Mackenzie Board Opposes Weather Modification

After a very lengthy discussion the Mackenzie Water Authority board, meeting at the lake site Tuesday night voted to oppose Weather Modification that they feel has been slowing down the rainfall in the lake area.

The resolution opposing Weather Modification will be flown to Austin to the Texas Water Development Board for its study before the February 16 hearing at Lubbock.

In other business the board lowered the fishing and picnicking rate from $1.50 per day to $1.00 a day any day of the week. It was reported that a 14" brown trout was caught by a fisherman out of the lake in December. Water level remains static, around 42 feet at the dam.

Heretofore only row boats have been allowed on the lake, and in the Tuesday night meeting the board approved the use of trolling motors on the boats.

Around 114 lots have been platted for sale at the lake and 150 should be completed by the next board meeting. It is anticipated that lot sales will begin this spring.

The manager of the authority reported that tax collections had been better this year than last and that he will begin publishing a weekly newsletter to area newspapers about events at the lake.

The board also approved building more picnic and camping equipment around the lake.

Attending from Floydada were directors Lon Davis Jr. and S. W. Ross...from Lockney Owen Thornton.

Lady Horns Lose To Idalou, Gain Playoff Spot

By Jim Huggins

It was a tough struggle, but Lockney High School's girls' varsity basketball team managed to lose 44-42 to Idalou Tuesday. The win by Idalou's girls gave them a 4-0 record in the second round of District 4-AA play and the second-round title. The loss by the Lady Horns assured them of a playoff with Tulia (both were 3-1 in the first round). Representatives of those schools met in Lubbock Wednesday to set the playoff time and neutral site.

The Lady Horns held an eight-point lead at the end of the third quarter but scored just two points in the final period. Both Beverly Barker and Sheila Hrbacek scored 14 points for Lockney. Robin Becknell managed 22 for Idalou.

The Lockney girls fell to 1-3 in the second round. Also, Tuesday, Abernathy girls whipped Tulia 48-38, evening those teams' second-round records at 2-2. Abernathy downed the Lady Horns 51-42 last Friday.

Idalou won the boys' game here Tuesday by a score of 60-41. Longhorns who scored in that contest were Danny Clark, 12 points; Danny Fry, 10; Ronnie Cunyus, nine; Allen Sterling, eight; Johnny Dorman, two. Clark led Lockney in rebounding with 14.

The 'Horns averaged 31% on field-goal attempts and 40% on free throws for the night.

The Longhorns dropped a 71-42 decision to Abernathy Friday. Sterling led Lockney in scoring with 17 points and Clark was top Longhorn rebounder with 12 grabs. Ray McMahan reinjured a knee at the start of that game and will be out of the lineup for the rest of the year. The Longhorns were scheduled to play their final game here at 8 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) against Floydada, but the time and place for that contest remained uncertain at press time Wednesday, pending a decision on the girls' playoff contest.

BULLETIN!

The basketball playoff game between Lockney and Tulia girls will be at 7 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) in the New Deal High School gymnasium.

The girls' playoff game will be preceded by a boys' varsity game between Lockney and Floydada. That contest starts at 5 p.m. in the New Deal gym.

Winner of the Lockney-Tulia game goes against Idalou at 2 p.m. Saturday to determine the District 4-AA girls' playoff representative.

Admission to the games is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

A Lockney-Floydada junior varsity boys' game scheduled Friday has been cancelled.

$17,000 For Floyd War Veterans

There are pleasant tidings from Washington for Floyd County's war veterans.

Some 180 of them will be sharing in a $403 million cash distribution that will be made in the months ahead.

The money represents dividends that have been declared on GI insurance policies in force.

Vietnam Veterans, who are covered under Veterans Group Life Insurance (VGLI), a term policy that does not pay dividends, will not participate. They get other compensating benefits.

Most of the recipients are the 3.5 million World War II vets who hold National Service Life Insurance (NSLI). They will split a $368 million melon.

The rest will go to World War I vets who are covered by U.S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) and to Korean vets who have Veterans Special Life Insurance (VSLI).

The 180 in Floyd County who have maintained their policies in force will be getting a total of approximately $17,000.

They represent only a fraction, 21 percent, of the 860 World War and Korean veterans in the local area.

The Veterans Administration points out that the dividend being paid this year to veterans across the country is bigger than ever before. It is nearly $27 million more than in 1976.

The dividends, it notes, represent a return to policy holders of funds that are in excess. This includes interest earned and savings realized because there were fewer deaths than were projected.

The individual dividend checks will vary in amount, depending upon the type of policy held, its size and the age of the holder.

The general average, for those who were in World War I is $202, for World War II vets, $104, and for the others, $22.

Those entitled to checks will receive them automatically, without application, on the anniversary dates of their policies, states the VA.

The Lockney Rotary club sponsors Troop 259. Roy Turley is the Scoutmaster. During 1976 one rank advancement and 22 merit badges were awarded to members of the troop.

The Lion's Club Cub Scout Pack 206 had 28 boys registered during 1976. They earned 20 rank advancements. The pack held a pinewood derby contest and numerous Webelos activities. Pack 206 is in the process of reorganizing to apply for a new charter. Anyone interested in helping should contact Jerry Cawley at 652-3778.

Cattle supply decline sharpest in 30 years

AMARILLO, Tex. — Although total cattle numbers in the U.S. have posted the sharpest decline in more than 30 years, adequate beef supplies should be available for the remainder of 1977, according to Texas Cattle Feeders Association.

"The January 1 cattle inventory, released recently by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, put total numbers at 122.9 million head," says Jim Gill, market analyst with TCF.

"The USDA count shows that cattle producers have trimmed four per cent from the 1976 cattle herd and seven per cent from the 1975 herd."

According to Gill, this indicates cattle are still being liquidated at a very high rate. "Significantly, replacement heifers showed the greatest decline of any class of cattle," the analyst noted. "Heifers were down nine per cent from last year and this is good news for the cattle industry. We are working our way through an oversupply and moving toward a correct supply-demand balance in cattle numbers."

Although the total numbers show a decline, Gill points out that beef prices should not increase rapidly in the near future because cattle on feed and replacement cattle for feedyards are both adequate.

"With replacement cattle numbers six per cent

Farabee Introduces Bill Save School ADA Money

AUSTIN. State Senator Ray Farabee of Wichita Falls has introduced a bill to relieve school districts forced to close schools from the unattractive alternatives of either making up the lost days or facing loss of state funds.

The bill was drafted last week after a meeting at the Capitol with area State Representatives, state officials, and area school officials.

State law requires schools to offer 180 days of instruction to obtain state funds. This season's severely cold weather accompanied by gas curtailments has forced repeated closings of many North Texas schools.

"Quick action is essential on this problem since extensive rescheduling of classes affects previously planned church and civic activities, family vacations, industry scheduling of vacation time, and teachers' ability to continue their education during the summer," Farabee noted. He told school administrators gathered here that the energy problem may continue to plague school schedules.

"I have consulted with the Governor's office, legislators and the Texas Education Agency, and with the assistance of these people and the many concerned school officials at the local level, I am confident we can find a ready solution to this problem."

Farabee's bill would allow approval of operation of schools for less than 180 days of instruction and 10 days of inservice training when disasters, floods, extreme weather conditions, fuel curtailments or other calamities force schools to close.

The Floyd Philosopher

Claims Some Washington Officials Have No Faith In The American Public

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm takes a Senator to task for having no faith in the American public, we think.

Dear editor: Some Washington columnists have been saying the past few years that one trouble with the country today is that the people have lost faith in government officials.

There's another side to that. Some government officials have lost faith in the people.

For example, President Carter has proposed giving every person in the nation $50 apiece to get the economy moving faster. His economic advisers say the release of that much money, around 10 or 12 billion dollars, will stimulate business and get the wheels of trade and industry whirring.

But now here comes a Senator saying it won't work, that too many people won't spend their $50, they'll sock it away in the bank or in savings and loan or under their mattress. Or, what is worse, instead of rushing out and buying something new they'll apply it on their old debts and this won't nudge the economy up a nickel's worth.

This is what I'm talking about. The Senator has lost faith in the American public. How can he be so far out of touch with reality? Doesn't he know that, except for a few moss backs who don't understand the economy and think you can save your way to prosperity, the rest of the people, given $50, will spend it as fast as they can get to a store or thumb through a catalog?

Public officials ought to get out among the people and find out how they operate. Furthermore, Congressmen, as soon as they get their economy-stimulating 25 per cent raise on top of their present $44,500 salary, ought to set an example and pledge themselves to spend that extra $10,000 as soon as they get their hands on it. Saving up for a rainy day isn't the way to do it. Although, come to think of it, perhaps a lot of the country should have been saving up for a snowy one.

If that Senator knows of anybody who won't spend his $50, strike his name off the list and send the money to me. I know what to do with it.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

RESEARCH CREATES JOBS

Although most people realize that scientific research creates new products, some people don't realize that it is creating new jobs at the same time.

In the past 30 years, for example, whole new industries have been born as the result of new and improved products that not only make our lives safer, healthier and more comfortable, but create new jobs as well. Today, 210,000 Americans are employed in the computer field—an industry which didn't even exist before World War II.

Development of new products is a way industry helps keep the job market growing. One example of this is Union Carbide's series of medical diagnostic instruments for use in clinical and medical laboratories. These instruments make possible high speed detection of major disease and symptoms in such vital areas as the heart, liver, and kidney, as well as help measure such disease conditions as hypertension, thyroid disorders, drug toxicity, and cancer. The medical field has been a long time area of research for Union Carbide. This highly diversified company, which produces chemicals, metals, carbons, gases and a line of consumer products, spent $145 million in 1976 for research and development.

American businesses, large and small, are providing an endless stream of products because of the constant demands of our changing world. And, in the process, they are creating jobs. This is vitally important for our growing America. By 1990, more than 21 million people will be added to the job market, and the jobs they're counting on, to a great extent, will come from new product research being done today.

Does Your Banker Say "Our Town"?

Sometimes a single word can have a multitude of implications. Take the word "our" — it implies sharing, trust, concern, joint investments.

An INDEPENDENT BANKER recognizes the implications of the word "our". Because he lives where he works; he shares your goals and makes decisions concerning your money; he is concerned that your family dollars be invested in local loans, local industry and business; he is concerned that your money be put to work to make your community a prosperous one.

Compare that with a bank controlled by distant interests — that's when the difference in "Our Town" and "Your Town" makes a big difference.

Quick Quiz!

Q. Are there more lamp bulbs in your car or in your home?

A. Surprisingly, there are more bulbs in the typical American car than in the average home. Another surprising fact is that at least one, and sometimes as many as 10, individual products used in virtually every domestic and passenger vehicle that comes off Detroit's production line are made by one company.

Understanding Teenage Girls Is Club Topic

In informative program on "Understanding Teen-Age Girls" was presented to members of the 1929 Study Club at their regular monthly meeting held February 3rd in the home of Mrs. Clarence Goins. Miss Jean Christopher, homemaking teacher at Della Plains, gave the program.

Mrs. Emma Lou Whitaker, was program leader, and read the thought for the day, "Exchange your gold into lives. The current coin of heaven is lives of men." She also led the group in the pledge to the flag.

Mrs. Ian Moore, club president, conducted the business session during which time, Chamber of Commerce manager, Doug Frazier, distributed questionnaires to be filled in about the needs of Floydada and Floyd County.

Mrs. Moore read a letter concerning the "Hands-Up" workshop which was held in Lubbock, February 5. A letter of appreciation was read from the management of the mental hospital in Vernon, thanking the club for clothing and other articles donated.

Mrs. Q. D. Williams gave a portion of the program, "Girlstown-USA". She then introduced Miss Christopher, who in discussing the topic of "Understanding the Teen-Age Girl," challenged adults to use their ability and opportunity to help teenagers by listening, understanding, and being honest in their association with the younger people. She stressed that each teenager must be made to feel worthwhile and made to feel lovable and capable. Miss Christopher recommended two books for a simple but effective understanding of young people, "Born to Win" and "I Ain't Much, Baby, But I'm All I've Got."

Following the program, Mrs. Goins served refreshments to the guest and to 13 club members, Mmes. Vance Campbell, H. O. Cline, J. A. Colston, C. W. Denison, Noman Hamilton, C. M. "Our Pleasure Is To Serve You"

Peggy's Meddlin's
BY PEGGY MEDLEY

MRS. Nellie Witt Spikes of Ralls was recently presented a citation from the Crosby County Historical Commission for "distinguished service" and also made her an honorary member of the county commission.

Mrs. Spikes is well known in this part of the country for her column in the Floyd County Hesperian, "As A Farm Woman Thinks." She worked many years for the late Homer Steen, and was still writing when I joined the firm, and did so until the 60's. She has also written booklets on early days of the Southwest, and perhaps her greatest contribution to Crosby County is the book, "History of Crosby County," written by Mrs. Spikes and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Temple Ann Ellis. The book was written in 1952 and is now out of circulation and is "treasured by those who own one."

Mrs. Spikes has not stopped writing or helping students write their themes concerning county history. She writes for the Ralls Banner and the Lorenzo Leader from time to time.

I recall many of her columns in the Hesperian. One in particular as she describes her first memory of this area with its evergreen oak trees, fruit trees of ripe peaches, plums and apples, and the vines of blackberry and raspberry. The ox teams as they slowly walked the steep road up the long cap with their heavy loads, the beautiful land unbroken with a plow. Herds of antelope, acres of white daisies, the rustle of the wings of a mother quail, and the fragrance of wild plum blossoms. The scent from the camp fire with boiling coffee, frying meat and sour dough biscuits. The barking of dogs and the cracking of wagon wheels on the snow covered ground. How I enjoyed her many quotes, poems and Bible scriptures.

Mrs. Spikes was born in 1888 in Weatherford, the daughter of John Marvin Witt and Margaret Jones Witt. They moved to Crosby county in an ox wagon hauling their belongings of which she wrote. Nellie was four at the time. In 1906 she and Jeff J. Spikes were married and they reared three children, the late Dr. L. W. Spikes of Ralls and twin daughters, Mrs. Wilmer Wheeler of Cone and Mrs. Wilda Laminack of Ralls.

A cheap and effective antidote for painful insect stings (except in rare cases of serious shock) is readily available in the kitchen, according to a letter in the A.M.A. Journal by Dr. Harry Arnold, Jr., a Honolulu dermatologist. His prescription: a quarter-teaspoon of meat tenderizer dissolved in a teaspoon or two of water and rubbed into the skin around the bite. The tenderizer, Arnold explains, contains papain, a protein-dissolving enzyme, which probably breaks down the venom. If applied immediately, Arnold says, it will stop the pain of most insect stings in seconds.

Mrs. Christopher is the former Mary Frances Jones.

Christopher and other daughters, Christie and Mrs. Ricky Holland and sons, Cris and Todd all of Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Jones and daughters, Jerry and Mrs. Steve Gillum and husband, and Larry Jones all of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Rob Heflin, Shawnda, Rick and LaDonna of Floydada, and the hosts and hostesses.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters

How true is the saying about West Texas that "if you don't like the weather just hang around a little while and it will change." This week we had a little bit of every kind of weather even a little snow.

We enjoyed good devotions and were glad to have the First Methodist Church people back with their devotions Thursday. We miss all of you if you don't come on the day for your devotion. The residents look forward to these as a means of getting their spiritual food for the day. Many of them cannot see to read their Bibles, so they depend on you to bring them the word of God. They also enjoy the beautiful old songs you sing. We are sorry we still have three residents in the hospital. Hope Hammonds, Zolite Burgett and Clea Bradshaw. Hope they will all be home very soon. We are happy Mark Jardon got to come home from the hospital this week.

We at the home were all sorry to hear Victoria Bartlett had broken her hip. She was a resident here for awhile when she broke a hip several years ago.

We had a short field trip Wednesday. There were only Florence Badgett, Viola Weems, Dora Langford, Mr. Freeman and myself making the trip. Sure hope Agnes Anderson and some of the others will be able to go next week.

We have had very good exercise classes this week and Thursday was Bingo Day again. Top winner was Agnes Anderson with 4 games. Della Finley and Willie Mae Stambough won 3 games and Ray Reed and Hallie Bertrand won 2 games each. This was the first time Willie Mae has played.

We appreciate every visitor we had this week which included: Josephine and Verdie Smith, Lockney; Sue Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hargis, Mr. and Mrs. Vellie McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Anderson, Guy Galloway, Parnell Powell, Lurene Gee, Ruby Weems, Mrs. Vernon McPeak, Osie Morrison, Edna Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Davis all of Floydada; Ruthie Kunkel, Kelly Kunkel and Tex Smith all of Plainview.

Mrs. Smith also announced the Burdick 5 Electrocardiograph portable machine had been received and was in use at the hospital. Troy Patton, hospital administrator, displayed the new unit for the group. The machine cost $1,290 and was purchased with funds received from memorials, general donations, donations in honor of individuals and auxiliary dues. The memorials were from the special "Family and Friend Memorial Fund for Mrs. W. O. Tye" which took care of one third of the purchase. The nursing scholarship and remaining cost of the machine were in memory of Margie Oden, Lee Carver, J. B. Colston, Vern Gauntt, W. F. Daniel, Sr., Dr. John Kimball, Festus Steen, Wesley Carr, L. A. Sargent, Mrs. Claude Ring, C. W. Ginn, Mrs. Velma Spence;

Cook For The Heart Of It

For the next few weeks there will be a series of planned meals and recipes to help the public have a healthy heart. They are being furnished by Mrs. Betty Baker, Director of Dietetics of Caprock Hospital and chairman of Nutrition for the American Heart Association.

These moderate changes in daily eating habits are recommended: To control your intake of cholesterol-rich foods: Eat no more than three egg yolks a week, including eggs used in cooking. Limit your use of shellfish and organ meat.

To control the amount and type of fat you eat: In most of your meat meals for the week, use fish, chicken, turkey and veal; limit beef, lamb, pork and ham to five moderate-sized portions per week. Choose lean cuts of meat, trim visible fat, and discard the fat that cooks out of the meat. Avoid deep fat frying; using cooking methods that help to remove fat - baking, broiling, boiling, roasting and stewing. Restrict your use of fatty "luncheon" and "variety" meats like sausages and salami. Instead of butter and other cooking fats, use liquid vegetable oils and margarines that are rich in polyunsaturated fats. Instead of whole milk and cheeses made from whole milk and cream, use skimmed milk and skimmed milk cheese.

ARE YOU UP ON NUTRITION?

Whether you're cooking for a big family, a small one, or just for yourself—it's important to plan nutritious, well-balanced meals.

To focus your attention on this very vital part of everyone's life, the first week of March has been designated National Nutrition Week.

How can you be sure you're serving nutritious meals? First, you have to know generally the basic needs of the human body. For this you learn about the Basic Four Food Groups of bread and cereals; fruits and vegetables; meat, fish, poultry, and eggs; milk and milk products.

In the second place, you have to have specific nutritive information, which you can get from the labels on many food products. For instance, the labels for rice tell you that rice has only 100 calories per 1 ounce or about 1/2 cup serving, but that it also contributes protein, iron, thiamine, and niacin to the diet.

Since rice is frequently combined with other foods, its nutritive contribution enhances that of the other foods in the combination. The result is a casserole, side dish, or dessert that is more nutritious than any of the foods alone would be.

The following recipe for Casserole Beef Olé is a good example. The protein of the rice teams up with that of the pinto beans; the B-vitamins of thiamine and niacin add to that contributed from the cheese and so on.

Personality Quiz

ARE YOU EASY TO INTIMIDATE?

Do you stand up for your rights—or does power—either real or imagined—make you shrink? Why not take this quiz and see if you're easily intimidated. Four right answers means you probably don't let people take advantage of you.

1. If you're a depositor in a bank and someone tries to get in line ahead of you, it's best to (A) politely point out that you were standing ahead of him (B) let him get away with it (C) force your way in front of him?

2. If you receive a parking ticket and think you don't deserve it, you should (A) forget it and pay the fine (B) contest the case in court (C) explain the situation to a local politician?

3. A friend passes away and you plan to send flowers but the family asks that donations be made to charity. You should (A) follow their suggestions implicitly (B) send flowers as well as contribute to the charity (C) send flowers only?

4. If your employer gives you more work than you can handle, you should (A) call him a slave driver (B) ask which work he'd like you to do first (C) say nothing and meekly do the best you can?

5. When a friend of yours urges you to try a new drug because he had the same problem, it would be best to (A) try it (B) refuse to take a drug unless it has been prescribed for you by a physician (C) tell your friend that you'd like to think about it?

Answers: 1. (A) Politely point out that you were standing ahead of him. Using force is as bad as being too meek.

2. (B) Contest the case in court. You'll probably get a sympathetic hearing and will not have to pay a fine. Explaining the problem to a political leader may imply that you are seeking undue influence.

3. (B) Send flowers as well as contribute to the charity. Doing so will enable you to honor the dead as well as comply with their request for donations. If you're sending flowers out of town, ask the florist to "please FTD them." It doesn't cost extra and the

To people who occasionally find themselves worrying about the future, the Bible can bring great comfort. It tells people not to think too much about tomorrow, but to live a fuller life in the present moment.

The Bible lets people know that peace is the absence of everything that disturbs and distresses, and the presence of everything that makes for wholeness and completeness. (John 14:27) If you want to know more about the Bible's wisdom in matters of life and death, you can read a booklet entitled "If A Man Die..."

BENTSEN SAYS GRAIN LAW

'OVERREACTION'

Washington, D.C. - Senator Lloyd Bentsen Monday said the new Federal grain inspection law will "drive grain costs up, drive farm profits down and drive paper work through the roof."

Bentsen met in Washington recently with a delegation of 13 grain producers, elevator operators and private inspectors. In testimony submitted Monday to the Senate Agriculture Committee he said the new law is an overreaction to the recent grain inspection scandals and called for amendments to remove some of the objectionable features of the measure.

"I've long been concerned about this bill," Bentsen said.

"The cost of hiring government inspectors and the requirements for extensive record-keeping - much of it completely unnecessary - are threatening to increase the cost of inspecting a truckload of grain to $14. That's going to mean higher grain prices for the consumers in this country and lower profits for the farmers who work to bring food to our tables."

Bentsen urged the Agriculture Committee to favorably consider amendments to the law that would reduce the amount of record-keeping and eliminate Federal inspectors, replacing them with supervisors who would oversee the work done by private inspectors.

"We certainly want to reassure the world as to the integrity of our grain inspection system. But this new law is a serious overreaction to the problem," Bentsen said.

"As it now stands, the law threatens to drive grain costs up, drive farm profits down and drive paperwork through the roof, and it should be changed," Senator Bentsen said.

IN THIS SCENE from the exciting Early American play, DANIEL BOONE, AMERICAN FRONTIERSMAN, two of Boone's children, Jimima and Israel, admire the new American flag they received from Washington to fly over Fort Boonesborough, Kentucky, in the year 1778. THE NATIONAL CHILDREN'S THEATRE ASSOCIATION'S company of professional actors will present this true story about Daniel Boone on February 16 at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. in Lockney Elementary School Cafetorium sponsored by Il Penseroso Junior Study Club. Tickets may be purchased at the door on the day of the performance for 25 cents.

'Daniel Boone' At School Next Wednesday

In honor of the United States Bicentennial, the Il Penseroso Junior Study Club is proud to be able to present the first performance of the National Children's Theatre Association's touring production of DANIEL BOONE, at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on February 16 in the Lockney Elementary Cafetorium.

This new play written especially for the National Children's Theatre Association tells of the life of Daniel Boone from a teenager son of a Quaker family, growing up in the wilds of early Pennsylvania, to his death at 86 in Missouri.

Children of all ages will thrill at the great courage of Boone as he carved out the famous Wilderness Trail through the Appalachian Mountains to open the West to settlers; how his son and his brother were killed by Indians; and yet he made friends with the Indians in order to protect hundreds of settlers.

The excitement of Boone saving his daughter when the Indians captured her; and his leading the settlers to victory over the Indians when they attacked Fort Boonesborough, will have audiences on the edge of their seats. This Bicentennial True American History play will have colorful authentic costumes including the famous Black Buckskin suit Boone wore), beautiful scenery and music, making this a treat for all children to see and enjoy.

The National Children's Theatre Association of Dallas and New York has assembled a cast of professional adult actors to portray the roles in DANIEL BOONE, American Frontiersman.

Tickets are 25 cents and will be on sale at the door.

Cotton Prices Steady To Firm

Grower prices were steady to firm during the week ending February 4, according to Paul R. Dickson, in charge of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Lubbock Cotton Classing Office.

The Lubbock Cotton Exchange's Spot Quotations advanced about $2.50 per bale from the previous week. The base price for grade 41, staple 34, mikes 3.5 - 4.9 was 66.85 cents on Friday, February 4, up 50 points from the previous Friday, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service.

Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 41, 51, 42, and 52; staples 30-33; mikes 3.0 - 4.9 for 62.00 to 63.00 cents per pound.

Demand was moderate to good, Dickson said.

Cotton grades were slightly lower this year, compared with last year. Predominant grades this year in the area served by the Lubbock office were grades 42 (19 percent), 33 (12 percent) and 43 (23 percent), compared with grades 41 (14 percent), and 42 (38 percent), and 52 (18 percent) last year.

More samples were reduced one grade because of bark. Forty-one percent were reduced this season compared with 25 percent last year.

Staple lengths were longer. Average staple length at Lubbock's office was 31.5 thirty-seconds of an inch, up from the previous year's 30.3 thirty-seconds.

Average micronaire was higher for this crop. The average was 3.5 compared with only 2.9 a year ago.

Pressley strength fell. Samples averaged 81,000 pounds per square inch (psi) at Lubbock for the 1976-77 crop while the average for 1975-76 was 86,000 psi.

Seed prices were higher. Farmers averaged about $96.00 per ton for cotton-seed this season and about $87.50 per ton last year.

Cotton prices advanced sharply. In spite of weaker prices from early December through mid-January, growers received 15 to 25 cents per pound above year ago levels.

About 925,000 samples were classed for the Lubbock area compared with 704,000 a year ago.

Good Jobs Available Now

There's good news for high school seniors who would like a good job while they're in school and one after they graduate.

Now, through a special program just for young men and women attending high school, the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve will accept recruits who don't have to report for basic training for nearly eight months.

In the meantime, students can continue to attend high school, secure in knowing they have a good job waiting for them after graduation. In addition, they earn good money for attending one meeting a month in a Marine Corps Reserve unit, practicing the Marine Corps drill and learning what it means to be a Marine.

Then, within 60 days after graduation the new recruit can become a Marine Reservist, a worthwhile and exciting job for a young person.

For details about the program, and about opportunities in the Marine Corps, the toll-free number is (800) 423-2600. The toll-free number in California is (800) 252-0241.

Among the many benefits of being a Marine are such things as 30-day paid vacations, tax breaks, housing loans and benefits, health and medical care, commissary and exchange benefits, travel and many special education programs that can help you learn a skill you can use to further your career in the military and as a civilian, or that let you go on to college, officers training school, even the Naval Academy.

Salvation Army Campaign Kickoff Friday

The Salvation Army Service Unit will kick off its annual fund raising campaign in Lockney on February 11, it was announced by Margaret Schacht, campaign chairman. The kick-off meeting will be in Miss Schacht's home at 9:30 a.m.

Funds collected in the drive will be used to pay for The Salvation Army's services to the underprivileged in Lockney through the current fiscal year.

"Our campaign workers and Service Unit committee members are in harness for the big drive. We know that the people of Lockney will come through with flying colors as they have consistently in the past," Miss Schacht said.

The Lockney Service Unit Committee, composed of business and civic leaders, carries out a year-around program to help with emergency needs. In the name of The Salvation Army whom it represents, the committee pays for food, lodging, utilities and such basic necessities that families or individuals may require in a temporary crisis.

The Service Unit also acts as liaison for The Salvation Army's state-wide program, which includes summer outings for boys at Camp Hoblitzelle, care for unwed mothers at the Home and Hospital in San Antonio, help for paroled prisoners, relief in major disasters, and other services.

Members of the committee in Lockney are: Arthur Barker, Jr., Rev. Hugh B. Daniel, Gene Collins, Jr., Mrs. M. A. Ulmer and Rev. John Jenkins. During the past twelve months this committee gave emergency assistance to 197 local residents and 41 transients. Five deserving boys were selected and attended the Salvation Army's summer camp for one full week. The local committee makes all decisions as to who will be helped and the amount of aid to be given. All state services of The Salvation Army are available as they are needed.

Goal for the campaign has been set at $1,500.00 and campaign efforts begin immediately following a kickoff coffee meeting at the home of Margaret Schacht for all campaign workers. This meeting will be at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, February 11th. Dan Johnston, associate Service Unit director for The Salvation Army will attend this meeting and then will be the guest speaker at noon at the Lockney Rotary Club.

creases in 1968. The law provides that when the Commission makes its recommendations on Federal salary increases to the President, he can then submit the recommendation to the Congress which, if not negatively acted on by either the House or the Senate, becomes effective in 30 days after the submission. Both President Ford, before leaving office, and now, President Carter, accepted the Commission's report and have recommended its adoption. The Senate has failed to turn the proposition down and, although the House held hearings the first three days of this week, it does not appear there is time for a vote before the increases become automatic.

MANY OF THE NEWER MEMBERS OF CONGRESS who are younger and have growing families, contend that they cannot live in the expensive Washington area on the salary now provided. It is true it is the most expensive place in the Country but, on the other hand, they knew what the salary was when they sought the office.

THOSE OF US WHO HAVE EXPRESSED A CONCERN about inflation and about Government spending cannot consistently and with conscience support pay increases at this time. The argument for justifying salary increases aside, this should be a time of retrenchment in the cost of all Government operation but one is in a poor position to be an advocate of this view and, at the same time, vote himself further benefits.

CERTAINLY, WE SHOULD NOT get into a situation where only the wealthy could afford to serve in an official position, whether elected or appointed. On the other hand, this certainly appears to be the time to set an example of not adding further to the tremendous costs of the Federal Government.

INCIDENTALLY, IF A PERSONAL REFERENCE MAY BE PARDONED, this Member could hardly benefit anyway. Pushed up into a higher bracket of income means that most, if not practically all, would go for the payment of taxes. This is true for others in the private sector of our economy whose incomes may be greater than ever before and higher prices because of inflation. There is simply no way to beat this economic fact, aside from all other considerations. Of course, there are those who have considerable deductions under the tax laws, but those who are limited really gain nothing.

IN ATTEMPT TO MOLLIFY THE PUBLIC'S ATTITUDE towards these pay increases, there is to be adopted a more strict code of ethics for Members of Congress. Outside income is to be restricted and made public. Honorariums for speaking engagements are to be strictly limited or prohibited. Other standards are to be adopted which are supposed to impress people but, in all candor, have the appearance of window-dressing. It is a little like saying to the public -look at us; we are going to be honest. Certainly, the public expects and should demand strict honesty. It is the business of the people who vote or appoint their public officials to determine their worthiness. Much of this so-called "reform" seems to start with the premise that we have to declare ourselves to be Simon pure and that to prove it we establish a code of ethics. Certainly, there must be rules, and there must be law, but to have some, such as now proposed, would have people believe that this cures everything and is a justification for bigger pay.

HOLDING DOWN LAND TAXES-Taking advantage of tax angles when buying or selling real estate may save a farmer or rancher thousands of dollars, says an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A buyer should set up the right tax "basis" for the land. He should also allocate part of the total price to unharvested crops and put a value on all buildings, equipment and timber on the land. When selling real estate, it's best to do so when crops are still in the ground. When transferring a farm to a son or daughter, one way to avoid charging a fixed price is to arrange payments in the form of a percentage of the annual farm receipts over a number of years.

If fuel costs are squeezing the profit out of your corn crop, plant

The Cost Cutter

One Less Irrigation • Lower Harvest and Hauling Costs • Less Moisture Dockage • Lower Drying Cost • More Income and Profit per Acre

Pioneer brand 3780 improves corn profits four ways. It is an early hybrid that takes one less watering than the hybrids you've been planting. It also dries faster after maturity than other corns. Since it has good standability and ear retention, you can leave it in the field to dry. This means you harvest less moisture, haul less moisture, and have little or no dockage and drying cost.

SINCE IT DOESN'T COST AS MUCH TO GROW, IT CAN MAKE MORE MONEY

In 1976, farmers found that "Cost Cutter" 3780 produced significantly more net income per acre than competitive corns of much later maturity. Though the green weight yield of later maturity corns was greater, 3780 was usually much lower in moisture and thus higher in dry yield per acre. When the saving in irrigation fuel cost was added to the higher dry yield, it made a difference of $20 to $30 net income per acre.

This hybrid matures 11 to 13 days earlier than our famous 3369A but it doesn't concede yield for its earliness. Under most growing conditions, it will yield pretty close to the full-season varieties and harvest several points drier.

TOUGH ENOUGH TO TAKE IT

3780 is also a tough little hybrid that can take some stress. Head smut didn't bother it in 1976. It has good roots and stalks and holds its ears well. It is sensitive about getting pre-tassel water right on time, however. That critical irrigation time is fairly short since it passes quickly through each stage of growth.

Here are actual examples of 3780's ability to make more profit than later maturing, high yielding competitors:

	Yield wet weight lbs./acre	% Moisture at Harvest	Pay Weight after drying 1	Gross return per acre 2	Harvest and hauling cost 3	Difference in irrigation cost 4	Gross return per acre for each hybrid	Dollar per acre advantage for 3780

*The most widely sold station cross on the Plains. It is sold under several different brand names and variety designations.
 1. Drying and dockage charge was 2% per point of moisture above 15.5%. 2. Returns figured with corn at $4.00 per cwt. 3. Harvest and hauling costs at 50¢ per cwt. 4. The savings of one irrigation by 3780 at an estimated cost of $8.00 per acre.

STAGGERED MATURITY

If you're farming big acreage, 3780 is the perfect hybrid to use with Pioneer brand 3369A and 3195 in a Staggered Maturity planting program. The new Pioneer program allows you to:

- Hedge against weather problems.
- Use water, labor and machinery more efficiently.
- Harvest each variety at the optimum time.

(Editor's note: This is the second part of a two part series that began Sunday, written by a Lubbock businessman Arthur Gamble.)

I think the full import of the words "Till Death Do Us Part" was not impressed on me at any time in my life until several months after my wife's death. Then I began to realize that the vow I had taken and kept during those years had been done away with by death—we were not parted.

Months had passed and as I accepted the loss of "friends" my changed relationships no longer haunted me. One thing continued to bother me as it has in my business traveling over the years—I still hated to eat an evening meal alone. To me a lonely person eating in a cafeteria at night is a most depressing sight.

As I ate my lonely evening meals I began to notice that often there would be lovely ladies eating alone. Such an arrangement seemed foolish, so I decided to break over and take someone to dinner. I took one girl out while on the road and found the meal most pleasant. Back home again, I called an attractive young widow I knew and arranged a dinner date which broke the ice.

There are no problems when you take an attractive woman out to dinner, a theater or even a dance. You just give her the attention a lady deserves from her escort. At the age of 20 you can get away with almost anything because of callow ignorance but a man of 50 out with a single woman in her 40's hardly has that defense.

What do you do when you are in a darkened theater? Hold hands? This may sound insane but just how do you let her know you're enjoying being with her without appearing to be a silly old fool? I soon formed some opinions about which women would be good dates and otherwise. For an A-1 date, go with a divorcee who was married to "grade A S.O.B." because she appreciates decent treatment. You don't have to be a Prince Charming on a white charger for her—just an ordinary human being driving a five year old Chevy is enough if you treat her with respect.

If a woman says of her husband "he is good to me," then you can figure she has been married previously. Every bride expects her husband to be good to her but the divorcee knows that it isn't always that way.

The worst date possible is the woman who was a hell-cat with her husband only to have him die suddenly. Now, filled with remorse and regret, she cannot be nice to another man without somehow feeling she's being untrue to that "perfect" man she treated so badly.

I once heard a claim agent for the railroad say nothing seemed to improve the quality of West Texas cattle like crossing them with a Santa Fe locomotive. As I hear some of these deceased husbands praised it seems that death has elevated some pretty ordinary old boys toward sainthood—that is if you pay any attention to their "devoted" widows.

I had been warned that a single man in my town would receive many improper advances but was I disappointed! I did have one that came about during an office visit when the girl kept hinting around about how I was getting along and I assured her I was OK. Finally she came right out and asked how my sex life was. My answer of "Adequate!" seemed to be the proper answer because she left suddenly.

I yield to no man in my appreciation of dogs, particularly the big husky outdoor type. But when you find a woman has one of those yapping, pesky little toy poodles, stop and think. What you have before you is no utilitarian guard or hunting dog but she has taken unto herself "something to love." A man you can compete with, even a departed one who was perfect, but that little bundle of fur has you outdistanced before you start. If she is talking baby talk to the little monster, close the door quietly as you slip out—then run!

Sometimes you find a very desirable woman who has become adjusted to living alone. This has been no easy adjustment so unless you have serious intentions, don't go so far that she will have to adjust again after you're gone. Don't worry, there are plenty more along the way not so well adjusted.

Many friends have "Just the girl for you." If you believe them literally you may have to revise your opinions of either yourself or your friends.

One friend was quite frank with me about the "Just-the-girl-for-you" she had in mind. "She's a lovely girl but she has one drawback to some men—she is heir to about five million dollars." I am one of those men. I could foresee complications I've never had in my life before, so I am sure I missed a charming lady.

If you have someone you think might be "just-the-girl" don't queer the deal by such introductions. Simply ask him to attend a function with your party and escort a friend of yours. No buildup, no sales talk, no obligation. Just a chance for an enjoyable evening with friends escorting someone they obviously approve. If they're the ones for each other, they'll take it from there.

Your date's children can provide some interesting moments. Once on a second date with an attractive divorcee, I was greeted at the door by her son who introduced his wife and told his mother I was there. When she appeared, we told them goodbye and started to leave only to be stopped by the son with "Just a minute—may I ask who you are double dating with tonight?" His mother stood there with her eyes wide and open mouthed as he continued.

"After all, this is only your second date. Do you think it proper for you to go out alone?" He had waited since his earliest dates to get this back on his mother and the look on her face was worth it all.

There is an expectancy on the part of some young widows (maybe from experience) that they'll be fighting off their escort during the evening. Once after a dance I took my date to a restaurant for breakfast before escorting her home. During the meal she mentioned quite pointedly her feelings about kissing on the first date. I hadn't thought about it particularly until she brought up the subject, so I just let her keep up this line of talk and tried to make things as pleasant as possible. When we reached her home she handed me the key, I opened the door, handed the key back. As she waited for me to try what she had warned me not to do I reached over, took her hand which I shook warmly, told her goodnight and left. I'm not sure she has figured that one out yet, but I couldn't resist the temptation.

I doubt there are any perfect marriages. Even the best have some areas of friction. When you begin to date you look for a girl embodying the best of your first marriage with personality traits that will forestall the frictions.

Once I was attending a play with a young widow when we heard one of the characters say "Dr. S. in his book on marriage says that people marrying for the second time tend to repeat the mistakes of their first marriage." It must have hit us equally hard because we differed on money, politics, background and outlook on life. We were together several times after that but things never again achieved the head of steam they had up until then.

One night I took a woman to a dance where we were with a large group. As is customary, I danced with her and then with the various ladies in our party. A couple was drinking pretty steadily but the effects didn't show up until the dance had been going for some time. I mentioned that it looked as if I would have to dance with this girl since she was the only one I had missed. I debated with myself for some time and against my better judgment decided to ask her anyhow. Unfortunately, she accepted.

I kept away from the crowded middle of the floor and with the help of the Lord and a good sense of balance, managed to complete the dance and get her back to the table without letting her fall. I was congratulating myself on having accomplished a difficult, distasteful chore when her husband staggered up to me and said "Why don't you dance with your beautiful blonde and let my wife alone?" I answered, "Gladly!"

That one promise I have had no trouble keeping ever since, but it shows one of the hazards of the single man with a group of married people. As a married man I have never had anything like that happen to me but as a single apparently I was a threat. Incidentally, his wife wasn't my type at all.

I missed one trap that seems to affect some men who are dating again: I was never tempted by much younger girls even though I dated some. Amazing as it may seem there are girls who are attracted by older men, and there is a temptation to cash in on such an opportunity. There is no doubt that in some of those "May-December" marriages that "May" sees only Christmas in "December." Besides that, I have raised one family and the prospect of measles, chickenpox, Cub Scouts and above all, PTA, was enough to head me off. As I began to settle down to a few girls in my dating, my friends began to ask if I was getting serious. I would still get invitations to parties as a single instead of being asked to bring a date of my own choice. I always went to those parties knowing that the hostess would have an eligible lady there to pair off with me.

As you date more, the little games that made dating such a fascinating pastime in your younger days began to pall. The sight of a woman who has two children and is in her forties being coy is enough to turn off the most avid date. Likewise the artifices that are interesting at 20 become nauseating at 50—such as a 45-year-old woman talking baby talk to you on a date. Or the girl who wants several days' advance notice before a date makes you wonder just what it is that she has to bolster up before going out with you.

Since I only dated girls I thought attractive, looks became secondary. Grooming was most important because the girl who has enough pride to keep up her appearance indicates qualities that are most desirable. Every girl has a right to be beautiful at 20 but the one who is still attractive at 45 has something on the ball and is worthwhile.

One by one many of your dates become less interesting so you concentrate on those you enjoy the most. As these relationships develop you begin to realize that one certain girl has all the qualities you think ideal in a woman. You begin to spend more and more time with her. Then arrives a time when you want this relationship to become more permanent.

Then, my friend, you're ripe and ready for matrimony! You hadn't planned it this way. You were going to be the swinging bachelor all the way to the old folks' home, then see if there was anyone interesting there. Now life with this one girl looks like all you had ever wanted, yet you wonder do I really know her? Have I been fooled by a real little con artist? Has she been putting on an act for my benefit? Is she for real? Should I go home and read another chapter in my prized book on how to avoid marriage? I had already read it from cover to cover six times.

"Seek and ye shall find" says the Bible—but I wasn't planning anything like this—I wasn't seeking a wife—I was going to—

Suddenly, I realize that I am standing before a small group of my nearest and dearest with my son standing by my side as best man and this lovely girl is holding my hand. She has had the same doubts but now we're taking the plunge together.

Time has passed. Now I know she was for real! Nothing phony here! She is all I had ever hoped and dreamed of having. It's a new kind of life. Something has changed and for the better. Loneliness is gone—sharing is back. Life is great.

Second marriages? If you are as lucky as I am, don't hesitate! Get going!

LET GEORGE DO IT! FEBRUARY 18th

DO YOU PRACTICE GOOD ETIQUETTE?

Etiquette is something you learn, not something you're born with. Take this quick quiz and see how you score. If you answer three or more questions correctly you have had a higher education in etiquette.

1. Does a young bride properly thank friends and relatives for wedding gifts by (A) sending a printed or engraved card of thanks (B) making a personal phone call to express her gratitude (C) personally handwriting her thank-you on a sheet of note paper?

2. When a single girl is invited to dinner at a bachelor's apartment, should she (A) go for a prescribed amount of time (B) take a chaperone with her (C) decline the invitation?

3. An acquaintance has passed away and relatives request that mourners please omit flowers and send contributions to a charity instead. You should (A) do precisely as requested (B) send flowers and contribute to the charity (C) simply attend the funeral?

4. When a dinner party is in progress and one female guest arrives late, should (A) all the men rise (B) remain seated (C) only the man who has been seated to her right should rise?

5. If a man and woman are walking on a very crowded street, should the man (A) always walk on the outside (B) take the woman's arm and push her through the crowd (C) walk on either side, behind or ahead, so long as it is the most convenient for both?

Answers: 1. (C) On a sheet of note paper, and in her own handwriting, the young bride must send a separate letter for each gift received. Sending a printed or engraved thank-you is considered inexcusable rudeness.

2. (A) A career girl may readily accept such an invitation, but should not stay beyond ten or thirty. Only "teens" need be chaperoned.

3. (B) People are always happy to receive flowers—the universally accepted symbol of sympathy. If you're sending flowers out of town, ask the florist to "please FTD them." It doesn't cost extra and the flowers will be sent through the Florists' Transworld Delivery network of "extra touch" florists.

4. (C) The only man who needs rise is the one seated to the right of where the late-arriving lady will sit.

5. (C) Walk in whichever position is convenient to both. Continual switching to stay on the outside is a nuisance, and pushing the lady ahead can be dangerous—for her.

Sen. Hance Proposal

No Insurance, No Auto Registration

"It is time for the responsible drivers of this state to be protected against the uninsured motorist," commented State Senator Kent Hance (D-Lubbock) after introducing legislation aimed at preventing uninsured

Texas motorists, who cannot establish financial responsibility, from operating their vehicles. Senator Hance's bill would prohibit county tax assessors from registering motor vehicles and prevent the Department of Public

D.P.S. and the insured at least twenty days in advance.

In addition, the car owner must prove financial responsibility after his/her liability insurance policy is terminated, or the D.P.S. will suspend his/her registration.

"Last year, 563,160 autos were involved in accidents where insurance reports were filed in Texas. 196,840 or 35.9%, of these cars were uninsured," Hance cited.

THE SECRETARY'S MOST COMMON COMPLAINT

The secretary's most common complaint, believe it or not, has nothing to do with the company she (or he) works for or her boss. Although her attitude toward her job may very well be influenced by her work load and her respect for the company and person she works for, most often the complaint centers around the equipment provided her to do her job.

Bad typewriter, you ask? Not at all. Most secretaries are satisfied with their typewriters, desks, and work environments. But their big gripe is their chair. That is, if they are aware enough to associate that chronic nagging backache with an inadequate sitting posture.

In spite of the prevalence of national and local secretaries' associations and special weeks for "being good to your secretary," secretaries may very well be the largest group of neglected employees in the world. The reason: most people tend to think that any job that requires sitting is "easy work." Thus, they tend to overlook a severe occupational problem (one that executives and students suffer from as well). They overlook the fact that the devoted secretary who keeps her boss' appointment book straight, can read the boss' writing better than he can, and types twenty, thirty, or forty letters a day is prone to severe postural stress and back pain.

Is it any wonder then, that at times she moves a little slower than she used to and doesn't have the smile on her face that customers find so attractive? Is it any wonder why the "typewriter" isn't quite as fast as it used to be, and even makes mistakes at times?

Consider the possibility that your valued secretary may have strained muscles and a sore back from sitting in the same strained position for hours on end.

Your doctor of chiropractic, a specialist in treating health problems related to the back and spine, has some good suggestions on how you can keep a secretary happy and more efficient. They deal with maintaining the structural integrity of the body.

- (1) Get her a good posture chair.
 - (2) Advise her to sit erect with her feet firmly on the floor.
 - (3) Suggest that she change sitting positions frequently.
 - (4) Let her take standing breaks occasionally, perhaps by giving her a variety of duties.
 - (5) Emphasize to her the importance of exercise and physical fitness.
 - (6) Explain that you're interested in her welfare as well as performance.
- If you are a secretary, clip this column and give it to your boss. If you are an executive, hand it to your secretary. If you are a parent of a student, suggest that it be read for the sake of a happier career... and better health.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, February 7- Good attendance holds at the South Plains Baptist Church, with visitors seen this Sunday morning at Sunday School, Lori and Lisa Bice and Cindy Reeves. It was nice to see Mrs. Walter Wood able to be out and to attend church.

February birthdays include Kelvin Cummings, Feb. 4th, Jack Gregory Feb. 9th, Blake Scaff, Feb. 10th, Scotty Scaff, Feb. 11th, Ruby Higginbotham, Feb. 12, Mammie Wood, Feb. 13th, Penny Mulder, Feb. 14, Jimmy Mulder, Feb. 16th, Fletcher Powell, Feb. 17th, Oleta Wilson, Feb. 24, Bonnie Hamm, Feb. 25th, Pam Powell, Feb. 26th, Diane Johnson, Feb. 29th, and anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings, Feb. 5th, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanders, Feb. 12th. Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Riley Teague on the observance of their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday Feb. 6, with a reception at the Massey Activity Center in Floydada. Among those from here who attended were Mrs. L. T.

Wood and Mrs. Walter Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamm are in the process of redecorating their home. They have painted rooms and are installing new carpet.

Mrs. George Weast is at home and has been for the past ten days. She is getting along well at this time. She has been in the Heritage Home in Plainview, and although she spends quite a bit of time in bed, she can get about fairly well, with assistance from her husband. Her daughters, Mrs. Robt. Lee Smith and Mrs. E. T. Evans are here with their mother as much as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bueno and their seven children had the misfortune to lose their home by fire last Tuesday night about 11:30. All the family got out safely, but they lost all their belongings. The house was formerly the home of the Grigsby Miltons Jr. in years past, and was near the Button Beedy farm. The neighbors are helping out with food, money and clothing and anything else they can spare for the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvin Kinibrough returned home Sunday evening from Oklahoma City, where they spent the weekend with their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Horne and other relatives. They went to Lubbock Tuesday to spend the night with her sister, Mrs. Ray Dillard of Lockney, while Mr. Dillard was in the hospital undergoing tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Johnson and boys moved January 28-29, to a house directly south of Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. to the former home of Mrs. E.E. Wells. Mrs. Wells has moved to Lockney to make her home. Her son, Marvin of Denton, came and helped get her settled.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake spent the day in Levelland Thursday where they were with Mr. and Mrs. Ott Wright as Mr. Wright underwent serious surgery. He was reported doing fine Thursday night.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Otho Sander's mother, Mrs. C.E. Bartlett of Floydada, fell last Monday and broke her hip. We hope to hear soon that she is getting along well.

Members of the Dorcas Class at the South Plains Baptist Sunday School met at the home of Mrs. L. T. Wood for a class party Wednesday morning, Feb. 2. It was voted to have quarterly SS meetings, and the next meeting will be April 6th. They plan to have a Breakfast in Fellowship Hall of the Church. Those present at the Wood's home for the morning coffee were Mrs. Fred Blake, Mrs. Murray Julian, Mrs. Fletcher Powell and Mrs. L. T. Wood.

Mrs. Fred Marble was hostess in her home Thursday afternoon for a Home Interior Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Nichols were dinner guests Thursday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walker in Plainview.

Mrs. E. C. Cox, mother of Mrs. Alvin Nichols, underwent her second major operation within a few days last Sunday in Los Angeles, California. According to last reports, she was doing quite well, in spite of her advanceu age.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Chappell of Duncan, Oklahoma, were here over the weekend of January 29-30 with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Chappell in Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. in South Plains. They attended South Plains Baptist Church services Sunday, January 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian will leave this Monday to visit until Wednesday afternoon in Perryton with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Julian, Clay and Wade. They visited in Lubbock last Tuesday with their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson and with Frank's mother, Mrs. Jackson, who is quite ill in the Hospitality Home in Lubbock.

Several from here went to Lubbock last week for the funeral of Garner Guest, 56, who formerly lived in Silverton. His wife, Lenore, lived here at one time. Garner died suddenly Saturday in Highland Hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Verba Faulkner of Roaring Springs is in the Caprock Hospital in Floydada. She is the aunt of Mrs. Kendis Julian. Another aunt, Benno Wilson also of Roaring Springs is here visiting with her niece, Mrs. Kendis Julian and family.

Philip Smitherman, who is with an oil Corporation in Saudia Arabia, is expected to be home around the 24th of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure went to Snyder Thursday and spending that day and Friday visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Woodson and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Newman. Mrs. Woodson returned here with them to spend a few days.
