BEACON LIGHTS

A WORRIED FARMER consulted a veterinarian. "One day my horse limps, the next day he doesn't. What should I do?" "That's easy," replied the vet. "On the day he doesn't limp, sell him."

TWO OPPOSING political candidates were in heated debate on issues before a large crowd. "There are hundreds of ways of making money," argued one. "But only one way is honest." "And what's that?" jeered the other. "Ah ha!" replied the first speaker. "I just knew you wouldn't know!"

A FEW BIG DAILY newspapers now sell their Sunday editions for 75 cents per copy. Some day the price might be $70.92!

YES, THERE IS SOME burned up cotton in Floyd County, but there are also thousands of acres of good irrigated cotton. County implement dealers and gins are optimistic about the cotton crop. The implement dealers are stocking cotton harvesters, the gins are getting ready for a big harvest.

A Chicago-based management consulting firm arrived at this price after it projected the present-day cost patterns of several goods based on their price trends of the last decade. And according to the firm, Manplan Consultants, the Sunday newspaper would cost $70.92 if its cost trends of the last 10 years continued until 2001.

The "module" way of moving cotton to the gin came into being two or three years ago and now this is affecting the ginner.

The only things less expensive than the Sunday newspaper in the firm's study were a bar of soap ($61.12), toothpaste ($62.80), and a pound of ground beef ($7.54) and a one-pound rump roast ($2.89).

AN EMPLOYEE who survived all sorts of personal turnovers and purges at his company was asked the secret of his miraculous survival. "Oh, they don't dare fire me!" he replied. "I'm always too far behind in my work."

Take heart, however, according to the study, a low-priced car would cost $105,000 (a higher-priced model would sell for $47,240), a pound of coffee would cost $39,642, while a small jar of jelly would run you about $113.98.

IT TAKES two kinds of people to make the world—poets to write about the glories of autumn and the rest of us to rake them.

We can hear editors in the next century arguing that the Sunday newspaper is worth every penny, excuse us, every dollar! It's a bargain even at $141.84!

Floyd Fair Time Nears

Members of the Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair Association have started getting the fairgrounds in shape for the annual fair, scheduled this year on September 14, 15 and 16.

Paul Koonsman, president of the fair association board of directors, reports that the fair buildings will be open beginning next Saturday (September 10) so that exhibitors can start readying booths, for the fair.

Returning to the fair this year after several years' absence is the gospel singing, on Friday night.

As in the past, a parade through downtown Lockney will mark the first day of the fair. It's scheduled at 4:15 p.m. Thursday. Also Thursday is a Shorthorn Breeders Association exhibit and show, another new feature of the 1978 fair. Most judging of individual fair entries will be conducted Thursday.

The big event Thursday night in the entertainment building is the Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair Queen Contest. Young ladies from Floyd, Briscoe, Motley, Crosby, Hale and Swisher counties are eligible to enter.

Friday is Women's Day at the fair, numerous demonstrations planned. On top Saturday at the fair are an arts and crafts show, old fiddlers contest, children's pet show, livestock show and judging contest, tractor-driving contest, and other events.

September 17. Other fair association officers besides Koonsman are Warren Mitchell, vice president; Clar Schacht, treasurer; Johnnie Jameson of Matador, secretary.

Postmaster Warns About ZIP Code Directory Sales

Postmaster Meriwether cautioned citizens of Lockney to be aware of door-to-door sales of incomplete or out-of-date ZIP Code or post office directories.

"Businesses and households in Lockney should be on the lookout for persons going door-to-door selling these directories. They are not authorized to do so by the Postal Service," Postmaster Meriwether said.

Frequently, he said, the person doing the selling will be a young person posing as a student who will use the proceeds from the sale to further his or her education.

A ZIP Code directory is of little use unless it contains ZIP Code information for the 480 major cities which have more than one ZIP Code. The directories being sold door-to-door often list complete ZIP Codes only for smaller post offices having one ZIP Code. In addition, the information in them may not reflect changes in ZIP Code assignments which are made periodically to accommodate post office changes and community growth.

Sales of incomplete or outdated directories have been particularly prevalent on the West Coast, in the Great Lakes states and in such cities as Detroit, Philadelphia and Phoenix, in recent weeks.

The postmaster urged residents to report any local incidents of such sales. The official 1979 National ZIP Code Directory, published by the Postal Service, is available from Government Printing Office stores in 20 major cities, or by mail from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402, for $7.50. It is also sold by several publishers licensed by the Postal Service. None sell them door-to-door. The Postal Service is testing Directory sales in local post offices, but such sales are currently limited.

MRS. BRUCE WILLIAMS

Wines-Williams Vows Pledged In Henrietta

Susan Renee Wines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wines of Henrietta, and David Bruce Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Teuton, were united in marriage in the First United Methodist Church in Henrietta on August 26 at 8 p.m. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Reverend Bill Murray, minister of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was escorted to the bridal altar which was accented with a basket of white gladioli and white spider mums, flanked by two brass spiral candelabra accented with greenery and white tapers. Spider mums and greenery decorated the pews.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Rick Offutt, sister of the groom, and maid of honor was Miss Diane Wines, a cousin of the bride. Both are from Lubbock. Greg Baker, friend of the groom, of Petersburg was best man. Groomsman was Mike Wines, brother of the bride, of Henrietta. Ushers were Rick Offutt, brother-in-law of the groom, of Lubbock and Gary Cawley, cousin of the groom, of Lockney. Candlelighters were Michael Cawley, cousin of the groom, of Lockney and Brian McAlpine, nephew of the groom, of Amarillo. They wore matching choir robes.

The bride wore a formal length gown of ivory satin organza fashioned with a scalloped peau-d'ange lace ruffle at the high Victorian neckline. The long slender lace sleeves were etched with beads and ended with a flared ruffle at the wrists. An overlay of lace in a deep oval, edged with ruffles of lace, formed a yoke on the bodice of the princess-line dress. A deep ruffle of lace formed the hemline of the skirt and full chapel train. Seed pearls accented the yoke and sleeves. The headpiece was a matching Juliet cap holding 3 tiers of illusion. She carried a colonial style bouquet of gardenias.

Following tradition, the bride borrowed a gold wedding band which belonged to her great grandmother Benson, who married in 1894. She wore a blue garter and in her shoe were pennies with the year of birth of the bride and groom. She also carried an embroidered linen handkerchief for something new, given by her aunt Mrs. R. I. Snook. She carried a white Bible belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rick Offutt.

Bridal attendants were attired in identical gowns of light blue, featuring a yoke of sheer fanastasia with a deeply flounced capelet bodice, edged in candlelight Venice lace. The lace edged the Victorian neckline and bottom of the floor length full skirt. They carried a colonial style bouquet of white daisies, blue miniature carnations and baby's breath. In their hair they wore a matching headpiece of the chosen flowers.

Miss Elaine Bunting and Mrs. Mike Wines sang "Evergreen" and "Wedding Song," accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Shultz, pianist and organist.

A wedding reception followed the wedding ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was set with a cloth of candlelight and bridal illusion edged with lace and applied with lace flowers over candlelight satin.

Punch was served from a silver service. Silver candelabra with candlelight tapers, the bridal bouquet and a 3 tiered wedding cake with cascades of blue roses with small kissing angels between the layers and surrounded by devils ivy and gardenias centered the table.

A blue quiana cloth and blue and white napkins with the names Bruce and Susan engraved in silver decorated the groom's table. A silver coffee service was used. Small kissing angels surrounded by devils ivy complemented the decor. German chocolate cake was served, along with coffee.

The bride is a graduate of Henrietta High School, and attended Midwestern University and Texas Tech.

Williams graduated from Lockney High and will be employed by Dan's Auto Service.

Following a trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico, the couple will be at home at 300 S. Popular in Lockney.

The rehearsal dinner was given in Wichita Falls at Underwood's in the Crystal Room, on the night before the wedding. The event was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Teuton.

Grandparents attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Foster of Lockney, grandparents of the groom; and Mrs. G. H. Borgman of Henrietta, grandmother of the bride.

NEWS 'N' NOTES
(by Sharon Hillis)

FLOWERING POT PLANTS

Living plants are increasing in popularity for gifts and decorations. A few tips on their care can help prolong the pleasure received from these plants. Kalanchoes, chrysanthemum, tulips, azaleas and most other flowering pot plants will last much longer if kept in a cool location away from drafts. Never place them where heating vents or other heat sources can blow or reflect directly on them. If the room where the plant is used is kept rather warm, try moving your plant to a cooler room each night. Water is extremely important, since your flowering plant has probably been growing in a greenhouse where it has had all the water it could use, it will wilt quickly when deprived.

The soil should always be fairly moist to the touch. This usually means water about every other day. Over watering is a possibility also and very confusing since the symptoms for it are the same as for lack of water. Planting media must be well drained and containers should have a hole in the bottom. This usually will prevent problems from over watering. Light is also important. Artificial lighting is helpful but most plants will remain attractive longer if placed near a window or other source of natural light. Direct sunlight or placement too near glass should be avoided.

Consumers frequently ask about how to transplant their flowering plants into their landscape. Many species are not well adapted for garden use having been developed just for forcing purposes in the greenhouse. Most florist type azaleas are very difficult to grow and best enjoyed for their flowering period then discarded. Gloxinias and cyclamen are not good landscape plants for most of Texas. Although the chrysanthemums used for pot plants are usually not the best ones for landscape use, many will perform satisfactorily. If they can be kept alive until early spring, cut back to 3 or 4 inches tall, and planted in well-drained Flowering pot plants are great to receive or give for Holidays and special occasions. By giving them a little extra care this joy may be extended considerably.

MRS. CARL GIBSON

Matchett, Gibson

Married In Hereford

The bride's attendants were gowned in dresses of orange taffeta that were designed with a high neckline with sheer orange insert on the bodice yoke, bishop sleeves, and long skirt with an overlay of sheer orange material. Each attendant wore in her hair a comb covered with orange silk flowers. They carried brown wicket baskets filled with orange tiger lilies, daisies and touches of yellow and brown ribbon accents.

The former Miss Matchett was given in marriage by her brother, Ricky Matchett of Hereford. Her dress was a white, formal-length gown of sophisticated satin with an overlay of chiffon and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The high lace neckline topped a sheer chiffon yoke. Alencon lace sprinkled with pearls were applied on the bodice. The sleeves were of bishop style. The unadorned skirt fell from a princess waistline into a chapel water-train that was accented with Alencon-lace appliques.

Lace and pearls covered her Juliet cap that held a blusher veil. The bridal bouquet was a circular design of yellow daisies with touches of orange, baby's breath and brown ribbon.

The attendants' baskets of flowers were arranged to form the centerpiece on the reception table. The white satin table cloth was trimmed with orange bows. The three-tiered cake was decorated with orange and yellow chrysanthemums and was topped with a kissing couple figurine enclosed in a blush of blossoms.

Reception attendants were Mrs. Jerry Neuman of Stamford, Mrs. Sonny Pittcock of Rule and Mrs. S.M. Hayes of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

For the wedding trip to the Dallas area, the new Mrs. Gibson chose a belted dress of brown and dusty rose with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will be at home in Pampa. He is employed by Far-Tex Custom Feeders.

Both were spring graduates of West Texas State College in Canyon. She was graduated from Hereford High School and he is a graduate of Lockney High School.

Kiss A Baby For Cystic Fibrosis

The 1978 Kiss A Baby Week Campaign of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation begins September 18 in the Floydada area, and Chairman Judy Dunlap is asking volunteers to donate their time to fund raising activities.

"I'm looking for people who can give a little of their time so that millions of lung-damaged children across the United States can live longer, more normal lives," said Judy Dunlap of the Lone Star Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. "Just breathing is a struggle for these kids. They must have constant care and treatment. Some must take as many as 50 pills a day to fight infection and aid digestion, and breathe a medicated mist from a face mask each day."

The much needed funds raised from the campaign will go to support research, care and education programs aimed at lengthening lives and finding a cure for Cystic Fibrosis. These programs include support for more than 100 Cystic Fibrosis Centers across the nation which provide diagnosis, treatment and referral to children suffering from asthma, chronic bronchitis, "childhood emphysema," and recurrent pneumonia, as well as cystic fibrosis.

"In addition to finding a cure for C/F," said Dunlap, "researchers are hoping to find a test to detect carriers of the C/F gene, and also a method of diagnosing the disease at birth. Early diagnosis and treatment helps extend and improve lives."

"In 1955, when the C/F Foundation was established, most children with C/F died before reaching 3 years of age. Now more than 50% can be expected to live past age 18. But, we want to make it possible for all children with cystic fibrosis to live normal, full lives." Volunteers can help," she added, by giving of their time to support the giving of the most precious gift of all—the Breath of Life."

What Would You Say If You Couldn't Vote?

AUSTIN -- "What would you say if on election day you were told you could not vote? How precious would this right become if you no longer had the option to exercise it? Many people in this state have made this decision, most unknowingly, and removed themselves from the electoral process by not registering to vote. On election day the highest percentage of citizen participation is in voter apathy. People have found it easier to not be involved in the politics and policies of their community, state and nation. But these citizens fail to realize this democracy in which we live affords us the proposition of governing ourselves through the rightful election of our leaders. With this freedom comes the responsibility to choose the best one. If a candidate for public office is mediocre, this is his fault; but if the mediocre candidate wins, this is the fault of the free system which elected him. "By saying 'I don't vote because my ballot does not count' and then exercising this prerogative, you have automatically removed yourself and your voice from the political decisions which will affect you directly. This vacancy at the poll is, and will continue to be, filled by a small percentage of citizens who take the time to vote. It will be their decision, made by ballot, which will determine the political destiny of your community, by deciding your elected leadership. "The first part of a voting equation is registering to vote. Texas, through recent changes in its voter registration laws, has made registration easier and more convenient than ever before. The voter registration application is postage-free, bilingual, and available at many locations frequented by the public throughout this state, or at your county tax assessor-collector's office. "Today, there are over eight million eligible voters, but only five million have registered to vote. This leaves over three million eligible citizens who are not registered to vote and are therefore silent on election day. I do not believe these unregistered citizens have made a deliberate commitment to not exercise their franchise and register to vote. I do not believe these citizens represent a conscious expression of a loss of faith in our democratic form of government. I do believe these unregistered citizens were unknowingly disenfranchised, and given the opportunity, will reinstate themselves in this state's electoral process. "There are only a limited number of days in which you can register and be eligible to vote in the November 7th general election. All voter registration applications must be received no later than midnight, October 8th. The time is short, but with your support and assistance as a concerned citizen, this project will enable eligible persons to register to vote. If you are not registered to vote, register! If a member of your family or a friend is not registered to vote, make the commitment to have them register by filling out a voter registration application before the October 8th deadline. "Voter apathy can only be overcome through individual participation in seeking to include all people in the decision-making process known as democracy. It is a person is not included in the democratic system, a fellow citizen should take the responsibility to assist that voter in reinstating himself in the affairs of his community, state and nation. It is the role of government to furnish, by direction of the people it serves, the means for its citizens to remain involved in the decision-making process of government; but it is the role of citizenship to insure the involvement of all our people. Register and then vote! It will be time well spent; not only to insure your future, but to insure a future of freedom for state and nation. If you have any questions concerning voter registration or need assistance, please contact the Secretary of State's office at the toll-free number of 1-800-252-9333."

Lake Mackenzie Is Now Clear

Fishing has been good for channel catfish, crappie and bass at Lake Mackenzie. Nice stringers of crappie have been caught although most of the fish have been small up to one pound. A few smallmouth bass have been caught. The lake has dropped ten inches during the summer and is now clear.

ACCIDENT CONTROL
Animals may be responsible for about 10 percent of farm and ranch injuries, according to the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Some of these can be prevented by just "care and kindness"—that is, not teasing or mistreating animals. Let animals know you are around; don't startle them. And keep walking surfaces dry and clear of clutter.

The Answers to PAR GOLF

THE AUTHOR:

Kris Morgan Wise took up the game of golf in 1960. Like most beginners, he found the golf swing to be the most difficult part of the game. Frustrated by years of failure to improve by using traditional methods, Wise was determined to find the real answers to the classic golf swing. An engineer by training, Wise was familiar with the laws of physics and their relationship to golf, and by applying this knowledge to his golf game, Wise devised a series of unique exercises which helped him to master the game.

Wise currently resides in San Diego and is employed at San Diego State University. Outside the University, his main interest is golf; his spare time is spent developing his golf theories and giving golf lessons. Wise also gives tennis lessons, and is working on a book about the tennis stroke.

THE BOOK

You can play scratch golf by using a few easy techniques. The Answers to Par Golf shows you how. Kris Wise covers all aspects of your golf swing, from its relation to the laws of physics to the actual movement of the swing itself, with each movement fully illustrated.

Step by step, the author shows you how to develop a free-flowing natural golf swing. He has also developed innovative exercises to aid in perfecting your swing.

Whether you are a beginner or an expert, The Answers to Par Golf will shave strokes from your game.

Highway Patrol To Watch Around The Clock Labor Day Holiday

Regional Commander, Major C.W. Bell of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region 5, comprising of 60 counties, is optimistic for a safer Labor Day Weekend 1978. Last year, Texas lost only 27 in fatal crashes on the highways. This is the lowest number killed in traffic accidents on a Labor Day Weekend since 1966, when the death toll was only 23. Major Bell said, "Holiday traffic will be heavy near recreational areas such as lakes and camp grounds. The Texas motorist should be extra careful for children playing and for motorcycles. Both are difficult to recognize by the motorist in these crowded places." Bell said that the drinking driver still poses a problem in traffic. He urges the motorists to cooperate with all law enforcement agencies in helping to reduce loss of life by being especially alert for the drunken driver.

The Texas Department of Public Safety will have all its uniform personnel available around the clock during Labor Day Operation Motorcade 1978. These troopers will be on the lookout for the DWI and speeding driver, since these are the major causes of fatal crashes. The past few years have indicated that a type of vehicle is a source of death on highways. This vehicle is the motorcycle. Motorcyclists are not wearing their head gear, and the overwhelming weight of the helmet is not used.

The DPS is making people who care about human lives. The job. Also, the Texas motorist will find that it is more than willing to direct the troopers to the proper and safe areas. The DPS is making the troopers to obtain help. Troopers on the roadways in order to proper security while these long roadways during the Day Weekend.

Major Bell is saving. "More people killed in Texas each traffic than are killed handgun. These deaths are just as needless, and as those by the handgun not nearly as well zed."

Do You Like The Fish Report?

CANYON -- A weekly fishing report for most of the public lakes in the Texas Panhandle has furnished local anglers with up-to-date fishing conditions and the report was done voluntarily by fishery personnel stationed at the P&WD Canyon laboratory during the past two fishing seasons.

This report is considered as a method of increasing the fishing opportunities for all anglers and Joe Kraai, fishery project biologist, would like comments from the public indicating whether he should schedule a similar fishing report next summer or eliminate it from his agenda.

Letters or phone calls should be directed to Joe Kraai, fishery biologist, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, P.O. Box 835, Canyon, Tx. 79015-806/655-4341.

Even though the reports for the summer 1978 are being completed, some of the fishing in the Panhandle occurs in the shallow water. As the water temperatures drop, gamals into shallow water they actively feed available to the species of fish including walleye, largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, northern pike and become more active in winter.

Fishing is more enjoyable at this time of the year less competition from anglers and swimmers weather can be good and cool fronts and to bite better weather barometer is rising.

Check Credentials Of Person Claiming To Be IRS Employee

Taxpayers should ask to see the credentials of all persons identifying themselves as Internal Revenue Service employees, the IRS said.

From time to time, individuals have posed as employees of the Internal Revenue Service to collect money for what these imposters refer to as unpaid taxes.

Taxpayers should bear in mind that every public contact IRS employee carries distinctive identification and is required to produce identification when conducting official business.

If, after seeing an individual's identification, a taxpayer still doubts his authenticity, the taxpayer should immediately call his or her nearest IRS office.

Speak Out About TV Advertising Aimed At Children

It's time for concerned parents to speak out about television advertisements aimed at children, a consumer information specialist urges.

The Federal Trade Commission has recently proposed a regulation which would:

- (1) Ban TV advertising directed at children too young to understand its selling purpose,
- (2) ban TV advertising of sugared food products most likely to cause tooth decay that is directed to, or seen by, audiences that include a significant proportion of older children, and

(3) require nutrition or health disclosures that will balance TV advertising of other sugared foods directed to, or seen by, a significant proportion of older children.

FTC will receive comments until October 24, 1978. Send these comments to: The Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. 20580.

These proposed regulations are the result of a report compiled by the FTC staff after they investigated television advertising directed at children, Claudia Kerbel with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, explains.

The report points out that the average 2- to 11-year old watches over 1,300 hours of TV annually and sees about 20,000 commercials each year.

Based on its investigation, the FTC staff finds the following:

—Many young children don't understand the selling purpose of TV advertising and regard it as just another form of programming.

—TV advertising aimed at children too young to understand the intent of commercials is both unfair and deceptive.

—TV advertising for sugared products is deceptive under the FTC Act because its fails to reveal material facts regarding the health hazards of sugar consumption.

Also, it violates well-established legal policies that protect children against serious and lasting consequences of their own mistakes and against adult exploitation.

CORN, SORGHUM PRICES UNDER PRESSURE—Good corn and sorghum prospects, both in the U.S. and abroad, will keep crop prices low in the coming months, contends a grain marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. However, yields will be down in Texas due to drought conditions. Corn and sorghum prices should be near the loan rate in the coming weeks although severe weather in the Midwest, such as an early frost, could boost prices.

HEAT PUMP

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

SAVING FOR THE FUTURE

Coin banks help teach children how to save for the future. You can save for the future, too, with the electric heat pump. That's why we call it the electric savings machine. This efficient heating/cooling system can deliver as much as two units of heat for every one heat unit of electricity it uses. But the savings don't stop there. With fuel costs expected to rise during the next two decades, the electric heat pump is a smart investment that will save energy today and in the future.

It's never too soon to start saving... with the electric heat pump. Start today before your future gets here. You'll be glad you did.

Law Discovered Which Requires Import Label

Texas American Agriculture, in trying to get a state law passed requiring labeling of imported meat, has discovered that such a law has existed since 1965 but has never been enforced.

Apparently, funds were never appropriated to enforce the labeling law.

The law, 4476-6, requires that any individually wrapped portion of fresh or frozen beef, pork, or mutton, including quarters, halves, or whole carcasses, be labeled with the country of origin at both wholesale and retail levels.

First offense carries a $200 fine. Second offense carries a $500 fine and 60 days in jail.

Texas American Agriculture had been working for several months to get such a law passed so that the consumer would at least have a choice when buying meat.

"Educating the consumer to inferior sanitation practices in foreign countries does not do good if the consumer doesn't know when he or she is buying imported meat," said Mike McCathern, Texas spokesman from Hereford.

In the zones, rain is almost always in the air on opening day. Almost all the birds are in the air and dry. It is a plus for the hunter. HELPFUL HINTS ABOUT INFANTS
Q. How is formula different from ordinary cow's milk?

A. In a way that could be very important to your baby until he's at least a year old. Formula is designed to contain the same essential nutrients in the proportions that human milk has. Cow's milk is designed for calves and does not have the proper amounts of all the nutrients babies need. Many minerals and vitamins are found in cow's milk in only very small amounts. Fats found in cow's milk are not easy for babies to digest. In addition, formulas such as Enfamil are heat-treated so that the protein they contain is more easily digested. Knowing the difference between formula and plain milk may help make a difference between a child who's a little peaked and one who's at the peak of health.

Kelly Lyons, Rick Reddy Pledge Vows

The First United Methodist Church was the scene of a 6 o'clock candlelight ceremony that united in marriage Kelly Lyn Lyons and Joseph Rick Reddy Saturday, September 2nd. The Rev. James W. Smith pastor, directed the exchange of vows.

Graduated candelabras joined with satin ropes and holding arrangements of brown and yellow pompons, formed an arch of candlelight in the altar background. Brass baskets held arrangements of yellow gladioli and bronze mums which were complemented by spiral candelabras.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Richard Lyons of South Plains; and Reddy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reddy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire styled gown of white silk organza and Venise lace that featured a lace bodice with Victorian neckline and long full Juliet sleeves. The full silk A-line skirt featured a chapel length train bordered with daisy patterned Venise lace. A picture hat of embroidered Venise lace held a double illusion veil that extended to fingertip length.

The bridal gown served as something borrowed. It was worn by her aunt, Mrs. Steve Weekley, in her wedding. Something old was a cameo pin worn at the neck of the gown that had belonged to a great-great aunt. She added the traditional blue garter to her attire. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart rosebuds and stephanotis showered with white baby's breath.

Nuptial music was presented by Terry Willson, organist, Melissa Hale, flutist, and Tammy Payne, soloist, accompanied by Shonda Fulton, pianist.

Maid of honor was Phyllis Johnson, and Tracy Reddy, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Mrs. Weekley of Dysart, Iowa and Mrs. Mike Hale of Lubbock, the groom's sister, were bridesmatrons.

Attendants A-line dresses of yellow qiana were fashioned with a ruffled off-shoulder neckline complemented with a satin ribbon and silk organza roses at the neck and yellow hats also trimmed with ribbon and silk roses. Wicker baskets holding cascade arrangements of yellow and bronze daisy mums accented in yellow were carried.

Mitzy Shuman of Lovington, N.M., cousin of the bride was flower girl. She wore a yellow eyelet embroidered dress fashioned with ruffled neckline complemented with yellow hat trimmed with ribbon and silk roses, and carried a lace basket of rosebuds.

Randy Fry was best man and Mark Gilly, Rex Rose and Mike Hale of Lubbock, the groom's brother-in-law, were groomsmen. Serving as ushers were the bride's brothers, Monte Lyons and Breck Stapleton, who were assisted by the groomsmen. Kyle Stapleton, the bride's brother, and Terry Westbrook were candlelighters. Male attendants wore brown tuxedos with yellow trimmed shirts carrying out the color scheme.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of apricot chiffon to co-ordinate with the bride's chosen colors; and the groom's mother wore a floor length gown of brown chiffon to match the groomsmen's tuxedos. Corsages of white cymbidium orchids were worn to complement their gowns.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church with Mrs. Larry Stovall registering guests. Assistants at the reception were Mitzy Hale, Jill Poage, Lisa Powell and Mrs. Mark Gilly. Music at the reception was presented by Terry Willson.

The Bride's table was covered with an ecru-cut-lace cloth with yellow underlay. At one end of the table was a crystal punch bowl and at the opposite end was a silver coffee service. Centered on the table was the tiered wedding cake which was accented with brown ribbon bows and yellow flowers. Cascade arrangements of yellow and bronze daisy mums completed the table decor. An elongated arrangement of white daisy mums and baby's breath was set atop the piano. The attendants' baskets of flowers in the bride's chosen colors were placed at vantage points in the room.

Special guests were the bride's mother, Carole Lyons of Huntsville, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cranston of Dysart Iowa, Vera Lamprecht of Waterloo, Iowa and Mrs. Cora Shuman of Abernathy. The couple left on a wedding trip to Durango, Colorado, and will return to make their home in the McCoy Community.

MRS. RICK REDDY

Reddy is a 1977 graduate of Floydada High School and the bride graduated from

Becomings
By Duffy

A definition. Worry: "the recycling of an ineffective approach."

Art Linkletter once said that he always worried (you know, the recycling of an ineffective approach) about getting older and not being able to do the things he had always enjoyed doing. He added, though, that once he arrived at the next stage in life, he found he did not want to do the same things any more, so he went on to something new and different with no regrets or desires to go back to the lost ages or the behaviors associated with those ages.

A better definition? Hope: "the recycling of creative life instincts."

...And speaking of cycles the seasons of the year are sometimes used to describe life cycles. A recent TV show explained life and death as a blade of grass coming out in the spring, being green through the summer and dying in the fall and winter...then the next spring another sprig takes its place...Well, that may all be well and good for explaining the continuing cycle of nature, but when it comes to me, I don't want another sprig coming along to take my place. I want to be here next spring myself!

And besides...in a football town like Floydada, the beginning of school and of football season seems to mark the time of "new beginnings" more than does springtime. So, I guess we could consider life as a football game: 1st quarter= spring= childhood and youth; 2nd quarter=summer=adulthood; 3rd quarter=fall=middle age; and 4th quarter=winter=old age. I guess halftime could be that time when people question "passages" and seek for new life meanings... But where do any of these clever or not so clever analogies get us? I'm still 42 and not holding.

Guess I'd better go recycle some of that hope stuff.

Lockney Care Center Family News

by Yvonne Steele

We have a lot of eating, working and just plain fun this past week. The fun began Friday when Alpha Kitchens' cousin, Stella Davis, brought us a large watermelon to be shared among the residents. Then, Sunday, Mrs. Bill Helms brought us another watermelon, which we also thoroughly enjoyed. Mixed with the fun of eating watermelon, we shelled some black-eyed peas brought by Lewis Roberts' niece, Cara Dell Dickerson, and also by Charlotte Carthel. Our hard working residents were Lewis Roberts, Myrtle Burke, Alpha Kitchens, Eunice Taylor, Howard Withrow, Ora Jacobs, Bertie Bradley, Clemente Jaquez, and John Turner. The fun continued when some of our residents got a chance to get out and visit. Myrtle Burke visited in the home of her daughter, Geneva Stansell. Willie Merle Haitheok certainly enjoyed her coke and ride around town with her daughter, Carolyn Hale. Also getting to visit was Lula Mae Cottrell who was able to get some much needed shopping done with her daughter, Addie Mae Jackson. Added to our family this last week was Ada Stewart, a Lockney resident formerly from Eugene, Oregon. Two members missing from our family are Claude Woford and James Turner who are in the local hospital. The Assembly of God Church from Lockney brought our devotional services Sunday.

Hunting As A Sport

LOCKNEY—Purchasing a new Texas hunting license is only the first step in preparation for the hunting season as equipment such as boots, hats, coats, stoves and essential gear should be examined and repaired prior to the season.

Shooters stored in a case or after that last and most of the season have not been cleaned or repaired prior to the season.

The time to get the firing pin rechecked and even a new primer installed.

Shooters have a quick check of their shells which should be purchased before the sporting season sales.

Hunters are having of our loved one. A beautiful bouquet of flowers, a card, and a letter to the staff at Lockney Hospital. May God blessings be with you.

tion from March through May indicates that Lake Meredith in the Texas Panhandle is one of the top fish producers in the state and rates among the top lakes in the United States for walleye.

Meredith fishermen were contacted at various access points about the lake where their catch was recorded and interviews with these sportsmen helped determine the total fishing pressure on the lake. By expanding these figures, estimates were obtained.

The average angler fished for 4.75 hours each trip with over 38,000 fishermen utilizing the Texas lake while catching over 63,700 fish in the process.

Walleye anglers caught 20,453 walleye weighing a total of 34,753 pounds for an average of 1.7 pounds per fish.

White crappie catches came in second only to walleye with white bass close behind with over 11,000 pounds accounted for during the period.

Over 1,000 smallmouth bass averaging 1.8 pounds each were caught during the same period.

The present creel survey will be continued throughout the summer and into the fall. At the completion of the survey, a second analysis of the data will yield an estimate of yearly pressure on Lake Meredith by anglers along with their estimated fish harvest.

FLOOD TAKES TOLL
ALBANY -- Rescue efforts by the Texas game warden varied from a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department patrol boat to a tractor during the recent deadly flood at Albany in northwest Texas.

"Several persons were stranded in a tree as I tried to get to them by boat, but the boat capsized and they were rescued by other means," said Sammy Rippey, Texas game warden from Albany.

Several persons were rescued from flooded houses in Albany as warden Rippey rode in the bucket of a front-end loader. The extreme high water level made it impossible to rescue the people by vehicle.

Four persons are still missing in the Albany vicinity and Rippey and other searchers are continuing to look for them by boat, horseback and on foot.

What One Person Can Do

KATHLEEN O'HANLON, BATTLE-FRONT NURSE

There is a 47-year-old woman in Belfast who knows as much about the horrors of Northern Ireland's nine years of terrorism as anyone. And she knows suffering has no politics.

Kathleen O'Hanlon is a nurse at the Royal Victoria Hospital, located in a barricaded area between Roman Catholic and Protestant strongholds. It is she who meets incoming ambulances and makes instant medical judgements. "The minute those people come through the door," says Sister Kate, as the ambulance drivers call her, "they cease to be instigator or victim. They become patients, and the ones who need treatment the most get the highest priority."

In this bitter strife in which nobody wins, Sister Kate ministers to the suffering. This is her life. Once in a while she takes a day to unwind and walk along the wild coast listening to the wind. But most of the time her ears are turned to ambulance sirens. Sister Kate tells of times when up to 150 people in shock came in within an hour. "This isn't a job where you can flap about and say, 'Oh dear, oh dear!'"

"One tough cookie," someone has called her, "but a great lady."

One morning a policeman, blinded by a bullet, came in not long after his friend, a soldier with a shattered jaw. She put them side by side. "The soldier who couldn't talk wrote notes," she recalls, "and I read them to the policeman who couldn't see."

Queen Elizabeth II, head of the Protestant Church of England, has singled out the Roman Catholic nurse to be a member of the Order of the British Empire. The best reward for putting our hearts into our work is to know we are making the world a little better for everyone.

Schools In Castro Show Pupil Decline

First-day enrollment in all three Castro County schools showed slight declines over the 1977 figures, with the drop generally in the lower grades.

Dimmitt High School enrolled 424 students, 12 more than on the first day of school last fall, but the Middle School with 635 has 75 fewer pupils than the 710 last year and Richardson Elementary's enrollment was 555 compared with 566 a year ago, for an overall drop of 74.

The totals for Dimmitt schools are those of Aug. 28 both years, but were practically the same as for the actual first enrollment day, school officials said.

Total enrollment in Hart High School and Junior High grades 7-12, reached 236 Aug. 24, compared with 247 on the first day of the 1977 term, Supt. Ted Averitt reported.

However, in kindergarten through sixth grade the Hart school system enrolled 331 compared to 389 last year, for a total decline of 71 pupils.

The staff at Hart still lacks one full-time bus driver, Averitt said, and he is taking applications for that job this week.

Nazareth schools are short only eight pupils from this time last year, with 332 enrolled the first day compared with 340 in 1977.

This is in keeping with a downward trend in enrollment for that district, Supt. Johnny Mason said. For several years the school has enrolled "10 or 12 fewer pupils every year," he said.

Mason said about the same number of students enrolled in the senior class, where 33 graduated in the spring, but the drop is in lower grades.

Prices farmers get for products show decline

WASHINGTON — The prices that farmers get for raw products as they move into the consumer pipeline declined nearly 3 percent in August, the Agriculture Department said Thursday.

The department's Crop Reporting Board said lower prices for broilers, corn, potatoes, cattle and apples contributed most to the decline.

However, higher prices were reported for hogs, milk and eggs which helped offset the price drop for other commodities.

It was the second straight month that farm prices dropped. In July, they declined one percent following nine consecutive monthly increases.

Changes in raw-product prices can take from a few weeks to more than a year to show up in changes in supermarket prices.

On Tuesday, the Labor Department announced that retail grocery prices dropped 0.4 percent in July following average monthly increases of 1.6 percent in the first half of this year.

Although retail beef prices surpassed their old record almost four months ago, average prices at the farm for beef cattle are still shy of their August 1973 peak of $51.70 per 100 pounds.

In August, cattle prices averaged $48.80 per 100 pounds after edging near the record in June with a $51.30 national figure and slipping to $49.80 in July.

Meat accounts for about one-third of what consumers spend on food, with beef responsible for half of that.

The overall beef supply is down because ranchers have been culling herds to overcome four years of losses and department experts say consumers can expect relatively high retail beef prices for the next few years until herds are rebuilt.

Smaller supplies of meat, fruit and vegetables will mean an increase of up to 10 percent in food prices this year over 1977 averages, government economists say. Food prices last year rose 6.2 percent above 1976 levels.

The worst part of the spiral is over, however, the economists say.

The crop board said that overall farm prices in August averaged 20 percent higher than a year ago. In June, they were at their highest in almost five years.

Prices farmers pay to raise hogs, meanwhile, held steady in August but averaged 9 percent above last year, the report said.

The board said prices for broilers and eggs were down by 1 percent from July but were up 1 percent from a year ago. Fruit prices, however, declined by 7 percent

With the cotton harvest approaching, producers are questioning Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, about the loan program, the "import-triggering mechanism" in the 1977 Farm Act and other matters related to marketing.

Thousands of acres of dryland cotton are to the point that additional rainfall won't help. Defoliation and harvesting in September could be advantageous. And that raises a question about the currently effective base loan rate of 44 cents per pound and the 48-cent rate that will take effect October 1.

In late 1977 Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland announced the 44-cent rate. Passage of the Emergency Farm Act of 1978 subsequently mandated a loan of 48 cents, beginning October 1. Cotton placed in the loan during September therefore will go in at the lower rate of 44 cents.

But Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service officials assure PCG that producers may request and get September loans raised to the October rate. However, as Lubbock County ASCS Director Walter Wells points out, most if not all producers will refer to make loan applications after October 1 to avoid doubling up on paperwork.

Loans in 1978, as in 1977, will mature ten months after the first lay of the month in which the loan was made, but in all likelihood loans can be extended an additional eight months beyond initial maturity.

Figures now show the loan rate for 1979 is almost certain to be 40.23 cents per pound, based on U. S. spot market quotes for the last five years as required by the Emergency Farm Act of 1978. The Liverpool "A" Index, now averaging over 71 cents, is not expected to enter the picture.

Will raw cotton imports affect this Fall's market prices? "Not under any circumstances we can imagine," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson.

As of the end of the 1977-78 marketing year July 31 the average U. S. spot market price for the previous 36 months was $9.34 cents per pound, 130 percent of which is over 77 cents. That's the level U. S. spot market prices would have to reach for a 30-day period before raw cotton imports would be authorized under the 1977 Farm Act. "Spot market quotations in July averaged only 6.99 cents," Johnson points out, "which means an increase of about 20 cents per pound will be needed before imports are triggered."

In the event U. S. spot market prices for any month should reach 130 percent of the 36-month average, Johnson continues, "a quota of raw cotton imports would be authorized, but cotton users would still have the problem of finding another country with cotton at a price low enough to buy and transport to the U. S. at a total cost below U. S. prices."

To complain about a particular product, first take the sales slip, product tags, label and instructions and return to the store where the purchase was made.

See the complaint department or manager, not the sales person who sold the item, says Linda McCormack, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Light colored draperies and curtains don't just look cooler in warm weather; they reflect sun and heat outward—and help reduce the load on the air conditioning system, says Pat Seaman, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

DIVE LINE

Facts from a pro on driving to survive.

Q. To beat the rush hour traffic, I sometimes stop for two or three quick drinks before heading home from the office. Is it true that a few quick drinks can make me a dangerous driver?—D. F., Alief

A. Driving performance can be affected by even small amounts of alcohol. Your body weight, mood and tolerance to alcohol as well as how quickly you down your drinks determine the extent to which you will react. In general, it takes an hour for the effects of one drink to wear off in an average size man (150 to 180 pounds). If you must have something alcoholic, space your drinks and have some cheese and crackers or some peanuts with them. The protein will keep the alcohol from being absorbed as quickly into your bloodstream as it would be on an empty stomach.

Q. My mother is afraid to drive over railroad tracks. How can she be sure to avoid a collision, especially at crossings without gates?—R. C., Cleburne

A. There are several devices besides gates that caution motorists to slow down and be alert for trains. Most crossings are marked by the railroad crossbuck sign and light signals which flash when a train is coming. The approach to some crossings is marked with an X and the letters RR on the roadway. When there are no physical barriers like gates, it's up to you to prevent collisions. Always expect a train and be prepared to stop. Even if the train is far away, it is difficult and dangerous to estimate its speed. Stop and wait for it to pass. According to Texas law, you should stop within 15 to 50 feet of the nearest rail. And don't start moving again right after the last car of the train goes by until you are certain that no other trains are coming on other tracks.

If you have a question on driving, send it to:

GRASS IN SHADED AREAS—To improve grass growth in shaded areas, prune trees so to allow some sunlight to filter through, says a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Grass requires at least three to four hours of either direct sunlight or all-day filtered sun. To prune, begin at the top and selectively remove branches at their origin instead of topping or stubbing back large limbs. St. Augustine grass is a good choice for shady areas. Mow grass in shaded areas one-half inch higher than surrounding areas, and increase fertilizer applications since trees compete with grass.

 Select only those frozen foods stored below the "load line" in the grocer's freezer to assure a quality, solidly frozen product, recommends Marilyn Haggard, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
 Active sportswear for all family members is increasing as a favorite sewing project, reports Becky Culp, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
