Lockney Youth Dies In Head-On Collision

A grinding, head-on collision early Monday morning took the life of a young Lockney man and critically injured a former Lockney couple.

Dead is Ralph Alvarez, 17, who lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salas, Sr. He died in Central Plains General Hospital in Plainview about four hours after the wreck.

Critically injured were Cruz and Donna (Sams) Perales of Seagraves. Both are in stable condition in the intensive care unit of Central Plains General Hospital. Also injured in the Perales car was Cruz's sister, Maria Perales, 14, of Lockney. She is in satisfactory condition in the same hospital.

Mrs. Perales is the daughter of Mrs. Roselle Sams of Lockney. Cruz and Maria are children of Mr. and Mrs. Santana Perales, also of Lockney. Cruz and Donna's three-month-old son, Jason, was with the elder Perales' at the time of the wreck.

The mishap, occurred about 12:22 a.m. in the east-bound lanes of Highway 70 just west of Seale Drive-In Theater. Both cars were two-door hardtops and were totally demolished. Lockney Fire Department worked 30 minutes to free Alvarez from his car, and Mrs. Perales was pinned in the wreckage about 45 minutes.

The fire department ambulance took the Perales' to the Plainview hospital, and Alvarez was transported to the same hospital by Barrett Ambulance Service of Plainview.

Funeral

Funeral services for Ralph Alvarez are to be at 8 a.m. today (Thursday) at San Jose Catholic Church in Lockney. The Rev. Rex Nicholls of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Plainview is to officiate.

Burial will follow in Lockney Cemetery. Pallbearers are to be National Guardsmen of the Plainview unit.

Alvarez was born Sept. 7, 1960, in Lockney, where he had lived all of his life. He joined the National Guard in November and was on active duty for six months at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri and Fort Benning in Georgia. He had only recently returned to Lockney.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Teddy Alvarez of Plainview; his father, Paul Alvarez of Boulder, Colorado; two brothers, Samuel and Roy; both of Lockney; a sister, Maria Partida of Plainview; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salas Sr. of Lockney; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Manuela Alvarez of Kress, and a great-grandmother, Mrs. Altagracia Zavala of Waco.

RALPH ALVAREZ of Lockney was riding in the car on the left when it was in collision with the car LTD II owned by Cruz and Donna Perales of Seagraves. Alvarez died several hours after the accident.

'58 Class Holds Reunion

Schoolmates of the Class of 1958 of Lockney High School gathered Saturday at the Rebekah Lodge Hall for the 20th anniversary of their graduation.

Kelly Harrison was mater of ceremonies for the program following the dinner.

Entertainment included a 20-minute medley of songs from the 1950's. Singers were the "Lollipops," a group of eighth grade girls directed by Mrs. Cliff Hardy.

The classmates then introduced themselves and their families and also mentioned their occupations. E.L. Brotherton Jr. brought laughter when he said that he was still living here as he had not made enough money to leave.

Others added to that humorous idea with these comments: "I scraped together enough money to get as far as Hale Center." "I hitchhiked to Plainview and couldn't get back to Lockney." "I left by request...money had nothing to do with it!"

Mrs. Felicia Applewhite who was a teacher at Lockney High School during this class' schooldays teased that she and Mr. Applewhite were wealthy and could have left but chose to stay in Lockney.

Discussing his occupation, Lockney farmer Bill Bigham brought down the house when he proclaimed: "I'm operating a non-profit organization and am quite successful...haven't made a profit yet!"

Mrs. Applewhite wrote a story for the occasion and read aloud her subtly-worded theme.

A style show of clothing from the 1950's was part of the program. Julie Hammit, daughter of Larry and Sunny Hammit, modeled a dress. A mouton coat and treader pants and were worn by Barbara Moore. Stephanie Bybee's costume was a straight skirt and sweater. Robin Hardy, daughter of Cliff and Elaine Hardy, wore a strapless, long formal. Amy Shaw's outfit was a gathered skirt and white blouse.

Libby Williams, daughter of Jerry and Kay Williams, had on a felt skirt and her mom's cheerleader sweater. Sunny Hammit was narrator for the style show.

Zany awards were given by Jerry and Kay Williams, who also entertained the group with their Sonny and Cher-styled dialogue of put-downs.

LODGE OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED

Lockney Lodge 867 will have open installation of officers at 7 p.m. Saturday, July 8 at the lodge hall. All Masons and their families are invited.

SENIOR CITIZENS MEET THURSDAY

Lockney Senior Citizens will meet at 10 a.m. Thursday, July 6 in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church for a covered-dish luncheon.

Family Histories To Publisher

The Floyd County history book project committee this Wednesday turned over more than 1000 families histories to the publisher from Lubbock.

The gigantic task of proofreading, typing, tiling, and alphabetizing the stories has taken the committee many, many hundreds of hours of work.

Next phase of the committee's work is to complete sales of the material, tribute and business history pages.

During that time, book sales are being emphasized. The original price of $25.73 (including tax) will continue for the next six weeks. Afterwards the book price will be substantially increased. Again the committee stresses that only the number of books sold will be ordered from the publisher.

Although project chairman Mrs. Joe (Virginia) Taylor of Lockney says there is no way she can adequately express her appreciation to those of the committee who have dedicated themselves to the completion of the book, she wishes to recognize for their work the following people: Ann Swepston, Dot Stansell, Norma Dean Welch, Nancy Marble, Nita Marble, June Ware, Ruth Harrison, Cheryl Bradley, Jamie Carter, Georgia Finley, Ethel Cross, Jo Ann Duvall, Algene Barker, Mrs. Henry Bollman, and Mrs. Jim Conner.

Baptist Youth To New Mexico

Youth and sponsors of First Baptist Church in Lockney went on a mission trip to New Mexico June 17-23.

The group lived at the Baptist Church in Animas during the week of the mission trip. Animas is eight miles from the Arizona border in southwestern New Mexico, and is also located southwest of Lordsburg.

The youth conducted three neighborhood Vacation Bible Schools in nearby Piyas a cooper mining town owned by the Phelps Dodge Corporation. They held church services there one night, and also conducted a nighttime revival at the Baptist Church in Animas. Delvin Bybee preached at the night services and Rev. John Jenkins, Lockney pastor, preached at the one Sunday morning service at Animas. Rev. Jenkins and the Animas pastor did visitation during the week.

The Lockney group took Vacation Bible School study materials, craft materials, and Kool-Aid and cookies donated by the Lockney church ladies.

Making the trip were Tim Cooper, Randy Ford, Chris Cooper, Julie Ferguson, Roxanne Ford, Cindy Adams, Tammy Adams, Jo Beth Stallings, Jody Nance, Tonya Nance, Paula Teuton and Donna Tickle. Adult sponsors besides Bybee and Rev. Jenkins were Bob Musser, Jason and Shandra Bybee and Cindy Cooper accompanied their parents.

Editor Takes A Bride Miss Bramlet, Mr. Huggins Marry

Wedding promises were exchanged by Miss Carol Ann Bramlet and James "Jim" Harold Huggins Saturday evening in a 7:30 o'clock ceremony. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bramlet of Lockney and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huggins of Floydada were united in marriage in a double ring service directed by Earl Cantwell of the Rock Creek

Church of Christ. James, who is editor of The Lockney Beacon, and his bride will make their home in Lockney. He is a graduate of Floydada High School. Mrs. Huggins was graduated from Lockney High School and also earned an associate degree as a medical assistant from Lubbock Christian College. Setting for the wedding was the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Watson in Lockney. Backdrop for the pledging of vows was a grapevine-covered fence. At the top of the fence was a mixed bouquet of apricot-colored gladioli, blue carnations, yellow daisies and spider mums and tropical foliage tied with a bow of rainbow hued ribbon. Guests were registered by Mrs. Ronnie Shackelford of Plainview. Assisting guests in being seated were ushers Gary Stennett of Lockney and the bride's cousin, Emil Ross Shipman of Happy. A chorus composed of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Stennett and several members of Main Street Church of Christ sang the program of music. Mrs. Dan Smith was soloist for "Follow Me" as the mothers were seated. Mr. and Mrs. Stennett sang the duets "I Walk Beside You" and "One Hand, One Heart," with the entire chorus singing "One Hope, One Faith," "I Pledge My Love" as the processional and "Top of the World" as the recessional.

Also in the chorus were Mrs. Wilbur Mize, Mrs. Jerry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Degge, Miss Janie Carter, Keith Stansell, Eddie Joe Foster and Van Bradley. Mrs. David Wright of Tulsa, Oklahoma, wore an apricot-colored southern-style dress of organza as she attended her friend as matron of honor. The floor-length skirt was made of tiers with white lace insets. A wide, self ruffled, edged in white lace, was worn off the shoulder to form the low neckline and cape-like sleeves.

The groom's sister, Miss Sharon Huggins of Floydada wore a green dress styled identically to that of the matron of honor. Both wore white garden hats tied with yellow daisies and streamers to match their dress. They carried baskets of mixed flowers. Flower girl was the bride's cousin, little Miss Tammi Walton of Canadian. Her long dress was of dotted swiss.

Best man was Larry Noland of Floydada, and groomsman was the bride's brother, Larry Bramlet. The groom, his attendants and the father of the bride wore light blue tuxedos trimmed with deeper blue piping. Wayne Bramlet escorted his daughter to the nuptial area and presented her for marriage. Her wedding gown was of white eyelet. The scoop neckline was edged in a ruffle extending over the shoulders to the back. The full skirt flowed from a high waistline. A wide flounce enhanced the hemline which extended into a chapel-length train. A headpiece of white eyelet held the finger-tip length veil of illusion that was scattered with daisy appliques. The bride's bouquet was a nosegay of mixed flowers. Following tradition, her "something old" was the handkerchief she carried. It belonged to her late grandmother, Mrs. Grace Schaefer of Happy. "Something new" was a heart-shaped necklace, centered with a diamond, that was a gift from the groom. She wore the engagement ring she had borrowed from her grandmother Mrs. Eula Bramlet. "Something blue" was a garter. In her shoe she wore pennies minted in the birthyears of both the bride and the groom, a threepence, which was a gift of the groom's cousin, John E. Huggins of Lubbock, and a sixpence.

Following the wedding, the nuptial festivities continued with a reception in the garden. The serving table was laid with a white cloth and an overlay of tulle caught at the table corners with apricot-colored bows. The white, tiered wedding cake was accented with icing flowers in pastel colors. Mixed, fresh flowers encircled a white candle to form the centerpiece. Embedded in the candle was a picture of the bride and groom and their wedding invitation. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Larry Waite and Mrs. Jess Walton, both of Canadian, and Mrs. Keith Morris of Dumas, all cousins of the bride.

In a houseparty were Mrs. Tommy Montandon, Mrs. Roland Watson and Miss Janie Carter. The newlyweds' wedding trip was to Eagle's Nest, New Mexico.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Main Street Church of Christ. A double ring ceremony read Saturday night, July 1, in Christ The King Church, Dallas, united in marriage Miss Susan Hall and John Charles Farris. The Rev. William Botik performed the 8:00 p.m. vows. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Macdonald Hall of Winnetka, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. T. Kinder Farris of Floydada. Mr. Noel Geomannes, organist, and Mr. John Nelson, trumpeter with the Dallas Symphony, presented the wedding selections. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a designer gown of ivory silk organza featuring drop shoulder neckline encircled with an organza ruffle which formed the delicate cap sleeves. A bias ruffle ran from the waist diagonally across the front of the slightly gathered skirt and continued around the bottom and the sweep of the train. Flower petal alencon lace with pink silk rosebuds were re-embroidered on the bodice and outlined the top of the ruffle. Susan's cathedral illusion train was held by a wreath of fresh flowers. Miss Susan Knight of Chicago, Ill. attended the bride as maid of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. John Isacke, Gorham, Maine, Mrs. Jerome Lowe, Evanston, Ill., and Miss Elizabeth Farris, sister of the groom. Thomas K. Farris, Jr. served his brother as best man. is, the bride was dressed in a white gown of sheer organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The moulded bodice featured a flounced neckline and butterfly sleeves designed in Chantilly lace and sprinkled with tiny seed pearls. A self-fabric bow was at the center back of the waistline.

Her circular skirt swept to back fullness, forming a chapel-length train. Lace appliques were scattered down the front of the skirt and were defined in seed pearls. The entire hemline and train were designed in flounce style and were edged in the wide-patterned Chantilly lace.

To complete her ensemble, the former Miss Mathis wore a picture hat sewed with circular tucks. It was trimmed with matching lace and featured blue flowers and a long blue sash. On the center back of the hat was a silk illusion bow which fell into fingertip length veiling. The veiling was trimmed in the wide, matching Chantilly lace.

The bride's jewelry was a diamond necklace, a gift of her grandmother Carthel, and matching earrings which were presented to her on her 18th birthday by her parents. She wore, for "something old", her grandmother Carthel's original wedding band. Her dress was "something new", "Borrowed" was the white lace Bible cover belonging to her sister-in-law, and "blue" was the ribbon on her hat.

The bride's bouquet was a nosegay arrangement of blue forget-me-nots accented by phalenopsis orchids tied with bridal satin. She carried a white Bible given to her as a child by her grandparents.

Reception

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Attendants at the bride's table were Mrs. Tommy Lovell of Plainview, the bride's cousin, Miss Donna Spencer, Miss Brenda Meadows and Miss Shelley Bowden, both of Canyon, Miss Netta Stephan of Abilene and Mrs. Jimmy Glenn of Edmonson.

The bride's table was covered with a blue satin cloth. An overlay of white tulle was edged in lace and accented with white hearts. The white wedding cake was tiered over a fountain flowing with blue water atop a layer of cake. Smaller, circular cakes were at the base of the cake. Tiny blue flowers of icing surrounded white icing roses to highlight the cake. On the smallest tier of the cake were two white wedding bells before an archway.

A silver punch bowl, crystal appointments, blue bell-shaped mints, nuts, and blue napkins ensigned with the couple's names completed the table decor.

Serving at the groom's table were his cousins, Miss Louise Koontz of Logan, New Mexico, Mrs. Don Terrell and Miss Vanessa Morris, both of Plainview. A white lace cloth over blue covered the circular table. The chocolate cake was iced in gold with deep brown trim. A silver service was used to serve coffee. Also on the table was a crystal punch bowl surrounded by fresh fruit.

Members of the houseparty were the groom's aunts, Mrs. Ronald Morris and Mrs. Gene McLain, both of Plainview, and Mmes. Boyce Mosley, Delton Jack, Joe Cunyus, Raymond Lusk, Bobby Carthel, Jerry Cannon, Gale McPherson, Durward Jack, and the bride's aunts, Mrs. Ted Carthel and Mrs. Leo Mathis of Plainview.

After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Lindan Morris are at home at 909 West Ross Street in Floydada where he is employed with Floydada Seed and Delinting. Mrs. Morris is a 1976 graduate of Lockney High School and attended West Texas State University at Canyon. Her husband was graduated the same year from Floydada High School. Lackey Reunion

Saturday

The Lackey Reunion is to be held Saturday, July 8, at the Massie Activity Center. All friends and relatives are invited to bring a covered dish and join the festivities.

COTTON STUDY ON WATER AVAILABILITY—Certain soils have "shallow reservoirs" of available water that must be replenished frequently while cotton is blooming and fruiting to avoid yield reductions, according to a study by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Such soils include the medium-textured types of the Rolling Plains and the fine-textured ones found in South Texas. These soils have limited water-holding capacity and can restrict root growth. Increasing organic matter and certain tillage techniques help.

ACCIDENT CONTROL: Lawn mower rotary blades are sharp knives traveling up to about 200 miles per hour. They can cut your lawn quickly and easily but can also cause serious injury if the lawn mower is used carelessly, cautions the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Women's Golf Play Day Tuesday

All women are invited to play golf at the regular Women's Play Day at the Floydada Country Club each Tuesday.

Tee-off time is 9:30 and the covered dish luncheon at the clubhouse follows.

Everyone is reminded to bring a covered dish.

Louise Barton of Matador won the ball for low score day.

Previously, Floydada's

Sally Wylie was winner with a 38 score for the round. She also had the most "one puts for the day."

Reports indicate that the July 25th women's golf tournament is already full up.

accurate only at the time it leaves the processing plant, says Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

MEAT IMPORT SITUATION—Although the meat import level for 1978 was recently increased by President Carter, U.S. cattlemen are still the net winners through foreign trade, says a livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Income effects on producers from the greater imports of 1978 should be minimal. The U.S. exports more beef and cattle by-products in dollars and cents than it imports. The majority of exports are hides, tallow, variety meats and by-products which have a low demand in this country.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- THIS IS THE SEASON WHICH GIVES US THE PLEASURE of having many visitors in the Capital. Thus far, we have had groups of Future Farmers of America, 4-H Clubs, trips sponsored by the REA, a Senior Citizens group and many families and individuals. It is nice to have people from back home and try to do the little things which make their visit here to Washington as enjoyable as possible.

THERE ARE OTHER SIGNS OF THE SEASON all around us and things particularly which identify the tourists are not just the State tag on their automobile. Everywhere on the streets and highways they can be identified. Some proof of the visiting citizen to his Nation's Capital can be seen by watching the driver who is trying to manipulate circles, underpasses and overpasses. The car can be any age or condition. One of the easiest identifying factors are roof racks, some with baggage and even canoes. Fishing poles and a bicycle are not common to the long-distance tourist and this rig can usually be identified with the local going to the Blue Ridge Mountains or Chesapeake Bay. They are definitely different from those coming from the other direction.

A JAUNTILY FLAPPING TARP, flattened by rope or elastic bands over the kind of swaying mound, can be compared to something like a camel caravan in the Sahara. A line-up of passengers which include children with coloring books in their laps are an absolute give-away. Children fighting over cookies, with or without coloring books, are also highly suggestive.

A DOG -- ANY BREED -- looking out a back window with an expression of self-satisfaction is a sure sign. Even some bring their cats. He or she can be seen staring dolefully out of a basket on a pile of blankets.

IN SOME CASES, NO MATTER HOW MANY PASSENGERS OR HOW FEW, there is often times a tunnel of openness between the front seat and the rear window. If a clue is needed that the travelers are going farther North into cooler climes, it may be had from the number of duffel bags, suitcases, sweaters and other paraphernalia that takes up the rest of the space in the car.

PARKING IS A PROBLEM IN ANY CITY but it seems to be an especially serious one in Washington. There just seems no way to keep up with the need for more places to leave the automobile. All sorts of ideas are continuously proposed to provide parking space around the U.S. Capitol. It is pretty obvious that if such a convenience should be provided for visitors, it would have to be upstairs or below the ground. There just isn't anything left other-wise.

THE VISITORS EITHER HAVE TO LEAVE THEIR CARS where they are staying, get a bus or taxicab to the Capital or else they may have to park several blocks away. The walk in midsummer humidity is not always the best. In addition, if there is clothing hung in the car or baggage, it may not be there upon their return.

ANYWAY, IT'S NICE TO HAVE VISITORS FROM HOME and we look forward to more as the vacation season goes on.

PLAN FOR THIS WINTER'S FEED--Cattlemen should be looking for available sources of protein supplement and keeping a close check on prices. Smart and early shopping for supplemental feed can mean long-range production savings, says a beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Protein sources hit seasonal lows as pressures green up and then show higher prices in the summer and early fall. Protein supplement is one of the largest out-of-pocket expenses in a cattle operation.

SPORTS SHORTS

In 1933, Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, conceived the idea for a baseball All-Star Game. Although baseball owners resisted the idea initially, the first All-Star Game was played in Chicago's Comiskey Park that July.

Today the All-Star Game is one of baseball's most popular events. In what has become the nation's largest non-political election, the fans will again elect the starting lineups for this year's game to be played in San Diego on July 11.

The voting, underwritten by the Gillette Company's Safety Razor Division, runs until July 2. Ballots are free at retail stores featuring a Gillette All-Star display and at major and minor league ballparks.

Meat Import Situation Discussed

COLLEGE STATION--Despite the recent increase in the meat import level for 1978, U.S. cattlemen are still the net winners through foreign trade.

That's the opinion of Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Uvacek explains that the Meat Import Law of 1964 provides for a fixed level of imports and allows increases or decreases based on domestic production. Most exporting countries, however have entered into voluntary restraint agreements with the U.S., which keep imports below the trigger levels of the quota.

This past March the voluntary restraint agreement level for 1978 was set at 1.29 billion pounds. President Carter's recently announced increase raised that level by 200 million pounds. In contrast, the trigger level for the Meat Import Law is 1.3 billion pounds.

Uvacek points out that about 35 percent of the total increased level of imports scheduled for this year has already been brought into the U.S. during the first four months. The remainder, therefore, will have to be spread out over the next eight months. The bulk of the increases came in March and April when prices were already in an upward spiral.

Research indicates that cattlemen's incomes are more indirectly affected by imports through the sale of cull cows, contends Uvacek.

"Put into this context, then, it seems obvious that the income effects on producers from the greater imports for 1978 should be minimal," he adds.

The U.S. exports more beef and cattle by-products in dollars and cents than in imports. The majority of exports are hides, tallow, variety meats and by-products which have a low demand in this country. Thus, U.S. cattlemen have more to gain in the game of international trade.

District 4-H Dress Revue Set "OLD SOUTH" Theme

Members from 4-H Clubs, throughout the South Plains will model their own creations in this year's District 4-H Dress Revue July 6 as they compete for honors and the right to represent the district in state competition.

"Old South" is the theme of the event which is to be held in the Home Economics Building and University Center at Texas Tech, County Extension agent Sharon Hillis, said.

Representing Floyd County will be Jill Whitfill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Whitfill in the Senior Division. Connie Coffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Tom Coffman will represent the Junior II Division from Floyd County while Heather Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holt represents the Jr. I Division. All are from Lockney.

Already these entrants are winners of county competition. Contestants are judged on their sewing and construction skills, overall appearance, modeling abilities, and their 4-H record books.

A luncheon will be served for dress revue participants, parents and guests following contest activities. Revue and presentation of awards begin at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of the new Home Economics building.

In addition to the naming of the top seniors who will compete in the State 4-H Dress Revue this September, awards also will go to the contestants making the best all-cotton outfit and the best all-wool garment.

Two junior level contests will be staged at the same time as senior competition, Ms. Hillis said. These younger 4-H members, ages 9-11 and 12-14 will not compete beyond the district level. For them, the event offers experience and leadership development.

Parents, 4-H leaders, and special guests will be on hand for the occasion. The public is invited to the 2 p.m. dress revue.

SCENIC MACKENZIE — The most beautiful lake in Texas is now only 45 minutes from Plainview. Mackenzie Lake, which has received about 22 feet of new water, has now backed up in the creeks making it one of the most scenic lakes in Texas.

This photograph was taken in the back end of Tule Creek. Towering cottonwood, willow trees and various other vegetative matter surprises the sightseer around each and every new bend.

Floyd Cotton Acre Yield Leader

Official county-by-county figures from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service (TCLRS) show 1977 cotton production in the 25 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, at an all-time high 3,215,400 bales of 480 pounds net weight.

Total production exceeded the previous area record, 2,888,700 bales, set in 1973, by over 300,000 bales.

Planted acreage according to TCLRS was 3,749,600, of which 3,638,800 acres were harvested. Yield per harvested acre came to 424.1 pounds, compared to 365.6 pounds in 1976 and an average of 383.5 pounds per acre for the ten-year period of 1967 through 1976. The planted acreage figure was the second highest in history, behind the 3.9 million acres planted in 1952. Lubbock County, with 346,000 bales, led the area in production. Second, third and fourth placed were taken by Gains (292,000), Hockley (261,000), and Terry (238,000). The top four producing counties in 1976, respectively, were Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, and Lubbock Counties.

FISHING REPORT -- period through June 25, 1978 (compiled by Canyon fishery lab) ing has been fair in deeper water. The lake depth is 72 feet and the water temperature is in the low 70's.

MACKENZIE LAKE -- The lake is slowly clearing and is now 102 feet deep and the water temperature is 74 degrees. Channel catfish are fair to good. Eye and bass are taken though water is making it difficult. Flathead beginning to bite.

Facts from a pro on driving to survive.

Q. On the highway I usually drive at the speed limit. What should I do if someone wants to pass?—L. J., Pasadena

A. Move to the right even if you are driving at the speed limit. It's safer to be passed on your left. Trying to block another driver could also lead to an accident. Many drivers have adopted the European signal of flashing their lights at the car ahead to remind the driver to move over. It's safer for both of you and easy on the nerves.

Q. How can I tell if something minor is wrong with my car before it gets worse?—P. H., Carthage

A. Keep a tally on your fuel mileage. Start by writing down the odometer reading when you fill up. At the next fill-up, check the odometer reading again and record the new reading. Then divide the number of miles you've driven since the last fill-up by the number of gallons it takes to fill the tank again. The result will be your total mileage for that tankful.

A car will get better mileage on the highway than it will in town, and one driver may get better mileage than another. But any drastic change in your car's normal mileage is an indication that something is wrong, even though it may mean just a tune-up. An out-of-tune engine will use about 15 per cent more fuel than a well-tuned one.

Q. Is it true that steel-belted radial tires can't be used for high speed driving?—S. R., Quitman

A. No. There were some problems with domestically produced steel radials that led to bad publicity. But those were problems with particular brands, not with steel radials in general. Good, high-quality steel radials will last longer and provide better traction than any other tire. With proper inflation, they also will increase fuel mileage.

This time she has an ally a dangerous scrupulous English lord in the hunt for the forgers of fabulous jewels in Europe. THE HUMAN FACTOR by Graham Greene is a story of espionage. An older member of "the firm", relegated to processing intelligence from England's former African colonies, has a concern for security that is almost a religious passion. And a security lead does occur. THE CHIEFTAIN WITHOUT A HEART by leading writer of ladies' romance, Barbara Cartland who takes us to ancient Scotland where old customs and superstitions create a tale of danger and romance. REBEL DOCTOR by Elizabeth Seifert continues her books about doctors and the women who love them. This story centers again on Bram Rhodes and Darcy and the time is three years after they had said good-by. DARK INHERITANCE by Carola Salisbury is a Gothic novel that involves a dead tavern keeper's daughter and a wealthy family. CHILDREN'S BOOKS Easy reader's books by Margaret Hillert newly received are PLAY BALL, WHAT IS IT, THE COOKIE HOUSE and THE GOLDEN GOOSE. Also for children in this reading-stage is NOAH'S ARK, ILLUSTRATED BY Peter Spier, a winner of The Caldecott Medal. For juvenile readers, the new arrivals are EXCITING THINGS TO DO WITH NATURE MATERIALS from Look and Make Books, and Toby Talbot's TWO BY TWO, an alphabet book using animals with every entry in both Spanish and English. Among the parade of animals are several uncommon to alphabet books. FARM INCOME PROSPECTS PERK UP--Net realized farm income in Texas may be up some 15 to 20 percent in 1978 from the depressed level in 1977, points out an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Brisk demand and less-than-expected production have substantially boosted prices and potential earnings for livestock producers. Improved earning prospects for crop farmers are due to larger benefits from government programs, deteriorating production prospects because of drought conditions in some areas and too much moisture in others, and strong export demand. Taking birth control pills does not protect women from getting venereal disease, warns Carla Shearer, health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

The Cattlemen's Complaint

Traveling out in America's fat cattle country, through Iowa, Idaho and Colorado, the visitor from the city hears the other side of the emotional story of the meat price inflation.

Like almost all U.S. farmers, the cattleman is aggrieved. For four years the prices that he collects have buckled like a sick calf, while the costs of everything he buys—gasoline, fertilizer, tetracycline for ailing heifers, tractors from Peoria and bull semen from France—have climbed like corn in August. And just when he had started to make a comeback, a politically motivated peanut farmer from Georgia cut him off at the knees by letting in a lot of imports.

Urban shoppers, stunned as they are at beef prices climbing 4% in April alone and perhaps another 5% in May, should not lightly dismiss this plaint. To do so risks biting the hand that feeds. The U.S. cattleman is the descendant of the romantic cowboy, and for the most part he preserves those storied virtues of ruggedness, independence and dawn-to-dark hard work. But he is also a modern businessman, worried about cash flow and capital costs and, of course, interest rates. Says a typical cattle raiser in Oregon: "My family has been in this business for three generations, and we haven't been out of debt for one year."

Tens of thousands of cattlemen survived only on the sufferance of country bankers from 1974 through 1977, when any businessman could see that the cost of raising steers and cows was higher than the price for selling them. Cattlemen cut their herds from 132 million in 1975 to 115 million now, and the iron law of supply and demand levied a heavy fine on the supermarket shopper. When average prices of beef cuts jumped from $1.63 per lb. in March to $2.09 per lb. in June—far faster than the cost of living—Jimmy Carter's advisers urged him to open the import gates.

It was then that Dick McDougal, a Lovelock, Nev., rancher who heads the National Cattlemen's Association, flew to Washington to huddle with Robert Strauss, the celebrated Texas shooter of the bull. McDougal made this case to Carter's No. 1 inflation fighter: beef prices have gone up about as far as they will go. So, just let the cattleman alone, and he will build up his herds. But if more imports come in, the rancher may well reduce his herds still more—and prices, after a short dip, will climb through the early 1980s.

A few days later, Carter raised annual import quotas from 1.3 billion to 1.5 billion lbs. Now that seemingly enormous amount works out to 1 lb. per American for the rest of this year and will probably clip a few pennies a pound off hamburger. Beef prices in general are expected to level out or decline a bit in the months ahead. But the psychological blow to ranchers has been devastating. The value of their cattle has dropped $6 billion since Carter's import decision, says McDougal, who adds, "We feel betrayed."

There have been misunderstandings aplenty in this classic clash, and lessons to be learned on all sides. First, the ranchers, who overreacted to a rather modest increase in quotas, should recognize that freer trade will ultimately benefit them. America's potential for export to a beef-loving world is enormous, and ranchers cannot exploit it while clamoring for rigid quotas.

Second, the Administration should help cattlemen to realize that potential by getting tough with countries that bar beef. If the Japanese refuse to lower their high barriers against America's meat, the U.S. can put quotas on Toyotas.

Third, instead of fighting the other meat exporters, notably the Australians, the U.S. should join with them in pressing for large increases in meat quotas by Japan and the Common Market.

Fourth, the Congress can reduce the farmers' costs by easing some of the stringent, and sometimes silly, environmental rules that restrict use of herbicides, pesticides and fertilizers.

Finally, the public can recognize that the farmer, too, is victimized by inflation and stop complaining so loudly about the big bite at the meat counter.

Lucky Texans Will Consume Much Of State's Peach Crop

AUSTIN—Bring out the ice cream freezers and put the shortcake in the oven! There will be plenty of peaches available this season, according to latest estimates. Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has noted that Texas peach growers anticipate a 938,000-bushel crop this year, only six per cent off last year's one million-bushel record breaker.

"Most of this fruit will find its way to markets within the state, which is a big reason for the superior quality of our home grown varieties," Brown said. "Because Texas peaches do not travel great distances to market, they are allowed to ripen on the tree. They are redder, juicier and better tasting than peaches shipped in from out-of-state."

The 1978 peach harvest, delayed slightly by drought and a cool spring, is expected to peak around the Fourth of July weekend and last until August, Brown noted. Texas sheep and lambs sold through livestock auctions during May totaled 167,000 head, a five-per-cent jump from a year ago, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C.—ANYONE WHO EVER SERVED IN THE NAVY is familiar with the saying that, "if it moves, salute it—if it doesn't, paint it."

THE IDEA MAY WELL APPLY TO SOME GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS. Too many projects seem to be undertaken in a spirit of "why not", rather than "why".

THE FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION HAS A PRETTY GOOD RECORD OF building and managing our interstate road system. It has, in most instances, cooperated with State highway departments, and, particularly, with those who have a good system such as Texas.

THE HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION HAS NOW, HOWEVER, COME UP WITH A STUDY which seems to be a sort of scholarly exercise that makes illiteracy look good by contrast. It has awarded a contract for $222,000 to a private think-tank which proposes to ask a couple of thousand automobile drivers at nine sites in three States their opinion on such matters as side splash from trucks on wet roads. They want to know if it is a problem. They want to know if large trucks block a driver's view. Are big trucks too slow going up hills and fast coming down, they ask.

MOST DRIVERS OF AUtomobiles can readily answer these questions and would likely respond more forcefully if they had just gone through any one of these exasperating experiences. Usually, however, their impatience and temper may have subsided after a short period of time.

IT APPEARS, HOWEVER, that the reason for asking these questions is that they have not been asked before. Can it be that they have not been asked because the answers are not worth asking? This seems to be the question nobody has asked at all.

Farm Income Prospects Perk

COLLEGE STATION --

Things are looking up a bit for Texas farmers and ranchers due to improved farm income prospects.

"Net realized farm income in Texas be up some 15 to 20 percent in 1978 from the depressed level in 1977," believes Dr. Carl Anderson, economist in marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "This upturn in farm and ranch earnings should help relieve some of the cash flow problems producers were experiencing earlier this year."

"Brisk demand and less-than-expected production have substantially boosted prices for livestock producers," notes Anderson. "Also, prospective earnings of crop farmers have improved from the gloomy outlook several months ago. The improvement reflects larger benefits from government programs, deteriorating production prospects because of drought conditions in some areas and too much moisture in others, and strong export demand."

According to the economist, farmers and ranchers are benefiting from a marked climb in commodity prices over the past few months. In mid-May the index of prices received by Texas producers was up almost 17 percent from the January level. Meanwhile, the index of prices paid by farmers for commodities and services, interest, taxes and wage rates rose 5 percent.

Meat prices have risen even more, notes Anderson. Since January, the index of prices received for meat animals in Texas has increased by more than a third. With cash receipts from cattle and calf marketings in Texas typically accounting for 70 percent of all sales from livestock and poultry, sales from livestock and livestock products were up almost a fifth in the first three months of this year over the same period last year.

"Livestock sales bolster farm earnings substantially since they account for a little more than half of all cash receipts from agriculture in Texas. Higher prices for cattle and calves, hogs, lambs, broilers and mohair along with increased poultry production point to sizable gains in receipts from most livestock commodities in 1978," believes Anderson.

On the other hand, receipts from crop marketings have not kept pace with year-earlier levels, points out the economist. Texas cotton prices in the first five months of this year averaged a fourth less than in the same period of 1977. However, because market prices fell below target prices for some 1977 crops, farmers have received an increase in government payments.

"As far as the remainder of 1978 is concerned, crop developments hinge on the uncertainty of weather and the level of grower participation in the grain reserve and set-aside programs," contends Anderson. "Greater participation in the feed-grain program, together with increased yield risks from dry weather and late plantings would likely bolster prices and receipts because of the implications for reduced production."

Production costs are also expected to rise considerably in 1978, adds the economist. Feed costs will probably increase because of slightly higher grain prices and larger purchases. Expenses for purchased livestock will be sharply higher. A case in point is that the average price for calves in Texas during May was 65 percent higher than a year earlier. Other costs such as interest expenses, depreciation, repairs and hired labor will likely continue to increase.

COTTON FROM PLAINS COTTON

The estimated farm-level value of the cotton crop in Plains counties in 1977, according to Plains Cotton Co. Inc., Lubbock, comes to $825.7 million, up from $790 million for the much smaller but higher priced crop of 1976.

The 1976 crop totaled 1,986,500 bales of lint and seed, valued at almost $300 per bale of lint and seed.

The 1977 crop topped all previous yields at 3.2 million lint and about 1,286,000 tons of seed. But prices for both commodities, to an estimated $228 per bale of lint and $72 per ton of seed.

Estimates of average lint prices received by farmers were gathered by PCG from several knowledgeable sources. Guesses ranged from a 46-cent low to a high of 47.5 cents per pound.

The all-time high value for a cotton crop in Plains counties was reached in 1973 when the total of 2,888,700 bales, plus farm program payments of $900 million into the Lubbock area economy.

About the 1978 cotton crop, PCG Executive Director Donald Johnson says "It looks now as if we have standing acres as we harvested last year, but the crop, generally, and the continued shortage of water make it more likely that yields will fall well below last year, and some of our present acreage will be before harvest."

The 25 PCG counties in 1977, according to the Livestock Reporting Service, harvested an average of lint per acre from 3,638,800 acres.

On price prospects for this year's harvest, Johnson says "strong cotton exports coupled with doubts about production in the U.S. and other major producing areas have given the market to date considerable strength."

He cautions however that there is no certainty that prices will hold or rise for the remainder of the year. Poor crops in Russia and China could yet prove the right weather the U.S. crop, including that from the south, could also be a surprise.

"Even so, with the overall supply-demand situation ideal crop conditions and the market's recent downward pressures, we have to be somewhat optimistic about prices this fall."

Feedlot Activity Increase Pegged To Higher Sales

AUSTIN—The number of cattle and calves on feed increased in Texas during May, as dry ranges, meager stock water supplies and healthy beef prices sent many head to auction, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has reported.

There were 1,740,000 head of cattle and calves on feed during the month, Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service figures show, up 18 per cent from a year ago and three per cent above the month of April.

"Cattle movement in many areas of the state was very active during that period," commented Brown, "mainly because ranchers simply couldn't afford to keep up the heavy feeding schedule caused by the drought. With cattle prices strong, it was a matter of survival for ranchers to market their herds whether they wanted to or not."

"During the past few weeks, we have had good rains in most parts of the state," he continued, "Now ranchers needing to restock those herds will be facing the same strong market when buying replacement cattle."

Brown said demand for beef had remained good, despite higher retail prices, with cattle feeders marketing 435,000 head of fed cattle during May. Marketings were 35 per cent above a year ago, but only two per cent above those of the previous month.

Feeders placed 504,000 head into lots during the month, 33 per cent above May, 1977, and 44 per cent above the previous month.

Texas Food and Fiber

Texas Department of Agriculture Reagan V. Brown, Commissioner

AGRICULTURE COMMISSIONER REAGAN V. BROWN termed the recent decision to increase foreign beef imports "very unwise and shortsighted," adding he is disappointed that no effort was made to consult with cattlemen or officials in Texas, the largest cattle producing state in the nation.

"Just when cattlemen are regaining the losses of four years and are trying to get out of debt is no time to bring in more beef," Brown said. "It will do more harm than good by discouraging them from rebuilding their herds, thus keeping supplies short."

Brown stated that he feels the Administration is only giving lip service to allowing supply and demand to govern market conditions. "This move to allow 200 million more pounds of beef into the country will not reduce beef prices by much, and will damage cattlemen's confidence in the future."

THE TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE will soon reorganize its district offices to offer better and more convenient services to the people of Texas, Commissioner Reagan V. Brown has announced.

"By combining district headquarters in some cases, and adding new offices in others, we can expedite the many agricultural and consumer services conducted from these facilities," Brown said. "We will have offices covering the largest number of counties they can manage. Brown noted that the function of the department is to inspect for gasoline, commercial and state. The administrators covering many of the Texas industry, and marketing campaigns to boost demand for agricultural products."

BEEF FOR THE DAY is a national program that was the theme of the beef promotion program of the Department of Agriculture. The Texas Feeders Association, Texas CowBelts and retailers helped promote the program in the state. "However, we will be remaining in the beef business as prices rise, and we will be no different consumers in the industry. The mainstay of the industry."

was officially dedicated north of Quitaque at Caprock Canyons State Park near Lake Theo recently. State Archeologist Curtis Tunnell told the crowd at the dedication ceremony that he considered this marker to be one of the 10 most important historical sites of Texas. The marker was placed on the site of the Folsom find that is now being excavated on the sloping banks of Lake Theo. The Folsom site dates back over 10,000 years, and is one of only three that have been found in the United States. Billy Harrison, who is Curator of the Panhandle Plains

Historical Museum in Canyon, and in charge of excavation, is convinced that this massive kill and butcher site will eventually prove to be the largest Folsom find ever discovered by modern man. Here is the text provided by the Texas Historical Commission of Curtis Tunnell's occasion:
"Your presence at this my opinion, this is one of the most important historical markers ever placed in Texas. Its purpose is not to meet a county quota or to commemorate the finding of some stone artifacts. The purpose is to permanently mark an important event in human history in the New World. This site is not only significant on the local and state level, but is certainly of national significance as well. No more than 10 sites such as this are known in all of North and South America. The events that occurred here, and the artifacts found, are older than the Crusades to the Holy Lands; they even predate the civilizations of Greece and Rome; in fact, this site was ancient when the first pyramids were being built along the Nile in Egypt.

"Picture a time about

10,000 years ago (radiocarbon date for Folsom Culture): The climate here was much wetter and a good deal colder than it is now. These valleys were filled with vegetation choked ponds; and pine forests covered the border of the plains, where only cedar and mesquite are found today, as shown by pollen samples from pond deposits. The deep-grass plains teamed with herds of mammoths (elephants), giant bison, camels and many species of antelopes. Saber-tooth tigers and dire wolves preyed on the grazing herds. The area resembled closely the famous Serengeti Plains of Africa today.

"On the place where we stand, about 15 feet below the current surface, was a small community composed of several families—people just like us. They were dressed in skin clothing and lived in huts made of bison hides. The men had just been successful in killing several giant bison near the pond (represented by the grey deposits seen across the gully), and there was great rejoicing and excitement in the little band. The women and children would move the camp from its previous spot nearby and several weeks would be spent processing the meat and hides. An abundance of food, clothing, tools and shelter would be derived from this successful hunt.

"Years later, the climate began to change. A long period of hotter and drier weather arrived. Great droughts dried up the ponds, killed the forests, burned the grass and exterminated many of the vast herds of animals. The hunters followed some of the remnant bison herds into the eastern woodlands and survived to become ancestors of the modern American Indians. Dust from the dry lakes on the plains covered this old camp—the stone tools and bison bones—to a depth of 10 to 15 feet. There it lay, forgotten through the millennia.

"In recent years, active gulleys exposed the ancient campsite and made it available for careful archeological study. The ancient people would never have dreamed that their little camp would one day receive a commemorative marker from their descendants.
"Who can guess what may be happening on this site 10,000 years from now?"

South Plains News

By Mrs. Murray Julian

South Plains, July 1. Rains dotted our community on Thursday and Friday afternoons with varying amounts. Along the Silverton Highway south of South Plains farmers there received around half an inch. In South Plains we received about a quarter an inch. It was a nice cotton shower, and several places got enough to do some real good for the crops.

Glen Wood was sufficiently recovered from his stay in the hospital at Central Plains in Plainview and they brought him home on Wednesday morning. He is getting along fine at this time. Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Simmons of Truscott are arriving this Saturday to spend the week end here with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh. They are going to Muleshoe this Saturday to visit their aunt, Mrs. Mae Glascock, who is in the rest home there. Mrs. Ray Dillard of Lockney will accompany her sisters, Mrs. Kinnibrugh and Mrs. Simmons.

Rev. Fred Blake and his daughter Mrs. A.C. Sharbutt of Denver, Colorado, who is visiting them this past week, went Friday to see Rev. Blake's aged mother, Mrs. C.E. Blake, who is in a rest home, there at Bronte.

Clarence Foster was dismissed from the Caprock Hospital on June 23rd, and this week end his daughter, Mrs. H.S. Calahan Jr. is taking him to San Angelo to get him settled in the Cactus Inn, a retirement Home for Baptist. We hope that he does well, and is happy in his new home.

Mrs. J.E. Woodson of Snyder and Mrs. Eddie Branch of Fort Worth came here Thursday afternoon to visit with their sister, Mrs. Frank McClure and Frank. Mrs. McClure is recovering from illness, and is taking therapy at the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview several days a week.

The G. A. Girls of the Baptist Church here returned on Thursday evening from the Baptist Encampment where they had been in camp since Monday morning. They report a good time, and no rain storms which usually occur while they are down there. Those going were Courtney Brown, Mitzi Julian, Cindy and Penny Mulder and Terry Bailey.

Mrs. Eulalia Mires of Spearman will arrive here this Saturday to spend the week end of the Fourth of July with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Sanders in Lockney and here in South Plains with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Sanders, and other relatives. Her two children have already been here visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian celebrated their wedding anniversary on Monday, June 26th, in Plainview at a dinner given by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kendis Julian, Kristi, Mitzi and Tim.

I. H. Parks, who had been in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock three weeks after surgery on his leg, was able to come home on Thursday, and we hope that he gets along well.

Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh and her sister, Mrs. W. H. Simmons of Truscott are planning a trip to Odessa on Wednesday to see another sister, Mrs. W. H. Smith, and spend a few days with her.

Harold Hamm was in the Lockney General Hospital sixteen days this past Thursday, and is still there taking treatment on his left leg, on which he suffered a bad burn, following an accident at the home. We hope that he, too, can soon be recovered so he can go home.

July birthdays we know of here in South Plains are those of Sandy Powell, July 4th, Nathan Johnson, July 8th, C. V. Blake, July 13th, Krisit Julian, July 15th, Kendis Julian, July 18th, and Troy Dee Johnson, July 20th. Anniversaries to be celebrated this July are those of Mildred and Harold Hamm, July 3rd, Hazle and Fletcher Powell, July 4th, Doris and Tillman Powell, July 10th, Donna and John Rushing July 12th, Kathy and Nathan Mulder, July 14th and Kendall and Dorothy Cummings July 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian received word of the death of her brother-in-law, B. C. Auman, of Fort Pierce, Florida, who suffered a stroke about three weeks ago, and never recovered from that. He passed away at 11:20 this Saturday morning. He was 84 years old, and was in a Fort Pierce Hospital. He was originally from Albuquerque, New Mexico, but has been making his home in Florida with his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Dickson. Funeral services are pending, and burial will be there at Port Pierce, after the Fourth of July.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake and daughter Mrs. A.C. Sharbutt, Al and Candy of Denver, Colorado, plan to leave this Sunday evening for Fayetteville, Arkansas for a visit with another daughter of the Blakes, Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Bolding, Mike and Sherry.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cypert and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jatslaw all of Giddings, near Austin, left Tuesday for Carlsbad, New Mexico where they enjoyed a tour of the Carlsbad Caverns during the day and they returned home Wednesday. The Cyperts and relatives were house guests of Mrs. Higginbotham during this week, and the weekend before.

Older People Have Much To Give

COLLEGE STATION - Older people in a family have much to give, says a family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

They influence their children and their grandchildren in many ways, Vivian Blair points out.

Because older generations in this country have mainly lived in one place, one town, and maybe only one house, they have a feeling of identity and responsibility with all about them.

However, in the last few decades the population has become highly mobile. Many people have lived in several towns and houses or apartments, the specialist explains.

They do not have this feeling of identity and responsibility to the people and things about them.

Grandparents can, to some degree, provide these things, Mrs. Blair suggests.

They can provide family history, family heritages and family relationships as a stabilizing influence in the life of the young.

Grandparents can help provide identity and responsibility, she says.

For auto repairs, ask for a written, itemized list of all parts, labor and other charges-along with the bill.

Also, ask to have replaced parts returned to you, suggests Claudia Kerbel, consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Smoke detectors are recommended for each level of the home, says Linda McCormack, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

The Floyd Philosopher Claims It'd Be Unconstitutional For Him To Repair His Screen Door

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm abandons world affairs this week and discusses a personal situation.

Dear editor:

There are times when national and international affairs have to take care of themselves while a person concentrates on his own problems at home.

For example, my office out here used to be a smokehouse before science produced hogs that produce bacon already sliced and wrapped in cellophane. It's a fine office, about 9 by 12 feet, has a roll top desk and one chair. A second chair would only encourage a visitor to sit down. It didn't cost 2 million dollars like a U.S. Senator's office, but on the other hand it's debt-free and wasn't financed with tax money.

There is one thing about it though that bothers the few people who have come by to see me. The concrete floor has buckled a little and the screen door, which opens to the inside, scrapes the bottom when it's about half-way open, causing inexperienced visitors to bump their head. Some people are so set in their ways they expect all the open all the way back.

"Why don't you have that fixed?" asked.

My answer is, the Supreme Court has ruled that it is unconstitutional for me to do it.

You see, the railroad people doing too well with their money want to convert the historic office building or a parking lot something, but the city of Waco declared it a Historic Landmark. The Supreme Court has ruled that case it can't be altered.

My office has been declared a landmark. Who did it? I don't know. Authority? By the same authority City used. Just throw back your hat and declare it.

Therefore you're not going to be defying the United States Supreme Court by sawing off the bottom of my screen door, destroying its historical shape, but enough to let me in and out, and keeping out flies, that's all a screen door for.

FLOYD DATA

Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Matthews of Corpus Christi arrived in Floydada on June 16 for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Collins and her brother, Wayne Collins and family.

The following Monday Mr. and Mrs. Matthews and W.G. Collins left for a trip to Denison, Bonham, Leonard, and Wolfe City. The next day they visited Van Collins in Waco and were met there by Kent Matthews, son of the Ersel Matthews.

After returning to Floydada, Matthews left on June 29 for his home in Corpus Christi. Mrs. Matthews stayed for a longer visit, returning home on July 3.

The group was joined in Floydada on June 30 by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Matthews, also a son of the Ersel Matthews. They stopped off in Floydada on return to their home in Portland, Texas after a trip to Glorieta, N. M.

FRED A. CARDINAL OF FLOYDADA, left, presented a certificate for his participation in Annual Sheriffs' Conference on Jail Administration held at the Criminal Justice Center at State University in Huntsville. Making the presentation is Dr. George Beto, former director of Texas Department of Corrections and professor at the Center.
