Longhorns, Seymour Play Here Tomorrow

Last year when the Lockney Longhorns journeyed to Seymour, the long ride home was made easier by the fact that the 'Horns had defeated the Panthers, 16-0. This year it's the Panthers' turn to make the long road

The game starts at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) at the Longhorns' home field. Kickoff time is half an hour earlier than the other non-conference games on the schedule, so Longhorns fans, make

The SHS team appears to be much improved over last year, according to Longhorn Head Coach Jim Warren. The Panthers' offensive leader, according to scouting reports, is Willie Beamon, who wears jersey number 44. The 160-pound senior running back is described as "real quick," with "good speed." Also providing offensive punch for the Seymour eleven are fullback Glenn Peters, a 210-pound junior who's the largest man in the Seymour starting lineup; Francis Perkins, a super-fast flanker; and quarterback Jeff Styles. Lineman Keith Hollar is one of the top Panther defensemen Seymour's team sports a 3-1 record, with victories over Munday, Crowell and Holliday, and a 31-15 loss to Haskell. The Longhorns are 2-1-1 after last week's loss to Littlefield (one of the top Class-AA teams in the state), victories over Post and Olton, and a tie with Friona.

ZONE 1

The LHS junior varsity football team will play the Plainview High School sophomore team at 6 p.m. today (Thursday) at Plainview.

The Lockney junior high teams will play Plainview here beginning at 4:30 p.m. today.

This is a change from the original schedule, which called for the JV game to be played here and the junior-high games at Plainview.

The ninth-grade Longhorns do not play this week.

Largest Cotton Crop In 30 Years????

Earlier predictions are still holding that the 1979 Texas cotton crop will be the largest in three decades, according to state agriculture commissioner Reagan Brown. still good, despite recent severe hailstorms on the High Plains which some farmers termed the worst they'd ever seen," Brown said late last month.

Recent reports issued by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service estimated the Texas Upland cotton production for the year at 5.6 million bales, 48 percent above the 1978 crop and two percent above the 1977 crop.

If realized, the 1979 production will be the largest crop since the 1949 crop of 6,04,000 bales.

The water district will save 14 separate appraisal fees on a per parcel basis to privately contracted appraisers.

The water board is also dealing with House Bill 1060, providing for value-inwater allowances for groundwater depleted in the courses of agricultural operations, when that agricultural land is appraised for tax purposes on its productivity rather than on its market

The water board anticipated that the water district will be requested to provide support data to landowners and assessors for use in calculating the value of ground water. Part of the necessary data for providing the initial

Far East To

Customers From

View U.S. Cotton

MEMPHIS (Special) — Customers representing nine major Far East markets for U.S. cotton will arrive Oct. 14 for a firsthand look at one of the nation's major export commodities. Sponsored by Cotton Council Interna-tional (CCI), the National Cotton Council, and USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service, the annual orientation tour is designed to increase the U.S. industry's share of overseas cotton markets.

The tour will begin in Fresno, Calif., and conclude with a visit to the New York Cotton Exchange.

Twenty-two foreign mill executives are participating in the tour representing Hong Kong, Indonesia, Japan, Kong, Malaysia, The Philippines, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, and Thailand. In 1978-79, these countries imported a combined total of 4,322,000 bales (480-lbs.) of U.S. cotton, or 69% of the cotton shipped from the United States.

Accompanying the group will be A. John Maguire, CCI Far East director. Participants will see how U.S. cotton is grown, processed, and marketed during the two-week tour. They also will learn about latest developments in a spectrum of research projects and will visit with individuals involved in various phases of the industry. In addition, they will be briefed on prospects for the current crop, export policies, and credit.

Other stops will include: Oct. 16 —
Bakersfield, Calif.; Oct. 18 — Lubbock, Tex.; Oct. 22 - Greenville and Greenwood, Miss.; Oct. 24 - Memphis, Tenn.; Oct. 27 - Raleigh, N.C.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN - Hispanic groups and leaders, both in Texas and in Mexico, held center stage briefly last week in several arenas, testing clout that is predicted by many to wield more political influence in the coming decade.

A low-key announcement from Mexico's nationally-owned oil industry PEMEX that it may pay for oil damages on Texas beaches was a birght note.

PEMEX's new public relations manager, Reynaldo Zentella, said the company, if pushed, will pay damages resulting from the Ixtoc I oil well blowout in the Bay of Campeche.

Zentella cautioned "we'll do our best not to pay when we're not supposed to...They'll have to prove it was oil from Ixtoc I" that damaged the beaches.

The company is still trying to cap the blowout, but an attempt to put a giant $3 million "sombrero" designed by Brown and Root of Houston over the hole in the gulf floor was disrupted by choppy seas.

Texas Protocol Chief

A native of Floresville was sworm in Thursday as chief of protocol. Abelardo L. Valdez was named to that position and to the title of ambassador by President Jimmy Carter.

Earlier last week Valdez addressed the Federal Bar Association convention at San Antonio and said Texas is a key port of entry for imports from Mexico and the rest of Latin America.

Sixty-four percent of all U.S. trade with Mexico (some $6 billion) and one-fourth of U.S.-Latin American trade ($8 billion) passes through Texas, he

He also pointed out that 82 percent of U.S. direct foreign investment in the developing world is in Latin America, our third largest trading partner. Meanwhile, Ruben Bonilla of Corpus Christi, national president of the League of Latin American Citizens, announced a commission has been established to coordinate discussions between the Mexican government and Hispanic groups in the U.S.

Speaking in San Antonio, Bonilla said the commission was suggested by Mexican President Jose Lopez Portillo. Bonilla said the Mexican government would insist upon tying discussions of U.S. purchases of Mexican petroleum with a discussion of human rights for hispanics and Mexican aliens in the Clements Taunted On the same day Bonilla made his announcements in San Antonio, Mexican -Americans demonstrating in El Paso pushed, taunted and spat upon Gov. Bill Clements as he tried to shake hands with them.

Clements had been attending a reception hosted by LULAC and had pledged a new era in Texas' goodneighbor policy with Mexico. He did not know why the protesters had gathered outside the reception and had been warned not to try to soothe them.

When the governor plunged into the crowd to shake hands, he was pushed back and taunted with flags and

Justice Raps Clements

Texas Supreme Court Justice Joe Greenhill took a milder approach, but all the same criticized Clements and the Legislature for "making it difficult for judges to do their jobs.

Greenhill told the Judicial Section Conference meeting at Abilene that the judiciary needs to present a unified front in the future to secure higher salaries and funds to ease over-loaded dockets.

He rapped the Governor's Office for failing to supply the funds necessary to ease caseloads in urban areas.

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congress is currently involved in a debate on the proposed 1980 budget. The very essence of this process is the setting of goals and priorities. We must allocate our scarce resources among an infinite number of competing demands. In recent years we have been unable to face up to our limitations and restraint has not been forthcoming.

The Second Budget Resolution calls for expenditures of $548.2 billion and revenues of $519.5 billion making a deficit of $28.7 billion. This figure represents a continuation of the trend towards more federal growth. Government expenditures have outpaced the growth of the Nation's Gross National Product over the last quarter century. Since 1950 the annual growth in GNP has averaged 7.2 percent while total federal expenditures have grown at a 9 percent rate.

The chief reason for this rapid growth rate has been transfer programs and grants-in-aid to state and local governments. Transfer payments only accounted for 15 percent of the budget in 1955 - now they are more than 40 percent. Almost half of all Americans are dependent on some sort of federal payment. Twenty-five years ago grantsin-aid accounted for 4 percent of the budget - now they make up 16 percent of total expenditures. More and more revenues have been transferred to unproductive segments of the public sector. Less resources are available for private investment and this has limited the level of output and employment. The budget reflects the majority of Americans' preference for short term benefits instead of long term stability. As transfer payments have increased the investment in America's assets have decreased. In the mid-1950's military expenditures accounted for 56 percent of total federal outlays - today the figure is near 22 percent. In real terms our defense spending has shown no real growth for the past 10 years. Thur our military strength has declined relative to the rapidly growing defense forces of the Soviet Union. The Soviet Union has overcome our once superior advantage in strategic nuclear arms and has achieved superiority in almost every category of conventional military strength. Our Nation has not responded to this threat and thus the world is becoming an increasingly more dangerous place to live. The President has made a commitment to our NATO allies that the 1980 defense budget will increase by 3 percent in real terms. The proposed budget does not meet that commitment. I do intend to support a substitute budget that will meet the President's commitment to NATO and make possible a balanced budget by fiscal 1981 Our federal spending priorities are becoming more and more myopic in their scope. Large deficits, more spending, and the lack of investment in America's fixed assets have, in a large part, been responsible for our declining position in the owrld. If we are going to reassert our position in the international arena, then we must reevaluate our shortsighted priorities and start planning for our future.

GSPA Opposes Regulation

is considering a new regulation which a gram local farmers group believes would have a negative effect on participation in farm programs.

In a recent statement, the Grain Sorghum Producers Association opposed a rule that would require farmers to be approved by the Soil Conservation Service before the farmers would become eligible to participate in government programs like the feed grain program for it to work effectively."

The U.S. Department of Agriculture set-aside and the price support pro-

"To attach such requirements, with the complications and red tape inherent in such a plan, to the price support programs would destroy the producer's interest in participation," the statement said. Floyd Philosopher Thinks

He Has Hit On A Way To Lower

The High Cost Of Government

Editor's note: The Floyd Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on White River comes up with an odd idea this week. Dear editor:

Outside the cost of getting sick, the most expensive item in everybody's budget these days is government. It's even higher than oil, gold, car repairs, potato chips, beer and cigarettes. Everybody agrees something ought to be done about the high cost of government but nobody seems to know The problem needs analyzing. First, one trouble is the people who appropriate the money don't have to collect it. No need to go any further. I think I've put my finger on the trouble right there-It's obvious. What Congressman wouldn't think twice before voting to spend some money if he knew he had to get out and collect it? Although expecting some Congressmen to think twice is of course a flight of the imagination.

October Is Cooperative Month

Austin.....October is Cooperative Month in Texas and across the nation as proclaimed by most of the country's Governor Bill Clements, in his official proclamation, urged the people of Texas "give special recognition to the constructive and responsible roles of agricultural cooperatives in the economic progress of our State.'

Texas has more than 440 cooperatives operating and serving over 133,000 members," according to Bruno Schroeder, executive vice president of the Texas Federation of Cooperatives.

"These cooperatives are doing a business volume of almost 1.7 billion dollars annually," he said.

Cooperatives in Texas range from farmer-owned gins, elevators and compresses to marketing, supply and credit organizations. Health, housing, insurance, electric, telephone and other service cooperatives are becoming more and more important to all Texas

Forest Service Accepting Applications For Windbreak Seedlings

Applications are now being accepted for windbreaks seedlings from the Texas Forest Service.

These seedlings, grown from seed collected in West Texas and eastern New Mexico, are produced in the state's greenhouse in Lubbock and in the field nursery near Halfway.

Conifer species available this season include Austrian pine, ponderosa pine and Arizona cypress. These container- re-sale, nor may they be used for ized seedlings cost $1 each and are sold in multiples of 30 seedlings only.

A limited supply of hardwood species also are available. Species include honeylocust and sawtooth oak. These bare root seedlings are priced at $20 per Seedling ordered now will be ready for pickup and planting in March 1980. These trees are not available for landscaping or ornamental purposes.

For applications and information on windbreaks, contact the Texas Forest Service, Route 3, Box 216, Lubbock, TX 79401, (806) 746-5801. Applications also are available from county offices of the Agricultural Stablization and Conservation Service, Soil Conservation Service and extension agents.

Study Club Has Musical Evening

Two lovely and delightful ladies, Mary Glen Degge and Lucy Dean Record, favored the Il Penseroso Junior Study Club members and guest with a memorable musical program last Thursday in the me of Mrs. Mike Mathis.

Mrs. Degge, vocalist, and Mrs. Record, pianist, who incidentally have the same birth date, grew up in the depression era (when you made your own fun) have been entertaining themselves and friends for many years.

Mrs. Degge and Mrs. Record asked club members and guest to sing along as songs were played and Mrs. Degge narrated some types of music played and sung in

Mrs. Degge related that early types of songs were folksongs brought to America from the "Old Country," and were often of love and sentiment as "My Bonnie Lies Over The Ocean" and "Loch Lomond.

Mrs. Degge said that even in wartime or maybe because of wartime songs must often be fun as with the still popular "Yankee Doodle." Recognition of the Black influence was made with the well known "Swing Lo, Sweet Chariot;" and regional influence by the Old South songs "Shenandoah," "Dix-ie," and "Old Grey Mare."

Mrs. Degge joined Mrs. Record at the piano to play "funny duets that everyone knows" as "Chopsticks." These duets were usually learned from friends as piano

4-H Builds Leaders

There are five keys to successful leadership. A good leader believes in people, encourages them and gives them responsibility. The leader also acts as a talent scout and develops a positive attitude toward geting things done. Anyone who is willing to tackle a job that requires cooperating with others can learn to be an effective

This is where the 4-H program comes in — it can nelp youth become effective leaders.

The national 4-H leadership program, supported by Reader's Digest, stimulates young people to become leaders through a variety of learn-by-doing activities. These activities help turn girls and boys 9-19 into the creative, inspiring individuals that others just naturally want to follow.

As a first step, 4-H members gain self-confidence by becoming experts at something, whether it's baking a cake, fixing a bike or playing a game. Then they share their expertise with others through demonstrations, speeches and exhibits. Soon they are serving on committees and holding offices in their 4-H clubs. As junior and teen leaders they are assisting younger 4-H'ers with their projects.

Finally, leadership skills learned in 4-H are carried over into the larger community. Nine national 4-H leadership winners reported activities that ranged from spearheading local charity drives and organizing leadership conferences for inner city teens to chairing a county youth committee for a congressional candidate.

Each national winner received a $1,000 scholarship donated by Reader's Digest. The high ranking-girl and boy won silver rays presented in the name of President Jimmy Carter.

Other recognition for program members includes an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago for one 4-H member per state and up to four medals of honor in each county.

Winners are chosen by the Extension Service, which conducts the 4-H program, and awards are arranged by the National 4-H Council.

Further details on becoming involved in the 4-H leadership program are available at the Floyd County Extension Office, temporarily located in Room 207 at the

Bartering, An Old Idea With

Bartering is an old idea with a new twist - to beat inflation, says Bonnie Piernot, family resource management specialist. It's catching on again, even among dentists, lawyers, doctors and other professionals who are bartering for food, gardening services, leisure equipment, ads and other products, she says.

Mrs. Piernot is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. IDEAS TO WATCH FOR

With bartering, families can get living essentials without using their limited They can trade time, skills, products and services. Some include mechanical. sewing, needlework or shopping skills. Swapping can be among friends, families or even within the same family. For example, in your own family, trade babysitting services for sewing skills.

Energy savings are possible with bartering, too.

Zoning restrictions in some communities may limit the types of bartering if they become similar to a business. For example, some ordinances limit the number of unrelated children cared for in a household.

Also, health or sanitation rules may limit the bartering of baked goods in any large quantity or with any regular-

Time can become the great expense in bartering. To combat this, some communities may want to set up a "trading post" to assist resi-

Legal snarls can result if traders aren't careful, such as with bartering homes or vacation cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Powell and Sandy received a long distance call Tuesday from their daughter, Donna Rushing, who is stationed with her husband and two little boys in Weisbaden, Germany. She called to tell her parents she had fallen. slipping on some magazines, and broken her leg, near her ankle. She is in a cast up to her hip. Since the little boy, Shawn, is only two, and the baby Timothy Michael is only six weeks old, caring for them will be quite a task.

Mrs. Thelma Nelson of Amarillo came home from St. Anthonys Hospital Tuesday of this past week. She has a nurse who stays with her during the day, and Mrs. Wanda Teeple stays with her at night.

The South Plains Hobby Club will meet at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, October 10 at the home of Mrs. Howard Hamm (Mildred). Everyone attending should bring a half-yard of washable, print material which they will use during the demonstration to make items for the nursing home patrons. Mrs. Tillman Powell is to bring the "thought for the day." Mrs. Lois Lyons is employed now full time, and was not able to have the club at this time. Roll call will be answered with an amusing story.

South Plains residents have their own water systems or get water from other wells in the town. Most of the wells are deep and the water is cold and delicious. Last week a well rig moved into South Plains and dug a new well on the property of I.H. Parks, across from the Parks Oil Station where Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Evans and Weston reside. They got a fine well of water and this week the men are putting down an electric pump on the well. They struck water at 286 feet, and are now pumping the well. When free of sand, they will connect the water to the house. Fresh water is a

Angel Martinez To Lead Services At First Baptist

Revival services with Dr. Angel Martinez are sched-uled to begin at 11 a.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church, and continue daily through the evening service of October 14, according to

Dr. Floyd C. Bradley, pastor. In addition to the regular Sunday services, Dr. Martinez will be preaching Mon-day through Saturday at 7:30 p.m. He will also speak at noon services Tuesday through Friday in the Chapel. A meal will be served in Fellowship Hall following each noon service. The public is invited to all of the services and to the noon

Reverend Martinez is a native of San Antonio where he was converted in a Baptist Mission in July, 1935 at the age of thirteen. He preached his first sermon that same year and has averaged preaching better than a sermon-a-day during the past 44

He is a graduate of Baylor University, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and has completed two years study on a law degree. A popular and dynamic evangelist, Dr. Martinez has memorized the entire New Testament. He holds an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree and has authored seven Angel Martinez is married and the father of two sons. Fort Smith, Arkansas, is his home and headquarters between revivals.

Services Today

For Foy Gooch

Services for Foy Gayle Gooch, 55, of Floydada will be at 3 p.m. Thursday in First Baptist Church with the Reverend Floyd C. Bradley, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in Floydada Cemetery under direction of Moore-Rose Funeral Home. Mrs. Gooch died at 2:35 p.m. Tuesday in Lockney General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

The Harrold native married Fay Gooch on August 16, 1941 in Frederick, Oklahoma. They moved to Floyd County from Rotan in 1961. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and

Rebekah Lodge. Survivors include her husband; a son, Roger of Floydada; two daughters, Janice Morren of Teague and Lou Ann Selman of Irving; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lemon of Harrold; three brothers, Gene Lemon of San Antonio, Jodie Lemon of Quanah and Jack Lemon of Electra; two sisters, Maxine Cato of Meadow and Eloise Ham of Vernon; and seven

Mosquito season may soon be over but the mosquitoes have left a trail of Canine Heartworm Disease behind, says Dr. David T. Bechtol, President of Texas Veterinary Medical Association. Canine Heartworm Disease is transmitted to dogs by mosquitoes. When biting and infected dog, a mosquito may take up blood containing immature stages of the Heartworm. After a 2-week incubation period in the mosquito, they develp jinto infective larvae. If these larvae are transmitted by the mosquito to another dog, they migrate through the body to the heart, where they grow to adult size and can eventually lead to death for the dog, states Dr. Symptoms of Heartworm

Disease are often not apparent until the disease has reached the advanced stages. Dr. Bechtol notes that death can occur before the owner notices any illness in the dog. Symptoms that may exist in many dogs include frequent coughing, rapid tiring, and labored brea-

There were only two residents able to make our bus trip this week. We made a short trip to the Plains Bap-tist Assembly because Mr. Lawrence had never been there before. He enjoyed every minute and wants to go back soon. Docia Manning is always eager to see the canyon because it brings back memories of her youth.

CITY OF FLOYDADA
HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The City of Floydada is currently making plans to participate in the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's Community Development Block Grant Program. Two important elements in planning for this program are citizen participation and evaluation of the City's past performance in housing and community development activities. A public hearing will be held on Wednesday, October 1/7, 1979 at 5 p.m. in the Council Chamber at City Hall, 114 West Virginia. The City's citizen participation plan will be presented at this hearing to obtain your views on this plan. This hearing will also provide citizens an opportunity to comment on the City's past performance in carrying out housing and community development programs. General information on the CDBG program will be

A final public hearing on the City's CDBG preapplication has been scheduled by the City Council on Tuesday, November 13, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chamber at City Hall, 114 W. Virginia. At this meeting, the Council will make decisions on the amount of funds to be requested, the proposed projects and the proposed target areas. General information on the CDBG areas. General information on the CDBG program will also be available.

All citizens are encouraged to attend these meetings and present their views on the proposed CDBG preapplication to the Council. Comments on housing and community development needs may be delivered to City Hall at any time prior to these public hearings. Handicapped individuals who may have difficulty in attending these meetings should contact City Hall to arrange for assistance.
