She was selected by the annual staff.

Dr. Mangold will give the second and third DPT shots for the organization during the vacation months. The PTA will furnish the vaccine.

Mrs. Elsie Peckham reports that she has given the children in all local schools a physical check-up during the year, given them all the TB patch test and found only one active case, that being a girl. The room in which the active case was found will be checked again next week she says.

A total of 109 prospective first-graders next term appear on the school census and the 90 who went through the clinic proved to be an excellent percentage, the school nurse pointed out.

Flu Epidemic Cuts Attendance At Schools Here

An influenza epidemic that struck this area last week has cut school attendance considerably. Absentees have averaged about 130 in all schools the first three days of this week but the attendance is improving. Supt. H. H. Nicholas said Wednesday.

Last Friday a total of 125 were absent, on Monday 144 were absent and on Tuesday 130 were absent.

Doctors say that the illness is the "old time flu" and not the Asian flu which hit last year.

Supt. Nicholas was concerned this week lest the high absenteeism cost the local school a teacher next year because of a drop in average daily attendance.

FFA Judging Team Will Go To State Meet

The Lockney Future Farmer Chapter's livestock judging team will enter the state FFA judging contests at A. & M. College, College Station, Saturday of this week. The local team won the right to enter the state meet by placing in the upper 10% of the 105 teams entered in the regional contests held at Texas Tech, Lubbock, last Saturday.

The livestock judging team is composed of Dan Smith, Warren Mitchell, and Duane Griffith with Jimmy Howell as alternate. They will be accompanied by M. L. Brewer, local vocational agriculture instructor.

The contests at Tech included teams from all of Area 1 and 2, which comprises most of West Texas. The exact place won by the local team was not known here. Clarendon won first place, Tulia won second and Petersburg won third. The livestock judging teams judged sheep, swine, beef cattle including slaughter and feeder calves.

A dairy judging team from the local FFA chapter also entered the contests at Lubbock but did not qualify for the state contest. That team was composed of Johnny Belt, Jimmy Whitfill, and Robert Holland.

More Building Is Underway

Seems that more building is underway than that mentioned in The Beacon's story last week. Other recent building includes these:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown have recently completed a new home on Farm Highway 135, five miles east of Lockney. The house has six rooms with two baths. It has asbestos siding and is located on the south side of the highway. They moved in this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Poole have recently moved into a new home in West Lockney. It contains 1200 square feet of floor space and is located on West 8th Street, facing east.

Mrs. Bertha Rae Williams has recently moved into her new home, also on West 8th and just across the street from Poole's. It also contains about 1200 square feet of floor space.

Ray Reed is wrecking the house which has been occupied by him and his mother on North Main Street and will build a new home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kropp bought the J. D. Perkins place in southwest Lockney some weeks ago and added considerably to the house. They have been living there now for some time.

The Beacon is revising its estimate of last week. A further study of the construction work in this area leads us to the belief that total building in the immediate Lockney area now underway or just completed will be well past the $300,000.00 mark.

Pat Ashton will play the part of Cornelia and Pat McLaughlin will characterize Emily.

The remaining cast of characters will be listed next week. There is a total of eight men and nine women. The class has practiced each day the past two weeks.

Cotton Planters Are Putting Seed In The Ground

Many cotton planters were running Wednesday and local gin men estimated that 50 to 60 per cent of the cotton acreage has been planted.

Planters started running in some fields the middle of last week and the pace has been stepping up all this week. The cool spell of Tuesday morning didn't seem to slow the planters much.

Dry land farmers don't have enough moisture to plant as yet except on some summer-fallowed ground. A good slow rain is needed for dry land planting, farmers say.

A few irrigation farmers are holding off and won't plant until early May, they say, while some are through planting now. If the warm, dry weather holds, most of the cotton acreage will be planted this week.

About 270 Acres Safflower Here

About 270 acres of safflower have been signed up in the Lockney area, according to Ray Sissney, president of the Floyd County Farmers Union. Several sacks of safflower seed are left and if anyone wants to plant a few acres the seed is available at Hi-Plains Gin, Sissney said. The grower must sign a contract and buy $5.00 worth of stock in the plant for each acre he plants. This may be done at J. D. Copeland's office.

Fair Directors Make Plans In Monday Meeting

Directors of the Floyd County Fair Association, in a meeting Monday evening at Rogers Restaurant in Floydada, made further plans for the fair to be held September 10, 11 and 12.

Most of the discussion was concerning entertainment which is being lined up for the three nights of the fair. Present plans call for a talent show on Thursday night and a committee was appointed to work on plans, rules and regulations. That committee is composed of Mrs. Alma Holmes, Mrs. R. B. Holt and Mrs. Joe Foster.

Plans for Friday night aren't complete but some thought is being given to securing an Indian group to present a show that night.

The gospel singing, which has proven so popular in past years, has been moved to Saturday night. Joe Reeves is in charge of that event.

The directors plan to emphasize the community exhibits this year, and make an effort to enlist every community in the county in having an exhibit at the fair. County agents are planning to prepare some demonstrations on preparing booths and exhibits in order to encourage community exhibits.

The directors discussed the problem of keeping the building in repair and decided to attempt to work out some long range plans for taking better care of the building. A committee composed of Raymond Rucker, Joe Reeves and Joe Parrish was appointed to meet with the Lockney Chamber of Commerce to enlist the help of that organization in the plans.

Other plans included those for an Old McDonald Farm, with a variety of animals, and some changes in the livestock exhibit rules.

Present for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tinsley, Lewis Anderson, Elmer Biggs, Gerald Lackey, Cecil Lewis, Howard Gregory, Phyllis Rogendorf, Mrs. Alma Holmes, Mrs. R. B. Holt and Mrs. Joe Foster.

Fair officials have signed a contract with Vandyke Shows of Iowa Park, Texas, it was announced. This is a "full-grown" carnival and it will show all three days of the fair.

Beck Accepts Perryton Job

Don Beck, assistant high school football coach the past school year, has resigned here to accept a similar job at Perryton High School at a substantial increase in salary, he announced this week.

Beck will coach the B team and assist with the first string backfield at Perryton, he told The Beacon. He will also coach one other sport, either track or basketball. Perryton is an AA school now but the enrollment is expected to push it into a AAA school within the next year or two.

Beck said that he would complete the school year here and move to Perryton about June 1st. Joe Ogden is head football coach there. Beck's father has a farm near Perryton and Don is expecting to do a little farming during the summer months.

"I have certainly enjoyed working with the boys in Lockney High," Beck said this week. "We have made many friends here and we regret that we must leave but I feel that I must take this job."

Beck came here as assistant coach last summer soon after graduating from West Texas State College, Canyon. He played football at West Texas State and Canyon High School.

SWINE PRODUCTION
A group of swine growers and the County Agents attended a swine program in Abernathy this past week end. A carcass contest and cutover evaluation was held with the swine program.

A judging contest of the live pigs was also held and the judging was based on what the animal would do when killed. Dale Lacey, Lockney, was first and Herman King, Lone Star, was third. Others attending were Gilbert Fawver, Claude Fawver, Floydada, N. S. Abbott, R. C. Mitchell, Lockney.

ONION PRODUCTION
Many fields of onions are showing Botrytis Blight. The symptoms are yellowing of the tips, causing the plant to die and rot. This can be controlled with application of Maneb or Zineb at the rate of two pounds per acre in 40 gallons of water. This high volume of water is necessary for coverage with the fungicide.

Those fields that are infected should be carefully inspected during damp, wet weather.

CROSS ROADS REPORT
Dear Editor:
I see where an elderly New Yorker on a pittance pension saved enough out of same by going easy on food to play the stock market and made $21,000.

But the authorities made him give up his money and his wicked ways, and my hard neighbor says this will teach him to spend his surplus on liquor and women instead of taking up old outdated habits like saving.

Says anyhow if they let thrift and shrewd management run wild among their clients, a lot of the welfare people might be out of a job and have to go on relief.

Safflower Added To High Plains Station Program

Safflower has been added to the 1959 research program at the High Plains Station of Texas Research Foundation at Halfway. Dr. Johnny H. Davis, Associate Head, stated today.

This new research program has been included at the request of farmer supporters of the Station who want information on Safflower varieties suitable to the area.

The five varieties for the test were secured from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. They were planted on April 17 and had germinated by April 20. The varieties being tested include Nebreska 6 & 10, Pacific 1 Gila (Arizona) and an experimental strain number A-5731.

These varieties were planted in two row plots 22 feet long in four plots for each of the five varieties. In addition to this test, three acres each of Nebreska 6, Pacific 1 and Gila were planted for observation.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Texas. — Most people in or connected with the 56th Legislature are comforting themselves with the knowledge that air conditioning was installed in House and Senate chambers last year.

It may be pretty hot, they say, before a majority of both houses come to agreement on new taxes.

House members systematically cut to pieces the big omnibus tax bill (HB 727). As originally proposed, it would have raised $300,000,000, mostly from scores of new selective sales taxes on items ranging from face paint to house paint. After members got through cutting out the things that brought the loudest howls, it was down to less than one-fourth its starting size.

It was then given preliminary approval (second reading) by the narrowest of votes, 74-to-72, counting Speaker Waggoner's "yes" vote. Carr stepped down from the speaker's rostrum to plead with members to pass the bill, even though it had been stripped to practically nothing, so as to "get something to the Senate."

Senate cannot consider a tax bill until it has been passed by the House. But from the Senate, getting the shattered fragments of HB 727 is like getting four wheels and some broken glass with the invitation to make an automobile.

TASK AHEAD — In the days that remain until May 12, or in special session thereafter, the Legislature faces these decisions:

1. Appropriations — House has passed a bill calling for $322,000,000 in general revenue; Senate, a bill for $302,000,000. Differences must be adjusted in conference committee, which neither presiding officer seemed in a hurry to appoint. This could mean some sort of agreement that there would be no final decision on the appropriations bill until a tax program emerges.

2. Taxes — Either house's spending bill, with the deficit added in, would require something around $200,000,000 in new tax money. This much, it is certain, must be found somewhere.

3. School improvement — Backing of the Hale-Aikin Committee program will push for adoption of at least part of the program. It would add some $100,000,000 a year to state expenses.

ABANDONED PROPERTY "A-DONED" — In a vote that surprised many, the House passed the abandoned property bill, 80-to-67.

Proposed measure would have allowed the state to take over dormant bank accounts and property held by insurance companies, utilities and oil z...

gas companies if it had gone unclaimed seven years.

Some felt that Gov. Price Daniel, who had fought strenuously for the bill, might regard its defeat as third term fodder. He said at one time its passage meant more to him than anything since the tidelands.

Afterward, the governor said "the fight has just begun." He was critical of Speaker Carr for having allowed the measure to come to a vote when it did.

"COW BILLS" PASS — Senate has given final approval to three bills affecting ranchers and dairymen.

A milk bill, sponsored by Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, would prohibit bringing in milk from other states unless it could be established that the milk was produced under the health and sanitation standards placed on Texas producers.

Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney pushed through a bill that would provide a penalty for allowing cattle to roam on state and national highways and relieve motorists of liability for hitting stock.

A bill tightening licensing regulations of veterinarians also was passed by the Senate. Sen. Andy Rogers of Childress, sponsor, noted that there is no present law to suspend licenses of veterinarians guilty of malpractice.

WHAT'S THE USE — Senators refused, 16-to-15, to take up Sen. A. M. Aikin's bill to improve schools and raise teacher pay.

Those who opposed said passing the bill before tax money is found wouldn't bring a "crying dime" to the teachers.

Hopeful teachers could take some comfort from the fact that some who voted against considering the bill said they would favor it when money is on hand.

LOAN SHARK CURB PASSED — Texans will probably have an opportunity to vote in November, 1960, on whether to adopt a new approach for regulating lending practices.

Both House and Senate have approved a proposed constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to regulate the amount of interest that could be charged. Present 10 per cent ceiling on interest set in the Constitution, would be abolished.

A constitutional amendment must be approved by the voters at a general election after it has been passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor.

Backers of the change say it will pave the way for driving loan sharks out of Texas. Such measure has been sought for a number of years and has the backing of Texas Legislative Council.

MORE COLLEGES OKAYED — Texas is on the way to having a new medical school and three new state-supported four-year colleges.

Senate, in a burst of educational zeal, passed bills to (1) elevate Arlington State College between Fort Worth and Dallas to a senior college, (2) make Tarleton State College at Stephenville a four-year college, (3) make Midwestern University at Wichita Falls a four-year state-supported college and (4) establish a new University of Texas medical branch at San Antonio.

All except the Midwestern bill already has been passed by the House.

OPEN MEETINGS APPROVED — Meetings of state, city, county and district boards and their records will be required to be open to the public under a bill given final Senate approval.

Measure that passed was a combination of Sen. Preston Smith's "open meetings" bill and Sen. George Parkhouse's "open records" bill.

Senate Jurisprudence Committee had amended Smith's original proposal to say that closed meetings could be held "for the discussion of appointments or matters which, if made public, might adversely affect the public security or the financial interests of the state or its political subdivisions."

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Angus Sale Brings Good Prices

The Angus sale at Texas Tech Monday went very good for Floyd County Angus breeders. The Beacon was told Tuesday, Kellison & Henderson of the Lone Star community sold the second high animal in the sale and their bulls placed second, third and fourth in price. They sold one bull for $825, another for $660 and another for $655.

Oscar Golden, another Floyd County Angus breeder, had a high average in the animals he had consigned to the sale. For the entire sale, bulls averaged $575 and females averaged $472. Breeders from all over West Texas consigned animals to the sale.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet Takes Place In Floral Paradise

The annual Junior - Senior Banquet took place Saturday night at 7:30 in the high school gym which was eloquently transformed into an enchanting flower garden surrounded by a garden wall outlined with white trellises holding running roses. Above the blue sky were twinkling star lights. A silver moon lighted a center garden scene completed with white lacy wrought iron furniture, a bird bath and climbing roses on white arched trellises. Centering the hall was a Maypole rising from a spacious green lawn decked with flowers in rainbow colors.

The head table was centered with a white fountain with blue bubbling water accented with an arrangement of white mums, chrysanthemums and orchid iris. Along all the tables were wishing wells tied with yellow bows and holding white mums. Candles standing in lily ponds furnished light for the tables. Program covers featured a pink fan adorned with white flowers.

At one end of the garden of friendship was a real bubbling fountain in a lawn scene with white lawn furniture, a bird bath and lamp post. At the opposite end of the hall were orchard trees, rose trellises and a wishing well.

The Senior Class favorites were revealed and presented by Donna Workman, who acted as emcee for the program. She was assisted by Ricky Dollar. The favorites and their escorts entered the garden over a white arched bridge which spanned a river of blue water dotted with rocks and banked with flowers and greenery. The path led to the center garden scene and each favorite was introduced as they passed through the rose covered arches. Each was presented a small gold plated tray engraved with their name and their title of honor. They also received a long stem of white gladioli picked from the friendship garden.

Flowers were presented to the Senior sponsors, Mrs. Felicia Applewhite and Mrs. Myrtis Cope. In the absence of Mrs. Applewhite, her daughter, Miss Myra Applewhite, LHS Spanish teacher, accepted the gift. Flowers also went to Supt. H. H. Nicholas and Principal F. M. Smith.

Seventh Grade Has Political Campaign

Mrs. Velma Cox's 7th grade class in "Texas Government" has staged a regular political campaign the past week which was climaxed with an election on Wednesday of this week.

Members of the class were first required to pay their "poll tax", in the amount of five cents, which went into the class fund. Then several students announced for office. These announcements were written out neatly and read to the class by the various candidates.

A deadline for paying the "poll tax" and for filing for office was set and the students were required to comply.

Each candidate had a campaign manager and many posters lined the walls of the room and the hall urging the students to vote for this or that candidate. Some were written to rhyme, hoping thus to attract votes. Voters were tagged with cards supporting their favorite candidate.

During the week sessions of the House of Representatives and the State Senate were held with bills being introduced, voted upon and at times vetoed by the governor.

The various candidates and winners in each race were as follows:

For governor, Thomas Moore, winner; other candidates, Linda Elam and Randy Laceywell.
For Lt. Governor, Sue Stansell was unopposed.
For Senator, Clair Schacht was unopposed.
For Representative, Linda Cooper, winner; other candidate, Duane McCullough.
For Chief Justice, Judy Roberts, unopposed.
For District Attorney, Charles Carthel, winner; other candidate, Gail Sherrill.
For County Judge, Martha Riley, winner; other candidate, James Race.
For Sheriff, Jerry Watson, winner; other candidates, Roger Adams, Bobby Harden, Kenneth Sams.
For Commissioners, Stanley Abbott, Gary Holt, Letta Leach and Carol Strickland, all unopposed.
For County Clerk, Betonia Barnett, winner; other candidate, Sharon Edwards.
Tax Collector, Dennis Landrum, winner; other candidates, Delvin Bybee, Sandra McCandless.

Providence Men Attend Lutheran Church Meeting

More than 350 clerical and lay delegates representing 87,000 members of the American Lutheran Church, Texas District, completed sessions of the 29th — and last official — convention of the synod in a week-long meeting at the First Lutheran Church in Galveston on Friday noon.

Delegates from the Trinity Lutheran Church at Providence included the pastor, Rev. A. K. Windecker, Wilfred Stoerner, lay delegate, and W. C. Koenig, alternate delegate.

The convention met for numerous study sessions before taking action on a multitude of items affecting the work of the church in the more than 220 congregations throughout Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas. A ninety-five page pre-convention report was the sourcebook of all study and actions of the convention. The report reflected the work of the various boards, committees, and officers of the district during the past year in addition to giving general information regarding the mission work of the national church, and the plans of the various charitable and educational institutions within the district. The convention authorized the Bible Camp Committee to build a new swimming pool at Camp Chrysalis, the district-owned Bible camp near Kerrville; took the necessary steps for the district's furtherance of the merger of the American Lutheran Church with two other Lutheran groups to form a new body to be known as The American Lutheran Church in 1960; and approved the action and plans of the numerous committees of the district during the past year.

New chief officers elected for the district include the following: the Rev. Alvin H. Bohls of Yorktown, second vice-president; the Rev. Edmund Heye of Taylor, secretary; and the Rev. A. E. Flathmann, Sr. of Dallas, district statistician. Marcus Stricker of Rockdale was named lay representative on the executive committee of the district.

The convention in the new $460,000 edifice of First Lutheran Church was actually the last full-term convention of the district before the merger next year. A short convention, dissolving the district, will be held in Austin on May 9, 1960. The next day the representatives of the merging church bodies will meet to form the new South District of The American Lutheran Church, which will number about 2,225,000 baptized members.

CROSS ROADS REPORT

Dear Editor: I see where the runners of another high school are against marriage and will hereafter expell any student who takes up this habit.

My domesticated neighbor says he always thought marriage was a respectable past-time, as it is openly practiced by many folks, especially movie stars and people with children.

Says it don't look like going to the same school with married people would harm the other kids much, being as lots of them live right in the same house with married addicts.

STORING WINTER WOOLENS
Blankets, sweaters and washable woole should be clean and mothproofed before putting away for the summer. Home economists with the gas appliance manufacturers suggest the use of EQ-53 in the washer along with the special wool detergent. One tablespoon for each pound will protect them from moths for a year. When drying woollens in a clothes dryer the home economists recommend you use five or six bath towels to serve as buffers. Remove the woollens while damp, never let them dry completely in the dryer.

THE LOCKNEY BEACON

The story of WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE and The Church Bell

"I don't need to advertise," an established merchant in Kansas once told William Allen White, renowned publisher of The Emporia Gazette. "Everybody knows me and knows what I sell."
"In that event," replied the thoughtful publisher, "we can dispense with the oldest advertising medium for the oldest institution in the world. See that church down the street," continued Mr. White, pointing to one of Emporia's oldest and most beautiful structures, "That church has been established here for many years. Everyone knows what it is and what it does. In the tower of the church is a bell and every Sunday it rings out to remind folks to come to church."
"Shoppers go where they are invited and stay where they are well treated," concluded the publisher.

"Regardless of how well established a firm may be, newspaper advertising is a repeated invitation and a reminder to come and do business with that store."

Band Colorama Makes Hit

Lockney Longhorn Band is to be commended for its splendid 1959 edition of the annual "Colorama" which featured considerable talent within the band organization. In addition to the excellent band numbers, a variety of songs were presented as solos, trios and group singing. Dance routines interspersed the musical numbers. Wayne Workman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Workman, threatened to steal the show with his between acts antics as Iky Bod, the country cousin of emcee, Ronnie Thornton. His constant interruptions were a source of irritation for the emcee until Iky Bod made the startling announcement that oil had been discovered on his land and he had suddenly be-

Good Crowd At Weed Meeting

Very good interest was shown in the first Annual Weed Control Meeting of the Floyd County Noxious Weed Control District in the district court room Saturday night with 103 attending. An up to date report was given by Dr. Allen Weise on the experimental work being done at the Bushland Experiment Station, on bindweed, blueweed, and johnsongrass. The meeting was called to order by Cecil Lewis acting master of ceremonies. Robert Lee Smith, chairman of the board of directors, gave a brief explanation of the organization of the district, read the financial report and gave the proposed practices of the district. A report of the activities of the district was given by Douglas Degge, supervisor.

In the election of the board of directors R. M. (Fred) Battey was re-elected to serve another two year term representing the district-at-large. Zant Scott was selected to replace Roy Hale from Precinct 1, and J. A. (Bill) Colston was selected to replace Shirley Irwin from Precinct 4.

Following the election Cotton John gave a short report on the filming of "A Tenderfoot in Europe" and those attending sat back and enjoyed the showing of this beautiful film.

Representatives from Morckel Farm Chemical, Western Supply, Rowland-Gordon, Doherty Weed Control, and Taylor-Evans were present at the meeting. Samples of Dowpon grass killer and Korlan fly spray were given to each one present with the compliments of Dow Chemical Company.

A film on control of johnsongrass with Dowpon will be shown at the next board meeting on May 5 at 1:30 p.m. in the County Court Room. The public is invited to see this film.

Joe Wilson Named To Area Office

Joe Wilson, former cashier of the First National Bank of Lockney, now with the Security State Bank of Littlefield, was named to the board of governors of the Lubbock chapter of the American Institute of Banking at the group's annual business meeting Thursday night of last week.

The Lubbock chapter includes 218 members representing 35 banks from a 65 mile radius of Lubbock.

Metz La Follette Is Named Cage Coach At WTSC

Metz La Follette, former Lockney High coach, has accepted the position as head coach of the West Texas State College Buffaloes.

Announcement of La Follette's signing was made last Thursday by West Texas athletic director Frank Kimbrough. The contract was for a three-year term.

The new WT mentor was a star athlete at the Canyon school from 1942-1946.

He was basketball and assistant football coach here in the 1948-49 school year, working with Coach Curtis Kelley. La Follette returned to his professional baseball career in the spring of 1950 with the Amarillo Gold Sox.

In the fall of 1950 La Follette began a highly successful seige as basketball coach at Seminole High School. During his nine seasons there La Follette's quintets won 169 games and lost only 27. The Seminole cagers claimed the state championship in 1954-55. In the past five years his cagers compiled a 130-27 record and participated in four Class AA state tournaments in Austin.

Miss L. Marie Eby, Gerald B. Cross Say Wedding Vows

Olton First Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Leah Marie Eby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Eby, Olton, and Gerald B. Cross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cross, Lockney.

Nuptials were solemnized Friday evening, April 17. Rev. John E. Lewis, pastor of the church, read the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Judy Price presented nuptial music on the organ preceding the ceremony. Miss Price also accompanied Mrs. R. V. Alcorn as she sang "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Wedding Prayer."

A white satin altar cloth formed the background for the archway which was entwined with mums and greenery and hung at the top with two large wedding bells. Seven branch candelabras and netted palms flanked the arch on either side. White satin bows marked the pews.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a waltz length gown of nylon net and Chantilly lace. The taffeta bodice featured a Sabrina neckline framed with Chantilly lace. Iridescent sequins and tiny scalloped sleeves complemented the bodice.

The bouffant skirt of taffeta was overlaid with panels of nylon net and Chantilly lace, forming a redingote effect. Matching gauntlets covered the forearms. She wore a fingertip veil belonging to Mrs. J. D. Harrison, Fort Worth, which was made of silk illusion and Chantilly lace. The veil cascaded from a fitted band of iridescent sequins and pearls.

The bride carried a white Bible, topped with a bouquet of white gardenias and pink rosebuds in a nest of white net. Lovers knots and streamers of white satin ribbon fell from the creation.

Candlelighters were Jane Hendrix, Pampa, and David Hall, Lubbock, cousins of the bride. The feminine candlelighter was attired in a white organdy dress. She wore a matching floral bandeau and white carnation wristlet.

Vicky Ray served as flower girl. She wore a pink taffeta dress with a matching bandeau and a wristlet of pink carnations. Rings were carried on a white satin pillow by Pat Trotter, cousin of the bride.

Miss Beverly Eby was her sister's only attendant. The maid-of-honor wore a dress of pink novelty taffeta designed with a fitted bodice, and a softly pleated skirt. Miss Eby wore a matching bandeau and carried a nosegay of white carnations surrounded by tiny pink rosebuds.

J. D. Woody, Floydada, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Sharing usher duties were Marion Cross, Plainview, cousin of the bridegroom; and Harold Eby, Lubbock, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Eby, mother of the bride, chose a navy blue silk dress with pink accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a pink carnation corsage. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Cross, selected a beige silk dress for the occasion. Both her accessories and her carnations were of blue.

Reception
Pink and white, the bride's chosen colors, were carried out in the table decorations at the subsequent reception in the church parlor. Miss Evelyn Critchfield and Miss Evelyn Burnett, both of Plainview, served punch and cake. Guests were registered by Miss Jo Mullins, Plainview.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a navy blue silk and wool suit. Her accessories were of navy blue and white.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD B. CROSS

She wore a white gardenia corsage.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Floydada.

Mrs. Cross was graduated from Olton High School in 1957. She attended Lippert's Business College in Plainview. For the past year she has been a student nurse at the Medical Center Hospital in Plainview.

The bridegroom attended Lockney schools. He spent the past six months in the military service and recently became associated with his father in the carpentry business.

Birthday Party Honors Mike Hodel

Mike Hodel celebrated his sixth birthday with a Circus Party given in his home by his mother, Mrs. Bill Hodel, Monday, April 27, from 3:30 until 5:00.

The refreshment table was centered with a revolving birthday cake decorated as a merry-go-round, complete with a canopy over the top. Animal cookies were used around the cake representing horses. Other decorations were clown masks and colorful animals which were used as favors.

Terry Huggins won the prize for breaking a yellow paper bag filled with candy and bubble gum which hung from the ceiling. The youthful guests all scrambled for the goodies as they fell. The game is a custom of Mexico.

After a series of other games, refreshments were served to Pat and Pam Rhodes, Terry Huggins, Mary Ann Byrd, Annell Ashton, Dinah and Doug Hodel, the honoree and his aunt "Shelma".

MRS. WORD HOME

County Clubs To Observe H. D. Week

Some 40,000 Texas Home Demonstration Club women will be among the seven million homemakers throughout the 50 states and Puerto Rico who will observe the 14th National Home Demonstration Club week May 3-9. "Today's Home Build Tomorrow's World" will be the national theme again this year.

During the week, most of the 1,800 home demonstration clubs in the state plan special activities to observe the week.

In Floyd County the 12 home demonstration clubs will observe National Home Demonstration Week with a tea and program on Tuesday, May 5. Mrs. Jimmy Willson, Jr., will give a book review and there will be special music. Council members who are serving on committees to plan the tea are: Mrs. Lynn Miller, Mrs. Glenn Pool, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. John Shipley, Mrs. Fred Marble, Mrs. Dan Cross, Mrs. John Willson, Mrs. Louis Pyle and Mrs. Bailey Henderson.

Home Demonstration work is an educational program in better homemaking planned by and for homemakers and conducted cooperatively by the Extension Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, the State land-grant colleges, and county governments. Through it, families learn to apply the latest results of home economics research.

Generally, most women participating in the home demonstration program are trying to learn to live and work congenially with others in the family and in the community; to better manage personal resources of time, money and energy, to reach family goals; to choose food, clothing, home furnishings and other things essential to attaining a satisfactory way of life; to keep the household running smoothly and provide a comfortable, convenient, and attractive home; to understand the relation of nutritious food, suitable clothing and adequate housing to the health and well-being of each family member.

This year in Floyd County, home demonstration club programs include: House plants, Pruning shrubs, care of the feet, meal planning, fire prevention and fighting, selection of clothing and accessories for men and boys, know your laws, sea foods, selection of bedding, freezer meal, good leadership, crafts, understanding the adolescent, lighting in the home, making sofa pillows and party foods.

There are Home Demonstration clubs in these communities of Floyd County: Dougherty, Harmony, Floydada, Lakeview, Lockney, Lone Star, Providence, Sand Hill, South Plains (Jr. and Senior Clubs), Starkey and Sterley. Home Demonstration Clubs are for all home makers.

If you are interested in becoming a member, contact a club member in your community or the County Home Demonstration Agent.

Notaries Must Take New Oath and Bond Soon

Secretary of State Zollie Steakley has announced that he will reappoint persons now holding notary public commissions but that such persons must re-qualify by the filing of a new oath and bond with the County Clerk of his residence between June 1, 1959 and June 15, 1959.

Steakley emphasized that notaries public should not send requests for reappointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires the County Clerks to approve notary bonds.

Any person not now a notary public who desires appointment should apply to his County Clerk between April 1, 1959 and May 30, 1959. Application during this period will assure prompt attention before the rush procedure of reappointing present notaries.

Secretary of State Steakley further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a notary public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. The exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished the County Clerk.

Home Making Hints

Guard Against "Killers" in your Home.

You might be amazed at the number of "killers" you keep around your home. Insecticides and other poisonous chemicals stored within a child's reach can bring tragedy. Statistics prove this point. Two out of every 100 persons die each year from accidental poisoning. Of this number, every fourth person is between the ages of 1 and 5 years.

Check your home now to be sure that all "killers" are stored out of the reach of children. Start with the medicine chest. Keep it locked or make certain that the children can not climb up to it.

Keep cosmetics, soaps, bleaches, polishes and cleaning agents out of the reach of small children. Many of these are often stored underneath the sink — in easy reach of small children. Do you realize this practice could be disastrous?

Avoid throwing partially filled containers into wastebaskets or trash barrels where children could test for taste and of course keep matches and all inflammable materials well out of reach.

Is yours a safe home for children?

An Apple A Day

An apple a day may keep the doctor away, but it takes an orange a day, or its equivalent, to provide the vitamin C needed by our bodies each day.

A food survey made by the U.S.D.A. of 6,000 U.S. families found that 1 in 4 was not receiving necessary Vitamin C.

It your family one of these? Vitamin C serves as a cement to hold body cells together. Failure to get enough Vitamin C causes walls of tiny blood vessels to collapse, causing hemorrhaging; gums become spongy and bleed, causing teeth to loosen; cartilage and connective tissue is weakened and nerves are damaged.

We need only an orange, half a grape fruit, a serving of tomatoes, or juice of these fruits each day to get enough Vitamin C. But we need it every day because our bodies do not store Vitamin C.

Sand Hill News

By Mrs. James Jeffress

Many got up Monday morning with the cotton planting fever but soon changed their minds because of blowing dust and high winds.

Mrs. W. R. Billington and Mrs. Jim Holmes attended a party in the home of Mrs. Patterson Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Bill Rowland offered his resignation to the Sand Hill Baptist Church Wednesday night in a called business meeting. The resignation will be effective June 1st. The deacons of the church were appointed as a pulp committee. Brother Rowland and his family will be moving to Hamilton, Ohio, about the first of June where he will be working on the mission field. Our loss will be their gain and we will miss the Rowlands very much. They have been a blessing to the community and the church for the past eighteen months and will always remain in our hearts as wonderful people.

Sand Hill Community met Friday night at the school house for their April social and to discuss buying the school house for a community organization. Those planning the get together were Jim Holmes, James Jeffress, Don Shurbet, Lynn and Orton Miller. The election for three trustees was held with Mrs. Lynn Miller acting as moderator and Mrs. James Jeffress as secretary. They are as follows, Fred Jackson, for three year term and secretary, Lynn Miller, one year term, chairman; and Ed Noel, two year term and treasurer. These three men will be in charge of organizing a community center and transacting any business that might arise. By-laws were presented by Buck Jackson, T. C. Hollums and Mrs. Orton Miller. Those in charge of the next community social are Mmes. Fred Jackson, Hollis McLain, Jim Holmes, Ed Noel and James Jeffress.

The Sand Hill Club is sponsoring Miss Norma Sue Hollums in the Miss Cotton contest which will be held in Plainview May 9th. Good luck!

The Sand Hill Community 4-H Club met Tuesday night, April 21, in their regular monthly meeting with president Jimmy Huckaby in charge. Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Food." Miss Marilyn McLain led the 4-H pledge and prayer.

New Rule On Wheat Acreage Is Explained

A farmer who has wheat planted in excess of his 1959 acreage allotment may dispose of the extra acres up until May 10, 1959, and it probably will increase his wheat allotment in the future if he does so, according to a reminder from Thomas J. Hutchins of the Floyd County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

A major factor in determining farm wheat allotments is the history of wheat grown previously on the farm. The farmer who complies with his allotment gets "history" credit not only for the allotment planted but also for his "diverted" acres, which is the acreage held out of wheat under the allotment program. On the other hand, under a new law effective this year, the farmer who produces excess wheat will usually receive history credit only for the allotment. In the past, the overproducer received his total wheat acreage as history.

The farmer who produces excess wheat in 1959 may deliver the excess to the Secretary of Agriculture or store on the farm under bond or in a commercial warehouse. In that way he avoids marketing quota penalties. He also gets history credit for his allotment plus diverted acres just as though he had complied with his allotment. However, the credit for diverted acres is lost in case the stored wheat is sold or used and the producer becomes liable for marketing quota penalties.

There is another type of situation in which the producer exceeds his wheat allotment but produces no marketing excess. This may occur on farms where: (1) the total wheat acreage is 15 acres or less; (2) the normal production of the wheat acreage is under 200 bushels; (3) the 1959 yield is so low that no excess is produced; or (4) the farm has been approved for the production of up to 30 acres of wheat for use on the farm under the feed wheat program. In those circumstances, the farmer gets credit only for the allotment, not the diverted acres.

In order to meet the high standards set down by the commission, it is suggested that each school organize its program as a unit that begins in the grades and continues through high school.

Mrs. Roland Zeigler and Mrs. G. C. Applewhite represented Lockney at the convention. They not only attended the convention but also observed English classes in action in the San Angelo and Austin schools.

English Teachers Attend Conference

"The English Curriculum Recommended by the English Language Arts Commission" was the subject of the fourth annual conference of English teachers held in Austin April 17th-18th.

English composition was emphasized as one phase of English that has been neglected. It was discussed as being so fundamental to so many different lines of study and to daily life that there must be closer training in capable expression.

There is renewed emphasis now for oral reading both as an art and as a vehicle for training in standard English speech.

Recommendations of the commission covered the fields of reading, composition, and the mechanics of English.

Rural Life Sunday To Be Observed

College Station — May 3 is Rural Life Sunday. It is the day set aside by rural churches — the fifth Sunday after Easter — to emphasize the spiritual values of rural living.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has said that Rural Life Sunday provides an opportunity to develop better understanding and working relationships among community institutions — church, schools, farm organizations, cooperatives, soil conservation districts, agricultural agencies, civic and service clubs and other community groups — for the purpose of enriching rural life.

"Too," added the Secretary, "Rural Life Sunday also offers rural and urban ministers one of the best opportunities for exemplifying the true meaning of Christian Stewardship. It emphasizes the great spiritual values to be found and conserved in the community, the true religious significance of resource conservation, the place of the church in an educational program that will bring to everyone an understanding and appreciation for the farmer and the soil. It points out the host of other spiritual and kindred nature."

For many years club members have actively in Rural Life Sunday church services emphasize the important part of the development program. Participation in an additional opportunity for spiritual growth through state 4-H club leaders also as a major objective — leading in citizenship.

Across Texas and 4-H club members as in past years the invitation to the past tend churches see them on May 3.

Pioneer Gas Co. Re-Elects Officers

The re-election of the corporation's eight Directors and a review of current and past year operations were the highlights of Pioneer Natural Gas Company's 1959 Annual Stockholders' meeting held Tuesday, April 21, in the company's Amarillo Flame Room.

C. I. (Stoney) Wall, President of the Company, presided. The Directors elected are George W. Dupree, Lubbock; W. E. Walker and Maurice E. Purnell, both of Dallas, and Ross D. Rogers, A. F. Cox, James A. Davis, B. P. Smith and C. I. Wall, all of Amarillo.

The 1959 election was held with 84.2 per cent of the stock being represented either at the meeting or by proxy.

In reviewing the company's past and current operations, Wall emphasized the past growth of the area served by Pioneer, pointing to an increase of 9,000 customers during 1958, in addition to those formerly served by Empire Southern Gas Company.

Pioneer acquired the properties of Empire Southern in a stock exchange in March, 1958. Wall also commented on the large increase in building permits issued in the first three months of 1959.

 I see where Vice Pres. Nixon wants a World Supreme Court rigged up to decide on which one has got to back down when two nations get to squabbling.

My dubious neighbor says if this scheme would work it ought to be cheaper than war and not so dangerous.

Farmers Urged To Watch Labor Move In Area

West Texas farmers have become aroused in recent weeks over the efforts of organized labor to take over their employments and those of farm-related industry. The labor situation in West Texas was discussed in a meeting at San Angelo on April 17 called by Farm Bureau. A number of Floyd County farmers attended.

This aroused group of 400 farmers heard Matt Trigg, legislative director of the American Farm Bureau, explain proposed farm labor regulations set up by Labor Secretary Mitchell and scheduled to go into effect May 1, bringing all domestic as well as foreign farm labor under federal wage and hour regulation if employment is obtained through a state or federal employment agency. Also the farmer would have to furnish housing approved by the Labor Department and in many instances furnish transportation from the last place of employment for native American help as well as Mexican national labor for workers thus employed.

Trigg stated that the ultimate aim of the Labor Department regulations and of proposed legislation already introduced in this session of congress to regulate wages and hours is to bring about the unionization of farm labor. This rapid development in farm labor regulation and legislation, he said, is the outgrowth of heavy union labor victories in the elections last fall.

According to Trigg, one method of organizing farm workers that could be used would be to put crew leaders of migratory farm workers on union payrolls as organizers, and each worker would be signed up as a union member when he joined the crew. Thus the crew would arrive at the farm as a fully organized group under the direction of a labor union organizer.

"Farmers would be the most vulnerable employers in the world because they cannot stand a strike during a harvest period which is of course the time a strike would be called," Trigg declared. "Thus any effective organization of farm workers would mean that farmers would pay what ever wages and provide whatever working conditions the labor unions decided to require."

Trigg also said that farm wages are now six times the prevailing rate of the 1910-1914 period, while farm income is only two and one-half times that level, that farm wages are now increasing at twice the rate of increase of the cost of living, and that they are almost sure to continue upward in the years ahead as they have in the past without the necessity of government intervention.

Other speakers on the program included Logan Walker of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Abilene; John Kendrick of the First National Bank of Brownfield and Glenn White of Donna, Chairman of the Texas Farm Bureau Labor Committee, all of whom discussed further aspects of the farm labor situation.

Bird in the Bush

It has been said . . . and said again over the years . . . that a bird in hand is worth two in the bush.

Metaphorically speaking, new industries, new pay rolls, to bolster our economy, are birds in the bush for most of our smaller towns and trade areas.

True, birds in the bush are frequently bagged by diligent hunters . . . but, meanwhile, let's look at our bird in hand, and what we're doing with it.

If all of the local area dollars now being spent in distant cities were being spent at home instead, we'd have prosperity, better business, better jobs, higher property values easily equivalent to the coming of a very great new industry.

The club voted to have a float in the Old Settlers parade May 28 with Mrs. H. F. Jackson as chairman of the committee. Miss Rogendorff gave a demonstration on "Clothes for Men and Boys." Mrs. Bill Stringer won the attendance prize. Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. T. Myrick, Orion Miller, Bill Stringer, James Jeffress, H. F. Jackson, Pat Bullock, Jim Holmes, Wayne Billington, Orba Miller and the agent, Miss Rogendorff, by the hostess, Mrs. Hollis McLain. The next meeting will be April 9 at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holmes made a business trip to Midland over the week end. They spent Friday night visiting her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stokes and family, in Crane. Attending the district meeting in Plainview Thursday were Mrs. Lynn Miller, Orion Miller, R. L. Bullock, James Jeffress, Ed Noel and Hollis McLain. Those interested in organizing a community center at Sand Hill should attend the social Friday night at 8 p.m.

Sand Hill Baptist revival services ended Sunday and a great revival it was. Rev. Jack Tautor left Sunday night for his home in Pomona, Calif., after preaching sixteen heart-stirring messages during the past week. We are so happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Red Sloan, Tim, Mike and Maxie, to our church family. They came from Post, Darrell Overstreet and Mrs. Bill Goude by letter, and Bill Goude for baptism.

Many enjoyed the R.E.A. day meeting Saturday, even though they had to wade in mud and hail part of the day. They reported a delicious barbecue dinner and good entertainment. Walter Knight was one of the lucky winners, bringing home a nice radio. Some attending were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Noel and family, Mrs. W. R. Billington and Mrs. William Mayo. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Austin, Texas
April 16, 1959.
Mr. E. R. Hays
Lockney Beacon
Lockney, Texas.
Dear Mr. Hays:

This is a copy of the Red River Authority Bill which I introduced two weeks ago. It passed the Senate this week, and is now in the Committee on Conservation and Reclamation in the House of Representatives.

I believe this legislation in its present form meets the needs and protects the interest of everyone in the Texas portion of the Red River watershed. It has met with the approval of members of the State Board of Water Engineers and the towns and cities of the Red River watershed who are active in the development of the area's resources. I would direct particular attention to the amendments and sections of the bill which have been especially marked for your attention.

The Red River is the only Texas river which does not already have a valley-wide organization to speak and work on interests of all concerned. It is important that some legal entity can be provided to work with the agencies and authorities of Texas, the United States Government, and agencies and authorities of neighboring states.

I would particularly like to point out that underground water rights will not be subjected to any authority or control by this new Red River authority; these underground water rights are specifically exempted from control, development and acquisition of or by this new agency. Also, all the rights and powers of any and all future surface water districts and authorities within the Texas Red River watershed are specifically protected.

Sincerely,
Andy Rogers.

Servis LONE STAR BLADE

A lot of blade—and a low, low price!

Here's a utility blade priced within the reach of anyone who owns a light tractor. We state flatly, this will be the largest selling light blade in the country, because it is the greatest value. All welded, sturdy, 240 lb. construction. 13" mouldboard plus 6" replaceable cutting edge of 1/2" grader-blade steel. 8 adjustments for angling and reversing.

If you need a larger, more versatile blade for specialized ditching and terracing work, Servis makes big tough ones that tilt, angle, and pitch in more directions than the average man can think of. But for simple utility work, this Lone Star blade is it!

Plastic Bags Are Dangerous For Children

The plastic bag your dry-cleaner returns your clothes in has many uses but it should not be used as a child's plaything, the National Institute of Drycleaning warns.

In a special notice sent April 9 from its headquarters in Silver Spring, Maryland, to its 8600 members all over the world, the Institute alerted drycleaners to a Phoenix physician's report that in six months four small children had suffocated after becoming enveloped in the clinging plastic film. It is believed static electricity may have drawn the film tight across the faces of the children.

George P. Fulton, Institute General Manager, has urged drycleaners to warn their customers against giving plastic bags to their children as toys. The National Safety Council, American Medical Association, and various state medical societies are also alerting the public.

The Institute statement said that used properly the bags are safe and that consumers had found varied uses for the hundreds of millions of plastic bags distributed by drycleaners and others in the past five years, when plastic has been so popular. The dryness in Phoenix may have increased the static electricity in the plastic, said the statement, but this does not minimize the need for warning parents. The Institute cautioned parents to "treat the bags with as much caution as headache pills, sleeping tablets, insecticides, sharp tools, and toxic and flammable fluids — and keep them away from children".

NO SUCH THING AS TOUGH MEAT!

The tenderness of meat depends on the skill of the cook more than on the quality of the meat. Margaret Spader, home service editor for Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association, states. Too high temperature and too long cooking toughen it. A meat probe guards big roasts, turning off the heat when the roast is done. Thermostatic controls on the oven, broiler and top burner keep temperatures constant, so timing can be exact. And many ranges have rotisseries and rotisserie ovens that turn and baste meats while they cook.

Albert Stewart attended funeral services Tuesday for Albert's brother-in-law, C. T. Burns, 78, who passed away on April 19. Mr. Burns was one of the early day grocers in South Plains back in the early 30's, and many will remember him. He was the father of Mrs. Parks' brother-in-law, Ray Burns.

105 were present at Sunday morning services where Rev. Audye Wiley gave his last sermon of the revival. He left that afternoon for his home in Portales, N. M., and Rev. John Gillespie preached the Sunday night sermon. Fifteen additions were made to the church during the week.

Dear Editor: I see where some money experts say Uncle Sam has been going deeper in debt every year for so long this is now the normal way of life.

My unheeled economist neighbor says he reckons that being a deadbeat and never paying up your debts is just one of those things you have to live with, like being bald-headed.

But says now that the de-fic habit has been the sin list has been trying about maybe help pay off the debt if people get and elected a Congress debt payers.
