LHS Baccalaureate Tonight

AT HIGH NOON THURSDAY...dark clouds over Lockney caused street lights to come on and residents to scan the skies for possible severe weather. An inch of rain, accompanied by some light hail, fell shortly after this picture was taken. The National Weather Service issued a tornado warning for the county. The streetlights-on scene was repeated Friday morning. (Staff Photo)

Rain And Some Hail Hit Floyd

Rolling black clouds invaded Floyd County Thursday afternoon and poured some one and a half to two inches of rainfall...and damaging hail hit in the McCoy area.

It was also reported that about a thousand acres of cotton were hailed out west of Cone.

Only about a half inch of rain was reported in the Dougherty area and no hail. However, a little over a week ago there was some hail that damaged wheat in the Dougherty area...accompanied by a three to four inch rain.

The worst part of the McCoy hail storm seemed to be south and southwest toward Allmon.

There was some hail damage to young cotton north of McCoy. McCoy Grain and Gin manager Dan Fry told a Hesperian reporter there wasn't much wheat in that area to be damaged by the hail storm.

The wheat crop in the rest of the county continues to look like a bumper harvest.

Some of the McCoy area farmers receiving hail included Royce O'Neal, Albert Jones, Craig Edwards, Turner Hunter, Marble Bros. and Lewis Reddy. It hailed for about 45 minutes on the Craig Edwards farm (two miles south, 1/2 west of McCoy) where the cotton crop was hailed out and the corn crop heavily damaged.

It rained just over an inch in about half an hour in downtown Lockney early Thursday afternoon, and rainfall of over an inch was reported in most of the outlying areas. Ronnie Thornton, two and a half miles east of Providence, reported 1.8"; Herman King at Lone Star also measured 1.8". The Thursday afternoon total was an inch at the Sterley Gin. At the Chester Mitchell residence in the Pleasant Valley community south of Lockney, the total was .9", and the John Dormans in the Irick community reported 1".

Light hail, but no major crop damage, was reported at all the above locations.

Meeting Set For Beef Producers

Beacon Lights

Remember when hippie meant big in the hips.
And a trip involved travel in cars, planes, and ships?
When pot was a vessel for cooking things in.
And hooked was what grandmother's rugs may have been?
When fix was a verb that meant mend or repair.
And be-in meant merely existing somewhere?
When neat meant well-organized, tidy and clean.
And grass was a ground cover, normally green?
When groovy meant furrowed with channels and hollows.
And birds were winged creatures, like robins and swallows?
When fuzz was a substance, real fluffy, like lint.
And bread came from bakeries and not from the mint?
When roll meant a bun, and rock was a stone.
And hang-up was something you did with a phone?
It's groovy, man, groovy, but English it's not.
Methinks that our language is going to pot!

A countywide meeting about the proposed Beef Research and Information Act has been called for 8:00 p.m. Thursday May 26 in the Massie Activity Center in Floydada by L. N. Johnson, chairman of the Floyd County Beef Development Task Force.

Details about the upcoming beef referendum will be explained, the chairman has announced.

The educational program, which is designed for all beef and dairy cattle owners of the county, will include two slide presentations about the Beef Research and Information Act—one prepared by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service—and the second by the Beef Development Task Force. There will be a period for questions and comments from producers.

Additionally, the BDT chairman, County Extension Agent, Doyle G. Warren, and Extension Management specialist Marvin Sartin, will provide more detailed information about the forthcoming beef referendum.

The Beef Research and Information Act serves as enabling legislation and authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct a referendum among beef producers to determine whether they want a beef development plan, developed by an industry-wide committee.

"The beef development plan is a proposed national checkoff program that would be financed by assessment as spelled out in the beef marketing order. If approved, the plan would provide some $30 to $40 million per year for beef research, consumer and producer information, promotion and market development," explains Johnson.

Expenditures, he added, would be directed by a 68-member board of cattlemen and representatives of livestock organizations.

To be eligible to participate in the beef referendum, beef and dairy cattle owners need to make two trips to their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Offices; the first trip to register, and the second to vote.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE SCHEDULED AT CEMETERY
Lockney Cemetery Association will have a business meeting and memorial service beginning at 10 a.m. Memorial Day at the cemetery. Speaker for the service will be announced later.

STUDENTS DONATE BOOKS IN MEMORY OF TEACHER
Students who were in Mrs. Dutton's classes at Lockney Junior High have placed two books in the school library in her memory. The books are "Texas In Color" and "The Grey King" by Susan Cooper (the 1976 Newbery Medal book).

GOING AWAY PARTY FOR AFS STUDENT MONDAY
There will be a going-away party for Lockney High School's AFS student, Michel Lacaille, from 8:30 to 10 p.m. Monday.

Anyone wishing to tell Michel goodbye, be sure to come. It will be the last chance for a group get-together before he returns to France.

Baccalaureate services Sunday (May 22) night mark the beginning of the final week of school for the Lockney High School Class of 1977. Frank Duckworth, minister of the West College and Third Street Church of Christ, will preach the baccalaureate sermon. School superintendent John O. Peck will introduce the speaker.

The service begins at 8 p.m. Sunday in the elementary school cafeteria. The LHS seniors will be led into the cafeteria by marshals Edward Jones and Melinda Wilson, highest-ranking boy and girl in the junior class. Ushers—other juniors whose high-school grade average is 90 or above—will be Howard Moore, Donny Wiley, Ray McMahan, Tracy Beedy, Maria Saenz and Chris Sue.

Processional and recessional music will be played by Mrs. C. L. Record, and the LHS choir will sing.

Lockney High School seniors include Carlos Alanis, Oralia Amador, Joe Araujo, Norma Arellano, Pam Bradley, Beverly Barker, Karla Broussard, Patsey Burt, Charla Carthel, Tammie Carthel, Diane Cavazos, Jaime Charles, Elnetia Clark, and Ronnie Cunyus.

And Deneen Johnson, Denise Johnson, Michel Lacaille, Glen Lane, Tonya Marble, Janis Marr, Kevin Martin, Arcenio Martinez, Diane Martinez, Oscar Martinez, Karen McCarter, Ida Nuncio, Ofelia Ortegon and Tim Reece.

Also Clint Riddle, Gerardo Rodriguez, Mirtala Rodriguez, Selma Salinas, Sonia Salinas, Ester Smith, Kathleen Smith, Paula Solis, Allen Sterling, Gregg Taylor, Rosemary Ulmer, Diana Vega, Christy Vincent, Laura Watson, Dorothy Welch, and Robbie Wright. Graduation will be Friday night.

Julie Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson, and Jill Whitfill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whitfill, are the scholastic leaders of the Lockney Junior High "Class of 77", according to principal W. H. Hallmark.

"MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS"

LHS Seniors Honored

Members of the 1977 graduating class of Lockney High School have been honored at a number of end-of-school activities.

Highlight of the activities was the annual banquet May 7 which was given by the junior class in the elementary cafeteria.

"Journey to the Stars" was the banquet theme. Persons attending the event walked up a ramp at the front of the school, then descended stairs and walked through a tunnel into the cafeteria, which was decorated to resemble the interior of a flying saucer. White crepe paper covered the ceiling and was draped in a dome shape. The east wall was covered with a mural depicting a spaceship, a galaxy scene and the moon with a moon "monster," all painted in luminescent paint by mothers of members of the junior class. The west wall of the building featured "portholes" through which could be seen the galaxy. The front of the cafeteria had a large "window."

Through it could be seen films (obtained and screened by Chuck Wilson) from NASA which included the rising earth, the first footprint on the moon, etc.

Centerpieces on the tables were iridescent blue candles shaped like space ships. The seniors' places were marked with flat wooden rockets which were in a vertical position. Table favors were gold napkin rings and white fabric napkins which were painted with stars and planets in one corner, and the banquet theme and year in another corner.

Sophomore girls and boys served the meal, which included broiled steak (barbecued by a crew of juniors' fathers), baked potato, tossed salad, green beans and turkey cobbler. The waitresses wore black turtleneck blouses under light blue short dresses and black tights. The male members of the "spaceship crew" wore blue shirts and black pants.

Carol Helms, LHS coach, entertained the banquet crowd with several songs. She accompanied herself on the guitar. Banquet welcome was by Billy Sessom, junior class president. Senior class president Tammie Carthel gave the response and thanked the juniors for the banquet.

Sessom also served as master of ceremonies and presided at the presentation of banquet personalities. The juniors selected the following seniors as personalities: Rosemary Ulmer and Joe Araujo, most likely to succeed; Karla Broussard and Johnny Dorman, most popular; Ronnie Cunyus and Tammie Carthel, friendliest; Beverly Barker and Allen Sterling, most representative.

The LHS faculty chose the following seniors for inclusion in Who's Who: Pam Bradley, Tammie Carthel, Beverly Barker, Janis Marr, Ronnie Cunyus and Joe Araujo. The faculty also recognized Tammie Carthel and Ronnie Cunyus as best-all-around.

PROM

Following the banquet, the juniors and seniors and their dates went to the American Legion for a prom and games. The prom room was hung with cardboard rockets, each lettered in red sequins with the name of a junior or senior. These were prom favors. Blue crepe paper and silver star covered one wall of the prom room.

The refreshment and game room walls were covered with black plastic, silver stars, planets, etc. In the game room there was a pool table, ping-pong table and showing of cartoons. Refreshments included soft drinks and cookies.

By 1 a.m. members of the two classes and their dates were enjoying breakfast as the culmination of the night's activities. The juniors went to the Sterley community home of Jim and Peggy Roberts for waffles with fresh strawberries and whipped cream, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, hot biscuits, jelly, fresh watermelon and cantaloupe slices, doughnuts and soft drinks.

The juniors at the quartet tables which were covered with silver paper. Pale blue napkins and centerpieces of an American flag, a rocketship and the plant Saturn on a styrofoam base completed the table decor.

Junior class mothers assisting with the meal included Andy Ford, Peggy Wiley, Claudette Huley, Sandra Sessom, Nell Wilson, Willeta Isom, Jackie Spencer, Ann Foster, Barbara Ellison and Peggy Roberts.

The senior breakfast was at the home of Barry and Algene Barker. Quartet tables were covered with cloths of yellow, pink, blue, lavender or green. Blue candles, surrounded by iris and greenery, were table centerpieces.

The menu included a watermelon half filled with cantaloupe and watermelon balls, a pineapple speared with apple and banana bits and strawberries on picks, sweet rolls, sausage balls, hot money bread, sausage links, finger sandwiches, fried pies, ham turnover, tea time tassies and more strawberries.

Parents assisting with the meal were Bob and Booboo Lane, Joe and Barbara Cunyus, Roland and Lydia Watson, Joe and Virginia Taylor, Thurman and Lynna Davis, Bobby and Mervene Carthel, John and Rochelle Dorman, Bill and Mary Louise McCarter, Buck and Glenda Ford, Barry and Algene Barker.

OTHER PARTIES

Among other courtesies extended to the seniors were a Valentine banquet given by the First Baptist Church, and a "sundae" party which was hosted by the adult Sunday School classes of Main Street Church of Christ May 2. Tables were covered with red paper cloths, and artificial sundaes made of cotton balls were table centerpieces. The seniors were served sloppy joes and homemade ice cream. Games of volleyball on the church lawn ended the evening.

San Jose Catholic Church hosted the seniors Monday, May 16, at the church's annual Mexican dinner for the graduating class. Enchiladas, beans and rice were prepared by the ladies of the church. Ice cream also was on the menu. Tables were covered with white paper cloths and outlined in red crepe paper. Vases of red roses centered the tables. Places were marked with miniature paper "diplomas" on which were written regards from the church.

High school basketball coach Marsha Sharp treated the senior basketball team members to dinner at the Red Lobster in Lubbock Tuesday, May 17. Beverly Barker, Janis Marr, Karla Broussard, Karen McCarter, Diane Vega, Tina Dipprey, Tammie Carthel and Coach Sharp also went to see "Airport 77".

GRADUATION WEEK

The annual progressive dinner for the senior class will be Tuesday, May 24. Hors d'oeuvres will be served at the home of Jerry and Andy Ford. Mothers assisting there will be Rochelle Dorman Glenda Ford, Clara Araujo, Jane Delgado, and Bonnie Edwards.

A salad bar is planned by Vida Hrbacek and Mary Louise McCarter for the next course. Weather permit-

$50 Cash For Talent Show Winners

The Old Settler's organization will pay $25.00 and the Hesperian will pay $25.00 prize money for the top three talent winners in the Hootenany talent show Saturday night.

The show will begin at 8 p.m. on the slab south side of the courthouse. Piano and sound system will be furnished for the program.

Anyone wanting to enter the show should call Wendell Tooley at the Hesperian 983-3737, or come by the Hesperian and sign up.

Last year's show drew a big crowd and this year's talent show is expected to be much larger.

Thursday's Hesperian and Beacon will carry the names of the persons entered and their talent for the show.

There is no age limit on the show, there will be a time limit when it is determined how many entrants will participate.

Contestants should sign up at either the Lockney Beacon or the Floyd County Hesperian.

Love Fund Started For

Floyd Dormans

Friends of Floyd and Lorene Dorman have started a "love fund" to assist the couple. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dorman have been ill in recent months, and Mrs.

Dorman is recuperating from surgery.

Persons wishing to contribute may give at Lockney First National Bank.

Bentsen Praises New Approach To Criminal Penalties

WASHINGTON, D.C.— day said a needed, tougher Senator Lloyd Bentsen Mon- sentencing procedure for federal courts is included in a newly proposed overhaul of U. S. criminal laws.

Legislation to revise and consolidate the laws, entitled the Criminal Code Reform Act of 1977, was introduced Monday by Senators John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) and Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.), members of the Judiciary Committee.

It includes a provision similar to one proposed by Senator Bentsen last year which would replace the "indeterminate" sentencing system now used by federal courts with a system of "presumptive" sentencing.

"As things now stand, federal judges sentence convicted criminals to an indeterminate number of years in prison and then leave it up to the parole board to decide how long any individual should actually serve," Bentsen said.

"What I have proposed, and what my colleagues in the Senate are now proposing, is that we should have fixed, specific sentences written into the law for specific crimes."

"It is now widely recognized that the current system is not working. Mass murderers like Charles Manson and Richard Speck are eligible for parole. Other dangerous offenders go unpunished. And glaring disparities in the sentence of those who are punished lead to numerous and great injustices," Senator Bentsen said.

Bentsen noted that the "presumptive" sentence approach which he advocates is winning broad support among law enforcement officials and in legal circles.

"I think it is important that Congress work swiftly to approve this change in sentencing procedures," Bentsen said.

"As it now stands, there is no certainty to the criminal that he will be punished, no certainty to society that the dangerous will be incarcerated and no certainty that punishment, when it is meted out, will be fair," Senator Bentsen said.

Gospel In Song

And Word At

First Baptist

Everyone is invited to a special program "The Gospel In Song And Word" featuring John and Peggy Schmidt Wednesday night at 7:30 in the Floydada First Baptist Church.

Peggy is the niece of Mack Ward and was known as Peggy Caughey when her family moved from Floydada when she was a Breezer cheerleader.

The couple now lives at Aline, Oklahoma. John is pastor of the Church Of The Brethren. The Schmidts have out a record album "A Threefold Cord."

They will be moving to Camden, North Dakota in June, where John will be pastor of the Church Of The Brethren. The Schmidts have four boys.

OSHA the Clown

While many federal agencies of the alphabet-soup variety (HUD, HEW, EPA, to name a few) are best known for their frequent stupid, irresponsible and costly rules and regulations, there are few that can hold a candle to OSHA.

This meddlesome, nit-picking agency — formally known as the Occupational Health and Safety Administration — periodically goes on the prowl to harrass businesses and industries. Each time OSHA comes out with a proposal we feel it reaches the epitomy of asininity. But OSHA just gets worse every time it opens its collective mouth.

Now OSHA is after the cotton ginners, producers and warehousemen, without, as usual, having all the facts. And Texas cotton men are protesting loudly.

The agency has proposed standards that would require OSHA-regulated machinery to be installed in cotton gins to reduce an employee health hazard — byssinosis, a lung disease — and that would require all gin workers to submit to periodic medical examinations.

These standards, if implemented, would mean an additional $100,000 to $400,000 in equipment costs for each of the 800 cotton gins in Texas, according to Rep. George Mahon, one of those to testify at a public hearing last week in Lubbock.

One would assume that byssinosis is a serious threat to gin workers since OSHA wants to put such strict standards on gins and force ginners to shell out so much money for equipment. Right? Wrong.

There are no well-documented studies which provide conclusive evidence that there is indeed a serious problem in cotton gins, cotton seed mills, warehouses and compresses, Mahon said. And Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown said Texas medical officials have not even reported the disease occurring among gin workers in the state.

So where did OSHA get the idea that byssinosis is a problem and that it needs to oversee the cotton industry? Possibly from another industry, the textiles. OSHA studies found that more than 20,000 workers in textile mills have been stricken with byssinosis — and we agree with the agency in that something needs to be done to better protect these workers.

But no studies were conducted in cotton gins, warehouses or compresses. In fact, Grover Wren, deputy director of health standards for OSHA and the man who helped write the proposals for standards on cotton gins, had never set foot inside a cotton gin until after the proposals were written. This, regrettably, is the way OSHA seems to operate most of the time.

In recent months OSHA has: (1) proposed placing toilet and hand-washing facilities within a five-minute walk of where farm or ranch hands are working, (2) published a booklet on "Safety With Beef Cattle," which cautioned ranch hands that manure could be slippery and that they shouldn't wear tennis shoes when handling cattle, and (3) proposed that noisy industries spend $10.5 to $18.5 billion to quieten machines rather than furnish employes with earmuffs at $10 per person.

And now OSHA proposes to set standards for the cotton industry to prevent a disease when there is no proof that the disease exists.

We suggest Congress immediately revamp the entire OSHA operation and curb some of its powers. OSHA was formed with a commendable purpose, but it has strayed afar. It has, in effect, become the clown of the federal agencies. But businessmen, farmers, ranchers and industrialists don't find it amusing. (Amarillo Globe News)

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

SOUTH PLAINS, May 18. With 62 degrees this Wednesday, it is cool, dark and cloudy after a night of storms and a little rain around our community. There was hail and .50 of rain at Natham Mulders. Most of the people around us were in storm cellars last night, or were keeping a wary eye on the clouds. We are in the process of getting cotton planted here, but some farmers have had so much rain, they have been kept out of the fields. Some of the maize is coming up, and after a bad storm like last night, farmers would rather it were not coming up! The weather remains cool in mornings. It was 50 degrees Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham went to Amarillo Saturday to spend the weekend with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Higginbotham and children, returning Sunday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake and Mrs. Mamie Wood went to Pansy Tuesday evening to attend the Caprock Association Worker's Conference, held in the Pansy Baptist Church, with Rev. Larry Wilson of Silvertown bringing the main message. Remember the Wednesday Night Prayer Service is now being held at 8 o'clock.

The Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClure will be held Sunday afternoon, May 22, from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in South Plains. Their children and grandchildren will be hosts for the event. You are invited to attend.

South Plains Vacation Bible School will begin Monday, May 30 and continue through June 3, with open house and a Vacation Bible School program held at the Baptist Church Sunday night, June 5th. Please offer your help for the Vacation Bible School if you can, and if not, offer refreshments for those who do work at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Mickey McDonald of Amarillo were guests here Sunday with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lyons spent Mothers Day in Abernathy with her mother, Mrs. Cora Shuman, and the children were with them, then this past Sunday Mrs. Lyons went there to spend the day with her mother. Another visitor with them was Lois' brother, Louis Shuman from Lovington, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnibrough and John Mark from Gilliland came Saturday to spend that day and Sunday here with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrough.

Members of the South Plains Hobby Club met in the South Plains home of Mrs. Fred Marble Wednesday afternoon, May 11th, with Mrs. Leighton Teeple presiding at the business meeting. Roll Call was: "Something I Would Like to Have for My Home." Mrs. Kendall Cummings brought the thought for the day, giving interesting facts from the Holy Bible. Mrs. Teeple brought needlepoint work, and showed members how to thread needles and how to work the needlepoint. Mrs. Marble served refreshments of cream puffs, coffee and tea to Mmes. Kendall Cummings, Fred Fortenberry, Harold Hamm, Murray Julian, Keith Marble, J. P. Taylor, Leighton Teeple, L. T. Wood, Fred Blake, Arby Mulder, and Grigsby Milton Jr. The next meeting of the club will be held June 8th, at 8:00 a.m. for the annual breakfast at Mamie's, Mrs. L. T. Woods' home. Hostesses for the breakfast will be Mrs. Wood will be Mmes. Sylvie Kinnibrough, Ruby Higginbotham and Doris Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kinslow arrived home last Tuesday from a three weeks vacation trip which took them first to California where they visited relatives at San Diego, then came back through the western states of Washington and Oregon, etc. They wanted to go through Yellowstone Park in Wyoming and Glacier Park in Montana, but both parks were closed at this time due to snows. They went through the western and northern part of California, and report that in spite of the drought there, crops, flowers, trees and all look lovely. The lack of snow in the mountains has added to the drought worries.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Kenneth Powell from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, near Lawton, were here over the past weekend visiting with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Powell and family. They hope to soon be settled in their home at Fort Sill.

The sixth grade Junior High Band, the Floydada High School Band and the Stage Band performed at a recital Sunday afternoon at the Floydada High School auditorium, and several families from our area attended as children and grandchildren were in the band. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful numbers. Among those from here who attended were Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian, and Mr. and Mrs. Reese Hightower and children.

The contract has been let at the South Plains Elementary School in South Plains for the building of a gymnasium which will be erected during the summer months.

Saturday evening of last week Fletcher Powell accidentally fell from a truck from which they were unloading cotton seeds, and a sack of feed fell on top of him. He suffered a sore arm and hand as he had hit the pavement when falling. He is doing better this week.

Mrs. L. T. Wood, Mrs. Fred Blake and Mrs. Murray Julian went to the W. M. U. session day at Plains Baptist Assembly on May 10th. A soft rain was falling and cool weather prevailed during the meeting. A delicious luncheon was served at noon, and during the morning, Mrs. C. W. Coy brought an inspiring message. Special music, testimonies and messages were given during the program. During the Caprock WMU business meeting, Mrs. Jimmie Hunter of Flomot was nominated as Director of Caprock Association for the coming year.

Visitors at the Baptist church Sunday morning were Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Kenneth Powell from Lawton, Okla. and Mrs. Zach Cummings, from WTSU at Canyon. The sermon, "Life Worth Living" was given by Rev. Fred Blake.

C. V. Blake is home with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake and sister, Atha for the summer from Leveland South Plains College.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Lillian Marble is in Caprock Hospital in Floydada since Sunday night. We hope she can come home soon.

Mrs. Nathan Mulder was hostess for a Home Interior party, held Friday afternoon at the Fellowship Hall of the Baptist Church due to so much rain on rural roads the past week. Mrs. Jimmy Tye (Marsha) Lubbock was in charge of the demonstration. Mrs. Mulder served snacks, cookies, coffee and punch to Mmes. Arby Mulder, Murray Julian, Keith Marble, Dick Lyons, Dwight Teeple, Fred Marble, Don Marble, Tommy Scaff, Kendis Julian, J. P. Taylor, Fred Blake, and Mrs. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrough left last Tuesday for Truscott where they visited over night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kinnibrough. They spent the next night at Lake Kemp where they have a cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sharbut from Littleton, Colorado, were overnight guests and visitors with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake, Atha and C. V. Monday night in South Plains. They were in Levelland that day for the funeral of A. C.'s uncle, and were enroute home.

EGGONOMICAL CASSEROLE

- 9-10 slices white or whole wheat bread, thinly sliced
- 1 cup cooked, diced ham or other meat
- 1 large onion, sliced
- 1/2 pound mozzarella cheese, shredded
- 6 eggs
- 1-3/4 cups milk
- 1/4 cup Bourbon or other whiskey
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Dash cayenne

Cut bread into quarters. Arrange half the bread in the bottom of a shallow 2-quart casserole. Sprinkle with half the ham, onion and cheese. Repeat layers. Combine eggs, milk, Bourbon and seasonings. Pour over layers. Let stand 5 minutes, or longer, if desired. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) 30-35 minutes or until puffed and golden. Makes 6 servings.

Nita Merle Hull To Be Honored With Retirement Tea

Mrs. Nita Merle Hull, who is retiring as Floyd County librarian, effective July 31, will be honored with a retirement tea in the library on Thursday, May 26th, between the hours of 2:30 and 4 p.m. The event is being sponsored by the 1934 Study Club of Floydada. All friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. Hull will be moving to McAllen at retirement time to live near her daughter.

A native of Floyd County, Nita Merle Hanna Hull is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hanna. She is a graduate of Floydada High School and attended Texas Tech and Tyler Commercial College. She and the late A. T. Hull were married in 1936. He died in May of 1975.

Mrs. Hull worked for the National Farm Loan in Floydada before becoming librarian in July of 1958, replacing Mrs. Lee Gohlighly. At that time Mrs. Hull said there were some 8,000 books in the Library. It now houses some 25,000.

Mrs. Hull will be living near her daughter, Linda and her family at McAllen and will also visit occasionally with sons, David in Dallas and Carroll at Houston. A brother, Walter Hanna lives in Floydada.

Shower Honors Miss Puckett At South Plains

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN

Miss Sarah Puckett, bride-elect of Brent Sanders, was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Fred Marble in South Plains, Sunday afternoon, May 15th at a come and go party between the hours of 2 to 4 p.m.

In the receiving line were the bride elect, her mother, Mrs. Sam Puckett of Floydada, and Brent's mother, Mrs. M.S. Simpson Jr. from Dimmitt, his grandmother, Mrs. Jack Smitherman of South Plains, and hostess Mrs. Marble.

The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth, and centered with a basket of yellow daisies. Crystal appointments were used in serving coconut balls and punch. Gold napkins imprinted "Sarah and Brent" were used.

Corsages were presented the bride-to-be and the two mothers and grandmother.

Hostesses for the party with Mrs. Marble were Mmes. Hansel Sanders, E.P. Pritchett, I.H. Parks and Shelby Calahan. Their gift was Mixmaster.

Special guests at the party were Brent's aunts, Mrs. Wallace Harper of Borger, and Mrs. Guy Ford of Hereford.

8th.

Attending were Mrs. Marvin Greer of Ralls, Bill Lewis of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Whittle, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whittle of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Whittle, Nat and Nathan of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. James Chote of Ralls.

Stork news

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Myrick of Plainview are parents of a daughter, Shayla Kay, who was born at 12:15 p.m. May 18th in Central Plains Hospital. The baby weighed 6 pounds 6 1/2 ounces at birth. She has two brothers, Joey, 4 1/2 and Tommy, 14 years old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Myrick of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Collins of Plainview. Great grandmothers are Mrs. Dena Myrick and Mrs. J. F. Cantrell both of Floydada.

Library Friends To Meet

Friends of the Floyd County Library will have a meeting Monday night, May 23rd at 7:30 in the Library. Those interested are urged to attend.

Sarah Puckett Honored With Gift Coffee

Sarah Puckett, bride elect of Brent Sanders, was honored May 7th with a gift coffee in the Cleo Whittle home. Guests were received by Mrs. Whittle, the honoree, and mothers of the bride-elect and her fiancé, Mrs. Sam Puckett of Floydada and Mrs. M. L. Simpson, Jr. of Dimmitt.

Among special guests were grandmothers of the honoree and the prospective groom, Mrs. M. M. Smitherman of South Plains, Mrs. W. R. Puckett of Plainview and Mrs. D. F. Bigony of Big Spring; sisters of the groom to be, Mrs. Ronnie Andrews and Mrs. Dick Hill of Hereford, and the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. William Pierson of Lubbock.

Guests were registered by Tracey Puckett, sister of the bride.

Mrs. Jack Jordan presided at the silver tea service. The table was laid with a white over white organdy cloth and held a wicker basket filled with white daisies. Multi-colored rick napkins in shades of pink, and crystal appointments completed the table setting.

Hostess gift was cook-ware.

Grace Anne Badgett, Rev. Richard Heacock Jr. Wed.

Wedding vows were repeated by Grace Anne Badgett and Rev. Richard K. Heacock Jr., Saturday, May 21 in the Mission Espiritu Santo Goliad State Park in Goliad. The Rt. Rev. J. Chess Lovern, United Methodist Bishop of the San Antonio area performed the twin ring ceremony at 11 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Emily Johnston of Floydada and the late James F. Potts. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Richard K. Heacock Sr., of Austin.

A barbecue wedding feast hosted by the Goliad First United Methodist congregation at the Goliad State Park followed the wedding ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Goliad where the groom is pastor of the Goliad and Fannin First United Methodist Churches. He received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Southwestern University, a Master of Theology from Perkins School of Theology, and Southern Methodist University. Rev. Heacock has served churches in Ingleside, Corpus Christi, Anchorage and Juneau, Alaska and served as seminar designer for the Church Center for the United Nations, New York for five years.

The bride received Bachelor and Master of Science Degrees from Texas Tech University and two teaching endorsements from the University of Houston Victoria Center. She is employed with the Calhoun County Independent School District as an Early Childhood teacher. She has also taught in Lubbock, Plainview and in Pittsburg, Pa.

Baptist Women Meet For Bible Study

Baptist Women of The First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. W.H. Bunch Wednesday morning for Bible study.

Mrs. Floyd Bradley, president of Baptist Women presided, and announced this would be the last meeting until September.

Mrs. Bill Daniel voiced prayer for missionaries on the prayer calendar.

The Bible lesson was presented by Mesdames J.R. Turner, Bible leader, Orval Newberry, Dorothy Davis and Earl Crawford.

Mrs. Jerry Livingston, S.M.U. director, appointed Mesdames W.H. Bunch, Earl Crawford and J.R. Turner as the nominating committee for the ensuing year. Mrs. J.R. Turner voiced closing prayer.

Coffee and cake were served to the above named together with Mesdames Floyd Lawson, Glen White, T.L. Holland, Ann Thompson, H. O. Cline, Odell Stout, A. R. Epperson, C. M. Meredith, W. B. Cates, O. G. Mayfield, Robert Garrett and Master Alan Livingston.

Kirk McIntosh Receives Degree

SHERMAN—Kirk Franklin McIntosh, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. McIntosh of Floydada, received a bachelor of arts degree from Austin College during commencement ceremonies May 15.

Dr. Lorene L. Rogers, president of the University of Texas at Austin, addressed the 278-member graduating class during ceremonies ending the 127th year of Austin College.

Dr. Rogers, who was named president of UT Austin in 1975, received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Austin College. Austin College, a liberal arts college with a student enrollment of 1200, also presented honorary degrees to Mrs. Ida F. Green, a Dallas civic leader and benefactress in many areas, and the Rev. Dr. Robert B. Smith, minister of the First Presbyterian Church in Midland and principal speaker during Austin College's baccalaureate services.

Austin College, the oldest college in Texas still operating under its original charter, is affiliated under a covenant relationship with the Presbyterian Church, U.S.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Honors Miss Eastham

A pre-nuptial coffee honoring Miss Jodie Eastham, bride-elect of Jerry Wayne McGuire, was given Saturday morning, May 7th in the Bob Kendrick home. Guests were received by Mrs. Kendrick, the honoree, and mothers of the bride elect and prospective groom, Mrs. Carmel Eastham of Dougherty and Mrs. James E. McGuire of New Deal.

Mrs. Steve Lloyd presided at the bride's book where guests registered with a blue quill pin. Blue was also carried out, along with yellow on the serving table, which was laid with an off-white linen cloth. A white wicker basket containing blue and yellow flowers and baby's breath formed the centerpiece. The arrangement was later presented to the honoree along with a set of cookware from the hostesses. Blue napkins completed the table setting. Hostesses alternated at the silver coffee service.

Mrs. Kendrick was assisted with the gift coffee by Mmes. Bill Daniel, Doyle Miller, Thomas Warren, D. C. Mayo, Doris McLain, C. M. Leatherman, O. N. Bertrand, J. R. Turner, Bill Hopper, W. H. Simpson Jr., Travis Jones, Floyd Bradley, Leon Ferguson, Pete Hickerson, Arnold Ratheal, Louis Anderson, Jerry Lackey, Elwin O. Chappell, Steve Lloyd, Glenn White, Wilson Bond and Jimmy Vickers.

LINGERIE AND KITCHEN SHOWER

Miss Eastham was also honored recently with a lingerie and kitchen shower in the Tommy Wylie home. Mrs. Wylie was assisted with the shower by her mother, Mrs. Joe Miller of Panhandle.

Guests attending included classmates of Miss Eastham and her fiancé. They were served homemade ice cream, cake and soft drinks.

FLOYD DATA

NEWS 'N' NOTES

(by Sharon Hillis)

Care of outdoor furniture provides longer, better looking life for each piece of outdoor furniture.

A modest amount of effort makes metal, wood, wicker and plastic furniture look its best through hot summer days.

Consumers can try some economical tips for cleaning and making minor repairs on furniture used in the backyard and at lake or pool side.

Lightweight aluminum chairs and tables have new luster when rubbed with a dry pad of fine steel wool. Follow with a light coat of auto paste wax. Allow wax to dry 20 minutes before buffing. This process protects aluminum from the elements and helps prevent pitting.

Pieces with vinyl cord or strip webbing need occasional washing with sudsy water. Rinse thoroughly.

Tighten any screws that anchor webbing or allow movement. Loose rivets sometimes can be tightened by gripping the head with a pair of pliers. If screws or rivets must be replaced, use larger zinc-coated sheetmetal screws. Wrought iron or all weather furniture needs frequent care. Hose or wash with a mild detergent. Rinse well and dry.

Rugged redwood and hardwood furniture needs to be washed down and waxed with paste wax. A coat of penetrating wood sealer gives added protection.

Unfinished redwood should not be varnished or shellacked. Chips and imperfections should be filled with a commercial filler and sanded.

Dents can be removed by laying small pieces of wet cotton in each dent. Then apply an iron hot enough to create steam. This will usually cause wood fibers to swell and dents disappear.

Wicker furniture usually is not considered outdoor furniture. However, it may be used on sheltered patios or porches.

Direct sunlight, rain and dew are damaging to the four major types of wicker furniture—rattan, reed, willow and bamboo.

Wicker is easily dusted with a long, soft-bristled brush or vacuumed with the dusting attachment. Midsummer is the time to wipe pieces with a damp cloth or sponge, since wicker like humidity. Salt added to the water will prevent unfinished wicker pieces from yellowing.

Spills should be taken care of promptly before materials harden or stain by wiping with a sponge wrung from sudsy water.

Preserve the sheen or lacquer, varnished and paint-finished wicker by applying past wax. Be sure surfaces are dry before waxing.

Molded plastic furniture is often used outdoors. For general care, wash it with light-duty detergent or a mild solution of household cleaner using a clean cotton flannel cloth.

Inevitable surface scratches or abrasions occasionally can be removed by rubbing with a little toothpaste on a damp cloth.

Past wax or mild liquid wax gives added protection to plastic furniture and will remove water spots.

Stubborn stains can be removed with powdered detergents. Do not use an abrasive scouring powder, gasoline or strong solvents.

Window cleaning fluids should never be used on acrylic sheet plastic pieces.

Repairs can be made with epoxy glue, being sure to wipe away all excess before the glue is dry.

Hugh Daniel will speak after the breakfast of bacon, eggs, biscuits, jelly, milk, orange juice and coffee.

ACCENT ON HEALTH

Consumers with children's sleepwear shouldn't be confused by a label saying "flame retardant" or "flame resistant" in determining whether the sleepwear contains the flame-retardant chemical Tris.

That's the word from Harold R. Ray, Director of the Product Safety Division of the Texas Department of Health Resources.

"Just because the products bear one or the other label doesn't mean they have the Tris treatment," said Ray.

The US Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) recently banned the sale of any children's clothing containing the flame-retardant chemical Tris. The ban also extends to any Tris-treated fabric that is uncut but is intended for sale to consumers for use in children's wearing apparel.

Laboratory tests in which Tris was orally administered to rats showed that some rats developed cancerous tumors.

Ray said the affected products in interstate commerce, or introduced into interstate commerce, are banned and must be repurchased from retailers and distributors by any manufacturer or others who sold them. Consumers who have purchased but not washed any Tris-treated children's garments or uncut fabric are also entitled to a full refund of the purchase price, said the CPSC.

Washing the garments three or more times removes much of the chemical, and the washed garments then present little, if any, risk to the wearer, said the CPSC.

Ray said you can't look at a garment and tell if it has been treated with Tris.

Not all children's sleepwear is Tris-treated, and children's garments other than sleepwear are rarely treated, said Ray.

To determine if a particular children's garment has been treated with Tris, it is suggested that consumers should contact the manufacturer or the store where the item was purchased.

Some fabrics are inherently flame resistant. Others require the addition of chemicals, but the chemical isn't necessarily Tris, said Ray.

You can get a line on excluding Tris-treated sleepwear by looking at the fiber content printed on the label, said Ray.

Fibers used in children's sleepwear sizes 0-14 which are frequently treated with Tris to achieve flame resistance include: Acetate and Acetate Blends; Triacetate and Triacetate Blends; and 100 percent Polyester.

*Fabrics used in the manufacture of children's sleepwear which characteristically require the addition of a chemical other than Tris to achieve flame-resistance include: 100 percent Cotton and Nylon.

*Fabrics used in the manufacture of children's sleepwear which are inherently flame-resistant and would,

LOCKNEY LOCALS

Mrs. E. E. Wells' son, Marvin Wells of Denton, came Mother's Day weekend and stayed with his mother until the following Tuesday. She accompanied him home to Denton for a visit with Marvin, his wife and daughters. Marvin and his mother attended a Seminar at Oral Roberts University, Tulsa, Okla. from Thursday until Sunday of last week. These Seminars are held several times each year, and 3,600 people from throughout the United States and Canada were in attendance at this one which the Wells thoroughly enjoyed. Marvin brought his mother back to Lockney, and left for his home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thomas, Jr. and her sister, Mrs. Louise Woods of Plainview traveled by plane Wednesday to attend the funeral of Marvin Rodgers at Maybank, Texas. Mr. Rodgers passed away on Monday, and was an uncle of Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Woods.

Mrs. Henry Bollman attended a Quilting "B" at the Ralls Library on Tuesday of last week. Another meeting of the Ralls group (which is open to anyone interested in quilting) is scheduled for all day next Tuesday, May 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holland were visited several days last week by their grandson, Tom Musser, a student at West Texas State, Canyon. He also visited his aunt and uncle, the Don Marbles of South Plains. Tom is the son of the E. R. Mussers, and has returned to their home in Marengo, Illinois for the summer months. Donette Marble, the Hollands granddaughter, and a student at South Plains Jr. College, Levelland, visited in her grandparents' home while Tom Musser was here. The family group had dinner with the Don Marbles on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fair from Hobbs, N.M. (residents of Lockney in 1938), accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Stringer of Houston, visited with the Henry Bollmans Saturday of last week.

PLAY DAYS SCHEDULED

Lockney: "Play Days" for youth ages 10-18 are being scheduled monthly at the Floyd County rodeo arena. The first is set for May 29, 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Persons from all surrounding counties are invited to participate.

CUNYUS IS TECH GRADUATE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cunyus, Ronnie, Jackie, (Danny) and Mrs. Betha Cunyus of Lockney attended graduation exercises of their son, brother and grandson Larry Cunyus at Texas Tech Friday and Saturday May 13-14.

Attending from Dimmitt were Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Kelley, Greg, Cindy, Kristi and Jo Beth Bates.

Larry has been a member of the saddle tramps for 3 years. He was "ACTIVE" of this past semester. He received his B.A. degree in Crops and Soil Science.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleston, M.C. 17th District, Texas WASHINGTON, D.C.-AS HAS BEEN RECENTLY REPORTED IN THE PRESS retired FBI agent, John Kearney, has been indicted in New York for directing mail opening and wire tap operations while searching for fugitive members of the radical Weather Underground from 1970 through 1972. This delights a lot of the liberals here in the Congress and some liberal organizations and newspapers.

IT SEEMS THAT A FACTION IN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT, hostile to the FBI, hopes to reach higher-ups in the FBI through prosecution of middle-level supervisors such as Kearney. These people seem to feel that it was a crime for agents to investigate by whatever methods they could, links between subversives in the Country with Cuba, communist China or try to find out where the terrorists which were so active in the early 1970's were going to bomb next. And how far back should investigations go to determine law violations? Should an FBI supervisor be prosecuted for alleged acts in 1970 or similar acts in 1951 or 1967. Technically, there were violations but should we expect the subversives, the bomb-throwers and agents of foreign governments to come in and report their activities to the FBI.

THERE IS NOT A NATION IN THE WORLD and, particularly, the more developed countries, who do not have agents in other nations who collect information by whatever method they may employ. The left-wingers are against crime all right but they don't like the FBI, the CIA and other protective agencies who act against these elements who would destroy our Country. It would seem that the Justice Department should be chasing the terrorists who seek nothing less than the destruction of America. The "way-outers" who are harassing the FBI talk of the rights of the terrorists and subversives and make culpures of the FBI agents who try to keep track of them in an effort to find out where they will strike next.

LEGISLATION IS BEING PREPARED to place more restrictions on the ability of our security agencies to investigate foreign spying in the U. S. They want to require a Federal Judge's permission before wiretapping could be used to monitor foreign intelligence activities. These liberal elements would know where they could find a like-minded Federal Judge who would grant an injunction against any such plan of action.

THERE IS NO QUESTION that the activities of our Federal law enforcement agencies should be made accountable to authority. Certainly, we do not want a Gestapo. In fact, this is already required under law. The whole concept of law enforcement, even in the case of subversive activities, is not the invasion of personal liberties. In a fundamental sense, such invasion would be a profound corruption of the American law enforcement system.

THE FACT REMAINS that those who would subvert our Nation in the interest of a foreign country or for the purpose of destroying our Government can only be controlled through techniques which would not be employed against the common criminal. The burglar, the murderer or the rapist is the responsibility of local and state police and not the primary business of any Federal officer. The terrorist, the spy and the agent who would steal our military secrets can only be caught by our Federal law enforcement agencies created for that purpose.

SAFETY SENSE

Toward Better Gardening

More and more people are discovering that growing a healthy garden is a matter of having power-power equipment. One tool that many find makes the job a lot easier and more efficient is a power tiller. Here are some tips on how to use one safely from experts at the Outdoor Power Equipment Institute.

CLEAR THE AREA - of debris, of pets, of children.

1. Before you even start the engine, become familiar with the owner's manual. Make sure you understand all the controls, attachments, safety devices.
2. Never remove guards or shields.
3. Keep children and pets out of the area.
4. Proper clothing can be a safety factor. Wear rough-soled, heavy-duty shoes.
5. Stop the engine if you're leaving the equipment, unlogging blades, making repairs or refueling.
6. If you spill gasoline, wipe it up immediately.
7. Don't smoke around fuel. Remember, fumes ignite.
8. Let the engine cool for 10 minutes before filling the tank.

These safety tips should help you help your garden grow.

This weekend, call both families for practically the price of one.

It's true! This weekend—and every weekend between 11 p.m. Friday and 5 p.m. Sunday—you can place two Long Distance calls, for practically the price of one weekday evening call, when you dial the 1+ way.

For example, a 10-minute call to someone a thousand miles away weekday evenings (5 p.m. to 11 p.m., Sunday-Friday) would cost you $2.44, plus tax. Which, you'll admit, isn't bad.

But for practically the same price, you could make two eight-minute calls over the same distance... any weekend.

It's almost like getting one call free!

So this weekend, enjoy a couple of Long Distance calls. And make three families happy!

Long Distance. What else is so nice for the price?

Scoring Leader

LEVELLAND— Danny Quisenberry of Floydada has become the all-time scoring leader on the track team at South Plains College.

The sophomore javelin thrower set the new school record for individual points scored by a Texan in a single season when he won the 120-yard high hurdles at the Western Junior College Conference championships. In nine meets he scored 105 points, breaking the former record of 99½ points scored in 1971 by Phil Allen.

Since the WJCC meet on April 30, Quisenberry has finished first and second in the javelin and third in the high hurdles at the Texas State Junior College meet and the National Junior College Athletic Association Region V meet.

"Danny has been an outstanding track performer for two years," said SPC track coach Clint Ramsey. "He is always willing to work a little harder. He's got a super attitude. He's the best kid I have ever coached in all my years of coaching."

In addition to breaking the school individual scoring record, Quisenberry also set a new standard in the javelin this season. In the Abilene Christian University invitational meet he threw the spear 203 feet, 2 inches—the first time an SPC athlete had ever broken the 200-foot mark in the event. To show it wasn't just a fluke, the husky sophomore also had "distances that day of 200 feet, 7 inches and 196 feet even on his other two tries. The old SPC record was 198-1 set in 1976 by Butch Sutton.

Quisenberry has won the javelin six times this year, finished second three times and third once.

In his secondary event—the 120-yard hurdles—he has placed second three times, third once, fourth twice and fifth twice. His best time in the event this year has been a 14.25 clocking at the Texas State JC meet in Austin.

Commercial Beekeepers Provide Bulk of State's Honey Supply

AUSTIN—While many a backyard enthusiast has learned to keep bees for home honey consumption and profit, the bulk of honey production in the state rests in the hands of some 100 commercial beekeepers, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture.

"Commercial beekeepers are designated as such when they maintain as many as 300 hives," explained Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown. "Some of the largest operations include up to 4,000 hives."

Under the 1974 law designed to protect the Texas beekeepers' available supplies of nectar, beekeepers entering fields are restricted for the first time in where they can locate their hives. No hives are allowed any closer than two miles from any other keeper's bees.

In the past, a beekeeper could come into a field and place hives alongside already existing hives at will.

Honey has been favored as a natural sweetener from the time of the ancients, according to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown, when it was often the only available source of sugar. Honey adds over $5 million to the Texas economy.

Honey added to cake, cookies and bread doughs give them remarkable keeping qualities as well as chewy texture and a browner color, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture Home Economist.

In puddings, custards and pie fillings, use honey cup for cup as a replacement for sugar, suggests the Texas Department of Agriculture home economist.

County Agent's Stock Up Now on Texas Meat

By Doyle Warren
Floyd County Agent

What are the goals and purposes of the proposed beef research and information program?

If eligible livestock producers vote in favor of the beef checkoff program this spring, it is designed to allow the establishment of projects for advertising, promotion, education, producer and consumer information with respect to use of cattle, beef and beef products, says Doyle Warren, Floyd County Extension Agent, and L. N. Johnson, chairman of the Beef Development Taskforce.

Similarly, the program would allow for the establishment and conducting of research, market development projects and studies with respect to production, growing, sale, processing, and distribution, marketing or utilization of cattle, beef and beef products, the Extension agent said.

The program also would include development and expansion of foreign markets.

The checkoff is designed as a self-help program, where the producer would be contributing 3/10 of one percent of the sales of his cattle. For example, for a producer to contribute $100 to the program, sales from his cattle would need to be $33,333 annually.

Nearly $40 million would be generated in the program's first year of operation, based on the assessment rate as outlined in the proposed program. The program would be administered by a Beef Board of not more than 68 members from eligible producer organizations of each state or geographical area. Texas should have a representation of about seven members on the Beef Board, to help determine how the checkoff monies would be spent.

PLAINVIEW—Growers of melon, cucumbers, squash, pumpkins and the like can learn more about complexities of pollination and skillful bee management in a seminar at the Hale County Agricultural Center in Plainview, May 25, beginning at 2:00 p.m.

The cucurbit pollination seminar is open to the public and is being presented by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, with Hale County Extension agents as local hosts.

Three Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialists are speakers for the event. They are Dr. Roland Roberts, vegetable specialist from Lubbock; Tom Longbrake, vegetable horticulturist from College Station; and Dr. John Thomas, entomologist also from College Station.

Subjects to be discussed include the commercial importance of acreage and value of vine crops (cucurbits); flower formation and structure related to bee pollination; bee habits and feeding characteristics and their management; and problems and economics of handling bees for pollinating cucurbits.

Growers, bee handlers, crop consultants, entomologists, seedsmen, educators and others interested in vine crop vegetable production are expected to attend.

AUSTIN—Consumers are being urged to stock up on red meat while supplies are good because predictions of a decline in spring slaughter to come may edge prices up in the state, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Current plentiful supplies of the red meat on hand should continue throughout the state during March, while current lighter placements of cattle in Texas feedlots may mean a reduced beef output by summer.

Texas cattle feeders placed 226,000 head into their lots during February, 28 per cent below the previous month, and the smallest number to go into lots in two years.

There were 1,520,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter market in the state on March 1. The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service shows the current estimate some 16 per cent below a year ago and eight per cent below last month.

Some 352,000 head of fat cattle were marketed during the second month of 1977, two per cent above February, 1977, and one per cent above the previous month. Other disappearance from feedlots, including animals that were sold for further feeding, returned to pasture, or feed, was estimated at 14,000 head, compared with 36,000 a year earlier.

"Pleased" was the word used by Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., when asked for his reaction to last week's cotton dust hearing in Lubbock.

The hearing, conducted by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration on its proposal that a 200 microgram maximum allowable dust standard be applied to all cotton handling establishments, lasted through May 10 and 11 and until after noon on May 12.

Almost 2,000 concerned people attended all or part of the proceedings, with the maximum crowd on May 10 estimated at well over 1,200 people. A petition opposing OSHA's suggested standard gathered 1,890 signatures at the hearing and continues to be circulated in the area. It will be filed later with OSHA as a part of the hearing record and submitted to key legislators and President Carter.

The administrative law judge and four other OSHA officials that made up the hearing panel heard approximately 150 witnesses representing all segments of the cotton industry, including labor, financial institutions, the medical profession and other concerned interests. They heard over and over that no dust standard is needed to protect the health of cotton workers outside the textile industry, that the proposed standard was impractical if not impossible to meet and should be withdrawn.

"Such a showing of unanimous opposition and widespread concern can't help but make an impression," Johnson said, "and the record compiled will be a significant factor in our continuing efforts to protect ourselves from unreasonable federal regulation."

OSHA expects to conclude its dust hearings in Washington about May 20, but a final standard won't be issued until "sometime this fall," according to an OSHA attorney. The hearing record will be kept open to receive written testimony for 30 days after the hearings adjourn.

"It was gratifying to see the response of our High Plains people to this serious threat," Johnson stated, "and while there can be no certainty in matters where politics are concerned, I have high hopes we will get results."

Most of the witnesses at the Lubbock hearing were from the High Plains, speakers also appeared from other cotton growing areas of Texas and from Arizona, California, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Steer Roping And Dance At The Rodeo Grounds

Roping will start at 2:30 Saturday, May 28 at the Floydada rodeo arena with stock furnished by Pete McKee of Lubbock.

Ropers will have three head for $30.00, progressive after two head. Books open at 1 p.m. and close after first go-round...roping starts at 2:30. The rodeo dance will begin at 9 p.m. on the slab at the southwest corner of the rodeo grounds. The steer roping and dance are sponsored by the Floydada Rodeo Assn.

Red Meat Production Rises April TDA Survey Shows

AUSTIN—Red meat production in the state increased six per cent during the first quarter of 1977, according to the Texas Department of Agriculture.

An 11 per cent increase in hog slaughter accounts for a large portion of the increase, but pork output remains lower than earlier predicted, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown commented. "A combination of severe winter weather and disease losses have kept pork production under earlier high predictions so that prices have been maintained at higher levels than expected for hogs," he said.

Hog slaughter of 286,400 head was a part of the six per cent jump in overall red meat production in the state, which stands at 962 million pounds for the first three months of the year.

On the down side of the ledger was cattle slaughter, with its 1,495,700 head count some three per cent under the same period in 1976. Downturns in beef production accompanied by a smaller than expected output of pork, have begun to buoy prices, Brown said.
