About 50 Floyd County citizens doctors, nurses, hospital and nursing home administrators, pharmacist, and other interested people - attended a public meeting conducted by South Plains Health Systems Thursday night in the Lighthouse Electric building in Floydada. John O. Peck, Floyd County's representative on the SPHS board of directors and vice chairman of the board, said he was pleased with the attendance, which he said was secondhighest of any county meeting held so far (Lubbock and Hale counties, included in the 15-county area represented in SPHS, have not yet held meetings.(Purpose of the meeting was to allow county residents to discuss the quality and availability of local health services with the planning team from SPHS, which is a designated health planning agency for the federal government. Several of those present voiced oncern about increasing government control of local health service, and Peck agreed-"I have great concern about state and federal governments' atempts to constantly involve themelves in areas where they're not vanted," he said after the meeting. He oted that "...up until this point we've een able to operate without such ontrols, and I feel we don't need them low..." But the law (Public Law 93-641) mandating the organization of realth system agencies such as SPHS ias passed, and according to the Floyd Jounty representative, "...I feel we have to make the best of it and operate

At the meeting, Peck introduced Ronald Warner, president of South Plains Health Systems, and Mary Rucker. Helth Planner for SPHS, who presented a slide program explaining the law and the health systems. organization. She mentioned a Congressional finding that "The achievement of equal access to quality health care at a reasonable cost is the priority of government," and stated that national health expenditure has risen 1000 per cent in the last 25 years.

Some of the the "priorities for Floyd County established in discussion at the meeting included these: Reduce red tape involved in health

Access to care for indigents. Continuing education programs for medical personnel. Keep local hospitals operating. Increase manpower (physicians, nurses, technologists).

Degree nursing programs needed. Access to medical schools by local students.

Mental health problems need equal consideration with physical.

Nursing home representatives want representatives on the board who are solely interested in nursing homes.

The group listed health care resources now available in Floyd County, and voiced the opinion that present health services should be kept here and should not be relocated to larger cities. Health care services now available in Floyd

'77 Auto Registration Starts February 1

AUSTIN--Texans will begin registering their motor vehicles for fiscal 1977 February 1. Registration renewal notices will be in the mail soon.

Some vehicle registration renewal notices will arrive a little later this year. Usually they are mailed immediately after Christmas to facilitate postal distribution. However, this year, inmates at the State Department of Corrections prison facilities at Huntsville are sorting by zip code all of the stickers had a blue background, white figures and red serial numbers in furtherance of the Bicentennial theme which will be continued in 1977. Robert W. (Bob) Townsley, director of DHT's Motor Vehicle Division, said he anticipates less motorist confusion in affixing 1977 stickers to the metal license plates.

DHT first issued multi-year metal license plates in fiscal 1975. Last year was the first for attaching annual stickers to the metal plates.

"Although most motorists followed instructions and experienced no problems, others failed to read the instructions for affixing the stickers with -- sometimes -- laughable results," Townsley commented. The 1977 stickers will be applied to the depressed area in the upper right-hand corner of the REAR metal license plate, Townsley explained. The 1976 sticker should remain in its present location -- the upper left-hand corner of the rear license plate.

Inmates of the Wynne Unit industrial plant at Huntsville make license plates, print stickers and prepare record-keeping materials for DHT and county tax assessors-collectors who are responsible for actual registration pro-

As previously, mail registrations will be accepted from vehicle owners for an additional fee between February 1 and March 1. Motorists who wish to register their vehicles in person can save time, energy and frustration by visiting county tax offices as soon as possible after Febrary 1. Deadline for having the stickers affixed is midnight

Above all, avoid lengthy registration lines by not waiting until the last minute to obtain 1977 stickers. Said Townsley: "Motorists can ease the pain by heeding the Christmas warnings -- shop early!" Beginning in 1978 the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation will initiate a year-round licensing system with some registrations expiring each month thereafter. This will mark demise of the halfcentury-old, 60-day registration periods and one-date deadlines for acquiring and affixing new stickers without

How Can Floyd Population Grow If Births Decrease?

By Wendell Tooley The population of Floyd County has een on the decline the last ten years and when the birth statistics were ecorded for 1976, it appears there is nore decline coming.

The birth rate dropped some 90 abies in 1976 from 1975.

There has been a definite trend of oung married couples back to the smaller towns all over the nation and this has happened in Floyd county. However, these young couples seem to e following the national trend of having fewer children....maybe only one or two children per family.

FLOYD BABIES BORN ELSEWHERE?

Of course many Floyd parents have their babies delivered in hospitals outside Floyd county. Definite records on this are unavailable.

There is some truth to the fact that Plainview mothers go to the Lockney hospital for delivery because the Lockney hospital rates are less expensive than the Plainview hospital. OTHER STATISTICS

Marriages in the county remain about the same....99 in 1975, 96 in 1976. Deaths were up just a little last year....98 in 1976......85 in 1975.

Savings Increase

Last week this newspaper reported that Floyd banks were up almost $4 million in deposits reflecting a very healthy economy and now reports from local and area savings associations point to a growing savings

According to the end-of-the-year accounting by three institutions, local and area residents increased their saving accounts by 17 per cent from $61,898,505 in 1975 to $75,070,988 during 1976.

The three institutions showed gains over the previous year in deposits: Frontier Savings, $15,867,032 in 1976, compared to $13,194,989 in 1975; Plainview Savings and Loan Association, $38,264,869 in 1976, up from $33,038,545 in 1975 and Central Plains Savings Association, $20,939,087, from $15,664,971 in 1975. Loan totals for 1976 increased by 18 percent to $73,493,130 from $59,669, 320 a year ago.

Reviewing the past year, one savings official noted, "Looking back on what we've done in 1975 and again this past year, I think this area is in extremely good condition to continue its growth rate during 1977.

"We'll see more residential construction this year and continuing commercial growth, barring some national condition that cannot be controlled," he said.

Savings and loans resources grew from $69,439,584 in 1975 to $86,735,235

Capital structure also increased from $4,528,354 to $41,832,505.

In his January financial statement, the Comptroller reported that fiscal 1977 sales tax collections are 15 percent ahead of 1976 levels, and that the natural gas production tax is reaping 36 percent more revenue.

"Meanwhile," said Bullock, "state expenditures during the first three months of fiscal 1977 totaled $1.7 billion, only $4.5 million more than was spent during the first three months of fiscal 1976. Partly as a result, the state closed out its books at the end of November with a cash balance of $1.4 billion.

Texas May Lose Cotton Board Seats

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) - Texas is in danger of losing two of five representatives to a national cotton board if proposed U.S. Department of Agriculture regulations are put into effect, according to the Plains Cotton Growers Inc.

"It simply means we would not have as much influence on the cotton board as we now have. It could be important in certain issues and other issues it might not be important at all," said Cotton Fanning, assistant to the executive vice president of the Lubbockbased organization.

The 20-member cotton board is comprised of cotton producres appointed by the secretary of agriculture from nominations made by each of the cotton producing states. It is responsible for managing Cotton Incorporated, which does research and market development with money supplied by producers.

Each of the 14 cotton producing states is entitled to at least one board member, plus an additional representative determined by a formula based an average number of bales produced in a state during 1961-65.

Under the formula, Texas has five members, California and Mississippi two each and the other 11 states one member each

The USDA proposal to revise the membership uses the same formula, but would base it on the five most recent years, Fanning said Wednesday.

But because Texas averaged 30 per cent of the nation's cotton production in the 1961-65 period and 29 per cent under the proposed 1971-75 base, the state would lose representation.

Fanning said the Plains Cotton Growers does not object to using the five most recent years in determining the board's composition, but it did file an alternate proposal revising the for-

The cotton growers plan would increase board membership from 20 to 26. Texas would have six members, California four and Mississippi three. Arkansas would have two members and the other states would continue to have one member each.

Fanning said the regulations made by the USDA did not set the number of board representatives, but "the figures just came out

I look forward to hearing from you.

VA Administrator Richard L. Roudebush said the 1977 payments represent an increase of $26.6 million over the dividends paid in 1976. Dividend payments will be made on the anniversary date of the individual policies. First checks will be mailed next week, Roudebush said.

Payments go to holders of three types of government insurance policies: United States Government Life Insurance, National Service Life Insurance and Veterans Special Life Insurance.

Roudebush said $368.1 million of the total dividend will be paid to 3.5 million World War II veterans who maintained their GI insurance policies. The average payment to these veterans will be $104, an increase from the 1976 average payment of $95.

Some 114,300 World War I policy-holding veterans will receive $23.1 million in dividends, an average of $202, up from $193 paid this

Roudebush pointed out that dividends on GI insurance policies in force will be paid automatically. He stressed that there is no need to contact the VA, explaining that an inquiry about a dividend could delay

Dividends represent a return to policyholders of funds not needed to pay the cost of the insurance. This includes both excess interest earned and any savings realized because actual deaths were fewer than projected rates.

What One Person Can Do

A day's work that lasts from 5:30 a.m. until late in the night is nothing unusual for Elizabeth Carlton, Director of Adult Services for the Callier Center for Communications Disorders in Dallas, Texas. And after that, she may be awakened at 2 or 3 in the morning for an emergency assignment. Elizabeth Carlton is the ears for the deaf people of Dallas.

Her fingers flashing the sign language that is often the deaf person's only communication with the world, she relays police questions, interprets for hospital patients or helps prepare newly hired deaf workers for their first job.

The daughter of deaf parents, Mrs. Carlton says that deafness creates a world that few people can understand. "It's the most isolating form of handicap. I guess I do identify with them strongly. The deafness of my own parents made me extremely aware and sensitive to the problem.'

On Sundays she rests -but only after interpreting televised church services for the

MOre must be done, says Mrs. Carlton, for the half million "profoundly deaf" and millions of hearingimpaired Americans who need jobs. "This is a new facet of my work that I want to get into more deeply. In many instances, deaf people prove to be better employees than persons with no hearing disorders. A deaf person has fewer distractions from his immediate work. And, besides, they try harder.' A deep personal experience with the handicapped can often result in a lasting commitment. Jesus asks all His followers to develop a sensitivity to others and tostrive daily to meet their needs.

These guidance counselors help young men and women decide what to do after high school graduation, help them attend the college of their choice-if college is being considered-and discourage them from leaving school too soon, if that has been contem-

Another thing many good guidance counselors do is talk with high school students who are looking for something to do after graduation that's worthwhile, wellpaying and exciting, but they aren't sure what they want. These young people are also looking for a part-time job that will let them earn extra money while still in school. Many guidance counselors recommend a new enlistment program offered by the United States Marine Corps

Through this program high school seniors can enlist in the Marine Corps Reserve up to six months before high school graduation. They will earn money for attending monthly meetings where basic Marine training is studied, while still going to high school. Then, within 60 days after graduation, they become Marine Reservists.

Guidance counselors who would like to learn more about this program and the benefits the Marine Corps can offer a young person can call, tollfree, (800) 423-2600. Guidance counselors in California call, also toll-free, (800) 252-0241. Free booklets about this program are also available at Marine Corps Recruiting stations.

Helping young people into the service is one of the ways a few good men and women-America's guidance counselors-help serve their
