Important Health Systems Meeting Thursday Night

It was announced this week that South Plains Health Systems will hold a public meeting at the Lighthouse Electric building in Floydada on Thursday, January 13 at 7:30 p.m. According to John Peck, "the purpose of the meeting will be to give the people of Floyd County an opportunity to discuss the quality and availability of local health services with members of the health planning team from South Plains Health Systems, a designated health planning agency for the federal government. Using the information gathered during the meeting here and at similar meetings held throughout the South Plains, the health planning team will formulate a regional plan for improving public access to good health care here on the South Plains."

Peck went on to make clear the role of local citizens in the health planning process: "We must speak up and make known the needs of our area. Otherwise, our community could be overlooked by the regional health services plan. Bearing that point in mind," Peck said, "I'm asking everyone I see to attend that meeting on Thursday night."

Lockney Farmers File Suit

Against South Plains Elevator

According to information filed in the county records at the Floyd County courthouse Thursday, two Lockney farmers have filed suit against an Amarillo elevator man and two Floyd County men.

The suit is entitled "Charles Boedecker et al vs. Neal B. Scott et al." Boedecker and another Lockney farmer Paul Hrbacek claim in the suit that Scott and two Floyd county men Gerald Reinhardt and Velton Kenneth Lynn (all doing business at South Plains Elevator) owe them for contracted grain, mostly corn.

Boedecker states that he is due $167,128.65 and Hrbacek is due payment on 334,020 pounds of corn at $4.40 per hundred and 5,000 bushels of wheat at $4.00 per bushel.

Contract agreements are filed with the suit. Payment on the grain shows in the contracts due from the last week in December 1976 until January 15, 1977.

Plainview attorney Charles White has filed the suit for the plaintiffs and district judge George Miller has scheduled a hearing on the suit at 10 a.m. in the district courtroom January 19, 1977.

Births Drop In County From Last Year

A PROGRESS NOTE: They're paving the car lot at Baccus Motors.

THERE'S BEEN A LOT of progress on Main Street in Lockney since I came here nearly three years ago. Correct me if I'm wrong, but I believe that since then there have been five new businesses just in the block of the Beacon Office is on...to make room for some of those new businesses, old buildings have been torn down and lots cleared off...several of the existing buildings on Main Street have been repainted...several lots have been paved...further south on Main, the new Methodist Fellowship Hall...and in the other direction, they're coming right along on the new apartments. What have I missed...?

NEW METHODIST FELLOWSHIP HALL

OPEN HOUSE SLATED NEXT SUNDAY

Methodist Fellowship Hall Completed

After a year of work, much of it volunteer work by members of the congregation, the new Fellowship Hall at Lockney First United Methodist church is complete.

The congregation has worked hard, they're very proud of the new building, and they want to share it with the community—so they are holding an open house next Sunday, January 16 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the new Fellowship Hall. Refreshments will be served, and everyone in the community is invited. In addition to the fellowship hall proper, there is also a new well-equipped kitchen, three storage rooms, a combined bride's room and ladies lounge, and men's and women's restrooms. Total area of the new construction is 3,652 square feet. The Lockney Methodists have also renovated the pastor's study and secretary's office, both of which have new carpet and new drapes throughout.

Members of the congregation have been working since last January, when some of the men of the church helped to tear down the "old sanctuary," the basement of which served as a fellowship hall. Ladies of the church held a "basement sale," selling doors, desks, pews, dishes, etc. from the old building. Later, men of the church hauled in dirt, filled the old basement and with the help of the project engineer from Lubbock, packed and levelled the area so construction of the new building could start.

Stained-glass windows from the old building were saved and the better ones were taken to San Antonio, where windows for the new building were made from the old glass. Also from the original sanctuary (which was built in 1919) are the antique light fixtures (rebronzed and restored) in the new fellowship hall.

Coincidentally, Rev. Newt Daniel (now retired) was pastor here when the present sanctuary was built in 1951 and his son Rev. Hugh Daniel is pastor now as the new fellowship hall is added.

The congregation expresses appreciation for the "job well done" on the new building by local contractors Robert McDonald Construction Company and Workman Plumbing and Heating.

Bank loans to businesses up

By BILLINGS D. BARNARD, Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas

While up nationwide, bank loans to business are just holding their own in the Southwest.

Compared with last summer, business loans are up sharply in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District. But at $5.6 billion in November, commercial and industrial loans at weekly reporting banks in the district totaled a little less than in September.

The district is made up of Texas and parts of Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arizona.

Meanwhile, business loans at the nation's large weekly reporting banks were up in the four weeks ended in mid-November at an annual rate of 22 percent over the average for the four weeks ended in early September.

At first look, the increase nationwide would seem to indicate business loans had finally turned around.

With the apparent upturn around could come fresh hope that a business expansion was at last getting under way. And with the seeming lack of growth in the district could come concern that the Southwest was not sharing in the expansion. But loan demand is not as strong across the country as recent reports would suggest. Nor is it as weak in the district.

Business loans in the district have differed decidedly from those in the nation ever since the recovery set in about April, 1975. And over the long haul, they come off looking better than the comparison this fall would show.

Even with the recent increase, at $115 billion, business loans at the nation's big banks still total a tenth less than when the recession ended. And even without any marked increase in borrowing in the district this fall, business loans in the Southwest are up nearly a tenth from a year and a half ago.

Some of the difference, then, comes from banks in the district not having as much catching up to do. Some of it, however, comes from the far faster growth in bankers' acceptances over the nation as a whole.

Acceptances are negotiable drafts drawn usually to finance international transactions. The drafts are considered accepted when a bank takes responsibility for paying them at maturity.

increase in business loans was reported by banks in New York, Chicago, and San Francisco.

These are not only the nation's largest banks. They are also the banks with most direct access to international markets. Because they are big and much of their operations are in international banking, their experience is usually different from other banks.

During the corresponding period a year earlier, business loans fell $529 million nationwide. But outside these three financial centers, banks increased their business loans $188 million, helping offset the decline in loan demand at only the comparatively few large banks.

So far in the recovery, the worldwide prominence of these big banks has allowed loans to foreign businesses to build up six times faster in the nation than in the district alone. That has been just about enough to offset the decline in loans to domestic manufacturers of durable goods.

Nationwide, loans to durable producers have fallen a third since the trough of the recession. In the district, they have fallen only a fifth. And that is from the unusually high loan levels reached during the recession when manufacturers in the Southwest were borrowing to expand production of oilfield supplies and equipment.

RAIN, COLD BLAMED FOR CATTLE LOSSES

HOUSTON (AP) - Rain and cold are being blamed for cattle deaths along Texas coastal areas.

J.D. Sartwell, president of Port City stockyards, said Wednesday heavy death losses could result if the bad weather continues.

"I can never remember a worse winter than this for cattle because it started out so early and because of the continued wet cold," Sartwell said.

Sartwell said the first frost was about 30 days earlier than normal.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin reported rainfall in South Central Texas and along the Upper Coast ranged from 44 to 68 per cent above normal during September-November.

"Cattle can stand cold and they can stand wet, but they can't stand the two together," Sartwell said.

"They are getting weaker every day. This portends a bad situation later on. If we get an ice storm in late January or February, you could see a heck of a dieoff."

Sartwell said one rancher who grazes cattle on salt grass near Freeport has reported 116 head of dead cattle in the last few weeks.

Memories- Together

Many requests have been received to print the poem written by Kay Robertson Brown in honor of her parents, Hop and Eura Robertson, on their recent Golden Wedding anniversary. Kay grew up and spent her teenage years in Floydada. The Robertsons share with their many friends the following poem:

MEMORIES-TOGETHER

It's difficult to remember a life without you. Was there ever really a me - or a you - apart? It has been us, we and ours for such a long time now. That "I Do" on Christmas Day 50 years ago has taken us many a mile TOGETHER!

I would not - could not have made the journey without you. We've weathered hail, rain, sleet, snow, dust and drought. Bumper crops - no crops TOGETHER!

We've sat up with sick babies, waited up for teenagers, kissed skinned knees, and mended broken hearts. We've said goodbye to our children millions of times - wondering each time if we had instilled in them the basic love and beliefs needed to get them thru life. We did TOGETHER!

They're grown now. We lost Bill, our son, our first born in an accident. The grief was almost more than we could bear, but we did TOGETHER!

The girls have been gone for a long time now - all married. Got some mighty fine son-in-laws too. We love 'em all TOGETHER!

There was always a sadness when another left home, but our love somehow always grew to fill in the gap left by the silence - in a house that had been filled with kids for so long. We filled that silence with love and devotion and we overcame our sadness TOGETHER!

Then our grandchildren, one by one, came into our lives bringing so much joy and pleasure that sometimes we feel our hearts will burst with love. We look at our growing family and share the beauty of knowing we were the beginning TOGETHER!

For better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health We've laughed, cried, worked - lived fifty years TOGETHER!

Our anniversary has been lost amidst the hustle and bustle of Christmas all these years. But what better way to celebrate our day, when our married life began, than by having our children, grandchildren, loved ones and friends in joyous reunion TOGETHER!

Today, our Golden Wedding Day, surrounded by those we have met and loved along the way - we will share the memories of half a century TOGETHER!

We Love You Both In Every Way On This Your Golden Wedding Day May God Look Down From Above To Bless You with His Precious Love

Friends wishing to help replace clothing, furniture and other household items to a Paducah couple, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Crumpler, may take them to the home of Mrs. Crumpler's grandmother in Floydada, Mrs. Clifford Willis at 111 West Hallie Street. The Crumpler family lost their home and its contents in a fire just before Christmas. A shower for the family was held in Paducah Friday night.

Mrs. Crumpler is the former Donna Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Willis also of Paducah. She is also the grandmother of Mrs. R. E. Marr of Lockney. The Dave Willis family lived in Floydada many years.

No one was injured in the fire, but the house and its contents were declared a total loss in the pre-Christmas blaze which began from an electrical short in the wiring of an appliance, relatives said. Furnishings, clothing and family Christmas presents were badly smoked and water damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumpler have a seven year old daughter and a three year old son.

What One Person Can Do

Dr. Allan Frank can roam safely through Chicago's worst streets. He is protected by street gangs and residents. Dr. Frank, a 33-year-old veterinarian, believes that poverty should not prevent a child from having a healthy pet. With his wife, Ilsa, as his assistant, he sets up his practice at a wooden table in any convenient parking lot. His services are free.

Beginning a regular practice after receiving a veterinary degree in 1966, he found he didn't like it. Says Dr. Frank: "A little kid would come in without money and would walk out with his sick pup in his arms because he couldn't pay. I don't blame veterinarians, though. They get nothing free and have huge expenses. Personally, though, I couldn't take it. I went back to school and got a master's degree in special education. Now I can practice the way I want."

The "way he wants" is in his free time, freely given. Dr. Frank makes his living teaching mentally handicapped children at Enrico Fermi School on Chicago's South Side. Sometimes his pet care is sponsored by community groups or animal shelters. If not, he buys the supplies himself. Each year, he vaccinates over 1,000 cats and dogs for distemper, without charge.

Many veterinarians feel no responsibility to the poor, says Dr. Frank. "Some even think the poor shouldn't have animals." But he reasons that children will be children, poor or rich. "So some little kid's got a puppy she loves. And why should that puppy die of distemper?"

God's love can be shown to and shared with others in any number of imaginative ways. Sometimes doing it indirectly, through self-sacrificing concern for the things that others value, can be an effective means of lighting a candle.

Chaplain Hicks will celebrate anniversary

Chaplain Anderson Clayton Hicks, of Big Spring and a former pastor at Dougherty Church in Floyd County, observed his 30th anniversary in the ministry recently. He has served as a pastor since Dec. 29, 1946.

He married Selma L. Crawford Aug. 30, 1949. She has taught school for 25 years and now teaches fourth grade at Marcy Elementary in Big Spring.

Chaplain Hicks serves at the Veterans Administration Hospital there and is chairman of the chaplain service. His job includes coordinating and scheduling many denominational religious activities to meet the needs of all patients, supervising and advising all part-time chaplains assigned to his service and correlating the chaplain activities with other activities of the veterans hospital.

Chaplain Hicks is constantly updating his programs to meet the changing times of our society. He initiates new programs to motivate and retain the interest in religious activities of long-term patients. His programs are designed for the ambulatory and the bedridden patient so that each individual patient's needs are satisfied.

Chaplain Hicks and his wife have two sons, John, who is a senior at Baylor and Joe who is in the eighth grade at Goliad.

Since he has served with veteran's hospitals, his commendations have included the hospital director commendation on Sept. 21, 1968 in Albuquerque for his outstanding and dedicated service to the alcoholic and for his vigorous support of alcoholics anonymous in the community.

He also was cited for the quality increase based on superior performance in the VA Hospital in Big Spring on Sept. 24, 1971.

He received a second citation for this on June 5, 1973 and also a cash award for superior performance the third time on Oct. 1, 1974.

Also in 1971, he was honored by an award for the chief medical director of Washington D.C. in recognition of his outstanding service to the hospitalized veterans and the community of Big Spring. It said in part, "His program of spiritual outreach is a significant factor in furthering the health and well-being of his patients as chairman of the Howard Co. Council on Aging."

He also has won several awards for approved suggestions resulting in improved performance on monetary savings to the V.A. Hospital.

He has served veterans hospitals in Bonham, Albuquerque and Big Spring where he has been since June 15, 1969. He served in the Navy from 1943-1946 and received his BA degree from Wayland College in 1949 and his B.D. degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1952.

He pastored churches at Dougherty, Bonham and Fort Worth prior to becoming a chaplain.

He was ordained on Dec. 29, 1946 by Golinda Baptist Church of Lorena. The Rev. James S. Parks was pastor. He also pastored two

AMERICAN HERITAGE

HOME OF FAMOUS ARCHITECT PRESERVED

Though many Americans believe Frank Lloyd Wright was our greatest architect, few are aware that one of the most architecturally and historically important buildings he ever designed was his own first house.

It was at his house in Oak Park, Illinois, that Wright worked out many of his most powerful ideas. Using his home as a model, he evolved many elements of his early modern style, later to be called the Prairie Style.

The house, and a studio which he added later, have been visited by architects and architectural historians from all over the world.

Now, the buildings are being restored by the Frank Lloyd Wright Home and Studio Foundation, which will keep them open for the public and to provide a research center for students of Wright's work.

Preservation of the home and studio for all Americans resulted from a cooperative venture between the foundation and the National Trust for Historic Preservation, which owns the property.

Mediterranean Iceberg Salad, a combination of crisp western iceberg lettuce chunks, shrimp, avocado and olives, is a favorite of Miss Bergen as it is simple, yet just right for a rather elegant buffet.

Mediterranean Iceberg Salad

- 1 head western iceberg lettuce
- 2 cups large cooked and peeled shrimp
- 1/3 cup corn oil
- 2 tablespoons garlic wine vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon Italian herb seasoning
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 California avocado, medium size
- 1/2 cup pitted ripe olives, halved

Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; chill in plastic bag. Chill seafood. For dressing, combine oil, vinegar and all seasonings in small jar; cover and shake together until well blended. To serve, cut lettuce into bite-sized chunks and place in chilled serving bowl. Peel avocado and cut in half crosswise; remove pit and cut fruit into rings and arrange with shrimp and olives atop lettuce. Pour dressing over salad. Serve at once.

Makes 6 servings.

Buddy Takes Long Walk

DALLAS (AP)—Buddy, a forcibly transplanted Texan, has discovered that it is a doggone long walk from Dallas to Wappinger Fall, N.Y.

Buddy is a homesick 7-year-old hybrid German Shephard collie that is believed to have walked about 1,600 miles to New York apparently trying to return to his former home in Vermont.

The dog's owner, Elden Hopperstad, 20, who brought the dog to Texas last fall when he moved from Vermont, was reunited with Buddy Tuesday at the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport.

Buddy arrived in a new traveling kennel, courtesy of a New York Humane Society member.

Hopperstad said the dog wandered away last October and admitted that he never expected to see Buddy again.

On Dec. 21, Sari Whalen, a member of the Putnam County Humane Society in Lake Carmel, N.Y., got a call from a Wappinger Falls, N.Y., family claiming to have a stray dog with a Vermont license.

Mrs. Whalen then began a tedious search for the dog's owner, calling the doctor who vaccinated Buddy, obtaining the information from the dog's tag tag, and got the owner's name.

She then began searching local orchard for the owner, who had been mistakenly identified by the veterinarian as a migrant worker.

After that failed, she started calling bars, asking bartenders if they knew a man named Elden Hopperstad. A customer in one of the bars said he knew Hopperstad and that he was living with a family in Shutesbury.

That family told Mrs. Whalen that it didn't know where Hopperstad was, but said his parents lived in Connecticut. Finally, Hopperstad's parents told Mrs. Whalen that their son was in Texas.

Meanwhile, Buddy had managed to leap a six-foot-high fence and escape from an animal shelter in Lake Carmel. He showed up again with the Wappinger Falls family last week.

The humane society paid the $37 air fare for Buddy's trip to Texas and Mrs. Whalen bought the dog for traveling kennel.

AMARILLO—Congressional passage of the Beef Research and Information Act took the lead in a just-released ranking of the top 1976 news events in cattle feeding. The traditional overview is issued at the end of each year by the Texas Cattle Feeders Association in Amarillo.

The top item took the lead because it reflected the cooperative spirit of agriculture in general and the beef industry in particular. Congressman reported never having seen such unified support of legislation affecting cattlemen. The Act will allow cattlemen to vote in 1977 on a national program to collect funds for beef research, education, promotion and foreign market development.

Ranking second on the list was the passage and implementation of a national law ensuring livestock producers that they will be paid promptly for all slaughter animals they sell. The law is an outgrowth of a huge bankruptcy in 1975 when thousands of producers were left holding worthless checks from American Beef Producers.

The implementation of new beef grading standards by the USDA took the third spot on the list; while the first reduction, since 1967, in the U.S. cow herd took fourth on the TCF list.

A special "6-Point Plan" to aid the ailing cattle industry was announced by TCF early in the Summer of 1976 and it was fifth in the ranking. The invoking of the 1964 Meat Import Act—for the first time since it was passed—and a halt to circumvention of the Act was ranked sixth.

A lawsuit filed against the Packers and Stockyards Administration successfully halted the registration and bonding of feedyards. Feeders felt the restrictions were unnecessary and expensive and the victory was ranked seventh on the news events list.

Passage of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 was rated eighth by the TCF. This national Act contained several beneficial measures for the cattle industry including inheritance considerations.

During one four-week period in 1976 (March-April) fed cattle prices increased $14, winning that news item a ranking of ninth. The rapid drop of $9 only one month later won a tongue-in-cheek ranking of No. 10.

Other important news events affecting cattlemen in 1976 included: Texas being named No. 1 in cattle slaughter according to 1975 USDA figures; a threatened Federal embargo on all Texas cattle was avoided when the state was forced into the Federal Brucellosis program; 100 million consumers were reached by a joint TCF and Iowa beef promotion effort; and the U.S. Meat Export Federation was formed to encourage the exportation of U.S.-produced meat and meat products.

Also in the ranking were: Feedyards receive an exemption from an unnecessary feed inspection tax; Texas sales tax rulings benefit feedyards as they buy certain supplies; the American National Cattlemen's Association and the National Livestock Feeders Association vote to move toward a consolidation; USDA's "Good" grade for beef is upheld, despite a lawsuit against it by some packers; irrigation gas continues to receive Priority 2 by the Federal Power Commission; and the bankrupt American Beef Packers begins to pay off its livestock creditors.

The Texas Cattle Feeder Association represents the majority of feeders in the nation's leading cattle feeding state. In 1976, its members fed approximately 3.8 million cattle of 16 per cent of the fed cattle in the nation.

Survey Reveals 42 Per Cent Of Nurses Have Witnessed Accidental Deaths

NEW YORK —A survey of 10,000 nurses found that 42 per cent said they had seen deaths among patients which they thought had been caused accidentally by doctors.

The survey, reported in the January issue of the magazine Nursing 77, also found that 15 per cent of the nurses said they had more than once seen deaths caused accidentally by doctors and that 18 per cent knew of deaths accidentally caused by nurses.

Thirty-eight per cent of the nurses wouldn't like to be patients in their own hospitals, the survey found.

It rated nursing care in the United States and Canada at a "Low B" grade. The smaller the hospital, the survey indicated, the less the responding nurses thought of the care.

As for nursing homes, 55 per cent of responding nurses who worked in such institutions said they would not want to be patients where they work.

Nursing 77 reported that the nurses blamed insufficient staff, the burdens of paper work and other obligations that took time away from attending to patients as reasons why nursing care of patients is less than excellent.

The magazine last May published a "Probe of Quality Care," listing 78 questions and asking its nursing readers to respond to them. Those responses, more than 10,000 of them, formed the basis of the article in the current issue.

Concerning health care nationwide, said Nursing 77, 3 per cent of nurses rated it as excellent. Half said it was good, the magazine reported, while 42 per cent rated it as fair, and 5 per cent as poor.

The nurses rated physical care as good to high at their hospitals, the report said, but considered emotional or psychological support of patients and families as being only fair and sometimes poor.

Only about one-third of the responding nurses said they thought other nurses gave good or excellent psychological support to patients.

One nurse suggested a reason: "The physical care is stressed as all-important. If we're found sitting in a patient's room offering support, we're not considered to be working—just talking."

Only 23 per cent said they thought doctors were good in providing emotional support for the sick.

Soviets Announce Record Crop

MOSCOW (AP)—Agriculture Minister Valentin K. Mesyats has announced the Soviet Union harvested a record grain crop in 1976 totalling 223.8 million tons.

Soviet officials had said in October and again in the government's 1977 New Year's message that the crop was of record size, but Mesyats' announcement gave the first definitive figure.

The total compares to the previous record of 222.5 million tons in 1973 and to the decade-low harvest of 140 million tons last year. Soviet officials credit good weather as the greatest factor for this year's bumper harvest, along with improved agricultural organization.

Mesyats said in reply to a question that the Soviet Union would meet its commitments to purchase grain abroad despite the good harvest, the Soviets are bound to buy six million tons of corn and grain each year from the United until 1980. Net for the year was approximately 88 million tons.

The 1976 cotton crop as given by Mesyats was 8.3 million tons, about 100,000 tons short of the 1974 record and higher than the estimated target of 8.1 million tons.

OR, CARRYING COAL TO HARRINGTON

Planning and scheduling ahead for the future needs of our customers has always been our primary concern. The first coal-fired electric power plant on Southwestern's lines — Harrington Station — began using coal to generate electricity in 1976. Approximately 11,000 tons are delivered twice a week by a 110-car unit train. Using coal as a fuel in our area will help to stabilize the cost of electric service.

We continue to invest in new equipment and improvements, so you, our customers, will continue to have the electricity you need — at the lowest possible cost.

Beautiful, But DEADLY

There is a man — he's a U.S. park ranger — who spends a lot of time deliberately starting avalanches on mountains like this.

His job is to produce carefully small, controlled snowslides to prevent devastating avalanches that could wreak terrible damage and claim lives.

Going to church can be like that. It can give you solutions to spiritual problems while they are small and manageable instead of letting them build up until they're too big to handle. Like snow on the side of a mountain, unfaced problems can swell into an avalanche of monumental proportions and simply swallow up your useful life.

The strength to face your day-to-day problems is waiting for you right now — at your church.

Rubber Stamp Prototype

It has to be difficult for singers with genuine talent and painstakingly disciplined technique to hear the recent batch of performers refer to themselves as "artists" and to their performances as "concerts." A presumptuous colloquialism has been adopted by fledgling show people. You'll hear them on TV talk shows pompously parading their marginal talents and limited intellects, while vigorously contradicting guests whose credentials support a bona-fide expertise. They are the egocentric play actor whose world is bordered by their last role and their next one-- or the just-in- from Las Vegas second-stringers whose procurers recognize the need to showcase their tinsel-plated talent in the expectation that some of Dinah Shore will rob off on their Lilliputs. These are rarely the crest-riders in our bread-and-circuses society-- almost never the Big Leaguers who are already limelit. And this makes more piteous their protestations of how "I've learned to get inside myself," whatever in the world that is supposed to mean. A similarly vapid manifestation of this autoadulation is the inadvertent declaration of dependence which goes: "I've got to do my own thing-- right? Right? Right." With threadbare cliches, the introducer feeds these ravenous egos: "A great talent!" "A beautiful person!" "A superstar!" Though most often the he or she who's "got it all together" left one and unshined and the other uncombed. The expression, "He's really with it," confirms that whatever the subject is "with" the addressor is without much of a vocabulary. There is a patois which contributes some colorful nuance to our Americanese. Slangage, when purposeful, is verbal impressionism; can be charming. But properly to take liberties with the art requires a foundation of literacy. It is permissible, and may be usefully explanatory, to say, "I am my own man." This tells the listener that the speaker never read a book and probably gets fired a lot. A TV commercial implies disdain for the conventional, urging you to "sing your own song." A girl in another commercial sings that "what's good enough for other folks is not good enough" for her. In our urban pileup there remains the need to be original. The more worthless one suspects he is the more he must try to convince you otherwise. Yet in their "I've got to be me" self-assertion they end up the rubber-stamp prototype they are trying so hard not to be.

Permission Given To Film Executions

HUNTSVILLE (AP) - The director of the Texas Department of Corrections says a federal court order will be observed allowing the television filming of executions at the state prison. W.J. Estelle Jr. told newsmen Tuesday an appeal of the ruling by U.S. District Court Judge William Taylor of Dallas was still being considered by the state attorney general's office. Estelle also said that interviews with death row inmates, halted recently by a change in the state law, would be resumed. The order by Judge Taylor gave print and electronic media access to executions in the state's electric chair. The judge's order came as a result of a lawsuit filed by Dallas television newsmen Tony Garrett of public KERA-TV. "Very simply, I said the news media are entitled to have representatives there, following a policy that has been followed for a number of years," Taylor said. "That is that the representatives of The Associated Press and United Press International would serve as pool reporters and also that there could not be any distinction as far as electronic media were concerned."

Pool reporters represent the media, sharing news reports and observations with their colleagues. The challenge to the state law forbidding the death row interviews and coverage of executions was expected, Estelle said. "We all have great concern for the protection of the First Amendment rights," he said. "Also, we need to do some more research into this issue. There may be other landmark cases. Estelle said the lawsuit was "not one we entered into with any hostility toward the news media." "It was simply one to decide on what is legally right and what legally can be done," he said. "When we talked about coverage of executions, we didn't consider television filming." PICKING POCKETS NEW YORK (AP) - Increased demand for natural gas - which currently accounts for 30 per cent of the nation's energy needs compared to only 7 per cent in 1947 - has intensified the search for underground cavities for gas storage, reports The Compass, a publication of MOAC, a commercial marine insurance company. "Underground storage capacity has increased by more than 50 per cent since 1965," says Compass. "Currently some 368 reservoirs in 26 states hold more than 6.3 trillion cubic feet of gas."

Chinese Release July Quake Toll

HONG KONG (AP) - A top-secret Chinese document says that the Chinese government declined all offers of foreign aid, and since no foreign relief personnel were admitted to the devastated area, there were no estimates from such trained observers available to foreign newsmen. The greatest recorded loss of life from an earthquake occurred in China more than 400 years ago, on Jan. 23, 1556. An estimated 830,000 persons were killed then in Shensi province, in central China. The second highest death toll, according to historical records, was 300,000 in Calcutta, India, on Oct. 11, 1737. The July quake measured 8.2 on the Richter scale, the highest since the 1965 Alaska quake and slightly less than the estimated magnitude of the San Francisco earthquake of 1906.

figures. Cuban and Yugoslav news dispatches reported tens of thousands killed. President's Men Best Film

NEW YORK (AP) - The National Society of Film Critics has chosen "All The President's Men" the best motion picture of 1976, the second time in as many days that the film has received the honor. The New York Film Critics Circle made a similar choice Monday. Meeting Tuesday at the Algonquin Hotel, the National Society selected "Taxi Driver" as second best movie of the year. Named best director was Martin Scorsese for "Taxi Driver," with Alan Pakula runner-up for "All The President's Men." Sissy Spacek was chosen best actress in "Carrie," with Faye Dunaway second choice for "Network." Best actor was Robert De Niro for "Taxi Driver" with a tie for second between William Holden in "Network," and Gerard Depardieu for "The Last Woman." Jodie Foster of "Taxi Driver" was voted best supporting actress, with Talia Shire in "Rocky" placing second. Jason Robards was the choice for best supporting actor in "All The President's Men," with Harvey Keitel in "Taxi Driver" second. Alain Tanner and John Berger shared honors for best screen play for "Jonah Who Will Be 25 in the Year 2,000." Second place went to Paddy Chayefsky for "Network." The award for best cinematography went to Haskell Wexler for "Bound for Glory," with Nestor Almendros runnerup for "The Marquise of O." The society issued a special citation for the 1942 Italian film "Obsession," an unauthorized version of the James Cain novel, "The Post Office."

Directory Assistance Charging
We don't want your 20¢

Directory Assistance charging is now in effect statewide. Basically, the plan calls for charging 20 cents for every call to Directory Assistance over the first 10 made during a monthly billing period. Quite frankly, we don't want your 20 cents. Our objective in charging for Directory Assistance is to reduce the spiraling cost of providing the service - a cost that has skyrocketed due to misuse rather than wise use. Studies showed that some customers call Directory Assistance 25, 50 or 100 times a month from their homes. Some businesses called more than 2,000 times a month! And yet, 75 percent of the numbers requested were in the telephone directory. Yet, the cost of excessive use of Directory Assistance was borne by all telephone rate-payers. Thus, we introduced the charge because it is the only way we can handle the rising costs of Directory Assistance fairly. The people who use Directory Assistance the most will now pay the most.

Here's how the plan works: Customers with single-line basic service who call Directory Assistance (1411) more than 10 times during a monthly billing period will be charged 20 cents for every call after their tenth. A maximum of two numbers may be requested during each call to Directory Assistance. Multi-line customers will have an additional allowance of one call for each line, up to 25 lines. The Directory Assistance Charge also applies to calls for numbers in other towns within your home Area Code - with one important exception. You won't be charged for calling Directory Assistance in another town that has the same Area Code as yours provided you make a corresponding Long Distance call within your home Area Code. That call has to be placed from and billed to your own phone within the same monthly billing cycle. To request numbers in other towns with the same Area Code as yours, continue to dial 1-555-1212. There is no charge for requesting numbers that have a different Area Code than yours. Just dial 1, plus the Area Code, then 555-1212. Also, there is no charge for Directory Assistance calls from coin telephones or from hospitals. Some customers not charged. Visually and physically handicapped people who are unable to use the directory will be exempt from the charge. If you think you, or someone in your family, or a friend may be entitled to this exemption, please fill out the coupon below for more information. If you're like most people, you'll never be affected by the Directory Assistance charge. In fact, in cities where Directory Assistance charging was already in effect with a five-call allowance, only 5 percent of customers were ever charged each month. More importantly, 95 percent were not. This certainly indicates that 10 free calls a month will more than meet your needs if you can't find a number in the directory. So look in the book before you call. It will save you 20 cents that we don't want.
