55th Year — No. 18 Dimmitt, Texas, Thursday, January 28, 1982 14 Pages

Hance puts priority on farm refinancing

"Stop selling. If you are going broke selling at the prices you are now selling at, stop selling. And then let's develop an orderly marketing system for American agriculture based on the free enterprise system principals that have made this country great," Congressman Charles Stenholm urged at the ninth annual meeting of the Texas Corn Growers Association here Thursday.

Stenholm revealed that he plans to announce a plan Feb. 15 that would call for farmers to hold their commodities off the market until they get prices that they can live with, then release them under a "control formula" to keep prices up.

"We haven't got a plan yet," the member of the House Agriculture Committee said, but he added that a hearing on his proposed "20-10-20 program" will be held in Abilene Feb. 12, with the Conservation and Credit Subcommittee.

In explaining his 20-10-20 plan, Stenholm said that 20% of all the farm products that farmers now own, and 20% of that which they are going to raise this year, be committed to a reserve. That portion should be removed from the market and "not sold until the price reaches a yet-to-be-agreed-on price period."

Whenever the market price reaches 70% of parity, based on the New York futures market, farmers would be encouraged to sell another 10% of their commodity.

"In any one month that the market goes up another 5% during that month, you can sell another 10% of your remaining balance... You do that for the first three months of your market year," Stenholm said.

"The last nine months, you sell 20% of your balance at any time that the price reaches 70% of parity that month and every month that it goes up by what it costs you to store it and add the interest charges and the carrying charges," he added.

"20-10-20. An orderly marketing plan for all of the farmers of this nation for any non-perishable crop grown anywhere in the United States in which we can get a consensus among the producers that this makes sense," he said.

"It's a voluntary program, and it will voluntarily succeed or it will voluntarily fail, based on the spirit of cooperation and how serious we really think it is. I happen to think it is very, very serious," Stenholm said.

"We are our own worst enemies by selling at harvest time under the basis that we are price takers rather than price makers," he added.

Concerning exports, Stenholm told the more than 500 people in the audience that he does not want American farmers "to sell one more bushel of wheat or corn or bale of cotton or anything to anybody in the world or in the United States below the average cost of production. We cannot afford it."

With prices the way they are, "the solution to your problem is not volume," he said. [See STENHOLM, Page 9] worst prices, then you're going to see some of the commodity and livestock prices start to turn around."

Noting that he had fought the new farm bill, Hance said, "We came close to defeating it — within a couple of votes — but it's hard to beat the President and the Speaker, who were both pushing it."

He added, "Many said, 'This farm bill is the best we can get.' Well, when the best you can get creates a losing situation, you need to look for other alternatives."

Hance, who received a standing ovation from his hometown audience, stressed the importance of commodity groups such as the TCGA and said, "It's extremely important that you belong and participate. That's how we get the word in Congress, and can get things done."

Corn Growers urge mandatory set-aside

The Texas Corn Growers Thursday called on the federal government to require farmers to set aside 25% of their cropland in 1982 to reduce surpluses and raise market prices.

In the only resolution adopted during their annual meeting, TCGA members urged the Secretary of Agriculture, "under the authority he has under law, to invoke a mandatory 25% paid diversion on all basic commodities, tied to yields, and further requiring the 25% paid diversion in order for producers to obtain benefits from target prices, commodity loans, reserves and other government farm programs."

The TCGA also urged all other commodity and farm organizations to support the set-aside proposal.

County audit report favorable

According to the auditor's report for the year ending Sept. 30, 1981, Castro County showed a $161,699.14 excess of receipts over disbursements — an improvement over the previous year's deficit of $345,550.

Henry Ramaekers, spokesman for the county's auditing firm, Brown, Graham, & Co., said at Monday's meeting of the County Commissioners Court, "Receipts were more than what was allowed for in the budget — which was good — but disbursements were also more than what was allowed for — which was not so good."

Ad valorem and county road taxes were the two biggest single sources of revenue, while the payroll, maintenance and repairs were the biggest areas of disbursements.

"The main reason for the increase in receipts was a bigger Revenue Sharing check than we expected," said County Treasurer Oleta Raper. "In fact, it was over $87,000 more than we expected."

Rita Hartman of the local office of the Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation appeared before the court to ask them to sign a renewal contract with TPCA to administer the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program for the county. The county had mistakenly signed a contract with PRPC to administer the program here.

"Both contracts came before the commissioners in December and may have caused some confusion," Hartman said. "We (TPCA) have been the supplier of these services for the county in the past."

The commissioners stated that they had been satisfied with the TPCA's handling of the program, and voted to send a registered letter to the PRPC to cancel the contract with them and explaining the situation. Then the contract with TPCA will be renewed.

County-District Attorney Jimmy Davis told the court that local option elections for bingo may now be requested by petition, with the elections to be held April 3, Aug. 14 or Nov. 2. The petitions must bear the signatures of 10% of the people who voted in the last gubernatorial election in the area covered by the petition — which may be a single city, JP precinct or the entire county.

He also told the county that they have first option of levying a 2% tax on the gross proceeds of any legal bingo operations in the county, with cities allowed to pick up the option if the county declines.

Castro County Republican Party Chairman Deanne Clark requested a room in the courthouse for one of four Republican party primary balloting sites. The court gave permission for use of the County Commissioners Court meeting room. It will be for Republican voters in Voting Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 11 and 16. This will be the first time Republicans have voted in the courthouse in a primary election, as far as is known.

In other business, the commissioners:

- Were informed that the Texas Commission on Jail Standards plans to make a visit to the jail here Feb. 11 with Inspector Joe Slater. He will give a report to the commission at the completion of the inspection.
- Appointed Howard Quiett, Jerry Torres, Larry Gonzales and Darlene Dowell to serve on the county employees' grievance committee. Also serving on the committee are all elected officials of the county, with the County Judge acting as moderator.
- Decided to follow Commissioner Jimmie Howell's advice to "let sleeping dogs lie" and not separate the offices of district and county clerk, despite a state law that says the offices must be separated in counties with a population of more than 8,000.

— Were told by County Tax Assessor-Collector Billy Hackleman that there was a printing error in the dates on the backs of the new voter registration cards, but that the State Attorney General's office said that it would not create any problems as long as the cards were the correct color (salmon) and had the correct dates on the front.

— Voted to allow the Friday before and the Monday after Christmas, which falls on a Saturday, as county holidays. [See County Audit, Page 9]

Chili, stew to be served before games

The Dimmitt Lions Club will serve a chili-and-stew supper Tuesday night before the Dimmitt-Littlefield basketball games.

The public supper will be served in the Richardson Elementary School cafeteria from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Prices are $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

The menu will include your choice of homemade chili or beef stew, plus Longhorn cheese, crackers, ice tea and coffee.

Tickets to the supper may be purchased from any Lions Club member, or at the door.

Tuesday night's basketball game will feature Littlefield's Wildcats (22-1, ranked No. 6 in the state) vs. the Bobcats (19-8, ranked No. 11) in a battle for the first-half title in District 2-AAA. In the girls' game, the Bobbies will try to avenge a 10-point defeat by the Lady Wildcats in their first district game.

If you didn't receive your voter card...

County Tax Assessor-Collector Billy Hackleman said this week that many voter registration cards have been returned to his office because of wrong or insufficient addresses.

The registration cards were mailed Jan. 14. Approximately 800 have been returned by the Postal Service, Hackleman said.

"If you didn't receive your voter registration card in the mail, please come to our office and give us your correct address," Hackleman advised. "We want to make sure that everyone gets a registration card, and that everyone is listed in the right precinct."

Guggemos announces for Precinct 4 post

Vincent Guggemos announced this week that he will be a candidate for the Precinct 4 post on the County Commissioners' Court in the May 1 Democratic primary election.

Born and raised in Precinct 4, Guggemos operates his own farm west of Nazareth. He and his wife, Josephine, have four grown daughters.

"I am running for the betterment of the county," Guggemos said. "I feel I can improve the conditions in Precinct 4, and with the help and support of the voters, I'd like to have the chance to do so."

"I have cut back on my farming, and feel that I have the time to do the job that needs to be done in our precinct," he added.

Guggemos is a member of the Holy Family Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus and the Nazareth American Legion Post.

Waggoner enters race for county judge

Winston Waggoner announced this week that he is a candidate for the office of Castro County Judge, subject to the Republican Party primary May 1.

He was born in Sunnyside in 1937, graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1956 and from Texas Tech in 1961 with a B.S. degree in agriculture, majoring in dairy industry.

In 1961, he married the former Judy Herington of Farwell. They have three children who all attend Dimmitt schools.

For three years, Waggoner was a clerk typist in the National Guard and received an honorable discharge in 1965.

He was actively engaged in dairy farming until earlier this month when he sold his cattle and leased the property.

He has held offices in Sunnyside Lions Club, Associated Milk Producers, Inc. (southern region) and Dimmitt Toast Masters Club. Presently, Waggoner serves as a deacon at the Church of Christ in Dimmitt and is in charge of youth activities.

"I feel my ability to speak Spanish would be helpful in working with Mexican Americans in this community," he said.

"My experience in business and in raising a family, along with my understanding of the people in Castro County, would be of benefit in executing the duties of this office. I have pursued personal interests for the past 20 years, and I feel that the opportunity to be of service to the community is tremendous through this office," he added.

Oil southwest of Dimmitt?

Is there oil in Castro County? The Marathon Oil Co. intends to find out.

About two weeks ago, the national company with its home base in Midland began drilling at a site located five miles south and two miles west of Dimmitt.

Both land and mineral rights belong to Steve Taylor of Amarillo, formerly of Dimmitt.

The proposed depth of the drilling is 6,500 feet, Taylor said, adding that in about two more weeks the company will assess and decide if drilling should be finished or not.

"It's a wildcat," Taylor said, explaining that no other wells are being produced around this one. However, the Marathon Oil Co. has other leases in the immediate area, he added.

"I don't know what they are looking for, exactly," Taylor said.

BE FAITHFUL TO COUNTRY

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish.

Mister Bob

By M.E. CLEAVINGER

I was not one of Bob McLean's close friends. My opinion would be that Bob's circle of close friends was rather small. But, on the outer perimeter, there were great numbers of people who prided themselves in sharing a working friendship with Bob McLean. As the family banker and friend, it might be appropriate that we label him "Mr. Bob."

He was banker, counselor, confidant, the man to whom we entrusted a good part of our earthly accumulations. He was the guardian of our possessions. He had to be a man in whom we could place our confidence — a man that we would trust through good times, as well as adversities. And Mr. Bob played well that role.

Yes, Mr. Bob was Banker Bob, and, as such, there were many times when he had to say "no" to people. And that "no" could mean drastic changes in the lives of those people. There are those who simply do not pay their debts, some who unwittingly try to over-extend their credit potential, some are victims of financial reversals that literally wipe them out. The banker's position is not an enviable one in dealing with the resulting situations.

Those who knew Bob's family, the McLean Family, also knew Bob as the family man that he was — loyal, devoted to wife and family. In the declining years of Helen's life, as crippling disease slowly took its toll, Bob's love and concern were well-known throughout the community. It is ironic, but perhaps merciful, that Helen followed Bob in death in a matter of a few weeks.

I have heard people complain, I have heard people groan, but I have never heard anyone say that Mr. Bob was not fair — was not realistic — was not compassionate. His decisions had to be based on cold calculation or he would have long since vanished from the scene. His comparatively early death, untimely as it was, most probably was attributable to the intensity and the worry that banking involves. I think, sincerely, that Mr. Bob was dedicated to being a good banker, but he was more than that.

We have lost a good friend, and we shall miss him.

SWCD seminar set Feb. 3-5

The Central Curry and Roosevelt Soil and Water Conservation District in New Mexico is sponsoring a Soil, Water and Energy Resources Seminar Feb. 3-5 in Clovis, and all farmers from the Running Water SWCD are invited to attend.

The seminar will be held in the Holiday Inn of Clovis at 2700 E. Mabry, and registration begins Feb. 3 at 8 a.m. Workshops, displays and demonstrations are scheduled throughout the day for each of the three days, lasting until around 5:30 p.m. each day. There is no charge for registration.

Feb. 4 at 7 p.m. there will be a banquet held in the Holiday Inn Banquet Room, with Norm Berg, Chief of the Soil Conservation Service, as the featured speaker. Tickets are $6.75 per person.

Ladies' activities are also set for the afternoon of Feb. 4, and will include sessions on farm first aid, careers for women in SCS, record keeping and estate planning.

Featured speakers of the regular sessions will include Bud Mekelburg of Yuma, Colo. President of the National Assoc. of Conservation Districts; Bill Harrison of Silver City, N. M., a director of the NACD; and Wayne Wyatt, of Lubbock, Manager of the High Plains Underground Water District; as well as many educators and industry representatives.

Cookie sales to help Scout Council

Local sales of Girl Scout cookies are set to begin Friday, according to Mrs. Nolen Swain, President of the Caprock Girl Scout Council. She added that the sale will continue for two weeks, ending Feb. 14.

Each box of cookies will sell for $2, and all money collected from the sale remains in the Council to help support seminars, workshops and other troop and council sponsored activities.

The funds will help local girls participate in National Girl Scout events, such as the Wider Opportunities program, and will also help maintain and develop Camp Rio Blanco, a resident camp for the 18-county Caprock Girl Scout Council, located northeast of Crosbyton.

Individual girls are presented awards according to the number of boxes they sell, with the top prize being an $85 campership toward resident camp or council event, awarded to those selling 180 boxes or more.

Certificates, posters, patches, T-shirts and a $55 campership are also awarded. All awards will feature this year's cookie mascot, a frog.

The newest cookies to be added to the line are Kookaburras, thin cookie wafers with caramel in between and covered in chocolate; and Hoedowns, a combination of peanut creme and chocolate with a cookie crunch. Mints, Savannahs, Scot-teas, Dutch-n-Such, Chocolate and Vanilla Cremes will be sold again this year, according to Mrs. Swain.

USDA extends response time

The deadline for responding to the Secretary of Agriculture's preferred soil and water resources conservation program has been extended two weeks, George C. Marks, state conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service said this week.

Marks said the deadline, originally set for Jan. 15, has been moved to Jan. 29. To date, more than 3,600 responses have been received at the SCS state office in Temple.

The main features of the proposed national conservation program are increased roles for local and state governments in conservation work and targeting a greater portion of USDA dollars and staff to critical soil and water resource problem areas.

The program is the USDA response to the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act of 1977 (RCA). SCS and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices throughout the state have a supply of a leaflet that summarizes the program containing a pre-addressed, postage-paid response form.

The offices also have a reference copy of the full report of the program and draft environmental impact statement.

SCS has been designated to collect the comments in Texas. The mailing address is PO Box 648, Temple, 76503.

Did you ever have a burning desire to read a biography of F. Scott Fitzgerald?

No? Well, neither did this writer, but one had come in a book shipment, and since this writer had never read a biography of Fitzgerald, he decided to give it a try.

Matthew Bruccoli, the author of the book on Fitzgerald, has spent his career reading and writing about Fitzgerald and his books.

F. Scott Fitzgerald, as the reader remembers, was the author of many short stories and several novels. The novel he is most known for is "The Great Gatsby," a tale about the 1920's.

Fitzgerald aspired to be a famous writer from the time he was in college. His early work for magazines was quite good and he developed a fine following which was to loyally read and buy his works throughout his lifetime even towards the last when his writing, blurred by alcoholism, began to lose its quality.

Bruccoli's biography is complete. It tells about Fitzgerald himself, his bitter-sweet marriage to Zelda, his daughter, Scotty, and the host of his professional acquaintances. Fitzgerald's unhappy life with bottles of gin also is told, the results of which are sometimes funny, sometimes tragic.

One can always tell a scholar. When the appendix is half as thick as the book like the one included with this biography one has to realize the tons of material that goes into a biography. Nevertheless, even with it all, the book reads like Bruccoli has dropped by and is telling all about the life of his best friend. It's pretty good entertainment.

The name of the book is "Some Sort of Epic Grandeur."

A&M to hold safety meet

Safety and health professionals will meet at Texas A&M University Feb. 8-10 to discuss new technology and prepare for current and future challenges to the preservation of life and property.

"Preparing Today for Tomorrow's Technology" will be the theme of the American Society of Safety Engineers' Region 3 Tenth Annual Professional Development Conference, points out Dr. Gary Nelson, safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Extension Service is cooperating in the meeting along with the Texas A&M Department of Industrial Engineering and the American Industrial Hygiene Association.

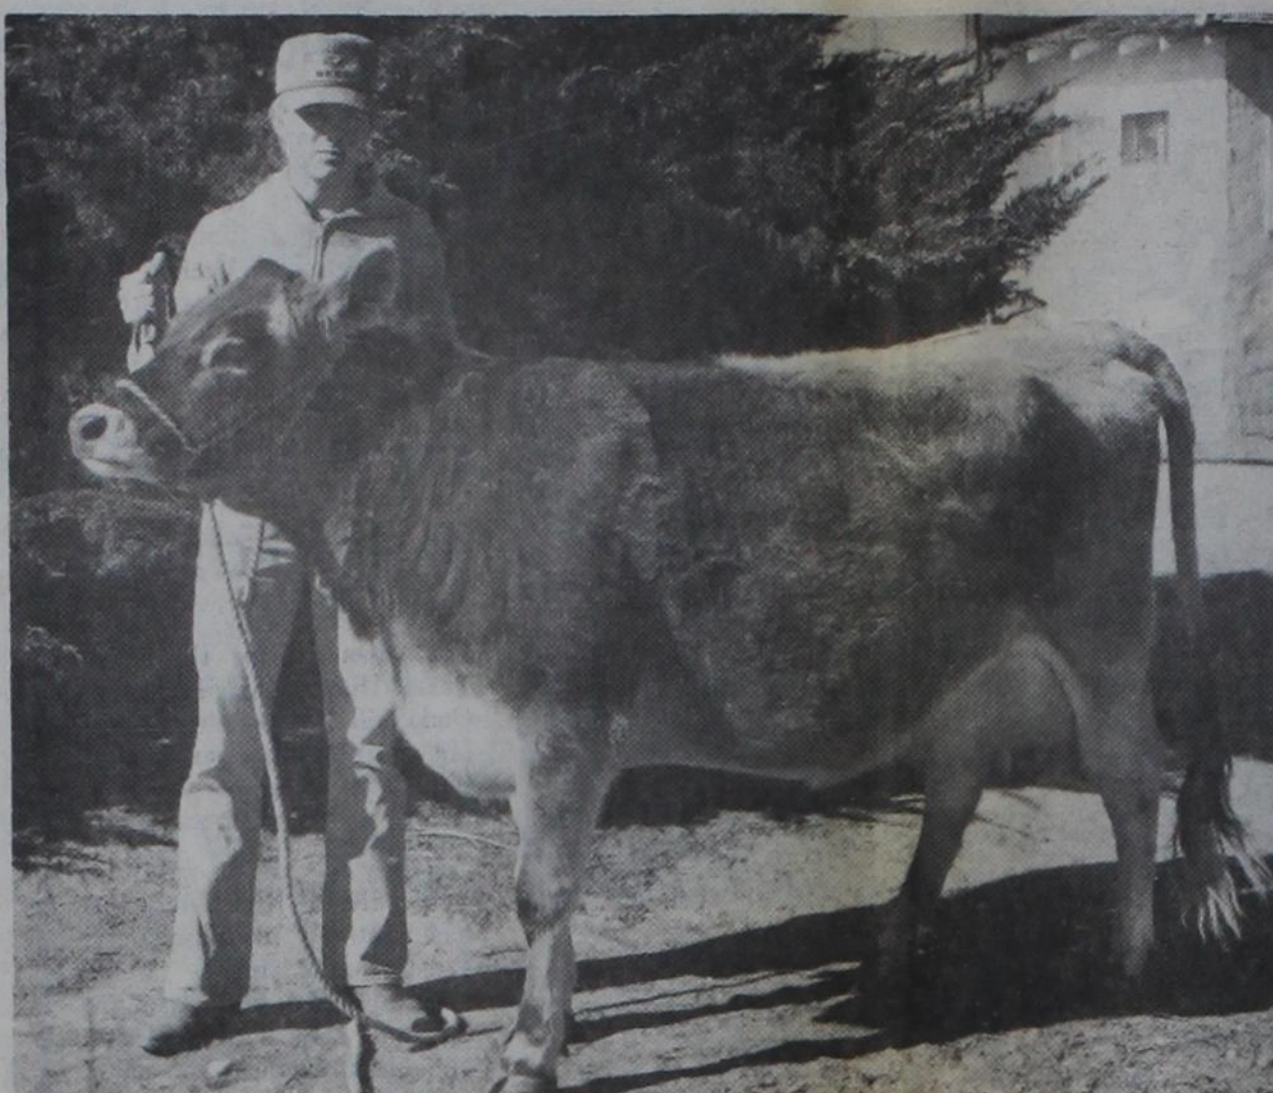

This year's conference will feature authorities in the fields of loss control, construction safety, industrial hygiene, human factors research and law. They will address a variety of subjects, with special emphasis on industrial safety and health, public and private sector environmental exposures, effects of judicial decisions, professional development and certification, and ergonomics (matching machine design to human characteristics).

Items of special interest will be discussions on the future of OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration), the Love Canal incident, hazardous waste disposal, confined space entry, manual materials handling, exposure to formaldehyde and other chemicals, and drug abuse in the workplace, says Nelson.

Speakers will include a number of government and university officials as well as chemical company executives, health and safety experts, and an oil company attorney.

Registration information is available from Nelson, 303 Ag Engineering, Texas A&M University, College Station, Tex. 77843.

Roger Huseman and 'Bunny'

Youth and 'Scramble' cow to be in show, magazine

Roger Huseman of Nazareth and his Jersey cow, "Bunny," will be featured in the Baroid-NL Industries' company magazine, "Bara Scope," in April.

But first, the Nazareth youth and his cow have to make a trip to Houston.

Huseman acquired Benny as a result of the Calf Scramble in the 1981 Houston Livestock Show. He caught a calf sponsored by Baroid-NL Industries, Inc., of Houston, and the company gave him a certificate for $400 to help him buy a calf for himself when he got home.

He purchased Bunny, a Jersey heifer, from Bruce Rigler of Plainview. She was six months old when he bought her.

Bunny is now a full-grown milk cow, with a calf of her own.

Huseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Huseman, plans to take Bunny back to Houston in February to exhibit her in the special Calf Scramble Show, a feature of the huge livestock exposition. The youth and his cow will compete for honors against other Calf Scramble winners from last year.

Last week Jennifer Tull of Baroid-NL Industries' public relations department was in Nazareth to interview Huseman and take pictures of him and his calf for a story in the company magazine.

Pennington resigns Senior Citizens post

After five years of service, M. A. and Christine Pennington have recently retired from active duty at the Castro County Senior Citizens Center.

Rev. Edward Freeman and his wife, Betty, consented to lead the center, and Mrs. Cleo Forson will be the secretary-treasurer.

Pennington will serve as vice president.

The center is debt free and has nearly $5,000 on hand in the operating fund, Pennington said, adding that the center is quite able to be self-supporting; it receives no funds from any outside agency.

The center has progressed from renting the old American Legion building to the purchase of the present facility. Certificates of deposit with the trust department of the First State Bank of Dimmitt will pay the final two payments on the building in August this year and in 1983.

"A thank you goes to the many members who have consistently supported the work of the center with time spent and contributions," Pennington said.

"A special thank you goes to the community as a whole. Everyone has been most cooperative. The City of Dimmitt and the county commissioners have supplied the funds for the building, along with the United Way," he said, adding, "It could not have been possible without these fine people."

Pennington also thanked Dimmitt Supermarket and Taylor and Sons for their help.

The center has nearly 250 members now, with 50 members making worthy contributions regularly, he added.

Helton elected SPS officer

Bill D. Helton, director of financial services for Southwestern Public Service Co., has been named an officer of the company and assigned the additional duty of assistant secretary, it was announced by Roger K. Owen, financial vice-president.

Helton's appointment, an action of the company's board of directors, is effective immediately. Helton will continue his present financial department responsibilities which he assumed in early 1981.

Owen said the areas of corporate finance, capital formation, and relations with the banking and investment community have become increasingly important, especially for utility companies. He said Helton's appointment is designed to strengthen Southwestern's position in such areas.

Prior to joining the finance department, Helton was manager of consumer services, a position he had held since 1977.

Trade with Mexico may be the answer

Bob Krueger, former US Ambassador to Mexico, stressed the importance of continued trade with Mexico in his speech at the Texas Corn Growers annual meeting last Thursday.

The United States recently consummated a deal with Mexico for 10 million metric tons of grain in a year, he said. Over 60% of everything Mexico receives through imports comes from the US. Mexico has one of the fastest-growing populations in the world and presently rates 11th in population with 70 million people. At its present rate of growth, Mexico's population could double in 20 years, Krueger added.

Mexico needs food from the US to help feed its people, and Mexico has something important for us, Krueger said — oil. Presently, Mexico ranks fourth in the world in the production of petroleum products. By the end of the decade, Krueger said, Mexico will be second only to Saudi Arabia in oil production.

In 1979, Mexico sent 83% of its oil exports to our country; and 70% in 1980.

Our neighbors, in Mexico use oil not just as an economic commodity but as a political commodity for leverage, he added.

"We need a government that cares about enlarging our markets, our exports, especially in agriculture," Krueger said. "We need to have a government that will sell our agriculture all over the world. One of the ways that they (US) need to be able to sell it is by saying to people in other countries... 'bring down your barriers to our products'."

Krueger said that if the US will work as hard to bring down the barriers to American products in other countries as other people have succeeded in bringing down barriers here, we can have free trade and fair trade.

One area where the United States has consistently outstripped all other countries is in the agriculture, where "our productivity per person has been increasing instead of decreasing," he said. "In the long run, the rest of the world needs the agricultural capacity of the USA, and that means we need to export. 'I'm not afraid for the United States to compete with anybody. American agriculture doesn't need to be afraid of competition anywhere,'" Krueger added.

Flynt pledges Legion funds

Recently, American Legion Commander Jack W. Flynt of Dimmitt sent a telegram to Interior Secretary James Watt saying that he was "deeply concerned by (Watt's) hesitance in approving construction of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial."

Apparently, critics have charged that the "V" shape of the memorial's design represents the peace sign that became the emblem of anti-war protesters.

Flynt said that the memorial would be a "dignified and eloquent tribute to the service and sacrifice of Vietnam veterans."

The American Legion has pledged $1 million toward the construction of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

"The memorial's critics say nothing which overshadows the significance of memorializing now the courage and patriotism of the Americans who served in Vietnam," Flynt added.

S. SANBORN died in 1871. He requested that two drums be made out of his skin and presented to his friend, Warren Simpson.

Fund started to aid victim

A medical fund has been started at the First State Bank of Dimmitt for Ruben Herrera. Anyone wishing to help defray medical costs may do so by contributing to the Ruben Herrera Fund.

The 32-year-old gunshot victim is in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

Herrera grew up in Dimmitt and is employed by Amstar. He and his wife, Joann, have two sons, David, 5, and Eric, two months.

Police calls

A 33-year-old Dimmitt man was fined $425 and sentenced to 45 days in jail this week after being arrested by the Sheriff's Dept. on a charge of theft by check.

District Judge Jack Miller filed a charge of failure to appear for trial against 18-year-old Martin Gloria of Mulshoe. Gloria, who was out on bond on a DWI charge, was jailed here after being arrested and turned over by the Bailey County Sheriff's Office. He was scheduled to appear in 64th District Court in Plainview Tuesday.

City police stopped a 26-year-old county man on West Bedford Friday for investigation of speeding, and learned during a record check that the man was wanted on a charge of enticing a child, under a previous warrant issued by the Sheriff's Office. He was booked on the original charge and released under $750 public recognizance bond.

A 39-year-old Dimmitt man was charged by the Dimmitt Police Dept. Saturday with unlawfully carrying a weapon. He was fined $150.

City police last Wednesday arrested a Hereford man at the state roadside park at the 385-194 intersection, on an assault and trespass warrant issued by the Hereford Police Dept. He was turned over to Hereford authorities to face charges.

Karen McSpadden, 711 SW Fifth, reported to city police Saturday that a 20-inch girl's Schwinn high-rise bicycle had been stolen from her home. She described the bike as a "Little Chick" model with a blue frame, white seat with floral print pattern, and an Amstar safety sticker on the front reflector.

Ramon Aleman reported Tuesday that his 1978 Chevrolet pickup had been stolen while it was parked in front of Cobb's in the 100 block of East Bedford. The pickup has tag number LT 7692 and Serial No. CCD 148A120583. The stolen pickup has been listed with the state law enforcement communications network.

Rowland Harvey Huddleston of Hereford was cited Sunday for making an improper right turn after a homemade trailer which he was pulling with his pickup struck the front end of a Kenworth tractor that was following him on North Broadway. The Kenworth was driven by Bobby Joe Walker of King Trucking, Hereford.

A 39-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested at Billy Thomas' Cafe on an assault charge after a city policeman on patrol discovered him fighting with another man. The officer said the suspect had pulled a knife.

Elzie Teague, 806 Andrews, reported Tuesday that 12 100-lb. sacks of ground corn feed had been stolen from his lot. City police and the County Sheriff's Office are investigating the theft.

along with the Friday after Thanksgiving and the Monday after New Year's Day.

-Raised the starting monthly salary of county workers to coincide with the federal minimum wage. County Treasurer Oleta Raper said there was a slight discrepancy in the two amounts that needed to be corrected.

-Agreed to compensate Marshall Young for the time he spent fulfilling courtroom duties of the late County Judge M. L. Simpson during the time he was ill.

-Ordered a steel folding gate to be installed in the east-west hall of the first floor of the courthouse to prevent night or weekend visitors to the Sheriff's office from entering the rest of the building.

-Discussed the installation of a computer terminal for the use of the County Treasurer and County Tax Assessor-Collector and possibly the Sheriff's office, but tabled the matter until further details could be obtained.

From left are Maria Grijalva of Ecuador, Tommy Gerber of Switzerland, Ronnaug Lunaas of Norway, Gitte Sorensen of Denmark, Ruth Fuellemann of Switzerland, and Dimmitt's AFS student, Robert Watson of Ireland. The students stayed in local homes, attended school Friday, and had a full slate of activities during their three days here. The "AFS Weekend," sponsored by the Dimmitt AFS Chapter and coordinated by Marty Benton, Pat Bagley and Hazel Nelson, was highly popular with both the students and their host families here.

Youths place in Amarillo Show

With 11-year-old Corbin Connell of the Dimmitt FFA showing the Reserve Grand Champion of the Barrow Show, Castro County youths earned at least 69 honors and placings at the Amarillo Stock Show last week.

Dimmitt FFA's Lonnie Robb won the Showmanship award for the third year in a row in the lamb division of the Amarillo show, and he also took the Pig Showmanship award this year.

Connell's barrow was also named reserve champion of the Hampshire breed.

In the lamb division, Woody Glass showed the breed champion in the fine wool class and Amy Standlee had the breed champion in the Southdowns class.

Reserve breed champions were shown by Tim Wales in the fine wool class, Jerri Ka Clark in the Hampshire class, and Cara Odom in the Dorset

More about Stenholm ...

Rather, farmers need to unite, he stressed. The new sugar bill was passed in Congress because the producers were united. The rural electric cooperatives united, and the peanut and tobacco programs were successful because the producers got together. But the producers of corn, wheat, grain sorghum and cotton got no such programs because they were split.

"We can prevail only if we are together," Stenholm said, adding that farmers really have no other choice.

"There is no such thing as free market system in this world," he added.

Some farmers want the government out of agriculture, Stenholm said, but he added, "When you're exporting half of what you raise, you've got to live in the real world. The American farmer cannot compete in that world market unless he has his government standing shoulder to shoulder with him in that market."

"We've got to develop the markets... collectively and individually work for it," he said.

If the farmers aren't worried enough to do something about it, no one else will care enough to do something, Stenholm said. "We must increase the price of our agriculture commodities to a level that will allow us to make a profit."

Until then... "Stop selling."

Burial was in Hart Cemetery under the direction of Parsons Funeral Home of Dimmitt.

The child was killed Thursday evening when she was run over by a pickup truck while playing in front of the pickup in a cornfield where other family members were working on the R. J. Murray farm near Hart. She was dead on arrival at 6:35 p.m. in the Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt.

Survivors include her parents, her grandparents, Luciano Beanes of Hart and Antonia Marrs of Mexico; two brothers, Renaldo and Miguel, both of Hart; and five sisters, Carmerina Carrasco, Gabriela, Lilia, Lupe and Tonita, all of Hart.

Wheat Producers to study problems

Castro County wheat producers, faced with reported record statewide acreage plantings, market uncertainties, and continued low prices have set a county-wide meeting to study their plight and map strategies for future production and market decisions.

Lint Merritt, County Director of the Texas Wheat Producers Association, said the meeting is open to all producers. It is set Thursday, Feb. 4 at 7 a.m., in the Colonial Inn Restaurant of Dimmitt.

The county director said that staff and officers of the state-wide organization will be on hand to discuss emerging information related to the program provisions of the 1982 wheat program, political uncertainties and impact on wheat markets related to the continuing review of the U.S. and U.S.S.R. trade relations, the crop situation and market outlook for the coming months as harvest approaches.

Merritt said that this is a particularly important meeting for producers to attend in that the market and price picture for the new crop marketing period may be directly related to what action, or the lack of it, that farmers take in connection with the use of set-aside acres, use of the loan and reserve programs and marketing strategy.

SPS sponsors energy program

"Streamline America," a dynamic school assembly program, blending entertainment and information about the nation's energy situation was presented to Dimmitt High School students Tuesday.

The program was sponsored by Southwestern Public Service Company, in cooperation with the Department of Energy.

"Streamline America" combined the live performance of a professional actor with the excitement of a giant screen motion picture with high-fidelity sound. Woven into the presentation were fascinating concepts about energy. The students learned what they can do to use energy wisely.

Calvin Marsh, SPS Dimmitt manager, said the electric company will present the "Streamline America" program to 36 high schools throughout the Texas Panhandle during the next two months.

PLAINS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

ADOPTS NEW EMERGENCY ROOM POLICIES

A significant number of non-emergency patients routinely request medical care through our hospital emergency room after the physicians offices are closed. This has imposed excessive demands upon the two physicians who are in private practice. The Plains Memorial Hospital Governing Body is attempting to recruit at least one additional physician. Until such time that the number of physicians is adequate to accommodate these cases, the following procedure will be followed;

1. The emergency room will be used primarily for bonafide emergencies. The hospital personnel will be responsible for appropriate emergency procedures, and for contacting a physician in these cases.
2. Non-emergency outpatient care will have to be first arranged through a treating physician the same as other inpatient care. The patient is responsible for contacting a physician directly. The physician will instruct the patient as he deems appropriate.
3. The physician is the only person who can make the determination of emergency status.

Remember that outpatient medical care rendered through a hospital emergency room is considerably more expensive than comparable care rendered by a physician in his office.

Berry-Shipley vows are read

A candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Hart united Betsy Bob Berry and Bobby Mack Shipley in marriage Jan. 14 at 7 p.m.

Rev. Jack Lee, minister of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby L. Berry of Hart. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley of Olton are parents of the groom.

Twin brass candelabras, each holding 49 white tapers, formed the background as vows were exchanged before a brass arch dressed with leather leaf, tree fern, dusty rose Calla lilies, baby's breath and rose satin ribbon. Flanking the arch were brass columns holding pots of Boston fern. Complementing the foreground were two brass heart-shaped candelabras holding white tapers and decorated with Calla lilies, tree fern, tiny Queen Anne's lace flowers and satin ribbon.

Arrangements of white tapers, flowers and mum foliage graced each window of the sanctuary.

Pews were marked with votive cups holding wild rose candles surrounded by silk flowers, mum foliage and ribbon.

Mrs. Carl Rambo, pianist, and Mrs. Weldon Davis, organist, played prenuptial selections and accompanied Laurey Franks of Lubbock, who sang "If," and Kathleen Duke of Tulia who sang "Endless Love," "Turn Around, Look at Me," "Always" and "The Twelfth of Never."

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, chose a dress of Chantilly lace with re-embroidered trim and seed pearls, with a Queen Anne neckline, lace bodice, lace bishop sleeves and deep cuffs. The ruffles swept into a cathedral length train. A reception was held following the ceremony in the fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with a floor-length white taffeta cloth topped with a burgundy band and featured a burgundy and pink arrangement. The bride's cake was four-tiered with satin bells. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl.

The groom's serving table featured brass candelabra holding burgundy candles. Served were a chocolate cake and glazed fresh fruit. Coffee was served from a brass coffee service.

The house party included Pam Allbritten, Alice Barfield, Keva Jackson, Diana Lucas, Kim Wilmoth, Barbara Marshall, Jan Abernathy and Denise Broussard. The bride is a 1978 graduate of J. J. Pearce High School in Richardson and a 1981 music graduate of Texas Tech University. She was a member of the Texas Tech High Riders, Mu Phi Epsilon music honorary and the Student Foundation.

Dowell is a 1976 graduate of Dimmitt High School and received a degree in finance in 1981 from Texas Tech University. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Currently, he is employed by Pritchard and Abbott Valuation Consultants in Odessa.

Following their week-long honeymoon to Ruidoso, N.M., the couple will reside in Odessa.

MRS. BOBBY MACK SHIPLEY
... The former Betsy Bob Berry

The groomsmen and ushers were attired in silver-gray tuxedos and white ruffle shirts trimmed in silver.

The groom wore a white tuxedo and white ruffled shirt.

Michelle Schumacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Schumacher of Dimmitt, was the flower girl. She wore a pink sheer floor-length dress and carried a satin-and-lace basket of Potpourri.

Cling Hill of Dumas served as ring bearer. He was dressed identically to the groomsmen and carried a ring pillow of white satin, which was made and given to the bride by Mrs. Howard Mitchell and Mrs. Ricky Mitchell of Hart.

Lori Barnes of Lubbock registered guests at a small antique secretary which belonged to the bride's great-grandfather, the late J. A. Evans of Tulia. The desk was decorated with silk flowers and trailing greenery and ribbon.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered white wedding cake adorned with rose Calla lilies, silk foliage and Queen Anne's lace. The cake was topped with a "Precious Moments" bride and groom. Cascading from the top of a silver candelabra, holding rose tapers, were lace fans, silk flowers, greenery and satin streamers. A floor-length ruffle of white wedding lace over white damask covered the bride's table. Swags of rose chiffon, caught with satin bows, edged the table.

At the round beverage table, punch was served from a silver bowl. The table cloth was identical to the bride's table.

The groom's table was covered with a floor-length, silver-gray velvet cloth, topped with a pewter satin runner. Finger foods and coffee were served from silver appointments.

Satin rosebuds were presented to each guest.

Presiding at the tables were Janet Black, Tamera Bowden, Suzahn Rowland, Dana Cobb, Kristy McNeely and Kristy Moore. Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Joe Ed Carson, Mrs. Richard Franks, Mrs. Bob Bowden, Mrs. Bob Hill, Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mrs. Melvin Malone and Mrs. Doug Higgins.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at K-Bob's in Plainview.

MRS. CHARLES LYNN FRETWELL
... The former Vicki Lynn Cleveland

Student couple at home in Oklahoma

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lynn Fretwell are at home in Stillwater, Okla., following their wedding trip to Winter Park, Colo.

The couple were wed Dec. 26 in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt, with Rev. Howard Quiett, pastor, and Jerry Schaeffer, minister in training, officiating.

The bride, the former Vicki Lynn Cleveland, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cleveland of Dimmitt. The groom's parents are Ed Fretwell of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Charlene Ewing of Purcell, Okla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length gown of white chiffon fashioned with bell sleeves gathered at lace cuffs and an Empire bodice with an overlay of silk Venice motifs accented with seed pearls. The full-length permanently pleated skirt cascaded into a chapel-length train. A band of lace formed the hemline of the skirt and train.

The headpiece was a Juliet cap of matching lace holding a walking-length, lace-edged veil of illusion.

Her bouquet was a silk peony cascade mixed with baby's breath and shades of violet. She wore a pearl necklace belonging to the groom's mother, a blue garter, diamond earrings given to her by the groom, and she carried the Bible used by her mother and sister, Beth.

Matron of honor was Beth Buckley, sister of the bride, of Dimmitt. Maid of honor was Lori Dyer of Dimmitt. Laura Anderson of Amherst and Analisa Ewing, step-sister of the groom, of Purcell, Okla., were the bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants wore lilac dresses having velvet bodices with elbow-length sleeves and full-length, flounced skirts of lilac print. They wore circlets of violets and ribbons in their hair and carried nosegays of violets.

Rala Byrnes of Dimmitt served as candlelighter. Leslie Fretwell, half-sister of the groom, of Oklahoma City, was the flower girl.

Donald Sherman of Purcell, Okla., served as best man. Groomsmen were David Fretwell, half-brother of the groom, of Oklahoma City; Ricky Bell of Purcell, Okla.; and Kevin Cleveland, brother of the bride, of Dimmitt.

Ushers were Kyle Wise of Dimmitt; Darrell Buckley, brother-in-law of the bride, of Dimmitt; Scott Tucker of Purcell, Okla.; and Rick Ewing, step-brother of the groom, of Purcell, Okla.

Zelda Ellison of Dimmitt sang "Speak Softly Love" while the candles were lit, "Sunrise, Sunset" while the mothers were seated, and "You" during the ceremony. Kyle Wise sang "Believe It or Not" at the close of the ceremony. Ronda Wise provided music on the organ.

Registering guests were Lou Perkins and Debbie Dennis.

Candletrees adorned with English ivy and wire bows decorated the church. Candles and ivy were placed in the windows. Ivy with baby's breath were placed on the chancel rail with African violets on the organ. The house lights were lowered with the spotlight on the cross and the candles providing the main light for the ceremony.

At the reception in Lamar Fellowship Hall following the ceremony, the guests were served by Laine Snider, Kim Sides, Jeri Mann and Debbie Dobbs. Reception hostesses were Pat Bagley and Geneva Schaeffer.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth, and was centered with ivy, candles and the bride's bouquet. Silver serving dishes were used for the punch; the white four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with violets of various shades and the bride's throw-away bouquet rested on top.

The groom's table was covered with a quilted check lilac cloth over a white undershirt. White ironstone serving dishes were used to serve coffee and German chocolate cake. Candles of various shades of lilac and the bridesmaids' flowers were the decorations.

The bride's traveling attire was a Navy velvet blazer, pleated wool skirt and boots.

A graduate of Dimmitt High School, the bride is a math major at Oklahoma State University. The groom is a graduate of Purcell High School, Purcell, Okla., and is a petroleum technology student at OSU.

Better days are ahead, Brown predicts

Despite the present depression in agriculture, prosperity for farmers will be assured in the future by 63 million hungry people, Texas Agriculture Commissioner Reagan Brown told the Texas Corn Growers Association last Thursday.

To bridge the financial crisis between now and then, Brown proposed paid acreage diversions, use of corn as an international barter to help the US balance of trade, and hard work to increase exports.

In his laid-back style, Brown veered away from his script every time a joke came to mind. But in the main course of his rapid-fire talk he traced the work which his department has done and plans to do to help the plight of the Texas corn grower — work which he hopes will lead to a long-range national food and fiber policy.

"The theme of this meeting, 'Farm Crisis of the 80's,' reflects the situation facing the Texas agricultural economy and indeed the economy of the nation as a whole," Brown said. There is no one cause, but rather a combination of many factors which worked together to wring the profits out of agriculture this year, and which seriously threaten the profit outlook for 1982.

"I did not come here today to preach gloom and doom, or to leave you with a feeling of despair. Rather, I acknowledge that times are tough, but I would be wasting your time if I did not offer you hope for the future. . . You want and need concrete proposals and practical solutions to help you weather the storm clouds that hang on the horizon.

"As producers of one of the world's most important food and feed grains, you hold a literal gold mine in your hands. Meat, milk, eggs, meal, starch, sweeteners, and oil are just a few of the food products that are available because of corn. This is not to mention the hundreds of industrial products of which corn is an essential ingredient.

"The United States is the world's most important producer of this vital grain; other countries depend upon us as they try to duplicate the high-protein American diet by importing US corn.

"Indeed, 10 years ago we exported around 12% of our annual corn production. In 1980, over 36% of our crop was shipped around the world to customers such as South Korea, Taiwan, Egypt and Japan.

"But perhaps the prime example of the importance of American corn is the manner in which the Soviet Union regularly looks to the US to make up its frequent short-falls in grain production. This season, the Soviets are expecting total grain production including corn to be a mere' 61 million metric tons short of their target. This would be the smallest Soviet grain crop since 1975, and is an embarrassment even to the antiquated bunch of Reds that live in Russia. I don't want to sell the Russians nothing, but if we do, we should get a fair price that will assure our growers a profit.

"We are in a position of great strength and leverage, but it is a position which is often undermined by politics, and, sad to say, by producing far more than we can sell either at home or abroad.

"The American farmer should be free to produce all that he can sell at a profitable price. The long-term answer is to develop greater demand for our product by researching new uses for corn, and also in developing the vast unexplored foreign markets for this vital food and feed grain.

In the short-term, however, drastic steps must be taken to limit the oversupply of corn which is currently depressing market prices. That is why I have urged that an acreage set-aside for the 1982 feed grain crop be established, with adequate economic incentives in the form of higher loan rates to make it worth the farmer's while to participate.

"In lieu of this approach, a paid acreage diversion program could help accomplish the same objective, realizing of course that this would be an emergency measure, implemented only to relieve a near-crisis situation.

"Furthermore, we are working to break down the many trade restrictions imposed by some nations which limit our ability to compete in foreign markets.

"Our marketing personnel also are developing proposals to utilize the current surplus of farm products as barter for many of the items we import into this country from foreign nations. A prime example of this price-depressing surplus is the 45 million bushels of corn imported into the Plain-view area from Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin this fall. If this product could be utilized to purchase strategic materials — at premium barter price equivalents — our balance of trade would be enhanced, and the removal of this surplus would help boost market prices for the producer.

"These are just a few of the many ways we are working to strengthen the hand of Texas corn producers in today's high stakes agricultural gamble.

"As president of the Southern Association of State Departments of Agriculture, I intend later this year to hold an agricultural summit in Washington, D.C. Attending will be representatives from a number of other farming and ranching states. We will address the critical needs of agriculture in the areas of production, water, transportation, farm credit, research and development and marketing. "Our findings, along with our urging that they be incorporated into a long-range national food and fiber policy, will be presented to officials at the highest level of the federal government.

"I would like to re-emphasize the close relationship that we have enjoyed with the Texas Corn Growers Association, and with the association's president, Carl King. Together, we generated tremendous interest among foreign buyers with our participation in the giant ANUGA trade show in Cologne, West Germany, last year. We are looking forward with great anticipation to taking part in the Southern United States Trade Association show in New Orleans this March, and to probing the Caribbean market at the CARIB trade show next April in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

"If we indeed are to weather the storms in agriculture over the coming years, it will be through greater participation of our producers in strong, unified, cohesive associations such as this. Even though agriculture provides a job for one of every five Americans, producers make up less than 3% of our population. Therefore, unity is clearly the way of the future.

"Today, many of us struggle to survive; tomorrow, we will prosper as never before. Six billion hungry mouths assure us of that."

Blood donors badly needed

The Coffee Memorial Blood Center will be in Dimmitt Wednesday for a blood drive. It will be held from 2 to 6 p.m. in the City Hall assembly room.

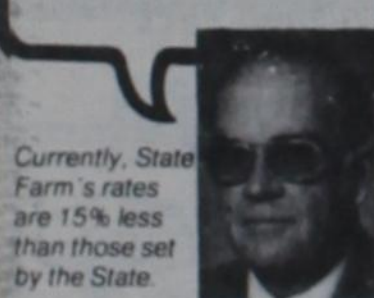

Many local residents have used blood in the past year and need replacement blood through donations. Those using blood in the last four months, since the October blood drive, include April Guy, Stella Oliveira, Betty McClure, Celia Simpson and James Kelley.

Anybody that is willing to help may contact John Brooks at KDHN Radio Station, 647-3186, or Phil King of the Key Club at Dimmitt High School, 647-3105.

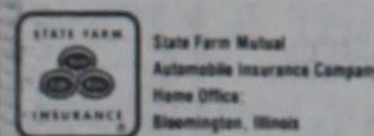

Lists are available at various business locations in town where people can sign up for an appointment for when they would like to give blood on Wednesday.

T. M. ZINK, an Iowa lawyer who died in 1930, left his money to build a woman-less library. No women were to be allowed on or near the premises. No books by or about women were to be allowed in the library. Zink defended his odd request by saying he hated women.
