Elvin Lyons honored at FFA Banquet

The FFA Banquet was attended by about 120 FFA members, parents and guests. Elvin Lyons, retiring vocational agriculture teacher, was honored Tuesday night. The banquet was held in the elementary cafeteria.

Lyons had been in the Lockney school system for 31 years. He has taught agriculture some 22 of those years.

LHS X-Students Association gave a special presentation to Lyons of a gold puffer with the inscription "Potsey" for his 22 years of service.

A scholarship has also been set in Lyons' name by the association. The scholarship will be given to a deserving recipient each year in his name annually. Clar Schacht presented a plaque from the FFA Chapter and an appreciation speech.

Lyons received a standing ovation twice during the evening.

Earl Brosech won Star Chapter Farmer and Terri Sparkman, a freshman, received the Star Greenhand title.

Kyle Brock was named Outstanding FFA member.

Ty Williams was selected for the DeKalb Award.

Ricky Prisk was announced as outstanding general ag mechanics student.

Dena Casey, FFA Sweetheart, was presented with a gift.

Awards in production were received by Gary Bigham, crops; Daron Widener, swine; Hugo Araujo, diversified livestock; Terri Sparkman, sheep; and Ty Williams, beef.

The 1981-82 officers were given plaques. Kyle Brock served as president, Margie Araujo, vice-president; Gary Cawley, secretary; Ty Williams, sentinal; Tim Winter, advisor; Larry Tannahill, reporter; Phillip Kidd, treasurer; and Marcus Schacht, parliamentarian.

Certificates of merit were presented to judging and leadership teams. Marcus Schacht, Kyle Brock, Timmy Winter, Steven Johnson, Joey Davis, and Teddy Salinas were the recipients in the Chapter Conducting Award.

Teddy Salinas, Sam Alvarez, and Steven Johnson won in Dairy Products. The team had won second in District Dairy Judging competition.

In Dairy Cattle division Earl Brosech, Scott McCarty and Russell Ford were awarded certificates.

Earl Brosech, Glenn Sutterfield, Mike Floyd, and Jeffrey Prisk were recognized in Radio Broadcasting.

The Land team who had won second in district received a certificate of merit: Gary Bigham, Glenn Sutterfield, Donny Ferguson, and Keith Owens.

Lone Star Farmer applicants were Kyle Brock, Marcus Schacht, and Hugo Araujo.

The Honorary Chapter Farmer was voted by the LHS Chapter of FFA and went to Carroll Anderson, president of First National Bank of Lockney. The award was accepted by his wife, Anna.

Pioneer Reunion in final stages

The Pioneer Reunion is shaping up into an event packed day with entertainment for all ages centered around the County Square.

The fifty-fourth annual celebration, honoring the pioneer settlers of Floyd County will be held Saturday under the new pavilion on the south side of the square.

The recently completed canopy was erected over the concrete slab. This has been a project of the Floyd County Pioneers Association for several years and was finally realized through the efforts of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, the Commissioners Court, and many individual contributors to the fund.

Registration for Old Settlers Day will begin at 9 a.m. under the direction of Jonelle Fawver.

R.G. Dunlap, president of the association, will preside over the morning session. A dedication service has been planned for the new pavilion. That will be followed by the memorial service conducted by Judy Allen.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Murle Rogers, who is pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lockney.

An election of officers will be held.

Following that, the oldest man and oldest woman attending, and the oldest couple living in Floyd County will be recognized.

Presentations will be made to the outstanding pioneer man of Lockney and to the outstanding pioneer woman of Floydada.

The pioneer having traveled the longest distance to attend the celebration will be presented a plaque.

J.D. Copeland, mayor of Lockney, will lead the singing of traditional and pioneer songs. Participation is open to all.

Museum Open House

The Floyd County Museum will be open at 9 a.m.

The permanent art collection will be on display at the entrance. This includes the recently donated oil painting by Carl Smith.

"Della Plain, the beginning of a settlement" will be the theme carried out in exhibits set up especially for Old Settlers Day.

The theme is taken from the name of Alma Holmes's magazine-type book, written for this special occasion. The books will be on sale at the museum and Alma Holmes will be on hand to autograph copies.

The recently formed local DAR Chapter will have a booth in the museum. Members of the Chapter will have information on the organization, and "generally acquainted people with the fact that there is a chapter here."

Wildflower Show

The annual wildflower show at the museum will begin with placement and registration at 9 a.m. Judging will begin at 11 a.m. There are seven divisions. A first, second, and third prize will be given in each.

Price will be $2.50 and proceeds will go into the Library construction fund.

Children's Play Day

The Floydada Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a play day for children at the lot south of Oden Chevrolet.

The idea behind the event is to keep the children happily occupied during the morning program.

The play day will begin at 9 a.m. and last until 2 p.m.

The giant thoroughbred mechanical armadillos will be available for the children to ride.

Members of the Women's Chamber of Commerce will be taking polaroid pictures of the children on the armadillos that parents may buy.

Band Boosters will be manning the "Douse-a-dunce" booth. (There is an unconfirmed report that youngsters will be able to dunk their teachers.)

Band Boosters will also have a concession stand in the morning at the play area and then will move it to the square about 1 p.m.

The 1956 Study Club will be selling helium balloons, and will provide two clowns to add to the festivities.

Alpha Sigma Upsilon will have a face painting booth.

The 4-H Club will be selling pecans.

Arts and Crafts Show

At 10 a.m. the Arts and Crafts show and sale will open in the showroom of City Auto. Fifteen exhibitors have signed up and more are expected.

A former resident, Annie Mae Bloxom Jurcak from Plainview, will display her art in one of the booths.

Other booths will have ceramics, oil paintings, calligraphers, handmade frames, and handmade crafts.

The show is sponsored by the 1956 Jr. Study Club.

Barbeque

The noon barbeque dinner, catered by Smokey's of Plainview, will be served to those who have resided in the county or adjoining counties for fifty or more years, and those who lived here fifty or more years ago.

The meal is complimentary from Consumers Fuel Association of Floydada and Lockney, Floyd County Coop Gin, Production Credit Association, Lighthouse Electric Coop, Floyd County Farm Bureau, Producers Coop Elevator, and Lockney Gin and Elevator.

Those who are not eligible to receive a complimentary ticket may purchase one for $3.50.

The Old Settlers Day-Dance on the rodeo slab will begin at 9 p.m. Music will be by Rick Goodgion.

BOB NASH, assistant manager and anchor man of the evening news report on KAMC Television in Lubbock, was the guest speaker at the band banquet. He advised viewers to exert their prerogative by turning off their sets as a safeguard to preserve free television as it has been known in the past.

Nash addresses Band Banquet on TV

Bob Nash, assistant manager and executive vice-president of KAMC Television in Lubbock and anchor man of the action news evening report, addressed the Band Banquet Saturday night.

He spoke on the change that has taken place in television and what might be expected in the future. He explained that he felt television was in a "metamorphosis" now.

He quoted statistics on the average American viewer who, he said, watches television six hours or more a day. He said those Americans are settling for "mediocrity" because of the brush and forward methods the television industry has chosen to follow. He advised viewers to exert their prerogative by turning off their sets as a safeguard to preserve free television as it has been known in the past.

Nash, born and raised in Plainview and Halfway, quoted M*A*S*H as the number one program among adults. He said that the two segments shown a day on his station originally cost that station $65 a day on the contract, but when renewal of that contract came up last, the price was $290 a day.

M*A*S*H also ranges from number two among teenagers to number seven among the children 2 to 11 years old.

Nash donated his $100 check in payment for his appearance to Larry Williams, band director, for use as the Lockney band needed.

A tropical setting for the banquet was followed with reflections made on their spring trip made to Corpus Christi.

Some of the most unique awards were presented to deserving vacationers, such as penny for heavy tipplers, a towel for those plagued by curfew adherence, water guns and outlaw outfits for night watchmen, and keys for those with keys that didn't fit.

Paul Castro was named new drum major and Terry Mangum, assistant drum major.

1982-83 twirlers will be Margie Arujo, Terri Sparkman, and Julie Collins. They won a Division I in UIL competition November 4 and will compete in the state contest in June.

Ralph Scheele and Maria Guerrero won special gifts for service as head drum major and head flag captain.

Criss Carthel recognized the new drum captains Carlos Molinar and Keith Owens.

New manager Donnie Ferguson and his crew was announced Larry Davis.

Carthel was the recipient of the prestigious John Phillip Sousa award, and Karl Race was presented the Outstanding Bandsman award by Williams.

He also made the presentation of the 1982 Band King and Queen, Ralph Scheele and Tammy Williams.

Presentations were made to the All-Region Band members Criss Carthel, Amy Shaw, Victor Villalon, Paul Castro, and Karl Race.

Race announced the new band officers for the coming year: Paul Castro, president; Keith Owens, vice-president; and Shawnda Brock, secretary-treasurer.

The 18 senior members were presented with plaques and gift certificates for a job well done.

Four teachers hired already

Michael Mowery has been hired in the last week as the new ag teacher in the high school system.

He comes to Lockney from Sierra Blanca High School where he taught last year. He taught Vocational Agriculture I, II and General Ag Mechanics. He also trained leadership and judging teams. His students participated in the Hudspeth County Stock Show and the San Antonio Stock Show.

The previous three years Mowery had taught in the Shallowater High School where he taught Vocational Agriculture, I, II and III and general ag mechanics, as well as trained leadership and judging teams. His students participated in the Lubbock County, Houston and Fort Worth Livestock Shows.

Mowery and his wife are both certified. His wife Patti is certified to teach in physical education, health education and special education. She has taught one year.

She will be engaged in the special education program in the elementary school. The couple are expecting their first child in July.

Mowery is a member of Vocational Agriculture Teachers of Texas and Texas State Teachers Associations. He is 25 years old.

His experience ranges from general farm labor on a cotton and grain sorghum farm near Memphis, Texas to working in all phases of the swine operation on the Texas Tech Swine Farm in Lubbock. He also helped prepare test rations and feed for research animals at the Texas Tech Feed Mill, along with repair and maintenance of feed mill equipment and company vehicles.

His interests and hobbies include canoeing, horseback riding and sports.

Phil Cotham has been named the new assistant coach on all levels. He is a graduate of West Texas State University.

Head boys' basketball coach for next year will be Randy Josey. He comes to Lockney from the Fort Worth Castleberry School, a 4A school.

A new band director, James Whittis, will join the Lockney faculty next year. He hails from Friona.

DISTRICT DAIRY WINNERS pictured are Karvn Foster and Earl Broseh with 1st place ribbons won in the Dairy Division of the District 4-H Method Demonstration Contests held Saturday, May 8, on the Texas Tech campus.

4-Hers are winners

Floyd County now has two more State-bound 4-H'ers to be proud of. Karvn Foster and Earl Broseh, both from Lockney 4-H Club, won 1st place in the Dairy Division at District Roundup which was held May 8th on the Texas Tech campus. Earl and Karvn gave an excellent Method Demonstration on "Embryo Transfer in Dairy Cattle."

Seventy-two 4-H members from 17 of the 20 counties in the South Plains Extension District qualified Saturday, May 8, to compete in the Texas 4-H Roundup which will be held on the Texas A&M University campus in College Station on June 8-10.

About 259 4-H boys and girls competed in the district events, which included 30 contests. To qualify for the state contest, a team or individual must receive a 1st or 2nd place win in the senior division (ages 14-19).

Winners were honored at an awards assembly in the Texas Tech student center. Encrgas donated the ribbons which were presented to the winners by Bob Carthel. The group was welcomed to the campus by Dr. Bers Haley, Dean of the College of Home Economics of Texas Tech University.

Floyd County now has nine 4-H'ers who will compete in the State Contests June 8-10:

Rifle Team: 1. Chris Fulton; 2. Tom Ross; 3. Norman Allen; 4. Rick Hefflin.

Grass Identification Team: 1. Shannon Smith; 2. Shannon Edwards; 3. Jenny Keen.

Method Demonstration [Dairy Division]: 1. Karvn Foster; 2. Earl Broseh.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Jean Badger art displayed at FNB

Jean Schofield Badger is no stranger to West Texas art, and the First National Bank, Floydada, is happy to have on display currently a number of her paintings.

Born and raised in Terry County, she received her Bachelor of Science degree from Texas Tech University with a major in Broadfield Art Education, a degree which offers art technique in every medium. Jean has always had an appreciation for art, and began her first lessons when she was in the sixth grade at Wellman schools.

After finishing Texas Tech, she taught art at Estacado Jr. High in Plainview and at Estacado High School in Lubbock. She has studied with many outstanding artists including Eric Gibbard, Ted DeGrazia, Albert Handell, Ben Konis, Juanita Pollard, Dr. Clarence Kincaid, and Paul Milosovitch.

"Although I have worked in almost every medium, oil, pastel, batik, charcoal, watercolor, crayon resist, I prefer oils," stated the artist. "With oil, there is such a variety of technique and style possible."

Having grown up on a farm, Jean Badger loves the outdoors. With her husband, Bob, and their two sons, she goes camping as often as possible. Now, the assistant supervisor of the Municipal Garden and Art Center in Lubbock and the executive secretary to the Lubbock Art Ass'n., she is a member, also, of the Texas Fine Arts Ass'n. and the West Texas Watercolor Society.

Jean Badger has won numerous state and local awards, and her work is included in public and private collections. She had recently had an exhibit in Hemphill-Wells, Lubbock, and the Texas Med Center.

"My landscape paintings center on capturing the indomitable spirit of rural life in West Texas as reflected in its agriculture and architecture," said Jean. "but for my still life paintings, I like to choose simple, everyday objects."

The public is cordially invited to enjoy the exhibit by Jean Badger in the lobby of the First National Bank, Floydada, during regular banking hours. Some of her work which you will see includes:

"The Iron Butterfly", batik on cotton. "The Yellow House", "After the Rain", "Country Living" in oil, "January Morning", a pastel, "Backyard at Plainview", a crayon resist.

Jean Badger will teach a class in charcoal study at the Garden and Art Center in June.

Music group to perform

Monday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. a Christian music group, Desert Rain, will be performing at First Christian Church, 301 W. Missouri, in the sanctuary.

The concert is open to the public and is free. A free will offering will be collected for those who wish to help with their ministry.

"Desert Rain" is a ten member summer music ministry group from Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Oklahoma, directed by Doug MacMunn, featuring vocalists and musicians. The group's purpose is to refresh and encourage people in the love of Jesus Christ.

Desert Rain will be traveling for eleven weeks this summer in Texas, Louisiana, and Oklahoma ministering in song and word. Desert Rain is one of six groups being sent out by Oral Roberts University this summer.

A reception will follow the concert in fellowship hall with refreshments. This will give everyone a chance to visit with members of the group.

Everyone is welcome to this special time.

CLARA SCHACHT presented a plaque to Elvin Lyon for his 31 years of teaching in the Lockney school system. He taught 22 years of agriculture. LHS ex-students presented Lyon with a gold putter with the inscription "Potsey."

AWARD RECIPIENTS at Lockney FFA banquet Tuesday night were [l-r] Hugo Araujo, diversified livestock; Ricky Prisk, outstanding general ag mechanics; Daron Widener, swine; and Terri Sparkman, Star Greenhand title.

Entomologist named for Floyd and Crosby counties

A new county Extension agent for pest management has been named to serve Crosby and Floyd counties.

Dale Spurgeon, a native of Quincy, Illinois, and a graduate of the University of Missouri, will begin his duties June 1, it was announced by Billy C. Gunter and Dr. Catherine B. Crawford, district directors for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Spurgeon will be headquartered at Crosbyton.

Spurgeon comes from a farming background and has extensive experience in corn, soybean and grain sorghum productions, said Dr. Mike McWhorter, Extension entomologist and pest management leader, College Station.

He holds a B.S. degree in pest management and an M.S. in entomology from the University of Missouri. While at the University, Spurgeon supervised field scouts and was involved in other activities in the pest management program.

A former 4-H'er he is a member of the Entomological Society of America.

He will work with county Extension agents Andy Vestal in Crosby and Jett Major in Floyd to give leadership to boll weevil and other pest management programs in the two-county area.

Letter to the Editor

Editor,

Congratulations to the city of Floydada on its birthday May 28. I too was born on May 28th in Floydada 70 years ago. And spent my youth and young manhood there.

I worked for "The Plainsman" (the weekly that was your competition in the 30s and 40s) and for awhile published "The Advertiser" a memograph give away paper. Some of the "old timers" will remember it.

I left Floydada in 1936 and went to Los Angeles where I was with the county Sheriff's Dept. for 27 years. I retired in 1964 and live in Rancho Bernardo California, near San Diego where we play lots of golf and generally live "the good life."

Very Truly Yours,
Reeves Scott

Dear Editors,

We are having a reunion of the Littlefield High School classes for the years 1941 through 1945 in August of this year. While we have obtained a number of addresses of former classmates and teachers in your circulation area, we are sure there are others that we have not been able to contact. We would like to ask the help of your readers.

Anyone who attended LHS or taught there during this period, or anyone who has information concerning people who did is asked to contact the Reunion Committee, Box 386, Littlefield, Texas 79339.

Sincerely,

Weekend police report

BY SGT. RAY MACHA
Floydada Police Department

City police made two arrests over the weekend. One arrest for disorderly conduct stemming from a family disturbance.

The other arrest was of a juvenile for public intoxication and minor in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Two tires were cut on two pickups parked at Reed Ford on Ralls hwy some time after 11:00 p.m. Saturday night.

Also city police investigated a report of a saddle and related items stolen from a trailer and pickup while unattended at the rodeo grounds Sunday afternoon. Value of the items was estimated at $900 to a thousand dollars.

Reserve city police officers Dan Holt and Jimmy Forbes have to date logged 163 hours of patrol time assisting the city police department in a time space of about 2 1/2 months.

That's 163 hours of free time donated to the citizens of Floydada for their protection.

Their assistance has been of great help and they are making very fine reserve officers.

They have made quite a sacrifice for the city and I salute them for their dedication to helping Floydada Police Department.

I think we are fortunate to have citizens who care enough to get actively involved in stemming the crime problem in our community. With an active reserve force, well trained and supervised coupled with an awareness on the part of our citizens for 'suspicious activity, we can all make this year a safer one.

I hope that many citizens will support the crime watch program that is getting off to a start. Criminals do not like to go where they know that someone is watching them.

Better yet they fear judges and juries where stiff sentences are handed out.

and the local populace and elected officials are anti crime and pro law enforcement and don't mind letting the criminal know about it.

I understand that the statement has been made that crime is on the decrease in Floyd county and that all the police officers that the whole county needs is a Sheriff in Floydada and a deputy in Lockney. That there is no need for any city officers or hiway patrol.

I think he should tell that to the recent crime victims in our area.

I guess he doesn't read the Hesperian or talk with any of the people in the county. Otherwise, he would know of the homes and businesses broken into and robbed or vandalized.

Maybe he hasn't heard of the tractor stolen recently. The value of the tractor alone would more than pay for two deputy's salaries.

Evidently no farmer or city resident has informed him of the property crimes being perpetrated against honest citizens struggling to keep their heads above water financially only to lose large amounts to lazy scum of the earth criminals who refuse to work for a living.

Perhaps he believes that the police department and sheriffs office instituted a reserve program to play games. Or that citizens are instituting a crime watch program because they have nothing else to do. And the chamber of commerce hosted a shoplifting seminar for local business people simply for entertainment.

Perhaps I am misinformed, but the people I talk to in Floyd county seem to think crime is on the increase and that something must be done about it now.

I certainly hope that some citizen can inform him of what's really going on so he can change his attitude. But then there are still some people today who still believe in the tooth fairy and Peter Pan.

Seniors honored with Dinner

The traditional progressive dinner was held for the 1981-82 seniors Monday night. The class of 47 members attended in a force of 42. They went as a body on a school bus from one location to another.

The appetizer course was served in the home of Aubrey and Barbara McCormick, where h'ordervers, strawberries, and a slush punch were served.

Then the group progressed to the home of Kay and Jerry Williams in the Providence community where a salad bar was spread.

The main course of chicken spaghetti and hot rolls was prepared in the home of Barbara and Jerry Cawley.

The home of Bill and Mary Sherman was the last leg of the trip for dessert, ice cream and cake were served. The cake was decorated with graduate silhouettes and the message "Congratulations, seniors" topped it off.

Special guests at the dinner was Superintendent and Mrs. W.H. Hallmark, high school principal James Poole and his wife, Sheila, and class sponsor, Robert Murdock, and his wife, Kim.

The evening activity was highlighted by the showing of baby pictures of the class members for group identity. Class pictures and various parties from past years were also shown.

Shoplifting planned

BY SHELLY HARRIS

When Susan Garms, Floydada Chamber Manager, said that she and two accomplices "hyped" over $3000 worth of goods from Floydada merchants in 3½ hours last week, I looked the word up in the dictionary.

Hype is a slang term meaning deception, esp. exaggerated promotion. Hyped means to promote in a sensational way.

That is exactly what Susan and her confederates, both Floydada police officers, were doing as they demonstrated how vulnerable local merchants are to shoplifters.

The exercise in thievery was to put emphasis on the Chamber sponsored workshop given by William Beauchamp, specialist with the Small Business Administration, Thursday night.

The program concerned how merchants can protect themselves from shoplifting, bad checks, and misuse of credit cards; in short from retail theft.

Before beginning the shoplifting spree, Susan checked with local law enforcement agencies, District Attorney, Randy Hollums, advised her to contact the target merchants before hand and get their permission.

"If you walk out of the store with unpaid goods, that's stealing," Hollums said.

So the merchants were notified, gave their permission, and alerted their clerks that shoplifters would be working the area.

"Stolen" Goods

Thursday night, during the meeting at Lighthouse Electric, Susan unveiled a countertop full of articles taken from Floydada stores. The team had not been caught taking any of the items.

"The second day I used a larger purse," Susan said to accommodate larger items. She also wore a jacket to use for concealment.

As she related the adventure, she told of how one of the accomplices would keep clerks busy while the other one plucked merchandise from the shelves.

Susan said that in one store, she spotted a youngster swiping a package of cigarettes. She informed the manager. While they were busy with the boy, "I cleaned out the store," she said.

Not all of the goods were small. Susan and her team also made away with, a bolt of material, a three foot boxed air filter, two electric lawn mowers, and two automobile tires.

Highlight of the demonstration, however, was when Chamber President, Stan McClendon, brought out the 3½"-in-diameter Chamber sign that someone had stolen from Susan's downtown office.

There was a fine showing of merchants at the workshop, partly because they were asked to be there to reclaim their goods.

"As an object lesson this is super."

Beauchamp said, "I think the Chamber is to be commended."

Thief Is Serious

The evening's demonstration was fun. The program, given by Beauchamp, was a hard-hitting revelation of how thieves work to destroy the low profit margin of the small business.

A summary of Beauchamp's talk is found in the SBA manual on shoplifting.

"Petty thievery may not seem like major crime to the casual crook who pockets a ball-point pen here, a pocket calculator there. But to the small business fighting for survival, it's murder. There is a retail theft committed every five seconds in this country. These thefts cost each American $150 a year. No store is immune.

A store operating at three percent profit on sales would have to sell $1,216.66 worth of merchandise a year to make up for the daily loss of a ten-cent candy bar. Just to cover a yearly loss of $1,000 in thefts, a retailer would have to sell each day over 900 candy bars, or 130 packs of cigarettes, or 380 cans of soup. Faced with such unreasonable selling volumes most small business people are forced instead to raise their prices and lower their ability to compete."

Attorneys Present

Both District Attorney Randy Hollums and County Attorney Kenneth Bains were invited to the meeting. They were called on to give merchants examples of past frauds such as bad checks, that have gone through their offices here in Floyd County.

They also informed the group on points of law as it pertained to all forms of retail theft.

Beaware

Beauchamp closed the meeting by saying, "With the economy what it is, more and more people are living out of their checkbooks."

"People in West Texas have habitually been able to bank on what they say, if they (owe you) they will pay it back. That's changing...with the breakdown in family...more mobile, it makes their behavior less certain."

That is a rather frightening statement. We can no longer set aside the professional thieves and trust most of the others we come in contact with.

Awareness is the key, threat of being caught seems to be the only deterrent for such people, and an alert public is the best defense against crime.

Student Council holds party

A wiener roast was held in the Plainview park last Friday night honoring new and senior members of the Lockney Student Council.

The cookout was enjoyed by 32 members and their sponsor, Mrs. Jeanette Marr. The group played games and volleyball.

THE 8TH GRADUATING CLASS of approximately 56 students will be honored in an award program and graduation exercise in the gym next Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. Members of the class are: Romeo Araujo, Tammy Ballejo, Shandra Bybee, Crissy Carthel, Russel Carthel, Jessie Castro, Jacob Charles, Raymond Cortez, David DeLeon, Gabriel Elias, Tommy Floyd, Karen Ford, Racheele Ford, Ronnie Ford, Trent Gant, Mary Garcia, Elizabeth Guerrero, Vari Annie Harris, Susie Hernandez, Coy Holley, Heather Holt, Brenda Jackson, Clint

MR. AND MRS. RANDY FRY

Johnson, Fry united in garden wedding

Phyllis Lea Johnson became the bride of Randy Wayne Fry during a 4:00 wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon, March 14, 1982. Ron Wheeler of the First Christian Church, Crosbyton, read the vows.

The couple are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jay V. Johnson of Tullia and Mrs. and Mrs. Dan Fry of Floydada.

A large indoor garden at the South Park Inn in Lubbock was the setting for the repetition of vows. A Holland imported 14 ft. urn filled with fresh spring flowers accented the garden.

Music was presented by Ruby Braxton, pianist, of Lubbock and Derek Cheek, guitarist, also of Lubbock.

Musical selections chosen were "Color My World", which was played as the processional, and "Here Comes The Sun" as the recessional.

Escorted and presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chiffon with a semi-cathedral train. It featured a fitted bodice waist and Queen Anne neckline overlaid with English netting with silk venise appliques embroidered with seed pearls. The back of the dress was V cut to the waist with sheer English netting and silk covered buttons all the way down to the waist. The full bishop sleeves had a fitted inner-sleeve with venise appliques, the fitted lace cuffs closed with tiny silk covered buttons. Lace edging circled the hemline accented with seed pearls.

She carried tiny fresh spring flowers with baby's breath, arranged by Kelly Marble, as her bouquet.

Along with her bouquet the bride carried a Bible belonging to her late mother, Gloria Carthel Johnson. Mrs. Johnson had carried the same Bible at her wedding.

The bride presented both her grandmothers with a red rose and laid a single white rose in an empty seat in memory of her mother. She also presented her mother-in-law with a long stem red rose.

The bride was attended by Adeana Morris of Floydada as Maid of Honor. Miss Drew Ann Johnson and Miss Dec Ann Fry, both of Floydada, sisters of the bride and groom, respectively, served as bridesmaids. Danika Dudley, a cousin of the bride from Floydada, and Heather Willis, a niece of the groom of Lubbock, were flower girls.

Dresses of the bridesmaids were of rainbow pastel colors and the dress of the maid of honor was pink. Other attendants were dressed in peach and the other in yellow. Dresses were off the shoulder with a bodice waistline made of taffeta and a light chiffon overlay.

The attendants carried similar spring bouquets as that of the bride and wore a fresh wreath of baby's breath and spring flowers in their hair.

Danny Fry of Plainview served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Rick Reddy of Floydada and Jeff Johnson, brother of the bride of Lubbock.

Ushers were Mark Gilly and Rex Rose, both of Floydada, and Nelson Carthel, cousin of the bride, of Snyder. Robert Eckert of Floydada was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Bronze Room of the South Park Inn with approximately 160 guests present.

The party was catered by South Park Inn. The wedding cake was made and designed by Susan all of Abilene.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio, the couple is residing in San Diego, California.

Sweepston hosts 1929 Study Club meeting

Miss Ann Sweepston was hostess for the final meeting of the 1981-82 year of the 1929 Study Club. Originally scheduled to be held at her country home, the meeting was moved to the Lighthouse Electric Community Room due to heavy rains the evening before in the Hillcrest Community.

Mrs. Vance Campbell, outgoing president, reminded members to pay their club dues at this last meeting. This enables the year book committee to have funds for printing during the planning session. Treasurer, Mrs. Cleo Goins, recorded dues received.

Mrs. Carl Dennison led the group in reciting the pledge to the Bible.

Mrs. Ben Whitaker read minutes of the previous meeting at the home of Mrs. S.W. Ross. Jett Majors, Floyd County Agent, had discussed how best to plan a garden. Following the business and program, the members had toured the Ross's bluebonnet garden.

Among new business, Mrs. Campbell reminded members to bring baked goods Saturday for the American Field Service bake sale to be held at Shop Rite. The club always looks forward to the program presented each year by the student sponsored by the A.F.S.

Mrs. Eula Parrack conducted a jewel installation service for incoming officers. Quoting from the Bible, "There is gold, and a multitude of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel." Proverbs 20:15.

Mrs. Parrack urged officers to let their lives shine like jewels before other members and the community. Officers installed included Mrs. Q.D. Wil-

Order of the Eastern Star members receive service pins

The Floydada Chapter No. 31 Order of the Eastern Star met May 13 in the Masonic Hall, with Jean and Bobby Kendrick serving in the East as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron. Noma Lou and Bobby Rainer associate matron and patron served in the West.

The Worthy Matron welcomed several members who had been unable to attend for a while. A special recognition was extended to Louise and Noma Hamilton from Lubbock but are members of Floydada Chapter. Ann Swebston Chapter secretary read greetings from the Worthy Grand Matron Elise Hammack of the Grand Chapter of Texas Order of the Eastern Star.

Invitations were read from chapters throughout the section inviting Floydada members to attend the Friendship meetings.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of three members who were recipients of pins for their years of service. Joy Assiter received a twenty-five year pin with Ruth Trapp making the presentation. Frances Cross received a pin for forty-one years of service and Lillian Lindsey was afforded the honor of presenting it to her. Fay Hart received a thirty-five year pin and his wife Amanda had the pleasure of presenting it to her husband.

The Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron expressed their appreciation to the recipients for all the years of faithful service and cooperation rendered the Order. Four other members who were eligible to receive pins for their years of service, but unable to attend, were Bonnie May, Frankie Berry, Marcella Brown, and Marjorie Davis. They will receive them at a later date.

In appreciation for a progressive year in the East as Worthy Matron and Patron, the Kendricks were presented a gift from the Chapter members. Noma Lou Rainer made the presentation, in a most impressive manner, as she gave the meaning of the Star of the East. The gift was a beautiful stained glass Star, carrying out the Star paint colors and emblems, made by Bobby Rainer. The Kendricks also received a love gift from Roberta and Wayne Russell.

Regi Gross, directed a beautiful memorial service, in the absence of the program chairman, Flora McNeill. She read an inspirational poem and dedicated it to the memory of the deceased loved ones, and members of the Eastern Star who have died within the last year, also for Mrs. Flora Best Boone past Grand Matron who recently passed away.

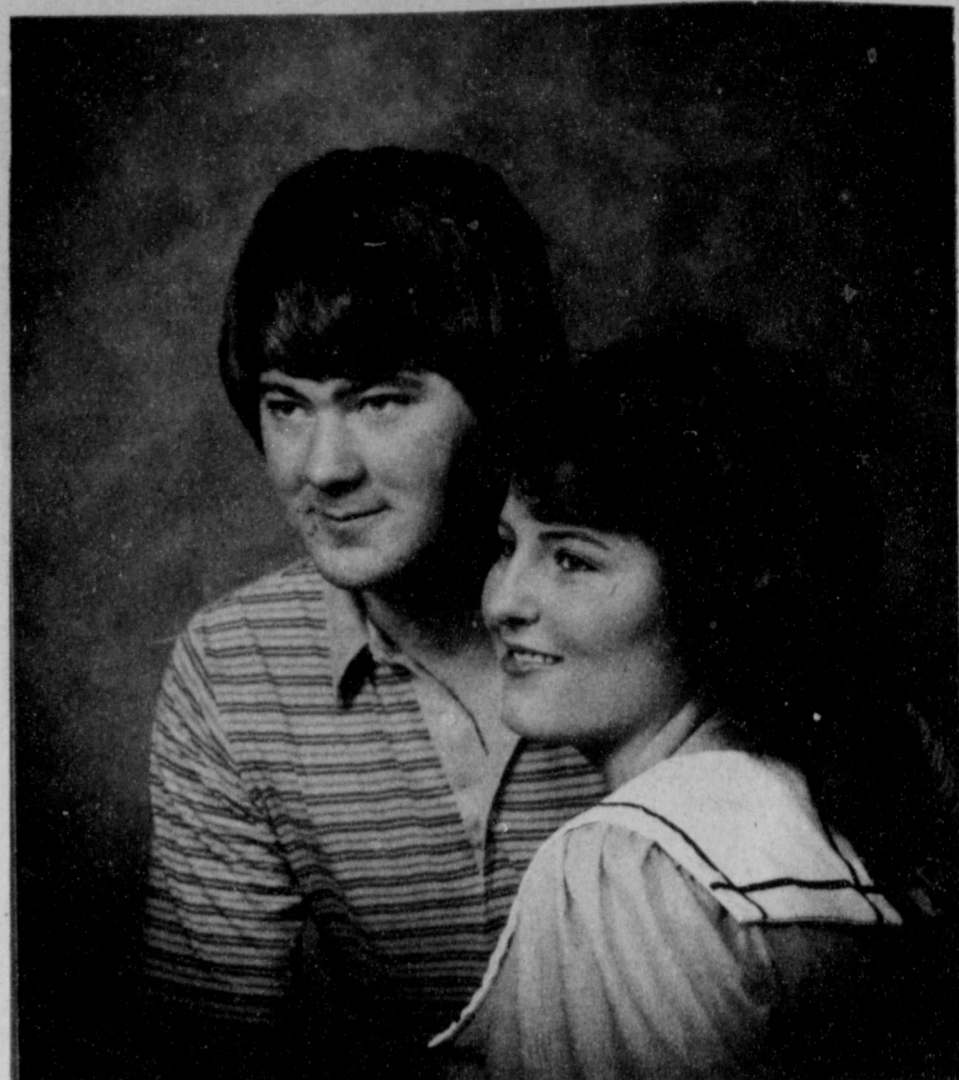

Mrs. Boone served the Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star as Worthy Grand Matron in 1951-1952.

Bobby Rainer paid special tribute to these as he sang, "Shall We Gather At The River," accompanied at the piano by Dell Gray. Eula Parrack offered a prayer of dedication.

Following all business and program, the meeting closed with the officers retiring drill.

Hosting the fellowship hour, were Jean and Bobby, Alene and Byron Kendrick, with Eula Parrack assisting.

Sandwiches, cake, pie, chips, tea and coffee were served. The next meeting will be an open installation for the new officers in the Masonic Hall, 130 W. Mississippi St., June 5 at 8 p.m.

SCOTT GRAHAM, DEBRA ALLEN

Allen, Graham plan summer wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Allen announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Debra to Scott Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Graham.

Debra is a 1981 graduate of Floydada

High School and Scott graduated from Floydada High School in 1980.

They will be married July 3 in the First Baptist Church of Floydada.

The couple plan to reside in Floydada, where they are both employed.

CUNYAS

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Cunyas of Dallas are the proud parents of a son, Adam Clayton. The young man arrived May 11 in the Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas. He weighed 7 lbs., 15 ozs. and was 20 inches long.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Huddleston, of Plainview, are the proud parents of a son, John Patrick, born May 2 in Lockney General Hospital.

John Patrick weighed in at 7 lbs., 10 ozs. He has a brother, Jimmy, four years old and a sister, Beth, 13 years old.

Grandparents are Mrs. Edna Holt of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wright of Lockney.

liams, president; Miss Ann Sweepston, first vice president; Mrs. Vance Campbell, second vice president; Mrs. Cleo Goins, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Francis Mitchell, reporter. Officers were gifted with necklaces of their choice.

Hostesses served tea time refreshments from a lace covered table. Fresh white mums centered the table, and later were presented to Mrs. Parrack by Mrs. Campbell in appreciation of her installation service. Refreshments were banana punch, fresh strawberries rolled in sugar, and an array of cookies served on silver trays.

Club members expressed their gratitude and appreciation to Mrs. Campbell for her two years of work as their club president.

Members present included: Mesdames Nettie Adams, H.O. Cline, C.W. Dennison, Clarence Goins, C.M. Meredith, W.B. Parrack, S.W. Ross, George Smith, Ben Whitaker, Q.D. Williams, Vance Campbell, and the hostess, Miss Ann Sweepston.

Next meeting will be in September.

MRS. LONNIE WILLIAM BOWEN

Jones, Bowen repeat vows in Amarillo

The chapel of the First Christian Church in Amarillo was the setting May 15 for the marriage ceremony of Darla Elaine Jones and Lonnie William Bowen. Larry Snow officiated.

Parents of the bride are Carolyn Wilson of Amarillo and Gary Jones of Houston. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Pollan and Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Jones, all of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Allen of Amarillo. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Owens, Floydada.

Parents of the groom are Joyce Newton of Amarillo and Bill Bowen of Salina, Kansas. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ashlock of Amarillo and Bennet Bowen of Wardville, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Caldwell of Plainview.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of satin with a tiered chantilly lace skirt that swept into a chapel length train. Her chapel length veil descended from a pearlized lace capulet. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and white carnations accented with baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Donna Jones, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid, Tanya Fahner, both of Amarillo, wore off-the-shoulder formal gowns made of jade green taffeta with white lace accenting the shoulders. They each carried one long stemmed white rose with baby's breath and white streamers.

Pat Cooper of Amarillo was the best man and Kerry Fahner of Amarillo was groomsman.

Candlelighters were Donna Suddeth and Debbie Bowen, sisters of the groom.

Soloists were Jerry and Marla Pollan, of Arlington. The organist was Reginald Brown.

After a honeymoon trip to Houston the couple will reside in Amarillo. The groom is employed by the City of Amarillo and the bride will attend West Texas State University.

MRS. MARK ALAN SPIELBAUER

Wallace, Spielbauer united in marriage

Stacey Lynne Wallace and Mark Alan Spielbauer were united in marriage, Saturday, May 15, 1982, in the Four-square Gospel Church of Amarillo. The Rev. Easter McKeever, paternal grandmother of the groom, performed the ceremony. A long time family friend, Orphus Byrd, gave the bride in marriage.

Stacey is the daughter of Joyce Wallace of Amarillo, and granddaughter of Mrs. H.E. Porter and the late Judge H.E. "Ed" Porter of Floydada. Mark's parents are Rita Spielbauer of Amarillo, and Dalton McKeever of Dallas.

The bride was attired in a formal gown of antique satin, enhanced with seed pearls on the chapel length train and around the hem. The groom's attire was a grey tuxedo. The bride's bouquet was of pink and white carnations and baby's breath.

Attending the couple were Michael Thompson and Kathy Storrie. Ushers were Terry Jobe and the groom's half-brother, Sean Spielbauer. Todd Spielbauer was candlelighter.

For something old, the bride wore a pendant belonging to her great great-grandmother Porter; something new was her veil made by Mrs. Bill Shuey; something borrowed was her wedding gown belonging to her Matron of Honor and pearls belonging to the groom's grandmother; something blue was the traditional blue garter. She also wore pennies bearing their birthdates in her shoe.

The reception was held at the home of the groom's parents.

After the honeymoon in Sipapu, New Mexico, the couple will live in Amarillo, where the groom is employed by Amarillo Equipment Co., and the bride is attending Amarillo Jr. College Nursing School, where she was named to the Dean's Honor List.

Attending the wedding from Floydada, were the bride's aunt and cousin, Carolyn and Leigh Smith.

Carthel selected as Alpha Chi member

Darla Assiter Carthel, a student at West Texas State University from Floydada, has been selected as a member of Alpha Chi, campuswide national honor society chapter.

She is the daughter of Tommy and Joy Assiter.

She is a senior mathematics major and is active in Pi Mu Epsilon, mathematics honor society; Epsilon Delta Pi, computer science honor society; and received the Murray Award during her sophomore and junior years for excellence in math.

Invitations for membership were sent to juniors and seniors who have a grade point average of 3.5 or higher based on the 4.0 scale. They also must have completed 30 semester hours at WTSU and be enrolled in nine semester hours at the time of invitation.

Atha Blake feted with bridal shower May 15

Atha Blake, bride-elect of Sheldon Bill Sue, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. John Wilson, Saturday, May 15, 1982, from 3-4:30 in the afternoon.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Wilson and presented to Mrs. Fred Blake, mother of the bride and Mrs. Johnny Sue mother of the groom. Also present were Mrs. Leon Grant and Monica, sister of the bride from Farmington, New Mexico.

Mrs. Nathan Johnson was at the guest register. Mrs. Leon Grant and Mrs. Joe Max Harrison served punch, assorted cookies, finger sandwiches, mints and nuts.

The table was decorated with a white cutwork cloth over burgundy. Burgundy candles highlighted a lovely arrangement of fresh cut Peonies in shades of pink, rose and burgundy napkins bearing the names of the couple added to the lovely table. Refreshments were served from crystal appointments.

The hostess gift to the bride was a vacuum cleaner.

Serving as hostesses with Mrs. Wilson were: Mmes. Harold Reese, Bill Hardin, M.S. Robertson, Dean Morris, David Lewis, Gordon Hambright, James Lovell, John McKinney, Jr., Alton Rose, Bill Cagle, Bobby Welborn, Joe Max Harrison, Mamie Wood, E.P. Pritchett, Raymond Upton, Ruby Lee Higginbotham, Letha Mulder, Bonnie Julian, Harold Hamm, Kendis Julian, Nathan Mulder, Nathan Johnson, and Johnnie Wilson.

Floyd Webb honoree of surprise birthday party

Floyd Webb on the occasion of his 80th birthday had a surprise birthday party at Lubbock on Saturday May 15. The event was hosted by his daughter and son and their husbands and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Webb of Sweetwater.

They reserved a party room at the 50 Yard Line cafe in Red Bud Center where a delicious steak dinner was served, before a big cake was brought in with "Happy Birthday Papa" on it and everyone sang happy birthday.

There were 21 individual relatives present, including children JoNita and Gene with husband Calvin and wife Billye, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and the grandchildren's husbands and wives.

Following the dinner they all returned to the daughters house where a table was set up with a money tree and gag gifts. Everyone enjoyed watching Mr. Webb open these surprises.

A delightful weekend was enjoyed by the group.

Rebekah's President visits local lodges

Edna Shuster, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas made her official visit to the lodges in District No. 9 on Tuesday night, May 11 at Lockney Rebekah Lodge No. 259.

A delicious dinner was served at 7:00 p.m. before lodge opened. Elma Savage gave the Invocation.

The tables were decorated in the President's colors and her Emblems of A Wishing Well, Butterfly and Candles her Traveling emblem, "The Beacon of Light."

All of the lodges in district no. 9 took part in the program. Plainview Rebekah lodge No. 309 presented a drill spelling out the presidents name, "EDNA."

Each lodge presented her with a love gift. Pauline Pierce from Floydada lodge presented her gift from the local lodge.

Those attending the meeting from Floydada Rebekah Lodge were W.B. and Eula Parrack, Pauline Pierce, Barbara Gilliland, Artie Webb, Dorothy Reeves and Grace Grundy.

The President gave a very interesting talk and everyone enjoyed the evening.

Alpha Mu Delta celebrate founders day April 31st

Alpha Mu Delta Chapter #9314 of Beta Sigma Phi celebrated the founding day of the national women's organization April 31st, at 7:00 p.m. at King's Restaurant.

President Sharron Fulton started the program by asking all members to repeat the Opening Ritual. After the Beta Sigma Phi prayer was repeated members and their husbands enjoyed a meal of chicken, potatoes, Texas toast, salad and dessert.

Tonya Marble lead all members in the Beta Sigma Phi pledge and Janice McCandless read the message from the International office which is located in Kansas City, Missouri.

Sharron Fulton then revealed the awards which were presented to members for their achievements over the past year.

Awards were presented to: Mitzi Nixon, Sweetheart; Tonya Marble, program of the year; Barbara Anderson, Mitzi Nixon, hostesses of the year; Bill Fulton, husband of the year; Tana Probasco, pledge of the year; and Sharron Fulton, woman of the year.

Sharron then presented incoming president Duffy Hinkle with the President's plaque. In return Duffy presented Sharron with a silver tray from all members.

Duffy Hinkle led all members in the Closing Ritual.

South Plains News

Cotton planting continues at South Plains

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN
South Plains, May 17:
It was around 50 degrees this Monday morning, but by noon, all the fields are busy places, sometimes with as many as three or four tractors at work, plowing, cultivating, and harrowing, besides the planting. All the farmers are trying to get the cotton in the ground. No rain has been reported in our neighborhood lately.

Visitors at Sunday morning services at the South Plains Baptist Church included Mr. and Mrs. Dena and Mark Morris of Plainview, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pennington, who were visiting them. Mark was in the graduating class at Wayland Baptist University Saturday morning, and after his graduation he has planned to go to Waco, where he will be enrolled in Baylor University. We extend our congratulations to him and to Dena as they make plans for this new step.
Easter Sunday morning services at the Baptist Church were the Rev. Cecil Osborne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Osborn, Sr. of Tulsa, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dickson of Fort Pierce, Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Julian, Clay and Wade of Perryton. Sunday evening visitors at church services this week in the Baptist Church at South Plains were the Rev. and Mrs. Fred and Janette Blake, of Winslow, Arkansas, Atha Blake of Plainview and Sheldon Sue of Floydada.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake were here for the graduation of their daughter Atha Blake, at Wayland Baptist University, where she and Mark Morris, both known here by everyone, received their degrees. We congratulate both of them.

The Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake were hosted at the home of Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham Sunday night, and they were to leave for their home in Winslow, Arkansas this Monday, and Atha was to accompany them home.

Studio South on Hwy. 207—2 miles north of South Plains

Mrs. Sara Probasco is having an advance sale of new and unusual gift items at her studio which is just south of their home here north of South Plains. They are in the remodeling process at the studio right now, and she plans to have an open house as soon as they can get everything in order. Mrs. Probasco has some lovely stained glass at her shop.

Kristi Julian came home from Lubbock Monday evening. She had just completed her year of college work at Texas Tech University. Mrs. Janis Julian went down to help her pack and to get the things home after a year of living at a dormitory. Texas Tech students from South Plains include Kelly Marble, Brett Marble and Monte Lyons. Kelly is home for only a few days, and will return to Lubbock where he plans to attend summer school, and will be working in the flower shop.

Bud Sessions, from Baird, Texas arrived here Thursday to stay until Friday night with his niece, Mrs. Sylvie Kinnibrugh and family. Other weekend guests with the Kinnibrughs were Mrs. Teddy Horne and Melissa and Mrs. Beth Dickens and Latham who spent the weekend here with their parents Sylvie and Bobbie Kinnibrugh.

Mrs. and Mrs. Keith Marble of South Plains announce the engagement of their daughter, D'Lee to Dale Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Powell of Crosbyton. The young couple plan to be married June 18, in the First Baptist Church in Floydada. Miss Marble is a graduating senior at Floydada High School this May, and Powell was graduated from Crosbyton High School.

Plans to reopen the cannery at Lockney is good news for all those who are planning to raise garden produce this summer and those who will have fruit to can.

Hobby Club members and guests met at the home of Mrs. Keith (Neta) Marble on Wednesday, May 12, at 11:00 a.m. for their, what become—annual—luncheon, as they have enjoyed a luncheon at Neta's home for several years. Members brought dishes to serve, and wonderful salads, vegetables, chicken casserole by Neta, home-made breads, and desserts were enjoyed. Fourteen Hobby Club members were present as Mrs. Teeple gave the benediction. Mrs. Fortenberry presided with Roll Call: A Problem I Have With Make-up. Thought for the day was given by Mrs. Dot Cummings as she gave a verse she had written. Books given in memory of Mrs. Trudie Taylor and Mrs. Mildred Wells were presented to their respective churches from the Hobby Club. Present with hostess Mrs. Neta Marble at her home were: Mmes. Leighton Teeple, Ronald Kitchens, Edward Hartman, Ruby Higginbotham, Travis Young, Fred Marble, Don Probasco, Louzilla Nichols, Howard Staples, Harold Hamm, Fred Fortenberry, Bonnie Julian and Kendall Cummings.

The next meeting of the club before they dismiss for the summer months of July and August will be at the home of Mrs. Mamie Wood, when she will have the annual "Breakfast at Mamie's", on June 11, at 8:00 a.m. assisting Mamie will be Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham, Mrs. M.M. Julian and Mrs. Dot Cummings.

Miss Deneen Johnson will have two more weeks of her Nurse's Training at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock before she will be home, and will be through with her work. She will be graduating from Methodist Hospital in Lubbock with her degree in Nursing on May 28th. Congratulations and best wishes to her, as we wish this for her and all our graduates.

Rain fell this Monday night, May 17, in goodly amounts with 1.75 at L.N. Johnsons, the Taylor Ranches, and all around that area. About .60 fell to the southern parts of our area, and only about .25 fell here in South Plains. All is very welcomed by farmers and everyone.

Next Saturday, May 22, is Old Settlers Day at Floydada, and Mrs. Carolyn Marble, with the Wild Flower Division, asks that everyone who brings their entries for judging, please bring them to the Museum between 9-11 o'clock in the morning, because judging will begin at 11:00 a.m. Flowers should be lovely down in the canyons since the nice rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Teeple returned this Monday from New Orleans, Louisiana, where they had flown on Southwest Airlines last Thursday. They went for their grandson's graduation. Richard Lee Reddout graduated from 1st Assembly of Christian Academy in New Orleans, in high school, with several trophies. At the All-Sports banquet Richard won All-District short stop in baseball, an award in Fellowship Christian Athletes, two sport trophies, baseball and football. He will be coming out here to spend the summer with the Teeples, and will be working for his grandfather before leaving in the fall to enroll in college at Springfield, Missouri, where he will be attending Avenge College. Richard and the seniors of his class are going to Disneyworld in Florida for their senior trip.

Mrs. Mamie Wood went to Lubbock Sunday, May 16, at 2:00 p.m. to attend the gathering of students from five public high schools who gathered at Municipal Coliseum for the commencement sermon by Dr. Hardy Clemons of 2nd Baptist Church, Coronado, Lubbock High, Monterey, Dunbar, and Estacado were the schools represented. Mrs. Wood went to see her grandson, Bodie, who graduated from Monterey High School.

The home of Mrs. John Wilson in Floydada was the setting for the bridal shower which honored Miss Atha Blake, bride-elect of Sheldon Sue, of Floydada. The party was held during the hours of 3:00-4:30 p.m. Saturday, May 15. Honored guests were Atha's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Blake here from Winslow, Arkansas, here for her senior graduation from Wayland Baptist University and her shower. The bride's colors were pink and burgundy, and the bride's table was centered with beautiful peonies of pink and burgundy. Sandwiches, pink punch, mints, cookies and nuts were served from crystal appointments. The bride's sister Mrs. Fredene (Leon) Grant of Farmington, New Mexico and Mrs. Max Harrison and Debbie were at the serving area. The bride's gift from the hostesses was a vacuum sweeper.

Hostesses with Mrs. Wilson were: Mmes. Harold Reese, Bill Hardin, M.S. Robertson, Dean Morris, David Lewis, Gordon Hambright, James Lovell, John McKinney, Jr., Alton Rose, Bill Cagle, Bobby Welborn, Max Harrison, Mamie Wood, E.P. Pritchett, Raymond Upton, Ruby Higginbotham, Letha Mulder, Bonnie Julian, Kendis Julian, Nathan Johnson, Harold Hamm, Nathan Mulder, and Johnnie Wilson of Crosbyton. The young couple will be married in the South Plains Baptist Church on July 31.

Reed Harris, Director of Church Services and Alumni Affairs of Wayland University in Plainview will be presiding in the pulpit at the South Plains Baptist Church next Sunday, May 23rd. There will be no Wednesday night services at church this week, and there will be no church services Sunday night, May 23rd because of Baccalaureate Services at churches for graduating seniors.

Mrs. Louzilla Nichols will be honored with an open house Sunday, May 23, from 2 to 4 p.m. to celebrate her 80th birthday. Friends and relatives are invited to call at her home 3 miles south and 1 mile east of South Plains. No gifts please.

Rest Home Birthday Party

May 13, 1982
BY LORILLA BRADLEY
May is a month so neatly dressed... Deeded out in lovely flowers... And birthdays bring us happy times No matter, sun or showers.

*****
We welcome Mr. Campbell ...He came to make this home... May every day be pleasant With the kindness he is shown.

*****
Now Mr. Marvin Goolsby ...His years are 89... Is a friend to all who know him... And a neighbor good and kind.

*****
Lets all join in the singing Of the good old birthday song... To serenade these people And cheer them right along!

*****
Thursday, May 13, was party time at the Rest Home and ladies of the City Park Church of Christ were the hostesses. Residents and guests were ushered into the dining room with the honorees being seated at the "honor" table. Their places were marked with special cards. Seated at the table with Mr. Goolsby was his daughter Zella Palmer of Roaring Springs.

The table was laid with an ecru cloth and a floral arrangement of silk flowers in shades of rose was the centerpiece. The poem was read and all joined in singing the "birthday" song.

A delicious refreshment plate of creamy-iced birthday cake and tasty fruit punch was served to the honorees. Residents and other guests which included Mary Adams and Worth Howard.

The next party will be Thursday, June 17, 2:30 p.m. Please come and be with your loved ones and friends to help them celebrate.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

BY LINDA EMERT
The rain was real nice last Wednesday morning. The lightning did some damage to a few houses here in town. Well, Monday the residents enjoyed Kim Sherman from Plainview coming for musical therapy. The residents enjoy the music that anyone will come in and play for them.

Tuesday we had a real good Bible study. We will welcome any visitors who would like to come.

Wednesday we played bingo. The residents enjoy that bingo too. They would play all day if someone would play with them. They all won one or more games. Sue Thompson won three games, W.C. Cates won four games, Uta Clark won two games, Enmit Lawrence won one game, Geneda Roberts won one, and Fay McMahan won one game. We was kindly short on players this week.

Thursday the residents enjoyed the monthly birthday party. We had two residents with birthdays this month, Mr. Richard Campbell and Mr. Marvin Goolsby.

Friday we showed two movies that was pretty good, and the residents enjoyed popcorn.

The residents enjoy all of the visitors that come in. They really like the little children that come. Visitors this week were: Dixie and Zacha Harris, Helen Breed, Elizabeth Armstrong, Dors Johnson, Christine Robertson, Estelle Hinkle, Thelma Fawver, Babe Dillard, Sherry Colston, Sandra Coleman, Gene Baird, St. Mary Magdalen Church, Dana Ellis, Brady and Todd Anderson, Melanie Ross and family.

Mrs. Wayne Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Freeman, Allene Henry, Sherry Colston, Debra, Jason and Justin Bailey, Doris Snodgrass, Maurine and Ella Goodwin, Ethel Cross, Ruby Gooch, Rebecca Smith, Joyce and James Crowley, Charley L. Berry, Sr., Lucille Sisson and Allene Henry.

FLOYD DATA

CALCIUM—"BACKBONE" OR DIET
Calcium is the backbone of an adequate diet—but many people don't get enough.
Many American diets provide only two-thirds of less of the recommended amounts of calcium.
Who doesn't get enough? Low intakes occur most often in middle-aged and elderly women, adolescent girls and pregnant and lactating women. Infants and children require more calcium, pound per pound, than adults. This is because of their rapid growth. Recommended amounts for pregnant or lactating women are also higher than for other women. To assure an adequate intake of calcium during these periods, it is important to include in the diet foods that are good sources of calcium.

Large amounts of calcium are found in bones and teeth. Its job, along with phosphorus, protein and other nutrients in lesser amounts, is to provide the structure of bones and teeth. In addition, this mineral is essential for blood clotting. It's also necessary for both muscle contraction and nerve impulse transmission. Even though bones act as a "storage pool" of calcium which the body can draw upon, the body really needs a continuous supply of calcium supplied by a well-balanced diet.

Dairy products are among major sources of calcium. An eight-ounce glass of milk, for example, provides about one-fourth of teenager's calcium need. If you don't like milk, then choose from a wide selection of other dairy products for equivalent amounts of calcium. For example, one and one-third ounces of natural cheddar cheese, one cup plain yogurt or two cups creamed cottage cheese would be excellent substitutes. Dark green leafy vegetables, including collard greens, kale and mustard greens, also offer significant amounts of calcium. One (1/2 cup) serving of collard greens supplies 20 percent of the U.S. recommended daily allowance for this mineral. Other good sources include canned sardines and salmon (with bones).

Of course, calcium can be included on menus as part of "creative-combination" items. Serving creamed vegetables and meats may be a way to extend some dishes as well as to add calcium. A dessert made with milk, such as instant or cooked pudding or baked custard, is a calcium-rich treat children especially enjoy. And, of course, don't forget cereal with milk at breakfast.

What happens when the body doesn't get enough calcium? Osteoporosis is one result. It's a fragility or loss of bone density due to the loss of calcium from bone. Osteoporosis is a disorder that afflicts from 15 to 45 percent of the American population. Women past middle-age are most susceptible.

At this time, there is no cure for this disorder. So far, bones cannot be "remineralized" (restored) once there has been considerable loss. That's why calcium throughout life is so important. A lifetime diet that supplies adequate calcium, along with a moderate level of activity, seems to be the best precaution against osteoporosis in later years.

Alpha Mu Delta hold Mother's luncheon

Alpha Mu Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its annual Mother's Day luncheon May 10 at the Lighthouse Community Room.

Vice-President Tana Probasco welcomed all mothers, mothers-in-law, and special friends. She then led all members in the Opening Ritual.

Feasting Italian style was the setting for this luncheon. Everyone enjoyed spaghetti, sauce, tossed green salad, garlic bread, cakes and fruit salad.

Door prizes were presented to Ferne Anderson, Maxine Daniels and Ferne Hartsell.

Special guests included Ferne Anderson, Lisa Anderson, Nancy Kirk, Rita Pierce, Ouida McCandless, Dana and Tara McCandless, Lindy Probasco, Ferne Hartsell, Eleanor Hendrix, Darlene Fulton, Carolyn Marble, Maxine Daniels, Mildred Thrasher, Wanda Smith, and Peggy Roberts.

Tana Probasco then led members in the Closing Ritual.

The Christian Womens Fellowship of the First Christian Church met in Fellowship Hall of the church for the final meeting of the season, on May 17. After a salad supper, new officers for the coming year were installed by Martha Farris, who gave an impressive and meaningful installation service.

Officers installed were: President Hazel Bradley, Vice President Diann Lobban, Secretary Mattie Wester, Treasurer and Card Chairman Ethel Carmack, Warship Director Sarah Sanders, Study Director Karen Bunjes, Service Directors Pauline Pierce and Lucille Lobban.

Meetings will be resumed on September 13 at the home of Mattie Wester.

ROBERT CLEM

Services for Robert C. "Bob" Clem, 62, of Roaring Springs were at 2:30 p.m. Saturday May 15, at Roaring Springs Church of Christ with Billy J. Whitaker, minister, and Dan Coker of Abilene officiating.

Burial was in Roaring Springs Cemetery under direction of Seigler Funeral Home of Matador.

Clem died at 7 a.m. Thursday May 13, in Caprock Hospital in Floydada after an illness.

He was a native of Jennings. He married Nell Taylor in September 1945 in Portales, New Mexico and the couple moved to Floydada in 1945. They moved to Roaring Springs in 1951, where he owned and operated Clem's Welding Service. He was a member of the Roaring Springs Lions Club and was a former member of the American Legion. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Cathy Weak of Silverton; a brother, Tommy of Paris; three sisters, Nell Smith of Paris, Margaret Preston of San Antonio and Georgia Reeves of Austin; and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Caldwell Smith, J.M. "Buzz" Thacker, Dean McInroe, Tom Yeates, Jeff Thacker and Mike Hoyle.

BESSIE SCOTT

Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie Mildred Scott, 73, of Hobbs, were held last week in First United Methodist Church with the Rev. Dick Clemmer officiating. Burial followed in Prairie Haven Cemetery.

Mrs. Scott died early Friday, May 14 at Lea Regional Hospital following a lengthy illness. She was a former Floydada resident.

She was born in Cone, Texas, and later married Joe Scott in Ralls, Texas, December 22, 1928.

The couple lived in Hobbs 45 years and during that time she worked with youth of the area through Boy Scouts and Theta Rho Girls. She was past grand matriarch of the International Order of Odd Fellows, was a member of the Hobbs Rebekah Lodge and the Methodist Church of Cone.

She is survived by her husband of the home; two sons, Bill Scott of Hobbs and H.C. Scott of Anton, Texas; one foster son, Melvin E. Miller of Vaca Ville, California; one sister, Mrs. Ruby Degge of Grand Saline, Texas; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

VITRIS SMALLEY

Services for former Lockney resident Vitriss Smalley, 80, of Bowie were at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Burgess-Fry funeral chapel with Dr. Ronnie Armstrong, pastor of First Baptist Church in Bowie, officiating.

Graveside services were at 5 p.m. Tuesday in Lockney Cemetery with Rev. Murlie Rogers, pastor of First Baptist Church in Lockney, officiating. Burial was under the direction of Burgess-Fry Funeral Home of Bowie.

Mrs. Smalley died at 8:50 p.m. Sunday in a Bowie hospital after a lengthy illness.

The Silverton native lived in Lockney about 20 years before moving to Electra, where she lived 16 years. She moved to Bowie three years ago. Mrs. Smalley was a homemaker and a member of First Baptist Church in Bowie.

Survivors include her husband, Noah J. Smalley; a daughter, Betty Spray of Bowie; a son, James of Owasso, Oklahoma; and four grandchildren.

Lockneyites named for SPC Commencement

Six students from Lockney were among 523 South Plains College graduates receiving diplomas and certificates during SPC's 24th Graduation Ceremonies May 7 in Texan Dome.

The number of 1982 graduates ties the college's record number set last year. The graduates are from all SPC campuses — Levelland, Lubbock, Plainview and an extension facility at Reese Air Force Base near Lubbock.

Dr. Bud Joyner, dean of arts and sciences, conferred associate degrees on academic graduates, and Frank Hunt, dean of the Technical-Vocational-Occupational Division certified technical-vocational students.

Receiving associate of applied science degrees were Nino Garcia, mid-management, and Robert Smith, welding. Receiving certificates of proficiency were Margaret Molinar, vocational nursing, honor graduate; Agustina Nuncio, dietetic management; Virginia Perez, vocational management; and Wanda Welch, dietetic management.

Honor graduates, which were noted above, must maintain a minimum 3.85 grade point average during their studies at South Plains College.

Gymnasts compete

Eight Floydada youngsters competed in gymnastics at Hutcherson Gym in Plainview against eight students from Tulia.

Those competing from Floydada were Memori Assiter, daughter of Mrs. Janie Assiter, Dedra Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hardy, Jenny Paty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Paty, Trina Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Ogden, Jamie Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Morrison, Joey Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thayer, Becky Reeves, daughter of Keith Reeves and Angie Bertrand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Bertrand.

Instructor of the class has been Selenda Reynolds, a varsity cheerleader at Wayland.

Outstanding Senior Citizen named

Mrs. Eldie Bryant of Floydada has been named Outstanding Senior Citizen by the SPAG Aging Program.

Mrs. Bryant, a native of Kemp, Texas, is with the Floydada Senior Citizens, Inc., Floydada. Her sponsors are Rebecca Smith and Mary Pearl Coward.

She is a mother of six children, four of whom are still living, has eighteen grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. She is a faithful member of the Methodist Church, acting as chairman of the Shut-In Committee.

Mrs. Bryant is chairman of the Floydada Senior Citizens and has been responsible for the superior contributions made to this organization by the committee.

Since January 27 this year, they have quilted 20 to 25 quilts and with the money received have bought a Memorial Board and an ice cream maker for the Center.

Lakeview News

Wild flowers are in full bloom

BY JOYCE WILLIAMS

Good rains all week have prepared the fields, but slowed cotton planting. Pastures and wild flowers are beautiful.

The edge of the tornado that touched the Ralls and Crosbyton area Wednesday morning last week, also blew through our community. No damage noticed, but strong winds twisted large old mesquite trees like matchsticks in Blanco Canyon. The river was running bank deep within an hour of the 6 a.m. onslaught.

Mrs. S.G. Appling returned home Monday after a two stay in Caprock Hospital. Her son, Wayne, took her to her home.

Miss Kathy Battey was recently chosen a varsity cheerleader for next school year at Floydada High School. Mrs. Riley Teague's father, Earl Bishop, was admitted to Caprock Hospital last Thursday. Lula, Holt and the Howard Bishops have been with him.

D.L. McCravey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.B. McCravey, of Ralls and formerly of Lakeview, was killed instantly in a truck wreck near Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. D.L. and another man were coming home from work Saturday evening when a front tire blew out, causing their vehicle to veer off the road down an embankment. The steering wheel was still gripped in D.L.'s hands when people got to him, the family reported. Funeral services were held Tuesday in Truth or Consequences. His brother, Ronnie, lives on a ranch near Jal, New Mexico. D.L. was the father of five children, some of whom live in the Crosbyton area.

Adrain West drove Mr. and Mrs. R.B. McCravey, daughter, Sharon, and Leona Neff out to New Mexico this week. D.L. served in the U.S. Marines in the early 1950's.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo West and son, Beare of Lubbock visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvan West over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Campbell of Herkimer, New York, are visiting relatives this week. Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Nichols were hosts to their daughter Monday. Jennifer and Jessica are looking forward to being in their uncle's wedding this weekend.

Several Lakeview band students participated in the contest Saturday, which won a Sweepstakes award for Floydada, including Angie Bertrand, and Mary Ann Quilantan. They won first in sight reading and Mary Ann won first place with a flute solo, then went to Amarillo to a speech tournament and was placed in the finals in humorous poetry reading.

Mrs. Smokey Quilantan and Mrs. Oscar Santos were in Lubbock Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Hart were Mother's Day hosts to their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Hart and children, Solinda, Sara Jane and Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Plainview visited Mr. and Mrs. P.L. Hart last Friday.

Mrs. Q.D. Williams visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Odell Williams, of Crowley, who is a patient in Bethania Hospital, Wichita Falls, on Sunday. Mrs. Williams' lungs collapsed and she is in intensive care.

Mrs. Buell Neff visited her great-granddaughter, Ami Lynn Neff, last week at the Duane Neff home in Lubbock. The little girl was born May 13, and weighed seven pounds and twelve ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neff of Lubbock, visited Mrs. Buell Neff Mother's Day.

Miss Jody Smith, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Choise Smith, was recently elected to the Student Council in Floydada High School next year. She will help usher at graduation Monday evening.

Dean and Hunter Smith spent Saturday night with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Flukie Smith, Lubbock. On Sunday, Charley and Flukie took the boys fishing and picnicing at White River.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McGaugh attended Marlis' band contest Saturday. On Sunday they went to Roaring Springs Ranch until a hail storm drove them out.

Michael McGaugh arrived in Lubbock by plane Monday evening from Sacramento, California to live with his father, Jimmy McGaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunn were visiting their daughter, Snowdrop, in Springfield, Missouri when Joe became ill. They are still there until he gets well enough to travel.

Alice Steele, Carla Winslow and Zode visited the Moosbergs Monday through Thursday. Alice's husband is attending a two week school at Holliburton's in Duncan, Oklahoma. Alice is spending the remainder of the two weeks with Carla and her family. Tuesday, Mrs. Moosberg, Alice, Carla and Zade had lunch with June Sherman and Rolf at Lockney, accompanied by longtime family friend, Mrs. Ed Lee of Matador. Wednesday, the Moosbergs and houseguests spent the day in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Moosberg went to Lone Star Sunday, visiting the Tommy Shermans for Mother's Day dinner, church at Rock Creek, and to see the house where the Shermans moved recently.

Gary was born in Floydada and left here when he was a teenager. R.E. Ewing married Lounette Pharr, and is a brother-in-law of Charlie Berry of Floydada.

Summer basketball camp opens at Texas A&M

Three weeks of summer basketball camp for girls are open at Texas A&M University. The camp, headed by women's basketball coach Cheri Rapp will be open for girls age 10-18.

"The camp will feature a week of basketball instruction stressing fundamentals," says Rapp. "We plan to study all aspects of the game but we also will include lots of fun."

The campers will live and eat in Cain Hall, the athletic dorm, on the Texas A&M University campus. Rapp said there will also be vacancies in the camp for those who want to commute.

The camp will feature daily basketball games with the campers grouped according to age and ability. The girls will also receive individual instruction from Coach Rapp and other outstanding coaches and players.

Three sessions will be held: June 20-25, June 27-July 2, August 1-6. Cost for the week will be $195 with day camper rate at $145. Special team rates are available for groups of five or more. In addition, a full scholarship to one week of camp is being offered by the Women's Sports Foundation.

Interested players or their parents should contact: Girl's Basketball Camp, Texas A&M University, Women's Athletics, College Station, Texas 77843 or phone (713) 845-1051.

Whirlers host dance

The Whirlers, a group of area square-dancers, will be hosting their specialty of the year, an Old Settlers Square Dance. There will be lots of dancing and snacks at the Duncan school Saturday, May 22, at 8:00 p.m.

Sid Perkins, a familiar name to the community, will put his talents and experience to work as he calls the dances that night. Perkins, who resides in Plainview, is formerly from Amarillo.

Visitors are welcome to join in the fun.

Hesperian News from past copies

BY JOYCE WILLIAMS
May 11, 1920—
 W.A. Massie, Weatherford, who has been quite ill is continuing to improve, according to letters received by his children here this week.

J.J. McKinney and W.C. Boren were injured Saturday night when their car overturned northeast of Floydada, near the Bradford Wilson place. Boren sustained a dislocated shoulder, and McKinney was unconscious for 36 hours from a lick on the head.

Oil news is not particularly exciting as nothing has changed regarding the Gamble-Price Oil Company, whose find of a new sand at 1350 feet caused considerable excitement ten days ago and caused lease prices to skyrocket. Their lease holdings consist of 100 acres northeast of Wichita Falls and east of Burk Burnett, and promoters also have considerable acreage surrounding it. Among those interested locally are Ira D. Gamble, A.N. Gamble, A.H. Manning, W.A. Robbins, W.I. Allen, P.M. Felton, and L.C. McDonald.

Mrs. V. Andrews was burning trash in her yard Thursday when her clothing caught on fire. She was burned on hand and about the knees. She had presence of mind to rush into the house and dash cold water, after first grabbing her clothes about her.

Mrs. D.R. Badgett advertised Single Comb white Leghorn eggs for hatching, $1.25 for 15 or $1.75 per 100.

H.B. Callihan says he has money to loan for buying farms and ranches.

Maude Hollums advertises eggs for sale from prize winning white Wyandottes.

C.O. Bradley offers 1000 bundles of bright oats in the sheaf at 4 cents per bundle.

R.E. Fry offers Maxwell car, practically new, not been run over twelve or fifteen hundred miles, extra casing, starter, will sell at a bargain.

May 27, 1920—
 Barric Brothers Dry Goods were offering georgette and taffeta frocks at $49.50, marked down for $75. Men suits went at $59.50.

May 25, 1939— Hard times had hit, and Mart in Dry Good offered sheer cotton frocks at $2.95 and silk dresses at half price from $4.95 to a top $19.75.

May 25, 1939— showed Wilson Jones, the XIT Kid, who had ridden 15 days at a stretch, one meal a day, capturing Mustangs on the ground where Floyd County people now make their homes. It was a paradise for horses and young men, the white haired, black haired retired cowboy recalled. In 1939 he was living quietly in his sister's home in south Floydada. "Yes there has been many a change since I highwaded it to the Plains. I saw Abilene when it was just three or four houses and a heap of prairie dogs."

I. Plaintiff is a municipal corporation, a city, located in Floyd County, Texas. The Defendants are I.G. SOLOMON, H.H. HINES, and O.W. KEETER, if living, and if any or all of the above named Defendants be dead, then the heirs, unknown heirs and legal representatives of each or all of said above named persons who may be dead; and the unknown heirs of the unknown heirs of said above named persons; and the unknown owner or owners of the hereinafter described property; and any and all other persons, including adverse claimants, owning or having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in or lien upon the property hereinafter described; and the executors, administrators, guardians, legatees and devisees of the above named persons, and all unknown persons, owning, having or claiming any interest or lien in the property hereinafter described, their heirs, unknown heirs, assigns and legal representatives, all of whom are referred to herein collectively as "Defendants".

II. The respective addresses of the Defendants are unknown to Plaintiff.

III. Under Revised Civil Statutes, Article 1109b, Plaintiff is authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain to acquire private property for the construction and maintenance of streets, water lines, sewer lines and utility lines and for any other municipal purpose that may be deemed advisable. The City Council of the City of Lockney, Texas, by resolution, has heretofore found and determined the necessity for and ordered the acquisition of the fee simple title by Plaintiff of the following described lot, tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in the City of Lockney, County of Floyd, State of Texas, to-wit:

The North 9.55 feet of Lot 16, Block 6, Moore Addition, City of Lockney, Floyd County, Texas, described by metes and bounds as follows:

BEGINNING at a 3/8" rod in the East line of E. Fifth Street;
 THENCE North 9.55 feet to a 3/8" rod;
 THENCE East 145.0 feet to a 3/8" rod in the West line of an alley;
 THENCE South 9.55 feet to a 3/8" rod;
 THENCE West 145.0 feet to the point of beginning and containing 0.032 acres, more or less.

IV. The Defendants own the above described property.

V. The Plaintiff has been unable to agree with the owners upon the value of the land or the damages.

VI. The purpose for which the land sought to be condemned is intended to be used is for street paving, installation of sewer lines, water lines and maintenance thereof.

VII. Plaintiff is entitled to condemn the fee title in the above described land for purposes aforesaid and asks that the same be condemned for such purposes aforesaid. Petitioner says that the Court should appoint special commissioners as provided by law to assess the damages of the owner.

VIII. All conditions precedent to the institution of these proceedings have occurred or been performed.

PRAYER
 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays that three disinterested freeholders be appointed as special commissioners to assess the damages of the owner and file their decision all as provided by law, to the end that Plaintiff may have a final judgment or decree of condemnation vesting in it the fee simple title to said land, and for such other relief to which it may be entitled.

scouts given awards

Scouts enjoy hot dog supper

Boys and leaders of Den 2 Pack 357 enjoyed a hot dog supper and baseball game, May 11, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Gibbs. Later, the boys and their parents participated in an awards program at the Scout Hut.

Those completing and receiving awards were: Chad Wideman, Wolf Badge; Troy Peel, Wolf Badge; Grant Stovall, Wolf Badge; Nathan Whittle, Bobcat and Wolf Badge; Cody Nichols, Bobcat and Wolf Badge; Vince Farris, Wolf Badge; Brent Gibbs, Wolf Badge. Assisting Mrs. Gibbs with the leadership of the Den is Mrs. Mark Whittle.

In appreciation of their work, former leaders Mrs. Tom Farris and Mrs. Gary Peel received Cub Scout Bow Pins from the boys and present leaders.

Around The County

By Jett Majors
County Extension Agent

Floyd County extension agent, Jett Major, is now receiving agricultural weather advisories for use by producers in the county. The advisories are coming from Dr. Bill Dugas, Assistant Professor with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Agricultural Meteorology Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service stationed at the Blackland Research Center in Temple, Texas. Dr. Dugas has established an automated weather station in the county located on the Warren Mitchell farm west of Lockney.

Information from this weather station and other National Weather Service observing locations in the county are incorporated into agricultural weather advisories which will be sent to the County Extension Office to be included in News Releases and New Letters for Floyd County producers. The weather station collects information on soil temperatures, air temperatures, precipitation, relative humidity, wind speed, and sunshine. The objective of the program is to assist producers in making management decisions, especially those related to weather and climate. The advisories will give producers information as to status quo conditions concerning crops and soil moisture and this information, in conjunction with National Weather Service forecasts, will increase the information base with which producers have to make decisions.

Similar programs exist in the Central Texas area and in the Coastal Bend.

Education programs conducted by the Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

LITTLE LEAGUERS—Andy Stapp, Bryan Griffith and Phillip Glasson show off the canisters they are selling for raising funds to buy equipment.

Lockney Little League sell canisters for gear

The youth sport program for Lockney Little League this year is expected to be the best ever. 125-130 are expected to participate this year. Mr. Rodger Stapp has been elected President for the coming year. He and a committee composed of Belinda Stapp, chair person; Linda Griffith, co-chair person, T-shirt; De Linda Glasson, co-chair person, Little League, met Monday, May 17, 1982 to announce that $1200.00 is needed for suits and up-keep of the field.

Lockney Little League plans to raise the money by taking orders for decorative and useful canisters. They will be offering three canisters; one filled with 20 oz. of popcorn, another filled with 13.5 oz. of assorted hard candy and one canister filled with 12.5 oz. of a delicious snack mix.

These attractive canisters filled with popcorn, candy or snack mix are excellent to have around the house or can be used as gifts.

If you would like to buy one or more canisters to help the Lockney Little League reach their goal, you may call 652-3429, 652-2617, or 652-2123.

Others helping in the program are Jackie Lou Holt, Janie Klein, Susan Patridge, Jerry Turner, Brenda Poole, Debbie Harrison, Rita Bush, and Nellie Webb, Team Mothers.

VFW, Auxiliary plan Poppy sales

Post #7993 of the Lockney Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Hospital Auxiliary are banding together in joint effort to raise funds for both of their organizations by participating in the Buddy Poppy campaign. They will be selling poppies Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29 before Memorial Day.

When a Buddy Poppy is offered during the coming sale in this community, it should be bought willingly and with gratitude. It is an investment you can make with very little sacrifice on your part.

Across America tens of thousands of men and women volunteer poppy sellers are offering you a once-a-year opportunity to personally thank the uniformed lads who have made the supreme sacrifice and those countless men in hospitals who may never again be physically fit.

Maybe the government does give a few bucks a month to their survivors and maybe the disabled are given free hospitalization, but the help you can give them through the Poppy sale conducted by their own organization comes from those willing to contribute from the heart — not through what they are forced to pay in taxes.

If gratitude means more than lip service, Buddy Poppies will be bought and worn proudly when it is offered by a Veterans of Foreign Wars volunteer.

Landscape & Gardening

BY BENNY J. BUTLER

SEEDING, TRANSPLANTING

Many gardeners become confused about whether vegetables should be planted from seed or transplants. Transplants insure the reliable plant population and usually produce earlier than crops planted from seed. The main disadvantage of transplants is the cost per plant.

Because of the cost involved, only certain vegetable crops should be transplanted. Whether or not a crop should be transplanted or seeded directly into the garden depends on (1) cost of seed, (2) plant population needed, (3) earliness of crop maturity desired and (4) convenience. Vegetables which should always be transplanted in the spring include eggplant, onions (bulb), pepper, sweet potatoes and tomatoes. Vegetables which can be directly seeded into the garden in early spring or transplanted a little later include broccoli, collard, cabbage, lettuce and cauliflower. Seed all other vegetables directly into the garden area because transplants are not economical. Timing and varietal selection determine the success or failure of directly seeded crops as well as of transplanted vegetables.

Success in seeding vegetable crops depends on factors such as seed vigor, soil moisture, planting technique and soil fertility. Use new, viable seed to insure a good plant population. Seeds need to absorb moisture before growth can begin. During dry weather, water several days before planting the seed.

When planting, do not cover the seed with too much soil. A general rule of thumb is to cover seed approximately 2 to 3 times their widest measurement. Seed thickly with the intention of thinning to an optimum stand later.

Using high phosphorus starter solutions and/or placing a band of super phosphate fertilizer (1 tablespoon per linear foot of row) 1 inch below planted seeds can increase vegetable yields twofold.

Bigger is not the same as better when selecting transplants for your spring garden. Research shows that the age and size of seedlings when set in the garden can make a striking difference in yield.

For best results use transplants that are about as tall as they are wide, dark green in color, vigorously growing and free of spots and lesions on the leaves which indicate disease problems. Transplants of this description usually give greater yields than larger and older transplants.

LAWNS RECOVERING SLOWLY FROM WINTER

Many lawns are recovering slowly this spring due to winter injury. St. Augustine and bermudagrass lawns appear thin and slow to recover. Floratam St. Augustine, which is particularly sensitive to low temperature injury, was hard hit.

Lawns that were in poor conditions last fall were severely damaged by low January temperatures. Lawns affected by brown patch and St. Augustine decline last year were in a weakened condition before low temperatures produced further injury. Heavily thatched lawns and heavily shaded lawns also suffered extensive winter injury.

What can homeowners do to promote lawn recovery and prevent similar problems next year? I would suggest you "scalp" the lawn with a mower, and then dethatch the lawn, either with a power dethatcher or a rake. This will remove weeds and other debris. Then apply a complete fertilizer, and mow regularly to promote lawn recover.

I would caution against using pre-emergence herbicides for weed control on lawns that are slow to recover from winter.

Also, avoid excessive fertilization throughout the growing season because it increases the turf's susceptibility to environmental stresses such as drought and low temperature. Three to four pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet per year is about the maximum you should apply. Lawns deficient in iron should receive two to three supplemental iron applications.

Locally, the lawns that best survived the winter were planted to the hybrid bermudagrass variety, Texturf 10.

Detailed information, including disease, insect and weed control, is provided in the publication L-1372, "Lawn Care", available at the County Extension Office.

This information comes from Dr. Richard Duble, Extension turfgrass specialist.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Zumwalt wins $4,000 Scholarship

Deon Zumwalt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Zumwalt, competed in the Miss Northern Texas National Teen-ager Pageant this past weekend, May 14, 15, 16 at Clarendon College in Clarendon.

She also won the Citizenship Award which was based on scholarship and leadership qualities. A trophy and a $4000.00 tuition scholarship to Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida, was selected as third runner-up.

Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida will award two $4,000.00 tuition scholarships to the Citizenship Award winners, one to a senior, the other to an underclassman.

The five judges. The contestants were judged based on the interviews, poise and personality, leadership, scholastic achievement, volunteer work and evening gown modeling.

Each Citizenship award winner will be considered for one of ten Regional Citizenship Tuition Scholarships in the amount of $10,000 each, and two National Citizenship Awards of a $20,000 tuition scholarship from Eckerd College.

The weekend consisted of rehearsals, talent and patriotic speech competition, interviews with judges and the pageant itself, which took place Saturday evening.

Each contestant was asked to have a business or Civic Club to sponsor her as a representative of that community. The sponsorship fee was $250.00 which was given to Deon by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce.

All finalists were to have a red, white and blue western outfit to wear for the opening number and an evening gown for a portion of the pageant.

The pageant winners were selected by a panel of judges. Each contestant had a two minute interview with each Other awards given are as follows: Lori Hanes, of Wichita Falls, first runner-up, was also chosen as the talent winner. Second runner-up was Sheryl Waltrip, from Enochs; Deon Zumwalt, third runner-up and Citizenship Award winner, including a $4000.00 scholarship; and fourth runner-up was Lisa Wood of Amarillo. Vonda Bounds, of Lubbock, was named Miss Hospitality and was invited to attend the pageant next year. Mary Nell Clayton of Roby, was selected by all other contestants as Miss Congeniality.

All winners of the individual categories and the five finalists were awarded trophies and all contestants were given participant trophies.

Monte Lyons honored for Achievements

Six Texas Tech University agricultural economics students have been honored for outstanding achievements in academics and leadership within their department.

Among those honored were Kirby D. Hargis of Henrietta, D. Clay Holcomb of Stanton, Robert E. Huckabee of Mexia, Monte W. Lyons of South Plains, Dwight W. Menefee of Lake Arthur, New Mexico, and R. Paul O'Briant of Lubbock.

Hargis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hargis of Henrietta, was cited by the department as outstanding junior for academic achievement.

Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Holcomb of Stanton, was named the outstanding freshman for academic achievement.

Huckabee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dwain Huckabee of 305 N. Ross, Mexia, was selected outstanding senior for academic achievement.

Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Lyons of South Plains, was picked outstanding sophomore for academic achievement. Menefee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Menefee of Route 1, Lake Arthur, New Mexico, was named the outstanding student within the Department of Agricultural Economics.

From Lubbock, O'Briant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Briant of Route 2, was cited as outstanding student leader for 1981-82.

Students receiving the awards were recognized at the annual departmental steak fry April 30.

Jr. High Speech team places 2nd

The Junior High Speech team placed 2nd at the Amarillo Tascosa junior high tournament May 15.

The team was co-coached by Barbara and Joe Willis.

Freshmen and 8th graders made up the squad. As in past years, Floydada was the only 3A school. Other schools competing were Amarillo Austin, Amarillo Crockett, Amarillo Bonam, Dumas, Levelland, Amarillo River Road, and Sanford-Fritch. Most competitors were freshmen from these schools.

Students competing for Floydada were: Debate, Rob Pratt and Sandy Carr; Persuasive Speaking, Lane Cheek, Bill Harris, Mary Lloyd; Informative Speaking, Jill Willson, Anna Bradshaw, Scott Smith; Poetry, Mary Ann Quilantan, Teresa Gentry, Lynn Mulder; Prose, Janie Barrera, DeeAnn Collins, Sandra Pate; Dramatic Interp, Elsa Garza; Oratory, Becky Lopez; Humorous Interp, Marv Ann Quilantan, Marissa Jones, Shannon Edwards; Duet Acting, Gwen Smith and Teresa Franklin, Meredith Kitchens and Lana Fannon, Shannon Edwards and Matt Griffin. Patti Campbell, a senior, went along and judged at the tournament.

Several students placed or made it into the finals. Mary Ann Quilantan went into the finals in humorous interp and placed 4th in Poetry. Carr and Pratt placed 1st in debate. Teresa Gentry made the finals in Poetry.

In Persuasive speaking, Lane Cheek placed 1st and Bill Harris placed 3rd. In Informative Speaking, Jill Willson placed 1st, Anna Bradshaw placed 2nd, and Scott Smith was in the finals. Kitchens and Fannon were in the finals of Duet. Elsa Garza was in the finals in dramatic interp.

Last year the team placed 3rd. The Willis's have high hopes of doing as well or better next year. Most all of these students will be competing on the high school squad next year, so there are promising signs of the future of Floydada Speech and Drama.

Martin graduates from Tarleton State

Tarleton State University graduated its largest class since becoming a four-year institution in 1959 at Spring commencement Sunday, May 9. Degrees were awarded to 74 graduate students, 210 undergraduates, and associate degrees in nursing to 28 students.

Virgil Allen Martin of Floydada received a BAAS in Agriculture.

Dr. W.A. Baker, Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Texas at Arlington, was commencement speaker.

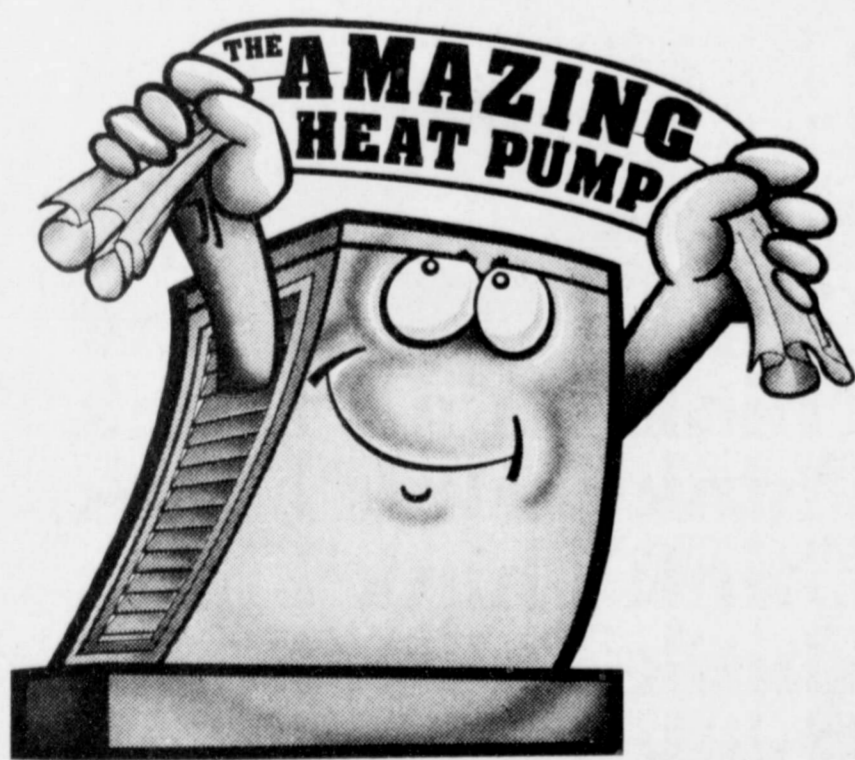

Clyde H. Wells, former chairman and member of the board of regents of The Texas A&M University System, also spoke to the graduates. Dr. Don Hellriegel, Interim Executive Vice Chancellor of Programs in the system, brought greetings from The Texas A&M University System.

The Outstanding Teaching Award for 1981-82 was presented to Dr. E.O. Morrison, Professor of Biological Sciences, by TSU Vice President Dr. Robert C. Fain.

Seven ROTC students were commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army by Col. James Woodall, Professor of Military Science for The Texas A&M University System.

The degrees were conferred by TSU president Dr. W.O. Trogon.

Student broadcasting increased

KWTS, the West Texas State University student radio station, has increased power and is broadcasting in stereo.

Scott Miller, a radio-television major from El Paso, was the station manager when the renovations began in the spring semester of 1981.

Miller said a Federal Communications Commission ruling which required all educational stations to increase their power to 100 watts or to begin sharing time with other stations, forced them to go stereo. KWTS had broadcast at 10 watts since 1971.

"We basically had two options," Miller said. "We could have either forgotten about increasing power and taken the chance of going off the air or we could go 100 watts and do it right. That's the choice the administration made," Miller said.

Robert Busch, a senior speech major from Los Alamos, New Mexico, and KWTS news director, said to increase power and become a Class A radio station, KWTS would have to pass several equipment standards set by the FCC.

The KWTS staff and the administration decided to purchase stereo equipment as part of the station's renovation. "A wall was knocked out and a large window was put in to allow students passing by the station to watch the disc jockeys on the air," said Busch.

Dr. Jim Pratt, assistant professor of speech and director of radio and television, said the equipment installation, studio renovation and the actual purchase of the equipment, including the new transmitter, cost about $30,000.

"We should be able to broadcast in a 15-mile radius, but the antenna is nine feet below average terrain and the signal might not quite reach that far," Pratt said.

"We will not know what our broadcasting times for the summer will be until after enrollment for the first summer session is completed," said Busch.

Registration for the first term of summer school begins on June 1.

"Everyone is really happy about the changes here at the station and it has really boosted our morale," Busch said.

"The renovations have really made our disc jockeys proud, and hopefully, it will motivate them to do better on the air," he said.

Student disc jockeys receive credit and practical experience in broadcasting, radio and television production, reporting and in writing news and commercial advertisement and students fill air time with popular music, student-produced interview and talk shows, information and public service announcements and campus news.

The radio station is located in the WTSU Fine Arts Building.

DARA CARTHEL, a sophomore mass communications major at West Texas State University from Floydada, disc jockeys as a class requirement for the newly-remodeled campus radio station, KWTS. The station has increased broadcast power from 10 watts to 100 watts and is broadcasting in stereo.

Dr. Norman awarded Graduate Excellence

Dr. Bill M. Norman, a 1973 graduate of Floydada High School, has been named recipient of the Robert E. Stewart Graduate Excellence Award in the Department of Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University.

Dr. Norman received his Doctor of Engineering degree in May 1981 and is currently employed by Bush-Hog Continental Gin Company in Fresno, California.

Outstanding achievement worthy of the Stewart Award is exemplified by not only academic excellence but also character, integrity and leadership. Those who receive the Award have demonstrated the belief that technology must serve humane purposes.

Summer registration at WTC scheduled

Registration for summer classes at the Crosbyton extension center of Western Texas College is scheduled for 6:30-8 p.m. on May 25 in the Administration Building.

Classes will begin on May 27.

Persons wishing further information about the Crosbyton schedule are invited to contact Jerry Scott at 675-2611 or the Student Services office in Snyder at 915-573-8511.

J.P. Guest receives $100 scholarship

J.P. Guest, a senior nursing major from Floydada, has received a $100 scholarship for the 1982-83 academic year from the West Texas State University Recreation Club.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Guest of Floydada.

Guest is one of four students who received the $100 scholarships in honor of Mary Hill, WTSU assistant professor of physical education and sponsor of the WTSU Recreation Club.

Guest also received a gift at the annual Recreation Club banquet as one of the club's outstanding members.

Look to the G for leading over-all performance.

Year after year, growers come back to Funk's G-522DR. Why? Because it performs consistently. Through good years and bad, disease pressure or drought. And now, G-522DR is available as HERBISHIELD seed, so you can use BICEP® or MILOCEP® herbicide for tough, highly effective control of both weeds and grasses.

All across the sorghum belt, G-522DR yields are impressive, topping major competitors time and again.

G-522DR is resistant to downy mildew. Head smut, too. And has resistance to Strain A of Maize Dwarf Mosaic Virus (MDMV-A), and tolerance to northern leaf blight. It's tropically adapted for extra weatherability. Develops sturdy stalks. Stands uniform. And produces high-quality golden-bronze grain.

Its wide adaptation and medium maturity make G-522DR easy to manage, a wise addition to most sorghum programs. Plant G-522DR this year. Chances are, you'll come back.

G-522DR, HERBISHIELD or regular. Setting a new pace in sorghum.

Area graduates named for Commencement

Seven students from Floydada were among 523 South Plains College graduates receiving diplomas and certificates during SPC's 24th Graduation Ceremonies May 7 in Texan Dome.

The number of 1982 graduates ties the college's record number set last year. The graduates are from all SPC campuses — Levelland, Lubbock, Plainview and an extension facility at Reese Air Force Base near Lubbock.

Dr. Bud Joyner, dean of arts and sciences, conferred associate degrees on academic graduates, and Frank Hunt, dean of the Technical-Vocational-

Occupational Division certified technical-vocational students.

Jackie Heckathorn received an associate of science degree in history, and Barbara Schwertner received an associate of arts degree in elementary education. Receiving certificates of proficiency in vocational nursing were Guadalupe Blakey, Clara Burns, Carol Cozby, Kim Ditto and Nancy Moss.

Honor graduates, which were noted above, must maintain a minimum 3.85 grade point average during their studies at South Plains College.

Southwestern Bell intros Information Age

Magnetic bubbles, fiber optics, silicon integrated circuits and scores of other technological advancements have all played vital roles in hastening the arrival of what has become widely known as the Information Age.

Standing on the threshold of this new era, it's easy for the modern office worker to observe an increasingly advanced array of sophisticated electronic machines in the office helping create, gather, process and distribute information.

The long-heralded "office of the future" is a natural offspring of the Information Age.

The future office concept, replete with video display screens and machines capable of acting on verbal commands have been advanced for many years.

The concept is rapidly becoming a reality.

As the power of solid state technology expands, many of the once far-fetched functions of the "office of the future" are now available and in use. New intelligent machines and added applications for existing hardware surface almost daily. Intelligent machines, interlinked by telecommunications and driven by increasingly complex and versatile software, are being utilized in nearly every industry.

Voice recognition and voice synthesis systems are being developed for applications ranging from office copiers to data retrieval systems.

In today's modern office, intelligent machines communicate with each other using telephone company services such as Dataphone digital service. The service—provided by Southwestern Bell and other Bell System companies—enables users to take advantage of the nationwide telephone network to connect any number of locations together.

Such a nationwide network has made it possible for data bases containing

Clinics set at Community Hospital

Three clinics are scheduled this week at Community Hospital of Lubbock, 5301 University.

On Wednesday, May 26, two clinics are scheduled. In the morning from 8 until 10, a Diabetes Screening will be in progress. Patients must make a reservation. A fasting blood sugar will be drawn before the patient sees the doctor, and patients should not have anything to eat or drink after midnight Tuesday.

Wednesday afternoon, the regular Blood Pressure Clinic is scheduled. No reservation is necessary for this clinic which runs from 1 to 3 p.m.

On Thursday, the 27th, a Podiatry Clinic is planned. Dr. Dennis Bizozco, staff podiatrist, will be present to examine patients with foot problems.

Reservations may be made by calling Volunteer Services at 795-9301.

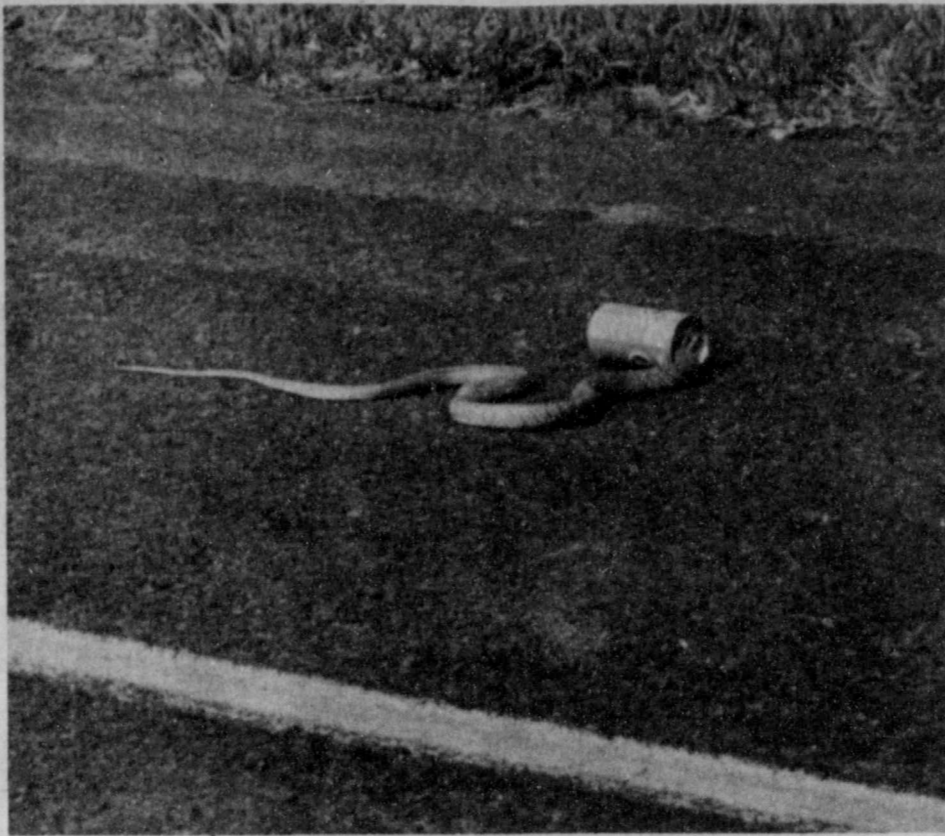

During the month of June, 12 clinics are scheduled at Community Hospital of Lubbock. A Calendar of Events, which covers all clinics scheduled through June, is available at the hospital.

Basketball Camp set for June 14-18

Longhorn and Ladyhorn Basketball Camp will be held this summer in the Lockney High School Gymnasium. The dates for the camp are June 14-18.

The camp will be directed by Sheri Haynes who is currently coaching girls basketball in Lockney, and will be assisted by Kathy Grissom and Anna Anderson.

The camp will run from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily, with the boys and girls being exposed to fundamental drills, game situations, and short lectures concerning the mental aspects of competition. There will be a camp demonstration on Friday following the week of camp. Boys and girls who will be 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th graders in the school year 82-83 will be eligible to attend. It will be limited to the first fifty boys and girls who sign up.

Cost for the camp is forty-five dollars for approximately thirty hours of instruction, a personalized tee-shirt, and insurance coverage for the camp. Twenty dollars should accompany the registration and the remaining may be paid at camp. No refunds will be made.

If there are any questions, please contact Sheri Haynes at 652-2103. Applications can be mailed to: Lockney Basketball Camp, Box 112, Lockney, Texas 79241.

Information should be sent to include: Campers name, address, home telephone and tee-shirt size.

The application should be signed by the camper and a parent.

All applications are due by May 28, 1982.

Summer Track and Field Camp Scheduled

Applications for Wayland Baptist University's first annual Summer Track and Field Camp are now being accepted, according to Head Coach Glen Sefcik.

A unique concept in summer camps, the Wayland Track and Field Camp is planned for Sunday, May 30, through Thursday, June 3, concluding with a track meet the final day.

Open to both boys and girls between the ages of eight and 18, the camp will offer instruction in all areas of track and field. Each daily program will be a re-education of training for seasonal development through drills and learning activities for each event.

Competent and successful high school, junior college and university coaches will use lectures, demonstrations, and visual aids to enhance the camper's learning experiences.

Topping the list of instructors for the inaugural camp is Sefcik, a veteran of more than 10 years of coaching on the high school, college and international levels. Also on the teaching staff are PeeWee Halsell and Bob Carey, assistant track coaches at WBU.

Individualized instruction will be geared to accommodate the range of each camper's performance capabilities, with emphasis on self-discipline, weight programs, flexibility, nutrition, rest, and setting high goals. The daily schedule will provide time for recreational activities.

Campers will be housed in a modern residence hall on the WBU campus, and meals will be provided and served by the university staff in the campus dining hall.

Cost for the camp is $130 per resident camper and $80 for nonresident campers. Enrollment is limited to the first 100 participants who apply, and a $25 deposit is required at the time application is made.

Registration will take place on Sunday, May 30, from 3 until 5 p.m. in Hutcherson Physical Education Center.

Letters of application and deposit should be mailed to Glen Sefcik, Wayland Baptist University, Plainview, Texas 79072. For more information contact Sefcik at 296-5521.

Lubarsky to direct summer workshops

Lubbock Civic Ballet will be offering classical ballet dance workshops again this summer.

The first two-week session will be held June 7-18, Monday-Friday. The second session will be held June 28-July 2, continuing July 6-10.

Leonid Lubarsky, Artistic Director of Lubbock Civic Ballet, will be teaching the first session. Mr. Lubarsky and his wife, Dana, will be teaching the second session.

All workshops will be held in the dance studio at Lubbock High School. Workshops are divided into two categories, junior and advanced.

Auditions for both sessions will be held Saturday, May 29 at the Lubbock

High School dance studio. (11:00 a.m. for juniors and 12:00 noon for advanced dancers.)

Schedules and requirements for the workshops are as follows:

Junior Class: (minimum age, 9 years)

To meet from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. The student must have 3 years previous classical ballet training and be familiar with ballet terminology and grammar.

Advanced Class: To meet from 11:45 a.m.-1:45 p.m. The student must have previous advanced classical ballet training.

There will be a tuition fee. For more information about the workshops, interested persons should call 793-9107.

Homemade Ettergate helps set accurate flow rate on gated irrigation pipe

Up until now, setting the flow rate on gated irrigation pipe was a slow job; and there was no accurate way of doing it. Cecil Regier, Manager of the Texas A&M Research Field at Etter, solved the problem. He built the Ettergate. Nobody manufactures the gadget, but almost anyone can make one.

Regier says it takes a standard one gallon metal can, a one pound coffee can, several plastic lids from coffee cans, and a little welding or soldering. The gallon can should be rectangular, 4 inches wide, 6.5 inches long and 9.5 inches tall. This is a gallon can used for oil, pesticides or anti-freeze. About one half of the top including the spout and 4 inches of the adjoining, narrow side are cut out. The coffee can with the bottom removed is brazed into a 4 inch hole next to the bottom on the intact side of the gallon can. About three inches of the coffee can must stick out and the rest is back in the gallon can.

Various sized holes cut in the plastic lids control flow rate. Regier said, "Each Ettergate needs to be calibrated if very accurate control is required, however, we found that a 7/8 inch hole in the plastic will set a flow rate of about gallons per minute". The researcher cautioned that the holes should be cut smooth and carefully with a wood saw bit to prevent excessive turbulence. A 1-inch hole flows 6 gpm; 1 1/8 inch, 8 gpm; 1 1/4, 10 gpm; 1 1/2, 14 gpm; and 1 5/8, 16 gpm.

The Ettergate is placed in front of an open gate on irrigation pipe. Water flows in to the open part of the rectangular can and out through the opening in the plastic lid. When just enough water enters the can to flow over the back edge of the can, the desired flow rate is achieved.

The gadget is easy to use and flow rates can be set for each furrow. "Setting the flow rate on each furrow will save a lot on waiting for furrows to water out," Regier said. "Everyone should have one", he continued.

Detailed plans for Ettergate are available from the Researcher at the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd. West, Amarillo, Texas 79106.

Cotton varieties show varying fiber strengths

Cotton producers in the Texas High Plains are being offered a premium price for fiber which meets or exceeds certain specifications for fiber strength.

With this in mind, two specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service (TAEX), Lubbock, have analyzed strength data for more than 60 varieties planted in demonstrations across the South Plains during the past three years.

To be included in the analysis, a variety had to appear in at least 10 different demonstrations during this period, said Dr. James R. Supak, Extension cotton agronomist. "Consequently, some of the newer varieties don't appear in the summary," he said.

Supak said Elston Grubaugh, Extension agricultural engineer, averaged data for the three-year period from both irrigated and dryland tests.

"Strength, like a lot of fiber characteristics, is genetically determined, but it can be influenced to some degree by growing conditions," Supak said. He said strength is probably less sensitive to growing conditions than is micronaire or staple.

Grubaugh said modern milling techniques such as open end spinning require cottons with higher fiber strength. As a result, some mills, such as the American Cotton Growers denim plant in Littlefield, are willing to pay a premium for high strength for high strength fiber.

As an example of the premium, Supak said, Plains Cotton Cooperative is offering growers one cent a pound for fiber which as 25 grams/tex, two cents a pound for 26 grams/tex, and three cents a pound for 27 grams/tex or better.

The accompanying table indicates the number of times a variety appeared in Extension demonstrations in the South Plains during the past three years, the average strength (grams/tex), and number of times in the three years the variety tested at a strength of 25 grams/tex or greater.

"Caught" cotton planting seed could hamper lint yields in '82

Research by a cotton specialist with Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc. indicates that farmers may want to think twice before planting "caught" seed, especially if it hasn't been thoroughly tested to assure high quality.

"There are many advantages of high quality seed over low quality lots," says Jim Schrib, an agronomist with the Southwestern Division of Pioneer in Plainview. "Farmers can expect high quality seed to produce seedlings that have a better chance of escaping seedling diseases. And the plants also tend to develop faster to provide more uniform plant populations which are important for weed control, uniformity of maturity and harvesting efficiency."

Results of a two-year test conducted by Schrib show that high density seed (high weight to size ratio) out-performs lower density seed in stand establishment and lint yields.

"Twenty days after being planted, the high density seed had a survival rate of more than 50 percent," Schrib said. "But with medium density seed, the survival rate was below 40 percent, and only 26 percent of the low density seed survived."

"But the superiority of the high quality seed was most apparent at harvest time. Test results showed high density seed producing 9 percent more lint yield than medium density seed and 22 percent more yield than the low density seed."

Schrib noted that due to growing conditions in 1981, cotton planting seed caught at gins throughout the Texas South Plains was quite variable in quality.

"Much of the South Plains cotton production area suffered from excessive late season rainfall and cooler-than-normal temperatures," he said. "These factors often caused excessive plant growth and delayed both seed and lint maturity. And whenever this occurred, seed quality tended to be lower.

"The time from flowering to boll maturity takes about 50 days. And anything that makes a boll open prematurely is going to shut down lint growth and seed development. Major causes of immature seed include cool temperatures and excessive rainfall which delay maturity; premature opening from severe heat and moisture stress, and early freezes which kill the plant."

Schrib said all Pioneer cotton planting seed was produced in Central Texas and on the Rolling Plains where growing conditions were better than normal in 1981.

"Virtually all Pioneer cotton varieties have an 85 percent or higher germination count," the agronomist said. "And although none are tagged higher than 85 percent germ, some seed lots have counts above 90 percent."

"Our production department has been reviewing quality control procedures and standards during the past several years with the aim of further increasing the quality of Pioneer brand cotton planting seed. And the higher germination count is probably the most noticeable result."

Schrib said high free fatty acid counts "tend to reduce germination and emergence. And we don't delint or bag any of our cotton seed that has a free fatty acid level higher than 1 percent, the 'magic' number above which seed quality may become suspect."

"In fact, the large majority of our 1981 crop had counts of less than half that amount. And we've made a special effort to eliminate any seed that might be low in quality, including low density, by some severe culling on the gravity tables."

Schrib concluded that even though high quality seed may mean somewhat higher seed cost, test results have shown that it paid off at harvest.

Census Bureau announces plans for '82 census

Plans for the 1982 Census of Agriculture are on schedule according to Bruce Chapman, Director of the Commerce Department's Census Bureau.

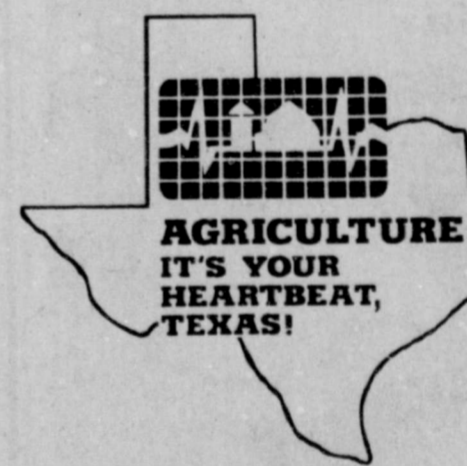

The census, to be taken starting next January, will provide basic information measuring the trends in number of farms, commodity production, land use, and income levels in agriculture. Chapman indicated that the rapid changes occurring in agriculture due to the declining farm income situation, along with continuing high interest rates, makes the information from the agriculture census extremely important to the nation's policymakers as well as farmers themselves. Chapman points out that complete and accurate responses by farmers will ensure a high quality picture of the agriculture industry to everyone's benefit.

Census forms will be mailed out in late December to 2.5 million farmers and ranchers to collect data for the 1982 calendar year. Designed to reduce the burden on respondents through greater ease in reporting, the census form will vary by region, and questions have been reworded to be more understandable.

Farmers and ranchers will not be the only group involved in a census for 1982. The 1982 Economic Censuses, which cover manufacturing, transportation, mining, retail and wholesale trades, and the service industries, will also be taken. Taken together, these censuses will document rapidly changing patterns in production, income, capital spending, and other facts vital to measuring the nation's economy.

The report form for the 1982 Census of Agriculture which already has been tested with several thousand farmers, Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board (TGSPB) recognized Providence Farm Supply, Lockney; Paymaster Seeds, Plainview; Producers Cooperative, Elevator, Floydada; Lockney Cooperatives, Lockney; Barwise Elevator & Fertilizer, Floydada; and United Farm Industries, Plainview, for outstanding service to the sorghum farmers of the Texas High Plains. The presentation of a Certificate of Honor was made by local TGSPB Director, Albert Scheele.

The recognition was given to 43 grain sorghum processors within a twenty-nine county area of the Texas High Plains which TGSPB serves. "Processors" are those elevators, seed companies and feedlots which receive and/or purchase sorghum from the farmers in the area. Sorghum producers and cooperating processors support sorghum market promotion and research by setting aside 5 cents per ton of sorghum for this work. The 43 processors honored were those whose payments were 80-100 percent of their potential collections and amounts more than $50.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board works to expand the sales of grain sorghum throughout the world. It is responsible for many of the sales to areas where, until recently, high quality sorghum was unknown. TGSPB also works to solve farmers' production problems of insects, disease, etc., through research.

TGSPB is a "self-help" program for sorghum farmers and grain processors. Its only objective is to increase he profit in sorghum production through research and increased sales.

Flappers and roosters entertain residents at the Lockney Care Center

The staff and residents of the Lockney Care Center enjoyed special programs each day of last week, Texas Nursing Home Week.

Monday there was a balloon lift-off at 10:00 a.m. and a Resident Parade at 2:30 p.m.

Tuesday an enchilada luncheon was served at noon. The proceeds were donated to the Lockney High School Band.

Wednesday open house was held from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Friday an appreciation luncheon was held to honor the "volunteers" who help in and around the Care Center. A meal of ham and pecan pie with all the trimmings was served to approximately 40 guests.

But Thursday was probably one of the highlights of the entire week for the residents. They were entertained by the Kitchen Clatter Band of Levelland. The group appearing at Lockney was made up of 18 members of a 25-member band of senior citizens. The oldest member was Phillip Gillespie, 88, and the youngest was Lonnie Northan, 47.

Vivienne Kisner, supervisor, with the assistance of Verna Mae Caddell, pianist, and Opal Mixon, director presented a half hour performance that gave each and every person in attendance a twinkle in their eye, a song to hum and rhythm to beat.

The renditions of old favorites like "Put Your Arms Around Me" gave everyone a laugh.

The performers used rub boards, Mexican maracas, shaking bottles, drums, a kazoo, tamborines, cymbals, and a triangle to make music.

The group has appeared before birthday parties at Knox Village in Lubbock, at the Civic Center at the Art Festival and the Cotton Ginners Association meeting, in rest homes in several towns, and at meetings of Eastern Star and the Rebekahs. They have appeared in Tahoka and Crosbyton, besides appearing in Levelland a number of times.

They have entertained the patients at the veterans hospital in Big Springs the last two years.

The timid Indian maid was played by Viola Castle. Jessie Gillespie came on strong as a 1920 flapper. And Dolas Rand made a fantastic rooster. There was no more sleeping after she "crew."

Plans finalized for Texas State Field Day

June 11 and 12 have been set aside for the Texas Angus Association state field days to be held at Deep Down Ranch in Paluxy.

Members of the association will meet Friday at 5 p.m. at Lake Granbury Motor Inn, Granbury, with a dinner and stage play to follow.

The Texas Junior Angus Association heifer show will be held on Saturday. Registration begins at 9 a.m. with the junior heifer show, showmanship contest and junior membership meeting to follow at 2 p.m.

Entry deadline is June 1. Send an entry fee of $7 per head with name of animal, birth date and registration number to Steve Overpeck, c/o Deep Down Ranch, Route #2, Bluff Dale, Texas 76433.

AN APPRECIATION LUNCHEON was held in honor of the volunteers at the Lockney Care Center last week. 40 persons enjoyed ham, sweet potatoes, rolls, green beans, salad and pecan pie.

Frizzell, Record are Amarillo College graduates

The following two students graduated from Amarillo College on May 14, at the Amarillo Civic Center auditorium: Gay Yvonne Frizzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Frizzell of Lockney, with a major in Dental Hygiene and Breck

Charles Record, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Record, also of Lockney, with a major in Court Reporting.

The commencement address was given by the Honorable Wilhelmina Delco of the Texas House of Representtatives. There were 474 in the fifty-third graduating class of Amarillo College.

The first summer session will start on June 2, with registration on June 1st at the Washington Street Campus.

DOLAS RAND of the Kitchen Clatter Band of Levelland made a fantastic rooster in her performance at the Lockney Care Center luncheon Friday.

JESSIE GILLESPIE also of the Kitchen Clatter Band brought back memories as she performed as a 1920 flapper.

DUCANE

Ducane cast aluminum grills feature top-ported stainless steel burners, which last longer and save gas... porcelainized steel cooking grids... and a unique coal grate designed to prevent flare-ups and grease collection at the bottom of the firebox. Some models have Rotis-A-Grate, a separate vertical burner for rotissing from behind the meat.
