LHS Exchange Student To Return To Lockney After 14 Years

The second foreign exchange student Lockney High School ever had, Noriko Nakayama, who was here during the 1963-64 school year, is returning for a visit with her Lockney "family"—the Owen Thorntons—and other friends. Now Mrs. Yoichiro Ono, the former exchange student is scheduled to arrive in Lockney from Yokohama, Japan, with her two sons, Shinichi, age seven, and Youta, three, on July 26, according to Thornton. Her husband will be here August 14.

They will stay at the Thornton home until August 23. It's the first time Norika has been back to the United States, but the Thorntons went to her wedding in Japan in 1969. They haven't seen her since then, Thornton said. Mr. and Mrs. Thornton's daughter Patricia Killingsworth will be here from Arkansas next week to visit with her parents and Noriko, a Lockney High School classmate.

Story Hours Still Being Held At Library

"Story hours" are still being held from 9 to 11 each Wednesday morning at the Lockney library, and this Wednesday (July 19) there will be a "Winnie the Pooh" film in addition to the storytelling, according to Helene Holt, librarian. The story hours for children three to eight years old, are free.

Lisa Mosley and Kay Martin, members of Pi Penser Junior Study Club, will be the story readers this week. Next week, Athena Junior Study Club members Charlotte Mitchell and Judy Schacht will read for the youngsters.

School Board To Discuss

Tax Rate Increase

Lockney school district trustees voted Monday night (July 10) to hold a public hearing at 8 p.m. Monday, July 24, to discuss a tax rate increase for the purpose of balancing the budget. Published notice of the hearing states that its purpose is to hear testimony concerning a proposed tax rate increase to $1.62 per $100 valuation. The special called meeting will be held in the board room of the school administration building.

Also Monday night, the LISD trustees hired two teachers, Maxine Loran (special education, high school) and Karen Eschenburg (special education, junior high), and accepted the resignation of one teacher's aide, Betty Haley (junior high math).

The school board approved participation in media services with Regional Service Center, approved goals set for the district on the state "five-year plan," and accepted a bid from Cloverlake Dairy on milk for the school cafeterias.

Superintendent W.H. Hallmark reported on needed repairs to the school air conditioning and roofs, and landscaping in front of the high-school building (trees have been donated by the LHS Class of 1976.)

City Tax

Equalization Board

The tax equalization board of the City of Lockney will meet Tuesday afternoon to determine, fix and equalize the value of taxable property within the city.

Persons wishing to come before the board which will meet from 2 to 3 o'clock may appear at that time. However, it would be helpful to the board if those people would make an appointment.

Appointments may be made by calling city secretary Erma Lee Duckworth at the City Hall.

The board is composed of city councilmen. The board will be session as long as is necessary to hear everyone who wishes to speak.

Irrigation Well Permits Up To $50

In action at its July meeting, the Board of Directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 has voted to approve amending the rules of the District to call for a fifty dollar well permit application deposit instead of the currently required ten dollars.

This new deposit amount will be refundable to the applicant if (1) the application is denied by the Board, or (2) if the application is granted, upon timely receipt of correctly completed registration and log of well, or (3) if said permit location is abandoned without having been drilled, upon return and surrender of said permit marked "abandoned" by the applicant.

The vote by the Directors will allow the District to publish the proposed rules change in one or more area newspapers at least once a week for two consecutive weeks. After meeting this legal requirement the new rule will become effective on September 1, 1978.

The Board also heard a report from Don Smith, Assistant District Manager, that 262 open holes have been found in Lubbock County as a result of a recent field survey taken by the District. Letters were sent to the owners of the land where the wells are situated advising them of the potentially hazardous situation and asking them to properly close the open well holes.

In the initial follow-up, 31 sites have been visited. Eighteen of the 31 were properly closed with eleven improperly sealed and two sites wide open.

Legal recourse to get the holes closed can range from a lien against the owner to a possible two hundred dollar per day fine.

In other business, the Directors were briefed on the recent report given to the City of Shallwater concerning its water supply. In the report prepared by the District, A. Wayne Wyatt, District Manager, reported that Shallwater had approximately 7 1/2 years of water supply left in the aquifer underlying the corporate limits of the City.

The Mayor and City Council Members already formed action committees to study various solutions that were recommended by the District. Wyatt said that there is "a definite problem and a definite need for some action; however, the Shallwater city leaders are already involved in considerations that should give them adequate time to come up with a near-permanent solution."

One-Time Successful Farmer Now Justice Of The Peace

His father moved the Ford family here in 1916 to farm. Ras went through the seventh grade in the rural schools of Liberty and Roseland and then to Lockney.

"I didn't graduate from high school. I just got all smart and quit three months before graduation. I got what I thought was a good job. I am not sorry I quit. Advanced education is no good for farm life," he says.

He began farming "on my own in 1928, pretty quickly," in fact, he began farming at Liberty the following year. He claims to have "pioneered machine age" because he "never owned but one pair of mules" in his life.

"I started driving a tractor at the age of 12. Let me tell you about that tractor. It was a big hunk of scrap iron with a 10-horsepower draw bar. It was a two-cylinder tractor made by McCormick-Deering. The total cost was $110 per horsepower, which was much higher than we pay for tractors now. "At that time you could buy land at $15 per acre. It took eight acres to buy one horsepower tractor that would last three years, maybe.

"Machinery is cheaper today than then. A horsepower costs about $170 today, which is approximately 3/4 of one acre dry land. This tractor you buy today will last three to five times longer than one would in '21 and will do 10 times as much work in a day," he says.

It was while he was farming a section of the George Meriwether land at Cedar Hill that he "took four hours of dual flying time" before he soloed. James Miller, who barely had his license, was the instructor.

"He taught me my aerobatics instructions. I was flying just for fun. Now we fly 160-horsepower motors. I was flying a 40-horsepower washing-machine motor."

The only thing that stopped him from flying was, "I never could fly to suit myself."

After he had quit flying for a period of 20 years, when he was 55 years old, he flew with Austin Beedy.

"I told him I had not flown in 20 years. I took the plane up for personal maneuvers knowing I had a good pilot with me. After we landed, Austin asked me how old I was. I told him 55. He answered, "I hope I can fly that well when I'm 55."

However it was not a plane "of the equivalent of a washing machine" that gave Ras Ford his "close brush with death."

"I came very near getting killed on a tractor. I always liked carrying a gun on the tractor to kill rabbits. Once, a rabbit stopped very close to the side of the tractor. All I did was clutch the tractor and shoot the rabbit. Un-thoughtfully, I took my foot off the clutch. The next thing I knew, I was riding behind on the one-way. I got off the one-way and got back on the tractor to kill it, then I went home. I couldn't drive that tractor any more! I was scared. Any time you fall off a tractor in front of a one-way, you are lucky if you make it," he says.

In 1947 he paid W. O. Speck of Plainview $200 an acre for two farms, one of 410 acres and one 200 acres north of Lockney.

"I have lived there ever since. At the time I bought the farms, my old dad had a screaming fit. There never was an acre of land worth $200 an acre as far as he was concerned. I was the highest that had been paid in the county for land at that time," he recalls. His sons now farm the places.

"I had the job of justice of the peace pushed off on me. People asked me to run, but I wouldn't. The last day my name was put on the ticket and I won the election. I was asked first to finish an unexpired term. My election was for a four-year term."

"One thing that people don't know-the justice of the peace and the constable are the only two people in the county that can arrest the high sheriff. The deputy sheriff cannot. The sheriff is only a citizen, and if he commits any type of crime, he is subject to arrest."

The official duties of the justice of the peace include the writing of warrants for any type of crime from bootlegging to murder. He sets bonds for any type of crime. The highest set in Lockney JP court is $50,000—an appearance bond cases such as murder, rape and second-offense people have set.

Any defendant for any offense may be tried before a jury "if he sees fit."

The constitution of the United States says you are free until you are tried before a jury of six, nine, or 12 jurors. "When people come in here, it doesn't matter to me if they just have a speeding ticket, I explain their rights to them. They can plead guilty or not guilty. And you can always demand a jury for any offense."

Any magistrate can perform marriage ceremonies, and any magistrate is automatically a notary public.

"We sign legal documents of any nature—transfer of automobiles, contracts of any nature, sales of property and wills. We witness lots of wills when they make them, or witness when somebody is made administrator. It's purely witnessing a signature."

"The first marriage I performed was a home wedding. The bride and groom were very nervous and upset. I advised them not to be upset, that this was no newer to them than it was to me. They settled right down."

"There was one wedding that I forgot all about and went fishing. I don't know what they did," he remembers.

Ford spent a part of 15 years in Mexico and other places fishing and hunting. He has fished and hunted all the way from Acapulco to Alaska, and he has his firm idea on firearms and gun control.

"It's the first step toward dictatorship. It's a constitutional right to own firearms. All outlaws will always have guns. If they know what it is all about, they can make a gun in 25 minutes. There is no way to completely confiscate all guns. I am 100 percent opposed to it."

Sports fans around Lockney are accustomed to seeing Ras Ford at all games.

"I am a character member of the quarterback club. There are only three charter members left—G.B. Johnston, R. L. Knox and me. The object of the quarterback club is to boost the athletic program."

"I have probably attended more ball games than anybody else living in Lockney. I like to be 'in the kids.'"

He does think we have "gone way overboard in athletics and in canned entertainment. He does not approve exploitation of children for public entertainment."

"I'll make this statement. I enjoy helping other people. I never had any desire to save up a lot of money. I enjoy spending it as I go along. I like what I'm doing and hope to continue just as long as I can help people."

Good Budget Buys

COLLEGE STATION - Budget buys center on vegetables and poultry at Texas grocery markets this week, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Also check for economy buys on cheeses—now in exceptionally large supply, she says.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

FRESH VEGETABLES—Look for best buys on zucchini and yellow squash, carrots, dry yellow onions and cucumbers.

Also, corn, blackeye and purple hull peas, okra and potatoes.

POULTRY—Eggs still offer a good bargain for high-quality protein, valuable minerals and essential vitamins. Be sure to buy from refrigerated cases and keep eggs cool.

Look for some features on fryers and parts. Turkeys and turkey roasts have reasonable prices.

FRESH FRUIT—Attractive prices appear on honeydew melons, cantaloupe and watermelons.

Varying price levels show on plums, grapes, nectarines, bananas and oranges.

Fruits with prices on the high side are Granny Smith apples (green in color) from New Zealand and peaches.

Peaches are more plentiful, but with the current high demand, prices are still high.

BEEF—Prices are steady for rising. Features are scattered, so check for advertised specials and in-store specials.

As cattle prices rise, however, cattlemen are more inclined to rebuild their herds, which eventually, will bring a larger supply of beef to market.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: Get acquainted with salad greens other than head lettuce, which has been offered at high prices lately. Then put salads back into the menu.

Pay attention to fats on labels and avoid foods with high fat content—this is probably the easiest means for weight-conscious people to keep nutrition up while losing weight, advises Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

On long shut-in afternoons, give the children magazines and scissors to clip those "money off" coupons, suggests Linda McCormack, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

FOOD SERVICE WORKSHOP—A workshop on "Purchasing, Handling and Merchandising Seafood and Poultry" will be held July 13 at Sbsa Hall at Texas A&M University. The workshop will include demonstrations on preparing various seafoods and chicken and turkey products. Emphasis will be on product quality and how to recognize it, points out a food technologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Registered dietitians will be able to receive four hours of continuing instruction from the American Dietetics Association. Information on registration fees and other details is available from Wagner at 713/845-7023.

VINES COOL LANDSCAPES—The imaginative use of vines can have a cooling effect on summer landscapes, says a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Vines may be used in several ways—on walls, arbors or other designed structures. Vines can provide shade and privacy; some, such as grapes, even provide fruit. To be successful, vines must be well adapted to the environment in which they are to be grown.

ACCIDENT CONTROL—For a yard with a steep slope, always mow across the face of the slope rather than up and down the steep grade. This will reduce the chance of slipping and falling onto or under the mower, advises the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

IMMUNIZING EXPORTED STOCK—Immunizing livestock being exported to foreign countries can protect them from such prevalent diseases as tick fever and anaplasmosis, says a veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Death losses run as high as 40 to 50 percent among cattle exported to Central and South American countries when they are not immunized. Veterinarians of the Institute of Tropical Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M will go to any location to preimmunize animals at a cost of $50 per animal.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

On July 29th, we were passing through the city of Floydada, Texas on our way to Buena Park, California when we decided to gas up and then we made a final stop at the Dairy Queen. We bought a coke and went to the bathroom. Then we all loaded up in the van and were on our way.

We were entering the city limits of Lubbock, Texas when I started looking for my purse. We looked everywhere but we couldn't find it. It was frantic for I had all the cash and travelers checks in my purse, except for a small amount of cash my husband had in his billfold. This was the money we had saved for our vacation to Disneyland. All we could think of was this is the end of our trip. We turned back to Floydada. We stopped at an all night store to make a call to the Dairy Queen which I thought would probably already be closed. When the phone rang and then there was an answer. I asked if my purse had been found in the bathroom there and he answered yes and they had taken it to the Police Station. Those were some of the happiest moments. I told him, thank you so much and asked what could I do to show my appreciation. He said when you come by Floydada stop and have a coke with us. I said thank-you so much again.

We turned and went back some sixty miles to Floydada. We came to an all night store where some boys were out in front and we asked them where the Police Station was at and one of the boys got in his pickup and took us to the Police Station or Sheriff's Office and we thanked him.

We went in the office and the lady there said my purse had been taken there and she called the sheriff or police officer and my purse was returned with everything in it. Oh, how thankful I was to see that purse again.

I wish to thank the employees at the Dairy Queen, who found my purse and took it to the Police Station, the boys at the all night store for being so helpful and the people at the Sheriff's Office or Police Station. More wonderful people can not be found. Our vacation turned out wonderful. We will never forget you all. Thanks again.
From Mr. and Mrs. Santos Perez and family from Frederick, Okla.

Congressional Candidates To Speak

Senator Kent R. Hance and George W. Bush, both candidates for the U.S. Congress in the 19th District of Texas, have agreed to speak at the second annual High Plains Agribusiness Exposition, announced Show Director Danny J. Cunyus. The Exposition will be held in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center on August 25, 26 and 27, 1978.

Senator Hance will speak on water development and Bush will address the audience on energy development and needs. The lectures are part of an educational symposium scheduled for Saturday's special events at the Exposition, Cunyus explained.

Question and answer sessions will follow each lecture, with Bedford Forrest of KVII-TV in Amarillo, serving as moderator, Cunyus said. Other notable state and local politicians have also been invited to participate in the symposium sessions but as yet are not committed, according to Cunyus.

Senator Hance has served in the Texas Senate since November 1974. He currently serves as chairman of the Water Subcommittee on Natural Resources and is also a member of the Finance, State Affairs and Natural Resources Senate Committees.

Bush, an independent oil and gas producer in Midland, earned his party nomination by gathering 55 percent of the vote in the recent June 3rd runoff. A former officer in the U.S. Air Force, Bush graduated from Yale University in 1968 with a bachelor of arts degree in history and received his M.B.A. degree from Harvard University.

The Exposition will be open from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, and from noon to 7 p.m. on Sunday. It will be free and open to the public, Cunyus said. Persons desiring additional information about the show are encouraged to contact Danny Cunyus or Karl Richey at 806-763-3851.

Let's Be Thankful!

If growth in energy consumption continues at the historical rate of four percent, our oil and gas supplies could be gone by around the end of the century. Even if the use of domestic oil and gas were held at current levels, both would run out in less than 50 years.

If we continue to import oil to meet our increasing energy needs, the cost of imports could increase to about $62 billion in 1985 and to about $120 billion in 2000.

America is developing the Liquid Metal Fast Breeder Reactor which can provide an almost unlimited supply of domestic energy. Thankfully, once America has those reactors, they will help fight inflation, protect American jobs and protect our environment.

Carnival Runs Through Sunday

The Catholic Church is sponsoring a carnival in the field behind the church (Southwest Fourth Street). The carnival are rides for children and adults; Mexican food, hot air balloons; and bingo. The carnival started Tuesday evening and is to run through Sunday, beginning at about 7 p.m. each day (possibly earlier in the afternoon on Saturday and Sunday).

Everyone is invited, according to Rev. Joe Bixenman, pastor of the church.

How To Repair Cracks In Concrete Sidewalks

COLLEGE STATION - If small cracks in sidewalks are becoming larger or uneven surfaces dangerous, follow a few easy steps to repair them, suggests Pat Seaman, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

To begin repairing cracks in concrete sidewalks, obtain the following:

- (1) Packaged ready-mixed mortar.
- (2) Epoxy concrete-"clear" type for narrow cracks and "gray" type for wide cracks and concrete breaks.
- (3) Wire brush.
- (4) Pointed trowel and wood float.
- (5) Heavy-duty paint brush.

Follow these steps to repair the cracks:

- (1) Caution-repair only when concrete is dry.
- (2) Chisel out the crack or hole wide under the surface (Figure 1).
- (3) Clean the concrete surface thoroughly with the wire brush (Figure 2).
- (4) Mix a batch of mortar according to the direction on the package. Mix in the epoxy concrete with the mortar according to the direction on the epoxy container.

(5) Using the trowel, put mixture into the crack (Figure 3).

(6) Using the wood float, smooth the mixture even with concrete surface (Figure 4).

(7) Clean the tools immediately with paint thinner.

(8) Work fast-most epoxies will harden in an hour. If the patch should harden before the operation is completed, apply a second coat and smooth the surface again.

For big cracks, spread the mixture over the full width of the crack until the level of mortar is slightly above the concrete surface.

If repairing a full break in the concrete, use the trowel to force the mortar mixture to the bottom of the break (Figure 5).

According to Ms. Seaman, homeowner benefits from repairing cracks in concrete sidewalks are:

- (1) A more attractive sidewalk.
- (2) Prevention of further damage.
- (3) A safer walking surface.

For the lowest new-car price, buy in August-before the new models come out, advises Claudia Kerbel, consumer information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Texas, 46th lowest in taxation

Comptroller Bob Bullock reported Monday that Texas ranks 46th lowest among the states when comparing state taxes as a percent of personal income.

The all-important measure of tax burden for fiscal year 1977 showed Texas state tax collections were 5.82 percent of personal income, compared to a national average of 7 percent.

California's state taxes were 7.75 percent of personal income and New York's 8.04 percent, Bullock noted.

He added that Texas' neighbor states stacked up as follows: Oklahoma, 6.91 percent; Louisiana, 7.89; Arkansas, 7.16; and New Mexico, 9.34.

The analysis was part of "Fiscal Notes," the monthly financial statement published by the Comptroller's Office.

The current issue also reports on federal grants, state and local government portions of President Carter's program that are of interest to state and local governments.

The state closed its fiscal year at the end of March with a balance of $1.4 billion.

government that makes it a crime to get something wrong in a news story is no fit government to live under.

You set out to track down and jail every reporter guilty of it and the courts will collapse from sheer over-crowding. The right to get at least a few things wrong in a news story is as fundamental to journalism as high rates are to medicine, or promising is to politics, or gossiping is to neighbors.

And when it's the government, as in Russia, that decides what's inaccurate, all the fun is taken out of newspapering.

One of the pleasures in life is seeing if a newspaper, whether it's The Beacon, The Hesperian or The Lubbock Avalanche got something right or wrong in its account of a meeting you attended. The pleasure is intensified if you figure they got something wrong.

As for columnists, the right to be inaccurate is practically a Constitutional prerogative, employed daily right and left. I'm too diplomatic to mention editors. If I were a Russian I'd be writing this from Siberia.

Yours faithfully,

It pays to read paper

ALPINE, Calif. (AP) — Three sisters from Holland will tell you it pays to read a newspaper story closely. They did and found themselves vacationing here after hopping a jetliner for 50 cents each.

"I was reading a news story on the front page of an Amsterdam newspaper about an air fare war between two airlines," 21-year-old Michelle Helendoorn said Friday. "The one airline was offering to fly charter passengers to the United States for about $60 per person."

"The last line of the story said another airline was making the same offer for 50 cents per person, but it was just for

So Michelle and sisters Ricki-Ann, 18, and Marieke, 13, who live in Leersum about 60 miles south of the Dutch capital, said they were the first ones in the line. An airline employee told them only a handful of people had inquired about the newspaper story.

The sisters wish to visit Alpine, which is near San Diego, was sparked by a story Michelle read about efforts to save wild horses in the United States. It mentioned Roy Kuphaldt, and after the sisters contacted him, Kuphaldt invited them to visit him.

PROPER PLANTING IS KEY—Requirements for establishment and growth of improved bermudagrasses—such as Callie—are the same as for Coastal and Common bermuda, says a forage specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. They do not become established and produce without good land preparation, weed control, moisture and fertility. Shortcuts in planting can result in poor stands.

What To Look For In Waterbeds.....Besides Water

COLLEGE STATION — Improved quality and more readily available waterbeds add to the popularity of flotation sleeping, says Glenda Moore, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Most people currently buying waterbeds are young — 21 to 35 years old — but other age groups are taking a serious look at flotation sleeping, she continues.

Furniture manufacturers are offering case goods or foundation frames in numerous designs and styles to match almost any bedroom decor — from early American to ultra-modern.

There are even two basic types of waterbeds on the market, the specialist reports.

One type is the water mattress that sits in a liner in a frame.

A newer type is the hybrid waterbed. A hybrid has an insulator pad over the water mattress and is completely covered with conventional type mattress padding.

When shopping for a waterbed, look for specific features and services, she advises.

Select a water mattress and safety liner made of high quality polyvinylchloride. Look for a support frame preferably made of metal.

The unit should include or allow the use of a heater approved by the Underwriters Laboratory (UL). A heater is a must since the cool water pulls heat from the body.

A difference in body and water temperature causes condensation which leads to mold and mildew. A heater eliminates these problems, the specialist explains.

The dealer or manufacturer should provide service, delivery and installation services. Many offer "satisfaction guaranteed."

A style that allows existing sheets to lower the initial cost. Today's waterbeds have a chance of leakage. The industry has standardized sizes and adds.

By Yvonne Steele
We have not slowed down on any activities this summer. Attending our bingo game this week were: Lewis Roberts, Lula Mae and Charlie Cottrell, Myrtle Burke, Alpha Kitchens, and Grady Cunningham. The winner of our blackout game was Myrtle Burke. Not only is Lewis Roberts an active bingo player, he is also active in other areas. Lewis and a cousin of his cleaned and repaired the Home's sewing machine. Our biggest activity this past week has been sewing cushions for the clothes pin rockers which we will have for sale. Helping us collect materials for a lamp constructing project were DeLinda Glasson and Belinda Stapp. We would also like to thank Herman King for contributing some quilt scraps.

We have had some additional activities in the last few weeks; we have four new residents: Howard Withrow, Crosbyton; Randall Whitworth, Matador; Grady Cunningham, Quitaque; and Alpha Roach, from Lockney.

We are saddened at the loss of James Dear, a long time resident.

Wilson Protests Insurance Rate Increase the nation. For example, State Farm has admitted its automobile insurance profits were higher in Texas than in any other state in the nation."

In testimony specifically concerning the workers' compensation issue, Wilson reminded those present that the State Board had granted seven rate increases in the past four years, and workers' compensation premiums in Texas cost the state's business community $800 million last year. "In spite of these rising premiums, Industrial Accident Board records show the average settlement to an injured worker in 1977 was less than 1.5 percent over 1976," Wilson argued.

Wilson then turned his attack on the largest workers' compensation insurance company in Texas. Using figures in their annual report, Wilson pointed out that "its assets have increased 371.1 per cent in the last ten years and 198.6 per cent in the last five years. This is in addition to a 231.9 per cent increase in the company's surplus, money set aside for investments to reap additional profits."

Testimony to the Board has revealed that out of the workers' compensation insurance premiums, less than 60 per cent goes to benefits for the injured employee. Of this 60 per cent, approximately half goes to pay medical expenses and the other half goes to payments to the injured employee.

(For copies of the data used in Mr. Wilson's presentation, please contact James T. Kitchens, Research Consultant, at the TILA Headquarters, 201 Westgate Building, Austin, Texas 78701, Area Code 512-476-3852.)

Homemaker Service Will Help Elderly

Sometimes the elderly and disabled just need a little help from a friend—or a helper—to remain in their own homes. Texas Homemaker Service offers the helper and the services that allow those 60 years of age and older and the disabled of any age the opportunity to stay in familiar surroundings. Without these services, moving to a nursing home or the home of a relative is often the only alternative.

Texas Homemaker Service provides light house-keeping, meal preparation, personal care, transportation and escort services and companionship to those whose physical condition precludes maintaining themselves in their homes adequately enough for entirely independent living.

Mature homemakers come into the home of the elderly and disabled person and provide as many hours of service as the client or his relative indicates if necessary. Payment is made on a sliding scale according to the client's monthly income.

That homemaker is also able to make a visual check on the condition of an elderly client and to call necessary local services and relatives when an emergency condition occurs.

For further information concerning Texas Homemaker Service, call Kathy Green at 983-3134 in Floydada.

Texas Homemaker Service is a service ministry of MBFA Foundation.

Millionth Visitor To "Texas" From Oklahoma

Canyon, Texas, July 12, 1978. . . . Tonight the millionth visitor is attending the musical drama, "Texas", in the Palo Duro Canyon, the great, million year old gash across the Texas Panhandle. This person is Treasa Melton of Madill, OK, formerly of Levelland, TX and is receiving a special welcome and gifts in front of the crawling image of one of the area's giant prehistoric animals of one hundred million years ago. The gifts included sets of Medallions from the Canyon and Amarillo Chamber of Commerce; a weeks vacation in one of several interesting parts of Texas, made possible by the Discover Texas Association; the tooth of a Phytosaur, left nearby 10 million years ago; a Kalanchoe from the Irwin family marking the shipping of over one million patented plants, like the ones decorating the theatre area; and a diamond, formed far in the earth over a million years ago. This diamond has been set in a Texas State charm. Since the show began in 1966, visitors have watched, listened and thrilled to one quarter of a million seconds of "Texas", in a theatre which would cost over a million dollars to rebuild. They have watched one five-hundredth of a million people on this stage, eaten one third of a million barbecue dinners and drunk more than one million cokes.

The winner will be greeted in a canyon greener and more beautiful than ever before and may drive to the end of the park to camp in one of the sixty camping spaces which have been reopened. To see "Texas" write Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call (806) 655-2182. It is wise to make reservations in advance.

TEXAS 4-H CONGRESS-- Some 500 4-H members and 50 adult sponsors who participate in the Texas 4-H Congress, July 18-21 in Fort Worth, will have an opportunity to learn a great deal about the Congress theme,

"Our Western Heritage and Horizons". More than 40 businesses of the Fort Worth area will open their doors to educational and heritage tours and visits by 4-H delegates. The tours are designed to help 4-H members understand the heritage of western culture and opportunities and horizons for employment and future economic developments.

A's Eliminated From NBC Baseball Tournament

By Doug Simpson
The Brownfield A's eliminated the Floydada A's from the prestigious NBC Baseball Tournament Saturday in Lubbock with a convincing 14-2 victory.

Ruben DeLeon took the loss on the mound for the A's, who closed out the 1978 season at .500 with a 12-12 mark. The A's scored their only two runs, first when Johnny Soliz doubled home Larry DeLeon. Later, the A's loaded the bases and Ruben DeLeon scored when David Marriele was hit by a wild pitch at home plate.

Stenholm Receives Endorsement Of Congressman Omar Burleson

Charles Stenholm received a public endorsement from retiring veteran Cong. Omar Burleson recently in Mineral Wells. The endorsement came after the two had appeared together several times during Stenholm's recent campaigning. Stenholm is the Democratic nominee to "fill the shoes" of Burleson as the 17th District's new Congressman.

"I am so glad you have selected as my successor Charles Stenholm," Burleson opened his remarks. He closed his introduction of Stenholm by stating, "I take great pride in presenting for you and with you Charles Stenholm, our next Congressman."

Burleson was on hand for his public endorsement at a Stenholm Appreciation Get-Together/Fish Fry. The more than 300 persons bringing the 106 degree temperature to attend the gathering gave both Burleson and Stenholm standing ovations as they each approached the platform. Stenholm was interrupted seven times with applause from his supporters.

Burleson, who is retiring after 32 years of representing the 17th District in Congress, noted that Stenholm would be going to Congress at about the same age as he did. "But I think he is better qualified. He is one of the finest young men I have known, and I have known him about all of his life. He's (Stenholm) well qualified and equipped to go. Better than I. I think you are going to have better representation. I think he is a man who can meet the challenges of the time."

Further praising Stenholm, Burleson said, "Charlie will go to Washington and know which way the citizens of this great country are going and if they are going in the right direction. He will be there leading. I have the confidence in him. You'll make no mistake by wholeheartedly supporting this man. That is one way we can know that our country is in the best hands possible," Burleson concluded.

Stenholm opened his remarks by noting that "It's quite an humbling experience for a man of 39 to be introduced by a man (Burleson) who has served this country so well for 32 years."

Stenholm continued by telling his supporters, "The reason I am here today is because of the people, like yourselves here tonight, in the entire 17th District. People are essential in a political race. There are a little over 1,000 people involved in our behalf. That's why we won the runoff, and that is why we will win in November."

"Our campaign philosophy will remain the same as it has from the beginning, Stenholm continued. "We still plan to run hard, talk about the issues, be sincere, and meet as many people as possible."

"Come next January, we will attempt to fill Omar's shoes, but we'll have to wear out another pair doing it," Stenholm said as he praised Burleson.

"Convincing 217 of my fellow Congressmen to vote the way we think in the 17th Dist. will be one of my toughest jobs. The way you fell we ought to vote on the issues that come before Congress is the way I will have to convince the other 217."

Proposition 13 in California was a great step forward in getting the rest of the country to understand what we understand in the 17th District. This is the way things should have been going a long time ago, "Stenholm explained about taxes. This is the way a nation should go."

AN APPRECIATION Get-Together/Fish Fry was held in Mineral Wells here with Marguerite Snyder of Baird and retiring veteran Congressman Omar Burleson (right). Burleson publicly endorsed Stenholm as his successor.

have never pretended to be able to solve all the problems. If Congress would vote more often as Omar has done in the past, not only would they be better off, we'd be better off and America would be better off."

"Texas is fortunate in that we have a pay-as-you-go government. If the people of the nation believe as the people of California believe, it's going to become a giant step in convincing more and more of us how to represent you, of understanding what you really want and would like to see out of your government."

Dave Clemmons of Mineral Wells was chairman of the Stenholm Appreciation Fish-Fry. Stenholm campaign coordinators Ed Hestand and Marshall Hamilton assisted with the plans and appeared on the program. Stenholm winner in the Democratic runoff for the 17th District, will face Re-

Texas gets cash payment from USDA for lunches

Texas is getting a $4.2 million cash payment from the U.S. Department of Agriculture to make up for a shortfall in commodity donations to the state school for school lunches.

The cash payment is to be used to purchase foods produced in the United States that meet specifications of the school lunch and breakfast programs.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carol Tucker Foreman explained that the "National School Lunch Act provides that states be given a specified value in donated commodities for each lunch served in their schools. If states are not provided with all the programmed commodities, they are given cash payment to make up the difference."

Value of donated commodities for the 1978 school year was programmed at 12 3/4 cents per lunch.

As of May 15, commodities actually donated and scheduled to be donated by May 30, end of the school year, amounted to about 11.05 cents a lunch. USDA's cash payments are therefore, approximately 1.7 cents a lunch. The per lunch amount will vary from state to state.

Nationwide, cash payments by USDA's Food and Nutrition Service to make up for the commodities donation shortfall is about $74 million.

The notice announcing the cash payments appeared in the Federal Register of June 20.

ing. Either is capable of contributing to increased livestock production by as much as 31 percent, according to recent research.

Harvesting, though, removes all the woody material from the pasture. This enables the rancher to put cattle on the cleared pasture immediately.

With aerial spraying the trees are killed, but the woody material remains an obstacle to cattle attempting to get to the forage underneath. With other mechanical forms of mesquite control, such as rootplowing, raking, roller chopping or tree dozing, the forage is usually damaged to the extent that the pasture needs to be rested for a considerable amount of time before livestock can be grazed.

With all methods re-growth control is necessary which averages an additional $2.18 annual cost per acre using a tractor harvester removal system.

The study proposed, however, that the ranchers only bear a minimal amount of the cost of harvesting, perhaps as little as $1 per acre. The majority of the cost would be born by the processing plant, which would, according to Cauble, receive the wood from the rancher free.

Cauble said the proposed uses for the chipped wood ranged from livestock feed to fuel to insulation material to cheap building materials.

The system would be beneficial for both the plant, which would have a continual, adequate supply of raw material, and for the rancher, who could increase the use of his pastures and the efficiency level of his labor, said Freeman.

The amount of profit generated by the system would be affected by several factors, including distance of the pasture from the plant, the density of the available mesquite, transportation and labor costs and equipment replacement costs.

Freeman said the technology already exists to operate such a harvesting and processing operation. All that is lacking is setting up such a system.

The plant itself could be begun either by a private business or by a cooperative of the area ranchers.

Such a system could be beneficial for all concerned, he said, by providing readily available, low-cost raw material for the plant, and helping to increase rancher profits by helping increase livestock production.

participate in a Livestock and Money Symposium and party together.

The National Golden Spur Award will be presented for the first time to honor one person who has brought distinction to the industry. The award, designed to spotlight humanistic and scientific contributions of the livestock and ranching industries to society, is sponsored by six organizations.

They are the American Quarter Horse Association, the National Cattlemen's Association, the National Wool Growers Association, the Ranching Heritage Association, the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

The Ranching Heritage Association is headquartered in Lubbock, and it will hold its annual Ranch Day Saturday, Sept. 23, at the Ranching Heritage Center of The Museum of Texas Tech University. The center is a 12-acre outdoor exhibit of authentic ranching structures, furnishings and paraphernalia depicting the history of ranching in America.

The National Golden Spur Award sponsors, with the Texas Cattle Feeders Association and the Texas Tech University College of Agricultural Sciences, will sponsor the Livestock and Money Symposium.

Events will begin at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 22, with the symposium, expected to attract participants of national prominence discussing, in morning sessions, government regulations as they affect the livestock industry and, in the afternoon, production problems including economic factors as well as the end product.

The symposium is expected to end at 2:30 p.m., and at 6:30 p.m. a Prairie Party will begin in the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. More than 1,000 are expected to attend.

The National Golden Spur Award will be presented at the Prairie Party. Entertainment will include a parade of historic fashions and historic ranch music. Artist John Meigs is designer for the decorations. Dancing will follow the program.

For participants who intend to make a weekend of the events there will be the Texas Tech-Arizona football game in Jones Stadium in Lubbock Saturday night.

Tickets to the symposium, including a luncheon, are $15 and Prairie Party tickets are the same with tables of eight selling for $120. Additional information may be obtained by writing any of the sponsors or the Ranching Heritage Association, P.O. Box 4499, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

Invest Mesquite Trees!

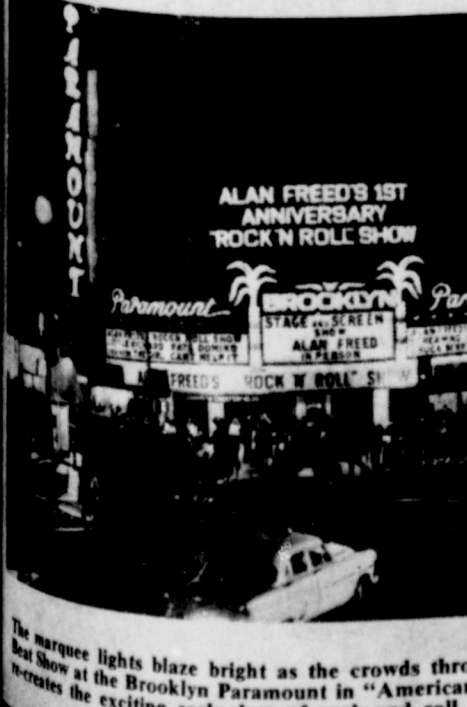

A new look at harvesting shows that one of the most economical means for mesquite forage is by Douglas G. Freeman, Texas Tech University. Cauble was supervised in his study by Dr. Billy G. Freeman, Tech professor of agricultural economics. Harvesting is more expensive than the most common form of mesquite control, aerial spraying. The annual cost per acre for harvesting was approximately $21.18 in the study, versus approximately $5.99 for aerial spray-

Olney runs out of pipe before end

OLNEY, Texas (AP)—Olney residents still don't have water from Lake Kickapoo, but it's just over the hill.

More than 300 Olney men volunteered to lay a 14-mile water pipeline from the town to the lake when a drought condition here reached crisis proportions, but Saturday they ran out of pipe just about a mile from the proposed end of the line.

There has been just more than a half inch of rain here in the past four years and the North Central Texas city's water supply is dwindling fast.

Recently, state officials told city leaders they could have materials if they would provide the labor for the pipeline to the lake. Lake Kickapoo is owned by Wichita Falls, and Olney bought the right to pump water from it.

Mayor Al Myers Sunday said volunteers completed about 13 miles by 2 p.m. Saturday.

"We got on the phone today and located some pipe and we'll be back out there next Saturday to finish up," he said.

He estimated it will only take about two hours to finish laying the pipe.

Temperatures in Olney Saturday hit 116, the nation's high, but Myers said the town's women were working alongside the men, providing food and cool drinks.

"It has been a tremendous community effort," Myers said.

"It'll take time to get the pumps laid and set after the pipeline's through, but we hope for water through that line in three weeks. That's our goal," he said.

"After that, we're gonna have a big celebration."

ACCIDENT CONTROL

Busy farmers and ranchers often work non-stop until fatigued. And fatigue can mean lowered work efficiency and increased accident-producing errors. The Texas Agricultural Extension Service advises an occasional "break" to fight fatigue and to reduce the risk of costly accidents.

LAWRENCE ALBERT, FRIEND OF THE POOR

Lawrence Albert's story might be considered to have a sad ending. But he doesn't admit the story is ended.

He had grown up poor. He knew the embarrassment of wearing shoes held together by string. But he became the successful owner of two dry cleaning businesses in St. Louis and a tavern that was a popular meeting place for blacks in that city.

One night in 1966, when Mr. Albert saw in a TV show, children in Mississippi who were starving and cold, he was deeply moved. Within two weeks, two truck loads of clothing and food were rolling south. Then he realized there were barefoot kids in his own neighborhood. He went to shoe dealers and manufacturers for help. He recruited friends and social workers. The result was Aunts and Uncles, Inc., an organization with 500 members who contribute $12 a year, enough to provide six children with shoes at cost.

Lawrence Albert and volunteers fitted and gave free shoes to thousands of children. He had turned over half of one of his dry cleaning establishments for storage and weekly distribution. But the neighborhood was deteriorating. Robberies wiped out the shoe supply three times. Business went downhill and he had to close one store. The tavern was robbed; he closed that. His health failed. Then a fire destroyed his last source of income, and the wholesale shoe supply. He was broke. Already involved, friends took over Aunts and Uncles, Inc.

"I can't explain why," says the ill man, "but I never did want to give up." He plans a comeback when his health returns. "My main concern now is about a generation of kids who have got to learn to become involved."

PIONEER NATURAL GAS COMPANY

As It Looks From Here

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C.—PEOPLE ARE ASKING IF WASHINGTON HAS received the "message" from California's adoption of Proposition 13. The answer is definitely yes.

AS A MATTER OF FACT, FOR THE LAST SEVERAL MONTHS, momentum has been gathering for the reduction of taxes at all levels of Government. The California action is spurring efforts in many States, including our own State of Texas, to reduce taxes. On the Federal level there is reasonable certainty that when a tax bill is enacted by the Congress, there will be a reduction of approximately $15 billion - $10 billion for individual taxpayers and $5 billion for business.

THERE IS ALSO GREAT MOMENTUM TO REDUCE TAX ON CAPITAL GAINS from its present rate of about 49% to at least 35% or possibly to 25%, which was the rate before the tax act of 1969.

WHEN A TAX BILL IS BROUGHT UP FOR CONSIDERATION BEFORE THE year is out, there will be a proposal to cut income taxes by as much as one-third. This is known as the Kemp-Roth Amendment which we will, in the meantime, be hearing a great deal about. There is no question that people are fed up with big Government, big spending, and big taxes. The weakness in these proposals for tax reductions is the usual failure to relate it to spending. In the case of California, the State is already looking to Washington for money to make up revenues lost by the property tax decrease recently voted. New York City has led the Nation in asking the Federal Government to bail them out of their bankrupt situation. Aside from taxes, the only way a State or municipality can raise money is through the sale of bonds voted by the people; the Federal Government can either turn the crank at the Federal reserve and issue more paper money or go out into the money market and borrow it.

THROUGH REVENUE SHARING AND GRANTS OF VARIOUS KINDS, the Federal Government is already contributing a substantial part in support of state and local governments. As taxes are reduced by local governments, Washington will be looked to more and more to make up the difference in the cost of various programs. Forty-four States have a surplus in their treasuries at this time, five States have a balanced budget, and one State is in deficit. But, the Federal Government with its huge National debt and a deficit hovering between $50 and $60 billion will be called upon to make up the difference to finance programs at levels before tax cuts were made.

THE POINT HERE IS THAT IT IS MORE POPULAR TO TALK OF reducing taxes, than reducing expenditures.

EVERYONE HAS THEIR IDEAS ABOUT WHERE CUTS IN SPENDING should be made. Some want to cut back on defense preparedness by eliminating some of the most modern weapons. We know that Social Security is not going to be trimmed and no one really believes that our expensive unemployment compensation system, costing $20 billion, is going to be appreciatively cut back.

THOSE FROM THE CITIES THINK THAT A CRACKDOWN SHOULD BE made on agricultural supports, others believe that our interstate highway system, the finest in the world, should be practically eliminated, while some feel that more money instead of less should go into environmental protection, industrial safety, and public health.

NO ONE BELIEVES THAT VETERANS BENEFITS ARE GOING TO BE tampered with and so on and on it goes with not very much said about how all these obligations, authorized for four or five years in advance, are really going to be shrunk to the point of real savings.

JUSTICE OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES ONCE SAID THAT HE WAS glad to pay taxes. They were, he said, his "investment in civilization". Most people probably feel this way too, but as we have said in this space time and again, the real complaint should be how our hard earned tax money is spent. So, firing one barrel at tax reductions is half the answer; the other has to shoot down high spending.
