GARLAND JARVIS
Salutatorian

Top DHS Grads Are Announced

Paralyn Render was officially named the valedictorian of Dimmitt High School's Class of 1967 this week with a seven-semester grade average of 95.72.

SALUTATORIAN of the class is Garland Jarvis, whose seven-semester high school grade average is 90.89.

In addition to being the class's top scholars, both are musicians, class favorites and student leaders.

Miss Render, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Render, has attended Dimmitt Public Schools since she was in the second grade. She is the Bobcat Band's drum major and was named to the all-regional band during all four years of high school.

THE CLASS'S top scholar is also president of the Lyre Club, National Honor Society and Future Homemakers of America. She has also served as secretary of the Student Senate, class officer three years, Science Club reporter and Latin Club member, and was on the Dimmitt Bobbies basketball squad two years.

She has been elected class favorite all four years, was the school's Flame Queen her junior year, and this year was named Miss DHS, Football Queen, Miss FHA, Band Favorite, and Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She is a former Freshman Band Award winner and last year was a delegate to Bluebonnet Girls State in Austin.

JARVIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Jarvis, has attended Dimmitt Public Schools nine years.

He has earned acclaim in debating, writing, science, drama and music. He is editor of the Bobcat Tales and authors most of the school newspaper's editorials. He is also vice-president of the National Honor Society, clerk of the National Thespian Society and a member of the Bobcat Band (eight years), Lyre Club, Drama Club, Science Club, Chess Club, Future Teachers of America and Latin Club.

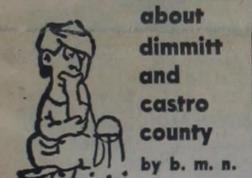

He was a cast member this year in the all-school play, "Pollyanna," and in the UIL one-act play, "Overpraised Season." He was named to the one-act play District All Star Cast.

IN PIANO competition, he has earned three "superior" medals and five "excellent" ratings, and was a talent-show winner three years. Switching to another keyboard as a freshman, he placed second in the district in typing.

In persuasive speaking competition in the University Interscholastic League, he placed second as a junior, returned this year to win the district championship and went on to place third in the regional competition.

As a junior, Jarvis earned the right to participate in the Nuclear Science Symposium, was an alternate to Boys State in Austin, and won the English III award.

He was elected by his classmates this year as Most Talented Boy, and was also named Mr. FTA.

about dimmitt and castro county by b. m. n.

Jay Linn, the radio tycoon, is always talking about his dog, Gus, and occasionally can get the mutt to bark close enough to the mike so that the listening public is convinced that he really has a dog.

If it hadn't been for Gus getting so much publicity I would never have mentioned the fact that we have a dog. Our dog, Foxy, is an undersized Pomeranian and he doesn't have to be coaxed into barking. If you think that is not a true statement just ask any of our neighbors.

Probably because of an inferiority complex, or some other dog reason, Foxy chose for his best friend a little undersized cat that grew up over at the Ray Beardens, our next door neighbors. For the past year or so Foxy and the little unnamed cat spent many hours playing together each day. Apparently they were a source of pleasure and comfort to each other, and their romping was a delight to see.

In addition to the little undersized cat the Beardens took care of the living expenses of the mother cat and her other offspring until they became of age and wandered off to greener pastures. The o'd mother cat gave birth to three or four kittens recently and Ray decided that it was time he got out of the cat business. The cats were given to some farm family that needed their services. Foxy's playmate included.

Foxy has been the most miserable dog I have ever seen since his friend, the little runt cat, moved to his new home. Instead of staying outside all day, as he did when the little cat was on the premises, Foxy is in and out of the house many times a day and is always pestering Viola or me for a little petting. I guess animals can really become fond of each other. Remember the dog and cow story from over in Eastern New Mexico.

This is not to be taken as an indication that we want another cat around the place. Neither us nor the Beardens need a cat, so there.

40th Year — No. 31 Dimmitt, Texas, Thursday, May 18, 1967 14 Pages 10¢ Per Copy

Teachers $miling

Dimmitt's teachers will earn $350 to $700 more next school year. IN A SWEEPING increase of teacher salaries for 1967-68, the school board has adopted a pay schedule that averages $500 per teacher higher than present, $1,000 above the present state minimum, and $100 above the salary schedule proposed to the legislature by the Texas State Teachers Association.

School taxes here will be hiked to underwrite the salary increases.

Supt. Paul Hilburn said the new salary schedule could lead to a tax increase of 25 cents or more, depending on the state salary schedule still to be adopted by the legislature. The Senate last week okayed an average hike of $635 in the state minimum salary.

(The state this year authorized $25 per teacher per year to school districts as a lump sum to be used to supplement salaries, and gave school boards a free rein on how this money would be distributed. This year the school board applied most of the supplementary money to the low end of the salary scale. (The state has doubled the supplementary salary formula to $50 per teacher for next year, Hilburn said, and the board hasn't yet decided how to apportion the extra fund along the new salary schedule.)

MAIN PURPOSE of the state-authorized supplementary fund, Hilburn explained, is to allow schools to adjust individual salaries to hire or keep teachers in critical subjects, who might otherwise be lured to higher paying jobs in business, industry or government.

At present, the minimum state salary is $4,104 for a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree, for a nine-month salary year.

However, Dimmitt's lowest salary is well above the state minimum at $4,650 — including a straight $300 above minimum in local funds and $246 in state supplementary pay.

NEXT YEAR'S local salary here for a beginning teacher with a bachelor's degree will be $5,104 for nine months, not including supplementary pay.

A beginning teacher with a master's degree is currently authorized a minimum salary of $4,410 by the state, is actually paid $4,950 at present in Dimmitt, and next year will receive $5,410, not including supplementary pay.

At the top end of the schedule, salaries will pass the $7,000 mark for the first time next year. Teachers with master's degrees and 14 years' experience will receive $7,048 for nine months. Those with master's degrees and 15 or more years' experience will get the highest classroom salary on the new schedule — $7,165.

A TICKET TO LOS ANGELES for Janice Mooney was donated in part Friday by the Dimmitt Rotary Club when Ronnie Parker, president, gave her a check for $100. Miss Mooney, who is the Rotary Club's pianist, has already won the title of Texas FHA pianist and will go to Los Angeles next month to compete for the top pianist's title at the national convention of the Future Homemakers of America. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mooney.

Rec Center Plans Finished

The Castro County Recreation Association announced this week that final plans and specifications center here have been completed by Biggs & Matthews, consulting engineers.

Dr. James E. Wohlgemuth, president of the association, said that any local contractor interested in bidding on phases of the $167,000 construction project may preview the plans and specifications at his office.

HE SAID copies of the plans are also available at Biggs & Matthews, 401 Fifth Road, Wichita Falls, 76308.

Bidding dates will be announced later.

"We're still waiting for final approval of the project plans from the Farmers Home Administration office in Temple," Dr. Wohlgemuth said, "but we're turning loose the paper work here so contractors can have a chance to look at the specifications."

While hiking the teacher salaries here, the school board voted to cut back the district's share of group hospitalization and medical insurance premiums for teachers.

At present, the school district pays all of the teacher's group insurance. But next year the school district and teacher will split the cost at $4.48 each per month, which will save the district approximately $5,000 a year.

Dimmitt Driver Involved Sunday In Fatal Mishap

A 5-year-old Lubbock girl was killed on a bridge near Crosbyton Sunday afternoon when she ran into the path of a pickup driven by a Dimmitt man.

Gayla Shawn Sill's, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sills of Lubbock, died in Crosbyton Clinic Hospital at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, two hours after she was struck by a pickup driven by Winston G. Rountree of Dimmitt.

Parkers to Pay $10 for Overtime

If you leave your car parked more than two hours on Bedford Street, or leave it unattended in an alley, you'll probably be fined $10.

Locally-Born 'Back LBJ' Plan Grows Into Statewide Campaign

A Dimmitt man's petition to support US involvement in Vietnam blossomed into a statewide campaign Saturday when it was adopted as a project by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

THE PROJECT calls for a statewide signature drive and a big advertising display in the state capital newspaper, the Austin American-Statesman.

The idea was born during the state basketball tournament in Austin when Horace Henley of Dimmitt saw a large "open letter" ad in the American-Statesman, signed by 150 University of Texas professors, asking President Johnson to halt the bombing in North Vietnam.

CONCERNED over the possible effect of this and other "stop-the-bombing" campaigns, Henley decided to start a counter movement to show the solidarity of Americans who support the US' current role in the Vietnam conflict.

Castro County's wheat crop still looks good in the fields, but inside the heads there's tragedy.

THE FULL IMPACT of the May 1 freeze on the county's wheat became apparent only in the last few days, and many farmers still don't realize how badly their wheat has been damaged.

Estimates of the county-wide wheat crop loss by agronomists here range from 25 percent to 50 percent or higher. The combination of high greenbug infestation and late freeze has virtually wiped out many fields.

The standard freeze-damage indicator for wheat — a white head on a green stalk — doesn't tell the whole story this year. County Agent Charles Hottel said the tragedy is inside the head of the stalk, where the male and female reproductive parts of the self-pollinating plant were killed by the freeze.

"DAMAGED heads take on a dull, yellowish cast and close examination of the flower will show that the male and female reproductive parts have been killed," Hottel said. "The anthers will appear dried up and brown to whitish in color. In healthy heads, these will appear in a shade of green prior to blooming or will be bright yellow or orange when blooming is in progress."

He added, "Some heads which were already formed when the untimely freeze hit are now showing a blistering or burning effect. These heads may develop with a brownish cast and be spotted in areas. A freeze before the head is mature can also produce a blister on the seed coat and stop further grain development."

HEADS THAT suffered damage can't be base and tip grains should still fill out and yield several grains, Hottel said, although at harvest time farmers are liable to see a lot of shriveled grains with a lower test weight and reduced yield.

The county agent's advice to growers is (1) try to determine the extent of yield loss, (2) compare expected income with other alternatives available, (3) determine compliance in both wheat and feed grain programs, (4) contact the ASC office if you decide to plant grain sorghum on wheat acreage, and (5) consider the labor and water available for production of an additional crop.

CHARLEY HILL, county office manager for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, indicated he expects a lot of wheat producers to forget this year's crop and replant their wheat acreage.

He said these options apply under the wheat program:

1. If not participating in the wheat or feed grain programs, you may replant the land to any crop you choose. However, if replanting to feed grain causes your farm's feed grain base to be exceeded, you would be ineligible for feed grain payment on any other farm.

2. If you ARE participating in both the wheat and feed grain programs, you can replant any or all of your wheat acreage to soybeans, castor beans or vegetables and be eligible for wheat certificate payment without approval from the ASCS county committee.

3. If you participate in both programs and want to plant feed grain on the destroyed wheat acres, you must make a written request to the county committee for reclassification of the wheat acreage BEFORE planting the feed grain.

Wheat acreage cannot be reclassified and replanted to feed grain if it has been cut for hay, grazed or harvested in any manner after May 1. Hill cautioned, and neither can it be used as diverted acres.

HOW BAD IS the wheat damage, and in what areas was it worst? Two agronomists hazarded guesses for the News.

Dr. Bill Bennett, Western Armonia agronomist, predicted the crop loss at "one-fourth to one-third, based on the samples I've seen so far."

But Barry Love, agronomist for Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Inc., said, "I think we're going to have at least a 40 to 50 percent loss, although I don't think we'll really know until the wheat is harvested. It's hard to assess it."

BENNETT BLAMED most of the damage to this year's crop on the exceptionally high greenbug infestation earlier this year. He said he feels the late freeze only compounded the loss to an already-damaged crop.

"There's another factor here, too," Bennett said. "We had an unusually good grazing season last winter, with a lot of warm days, and more nitrogen was taken out than normal by grazing, so there was less nitrogen left over to produce grain."

LOVE SAID, "I think the freeze was the number one villain, although we already had extensive damage from greenbugs."

He added, "A lot of farmers don't know yet just how badly their wheat is damaged. Freeze damage usually stands out — you see a white head on a green stalk. But this year we've had a lot of damage where the heads have not turned white."

BENNETT SAID wheat crops seem to have suffered more dam-

HOW'S THAT AGAIN? It's been 17 years since Mrs. R. C. "Chock" Lay planted this Paul's Scarlet climbing rose in the back yard of her home at 303 NW Third St. But the bush's ancestry proved to be miraculously strong — two weeks ago it started producing white-petaled wild roses from a new shoot amid its clusters of scarlet-red flowers. Mrs. Lay said the new shoot obviously is a descendant of the wild-rose root to which the Paul's Scarlet was originally grafted 17 years ago.

Mike Bruegel Picked to Play In August's Green Belt Bowl

Mike Bruegel, Dimmitt High School's big all-state tackle, will play in the Green Belt Bowl classic at Childress Aug. 12.

HE WAS invited to suit up with the West All-Stars from all classes for the annual senior grid clash, which traditionally draws a big crowd of football fans and college recruiters.

He will start practice sessions in Childress Aug. 5.

Each player in the gridiron classic was asked to name a queen candidate for a beauty pageant to be held in conjunction with the bowl game. Bruegel picked Keith Ann Howard, former Miss Dimmitt, to represent DHS.

BRUEGEL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruegel Sr., made all-district, All-South Plains Class AA, All-South Plains Dream Team and all-state second team last season.

Bible Thoughts

SOUND INSTRUCTION

By Ronnie Parker

Paul states in Titus 2:11 "For the grace of God hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world."

Out of our relationships with others grow three classes of duties. Soberness covers the ground of duty one owes himself; righteousness, to others; and godliness, to God.

The Christian should be a sober man, having his passions under control and avoiding all excesses; he should be a righteous man, being kind, sympathetic, and helpful to all that surround him; and he should at all times be a godly man, submitting reverently to God's will.

Thus living, he can then look "for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ." (Titus 2:13).

It takes a Good Eye...
TO THREAD A NEEDLE

Did you ever thread a needle? ... Most everyone has, it takes a good eye, for the opening is small. Did you ever try to thread one while someone else held the needle? ... This is almost impossible. All this brings us to the point that... there are some things that we must do ourselves. We can not send someone else to church for us, we can not have someone else worship the Lord for us. These things are strictly on an individual basis. ATTEND CHURCH THIS SUNDAY ... YOU'LL BE GLAD THAT YOU DID.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Round the Campus

Year-end Gets Hectic

Things have really been buzzing 'round the campus this week as the end of school draws near. Everyone is busy getting their notebooks and studying for six weeks tests.

THIS WEEK we have had some lovely showcases. Mrs. Leeth has "Favorites For the Bookworm." There is a little green worm and some of the books in the showcase are "The American Cowboy," "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo," "Gone With the Wind," and "Rebecca," as well as many others. However, since school is almost out and they have a final inventory, the library will close May 12.

The Homemaking I and II girls have been sewing and their dresses have been on display this week in their showcase.

Darla Underwood had a little girl's dress which was pink, white, purple and red flowers on a yellow background with pink strawberries. Marie Sanchez made a play suit for a little boy out of blue and white. Kathy Marley had a beautiful white dress and she also had made a print gown. These dresses were made for their Home Experience Project for the second semester.

THE FRESHMAN track team has been saluted this week with their trophies in the showcase. These boys have really done a fine job this year. They brought home six first place trophies and one second place. Hats off to the freshman track team!

The FFA boys presented a fine banquet Tuesday night. The aroma of meat cooking in an unusual sauce was in the halls of DHS.

Cheerleading practice has been every Tuesday and Thursday getting all the candidates ready for try-outs which are to be May 22. The juniors worked hard all week on the banquet, but they weren't very lucky in keeping it a secret from some of the seniors.

Glenn Mundell's seat was warmed during Miss Griffing's sixth period English II class last Tuesday because it was his birthday.

STUDENT SENATE elections were Friday, May 12. The candidates were busy putting up signs and campaigning. The candidates for president were Tommy Martin, Sherry McGowan, Ben Golding and Doug Hays. Candidates for vice-president were Alfred Sammann, Scott Moran and Durward Strickland.

Wednesday the seniors met in the auditorium and received clothes bags from Hays Implement Co.

The annual staff received this letter from a DHS teacher concerning our 1967 Bobcat annual. Dear Annual Staff, Editors, and Sponsor,

I would like to personally and publicly congratulate you on an outstanding annual.

I have told many of you, as I am sure others in DHS have, that it is one of the best annuals I have ever seen. I have over fourteen annuals from various schools across the state. I can truthfully say that very few of those annuals have captured the spirit and mood of a school year as our annual has this year.

You have certainly brought the spirit of DHS to every person owning the yearbook. I would like to say it is the most outstanding collection of memories I have seen gathered by an annual staff in my experience as a student and teacher.

Thank you for a lasting memory of my year 1967 at Dimmitt High School.

THE BOBCAT TALES . . . staff would like to congratulate our new Miss Dimmitt, Poppy Byrnes. Poppy is a junior and was one of eight contestants. Poppy is the daughter of Jean Byrnes and Buddy Byrnes. She was attired in a formal orange satin dress. For her talent Poppy sang Winchester Cathedral.

First runner-up was Elaine Davis, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Davis. Elaine wore a pink chiffon empire dress trimmed in green with white accessories. For her talent Elaine twirled to "Red Roses for a Blue Lady."

SECOND runner-up was Paula Birdwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Birdwell. Paula wore a yellow brocade print dress. For her talent Paula played the piano.

Well, this ends another week of 'Round the Campus. We hope you have enjoyed it, because it's our next to the last of the Bobcat Tales for this year. Oh yeah, the juniors are real excited cause they will get their senior rings the 19th!

Drama Club Picks Officers

The junior and sophomore members of the Drama Club met Thursday in the speech room to elect officers for the 1968 school term.

THOSE elected were: President — Sharron Flynt; Vice-President — Elaine Davis; Secretary — Darla Underwood; Treasurer — Darlene Dodd; Costume and Make-Up — Patty Simpson and Cathy Godfrey; Properties — Shirley Leinen and Ronnie Burks.

Two new offices were created in the Drama Club constitution for 1968 because of the importance of their duties to any production. These offices were the Costume and Make-up, and the Properties. Both of these require co-officers.

PROPERTIES, costumes and make-up workers are the unsung heroes of drama. For years, young people have run their legs off and made their mental capacities numb by trying to scrape everyone's home and "barrel" to find enough props to make a production live. For the past two years, DHS has had unsung heroes in this field because they were never recognized officially by the club. From now on, students who work on costumes, make-up, and props will have a place in the spotlight, too.

ICE CREAM COMMITTEE HAS TOUGH MEETING . . . For annual FFA barbecue

Eleven Awards Are Presented At FFA Boys' Annual Barbecue

Last Tuesday night at 7 p.m. the FFA held their annual barbecue banquet.

THE MENU consisted of barbecued beef and mutton, potato salad, beans, and a choice of drinks. About 140 people enjoyed this as they sat on rows of hay bales.

After eating they moved into the auditorium. Tommy Martin opened the meeting then Joe Lively recognized the important people in the audience.

After this, David Seale introduced the guest, Jerry Bigham, area I vice-president. Jerry gave about what the FFA motto means to him. The motto is: Learning to do, Doing to Learn. Earning to live, Living to serve.

MR. QUINBY then presented the Foundation Awards. Those receiving awards were:

Roger Jones — Star Greenhand; Jackie Matthews — Star Chapter Farmer.

Tommy Martin — Crop Award; Darrell Pope — Livestock; Dana Wall — Electricity Award; Russell Johnson — Farm Mechanics Award.

Mr. Otte then gave out some merit awards to: Joe Johnson — Co-Operative Training; Harold Spencer — Senior Vo-Ag student; Jimmie Johnson — Tractor Mechanics.

Darrell Pope — Showmanship, Livestock; Danny Newton — Fitting and Showing Sheep; Jackie Matthews — Showmanship, Swine; Teddy Smithson — Fitting and Showing Swine.

Senior Girls Make Blouses

Wednesday afternoon the senior girls met to cut out their blouses for Senior Day.

The girls voted in an earlier class meeting to dress alike, and so they all met at 4:30 p.m. in the homemaking department to cut their blouses out of a multi-colored striped material.

THE BLOUSES are to be worn Monday, May 22, to Palo Duro Park. All the girls seemed to be pleased with the pattern and material, and we hope they really "saw their hearts out." God luck on your blouses, girls.

Editorial

How Well Off Are You?

By GARLAND JARVIS
In another week, 59 seniors will graduate from Dimmitt High School.

Some of these students will go on to college and universities to continue their education, but a good number will not attempt a higher education, they will try to find jobs and earn their own living.

JUST WHAT twelve years of schooling has meant to each individual will be exemplified in both the student who goes on to college and the one who seeks a job. If the boy or girl going to college has made the most of his opportunities while in the public schools, he will find himself just that much better qualified for college work because he has laid the proper foundation. And on the other hand, the student who plans to find work upon graduating will find it just that much easier to get a job and to keep it after he has used his time in school to qualify himself for holding a job.

Dimmitt has a fine public school system. Any student may feel confident that when he has gone through the public schools and received his diploma, with satisfactory grades, he is fitted either for entrance to college or university or to hold down a job to the satisfaction of his employer.

NCW, FOR those of you who are not graduating, the year is drawing to a close, and opportunity for achievement has arrived.

Consider the different situations you will find yourself in.

For the person who does not study regularly, these last few weeks of school will be almost unbearable, for it is during this time that all "neglected" work must be made up and in the doing, a great pool of "midnight oil" consumed. The fate of many still hangs in the balance, and only the work done in these last few days will serve to determine success or failure.

FOR THOSE WHO study consistently, these days are no harder nor less enjoyable than any other group of days in the semester. Through constant effort and uninterrupted performance of one's assigned tasks, the work has been made easier accomplished in smaller portions so that it is not so difficult to digest.

After all, it does seem inconsistent that one should spend a great deal of good, usable time playing around in the first part of the last semester and then take on a fanatically studious attitude for the last week in an attempt to "get through."

Many Practice 'Steady' Dating

Can you imagine looking at the same boy or girl every time you go on a date for three long years plus five months and nine days? We think it might get a little boring, but some people seem to like it that way.

THESE COUPLES are:

Ronald Johnson and Delores Wilke have been seen about the local teen sports for the past eleven months.

Jack Bradford and Susan Benson have made a twosome since September.

John Hays and Karen Lytle have gotten along without too much trouble since September also.

Stanley Byrnes and Kay Bradley have kept it going off and on for three years, five months and nine days!

Don Moore and Paralynd Render and also Lint Merritt and Debra Summers have been going together since the same night in January in 1966.

RODNEY HUTTO and Vikki Olfte, despite numerous disputes, are still going together after two years and eight months.

Ronnie Hutton and Mary Lynn Hays have been seen dragging main in Ronnie's Mustang for about one year.

Mark Cleavinger and Linda Bennett after the flower bloomed in junior high have been going together for two and one-half years.

Charles Summers and Sue Lust have made the scene for two years and six months.

Ray Bradley and A'llan Webb have been seen together steadily for two years.

JOHN HOWELL and Shelly George have been seen together for a sum of two months.

Jerry Birdwell and Debbie Wilson have gotten along together for three and a half months.

Steve Smith and Joan Braafadt have been going together for two and one-half years.

Tommy Stafford and Donna Dehtan have been steady dates for about two years and they will become Mr. and Mrs. on May 28.

Randy Hasley and Judy Arnold have gone together for two months.

Garland Jarvin and Beth Moore have been a two-some for a sum of three months.

Carolyn Simpson and Ronnie Andrews have seen a lot of each other for the last eight months.

SUSAN WALKER and Ricky Flippin have been steadies for more than two years, and come June, they will make it permanent.

Kita Struve and Junior Hargrove have been going together for three years and four months as of May 14.

There are a few other couples in DHS, but this is a sample of how love goes in Dimmitt High School.

What Is Your Idea of Success?

This morning I picked up a magazine and noticed an advertisement which read "Why Throw Rocks at Your Best Friend?" and I wondered if this should apply only to an advertisement.

I COULD only think of some of the unruly, unethical happenings across our nation's college campuses as some of the students there openly criticize and riot against the government of our America. Why would anyone want to destroy what so many have given their lives to protect? Why would anyone throw rocks at the one thing which offers them protection against force and gives to each the opportunity to climb as high as he or she will, on the ladder of success?

Thinking still closer home, why will citizens seek to destroy the element of strength of the one great institution of each community, our school, by lack of cooperation? So many who are uninformed would seek to join the throng of those who would force their own opinions, and ideas to the front instead of seeking a workable solution?

WHAT IS success anyway? Is it achieving one's goal at the expense of all others? Or is it as Robert Browning once wrote: "If you can sit at set of sun and count the deeds that you have done And counting find One self-denying act, one word That eased the heart of him that heard One glance most kind, which fell like sunshine where he went, Then you may count that day well spent"

I believe Mr. Browning's philosophy coupled with that of the words of Thomas Edison, who said, "The three great essentials to achieve anything worthwhile are, first, hard work; second, stick-to-itiveness; third, common sense," would mean success in the life of anyone who applied them seriously.

Sen. Tower

By SEN. JOHN TOWER (R-Texas)

For many, many days over the last month the Senate has been engaged in penetrating debate of something called the "Presidential Election Campaign Fund Act."

ALTHOUGH this is a very complex legislative matter, I believe all Texans should understand it, because it is a threat to our free electoral system. It involves the Federal bureaucracy directly in the free campaign process for the first time in our nation's history.

This Presidential Election Campaign Fund Act is a mistake and should be repealed by Congress. The Senate took the first step in that direction this week.

The Act authorizes financing of presidential election campaigns not by political parties but with taxpayer funds taken from the US Treasury. On their income-tax forms, taxpayers would find a box to check which would allow the Secretary of the Treasury to deduct one dollar from their taxes and split it equally between the Republican and Democratic parties.

I HAVE studied, taught and practiced the art of American politics for my entire adult life, and in my opinion this use of tax funds for political purposes does irreparable damage and violence to our free, independent political institutions. It revises the American political system which has served as the most responsive and stable in the entire world.

This potential taxpayer financing of political campaigns is objectionable for several key reasons: It effectively prohibits use of such taxpayer funds to support third-party candidates. By limiting its benefits to Republicans and Democrats it, in effect, takes funds from all the citizenry and gives them back only to a part of the citizenry. Although I personally do not believe third-party movements are beneficial to the American system, neither do I think it is constitutional to legislate against those parties.

EVER MORE serious is the implication of this Campaign Act that political parties are arms of the federal government. Political parties are not government agencies. In order to serve the best interests of the American people, parties must remain essentially private organizations, seeking wide voluntary membership.

Strong and independent political parties are necessary to check dangerous trends in the bureaucracy. Political parties are watchdogs, and the louder they bark the safer we are. They are private institutions seeking to influence public actions.

Those nations of this world in which the government bureaucracy and the political party are essentially one and the same are not nations Americans have regarded as models of progress and liberty.

ANOTHER result of the Campaign Act would be as an invitation to the taxpayer not to bother too much about political candidates and their qualifications.

This Act relieves the would-be political contributor of the responsibility of deciding which political party he wishes to support. It relieves him of the responsibility to review the issues of the day and to support the party which best represents his views. It relieves him of the responsibility of studying the candidates and of weighing and comparing their abilities and talents. It thus discourages the making of value judgments by contributors — it will lead to machine-picked candidates and will promote political mediocrity.

BUT, WHAT I call real Pandora's box feature of this Campaign Act is its tendency to further engage the federal bureaucracy in politics. No matter how concretely safeguards are written into the law, this Act can do nothing else than further entrench bureaucracy in politics.

With that assured result in mind, we need only look ahead to the inevitable future requests that the one-dollar limit be increased to five, then ten, then 50 dollars, until eventually political parties will be totally dependent on the bureaucracy rather than responsive to the people.

There is no doubt that political campaigning today is expensive. I do not, however, think we should allow the federal government to take the lid off campaign spending the way it has taken the lid off its own governmental spending.

I SEE NO social progress in encouraging bureaucracy-linked political parties to outsell, outshout and outspend each other from guaranteed financial sources. I believe private American citizens must retain the opportunity to withhold financing at the first sign that their elected officials are not living up to the standards expected of them.

In short — in our American system of liberty and government it is not the responsibility of the citizen to guarantee every party unearned solvency; rather it is the responsibility of the parties to make themselves by their policies and candidates worthy of citizen support.

FTA Students Hold 'Teach-In'

The Dimmitt chapter of Future Teachers of America had its annual teaching day in the Dimmitt Public Schools on Friday, May 12.

TWENTY-SIX students, whose futures will possible be in the field of public school teaching, walked into their first classroom as a teacher bright and early Friday morning.

Each was full of eager anticipation for what the day would bring. Many sincerely hoped to obtain a glimpse into what the future as a teacher has to offer.

Twenty-six faculty members left their classrooms for a day to hand it over to student resources.

Some of the "teachers" were a little more confused, a little more excited, and even a little more eager about their future as a public school teacher. Each student gained some insight into the heartaches and the joys that a teacher experiences each day in a typical classroom.

THE FUTURE Teachers have been distributing bumper stickers for the Class Room Teachers Association which read: "Support Youth — Our Future Teachers," and "Teachers are Worth It." The Future Teachers would like to urge everyone to place these gaily colored slogans on their cars.

Senator Votes For Modified Teacher Raise

Senator Jack Hightower of Vernon cast his vote with the Senate majority last week in approving a $55 million teacher pay raise.

THE PROPOSED raise was in one-year spending bill to finance state governmental machinery for 1968. The budget was sent to the House.

Although the Senate spending bill is $12.7 over appropriated income from taxes and other revenue, Senate leaders were confident there would be a revised budget estimate which would allow certification of the bill, Hightower reported.

A pay-as-you-go provision in the state Constitution prohibits appropriations in excess of projected income estimates.

THE SENATE proposal provides teachers with an average pay increase of $635 for next year, somewhat short of the goal of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Sensors also approved an amendment to the spending bill which would provide a $700,000 boost in old age assistance. The proposal would increase average payments from $62 to $67 per month.

The Legislature has less than three weeks to work out an appropriations bill acceptable to both houses before the current session ends.

Pasture Pointers Pay

(Editor's Note: If you are nurturing an irrigated pasture, it will pay you to heed this conservation advice developed for Castro County by Allen King, Soil Conservation Service agronomist from Amarillo, and Pete Wright, Dimmitt SCS work unit conservationist. Here are their tips on the proper management of irrigated pastures in this area.)

By ALLEN KING
And PETE WRIGHT

Too few are aware that 95 percent of the material used by grass to produce its food comes from the air.

These materials, combined with a proper balance of plant leaf surface and nutrients and moisture from the soil, go together to grow grass.

Since the only factors that we can control are the leaf surface, fertilization and soil moisture, it is necessary to provide the proper balance of the three to produce the maximum amount of forage.

LEAF SURFACE

Since nearly all plant food is produced in the leaves by the action of sunlight on the green pigment of the leaf surface, it is necessary to keep an adequate height on the grass AT ALL TIMES. (Optimum minimum grazing heights are 5 inches for Bermuda grass, 10 inches for Switchgrass and 4 inches for Western Wheatgrass.)

FERTILIZATION

Plant food for growth and maintenance is the result of the combination of carbon dioxide from the air with nutrients from the soil (N-P-K-other elements). Grass producers must provide the needed amounts of these elements and the amount provided will dictate (along with leaf surface and irrigation) the amount of forage produced.

An example of the fertility requirements to produce Bermuda grass defines this need very clearly:

1. To produce one ton (2,000 lbs.) dry Bermuda hay requires 100 lbs. of nutrients (30-N, 10-P, 30-K, 30-other elements including trace minerals.)

2. To feed one animal unit per day requires 30 lbs. dry forage (the equivalent of 900 lbs. per month).

BASED ON AN OBJECTIVE OF carrying one animal unit per acre for five months, this will require 4,500 lbs. of dry forage. Keeping in mind that it requires about 40 percent of growth to maintain grass, this means producing approximately 7,500 pounds of air dry forage per acre (or 3.75 tons).

A further conclusion can thus be drawn that it will take approximately 110 lbs. N, 35 lbs. P, 110 lbs. K, and 110 lbs. of other elements including trace minerals to produce this 3.75 tons per acre forage requirement.

In addition, a well fertilized pasture uses about one-third less water to produce a ton of air dry forage than one that is poorly fertilized.

IRRIGATION

Irrigation water should be applied at regular intervals.

It is known that grasses use as much as 0.3 of an inch of water per day during the period of most active growth. Bermuda grass, for example, uses about 500 lbs. of water to produce one pound of air dry forage. Therefore, it will require 4.5 acre inches of water to produce one ton of air dry forage.

Based on a need for producing 3.75 tons of forage per acre, it will be necessary to apply a net application of approximately 17 inches of water during the growing season. (Based on a 70 percent efficiency of application, this will require some 25 acre inches of water during the growing season.)

In addition to the three main factors of leaf surface, fertilization and irrigation, there are other management factors that can be controlled. Among these are:

ROTATION GRAZING

Division of pastures into equally productive blocks with fences will facilitate management of livestock grazing at regular intervals and will provide time for needed regrowth, application of fertilizers, irrigation, and needed drying periods for the grasses following irrigation.

LIVESTOCK WATER AND MINERALS

A plentiful supply of clean, fresh water should be made available to each grazing block. Minerals essential to cattle growth, proper lactation, etc., should be provided.

HANDLING OF MANURE

Plans should be made to scatter droppings to prevent clumping and loss of forage production area. This can best be accomplished by running over the just-grazed area with a drag harrow or an open tandem disc.

DORMANT SEASON MANAGEMENT

Remove livestock from pastures in time to leave sufficient cover for dormant season protection and regrowth.

SUMMARY

The success or failure of any irrigated pasture lies in its ability to produce forage. Production, in turn, is governed by the management given by the farmer or rancher. A balanced consideration of the aforementioned factors is the key to assuring success of irrigated pastures.

'Shirtsleeves' Conference Set

Ralph T. Price, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee has announced three farm policy meetings to be held this month.

THE MEETING for this area will be held Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Lamesa High School auditorium, 14th & Avenue F, Lamesa.

These meetings were requested by the Secretary of Agriculture to learn the current thinking of county, area and state leaders of farm organizations and of individual farmers. Agency officials are to report to the secretary the comments and recommendations of those attending.

Secretary Freeman recently held three such "shirtsleeves" meetings with farmers in major Midwest states. He returned to Washington convinced that such face-to-face talks are worthwhile in reaching important policy and program decisions.

"Along with the statistics I get from our economists," he has said, "I constantly need the personalized and highly specific information that comes out of peoples' experience. I also need the best ideas I can get from farmers and their leaders as to how to improve our programs and improve farm prices and income."

PRICE said that special invitations to attend the state meetings have been sent to farm leaders, and that area farmers also are invited to attend. Farmers will be encouraged to participate freely.

Woodworkers Win At Lubbock Fair

Dimmitt High School's wood-working class won two firsts and two seconds Saturday at the South Plains Industrial Arts Fair in Lubbock.

The all-South Plains schoolboy show was held in the Hodges Memorial Center.

JOE BILL BUTLER won first place in the senior woodturning division for his walnut-maple laminated stein. His entry was judged the outstanding entry from Dimmitt at the exhibition.

Steve Smith placed first in the sophomore woodturning division with his maple and birch lamp.

Second places went to Kenneth Oldham in the senior woodturning division with a walnut-maple laminated nut bowl, and to Johnny Davis in the sporting weapons division for his ebony crossbow with maple inlay.

G. L. DuBOSE, DHS woodworking instructor, was a judge in the junior high division of the fair.

First Christian Bible School Dates Are Set

Mrs. Bedford W. Smith, wife of the minister of First Christian Church, will direct the Daily Vacation Bible School set for the week beginning June 5, just one week after the closing of school.

SESSIONS of the DVBS will be conducted daily Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 11:00 a.m. for children 3 years of age through junior high.

Mrs. Smith will be assisted by the minister and a faculty including Mrs. Kent Gabel, Mrs. Tommy Kellar, Mrs. Paul Fry, Mrs. George Gabel, Mrs. Dexter McCaughy, Mrs. Roy Johnson and others.

Theme of the school is "Walking in Jesus' Way." The closing program will be at 6 p.m. Sunday, June 11.

IN ADDITION to children now attending Bible School at First Christian Church on Sundays, other children will be welcome. It is the desire of the DVBS faculty and the church that parents of children not now in any other church's Sunday School should call Minister of Mrs. Smith at 647-5478 so the Minister or other faculty member may visit the home and enroll their children.

Early enrollment may be necessary so enough literature and supplies may be ordered, Minister Smith said. Also, enrollment will be limited to the church's available room capacity.

MRS. BEDFORD SMITH was honored at Sunday morning services by being chosen as the 1967 Christian Church Mother of the Year for the Dimmitt church. In prior years the minister has ruled the minister's wife ineligible along with mothers who had been so honored in former years. This year he forgot to tell the church, he said. Mrs. Othele (Ethel) Fry was presented a gift also for being the Christian Church mother present who had been a Christian the most years (over 40) and Mrs. Paul (Glenna) Fry for being the youngest mother present.

At evening services the Kent Gabels received recognition as being the only complete family present, other than the minister's whose children form families of their own.

It's Smart To Install Gas Air Conditioning
Play it smart. Give gas air conditioning a careful, hard-nosed look. Really get into it and you'll find there are no moving parts in the cooling cycle... so there's minimum maintenance. Check into the service. It's provided by Pioneer so you are sure it's dependable. And gas is famous for economy — no need to ration coolness. Play it smart and you'll play it cool for trouble-free years and years.

Final Event Set For Eighth Grade

Dimmitt Junior High School's awards assembly won't be the traditional daytime event this year. Instead, it will be held next Thursday night, and will be the final event of the school year for DJHS students.
PRINCIPAL Bill Reisdorph said the program will begin at 8 p.m., and will include the awarding of diplomas to 130 eighth graders; honor roll certificates to seventh and eighth grade honor students; and American Legion and citizenship awards to two boys and two girls.
"This will not be a formal ceremony. Children shouldn't dress up for it - they should just wear their regular school clothes."
DJHS students will not have classes May 26, Reisdorph said. All report cards not previously picked up at the school office will be mailed out May 26.

FTA Members Get Class Experience

The hal's of South Grade School overflowed with excitement Friday morning as members of the Future Teachers of America from Dimmitt High School participated as "Teachers for the Day."

Grade 3 was taught by Linda Bruton, Chris James and Peggy Godfrey.
The students, teachers and Mrs. Helen Richardson, principal, expressed their appreciation to the FTA girls for "a job well done."
"IT WAS certainly a rewarding day for all of us, but we feel it was a profitable experience for each of you," Mrs. Richardson told the FTA members. "We trust that by our words, actions and deeds that we sold school teaching to you for a lifelong profession.
South Grade School will initiate the Continuous Progress Program in the first grade next fall. Miss Hawkins and Mrs. Upfold visited the Hale Center School's Friday and witnessed this program in action. Marian Hays, Mrs. Strother, Mrs. Cockreham and Mrs. Keller traveled to Plainview and spent the day observing in several schools. The teachers returned with many new ideas and a greater desire to engage in the program.
Fifty-two members of the Dimmitt High School Class of 1967 attended the "senior supper" given by the First Assembly of God Church Monday evening.
THE SENIORS were served a fried chicken dinner by ladies of the church, and Rev. John Sewell extended the church's welcome to the class, noting that every member of the class was present.

Rabies Pose Outdoor Threat

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department cautioned outdoor recreationalists to avoid contact with "friendly" wild creatures because of recent rabies cases.
A SPOKESMAN said any wild creature that does not reflect normal fright at the approach of a human being might well be considered suspiciously.
An 18-year-old Sherman youth began rabies shots after being wounded by a bobcat that leaped from a tree upon him during a swim in Lake Texhoma. A companion was less severely clawed.
The pair unsuccessfully tried to subdue the animal with a tree limb but it escaped and a physician considered rabies shots the appropriate treatment for the wounded lad.
Near Brownwood, in an area where a skunk attacked two young boys, requiring rabies inoculation, an opossum later bit a man on the foot when he stepped from his car.
NEAR CHRISTOVAL in West Texas, confirmed rabies cases involving a raccoon and a fox were reported.
The raccoon tried to climb into a pickup truck occupied by a man and his wife. The fox was killed. State Department of Health tests in Austin confirmed that the animal had rabies.
Similarly, the department found positive symptoms on the head of a fox that attacked horses near Christoval.
Two of the horses were so badly bitten they had to be treated by a veterinarian who also administered rabies shots.
In the same general area, antics of another raccoon created suspicions of rabies that could not be confirmed.

SURPRISED WINNER GETS 'WOMAN OF YEAR' PLAQUE . . . From Mrs. Irene Keating, right

Mrs. M. F. McRee HD Woman of Year

Mrs. M. F. McRee, president of the Mulkey Home Demonstration Club, was named Castro County's "HD Club Woman of the Year" last Thursday at the 1967 Texas Home Demonstration Association luncheon in the Colonial Inn.

SHE WAS presented an engraved silver tray by Mrs. Irene Keating, county HD agent, who announced the award winner.

The new County HD Club Woman of the Year has been a home demonstration club member 23 years, is a 4-H clothing project leader, and is the mother of five, including a son in Vietnam.

Other candidates for the award were Mrs. Rayphard Smithson of Flagg and Mrs. Donald Gilbreath of Bethel.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. D. L. Cleaver, HD Council chairman.

MARTHA NITSA, American Field Service exchange student at Dimmitt High School, was the main speaker. She told about life and customs in her native Greece, explaining that Greek mothers do not choose their children's names, that name days are observed instead of birthdays, and that most marriages are arranged on a dowry-barter basis.

Miss Nitsa said newborn babies aren't named immediately, and that when they are named it is their Godparents who name them — not their parents.

All given names in Greece are historic religious names, she said, and Greeks observe "name days" instead of birthdays. Everyone in Greece celebrates on their established "name day," regardless of their birth dates, she said.

Credit: Useful But Dangerous

By IRNE KEATING

This Saturday, at 9 a.m. in the assembly room of the courthouse will be the 4-H Girls Better Bake Show. We look forward to seeing all the 4-H girls there.

This week I'd like to share some very useful information on credit. It would be beneficial to all of us to heed this information.

CREDIT: THE PROS AND CONS

Credit is like fire — easy to start, very useful, but extremely dangerous if one is careless with it. Consumer credit can be a help or hindrance, depending on how it is used. Credit is a powerful force in the American life. Those who use it intelligently and with restraint have obtained the things they want.

BUT ONLY those who have stayed master of their credit have been served well. It has helped many families to furnish a home, buy a car, and meet all kinds of financial emergencies. On the other hand it has caused many families worry, hardship and loss.

Families can seldom match their income with expenditures. And this has been true as far back in history as the time of William Shakespeare who said, "... so far as my coin would stretch; and where it would not, I have used credit." Because of this, good financial management often includes the wise use of credit, especially for large and infrequent purchases.

The use of credit can be constructive when it will advance the long-term goals of the family, when goods purchased on credit give enough satisfaction to compensate for family adjustments necessary to pay for the debt, and when the family decides it is more sensible to use credit than to save and pay cash later. By using credit, the family can buy such items as automobiles, equipment, and furnishings when they are most needed.

HOW MUCH CREDIT

Each family must decide for itself whether the use of credit should be included in its financial management. The amount of credit that can be safely used depends on:

- Current income and income prospects.
- Current fixed expenditures.
- Size of the family.
- Family's stage in the life cycle.
- Thrift habits of family members.

SINCE THESE factors vary from family to family, there is no one "rule" that can be set for use of credit by all families. Many financial counselors use a rule of thumb that a family should not commit itself for installment payments amounting to more than 20 percent of its income. The truth is that many families would be unwise to commit as much as 15, 10, or even 5 percent of their income to installment payments.

WHO USES CREDIT?

It has been estimated that in the society of the 60's over 70 percent of American families use consumer credit in one form or another. This credit (excluding home financing) falls into two general classes: installment and non-installment.

Installment credit accounts for more than three-fourths of the total, with automobile installment paper alone accounting for almost one-third of total consumer credit.

The widespread use of credit has done much to expand the American economy. In fact, there is much truth in Daniel Webster's statement that "Credit has done a thousand times more to enrich mankind than all the gold mines in the world."

ON THE other hand, there is ever present the risk that the consumer may over-extend himself and not be able to meet all his debts. Consumer debt has grown enormously since World War II, and continues to expand at a rapid rate.

In 1945 consumer debt was less than $6 billion, one-fortieth the size of the Federal debt. High incomes during war years, combined with shortages of consumer goods, had led consumers to reduce their debt to a low level. In October 1956, the Federal Reserve Board estimated personal indebtedness of consumers at $92 billion, one-third the size of the Federal debt.

A recent survey of consumer expenditures by the Bureau of Labor statistics shows that, on the average, urban families with annual income after taxes of less than $4,000 overspend their total money income for current expenses. For instance, those with an income under $2,000 spend 26 percent more than this income for current consumption; those with incomes of $3,000 to $4,000 spend 6 percent more.

ACCORDING to recent research, the following facts are true of American consumers:

Donna Kay Waggoner

June 3 Date Set

A June 3 wedding is planned by Miss Donna Kay Waggoner of Hereford and Erwin Gale Scott of Birmingham, Ala.

ANNOUNCING the engagement and forthcoming marriage are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waggoner of Dimmitt.

Scott, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scott of Hereford is manager for Quick Mart Stores in Alabama.

County Chairman Elected for VA

Mrs. Bud Griffin, 404 NW Third St., has been elected Castro County chairman for VA Hospital aid to veterans' families.

She said any families wishing information on the Amarillo VA Hospital may phone her at 647-5438.

—About one out of two households has some installment debt.

—63 percent of the $6,000 to $7,500 income class use installment credit.

—Over 70 percent of two or more person households with heads between 18 and 34 years have installment debt.

THESE situations involving low income and young families lead easily to exploitation. Dealers used to give credit to make profit through a sale, but now they often sell to make a profit on credit. Many are encouraged with misleading promises such as "No Money Down," "Only a dollar down and a dollar a week," "Easy Easy Payments," or "Loans on your signature."

It's easy for the poorly educated consumer to get carried away with such promises. But not only the unsophisticated and economically despairing are confused by today's credit practices; even the wary and well-to-do find it almost impossible to make intelligent decisions about credit. The maze of methods for stating consumer credit costs confuse, confound, and often mask the true financing costs.

WHAT IS the "true" cost of credit?

The dollar cost of credit varies from lender to lender, most of whom express it in annual rates beginning at about 4 percent. For some merchants and lenders, however, the sky is the limit for credit charges — and the unscrupulous ones sometimes reach the 500 percent mark.

Most consumers compare prices of things they buy, such as cars and TV sets, so why not compare prices when they buy money — which is what they are doing when they borrow money or buy merchandise on installment credit? Shopping for credit is as important as shopping for anything else!

A University of California survey team has learned that four-fifths of the families who bought their cars in the installment plan did not check with credit sources other than their car dealers. Most thought they were paying 5 to 6 percent, but the average interest rate was 22.9 percent and some actually paid 32.5 percent. If the families had shopped for credit, they could have saved anywhere from $4 to $439 according to the researchers.

MISUSED credit takes its toll in many ways — not only in wasted dollars, but also in the form of broken families.

Recent statistics show that many early marriages end in divorce; in fact, among teenage couples half of the marriages end in separation or divorce. The cause? Major explanation for these young marriage failures is the immature use of money.

Typical comments from young couples whose homes were threatened because of financial problems include:

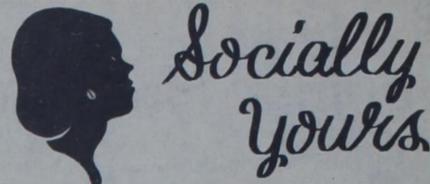

"It's so easy to borrow money. Stay away from small loan companies. The way they appeal to families — just sending you letters encouraging you to borrow."

"YOU HAVE a job and you buy. Then no job for awhile and creditors get on you 'cause you want to keep the things you bought."

"I always thought we could pay, but something happened."

"I think that banks and loan companies should stop using the term 'easy payment' because there is no such thing as an easy payment."

Overextension of credit by thousands of Americans who are spending more than they earn has led to financial disaster for their families. The question is often asked, "Do people still go bankrupt?" Unfortunately, the answer is

'Costumes' Topic Of Book Review

"Costumes Throughout History" was the book reviewed by Mrs. Jack Miller last week at the luncheon meeting of the Dimmitt Book Club.

THE MEETING was held at the Hereford Country Club. During her review, Mrs. Miller showed slides depicting the complete evolution of human clothing, from the fur and leaf clothing of early man to today's miniskirts.

Hostesses were Mrs. Charlie Hays, Mrs. Noel Golehon and Mrs. James Horton.

Miss Hazel Merritt conducted the business session and announced names of book reviewers for next year. The club's main project is sponsorship of the Castro County Library.

OUT OF TOWN guests among the 75 attending were Mrs. Sam Hunter of Da'hart, author of the Castro County historical book, "The Moving Finger"; Mrs. N. F. Welch and Mrs. Steve Struve of Fricra, mother and sister of Mrs. Miller.

LARRY BEAUCHAMP ADDRESSES JAYCEES, LAWMEN
"You can't have better enforcement than your community wants"

Public Must Back Up Lawmen, Jaycees Told

"We all have to band together for better law enforcement — not only our law officers, but our people, too. Lawmen have to be backed up by the community if we're to have good law protection."

THIS WAS the main point emphasized by Larry Beauchamp, assistant police chief of Brownfield, as he spoke last week to 40 Dimmitt Jaycees and lawmen at a special "Lawmen's Day" luncheon.

The Jaycees had as their guests members of the city police department, county sheriff's office, "night patrol," fish and game department, and Texas Ranger unit.

The meeting, held in the Colonial Inn Restaurant, was a local event to National Law Week, now underway.

BEAUCHAMP, an 11-year law enforcement veteran and FBI Academy graduate, started his speech by quoting President Theodore Roosevelt: "You won't be able to have better law enforcement than your community wants."

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ramey and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ramey were Sunday dinner guests of Bub and Emily Ramey in Amarillo.

Touching on the new code of investigative procedures in effect since last year, Beauchamp said "When it gets to where you can't talk to a man at all, it really hinders an investigation."

He noted a recent appeals court decision in which a man's conviction was reversed because at the time he was arrested and booked, neither he nor the arresting officer had a dime to use the available pay phone, so he hadn't gotten to make the one phone call to which he was constitutionally entitled.

"THIS GETS pretty silly when you look at it closely," Beauchamp said.

He said cooperation between law enforcement agencies — both in the same city and between cities — is becoming more and more important as criminals devise more sophisticated methods.

"Most of the biggest burglaries in small towns in our area, for instance, are committed by people from other towns," he said. "Burglars even are using planes now to avoid suspicion. They can work

ASCS Notes

Measuring Service Offered; Cotton Vote Deadline Friday

By CHARLEY HILL
Secretary

We are now taking requests for measuring service. Farm operators who want ASCS personnel to measure cotton, feed grain or diverted acres may make their requests at this time.

The charge for this service is the same as it was for wheat.

It is optional with you on requesting this service, but all operators will need to certify to their acreages by Aug. 15, 1967, to comply with the Feed Grain and/or Cotton Programs.

Measuring service may be requested until June 5, 1967.

COTTON VOTE — LAST CALL

The referendum to decide only the question of whether upland cotton allotments may be transferred by sale or lease to another farm outside the county during the next two years is being held by mail through Friday.

You can mail in your marked ballot, or bring it to the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service Office during the above time. Your ballot must either be in the ASCS Office by the close of business or be postmarked by midnight May 19 to be counted. Voting started Monday.

YOU ARE eligible to vote in the referendum if you are an upland cotton producer in the county. If you have any questions about being eligible to vote, please contact the County ASCS Office.

Ballots were mailed to all known eligible cotton producers. If you are eligible to vote and did not receive a ballot, please contact the County ASCS Office.

Your ballot was mailed to you in two envelopes. One is plain and the other has a statement on the back which you need to sign. Be sure to follow the voting instructions.

IN MAILING your ballot to the County ASCS Office, you should mark your ballot with your decision. Put the ballot inside the plain envelope and seal it. Then place the plain envelope, containing the ballot, inside the envelope with the certification on the back and the address of the County ASCS Office on the front. The certification on the envelope must be signed for your ballot to be counted.

All eligible ballots will be counted publicly by the ASCS County Committee on May 24 at 9 a.m. in the Castro County ASCS Office.

HOLIDAY: The Castro County ASCS Office will be closed on Tuesday, May 30, 1967 in observance of Memorial Day.

Thought: You can lose respect by constantly finding fault.

Pink Lady Party Line

By ADELL HILL

First things first, ladies! Please make a special notation of Saturday.

Why? Because the Hospital Auxiliary is sponsoring a rummage and 'white elephant' sale this Saturday.

Where? To be on the courthouse lawn, weather permitting. Otherwise Nolan Froehner's building on the north side of the square will be our home for the day for your comfort and convenience.

The advantage is twofold: First, anyone who wishes to clean out closets and storage space is invited to bring rummage to be sold.

Secondly, the proceeds are used in some project beneficial to the hospital, not to mention how much fun it is going through a collection of this sort.

Rev. Weldon McCormick was an inspirational guest speaker last Wednesday for the Auxiliary members who attended the month's meeting at the First Methodist Church. Mrs. C. W. Anthony presented Mrs. G. I. Cingringsmith with a past president's pin.

Mrs. Charles Armstrong will be in charge of an orientation program Friday. Please meet at the hospital at 11:30 a.m. for lunch, then get acquainted with your hospital and the routine duties. New members will find this very informative, along with members who have not attended an orientation program.

Mrs. Swain Burkett and Mrs. J. C. Gilbreath are anticipating a trip to Houston to attend the Texas State Hospital Auxiliary convention this May 21 through 24.

Mrs. J. L. Ross called me to say she is offering her garage for a collection place for rummage until Saturday. Her phone number is 647-2464. Thank You.

AFTER refreshments and a snack at the Griffin home, the surprised honoree, his wife and the guests went to the VFW post home for a birthday party. Twenty-three guests returned to the Griffin home afterwards for an early breakfast.

Mrs. Howard Slates Recital

Mrs. Keith Howard will present 80 of her students in piano and organ recitals tonight and Friday night in the First Methodist Church. BOTH NIGHTS' schedules call for a boys' recital at 7:30 and a girls' recital at 8, Mrs. Howard said.

From My Heart to Yours

Another article in this space announces that Mr. Joe Whitten will be with us this Sunday morning in view of a call to fill the position of Music-Educational director. This is the culmination of months of work, prayer and concern on the part of our committee. I know that many have been praying that our Lord would give us direction in this vital matter.

It is my belief that this has happened. I know of no more talented and dedicated man in his field than Joe Whitten. He is anxious to do the Lord's work, he is anxious to do it well and has been endowed with the talents to do so.

I know our choir will respond with great attendance and effort on Sunday morning. I pray that we can have a large attendance both in Sunday School and the worship service.

Let me say again that my great joy is to be your pastor. If ever I can be of any help, please let me.

Your pastor and friend,
Frank Pollard

50 YEARS AGO today, on May 18, 1917, School Board President Harvey Cash presented diplomas to these six members of the Dimmitt High School graduating class of 1917. Preparedness was the key word then, too, with the world at war. Class members, all still living, were (from bottom) Helen Cowser Kikore, now of Roscoe; Dora Turner Johnson, still living in Dimmitt; Mabel Hyatt Kimbell, now of Portales, N. M.; Cooper Woodburn, now of Amarillo; Lillie Easter Dickey, now of Wichita Falls; and Douglas O'Brien, now of Lubbock. There were only three teachers in Dimmitt's school system that year - Miss Millicent Griffith, Miss Addie Hodges and Miss Bonnie McPherson.

Grain Sorghum CHAFF

By WES ANTHONY I do not believe many of you will say I am a pessimist, but it seems we must do something pretty fast. I am not the oldest farmer in the county, but I can remember when we could buy two tractors for what one costs now. When I first moved to the farm I hired a good hand for $25 per month. Now you pay from $50 to $100 per week and furnish a house and all utilities.

AS I SAID, it is high time to organize and help ourselves. And this is exactly what GSPA is trying so hard to do. And it is doing so much at such a small cost to us - only two-tenths of one percent if you have fully cooperated.

Any business man would be tickled if he could advertise for this small cost.

Do not forget, the Good Book tells us to love one another. -Wes
