Orba Miller Attends Seedmanship School

ORBA MILLER, Pfizer Genetics dealer, Floydada, recently completed an intensive one-week course in seedmanship held at the Ramada Inn, Amarillo, Texas. Sponsored by Pfizer Genetics Inc., the School of Seedmanship is a concentrated program of study in the history, development, genetic and agronomic characteristics, management and marketing of quality agricultural seed. The company is holding 15 such schools in 1977 and expects to train some 450 dealers this year.

Similar basic schools will be held in the future, plus post-graduate courses are planned for those who have completed the initial training. The objective of the schools is to make Pfizer Genetics' dealers more than salesmen so that when they call on farmer customers they can go to them as advisors or counselors, according to Royce M. Senator Bentsen Against Auto Interlocks

IN EARLY 1975, FORMER SENATOR NORRIS COTTON drove his brand new car out shopping. When he came back from the store, he found the car wouldn't start.

Later, speaking from the Senate Floor, Senator Cotton was furious. He told the story of his quarter-mile walk to the nearest service station, and how the attendant drove him back to the car in his truck.

The attendant looked across the front seat, and with a grin, buckled the seat belt around the bag of groceries placed there.

"Now Senator, try the key," he said.

The problem, of course, was a government regulation requiring that an interlock device be installed on all new cars to make the ignition switch work only when seat belts were buckled. The devices were on all cars built in early 1975.

The day after hearing Senator Cotton's story, I telephoned the Secretary of Transportation.

I told him that I strongly favor seat belts as a necessary safety device in all cars, but the interlock device cause more problems than they resolve.

"Why are these things required on all new cars?" I inquired.

"Because it is the law," he answered.

"But it's not the law," I replied. "As Chairman of the Senate Transportation Subcommittee, I'm very familiar with the law, and there is no mention in it of those interlock devices."

He responded that the law stated motor vehicles should live up to "practicable" safety standards -and in his estimation the interlock device was the most "practicable" approach to seatbelt use.

IN THIS PARTICULAR CASE I was able to pin the Secretary down -only because I was very familiar with the law.

But what about the car owner who has one of these devices and wants to know why he's required to have it? He's entitled to know that the basis of the regulation is not just the law, that the regulation may be an abuse of the original intent of the law.

Ultimately this regulation was overridden, but Congress had to go back and pass another law to do it.

This episode and others like it have persuaded me to push for legislation by the 95th Congress that would require federal agencies to cite specific legal authority for regulations they issue.

Too often laws are being written by faceless government bureaucrats. What I want to do is clearly define their authority and curtail their power to regulate.

All that the regulatory agencies are required to do now is to refer in general terms to the law on which the regulation is based. This is too vague and it is far too broad an authority.

I THINK GOVERNMENT REGULATORS should be required to specify what section what law grants which authority when that regulation is printed in the Federal Register.

In this way we can begin to curb the regulators and cut back some of the over-regulation by government that has become such a problem.

smashed taillight, a yard of stripped chrome and apparently no one injured, but it was on the other side of the divided highway, going in the opposite direction from our traffic tie-up. There was no reason at all for that little fender-bender to impede movement on our side. But there we were - the sad-eyed kangaroos, the bewildered turkeys - hunched over the wheel, making short starts and stops, gawking at the non-event across the median -stalking the bumper of the guy in front and expecting the guy in back to smack us, lingering to watch the critter on the other side wrestled down. Probably we would have circled the wreck if we could have crossed the island.

ANALOGIES MAY BE DRAWN HERE IN THE CONGRESS. We linger to see the other fellow mentally wrestled down or circle a foe to see if he is flopping.

FOUR HUNDRED THIRTY FIVE MEMBERS of the House of Representatives each have a Constituency of approximately 466,000 people. Each Congressional District across the Nation has varied interest, different from the next one. The Member represents that interest and attitude to the best of his ability and judgment. This is our system and the remarkable thing about it is how anything ever comes out at the end of the horn.

MEMBERS THEMSELVES ARE, OF COURSE, DIFFERENT. About every walk of life is present in the make-up of congress -lawyers, doctors, farmers, business, labor -rich and poor -baker and candle-stick maker. No one is particularly impressed by another's past accomplishments or what he is going to do in the future - it is what he can do now.

MAYBE WE SHOULD NOT BE OVERLY CONCERNED about the behavior of turkeys and kangaroos.

Parents of the newly-weds are Mr. and Mrs. Deanie Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mathis, all of Lockney. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Kellison of Lockney, and the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Maude Kellison of Lockney, and Mrs. Lillie Goodman of Lovington, New Mexico. The groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Carthel.

The beginning of the ceremony was marked by the lighting of candles by Miss Karen Mathis, sister of the groom. Wedding music was presented on the organ by Miss Nancy Henderson, cousin of the bride. Soloist was Miss Pam Brandes of Dallas who sang "Walk Hand in Hand" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Flower girl was the bride's cousin, Miss Kori Kellison, who wore a burgundy ruffled dress that was trimmed with ecru lace, and a matching bonnet.

Given by Father
Deanie Henderson presented his daughter for marriage. For her wedding, the former Ginger Henderson chose a floor-length gown of queen's lace which was designed with a fitted, highrise bodice. Her V-neckline was overlaid with scalloped lace adorned with seed pearls and crystals. The bishop sleeves fitted to an elongated cuff edged with lace scallops at the wrists. The full, controlled skirt was overlaid with lace medallions festooned with seed pearls and crystals. The side and back fullness and the deep flounce at the skirt's hem swept into a sanctuary train. Her cathedral-length veil of imported illusion was held by a bride's bandeau overlaid with lace and pearls. The bridal bouquet, a nosegay of white roses, was carried atop a lace-covered Bible. Tied in the bouquet were wedding rings of the bride's Grandmother Kellison, her late Grandmother Henderson and Great-grandmother Kellison.

Reception
The church fellowship hall was the scene of the reception following the wedding. The bride's table was laid with an imported ivory hand embroidered cloth. Centering the table was a silver antique epergne filled with roses and baby's breath. The tiered wedding cake was topped with fresh roses. A silver punch bowl and cups completed the table decor. The groom's table was covered with a quilted burgundy printed cloth. Flowers graced the table. Chocolate cake was served.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS: February 14. We are experiencing wonderful weather this weekend, and we are very grateful for the 1/2 inch of rain which came Friday. All the wheat fields have brightened up, and pastures, and fields are fresh, not dusty. We need lots more rain, but maybe it will soon come.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Kenneth Powell arrived home by plane in Amarillo Thursday, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Powell met them. They have been stationed the past two years in Schweinfurt, Germany, with the US Armed Forces, and they will be here for the next forty-five days, visiting relatives. His next assignment will be at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. They have finished their overseas assignment.

Harry Hartman was working in his garden last Tuesday, and had the misfortune to step and fall on the side of his pickup, and broke his thigh. He was taken to Highland Hospital in Lubbock, and this weekend they were to put a pin in his leg. We hope he gets along satisfactorily, and will soon be able to come home.

Last Tuesday night the Higginbotham house on the farm of Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham caught fire and burned to the ground. We are sorry to see the passing of the familiar landmark.

Hobby Club members met in the home of Mrs. L. T. Wood on Wednesday, February 9, at 2 p.m. with a study on the care of plants, and each one there showed hobbies or new crafts they were making. Roll Call was answered with beauty hints, and refreshments of cinnamon rolls, snacks, coffee and spiced tea were served by hostess, Mrs. Wood. Those present were Mmes. Keith Marble, Fred Marble, Dick Lyons, Nathan Mulder, J. P. Taylor, Fred Fortenberry, Grigsby Milton, Jr., Alvin Nichols, and Mrs. Wood. The next Hobby club meeting will be on Wednesday, March 9th, at 2 p.m. in South Plains at the home of Mrs. Fred Marble. The members will learn to make silk flowers, taught by Mrs. J. P. Taylor.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Kenneth Powell were visitors at the Sunday morning services at the South Plains Baptist Church, and came again at the Sunday night services.

Bible Study will be held at the South Plains Baptist Church at 4 p.m. on February 22, with G.A.s and Mission Friends meeting at this time. The Bible Study will be from the February Royal Service, with a study of, "Urgent-Reply Requested." Everyone is welcome for the interesting study.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Evans have moved into the Parks residence across from the Parks Station, and Jackie Covington has moved to the home near the Dean Stewarts. We welcome all of them to South Plains, and invite them to the Baptist Church, and to other meetings here. Both families moved to their new homes the weekend of February 5th and 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gilbreath and boys, Jeffrey and Jeremy, have been visiting here the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Powell and family. The Gilbreaths are from Perryton.

Mrs. Justa Juarez who once lived in South Plains, entered the Caprock Hospital in Floydada on Sunday, February 6, and on Tuesday underwent major surgery. At this time she is recovering satisfactorily, and we hope she can go home soon. Her son, Lee Juarez of Fort Worth has been here at his mothers bedside this week, as have other members of the family. He formerly lived in South Plains, also.

Elbert Reeves, 72, formerly of Matador, died Thursday in a convalescent home in Plainview. Services were held Saturday morning at the Wood-Dunnington Chapel in Plainview at 11 a.m. and burial was in the East Mound Cemetery in Matador at 2 p.m. Saturday afternoon. Among those from here who went to Plainview to attend services was Murray Julian. Reeves was a cousin of Murray.

We are sorry to hear of the death of the Rev. Mickey Lynn Warlick, 35, of Seminole, who died at 8 a.m. Sunday at the Seminole Memorial Hospital. His services were held at the First Baptist Church in Seminole on Tuesday, February 8th, at 2 p.m. Warlick has preached at the South Plains Baptist Church and was known by many here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Kinibrough went to Lake Kemp Friday a week ago, where they worked on the dock which is near their camp cottage, and they spent one night with Sylvain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinibrough of Vera, and one night with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simmons, her sister and husband at Truscott.

Mrs. C. E. Bartlett, of Floydada, grandmother of Curtis and Richard Sanders here in South Plains sustained a broken hip two weeks ago Sunday, and she was in the Caprock Hospital until Monday of this past week, when she was taken to Plainview to the Nichols Clinic, where she will be having therapy.

Mrs. H. H. Stevenson, mother of Early Pritchett, and who lives in Plainview has been taken to her home the past week. She had been in the hospital, and although she is not well, she is doing better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble celebrated in their home with a birthday dinner in honor of his mother, Mrs. Lillian Marble of Floydada, on the occasion of her birthday, February 5, and those who helped her celebrate were her sons, Mr. and Mrs. Don Marble and Brett, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marble, D'Lee and Dwayne, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble, Cindy, Kelly and the Fred Marble's son, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Marble and Justin.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George West on Saturday were Mrs. Flossie Beedy of Plainview and her sister, Mrs. Edna Burgett of Clovis, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor and Rob, and Mrs. Annie Smith of Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Marble. Mrs. Robt. Lee Smith visited her parents several times during the week, and she is from Sterley.

Mrs. Bennet Massey who lives near Sterley was hostess in her home Saturday night for a slumber party, with guests members of her Aetecens of the Baptist Church. The girls enjoyed an evening of making cup cakes, and decorating them for the Valentine Tea, and they also made corsages which were presented mothers and guests at the Valentine Party Sunday at the Baptist Church. Girls who were present with Mrs. Massey and Mrs. Tommy Seaff, who assisted, were Atha Blake, Kristi Julian, Renee and Regina Sanders, Sandra Powell, Glenna Powell, and Brenda Green. The girls spent the night at the Massey home.

Mrs. Mark Sanders, nee Dee Earle Cummings, was honored at a Pink and Blue Baby Shower on Saturday afternoon, January 22, between the hours of 2-4 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Rogene Bethel in South Plains. The serving table was laid with a

The Floyd Philosopher Comes Out Against Scientist's Idea Of Lighting The Earth At Night

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm gets riled up over a new scientific idea this week, more or less. Dear editor:

One trouble with scientists is that if one of them thinks up an idea the rest of them rush headlong into the project without considering the effect it may have on the rest of us.

For example, a scientist has come up with the idea of putting a giant mirror into orbit, positioned so that it could reflect the sun's rays down to earth at night. Given enough money, he claims, a mirror could be built and launched via satellite that's big enough to shed ten times the light of a full moon, just about eradicating darkness.

The main advantage of this, he claims, would be to give farmers enough light to work at night.

Well I'll tell you, any scientist who's spending his time thinking up some way to get a farmer to work more, hasn't got enough work to do himself. On top of that, it'd ruin the potato crop, as you'd never know when it was time to plant in the dark of the moon, or is it the other way around.

Before Congress appropriates the money for this moon-lighting project I hope it'll write in a provision requiring the orbiting mirror to be equipped with venetian blinds so I can keep that blamed light off this farm out here.

Somebody is always coming up with a new and unsettling idea. For instance, Prime Minister India Gandhi over in India, where they can make an atomic bomb but haven't figured out how to make a farm tractor, made a long speech the other day before a crowd of over 100,000, and when the speech got boring and the crowd started to leave, she had her police make them stay and listen.

It's one thing to deny the people the right of free speech, but to deny them the right not to listen to a speech, that's a brand new twist. This reminds me of the argument some people make against televising sessions of the U. S. Congress from start to finish. They say it would damage the image of that body. I don't think it would hurt Congress, but it sure would kill television.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Archeological Field School Planned

The South Plains Archeological Society will conduct an archeological field school during February and March of this year.

The field school will be under the direction of Rick Alvey, a graduate student in the Department of Anthropology, Texas Tech University, and will be held over three weekends at the Mitchell Site.

The Mitchell Site is an open campsite in northern Martin County, Texas, about 25 miles south of Lamesa, Texas.

The weekends of February 26-27, March 5-6, March 12-13, and March 19-20, have been scheduled for the field school. One weekend is optional due to winter weather conditions. One weekend may be used as a laboratory session.

A Saturday night lecture will be presented at a local meeting hall in Lamesa each weekend of the excavation as a part of the training.

The purpose of the field school is to offer training in archeological field methods with the recovery of artifacts being secondary in importance. Artifacts will be placed in the Dawson County Museum after the site report on the investigation is completed.

The general public may attend by submitting an application to the site director. Those attending will furnish their own water, food, and personal digging tools. A list of supplies needed and a list of motels in Lamesa will be furnished upon request.

The fee for attending this field school will be as follows. Adult, all weekends, $10.00; Family, all weekends, $15.00. Students may attend at a weekly rate of $2.00 per weekend.

All persons wishing to attend this field school should contact Rick Alvey, 2111 7th Street, Rear Apt. Lubbock, Texas 79401 or at the Department of Anthropology, Texas Tech University, Lubbock, Texas 79409. Phone (806) 747-0048.

Gift Shower Honors Mrs. Rose

A post-nuptial gift shower was a courtesy Saturday to Mrs. Austin Clifford Rose, the former Miss Janet Taylor of Lockney.

The event was held in the home of Mrs. Johnnie Lee, who greeted guests and then presented them to the honoree, and to the newly-weds mothers, Mrs. Ellis Taylor and Mrs. Austin Rose of Hereford. Members of the receiving line wore corsages of yellow carnations.

Guests were registered by the honoree's sister-in-law, Miss Kim Rose of Hereford, and by Miss Shelley Sessom.

The antique white round table was complemented by a crystal vase of white daisies.

Gifts were displayed and registered by Mrs. Bob Gibson and Mrs. J. B. Smith of Plainview.

The serving table was laid with white under lace-edged organza. Centerpiece was a white candelabra entwined with yellow sweetheart roses and holding yellow votive candles. Crystal appointments and yellow napkins enhanced the table decor.

Frosted yellow punch, assorted cookies, mixed nuts and pastel mints were served by Mrs. Tommie Herendt and Miss Carmen Turner, both of Lubbock.

Special guests at the shower were the groom's aunts, Mrs. J. T. Carroll of Hereford and Mrs. Abel Ruga of Chico, California.

Hostesses presented Mrs. Rose with a set of cookware. On the hostess list were Mmes. Johnnie Lee, Quentin Adams, Gene Cornelius, Frank Dickson, Jack Dickson, Bob Gibson, Tommie Herendt, N. W. Kramer, C. H. McCluskey, Carlton A. Robinson Jr., J. B. Smith, Shirley Thompson and J. R. Turner.

GSPA County Advisory Committee Announced

Grain Sorghum Producers Association executive director Elbert Harp, GSPA field representative Y. F. Snodgrass, and Ralph Mabry, a Petersburg farmer and member of the Grain Sorghum Producers Board, presented the program at the GSPA-sponsored breakfast and information meeting for Lockney area farmers Thursday morning in Lockney Rebekah Lodge Hall.

The speakers brought the area farmers up to date on accomplishments and objectives of the association. GSPA objectives include market development and promotion of the use of grain sorghum, with special emphasis on overseas sales, which account for 30 per cent of U.S. grain sorghum production.

About 40 attended the breakfast meeting, sponsored by elevators in the north part of the county (Lockney Cooperatives, Muncy and Sandhill Elevators, Pattered by elevators in the north part of the county (Lockney Cooperatives, Muncy and Sandhill Elevators, Patterson Grain, Providence Grain and Southwestern Grain). A similar meeting is scheduled March 16 for farmers in south Floyd County.

R. C. Mitchell of Lockney, the elected Floyd County representative to the Grain Sorghum Producers Board, is chairman of the Floyd County advisory committee, announced at the meeting Thursday morning. Other advisory board members are Helmuth Quebe, vice chairman; James Hinton, Louis Pyle, Craig Edwards, Weldon Pruitt, Delton Jack, Bert Elam, Vernie Moore and Jeff Terrell.

Wilhoits Move To Illinois

STAGGERED MATURITY MAKES SENSE

STAGGERED MATURITY is making sense to a lot of corn farmers in this area. They have already bought more of Pioneer Hi-Bred's staggered maturity varieties than ever before... by almost 100%. They will be planting three hybrids with different maturities, a short season, a medium maturity and a later maturity. Here's why it makes so much sense:

1. Provides insurance against weather and disease.
2. Spreads critical irrigation times.
3. Allows you to harvest each at optimum times.
4. Uses equipment and labor more efficiently.

On the basis of performance data gathered over several years, our agronomists have selected three hybrids for each area. The selection takes into account soil types, weather patterns, the prevalent cultural practices, water availability and disease and insect problems by area. We are recommending these three hybrids for this area:

- A SHORT SEASON PROFIT PRODUCER
3780 is a short-season variety that really proved itself in 1976. It is approximately 14 days earlier than 3369A, but doesn't concede profit for its earliness. It may yield a little less than the later hybrids, but costs less to grow.
- THE MOST FAMOUS MEDIUM MATURITY
3369A is a medium-maturity corn that has been setting yield records around the Southwest for a number of years. It is planted on more acres than any other hybrid, and with good reason... profits in good years and bad.
- LATER MATURITY FOR RECORD YIELDS
3305 makes use of our long growing season to produce more corn. It will normally harvest five days later than 3369A. It is a tall hybrid with the ability to stand well. Its upright leaves make for easy combining.

SUBSTITUTING

Under certain circumstances it may be necessary or desirable to make substitutions for these hybrids.

In fields in which head smut has been observed, for instance, it is recommended that Pioneer brand 3306 be substituted for 3369A. It has the same maturity and many of the other characteristics of 3369A and additionally offers strong resistance to head smut. Like 3369A, it has demonstrated its ability to yield well under the wide variety of weather conditions this area experiences. 3306 is especially well adapted to sandy soils.

If a substitute for 3305 is required, Pioneer brand 3195 is recommended. This hybrid has record-breaking yield potential on good land and high fertility at medium plant population. Like 3305, it can use our long growing season to increase yield and bushel weight. Roots, stalks, and stay-green characteristics allow it to stand in the field until the combine gets there.

Since 3780 is a near perfect hybrid for the STAGGERED MATURITY program, has at least moderate resistance to most of the diseases that attack corn in this area and is in good supply, it is not anticipated that a substitute for this hybrid will be required.

NEXT BOARD MEETING MARCH 7

Next meeting of the Lockney school board will be March 7, the first Monday of the month, rather than the usual second Monday meeting date. This month's meeting was held Tuesday instead of Monday because the high-school girls' basketball team was involved in a bi-district playoff game Monday evening.

Routine school board business Tuesday included approval of minutes of the last meeting, bills and investments, and the latest tax report.

Wildlife Violations Tabulated

LUBBOCK - Game and fish violations head the list of citations completed by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens in the Texas Panhandle and South Plains as the hunting seasons come to a close.

Of the total 798 citations issued by wardens, 411 were for state game and fish violations including no license, hunting out of season, and over limit. Water safety violations accounted for 18 and littering, trespassing, disorderly conduct, drunk, and other violations accounted for 144 citations.

All P&WD wardens are commissioned state peace officers and any violation of a Texas law can be and is handled by these outdoor officers.

District I, which includes all counties in the Panhandle, lead the total number of citations with 366.

Chuck Cosper, game warden assigned to Deaf Smith, Catro and Parmer counties, issued a total of 69 citations to lead his district.

District II, which is all the South Plains counties in the Lubbock district, accounted for 225 citations with Ronnie Ainsworth, Plainview warden, leading the way with 43 in his assigned area of Hale and Floyd counties.

District III, which is the Abilene area, completed the total with 207 citations being issued. Jackie Young, Haskell game warden, accounted for 37 of these violations being filed in his assigned area of Stonewall and Haskell counties.

Violations filed by game wardens in these three districts are nearly identical for both the 1975 and 1976 seasons.

Ted Wheelis, Lubbock regional supervisor, said complaints of shooting from the road and trespassing create more problems due to involvement of landowners, sportsmen and the P&WD.

Trespass complaints are generally initiated by the landowner and represent violations against private property instead of state property. The landowner usually contacts the local game warden when a violation occurs and the complaint is signed by the landowner before charges are lodged in the local court.

Since over 90 percent of the land in Texas is private property, and hunters and fishermen failed to get permission to trespass in many cases, this violation headed the list of complaints in 1976 in Texas.

Landowners, who are the stewards of wildlife, and sportsmen, who help to manage wildlife populations by hunting, need to resolve the problem of trespass prior to the 1977 hunting seasons.

Landowners interested in leasing their land or allowing hunters to harvest the surplus wildlife should list their names, address, and telephone numbers with the local game warden or in local newspapers.

Sportsmen interested in finding a place to hunt or fish can do so by going out and talking to the landowner, joining a hunting club which leases hunting rights, or obtaining a lease for themselves or their families. Texas has some of the best hunting and fishing in the United States but, only after an agreement between the landowner and sportsmen can this venture be legal and successful.
