Mrs. de la Cruz was one of the first women to take an active part in the United Farm Workers Union, led by Cesar Chavez. She has testified at Congressional hearings on the minimum wage and the right to organize. "We have had opposition, but I just refuse to have enemies." Now nearing 60, she is still active in the union. "I don't think I should stop me," she said. "Each of us gives us ideas and by whom."

The Longhorns Did Wha-a-a-t?

Johnny Arjona's Field Goal The Difference

Johnny Arjona's field goal was the difference between a tie and a victory for the Lockney Longhorns. The Longhorns defeated the Littlefield Wildcats 17-14 in a game that was a roller coaster ride. The Longhorns led 10-0 at halftime, but the Wildcats came back to tie the game at 10-10. Arjona's field goal in the third quarter broke the tie and gave the Longhorns a 13-10 lead. The Wildcats tried to come back, but the Longhorns held them off in the fourth quarter.

down when they again fumbled the ball away. Littlefield couldn't go, they punted...and it was called back on a penalty...they punted again, fumbled the punt and Lockney had the ball on the Littlefield 25 yard line. Curtis picked up some good blocks, broke into the clear and raced untouched into the end zone for the first TD of the game. Arnold skillfully split the uprights for the extra points. After the kick-off the Wildcats started their "Gregory to Dale Demel" passing attack" and were threatening a TD on the Lockney 18 yard line when the halftime whistle blew.

Longhorn defense began to control the "15 to 83" passes, and took over the ball on their own 33. Quarterback Steve was sacked and the 'Horns had to punt. The Wildcats completed one 20 yard pass (15 to 83) then had to punt. The Longhorns had the ball on their own 30. The ground game really began to click; Joe, Curtis, Earlee and Placido Gonzales brought the ball back down the field. Earlee made a crucial gain inside the ten yard line when about six inches was needed for the first down. Coach Jim Warren called time out with just three seconds remaining in the game...decided to try the field goal with the ball on the three yard line. Arnold Alaniz held the ball at the 13. It was a beautiful evening weather-wise, attendance was good...and needless to say everyone from Lockney that is! enjoyed a delightful evening.

Senate Holds OSHA Funds

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 25 (Special) Senate action prohibiting the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) from spending funds before May, 1979, to enforce the cotton dust standards was hailed today by National Cotton Council President Lon Mann. Action came on passage of an amendment offered by Sen. Bennett Johnston (D-La.) to the Labor/HEW Appropriations bill. "We are encouraged by passage of the amendment. The Council had applied for a stay of the standards pending judicial review, but was turned down by the Labor Department," Mann stated.

"If the amendment can be retained in the House-Senate conference on the bill, enforcement of the costly and highly inflationary standards will be delayed until the Congress has the opportunity to examine their impact and feasibility," Mann said. Among co-sponsors of the amendment were Long (D-La.), Tower (R-Tex.), Bentsen (D-Tex.), Bumpers (D-Ark.), Hodges (D-Ark.), Eastland (D-Miss.), Bartlett (R-Okla.), Danforth (R-Mo.), Baker (R-Tenn.), Sasser (D-Tenn.), and Ford (D-Ky.).

A HOTEL AT SOUTH PLAINS?

South Plains Postmaster Retires

By Wendell Tooley Saturday was the last day for Mrs. Raymond (Nina) Upton to serve as postmaster at South Plains. She is retiring with 24 years service at the South Plains Post Office. She and Raymond are almost "early day settlers" for the South Plains community. Raymond has lived at South Plains all his life and Nina moved there when she was nine years of age. Back then South Plains school had ten grades and Nina finished the eleventh grade at Floydada High School.

The Post Office is located in the Upton Grocery store and Raymond has operated the grocery store for some 33 years. Fact is, the grocery store is located where the hotel once was in business. There was also a lumberyard at South Plains many years ago.

What does the future hold for the Uptons? Well, they don't especially like to fish...but they do have ten grandchildren to visit. They have a son, Ronnie, a systems analyst at Los Alamos, New Mexico, Jimmy, a systems analyst for Phillips 66 at Bartlesville, Oklahoma and Mrs. Karl Craig (Bonnie) who is secretary for Roosevelt High School. Her husband is manager of ICX in Lubbock. They plan to continue to make their home in South Plains.

National 4-H Week Is Here

COLLEGE STATION—Nearly 5.5 million young people across the nation more than 100,000 of those in Texas—will observe National 4-H Week, Oct.

17. Activities will center on the theme, "4-H Freedom to Be."

President Jimmy Carter called the theme "most appropriate for a program which is reaching out to all young Americans—rural and urban—from every cultural, economic and social background.

"For many," he said, "4-H is opening doors to a lifetime of personal growth and fulfillment. In learning by doing, through educational projects and through community involvement efforts, 4-H is providing useful guidance and direction to young people and making them more responsible and sensitive adult citizens."

"National 4-H Week is set aside annually by the Cooperative Extension Service to focus attention on the values of 4-H as an informal educational program for boys and girls 9-19 years old," said Dr. John T. Pelham, state 4-H and youth leader with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

THAT WAS FROM the "federal legislation prohibiting advertising of lotteries in newspapers." It means if I put anything about lotteries in the paper, they can make me pay a big fine or throw me in jail for five years. I don't want that to happen. So we won't print anything about lotteries. Drawings are okay, if you don't have to buy anything or be there to win the prize.

THE LITTLEFIELD WILDCATS must have field goal night mares everytime they think of playing in Floyd County. Last year Floydada's Junior Cuevas kicked a field goal the last two seconds of the game and beat Littlefield 9-7. This year Longhorn Johnny Arjona's field goal with three seconds left sunk the Littlefield Wildcats again.

JOHNNY ARJONA also kicked a field goal in the Post game and had a crucial one bounce off the cross bar in the Friona game...just a pretty good kicking too.

THE LOW PRICE of grain and the high cattle and hog prices should make a good profit for the meat producers. Of course we all know thousands of cattle are in the feedlots northwest of Lockney, but, are there any hog feeders still in the business in Floyd County?

SENIOR CITIZENS TO MEET The Lockney Senior Citizens will meet at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, Thursday, October 5 for a covered-dish luncheon. All senior citizens are invited.

How To Write A Resume

Writing a resume can unfold hidden talents, especially for "off-to-work" mothers, says a home economist.

As mothers and homemakers, these women have acquired a number of valuable skills—often those that employers consider the most important, says Linda McCormack.

They include responsibility, discipline, organization and planning skills and ingenuity, she adds.

Mrs. McCormack is a family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

TALENT OUTLINE Before actually writing a resume, outline talents and experiences first.

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. Darlene Broseh, an outstanding Floyd County 4-H member, has been named a state winner in the 4-H Santa Fe Program.

Darlene is president of the county 4-H council and has served as president and reporter for her club. She was named Gold Star Girl for the county in 1976.

List special areas of expertise and special "likes." Include such activities as money raising, extensive entertaining for husband's business interests, leadership of various groups, or organization of others.

TYPING A RESUME Type a resume on standard 8 1/2 x 11-inch paper, usually white bondpaper or a beige or gray with, perhaps, a slight texture if it really "adds something" and shows good taste.

For most people, a resume should fit on one page. Type name and address at the top of the page, centered, so a paper clip cannot hide it.

Include all formal schooling and training, degrees or certificates. List night school courses, scholastic honors, extracurricular activities, correspondence courses, and seminars attended.

INTERESTS AND APPETITUDES Describe talents and hobbies, including recreational interests, such as sports.

EXPERIENCE Under this heading, describe activities that involve important skills. For example, list managing money, caring for children, decorating or fund raising.

Area Towns Repeal Tax On Electric Bills

Fort Worth and Austin—have voted to repeal the tax on Oct. 1. Houston, the state's largest city, declined to repeal the tax, but has not yet notified the Comptroller of its decision.

homeowners and renters will enjoy an additional $150 million tax break with repeal of the four percent state tax on residential utility bills, also effective October 1.

The Texas Legislature approved the tax break during a special session earlier this year.

The one percent city sales tax on utility bills will be automatically repealed in all Texas cities effective Oct. 1, 1979 unless they vote by May 1, 1979 to continue the tax.

Cities that wished, however, were allowed under the law to repeal the local tax on the same date—Oct. 1, 1978—that the state tax is eliminated.

Four of Texas' five largest cities—San Antonio, Dallas, homeowners and renters will enjoy an additional $150 million tax break with repeal of the four percent state tax on residential utility bills, also effective October 1.

SHORTCOURSE ON GRAIN ELEVATOR FIRES, EXPLOSIONS—A shortcourse on the causes and prevention of grain elevator fires and explosions will be held Nov. 15-16 at Texas A&M University and Nov. 29-30 at the Texas A&M Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Amarillo. Purpose of the shortcourse is to illustrate and describe effective methods to control explosions in grain elevators, notes a safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

THE LEGEND OF ROCK MUSIC'S FIRST SUPERSTAR IS 'THE BUDDY HOLLY STORY'

The rhythmic revolution that rocked the music world in the mid-1950s told through the brief, vivid career of its first superstar is the subject of "The Buddy Holly Story," opening continues through Sunday — night at the Capada.

Gary Busey plays the title role in the Columbia Pictures release as the shy, lanky teenager from Lubbock Texas who burst on the music scene in 1955 with an impromptu recording of his own tune, "That'll Be The Day."

"From there," says Busey, who researched the Holly legend and his own memory as a fan to prepare for his role, "Holly went from strength to strength. He was the first rock 'n' roll star to write, produce, sing and play his own music. He was the first to successfully combine the black 'rhythm and blues' sound with down-home country music and created an interim sound and style known as rockabilly.

"He was the rock beat pied piper for a whole generation of performers, and every rock musician today owes him a debt of gratitude. Unfortunately, it's a debt that can never be repaid."

On February 3, 1959, while heading a touring rock concert, Holly chartered a plane to travel from Mason City, Iowa, to the twin cities of Fargo-Moorhead (Minn.) for a college gig. With him were two other well-known performers, Richie Valens and J. P. "The Big Bopper" Richardson. Their pilot was an 19-year-old without instrument training who flew into a snow storm that had kept commercial aircraft in their hangars.

"They never made it far from Mason City. The pieces of the plane were found the next day, scattered across an Iowa cornfield, on the outskirts of town," Busey recalls.

Poet and composer Don McLean called February 3, 1959 "the night the music died" in his hit album, "American Pie." Meanwhile, scores of music personalities — from the early Beatles to Linda Ronstadt — have kept Holly's memory alive by performing and recording his songs.

Holly's impact on other performers, says Busey, can be seen by his profound influence on the early Beatles.

"At first, they called themselves the Quarrymen, then Johnny and the Moondogs. But in emulation of Holly's group, the Crickets, they changed their name to the Beatles, and the rest became history. Among the first songs the Beatles recorded which they didn't write themselves were songs by Holly.

Years later, Beatle Paul McCartney purchased the publishing rights to all of Holly's music.

"For the next twenty years, kids who'd never heard Holly's name, were turned on by his songs as interpreted by such artists as Eric Clapton, Joe Cocker, the Everly Brothers, Fleetwood Mac, the Hollies (who obviously were inspired by him in the most direct way), Linda Ronstadt, and scores of other name performers. Recently, in fact, Linda won a Grammy for her recording of "That'll Be The Day."

A Buddy Holly Festival in England, says Busey, attracted a stellar lineup which included Elton John, Mick Jagger, Paul McCartney and The Who. "It was," he points out, "a rock fan's dream trip."

Busey, who appeared with Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson as Kristofferson's tour manager in "A Star Is Born," admits that he long had been a Buddy Holly fan when he signed for the role, and he knew much about the rock idol's career.

"I've been leading a double life for the past few years," he explains, "acting in movies under my own name and playing drums with rock groups as Teddy Jack Eddy. As a musician, I've worked with some of the best — Kristofferson, Leon Russell, Willie Nelson. So I've had the opportunity to experience first-hand how much Holly's music means today."

BH-63 Gary Busey is early rock 'n' roll idol Buddy Holly, and Amy Johnston is his home town sweetheart in "The Buddy Holly Story," a Columbia Pictures release, continues through Sunday night at the Capada.

notes Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, "but in marginal cases the decision is not so simple."

Working with area Extension economist Marvin Sartin, PCG has pinpointed some of the calculations necessary to wise decisions, Johnson says, but adds that there are variables each farmer will need to consider for himself.

Essentially the question is whether the price of the cotton will cover harvesting and ginning costs plus the difference between two levels of disaster payments.

Under the disaster program, producers who have complied with all program requirements and who gather their crop will be eligible for a payment of 17.3 cents per pound times the difference between actual yield and 75 percent of projected or payment yield.

For example the farmer who has a projected yield of 400 pounds per acre and harvests 50 pounds will be eligible for a disaster payment on 250 pounds, the shortfall below 300 pounds (75 percent of 400).

A recent program ruling provides that if a farmer elects not to harvest, his payment will be 17.3 cents times the entire 300 pounds. Thus harvesting would bring a disaster payment of $43.25 per acre, while not harvesting would result in a payment of $51.90 per acre, a difference of $8.65. Therefore if harvesting is to be economically advisable, the 50 pounds of harvested cotton and its seed must sell for at least enough to cover the $8.65 payment differential plus the cost of harvesting and ginning.

Sartin estimates that about 15 cents per pound of lint, on average, will cover the cost of harvesting and the excess of ginning charges above seed value. Others have offered different estimates, some higher and some lower, primarily depending on expected yield, gin turnout and seed value.

If Sartin's estimate is used, the break even lint price comes to 32.3 cents per pound. A lower cost and/or a price above 32.3 cents per pound would tilt the economic scale in favor of harvesting.

Yields, turnouts, seed value, ginning charges and availability of equipment and labor will vary from farm to farm and will alter the figures used here. So each producer will need to make his own calculations, Johnson says.

Other factors mentioned by producers pondering the "plow-up or harvest" decision include income timing, effects of rain or lack of rain between now and harvest, moisture conservation, and the advisability of using a defoliant or desiccant for early harvest.

Drought stricken, low yielding cotton on the High and Rolling Plains has producers weighing the pros and cons of two basic choices, to harvest what's there and hope for a price to make it worthwhile or "to give up and plow up," as one farmer puts it. Harvesting is out of the question for some of the worst fields.

HEAT PUMP

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

SAVING FOR THE FUTURE

Coin banks help teach children how to save for the future. You can save for the future, too, with the electric heat pump. That's why we call it the electric savings machine. This efficient heating/cooling system can deliver as much as two units of heat for every one heat unit of electricity it uses. But the savings don't stop there. With fuel costs expected to rise during the next few decades, the electric heat pump is a smart investment that will save energy today and in the future.

It's never too soon to start saving . . . with the electric heat pump. Start before your future gets here. You'll be glad you did.

Connally To Endorse Fisher

Former Texas governor John Connally will appear with Bill Fisher, 17th Congressional District candidate in Abilene, October 17, Governor Connally will support and endorse Fisher during an evening appreciation dinner at the Abilene Civic Center at 7:30.

"The occasion is billed as 'An Evening of Political and Musical Entertainment,'" Fisher said, "it will be serious, of course, but we also plan to have a good time." A committee headed by Jack Cox is now selling tickets in all areas of the 17th District. Cox ran against Connally for governor of Texas in 1962. "Tickets are selling for $25 each and sales are already going very well," Fisher said.

Remarks were made at a news conference at the Fisher For Congress headquarters in Abilene.
