Lady Horns Win Playoff!

playoff experience of the Lady Horns was obvious Tuesday night in when the Lockney High School defeated Abernathy 45-38 and won right to represent District 4-AA in Tuesday's bi-district game with home and away games.

Lopes were playoff veterans, too. It was the third year in the playoffs for Lockney seniors Stephanie Turner and Karla McCarter, and sophomore Rebecca Evans was there last year when Abernathy beat the Lady Horns 38-35 in the 4-AA playoff.

Turner played "probably her best game ever," according to Lady Horn coach Marsha Sharp. She handled the ball well, scored points (16 of them), went to the line with confidence (she sank six of eight free throws in the fourth quarter), and played good defense, too, Sharp said.

McCarter scored only two points, but she guarded Abernathy's highly regarded Ramona Irlbeck and held her to just two.

Evans was high scorer for Lockney. She netted 20 points, got on the boards well, and played well on defense also, Sharp said.

Tammie Hayes and Penny Sterling added four and three points respectively to the Lockney total.

Free throws made a big difference Tuesday night — The Lockney girls improved their percentage to 79.3 percent.

The Lady Horns started slowly — they made some crucial turnovers and missed some easy shots in the first quarter, and Abernathy was ahead 8-4 at the end of that period. They settled down in the second, though. They outscored Abernathy 15-9 in that stanza and took a two-point (19-17) lead to the dressing room at halftime. They led 19-13 at one time.

Abernathy battled back in the third quarter and led once by three points (23-20). But the Lady Horns were ahead 29-25 at the end of the third, and it was all Lockney in the final period. They

Men Driving In Adverse Weather Conditions

One of the main reasons for the increase in weather-related accidents is the application of safety equipment. Many manufacturers make products for cars and light trucks.

When driving on snow and ice, be sure you're carrying all the equipment you'll need to cope with adverse road conditions, including chains, sand, a short shovel, blankets, an ice scraper and matches.

If your brakes should fall while driving, try to regain control by gently pumping the brake pedal. It's possible the power will come back. If your brakes fail to respond, ease the parking brake into position and downshift quickly.

Beedy, Molinar Exhibit Grand Champion

TY WILLIAMS, champion Angus steer

 barrow's owner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Molinar of Lockney and is a member of Lockney FFA Chapter.
 Miss Pruitt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt of Floydada. She is a Floydada 4-Her.
 Owners of other breed champions were: Chester White, Dwight Jackson, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Jackson, Lockney, Lockney High sophomore and a member of Lockney FFA Chapter; Polands, Wyman Rexrode, nine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rexrode, Lockney, a fourth grader and a 4-H member; and Christy Pruitt, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pruitt, Floydada, a Floydada seventh grader and a 4-Her.

FAMILY AFFAIR
 Exhibiting for the grand and reserve champion barrow honors was a family affair for the Pruitts. Sisters Karen and Christy had two of the five animals from which Judge Windham picked the top two swine.
 Owners of reserve breed champions were: Chester Whites, Wade Jackson, Lockney FFA; Durocs, Kim Warren, Floydada FFA; Hampshires, Brian K. Emert, Lockney FFA; Polands, Phillip Kidd, Lockney FFA; and Karen Mathis, Lockney 4-H.
 The champion and reserve champion Durocs were litter mates. They were bred by Larry Barbee of Floydada.
 Eight exhibitors were called back into the ring following judging in a runoff for showmanship honors. The winner, selected by a committee, will be revealed at the exhibitors banquet tonight (Thursday).

Announcer Tommy Assiter stated that 137 barrows were in competition Monday. Almost half — 60 — were Durocs. Others by breed: Chester White, 18; Hampshires, 18; Spotted Polands, 10; and crosses, 31.
STEER WINNERS
 Ty Williams, 15, a Lockney High freshman, became the first steer breed winner Tuesday afternoon when his 1,160 pounder copped top honors in the Angus breed. This enabled the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams to show his calf for grand champion honors.
 Reserve champion Angus was a 1,052 pounder exhibited by Jody Foster, a Lockney High senior. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Foster.
 Shannon Edwards, 11, a Floydada 4-Her won the light weight Hereford class with her 1,115 pound steer which later became reserve champion of its breed. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Edwards of McCoy.
 Reserve champion cross was a 1,216 steer shown by Marty Covington, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Covington. A Floydada Junior High eighth grader, Covington saw his calf place second to Mark Beedy's in the heavy weight cross class, then become reserve champion cross, and finally called back into the ring to vie for reserve champion steer honors after Beedy won the grand champion banner.

 Kyle Brock, a 14-year-old Lockney 4-Her, showed his steer to first place in the light weight cross class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Brock.
 Dara Carthel was at the halter of the first place light heavy cross. A 16-year-old Floydada High sophomore, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gene Carthel.
 Todd Beedy had the first place medium light weight cross.

SHOW COMMENDED
 Steer judge Adams commented that he had judged a number of county stock shows but had never seen higher quality than calves exhibited in the '79 version of the Floyd County Junior Livestock Show. He commended the exhibitors, their adult leaders, and community support. Other judges also spoke highly of the animal quality.
 A total of 352 head of barrows, lambs, and steers passed before judges during the two days of judging. Fifty-one steers, 137 barrows, and 164 lambs were exhibited.
 Sweethearts for the show were: Beverly Burleson, Floydada FFA; Nina Campbell, Floydada 4-H; Ronee Thorn-ton, Lockney 4-H; and Lezlee Wofford, Lockney FFA.

Following selection of winners in all three divisions, several FFA and 4-H members were recalled to the ring as finalists for showmanship honors. The winners will be revealed tonight (Thursday) at the exhibitor's banquet.
Finalists include:
 Swine — Johnny Adams, Hector Araujo, Dena Casey, Kevin Evans, Phillip Kidd, Karen Mathis, Brad McNeill, and Mark Nutt.
 Sheep — Mike Allen, Darlene Broseh, Susan Hendrix, Jodie Smith, Doug Sparkman, Amy Jones, Tracy Womack, Curtis Ford, David Lee, Randy Ford, Mike Ford, and Danny Tinney.
 Cattle — Jody Foster, Ty Williams, Ricky Hefflin, Jimmy Covington, Todd Beedy, Kyle Brock, Carria Burleson, Mark Beedy, Dusty Burleson, and Danny Nutt.
 Edwin Nutt is president of the Floyd County Junior Livestock Show, James McNeill is vice president, and Larry Barbee serves as secretary-treasurer. McNeill was general superintendent of the show. Departmental superintendents were: swine, Roger Dawdy; lambs, Kenneth Broseh; steers, Larry Golden; and grounds, Harold Bennett.

 nitrogen stabilizers.

Get the most from the nitrogen you apply. Add N-SERVE* nitrogen stabilizers to your nitrogen fertilizer. N-SERVE cuts nitrogen loss by slowing the nitrification of the N in the soil. This helps the nitrogen you apply become available to the crop at a slower, more manageable rate. That means more efficient, effective use of the nitrogen you apply. Come see us for more information about N-SERVE* nitrogen stabilizers. Just look for the sign with the N-SERVE* policeman.

Lockney 4-H News

4-H members met Feb. 12, 1979 at the agricultural building in Lockney. President John Fortenberry called the meeting to order, and secretary Jill Whitfill read the minutes of the last meeting and called roll. The program was presented by Darlene Broseh. It was a slide presentation on her trip to Chicago by winning a Santa Fe scholarship. After the program, we talked about the Lockney and Floyd County stock show coming up. A new member was also introduced.

Trudy (M)

by Felicia Applewhite
Trudy (Merrell) Taylor's roots as a West Texan go back to her grandfather Merrell plant family roots here. Her aunt Dora Merrell Stroup, was born in 1886 tells of the family here in her story that she titled "Memories from 7 to 17." According to the Stroup story, Trudy's grandparents came from Merrell. They met in Texas. Before the grandparent's marriage, the grandmother had come through Fort Worth when Fort Worth was a small town. One house served as an office, store and home. After the marriage, the grandparent moved to San Saba, where they set up the San Saba River. They cleared land to make fields and cut logs to build a house. All the doors of the house were hinged. There were no locks. Each door was closed with a latch. At night, the doors were opened and closed. The latches were brought inside. The latching was usually made of hickory. Grandfather Merrell was a cattleman on a small scale. The country was a range. The big cattlemen wanted to fence. They tried buying out the small ones, but the little cattlemen wanted to fence. The situation worsened. The big cattlemen cut fences, kept sheep and poisoned sheep dogs. When that didn't work, they
