Driving Costs Up In Floyd

TEXAS-SIZE HEN EGG--A hen owned by 14-year-old Dee McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gale McPherson of the Providence Community, laid this whopper recently. It measures 8 1/2" around the long way. Dee raises chickens for a hobby and has some rare breeds, including some Silver Polish, Black Andalusians, and some pure Dominickers. The big egg, however was laid by (he thinks) a Plymouth Rock-Leghorn cross about a year old. After the picture was taken, Dee cracked the egg and found another (soft-shelled) egg inside. There was only one yolk. (Staff Photo)

NEW YORK, June 25--Floyd County families who will be setting out on vacation trips by car this summer will find that travel costs are considerably higher than in former years.

Inflation has had a marked effect on the prices of food, of overnight accommodations, of gas and of almost every other item of daily need.

The findings are based upon a survey of vacation travel costs throughout the country, made by the American Automobile Association.

As a result, its figures indicate, a Floyd County couple, traveling in modest style, will require approximately $68 a day this, which is $15.50 more than the $52.50 that was needed three years ago.

That amount will take care of the necessities but not such extras as souvenirs, amusements, tolls and admissions to places of interest.

Thus, a two-week trip will cost a local couple a minimum of $950. This assumes that they get 15 miles to the gallon of gas and that they cover an average of 300 miles per day.

The $68 daily budget includes $27 for overnight lodgings, $26 for food, exclusive of alcoholic beverages, and $15 for gas and oil.

The AAA report also answers, for Floyd County car owners, the all-important question of how much it is costing them per year to own and operate their cars.

The average is now $2,019 for an intermediate-size car, fully equipped, as against $1,662 in 1974.

Of this, $1,439 is in fixed costs, such as depreciation, insurance, taxes and license fees. Financing charges are not included.

The other expenses, covering gas, oil, tires and maintenance, depend upon how much the car is used. For 10,000 mile operation they total $580.

All in all, having an automobile today costs about 3.6 cents more per mile than it did three years ago.

Based upon this overall average, Floyd County residents are spending some $9,997,000 annually on the 4,740 cars in use locally.

Because of the increase in auto travel, gas stations in the area have been grossing more. Their receipts in the past year reached $2,800,000. Three years earlier they totaled $2,104,000.

'Tree Expert' Wants Young Blood In The Business

Not all the walnuts in H.B. Foster's orchard measure six inches around, but some are that big. Foster estimates he'll harvest some 50 to 60 bushels of English walnuts from his trees this year.

Foster, who's been "tinkering with trees" since 1939, raises walnuts--and pecans, peaches, apricots, plums, pears, apples, nectarines and persimmons--at his residence at 319 SE 5th in Lockney. There are about 200 trees on the property, which occupies about half a city block.

Now he's looking for someone to carry on with the orchard--bad health is forcing Foster to quit the "tinkering" he loves. "If I could find some young man who was interested in propagation and budding, I'd sell him the whole thing and show him how to do it..." he says.

"Budding" is a lost art, Foster says, and he'd like to see some young blood in the business. The big English walnuts are the result of budding--grafting English walnut trees to harder black walnut root systems.

Foster gives away most of the fruit from his orchard "...since we're related to half the people in the county..." His brother Jesse helps a lot in the orchard now, and one of Foster's sons, Ben, now runs Artway Tree Service in Plainview, carrying on with the "tree surgeon" work his father started years ago (Foster was once "on call" for ailing trees in the area extending from Pampa to Lamesa and from Hobbs, N.M. to Marietta, Oklahoma). His other son, Lerel, is supplies warehouse manager for the City of Lubbock. The Fosters have seven grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

Foster "landed in Floydada" on Armistice Day, 1924. He and his brother came in a covered wagon from Denton County, Texas. He's been in and around the county ever since.

Long-time Lockneyites know that Foster was also a baker. He bought the City Bakery in downtown Lockney in 1949 and baked in Lockney for five or six years. Some may not know that he then went to Wichita Falls and set up a factory to make packaged pecan pie mix. The mix was copyrighted, but nobody ever figured out Foster's formula anyway, he says.

Another thing some may not know is that Foster baked the first loaf of bread sold by Furrs Food in Lubbock (price: 5 cents). Foster was a baker for several years at Holsum Bakery in Lubbock, and helped set up the Pioneer Cookie Company, also in Lubbock.

He retired from baking in 1957 and returned to Lockney.

Since then he's done a lot of "budding" for large nurseries in Lubbock. The Lockney tree expert has been involved in some large budding operations--he budded about 4,500 pecan trees for Bill Sherman over a two-year period, and once in a three-year span he budded about 14,000 trees at Plains, Texas.

No Postal

Service July 4

There will be no postal operations at the Lockney post office Monday, July 4, Postmaster Douglas Meriwether has announced.

Postal patrons are advised that there will be no boxing of mail in local boxes; no boxing of daily newspapers; no outgoing dispatches; and no window service on the Fourth of July.

Enter Floydada Tennis Tournament

The 6th annual Floydada open tennis tournament will get underway on July 13 beginning with junior high competition and finish on Sunday, July 17th with open and adult division mixed doubles matches, according to bank vice-president Frank Barrow. The event, which has been hosted locally every summer since 1972, is under the direction of Pat Barrow and Vickie Rainer.

Anyone wishing to enter the contest should obtain an official entry blank from either of the directors and submit his completed form before July 10th. Entry fees for junior high and high school divisions are $4.00 for singles and $6.00 for doubles, per team. Adults should pay $5.00 for singles and $8.00 per doubles team.

Competition will begin with junior high contestants squaring off at 8 a.m. Wednesday, while high school participants will see action starting Thursday morning. The open division begins Friday and 35 and over participants get underway on Saturday morning.

Barrow mentioned that this is the first year that graduates of junior high and high school may still compete in their respective divisions. The tourney is to be played by age, not by grades. Barrow also said that any proceeds will be used to further the Floydada tennis program.

Trophies will be awarded to first and second place winners in each division. Refreshments will be provided at the high school courts, and the public is encouraged to attend.

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

Nice rain showers fell here three days last week, and farmers were delighted to get the needed moisture on hard wheat ground that needed plowing, and on row crops. During the rain last week we received one and one half inches, .60 on Tuesday, and .60 on Wednesday, and more in little showers. Some places received more than 1 1/2 inches, and some less, but it fell so slowly, so it all soaked into the soil.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian spent Wednesday in Lubbock on business, and that night they had dinner with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson. The Julians were in a heavy rain in Lubbock Wednesday, and more than two inches fell during that afternoon, which flooded the streets. Murray's sisters, Mrs. Vera Harper from Me-Allen and Mrs. Ruth Burnett of San Antonio are in Boise, Montana on a Trailer Rally, and will be home sometime in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mulder went to Rock Creek, Sunday after church services at South Plains, and spent the afternoon visiting with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelvin Cummings spent the weekend of June 18th and 19th at Abilene as guests of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gregory and Brittany K.

Young girls who went to GA Camp at Plains Baptist assembly June 13-16th from South Plains Baptist church and community grades 4-6 with counselors, Mrs. Nathan Mulder and Mrs. Kendis Julian, were Cindy Mulder, Amy Arredondo, Mitzi Julian, Terry Bailey and Penny Mulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings left Friday for Glen Rose where they attended the rehearsal supper of their son, Kim Cummings and Miss Monica Gaydos, and on Saturday they attended the wedding at the First Baptist Church in Glen Rose. Several others from our area also attended the wedding ceremony, from Floydada. Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton Jr. flew guests there and they were at the ceremony and spent the night at Glen Rose, coming home Sunday.

A come and go bridal shower, honoring recent bride, Mrs. Kim Cummings, will be held Saturday, July 2nd, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Early Pritchett on the Silverton Highway.

Mrs. Doyle Walls will be the new librarian at the Floyd County Library in Floydada, and our old friend, Mrs. A.T. Hull, retiring librarian, will be retiring. We wish to add our thanks to this fine lady for the years of wonderful service she has given all of us, and for the friendship and joy she has given to me and to mine.

We are sorry to hear that another friend, Mrs. George West is in the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview, room #404. She was taken to the hospital on Friday, suffering with pneumonia. Mrs. Flossie Beedy stayed with Mrs. West Friday night. Mr. West is with her during the days.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Cummings of our community on the birth of their first grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gregory of Abilene, on Wednesday, June 22. The baby has been named Josh Randon. They have a daughter, Brittany K. Mrs. Cummings went to Abilene to stay until July 3rd, when Kendall will go and bring her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian were visited by her brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Roberts, Jayson and Kimberly and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Roberts and Mike all of Plano Thursday evening of last week. Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Julian, with children, Kristi, Mitzi and Tim, and her brothers, the Ken Roberts, Jayson and Kimberly and the Dale Roberts and Mike, and another brother, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndell Roberts of Floydada were all guests with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stewart in Floydada.

We are proud of Dean Stewart and Glen W. Wood of South Plains, who recently graduated from the Emergency Medical Technical Schooling at Floydada, taking 80 hours of classroom time, and 40 hours of hospital training. We are glad to know that if there are emergencies, we could call on them for help.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Dickens and baby son of Plainview visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh. This was the first visit of the Kinnibrugh's grandson, Henry Latham IV, who is three weeks old.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Evans of South Plains who are parents of their first child, a son, born Monday, June 27th, at Plainview, Central Plains Hospital, weighing 8 lbs, 5 1/2 ozs. The father is employed at Parks Oil Company in South Plains.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Faye Walters

We have really had the rain this week which has been good for some of the farmers and not so good for others. The residents enjoyed the rain for a little while but soon tired of it as some sure like to stay out side a lot.

Our exercises have been very good this week and so have the arts and crafts.

On Mondays we have a new program, called "music therapy." Ann Ford and Cynthia Norflett from Plainview and Audette Kincaid from Floydada come out for an hour and entertain our residents with music and song.

Tuesday was manicure day and Wednesday was too bad to take our field trip. Maybe we can make up for it next week.

Thursday was bingo day. Top winner was Hallie Bertrand with four games; Pearl Carriek won three games and Willie Mae Stambough, Agnes Anderson, Ray Reed and Clara Williamson all won two.

Olia Furrow's son from Kansas has been here visiting. Pearl Carriek's granddaughter and children from Ada, Okla. visited with her.

We also had several other out of state visitors this week.

We would like to thank the Sunshine Sunday School class for the treats they brought the residents, and also thanks to all the ladies for the quilt scraps.

We are glad to have Albert Martin home from a Lubbock hospital. Glad he is

County Teen Leaders Attend 4-H Workshop

LEVELLAND—Nearly 200 young leaders from 4-H clubs in 20 South Plains counties participated in a district teen leader lab June 15-17.

The annual three-day lab was held on the campus of South Plains College, according to Doyle Warren, county Extension Agent.

A team of 12 older youths from Lubbock, Crosby, Lynn, Dawson, Garza, and Cochran counties conducted the learning experiences for the 4-H'ers attending the lab.

The youths performed a variety of tasks ranging from group learning and discussion sessions to game tournaments and special morning and evening ceremonies. Emphasis was on success of the local 4-H club.

Activities were geared toward teaching officer duties in the local 4-H club, electing club officers, conducting a mock meeting, and planning the 4-H club program for a year. Time for relaxation and fun provided the teens with the opportunity to make new friends.

The annual leader lab helps 4-H youth to develop skills in working with younger club members and provides an opportunity for them to broaden their friendship and develop leadership qualities.

NAMES give off very specific connotations. Macs are thought to be strong and virile. Tonys are sociable but a name is only one factor in how a child is viewed. A child's image is reflected on how others see him. It isn't necessarily so but some "undesirable names" for boys are Albert, Bernard, Chester, Curtis, Henry, Horace, Maurice, Samuel and for girls, Bertha, Lola, Mildred, Phoebe, and Simone.

Some of the desirable names listed isn't necessarily so either.

FRESH cucumbers are plentiful and if you've never eaten them wilted you're missing a treat. I tried this recipe recently and it is good. In a skillet melt 2 tablespoons butter, add three medium size cucumbers pared and sliced thin, sprinkle with salt and white pepper and mix well. Cover and cook gently, stirring several times, just until wilted, then stir in minced fresh dill to taste.

WORTHWHILE hints: If something in your refrigerator has given it an offensive odor you don't cotton to, and remains after the particular ingredient is removed, put a small amount of vanilla on a piece of cotton and place on a refrigerator shelf.

And you can keep lettuce and celery fresh longer if you will keep in paper bags rather than cellophane. Don't remove outside leaves of lettuce until ready to use, and don't put lettuce in the same bag with celery as it will absorb its odor.

District 4-H Dress Revue Sets "Fashion Fandango" Theme

LUBBOCK—Young ladies from 4-H Clubs throughout the South Plains will model their own creations in this year's District 2 4-H Dress Revue July 7 as they compete for honors and the right to represent the district in state competition.

"Fashion Fandango" is the theme of the event which is set for the Texas Tech University Center ballroom, according to Mrs. Catherine B. Crawford, District 2 Extension agent.

Already the lasses are winners of county competition. Contestants are judged on their sewing and construction skills, overall appearance, modeling abilities, and their 4-H record books.

A luncheon will be served for dress revue participants, parents and guests, following contest activities. Revue and presentation of awards begin at 2 p.m. Mr. Edward Breihan, manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, will present the honors.

In addition to the naming of the top seniors who will compete in the State 4-H Dress Revue this September, awards also will include the recognition of the girl making the best all-cotton outfit and the best all-wool garment.

Two junior level contests will be staged at the same time as senior competition, says Mrs. Crawford. These younger lasses, ages 9-11 and 12-14, will not compete beyond the district level. For them, the event offers experience and leadership development.

Parents, 4-H leaders, and special guests will be on hand for the occasion. The public is invited to the 2 p.m. revue.

(former Kathy Hambright)

Double Ring Vows Exchanged By Miss Hambright, Jerry Green

Double ring wedding vows were exchanged by Kathy Hambright and Jerry L. Green at 4:00 p.m. June 25 in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Floydada. Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Hambright of Floydada and the groom is the son of Mrs. Leola Green of Vealmoor and Willis Green of Midland.

Treva Hambright, cousin of the bride, registered guests. The register table held a china memory book, encircled with the wedding invitation, and a white wicker basket holding poetry scrolls which were presented to each guest.

Grant Hambright, also a cousin of the bride, played traditional wedding selections as guests were being seated. Arrangements of "Somewhere My Love and Theme from 'Love Story' were played on the piano.

The wedding scene was formed with a large pyramid candelabra holding a mass arrangement of candles, white gladioli and pale blue pom poms and daisies placed in the choir loft. The main floor held arrangements of white glads and blue poms and hurricane-type candelabra accented in light blue and green satin and blue silk butterflies. The bridal aisle was marked with garlands of white and blue flowers and green satin ribbon.

A memory candle of white on a gold and white stand was used to close the ceremony.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk-faced organza with a natural waist and a bodice of chantilly lace. The stand up collar was of scalloped lace with satin insertion trimmed with seed pearl clusters and the Juliet sleeves were gathered onto a band also trimmed with satin insertions.

The full skirt of the gown was fashioned with three flounces, each bordered by wide chantilly lace which formed a sanctuary train. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was attached to a lace and seed pearl crown.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white pixie carnations and showers of stephanotis and baby's breath centered with a corsage of pixie carnations, which was later detached and worn on her traveling ensemble.

For the traditional "something old," the bride wore a white gold wedding band belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Viola Brown. Something new was her wedding gown, something borrowed was a diamond necklace belonging to her mother and something blue was a blue garter that had been worn by her mother at her wedding. Pennies bearing the birth dates of the bride and groom were worn in her shoe.

The groom was attired in an off-white vested suit with pale blue silk shirt and a blue and soft beige custom made tie.

Honor attendants were Mrs. Sherry Robinson of Duncan, Oklahoma and Miss Karen Norris of El Paso. They wore identical floor dresses of checked polyester crepe, trimmed in white rick rack in shades of blue and green and matching picture hats trimmed with checks and flowers. They carried white wicker baskets holding shower arrangements of marguerite daisies and baby's breath and streamers of blue and green satin ribbon.

Junior bridesmaid was Alissa Hambright. She was gowned in a blue checked dress identical to the matron and maid of honor. She carried a small white wicker basket holding daisies and baby's breath and blue and green satin ribbon.

Ring-bearer was Jim Bob Hambright. He was dressed in a blue checked jacket and vest and white trousers and wore a blue pixie carnation boutonniere. He carried a square lace-edged ring pillow of the same blue checked material. White satin streamers and a miniature butterfly decorated the pillow.

Best man was Donnie Braswell of Noel, Missouri.

Todd Hambright served as groomsmen.

Ushers were Rex Brown and Craig Hambright, both cousins of the bride.

A reception in the new church parlor, was held following the ceremony. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Barbara Willis, Darlynn Hambright, Frances Hambright, Genelle Breed, all of Floydada and Pat Brown of Crosbyton.

The brides table was laid with a white lace over blue tablecloth, and held a centerpiece formed with a silver candelabra, green tapers and the white wicker basket carried by the maid of honor. Frozen lime punch was served from a silver punch bowl.

The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with blue roses and lacy white butterflies and held a miniature bride and groom standing under a wedding bell. The top ornament was used on the bride's parents cake for their wedding reception. Mixed nuts and blue and green mints on silver trays completed the table appointments.

Lou Ann Watson of Floydada and Claire Shutz of Irving presided at the bride's table.

The groom's table was laid with a white cloth with olive green cross stitching and wide white fringe. The centerpiece was a candle centered crystal snifter with blue and green dried flowers and colored butterflies. A three shade chocolate cake, made by the bride's aunts, Darlynn and Frances Hambright was served with coffee from a silver service. Nuts and chocolate covered mints were also served. Carla and Alice Mooseberg presided at the groom's table.

Rice bags tied with blue and green satin ribbon were distributed by Treva and Alissa Hambright.

After a wedding trip to Missouri, the couple will be at home in Lubbock, where the bride is attending Texas Tech and the groom is stationed with the United States Marine Corp on the Inspector Instructor Staff.

The former Miss Hambright is a 1975 graduate of Floydada High School, where she was salutatorian of her graduating class. She is now a junior elementary education major at Tech.

The rehearsal supper was hosted Friday evening at Kings Restaurant by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Viola Brown.

Miss Monica Ann Gaydos and Norman Kimble Cummings exchanged wedding vows Saturday in the Glen Rose Baptist Church. Rev. H.S. The bodice and skirt softly gathered to organdy overlaid midriff. The midriff and double sleeves were outlined with Schiffl embroidery. They wore matching Schiffl trimmed picture hats with bias bows. Each carried eyelet trimmed white organdy parasols with gingham bows and an arrangement of daisies, yellow carnations and gypsophilia cascading over the side.

Zach Cummings, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsman were John Cummings of Lockney and Payl Gaydos of Glen Rose, brothers of the couple. Ushers were Kelvin Cummings, cousin of the groom, and Jerry Ulmer, both of Lockney. Ring bearer was Kevin Gaydos of Laguna Park, brother of the bride.

dotted swiss overlay. The bridesmaids' parasols formed a tiered arrangement centered with the bride's bouquet. Silver appointments and punch bowl were used, and the traditional tiered wedding cake was served.

The couple wore matching white suits with red gingham shirts for a wedding trip to San Antonio.

The bride attended Glen Rose High School and Tarleton State University. The groom attended Lockney High School and Wayland Baptist College.

Miss Lynn Griffin and Stan Reves were married at 6 o'clock Friday evening in the West Third and College Church of Christ in Lockney. Frank Duckworth, minister of the church, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Jeanine Griffin of Lockney and John B. Griffin of Plainview. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reves of Floydada. Guests were registered by Marilyn Smith as they entered the foyer. The altar area was decorated with a brass candelareh holding ivory tapers entwined with tropical foliage, flanked by formal baskets of mixed flowers tied with apricot bows. The mothers' pews were marked with tropical foliage, gypsophilla and satin bows.

Joel Aaron sang "The Wedding Song." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight sheer organza over taffeta styled with a scalloped sabbina neckline shadowed with re-embroidered chantilly lace. Grecian sleeves were created from soft sheer organza. Hand-clipped lace motifs trellised the full bouffant skirt and chapel train. Bordering the hemline was an organza ruffled flounce. She wore a waltz-length veil made of imported silk illusion. It was completely edged with a double row of seed pearls. Re-embroidered alencon lace frosted the headpiece, giving it a mantilla effect. She carried a bouquet of cascading pixie carnations and lemon leaves surrounding gardenias and sonya rose buds.

For the traditional "something old" the bride wore a pearl ring that belonged to her great-grandmother, Ola Bearden Morgan. The "new" was the bride's dress, and the "something borrowed" was the string of pearls from her mother. Her garter was blue, and she wore pennies in her shoes from the bride's and groom's birthdates.

Maid of honor was Miss Monte Griffin of Lockney, the bride's sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Cari Roberts and Miss Desiree Isom both of Lockney. The attendants were gowned in apricot dresses of poly sheer over taffeta. They were designed with a sabbina scoop neckline colored by layered ruffles which spanned the shoulders. They featured a set-in midriff which fell into a full A-line skirt. The maid of honor's skirt was accented with a ruffled bustle and a deep hemline flounce. The bridesmaids' skirts were accented by ruffles giving the skirt an apron effect, with a large bow in the center back. The attendants carried field bouquets of mixed flowers tied with Valeria ribbon.

The flower girl, Amy Turner of Lockney, cousin of the groom, wore a floor length apricot dress featuring cap sleeves and a ruffled flounce. Candelighters Vonda Mahagan and Lezee Wofford wore floor length dresses in reversed shades of apricot and cinnamon. They were sashed at the waist in crisscross contrasting colors with V-necklines and cap sleeves.

The bride's mother wore an apricot dress, and the groom's mother wore a dress of jade green and beige floral print. Both wore corsages of mixed flowers. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. J.T. Griffin, wore a dress of aqua with a corsage of white gladiolas.

Best man was Gary Griffith of Lockney. Ronald Carthel and Zach Zachary, both of Lockney, were groomsmen. Ushers were Steve Patridge of Plainview, brother-in-law of the groom, and Rex Reves of Floydada the groom's brother.

The groom wore a tuxedo of ivory edged in brown velvet, and an ivory ruffled shirt. The groomsmen wore tuxedos of rich brown edged with matching satin and apricot ruffled shirts. The groomsmen wore apricot tinted carnations for boutonnières.

The reception was held in the fellowship hall, where the table was decorated with a candelabra centerpiece with mixed flowers. A four-tiered cake of all white was garnished with fresh flowers, and fruit slush punch was served from a crystal bowl. Hostesses were Donna Spencer, Mrs. Robert McGuire of Houston, sister of the groom. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. S.R. Jones, Mrs. Arthur Nigh, Mrs. Jack Isom, Mrs. Jim Roberts, and Tracy Wofford.

The rehearsal dinner was given Thursday by the groom's parents at Strickland's Restaurant. The bride chose an apricot sundress and wore a mixed flower corsage for a wedding trip to Colorado. The couple will make their home in Lockney.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Lockney High School and attended Texas Tech University. The groom is a graduate of Lockney High School (1970) and United Electronics Institute (1972). He is employed by the City of Lockney.

Center News

By Mrs. J.E. Green

How time flies! June is nearly gone. We were grateful for the showers last week that cooled the atmosphere and watered thirsty vegetation. Wheat, we understand, is mostly harvested. We are sorry so much was hailed out.

Mrs. Clay Muncy and Mrs. Neva Callahan of Lockney visited Miss Vera Meredith Thursday. Mrs. Fred Battey came Saturday afternoon.

We are also glad Mrs. Clyde Burton, Mrs. Elbert Parks and J.D. Welborn are home from the hospitals. We are sorry Mrs. Grundy and Mrs. Lucille Duncan seem not out of the woods yet. Let us remember all the sick and shutins in our prayers.

The Claud Carpenters had going and coming company over the weekend; These were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brown of Weatherford, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Watson of Altus, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Smith of Tulia, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith of Lockney; and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter, City.

Misses Sherri and Rena of Ft. Worth, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James David Welborn, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Welborn, and other relatives.

Mrs. George Stiles and Mrs. Green visited Miss

Esther Peck Sunday evening after church.

Mr. Plumlee seems better today after being ill at home all last week.

Mrs. R.C. Ross was hostess to a Sunday dinner where Mrs. Kreis, Mrs. Ham Smith and Mrs. O.C. Vinson were guests.

Mrs. J.E. Green visited Mrs. Lucille Custer awhile Friday p.m., and with Mr. and Mrs. Troy Leonard Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren dined Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ola Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Burl Huckabee and Mrs. Fred Battey visited in Dumas Sunday with a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huckabee, formerly of Center.

Our sympathy is with the loved ones of Gordon Appling who passed to his reward Monday, June 21st, after a long illness. Gordon was a long time resident of Mt. Blanco.

Mrs. Green and Mrs. Hartline were among those who met others for the burial at Lakeview Cemetery. It was good to see again old friends—the Archer girls, Mrs. Appling's sisters, and others. Floy, from Los Angeles and I figured up how long we had known each other.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carpenter and parents were in Plainview late Sunday to see Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conway. Fay and Marion were in Amarillo and Canyon Wednesday, Sunday they had a phone call from daughter, Jane and husband, Dr. Phillip Caper of Boston.

Portable Oxygen Unit Available For Emergencies

A portable oxygen unit is now available for emergency purposes to residents in South Plains, Cedar Hill, Sterley, Lone Star, Silverton and nearby rural areas for persons requiring the unit.

A group of concerned citizens of these areas hope to meet soon to learn the relatively simple operation of the portable unit. Qualified personnel plan to assist those wishing to learn the techniques of the unit.

"Sometimes an emergency arises and the time delay in transporting a victim to a hospital may be fatal. Hopefully with this unit and with the help of experienced personal, rural people can have quick assistance in a case of a life and death ordeal," a spokesman said. Those wishing additional information or those wishing to take the brief course in learning to operate the unit are asked to contact either Parks Oil, Upton Grocery or Rev. Fred Blake in South Plains.

Safe Boating Week July 3-9

LUBBOCK-Governor Dolph Briscoe has proclaimed July 3-9 as "Safe Boating Week."

In the proclamation, the governor cited the importance of boating safety as individuals head for the many lakes and streams across Texas.

Figures compiled by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the water safety regulating agency, show over 498,889 boats registered by April 1977 in Texas.

With this number of boats ready to hit the water over the 4th of July holiday weekend, the P&WD predicts 25 individuals will lose their lives from water-related mishaps.

The increase in the number of water fatalities is climbing at a faster rate than the number of registered boats and P&WD wardens will be out in full force during the holiday period.

The most flagrant violation noted by the wardens has been the insufficient number or entire lack of Coast Guard-approved life vests for each person on board.

State law requires these CG-approved vests on all public waters and persons 12 years of age and younger are required to wear the CG-approved vest at all times while underway.

Local Lakes might have more restrictive rules concerning life vests and boaters are reminded to check these local regulations before putting afloat.

Boating regulations concerning proper equipment and safe operation of your boat can be found in the "Digest of the Texas Water Safety Act" available at most boat marinas, boat dealers and all P&WD offices.

High Plains DBWCP Officials Gearing Up For '77 Activities

LUBBOCK—Officials of the Diapause Boll Weevil Control program, now in its thirteenth year of operation, are gearing up for 1977 activities and are optimistic that boll weevil numbers in Texas High Plains cotton fields will be significantly reduced from last year's record infestation levels.

Dr. James F. Leser, area entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock, says that because of spring rains delayed cotton planting in the control zone which in turn set the control program's mapping operations back three weeks, but that all the signs point to another successful program.

"According to trapping information we are receiving from Ronney Edwards of the USDA's Plant Protection and Quarantine office in Crosbyton, fewer boll weevils are being caught this year than were captured last year," says Leser. "Not only are trap catches as a whole reduced from last year, but also fewer weevils are being caught in traps in counties within the control zone than outside that area, indicating that 1976's spray program was a success."

The Diapause Boll Weevil Control program is administered by Plains Cotton Growers and USDA's Plant Protection and Quarantine Service. Operations were begun in 1964 to prevent the westward spread of the boll weevil from its overwintering habitat in the Rolling Plains. Cotton producers in a 15-county control zone area stretches near of along the Caprock from Briscoe and Hall counties on the north to Martin and Dawson counties on the South.

Leser says that the success of the program depends on the close cooperation of several agencies. Leadership is provided by Ed Dean, director of field services for PCG, and Roy Moritz, local PP&Q in charge.

"A new program year begins with the mapping of every field in the infested area throughout the control zone," says Leser. "Each field is drawn as close to scale, shape and acreage as possible, then colored and numbered."

"Such maps are used extensively by surveyors who enter each field on a weekly basis to determine the location and degree of boll weevil and bollworm infestations," Leser adds. "They are also used to direct the aerial applicator to locations which need treatment."

Leser says that while routine surveys will not begin until later in the summer, Extension's evaluation of the program's effectiveness has already begun. "We have selected fields within and outside the control zone and have just started monitoring them for insects and damage," he adds. "Scouts will continue to survey these fields until the first freeze."

"In addition to the program evaluation, cotton

Variety demonstrations are also underway in Dickens and Kent Counties, Leser says. "We are paying particular attention to the effectiveness of the newer short-season cotton varieties as a management tool for controlling boll weevils. Dr. James R. Supak, area agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Lubbock, will work very closely with these tests."

Dr. Don Rummel, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, will again conduct boll weevil trap studies. Research is also continuing to see if Dimilin, which is a material that reduces boll weevil egg hatch, will fit into pest management schemes. "Dimilin performed well in tests last year," Leser adds, "and will be tested again by Rummel on several hundred acres of cotton."

Your friendly 'repairwoman'

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — A University of Texas management professor wants to promote the idea that if your doorbell rings, it may be your repairwoman calling.

Prof. Albert Shapiro believes women are letting a lucrative job market — that of making repairs to TV sets or small appliances in the home — go untapped.

He reasons that properly trained repairwomen would have a special appeal to women alone in their homes who "may feel a little uncomfortable with strange men tromping around the house." Also, he says the limited number of places where small appliances can be repaired opens up to women the field of repairs in the home.

Grain Outlook Spurs Federal Loan Program

By The Associated Press

Faced with low prices and a continuing wheat surplus, a growing number of farmers are mortgaging their crops to the government, putting the grain in storage in hopes of a better deal later.

They are taking advantage of a government loan program that allows them up to 11 months to redeem the wheat and sell it on the open market.

"There's going to be very heavy use of it (the loan program)," said Carl Schwensen of the National Wheat Growers Association. "There will be a significant increase over last year."

Consumers are unlikely to see any effect from the farmers' actions. Wheat itself accounts for only a small part of the cost of most food items. There are only a few cents worth of wheat, for example, in a 40-cent loaf of bread.

Current prices for wheat are less than $2 a bushel in many areas. Schwensen said the cost of producing a bushel of wheat currently runs from $3.30 to $3.60. The government will lend farmers $2.25 a bushel on a nationwide average. The farmers pay interest on the loan at the rate of 6 per cent a year. They also must pay for storing the wheat, and Schwensen said storage fees generally average about 30 cents a bushel.

If the price of wheat goes above $2.25, the farmers can take back their wheat, sell it and repay the loans. If the price remains below $2.25, the farmers can choose not to repay the loans and the Commodity Credit Corp. (CCC) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture assumes ownership of the grain. The CCC may sell the wheat or store it until needed.

Prices in recent years have been higher than the government loan level and farmers have mortgaged little of their crop to the CCC.

Only a small amount of grain has ended up under government ownership. As of April 30, the CCC owned only 244,000 bushels of wheat compared to more than one billion bushels in the period from 1961 to 1963.

The price at which typical High Plains cotton will enter the Commodity Credit Corporation loan in 1977 will be about 5.6 cents higher than the same qualities in 1976 according to calculations of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The national base loan rate for Strict Low Middling 1-1/16 inch cotton this year is 44.63 cents, up 5.71 cents from 1976. USDA set the loan at High Plains warehouse locations at 44.60 cents, up 5.75 cents from the 38.85 cent rate on the Plains last year.

But a small portion of this base increase will be lost to High Plains farmers by reason of increased discounts for qualities below the base. Grade and staple discounts in 1977 are an average 27 points (.27 cents) greater than 1976, but smaller discounts on cotton with below 3.5 micronaire will offset about 13 points of this.

Basis for these calculations, PCG officials state, is the average of qualities produced on the High Plains in the 1971 to 1975 crop years.

"Hopefully market prices this Fall will be such that we won't need to use the loan," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "but if the loan is needed, the higher average loan value will certainly be helpful."

The chart below shows a comparison of 1976 and 1977 physical loan prices on selected qualities common to High Plains production. Also shown are micronaire discounts for the two years.

Speech, hearing

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Speech and hearing disorders are the most frequent handicapping conditions among children, says a University of Texas audiology specialist who advises early treatment for such disorders.

Dr. Frederick Martin says hearing loss has to be looked upon as a language disorder because it affects the development of normal speech and language patterns.

Speech patterns of a child with impaired hearing are developed late and poorly, he says. Children often are diagnosed as being emotionally disturbed or mentally retarded when actually they have language disorders that stem from hearing loss, he adds.

The Floyd Philosopher

Has Some Doubts About Poor Diet Being Responsible For Crime

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm examines a theory on crime this week. We guess he's serious, but you never know.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a magazine last night because there wasn't anything to watch except re-runs, some experts have come out with a theory on why people go bad. They say it's something they ate. According to them child delinquency, which leads to adult delinquency, which leads to crime, which leads to jail or would if the cops could catch them and if the courts would ever get around to trying them and some lawyer didn't get them off and if he doesn't and they go to jail they weren't let out soon to start robbing all over again—anyway, to get hold of this sentence before it arm-wrestles me to the ground, according to them child delinquency is caused by inadequate or improper diet. Kids either don't get enough protein-rich food or they eat too much junk food. In many cases this is probably true, but the trouble with theories is that if you keep reading you'll run into something else that makes you scratch your head.

For instance, when former Attorney General John Mitchell went to prison the other day, the newspapers reported that he was the 25th member of the Watergate group to be jailed.

This got me to thinking. What did those 25 men eat when they were kids?

Like the rest of the nation, I saw all of them on television and they all looked like they'd had a well-fed childhood, and were all eating good at the time they were caught. Not a one looked like he'd ever been under-nourished.

It's pretty hard for me to believe you can blame Watergate on Sodawater and potato chips.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Fourth Of July Deadliest Weekend

The Fourth-of-July holiday period was the deadliest 3-day weekend of last year. Fifty-five traffic related deaths were recorded in Texas. Statistics also show July to be the heaviest traveled month of 1976.

Mindful of the long weekend and increased travel, Governor Dolph Briscoe asked Texans to rally to face the problem of traffic accidents. Said Briscoe, "Texans pride themselves on their sense of individual responsibility. If they are properly informed of a problem, it is my conviction they will respond positively and quickly. The fatality rate on our streets and highways during the Fourth-of-July holiday must be considered a critical problem facing all Texans. Any real solution depends on each of us taking full responsibility for his own behavior behind the wheel," said the Governor.

Briscoe's Traffic Safety Representative, Ken Nevil, said if motorists would not rush they would have a much better chance of survival as they travel. "Interstate accidents have increased by 45 percent over last year. This is due to several factors including increased travel, disregard for speed limits, heavy alcohol use and the like. Frequently, drivers concentrate on their holiday fun rather than the heavy responsibility of maneuvering an automobile. As drivers, we must anticipate the unexpected and be prepared to react. We must rely upon good judgement and skills. But, we must be compassionate in our driving. The basic rules are: leave early enough for trips, limit the use of alcohol, maintain moderate speed and keep totally alert to potential traffic hazards. The traffic accident problem requires everyone's help, collectively and individually. If we drive as a team, together we could reduce the death toll," concluded Nevil.

Rural Electric Delegates Attend Youth Tour

By Doug Simpson
"Oh, I just don't believe it...he's in the flesh! He's speaking to me five yards away and I'm standing on the South Lawn of the White House! Somebody pinch me, I'm dreaming!"

Such were the exclamations of about 1,000 rural electric delegates as they watched and heard Jimmy Carter address the annual government-in-action youth tour to Washington, D.C. from June 9-21. The president's speech was followed by a rare first for a GYT tour, a "ropes down" tour of the White House, and highlighted one of many series of activities that took place during a fun-filled week of touring the capitol city.

After the group checked in at the luxurious Marriott Hotel on Sunday, June 12, they traveled to the impressive Iwo Jima Monument for a devotional. The memorial was placed in honor of the many marines that surrendered their lives in various American wars.

On Monday of the week, the group divided into its respective regions for two-hour congressional visits with their representatives.

Lakeview News

(By Penny Golightly)

Everyone needs to get a Lighthouse Electric cook book this year. They are featuring several artists throughout the book using work done in pen and ink or pencil.

We at Lakeview gin have had some real nice cotton showers. The rain gauge has been emptied a time or two, so my closest guess on how much rain we have received is two and one half inches. It's been cloudy and cool a few days, but turning hot and humid again over weekend. No hail has been reported out here.

Mrs. E.H. Brown attended her granddaughter's and her fiancé's wedding rehearsal supper Friday night, then the wedding. Kathy Hambright and Jerry Green were married in the First Baptist Church, Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Q.D. Williams visited in Crowell Sunday with Q.D.'s brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Williams. Mrs. Q.D. Williams was a co-hostess for a shower honoring Miss Kathy Hinsley in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Harrison, Saturday.

There are all types of artists. Those who work with pencils, brushes, modelling tools or sculpturing, drafting tabs and then there is Clayton Fowler, who is an artist in his own sense. An artist is one who has an idea and puts it on paper, canvas, or molds to convey a feeling, mood, or story. Most artists have their own style, technique and specific things or people they like to draw and paint.

Clayton's idea was a game pertaining to Texas. The game is called Texas Tycoon, which is Clayton's Citizens Band handle. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fowler of Silverton. Clayton, a senior in high school, is Dayne's cousin. He is also a photographer. He made a trip this weekend to sell 500 of his games to two stores. One in Ft. Worth and one in Houston.

Mrs. Ned Bradley and son, Sammy went to visit Mrs. Bradley's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Milican at Friona. Over the weekend they also visited with Mrs. Blue Stephens from Spur.

Mrs. Bennie Golightly visited Thursday evening with Dayne, Penny and her grandson Rance Golightly.

Howard, Mike and Greg Bishop, along with Pete Callaway from Lubbock went fishing on the Colorado River recently. They were at Matagorda, Texas where the Colorado River empties into the Gulf. It was reported by Holt Bishop that the weather was bad and they didn't get in much fishing. They did catch fifteen flounders however.

There was a Thornton family reunion held at Pecos, New Mexico on the 19th. Mrs. Leona Bishop and Holt Bishop were in attendance. The Thornton family is on Leona's side.

Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Hambright attended the wedding of their granddaughter Kathy Hambright to Jerry Green at the First Baptist Church Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cardinal were Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edwards.
