Fair preparations continue

Residents of Floyd and surrounding counties can enter competitions at the Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair in areas of interest to almost everyone including livestock, arts and crafts, tractor driving, educational exhibits, community exhibits, a pet show, textiles, and canned-fruit and vegetables.

Community exhibits are exhibits from each community and are confined to products grown in the area in 1981.

Each exhibit must show 15 different kinds of agricultural products, selected from a fair committee list, and will be judged on the basis of neatness, attractiveness and general arrangement.

Agriculture exhibits are limited to one sample in each category, from the same farm or individual and must have been grown in 1981.

Categories offered are cotton, heads and ears (corn), grains and seeds, cured bundles for forage, bales, vegetables, fruits, and stalks.

Educational exhibits may be submitted by adult clubs or organizations and youth clubs or organizations.

These exhibits are judged on the basis of effective title, suitable subject, ability to hold interest, message conveyed, general appearance, and workmanship.

A junior showmanship contest is open to boys and girls eight years of age or younger. Entries will be beef cattle, sheep and swine under one year of age. Judging will be on showmanship only and not on the condition of the animals.

A general livestock competition is open for the showing of sheep, heifers, steers, and lambs. All entries must be owned, fed, and shown by 4-H and FFA club members.

The pet show, sponsored by Il Peneroso Study Club, is for children aged 12 or under to show their pets.

All animals must be in a cage or on leash and the child must be able to handle the pet.

Ribbons will be given in the following categories: smallest pet, largest pet, longest tail, shortest tail, curliest tail, happiest face, saddest face, longest ears, furriest pet, roly-poly pet, most unusual pet, most spots, best trick, biggest eyes, best showmanship, best pet costume, and pet and master look alike.

The tractor driving contest is held in four categories: grade school age, high school age, above high school age, and men and women. The entrants must drive a marked course around stakes and be timed. Judging is on the basis of both elapsed time and penalty points for touching stakes.

Art competitions are open for teachers, adults, youth, and children. All entries must be less than three years old, and all must be the work of the exhibitor.

Textile competitions are offered for embroidery, knitting, crochet, tatting, infant clothing, sewn clothing, accessories, applique, needlecraft, crewel, weaving, and latch hooking. All entrants must be amateurs in the category entered, and all entries must be the work of the exhibitor.

Canned fruits and vegetables can be entered for competition including pickles, relishes, and jellies. All entries must be submitted in sealed standard glass canning jars, and labeled as to contents.

Culinary products may be entered for judging such as breads, cakes, candies, pies, and cookies. Open half dozens of single such as candies, cookies, biscuits, rolls, cupcakes, etc., and whole cakes or pies are entered.

In the youth department entries can be taken only from leaders of organized groups such as 4-H, Girl Scouts, homemaking teachers, etc.

Competitions are offered in household linens, clothing, canned fruits, canned vegetables, pickles, preserves and jellies and culinary goods.

The craft department accepts entries in both adult and youth divisions. Categories include leather crafts, ceramics, reed weaving, jewelry, macrame, and decorative arrangements.

Deadlines for entries in the fair contests are September 10 in most cases. Either cash prizes or ribbons are awarded to winners in each contest.

Entries in most of the competitions will be on exhibit throughout the fair, September 10, 11, and 12.

Floyd County budget filed

The proposed 1982 budget for Floyd County was filed with the county clerk this week.

However, the county auditor, Olin Watson Jr. says he is not satisfied with the budget at it stands. Nor is county judge Chose Smith, who with Watson prepared the budget.

"This is not the best budget," Watson pointed out, "there is really not enough money coming in to cover the expenses."

The budget will be presented in public hearing September 14 at 2 p.m. in the county courtroom.

At that time every expenditure and every service provided by the county

Veterans Office expenses since so many services of that office are now duplicated in Lubbock.

The 1982 budget is based on income from the ad valorem taxes, fees, auto licenses, fines and court costs and other income during the coming year.

Taxes are collected from October 1, 1981 to cover expenditures for the following year. The Floyd County budget year begins January 1, and ends on December 31.

Floyd County's assessed valuation for 1981 is $304,699,067 according to the Floyd County Central Appraisal District.

The proposed budget's tax rate is 31 cents per $100 valuation. Taxes levied will amount to $944,566.

It is estimated that 95% of the taxes will be collected, according to Jonelle Fawver, county tax collector.

The new budget anticipates receipts for 1982 at $1,245,543 and estimates expenditures at $1,244,250.

The budget includes a $100 per month salary increase for each county employee and elected official.

It includes increased expenses for office supplies, utilities, postage, the trapper, feeding county jail prisoners and a few other items.

Co-op Gin nets over $1 million

Cooperative Gin paid $1 million in dividends in the fiscal year ended last March 31. The dividend was made at the 24th annual stockholder's meeting and was the first week at the Lockney School Cafeteria.

General manager Gail Kring said the 1981 fiscal year was, "a very good year. We have always been better but this was a good year."

The Coop had a net profit of $1.1 million for the last fiscal year. Dividends paid out were broken down as follows:

—$741,149 paid for the retirement of feedyard debentures and first preferred stock on the gin, elevator and feedyard.

Kring said the 1981-82 fiscal year could be even better.

"It depends on the weather," Kring said. "We have the prospects for a big cotton crop. It depends on if we get some warm weather, some sun, and the rain quits and the bollworm doesn't eat us up. But it should be an even better year, hopefully."

New directors elected are George Taylor and Charles Huffman.

It's back to school time

The Lockney Independent School District will begin its 1981-82 school year Monday.

District officials anticipate total enrollment of about 800 for the new school year, down from about 850 last year.

The high school is expected to have an enrollment of about 225, the junior high school 215 and the elementary school 350. Enrollment at all three levels is down.

High school classes will begin at 8:36 a.m. and continue until 3:45 p.m. The high school day is beginning nine minutes earlier this year because the school day is being expanded from six periods to seven. The reason for that, superintendent W.H. Hallmark said, is to allow high school students to take more courses.

The junior high school and elementary school day will begin at 8:45 a.m. and end at 3:45 a.m.

A total of 11 new teachers have been hired for the coming school year. They are:

- Lehman Regan, junior high school math.
- Lana Jarry, junior high school math and reading.
- DeLynn Morgan, junior high school English.

School meal program guidelines

Free and reduced-price meals will be offered in the Lockney Independent School District again this year to children whose families meet certain economic criteria.

Children from families whose income is at or below certain levels may be eligible for either free meals or meals at a reduced price of 30-cents for lunch and 20-cents for breakfast. Regular prices are 55-cents for lunch in the elementary school and 60-cents for lunch in the junior high and high schools and 25-cents for breakfast throughout the school system.

Parents may apply for free or reduced-price meals at anytime during the school year. Applications are available from the school district. Parents will be notified within 10-days of filing the applications if their application has been accepted.

If there are changes in family size or income during the school year, such changes should be reported to school officials so appropriate adjustments may be made.

Superintendent W.H. Hallmark said there are a number of factors involved in determining if a child qualifies for free or reduced-price meals.

Among those factors are:

- Larry Williams, band director.
- Mike Martin, basketball coach.
- Yvonne Rhoderick, junior high school social studies.
- Martha Millhollon, junior high school science.
- Kathy Grissom, assistant girls coach, junior high school and high school.
- Annette Weil, high school home economics.
- Richard Gonzalez, elementary bilingual teacher.
- Raul Vera, high school special education teacher.

One counselor's position for the system has not been filled and Hallmark said it is not likely that it will be.

Teachers at all three levels began work this week.

Five teaching positions have been eliminated for the coming year, Hallmark said, as a result of both declining enrollment and as a money-saving measure.

There will be six buses running Monday, down from seven last year and ten during the 1979-80 school year. The one route eliminated this year, Hallmark said, was combined with two other routes both because of the declining enrollment and to keep expenses down.

Proof of Current Family Income — If you have applied for free or reduced price benefits in other school years, you will note some changes to the application form. The application now requires the name and social security number of all adult family members. Adults without social security numbers must indicate that they do not have one. Schools may verify the source and amount of income as well as household composition.

Foster Children — In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and you wish to apply for such meals for them, please notify us or indicate it on the application.

Nondiscrimination — All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, creed, color or national origin.

Fair Hearing — If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application, you may wish to discuss it with the school. If you wish to review the decision further, you have a right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing: W.H. Hallmark, Box 428, Lockney, Texas 79241, or call (806) 652-2104.

Perspectives

What do Coca-Cola and Procter and Gamble have in common? They both recognize the economic potential of boycott threats. They will both garner quite a bit of criticism for "knuckling under" to these threats, albeit the shots will come from opposite sides. They have also shown the discrepancy in the way we do much of our thinking.

Of course both companies insist their actions had nothing to do with the boycott threats. Procter and Gamble told us they had intended to withdraw their advertising from questionable shows before the Coalition for Better TV announced its boycott plan.

And the people from Coke tell us that they are just trying to respond to the President's call for big business to take over some of the functions of the government.

Still the most obvious reason the companies gave in to the demands of pressure groups was the possibility of losing money. Money has become the prime bargaining tool. Take away their money and watch 'em squirm.

The problem with boycotting is that in some instances people think it is just the ticket for effecting change, and other look at it as an attempt to force one's beliefs or morals or whatever on others.

Where you stand in that regard depends on which side you're on. If you think the change is good, then the boycott is okay. If you do not agree with the change, somebody is trying to force his morals, beliefs, etc. on you.

Another problem is related to the number of people you have on your side. We live in a democracy, and so, as a general rule, what the majority wants determines what we do.

The exception to that rule is that occasionally we have particularly vociferous groups who disagree with the majority and quickly point out that the majority is not always right.

While that may be so, after awhile one gets the impression that what they really mean is that the minority is always right.

In days long gone by, people called prophets sought and received a clear word from God and proclaimed it. They spoke without regard to the popularity of their message, were often in the minority, and were often told what they had to say was "just their opinion."

Yet they spoke what they were convinced was the truth. Time has shown the validity of what they had to say, and were we to give ourselves to honest evaluation of their message, we could find much to help us in these days.

Social Security News

BY RAY PURCELL

This is the time of the year that many area farmers are hiring summer workers, and they should know the rules concerning social security coverage.

It is important that farm employers keep the proper records and report their employees' name, address, social security number, wages paid, and their own employer identification number. This information is needed so that if reports are required, they can be made promptly and accurately.

If the workers' wages are covered, then social security taxes must be withheld. Agricultural wages are covered if the employee is paid $150 or more in cash wages during the year.

Also, if an employee is paid on a time basis—by the hour, day, week, or month—all of his or her wages are covered when the employee works on 20 or more days during the year.

Should the employer withhold social security tax from an employee's wages and then finds out that the wages are not covered because neither test is met, the social security tax should be reported by the farm employer after the end of the year in which they were paid.

More information about coverage of agricultural labor can be obtained by calling our toll-free number 1-800-392-1603 or by contacting the social security office at 1401-B west 5th Street in Plainview.

It's Not Easy

As an expert parent of two-and-one-half-years, I am now much more sensitive to what my parents must have gone through in my growing up years.

I have also discovered that parenting does not stop when the child reaches the advanced legal age of 18, though any parent may occasionally wish it did.

After expert analysis of my own parents' attempt to cope with the ups and downs of their "adult" daughter, I have some advice for other parents who may find themselves in the same situation.

Don't panic. Not even if your daughter calls you long distance at 11:30 on a weeknight and tells you that she's marrying somebody you haven't even met.

Remember when you find out that he has long hair and a beard that many worthy people like Lincoln and Moses had long hair and beards.

Never refuse a collect call. It may not be good news, but any news is better than no news.

Try to retain a little composure even if your off-spring changes from a premed major to basketweaving and then to psychology. Remember she's finding herself.

When she finally does get married and produce a child long after you've given up hope, you can finally smile a little, but not too much.

The next thing you know, she'll have a baby and husband, but she'll be living in a camper somewhere in the wilds of Utah.

Then she'll turn up in the middle of a snowstorm driving a "partially restored" 1961 Lincoln that only has two brakes that work.

If you have any hopes that life will ever settle down to a dull roar, forget it. After all, this is your kid, remember. You raised her.

Someday when my daughter reaches the magic age of 18 and the world calls her an adult, I hope I will remember what my parents had to cope with. I hope that I can love and accept, and not tear my hair.

I hope that I will be willing to babysit on a moment's notice, and also be willing to pick up and deliver. I hope that I can listen to my daughter's problems and remember that better days are just around the corner, even when she's forgotten.

I hope that I'll always make her feel wanted and welcome, but let her go her own way.

In other words, I hope that I can do half as well as my parents have done.

We are seeing encouraging signs in Administration and the Congress are beginning to take serious steps to aid in the revitalization of the economy. Yet, whenever discussion of the economy comes up, the nagging question of interest rates continues to be a sore point.

While we are seeing signs of health in the economic picture, interest rates remain high. This stubborn high rate of interest has become a financial community worry, and could present a roadblock to economic recovery.

Interest rates remain high today largely because of psychological factors. These factors center around expectations of continued inflation.

Lenders expect to be repaid in depreciated dollars and loan demand is artificially stimulated because borrowers figure they will come out ahead by borrowing their loans with funds that are worth less in real dollars.

As a result, we pay a "premium" for inflation when we borrow. When neither borrowers nor lenders expect that inflation can be controlled, this "inflation premium" on interest rates remains high.

But while we now suffer from high rates, we remember two things: many lenders have suffered from earlier loans made during periods of relative inflation, and, what may be the even greater factor, expectation that future inflation will remain high.

But I now believe the business community will support the current Administration and most members of Congress are finally serious about tackling the large role that government plays in creating inflation.

In every way, President Reagan has demonstrated a necessary resolve to reduce federal spending and costly government regulations. The business community that has been burned in the past by artificially low interest rates that shot up as soon as the next election was held, believe now they will see that the combination of President's and the Congress' resolve will be an example that will gain credibility as time goes on.

The President's tax package also includes provisions for savers, a long neglected step in our economic recovery. Savings provide the pool from which capital can be loaned out to businesses and individuals. When this pool is drained by the old law of supply and demand forces prices for Most industrialized nations have long realized that we have taken steps to encourage savings. Finally, we too. The President's plan provides higher rates of return for savings and dividend income, and allows individuals vast freedom to set up tax-free individual retirement accounts.

What's more, one can't overlook the fact that the public will probably be putting away more money in savings simply because the President's tax package is the courageous step of letting Americans keep more of their hard-earned income through the largest tax cut in the history of the country.

While these interest rates are troublesome, I believe these steps will serve to lower inflationary expectations, increase savings and, eventually, force down steep interest rates.

Our music therapy and ceramic classes are becoming more and more enjoyable. Chuck Shockley and Kim Sherman are great teachers. Special persons like these are hard to find and we thank them for bringing so much enjoyment to our lives.

Our bus trips are one activity we look forward to. In September we are planning two special outings. It is nice to get out in the fresh air and see new sights.

SCORES OF PEOPLE were on hand for the 24th annual Lockney Coop stockholders meeting and dinner at the elementary school cafeteria. Pictured above is the head table. The Coop reported a net profit of $1.1 million for the 1980-81 fiscal year.

Paymaster plans field day

New releases of cotton, corn, grain and forage sorghum will be the topics of discussion during the annual field day Tuesday, September 1 at Paymaster Seeds located 3 miles north of Hwy. 70 on FM 2301 between Plainview and Lockney.

Farmers, dealers, agribusinessmen and wives from the local area as well as from all Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico are invited to the field tours. Guided tours will be held from 9:30 a.m. until noon with additional tours in the afternoon for those who arrive late or want to make a second tour.

A free catered-barbeque lunch will be served under the trees for those who attend the field day.

Plant breeders involved in cotton, corn and sorghum research will be discussing products for the benefit of farmers from throughout the Southwest area.

Agromony technical service information will be available for sunflowers and soybeans.

Door prizes will be awarded at a drawing to be held after lunch.

A discussion concerning the newest greenbug, biotype "E" will be held during tours of the grain and forage sorghum demonstrations.

The new greenbug biotype has been attacking previously resistant sorghums during the 1980 and 1981 growing season.

Dr. Charles Berry and Dr. N.W. Kramer have spent a great deal of time and effort in the study of the new biotype and are prepared to discuss their findings with farmers at this time.

An update on hybrid cotton will be discussed by Dr. Delbert Hess.

Also cotton varieties adapted to both the High and Rolling Plains will be introduced on the tours. Two new cotton varieties will be viewed on the tour along with discussion of their adaptability. Dr. Jerry Rice will be prepared to discuss the insect and disease situation in 1981.

New corn varieties will be on display as well as varieties adapted to double cropping or late planting due to hail out. The economics of corn growing on the High Plains will be discussed by Gary Duncan.

In addition to normal research studies and breeding nurseries, date of planting studies involving corn, sorghum and sunflower hybrids will be viewed.

Carl Lee furniture store opens

Lee's Furniture will open in the historic Baker Store building on Lockney's Main Street this Saturday.

The furniture operation will mark the third expansion of the Carl Lee family's 32-years in business on Lockney's Main Street. The founding business was the Lee's "White Auto Store" on the east side of Main Street by the late Carl Lee, his wife and son, Carl, Jr. in 1949.

Purchase of the Parker building facing College street at the intersection with First Street in 1979 provided the additional space the expanding White's Auto supplies, tires, and appliances required.

"Opening the furniture store brings reality to a dream", Junior Lee said.

"Having it materialize in this landmark setting is an added incentive. Thirty two years as Dorsey's tenant prior to purchasing the Parker building, reflects old relationship with him and the Baker family. Mrs. Baker was not only the head of her family, but the beloved matriarch of Lockney, who with her late husband, James A. Baker, co-founded the town in 1890," Lee said.

"The move to the Baker building was happenstance. The 77 year old building was available at the time we were planning to open a furniture department. The building, designated a Texas Historical Commission marker, marks the base of operations for the Baker family. It is the site where the late founders opened their fledgling business April 24, 1894. The present brick building replaces the white frame building destroyed by fire," Lee said.

Candlelight ceremony joins Penny Taylor, Kenneth Lockridge

First Baptist Church of Aiken was setting for the Saturday evening, August 22, candlelight ceremony that united in marriage Penny Renee Taylor and Kenneth Ray Lockridge. The Rev. Richard Clymer, church pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Verne Taylor, Jr. of Lockney and Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Lockridge of Plainview. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Desie Graves, Lockney.

The altar was centered with a kneeling bench, decorated with a unity candle and greenery. Twin spiral candelabra decorated with greenery and yellow check bows completed the arrangements.

Music was presented by Mrs. C.H. McCluskey of Friona, organist. She accompanied Mrs. Ted Wilson of Wichita Falls as she sang, "The Wedding Song" and the "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding a formal length gown of white crepe overlay with silk organza. The bodice was sheer at the shoulders and gathered onto a full gathered skirt which fell to a chapel length train. The wedding ring collar, full gathered lace sleeves and band at the waist were accented with seed pearls and Chantilly lace. The chapel length train had a ruffle around the bottom with lace.

To complete her ensemble the bride wore a fingertip veil attached to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. The veil was edged completely around with lace and seed pearls matching the lace on her dress.

She carried a bouquet of sweetheart yellow silk roses and baby's breath with long streamers of rose buds and yellow ribbon. The traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue were used.

Something old was a lace edged handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Desie Graves, and has been carried by all her daughters and her granddaughters in their weddings. Something new was her wedding attire and something borrowed was a string of pearls belonging to Mrs. Larry Golden, Aiken. Something blue was the garter her mother wore in her own wedding.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Delaurie Blackburn of Lubbock. Flower girl was Donna Kay Smith, cousin of the bride from Hollis, Oklahoma.

Best man was Rod Blackburn of Lubbock. Serving as ushers were Terry Taylor, of Lockney and Randy Summers of Plainview. Rings were carried by Clay Golden of Aiken on a heart shaped pillow fashioned from material and lace like the dress.

Attendants and soloist dresses were identically made of yellow check gingham featuring a low rounded neckline with a wide ruffle and lace. The full gathered skirts were floor length with a wide ruffle and lace around the bottom. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of yellow and white silk daisies accented with baby's breath and yellow ribbon.

was later presented to Mrs. Hopper.

Rebekah Lodge hold meeting

Floydada Rebekah Lodge met on Tuesday night, August 18, for a regular meeting and to install Pauline Pierce as Noble Grand of the lodge as she was unable to be present at the regular installation in July.

Eula Parrack, Lodge Deputy and Artie Webb, Deputy Marshall did the installation.

Willie Hill was installed as Inside Guardian. Pauline gave her acceptance speech and Amanda Hart and Ruby Davis sang her chosen song, "If That Isn't Love." She has chosen for her theme this term "Love" and her scripture is 1st Cor. Ch. 13, v. 13: And now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Grace Grundy was home from an extended vacation and everyone was glad to see her home.

The death of Mrs. Ora Gilliland was reported.

After lodge closed, cake, hot chocolate and hot spiced tea was served to the group.

Longhorns ready for opener

The Lockney Longhorns football team will take on New Deal in a practice scrimmage at six o'clock this evening at the Lockney field.

The Longhorns, who open their regular season Sept. 4 against Post at Post, triumphed over Hale Center in a practice scrimmage last week at Hale Center by one touchdown to none.

The lone TD came on a Jeff McCormick-to-Jeff Reeceer pass. Junior McDonald piled up 88 yards on 13 carries in the practice game.

"I was real well pleased with their attitude and aggressiveness," coach DeWayne Sexton said of the practice scrimmage. "I didn't know our offensive line could block that well. But they came off real well in controlling the line of scrimmage. We did drop a lot of passes but that isn't something that we had been working on real hard."

The starting offense is pretty well set, according to Sexton.

The offensive lineup looks like this:

- Jeff McCormick, quarterback.
- Israel Guerra or Mario Arellano, fullback.
- Junior McDonald, tailback.

- Robert Rendon, flanker.
- Jeff Reeceer, split end.
- Karl Race, tight end.
- Mack Sherman, center.
- Victor Villalon, strong guard.
- Phil Kidd, strong tackle.
- Marc Schacht, quick guard.
- Steve Johnson, quick tackle.

Some question marks remain on the starting defense, Sexton said, but it is shaping up like this:

- Phil Kidd, defensive end.
- Mike Carthel or Steve Johnson, defensive end.
- Mack Sherman and Moses Blanco or Marc Schacht, tackle.
- Victor Villalon, strong-side linebacker.
- Israel Guerra, weak-side linebacker.
- Kyle Brock, middle linebacker.
- Robert Rendon and Jeff Reeceer, secondary cornerbacks.
- Jeff McCormick and Junior McDonald, safeties.

Sexton said he expects to have between seven and ten boys playing both offense and defense. Most other 3-3A schools, Sexton said, have only four players playing both offense and defense.

The Longhorns have 11 returning lettermen.

The Bible Is For You

No matter which translation of the Bible we examine, one fact stands out with particular emphasis and clarity: The Bible was written for the people, for the populace at large, not for some special class among them.

St. Paul addressed his epistles to both "laity" and "clergy": "To all that be in Rome" (Rom. 1:7), "unto the church... at Corinth... with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord" (I Cor. 1:2), "unto the churches of Galatia" (Gal. 1:2), "to all the saints... at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons" (Phil. 1:1), etc.

When Paul proclaimed the gospel at Berea his hearers did not take even this great apostle's word for granted, but "searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so," and for this God called them "noble" (Acts 17:11). They were the true spiritual aristocracy of their day.

Our Lord, when on earth, encouraged—even challenged His audiences to "search the Scriptures" for themselves (John 5:39).

Indeed, since God has revealed Himself and His plan of salvation in the written Word, we are responsible, each one for himself, to study the Scriptures. When Dives begged Abraham to be allowed to go and warn his five brothers about the horrors of hades, Abraham replied, "They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them," and when Dives urged that a word from him would be more effective, Abraham answered: "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead" (Luke 16:29,31).

Do not depend upon your clergyman to interpret the Scriptures for you, but see for yourself what they say, for "every one of us shall give account of HIMSELF to God" (Rom. 14:12) and it will not be enough in that day to say: "But my minister or priest told me..." You are responsible to "search the Scriptures" for yourself to "see whether these things are so."

Search the Scriptures, especially the Epistles of St. Paul, and learn God's wonderful plan of salvation. "Christ died for our sins" (I Cor. 15:3). "We have redemption thru His blood" (Eph. 1:7). "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

Probasco "picks locks" for a living in area

BY TERRY WILLSON

A Floydada man has returned home and established a locksmith business. Don Probasco, who left Floydada in 1972 has opened Pro-lock Shop at 109 Ollie. "Being a locksmith is fascinating and interesting, yet so m e t i m e s frustrating work," said Probasco. Probasco became interested in locksmithing several years ago when he read a magazine advertisement. "Many people don't realize that home locks do not have to be replaced," said Probasco, "but can be changed to avoid the problem of an extra key." Probasco said re-keying costs are very reasonable. Probasco said deadbolt's can be installed with same brand as regular key-in-knob lock and be fitted with one key for both locks. He received his training from the Belsaw Institute. He is a Bended Certified Locksmith. Probasco has various equipment that allows him to change locks, make keys, repair locks and do any other locksmith work that is necessary.

He has over 2,000 blank keys in stock and has access to many more through several wholesalers.

He also stocks key rings, wallet-contained key holders and security key chains.

Probasco said that 50% of all burglaries are the result of unlocked houses.

"Secured doors make the thief take more time to get inside, so his chances of getting caught increases with the proper locks and equipment," said Probasco.

Probasco is on call 24 hours a day for professional locksmith service.

Starting in October the meetings will be scheduled for every first Thursday of the month. This year officers for PTA are Connie Johnson, president; Annela Staples, secretary; Helen Teeple, treasurer; and Janis Julian, party chairman.

Sunday night visitors at the South Plains Baptist Church from Plainview were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Gene and Kay Gaylor, and Terry Babcock. Morning visitors at the church for Sunday School and church were former members, Mr. and Mrs. Doris and Tillman Powell, who moved to Howe, near Dallas, last year. We were glad to be able to visit with them, and they report it is very dry in Dallas at this time.

Rev. Cecil Osborne went to Floydada last week where he attended the School Bus studies. The school was over with at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday.

September 6th, the South Plains Baptist Church will visit the nursing home in Lockney to visit and entertain the people there. Time for the meeting will be 3:00 p.m. Please make plans to go and see all those in the Lockney Convalescent Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanders and boys were in Ruidoso, New Mexico for a vacation trip over the weekend before this past one, August 13. This past Saturday Mrs. Nina Sanders and her mother Mrs. Mary Gresham from Plainview went to Sundown to spend the day with their children, Regina and Bobby Craddock, who reside in Sundown.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Osborne Sr. from Tulia were Baptist Church visitors Sunday morning, and they spent the rest of the day with their son and wife, Rev. Cecil and Joyce Osborne, with the occasion a special one, since it was the 57th anniversary of the Osborne's marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Fowell and Sandy of Howe visited over the past weekend with their children, Tom and Kay Powell of Floydada. They returned back home Sunday evening.

Workers Conference for the Baptist Churches will be held for the month of September on September 3, at the South Plains Baptist Church, two weeks from this coming Tuesday. At 6:30 p.m. there will be a business meeting and at 7:05 dinner will be served to everyone attending. A program follows this. Get in touch with Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham for dishes to bring for the meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom and Billie Cherry of Lubbock, who formerly lived here in South Plains, visited on Saturday, September 8 with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Upton. The Cherry family are now retired and enjoy life in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vera and Roy Burks of Dallas were visiting in Ruidoso, New Mexico last week with friends Mr. and Mrs. Early Pritchett. Early came home here to see about field work on Monday. We miss Mrs. Pritchett here, and will be glad when frost comes, so she can be in her South Plains home.

Sunday, September 9, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Teeple entertained at dinner, friends Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davey, their pastor and family, Rev. and Mrs. H.R. Summers, Christy and Stacy, and their assistant pastor, Dave Short, and all the guests were from Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Kinnibrugh and other members of their family were at Lake Kemp for a weekend stay, August 8 and 9, where they enjoyed swimming, fishing and boating, at their lake cabins. They had blistered faces and legs from the outing! This past weekend the Kinnibrughs kept their grandson, Latham Dickens, four year old, who resides at Plainview. Mrs. J.A. Kinnibrugh, mother of Sylvan is in the hospital at this time at Seymour Hospital, and hopefully she may get to go home this week. Mrs. Kinnibrugh's brother, Grady Spivey, of Navasota, is also in the hospital there after suffering some heart trouble.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham left Friday the 21st for Lubbock to stay the weekend with her son, Bud and his children. She had spent a week with him and the children during the first part of August, on the 8th.

Former South Plains resident, pioneer Mrs. Sally Reeves died. A wonderful pioneer ranch woman and dear friend, Mrs. Sally Reeves, of Memphis, where she resided on her ranch, was taken in death on Friday, August 21st. Her granddaughter, Jean Reeves and Carol Ann Bell had been staying with her during the week. Jean was the last one to be with her and she was feeling fine when she left. Many friends from here are going to Memphis today, August 24, where services will be held at the First Baptist Church, at 4:30 p.m. Mrs. Reeves will be laid to rest beside her husband, Sim Reeves, who preceded her in death several years ago.

Fitzgerald reunion held at Lake Mackenzie. 43 members of the Fitzgerald family spent the past weekend at Lake Mackenzie, where they enjoyed cook-outs, picnics, boating, and visiting from Friday evening to Sunday evening after dinner. Mrs. Letha Mulder was present with her family from here, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Mulder, Cindy, Penny, Cory and Jimmy spent Saturday there with the family.

Friday night many families attended the Lockney Co-operatives banquet and evening of enjoyment at the Lockney school house in Lockney. During the evening, prizes were awarded at the door, and those from here who received lovely gifts were Mr. and Mrs. L.N. Johnson, who won a microwave oven, Mrs. Janis Julian won a beautiful brass lamp, and Elmo Reeves won a copper coal bucket.

Bill Thomas was in the Lockney Hospital on August 8 and 9. He is out and about now, and was present at Baptist Church services here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Bethel and little girls, Shelli and Jamie, were in Red River, New Mexico the first part of August for a vacation, and enjoyed the cool and beautiful mountain resort, where they visited a fish hatchery at Questa, and took a jeep trip of 3 hours, over the mountains around Red River, among the many things they enjoyed.

Mrs. Mamie Wood, Mrs. Letha Mulder, Mrs. Gertrude Smitherman and Mrs. Bonnie Julian left here on Tuesday, August 11 to spend the night in Amarillo, and then left for Nashville, Tennessee, for a bus tour on Wednesday, August 12 and returned Tuesday, August 18. They went to via Tulsa, Oklahoma where they saw the Oral Roberts complex, a very beautiful campus, and went up into the prayer tower. They toured Memphis, Tennessee the next day, and visited all the sights there, and it is a city where everything is "Elvis."

Reaching Nashville, they saw the sights there, and on Saturday visited "The Grand Ole Opry." Their last day, Sunday, they visited Opryland, and Monday night they reached Russellville, Arkansas, where they had a delicious banquet, and spent the night at a Holiday Inn. They were in rain a great deal of the time, but it did not dampen the spirit of the 42 people on the Nashville Adventure trip. At the Grand Ole Opry they saw Porter Wagoner, Roy Acuff, Four Guys, Hank Snow, and dozens of others, mostly newcomers to us. The bus was new, the escorts were wonderful, and the bus driver kind and thoughtful. All had a wonderful week with the Trailways Tours.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elamm and their daughters and family, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Aufdemorte and Christy of San Antonio, accompanied them on a trip to Estes Park, Colorado for a vacation three weeks ago, and spent about a week up there, returning August 8. Another daughter, Mrs. Mike Berkes of Dallas, met them in Amarillo and came here for a visit with them.

Tyer honored scholarship

More than 1,000 entering freshman students have received the WTSU President's Honor Scholarships.

Following the latest of three financial gifts from the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation, the WTSU President's Honor Scholarship program was renamed the Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarship program.

Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholars who score high on the American College Test and the Scholastic Aptitude Test, which are college entrance examinations, will receive an additional $100 scholarship and be recognized as President's Honor Scholars.

The additional scholarship will be awarded to the students who have scored at least 28 of a possible 36 on the ACT and 1,220 of a perfect 1,600 on the SAT entrance examination.

Students from states other than Texas who receive at least $200 in competitive scholarships to WTSU are allowed to pay resident costs. Out-of-state tuition costs often are 10 times greater than resident charges.

Scholarships are awarded from the interest on the $600,000 which has been invested.

Nursing Home residents enjoy fruits, vegetables

We went to Roaring Springs Ranch Wednesday afternoon. It was so pretty and green, not a bit like the South Plains at this time of the year usually.

Mamie Daniels went with us for the first time and she enjoyed every minute.

Mamie loves to go places and see the pretty flowers.

Before entering the home, Mamie entered her home grown flowers in Fairs and flower shows in several different counties.

Others enjoying the trip were Mr. W.C. Cates, Emmitt Lawrence, Iva Simpson, Juanita Bailey, Verna McSwain and myself.

Clara Williamson was top winner in bingo with four games. Vera Duke, W.C. Cates, Emmitt Lawrence and Clara McNeely won two games each.

We certainly want to thank Lois Walls for the 100 pound sack of potatoes. The residents have enjoyed baked potatoes several times since she brought them.

We would like to thank the Floyd County Library for the use of their projector Friday. Residents gathered in the lobby to see this movie, "Shane" and eat oatmeal cookies brought to them by Evelyn Crull of Lubbock.

Visitors this week were: Dana, Kim and Jo Lee Ellis, Lynn and Orville Marler, Jennifer Grundy, Evelyn and Jack Crull, Allene Henry, Marie Baxter, Lois Jones, Leona McNeill, Miles Meredith, Keith Teeple, Cory Mulder, Bryan Henderson, Tim Julian, Chad Williams, Bryan Teeple, Helen Teeple, Gail Henderson, Janis Julian, Kathy Mulder, Curtis Meredith.

competing at the fair

Fiddlers of all ages will be competing for cash and trophies during the 14th annual old time fiddlers contest, one of the features of the Panhandle South Plains Fair.

General manager Steve L. Lewis said the competition is scheduled at 1 p.m. on September 27 in Fair Park Coliseum. Admission is free. The 64th annual exposition has set its eight-day run for September 26-October 3.

Tommy Burger of Burleson will be the guest host and master of ceremonies while Gwen Robison will serve as contest secretary.

Fiddlers will be vying for four age brackets, including under 20, 21 to 49, 50 to 64 and 65 and over, Lewis said. Winners in each division will receive $125 and a trophy. Cash awards of $100 are pegged for second place, $80 for third, $60 for fourth and $50 for fifth place.

A championship round is carded for 7 p.m. on the coliseum stage with first and second place winners from all age groups competing for top money.

The grand champion fiddler will pocket $150 while $120, $100 and $80 earmarked for first, second and third runners-up, respectively.

In addition, the oldest fiddler will receive $50, the best guitar accompanist will get $80 and the first runner-up, $60. All championship round winners will receive plaques.

Texas over

In spite of the welcome rains, "TEXAS" was able to play all scheduled nights except two, and a storm of orders swept through the box office in the first days of the season and has continued until the end. Attendance is about 90,000 for 1981.

The show has been rained out twenty-one times in sixteen years. Two of these rain-outs were added this year.

Keeping the waiting list in town - on reserved out nights - has avoided some of the confusion at the Canyon, and everyone who came was admitted to the theater - though the place was really crowded the night there were 2235 in the audience.

As usual, about a third of the crowd came from more than 500 miles away, and another third traveled more than a hundred miles to come.

Now the preparations for the fall show, the "Festival of Stars" are quickening, and the "Texas" cast prepares to close out their part of the building and turn to other things.

The dates for 1982 are June 16 through August 21.

Membership in the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association is required of all contestants including those who reside in Lubbock County. County residents may not enter this year without membership according to the rules of the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association.

Association dues are $8 per year for accompanists, $13 for Texas fiddlers and $8 for associate members (those who live out of state, friends or just fans).

A total of $2,300 in prize money is being offered the fiddlers, part of a record $75,000 in premiums pegged for the 1981 fair.

Mail order reservations also are being accepted by the fair at P.O. Box 208, Lubbock, Texas 79408. Requests will be filled in the order in which received and must be accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Ramblin' Raft Race

Houston radio station 104-KRBE is again sponsoring the Third Annual KRBE Ramblin' Raft Race on Saturday, September 19. This year's race is being held on the Brazos River, just outside of Richmond, Texas, and will begin at 11:00 a.m.

Last year, over 12,000 participated in the race which was held on the San Jacinto River in Houston. The 1981 KRBE Ramblin' Raft Race will also include live entertainment, exhibits, demonstrations, and refreshment areas.

This year's race, as in the past, is being coordinated by the American Rafting Association (ARA). The ARA has developed two categories which participants can enter. The first division, the Rubber Rafts, are inflatable rafts constructed of canvas, vinyl or rubber. The crafts in this division can range from five-man inflatable rafts and canoes on down to the lowly innertube. Rafts in these categories can be propelled by paddles, oars and hands.

The second division is the Ramblin' Rafts, which are rafts designed, engineered and assembled by the members of the crew. Each Ramblin' Raft must have a least four crew members who can propel the raft with poles, oars, paddles or paddlewheels. ARA races are also being held in Dallas and San Antonio.

Registration is open to anyone in the state. Information is available at all Wendy's stores throughout the Houston area or by writing 104-KRBE, 2500 West Loop South, Houston, Texas 77027. Registration is open until race time.

Prizes are awarded in each division with special awards going to the most original raft, the most spirited crew and the raft that collects the most litter during the race.

Richmond, Texas, is located 15 miles southwest of Houston off Highway 90A. For more information, rafters and spectators should call 104-KRBE Radio at 713/960-0123.

Women focus of Symposium

Women on the frontier of the American Southwest during the post-Civil War period will be the focus of the second annual symposium of the Southwest Collection September 18 at Texas Tech University.

Speakers will include Dr. Sandra Myres, history professor at the University of Texas at Arlington, and Ruthe Winegarten, assistant project director and curator for "Texas Women - A Celebration of History," an exhibit of the Texas Foundation for Women's Resources.

Also participating on the program will be Texas Tech faculty members Dr. Meredith McClain, director of the university's Southwest Center for German Studies, and Dr. Jacqueline Reinier, coordinator of women's studies at Texas Tech.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. that Friday in the University Center Lubbock Room. The program will begin at 10 a.m. The symposium will close with a luncheon and address by Myres in the University Center Coronado Room. Cost of the luncheon is $7. For more information contact Michael Q. Hooks at (806) 742-3749.

Myres, author and editor of several articles and books on women and the west, will discuss women on the Southwestern overland trails during the late 19th Century.

Winegarten will discuss the problem of locating historical sources pertaining to women in Texas. Reinier will review the holdings that pertain to women in the Southwest Collection. McClain will discuss German women in West Texas.

The symposium is the second in a series of seven planned annually through the 1986 celebration of the Texas Sesquicentennial. More than 400 persons from four states attended the first symposium last year which marked the Southwest Collection's 25th anniversary.

The Southwest Collection, sponsor of the symposium, is a regional archival repository of documents and other material related to the development of the American Southwest.

Farm News

Shorter season increases defoliant needs

In their process of shortening the cotton season to complete harvesting before the late summer storms, Texas farmers are increasing their need for a chemical defoliant at harvest time, cotton specialist say.

"We want to get the cotton harvested as soon as possible," explains Dr. Robert Metzger, extension cotton specialist at Texas A&M University. "But, desiccants used to prepare the plants for harvest, such as paraquat or arsenic, require a 75 to 80 percent open boll count to be economically effective and also the prevent yield reduction."

To help beat the bad weather, Metzger says, growers can use a defoliant before the desiccant to hasten opening of the mature bolls. The defoliant should be applied when 60 percent of the bolls are open.

Weather conditions are important for this application, according to Doug Nail, Mobil Chemical Company's product manager for Folex defoliant.

"The ideal weather conditions for applying defoliants are warm and sunny days with night time temperatures above 65 degrees F," Nail told the Farm American News Service. "Average conditions — 55 to 65 degrees — may require a higher rate of defoliant for good results."

A desiccant is ensured better coverage on large plants when a defoliant is applied first. Once the desired defoliation has taken place, which may range from four to seven days, then a desiccant is applied.

Spray coverage is crucial with both defoliants and desiccants to get the full effect of the chemicals. The materials don't translocate, so they have to reach each leaf at application. Experts recommend five gallons of spray per acre minimum for aerial application.

At least 15 gallons of spray per acre should be used with ground equipment, and up to 12 gallons by air or 30 gallons on the ground for a tall, rank crop. Large spray droplets help to get the defoliant down into the plants, where it can knock off bottom leaves as well as the upper canopy.

One important rule of thumb Metzger stresses is: don't defoliate acreage faster than you can harvest it. "For example, you shouldn't defoliate 500 acres at any given time," Metzger points out.

If the harvest is delayed, there's an opportunity for regrowth. The second growth adds excess moisture which hampers storage and ginning, and may even impart a green stain to the cotton, which lowers the lint quality.

Government-held grain unfair to producers

Concentration of government-held grain on the High Plains of Texas is unfair to Texas producers who are about to harvest one of their best crops on record, Texas Farm Bureau President Carol Chaloupka said.

"Farm Bureau has asked Secretary of Agriculture John Block to avoid dumping this stockpiled grain on the market because of the price-depressing effect," Chaloupka said. "We assured the Secretary that Farm Bureau backs his promised efforts to liquidate the grain — mostly corn from the midwest — in an orderly manner over a period of time to avoid disrupting grain markets."

The grain was bought by the government in 1980 in an effort to shore up grain prices following the embargo of 17 million tons of feed grains to the Soviet Union.

"The government shipped about 45 million bushels of this surplus grain from midwestern states to elevators in the Texas Panhandle," the farm leader said.

"This heavy concentration of surplus grain has had a depressing effect on grain prices in West Texas for some months now," he said. "As we face harvest of good to record crops in the area, the stockpiled grain not only affects our markets, but we are likely to have a shortage of elevator space in the area."

The farm leader, who raises livestock, wheat and feed grains near Dalhart, said the emergency in West Texas points up the danger of having the government own grain.

Any time the federal government puts up commodities with the idea of helping farmers, the ultimate result is lower prices for farmers because this grain either overhangs our markets or is dumped deliberately to depress farm prices," Chaloupka said.

"Farm Bureau opposed the embargo of the grain shipments to Russia in the first place," the farm leader said. "If it weren't for the embargo, we wouldn't be faced with the present emergency in Texas. We believe any politically-inspired embargo should include all exports of everything."

Field Day to focus on sorghum research

The breeding nurseries, hybrid testing sites and insect and disease resistance screening areas will be featured top stops for farmers who attend DeKalb's research field day, September 10 near Lubbock.

The farm, located seven miles north of Lubbock on FM 2528, serves as DeKalb's southwestern U.S. grain sorghum breeding headquarters.

Among the displays planned for field day participants are the nursery fields where breeders select plants to enter the research program and the testing plots where the researchers evaluate the finished hybrids.

Special emphasis at the Lubbock research farm focuses on developing grain sorghums which can fight stress from disease, drought and insects, particularly by biotype E greenbug and sorghum midge.

Dr. Bruce Maunder, DeKalb vice president of agronomic research, and Larry Lambright, research farm manager, will be on hand to guide farmers through the farm and answer questions about breeding sorghums for grain and forage.

The field day begins at 5 p.m. and supper will be served.

USDA studies new sales policy for CCC corn

Southwest sorghum and corn producers have recommended to Agriculture Secretary John Block that corn shipped into the Texas High Plains from the upper Midwest be restricted to export sales only.

Officials of Grain Sorghum Producers Association (GSPA) and Texas Corn Growers Association (TCGA) and their legal counsel met with Block and other USDA officials to discuss the effect of sales of the corn by Commodity Credit Corporation.

The CCC purchased more than 200 million bushels of corn last year after President Jimmy Carter announced the embargo of grain to the Soviet Union. More than 45 million bushels of the corn was shipped from the northern corn belt to the Texas High Plains for storage, where it is now being offered for sale on a bid basis.

Noting that very little of the corn has been sold in recent weeks because CCC has refused most bids, GSPA-TCGA spokesman Elbert Harp said, "CCC's self-imposed limits offer farmers little assurance as long as the official policy is to sell the corn for unrestricted use. The threat of sales," Harp observed, "depresses prices just as much as actual sales."

The plan which GSPA-TCGA proposed to USDA was endorsed by 15 state and national farm organizations which represent grain farmers in the Southwest. Their recommendation was that the corn which CCC shipped to the High Plains from the northern corn belt and has now marked for sale be restricted to the export market. If USDA must sell any of the CCC corn because it is out of condition, it should be replaced with purchases of corn in the area of sales.

The GSPA-TCGA plan was endorsed by the National Association of Wheat Growers and the Texas Wheat Producers Association. The state Grain Sorghum Producers Associations in Nebraska, Kansas and New Mexico, Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board, South Texas Cotton and Grain Producers Association and the Cotton and Grain Producers of the Lower Rio Grande Valley also were co-signers of the proposal.

The commodity organizations were joined by general farm organizations of the area: Texas Farmers Union, New Mexico Farmers Union, National Women Involved in Farm Economics, the state W.I.F.E. organization in Texas and New Mexico, the National American Agriculture Movement and the New Mexico A.A.M.

Harp said USDA made no commitments but agreed to study the proposal and would give the group an answer soon.

PRETTY WEATHER is aiding area crop dusters in their attempts to rid the county of bollworm infestation.

Moisture helps cotton prices but could encourage bollworms

(Editors Note: This article by James F. Leser, Lubbock Extension Office, is being published by request of the Floyd County Agent, Jett Major.)

The heavy rains of the past several days have greatly improved cotton prospects. If you don't believe this, you haven't looked at cotton prices lately. Most fields have yet to start adjusting their fruit load. For now, with excellent moisture conditions, this is good. This added fruit load will discourage plants from going vegetative and will provide a lot of expendable fruit for bollworms to feed on before moving to your valuable bolls.

Aphid numbers are down since the rains and any that remain should not cause trouble for the cotton crop for the time being. Besides, aphids feeding on plant terminals may actually be a blessing. These aphids may prevent plants in some fields from going vegetative. My advice at this time is to avoid treating fields for aphids. If a field requires a bollworm treatment, most insecticides labeled for bollworm control will adequately suppress aphid numbers. Don't add any additional chemicals.

Bollworms are the big news now and until the end of the season. Bollworm activity continues to be heavy north of Lubbock and around corn producing areas. In fact, egg laying activity has escalated dramatically in many areas since the rain. Heaviest numbers are being reported from parts of Lamb, Bailey, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Hale, Briscoe and Floyd counties. In Floyd County, heaviest bollworm, pressure is occurring in the western and northern portions of the county. Spotty infestations are being found in Lubbock and Crosby counties. While very little bollworm activity which would cause concern is occurring to the south of Lubbock, there are bollworms in fields in Terry, Gaines and Yoakum counties. Other counties may also have some bollworm activity, but they haven't reported in. Almost all, if not all, bollworm activity south of Lubbock has not produced economically damaging infestations.

What about the computer bollworm egg laying predictions (MOTH ZV)? Well, they don't seem to be telling us the whole story. Most county predictions indicate that egg laying activity should be on the decrease, but in fact, egg numbers have increased dramatically in many areas over the last several days. I don't know why we don't have good correspondence between predicted and actual activity at this time. However, the recent rains and cooler temperatures could have a lot to do with this. At any rate, based on past experience, I expect egg laying activity to remain high in many areas on into the first week of September, so don't let down your guard!

If you find yourself behind in field checking at this time, you may want to try short cutting your scouting procedure. Many eggs are being laid below plant terminals and on bloom petals. This makes scouting very tedious and time consuming. If enough eggs are laid down low on the plant, considerable damage can occur to full-sized bolls. Look closely for the evidence of small worm feeding on bolls. These small worms may not actually enter these bolls, but rather take "little bites" here and there on the boll. Also, worms hatching from eggs laid on blooms will move into blooms and are essentially "safe" from insecticide control. Remember that fields with very low or very high infestations don't need to be inspected as closely as those borderline fields.

These recent rains have delayed aerial applicators considerably in some areas. Earlier in the week, some applicators were as much as 14,000 acres behind. Make sure you select the right chemical and rate to handle an infestation that is going to be treated late. There are fields out there right now that have sustained heavy bollworm damage, with some standing a good chance of being total "wipe outs" by the end of the season. Remember 1979?

The pyrethroids have been providing excellent results in the fields I have inspected. Also, the oil and pyrethroid treatments have looked promising. From what I have observed, oil plus pyrethroid applications have delivered better coverage, better canopy penetration and slightly better rain washoff resistance.

Many of you have asked me what I considered to be a light, moderate or

USDA reports cattle scabies outbreak

Five outbreaks of psoroptic cattle scabies were confirmed in Oklahoma, Texas and Iowa during July, reports U.S. Department of Agriculture veterinarians.

Single outbreaks were reported in Pottawattami county, Iowa and Texas county, Oklahoma. Texas reported outbreaks in Armstrong, Floyd and Potter counties.

Dr. John K. Atwell, a deputy administrator for USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, said that eradication measures will be initiated to prevent the spread of disease.

All affected or exposed cattle will be quarantined until dipping operations are completed under state or federal supervision. The quarantine will remain in force until all the quarantined cattle are found free of scabies mite infestations.

Since October 1, 1980, APHIS has confirmed 135 reported cases of scabies nationwide. During the same period a year ago, 253 cases were found.

Scabies is a contagious disease of cattle caused by tiny parasitic mites that pierce the skin and feed on body fluids of hosts seeping from the wounds. The mites spread by contact between animals. They can be eliminated by dipping cattle in pesticide solutions that have been approved by USDA for use in treatment of psoroptic scabies.
