesel fuel tax law are being planned by the State Comptroller's Department.

Next Legislature will be asked to change the law so diesel fuel taxes would be collected from the wholesale distributor rather than the user, said a Department official. This is expected to make it easier for tax agents to keep track of consumption and purchases.

Comptroller's Department staffers admit that there are some evasions of the state motor fuels tax, but contend that Texas collects more per vehicle than any other major state. They discount as too large Sen. Charles Herring's guess that some $25,000,000 in fuel taxes went uncollected.

Senate investigating committee looked into records in the Houston area to discover if small staffs, vague laws or insufficient penalties were causing the state to lose revenue.

OVER THE HUMP — Texas' general revenue fund is back in the black, according to State Comptroller Robert Calvert.

During the spring, state expenditures got ahead of tax receipts. A month ago the fund was in the red by some $1,250,000. But collection of corporation franchise taxes and insurance company occupation taxes during the month put finances back on schedule.

Now there's more than $12,000,000 in the fund, said Calvert.

THINNING RANKS — Withdrawal of Joe Booker of Orange reduced to four the number in the governor's race.

Alvis Vanduygriff, Austin attorney, dropped out earlier.

Still opposing Gov. Price Daniel are W. Lee O'Daniel, State Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez and Joe Irwin of Dallas.

In June 1854 the first formal graduation ceremonies were held at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Although classes had been graduating for eight years, this marked the first formal ceremony to be held.

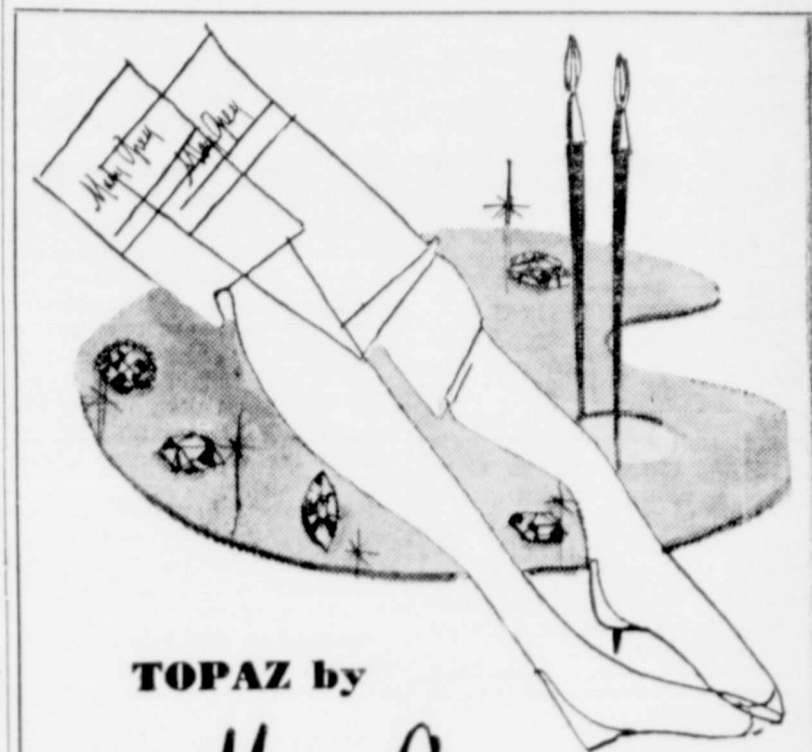

Pfc. Billy Chandler Receives Award

Baumholder, Germany (AHTNC) — Army PFC Billy L. Chandler, whose wife, Janney, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denver M. Chandler, live in Lockney, recently received an 8th Infantry Division award in Germany for outstanding participation in the Army Savings program.

Chandler, assigned to Battery B of the division's 28th Artillery, entered the Army in May 1957 and was stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., before arriving in Europe in December 1957.

The 23-year-old soldier was graduated from Lockney High School in 1953 and was employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Plainview, in civilian life.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

MRS. MAMIE SIMS

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I announce to you that Mrs. Mamie Sims will complete 10 years of service with the Telephone Company soon.

She started to work June 16, 1948 as an operator here in Lockney and later transferred to Plainview as an operator when Lockney was converted to dial operation in July, 1951.

Although she commutes most every day 15 miles, her attendance has been very good. Whether the weather is bad or good she makes it to work. This is very commendable.

She lives at 714 West College where recently she moved into a new home. She has 4 children.

The Telephone Company is proud to have such fine employees as Mrs. Sims.

FOR PARENTS ONLY

Now that summer is here and the children are out of school, I imagine the family's telephone service is getting an extra-good workout.

I guess teenagers, and even the smaller fry, need the telephone more often during vacation months. They use it to line-up sand lot ball games, swimming parties, movie dates, and a good many other things, as we all know.

It would be hard to find a better time than now to order an extension telephone. Put it in a room where it will be handiest for the youngsters. They'll enjoy the privacy and so will you. Best of all, you'll save yourself no telling how many dashes to answer incoming calls that always seem to be for them.

To order an extension, just call the telephone business office, OL 4-2202. The cost is only $1.00 a month for a residence extension, plus tax and installation.

MEMO TO BUSINESSMEN!

I heard a businessman remark recently that he's going over his operations with a fine-tooth comb to trim unnecessary expenses. And one item he planned to cut was Long Distance.

I wonder if he wasn't making a mistake. I can understand the desire to cut costs. But, rather than cut Long Distance, he should use his telephone even MORE for out-of-town calling.

Many businessmen have proved it in for themselves this way: Instead of you or your salesmen taking to visit several prospective customers in other parts of the state, call them Long Distance. It saves travel on the road, and turns travel time into selling time. And a telephone call is almost as personal as a visit and just as effective.

Try it yourself and watch the results. I think in the long run you'll agree with our belief that Long Distance costs less.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

are you waiting for what I was?

Let me tell you what I saved when I drove a new Plymouth...then bought one!

Just like a lot of other people, I was putting off buying a new car . . . even though we sure needed one. Then I found out what my Plymouth dealer was offering in the way of low prices and really big trades.

Mister, when I saw what I saved I knew there was no use putting off any longer! Got more for my old car than I believed possible. (Plymouth dealers need used cars and can sell all they get!) Got a terrifically low price on the new Plymouth . . . and choice of models besides . . . hard-tops, sedans, convertibles, wagons.

And I saved a cool $140 on the ride alone! Plymouth's top-luxury ride, Torsion-Aire Ride, is standard at no extra cost, while you have to pay up to $140 for the top ride of competing "low-price 3" cars.

What's more, I got the car that proved it can save me gasoline, by winning the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. A car with Silver Dart Styling that is so far ahead right now it will still be worth more when I trade. With the kind of easy handling that makes every minute of driving a downright thrill! The stamina to stand up without nagging adjustments and big repairs . . . a car as much better built as it is better looking!

Any wonder I quit waiting? Take my tip . . . get your Plymouth bargain right now.

Today's best buy...tomorrow's best trade... Plymouth

3 Local Boys Attend Salvation Army Camp

Three Lockney boys "had the time of their lives" last week while attending a Salvation Army summer camp at Camp Hoblitzella, Texas, near Waxahachie. They were Bill Dodson, Raymond Davis and Bobby Holt.

The boys are all members of Boy Scout Troop No. 59 and Scoutmaster Arthur Barker Jr. was instrumental in securing permission for the boys to attend the camp. They left here Sunday, June 1, and returned home June 8.

The boys were comfortably housed in attractive brick and redwood cabins, 12 boys and a counselor to each cabin. The camp was under the direction of Major Elmer Capp, youth director for the Salvation Army in Texas, who is recognized as one of the outstanding camp directors of the country.

Major Capp arranged a program that kept each boy busy from the rising bugle, sounded at 7 a. m., to tatus and lights out, blown at 9:30 p. m. The days were filled with games and recreation, rest, visiting fellow campers, boating and swimming lessons, hiking, craftsmanship, religious and guidance conference, and other things of interest.

Cotton Fertilizer Experiments At Station Scheduled

The application of magnesium and trace element to cotton at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation has aroused considerable interest among the High Plains farmers. These tests are a portion of the cotton research program being conducted under a grant recently made by the Plains Cotton Growers.

Dr. T. C. Longnecker, Chief Soil Scientist and Head of the Station, stated today that "observation on the effects of magnesium salts on maturity of cotton indicate that in some manner, probably through better assimilation or utilization of phosphate, magnesium is hastening the maturity of cotton and by this improving yield and quality. The proper usage of magnesium may prove very valuable to cotton growers of this area but many questions concerning its use remain unanswered. This experiment is being conducted in an effort to obtain more information concerning the effect of different forms of magnesium and trace elements on yield and quality of cotton."

In this experiment, magnesium sulfate (epsom salts) and Sul-Po-Mag (a natural mixture of magnesium sulfate and potassium sulfate) are being applied at different rates and with and without other materials which may make them more effective in the soil.

A minor element mixture containing iron, manganese, boron and zinc is also being used in this study to determine the value of these nutrients on cotton production. A uniform application of 60 pounds nitrogen per acre and 80 pounds of phosphate is being made along with each of the other treatments of magnesium and trace elements.

Tissue tests will be made on the cotton growing under these various treatments during the growing season to determine any difference in uptake of phosphate and magnesium. Cotton yields will be determined this fall and in addition, grade, staple, micronaire and other quality tests will be made to determine any effects on fiber quality.

EASY-TO-MAKE BEACH BAG
Bright colored oilcloth from the five- and ten-cent store makes many handsome accessories for outdoor living. For an easy-to-make beach bag that can be used for protection from ground dampness on picnics as well as damp bathing suits, the home economists with the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association suggest the use of a newspaper as a pattern. Cut two pieces of oilcloth the same size as the newspaper. Use the complete newspaper as a lining. Bind the edges with bias tape or blanket stitch. Add handles of folded oilcloth—and that's all there is to it.

INSTANT COFFEE FLAVOR
According to home economists with the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, there are two secrets for success in getting full-bodied coffee flavor when using instant coffee. The first is to allow the coffee to steep a few minutes after the coffee and water are combined. The second success tip is to keep the beverage hot over a low flame until serving time. Try making instant coffee in a pot instead of a cup. You'll notice a difference in the flavor.

Perpetual

Motion

A Community Economy is not a perpetual motion machine which, once started, goes on forever without any further care or feeding.

Like other American communities, this one of ours was built by people with faith in themselves and in their neighbors . . . people who used their money over and over again to create the trade volume it took to establish the homes and businesses, schools and churches, and other civic facilities . . . which make this the pleasant place that it is to live, and to bring up our children.

Obviously the degree of growth and prosperity which any community area can reach and maintain . . . its attainable and continuing social economic momentum . . . is determined almost wholly by the volume of trade that it earns and gets.

No community has ever been built . . . none can be kept functioning at a satisfactory economic level . . . by confirmed out-of-town shoppers, mail-order fans, and peddler-pushovers.

Trade in Lockney

Farmers Union Head Opposes Cotton Slash

Denton — Alex Dickie, Jr., President Texas Farmers Union, said today that he wanted to set the record straight on the stand taken by at least one farm organization in Texas for holding the price line on cotton to the producers. "We in Texas Farmers Union are not in favor of sacrificing the price to the producers, and we intend to fight for an extension of the present minimum acreage now in effect for cotton to expire this due year," Dickie said.

Dickie stated that he agreed that cotton had to be in a competitive position with synthetics but that this did not have to be done at the expense of cotton farmers. Cotton should be sold in the normal channels of trade both at home and abroad and if the price received by the producer is less than a parity of income price, then the difference should be made up by compensatory payments, he said.

THE TEXAS FARMERS UNION believes that the cotton farmer has made all and more of the price sacrifice that he can," Dickie continued. "If the ginners, spinners, weavers, and handlers are worried about the competitive price of cotton, our price is down to 84% of parity, how much are they willing to take off for their services? This idea that the farmers is the only one who has to be competitive is nothing but some more Republican, big business, hog wash designed to confuse the public and even some farmers fall for it."

The Texas Farmers Union stands for a parity of income price for cotton to the family type cotton farmers in Texas, Dickie said.

Dickie said he could not understand why the Eisenhower Administration was so opposed to the direct payment approach on cotton when it is what they have used on wool for several years now, and only last week Secretary of the Interior, Fred A. Seaton, urged Congress to adopt a five year plan of price supports involving the use of deficiency payments to cover copper, lead, zinc, fluor spar, and tungsten.

Mrs. Kirk Martin and family of Eugene, Oregon spent Sunday night and Monday visiting her aunts, Mrs. Olive Myers and Mrs. Charlie Reeves. Mrs. Martin is the daughter of the late Frank Mudgett, former Lockney resident.

Shortage In Farm Labor Is On Increase

Lubbock — An already serious shortage of farm laborers is mounting daily throughout the Texas High Plains and the handicaps now imposed by the Texas Employment Commission on the recruiting of Mexican Braceros is being viewed with grave concern. W. O. Fortenberry, President of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. said today.
Fortenberry said that the labor shortage could greatly impair crop production on the High Plains this year, especially with vegetable farmers at present and even with cotton producers as the cotton crop progresses.

Much labor is needed now by many cotton producers to help chop and weed cotton fields, however uncooperative help from Texas Unemployment Commission officials has allowed only a trickle of farm labor. Tuesday, June 3, the Bracero Committee of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. composed of W. T. Millen, Muleshoe; W. G. White, Lamesa; P. A. Nafzger, Olton; J. T. Fulford, Brownfield; and J. D. Smith, Littlefield, met and adopted two resolutions pertaining to the labor situation.

The committee endorsed the position taken by the National Farm Labor Users Committee favoring extension of Public Law 78, which governs the use of Mexican Nationals for farm labor.

Proper administration of present provisions of Public Law 78 will work satisfactorily, thus farmers favor its extension, a spokesman explained.
In the other resolution adopted by the PCG Bracero Committee, it was stated: "It is the consensus of this group that the intent of Public Law 78 is being circumvented through administrative actions of local and regional agents of the U.S. Department of Labor and Texas Employment Commission.

While no specific details were announced, Chairman Millen said specific examples of mis-interpretation of some of the rules under Public Law 78 have been gathered and would be presented in Washington, D. C., June 9-14 when representatives attend hearings on Public Law 78.
The Committee charged that the labor shortage in West Texas was triggered by a Department of Labor ruling that domestic labor resources must be exhausted before Mexican Nationals can be imported.

"However in practically all instances where domestic labor has been contacted, such labor has refused to come to the High Plains area and work in agriculture, yet the Texas Employment Commission continually refuses to certify our counties and organizations so that Mexican Braceros can be obtained", Chairman Millen explained.

Representatives who will probably accompany Millen to Washington include Otho Smith, Littlefield; White and Nafzger in addition to George W. Pfeifferberger, Executive Vice President of the PCG.

Sterley News

By Mrs. Virgil Adams
Wheat harvest is starting in our community this week.

Dear Editor:
I see where one of the big universities now has met a crying need and is offering a 3-hour credit course in fishing.

Which my progressive neighbor says is far ahead of the old days when you had to learn the art of fishing by trial and error, or from some undiplomaed Doctor of Worm Washing.

Says that maybe this trend will lead to the setting up of many useful college courses, say, in TV watching, Work Evasion, and Back-yard Meat Burning.
