Carolyn Redding named General Manager

Carolyn Redding, a native of Floyd County and currently the editor of the Lockney Beacon, has been named general manager of Floyd County Publishing Company.

Floyd County Publishing produces both the Floyd County Hesperian and the Lockney Beacon newspapers.

Carolyn succeeds David Cates, who will step down this week as manager of the newspapers but will continue to serve as advertising director for both publications. Cates said he needed more time to devote to his insurance firm in Floydada. (See separate story).

Wes Brown will continue to serve as editor of the Hesperian and will also assume some additional duties in county news coverage. Pam Armstrong, wife of Auburn "Red" Armstrong, will be the new office manager of the Lockney Beacon.

Carolyn Redding, whose husband

John is in carpet installation, was born in Floydada and attended schools all 12 years here. She has attended Wayland Baptist College and courses held in Crosbyton by Western Texas College in Snyder.

She joined the Hesperian staff in August 1981 and was named editor of the Beacon in January 1982.

The new general manager has also worked as a bookkeeper for Beall's Department Store, served as deputy clerk in Margaret Collier's office nearly five years before marrying and moving to Lubbock.

After a short residency in Santa Fe, N.M., the Reddings moved to Idalou where Carolyn returned to work as a personnel secretary for Darwin Hilliard, personnel manager for Devro, Inc., where she was employed until the family moved to Floyd County seven years ago.

She has worked as an aide in the schools, a clerk-receptionist, and secretary before joining the newspaper staff.

She and her husband have two children: Rebecca, who is a freshman at Floydada High School, and Matthew, an eighth grader.

Carolyn and John enjoy hunting Indian artifacts, fishing and camping out. Some of these hobbies were neglected while they did extensive remodeling to renovate two old farm houses they moved together to make their present residence, doing the work themselves.

A parting word...

Due to other business interests I have resigned as Publisher of the Beacon and Hesperian.

The subscribers and advertisers have been very gracious to me in my short reign as Publisher of the local papers. I have enjoyed serving these communities and trying to give them the best coverage that was possible.

The employees of both papers have done their very best in giving you the reader what we felt you wanted in a hometown paper. I want to thank all the staff on their cooperation.

I will still be associated with the papers in the advertising department, but due to my purchasing Cates and Dawson Insurance, I will devote most of my interest in the insurance agency.

Thanks again for all of your support.
David Cates

Day of Prayer to be held

World Day of Prayer is celebrated this year on March 4, 1983. Sponsored in the United States by Church Women United, this annual observance unites women of faith in 170 countries on six continents around the globe. 1983 marks the 96th consecutive year in which untold thousands of women will gather to be part of this worldwide prayer witness. World Day of Prayer, translated into many languages, may well be the most widely used Christian literature in the world apart from the Scriptures.

The service for 1983 was written by Christian women from the island countries of the Caribbean on the theme, "New Persons in Christ." Representing a rich mixture of races and cultures, they are seeking a new Caribbean identity. The service reflects joy in the new-found independence of their nations and the new opportunities opening up to women socially, politically and within their own churches.

Church Women United is the Christian movement that brings together more than half a million Protestant, Roman Catholic and Orthodox women into one Christian "community of caring." World Day of Prayer offerings make possible the mission of Church Women United, including the Intercontinental Grants for Mission program that funds national and international projects in support of the empowerment of women, human rights, justice and peace.

World Day of Prayer events in Floydada will be held in the First United Methodist Church on Friday, March 4, at 10:30 a.m. The program will be given by Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian Church.

All women of the community are invited. Lunch will be served at noon.

El Progreso Study Club gets CPR demonstration Feb. 23rd

The El Progreso Study Club met Wednesday, February 23, in the home of Jeanette Marr.

In the absence of President Arla Copeland and Vice-President LaVerna Sams, Hazel Johnson presided. Roll call was answered with a "First aid hint." Pauline Sams read the minutes and some correspondence.

Hazel Johnson introduced Robert Webb and Jerry Johnson, both members of the local volunteer firemen and ambulance crew. They presented a very interesting and informative program on first aid, including a film entitled "Seconds into years." Emergency treatment was shown for cases when the heart stops or breathing stops or both because of heart attack, electric shock, drowning or choking.

The two men then demonstrated the techniques using a "dummy" named George, especially made for the purpose of demonstrating and practicing CPR treatment. Mr. Webb stressed that practice should never be done on a person whose heart is beating because the natural rhythm of the heart could be altered, resulting in damage to the heart. Classes for certification for CPR are arranged by the American Red Cross, and Mr. Webb is a certified instructor. Members of our volunteer firemen have this certification which must be renewed each year.

The club members sincerely appreciate their taking the time from busy work schedules to bring this important information and program.

Lovely refreshments were served to Pauline Sams, Cornelia Johnson, Dimon Schacht, Katherine Ball, Linnie Abbott, Faye Holmes, Dorothy Smith, Hazel Johnson and hostess Jeanette Marr.

The next meeting will be March 9th in the home of Dimon Schacht.

Bible Baptist ladies hold Bible study February 15th

The Bible Baptist Church ladies met at the church for their monthly Bible Study on Tuesday, February 15. The ladies meet on the third Tuesday night of each month to study God's Word.

The ladies are continuing in their study of prophesy, in the book of Revelation. The book of Revelation is the last book of the Bible and is a very important study in prophesy and the Second Coming of Christ.

The ladies opened with a hymn, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus", led by Debra Jo Fawver. Mrs. Fawver then led the group in prayer. The ladies took care of present business and then had their program.

The group listened to another tape recording by J.R. Church of Prophesy in the News. Chapters two and three of Revelation were read and discussed.

Chapters two and three are the seven messages to the seven churches. The first chapter deals with the things which were. Chapters two and three deal with the things which are. The ladies' next study will be Revelation chapters four and five, the scene in Heaven, things which are to come.

Bonnie Palacios closed the Bible Study by leading the group in prayer. The ladies then went to the fellowship hall and enjoyed fellowship and refreshments. They were served cheese, crackers, chips, dip, jello salad and cake prepared by Vivian Martin and Bonnie Palacios.

Those attending were: Renie Chapman, Lila Taylor, Jaynette Harrison, Bonnie Palacios, Vivian Martin, Hector Martin, Debra Jo Fawver, Margie Sue, Linda Holbert, and Helen Lipham.

Revelation 3:20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Mrs. Garrett, our reach leader, called the meeting to order. Prayer was voiced by Mrs. Benson and Nettie Adams. Myrtice Rainer gave a devotional on love. New activities were planned for the class and a program followed. Readings and poems were given by Valree Turner, Vada Meredith, Mary Wilson and Nettie Adams.

Lovely refreshments were served to a visitor, Mrs. Emily Denison, and members; Cleo Goins, Carrie Cline, Beulah Denison, Mildred Fuqua, Loma Sparks, Iva Benson, May Garrett, Nettie Adams, Valree Turner, Vada Meredith, Lois Durham, Mary Wilson, Grace Hamilton, Flora Fawver and Myrtice Rainer.

Mrs. Earl Crawford hosts First Baptist Women II February 16

The Baptist Women II of the First Baptist Church met Wednesday, February 16, at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Earl Crawford, for Bible study.

As the group arrived a brunch was served from the bar, which was centered with a beautiful patted white African violet. Varieties of sausage pin wheels, strawberry bread, irresistible cookies, fruit plate, cheese crackers and coffee were served.

Mrs. T.L. Holland voiced the opening prayer and presided over the business session. The minutes were read for the previous meeting by Mrs. W.B. Parrack. Business at hand was discussed including the next Bible Study which will be in the home of Mrs. Allen Benson at the Plains Baptist Assembly on March 2. A reminder of the week of prayer for Home missions March 6 through March 9 was given. Mrs. Willie Bunch read the calendar of prayer. She told the members that a part of the Bible Study for the day was taken from the gospel of Luke and revealed that even Peter was weak, failed many times and even denied Jesus. God forgave him and made him strong and effective in the Kingdom's work. As she offered prayer for the missionaries, a special prayer was also offered in behalf of so many that were ill in the Floydada community.

Mrs. G.W. Switzer made introductory remarks on Texas mission work to Brazil. She announced the subject for the study "Life Changes in The Bible", Peter - denying Jesus to preaching after the resurrection. Others participating in the Bible study were Mmes. R.A. Garrett, Willie Bunch and Glenn White.

Mrs. Garrett used scriptures from Luke 22:31-34-54 Peters denial. Mrs. Bunch's subject was, A Changed Peter - "Leading in first century bold mission thrust." She was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Lawson, who read Scriptures from the book of Acts 2:1 to 4:33. Mrs. White's talk was "Missionary Implication." Do we really believe in missions?

As the study closed, Mrs. Switzer stated - Boldness in witnessing is a result of becoming acutely aware of Gods presence in ones life and ad-journed the meeting with prayer.

Those present for the meeting were: Mmes. Anthony Latta, Iva Benson, Nettie Adams, Lisa Howard, H.O. Cline, C.M. Meredith, R.A. Garrett, Willie Bunch, Glenn White, Allen Benson, T.L. Holland, G.W. Ground Beef -- A Real Bonus

Add a big bonus to your food dollar by shopping for ground beef. Special sales on ground beef are important money savers. Before buying, review how to get the most for your money.

Consider which lean to fat category of ground beef will be the best buy. The three categories of leanness are stated on the label:

--Not less than 70 percent lean--lower price.

--Not less than 75 percent lean--medium price.

--Not less than 85 percent lean--higher price.

One recent USDA study compared 75 percent lean to 85 percent lean ground beef. Both lost about the same amount of weight, but the 75 percent lean lost more fat and the 85 percent lean lost more water. The 75 percent lean patty, or least costly one, was judged the more juicy and flavorful.

Also anticipate how you will be preparing the ground beef. If you are using the meat in a recipe without browning first, or in a low calorie recipe, then you'll prefer the 85 percent lean ground beef. Leaner meat creates a firm product which cooks slower than the one with higher fat content.

The 75 percent lean ground beef is also recommended for recipes in which the meat does not have to be browned before adding other ingredients. It reduces the cost of preparing meat loaf, meat balls, or ground beef casseroles. You get a firm product (at a lesser cost) with this type of ground beef.

Use ground beef with high fat in recipes where the meat is browned and the dripping poured off, such as tacos or chili. This will provide a moist and juicy product which cooks faster.

Make note of the amount of ground beef to be purchased. One pound contains about four (3 ounce) servings after it is cooked. To re-package a large amount of beef into smaller servings, re-wrap in moisture proof freezer paper and freeze immediately. If you will be preparing the ground beef in patties, shape the patties prior to freezing them.

Think of the nutritional value of ground beef when you buy. You want the most nutrition you can buy for your money. Ground beef provides complete protein which helps maintain growth and repair of body tissues. Beef is a good source of the B-complex vitamin which helps change food to energy and aids in digestion. It provides iron needed for healthy red blood cells and the transfer of oxygen to cells. Beef also adds zinc which is needed for chemical changes that occur in protein, carbohydrate and fats after digestion and absorption.

Let ground beef be a real bonus for you. Remember it when considering cost, versatility, nutrition and just plain good flavor.

Washington play presented by students

By Carolyn Redding

The eighth grade class of GT students, under the direction of Mrs. Amy Hollums, presented "In Memoriam" for the students of Duncan Elementary at a 10:15 presentation and later in the morning for the students of Junior High last Tuesday.

The short narrated play showed

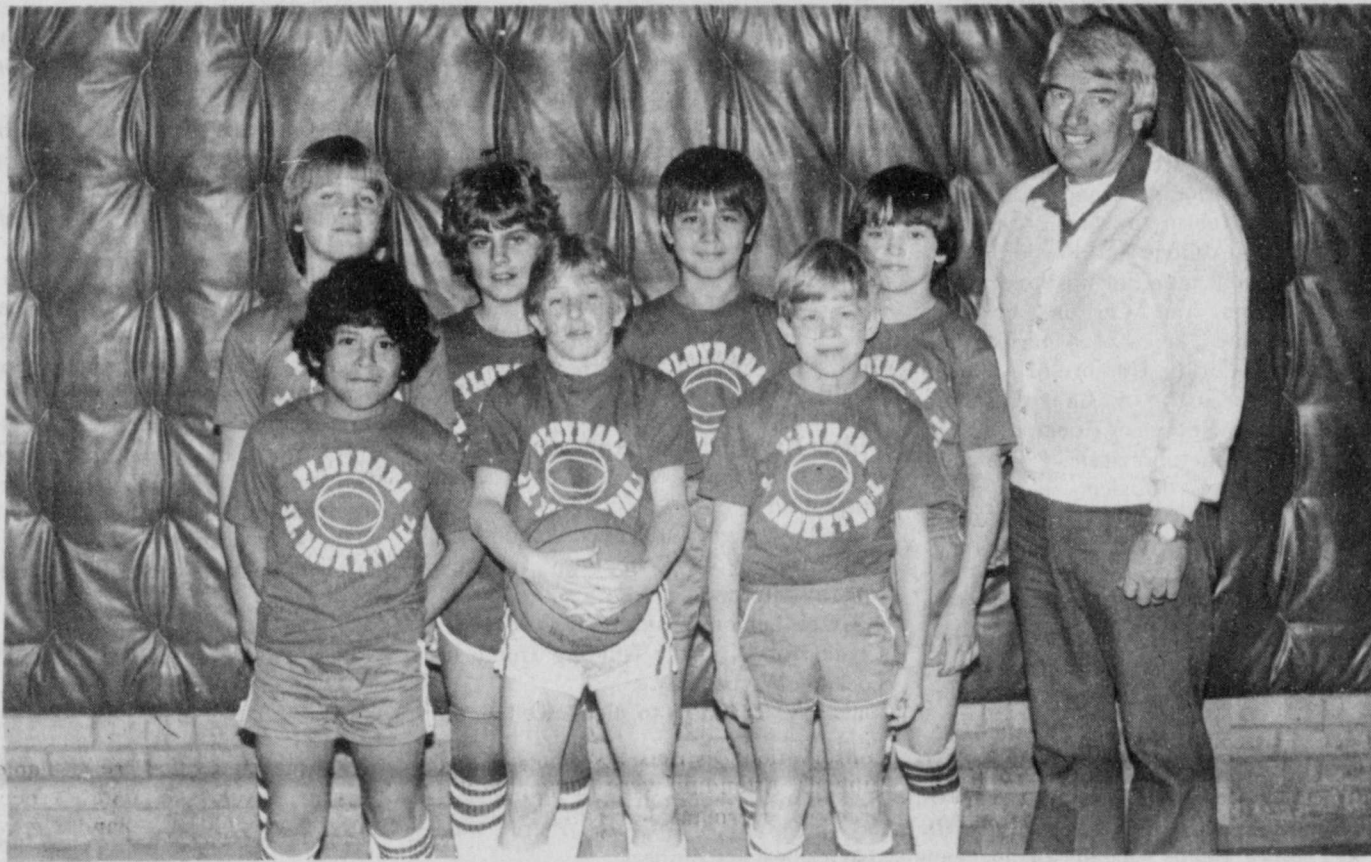

George Washington. (Darin Martinez) upon his retirement, reflecting back over his years in the presidency. Two colonial men (Jeannie Jackson and Paige Cannon) and two colonial women

(Alisa Hambright and Darilyn Williams) re-enacted the Minuet and some guests were served by Joshua (Matthew Redding), a black servant, in some of his recollections. They were among some of the activities he remembered while his wife, Martha, served as the gracious hostess she was as the First Lady.

Laron Cheek narrated the play, and Steven Galloway served as technician, showing authentic slides of Williamsburg and Washington D.C.

The play will be presented for the Rotary Club in early April.

Bits of Humor, Trivia, and an occasional Word of Wisdom

There would be fewer arguments if we tried to determine what's right instead of who's right.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

February 28, South Plains: Sunny weather around our area makes it nice for the ones on dirt roads to get around well. During the snows and wet weather this winter some of the roads were not navigable.

Flu and colds were rampant here at South Plains the past ten days, or two weeks. Those who were ill ached just all over, and were very sick for a few days. Most children are again back in school.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Roy Bledsoe (Chris) now living in El Paso has been quite ill, and in the hospital. She suffered two strokes but she came home from the hospital Friday, and we are hoping she gets strong and well soon. With their son Bill, the Bledsoes formerly lived in South Plains.

There was good attendance at the South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning and night and those who have been ill were back in church. Mrs. Raymond (Nina) was in church for both services, and despite her sinus trouble she is doing well.

We were sorry to learn of the death of F.A. Fitzgerald, 70, of Littlefield, who has been ill for a long time, and had been in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock several times with heart trouble. Fladger Fitzgerald died early Wednesday morning at Methodist Hospital. His services were held in Littlefield at 10:00 a.m. Saturday morning at the Crescent Park Church of Christ. He was the brother of Mrs. Letha Mulder from here, and had six sisters and two brothers. Masonic graveside services were held in Littlefield Memorial Park. Fitzgerald was police chief in Littlefield from 1950 to 1969, and was city judge for three years. Mrs. Mulder and others of the family were in Lubbock and Littlefield much of last week.

Mrs. Cecil Osborne was home this week-end after going to her daughter's home near Dallas last week where she helped take care of granddaughters, Jennifer and Jaime, and others of the family who had been ill with bad cases of the flu.

Mrs. M.M. Julian returned home from Ontario, California Saturday afternoon. She had spent the past two weeks visiting there with old friends from high school days. Mr. and Mrs. W.M. and Ida Harenberg. The hills, valleys and everywhere were especially beautiful this time of year, since they had had rain, and with all the homes and towns growing so close together, it will soon be a continuous city from Los Angeles to Santiago. While there they all went to the Crystal Cathedral, which is in Garden Grove, Sunday morning and attended church services there, with thousands present that day, including all the different services. We were privileged to hear Jack Lousma speak, he of astronaut fame, and to hear many famed singers. The church is of incredible beauty and the grounds and surroundings are just gorgeous. They were beginning to get some rain showers, but they needed rain. It was such a joy to be able to fly there to Ontario especially when all the planes were grounded, except those going westward. The big snow of the east had the Denver airport filled with travelers trying to get back home. It was wonderful to visit my old friends.

The South Plains Baptist Church was joyful to have the Rev. and Mrs. Fred and Genet Blake from Winslow, Arkansas as guests last Sunday evening, as they visited services here. Bro. Blake was a former pastor here, and they had been visiting relatives in the area.

We extend sympathy to members of the Kenady and Harper families on the death of Mrs. Jewel Kenady, 83, of Plainview who passed away Thursday, February 10th, and was laid to rest in Lockney where her services were held February 12th at 2:30 p.m. She was the sister-in-law of Mrs. B.F. Harper of McAllen, and had lived most of her life in Lockney. Neices and nephews of Mrs. Kenady, Mrs. Frank Jackson of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rich of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Kenneth Harper from Bandera, Texas were all present for services.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marble and children, Justin and Micah, flew to McAllen on Tuesday, February 8th, and they will make their home in the area. We wish them good health and happiness as they make this change in their lives, and hope they are happy there.

Hobby Club was held Wednesday, February 9th, at Mrs. Leighton Teeple's, and the March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Navolia Kinslow, with Mrs. Ann Ford giving a report on "My Trip to Brazil." Roll Call: A Trip I have Taken, and Thought for the Day will be given by Mrs. Sara Probasco. Time will be March 9th, at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday.

Mrs. Juanita Teeple's birthday was February 7th, and Mrs. Helen Teeple had prepared her birthday cake celebration. Mrs. Teeple and Leighton got there, going through about a mile of the deepest mud, and they finally landed in the ditch, from the terrible roads which were everywhere then. Mrs. Teeple will long remember this birthday!

We would like to extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stansell and members of their family on the death of Mrs. Stansell's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Burke, who passed away Friday in the Plainview hospital after being ill for several weeks. Services were held at the First Baptist Church in Lockney at 2:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon, with Leon Anderson of Ralls officiating. Several attended from here, and I would like to say what a kind, honest, and good woman Mrs. Burke was, as she helped so many people throughout her years. I was happy I could be at her services, and pay my respects to her memory.

A happy spot in Sunday's activities was the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Mable and Elmo Reves, who now live in Lockney, but who spent many years here on the farm at South Plains. We so enjoyed wishing them many more years of happiness, and many people from South Plains were among those of the great many who attended the lovely reception Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moosberg returned home this past week-end from the Fourth Annual meeting of Cotton Incorporated at Raleigh, North Carolina. As cotton breeders, the Moosbergs were guests at the convention held Feb. 15 to 19th. They toured the research facilities and learned the many facts of research in textiles. The information acquired from the research work is available to the National and international cotton interests. American Cynamid Company hosted the meeting. Their commercial name is PROWL. The tour included a trip through the Fieldcrest towl mill at Fieldcrest, Virginia and the Fieldcrest store at Eden, North Carolina.

Byron and Eileen Kendrick and little daughter, Christina, Lara and Nikki, of Collinsville were here this past week-end. They visited both Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Kendrick. They arrived Friday evening and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Alldredge attended a Valentine party for the Della Plains teachers at the school last Monday evening. They had attended the Lions banquet the week before.

William Bertrand, Bob Alldredge and Roger Alldredge attended the Bass Fishing School at Texas Tech University Saturday and Sunday. A huge plexiglass tank was constructed in the Student Center building for demonstrating fishing techniques. Faye and Charlene shopped in Lubbock while the fishermen went to college.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop have just about completed the remodeling at their house. Two small bedrooms were combined into one large bedroom, a new bath and closet.

Misses Lou Lee, Kim Rainwater of Lubbock Christian College and Ford Miller of Texas Tech arrived Saturday evening to visit the Q.D. Williams'. The hostess had cooked a big dinner for Sunday and set it aside as several other relatives were expected on Sunday. However, three more carloads of kin-folks arrived within two hours so thirteen sat down for supper and consumed Sunday's dinner. The host had to reach for his wallet and take them all to King's after church on Sunday. The teenagers had planned to go horseback riding in the canyon Sunday. The Saturday sunshine turned to cold winds and rain and outdoor activities were postponed until prettier weather. Guests during the week-end included Mrs. Norma Lee of Vernon, Mrs. Ed Mobley and sons of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children of Floydada. Mrs. Mobley was presented with an antique china teapot and a box of herbal tea, as a going away gift. The Mobleys are moving to Albuquerque where he will work for Sperry Corporation as an electronics technician. They hired three hundred electronics men this month and want to hire three thousand within the next nine months to manufacture equipment for new government defense contracts.

One place that has not had street repair problems this winter is anywhere there is a brick street. A Lubbock reader wrote the Avalanche-Journal pointing out how well brick streets came through freezing weather, as compared to newer paved streets. You can look at our crumbling country pavements and the holding-good brick streets in downtown Floydada and see the difference.

Miss Marlis McGaugh attended a speech tournament at Lubbock Cooper school Saturday. Her team placed second in poetry and prose reading. Marlis attended the Junior High Valentine party at the Massie Activity Center Monday evening from seven to nine p.m.

Mrs. Becky Sterling and children, Ginger, age eleven; Janna, age eight, and Andrea, age 3, arrived Monday from El Dorado to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Kendricks. They are enjoying their school's spring break. On Saturday and Sunday they stopped off at Snyder to visit the children's Sterling grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGaugh went to Roaring Springs Ranch Friday to play golf in the beautiful warm sunshine. The country store is nearly ready for business at the resort, they report. An old house from Roaring Springs town was given to the ranch. It was moved out to a site in the middle of the pasture near the dirt road to the river. A full line of camp and picnic supplies will be carried.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bertrand attended the country musical program Saturday night at the high school auditorium. They missed last year's show and were determined to see this year's. They say the high quality of talent was as entertaining as any they had heard in the area. Quite professional.

Miss Taronna Dunaway stayed from Thursday to Sunday as houseguest of Miss Amanda Watson and the Dean Watsons. Mr. and Mrs. Ron Dunaway were in Dallas as sponsors with the Future Teachers organization at their state convention. Misses Melissa Strickland and Tonya Powell visited Miss D'Ann Watson Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Kendricks joined Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Parrack Sr. and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Parrack, Jr. of Lubbock for Sunday dinner at Kings after church Sunday. The younger Mr. Parrack was the Kendricks banker for years at the Lubbock National Bank. When his parents moved here, the senior Parracks and Kendricks became good friends. The ladies are in Eastern Star together.

Have you wondered why your hospitalization insurance premiums are nearly doubling? The Wall Street Journal says the joblessness in the eastern and northern states has affected our lives this way. People there received insurance coverage through their job package. When they got laid off, there went their hospitalization and they had no money to take out private policies. When they got sick they had no money to pay their hospital and medical bills. Many hospitals have declared bankruptcy in those areas. You can read the Plainview paper and see what their hospital is worried about. So, the insurance companies raise the premiums of policy holders in Lakeview and other areas to help make up for the lost funds in depressed areas.

The ground hog, or prairie dog here, saw his shadow earlier in the month, and weather this Monday is traditional Stock Show weather, cold, wet, and windy. The ground is so well watered the cotton farmers are torn as to whether to plant or go PIK.

The Dean Watsons were in Crosbyton Sunday to attend the Forman family reunion of Dean's grandmother Brewer. The relatives met at the Senior Citizens building for lunch and visiting.

Lanny Glasscock is pictured in the current issue of Progressive Farmer magazine. He is quoted as saying he plans to reduce 1983 farming expenses by irrigating cotton only one time this year, and irrigating only every other row.

PTA Book Fair set

March 7 thru March 9 is the time set aside for Duncan Elementary's annual PTA Book Fair. Books will be on display from the cafeteria and may be purchased from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. each day. Prices range from 49 cents to $5.00.

Books are a very important part of a child's education. If a child can't read, he can't do the rest of his school work. Encourage your child to read by buying him books of his own. You will also be helping the school because the profits are used to purchase items for Duncan library.

The Duncan PTA thanks the parents and townspeople for your continual support. The PTA projects have been a success because you and the Duncan students have made it so. Thanks to each one who has helped.

Neighborhood Watch Comments

There are many pretenses, devised by would-be burglars, used to gain access into residences. Among the most common is posing as some type of door-to-door salesman. Even if they actually do have a product for sale, care should be taken in determining the validity of their intentions. Many cities have solicitation ordinances to help deter some of this type of activity.

Floydada has such a solicitation ordinance, whereby door-to-door vendors and solicitors are required by law to register at the city offices prior to canvassing the neighborhoods. In most cases, salesmen are required to obtain a business permit and they also undergo an investigation by law enforcement authorities. In the case of religious and other types of non-profit solicitors, they still must obtain clearance through the city secretary's office to ascertain their legitimate intent.

If a citizen is approached by a door-to-door solicitor, the first question to be asked the salesman should be, "Do you have a permit and clearance from the City of Floydada?" The legitimate caller should be more than happy to present the proper credentials. If it is determined that this clearance has not been obtained, residents are urged to call the police immediately, giving a description of the person, his or her automobile description and license number, product offered, and any other information by which the person or persons can be located and investigated.

Seasonal door-to-door salesmen, such as wood or fruit vendors, seldom acquire the necessary permit and/or clearance. The solicitation ordinance is designed to allow only those with legitimate business from going door-to-door in the neighborhoods. Those without the proper credentials should be turned in at once for two reasons: (1) they are selling their goods within the city without a business license, and (2) they may be doing more than just selling their wares -- they may be using a sales come-on as a cover for "casing" neighborhoods for burglary intentions. Today's burglar is brazen. He operates openly -- not dressed in dark clothes, nor with the furtive actions of the so-called "cat burglar." In a booklet, furnished by the Ad Council in conjunction with the Crime Prevention Coalition, the following tips are listed as to how some burglars operate:

1. He may drive a truck and dress as a service repairman.
2. He may knock at your door, using various pretenses, to appraise the house for valuable items.
3. Burglars often cruise neighborhoods, looking for absentee owners or such tell-tale signs as newspapers which have not been removed from the front of the house.
4. Another favorite trick is the wrong-number telephone call to find out if the owner is at home before attempting to enter a residence.
5. Quick thefts of purses and other valuables are commonly carried out by burglars who enter an opposite door when the homeowner is seen working outside in his yard.

One of the most important ways of protecting your home, and one of the basic principals of "NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH," is to know your neighbors. Make them fully aware of your family's living habits -- who comes and goes to your house and when. Get to know theirs equally well. When you are familiar with regular visitors, strangers in the neighborhood are easy to spot. If you should notice a stranger who appears to be doing something out of the ordinary, call the police immediately. It is better to be a little "nosy" and safe than to "look the other way" and be sorry!

Citizens who are concerned about the safety and security of their homes and neighborhoods should get involved with FLOYDADA NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH. The next meeting is at 7:00 p.m., Thursday, February 24, at the First National Bank meeting room in Floydada. (Next Week: How to organize your neighborhood—Choosing block captains.)

FmHA asked for more flexible loans

The chairman of the National Cotton Council's Special Task Force on Credit recently called for more flexibility in the Farmers Home Administration loan programs.

Testifying before the House Agriculture Subcommittee on Conservation and Credit, Lloyd Cline, Lamesa, Texas, cotton producer, said such flexibility is needed if FmHA and other agencies are to meet the needs of agriculture and handlers and processors.

Cline, who also serves as a Council vice president, recommended that the existing $100,000 limit on FmHA operating loans and the $200,000 on guaranteed loans be increased to reflect the size of today's farming operations and sharply higher production costs.

Eligibility for supplemental operating loans under the emergency disaster loan program should be extended for two additional years for borrowers who experienced a natural disaster after December 15, 1979, he said.

Breakfast meeting to be held at King's Restaurant

Floyd County cotton producers and agribusinessmen will elect a Producer Director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. at a 7:00 a.m. breakfast meeting on Friday, March 4 in King's Restaurant, Floydada.

Announcement of the election comes from Kenneth Wofford of Lockney, current Floyd County Producer Director to the 25-county cotton organization.

and Ray G. Ferguson of Floydada, Businessman and Director.

Each of the counties in PCG territory has two directors, one a businessman and the other a cotton producer. They are elected on alternate years for two-year terms. Each is eligible for re-election every second year.

All producers and businessmen are invited to the meeting. However, under PCG By-Laws, only current dues-paying members of PCG will be eligible to be elected a director or to vote in the election. This provision of the by-laws will be fully explained at the meeting.

A PCG staff member will conduct the election, review and answer questions about recent and planned PCG activities.

Banquet kicks off new cheese distribution program

On February 18, 1983, a press conference was held in the Hale County Agriculture Center to declare that an injustice is occurring. The result of this being a surplus of over 800 million lbs. of cheese, with more coming into the CCC program than going out.

"We need to get the Government out of the food distribution business, and the only way to do that is to distribute the surplus and get the system back to a sensible marketing system. With the cost standing at $1.56/lb. to the taxpayer now, we're talking about a lot of fat to be trimmed off the budget," explained Arnold. AAM's plan is to work with AAM volunteers and area churches to get the cheese to the needy and elderly people where it is needed, and not stored in a warehouse costing money.

hopes to keep the program alive.

A BBQ dinner, cooked by August Schwertner, also of Floydada followed the press conference. Congressman Charles Stenholm spoke on current Agriculture legislation, and urged farmers to sign up for the PIK program. Saying that it was "the only game in town", he explained that "PIK is so much better than we could have hoped for just three months ago. It will get supplies down as well as getting the cost of the Agriculture Budget down to cut the pressure for legislative changes."

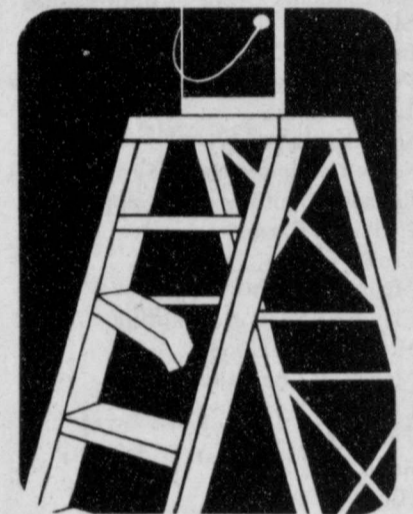

Marion Garland, of Dumas, spoke on the minimum pricing bill, and gave a historical account of the legislation. Cong. Stenholm was so impressed with the talk he has invited Marion to come to Washington to speak to the 98th Congress.

Marvin Meek, past Chairman of AAM from Plainview, talked on his new efforts, through the use of the Family Farm Foundation, to help generate favorable legislation for Agriculture. Running late, he briefly explained the AG CARD and how it is a vital tool for farmers to use.

At the end of the meeting, over $50,000 worth of cheese was distributed over the area, which covered points as far north to Dumas, and south to Littlefield. "With calls coming in daily to fill needs to communities all over Texas, we will be busy keeping up with the demand," said an AAM spokesman. "It is our wish that through our efforts we can help many across the state.
