

Saturday Tornadoes Ravage Area

Twister Hits Sterley, Another Near Crosbyton

THAT DOESN'T BELONG
— Jim Bert Bobbitt found one of his cotton trailers partially mounted atop his combine following Saturday night tornado which struck the Sterley area. Bobbitt's farm is north of Sterley Gin.

"It sure is early for THAT to be happening!" people across the South Plains were saying early this week after deadly funnel clouds made their area debut Saturday night.

Damage resulting in several thousand dollars to farm equipment was left in the wake of a tornado which struck about 6:30 p.m. at Sterley. Jim Bert Bobbitt and Dan Smith suffered losses as the twister danced across that northeastern Floyd County community.

Although only one minor injury occurred, a tornado damaged six residences — two were destroyed — near Crosbyton about midnight Saturday after the Sterley funnel and another north of Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock County had left damage in their path.

$10,000 LOSS

Bobbitt estimated his equipment losses at $10,000. He had a combine, cotton trailers, and a stripper basket damaged, although other light equipment was not moved.

Dan Smith's center pivot irrigation system was severely damaged.

Bobbitt said that the twister formed in a field at the C.L. Henderson farm, west of Sterley Gin, traveled north of the Bobbitt farm, continued in a northerly direction to the Bryan Smith farm, and reached Dorsey Baker's barn.

TWISTER DESCRIBED

Randy Henderson said "the whole cloud came across on the ground, began to swirl and formed up" about one-half mile west of Sterley Gin. Henderson was in a pickup at Sterley at the time.

He described the funnel cloud as being "real wide — maybe a quarter mile" after forming, but "the part on the ground got smaller diameterwise as it traveled."

Bryan Smith and C. L. Henderson watched the tornado from Smith's residence. Randy Henderson, accompanied by his father, C. L., traveled in a four-wheel drive vehicle to check houses which could have been in the storm's path. Randy said the movement was north and slightly east.

He was told that the funnel lifted back into the cloud about six miles north of Sterley.

NO WARNING

Although a Saturday night tornado "watch" was issued by the National Weather Service for virtually the entire South Plains, no specific warning had been posted for Crosbyton or Crosby County before the "full-grown tornado" — which apparently never reached ground level — left destruction in its path about midnight.

The Melvin Powell residence, northeast of Crosbyton and near Blanco Canyon, was virtually destroyed.

Powell was taken by a sheriff's department vehicle to Crosbyton Clinic Hospital. He sustained only abrasions and other members of the family were uninjured.

The Powells are members of First Baptist Church in Floydada and are well-known in this county. The two sons — Dale and Duane — frequently exhibit animals in the Floyd County Fair.

An eight-month-old child and three other members of the Garcia family were thrown from a house north of Crosbyton. They escaped injuries, although the infant was examined at Crosbyton Hospital after being found in a rain-soaked field near the storm-wrecked house.

NEEDED MOISTURE FALLS

Moisture, welcomed by farmers and ranchers, fell across the area Saturday night, Sunday, and early this week.

The heaviest report was at Lockney, where "one-half to 3.4 inches" were reported from the Saturday night and early Sunday clouds. An additional .5 to .6 came Tuesday.

Hail also fell in northern portions of the county.

1.9 INCHES IN FLOYDADA

Ricky Gonzales, the weatherman at Pioneer Natural Gas Co. in Floydada, reported that Floydada received 1.3 inches of moisture early Sunday morning. Another six-tenths of an inch fell Tuesday.

No hail came in Floydada proper, but Gonzales said he had heard reports of the hail south of town.

The latest moisture should leave Floyd County farmland in prime planting condition. Winter rains and snows provided a "good underground season." Moisture from the latest seige has supplied good topsoil moisture which was needed after land was worked.

Another house was unroofed, a mobile home had its contents badly damaged, and two other residents north of Crosbyton were harmed Saturday night, FFA pens and an adjacent building, west of the Crosby County town, sustained extensive damage.

Lighthouse Electric, Southwestern Public Service, and General Telephone crews worked Saturday night and Sunday to restore service, clear lines from roads, and replace damaged poles. Heavy rains accompanied the tornado.

700 TWISTERS PREDICTED

The National Weather Service predicts that 700 twisters could unleash their fury on the nation this year and that 100 Americans could perish as the result of tornadoes.

Many South Plains residents remember all too vividly the deaths, injuries, and devastation resulting from tornadoes which struck Silverton, Hale Center, Lubbock, Cotton Center, Plainview, and other towns in recent years. Texas ranks second only to Oklahoma in number of twisters which strike annually.

"Tornado watchers" — usually volunteer firemen and peace officers — already have mapped their battle plans for the severe weather season. Ham radio operators will join the efforts.

NOT much left of the Melvin Powell residence, immediately south of Blanco Canyon in Crosby County, following a devastating tornado which struck after midnight Saturday. The Powells, members of First Baptist Church in Floydada and well known in this county, were among several families whose residences were destroyed or badly damaged by the Crosby County twister.

Cities' Sales Tax Rebates Down Slightly

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said rebates to Texas cities of the local one percent sales tax for the first three months of 1979 have fallen slightly behind the first quarter of 1978.

The dip in city allocations as well as a similar drop in the collection of the state's four percent sales tax is not likely to affect overall state revenue this fiscal year, he said.

"However, I'll be watching tax trends and receipts closer than a hawk watches a sparrow and plan to give the Legislature an updated revenue estimate for the next two fiscal years in the next 15 to 20 days," Bullock said.

Bullock said more than 915 Texas cities will share $56.6 million in sales tax rebates during March.

He said 1979 rebate payments to cities from the first of the year total $100.3 million, compared to 1978 payments of $101.4 million over the same period.

Bullock said late returns that have not hit the Comptroller's accounting system and not sluggish retail sales during the reporting period seem to be the chief culprit for the downturn in rebates.

Bullock said the Comptroller's office had about 2,400 returns on hand that weren't processed for the March allocation.

The City of Lockney will receive $4,827.50, bringing the 1979 total to $8,180.23, nearly a thousand dollars less than the 1978 total $9,161.59 for the same period. This year's three-month total is 10 percent less than last year's.

Floydada's March payment is $9,301.98, compared to $12,695.10 for the same month in 1978. The 1979 payments to date are $17,235.47, some $1300 less than the 1978 three-month total of $18,584.20 or about a seven-percent decrease.

Three-month figures for other area cities: Abernathy — $8,871, down 17 percent; Crosbyton — $7,636, down 24 percent; Dimmitt — $25,638, down 17 percent; Hale Center — $4,969, down 16 percent; Kress — $1,726, down 38 percent; Lorenzo — $1,976, down 32 percent; Lubbock — $1,820,956, down four percent; Matador — $3,442, down three percent; Olton — $9,203, down four percent; Plainview — $171,670, down 10 percent; Silverton — $3,429, down 15 percent; Tulia — $25,107, down 18 percent.

Houston will receive $11.2 million in rebates, bringing the city's 1979 payments to date to $20.3 million, about the same as last year's payments to date.

Conviction Reversed

The Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin has reversed the murder conviction of Larry Carnell Fortenberry, this newspaper learned just before press time. Fortenberry is charged with the shooting death of Motley County Sheriff Jinx Wilson in October 1977.

He was assessed the death penalty following a trial last year.

Tom Hamilton of Plainview, Fortenberry's attorney, confirmed Wednesday afternoon that he had received notice of the Court of Criminal Appeals' action. He had no further information at that time.

Hamilton says he "anticipates this will mean a new trial," although the final decision rests with District Attorney Randy Hollums. Hollums was in Austin Wednesday and could not be contacted.

2-4 Inches Rain In Lockney Area

Rainfall reports from the Lockney area reveal that most of the north end of the county received from two to four inches of rain Saturday-night and Sunday morning and at least half an inch more Tuesday.

The gauge at Jackson Tire Company at the corner at Main and Locust in downtown Lockney showed 3.2" for Saturday night/Sunday morning and another 1" Tuesday.

R. C. Mitchell in the Pleasant Valley community reported 3" from the Saturday-night storm and another .6" Tuesday. D. K. Jackson, a mile and a quarter southwest of the Providence community, received just one-half inch of rain Saturday night. Other reports on the Saturday-night/Sunday-morning rain included 2" at Boyce Mosley's farm in the Sterley community and 3" at Mac Howard's at Irick.

Church Of Christ Meetings Scheduled To Start Sunday

The Church of Christ meeting at W. College & 3rd in Lockney invites you to attend a series of meetings beginning Sunday, March 25 and continuing through Sunday, April 1. Ellmore Johnson of Lubbock will be the speaker during this meeting. Ellmore Johnson is a fine teacher and an excellent speaker. He has worked with a number of congregations in Texas and also preached for several years in California. At present Mr. Johnson is preaching for the Quaker Ave. Church of Christ in Lubbock. He formerly worked with the church in San Angelo and taught at the Southwest Bible Institute. Services both Sundays will be at 10:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Lunch will be served at the building both Sundays. Services Monday-Saturday will be at 7:30 a.m. when there will be a short 30 minute inspirational service to help prepare all for a better day. Evening services Monday-Saturday will be at 7:30 except on Thursday. On Thursday the service will be at 6:30 in order not to conflict with the Chamber of Commerce Banquet. Following the morning services there will be a time of fellowship and refreshments for all who can stay. The congregation invites you to be with them during all or any of these activities.

HONEY WHEAT MUFFINS

1 C. all-purpose flour
1/2 C. whole wheat flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
2 eggs, beaten
1/2 C. honey
1 C. milk
1/4 C. sugar
1/4 C. oil
1 C. pecans

Sift dry ingredients and mix together. Combine in a separate bowl, beaten eggs, honey, milk, sugar and oil. Make a well in the center of flour mixture and mix together lightly, about 10 to 20 seconds. There will still be lumps in the batter. Fold in pecans. Grease muffin tins lightly. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 20-25 minutes or until browned. Makes 12-14 muffins. To reheat muffins, enclose them loosely in foil and heat about 5 minutes in a preheated 450 degree F. oven. In a microwave, reheat for about 15 seconds for each 3 muffins on a paper towel or paper plate. These muffins make a quick and nutritious breakfast food. They can be served with sausage or bacon and orange juice.

'Sleeping Beauty' To Be Presented

Il Penseroso Junior Study Club will present the famous story "The Sleeping Beauty" at 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Tuesday, March 27 in the Lockney Elementary School cafeteria in association with the touring National Children's Theatre company of Dallas and New York. The play will be performed with beautiful scenery, authentic colorful costumes and music. Always a popular fairy tale, The Sleeping Beauty opens with the King and Queen christening their baby daughter. Her fairy godmother is to present her with three precious gifts, when suddenly there is excitement off stage as the ugly old Queen of the Kingdom of Evil, who was not invited, appears and swears vengeance. She pronounces a terrible doom on the baby princess — that on her 16th birthday she will prick her finger on a spindle and die.

The King and Queen beg the good Fairy Godmother to offset the threat but she can do no better than declare that the Princess will not die but will sleep for 100 years and then be awakened by the Prince she will marry. The King banishes all spindles from the Kingdom to protect the Princess, but the ugly old Queen manages to get one to the Princess on her 16th birthday in a beautiful jeweled toy. There are tense moments for the audience when the little Princess pricks her finger and she and all the Palace fall asleep. But after the 100 years, a handsome Prince discovers the Palace. There is a dramatic closing scene when the Prince awakens the Princess and all are happy when their true love is fulfilled.

Tickets for The Sleeping Beauty will be sold at the door on the day of the performance for 25 cts.

Lockney Care Center Family News by Yvonne Steele

Last Friday afternoon, a group from the Lockney First Baptist Church helped us enjoy St. Patrick's Day. Mrs. Don Vernon and children, Donna and Tami; Mrs. Joe Nance and daughter, Amy; Lynda Holley and son, Coy Reece; Tracy Wayne Carlton; Shaunna Tickle; and Rachelle Ford served refreshments of cookies and punch preceded by a puppet show. We also enjoyed several other activities last week. Tuesday, Myrtle Burke, Alpha Kitchens, John Turner, Charlie and Lula Mae Cottrell, and Claude and Sally Carpenter played Bingo. Everyone present won a banana and shared Myrtle Burke's blackout prize of cheese and crackers. Wednesday, since the Cecil Boyer Gospel Quartet was unable to sing for us, G.A. McAda, Linda Epps, Alpha Hill and Yvonne Steele sang gospel songs accompanied by Mary Ann Resch on the kindness! We would also like to express our appreciation to the Churches for bringing us our weekly devotionals: Sunday, the Lone Star Baptist Church; Monday, the Rock Creek Church of Christ; Tuesday, the Main Street Church of Christ; Wednesday, the Methodist Church; Thursday, the Baptist Church; and Friday, the First Baptist Church. Visiting June Taylor this past weekend were her son, John Preston Taylor and wife, Joyce from Mount Pleasant, Texas.

We welcome Randall Whitworth, Eva Knierim of Natarado as new members of our family. Our sympathy goes to the family of Simplio Leal for the loss of their loved one. Fred Warren and Roy Combee returned from the Lockney General Hospital. Welcome home.

The residents have been working on silk rose corsages for Mother's Day. To miss the last minute rush, place your order early.

Days To Attend

Rattlesnake Roundup

Bill Day and son Wesley will be attending the Rattlesnake Roundup at Balingier, Texas, this weekend. The snakes which will be carried from Floyd County were caught March 16-19 on Frank Pott's land located east of Floydada. The snakes, which were caught by Bill, Ricky and Wesley Day and David Cates, will be sold at the show. Price per pound is $3. The group had caught 36 snakes as of press time and the rainy weather was interfering with further catches.

ONE MANS MEDICINE ANOTHER MANS POISON

March is poison prevention month and we would like to point out the dangers of a less familiar type of poisoning accident. That is taking someone else's prescription medicine because the symptoms of an illness appear to be the same as yours.

Only your physician can properly diagnose your medical problem and prescribe the specific drug to help overcome that problem. Rely on him, for today's medicines are very potent and it would be a risk to use a drug that may not be the right one for your illness. Don't take a chance — don't take any one else's medicine.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US

when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Best kidney transplant at Health Center Hospital in Lubbock performed Wednesday, and one following the progress of the operation was Mrs. Jack (Lucille) Frizzell of Lockney.

Frizzell donated a kidney to her eight-year-old son in a hospital in Lubbock City, where he lived at the time.

Frizzell was almost a religious thing about her son. "All my brothers and sisters had this thing but me. I just never had to be a reason for that." Frizzell was 52 when she decided to give one of her kidneys to her son, Jimmy Fletcher, who was 50 at the time of the operation. Frizzell's congenital kidney disease which had been threatening her young son's life.

Frizzell had no regrets. "I have never known a better operation than this one. It was a painless operation. But it was a painful one in my life," she says. She was hospitalized a week before and for two weeks after the surgery, and she says she was in the hospital for a year before she was able to go home again. "But that's all over, and I'm back at work in about a week. He did better (immediately after the operation) than I did; he was building him up," she says.

Frizzell and her brother were in the hospital simultaneously, in adjoining rooms in the New York City hospital. Frizzell is very fondly about the hospital stay and the hospital chapel services.
