Chief business of the convention will be to adopt resolutions to be presented to the state convention, elect delegates to that meeting and attend to other business matters. President David Battey Jr. will preside. All members of the organization are urged to attend.

The resolutions which will be presented to the county convention for approval or rejection were outlined in a meeting of the directors and committeemen held last Thursday evening at Golden's Cafe here. A brief summary of these resolutions is as follows: 1. We favor the abolition of the office of county superintendent.

2. We recommend a suitable natural resource tax to finance the state school program.

3. We urge that continued efforts be made by the Texas Farm Bureau to secure legislation to secure health and disease control program.

4. We recommend that the Farm-to-Market road program be continued as-is and the rural road program be extended until all Texas farms have reasonable access to markets.

Church Youth "Trick Or Treat" To Benefit UNICEF
Young people from the local churches will participate in a drive for funds "Trick Or Treat" fashion which will benefit undernourished children of the United Nations.

The youths will gather at the Methodist Church at 7:30 Wednesday night, Oct. 22, where they will receive UNICEF identification tags and milk cartons in which donations are to be placed. They will complete the drive about 9 o'clock and return to their homes. Mrs. Don Hatch is heading the committee on arrangements.

The UNICEF is a part of the United Nations and is governed by its own 30-member executive board of which the United States is a member. A five cent donation will buy enough penicillin to cure one child of yaws, one cent will buy enough vaccine to immunize one child against TB or buy five glasses of milk.

Since 1946 UNICEF has helped millions of children and mothers in more than 100 countries or territories. The UNICEF is a part of the United Nations and is governed by its own 30-member executive board of which the United States is a member.

Powerful Abernathy Antelopes Play Longhorns Here Friday Nite
Lockney scrappy Longhorn's test one of the finest AA teams in the Panhandle-South Plains area Friday evening at 8 p. m. when the Abernathy Antelopes invade Mitchell - Zimmerman Field. The rugged Antelopes are undefeated in seven battles this season.

Pretty Weather Speeds Harvest
Pretty weather of the past week has increased the tempo of harvest operations and cotton is moving to the gins as fast as the available labor can get it there. Much cotton is ready but no hands are available to gather it and farmers are now waiting for the first killing frost to start strippers to cleaning the fields.

A light frost Tuesday night nipped the cotton leaves in some places but nowhere in this area was the frost heavy enough to kill the plants. It was considered a beneficial frost since it did serve to aid in defoliating the plants and will hasten maturity. Where artificial defolliants had been applied fields will probably be ready for the stripper next week, gin men say. Very few strippers have been running to this date.

Cotton trailers have been stacking up on gin yards the past week for the first time this season, an indication of increased speed of harvest operations.

Total bales ginned in this area of Floyd County was 14,084 at noon Wednesday, an increase of some 4,000 bales over the total at the same time last week. This survey included gins at Lockney, Lone Star, Sterley and Aiken.

In Lockney proper, the four gins have ginned a total of 6,800 bales compared to 4,766 at the same time last week.

Grain Harvest
The sorghum grain crop is 80 per cent harvested, elevator men said Wednesday. If pretty weather holds this week will see this harvest completed except for a few fields where the grain is still not mature.

Jim Griffith Dies Monday
J. H. (Jim) Griffith, an old time resident of this community, died at a Brownfield Hospital early Monday morning after an illness of two weeks. He had been in ill health for several months but had been active until his last illness, relatives said.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church at Brownfield at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Rev. James Tidwell, the pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Plainview Cemetery beside the grave of his wife, who died in 1935.

Mr. Griffith was born in Harlingen County but came to Floyd County with his parents, the late "Uncle Daff" Griffith and Mrs. Mattie Griffith, in 1891. They settled where Lockney now is but there was no Lockney here at that time, relatives said. He grew up here and was married to Miss Macy Waddill in 1906. The couple moved to Ralls in 1913 and later went to Lubbock to make their home. She passed away there in 1935.

In 1937 Mr. Griffith was married to Miss Irene Abernathy of Lubbock. The couple moved to Brownfield in 1943 and had lived there since. Mr. Griffith was a farmer most of his life but engaged in the real estate business in Lubbock.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Irene Griffith; his mother, Mrs. Mattie Griffith of Lockney; three sons, Wallace and Burl of Ralls and Boyd of Abernathy; one daughter, Mrs. Nova Olinger, National City, Calif.; five brothers, Theo and Fred of Lockney, Roy and Jake of Plainview, and Frank of Dallas; one sister, Mrs. Frank Dodson of Lockney; one grandchild and two great-grandchildren.

A large number of relatives and friends from Lockney attended the funeral services at Brownfield.

BREAKS ARM
Debbie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller, suffered a broken right arm Saturday about 6 o'clock when she fell from a gate while playing. The break occurred just above the wrist. Her arm was set and placed in a cast at Lockney General Hospital where she spent Saturday night.

Lubbock Avalanche - Journal ranks Abernathy as the top AA team in the area and Amarillo Daily News has them third in their listings. The Antelopes are heavy favorites to cop the District 2-AA title. Lockney's defending district champions are not rated in the top 10 by either of the daily newspapers.

The teams have played three common foes this season — Tulla, Dimmitt, Slaton. Abernathy squeezed past Tulla, 16-14, downed Dimmitt, 12-6, and trampled Slaton, 27-0. The Longhorns eased by Tulla, 14-6, but lost to Dimmitt, 26-0, and to Slaton, 12-8. The powerful Antelopes have also beaten Spur, Sundown, Tahoka and Morton.

A gigantic pep rally will be held Friday afternoon at 3:15 in the gymnasium. The public is urged to join in the pep rally and boost the Longhorns to a win over Abernathy.

This will be the opening conference contest for the Longhorns. Abernathy opened 2-AA action last week with an easy 38-0 victory over Morton. The Longhorns have posted a two swoon, four lost record this season, but have a much better team than the record indicates.

The Antelopes have a fine passing attack. All - District quarterback Lane Tannehill has three good targets for his aerials in ends Pat Attebury and Jim Dye and wingback Gerald Watson. Understudy quarterback John Brown is an able passer and ball handler when Tannehill shifts to a halfback post. Main cog in the running attack is hard-charging fullback Danny Miller.

Abernathy's club is an experienced crew with eight returning regulars. The entire backfield and much of the line have played together since junior high school. They are not exceptionally large, however, with the line averaging 168 pounds. Right tackle Carroll Powell is the mainstay in the line.

Longhorn quarterback Jimmy Minter will be out for the remainder of the season, according to local coaches. Halfback Jackie Calahan is still sidelined with a broken collar bone. All other Longhorns were in good shape Tuesday and, barring injury later in the week, should be in good shape for the district curtain-raiser.

The Longhorn coaching staff said the boys are working hard. Desire is running high in the Big Red camp and players are "ready" for Abernathy.

The game will be broadcast by radio station KVOP, Plainview, with the pre-game description beginning about 7:45. Probable starting lineups:

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love.—John 15:10.

IN SPITE of the inference left in news stories that the people of the North do not object to the mixing of the white and colored races, a little investigation will prove there is objection. Following the Supreme Court decision in 1954, the schools in the national capital of Washington, D. C., were immediately integrated. At that time the population was 60 percent Negro. But now the population of Washington is reported to be 80 percent Negro. Why? Because white people, especially families with children of school age, have moved out of the integrated area. Similar trends are noted in the larger cities of New York, Chicago and other places. The South is not the only area which objects to the mixing of the races and in practically every instance the amount of objection is governed by the number of Negroes in the area. The fewer colored people the less objection. And likewise, the more colored people, the more objection.

LOCAL BUSINESS people, as well as farmers, were disappointed this fall because of the small number of transient laborers which came to this area to help in gathering the cotton crop. Farmers, of course needed the hands and still need them, while business people wanted them to come because of the money they spend. Braceros have been the main source of harvest labor for the current crop but they do not spend their money as freely as do native Mexicans. But business people tell us the Bracero is loosening up. He is spending more money locally than in previous years. He still does not match his counterpart from this side of the Rio Grande. But he is improving and he has certainly been a big help to the farmers of the area. Unless the native Mexican shows more interest in the business of gathering crops and proves to be more dependable than in the past it may be that eventually he will be replaced entirely by Braceros.

THE HALE-AIKEN Committee is having little trouble making up their respective minds about some recommendations concerning the state school program. However, some recommendations and facts brought out by this state-wide committee are interesting. One of their recommendations is for a $4,000 per year minimum salary and a $6,500 per year maximum salary for school teachers. At present the minimum is $3,204 and the maximum is $4,833. Better salaries is the most important single factor in retention of teachers, the committee says. The committee does not make any recommendations as to new tax sources. Certainly considerable more school money will be needed if the stepped-up school program is to be adopted. A number of county committees, working last Spring on recommendations, suggested a general sales tax as a source of new revenue. Apparently the committee has not adopted this idea, but many people are of the opinion it is the fairest tax possible. Certainly there are factors in favor of a sales tax.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ—During the past few weeks thousands of boys and girls again took up the battle with books here in Texas. So many learned men have come up with so many good ideas about what the boys and girls should learn in this era of space travel and rock 'n' roll sputniks that it is sort of dangerous to even mention the word education. However, it's pretty safe to predict that the thousands of high school and college students who study the income tax course will get a chance to use what they have learned. The sputniks may keep on rockin' 'n' rollin' or they may get sacked, but unfortunately, not only this generation but the next one will be working on this tax business. Maybe Junior can learn enough to prepare correct tax returns and pay no more than his proper tax.

A WALL STREET Journal article points out that some 90,000 people and businesses filed for bankruptcy in the fiscal year that just ended — a jump of 23 per cent over the year before. Four out of five bankruptcies are filed by individuals.

WHAT A CONTRAST
The whole idea of communism, the communist leaders say, is to serve and benefit the masses of the people and make their lives fuller and happier. The whole idea of capitalism, these same communist leaders say, is to permit exploitation and oppression of the masses by a rich and powerful law.

An interesting sidelight on these ancient arguments is found in a chart issued by the National Industrial Conference Board. It shows the working time typical workers must put in to buy commodities in New York as against Moscow. It is revealing.

The New York worker earns enough money in half an hour to buy a pair of nylons for his wife — it takes the Moscow worker 7.2 hours. The New York worker can earn a pair of shoes in just under five hours — in Moscow almost 50 hours are necessary. A suit costs the New York worker 3.3 days of working time — in Moscow the figure is a staggering 36.7 days, more than a solid month.

The same is true of food. A pound of sugar costs the American 3.1 minutes — the Russian

BURY THEM ALL
Here's a clipping that was sent to us this week by Mrs. Wesley Hollar entitled "Be Our Guest." An editor died after a lingering illness. His savings barely covered hospital and doctor bills, leaving nothing for funeral expenses. A friend, after soliciting funds all day, lacked only $1 of having enough. Wearily, he said to a stranger, "Could you give me a dollar to bury an editor." The stranger pulled out a $5 bill, and said, "Here — bury five of them."
If this editor should pass on from this earth, I just hope I will have a friend who will solicit the funds to bury me! — Kenneth Tooley in Paducah Post.

CROSSROADS REPORT
By E. E. SCOTT

Dear Editor:
I see where some genius over in Europe has invented a gadget which won't let an automobile start if the driver has alcohol on his breath.

But my patriotic neighbor says we have some very sharp inventors in the U. S. too, and they are likewise working hard on ways and means to discourage drunk driving.

For instance, they have designed some of the new 1959 model cars so that nobody can possibly thread himself in under the steering wheel unless he is cold sober.

Long Ago In Lockney

Items of interest from the files of The Lockney Beacon.

October 25, 1928
Little Ralph McReynolds, age six and a half, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McReynolds of Aiken, died at his home about six o'clock Wednesday morning of diphtheria. His mother is ill of the same disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker and children will leave Nov. 1 for Childress where they will make their home. He will be connected with J. C. Penny Store there. Mr. Baker is now serving as Lockney city secretary and previously worked in the dry goods department of Baker Dry Goods Company.

B. W. King and family of Wellington have purchased the E. J. Barker home in the northeast part of town and are now living here. The Barkers moved to Floydada where Mrs. Barker is teaching art in the public schools.

President A. B. Muncy of Floyd County Poultry Association has called a meeting to make plans for the annual poultry show to be held here in December.

October 25, 1946
Mrs. E. P. Thompson, a Floyd County pioneer and mother of Mrs. Buck Sams and Mrs. E. H. Rankin of Lockney, passed away at her home in Long Beach, California, Wednesday, Oct. 16. Mrs. Thompson came to this country about 1900 and taught school in the county. One of the schools she taught was the old Roseland School which was named for her. Her maiden name was Roseland

What it takes for Good Heating!

INSULATION
No matter how your home is heated, good insulation will save you money — give greater heating comfort — provide more efficient summertime cooling. Ceilings should have 6 inches of non-settling insulation. Walls should have 3½ inches — floors, 2 inches. A concrete floor should have 2 inches of insulation between it and the foundation. Windows are great to see through but they're guilty of tremendous heat loss and so they should be small or doubled-glassed — always weather-stripped. Ducts in a forced-air heating system should have a 2 inch coat of insulation.

DESIGN OF HEATING SYSTEM
A properly designed heating system is a must if you are to have enough heat plus the efficiency necessary for low-cost operation. The system must be sized to meet the heating demand of the building and its occupants. A too-small system won't do the job and a too-large system is wasteful of both the cost of the unit and of its operating cost. In a forced-air system the size of the ducts and the blower is important for correct distribution. The placement and size of the outlet louvres must be considered in getting enough heat to all areas of the room.

HOME DESIGN
For greater comfort and economy much can be done with the home itself. Cold, windy or hot exposures must be reckoned with. However, since cooling a building is usually more expensive than heating, air conditioning engineers recommend that home design offset hot, sunny exposures. One way of making the home cooler is to have extending roof overhangs to shade the exterior walls and windows. Other ways include designing the garage on the southwest corner of the house. Porches can be used to advantage, as well as adding beauty to the home. Shade trees on the sunny sides of the house are helpful.

QUALITY OF HEATING SYSTEM
You wouldn't build a home today and use wood-burning stoves for heating. You ask for the best heating system you can afford because you're looking for comfort and convenience. That's why, all over America, modern-thinking architects, builders, home buyers are delighted with the comfort and convenience offered by electric home heating. There are 4 basic types of electric home heating from which to choose: 1. Wall panels, 2. Ceiling cable, 3. Baseboard, and 4. Heat pump. The first three use no ducts and can be individually temperature-controlled in each room. The heat pump is an amazing new appliance that cools as well as heats. It is a forced-air system.

There's a new low electric heating rate now available. Your Public Service manager has the details — talk to him about it.

"The Inside Story of ELECTRIC CLIMATE CONTROL" — a new booklet that tells the facts about modern electric heating. If you're building or remodeling you'll want this booklet. Your Public Service manager has a copy for you.

Chevrolet introduces VERSATILE, SLEEK EL CAMINO

The Chevrolet El Camino, a new vehicle combining ultra style with utility, complements the company's 1959 line of both passenger cars and trucks. Designed with fleet crisp passenger car lines, El Camino retains the versatility of a pickup for hauling light or bulky cargoes. It is intended as a true dual purpose vehicle for businessmen, ranchers and farmers, and others needing attractive, comfortable personal transportation and hauling ability in one vehicle.

A compound-curved windshield and wrap-around rear window assure pilothouse visibility in their budgets.

FORMULA FOR COLLEGES—Commission on Higher Education has adopted two major policies on division of studies and funds among the state's 18 colleges and universities. One is a plan for study program which concentrates graduate study, especially for PhDs, at Texas A&M and the University of Texas. Other is a formula for asking for appropriations based on the number of semester hours taught.

IT'S A LONG STORY—More insurance legislation and, possibly, more grand jury action may result from the reports of the Senate Investigating Committee. Sen. Charles Herring, chairman, released the first of five reports on the committee's findings. It dealt with the means by which ICT Insurance Company and fell. Herring said testimony suggested that some people not indicated should be called before grand juries. There was, he said, conflicting testimony, under oath, indicating perjury.

CALLS FOR BIG TAX—A meeting of the Texas Association of School Boards was the sounding board for more ideas on school financing. Only a state income tax or general sales tax can produce enough revenue to cover school program improvements, a spokesman for the Texas State Teachers Association told the meeting.

TSTA—TSTA man L. P. Sturgeon said other taxes proposed thus far would hardly get the state treasury out of the hole, let alone cover new needs. School Board members also heard Dr. B. F. Pittenger, one-time dean of the University of Texas College of Education, say he had felt for 30 years that public schools need "a considerable amount of federal aid."

NO FAT, THEY SAY—Gov. Price Daniel's request that state department heads try to pare down their budget requests for the next two years brought no dramatic tax-saving slashes. General reaction of the department heads was that they were already being as economical as they could be and still maintain the services expected of them. Altogether the requests totaled $225,000,000 more than is being spent during the present two-year period. But some are, indeed, "not cuttable" under present law. Biggest increase—$90,000,000—is for public schools whose costs go up automatically with the number of students. Similar unavoidable increases occur in welfare, highway and retirement costs. In other areas, department heads declare there is "no fat"

Cook tiny potatoes in their skins over a high flame for 15 minutes. Combine 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup with 1 can of potato water and heat thoroughly over a medium flame. Add the skinned potatoes and cook about 5 minutes, or until they are heated through. Serve in a warm dish, sprinkle generously with fresh dill chopped in 1/4 inch pieces.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

PARTY-LINE SERVICE

Party-line service is good telephone service when the line is shared equably and thoughtfully. Think of the other families on your line as telephone neighbors. They probably use their service just as you do—making calls to help the household run smoothly, and calls to keep in touch with relatives and friends.

By considering the telephone habits and needs of others on your party line just as you'd like them to consider yours, you can help set up a partnership that will give each user his fair share of service.

The ABC of satisfactory service for all party liners is simply this: Always Be Considerate.

LUXURIOUS—BUT NOT A LUXURY

Got a telephone for your bedroom, yet? Nothing tops a bedroom telephone for real luxury living. When I'm home using ours, I like to stretch out on the bed with the phone cradled between my shoulder and my ear. I can relax and really talk that way.

There are plenty of good, practical reasons for having a bedroom phone, too. Privacy, for example. And women often say how reassuring it is to have a phone at their bedside when they're alone in the house at night. It's much nicer to be able to "reach" to answer instead of having to dash to another room.

Here in Lockney, a bedroom extension costs only $1.00 a month plus installation. And for a one-time charge of only $10, you can have your choice of any of the nine beautiful color telephones. They're especially smart for bedrooms.

EASY WAY TO KEEP IN TOUCH

I guess at one time or another, we all remember—out of a clear sky—someone we haven't thought of in a long time. "Whatever happened to George?" we say. Or to Ruth, or the Browns, or the Martin family. Usually it's someone we really mean to keep in touch with—like the couple who used to live next door, or old friends in faraway places. But with so much on our minds and so much to do, the months fly by and we never get around to it.

The quick, easy way to make up for lost time is, of course, to use your telephone.

A long distance phone call is the personal, thoughtful way of keeping in touch with those you care about. Try a call tonight, and you'll see what I mean.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Seating!
DESIGN OF HEATING SYSTEM
A properly designed heating system is a must if you are to have enough heat in your room. A system necessary for low-cost operation must be sized to meet the heating building and its occupants. A system that doesn't do the job and a too-large system of both the cost of the unit and the cost of operation. In a forced-air system the size of the blower is important for correct placement and size of the unit. Considered in getting enough heat in your room.

QUALITY OF HEATING SYSTEM
You wouldn't build a house today and use wood-burning stoves for heating. You'd use a heating system you can afford. Looking for comfort and convenience over America, modern-thinking builders, home buyers are delighted with the convenience offered by electric heat. There are 4 basic types of electric heat to choose: 1. Wall panels, 2. Ceiling board, and 4. Heat pump. The heat pump can be individually temperature controlled in each room. The heat pump is a system that cools as well as heats.

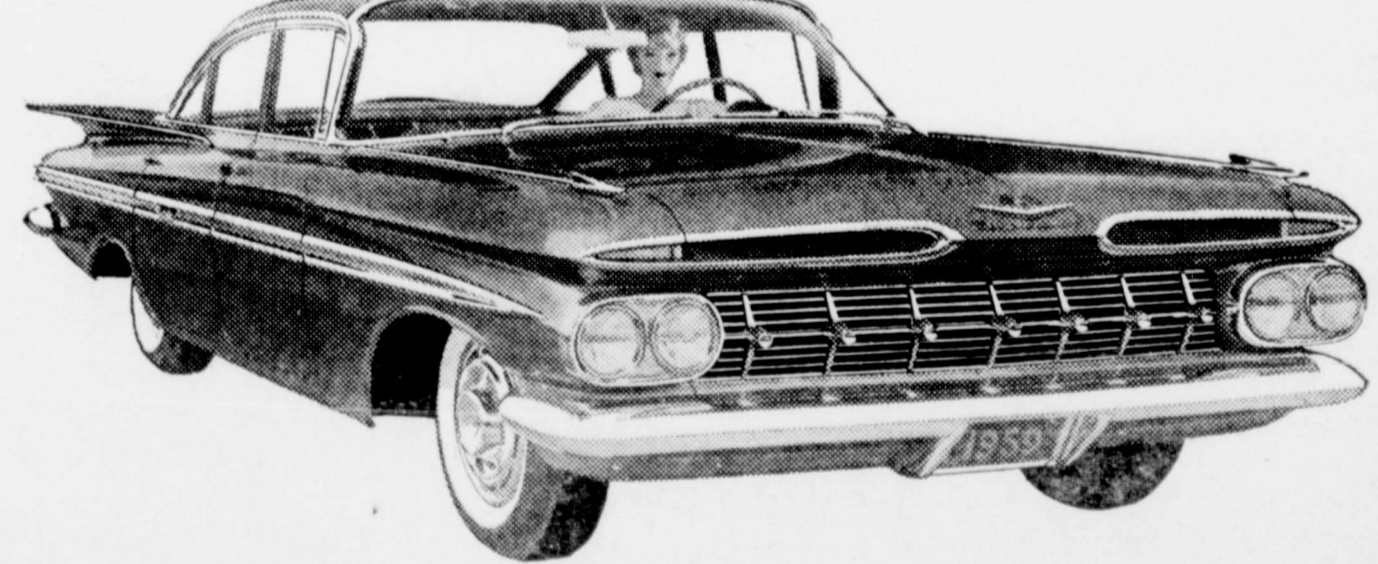

ELECTRIC CLIMATE CONTROL
If that tells the facts about modern electric heat, if you're building or remodeling your home, get this booklet. Your Public Service Commission has it for you.

Cotton Harvesting Here are some pointers for handling loose cotton to insure good grades.

1. Do not tramp cotton in trailers.
2. Provide enough trailers to prevent tramping.
3. Avoid using two wheel trailers.
4. Do not harvest high moisture cotton.
5. Do not over lubricate harvesting equipment, this can cause stains.

Cotton Burs Cotton Burs are good soil builders and we should use as much of them as possible. In talking to people in the county, no infestations of bindweed have been found where cotton burs are used. Angular leaf spot will not present a large problem if the burs are turned under, because the bacteria can not live in the soil.

Cotton burs at the rate of 4 tons per acre has increased production by 150 pounds of lint per acre over a four year period.

The addition of 45 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre to 4 tons of burs gave a 211 pound increase the first year the burs were applied.

This is a good way to build up soil organic matter and to protect our soil for future years.

Farm Bureau Silver Anniversary Meeting In Corpus In November

Corpus Christi — The silver anniversary convention of the state's largest general farm organization — the Texas Farm Bureau — will be held here Nov. 9-12.

More than 1,500 members and their families, including almost 800 official voting delegates from 196 organized counties, are expected to attend the 25th annual meeting of the rapidly-growing state Farm Bureau. Convention headquarters will be in the Nueces Hotel with general sessions in the Exposition Hall and special events such as queen contest and banquet in the Memorial Coliseum.

The convention will culminate the farm organization's state-level policy development process when, on the final day, voting delegates cast their ballots for adoption, rejection or amendment of resolutions sent in by county Farm Bureaus.

A 39-member state resolutions committee will meet in Corpus Christi four days prior to the convention to draft tentative resolutions from hundreds of recommendations on scores of issues which have been sent in from county conventions.

Adopted resolutions on national issues become recommendations to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention which meets Dec. 7-11 in Boston.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

COTTON BURRS ARE VALUABLE TO LAND

Cotton burrs could mean approximately $50,000.00 to farmers in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District this year, according to A. W. Dalrymple, Work Unit Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service in Floydada. Cotton burrs are valued at approximately $2.50 per ton when applied to the land, reports Dalrymple. At the rate of 500 pounds of burrs per bale of cotton, more than 20,000 tons of burrs are available to farmers.

There are 21 gins in Floyd County. Twenty of which make burrs available to farmers. Five gins are equipped with spreader trucks that haul and spread burrs from $2.00 to $3.00 per ton. Fifteen gins make them available on a "come and get basis." Any farmer can get the burrs as long as there are plenty, but if there are more requests than burrs, then their customers get first chance. The average amount of burrs applied to the land is four to six tons per acre. However, some use 10 to 12 tons.

A small per cent of the farmers take advantage of the use of burrs because they are available at a time when farmers are busy trying to harvest their crops and consequently don't take the time to get them.

Information obtained from farmers in the Floyd County Soil Conservation District indicate that they have found cotton burrs to be beneficial to their land in the following ways:

1. Land is easier to work after burrs have been turned under.
2. Increases moisture holding capacity of the soil.

3. Important source of organic matter.
4. Increases yields of subsequent crops.
5. Less weed problem.

Frances Montandon, who farms one mile south of Aiken, uses cotton burrs on bindweed patches after they have been poisoned. Montandon stated that when he had applied sodium chlorate on bindweed patches and followed with burrs, that his land would get back into production twice as quick as acres where no burrs had been applied. He made the statement that usually his land was sterile for only one year where he had applied the burrs. Montandon is one of several farmers that has his own truck with spreader equipment. His usual application of burrs is 10-12 tons per acre.

Hammond & Co. Sells New "W" Type Planter

Hammond & Company of Lockney has accepted the dealership here for the new "W" type planter manufactured by Cline Industries, Rush Springs, Okla. The planter is called a Plateau Profile Planter attachment and it creates a new type of seed bed. The planter is designed to eliminate or sharply reduce the problem of having to replant cotton after heavy rains and severe winds. Originally designed and perfected by J. G. Porterfield and associates at Oklahoma State University, the attachment creates a plateau for the seed about two inches below the original ground level, with furrows on each side of the plateau which run about five inches below the original ground level, providing a trap for water which could impair the cotton's emergency if it were placed in a deep or shallow furrow, as is common. In addition, the attachment places earth several inches above the original ground level between each row to block winds from damaging the young crop.

Although basically designed for use in cotton planting, field tests have shown the attachment to work equally well with other crops planted in lister furrows, such as grain sorghum, peanuts, soybeans, corn, and castor beans, according to a report in the May issue of the Oklahoma Farmer Stockman.

Tests in 1954 and 1955 at Oklahoma State's Cotton Research Station, Chickasha,

THE NEW "W" PLANTER, manufactured by Cline Industries, is shown here in the field of L. P. Hinds, Levelland, who used the planter this year after having to replant four times in 1957. Diagrams show plateau seed bed, protected by gullies to trap excess rainwater and furrows to keep wind and blowing soil from damaging emerging cotton plants.

Avoid Planting Your Crops Over On Account Of Rain!

Plant your cotton with a CLINE "W" PLANTER at least two weeks earlier than you usually plant with a conventional planter. (3-inch by 10-inch plateau in bottom of furrow will warm up at least two weeks earlier.)

Place your order now for a CLINE "W" PLANTER

to be delivered after January 1, 1959, so you can be sure to have this planter for next planting season.

We have this planter for all types tractors. See the Cline "W" Planter on display in our showroom.

Okla., indicated that the device develops a seedbed which substantially improves emergence over standard procedures, especially when rain follows shortly after planting.

On May 7, 1954, the researchers planted cotton in both the new seedbed and in conventional shallow furrows. A dashing three-inch rain came within 10 days and as a result, the ordinary furrow produced an average of one emerging plant per 10 ft. of row while the new method came up with 20 plants per 10 ft.

The following year the same experiment was tried. The planting was done May 6 and was followed by a rain of about nine inches. The shallow furrow was able to develop 10 plants per 10 ft. while the new seedbed produced 47.

Plantings which were not disturbed by severe rains did not reveal as broad a difference in emergence, although reports generally indicated a slightly better stand. Plantings on May 21 and June 8, 1954 came up at 25-20 and 14-10 ratios in favor of the new method.

Oklahoma's extension cotton specialist, G. E. Stroup, in discussing the seedbed in his service's circular No. 640, "A New Seedbed for Cotton," pointed out that it probably works best where land is flat broken. "However," he continued, "where land has been listed down and satisfactory results obtained with this method. . . . Some difficulty has been encountered in using this new type planter where soils are extremely tight. On such soils, the disk does not scour sufficiently and the seed-covering devices are ineffective."

Cline Industries cites two operations in western Texas which have claimed considerable success in using the Plateau Profile (or "W") planter. France Baker, Lubbock, Texas, head of Baker Empire Cotton Seed Farms, said that he planted 300 acres beginning April 24, 1958 and has his finest crop ever. "We are about the only farmers in Lubbock County who did not have to replant on account of excessive rains. Our cotton is about 30 days old and has been worked twice already, while no other farmers we know of in the area have their cotton up. We estimate the planter will make us many thousands of dollars as a result of our not having to replant."

Similarly, L. P. Hines, Levelland, estimates that he would have saved $4,000 or more in 1957 plantings and perhaps would have gained from $20,000 to $25,000 by using the new planter, according to a report in the Levelland Daily Sun News. Four replantings that year by Hines shortened his growing season by 40 days and

12 Area Churches To Join Crusade

Dallas — Twelve Baptist churches in the Floyd Association, including the First Baptist Church of Lockney, have agreed to participate in the 1959 North American simultaneous evangelistic crusade, said Dr. C. Wade Freeman, superintendent of evangelism, Baptist General Convention of Texas, this week. The Floyd Association includes churches in Floyd, Motley, Briscoe and Crosby counties.

A recent extended survey by the state evangelism department showed that 3,515 or 94.8 per cent of the denomination's churches in Texas will be included in the movement.

Texas crusade dates are January 25 - February 8, March 15-29, and April 12-26.

An estimated 70,000 baptisms will be recorded this year, said Dr. Freeman. Last year, BGCT churches reported 62,283 baptisms.

Mr. Farmer!

COTTON IS A MAJOR FACTOR IN FLOYD COUNTY'S ECONOMY!

The benefit derived from the cotton industry locally depends in a degree on the extent of the handling and processing of the product in the county, in all of its phases, from the planting until the ultimate shipment to the textile mills.

All of which means that in addition to the usual steps in the production and handling of cotton, its storage locally is a part of the benefits that add materially to, and strengthens the overall economy of the county.

Aside from the fact that our plant represents a large investment in physical equipment, the necessary labor and other operational requirements makes ours a major business operation in the community.

Because of these facts we believe the farmers of the county are wholly justified in requesting that their cotton be handled and stored locally as far as possible.

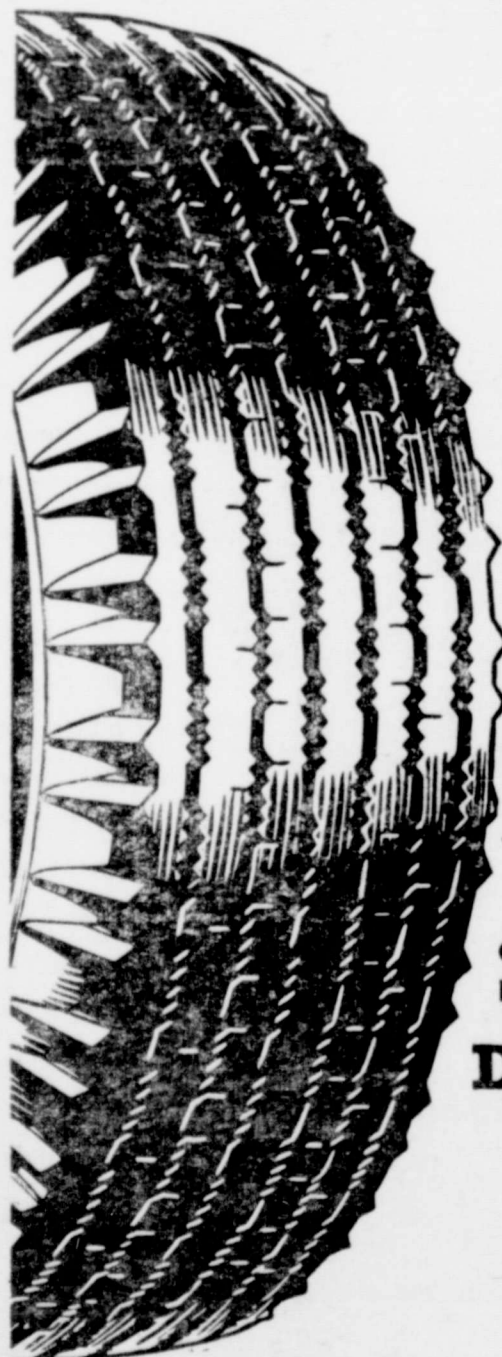

If you are not certain where your cotton is being stored you can get that information either from your ginner or us.

Our Value...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Scientists say that the chemicals in our bodies are worth only a few cents. God says that we belong to the highest order of His creation, made in His own image.

Statistics lose us in a multitude of more than two and a half billion people living in the world today. God tells us that He knows us as individuals. Each of us has a place in His plan. No one else can fill it, because no two people are exactly alike.

Friends say that they love us, but that love sometimes fails. God's love has given us our families, our friends, our possessions, our world, our very lives . . . and He gave us His only Son. It was He who taught us to call the great God of Creation our Father.

The Church of Christ invites us to come, to worship our Heavenly Father, and be forgiven by Him. Then we may reevaluate ourselves as individual children of God, not merely as part of a multitude.

Sand Hill News

By Mrs. James Jeffress

This past week of pretty weather has sure helped. Lots of grain has been cut, and quiet a bit of cotton has been pulled. Some that defoliated early have had their strippers going. It seems that hands are still scarce in the community and more have defoliated their cotton this week.

The date for the missionary revival has been set for Nov. 16-21 at the Sand Hill Baptist Church. A different missionary will speak each night. Everyone is extended a special invitation to attend.

Mrs. W. R. Billington was taken to Lockney General Hospital Wednesday where she remained until Saturday. Her condition is some improved. She is at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Yandell and family in Plainview for a few days this week.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Bro. and Mrs. Bill Rowland who received word this week that his brother-in-law was killed in a car wreck in California. Bro. Rowland and his parents from Plainview left immediately for California to attend the last rites. May God be with them in this hour of sorrow.

The Sand Hill Club met Wednesday afternoon in the club room. Mrs. J. T. Myrick gave the devotional. Annual committee reports were given and election of new officers was

Phillip Daniel Assigned Church

Rev. Phillip Daniel, a student at the University of Texas, has been assigned as pastor of the Prairie Lea Methodist Church, some 30 miles southeast of Austin. Phillip is the son of Rev. and Mrs. N. S. Daniel of Phillips, and the elder Mr. Daniel is the former pastor of the local Methodist Church. Phillip attended the local schools.

Phillip has just returned from a year's tour of Europe. Mrs. Bernice Miller and her mother, Mrs. Gilbert Huls, left Wednesday of last week to spend ten days visiting relatives in Oklahoma and Arkansas.

held. They are Mrs. Lynn Miller, president; Mrs. Hollis McLain, vice president; Mrs. Walter Knight, secretary; and Mrs. R. L. Bullocks, council delegate. Plans were discussed for the annual Thanksgiving supper set for November 21st. A menu committee is Mrs. J. T. Spears, Mrs. Ed Noel and Mrs. R. L. Bullock. An aluminum tray demonstration will be Wednesday, October 22. Mrs. J. T. Myrick served refreshments to Mmes. R. L. Bullocks, James Jeffress, H. F. Jackson, Walter Knight, Lynn Miller, J. T. Spears, Ed Noel, Orba Miller.

Next meeting will be November 5 with Mrs. Ora Miller as hostess. The program for the afternoon was "Grandma Never Had It So Good," by Mrs. Ed Noel and a lamp shade demonstration given by Mrs. Lynn Miller.

The rummage sale the club sponsored Saturday was a success. Those working most of the day were Mmes. J. T. Spears, R. L. Bullocks, H. F. Jackson, C. B. Carmack, Ed Noel and probably others.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Schultz and family enjoyed the week end in Amarillo visiting friends.

Homecoming day for Sand Hill Baptist Church is just around the corner. Plans are rapidly shaping up for a glorious all day meeting with dinner on the grounds. All you members of the church mark this day, November 2, on your calendar, and we will be expecting to see you.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Bess Rutherford on the loss of her husband, Ted Rutherford, who passed away Monday afternoon in a Plainview hospital. The Rutherfords have been long time residents of the Sand Hill Community and there will be a great loss. May God be with his family in this hour of sorrow.

Mrs. Jim Holmes visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffress and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Weathers and family from Summerville visited Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hollums Monday.
