Christy Pruitt named 1984 Stock Show Queen

The 40th Annual Floyd County Stock Show came to a close last Thursday night at the annual banquet, sponsored by the Floyd County Farm Bureau. The banquet, held at the Lockney Elementary Cafeteria, was attended by approximately 250 people, exceeding the estimated 175 expected to attend.

A meal of enchiladas, beans, rice, cherry cobbler, sopapillas, and tea was served.

Joe Scott Faulkenberry of Floydada worded the invocation, and Larry Schneider served as master of ceremonies. The guest speaker was Mark Nutt of Floydada, presently a student at Abilene Christian University.

Floydada took two of the herdsman awards. Todd Cage was named lamb herdsman and J.D. Wilson earned swine herdsman.

Quint Anderson, with the only perfect score, took the high individual score on judging. Shannon Barbee was the recipient of the swine judging trophy.

Highlight of the banquet was the naming of the 1984 Stock Show Queen, Christy Pruitt. She sold the most stock show memberships to receive the honor.

Other trophies presented to Floydada students included in the lamb division Hunter Smith for the Breed Champion Fine Wool and Reserve Grand Champion Lamb; Jennifer Crow for the Reserve Breed Fine Wool lamb; Grant Cage, Breed Champion Fine Wool Cross, Keith Hancock with the Breed Champion Southdown, Dean Smith for Breed Champion Suffolk, and Terri Bailey for Reserve Breed Suffolk.

In the steer division Kristy Dawdy had the Reserve Breed Angus, Shannon Edwards the Breed Champion Hereford, and Angie Hinsley the Reserve Breed Hereford.

Floydada students received 10 of the 16 trophies in the swine division. Keith Hancock had the Champion Hampshire and the Reserve Breed Chester White. Mike Leatherman exhibited the Champion Duroc and the Reserve Grand Champion Barrow. Kellie LaBaume showed the Breed Champion Cross and the Grand Champion Barrow. Other barrow awards went to Mark Thompson for the Reserve Breed Duroc, David Pyle the Champion of Other Pure Breeds, and Cammy Hancock the Reserve Breed Cross.

Albert Scheele was presented a plaque for all of his dedication and hard work that went into this year's show and sale. Scheele served as president of the Floyd County Livestock Association this year.

The closing benediction was worded by Earl Broeseh.

A complete list of those who provided trophies is provided inside this issue of the paper.

ALBERT SCHEELE, Stockshow president, stands with the 1984 Stockshow Sweetheart, Christy Pruitt.

The Lamplighter

By Ken Towery

Sometime ago we briefly commented on the fact that we now seem to have a group of "expensive keepers" in charge of our state government. Certainly their use of private "office-holder accounts" and the amount of money involved therein would so indicate.

Now there is more evidence of that fact. The Governor, after boosting his office staff by 28 percent (and his office payroll by 36 percent) during his first year in office, is having to answer questions about his proclivity to raid other appropriated funds for the purpose of making life easier at home.

Mr. White evidently took some $25,000 the legislature had earmarked for the Film Commission and used the money to construct a playroom for his children in the "carriage house" behind the mansion. The weather was bad, the Governor explained, and the kids needed a place to play and entertain their friends. Besides, he said, he didn't think the Film Commission needed the money anyway. The man who runs the Film Commission was quoted on January 25 as saying White's action in raiding his funds "hurt us". "We could have used the money," he said. But two days later he told reporters he was not complaining. I suspect he was talked to. He was appointed to his job by the governor, and of course can be removed by the governor.

Actually the $25,000 was only part of White's transfer of funds for use as "mansion expense" and administrative expenses. All told it was on the order of $110,000. The playroom thing just caught the reporter's eye.

The Governor blames the attention he is getting, of course, on Republicans. They are against progress, he says. Of course, well, let's see. The first reports on the governor's spending habits came from a young lady who writes for the Fort Worth Star Telegram, or at least that is the first place I noticed it before it was picked up by other papers. I know the reporter, and I would not call her a Republican unless I was prepared to have my remaining eye scratched out.

The more money spent, the more taxes must be raised. As everyone knows, that is "progress". We are likely to have a very progressive session of the Legislature sometime later this year.

The case of the people vs. Jim Mattox is headed back to the Grand Jury room. The Mattox indictment, says the Attorney General's defense attorney, failed to specify exactly how Mattox threatened to interfere with the bond business of a Houston law firm unless they backed off from questioning Mattox's sister. The defense attorney claimed the indictment did not specify whether the threat was delivered by phone, by messenger, or in person. The Austin D.A.'s office says they will take the case back and make the correction.

It's just as well that the correction be made now, rather than have it surface later. It wasn't too long ago that the Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the conviction of a man accused of murder by "stomping" his victim to death. The learned judges said the indictment did not point out that the "stomping" was done with the feet of the accused. We can't be too careful about things like that.

Weather causes problems

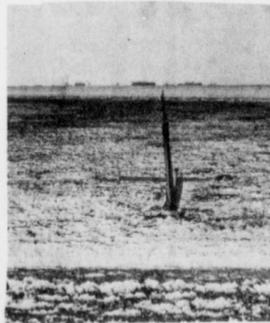

Mother Nature did it again to West Texas counties. On Sunday morning she brought along everything she had to Floyd and surrounding counties. She brought high winds, sleet, snow, rain, and hail to create terrible driving conditions and major power failures to five surrounding counties.

Alton Higginbotham, of Lighthouse Electric, said the storm Sunday caused about 2,000 homes in the five counties serviced by their organization consisting of Floyd, Brisco, Dickens, Crosby, and Hale to be out of electricity all of Sunday till Tuesday. Higginbotham said 95 percent of all power was restored by Tuesday and should all be completed by Tuesday afternoon. Broken transmitter, broken insulator and lines plus some 300 poles were the cause for the damage. Outside contractors and equipment from other companies helped Lighthouse put the counties back to order.

Lewis McDaniel, of Southwestern Public Service, said electric power was out in Floydada for five hours due to the snowy conditions. Crews from Amarillo and Lubbock helped get Floydada back in control. Fifteen new poles and some wire had to be put up to get everything connected.

Don Gowens, of the Highway Department, told the Hesperian, 306 man hours were used to clear all of the roads due to the storm.

Gowens and his crew started around 12:00 to clear the roads and were finally finished by 5:00 Monday afternoon. He said he really appreciated the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department for their help in helping people stranded on the roads. About 30 cars and trucks were stuck due to the snow. The heaviest snows were out to the western and northern part of Floydada where winds also reached over 50 miles an hour.

ONLY SPLINTERS were left of some highline poles in the wake of the Sunday's blizzard.

Lockney man convicted of aggravated assault charges

A 28-year old Lockney man, Willie Junior Phillips, was found guilty of aggravated sexual assault to a minor under the age of 14 in District Court Thursday, February 23. He was indicted by a grand jury December 14.

William E. Lee of Ralls was the attorney appointed by the court to defend the accused.

Mark Anthony Cofield, the 5-year old minor in case, and his mother, Judy Cofield, took the witness stand. Also testifying as prosecuting witnesses were Reggie Gross of the Floyd County Human Resources office and Ken Farrow, Lockney Chief of Police.

The alleged incident, committed in Lockney on or about November 25, was reported first to the Plainview police and then to the Floyd County authorities and welfare department.

Four witnesses were called to the stand by the defending attorney, including the defendant's mother and sister.

A jury of 11 men and one woman returned a guilty verdict in approximately 2 hours after hearing the conclusion case.

As no request had been received from the defendant's attorney for the jury to assess the penalty, the case was referred to James Pevyhouse, probation officer, for a pre-sentence investigation.

District Judge, George Miller, will set sentence based on that investigation, which is expected in about 10 days from trial date. Phillips posted a $5,000 bond in the case.

Reward Paid in Telephone Tip

CRIME CALL OF FLOYD COUNTY has paid a $100.00 reward for information which led authorities to the persons responsible for a number of tire slashings on February 11. Two juveniles were arrested as a result of the information received by Crime Call, and their parents were ordered to make restitution for the damages, which totaled approximately $700.00.

Once more, law enforcement officials stressed, "Parents of juveniles arrested in connection with vandalism of public and private property can and will be held responsible for the property loss, in accordance with Texas law."

Anyone having information of crimes of this nature, or any other criminal activity of which they have knowledge, is urged to call Crime Call at 983-5200. Callers do not have to identify themselves. Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I want to take this opportunity to tell everyone who wrote letters to the Lubbock District Attorney's Office "Thank you" and to tell you the outcome of the Grand Jury's decision concerning the traffic accident resulting in Wendy Ruff's death.

Jeannie Sue Nicholson was no billed. No charges were brought against her.

I talked to a representative of the D.A.'s office and this is what I was told. "Miss Nicholson complied with the 'spirit' of the law. She stopped, saw that the ambulance was there and left."

The police officers found her 7-8 hours later. She did not call them. Bart Patzer and Mrs. Rob Everett gave the tag number to the police. The police found her, she did not turn herself in. I was told the Grand Jury deliberated this case for approximately 45 minutes to an hour. (The time it took for the car to hit Wendy, to be transported to the hospital, and quit breathing in the emergency room. The time it took Wendy to die.) and they found Miss Nicholson complied with the "spirit" of the statute pertaining to hit and run - to render aid and give information - to render aid and identify yourself.

When I protested that she had not complied with the law, this was not right. I was told that morality and legality were not necessarily the same thing.

Again, Wayne, Mike, Tim, Bart, his parents and I want to thank you for your support.

Wendy was proud to call Floydada home.

EVIDENCE:

Thank you for FINALLY contacting Mrs. Everett and requesting her testimony at the grand jury hearing.

GRAND JURY DECISION:
TERRIBLE!! APPALLING!!
SHOCKING!!!

It is difficult for us to comprehend that an autodriver can kill another with that auto and not get reprimanded in any way shape or form.

ACCIDENTS:

Accidents are a result of neglect and/or carelessness on someone's part. Wendy Ruff paid with her loss of life. Jeannie Nicholson paid--NOTHING and yet it was Miss Nicholson that drove the auto into Miss Ruff.

Prognosis:

From the example set in the above referenced case, it appears that a person, as a driver, involved in an accident similar to this is much better off legally to stop and render "some" aid and then leave the scene before the police arrive as Miss Nicholson did by which some of the evidence is diminished or disappears before the police find you, thereby reducing the amount of evidence which can be presented to a grand jury which in turn reduces any chance of any conviction or penalty.

IT'S TIME:

Take the ICE OUT OF JUSTICE and the ICE OUT OF SERVICE and you get JUST SERVE

An Open Letter to the Businesses of Floydada:

It is with sincere gratitude that I thank you for your generous response to the Floydada Nursing Home/Business Drive of the American Heart Association. By calling on local businesses, our volunteers collected almost $800 for the fight against heart disease. This money will be used to provide public education and to help fund heart research.

The residents of the Floydada Nursing Home also thank you. As they are not able to go into the community, the American Heart Association volunteers did this for them. At a Valentine Party hosted by the Board of Directors of the Heart Association, the residents presented the entire sum to the American Heart Association. In this fashion, they were given the opportunity to continue to participate in our community and to experience again the rewards of charitable giving.

The Floyd County Board of Directors set $5,000 as their goal to be raised in 1983-84. To date we have raised $1899.00. We are continuing to work toward that goal. On behalf of our local Board of Directors, I say thank you for your part in helping strike down America's number one killer.

Hot checks land man in jail

Able Vallejo entered a plea of guilty to charges of theft of property by check.

Vallejo was brought up before Judge Choise Smith on Thursday, February 23. He was arrested February 22 in Lockney.

Vallejo spent time on probation and 10 days in the county jail in 1982 on the same charges.

Judge Smith sentenced Vallejo to 30 days in the county jail. He must also pay a fine, court cost and the amount of the checks with a total of $259.25 before he can leave jail.

The checks were written to the Allsup's store in Lockney.

Open Letter

So many individuals, groups, and organizations have contributed to the Floydada Spirit of Sharing in the month since our opening that it has been virtually impossible to acknowledge each gift. Every day has brought in new evidence of the community's concern and support in the form of food, clothing, equipment and supplies, cash donations, personal and professional services--it has been truly overwhelming. Every memorial has been acknowledged, but other gifts have come so rapidly they have defied prompt handling, (which was just what we needed!)

So we hope this open letter to all of you will in some way express the gratitude we feel. Thank you for your patience with our growing pains, and we will try to use your support to be of the greatest possible service to the community and the county.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

"What's good about Southwestern Bell?"

While not addressed quite so bluntly, that was the main question we tried to answer in recent group sessions with our customers. These "focus group" meetings were held to give us a better idea of what people perceive to be strengths of our company.

We also asked for, and received, commentary on our weaknesses as seen by these customers.

Good service—particularly its dependability and reliability—was by far the main strength cited in these sessions.

Here are some of the comments made by our customers:

"We couldn't survive without the phone service. I have to have my telephone for communications. If you have an emergency or a fire, you need it. I could live without the service, but I wouldn't want to. It is a big part of everybody's life."

It's dependable

"I would stress the dependability. I would point out to consumers being able to rely on your telephone for just about anything: your business, your home life, your social life."

"I'd say they have good service. Their phones work, and you can depend on the calls. If you have any repair work, it gets done."

"I've called to ask questions about rates and bills, and the people I've spoken to have been very polite and willing to answer all my questions."

"The phone company is every day coming up with more efficient ways of doing things, or better ways."

"I think the strength of the telephone company is that they have been more economical as compared to other items in your household budget. They have not gone up proportionately as much. That has been a tremendous asset for the lower income people."

Rate increases in line

"In relationship to every other company's rate increases, they're in line. The regulated companies have more trouble than the unregulated companies because they have to go beg almost to get a nickel and unregulated companies don't."
"Compared to what other things cost today, I would say telephone service is a good value. It saves me money because I do a lot of comparison shopping through the phone book. I make the telephone work for me."

"You pay for contact with most of the world. You can use the phone to talk to anybody about anything, check on relatives, children, and you don't have to worry about it. It always works. What value would you put on that? A call to poison control when your child just drank a glass of bleach. What do you do? What's the value of that?"

"I like the bills because they come with a return envelope. It's one less address you have to write out and one less envelope you have to work up."

"I think the size of the company and the fact that it has been such a good company for people to work for has been a real asset here."

Divestiture confusion

Some customers did tell us they were still confused and uncertain about our separation from AT&T. Here are some of the comments about life after divestiture:

"I feel uneasy about it. I don't really understand what is actually happening and how it is going to affect me. I really can't say anything about it because I really don't know."

"We will be able to tell shortly how well Southwestern Bell Telephone will do on its own—whether in the coming years it is going to fall on its face or lay an egg. Or spread its wings and fly."

Well, the breakup has come and gone and I can assure you Southwestern Bell Telephone isn't laying any eggs. Our service in Texas has never been better. And we're going to work hard to keep it the best there is.

How about you? What do you think is good about Southwestern Bell Telephone? What faults do you find with us? I'd like to hear from you either way—just drop me a line at the address below.

Cedar Hill News

By Grace Lemons

A snow storm blew in Saturday evening and the power went off through the county. Our REA men stayed active on duty and we have electricity as usual today.

Word was received that Darrel Yeary of Sherrel, California died suddenly and services were in California. Darrel farmed in the Cedar Hill community and was here and camped in his trailer this summer.

Imogene and Cephus entertained his sisters and brothers with a dinner in their home Saturday. Those present were Mary Ann and Garland Tucker of Lubbock, Robin and Ruth Fortenberry of Hereford, Fred and Jewel Fortenberry and Evelyn Winn of Lockney, Sarah Beard of Floydada and Ruby Lee Higginbotham of South Plains.

Word was received that M.D. Arturburn is satisfactorily receiving therapy in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock and is somewhat improved.

John and Karla Fortenberry had dinner Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durrel Fortenberry.

Albert Mize is reported to be improved and is able to walk to the table for his meals. His son, George Mize of Ruidoso spent four days with his parents this week.

Norma Welch and Peat Kelley took Grace Lemons to Amarillo Tuesday to join her sister and brother, Roaa Anderson of Guymon and Lavena and Shields Decker of Amarillo and flew to San Francisco to attend the funeral services of their youngest brother, Fred O. (Crimm) Anderson, 58, in Lenwood Chapell in Oakland, California Thursday at noon. Grace returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. W.T. Cooper, Linda Lemons' mother is reported in satisfactory condition at Highland Hospital in Lubbock after undergoing major surgery Thursday. Her room number is 327. We trust that she will soon gain her strength and her walking will improve after the operation on her knees.

Ruthie Clark of Plainview visited her daughter, Edna Gilly Wednesday and Edna visited her mother in Plainview and Virgie Flowers of Amarillo was there.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Gilly, Amy and Tara and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gilly and Emory spent Sunday with Edna Gilly and enjoyed the warm fireside as the electricity was out.

We still have a number of people in our community ill with the flu, Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry, and Mark Proffitt.

Pam Hayhurst and son, Trevor of Amarillo, are here with her grandparents, Tom and Gladys Fortenberry as they are trying to recover from the flu.

There is no limit to the height a man can attain by remaining on the level.

MARK NUTT was the guest speaker at the Stock Show banquet last Thursday evening in Lockney. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schneider are also pictured.

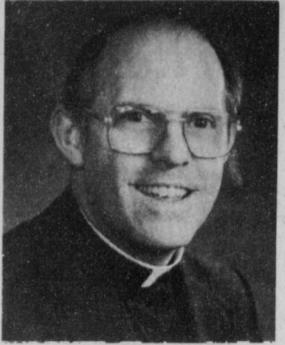

Bishop to visit Lockney

A dinner in his honor will follow the Liturgy.

The San Jose Parish community is very honored to have him celebrating the Liturgy with them and wishes to extend their welcome to their bishop.

World's Fair brought to Rotary meeting

The Floydada Rotary Club's guest speakers at their February 22 meeting were Thomas Binion, District Marketing Manager for Delta Airlines and Pat Thornton, Assistant Manager for International Tours based in Plainview. The topic of their discussion was the 1984 Worlds Fair which is expected to be the travel event of the year.

The fair will be held from May 12 through November 11, 1984 on 82 acres along the Mississippi River in the heart of the old warehouse district in New Orleans.

The theme for this years fair is "The Rivers of the World...Fresh Water as a Source of Life." New Orleans is reported to have the second largest port in the world. It is also a representative to International Commerce. There are 21 airlines in the city with 5,000 flights a month. The city provides 25,000 first class hotel and motel rooms, half which are within walking distance of the fair.

There are expected to be over 11 million people in this years attendance, 80% from the United States and 20% from other countries.

The fair will feature such things as pavilions filled with information from different countries and industries. One pavilion will house art from the Vatican never before seen in the United States. It will highlight ports and rivers of the world with aquatic activities. There will be 75 restaurants and concessions featuring local, regional, and international foods. Entertainment will be provided on 22 different stages within a time of 50,000 hours.

There are several special transportation options. One of which are monorails covering the entire fair area. It is estimated that 3,500 people per hour will ride the monorails. The fairgrounds are also constructed to make it convenient for persons with handicaps to get around easily.

To compensate for the heat, all the buildings will be air conditioned. In the spots where the trees will not grow, the park will be covered with tents.

Price for a one day admission is $15.00 for adults, ages 12-54 years. For children 4-11 or adults 55 or over, the price is $14.00. For an adult for two days it would cost $28.00. For children or older adults it is $26.00. There is also a special group rate. This price includes all the sights in the fair.

For plans to the World's Fair or other trips a travel agent could be consulted. Their service is free and they can make all the arrangements for you, so you can enjoy your trip more.

Heritage of Texas discussed by '34 Study Club

The 1934 Study Club met at 7:30 p.m. February 21 in the home of Mrs. L.D. Simpson. The president, Mrs. W.H. Bunch, presided over a brief business meeting and then introduced a new member, Mrs. Burl Holt and welcomed her to the club.

Mrs. Kyle Glover introduced the program on Farming and Ranching Heritage of Texas. Mrs. Anthony Latta spoke on "Cattle Ranching Across Texas" from an article by Tommie Pinkard in "Texas Highways." Grass, from the Panhandle Plains to the broad coastal plain, brought cattle and cattlemen to Texas. First were the Spaniards with their lean, tough cattle grazing on the lush coastal grass, where today the King Ranch covers at least part of twenty coastal counties.

Next, were the three hundred settlers accompanying Stephen F. Austin in early 1800s with their English and Dutch stock who settled in Central Texas.

The Rolling Plains area of mesquite woodlands and prairies boasts some of the state's larger ranches. The Hi-Plains with native vegetation almost exclusively grass until the advent of irrigated agriculture was the predominant ranching land of the state. The area still has more cattle than any other, but they are concentrated in feedlots where they are more quickly fattened for market.

East Texas came late to the cattle business after the soil was worn out from years of cotton farming. After discovering that the native 'nuisance' Bermuda grass fattened cattle nicely, the area became home to major beef breeding herds of the state.

The Longhorns, descendants of those first tough Spanish cattle, are still bred for their adaptive qualities on many ranches. Robert Kleberg of King Ranch developed Texas' first breed, the Santa Gertrudis—a cross between Shorthorn and Brahma. The Brahms are still popular on south Texas ranches, while to the north, Herefords have been favored for most of this century. Texas ranch, farm and cattle feedlot operations produce 6.5 billion pounds of beef a year.

Mrs. Vernon Parker talked on "Amanda Goes West" an unusual sketch based on real life from a booklet prepared by Betty Mills accompanied by costume designs by Lanette C. Ross based on clothing in the Texas Tech Museum.

Amanda's father comes in one evening to their Tennessee home with the news that they will be leaving immediately for Texas where he has purchased 640 acres in East Texas. Amanda can take only two good dresses, her best petticoats and one skirt and have room left for the family Bible in her trunk. For the trip, she wears her second best dress with an apron for protection on April 18, 1838. In Nacogdoches, Texas she and her mother buy material to make up later. They arrived in Columbus, their new home in November, 1838.

Some of her tasks at home were: carrying water, keeping the loom going and milking the cow. New neighbors moved into the area but were too far away to become acquainted until much later at a 'log rolling.' Still later, at a dance, a shy young man, Matthew, from Pennsylvania sent her many admiring glances. At Christmas in 1842 Matthew brought two lovely gifts and asked her father for her hand in marriage. Since the engagement would last two years, she spent part of the time making a wedding ring quilt and making her white and gold wedding invitations. A later book deals with the wedding and their marriage. Another book is in the planning on the Civil War Years.

Mrs. W.W. Trapp spoke on "The Heirs of a Cow Boss" from an article by Mike Cochran in the Dallas News. The father of the Cavazos brothers arrives at the King Ranch as an eighteen year old to become 'cow boss' of the Santa Gertrudis Division near Kingsville where he remained for 50 years until his death in 1958. He left a legacy of hard work and high ideals for his five children, stressing education and love for country.

His daughter Sarita graduated from Texas A&I and the youngest brother Joe, finished St. Mary's in San Antonio. Fate and football led the three older brothers to Tech.

Bobby was an 'All American' running back and he returned to ranching after graduating. He resides south of Breckenridge with his family on a ranch.

Richard was more interested in geology than football or the military, but as an ROTC graduate in 1951, he entered Paratrooper training and served in Korea. He received the DSC for risking his life to rescue members of his company. He remained in the military and is now a Four Star General.

Larry or Lauro majored in the biological sciences and taught in Boston before accepting the Texas Tech Presidency in 1980. He is busily pursuing the many opportunities he sees to make Tech a great university. He is married to the former Peggy Murdoch of Plainview and has ten children, six of whom were enrolled in Tech at one time.

The King Ranch was a great place to grow up, with rattlesnakes, deer, geese javalinos, and hard work and parents who expected much. The 'Cow Boss' would be proud of his children.

The hostess and co-hostess Mrs. Kyle Glover served a plate with pizza snack

Mrs. Sallye Lyles selected as DAR Outstanding Teacher

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas are proud to announce the selection of Mrs. Sallye Harris Lyles as their representative at district level for The Outstanding Texas History Teacher of Texas. Twenty-one schools from surrounding towns were invited to participate in this contest. Mrs. Lyles will be representing Floydada Junior High School.

Awarding a historical map of Texas depicting the territory of the Republic to Mrs. Lyles were Mrs. Rex Arnold of Lubbock, President General of the state organization, and Mrs. Douglas Blackburn of Hobbs, New Mexico, President of the local General James Smith Chapter. The local chapter is made up of members from Lubbock, Plainview and surrounding towns who are lineal descendants from a soldier or citizen of the Republic of Texas.

Mrs. Lyles was commended for making history "come alive" for her students by using drama to reenact important historical moments, thereby making history exciting and memorable. Interviewing of people who had participated in making history, and the preserving of the interviews through the museum was also favorably noted. Her students recently participated in a D.R.T. sponsored Texas History essay contest, "March 2, 1836, The Signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence", with the winner to be announced soon.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas are known primarily for their role roll, cake and nuts and hot cider and coffee.

Attending were Mmes: Milton Ashton, D. Alan Benson, Wilson Bond, W.H. Bunch, Kyle Glover, Anthony Latta, Floyd Lawson, J.P. Moss, Vernon Parker, George Springer, L.B. Stewart, G.W. Switzer, W.W. Trapp, J.R. Turner, Walton Wilson, Burl Holt and L.D. Simpson, hostess.

in maintaining and preserving the historical buildings placed in their care by the state: The Alamo and Alamo Museum in San Antonio; the French Legation and Old Land Office in Austin; and The Cradle of Liberty in Houston.

Other projects promoting awareness of our Texas heritage include the planting of native trees and wildflowers, sponsoring contests for teachers and students, encouraging research and publication of books and articles of Texas History and awarding a scholarship to a deserving Texas History student.

Mrs. Arnold will preside over the annual convention in May at Amarillo when the winner of The Outstanding Texas History Teacher, will be selected from ten district winners, and given an engraved Paul Revere silver bowl. Last year's winner was Mrs. Frances Evans of Atkins Jr., High School in Lubbock.

Abundant Life Fellowship has farewell dinner

On February 19, at twelve noon, Abundant Life Fellowship honored the Jim Guess family with a farewell dinner. It was a covered dish dinner and an album was presented to the Guess family containing photographs of church families. It also contained photographs of past church activities along with letters of appreciation of their ministry beside each picture.

The congregation regrets the departure of the Jim Guess family but feels that the Lord's will is being accomplished. Many members of our community have voiced their sadness at seeing Jim Guess leave Floydada.

We will really miss the Jim Guess family but he leaves behind a church with a solid foundation that will continue to minister to our community.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Florence VanHoose

Monday morning devotions were by Trinity Church. Ira Sullivan, Mildred Thrasher, Shirley Varner, and Dartha Westbrook sang, and I read the scripture. Ira sang a special song, "When He Reached Down His Hand For Me." In the afternoon Music Therapy was cancelled because of the President's birthday holiday, so we made some pretty book markers using some pretty leaves. The residents like to make them so they can give them to family members and friends.

Tuesday morning devotions were brought by the Rev. Neeley Richardson. He spoke to us about the characteristics of the Dove and it's relationship to the Bride of Christ. And the Dove being Symbolic of the Holy Spirit. We enjoyed the Devotion time and also the Banana Break. The bananas were a gift this week from the New Salem Church.

In the afternoon Alma Smith and Jennelda Fulton from the Sunshine Sunday School class came to visit each resident and give them bananas and cupcakes. We appreciate this. They were really good. Then we finished our Bible Study about Mary the Mother of Jesus. Then we had the monthly resident's council meeting. The residents named some of the things they like about the Nursing Home. I think you might enjoy reading what they named: love bus ride, bingo, food, because they don't have to cook it; enjoy Beauty Shop, having the laundry done, nurses and aides are so nice, love Steve, like birthday party, surprise parties, love morning devotions, everything they need is here, the morning coffee and socialization, love to paint ceramics, like exercise, playing ball, enjoy all visitors, love activity lady, can't think of anything they would like to change.

Wednesday morning devotions were brought by City Park Church of Christ. The singers were Elva Blum, Lula Teague, Vernola Hanna, Ruby Hartzell, Mary Spears, Beulah Baker, Perry Zumwalt, Zelma Zumwalt, and Lorilla Bradley. Perry Zumwalt spoke about the Greatness and Power of God.

Wednesday afternoon we played

Bingo. Sue Thompson Bingo'ed the most times and Beno Wilson and Mrs. Bernie Bingo'ed on the blackout game. Sugar free candy, gum, and bananas were the prizes.

Thursday morning devotions were by the Rev. Earl Blair. He spoke to us about Love for God, for ourselves, and each other.

In the afternoon we went on a long bus ride. First we went to Dougherty where we stopped and visited with Mrs. Covington. Then on to Roaring Springs and stopped at the station and visited with Jack Davis, Mrs. Mullins, and Cauldwell Smith. We tried to find the Peach Orchard where Bill and Sallye Day are living but we couldn't find it. Then we went on to Matador to Billie Dean's where we got cold drinks and we visited with Billie Ruth who is Emmitt Lawrence's daughter-in-law.

Those residents going on the bus ride were Emmitt Lawrence, Mrs. Bernie, Beno Wilson, Lura Brashears, Addie Lindley, Una Clark, Ruth Benson, and myself. The bus driver was Evelyn and her sister, Edna Patton was with us also.

Friday morning devotions were by Mary Corley and Nettie Adams. Mary spoke about the Holy Spirit. Seventeen residents were present and we had a visitor who is Beno Wilson's sister.

We did not have a movie in the afternoon. Our projector is in the shop. We played basketball instead. The player who made the most baskets was Lura Brashears. The prize was $1.00.

The Good Sams R.V. club provided donuts for the residents coffee break this week. The donuts were really appreciated. Thank you.

Visitors this week were: Ira Sullivan, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Spivey, Margaret McCravy, Charley L. Berry Sr., Ruth Noland, Alma Smith, James Smith, Jennelda Fulton, Tonia Marley, Jimmy Marley, Lajuana Turner, Jess Glover, Grady and Esther Freeman, Mrs. M.H. Hartness, Artie Webb, Sheldon Reams, Nellie Moore, Ola Smith, Hazel Bradley, Roberta Jameson, Magdalena Herdez, Becky and Amy Hernandez, Rufos Camacho and Augustine Garcia.

WINNERS AT WAYLAND -- These five Wayland Baptist University students were among the more than 50 honored at Wayland's annual Recognition Day chapel in Plainview last week. They are Sharon Nelson [seated left] of El Paso, Tammy Payne of Floydada, Tim Cooper [standing left] of Lockney, Randal Pearce of Brownfield, and Tim Peterson of Austin. A 1979 graduate of Floydada High School, Miss Payne was one of 10 students named to Spinning Wheels, a campus leadership award. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Payne of Floydada. A 1979 graduate of Lockney High School, Cooper was named recipient of the Agribusiness Award in the College of Arts and Sciences. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cooper of Lockney.

Postmaster to head fund drive

Ed Wester, Floydada Post Master, Civic Leader, Eagle Scout and Silver Beaver holder, will head up the annual finance drive for the Boy Scouts of America in the Floydada and surrounding area.

Wester said in the next few weeks members of the Floydada Lions Club, Floydada Rotary Club and friends of Scouting will be calling on individuals and business for their annual contribution to the operation of Scouting on the South Plains. The goal for the area is $3,500.00.

It takes about $25.00 per boy or girl to keep the program moving. It is hoped that each individual or business will sponsor one boy or girl in the program. "Catch The Scouting Spirit" is the theme of the Boy Scout program for the year of 1984. February of 1984 Scouting marked its 74th anniversary having been founded in Washington, D.C. in

Generally regarded as the finest and most wholesome organization for youth, Scouting has been a foundation for one of the finest leaders in your country's history.

In fact, Scouting has, in advertisements, played on the theme of "When a boy becomes a Scout, you never know - he might grow up to president of United States." Gerald Ford, or a home run champion-Hank Aaron or olympic athlete - Bruce Jenner.

Millions of boys and girls in the Explorer program have gained invaluable experiences and values that have paid off handsomely in their future professional and civic responsibilities.

Hundreds of youth in Floydada, under the selfless guidance of volunteers, have been influenced by Scouting in these eight decades and have been or are now community leaders here and elsewhere.

Former resident promoted

BRENDA KINAST

Whisperwood National Bank, 4th Street and Slide Road, Lubbock, has announced that Brenda Kinast has been promoted to Assistant Vice President of the bank.

Mrs. Kinast joined Whisperwood in its organizational stages. Previously she was an Administrative Assistant in the Loan Department for First State Bank of Shallowater before moving to Whisperwood in the same position. Her duties will include supervisor of loan closings and the note department.

Mrs. Kinast is the former Brenda Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Turner of Floydada. She and her husband, Bruce, have one child.

Davis named DAR Good Citizen of Floydada High

Cindee Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, was recently selected DAR Good Citizen of Floydada High School.

The senior class chose three seniors possessing the qualifications of leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism; of these three, the faculty selected the one to receive the honor.

Cindee was honor guest of the Buffalo Grass Chapter, local chapter of National Society Daughters of the American Revolution February 28, when she was awarded a $100 scholarship as winner of the Chapter contest. The purpose of the contest is to recognize and reward the qualities of good citizenship among senior high students.

Cindee has been outstanding in many activities in all four years of high school, including speech, band, typing, student council, annual staff, and National Honor Society. She is a member of the youth choir and handbells and of the Youth Council of the First Baptist Church, as well as being the Rotary Sweetheart, 1983-84.

Recently she was named the winner of an essay contest sponsored by the Air Force Association chapter of Lubbock. Cindee plans to attend Hardin Simmons University of Abilene to major in secondary education, her primary field being history with English her secondary choice.

Floydada retailer joins 3,300 other IGA members

Thursday, March 1, is a big day for James Widener. He hung out an IGA sign indicating that his store now is a bonafide member of the Independent Grocers' Alliance.

Widener joined IGA recently, but it was not until this week that he found the time to tell the world about his new status. The IGA sign of quality is known all across the nation. Widener is justifiably proud that his neighborhood store is part of an alliance which accounts for sales of eight billion dollars annually across the country.

The Independent Grocers' Alliance has more than 3,300 members in 48 states -- all of them retailers who invest their own money and own and operate their own stores. For the most part, they've grown up in their communities and that's where they intend to stay.

Widener is a good example. He works in the store himself every day, bagging groceries and greeting his customers. Also working in the store are Danny Widener, his brother and assistant manager, working in the office is their aunt, Helen Terrell.

"Our customers know that we're responsive to the needs and interests of our community," Widener said. "We have the most up-to-date equipment and the level of service is a source of pride to us."

IGA supermarkets currently rank third in size among retail food groups in the United States.

LAKEVIEW NEWS

By Joyce Williams

March 1, 1984:

Lakeview residents were without electric power Sunday and some do not have power even by Tuesday. A howling blizzard hit suddenly Sunday morning. Church houses went dark. Preachers finished their sermons with old time lung power for exhortation. Restaurants were closed because there was no electricity to operate cash registers, water lines, lights and heat. Once again people moved in with relatives or townspeople whose houses were on Floydada Power and Light, which has diesel back-up power. Over 250 power poles are reported snapped by the 50 miles per hour wind over Floyd County, with many in our community. From Dougherty to Floydada school bus drivers counted eleven poles snapped. Out toward Sandhill the school bus had to back up for miles because poles were snapped and fallen across the road. A blowing snowstorm left about 3 inches of snow over Lakeview. The sun came out Monday and Tuesday and melted most of the snow; enabled repairmen to work on power lines. School opening was delayed an hour Monday, to help motorists negotiate the icy streets and roads. Cattleman have been rounding up stray cattle that drifted south ahead of the blizzard. Hundreds left the wheat fields all over the South Plains, moving to keep warm.

Mrs. Howard Bishop, Mrs. James Williams, and Mrs. Q.D. Williams were among the hostesses for the bridal shower given Saturday morning, Feb. 25, for Miss Pam Muncy, bride-elect of Russ Jones of Brownfield. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Muncy, whose ranch is in our community, are parents of the honoree. Russ's grandmother, Mrs. Nell Carroll Jones of Brownfield, is related to the Carroll family of Crowell and Truscott, known to many families of Floyd County with relatives in that area. One of the Carroll ranches is across the road from the one belonging to Mrs. Williams' father. Also one of the Hammonds girls at Thalia married a Carroll and their ranch is east of Truscott. Two of the Carroll boys won grand champion and reserve grand champion with their Angus steers at the Crowell Junior Livestock show last week. Other good news for that entire area is that a new oil well was being drilled on the Carroll's land, which, encourages leasing on neighboring places. Of an old pioneer family, good neighbors, we welcome Russ to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thurston spent twelve days at Cleburne, recently, when Joe's aunt, Mrs. Laura Harper, died there in a rest home. The Harpers lived in Lakeview when Joe and Alta first married and moved out here from East Texas. Alta said Mrs. Harper was just like a mother to her. Her own mother is in the same rest home and is recovering from an illness. When Alta and Joe returned home they were honored with a 45th wedding anniversary reception given in their honor Saturday in Lubbock at the home of their daughter, Sandy, and husband, Rob Care.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Reed of Panhandle, and daughter, Darlene came by Saturday evening for supper with their daughter and family, Connie and Randy Bertrand and girls. The Reeds had attended the Panhandle High School basketball girls regional playoff game against Hale Center at Lubbock. Randy and his work crew have the sides of the new barn up now.

A tractor theft was interrupted last week when Floyd Whisenant was driving down the dirt road toward his house at night. His pick-up lights startled another pick-up driver. The stranger whirled around the corner, leaving skid marks. Floyd drove on slowly wondering why such a hasty retreat, when he came upon Hilary Polvadore's tractor in the middle of the road where the thieves had been attempting to load it up when they'd seen his lights coming down the road. The sheriff and deputies were immediately called. They noted the tire patterns and sizes, etc., and searched the neighborhood for a pick-up with dual wheels.

A pasture roping north of Crowell was attended Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams. The basin of a canyon was the roping arena. Spectators sat on the canyon rim in the warm sunshine of Saturday's weather. Families had brought quilts to spread for children to play on, cave bottom chairs and folding chairs for the adults. Family groups from one ranch waved stake claim on one point or promontory, arranging chairs, quilts, tarps, coolers, picnic baskets, some even bringing cinder blocks and wire grills for fires to heat the coffee pot and fry the potatoes and meat. When you tired of sitting in your pick-up watching the wild and woolly calf roping, you could walk from group to group, visiting with friends, noting how their children had grown. The pick-up parked next to the Floyd County vehicle held a lively group consisting of a plump and pretty grandmother and several of her granddaughters, in late teens and early twenties. Whether they knew you or not they shouted to all passerby and invited them to come over for a beer or to try their tequila! Someone asked one of the young women what she was doing there and she shouted that she was there to find her a cowboy. One older cowboy, married, was hugging the grandmother when he noticed the T.V. camera was recording the action, to be shown on the 6 o'clock news, and realizing his wife would see all, ran away, leaving his horse with the reins dragging. At the end of the afternoon, when the roping was over, the young woman climbed up on a horse behind a Pitchfork ranch cowboy, so her wish was apparently granted. The show next door was as lively as the rough and tumble one down in the canyon. It was discovered later that the grandmother owned one of the recently opened beer joints that have sprung up between Crowell and Vernon as the German farmers there adjust to hard times in farming by turning to a business side-line until agriculture gets better.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Appling were in San Angelo Friday evening to attend the rehearsal dinner for their nephew, Robert Wayne Miller of Tulia. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Miller exchanged marriage vows with Miss Kellie Rollins of San Angelo. Both are students at the University there. The wedding was held at the Baptist Church, with the reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rollins. The Appplings returned home Saturday night. When the storm blew in Sunday they were so thankful they had gotten home in time as many motorists were stranded by icy roads and fallen power poles.

Officials notified to watch for stolen grain

The Texas Department of Agriculture has requested that all state and local law enforcement agencies in the area stay alert for grain trucks that might be suspected of hauling grain stolen from Panhandle elevators.

"In spot checks by our inspectors," Angela Lamb, District Supervisor of the Texas Department of Agriculture, said, "we have found that some of the elevators are missing grain. We suspect much of that shortage can be blamed on grain thieves. The thefts are not on a scale yet to get alarmed about, but we want to put a stop to them."

Lamb has asked law enforcement officials to alert their patrols to be on the lookout for suspicious activity around elevators and to try to keep a reasonably close check on documentation of grain truckers to make sure they have the appropriate elevator weight tickets for grain loads.

SHANNON BARBEE received the swine judging trophy. Quint Anderson had the only perfect individual score.

SHANNON EDWARDS, KRISTY DAWDY, AND ANGIE HINSLEY were the Floydada female steer exhibitors.

Prices good at Livestock Sales

The Floyd County Livestock Sale followed a buyer's luncheon was the final activity Wednesday in the final stages of the 40th annual Floyd County Stock Show.

The sale began with the taking of floor bids. The floor bid for steers was 70 cents a pound and the high bid came from the Hill Feedyard. Hauling was donated by the Livestock Association.

High floor bid for lambs came from Hubert Frizzell of Lockney with a bid of 58 cents a pound. The floor bid was submitted by Tommy Turner Trucking Co. at 45 cents a pound for barrows.

All of the exhibitors were very happy with the prices they received for their animals. It was commented by several of the parents present for the sale that prices this year were higher and some of the prices were as much as 50 cents a pound higher than in the past.

Auctioneer for this year was Kenneth Gregg who served in the same capacity for last year's sale. He was assisted by Jim Simpson, Virgil Brosher, and Don Faulkenberry who were in charge of ring bids.

A complete list of the buyers and the bids are printed in this issue.

Marble, Kelm place in 1983 Texas State Irrigated Corn Yield Contest

Max Marble, Hart, placed first, and Jerry Kelm, Plainview, placed third in the 1983 Texas state irrigated corn yield contest sponsored by the National Corn Growers Association (NCGA).

Marble harvested 236.29 bushels per acre and Kelm harvested 224.82 bushels per acre. Both farmers planted Paymaster 8990.

Producers entering the NCGA contest must enter a minimum 10-acre field and yields must be verified by outside parties.

Marble's contest field was planted April 11 at 32,000 plants per acre. Application of 275 pounds of dry fertilizer and 300 pounds of anhydrous ammonia were applied to the furrow-irrigated field. The field was harvested September 29.

Marble's operation includes corn, cotton, wheat and potatoes. Last year Frito-Lay purchased the corn from about 150 acres.

"This year we've contracted to raise about 400 acres of corn for Frito-Lay," said Marble. "We get a premium for the grain, but it requires more management. Corn must meet certain quality standards for hardness and it cannot be harvested until it is less than 22 percent moisture in the field. This means that you must select hybrids that have good standability since they are often harvested later in the fall. This year we'll raise 250 acres of Paymaster 8990 and 150 acres of Paymaster 398, a white corn, to meet the requirements of the Frito-Lay contract."

Marble has always managed for high yields because "that has been the best way to lower my

There are so many people to say "thank you" to for all the many hours that go into a Livestock Show. We would like to express our thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, the Agriculture teachers, the County Agents, the ones that donated the trophies, time and money, and to the parents for their help.

We would like to thank the Floydada Livestock Sales Company for buying Kelli's Grand Champion Barrow and to the Floydada Businessmen and Farmers for buying Coy's 1st place Medium-weight Cross.

A very special "thank you" goes to Mr. Warren Mathis of Lockney for his generosity for giving Kellie the $.90 pound bonus for her Grand Champion Barrow.
 Coy & Kelli LaBaume

Thanks to the Floydada people who came across again for their young people. The support you gave the Floydada FFA during the Floyd County Stockshow was greatly appreciated. A big thank you to all the students and parents who gave of their time and efforts.

A special thank you to the men who helped pay for the Bar-B-Q served in the concession stand. Also thanks to Beth Faulkenberry for the Medowfresh chocolate, Pondersos Meat Co., Ben E. Keith, Kirtley's Mkt., Pepsi Cola, Monarch Foods, Weems Texaco, Donut Shop for their donations and discounts for foods served in the concession stand.
