

'Backlash' builds over TRLA actions

The backlash against suits filed by Texas Rural Legal Aid, Inc., is building in the area as defendants and their backers voice resentment. The Hereford TRLA office has filed class-action civil suits against counties, county officials, non-profit organizations and individuals, charging widespread discrimination against minority residents. Virtually every taxpayer in Castro County is affected by one or more of the suits. Carl King of Dimmitt and Deaf Smith County Sheriff Travis McPherson are circulating petitions asking that the TRLA's federal funding be cut off. They're claiming that the federally funded office is using taxpayers' money to represent illegal aliens. King is involved in a suit that alleges mistreatment and underpayment of migrant farm laborers. McPherson is a defendant in a suit that alleges his department falsely arrested and jailed at least one US citizen on suspicion of being an illegal alien. King said the signed petitions will be sent to Texas senators and congressmen to oppose continued funding of the TRLA. "If President Carter really wants to cut the federal budget he should start by cutting out unnecessary funding of harassment, which has been done by TRLA," King said. "Some of the things they are trying to accomplish may be justified," King said, "but they have unlimited funds and are suing people with limited budgets." The suit against Castro County and its officials charging that precinct boundaries were not in balance—which is in the process of settlement—will ultimately cost the county thousands of dollars. Meanwhile, activities of the TRLA locally have been drawing statewide publicity. The Dallas Morning News Sunday supplement, "Scene Magazine," carried a cover picture and feature article on the fights between the TRLA and the local "establishment." Titled "High Noon in Hereford," the story featured a photo of TRLA lawyers Bill Beardall, Ed Tuddenham and Janis Harbury in front of a dilapidated shack (which, as it turned out, has not been inhabited in years). Although the article spotlighted Hereford in the title, it spent more space on Dimmitt, pulling in the "witches' trial" in Plainview, the suit against the Castro County Hospital District in the death of the Aguinaga baby, and the suit against the County Housing Authority alleging arbitrary evictions, random rent increases and bad living conditions.

Antitrust trial continues

Cargill settles with DAI

Testimony continues in Federal District Court in Amarillo in the $32 million antitrust suit brought by Dimmitt Agri Industries against CPC International.

Cargill, Inc., an original co-defendant in the suit, reportedly settled out of court with the local co-op Tuesday. The DAI suit—filed Nov. 4, 1974—charges CPC with conspiring to artificially drive the prices of corn starch and syrup down to a level which made it impossible for the co-op to gain a foothold in the market with its corn milling plant.

The suit further alleges that starch and syrup prices "rose to even higher levels than before DAI started its operations" after the co-op gave up and signed a lease-purchase agreement with the Amstar Corp. on the local mill.

DAI is represented in court by Hereford attorney James W. Witherspoon and the San Francisco firm of Alioto & Alioto.

Written testimony entered as evidence Tuesday included a memorandum from CPC official Henry Sheppard expressing CPC's high West Coast share of the cornstarch and syrup market... and discourage others from entering the corn wet milling industry.

James R. Harsh, former president of Dimmitt Management Co., which operated the plant for DAI, is named as a separate plaintiff in the case, seeking personal damages. The trial is expected to continue for several weeks before the four-woman, two-man jury panel.

Revenue Sharing money may offset UW cutbacks

Senior Citizens, Inc., Rhoads Memorial Library and the Castro County Historical Museum found the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen in an agreeable mood Monday night when they asked for more money from federal Revenue Sharing funds. During the required "Proposed Use Hearing"—the first step toward allocating next year's expected $72,580 in Revenue Sharing income—aldermen gave tentative approval to requests for increased funding for all three of the non-profit agencies. The final hearing and adoption of the Revenue Sharing budget for fiscal 1981 will be held April 7. More requests could be presented at that time. Noting that the Revenue Sharing program is likely to "go down the tube" in a year or two under President Carter's budget-balancing program, the aldermen Monday night also made tentative plans to transfer several items—such as dispatcher's salary, mosquito spraying, civil defense and parks-recreation—to the city operating budget so the blow won't be felt so much when the federal funds are cut off. The aldermen hope to use the federal money left by these transfers to bring the city's sealcoating "up to snuff" and make it easier to keep up with street repairs on an annual basis from now on. Senior Citizens President M. A. Pennington—backed by 14 other members of the organization—requested $14,400, an increase of $4,000 from the current allocation. Pennington said the loss of funding from the United Way for next year creates the need for more Revenue Sharing funds. The Senior Citizens still owe four annual payments of $12,000 on their building, Pennington said. "If Revenue Sharing is dropped, we could make it on our own after this year, but we need this $12,000," he said. Mayor Elmer Youts said that the booklet containing guidelines for disbursement of Revenue Sharing funds specifically states that "requests of Senior Citizens organizations are to be invited." Jim Elder, president of the Castro County Museum Association, requested $4,000 for payment on the museum's mortgage note and approximately $1,000 for utility bills. Rhoads Memorial Library requested $15,000 from Revenue Sharing, noting that it will no longer receive help from the United Way. Another expense which is currently funded with Revenue Sharing money is $8,400 for one-third of the expenses for the Countywide ambulance service, with the county and hospital district each paying a third. Cost of the city's dispatcher service by the county—$1,200 per month—is currently being paid from Revenue Sharing funds, but aldermen said they felt this should be transferred to the operational budget. Alderman Doug Lapins said, "We will be faced with these operating expenses in the future after Revenue Sharing goes down the tube, and we might as well prepare for it." The board also discussed transferring funds for mosquito spraying, civil defense and parks and recreation to the operating budget. These changes would free $21,045 of Revenue Sharing money, which the aldermen said they would like to apply to the sealcoating project for city streets. The current Revenue Sharing budget already includes $40,000 for this purpose. Aldermen will conduct a budget workshop Monday night to consider the total city budget. The first public hearing on the operating budget will also be presented at the regular meeting April 7. In other action, the board: —Approved the low bid of $55,598.40 from the Jake Diel Construction Co. for sealcoating approximately 46 blocks in the city. —Approved a resolution to delay for 120 days a decision on the rate increase requested by Southwestern Public Service Co. —Accepted the low bid of $5,324.34 each from Reeve-Fleming Chevrolet for two pickups for the Dept. of Public Works. —Agreed to advertise for sealed bids for the sale of the old 1955 ambulance. —Approved the annexation requested by Ray and Allan Bradley for a 150 X 150 ft. lot adjacent to the Latham Addition on the west.

LONG-DISTANCE RIDER THOMAS L. GADDIE Preparing to ride out of Dimmitt Wednesday morning

He's riding for a world record

By APRIL GUY Riding tall in the saddle, Thomas L. Gaddie arrived in Dimmitt during high mid-afternoon winds Tuesday with a good word for everyone who approached him. A sense of pride rides with Gaddie as he makes his ninth-month World Championship Horseback Ride, hoping to set a new distance record. Gaddie and his well-organized caravan—12 people, seven horses, trailers, campers, a mobile shop and an extra pickup—spent the 39th night of their trek at the North Gin yard in Dimmitt. Gaddie spun yarns and signed autographed photos for local residents who happened his way. Gaddie rode out of Dimmitt at 9 a.m. Wednesday, stopping in Hereford to spend the rest of the day while Ray White of Dimmitt shod the horses. The World Championship Horseback Ride started from Dallas Feb. 9. Gaddie rode to Padre Island, into Gulf waters, then started north on his epic journey across Texas before heading for his final destination of Prudhoe Bay, Alaska, on the Arctic Ocean. The current world record is a 10,000-mile ride in Argentina, but Gaddie intends to break that by riding almost 12,000 miles by the time he reaches Prudhoe Bay. The Dallas man intends to bring the title to Texas— "where it belongs." He'll set another record when he and his crew—which consists mostly of his family—reach the Oklahoma border for the longest horseback ride in the state of Texas (almost 1,600 miles). Traveling approximately 60 miles per day on horseback, Gaddie changes horses and saddles every two miles, to give both the horse and himself a break. "The main thing we have to do is make 1,200 miles a month," Gaddie said. Although he works only five horses a day, Gaddie has seven with him. The record-breaking journey has been in the planning stages for more than 15 years, Gaddie said. He has been training since 1974—riding horses every day, walking and lifting weights. "This is more than just a world record ride," says Gaddie. "There's the whole tradition of the American West riding with me—it's a spirit of courage, self-reliance, and open-heartedness that the people in this country shouldn't forget. The West is the country of Buffalo Bill Cody, Wyatt Earp, and thousands of men and women who said to themselves 'we can do it together.' That's the feeling I want to take with me on my trip," he said. Gaddie says he wants to meet the people who live in the towns he travels through. He invites them to join him along the way by the campfire "for coffee and good times." "I want to remind folks that friendliness and independence are still strong in America, stronger than anywhere else in the world," he said. The 56-year old Gaddie has owned a fireplace business,

"The Fireplace Doctor," in Dallas for the past 24 years. A proud member of a family of horse lovers, Gaddie says that this ride will be the fulfillment of a lifelong dream. Whether he attains his goal or not, those who come in contact with him will not soon forget the friendly Texas rider or his ambitious quest.

James R. Harsh, former president of Dimmitt Management Co., which operated the plant for DAI, is named as a separate plaintiff in the case, seeking personal damages. The trial is expected to continue for several weeks before the four-woman, two-man jury panel.

'Fun Breakfast' on tap April 1

The Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce will pay tribute to merchants and farmers at a "Fun Breakfast" April 1. The breakfast will begin at 6:45 a.m. and end by 8. The oldest and newest established merchants and farmers will be honored at the breakfast. Gift certificates valued at $25 each will be given to a non-member and a member in attendance. Growth and expansion awards will also be given, and new Chamber members will be recognized. Jack Edwards will serve as master of ceremonies. Tickets are $2.50 per person. "April Fool's Day jokes and gags will be played," Delores Golden, chamber manager, said.

SBA disaster loan deadline is April 10

April 10 will be the last day that applications for agricultural disaster loans can be filed under SBA Disaster Declaration 1708. Applications for disaster loans to cover economic injury losses under this declaration can be filed up to July 10. Interest rates for loans under Declaration 1708 are 5% and 7-3/8% for physical damage and 8% for economic injury loans. The 7-3/8% rate is determined by availability of financing from other sources at comparable terms. Declaration 1708 covers Castro, Deaf Smith, Parmer, Swisher, Briscoe, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Cockran, Hockley, Yoakum, Gaines, Dawson, Martin, and Upton Counties, and the counties adjacent to them. Applications received after these deadlines will not be accepted. More information can be obtained by calling toll free 1-800-692-4296.

'Easter Opry' benefit show set March 29

The Dimmitt Kiwanis Club will present the Easter Opry Road Show March 29 in the Dimmitt High School Auditorium. All proceeds from the performance will go to the Matt Howell Medical Fund. Featured as special entertainment will be Zella Ellison and the Flatland Bluegrass Band. KPAN's Jim Tucker will be the master of ceremonies. Other musical entertainment will include The Country Four and the Bob Stice Quartet. Donations to the fund will be accepted at the door in lieu of a fixed admission charge. Proceeds from the recent Key Club dance netted $300 for the Matt Howell fund.

Attention, candidates

The News will publish statements from candidates in its issues of March 27 and April 3. Every candidate for Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth School Boards, Dimmitt Board of Aldermen, Hart and Nazareth City Commissions and the Hospital Board is invited to submit a statement of up to one-half of a typewritten page, double spaced. These statements should be turned in to the News office by Tuesday noon, March 26. There will be no charge for publishing these candidates' statements.

Community Action seeks public input on future programs

The Castro County Community Action Agency will hold a public meeting at 7 p.m. Friday in the assembly room of the courthouse. The most effective use of available funds will be discussed, and the public is urged to express opinions and offer suggestions on meeting the needs of the poor and disadvantaged within the county. Wannie Stevens is the agency's community services counselor, and can be contacted at 647-3244 for further information.

Deadline is extended for county candidates

Persons wishing to run for county commissioner from Precincts 1 and 3 have until 6 p.m. next Wednesday to file with county party chairmen. Extension of the filing deadlines was part of an order handed down by Judge Mary Lou Robinson in Federal District Court last Thursday, following the redrawing of county precinct lines. A class-action suit filed by Texas Rural Legal Aid, Inc., in October against the county and its officers charged that precincts were not balanced in terms of population and sought a court order to have the lines adjusted before the May primary election. A compromise agreement was reached on new precinct lines between the county and attorneys for TRLA, and was accepted by Judge Robinson March 10. A map showing new precinct lines appeared in the March 13 issue of the News. The court has issued a public notice that persons having objections to the compromise plan must file "by appearance in the case on or before March 26, 1980."

County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis pointed out that any such objections must be on legal grounds and not just because a person dislikes the changed boundaries. Details on filing objections are available at the Castro County Clerk's office.

Davis said if any objections are raised, Judge Robinson will rule on them as quickly as possible so the primary election may still be held May 3. Judge Robinson's ruling allows flexibility in the 1980 primary election schedule to accommodate delays caused by the redrawing of the precinct lines. After the new May 26 filing deadline, party chairmen must file candidate lists by April 4. The order of names on the ballots will be determined by April 12. Absentee voting for this election will be between April 14 and April 29, and will begin "as soon as is practical" after ballots are printed. Commissioners will meet with Judge Robinson March 26 to finalize agreements in the suit.

Tax rebates up for area cities

City sales tax rebates for Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth all show increases over the comparable period last year, according to State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office. The City of Dimmitt received a rebate check for $19,682.07 for February, up from $11,479.81 for the same month last year. To date the city has received $33,576.93 compared with $25,638.45 for last year at this time. This is an increase of 31 percent. Hart's rebate check was for $2,843.62 compared with $1,878.61 received for the same month last year. To date in 1980, Hart has received $4,277.07, compared with $3,626.07 for the same period in 1979, a 17 percent increase. Nazareth received a rebate of $2,097.44, compared with $1,671.88 for the same month last year. For the year, Nazareth's sales tax income shows a 28 percent increase—$3,623.72 compared with $2,810.28 for 1979. The city sales tax is collected by merchants and sales tax permit holders along with the state sales tax, and is rebated monthly to cities by the comptroller's office.

Mrs. Coleman retires from News

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Sue Coleman said "30" to her years in newspaper work. Sue retired last Wednesday from her stay with the Hereford Brand and the last four years with the Nelsons' Castro County News.

A farewell party was given Sue in the home of B. M. Nelson, with his granddaughter Connie and Don and Verbie, Joy Barker, April Guy and Adeline Rush serving cake and homemade ice cream to several friends coming in—me, Goose Ramey, Mrs. Fran Mueller, George Rush, Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Carroll, Linda Maxwell, Paula Portwood.

Kenneth Carroll will take Mrs. Rush's job and she will take Sue Coleman's work. Kenneth is minister at Bible Baptist Church and his wife, Janice, works for the school. Their daughter, Judy, has been home from Baptist College at Arlington. Janice says she is a straight A student on the dean's list.

Mrs. Benton Creacy of Stinnett has been here for a few days visit with her sister Velma and Ralph Lambright. They were all at the big "42" party Tuesday evening at the Senior Citizens.

Charley and Edith Graef celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception in the Castro County Senior Citizens Center Sunday afternoon. Their children, Reta Welch of Dimmitt, Charlene Phillips of Clovis, N.M., and Clayton Ray Graef of Wichita Falls were the hosts. Their three granddaughters, Sharon Welch, Rhonda Neighbour and Leisa Bubliss and three grand-daughters-in-law, Dena Phillips, Brenda Welch and Ruth Phillips registered the guests, the gifts and served the cake, punch and coffee. One of the serving tables featured an antique bronze coffee Samovar belonging to their friend Ceal Carlisle.

Their granddaughter, Rhonda Neighbour, her husband, Warren, and his parents, John and Elva Neighbour, drove from Des Moines, Iowa. Also their granddaughter Sharon Welch and her husband, Jim Patton, flew down from Nashville, Tenn. Their grandson, Brent Graef, also flew in from Lamon.

Friends and relatives from Portales, Clovis and Elida, N.M., also Tahoka, Lubbock, Stanton, Littlefield, Hale Center, Friona, Olton, Muleshoe, Lazbuddie, Earth, Odessa, Springlake and Plainview attended. Over 350 called during the afternoon. A special guest was Edith Graef's mother, Vallie Williams of Littlefield.

Thirteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren were able to join in the celebration.

Raymond and Marie Fleming and friends John and Billie Jo Hand of Friona are home from a ten-day trip south. They flew to Miami, Fla., there took the cruise ship to Nassau, on to San Juan, then to the beautiful Island of St. Thomas. Marie says the waters were very rough. Several people were sick from the motion. She was very glad to be home, feet on the ground and our lovely "sandstorms." But we do have more pretty days or weather than any place. Mr. Fleming is with the Reeves in the Chevrolet-Pontiac business.

Rachel Graham and Dorothy Sheffy spent a few days in Marlowe visiting Henry McMurry, Rachel's sister.

Mrs. Bobbie Chester and daughter Connie and the grand girl came by to visit mom Leora Calhoun. They had been to Decatur to visit brother Mr. Mitchell and family. Came up the Caprock during the big wind. Made it okay.

Ivey Jackson spent a few days in Wellington visiting her kin.

Susan Wise, a nurse in training at WTSU, sister Linda and Kyle Wise, students at Tech in Lubbock, were home for the spring break. Parents are Frank and Shirley.

Clyde and Clara Vick are home from their jet trip to Austin where they attended the Chicago Title and Insurance annual meeting. Mostly business, but one night they attended the dinner theatre. Good show, but one they had seen in Amarillo. At the plane stop in Dallas they talked with Dee Dee Fulfer, daughter of Capt. Kenneth and Peggy Fulfer of San Antonio. She was coming to visit her grandmother Faye and Dub Cline. Faye met her in Amarillo. The other grands, Brad and Juanita Fulfer, are at Texhoma Lake.

The Vicks stopped off at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo to see Jack Cowser and wife Myrna. Jack is not very well. His sisters, Josephine of Houston and Mary from Corpus and brother Ray from Hereford were there to see him.

Well, Monday was Emmett Broderson's birthday, so Sue cooked him a cake. The daughters Joylynn of WTSU and Kerry, home from Tech, helped eat the cake. Emmett says he is using spring break to get the income tax off to the government.

Pat Braafladt and children,

Todd, Christian and Tiffany, are in Dallas this week visiting her twin sister Portia Maloney. They always see the shops and shows.

All the college folks are home for the spring break, including Jean Bradford from San Marcos and brother Jim from Tech.

Glenn and Mona Merritt, her parents Earl and Mable Brock, friends Geneviva and George Hilton are home from a weeks fishing trip to Zapata Lake, near Falcon. They caught many fish. Mable says every time they throw the line a fish comes. Earl lost his good eyeglasses in that deep lake, otherwise a good time was had.

The Senior Citizens place has been busy with Ramona's duplicate bridge Monday evening, 10 tables, that is 40 people. Another group played Wednesday. And Tuesday night 64 people were at the Seniors 42 party. Peggy West, the director, resigned for personal reasons and Mrs. Leroy Wood has now accepted the job as director. Thursday 30 people went to Amarillo to attend the dinner theatre. Helen Richardson took five people, as did Jeanie Miller. Andy Schumacher took the van with 18. Myrtle took five people. Excellent food. The show was a comedy with Virginia Mayo as star, but we thought Art Kassul, who played Phillip Markham, deserved star billing. The singers before the show were good. They were students from WTSU called "The Country Roads."

Friday Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Pennington needed to go to Amarillo to give a report of Senior Citizens activities to the government folks there, so going for the ride was Valda Wood, new director, who drove the van and Myrtle Sheffy, Blanche Ginn, Cleo Forson and Ruth Coleman. We had lunch at their building. I talked with June (Cowan) Floyd and her husband Glenn from Friona. Also talked to Mrs. Howard Hershey and friends from Hereford. She says they and the Arthur Oakleys had a good trip South Texas way, with stops in the Valley, one in Mission, on to Corpus Christi. Fished, or tried to, only caught one, she says. On to Houston, back the other road north and west to home. Talked with Ruth Mills who has been fishing with her folks Henrietta and J.R. Nazworth.

And I saw Rev. Burr Morris, who is Presbyterian minister at Dalhart. He sends greetings to the members here he once knew. And Mr. Baar and his wife from Hereford were there. He owns the Popular Stores. Oh yes, Willie and Ethel Gipson were there from Bovina. They lived in Dimmitt many years.

Ulla Jonsson, the student from Sweden, told the members and guests of the Book Club about her country that is located in northern Europe. Ulla showed colored slides of buildings and countryside, very green, much rain and snow. Ulla was presented to the group by her hostess, Mrs. Ruth Coleman. She lives with Dan and Hazel Nelson, she is planning a news-type career. The social hostesses were Mrs. Carter Townsend and Mrs. Russel Moran, who served cookies and coffee from a pretty table covered with a gold cloth with a square of green cloth over. A St. Patrick green hat with napkins in the holiday theme were colorful. A lovely arrangement of spring flowers decorated the table. Mrs. Coleman presented Ulla a pretty corsage and a gift. Jimmy Slough and family were here from San Angelo to visit the families, the James Sloughs and Bob and Dorothy Ellis.

Guylene Rogers and friends were in Van Horn last week visiting friends, then back by Lubbock and other towns to visit while she has a spring break from teaching.

Rick Hayes and his sister Mary Kathryn were here this week from Clarendon visiting [See CHATTER, Page 9]

GOING UP...

A building is being erected. It is made of strong materials, steel and concrete. The foundation is firm and deep. The edifice is built to endure.

We need to build our homes to endure. They need a strong foundation. They need to be built on the rock of Christ, Psalm 127:1 reads, 'Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it.' Attend church regularly that your house may be instructed in the ways of the Lord.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

17 take first Communion

By MRS. VIRGIE GERBER
 Sunday was a very special day at Holy Family Church of Nazareth for 17 boys and girls of the second grade who received their first Holy Communion at the 10 a.m. mass. They and their parents were part of a procession from the CCD center into church. During mass, Marty Gerber read the first reading, Kirsten Birkenfeld the second reading and Brian Schmucker read the prayers after they received communion. The third grade class and the girls from the fourth grade sang several beautiful hymns during mass. Sister Immaculata, who directed the singing and Sister Adrian, who prepared the children for their first confession and communion are to be commended for their work and patience. All the children were honored in their homes with a dinner for family and friends.
 Ken Brockman and a friend Chris Perez have returned to the Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Santa Fe, N.M. after spending a week with the Ken's parents, the Jerome Brockmans.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benke of Lawton, Okla. were here Sunday for their granddaughter Kirsten Birkenfeld's first communion. Also, Kirsten's godmother Elaine Benke and her three children of Lawton, Okla. enjoyed dinner at the home of Mrs. Rose Birkenfeld.

 Recent visitors in the Earl Backus home were Mrs. Backus' three sisters; Mrs. John Parlett of Kansas City, Mo., Sr. Regina Marie of Fort Smith, Ark. and Sr. Celestine Marie of Nazareth. Coming to visit their aunts, were the John Backus family of Amarillo and the Robert Vercamp family of Nazareth.
 Celina Lynn, infant daughter of Cecil and Lenora Brad-dock was baptized Saturday evening by Father Stanley in Holy Family Church. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Huseman were the baby's godparents.
 Mrs. Flora Backus of the South Hills Manor Rest Home in Dimmitt spent the weekend here with her family. She enjoyed dinner with the Robert Verkamp family on Sunday and the evening with Mrs. Helen Backus and her family.
 Monday evening starts the eighth annual Nazareth Lions Volleyball Tournament at the Nazareth Gym. Entered in it are ten area men's teams and 11 area women's teams. The finals will be played on Saturday evening.
 Walter Schulte is home after spending a week in the Tulia hospital with a bad case of flu.

 Alfred Schacker is back in St. Anthony's hospital in Amarillo recuperating from complications from surgery several weeks ago.
 Visitors this past week in the Walter Schulte home were Bert and Bea Wassenburg of Atchison, Kan. and Joe and Ruth Keinig of Lancaster, Kan.
 Hazel (Ewing) Risley of Amarillo spent Thursday evening visiting with Bev Hill, Albert and Virgie Gerber. Hazel is an accountant with an Amarillo bank and is helping out at the Hart Bank since the death of the Hart bank's president.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bert Venhaus, Mrs. Agnes Brockman and Mrs. Helen Backus visited their 90-year old aunt Annie Hilvers, who is in the Clovis Hospital after suffering a heart attack. On their way home they stopped at Laz-buddie and visited with the Phil Brockmans.
 Paul Brockman from West Texas University and Mrs. Gerrie Russell and boys from Lubbock spent the weekend with the Jerome Brockmans.
 Joe Brockman of San Antonio is spending the week with his family, the Jerome Brockmans.

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE B. ULMER

Did you ever wonder how your social security tax dollar is spent? Seventy-two cents goes for retirement benefits, 15 cents for medicare, 11 cents for disability benefits, and the final 2 cents covers administrative costs.
 Even more interesting is what you get from social security in terms of valuable protection for you and your family. For example, a worker, age 65, who retired at the end of 1979 and who has had maximum wages subject to social security each year since 1951 could receive $571.40 per month in social security benefits. If this worker has a spouse who is also 65 and eligible for benefits on the worker's record, the combined benefit would be $857.10 per month. This figure could increase to about $1,000.60 if the worker has children under 18, or between 18 and 22 if full-time students.
 Disabled children over 18 are also eligible for benefits on a parents record if the disability started prior to age 18.
 Let's assume our worker has earned maximum wages subject to social security since 1951. At the end of 1979 he will have paid $10,767.97 in social security taxes. If the worker and spouse receive benefits at the rate of $857.10, they will have drawn out their entire contribution in less than 13 months. The best part of this system is that benefits continue even after the original contribution is exhausted.
 What about the young worker who becomes disabled or dies? He and his family are also insured by his social security often with as little as 1½ years of covered wages to his credit.
 If you are interested in more specific information about your own record, the representative is at the Court-house in Dimmitt every Thursday from 10:00 - 12:00. A "Request for Statement of Earnings" is available to anyone. This card is sent to Baltimore and the worker receives the information concerning his record directly. You can save time by calling the Plainview office at Enterprise 8-4132 and having the card mailed to you.
 THE world's largest mushroom farm is located near West Winfield, Pa. The Butler County Mushroom Farm, founded in 1937, produces more than 42 million pounds of mushrooms annually.

View from the Library

By BRICK AUTRY
 Librarian

Boy, I bet you folks don't know it, but it's spring time in Oklahoma. And how do I know? Because when I visited this week there were Indian Onion dinners all over the place. When the onion dinners begin one can pretty well tell it is spring.

Those onions, the wild ones are the first thing to pop out of the ground. Wild onions grow in profusion in the hills under the black jacks and berry trees. When a wild onion pops up an Indian can't be too far behind. Wild onion dinners are the things which Indians look forward to all winter long. They look forward to them because the onions are pretty good eating.

The onions aren't the only thing that are good eating. There's also some good fresh greens and sofky (corn) and boiled meat. After all these good things come the singing. Unlike other Indians, these Oklahoma Indians don't sing war songs all the time, they sing old gospel songs at these gatherings. Sometimes everyone gets carried away and the singing lasts all night.

Now, I'll warn you if you go to an onion dinner you might get a surprise. You won't like the sofky. Sofky is boiled corn with lye. Indians get the lye from the wood ashes and they soak the corn with the ashes. It's a real fine method for cleaning the hulls off the corn but changes the taste of the corn, as you can well imagine. The corn begins to taste like dirty old ashes. But the Indians like it. (What's even stranger is that they like it soured, too.)

If you want to cook onions like the Creek Indians and you run across a wild onion before an Indian does, read further:
 For five people:
 Three good bunches of young wild onions
 About a dozen eggs
 Heat a lightly greased skillet and saute (Indians just say fry) the onions and when they are transparent, add the eggs and scramble. Easy, no?

He will also be the featured guest at a luncheon for Council members on Friday. Anyone interested in joining the Council should contact Doak Bishop at 372-5671 or write to P. O. Box 31718, Amarillo, Texas 79120.

Yields lowered for 1980

By CHARLEY E. HILL
County Executive Director
The 1980 established yields for milo, corn, and wheat will be lower. In the near future we will be sending out notices of your NCA and yields. If you wish to appeal this notice you will have 15 days to do so and prove your yield.
The proven yield will be based on 1977, 1978, and 1979 production on each of your farms. If you have a bad year in one of these three years the county committee can adjust an abnormally low year if the loss was due to disaster conditions. If you can find this production evidence and intend to prove your yield, start now to get it together and bring it in after you receive your NCA and yield notice.

- Steps to take:
1. First get your notice (You then have 15 days to appeal this notice).
2. After the appeal you then have 30 days to bring in the three year required production on each farm you have an interest in.

You do not have to prove the yield on all farms but we will need the production evidence on each farm. If you have any questions, please feel free to come by the office.
March 25, 1980 is the final date producers may graze wheat in Castro County and expect to make a normal crop.
This does not mean you cannot graze your wheat after this date, but if it is grazed past this date, and sometime later in the year you suffered a natural disaster, then the County Committee would make a yield adjustment for this late grazing.

BEEF REFERENDUM— There were a total of 132 Castro County producers who voted in the Beef Referendum: 96 voted against; 36 voted for; nationwide: 115,119 voted against and 79,119 voted for.

WHEAT, BARLEY AND OAT LOAN DEADLINE— March 31 is the final date to place 1979 crop of wheat, barley or oats in the loan.

MEASUREMENT SERVICE— Measurement service for wheat and other small grains for interested producers will be available until April 4. The service will be done by aerial observation method. The fee will be $9 for the first plot plus $3 for each additional plot with a minimum fee of $15 per farm.

THOUGHT— It is better to say a good thing about a bad person than to say a bad thing about any person.

Barbara Fried new assistant for Allsup's

Barbara Fried of Dimmitt has completed the Allsup's Convenience Stores assistant manager training course at the home office in Clovis, N.M.

The class is a requirement for all Allsup's assistant managers.
"The training prepares individuals for future advancement by teaching them proper food handling, cooked food procedures, store cleanliness and maintenance as well as public relations," said Larry Watts, instructor.

What is YOUR opinion on conservation goals?

Should agricultural producers be required to apply soil and water conservation measures on privately owned land to benefit national objectives? Or should the use of conservation measures continue to be voluntary?

Who should pay for expensive conservation measures that provide few immediate benefits to the producer but have great benefits to the public, such as improved water quality, cleaner air, or reduced sedimentation in streams and reservoirs?

These are some of the issues now being considered by the US Dept. of Agriculture. The public has until March 28 to give its opinion on such topics.

The 60-day "public review period" of proposed USDA SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION PROGRAMS IS ALMOST OVER, Stephanie Elliott, district conservationist, said this week.

"You have only eight days left in which to stand up and be heard concerning the future direction of the nation's conservation program," Elliott advised.

"Actually, we want public comment on the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act of 1977 (RCA)," Elliott said. "Comments are invited not only on conservation proposals, but on USDA's process of carrying out the Act, and the published documents."

"Residents of Castro County will be seeing petitions in many of the businesses located in all the communities," Elliott said. "These petitions have been undersigned by the Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District. The district is urging everyone interested in the direction of our conservation programs to sign these petitions."

Also, if you want to make a more in-depth statement concerning the proposed strategies, you may send your written comments by March 28 to the Response Analysis Center, P.O. Box 888, Athens, Ga., 30603.

Specifically, the USDA's national conservation objectives are to reduce erosion and preserve prime farmlands, to improve water quality, to conserve water, to improve fish and wildlife habitat (including the preservation of wetlands from destruction by agriculture and other means), to reduce upstream flood damages, to conserve energy, and to solve related resource problems.

Strategies being considered include:

— A REDIRECTION OF PRESENT PROGRAMS

Under this strategy, USDA would continue existing programs, but funds and personnel would be redirected to accomplish certain national conservation objectives. Cooperation would continue to be most voluntary.

— CROSS COMPLIANCE

Under this approach, producers would be required to apply effective conservation measures to qualify for benefits under USDA programs, including commodity price support, low interest loans, cost sharing and crop insurance.

— A REGIONAL RESOURCE PROJECT APPROACH

This strategy would direct USDA programs toward the more urgent and chronic resource problems. Federal participation would be available only for programs that contribute to meeting stated national conservation objectives.

— STATE LEADERSHIP

Under this strategy, states would assume leadership for planning and carrying out conservation programs. State and local governments would develop conservation programs for USDA approval, provide technical assistance to producers, and fund those activities that benefit mostly state and local efforts. USDA would fund activities that have national benefits but are beyond the interest or financial resources of the producer or state and local governments.

— REGULATORY EMPHASIS

This alternative would emphasize the use of backup regulatory authorities at the local, state and national levels to carry out an effective national soil and water conservation program. This approach would be coupled with a strong cost-share and technical assistance program and low interest loans that would offer incentives for resource management.

— CONSERVATION PERFORMANCE BONUS

This strategy provides incentives to producers who voluntarily apply and maintain conservation measures that meet USDA standards. It offers incentives to obtain benefits under federal programs but has no required cross compliance. Priority would be given to resource areas where present conditions pose the greatest threat to future food and fiber production.

Under this strategy,

USDA would offer to purchase erosion reduction, irrigation water reductions, and other outputs of conservation from producers. The public would, in effect, buy specific benefits from those who run, operate, or control private natural resources.

THE Woodstock Rock Festival was held August 15-17, 1969 in Bethel, New York. The promoters paid a farmer named Max Yasgur $50,000 for the use of his farmland.

cousins Robert and Martie Benton and Becky, Beth and Ben.

Mrs. Garland Lewis, who lives near Sweetwater, was here this week to visit daughter Ina and Jim Cleavinger and all, including Tommy and Meredith, Zeke and the baby and Jimmy from school had dinner at Jim and Ina's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kaderly, 1601 Sunset Circle, and son Mr. and Mrs. Barton Kaderly and twin daughters, Route 4, moved here recently from near Columbus, Ohio. The Howard Kaderleys have retired and the Barton Kaderlys farm and have bought the David Cole place. They attend church with the Lutherans, but did visit with the Methodists Sunday. The Tishlers tell me the Lutherans and Presbyterians share that church near the high school.

Farris Rookstool of Dallas is visiting here with friends James and Sandy Baker. Farris is with the medical illustration studies and a staff member at the Dallas Medical Center. I saw him at church, as were Don and Clara Eckman of Panhandle, here to visit their daughter Mrs. Jim Naylor and family. Also daughter-in-law Deanne Naylor and baby Lindsey of Abilene. The son Donnie will be home for a while next week. The Eckmans say they were down here off and on to see Gary Naylor play basketball.

Ronnie Travis, minister at the Lee Street Baptist Church, tells me that 20 of their young people with sponsors Rev. Travis, LaNelle Hanson and Audrey Shottenkirk went Monday to a retreat 40 miles north of Colorado Springs. The place is called Shady Brook. This will be a Bible study, maybe skiing, maybe hikes, whatever kids do in those mountains, eat, too.

Sharon Travis and children Lisa and Chris are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lee Settle in Plainview. She is the wife of Preacher Ronnie Travis.

Tim and Linda Patton were here from Amarillo Sunday to visit his parents Jack and Clara Patton and to attend the Golden Wedding party for Charlie and Edith Graef. Tim is with the Vick mobile homes. Linda is with the Amarillo Bank.

The Graef Party was a lovely and friendly affair. You should have seen that tall five-tiered cake the daughter made. We saw the Welches, Bee Dee and husband from Earth, and I talked to Norma Conard. She is getting a new building for her Satellite children.

Youths go skiing near Santa Fe

By MELISSA SNITKER
Twenty youth and sponsors of the First Baptist Church enjoyed skiing this week in Santa Fe. They stayed in the First Baptist Church's cabin in Glorieta.

The group left Sunday afternoon and returned yesterday afternoon.

The First Baptist Church will have a revival March 23 through 28. Boyce Evans of Lubbock will preach and Larry Turner will direct music services.

Weekly services will be held at 7:30 p.m. A covered dish luncheon and devotional time will also take place from 12 noon to 12:50 p.m.

Various teachers of the Hart Schools met with the School Board recently to discuss programs for the 1980-81 school year. The band trip to Corpus Christi, the taxing of automobiles, the purchase of a new pickup for the agriculture department and new textbooks were all approved.

The re-hiring of teachers was also discussed. Bert Vandiver asked not to be considered for re-employment for next year.

A team from Hart High School participated in the Farwell Invitational Golf Tournament last week. Members of the team are Daniel Higgins, Scott Jones, Tracy Rich and Benny McLain.

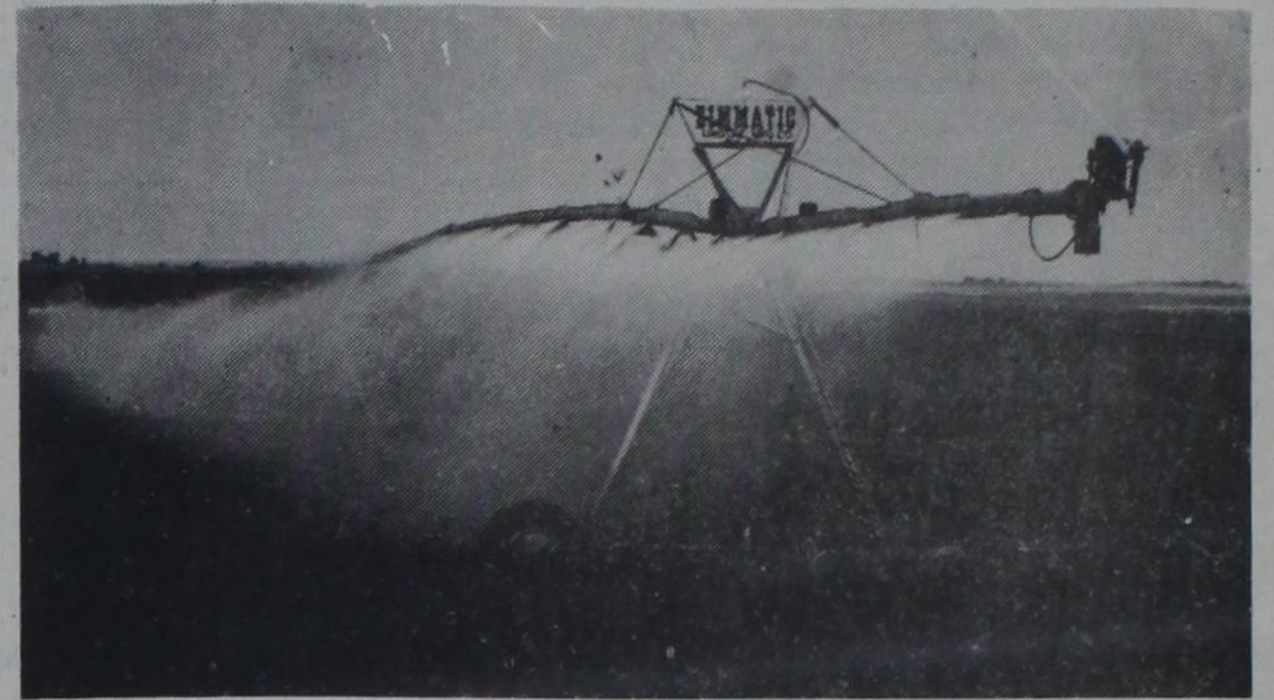

Next Monday the team will enter the district tournament at Olton and will compete Tuesday at Vega.

Last Friday the Hart Longhorn Band performed in UIL Class A competition at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, receiving a III in concert and a III in sightreading.

Leader Mrs. Lonny Rhynes requests that any girls interested in Girls Scout meet today (Thursday), at 4 in the kindergarten room of the Hart School.

Beet growers to get Holly Sugar checks

Holly Sugar Corporation announced it will mail checks totalling $1.8 million March 28 to sugarbeet growers in the Panhandle district. This payment reflects increased sugar prices received from sales through the Hereford Plant.

Agricultural economists use a multiple of six to figure the impact in the area of each agriculture dollar. If this figure is correct, nearly $10 million will be generated through the local economies.

According to Cal Jones, agricultural manager at the Hereford plant, "We have nearly six months remaining in the selling year for 1979 sugar. Current sugar prices along with the improved sugar yield of 1979 reflect a good return per acre for the sugarbeet grower."

"Contracting is continuing for the 1980 crop, as we have an acreage available yet to be contracted," Jones said. "A yield of 20 tons per acre and 15% sugar, which is very realistic in our growing area, will have returned $523.20 per acre with this payment.

Planting is beginning for the 1980 crop. Early planting, good cultural practices and maximizing growth throughout the growing season all influence high sugar production, which directly influences returns per acre, he said.

Texas ag receipts reach new high at $9.6 billion

Cash receipts from agricultural marketings reached a new high in 1979. Although final figures are not yet in, Texas Agricultural Extension Service estimates place cash receipts at more than $9.6 billion, up from $7.9 billion in 1978.

However, while sales were up sharply, net farm income increased only moderately due to the ravaging effects of inflation.

In spite of the increased receipts, Texas remains third in the nation in total receipts from agriculture behind California and Iowa.

The big jump in cash receipts stems largely from a bumper cotton crop, combined with a strong cotton market, and an excellent beef market.

Cash receipts from all livestock are estimated at $5.3 billion for the past year, with receipts from beef alone reaching the $4.1 billion mark.

Crop receipts are expected to total about $3.9 billion for last year. Cotton accounted for $1.5 billion of that amount. Receipts from sorghum are estimated at $431.5 million while wheat receipts are expected to come in a strong third at $415.3 million due to record-breaking yields.

Projected cash receipts from crops show corn in fourth place at $333.2 million, followed by vegetables, $223 million; nursery plants, $159.6 million; and soybeans, $143.6 million. Completing the top 10 crops as far as cash receipts are concerned are peanuts, $96.6 million; hay, $64.6 million; and pecans, $48.5 million.

Following beef on the ledger of cash receipts from livestock, the poultry industry came in second with a total of $497 million. Cash receipts from milk are expected to reach $450 million while receipts from hogs should total more than $127.2 million.

Receipts from agriculturally related areas such as timber, hunting, fishing and horses are estimated at $474 million.

"The past year had its share of 'firsts' as far as crop production is concerned," notes Anderson. "The wheat crop averaged 30 bushels per acre—a record—and cash receipts from the crop were up 167 percent over 1978. Peanut production reached a new high at 516 million pounds, and the pecan crop set a record at more than 80 million pounds."

While corn and sorghum acreage declined some in 1979, harvested cotton acreage was up sharply by 700,000 acres while harvested wheat acreage jumped a phenomenal 1.9 million acres.

According to Anderson, the projected agricultural cash receipts of more than $9.6 billion, including supplying and servicing agricultural production and processing and marketing farm and ranch products, added some $35 billion to the Texas economy in 1979. He also notes that the estimated value of farm assets in the state—land, buildings, livestock, machinery, crops, inventory on farms, farm household goods and financial assets—total more than $65 billion.

"All this means that agriculture continues to be a vibrant, growing industry in Texas," points out Anderson.

"With the growing worldwide demand for more food and fiber, the potential for Texas agriculture is great indeed."

'Thought for Food' is theme

Today is 'Ag Day 1980'

Today (Thursday) is "Agriculture Day 1980."

"Thought for Food" is the theme for the special observance, sponsored by the non-profit Agriculture Day Foundation to salute agri-business and to make the non-farming consumer aware of agriculture's importance.

"Ag Day's purpose is to make the 96 percent of the American population that doesn't farm, aware of the challenges facing agriculture and the impact agriculture has on all our lives," according to James I. Scott, national Ag Day chairman. "Consumers must be made aware of pressing farm issues, such as inflation, fuel shortages and environmental pressures, because these issues affect each individual's life."

Although only four percent of the American population actually farms, four out of 10 working Americans are involved in the food and fiber production and distribution chain. Agri-business is the nation's largest employer. The assets of American agriculture, $790 billion annually, are nearly equal to the total assets of all the stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

"Ag Day gives the American food-buying public the opportunity for a better understanding of what the industry of agriculture has done, and must continue to do, to maintain the abundance of food in America," according to James L. Lindsey, a southwestern coordinator for Ag Day.

"This year's theme for Ag Day, 'Thought for Food,' is particularly appropriate," Lindsey said. "If egg prices had increased at the same rate as transportation costs since 1958, eggs would cost more than $3.40 a dozen today. And if milk prices had increased at the same rate as housing costs during the last 20 years, milk would now cost $4.50 a gallon."

"So in spite of rising food expenditures, food is still a bargain," Lindsey said. "When consumers understand the facts about agri-business, they will realize that America's agriculture is the most scientifically advanced, efficient and plentiful in the world. The purpose of Ag Day is to bring these facts before the public."

Agriculture Day was created in 1973 by the Miller Publishing Co., a Minneapolis-based publisher of business magazines for agriculture. Since then, Ag Day has grown into a national observance, with numerous events to give the non-farming consumer a chance to learn about the world's most productive agri-business industry.

plant 'em both

This hybrid's record for consistency has made it one of the most popular hybrids on the High Plains. In 77 comparisons over the last four years against competitive hybrids, 3184 has shown an average yield of 183.7 bu./A. with a yield advantage of 14.3 bu./A. over competitors. Bred with outstanding drought tolerance, 3184 can adjust ear size and kernel depth to match growing conditions. And strong stalks keep 3184 standing straight for speedy harvest. It's just what High Plains farmers need in a dependable, high-yielding corn hybrid. And its maturity makes it a good companion for 3183.

Push this one for highest yields! In 43 comparisons on the High Plains in 1979, this hybrid averaged 192.1 bu./A. A sampling of yields from 1979 includes 216 bu./A. for Sheldon Rapp at Hooker, Oklahoma . . . 210.4 bu./A. for Larry Kemp of Muleshoe . . . and 196.7 bu./A. for Doyle Underwood at Dimmitt, Texas. 3183 has demonstrated very good standability and ear retention in this area. Excellent drought tolerance helps 3183 maintain outstanding consistency year after year. And it has been especially impressive on gray soils. Plant 3183 along with 3184. Spread genetic risks and get top performance, too.

WHY YOUR PHONE KEEPS WORKING WHEN THE T.V., LIGHTS AND TOASTER DON'T.

In the event of a power outage, it's good to know there are a couple of things you can depend on.

Like a reliable flashlight with a fresh set of batteries.

And your telephone.

Unlike regular electrical appliances, your telephone won't go dead during a black-out. That's because it's backed up by a secondary power system consisting of batteries and a standby generator.

But these batteries are unlike anything you'll find in a flashlight. Ours are large enough to fill a room.

The batteries are kept in constant charge by commercial power. Then if there is an outage they're switched on automatically until our standby generator has time to take over.

Naturally this system is more expensive than one relying solely on regular commercial power. But it helps make your phone system more dependable, particularly in the event of an emergency.

And we think it's important that you can depend on your telephone during the times when you depend upon it most.

State champs reap more honors

The Amarillo News-Globe Sunday named Nazareth Coach Joe Lombard "Coach of the Year" and placed two Nazareth girls, Doretta Ramaekers and Roxane Birkenfeld, on the 1980 Panhandle Girls' Super Team.

Lombard, who guided the Swiftettes to their fourth consecutive State Class B basketball title, is in his second year at Nazareth.

The Globe-News said, "Despite lacking the big post performer they've had in the past, the Swiftettes overcame the pressure to achieve, zipping through the state playoffs and downing Weatherford Brock 56-50 in the state title game."

Bridge tourney set March 29

An open bridge tournament will be held from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. March 29 at the Castro County Country Club.

There will be a $5 entry fee per team.

Prizes will be given for the high and second high teams. A door prize also will be awarded, and snacks will be served.

Prizes will be furnished by the Country Club, Tots and Teens, Somethin' Special and the Flower Patch.

Tickets may be obtained at the door, at Tots and Teens, Somethin' Special, the Country Club, or by contacting Vicky Clary or Carlee Warren.

"This is not only for members of the Country Club, but for anyone who is interested," Mrs. Clary said.

Ramaekers, a 5-9 senior, was named to the first team of the 1980 Super Team. The Globe-News cited her as "one of the state's best outside shooters. Possesses a deft touch, hitting 50 percent from the field and 80 percent from the free throw line. Usually attempted only 10 to 12 shots

Swifts' coach looks back on 'very satisfying year'

Pleased with the showing that his Nazareth Swifts made in the state basketball tournament, although they failed to win the Class B championship, Coach Bud Birks said, "It's been a very satisfying year" as he looked back at the NHS boys' record.

"We've won some close ones, and lost a few like the one at Austin," he said, referring to the state semifinal contest with West Lamar of Petty.

"We just missed some free throws in the last quarter that would have meant a win, and it hurt us when Calvin Schulte fouled out, as he is our best ball handler," Birks said. "But the team played well, so I don't feel bad."

"The trip to Austin was a good one for the boys," Birks added. "They conducted themselves well and I was proud of them." It was the first time for the 32-year-old Birks to take a basketball team to the state tourney, though he consistently takes tennis players to the Texas championships. Birks saw his 1980 Swifts develop from junior high. He has coached five years at Nazareth.

He's already busy with his NHS netters, but also is looking forward to next year in basketball.

"It will be a different sort of team, but we have good material," he said. "We won't have the size that we will lose with the graduation of Jeff Schmucker, Gary Book and John Steffens, but we have good players in Schulte, former and an all-state-tourney for Nazareth's state champions. She averaged 11 points per game, mostly from the wings. Made good on 50 percent of her field-goal opportunities and 70 percent of her free throws. Averaged four assists and five rebounds per game."

Birkenfeld was named "Sophomore of the Year." The Globe-News said of her: "A first-team all-district per-

VETERAN'S SERVICES

By BEDFORD W. SMITH
County Service Officer

The Veterans Administration Regional Office in Los Angeles recently completed what was termed "Project World War I," a program which can be applied in every other state, including Texas.

This program involved contacting all of the World War I veterans in the area and determining whether they were in receipt of all VA benefits to which they were entitled.

Surprisingly, more than 40% of those contacted were assisted in obtaining increases in either pension or compensation benefits. Among the group of 1,940 World War I veterans interviewed in the survey, 28 were eligible for the $3,800 automobile grant paid by the VA to those meeting the liberalized requirements due to service-connected disabilities.

A large number of World War I veterans are presently receiving no VA benefits, or may be entitled to increased benefits if they are assisted by a competent Veterans Service Officer.

Many of the older veterans are financially independent and have no desire to apply for any VA benefits. Others have depended upon information and advice of persons who are not familiar with all of the VA programs, and are under the impression they are not entitled to any pension, compensation or other benefits. Some are even unaware of their eligibility for admission to a VA hospital for needed medical care.

Every World War I veteran who has a question concerning possible entitlement to any VA benefits should visit his or her local Veterans Service Officer as soon as possible for counseling.

Any in our area please contact me and/or visit with me at our courthouse office.

The local American Cancer Society benefit basketball game between the Dimmitt exes and Lubbock's KMAC-TV All-Star team ended with Dimmitt winning 119-77. Proceeds totaled $310, according to Dale Wells, ACS special events chairman.

Admission to the game was by donation.

Gate proceeds were divided between the local ACS and KMAC-TV's Christmas for Kids Fund.

The ACS concession stand netted $169, Oleta Raper reported.

Coach Kenneth Cleveland enlisted coaches, officials and many former Dimmitt High School players.

Volleyball deadline

The Hart High School senior class will sponsor a volleyball tournament March 27-28, with Friday the entry deadline.

An entry fee of $25 per team will be charged. Only the first eight men's and women's teams will be accepted.

Doug Higgins at 938-2342 is the entries chairman.

There will be an admission charge of 25 cents for players, 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Dance lessons are offered

Dance classes for all ages will be offered in Dimmitt beginning April 5.

Tracy Lee's Studio of Dance will offer combination lessons in ballet, modern jazz, acrobatic and tap dancing, from beginners' to advanced levels.

Registration will be from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, March 29, in the courthouse assembly room. Classes will be held hourly from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Saturday, beginning April 5.

Owner of Tracy Lee's Studio of Dance is Tracy Reeves of Amarillo, an accomplished performer and instructor in all modes of dance.

A student at Amarillo College, Miss Reeves teaches classes in Tulia on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and assists Mrs. Peggy Norman at Amarillo College on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

As a young girl in Colorado, Miss Reeves studied the various modes of dance in Denver under Mrs. Shirlee Carlyle Harkness. During this time, she was named "Little Miss Arvada," was a finalist in the "Little Miss Colorado" pageant, won the Kiwanis Club's "Stars of Tomorrow" competition and was chosen as one of the 25 top entertainers in the Denver metro area for the 25th anniversary production of "Showagon."

After moving to Kearny, Ariz., in 1973, she established her own dance studio and also was assistant dance instructor at the Lynn Cluff Studio of Dance in Globe, Ariz.

In 1975, Miss Reeves moved to Amarillo and became an advanced student and assistant instructor under Elaine Field and Peggy Norman at Elaine Field's Studio of Dance. Since then she has also studied under the renowned Buster Cooper in Dallas and Gus Giordano in Chicago.

While attending Amarillo High School, Miss Reeves choreographed the opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors" by Gian-Carlo Menotti, danced in the Amarillo Little Theater productions of "Hello, Dolly" and "George M," choreographed and danced in the musical, "Oliver," and also danced in the musical, "Camelot," under the direction of Ms. Judy Carter.

During her senior year at Amarillo High School, she served as captain of the AHS Golden Sandie Steppers drill team.

THE word "Pistol" is derived from the town of Pistoia in central Italy, a manufacturing center for small handguns during the Middle Ages.

Teresa's topics Savings pose challenge

By TERESA CRISWELL
County Extension Agent

Family savings pose a challenge, but it can be done.

During the last decade the average household managed to save about six percent of their disposable income, but during 1979, the level dropped.

Many families are not saving at all.

There are tactics that lead to savings success, however, for families who want to save in safe, liquid, regulated ways.

Some families have made saving a habit.

They pay themselves first — a portion of every paycheck goes into savings regardless of other expenses.

Other families need different tactics to force themselves to save.

"Coin Play" is one. Coin savers set aside a jar or piggy bank or special drawer. Selected coins — quarters, dimes — are diverted into the jars.

Some people empty their pockets at the end of every day and put all the change into a jar.

Family members may race to see who can fill a jar the fastest.

Sometimes labeling a jar, such as "Summer Vacation Money" or "Color TV Fund" helps the whole family join in the project.

Here's another idea: change a debit to a credit — or a debit to a savings.

With this method, when a debt is finished, use the now-freed money for saving instead of spending. For example, when the refrigerator is paid off, save the amount that had gone for its monthly payment.

"Crash Saving" is another tactic.

Pick a time period during which nothing is spent that isn't absolutely necessary.

Be sure to set limits to the time — say two months — and mark it off on a calendar.

During this time, cut out movies, "eating out," baby-sitters, sales, beer, cigarettes — and feel like a hero for the time involved.

You can learn about yourself during this time, and probably you'll save a great deal.

One advantage to this plan is that you may like the new lifestyle and make savings a permanent habit.

Finally, there's the kick-a-habit savings idea.

Save all the money you spend for coffee breaks or cigarettes or desserts or telephone calls, for example.

In general, remember, it is possible to save — even in inflationary times — if savings is your goal.

YHs slate style show, 'tasting tea'

A tasting tea and fashion show, sponsored by the Dimmitt Young Homemakers, will be held from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday, March 30 at the First Baptist Church.

Tickets at $2.50 may be purchased from any member of the YH, at the Village Shop, the Shoe Tree or at the door.

Proceeds from the tea and style show will be used for future projects of the Young Homemakers. The public is invited.

For Food Quality Corn, Top Quality Hybrids From Warner Seed Co.

W-2188 Medium A Proven Champion

A medium maturity, single-cross, yellow hybrid with tremendous yield potential, W-2188 has strong stalks, with excellent standability and large, upright leaves. Big, long, full ears make for bigger yields. High head smut tolerance makes this hybrid an exceptionally good choice for farmers whose yields are subject to this disease. W-2188 dries well and harvest easily.

W-2190 Medium New Yellow Food Corn

Although this new yellow, single-cross hybrid was introduced principally for its excellent milling characteristics, its bin-busting yields make it a terrific all-around hybrid. Flinty kernels with a desirable starch cap make it an ideal yellow corn for food processing. W-2190 outperforms W-2188 in two important areas: its low percentage of cracks and uniform dry-down.

W-2290 Medium New Yellow Food Corn

Another great, new, yellow hybrid that compliments W-2190, to which it is related. W-2290 has good milling attributes and is ideal for processed food products. This is a high performance hybrid that responds well to intensive management. It's a truly modern hybrid for the modern corn producer. Field tests have shown that this hybrid can have as low as 5% cracks, a high consistency of quality and uniform dry-down - characteristics which make it the number one choice of food corn processors.

32WW Medium-Late White Food Corn

This medium-late, modified single-cross, white corn is well suited for processed food products. Its big, girthy ears have medium-hard, deep kernels which have excellent milling properties. Outstanding yields are characteristic of this consistent performer.

4253W Medium-Late New White Food Corn

Another excellent, fast-drying, white hybrid. Deep, medium hard, white kernels on a long ear with a small cob are features of this outstanding milling corn. This modified single-cross variety is quickly making friends wherever white corn is grown. It makes a great companion to 32WW.

Constitutional seminar planned here

Local residents who have participated in the "Miracle of America" Constitutional seminar elsewhere are working to bring it to Castro County April 18 and 19.

Edgar Dennis is the seminar chairman.

Local sponsors are seeking to get a minimum of 100 families enrolled for the popular two-day seminar. A fee of $35 per family pays for tuition, study book and workbooks.

Civic Clubs are being asked to take responsibility for certain numbers of enrollees in the course from among their members and families.

At least 100 families are needed to sign up before the course can be presented here, Dennis said.

"The course was recently conducted in Lubbock and those attending from here were so enthusiastic about the course that they want to see it offered here," Jack Flynt said.

"If you believe in and love this country you wouldn't miss this meeting," Flynt told Rotarians Friday.

Castro Countians attending the Lubbock seminar were Flynt, Mr. and Mrs. John Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence McLain. They're all helping promote the seminar here.

The seminar, which features lectures by Dr. Cleon Skousen and Glen Kimber of the Freeman Institute in Salt Lake City, will begin at 1 p.m. April 18 and will be concluded by late afternoon April 19 in Dimmitt High School Auditorium.

The course is specifically designed to restore confidence in the founding fathers' unique formula for constitutional government and free enterprise economics which made America great, according to Dr. Skousen.

Dr. Skousen, who is the author of "The Naked Communist" and a number of other books, is a former FBI agent and was chief of police in Salt Lake City. He has lectured for many years at the Texas Farm Bureau's Citizenship Seminar for high school students at Baylor University.

Skousen, who founded the Freeman Institute, was recently asked by a group of US congressmen and senators to come to Washington, D.C. to teach the course to them and their invited colleagues.

"There is an urgent need to help Americans realize that practically every major problem facing this nation today is the direct result of abandoning or perverting some important principle laid down by the Founding Fathers.

"Americans need to know that corrosive inflation, abusive taxation, federal meddling in local affairs, the loss of states' rights, corruption in high places, scandalous government waste, foreign wars, subversion of our currency, our huge national debt, a bankrupt social security system, irrational hospital costs, and a multitude of other anxieties which continually plague the American

Strother honored at authors' dinner

Raleigh Strother of Dimmitt was one of 32 Panhandle authors honored at a Book and Author Dinner at the Hilton Inn in Amarillo recently.

The event is sponsored annually by the Friends of the Amarillo Library.

Strother is the author of "Talking About Weather and Other Stuff," a book of his poems which was published during the past year.

The evening included dinner and a program on Texas history and folklore by a University of Dallas professor.

Strother was accompanied by his wife, Grace.

Val Steffens to enter USAF

Val Martin Steffens, son of Alphonse F. and Elizabeth M. Steffens of Nazareth, entered the US Air Force delayed enlistment program March 15, according to Sgt. Bill Phillips, Air Force recruiter.

Steffens selected the power production area for job training and will attend a six-week basic military training course at Lackland AFB in San Antonio, beginning Sept. 22.

After successful completion of basic training, he will be enrolled in the Community College of the Air Force.

Social Security in Castro County

By JANICE B. ULMER

Social Security benefits play a major role in the economy of Castro County. For instance, over 11% of the people here receive some form of social security benefits in payments that exceed $217,100.00 per month.

This money is paid to retired and disabled individuals and their dependents. Survivors of deceased workers also receive benefits.

Recently there has been much public concern about the financial soundness of the social security trust fund. In 1977 congress took steps to insure that there would be money for future social security benefits. For example, the tax rate in 1980 for employed persons is 6.1% and 8.10% for the self-employed. The maximum earnings on which social security will be paid this year is $25,900.

These figures will increase steadily for the next several years due to recent legislation. According to the report of the Board of Trustees of the social security trust funds made late last year, these increases are stabilizing the social security system. Their studies show that the system can meet anticipated commitments at least through the year 2010 without annual deficits. Currently congress is considering legislation to refine the program and provide for the goal of a no-deficit solution.

In the weeks to come this column will deal with the various aspects of the social security and supplemental security income programs. The nearest office is located at 1401-B W 5th St., in Plainview, phone 293-4371.

Our representative is in Dimmitt every Thursday at the courthouse from 10-12.

'Heart Month' is winding up

March is Heart Month in Castro County, and workers for the American Heart Association hope to contact every home in the county by the end of the month.

Mary Emma Matthews, chairman of the Castro County unit, said that she and her workers will try to contact each home and give literature about the heart and diseases associated with heart trouble.

All contributions will be used for heart research.

Money that has been contributed in the past paid for research that led the way to open heart surgery, Mrs. Matthews noted.

Police calls

Sharon Moore told police that someone had cut the rear tire on her car while it was parked at South Hills Manor. Value of the tire is estimated at $60.

A driver was cited for following too close after an accident last Saturday.

Police also worked several DWI's.

In February, 1974 residents of Kilarney Station in Australia reported sighting hundreds of small fish falling from the sky. Scientists guessed that a severe tropical storm three days earlier had created a waterspout in the ocean and sucked the fish upward into a cloud which later drifted inland.
