Back to school again

JOANN SMITH AND LYNN TIPTON prepare dozens and dozens of donuts for the annual Chamber Breakfast Friday.

By Jana Lawson
Soap Operas were turned off, bicycles parked and bathing suits packed away Monday, August 22, as summer came to a close and the kids started to school.
This year's enrollment is approximately 330 students in Floydada High School. Several students are enrolled in the zero-period classes. These classes start at 7:45 in the morning, an hour earlier than regular classes. Quite an effort has to be exerted to attend the class, and all of these classes but one are elective.
The classes offered are "I Can", Public Speaking, Data Processing, Art and Government.
The "I Can" course is a motivation course based on Zig Ziglar's book, See You at the Top. This one-semester is class is taught by Delores Moore and has an enrollment of 20 students.

Public Speaking is a full year course that is aimed toward improving one's speaking. Joe Willis teaches this course and has an enrollment of 13.
A computer class called Data Processing is also being offered. It is a basic beginner class, being taught by Ron Dunaway. He has 18 students. Also offered during zero-period is art. The students must commute to and from Jr. High for their class taught by Dewayne Franklin.
Another class being offered is Government. This is the only required course offered zero-period. It is taught by Mike Vickers.

Chamber breakfast promises fun for all

The annual Chamber of Commerce Breakfast will be held Friday, August 26, at 6:30 a.m. at the Massie Activity Center.
This year's breakfast will be especially chucked with fun when locals, Joe Paty and Floyd Bradley, football fun entertainment chairmen, get wound up. That would wake up even the sleepiest of all of us.
The highlight of the breakfast will come to a climax when the winner of a 2-night, 3-day trip to New Orleans will be drawn. Boxes have been distributed to businesses all over town. Anyone may register, but you must be present to win. The trip will include tours and a Bears football game.

In addition, a gift certificate from Ponderosa Meat will be given away at the breakfast.
So, grab the best looking thing you can find and whoop it out of the 'ole bed and rush to the MAC to join the rest of your neighbors.
Scrambled eggs with toppings, fresh donuts, coffee, and juice will be served.
You don't want to miss it!

Love Fund started for Vasquez

A Love Fund for Glenn Luis Vasquez, age 20 of Floydada, has been established at the First National Bank in Floydada. Vasquez was formerly employed at Oden Chevrolet.
Vasquez, who suffered a brain injury in a pickup accident on August 4, is in ICU at St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock.
With insufficient insurance, hospital expenses have already incurred over $20,000.
Anyone wishing to make a contribution to the fund may contact Tom Farris at the bank.

Spaghetti supper planned

The Floyd County Day Care Center announces its annual spaghetti supper to be held at the Junior High cafeteria Friday, September 2. Serving will begin at 5:00 p.m. before the Floydada-Dimmitt football game. The proceeds from the supper go to help support the Floyd County Day Care Center.
Day Care Board President Roger

Garms urges everyone to attend this "tasteful" event. Many volunteers as well as board members, contribute their time and spaghetti sauce for the supper.
Served with the spaghetti will be salad, bread sticks, tea, coffee and cake. Tickets are $3.50 for adults, $1.75 for children under 12 and are available from any Day Care Board member or may be purchased at the door.

Whirlwinds prepare for football

The fighting Floydada Whirlwinds started their pre-season games with a scrimmage against the Petersburg Buffalos last Thursday at Petersburg.
The Whirlwinds are preparing to meet the Dimmitt Bobcats here next Friday, September 2, at 8 p.m.
Back for another year as the Mean Green's quarterback is Mark Hatley. Helping Hatley out will be Mike Saens, John Wayne Foley, and Mike Ruff.

Receivers will be Derrick Jenkins and Richie Mitchell. Other receivers the Whirlwinds can count on are Larry Smith and David Morren.
Wayne Morren and Patrick Lloyd will anchor the front line. Helping them out will be Fernando Arvizu, Ricky Poole, Gilbert Flores, Adolpho Garcia and Johnny Jones.

Dickens man arrested

An 18-year-old Dickens man turned himself in to Floyd County Sheriff Fred Cardinal here in Floydada last Wednesday.
David Bryan Keith said he had stolen five head of cattle from Gerrell Nimmo of Plainview and sold them at the Floydada Livestock Sales Co. on July 20.

Sheriff Cardinal and H.F. (Son) Guin of the Texas Southwestern Cattle Association tracked down the sale of the cattle. Two head had been purchased by Delbert Hundley of Tulsa and three head were bought by Derrel Johnson of Flomot.
Keith was placed in Floyd County jail under $10,000 bond.

Stolen planter recovered

An 8-row John Deer planter belonging to George Willis of Allmon was just one of the many items discovered in the barn of 52-year-old Deaf Smith County farmer, Robert Strain.
Strain was charged with two counts of felony theft in connection with at least $150,000 worth of allegedly stolen property found on his farm last Wednesday.

Authorities believe they have cleared about 30 burglaries that have occurred in over 13 counties, extending from the southern Panhandle to the southern South Plains.

Brown Gin burglarized

An estimated $12,000.00 worth of merchandise was taken from the Brown Gin on the Ralls highway August 13.
A computer, Keyboard, base and screen, tool box, cutting torch, two drills, two grinders, a jigsaw, jack, log chain, Catalina T.V., G.E. clock radio, Smith-Corona typewriter, Monroe calculator, Olivetti calculator and $30-40 in cash.

BLAIR DAVIS

Davis comes home

Like many other Floydada High School graduates, Blair Davis never dreamed he would return from college to make Floydada his home...but he has.
For some years most Floydada graduates left Floydada for bigger and better things, but, the last year or so, many have returned to their hometown upon completion of college.
Davis's father, Lon Davis, asked him to enter the family grain business. "I feel there are greater opportunities in a small town like Floydada," Davis said.
Since Davis' graduation from F.H.S. he has attended several universities. He spent one year at Durham University in England where he studied the classics and enjoyed a sport virtually unknown to the South Plains, crew rowing. He also had the opportunity to serve the traditional strawberries and cream at Wimbledon.

This past May Davis received his MBA in economics from T.C.U. and has an undergraduate in political science from the University of Texas in Austin.
He worked for a year as a landman for Mason and Bates Oil Company in Louisiana and east Texas. He is currently associated with the Donna Budd Real Estate agency in Dallas.
Blair said about his hometown, "People are Floydada's strongest resource." He said he thinks what Floydada needs is "more industry." By moving back to this area and making it his home, he "hopes to help build Floydada into the city we all want it to be."

letter to the editor...

Dear Sirs,

Having been in education all my life, for me the beginning of the year is September, not January. And with the beginning of THIS school year I want to take the opportunity to do something that I should have done many years ago, but many reasons, including the tyranny of the urgent, I seem to have always been able to put off. This year, I shall not put it off—but will take the time to say "Thanks" to many people in Floyd County for the foundation that they gave me when I was a student at Floydada High School (class of 1956).

Too often we forget to say our thank yous until it is too late. I hope that my thanks is not entirely too late, although I know that many of those who ministered to me during my teen years have indeed passed on.

I am continually reminded of the excellent foundation I received in education at Floydada High School, and in my church, at the First Baptist Church of Floydada. Floydada may be small as cities go, but the education that is provided there and the basic tenets of life that are taught there need take a back seat to know one. I recall fondly the foundation in the written word that I learned from Anne Swepston. She was my American Literature teacher and she was a master at inspiring young minds to be open to the writings of men such as O'Henry, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Sinclair Lewis and James Weldon Johnson to name but a few. I liked her 11th grade literature class so much that I asked for, and received, the privilege of repeating the course. I still have the text (which I purchased) on my shelf and get it down from time to time just to refresh my memory of the wonderful opportunities I had in Miss Swepston's classes.

I recall fondly the Algebra classes taught by Bob Copeland. I was not the brightest math student that Bob ever had. I am sure that at times he felt I had all the promise of a goatead when it came to mathematics. I must admit that I don't remember nor use much algebra in my adult life, but I'll remember till my dying days that $x = -b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac} / 2a$. Knowing the formula for finding the square root of a quadratic equation may not be the greatest accomplishment in life—but it's better than a stick in the eye!

I recall fondly the American History classes taught by Coach Watson. I am sure Coach Watson saw far more promise in me as an historian, than he did as an athlete. Somehow, he was always able to resist the temptation to ask me to come out for football. I'm sure he was aware that I ran fast—but I always stayed too long in the same place. J.E. Waller and Marvin Rucker were the football stars of my day—and I found my place in the sun in the F.H.S. marching band.

I remain grateful to this day for the musical foundation given me by Maurice Jones. I have been able to maintain that interest, not in instrumental music, but in vocal music. I am an avid and active member of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc. (SPEBSQSA) (Let's see you say that ten times real fast, Parnell Powell!) I have also enjoyed seeing my two sons, Jim and Rick, continue that interest in music. My youngest son Rick, will be entering Miami University in Oxford this Fall as a Freshman in the Miami University Marching Band and will be continuing his interests in the flute—with hopes of becoming Drum Major for the band in just a few years. As I watched him this past year as Drum Major of the local high school band here in Oxford (150 members strong!) it brought back many fond memories of my own experience playing bass drum in the F.H.S. band.

To Mrs. I.T. Graves I am eternally grateful for the foundation she gave me in Speech and Drama. I have not been in a play since I graduated from Floydada High, but the experience I had on the stage there and the experience I had in the Declamation tournaments have stood me in good stead in my adult years as I have had the opportunity to speak to literally thousands of people. I have pursued a career first as a public school teacher (11th grade American History, Coach Watson—I taught American History for five years in Cleveland, Ohio and try as I might, in spite of my best past 17 might, in spite of my best efforts, the North always won the Civil War), then for the past 17 years I have been on the staff here at Miami University as a specialist in Educational Technology. As a School Board member, as a classroom teacher, and as an educational technologist, my foundations in public speaking have always been strong and appreciated.

To many adults of the Floydada area, I owe a great debt of gratitude. At the head of the list are the names of Parnell and Francis Powell. I put in more than a few hours at Powell's Little Super Market there on the "Y". Parnell and Francis were always understanding of my teenage immaturities and taught me the value of providing a good day's work for a day's wages. I'll never forget the day one kind gentleman came in and got a sack of groceries and told me to charge it to "The Mothers' Club" and I in my naiveite dutifully did so, only to learn later that that "thar warn't no such animal!"—nor will I forget the day that the funeral director backed his hearse up to the front steps of the store and came in and began "measuring Parnell for a coffin—just in case"! My experiences behind the meat counter with "Shorty" and the fun of working with the Powell boys, Artis and Jerry, are still strong in my mind.

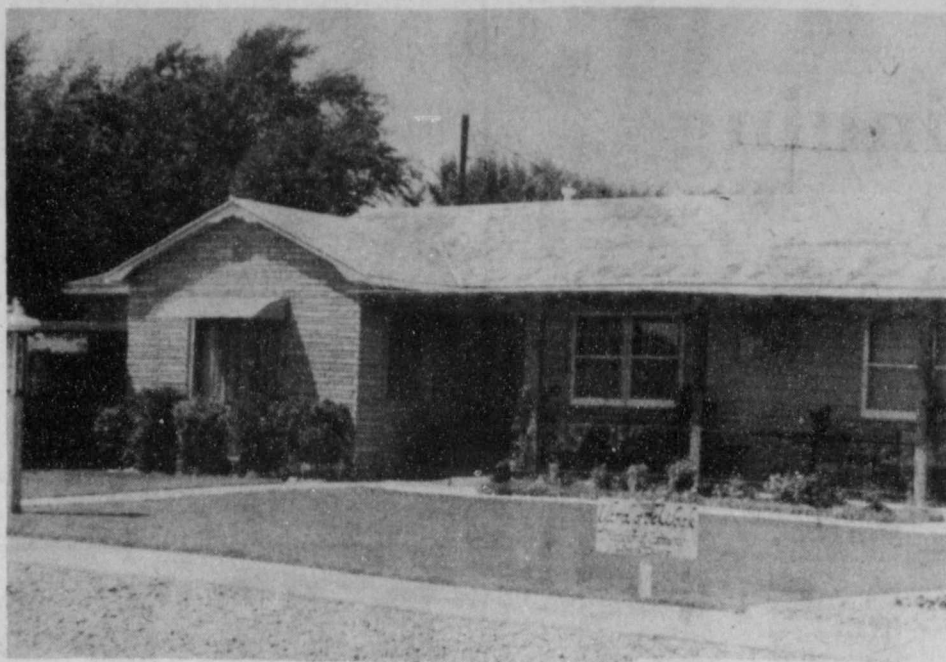

I have a special fondness for the Sunday School classes taught by Al Galloway. I've learned over the years that the number of people as kind and as loving as Al and Sally (or Sal and Ally as we knew them then) are few and far between! I know Al got "hailed out" all too often, but he never lost his faith in his fellow man, nor more importantly, his faith in God!

The names rush past by—E. D. and Robbie Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Barber, Arwins, the Hulls, and of course the late A. E. Baker.

I guess what I am trying to say is, I've never forgotten where I came from. To this day, even here in Oxford, Ohio I'm known by many Oxfordians as the guy from "Floo-dah-diddy" You can't imagine how many times I've had to explain over the years just where Floydada, Texas is! Never mind, to borrow a phrase from Daniel Webster (it may be small, but there are those who love it!')

Sincerely,
Jerry R. Coltharp

Chamber Clips...

By Susan Garms

Set your alarm clock to go off a little earlier this Friday and show up at the Massie Activity Center for the annual Chamber of Commerce Membership Appreciation Breakfast. This year the sponsors are Oden Chevrolet, City Auto, Reed Ford and Quality Body Shop. These merchants, the Chamber Board and staff invite you to come and enjoy scrambled eggs with toppings and fresh donuts from Floydada's new Donut Shop. Coach Joe Paty and Dr. Floyd Bradley will present the entertainment.

Door prizes will be given away as well as table favors and then this year a trip to New Orleans will be drawn and given to a lucky person at the breakfast. You may register for this drawing at the following merchants: Floydada Insurance and Real Estate, Thompson's Pharmacy, The Donut Shop, Oden Chevrolet, Shop Rite Foods, Caprock Hospital, Ponderosa, Lon Davis Grain, Kirtleys Market, Sears, Dyson's Shoe Shop, Script Printing, Parker Furniture, Sam Spence Insurance, R. Photography Anderson's Dept. Store, Buddy's Food, Gene's Cleaners, Perry's, Hales, The Hesperian, Consumers Quality Body Shop, City Auto, First National Bank, Kirk and Sons and Sue's Gifts.

R. Photography has team pictures and individual pictures of boys and girls who played T-ball and Little League this summer. If you child played, please pickup your pictures. They're matted beautifully, each child's picture with his team picture beside it, ready for framing and very inexpensively priced.

Tryouts for the Saga of Katy and the Gambler Lady have been set for 3:00 p.m. Sunday, September 25th. Mark your calendar! This play will be presented by the Chamber in November, directed by Sara Probasco. This dinner theater production has places for 10 characters, a rinky tink piano player, costumers, technicians and several walk on parts. Remember, tryouts are at 3:00 on Sunday, September 25th at the Floydada High School Auditorium.

The Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at the school administration office on Tuesday, September 6, at 5:30. The meeting is normally held on the first Monday of the month, but because of the holiday this first meeting has been moved to first Tuesday this month only. All members and officers are urged to attend.

Cook of the week

Gary Brown has come a long way since he first talked the Brady Texas Jaycees into holding the first annual World's Championship Goat cookoff in August of 1974.

Brady will be holding their 10th annual cookoff Labor Day weekend this year. This cabrito clash should prove to be bigger and better than ever. Brown will once again be a judge for the cookoff, along with such celebrities as Ace Reid, the Kerrville cartoonist, who does the familiar "Cow Pokes" drawings.

Since the first cookoff, Brown has broadened his cooking skills to range from goat to full course meals.

"I love to cook breakfast on the weekends" Brown said. He makes biscuits from scratch and includes homemade yeast cinnamon rolls in his breakfasts occasionally.

Every good cook has a disaster now and then, and Brown is no exception. He said he brought "some horrible orange cookies" to the bank once that made all of the other employees sick.

Brown has worked at the First National Bank in Floydada for the last four years. When he isn't banking or cooking, he enjoys building furniture and clocks from natural wood and working with kids. He is president of the Floydada Little Dribblers and a 4-H leader.

One of Brown's favorite recipes is Grape Cake. This simple summer dessert is great for beginning cooks.

Grape Cake

Prepare 1 yellow cake mix according to directions. When cake is done and still hot, punch holes all over the cake, 3/4 way through.

Bring to a boil: 2 small packages of grape jello; 2 cups grape soda; 1 cup water. Boil 5 seconds and then pour over cake.

Chill cake 6 hours in refrigerator, or longer.

Mix 1 small instant vanilla pudding with 1 cup milk and 1 carton Cool Whip. Spread over cake before serving.

Flavors of jello and soda may be changed. Example: Strawberry Jello and Big Red soda.

WARNING:

If you experience severe stomach cramps or nausea after trying the recipe submitted by "Cook of the Week, Gary Brown" you may receive a "tried & true" remedy at 983-3719.

ERNE TORREZ SR shows off the first vehicle painted in his new paint room added on to his body shop. Located at 509 N. 2nd [across from the V.F.W.]

J.V. VARSITY CHEERLEADERS for the 1983-84 school year are (l-r) Jamie Thayer, Mary Lloyd, Jana Davis, Paige Cannon and Dee Williams.

23 Years of experience backing Ernie Torrez

Twenty-three years ago Ernie Torrez moved to Floydada an illiterate fifteen year old that could speak little English. Torrez is now the owner of his own automotive body shop in Floydada.

Born in Uvalde and raised at Hondo, Torrez came to Floydada the first time as a migrant worker with his parents. At age fifteen he decided "there was no future in field work."

"I wanted to make something of myself" said Torrez. He applied for work with Conner Oden at Oden Chevrolet.

"Mr. Oden asked me if I knew how to polish cars, and, of course, I told him I could" Torrez said. But when he reported for work he had to swallow his pride and ask Johnny McKinney how to operate the polisher. After working at Oden's for one week, he got a ten dollar a week raise.

"Mr. Oden was a really good man. He helped me get my first car" said Torrez.

Torrez, married at age 15, lived almost two miles from Odens and had to walk back and forth to work. "Well, that wasn't so bad except running back and forth at lunch was. Mr. Oden saw me one day returning from lunch and decided I needed a car." Torrez said.

He had gone to school through the sixth grade, but because he couldn't understand English very well he had only about a third grade education. He learned how to read by looking at comic books but he still didn't know how to write very well. Emily Potts and Britt Gregory took an interest in Torrez and taught him how to write.

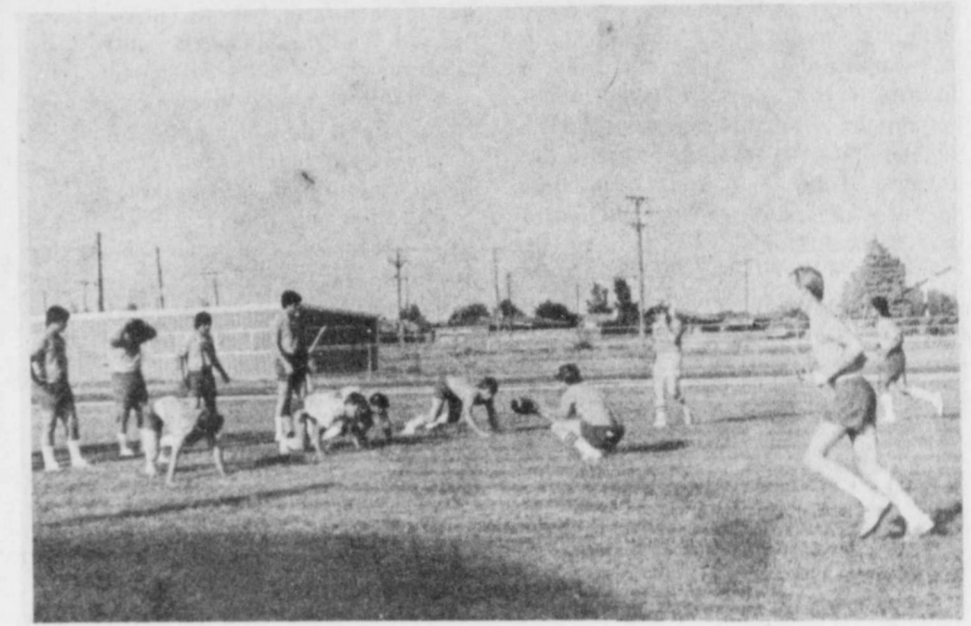

"Johnny McKinney and Johnny Bill Sue taught me everything they could about the body shop" said Torrez.

After leaving Oden's, he worked at Sue's Quality Body Shop until recently. He moved to San Antonio for a short time, but could not get his business rolling. Upon returning, he opened his own shop in the old W&O Butane building. "I had always done well, but I never had had the courage to stick my neck out," said Torrez. "But Mr. Oden had told me years ago, 'Son, you can do what you want to and can be what you want to be.'"

"Life had always been hard for me until I came to Floydada. It is a good town and its people are good. I appreciate everyone's help over the years," commented Torrez.

Now with 23 years of experience and his own shop he hopes to use his experience and knowledge to better himself and this community.

Owens hosts Athena Study Club meeting

Athena Study Club met in the home of Virginia Owens of the Aiken Community, August 11, at 7:00 p.m.

An informative program on "First Aid Treatments in the Home," was given by Dr. Gary Mangold of Lockney.

Dr. Mangold introduced guests and members to Dr. Kerry Lockett M.D., who is a third year resident in Family Practice at Texas Tech Medical School. Dr. Lockett will be here a month working at Lockney hospital and clinic. He is a native of Sefp, Texas.

Dr. Gary Mangold and Dr. Lockett presented an informative program on such first aid procedures as how to control body temperature, control of bleeding wounds of all kinds, when to use application of heat and cold to injured areas, use of a tourniquet, importance of tetanus injections, immobilization of broken limbs, head injury reflexes to check, treatment of all kinds of burns, eye injuries and the control and treatment for ingested poisons. Dr. Mangold stressed the importance of knowing what plants around your home and property could be poisonous. He also stressed the importance of the also stressed the importance of the need to keep syrup of Ipecac in your physician immediately for the instructions as to what to do.

After an interesting exchange of questions and answers following the program, sandwiches, pickles, carrot cake and punch that was prepared by co-hostess Cindy Smith were served to the following guests, Dr. Gary Mangold, Dr. Kerry Lockett, Gene Owens and Margie Ferguson.

Members presented were Charlotte Mitchell, Jill Golden, D'Lynn Morgan, Tanya Covington, Mary Ann Kring, Martha Sue Lusk, Sandra Turley, Laura Wilson, Virginia Owens and Judy Schacht.

A brief business meeting followed refreshments at which time members discussed and planned activities for the Floyd County Fair in September.

Teachers Tea, August 21, at Junior High library, was planned for all the teachers and employees of Lockney Independent School System.

Athena's next meeting will be their annual yearbook party.

BIRTHDAY HONOREES—Sally Kreis, Ona Jameson, Susie Mooney and Sue Thompson celebrated their birthdays for the month of August at the Floydada Nursing Home.

Rest Home residents celebrate birthdays

Thursday, August 18, was party time at the Rest Home, with ladies of the City Park Church of Christ as hostesses.

The special birthday table was covered with an ecru cloth centered with an arrangement of bronze flowers. Matching cards marked places for the honorees. Other guests and residents were seated in the dining room surrounding the lovely table.

The honorees were Sally Kreis with her daughter, Ruth McIntosh as her guest. Sue Thompson had as her guest, Dolores Cannon. Susie Mooney and Ona and Ona Jameson were also birthday girls.

The ladies all looked so pretty wearing the lovely corsages which Williams Florist sent to them for his special day.

Delicious cakes and fruit punch was served to everyone. There was picture taking and singing "Happy Birthday" which everyone enjoyed. The next party will be on Thursday, the 15th of September. Friends and family are welcome to come and join this special day with the residents.

Teaff feted with party in Payne's home

Mrs. Juanita Teaff was entertained with a going-away party Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Winfred Payne.

Guests were served punch, coffee and nut breads from a lace covered table with crystal appointments and the colors of peach and blue.

Guests included Gertrude Hollums, Julia Baker, Male Laminack, Edwina Hollums, Georgia Finley, Reba Henry, Josie Swafford, Nancy Marble, also a granddaughter and great-granddaughter, Mindy and Mysti Ramsey of Temple.

Their gift to the honoree was a money tree.

Mrs. Teaff will be moving to Lubbock soon.

Floyd Data

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Poage and son, Rande enjoyed a week's vacation in the mountains at Pecos, New Mexico. It was very cool and rained alot. It was hard to have to come back home to the hot and dry weather! Their daughter, Jill was here for a nice visit and is now on a trip to Jamaica. When she returns she will be moving to Arlington, Texas. They also enjoyed a cookout before Jill left with Julie and Jay Lackey coming out to share in the fun.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Winona Jackson

Monday morning started off with Wendy's "Tea Time", with coffee, cookies, and fellowship for Bennie, Wendy, Irene, Mrs. Birnie, Ona, Hallie, Emmitt, Travis, Ruth and Vera. Next was the morning devotion time with Jim Guess and the Assembly of God volunteers. If everyone isn't too tired after all this singing, then there is good participation in exercise class. Lunch time comes next and after lunch, most of the residents are ready for a long nap. On Monday after nap time, Janice was ready to help Iva, Bennie, Addie, Lura, Irene, Emmitt, Una, and Hallie with the painting of the ceramic piece of their choice. These ladies and gentleman are doing very good work in this class. They have painted some lovely pieces.

Tuesday morning started off very nice...Dorothy Neff, one of the Companions N' Caring volunteers, brought freshly baked donuts from Linda Tipton's new shop. This special treat made Wendy's Tea Time a special occasion. Thank you, Dorothy. There was a large group for Bible Study on Tuesday afternoon...with lots of discussion! After Bible Study the Resident's Council held their monthly meeting.

On Wednesday, our friends from City Park Church of Christ were here to sing with us for devotion time. Emmitt won the most bingo games on Wednesday afternoon with Addie, Lura, Hallie, Bennie, Pappy, Sue, Ona, and Una each winning one and two games. Ona was the black-out winner.

Thursday afternoon was the day for the monthly birthday party which our friends from City Park Church of Christ host for the residents. Ona Jameson, Sue Thompson, Susie Mooney, and Sally Kreis were the birthday honorees. This is such a special day for all the residents...with birthday cake, punch, pretty table decorations, picture taking and singing. The honorees always look so pretty wearing the lovely corsages which William's Florist send to them. Ruth McIntosh played the piano for the residents after the party. Everyone certainly enjoyed this sing-a-long. Thank you, Ruth.

Friday was movie...and popcorn day. Emmitt made his "owl" with Lura's trim, and we were happy to have Mary Corley back with us for the devotion time. The Tea Time group had a special party and gift for Wendy on Friday morning. Wendy will be leaving us soon to go to a Nursing Home in San Saba. We will certainly miss her and the time she has given to the residents at Tea Time each morning.

Our thanks to all the visitors and volunteers who share their time and love with the residents and a special thanks to the family of Vernon McPeak for sharing the lovely flowers with us. Our thanks also Wanda Dubois for her "thinking of us." We love each of you: Dorris Tobin, Reno, Nevada; Aimee Green, Max Green, Myria Dade, Glendora Cobb, Shelly and Sandra Coleman, Dorothy Neff, Dixie, Tate and Zacha Harris, Dolores Cannon, Gene Baird, Debra, Justin and Jason Bailey, Bill and Gertrude Cox, Clovis, New Mexico and Sarah Pyron, Crosbyton.

Girl Scouts to organize August 29

Area girls will be offered an opportunity to become active in Girl Scouts during an organizational meeting to be held from 6 p.m.-7 p.m. at the First National Bank in the party room, according to Girl Scout Leader Elizabeth Sims. Parents of prospective members as well as members who are re-registering are asked to attend. 62 girls in Floydada are among the 2,753,090 who registered in 1982-83 nationwide.

"Girl Scouts is the largest voluntary organization for girls, and one of the oldest. By appealing to girls through activities that are fun and personally fulfilling to them, the movement helps girls to develop socially, physically, emotionally, and morally," explained Elizabeth Sims. She added that the organization is part of a worldwide movement for girls and that Girl Scouts not only welcomes, but seeks members from all ethnic, religious, and socioeconomic backgrounds.

In a contemporary setting, girls learn leadership skills and traditional values of love of God, country and mankind. Girl Scouts offers a wide variety of opportunities for girls who may choose to join a troop or not. Many of the activities available (field trips, workshops, camping, etc) do not require troop affiliation, although they are available to troop members also.

In addition, Girl Scouts offers personal satisfaction and growth to the adults who make the program possible. For more information about Girl Scouts, U.S.A., contact Elizabeth Sims, 104 S. Main, 983-3414 or 983-2256.

The personnel services committee for Caprock Girl Scout Council has announced twenty-seven training opportunities for leaders, assistant leaders, troop organizers, consultants and field services chairmen in the council, this fall, according to Mrs. Keith Strain, chairman of the committee.

Training events will be available both day and evenings to accommodate today's busy volunteers' schedules and will be held in Lubbock, Plainview, Friona, Levelland, Brownfield, and Camp Rio Blanco, near Crosbyton. Subject matter to be included will be orientation to the Girl Scout program, welcome to Girl Scouting, ACA camperafter skills, leading songs and games, arts and crafts, Multi-Media First Aid, primitive camping tips and age-level roundtables.

The fall calendar printout of training events, interested persons may contact Caprock Council Service Center, 2567-74th Street, Lubbock, 745-2855 or the Plainview office at 501 Joliet, 296-7295. The council is a member of the United Way.

LONELINESS IS NOT A MEDICAL DISEASE

But it is real. Real to you or someone you know. The symptoms are varied . . . the pain is the same.

For anyone seeking the answer to loneliness, ARA Living Centers introduces Personal Care. Personal Care is designed for elderly people who need warm, cheerful surroundings and friendly companions.

You won't find loneliness on a list of medical diseases, but you will find it in life. Fortunately, we've found the answer . . . Personal Care.

Alicia damages property but not spirit

This letter and article were received this week from Lois Freeman, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Garley, formerly of Dougherty. She tells of violence dealt when Hurricane Alicia made her way into the coastal areas of Texas.

8-21-83

Dear Editor,

I am enclosing an article for your consideration.

I am a former resident of Floydada and also a former typesetter of the Hesperian. I am presently employed as a typesetter with Lake Publishing Co. of Clear Lake City and also have a weekly column that appears in The Citizen newspaper, (publication of the same co.).

I am writing this by candlelight, as my Seabrook apartment is still without power.

Thank you for your kindness.

Sincerely,

Lois (Emert) Freeman
1865 Florida Dr. #39
Seabrook, Tex. 77586

P.S. The article has not been published, but am also submitting it to the Borger Herald.

By Lois Freeman
Citizen Columnist

Many citizens are still "roughing it" without electrical power since Alicia's visit.

She really left her mark, but she didn't tear the people apart. Quite the contrary! It seems she drew them closer together. All around the area you could see neighbor helping neighbor. It made no difference if a certain orange tag or someone's name adorned the jeans, nor if a familiar animal was stitched on the shirt fronts. "The people had a mind to work." And work they did.

It wasn't an adult only job either. Young people and children were in there doing their share in helping clean up the damage our "unlady-like visitor" left behind.

Chain saws buzzed in the hands of men, standing on expandable ladders, as broken tree limbs were "amputated" from tall trees. Once in a while the shout of "timber" could be heard as the damaged tree parts fell to the ground, having been severed by the saw.

Women, young people and children drug the spiky limbs to the street, where they were stacked in neat rows, for the trash pickup. Both sides of all streets had their own little fortress of tree limbs.

Side by side neighbors could be seen on rooftops as they worked together making what repairs they could.

Ladies with gas ranges opened their kitchens to those who had all-electric ones.

Those who had no water were offered the use of showers and tubs by those who did. Wherever there was a need if anyone could help, they did.

Help was not limited to close friends and next door neighbors. One Seabrook lady went shopping for a hurricane lamp in Clear Lake City and found much more — though not a lamp. The sales clerk invited her and her husband to her home for dinner that evening and to also bring her laundry. The couple left their new friends home with a stack of clean towels, a bag of ice and two cans of fuel for a small heating element.

In a neighboring city, however, a few tacky gnomes were reported. They flatly refused to see the need of others and refused to extend a helping hand to even their next door neighbors. They seemed to feel "It's my four and no more," refusing even the offer of a lone ice cube, even though they had power

CENTER NEWS

By Mrs. J.E. Green

This looks a bit like fall. But afternoons are as hot as ever. Time flies, but I'm not quite ready for the snow to fly.

Dawn Attebury returned home last week from Canadian where she visited her great-grandparents for several weeks. She called at the Green home Sunday afternoon. And now school has begun.

The Mayfields had company over the weekend.

Mrs. Jones is in Plainview visiting a daughter also a granddaughter in that area.

Mrs. Odam called at the Green home Monday.

Mrs. Ethel Warren was in church Sunday, the first time since the car wreck. Congratulations!

Mrs. Anthony Latta and Mrs. Green visited Thursday with Miss Esther Peck and her visiting sisters and the husband of one of them.

The family, the girls and family were our neighbors at Mt. Blanco. Like Mt. Blanco was once a thriving community. We had a good visit. And doesn't time fly! The Griffiths are from Abilene.

Mrs. Pohl of Matador visited Mrs. Alma Dunn one day last week.

The Brewers are still canning.

Our not so well: Mrs. Ashton at Lockney, about the same; Wiley Rogers, still not able to get out.

and their neighbors did not.

Ironic enough, these un-helped neighbors were still willing to help the "gnomes" clear the rubble from their yard and trim the broken limbs from the trees! An iced glass of Gatorade was extended to the two young boys as they sweltered under their labor.

One store, in that same city, was known to refuse to sell ice to anyone except "our special customers."

Thank God these kind of folks are definitely a minority group!

Alicia greatly damaged property and terrain but, for the most part, she brought old friends closer together and instigated new ones as they worked together like well oiled hinges.

An Unwanted Visitor

By LOIS FREEMAN

The wind was already whipping up by 3 p.m. on Wednesday, August 17, 1983, around Seabrook. Highway 146, going south, had been closed at NASA Road I. We were about to receive a visit. A visit by an expected, but unwanted, guest.

Great care had been exercised by the citizens in making preparations for Alicia's coming. She was dreaded and feared, yet demanded respect and consideration in all areas.

Some folks left town to avoid facing her, while others felt it necessary to stay in their homes. Nerves were on edge as we awaited the time of her arrival.

High tides were the forerunner of her coming. Then came the winds to hold our attention. Soon rain was added to the winds, coming in great force.

At 1:25 a.m. Thursday, electrical power went off in Seabrook as our unwanted guest made her grand entrance. She came in fury, unleashing her strength and hostilities over our city.

She was in no way a lady. She showed no favoritism, spreading her wrath in generous quantities among all residents.

Shingles were ripped from roofs of homes and businesses. Roofs of carports and patios, brick from sides of buildings, split, snapped and uprooted trees, along with broken glass, fences and business signs were all strewn across an otherwise neat landscape.

The trickle of water from faucets diminished Thursday afternoon, but was restored late Friday. Traffic lights, some telephones and electricity were still out as late as Saturday noon.

Blowing rain and leaking roofs caused interior damage to many homes and some residents could be seen dragging soggy rolls of carpet from their homes Friday afternoon.

"It could have been much worse. Someone upstairs must have been looking out for us," residents agree, while others add, "This does it. I am not staying in the area."

Alicia came and went — perhaps disappointed that her visit created no apparent panic.

A touch of the Orient comes to Floydada

BY HOPE WARREN

John and Sharon Kenty and children Liz and Chris recently returned from a three year stay in Japan beginning in May, 1980. Sharon is the niece of Fern Hartsell and visited in Floydada during the month of July.

The Kentys lived on the Uyakota Air Force Base on the Honsu Island which is the main island of Japan in the Kanto Plains. Uyakota AFB, with a population of about 13,000 is in Fussa Shi, a suburb of Tokyo.

While in Japan, the Kentys learned many interesting things about Japan. The Japanese are very electrical. They sell stereos, televisions, and computers at sidewalk sales. This is a very private nation. Crime is at a very low rate because there's a great respect for privacy. They show respect by bowing. The lower the bow the more respect you are showing.

When you enter a Japanese home, one removes his shoes and puts on slippers. Floors are made out of wheat straw. The room with the most valuable things is called a tatami room. When you enter this room, slippers are removed. This tatami room is a sacred room to these people. Their main gods are Buddha and Shinto worship which is the worship of nature.

The main source of food is rice, vegetables and fish. Meat is very expensive and not eaten very often. Vegetables are sold at open markets. This is where most Japanese women visit. Their main agriculture is 99% rice. They also grow cabbage, bean sprouts and celery. Even people who aren't farmers grow many plants. A small fresh watermelon will sell for $25.00.

John Kenty's air force career is what took them to Japan. He is a major and flew C130 planes. He worked in the command post and was in charge of all air traffic. This base also flew supplies to other bases.

Sharon Kenty taught conversational English to a group of Japanese ladies, a group of engineers with the Univac Corporation, and a young college girl. She makes many baked goods for these people also. In return, she was taken to a tea ceremony. The Japanese ladies must go to school for two years to learn the proper way to perform a tea ceremony. She also learned how to dress in a kimono which take about 20 minutes to put on.

The kids were taught several crafts. They learned the art of oragami which is folding paper. They were taught how to make balls, birds, and many others. Liz was involved in Girl Scouts. Her troop had a Japanese sister. Although they couldn't talk to each other, these girls could communicate quite well. Chris learned the ancient art of Judo.

The Kentys returned home to the United States in July 1983. The flight from Tokyo to Seattle took 8 hours. The main thing learned was that the Japanese are warm, sincere people. They are very family oriented and close to each other. This is something this family will always remember.

Free Things To Write For

Good news for older Americans is that the answer to many questions they may have can be found in booklets that are available for free. For instance:

- If you have a legal problem, you can get free information from the National Senior Citizens Law Center, 1709 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California 90017.

- If you're looking for a retirement residence, you might like to send for a free booklet about one that's recently raised its roof to make room for more senior citizens. Near New York City and right on the beautiful Long Beach Boardwalk, is King David Manor, 80 West Broadway, Long Beach, New York 11561, or call (516) 889-1300.

- If you're interested in working as a volunteer, you can write to ACTION, Older Americans Volunteer Programs, Washington, DC 20525.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, Tuesday, August 23:
The main news is the beginning of the Elementary School here at South Plains, with teachers having their In-Service on August 17, 18 & 19th and school opening on Monday, with both buses running, lunch being served in lunch, and lessons beginning. Teachers are 5th and 6th grades, Mrs. Sherri Turnbow; 3rd and 4th grades, Miss Carol Arnold; 1st and 2nd grades, Mrs. Barbara Chapman, and Kindergarten teacher and principal of the school is Mrs. Charlene Starke. Trustees are: Howard Staples, Dwight Teeple, Carlton Johnson, Rogene Bethel, Kelvin Cummings, Ira Henderson and Nathan Mulder. Mrs. Nina Sanders is in the lunch room and Mrs. Laura Bethel is PTA president. We wish a wonderful and healthful school term to all.
The South Plains Hobby Club which does not meet in the summer will have its first meeting of the fall on Wednesday, September 14th, at the home of Mrs. Sara Probasco on the Silverton Highway, north of South Plains. There will be a program on Wheat Weaving. Roll call will be bring a recipe for using wheat. Connie Sanders will have the Thought for the Day. Meeting time is 2:00 p.m.
County Commissioners are working this past week and this week here at South Plains on the paved road to the schoolhouse. They have filled holes and crevices, and have put on the black top.

and now are graveling all the road. Hopefully, it will stand the assault of wintry weather.
There were some very wonderful little showers around in the neighborhood late Tuesday evening of last week. They seemed to fall out of nowhere, but all moisture is gratefully welcome.
Mrs. Letha Mulder went to Littlefield last Wednesday morning to visit that day and Thursday with sister, Mrs. Inez Minyard.
Rev. Cecil and Mrs. Joyce Osborne left a week ago Monday for Shreveport, Louisiana where they visited friends there, and went on to be with relatives and their children at Lewisville, Texas during their vacation. They were home on this past Tuesday, and Mrs. Osborne went to Muleshoe and brought her mother, Mrs. Corda Taylor here to stay with them, and this Monday she took her back home to Muleshoe.
Mrs. Ruth Smitherman, who had to be returned to the Central Plains Hospital last week, is much better this Tuesday morning, we are so glad to find out, and Mrs. Letha Mulder is staying with her today while Ernest is getting some much needed rest while she is there.
Some of the young men of the vicinity went up to the gymnasium on Friday and worked there fastening the seats down in the gymnasium. They had brought them here last week, but had not fastened them down.
Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrugh and sister,

Mrs. Edith Dillard of Lockney and Bobbie's grandson, Latham Dickens of Plainview left Saturday morning for Odessa where they spent the weekend with the sister of Bobbie and Edith, Mrs. W. S. Smith and her family. They returned home Sunday night.
Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham took her grandchildren, Brett and Shea back to Lubbock to their father, Bud Higginbotham on Tuesday afternoon of last week. They had been visiting here for several days with their grandmother.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Annela Staples are drivers this year of the school buses to Floydada.
Thursday afternoon, September 1, there will be a PTA meeting at the cafeteria, at 4:00 p.m. All members are urged to be present.
On August 15, Mr. and Mrs. Rogene Bethel left for Red River, New Mexico, for a vacation there. They had a day at Cimmaron Canyon, and a picnic while they fished at a lake there. They drove to see the Rio Grande River and while at Red River on day they were surprised to meet neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Lackey also from here. The children and all went up the ski lift at Red River, and they fished and ate trout while there. A trip over to Taos and the surrounding rivers and the mountains was enjoyed. Amy had her 8th birthday while they were in Red River and they celebrated it Thursday and the family came home Friday.

This past week school board members and other men of the neighborhood went to the gymnasium and finished putting up the bleachers and making them solid. Everyone is thankful to the men and we will all enjoy using the seats this coming fall and winter. We thank you, gentlemen, for getting the bleachers up and ready for use.
This Sunday evening as I was coming home from Roscoe, where I spent the weekend, I was nearing Post from the south, and as I came down through a hill and a little valley, a big, wild turkey started to cross the road in front of me. It was too close, and I was afraid to stop too quickly, but I swerved to miss the turkey, and as I slowed down and looked back, he had gotten across the road safely. This was the first wild turkey I had ever seen in this area, and he was a big one. Hopefully, I did not hurt him in any way.
Mrs. M.M. Julian left early Saturday morning for Roscoe, where she spent the weekend visiting with son and wife, Terry and Leona Julian, and their son, Dick, home from college at Commerce for the weekend, and with Mrs. Julian's granddaughter, Dr. and Mrs. Dee and Bill Barnes also of Commerce, with Mrs. Julian's great grandson, Jason, 2 years old. She attended church Sunday morning and evening at the Roscoe First Baptist Church where the Rev. Randy Hughes is minister, and his folks live here at Silverton. Rick Gray, formerly from our area at Plainview, and Lone Star, is their minister of Music and Youth. It was a privilege to get to see all the relatives and friends in the area. Mrs. Julian came home Monday evening. An old friend, Mrs. Alvin Nichols lives there at Sweetwater, and she is getting along fine now, after being on the sick list for several weeks.

AFDC payments up

The Texas Board of Human Resources Thursday raised the level of assistance payments to welfare families beginning in September, and added a special one-time bonus for August.
In August the typical Texas welfare family—a mother and two children—will receive a $100 bonus in AFDC payments and food stamps combined.
In September, the maximum monthly check for a mother and two children receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children will increase to $148, up $31 from July's payment.
J. Livingston Kosberg, chairman of the Human Resources board, said the raise in AFDC payments was made possible by increased appropriations voted by the 68th Legislature for the state fiscal year beginning in September 1.
The one-month bonus in August, Kosberg said, was supported by Gov. Mark White, Lt. Gov. William P. Hobby, House Speaker Gib Lewis, Senator Grant Jones and Rep. Bill Presnal. Jones chairs the Senate Finance Committee and Presnal is chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.
In August, combined maximum benefits from the AFDC and food stamp programs will total $513 for a family of three. The special August increase will add approximately 1,500 families to the AFDC caseload for that month only, making these families eligible also for Medicaid health care in August.
To accomplish both actions, the Human Resources Board raised the AFDC "need standard" for the first time since 1969. The standard serves as a criterion of eligibility and is the basis for setting AFDC payment levels. The board then voted an increase in AFDC grants for August, based on the revised need standard and incorporating a special payment normally granted in August for children's school needs. This permitted maximum use of federal matching funds at minimal cost to the state.
In recent years, the special payments for children have been paid twice a year, separate from the basic grant. Beginning in September, they will be incorporated into the regular monthly AFDC grant.

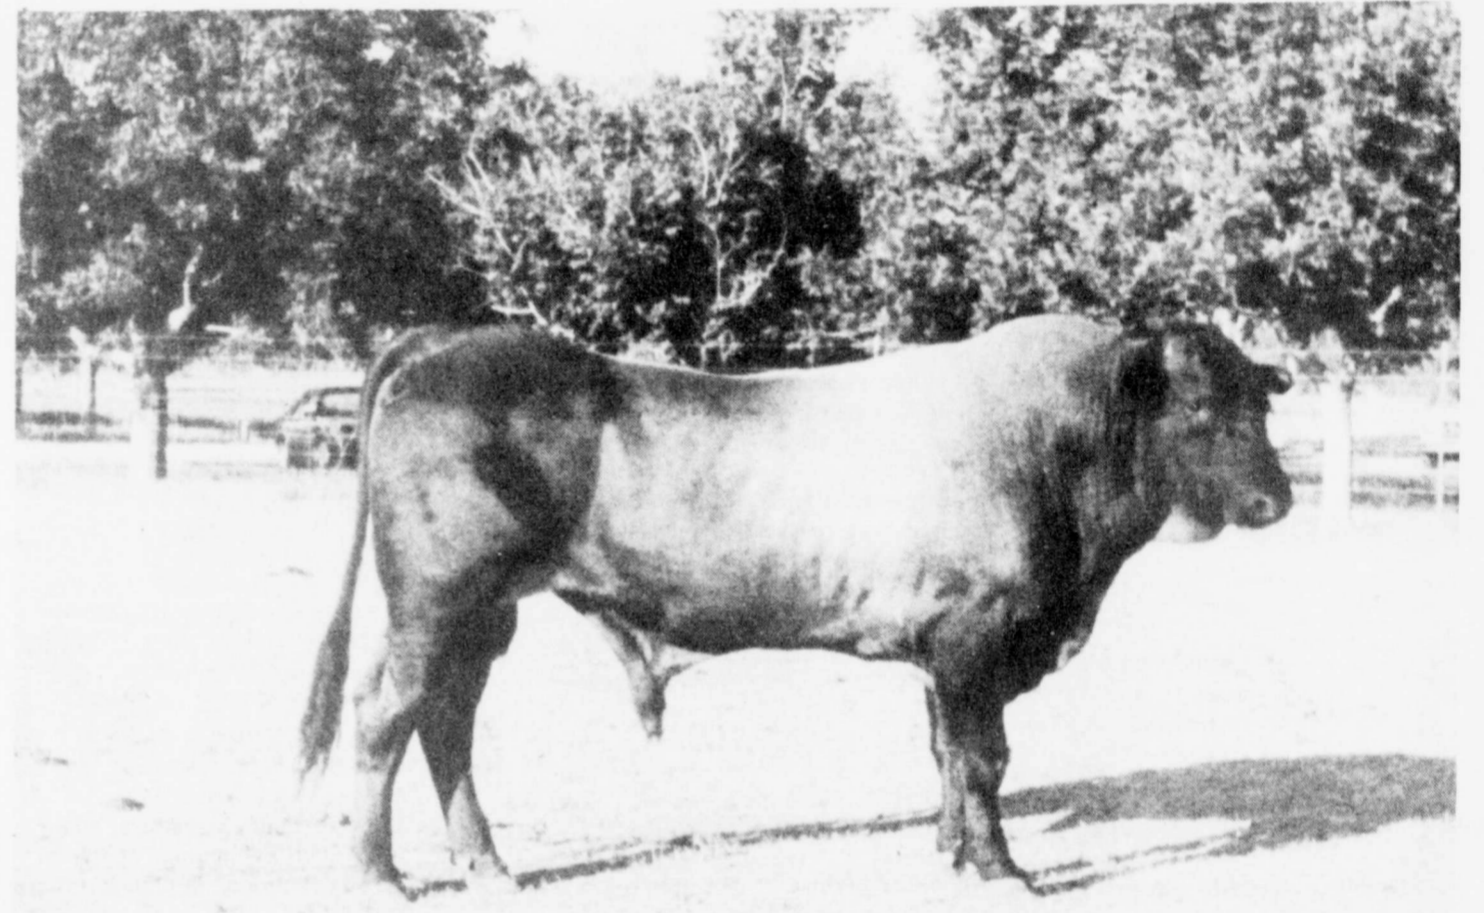

FARM NEWS

Paymaster to host annual tour

Paymaster announces its annual Research Farm Tour and Field Day scheduled for August 30, 1983 at the research center located 10 miles east of Plainview, on US 70 nad 3 miles north on FM 2301. Registration is scheduled for 9 a.m.-9:30 a.m., and tours starting at 9:30 a.m. A fried chicken and fish lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. All farmers and agribusinessmen are cordially invited.
Visitors will view research efforts toward hybrid cotton and its commercial adaptation. Discussions of hybrid cotton and pure line variety research will be conducted by Dr. Delbert Hess, Cotton Research Manager and Dr. Jerry Rice, Cotton Breeder. Dr. Charles Berry, Sorghum Research Manager and Senior Sorghum Breeder, Dr. N. W. Kramer along with Sorghum Breeder Dr. Matthew Ries and Pathologist Robert Miller will host discussions and demonstrations on new research on sorghum developments, plus new and improved grain and forage sorghum hybrids. Hybrid corn research will be discussed by Gary Duncan along with demonstrations of new yellow dent hybrids for maximizing yield plus yellow dent white cob hybrids and new white corn hybrids for quality food corn production. Hybrid sunflowers and soybean varieties specifically adapted to the High Plains will be viewed.

In addition to specific hybrids for specialized areas, studies devoted to improved profitability and cost efficiency in crop production will be discussed by the Paymaster sales and research staff. Personnel will be available to discuss Bounty Hybrid wheat and its effect on Southwest agriculture in the 1980's.
Wind erosion up slightly
Wind damaged 8 percent more land in the Great Plains during the 1982-83 blowing season than it did during the same period a year earlier.
Peter C. Myers, chief of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service, said final season reports from the 10-state area indicate wind damaged 5,541,265 acres, up slightly from 5,107,985 wind-damaged acres for the same November-through-May period in 1981-82.
Despite the increase, Myers said, the wind erosion damage figure is not abnormally high. Damage that did occur was due primarily to low levels of protective residue.
Wet soils in many areas resulted in a drop in damaged acres.
Texas accounted for 33 percent of all land damaged. The Northern Plains reported 54 percent of the damaged acreage.
Sixty-eight percent of the land reported damaged was cropland, 30 percent was rangeland and 2 percent was other land.
Soil Conservation Service specialists rate land as damaged if enough soil has been removed or deposited to subject the land to further erosion hazards or to impair its productive capacity.

Each year, the USDA agency compiles wind erosion reports covering seven months -- November through May -- using data supplied by 541 counties in the 10 Great Plains states.
The Chianina breed in its brief eleven-year history has grown to a sizeable segment of the seed stock produced.
Originally from Italy, used as oxen, the Chianina was imported to Canada in the early 1970's.
Due to import/export laws the only way the United States could start the breed was through artificial insemination.
In 1975 U.S.-Canada import laws changed and the Chianina could be imported from Canada into the U.S. Now the Chianina can be imported directly from Italy.
The Chianina is the largest framed, fastest growing breed in the world.
A mature full blood Chianina bull will scale 74 inches in height and can weigh up to 4000 lbs. The female Chianina may reach 60-68 inches in height and weigh up to 2400 lbs.
Larry Golden, a farmer and Chianina breeder in Lockney said he experienced increased winning weights from 75 to 125 lbs. in only one generation using full blood Chianina and Argus cows.
The breed's unparalleled growth traits and size combined with a refined profile and structural correctness have made it

"EXPLOSION" looks as gentle as a lamb at his home on the Edmund Brown ranch, southeast of Floydada. The Chianina bull, owned by auctioneer Kenneth Gregg is almost 7 ft. tall and weighs approximately 1500 lbs.

New breed of cattle raised in Floyd County

Due to import/export laws the only way the United States could start the breed was through artificial insemination.
In 1975 U.S.-Canada import laws changed and the Chianina could be imported from Canada into the U.S. Now the Chianina can be imported directly from Italy.
The Chianina is the largest framed, fastest growing breed in the world.
A mature full blood Chianina bull will scale 74 inches in height and can weigh up to 4000 lbs. The female Chianina may reach 60-68 inches in height and weigh up to 2400 lbs.
Larry Golden, a farmer and Chianina breeder in Lockney said he experienced increased winning weights from 75 to 125 lbs. in only one generation using full blood Chianina and Argus cows.
The breed's unparalleled growth traits and size combined with a refined profile and structural correctness have made it the industry's leading "size breed" in crosses with English breed cows.

The majority of crossbred steers and heifers appearing in the nation's showing competitions are some percent Chianina.
The breed's expanding members are now more and more purchased by profit-minded commercial cowmen. The proven calving ease and calf livability make sense to many dollar-conscious stockmen.

Goat virus discovery could reveal cure for human rheumatoid arthritis

According to the Arthritis Foundation, most rheumatoid arthritis first affects people in the prime of life--between the ages of 25 and 55. Sufferers with the disease have inflamed joints, and the protective cartilage and the end of joint bones are eaten away.
Adult goats infected by caprine arthritis-encephalitis can suffer from swollen, disfigured joints of arthritis, and kids or young goats suffer from encephalitis and progressive paralysis.
But few goats--only about 3 percent in the United States--ever show any signs at all of the disease. Infected goats without symptoms can transmit the diseases, thus posing a major problem for the U.S. goat industry.
Sometimes called "big knee disease," caprine arthritis-encephalitis may infect more than 80 percent of the U.S. domestic dairy goat population.

The disease, which surfaced in the late 60's, was identified in 1979 as a retrovirus--one that produces a disease only after a long incubation and persists throughout the life of the host.
"Though a vaccine against caprine arthritis-encephalitis has yet to be found," Adams said, "control measures have been developed." Using procedures developed through the experiments of his research team, he was able to bring the disease under control and prevent it from spreading.
Adams and co-researchers found that the disease is transmitted to goat kids shortly after birth--mainly through colostrum (the fluid mothers secrete for a few days after birth) and milk.
Research showed that heat can kill the virus without harming protective antibodies in the colostrum.
Separating kid goats from their mothers at birth and feeding them colostrum that has been heated for one hour at 56 degrees Celsius (133 degrees Fahrenheit) and pasteurized milk until they are weaned, Adams said, prevents further infections and can eventually eradicate the disease from a herd.

Contact between infected does and non-infected kids should be kept to a minimum, he said, since mothers could transmit the virus through their saliva and other secretions.
"We have no evidence at the present time that humans can be infected by the virus. However, we still recommend that goat milk be pasteurized in order to inactivate the virus," Adams said.
Adams' research team, based at Washington State University, cooperated with the rheumatoid section of the University of Washington's medical school in Seattle in discovering the virus.

Lakeview News

By Joyce Williams

Jeff Andrews of Lubbock spent the week-end with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston. He attended the City Park Church of Christ with them, as well as the back-to-school supper for the entire congregation. Jeff has been working for KLLL Radio, but will start with a computer company as he begins a new semester at Texas Tech University.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop and Greg ate supper Friday evening with Holt Bishop. Other guests were the host's daughter and her family, Shirley and Jim Peggram of Nazareth. Also the Peggram's daughter and her family, Kristy and Mike Pennington and little two year old daughter. The Penningtons have been living in Missouri and are preparing to leave for the mission field in Venezuela, South America. They plan to leave the last of December.

Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood McClintock of Morton came over and spent the week-end with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane McClintock. Rance Golightly joined them in a fishing party to White River on Friday. They had good luck and the host and their guests returned to the lake on Saturday.

Rodney Rathel left Wednesday morning for Fullerton, California, where he will attend law school.

Tal Jackson of Spearman, son of Scarlett and Punk Jackson, stopped by at the home of his uncle, Choise Smith, for a visit with his cousins, Jody, Dean, and Hunter on Sunday. He had been visiting in Lubbock with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Flukie Smith, both of whom had been in the hospital. Flukie was in for about five days, and Charlie was hospitalized for two weeks.

Austin Williams celebrated his birthday Tuesday with a party at his home. Guests included Jim Thrasher, Cody Paty, Amanda Ogden, Joel Hines, his sister, Ashleigh Williams, his cousin, Amanda Williams, Mrs. Q.D. Williams, Mrs. Monte Williams and his mother, Mrs. James Williams. A Return of the Jedi theme was used in paper napkins and plates. The chocolate cake was decorated with a robot pencil sharpener and erasers in Jedi designs. The rain kept the children indoors at the beginning of the party, but sunshine was out before long. However, for Lakeview farmers, the rain stopped at the railroad track. Dry as a bone south of there.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayne Golightly and children, Rance and Lacy, entertained Penny's family for Sunday dinner in their new house. Guests included Cheryl and Donnie Guess, Amy and Bryan of Lvelland, and Mr. and Mrs. Duane McClintock. The Golightly's phone in the country has not been taken out, due to the phone strike. They will have the same number in town. Their friends have dialed their number and it rings and rings in the country house at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Womack were hosts for a family supper Saturday evening. Guests included his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Womack, Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Copp and Jody of Lazbuddie, and Tracy Womack.

Miss Jody Smith, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith moved into Stavgel Hall at Texas Tech University Saturday. She is over there a week early in order to participate in Rush Week. She plans to major in Home Economics.

The Moosebergs recent guests were her sister, Mrs. Margie B. Knight of Nacogdoches, Texas and B's daughter Mrs. Karol Linthicum and 3 children of Universal City San Antonio. One day women and children visited June, Tommy and Rolf Sherman at Lockney. June and Karol had not seen each other in 8 years.

Education program offered for infants

This community, as many others, receives the services of the Rural Infant Education Program. This program is an infant education and stimulation program sponsored by Central Plains Mental Health/Mental Retardation Center in Plainview. The program is also partially funded through a grant from the Early Childhood Intervention of Texas.

The program offers services to the residents of Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Fkoyd, Hale, Lamb, Motley, Parmer, and Swisher counties and the children referred to the program must have a physical or mental handicap or a developmental delay or be classified as developmentally disabled or as a high risk infant. The child must reside in the nine county area and parents must be willing to cooperate.

Services offered in this program are a transdisciplinary assessment which is provided for each child. This includes psychological, educational, medical, sociological evaluation with physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy assessments given as needed.

When the child is enrolled in the program, he/she will have an individual treatment plan for his special needs in the following areas: daily living skills such as feeding, dressing, toileting, etc., walking, jumping, etc., fine motor skills such as grasping and releasing objects, use of small objects of manipulate objects, language beginning with the development of cooing and babbling and leading to speaking in sentences, cognitive skills developing thinking skills and problem solving skills, sensory training skills, training in developing abilities in the five senses hearing, seeing, feeling, smelling, and tasting. Other training will be provided according to the child's needs such as physical therapy, occupational therapy and speech therapy. Services for this program are free of charge.

If you know a child that is old enough to walk but is not walking, a child who is old enough to talk but is not talking, or a child that was born under conditions that might be risky to that child, you can refer this child by calling 983-2584 or writing to RIEP, 710 Quincy, Plainview, Texas 79072.

Domestic Guidelines

By Mary True

About this time of year, everyone's freezer is full of frozen vegetables, fruits, meats and many other costly items.

It would be terrible for the freezer to stop working! Occasionally food freezers stop operating normally and foods may be thawed or partially thawed before the situation is discovered.

You may safely refreeze foods that have been thawed if they still contain ice crystals. Be sure there is no color or odor change before refreezing. This is especially true of shellfish, vegetables, and cooked foods because bacteria contained in these foods multiply rapidly causing spoilage. If the condition of any food is questionable, dispose of it!

Generally, a fully loaded, non-functioning freezer will say cold enough to keep food frozen for two days if not opened. In a freezer with less than half of load, food will remain frozen for about one day.

Dry ice can be placed in the freezer to help maintain freezing temperatures. If placed in the freezer soon after power is off, 25 pounds should keep the temperature below freezing 2 or 3 days in a 10-cubic-foot cabinet with half a load; 3 to 4 days in a loaded cabinet.

Place the dry ice on cardboard or small boards on top of packages of foods and do not open freezer again except to put in more dry ice or to remove it when normal operation is resumed.

If it is necessary, food may be moved to a locker plant. Use insulated boxes, blankets or thick layers of paper to prevent thawing. Food which has been moved to the locker plant should be chilled to 0 degrees F. before moving again after your food freezer is operating normally.

Tulia to host tourney

Everyone is invited to enter the second annual adult tennis tournament at Tulia September 10-11. The tournament is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and trophies will be given all first and second winners.

Number one courts will be at Mackenzie Park in south Tulia. The open men and womens singles begins at 8 a.m. Saturday, doubles at 1 p.m. Mixed doubles and over 35 events will begin at 1 p.m. Sunday.

Entry fee is $7.00 per person per event. No player may enter more than three events. Make checks to Tulia Chamber of Commerce. Send entry to Box 267, Tulia, Texas, 79058, or W. M. Tooley, Drawer 87, Tulia, Texas, 79088.

An earlier tournament sponsored by the chamber played junior highs and high school players. However, high school players may enter this open adult division tournament.

Card of Thanks

I would like to thank my husband Harvey and my children Dale, Nancy and La Nell and my grandchildren and great grandson and all the other relatives and friends who had a part in making my birthday such a wonderful day and the surprise party. Thanks to all the wonderful friends who took out to be present and for all the beautiful gifts and cards. I will never forget this birthday and family and friends.

It was so nice to be remembered in such a beautiful way.

Marie Tardy

We want to thank everyone for the flowers, cards, and calls while Grady was in the hospital. Also for those who were with me while he was in surgery. We really appreciate Dr. Hong and Dr. Hale and all the employees at Caprock Hospital. We are so thankful for such a wonderful hospital and staff so we could be at home and still receive such good care. Thanks to everyone.
