Licenses have new look and new classification

Effective January 1, 1984, the State of Texas began issuing and renewing drivers licenses under a Classified License Plan. All expiring Texas Operator, Commercial Operator, and Chauffer Licenses are being renewed for an equivalent class of license without additional examination.

The new class of license is indicated on a Certificate of Current Status along with the new expiration date. A description of the type of vehicles a driver is authorized to operate under their class will be shown on the card.

The class a driver is placed under authorizes operation of the same size and type vehicles they have been previously authorized for. The Classified system is based completely on the size and type vehicle being operated instead of whether the vehicle is used as a private passenger vehicle or light truck, commercial transporting vehicle, or transporting passengers for hire.

Class A-Permits operations of any vehicle or combination of vehicles including Class B or Class C. This does not include motorcycles or mopeds. Minimum age 18, with Driver Education or Minors Restricted Driver License (Hardship), age 17.

Class B-Permits operation of a single unit vehicle with a gross weight of more than 24,000 pounds or when towing a vehicle not to exceed 10,000 pounds GVW or a farm trailer not to exceed 20,000 pounds GVW, a bus with a capacity of 24 passengers or more and Class C vehicles. This does not include motorcyles or mopeds. Minimum age 18, with Driver Education or Minors Restricted Driver License (Hardship), age 17. Class C-Permits operation of a single unit, two-axle vehicle with a gross weight of 24,000 pounds or less or when towing a vehicle not to exceed 10,000 pounds GVW or a farm trailer not to exceed 20,000 pounds GVW, or a bus with a seating capacity of less than 24 passengers, not including the driver. This does not include motorcycles or mopeds. Minimum age 18, with Driver Education or Minors Restricted Driver License (Hardship), age 15.

Class M-Permits operation of motorcycles, motor-driven cycles, or mopeds. Motorcyle and motor-driven cycle, minimum age 18; motorcycle age 16 with motorcyle Driver Education or Minors Restricted Driver License (Hardship); motor-driven cycle age 15 with motorcyle Driver Education or Minors Restricted Driver License (Hardship). Moped minimum age 15, Driver Education not required.

Class P-An instruction Permit for any class license will continue to be the non-photograph paper license printed in green.

"Gross weight" and "seating capacity" have the meanings assigned to those terms by Article 6675a-6 V.C.S.

All classes of licenses - originals and renewals will be issued for four (4) years. The fee is ten dollars ($10.00). Provisional License fees are computed on the basis of annual prorated cost of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per year with a minimum one-year fee of four dollars ($4.00), expiration on the eighteenth (18th) birthday.

Instruction Permits will be issued for one year from the next birthday for a fee of four dollars ($4.00).

Occupational License are issued for one year for a fee of ten dollars ($10.00). These licenses will be issued from the DPS Headquarters in Austin.

An examiniation fee of five dollars ($5.00) is required of an applicant who is changing from a lower to a higher class or adding Class M to an existing valid license.

The duplicate fee is three dollars ($3.00).

carried with the license. Loss of the license or "Certificate of Current Status" by a licensee will require the issuance of duplicate at a driver license office.

DPS officer Keith Gross said, "If renewing by mail, to do so as soon as the invitation is received in order to get back your new license before the old one expires.'

License or Identification Card holders may change their address by mail. They must submit the request on a form provided by the Department, mailed to the Department of Public Safety in Austin, along with the fee of $3.00 dollars. The form (DL-64) will be made available in driver license offices and other public places. Drivers may also change their address in person at a driver license office.

The Department will issue a "Certificate of Current Status" to validate mail-in change of address. The certificate must be carried with the license. The driving test must be given in the class vehicle the applicant is being licensed to drive. Class C-A single unit vehicle with no more than two axles and gross vehicle weight not to exceed 24,000 pounds or a bus with a seating capacity of less than 24 passengers, not including the driver.

THESE DUNCAN ELEMENTARY students hurry into the building out of the crisply cool morning as Floydada public schools resumed classes Wednesday morning.

Happy New Year. This is going to be a good year. Here on the rim of the caprock the rains have come, along with some less desirable forms of precipitation. Ducks are on lakes where only a few short months ago there was blowing dust. Moisture needed for winter cover and spring crops is deep in the soil. The terrible overhang of surplus farm commodities has been reduced, and a world wide improvement in national economics promises to improve the prospects of overseas markets. A lot os us have lived long enough to know that things can change between now and harvest time, but with a little luck and some help from the skies we will all be

A Ms. Jane Hickey, who must be an authority on such things, since she is quoted in the Dallas Times Herald, thinks "it is outrageous' that Ms. DeMarco is being denied her full salary. Ms. Hickey has a

The theme of this year's convention is "United and Strong: Farmers Union". It will focus attention on the successes of the past and the challenges of the future: to strengthen ranks, voice and impact at the grass roots level.

ADULT ED. CLASS

Adult Education Classes for those wanting to prepare for G.E.D., or would like to have English as a second language, drivers ed., etc. will be offered at R.C. Andrews School Monday and Tuesday evenings from 6:30-9:00 p.m. For more information call 983-3134 or 983-3337 after 4 p.m.

A current license continues in effect according to its terms for the period it was issued or until it is converted to a Classified License.

An Operator's License will convert to a Class C License.

A Commercial License will convert to a Class A License.

A full Chauffeur's License will convert to a Class A License.

A code F Chauffeur's License will convert to a Class C License.

Persons with a motorcycles endorsement (H) will have the Class M added to their license Class A, B, or C. Thus having two license classes on one license. Class M can be added to A, B, or C.

Applicants with a license restricted to a motor-assisted bicycle will be converted to a Class M License with a "K" restriction (Moped).

A driver can have only a Class A. Class B, or Class C License. There are no combinations of these.

Any Field issue (original, renewal or duplicate) after January 1, 1984, will be a Classified License.

Licenses issued after January 1, 1984, will be preprinted in red with only the license information and identification typed in black.

An expired license may be converted and renewed up to two years from its expiration date. The expiration date will be four (4) years from the last birthday. Beginning January 1, 1984, driver licenses may be renewed by mail. The Department will mail invitations to persons who are eligible and only those receiving the invitation from Austin will be permitted to renew a license in this manner. The new law provides that provisional and occupational licenses and licensees who have had a moving traffic conviction or suspension in the last four (4) years may not renew by mail. Persons who receive the mail-in invitation may also renew the license in person at a driver license office.

The Department will issue a "Certificate of Current Status" to validate a mail-in renewal. The certificate must be

Class B—A single unit vehicle with a gross vehicle weight in excess of 24,000 pounds or a bus with a seating capacity of 24 or more passengers. Class A-A motor vehicle-trailer combination where the gross vehicle weight of the trailer is in excess of 10,000 pounds GVW or a farm trailer in excess of 20,000 pounds GVW, or vehicles with token trailer plates.

The gross vehicle weight should be determined by the vehicle registration receipts or by any other means that establishes gross vehicle weight. Motorcyle-Any motorcyle with more than 125cc piston displacement.

Motor-driven cycle-a motorcyle that does not exceed 125cc piston displacement.

Moped-a motor-driven cycle whose speed attainable in one mile is not more than 30 miles per hour with a motor which produces not more than 2 brake horsepower or a piston displacement of not more than 50cc. No driving test is required for a moped license and the power system may not require the operator to shift gears. A moped may not be used to take the driving test for a motorcycle or motor-driven cycle license

Applicants who hold valid licenses from a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a province of Canada will be given all tests given to original applicants except the driving test when all valid out of state licenses are surrendered. The class of license issued will equal the class of license from the other state. To obtain a Class A license without a driving test, the out of state license must have permitted the operation of combination vehicles.

When an applicant refuses to surrender all valid out of state license in his possession, no Texas license will be issued.

FLORENCE VANHOOSE

Down in Austin, things are looking us as well. Our distinguished Attorney General, Jim Mattox has been indicted on criminal charges and faces trial, if things proceed normally, sometime in the spring or summer. Mattox's attorney was quoted in the press as saying they would need $200,000 to $300,000 in expenses before the case was ever brought to trial, and much of Austin's legal and lobby fraternity sprang to action to see that the money, or at least a part of it, was on hand. What have they got to lose? If Mattox wins his case, they will have been on the side of the political angels. If he loses, all they will have lost is the price of a ticket to the cocktail party called to help defray Mattox's expenses. At any rate, with a little luck we may have the opportunity to elect a new Attorney General in the next General Election.

And our State Commissioner of Agriculture. Jim Hightower, is in the news again (and again and again). Only this time the stories have a new twist. It seems that the woman with whom he has been living for low these many years, a Ms. Susan DeMarco from New Jersey, and who Hightower has installed as his top assistant in charge of developing his (or her) marketing programs, hiring his staff, or at least parts of it, and generally acting as his alter ego, is, out of defferance to the nepotism laws, only being paid $1 per year. There are those who think this is wrong, that she ought to be paid the full $49,000 per year, since she is not married to Hightower, and since, turns out to be a good Commissioner, he says, "no amount of gossipy stuff will be relevant to the people." He may be right, but he may also be wrong. The Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, Rep. Leroy Weiting of Portland, is taking a somewhat dim view of the fact that Hightower and DeMarco are living together without being married. And in terms of laws affecting the State Department of Agriculture, his views will ultimately influence what happens.

Speaking personally, now that the whole thing has become public, I predict that Hightower and Ms. De-Marco will be married before the next election in which he figures, if he decides to run again for anything.

Then there is the case of Clinton Manges, the South Texas political wheel horse, over whom the current crop of state political leaders have fawned for years. Clint is now in a squabble with the authorities in San Antonio, according to the press, over where his fledgling football team is going to play. He is said to be threatening to move his franchise to Austin. That is only fitting and proper, considering how much he has invested in state office holders. He really ought to be close, so he can look after his investments.

Again, Happy New Year. It's gonna be interesting.

Two arrested on assault charges

Floyd County Sheriff Fred Cardinal reported only one DWI in Floydada over the holiday. The offender went to trial Tuesday morning and was fined $350.00, $72.00 court cost and 10 days in the Floyd County jail.

Another Floydada man was arrested on two counts of assault on a peace officer here late Saturday night. He is presently being held in the Floyd County jail under $20,000.00 bond on each count.

Activity director named

The Floydada Nursing Home has a new activity director. She is Florence VanHoose.

Mrs. VanHoose has completed the 80 hour activity directors course at South Plains College in Lubbock and is a certified activity director.

Plains Convalescent Center in Plainview, she and her husband George VanHoose are residing at 328 West Missouri here in Floydada. Her husband is the pastor of the Trinity Church of Floydada. When asked why she went into this profession Mrs. VanHoose said "I wanted to minister to people."

She said she will begin a Bible study class on "Women of the Bible" this week and hopes to be "having some art classes and demonstrations for the residents."

DELISE MITCHELL McGUIRE

Former society editor turns "world traveler"

Delise Mitchell McGuire came to Floydada as a young girl. In 1918 and 1919 she was attending high school in Floydada while she stayed with her uncle, C.W. Mitchell and at the old Viles Hotel. In 1920 she graduated from Floydada High School.

Her father, R.B. Mitchell and uncle owned Mitchell Brothers Hardware, located where Thompson's Pharmacy is presently.

In 1925 she married Robert McGuire, before embarking on her five-year career with the Floyd County Hesperian as Society Editor. She worked with newspaper "great" Homer Steen. Having worked at the paper until her first son was born, she was honored by the staff putting out a special edition at his birth.

It was then that Steen made it possible for her to write for the American Guild. She wrote stories about such local landmarks as the Pitchfork and Rex Rogers ranches as well as personalities like Colonel Montgomery.

In 1951 she and her husband moved to Anton where they purchased a department store. After her husband was killed in an automobile accident in 1967, she continued to operate the store for several years.

Her oldest son, Bob, former resident and teacher in Floydada, invited her to come spend some time with him in England. It was at that time she began with her son Bob. "I like the English people, they are very carefree. They don't rush around like most Americans and they aren't so money conscience." said Mrs. McGuire. "When the English people decide to accept you, there is not anything they won't do for you."

Mrs. McGuire enjoys taking care of her son, visiting with their neighbors, and gardening. She said she is particularly proud of some "Hawaiian lettuce Nancy Hagood gave her while she was visiting them in Hawaii."

Recently "a gypsy woman" came to her door. "She came to sell me a brush and said she would tell my fortune. She said I would be moving back home within two years.'

Mrs. McGuire isn't too sure about that prediction, but is happy with things the way they are.

On her recent visit to the states she visited her son Don, who lives in Lubbock, Dan and Nancy Hagood of Floydada, along with Nell Swinson and several other friends.

With her charm and wit Mrs. McGuire laughs and talks her way into the hearts and homes of all she meets.

Bishop Sheehan to visit church here Sunday

St. Mary Magdalen Catholic Church will be visited by Bishop Michael Sheehan of the Lubbock Diocese Sunday.

Special services and activities are planned for that day in celebration of the event. The theme will be "Love one another constantly." I Pet. 1:3-6.

Sheehan, 43, is the youngest bishop to be elected in the United States. Before he was elected in June his parish was at Grand Prairie, Texas. He became bishop of the Lubbock Diocese upon the Amarillo Diocese being divided into two dioceses. The Lubbock Diocese embraces 25 counties, consisting of 35 parish and 23 mission churches.

Members of the Christian Formation Classes, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Ricky

Vasquez, have been working inside the building this week to completely give it a facelift.

About 30 of the high school aged young people have worked at sealing the cracks in the classrooms, applying a primer, and finally painting all the interior walls.

Contractors have been hired to complete the brick work at the entrances of the building. Signs at the building are also being repainted in anticipation of the event.

A special mass and music will be held at 12:00 noon, followed by a covered dish luncheon. A local prayer group will furnish the entertainment during the meal. A Children's Program will follow the meal.

A FEW OF THE MEMBERS of the Christian Formation Classes along with other workers worked Monday in preparation for a visit by Bishop Michael Sheehan, of the Lubbock Diocese for special services Sunday.

Sales of U.S. Savings Bonds during the period January through September 1983 in Texas amounted to $202,122,865, an increase of 28.5% over the same period a year ago, John W. Dixon, Chairman of the Board and CEO of E-Systems, Inc. in Dallas and Volunteer State Chairman for Texas, announced. These sales represent 90.0% of the state's 1983 assigned dollar goal of $224,700,000.

Sales of Series EE Bonds were $2,601.00 during September 1983. for a total of $54,662.00 for the first ninemonths of 1983 in Floyd County, Lewis McDaniel, Volunteer County Chairman, said.

Nationally, September 1983 sales of Series EE Bonds amounted to $315 million, up 22% over September 1982, making a nine-month total of $3.06 billion, an increase of 32%. Savings Bonds held by the public amounted to $70.6 billion as of September 30. an increase of $272 million for the month.

According to County Chairman Mc-Daniel, the U.S. Treasury Department has announced a market-based interest rate of 9.38 percent for the first semiannual interest period of Series EE Bonds issued between November 1. 1983 and April 20, 1984. This is the third semiannual rate to take effect since the market-based, variable rates were introduced a year ago. The combined market-based rates -- 11.09% from November 1982 to April 1983; 3.65% from May to October 1983 and this latest one of 9.38% for November 1. 1983 to April 30, 1984 -- make the average yield 9.70 percent for the three periods. Older Series EE and E Bonds and U.S. Savings Notes also receive the variable rate; however, all Bonds must be held at least five years from their date of purchase or November 1, 1982 (whichever is later) to receive these rates.

Candlelight ceremony unites Mathis-Wilson

A candlelight wedding ceremony at 6 p.m. Saturday in First United Methodist Church of Lockney united Miss Karen Beth Mathis and Mr. James Aaron Wilson.

The double ring service was directed by Frank Duckworth, minister of West College and Third Street Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mathis and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jackson, all of Lockney.

The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Carthel of Plainview. The groom is a grandson of Mrs. A.S. Jones of Lockney.

Candlelight for the exchange of marriage promises was provided by a candle arch and spiral candelabra which were accented with tropical greenery and sonia satin bows. A formal altar arrangement of sonia roses, freesia and gladiola was complemented on each side by heart candelabra to complete the nuptial setting. Candles were lighted by the groom's niece, Julie Bruce of Childress. The aisle pews were marked with hurricane candles tied with tropical foliage and satin bows of sonia and peacock blue.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, Warren Mathis. The bride chose a white chiffon gown designed with a high neckline outlined in Schiffli embroidery. A ruffled flounce formed a yoke also outlined in the Schiffli. The Victorian sleeves were covered in Schiffli and ribbon lace and tied at the elbows with a ruffle and satin bow. The natural waistline of the dress was accented with Venise lace. The fullness of the floorlength skirt was swept to the back with Venise lace medallions embellishing the skirt. A wide flounce of Schiffli and ribbon lace edged the hem and extended around the semi-cathedral train. To complete her ensemble, the bride wore a matching picture hat that was covered in embroidered Schiffli and ribbon lace, and was accented with satin ribbon streamers.

The bridal bouquet was a contemporary cascade of sonia roses, freesia and English ivy and was carried atop a Bible loaned by her sister, D'Lyn Morris. The Bible cover was loaned by her sister-inlaw, Ginger Mathis. Inside the Bible was a bookmark tatted by Mrs. J.D. Copeland. Tied in the bouquet was "something old", the wedding ring of floor-length gowns of peacock blue taffeta. The matron and bridesmaids' dresses were designed with high necklines and yokes outlined in dyed-to match Schiffli embroidery with a ruffled flounce forming the yokes and accenting the short puffed sleeves. The long skirts fell from natural waistlines and were edged with a wide ruffled flounce caught in a bustle in back. Each attendant carried a nosegay of sonia roses and English ivy accented with peacock blue streamers.

All female attendants were dressed in

The flower girls wore gowns designed with ruffle flounce neckline and short puffed sleeves edged in a ruffle. The natural waistline was accented with a self-fabric bow and the skirt fell to floor-length with a ruffled flounce forming the hemline and bustle back. They carried white baskets filled with flower petals.

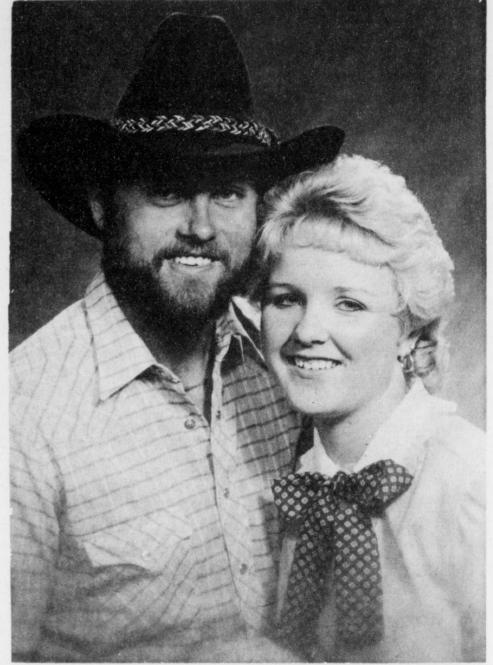

The groom's tuxedo was white. Rusty Wilson served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Jody Foster and Dwight Jackson, the groom's cousin. Ushers were Mike Mathis, brother of the bride; Mark Mathis of Plainview, their cousin; Jeff Terrell and Randy Ford. They all wore silver gray tuxedoes.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathis hosted the reception in the church fellowship hall. The-bride's table was covered with white satin overlaid with a floor-length gathered cloth of white tulle and lace. Centerpice was a formal arrangement of sonia roses and gladiola on a silver candelabra which held blue tapers. The bride's white cake was an arrangement of four small cakes surrounding a gazebo filled with flowers and topped with three tiers decorated with sonia roses and gladiola. The upper cake was topped with white satin wedding bells in a heart-shaped, beaded frame. A silver punch service completed the table. Serving at the bride's table were Mary Huffman, Robin Hardy and Julie Reecer. The wedding cake was cut with the knife used at the bride's parents' wedding reception 28 years ago.

Amy Shaw and Barbara Moore assisted guests at the groom's table which was covered with a white floor-length cloth centered with a runner of peacock blue monogrammed with a "W" on each end. Appointments of brass were used to serve coffee, spiced tea, German chocolate cake iced in light chocolate and trimmed with swags of and Boyd.

The bridesmaid's luncheon was given by Mrs. Hershel Carthel, Mrs. Lindan Morris and Mrs. Mike Mathis, grandmother, sister and sister-in-law, respectively, of the bride. The event was held Thursday noon in Tara Restaurant in Lubbock. The bridal attendants and family members were present, and special guests were Mrs. Gale McPherson, Mrs. Leo Mathis of Plainview. Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

by Winona Jackson

You ask what it's like in a Nursing Home.

Well, nothing can ever be like your own, But it's just what life has always been; A mixture of pleasure, trouble and pain. It's accepting the fact that youth is gone.

That help is needed to carry on. That help is needed to carry one. It's instant help when the need has come

It's loving concern from those still young:

It's a cheery wave, a hug or two, It's knowing that someone cares for

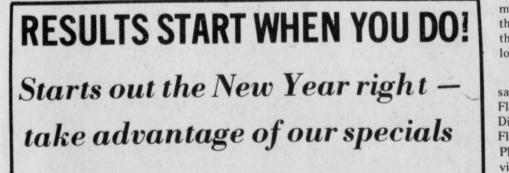

It's finding fault, complaining a lot, It's the feeling of security that you've got.

- It's wheelchairs, walkers, crutches, canes.
- It's music, singing, parties and games. It's chapel each morning, a time for prayer.
- It's a feeling of sadness at a vacant chair.

So with dear ones gone, sick and alone, It's thanking God for a Nursing Home.

By Mrs. Agnes Nelson, Resident Fort Wayne, Indiana Nursing Home

This poem reflects so well the Nursing Home Happenings each day.

A special thanks from the residents to Dallas Ramsey for his thoughtfulness and a special thanks to First Baptist Church and the donors for sending the memorial poinsettias to the Home for the residents to enjoy. The beauty of all the flower will continue to express the The staff and residents would like to say WELCOME to Florence Van Hoose. Florence will be the new Activity Director for Floydada Nursing Home. Florence has been Activity Director at Plains Convalescent Center in Plainview. She is well aware of all the responsibilities of an Activity Director and the interests and needs of the ideas which the residents are going to enjoy and look forward to. The residents are going to enjoy Florence! Our visitors and volunteers this week are: Mrs. Bill DuBois, Audie and Ruth Noland, Ruby Gooch, Hazel Bradley, Watson and Jean Jones, Deeota Odam, Dr. James Wester, Elvis and Lovelle Childs, Grady and Esther Freeman, Ira Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Neil, Mrs. B.A. Robertson, Odessa Riddley, Aimee Green, Vickie Green, Floyd Brashears, Bruce Lloyd, Tammy Lloyd, Cheryl Lloyd, Tracy Lloyd, and Jeanie Lloyd all of Abernathy, Mike Bean, Gayle Howard, Sally Day, Bill Day, Jason Westbrook, OJ and Mike Laurence, Bonnie Spann of Lubbock, and Dwayne, Nancy, Angela and Dwayla Myrick all from Dallas.

We were all saddened this week by the deaths of two of our residents, Earl Bishop and Jewell Norman. These two beautiful people were so blessed with good attitudes and sweet concern for others even in their own suffering. They were inspirations to many. Our thoughts are with their loving families.

Pappy Campbell is in Caprock Hospital this week. We miss him. Nora Norris is also in Caprock Hospital. We are looking forward to having these friends back with us soon.

Lakeview News

Jan. 5, 1984:

Earl Bishop was -buried in the Lakeview Cemetery Monday, Jan. 2, beside his wife, Lily. He was 97 years old. He'd lived at home or with his daughters, Lula Teague and Betty Howard, until the last few weeks, when he was admitted to the Floydada Rest Home. Mr. Bishop's casket was attended by a phalox of pallbearers including his nine grandsons, fifteen greatgrandsons, and three great-greatgrandsons, just as they had escorted Mrs. Bishop's casket when she was buried. His youngest descendant was three weeks old. Among his granddaughters and great-granddaughters there shone beautiful heads of red hair from sandy to brightest red to deep auburn. Many neighbors from Mt. Blanco and Lakeview as well as other communities were present to pay their respects to his family.

Mrs. Buell Neff's children, Donald and Pat Neff and their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Neff and baby all visited in Floydada Christmas afternoon. Ona Ruth returned to Lubbock with them that evening. On Monday all the Neff ladies went shopping at the after-Christmas sales. Monday afternoon late, all traveled to Littlefield where they visited Ona Ruth's daughter and family, Patricia and Bill Smith and daughters. They shared an informal supper and exchanged gifts around the Christmas tree. The Lubbock party returned home but their Mama stayed for a few days visit. Patricia brought her home Tuesday ahead of the blizzard that blew in.

The ice and prolonged low temperatures the week before and during Christmas caused many travelers to delay family visits.

Cattlemen with livestock on wheat fields or pastures were kept busy breaking ice and putting out feed. With no windbreak to shelter them, the cattle at least had water and feed to help survive the bitter cold.

Austin Williams spent several days helping his grandfather break ice and feed. Lakes were frozen 10"-12" thick. They even drove their pickup out on the frozen lakes. The woodstove kept them busy sawing mesquite logs at home. At night they sat around and cracked pecans they'd received for Christmas.

The Carl Moosebergs had an early Christma; on December 9 to 11th. because one of the sons-in-law works for an oil company and that date was convenient for his days off. Present were June, Tommy and Rolf Sherman of Lockney; Alice and Ken Steele of Perryton; Carla, Donny and Zade Winslow of Duncan, Ok. Joining the family on Saturday for their Christmas dinner were their friends, Mrs. Lorilla Bradley, and Mrs. Ed Lee of Matador. Charlotte Wright and son, Kenneth of Waco were here Christmas week to visit her father, Verlon Wrights aunt, Mrs. Buell Neff, and her brothers in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bishop visited in Oklahoma with Rozanne's parents for Christmas. Greg Bishop enjoyed a past-Christmas fishing trip to the Gulf Coast.

Mr. Earl Edwards is getting around very well with the aid of his cane.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams visited her father, Edgar Jones at Truscott for Christmas Eve and Day, after having the Floydada kin out for supper and exchange of gifts on Thursday. At Truscott Mr. Jones, who will be 80 years old in March, was up feeding his cattle every day by 6 a.m., and breaking ice in water troughs and tanks like a thirty year old. On Sunday it was so cold that the Church of Christ members called about the temperature at the church house and all decided to accept his invitation to hold church services in the library of his home. They gathered around the wood fire for Bible study, prayer, songs and communion. This was a new experience to the younger generation but the older ones recalled many other such times in their lifetimes when country roads were impassable: children were too small or sick to take out; or even during days of the Depression when there was just no money for gasoline, and families worshipped at home in all solemnity.

The ice and snow last week covered the fields and brought out the rabbits. Big herds of 50-100 gathered around feed stocks and ate the farmers feed. Floyd Whisenant killed fifty in one evening and neighbors came over and helped rid several dozen more the next evening. Remember last winter when herds of rabbits would run down the roadpaths between banks of snow?

Pretty weather the first days of the New Year, cold and sunny and nearly all the ice and snow gone as school children put aside their Christmas toys and return to school.

South Plains News

by Mrs. Murray Julian

Here it is a clean, fresh year for us. Happy New Year to each and every one! The weather is sunshiny, although cold, and at least some of the water in our homes has been restored, and the snow has almost melted, except for some big drifts in back yards, and other places.

Perhaps many people watched the New Years, Parades in Dallas and Pasadena, Calif. and perhaps someone you know was in that tremendous crowd. We had one of our people in the onlookers out there, Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham, who went on a tour with her sister, Edith Guggenheim from Amarillo.

There were few in our South Plains Baptist Church Sunday morning for services, with so many gone, and many with guests in their homes. Latham Dickens was a visitors with his grandmother, Mrs. Sylvin Kinnibrugh.

Tuesday, Dec. 20: Here it is nearly Christmas. Looks like we could have a white Christmas. Here it is the third day still snowing. Not heavy but constant. No drifts to speak of. Fine weather to enjoy a fireside. Visit with family or read a book.

Sunday morning crowds at church were slimmer because of the weather, but the reception for the going away of the Bradleys was well attended any way. So sorry to lose this dear family after his being pastor of First Baptist Church of Floydada for 22 years. What a record!

I received a letter yesterday (and card) from the Ruth and Ulman Mosses, our retired missionaries who now live in their own home at Cleburne and like it very much. After 38 years work in Columbia and Venezuela no wonder their hearts are still in the work.

The Henry Brewers had their Christmas family get together Sunday. There were 36 present. Monday, Jan. 2, 1984:

Here we are starting a New Year. Sunday was a sunny day mostly and so is today so far. Snow is practically all gone. We really had a white after Christmas. Mrs. Frank Dunn had a good Christmas. Her brother and wife, Floyd and Froncnce Montgomery of Plainview, and her children in Lubbock came.

Mrs. Hartline spent Wednesday in Plainview with her daughter and family. the Bob and June Landrys.

Mrs. Roe Jones had all her daughters home for Christmas except Wanda Huckaby of Stephenville.

Christmas dinner guests at the Thomas Warrens were all their children and families which included their daughter Elaine Stout and family of Muleshoe and Joyce and family of Floydada. Also present were Mrs. Ola Warren and Mrs. Fred Batty.

Mrs. Elmer Warren spent Christmas in Amarillo with a son and family. She came home Wednesday

The Henry Brewers company Christmas day were Glenna and Millard Watson and the Dean Watsons and family. Company on New Years Day were their son, Ervin Brewer and family of Lubbock.

Mrs. Wiley Rogers had all her children and families home for Christmas.

Mrs. Bud Warren is home again after several days in a Lubbock Hospital.

Mrs. Green enjoyed the Christmas dinner with all the Victor Greens in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Green, Plainview. Guests present were Sue Green's sister, Jane of Lubbock. Mrs. Jims' sister from Oklahoma. The one who came the longest distance was son Steve Green who came from Nashville, Tenn. and yours truly.

The Green Christmas get together schedule was snowed out. But another date set for soon.

Our sick - Mrs. Clarence Ashton of Lockney Rest Home, reported not quite so well as usual.

Our sympathy is with the loved ones and many friends of Mr. Earl Bishop whose last rites are scheduled for this afternoon. Let us remember all bereaved or anxious loved ones in our prayers.

Gerry Martinez honored at South Plains College

Gerry Martinez, James Puente and Tracey Wiley of Ralls have been named to the Dean's Honor List at South Plains College for the 1983 fall semester.

To qualify as a honor student at SPC. students must maintain a miminum 3.25 grade point average while enrolled for at least 12 semester hours. Students who earn a 4.0 GPA are named to the President's List.

"We wish to extend our congratulation to these fine students who have demonstrated academic excellance which is found at South Plains College," said Dr. Bud Joyner, vice president for academic affairs. "We are always proud of the students who are named to the President and Dean's Honor List.'

A total of 141 students were named to the President's List, and 301 students to the Dean's Lst for the fall 1983 semester at SPC.

Martinez is the son of Pat Martinez. manager of Floydada's Allsup's store. and his wife.

Local awarded scholarship

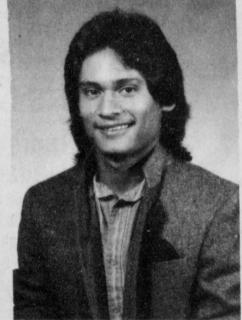

Julio Mendoza of Floydada has been awarded a Latin American Scholarship from the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Mr. Mendoza, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Mendoza, will attend Wayland Baptist University.

The Latin American Scholarships are funded by the Mary Hill Davis offering taken each fall in conjunction with a week of prayer for state missions by the 4,700 Southern Baptist congregations in Texas.

During the past 25 years, more than $1.3 million of the offering has been invested in the education of more than 900 Mexican American youth attending the eight Texas Baptist colleges or universities or Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Besides scholarships the offering provides financial support for Valley Baptist Academy, new church and mission construction and other state mission causes.

Social Security in Floyd County

By Terry J. Clements

The Social Security number is being used increasingly as a means of identification, both by governmental and nongovernmental agencies. Public agencies that request a Social Security number must inform the person whether providing the number is mandatory or voluntary, the purpose for which the number is being requested, and the authority under which the request is being made. The use of Social Security numbers by nongovernmental organizations, such as banks, has made it an almost universal identifier. Such use by private organizations is neither required nor prohibited by Federal law; no one can be forced to provide his or her number to a private organization.

- On the other hand, a nongovernmental agency does not have to provide the requested service if the person refuses to give his or her number. It is well to bear in mind that the fact that a private agency has a person's Social Security

Daingerfield claims state crown

The Daingerfield Tigers won the Texas Class 3A state championship Saturday, December 17, 1983, in Waco's Baylor Stadium and they won it in just the fashion they should have-with a 42-0 shutout of the Sweeny Bulldogs.

The Tiger defensive unit consisted of ends Tim Lipham, formerly of Floydada and Guy Searcy, tackles Vic Edmond and Robert Smith, linebackers Ladd Freeman, Randy Woods and Mark Rowe, and defensive backs Eric Everett, Johnnie Hendrix, Mark Austin and Rodney Mims. That unit allowed only eight points the entire 16-game season and none of those came at the hands of a Class 3A opponent.

The Tigers set both state and national records and strengthened their case that they were the best high school football team of all time: the Tigers wrapped up a perfect 16-0 record, outscored their opponents 246-0 in the playoffs, recorded their 13th straight shutout and 14th of the season, and left themselves with no more goals to attain or records to set.

They went into the record books as the first team in Texas high school history to win 16 games in a single season and scored more points (246) than anybody else in history in the six-game playoff schedule.

With the shutout, they set a modern-day national record for consecutive shutouts in a season and tied a 70-year-old national record dating back to 1913.

The Tigers also became the first team in history to make it through the playoffs without allowing a point. The previous record was too set by Pittsburg in 1980. The Tigers broke another Pittsburg record by shutting out Post in the semifinals to establish a record for shutouts in one season (13)-a record they extended Saturday night before 8,569 fans.

New laws extend IRS information reporting traditionally ushered in the New Year as symbols of prosperity and good luck. Some say you'll get a dollar for every cabbage leaf you eat; others say just a bite will do the trick. Black-eyed peas, which are actually beans, are still a staple in their native africa where they're called cowpeas. It was the slaves of pre-Civil War Alabama who began the tradition of serving them as holiday fare.

There's a long-standing controversy about whether it's necessary to eat both cabbage and black-eyed peas or if just one is sufficient to assure a good year. Everyone does agree, however, that to celebrate New Year's Day without either of these dishes is to tempt fate itself.

Here are three very different ways of preparing a little good luck for the new year.

Cabbage Rolls 2 or 3 cabbages 1 pound ground chuck 1 egg 2 tablespoons long grain rice 1 onion, chopped 1 slice stale bread, soaked in water and squeezed dry

Final tax payment due soon for 1983

Taxpayers who did not have enough 1983 federal tax withheld, or whose amended income estimates for 1983 changed substantially during the last quarter, are required to pay the final installment of estimated income tax by January 16, 1984, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The IRS notes that there is an exception to this rule for the final installment for those taxpayers who file their returnes and pay all taxes due by February 1, 1984. This exception applies whether the declaration is an original or amended one.

Generally, taxpayers must file estimated tax if their tax is expected to be $300 or more and if they have more than $500 in income not covered by withholding.

For additional information, a free copy of IRS Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," can be ordered by calling the IRS number listed in the local telephone directory under U.S. Government.

Salt

In a saucepan, scald milk, stir in sugar, salt, butter, and molasses. Cool 20 to 30 minutes. Dissolve yeast in water. In a large bolw, combine milk mixture, yeast, water, onion, and caraway seeds. Stir in flours. Turn out on floured board to knead when it becomes too difficult to stir. (Use rye flour to flour board.) Knead to incorporate flour, 5 to 10 minutes.

Place in a greased bowl, cover, and let rise in a warm place until doubled, 11/2 hours. Turn out on floured board (use rye flour) and knead 3 to 5 minutes. Return to greased bowl, cover, let rise again until doubled, 1 hour.

Remove from bowl; shape into loaf. Place in a 9x5x3 loaf pan which has bee greased and dusted with corn meal. Brush top of loaf with cream and sprinkle with salt.

Let rise a third time, almost to top of pan, about 45 minutes. Preheat oven to 400 degrees and bake 40 minutes. Cool on wire rack. This recipe doubles easily.

Nonemployee compensation payments totalling $600 or more during a calendar year must be reported on Form 1099 MISC, "Statement for Recipients of Miscellaneous Income," by trades or businesses that do business with nonemployees such as freelancers or independent contractors. These reports must contain the income recipient's name, address, identification number, and the total amount of payments made to the individual during the year.

Reporting is now also required on Form 1099-MISC from any business that sells $5,000 or more worth of consumer products to a direct seller on a "buy-sell basis," a "deposit-commission basis," or any similar arrangement. A sale is on a "buy-sell basis" if the buyer's compensation includes part or all of the difference between the cost to him or her and the sales price.
