Collard speaks Rotarians

John R. Collard, Jr., District Governor of Rotary International, spoke to the Lockney Rotary Club at their regular meeting at noon on Friday in the Rebekah Lodge Hall.

Club president, Gail Kring, called the meeting to order and introduced the guest speaker.

Collard and his wife, Marjorie, met with the officers and directors Thursday night in an assembly.

At the well-attended Friday's meeting he spoke to the club on ways they could improve and be more successful. Enthusiasm was the first point of his speech. He commended the president and the board members for being so well organized.

He said Hiroji Mukasa, International President of Rotary International, works with the theme "Mankind is One." He encouraged all of the members to build bridges of friendship. He said he never did meet strangers—he meets friends he had not met before.

The local club is sponsoring two boys, Jackie Cunyus and Keith Owens this summer. They will be attending Camp RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Award) at Tres Ritas, New Mexico. They are sons of Joe and Barbara Cunyus and Gene and Virginia Owens, respectively.

Collard referred to the Rotary ensignia. He said the cogs resembled the members to him. He said the spokes and center reminded him of the board of directors with the key the president, grouped together working hard at the center. He said they could all roll along and work in harmony if everyone did his share, and that everything could be thrown out of kilter if they quit doing their share.

Collard pointed out that a success cannot be judged by dollars and cents. He said a success is one who enjoys his job, supports the family, does his very best, and promotes his job.

He reminded the club members of a conference that is to be held in Plainview April 22-24, 1983.

Also he told them the leader was to be picked this month from District 573 study youth group that will be visiting in New South Wales in Australia next February for six weeks. One week of that time will be spent in Sidney.

Collard challenged club members to work on their club projects and follow the steps he had covered and he could assure them of a success with their club.

Collard and his wife have three children: Carolyne Long, who resides in Amarillo with her husband Ronald; Helen Lee, who resides in Gruver with her husband Dean; and Thomas, who

Meeting

The West Side Church of Christ, Floydada, invites everyone to hear Donald Bryant in a series of gospel sermons July 18-25. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Sundays and at 8 p.m. on week-days.

Chamber met Monday

Monday morning's early meeting of the Chamber of Commerce found many residents bright-eyed and chipper. Attending were Gary Marr, Sam Fortenberry, Gail Kring, Clar Schacht, J.D. Copeland, Mike Mooney, Jinna Sue Turner, June Bybee, and Dickie Lambert.

Committee chairman Kring reported that plans for the Old Fashioned Saturday are shaping up for a fun-filled time for everybody with children's games, a sidewalk sale by the merchants, a big flea market by study clubs and individuals, and a gospel singing for those who prefer that.

The date for 'Old Fashioned Saturday' is August 21. The time has been set tentatively for 1 to 6 p.m., with some of the merchants getting way a little earlier.

Turner agreed to check into obtaining another order of cheese for the qualified Lockney residents. Fortenberry made the motion that the Chamber check on the cheese, seconded by Turner, and that the Chamber pay storage on the cheese when the amount was assessed.

Fortenberry volunteered a truck for the pickup when notification was received of the date the cheese arrived. A motion was made and seconded for the Chamber to pay his gas.

MARGIE ARAUJO, EARL BROSEH, AND CARLA BAXTER

Threesome return from Lighthouse Youth Tour

BY CAROLYN REDDING

On June 10, Margie Araujo, Carla Baxter, and Earl Broseh met 35 other contest winners from across Texas to begin one of the most exciting trips of their lives.

Every year Lighthouse Electric Cooperative, along with other electric Cooperatives throughout the United States, hold contests to choose high school students to sponsor on the Government in Action Youth Tour. Margie Araujo and Earl Broseh were sponsored by Lighthouse Electric Cooperative this year. They won the trip by giving the best speeches on the subject "Rural Electric Cooperatives - Good For All Texans."

Participants from Texas met in Lewisville, Texas, for an introductory banquet and session of singing around the pool that night. These 38 current winners and 5 sponsors attended. Ralph Scheele and Maribel Torrez, last year's winners attended the traditional reunion held for the past year's winners also. The following day they took in Six Flags before returning home.

Early the next morning, the bus full of excited students left on a chartered bus for a three-day ride to Washington D.C. where they would join other winners from 20 states. The first night was spent in West Memphis, Arkansas.

Every night they all joined in a nightly singsong accompanied by a sponsor on the guitar, ending with Kumbaya and a prayer for the next day.

The group journeyed to Knoxville, Tennessee the following day in preparation for attending the World's Fair the next day. The theme for this year's World's Fair is "The World Moves Around Energy". Each country's expositions are housed in a separate building.

The following day they reached

Washington D.C. at last. Once there, the pace was hectic. There were sightseeing trips to monuments, memorials, and a few tours.

The following day was what our three local tourists referred to as "suit and tie" day. The group visited Capitol Hill and the House of Representatives and Senate while they were in session. In the afternoon a tour of the White House, was scheduled. The visitors were held up at the entrance and secret service men were "everywhere". Finally it was explained that the President and Mrs. Reagan were leaving by helicopter. One of the guards obligingly informed Broseh that Nancy Reagan was the lady standing on the balcony. Broseh grins a little when he said "I never got to actually see the President, but I did get to see her." And he puts a snapshot to prove it. Secretary of Agriculture Block spoke with the visitors.

Farm disaster aid

Governor Clements yesterday requested disaster aid for 26 Texas counties where heavy rains, hail or tornadoes in May and June destroyed or severely damaged crops.

The governor made his request to U.S. Secretary of Agriculture John Block seeking emergency loans and disaster payments to farmers in these counties.

He said the county officials are expected to request assistance and his appeals for federal aid will be amended accordingly. Floyd County is one of the 26 counties.

Court reverses decision on SPAG home loans

BY WES BROWN

The Floyd County Commissioners voted to become a part of the Housing Finance Corporation to issue bonds for mortgage loans. This reversed last month's decision to reject the proposal presented by South Plains Association of Governments (SPAG). The proposal was reconsidered after the response the Commissioners received from the county residents asking why the proposal was not passed.

The proposal was resubmitted by Fred Thayer, a local CPA representing the Floydada Chamber of Commerce Industrial Development Committee. He emphasized the proposal was not a government loan.

The proposal will allow bonds to be sold allowing people in the county to buy houses at a lower interest rate (12-14 percent) rather than the current high interest rates. The bonds will be sold by an independent underwriting company.

Interest rates will probably be about three percent less than the current rate according to Thayer. This will be a difference of about $100 per month. Also the down payment would be about five percent of the value rather than the commercial rate of 20 percent. This would bring more buyers into the home buying market.

Commissioner Thomas Warren precinct 3 stated that the reason he abstained from voting earlier was he did not understand the proposal. County Judge Choise Smith chided the court stating if they did not understand an item to table it rather than to have to rescind a motion.

Commissioner Bob Jarrett emphasized the bonds will not be issued in the name of Floyd County nor will the county have a part of the proposal.

"We're happy the commissioners saw the public need for the program. Stan McClendon, president of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce said, "Hopefully young couples can now afford housing."

He stressed this is for rural and city developments and since it applies to rural it could influence industrial housing.

"I am surprised that the voting took such a quick turnaround," Kaye Powell, wife of Chamber of Commerce Vice President Tom Powell said. "Hopefully more people will get involved in county government even though it is frustrating. We need to know where our money is being spent and who spends it."

HAVE YOU DRIVEN BY THE CITY HALL and taken time to be thankful for that group of emergency vehicles we have in our fair city and the many volunteer hours involved? If not, to the Smithsonian Institute. They tried to take in as much of the recorded history contained in those 11 buildings as time would allow. "We were somewhat disappointed that we had not been able to more thoroughly cover the Institute. When we had time to read some of our literature, we felt better. We learned that if one took 30 seconds to look at each item in the entire Institute, it would take over 65 years."

Mount Vernon and Washington's grave were on the agenda for the next day, some 10 miles away in Virginia. After lunch the group visited Ford's theatre. Of course the booth where Lincoln was shot was inspiring.

The local youngsters were impressed with the fact that the house across the street where John Wilks Booth had managed to run after being injured himself had also been preserved, along with that portion of original brick in the street directly between the two buildings. They also enjoyed the museum on the lower floor of the theatre which contained related items such as the original spur and the banner that Booth caught his spur in when he jumped from the balcony.

From there they visited the National Archives where the Declaration of Independence and all of the major treaties and documents are displayed.

That night they toured the magnificent capitol city and saw the monuments and memorials with their particular lighting effects. These young people recalled Lincoln's relaxed countenance on one side and the tenseness of the other side at that memorial, symbolizing the peace of his home life in contrast with the pressures and responsibilities of his office so vividly brought out by the lighting.

After four exciting days in Washington, D.C., they began the long ride home. Father's Day, June 20, included a stop at Chattanooga, Tennessee, for a special devotional on Lookout Mountain. Many called home and talked to their dads and families.

They returned to Lewisville for a farewell costume party with friends with memories they would never forget. It was reported that there was not a dry eye in the house.

Stan McClendon met the three young people at Lewisville for their return trip. Earl is the son of Kenneth and Juanita Broesch of the Sterley community north of Lockney.

Margie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arcadio Araujo of 201 NE Fifth, Lockney.

Carla is the daughter of Waldo and Carolyn Baxter of Hereford. She was given the trip by her grandparents, Cecil and Rena Baxter.

After dinner at the hotel they were off to attend the Sunset Parade held at the Iwo Jima Memorial which is held every Tuesday night. One of the young tourists remarked, "There is so much history up there. And seeing it and living it makes it so much more interesting and you don't forget it."

"We learned the significance of why one of those men's hand is not touching the flagpole at that memorial. It was an American Indian, who was not recognized as a true American, and he survived the war and the others didn't."

"And," he went on, "Did you know the Washington Monument, the Capitol and the Lincoln Memorial are all in a straight line? Did you know that 32 dollar bills are printed on a sheet when they are being printed? We learned that when we visited the Bureau of Printing and Engraving."

A visit to the 3 theaters housed at the John F. Kennedy Center of Performing Arts was followed by an afternoon at the Rural Electrification Day. The meeting was described as a huge "annual meeting." New members of the Youth Consulting Board were selected from five states in the region. They will plan next year's trip. This year's winners will also get to attend next year's reunion at Lewisville.

The next day's ventures took them to the Arlington National Cemetery. They got to witness the impressive ceremony of the changing of the guard at one of the regularly scheduled intervals of every 30 minutes during the day and every 2 hours at night.

In the afternoon the group progressed

Teacher shortage

A special legislative committee is preparing a proposal designed to relieve the drastic shortage of public school teachers facing the state by the end of the decade, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby said Friday.

Hobby, chairman of the Select Committee on Public Education, said that the proposal prepared by the Subcommittee on Educational Personnel will be submitted to the 68th Legislature that convenes in January. He said the proposal attacks four problem areas concerning the anticipated teacher shortage — salaries and benefits, recruitment, training programs and improved professional conditions.

Public education has become a critical factor in the state's economic development, particularly with the continuing massive influx of out-of-state residents moving to Texas, Hobby said. The Texas 2000 Commission has predicted that 170,000 new jobs will have to be created each year just to maintain present employment levels.

"Not only will we have to create these new jobs, but we will have to train the people to fill them," Hobby said. "This is what makes education so critical."

The post-Vietnam War baby boom also will have a considerable impact on public school education, he said, noting that enrollments across the state should increase by about 20 percent during this decade. By the 1990s, high schools should have about 32 percent more students, and by the turn of the century public school enrollments should be about 50 percent larger.

"Recommendations of our Select Committee on Public Education should provide fertile ground for the advancement of our public school system," Hobby said. "The 68th Legislature must and will take the necessary steps to retain and recruit public school teachers."

10 YEAR NO SWEAT WARRANTY

If Air Conditioning doesn't have it here it probably doesn't have it. Gas Air Conditioning Has It!

No other air conditioner has a warranty like a gas air conditioner because no other air conditioner is built like a gas air conditioner.

Gas air conditioning has fewer moving parts and no compressor to wear out or break down. This means less wear and tear and lower maintenance costs.

That's why gas air conditioning is so dependable and why it has a warranty that's twice as long as other types of units... a full 10 years!

Find out more about the air conditioning that's backed by the best warranty available. Call Energas today for a free cooling survey and cost estimate. There's no obligation.

Remember, all air conditioning was not created equal. And we have the paper to prove it!

Manufacturer's limited warranty covers all defects in materials and workmanship on the sealed refrigeration unit for ten years from the date of installation of the air conditioner when it is installed in a single family residence. All other parts are warranted for one year from date of installation.

Republican State Comptroller candidate Mike Richards speaks at luncheon

Senator Mike Richards, candidate for State Comptroller, was in Floydada Tuesday as part of his two week ground tour campaign. He spoke at a luncheon to about 45 people from Floydada and Lockney.

The text of his speech included points of how comptroller Bob Bullock has abused the legal and judicial system for his own political benefit. He cited documented evidence of Bullock's stand

In a press conference after the luncheon, Richards said he "enjoyed being in the community with community leaders."

"I am concerned with the personal shortcomings of Bullock. I am concerned about the outstanding judgments against him. And I am also concerned about his behavior and the example he is setting. We shouldn't tolerate his behavior. We should expect better behavior from elected officials. We want a public official to be proud of Richards is touring the smaller Texas towns because he wants to get the idea across that he is "a candidate that cares enough to meet the people."

"My concern is to serve the people of Floyd County effectively and efficiently and to be a friend. That's why I am meeting with each of the smaller cities to demonstrate to the people how we care about the people as individuals and not just voters. Tribute to Gayle's years

Gayle Fortenberry went to work at Lockney General Hospital some 17 years ago. She said her earlier duties varied from the reception office to insurance and bookkeeping.

She had a break of about 2 years in 1960-62. Since June 11, 1976 until June 30, she served as the Administrator.

Gayle is the wife of Eddie, a farmer stockman. They have three children Sam, Marcia, and John, a LCC student. Sam and his wife Kelly currently have the Fortenberry's only grandchild, Jennifer, who is 7. They operate the Lockney Meat Co. Marcia's husband, Keith Phillips, also farms.

Gayle fondly reminisced over the changes that had occurred during her years of service. She recalled how the Hospital Auxiliary was organized in September of 1979. She talked about how respiratory therapy had been added as well as the unit dose system addition to the pharmacy. She said physical therapy was started but was discontinued in May of this year. And, she added, now we have the Health Fitness Center.

Gayle, in addition to her regular duties, has served on the board of the South Plains Emergency Medical Service, has served on the South Plains Prenatal Association, and was the 1980-81 chairman of the South Plains Hospital Division, all headquartered in Lubbock. She was an advisor for District 1 of the Texas Hospital Association in 1981-82 and served for three years on the South Plains Prenatal Annual Seminar Programs.

Also she was the secretary for the Lockney Chamber of Commerce for past three years before this year. She is an associate member of the Hospital Auxiliary. She has also donated time and energy toward many worthwhile community efforts such as blood drives and poppy sales.

Gayle has been preparing the hospital's payroll for the computer and will continue to do so during the transition period along with some consulting through the month of July. A new administrator will be aboard August 2.

Gayle said she found that the most difficult part of the job came through the added demands from regulations and various other areas.

She commented that her job had proven to be a learning experience. She said the different situations through personnel, the building project, and the regulations had all been a challenge. She expressed how enjoyable working with the hospital staff and board had been.

She said she met and worked with people who she would not have met otherwise who had been real inspirations to her, through the state organizations as well as locally.

"I have appreciated the opportunity to fill that position (administrator). It has been very rewarding."

Gayle said she had but one desire and that was to urge the townspeople, the employees, and taxpayers alike to recognize the potential of Lockney General. "It serves a wide area, especially to the east. It has grown by adding the various departments. With the new regulations and trends, smaller hospitals are having a difficult time surviving."

She went on to explain when a hospital such as Lockney General accepts federal money such Medicare and Medicaid, it incurs more cost due to the paperwork, patient care, and the standards that are required.

"If the citizens could look beyond this initial cost and ask themselves what the hospital is doing for their community, they would see there is more involved than just their tax dollars," she said.

"New families moving into the area always ask the same two questions first: 'What kind of schools does Lockney have and what kind of medical facilities?' 'Without the hospital,' she said, 'the resthome might have to move. Elderly people and young families alike would not consider staying in Lockney without it (the hospital). All of our businesses would suffer.'"

"What the hospital needs is our belief in it and our support, verbal and otherwise," she concluded.

Gayle does not intend to retire. She assured this reporter that she was going to stay involved in the medical field in one way or another.

We take our hats off to a dedicated citizen whose interest in the community has been proven over and over.

Frizzell, Terrell repeat vows

Gay Yvonne Frizzell and Jeff Don Terrell recited vows Saturday evening in a candlelight ceremony in the First Baptist Church, with Murle Rogers, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Frizzell of Lockney. She is a Amarillo College graduate with an associate degree in applied science. She will be employed as a dental hygienist by Dr. J.I. Gaynor of Plainview after July 25.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Terrell of Lockney. He is a Lockney High School graduate and attended Amarillo College, currently engaged in farming.

Vows were exchanged at the altar decorated with formal baskets of red garnet and bridal pink roses, purple statice, champagne carnations, Peter Pan gladiolas, and tropical foliage tied with candlelight lace bows. A spiral candelabra holding candlelight tapers flanked a 15-point candle arch with a matching floral arrangement. The kneeling bench was trimmed with a fan belonging to the bride's great-grandmother and the unity candle nestled in a floral arrangement. The bride's aisle was marked with votive candles encircled with foliage and candlelight lace bows.

Kevin Turner of Denton and Rick Bixler of Lubbock, brother-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory organza with a high sheer Victorian collar of English net in design. The sweetheart neckline was accented with Belgian Venise lace, edged in scallops of Belgian lace extending over the shoulders. Pearls encrusted the lace at the neck. The skirt featured a French crystal pleated hemline edged in matching lace. The back fullness swept into a chapel length train. A coil designed of ivory silk flowers and pearls enhanced the silk illusion veil which extended the length of the train. Her cascade bouquet of bridal white rose and white ball poms was carried atop a candlelight satin-covered Bible.

Matron of honor was Melanie Bixler of Lubbock, sister of the bride, Kara Copeland and Brenda Jackson, both of Amarillo, and Katherine Moore of Lockney were bridesmaids. All wore identical gowns of candlelight quiana fashioned with spaghetti straps and surplice bodices falling into an empire waistline over full skirts. The matching sleeveless capelet featured a round embroidered motif collar with a peplum waist tied with spaghetti string quiana. They carried brass candelholders with garnet votive candles encircled by arrangements of pink, burgundy, candlelight, and amethyst silk flowers trimmed with candlelight lace bows and streamers.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Kenneth L. Watson, organist, and his wife Sandra Watson, sister of the groom, pianist. Donita and Terry Keltz presented a duo and Terry Keltz was the soloist.

Aaron Wilson was the groom's best man. Groomsmen were David Lee, Randy Ford, and Brian McClure of Amarillo. The male wedding party was attired in ivory tuxedos complementary to the all-candlelight setting.

Allison Mangold was the flower girl and Christopher Glenn of Lubbock, the groom's nephew, was the ring bearer.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Lindy Cupp, sister of the groom. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Garden Room of the church. Rise Taylor, Roxanne Ford, Rebecca Evans, Melody Wiley, and Ronee Thornton presided at the bride's table. The bride's table was covered with a floor length ivory lace cloth and was flanked by two smaller tables covered with floor length cloths of ivory with lace edging. The three-tiered candlelight cake trimmed in fresh flowers was centered on a mirror on the center table. Centering the table was an arrangement of garnet and pink roses, carnations, gladiolas, and purple statice secured to a silver candelabra with ivory tapers. A lace umbrella completed the table setting. Guests were served coffee, tea or punch from silver appointments.

Helping with reception hospitalitys at the groom's table were Mrs. Mike King, Mrs. Kenneth Watson, and Mrs. Lindy Cupp, sisters of the groom.

The table, laid with a matching floor length cloth of ivory with a cutwork linen overlay, was centered with a hurricane candle surrounded with a wreath of fresh green foliage. A tote painting and a birdhouse, especially made for the couple lended highlights for the completion of the table setting. Silver appointments were used to serve hors d'oeuvres.

Ivory satin roses filled with bird seed were distributed by Amanda Watson, niece of the groom.

Other reception assistants were Mmes. Weldon Moody, aunt of the groom; Joe Taylor, Bill Turner, Bobby McCormick, Paul Reecer, Art Baker, G.B. Johnston, Claude Brown, L.A. McCain, Doug Meriwether, M.C. Cook, Ronnie Thornton, and Jimmy Stennett. The couple will reside in Lockney

Record number attend King Reunion Sat

R.A. King descendants and their families and friends gathered Saturday at the Massie Activity Center in Floydada for the annual King Reunion. A record number of 87 registered during the day of activities which included noon and evening meals, business session, photo sessions, introducing of families and friends, trip to the museum and cemetery, and lots of visiting.

THE GEORGE ALBERT FAMILY

"Pappa" Albert's family meets for reunion

George and Lois Albert's family gathered Saturday, July 10 at their home in east Lockney, the first of such occasions since all the children had married. Attending were George Albert, Jr., a son from Fresno, California; a daughter, Bernice Walters and three generations from her family from Gary, Indiana; Charles D. Albert, a son of Columbus, Georgia; a son J.W. Albert and family from Beaumont, Texas; and a daughter Wilma Sterling Mathis and family of Lockney with three generations of her family also attending from Orange and Lubbock, Texas.

Also attending were Lucy Dennis, Mr. Albert's sister from Houston; Ella Mae Brooks, Annie B. Teal and William Johnson, sisters and a brother-in-law of Mr. Albert's of Memphis; and one of Mrs. Albert's sisters, Lucille Foxworth, of San Francisco. The couple have 35 grandchildren and 38 great-grandchildren of which 20 and 6 attended, respectively.

George, better known in Lockney as "Pappa", and Lois Albert were married September 22, 1929, at Kernes, Texas, where they made their home for about two years. They lived at Corsicana, for about five years, at Navasoto for about 12 years, and in the Lockney area ever since. George has been involved in farming all his life. He retired about 11 years ago. Lois still does housework for the public in addition to her routine household chores.

The couple had a son Willis Albert who was killed in a truck accident when he was 21.

George Albert, Jr. and Willie Albert, a son of Clovis, New Mexico who was not able to attend the reunion, are both mechanics. J.W., a grade school principal in Beaumont and Charles, who has been in the army for 25 years and is currently a sergeant, both graduated at Lockney High School. Wilma is a cook at the grade school here. Bernice Walters, a mother of 11 children, is a housewife. Mrs. Albert said a large family was sometimes good and sometimes bad.

"When they are small, they are on your lap; when they are big, they are on your heart," Mr. Albert said. "You just pray and look to the Lord to pull you through."

"It's been a sweet life with my family and my kids," Mrs. Albert quickly added.

The couple agreed some of the hardest times they went through was while they were living at Navasoto in the late '30's and early '40's. "We never went hungry, but it was hard," Mr. Albert remarked. "Chopped cotton all day long for six bits a day."

Mrs. Albert recalled one of the funniest times she ever recalled was one day when she was going to discipline the boys. She said they would always run and jump between their dad's legs for protection. She said that day she started paddling her husband's legs and he told the boys, "Get away from me. I don't want you around me anymore."

Monday ten of the adults traveled to Clovis to visit with Willie since he was unable to attend their reunion.

"We are just so thankful our family could get together this way without a death," the Alberts concluded.

THE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY has a room in Health Fitness with a wide selection of gifts for babies, children, shut-ins, and appreciative "anybods."

South Plains News

BY MRS. MURRAY JULIAN South Plains, July 12:

Black clouds, heavy rain, wind and lightning Sunday morning, coming in the early moments of the South Plains Baptist Church services, with a sharp blast of lightning, thrust the church into darkness, but the Rev. Cecil Osborne did not let the darkness stop his sermon. He went ahead with his text but dismissed church early. Everyone got wet getting into cars, and the storm gave us .60 rain in South Plains with .30 in the southern part of our community.

Mrs. Corda Taylor was a visitor at Sunday morning church services at the Baptist church and evening visitors were Mrs. B.F. Harper, and Mrs. Bernice Gilbert both of McAllen, Texas.

Mrs. Corda Taylor of Muleshoe came Thursday to visit here with her family, the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil and Joyce Osborne. The Rev. and Mrs. Osborne will leave this Thursday to go to Mineral Wells and then on to Ft. Worth where they will be present to hear and see their son-in-law, the Rev. Ron Somers get his degree at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. We add our congratulations and best wishes to Ron on the completion of seminary work. The Rev. and Mrs. Osborne will be back at the parsonage here on Saturday.

Johnny Powell from Perryton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hazle and Fletcher Powell, was taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock Tuesday of last week and on Wednesday underwent intensive surgery on his stomach. Mrs. Powell and others of his family have been with Johnny during the past week, and he will be in the hospital for some time.

Over the past weekend, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marble and Cindy here in South Plains were Fred's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wells, Jill and Kay from Denton; Mrs. Maybelle Lee; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jarrell and Jenny Lynn of Port Neches, and the Marble's son, Kelly Marble of Lubbock, who is with a florist shop in Lubbock. They were all here for the King family reunion which was held at the MAC building in Floydada on Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Stewart had knee surgery on one of her knees on Wednesday of last week in Plainview at Central Plains Hospital. She is getting along well at this time, we are glad to hear, and is staying with her daughter who lives at Lockney.

Mrs. Fannie Bell McClure was here at the McClure home on Tuesday through Friday with her granddaughter, Mrs. D'Ann Cyfert, Lindsay and Jennifer from near Plainview. D'Ann was putting up apricots from her trees, making jams and preserves. She made a big batch of apricot fried pies while out here.

Mrs. B.F. Harper and companion Mrs. Bernice Gilbert, both of McAllen were guests of Mrs. M.M. Julian, Mrs. Harper's sister-in-law, on Sunday afternoon and Monday. With Kendis and Janis Julian, Mitzi and Tim, they all had dinner and a time of visiting Monday. Mrs. Harper, a long time resident of the South Plains community in the past and Mrs. Gilbert had been to Bozeman, Montana for a Wally Bynum airstream trailer rally. They had been gone from home for three weeks. They report it very cold up in Montana, with snow on all the mountain peaks. They left Monday night for Lubbock to spend the night with Ma Harper's daughter, Mrs. Shirley Jackson.

Don Marble who underwent a kidney operation last Tuesday at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock is home this Monday and doing just excellent, as he continues his daily work.

Kristi Julian accompanied Melody Stringer and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill and Molly Stringer to Austin, Sunday where Melody will take her State Nurses examinations at Austin this week. Kristi will go to Dallas to visit with her roommate, Nancy McMasters, from Texas Tech and spend some time with her and her family there in the coming week.

The King family reunion was held in Floydada on Saturday, July 10 at the MAC building, with 87 people attending. They came from Washington State, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, for the furthest distances, and the ones who came from Vancouver, Washington, came the greatest distance. Lunch and the evening meal were served. Don Marble is president of the King reunion, and next year the reunion will be held on July 9th. This was the largest attendance that they have ever had in their reunions. Those who spent the night with the Keith Marbles' were Mr. and Mrs. Quention Burgett of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Steve and Sandy Burgett and children also of Ft. Worth, and Mrs. Elaine Ballard of Concordia, Kansas.

Mrs. Bernice Bond (Mrs. Clayton

Bond), 67, who has been the postmaster the past 37 years at Flomot, had been awarded a gold pin for her years of service to the U.S. Postal Service. Mrs. Bond does not have any plans for retiring, and she received her pin for more than 35 years of service in the post office service.

Deneen Johnson will be going to Dallas this week where she will be taking her State Nurses Examinations, and we offer our best wishes to her as she goes for her exams, which culminate four long years of work at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Center News

BY MRS. J.E. GREEN
July 12, 1982:

Another weekend has gone by with a variety of weather. Dry till Sunday and then the heavy shower began as we came out of church.

The Clyde Greens had arrived Friday nite.

Services were held by Kelly Warren, Calvary's own Wayland Ministerial student, in the absence of the Hollis Paynes who are on vacation.

We arrived home to find my daughter, Margaret Ryman had arrived, then we all proceeded to Plainview to the Victor Greens, joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Latta. We went on to Furr's for the delicious noon meal. Another Green get together for the weekend. And the Greens at about 2:30 were all at the Country Club for the reception for the 50th wedding anniversary of the R.C. Hodges.

Many years had passed since the Hodges had been the beloved pastoral family of Center Baptist Church for six years. Other former Centerites we met as we went in to join the host of well wishers were Jimmy and Patsy Dunn and Floyd and Florence Montgomery.

After more visiting with the Victor Greens the Clyde Greens left for home for Peralta, New Mexico. Later Margaret and I came home. A wonderful weekend. Margaret left for home this Monday afternoon.

The Greens visited the Anthony Lattas awhile Saturday afternoon. Later Mrs. Green and Clyde visited with Mrs. Leo Frizzell.

Mrs. Frizzell's granddaughter, Resa and husband of Amarillo visited her Saturday.

Mrs. Ava Jackson's company over the weekend were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wright of Sweetwater.

Mrs. Dorothy McDougle and daughter, Sharon of Crosbyton visited Wednesday with Mrs. McDougles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer.

Mrs. Brewer's brother, Buren Forman of the Littlefield Rest Home is now very ill in the Methodist Hospital where the Brewers expect to visit him Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Mensch and son, David of Lubbock attended a family reunion Sunday at his grandmother Grubbs, Floydada. Then visited Sue's parents, the Hal Thomases.

Mrs. Green visited one afternoon briefly in Caprock Hospital with Miss Alma Ruth Nelson and with Mrs. Birdie Appling. They are better we hope.

Mrs. Mayfield has news from California that Harold Tubbs of Red Bluffs, California has had lung surgery recently.

The West Side Church of Christ, Floydada, cordially invites you to hear Donald Bryant of Celina, Tennessee in a series of gospel sermons July 18 - July 25.

Sunday services - 10:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m.
Weekday services - 8:00 p.m.

Donald devotes his full time to evangelism. He presented a series of sermons in Floydada 3 years ago.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell, in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, hereby gives notice of the company's intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas, effective July 27, 1982, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

It is expected that the requested rate schedule will furnish a 13.4 percent increase in the company's intrastate revenues.

A complete copy of the new rate schedule is on file with the Public Utility Commission at Austin, Texas, and with each affected municipality served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection in each of the company's public business offices in Texas. The Commission staff has contended in the past that all rates are subject to change as a result of Southwestern Bell's rate application.

Notice to El Paso Area Customers

Effective January 1, 1982, Southwestern Bell adopted the Mountain States tariffs in effect for El Paso County. Southwestern Bell proposes to merge the separate El Paso tariffs with its tariffs applicable to the rest of Texas. The resulting new rate schedule is on file with the PUC and the El Paso area municipalities served by Southwestern Bell, and is available for inspection at our El Paso business office.

Notice to Customers of Other Telephone Companies

The filing includes, but is not limited to, proposals to increase rates for interexchange private line and foreign exchange (FX) service. Changes in such rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies because such companies provide interexchange private line and foreign exchange service in accordance with rates specified in Southwestern Bell's tariffs. While Southwestern Bell has proposed no increase in long distance rates, any change in those rates would also affect customers of other telephone companies.

Aviso Público

Southwestern Bell, en conformidad a las reglas del Public Utility Commission (Comisión de Servicios Públicos) de Texas, por la presente hace saber su intención de establecer un nuevo arancel para servicio de teléfono en Texas con vigencia a partir del 27 de julio, 1982, a menos que la Comisión haga otra determinación.

Se espera que el nuevo arancel que se ha solicitado reducirá un aumento de 13.4 por ciento en los ingresos intrastatales de la compañía.

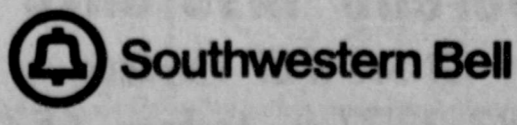

Una copia completa del nuevo arancel se ha archivado en las oficinas del Public Utility Commission en Austin, Texas, al igual que en cada municipalidad afectada y servida por Southwestern Bell, y cada una de las oficinas de la compañía para negocios con el público en Texas tiene una copia para lectura pública. En el pasado, la Comisión ha sostenido que toda tarifa está sujeta a cambios que resulten de la manera en la cual Southwestern Bell aplique sus tarifas.

Aviso a Clientes en la Región de El Paso

Con vigencia a partir del 1o de enero de 1982, Southwestern Bell ha adoptado las tarifas de Mountain States efectivas en el condado de El Paso. Southwestern Bell propone unir las tarifas de El Paso con sus otras tarifas que se aplican al resto de Texas. El nuevo arancel que resulta de esta unión se ha archivado en la Comisión de Servicios Públicos (Public Utility Commission), al igual que en las municipalidades de la región de El Paso servidas por Southwestern Bell, y está disponible para inspección pública en nuestras oficinas de El Paso.

Aviso a los Clientes de Otras Compañías de Teléfono

El registro incluye, pero no se limita a, propuestas para aumentar las tarifas para servicio de línea privada entre centrales telefónicas (interchange private line) y servicio de central telefónica extranjera (foreign exchange FX). Cambios en dichas tarifas de servicio también afectarían a clientes de otras compañías de teléfono porque dichas compañías proveen los servicios ya mencionados en conformidad a tarifas especificadas por Southwestern Bell. Aunque Southwestern Bell no ha propuesto un aumento en las tarifas para larga distancia, cualquier cambio en las mismas también afectaría a los clientes de otras compañías de teléfono.

4-H Trap shooters win district

Chad Edwards and Shad Morris took first place honors as a 2-person team in the Sub-junior division of the District II 4-H Trap and Skest Shoot which was held Wednesday July 7, in Lubbock.

Other Floyd County 4-H'ers shooting at the contest were Tommy Cathey Jr. and Grant Cage. Tommy placed 6th as an individual in the Junior division with a score of 40 out of 50. (The competition was tough!) All four boys practiced hard to get ready for the contest, and are to be commended for their fine efforts.

Chad, Shad, Tommy and Grant are all members of the Floydada 4-H Club. Chad is the son of Craig and Betty Edwards of the McCoy Community. Shad is the son of Dean and Linda Morris of the Blanco Community. Tommy is the son of Tommy and Julie Cathey of Floydada and Grant is the son of James and Kay Cage of the Dougherty Community.

Adams wins Indiana trip

Four Wayland Baptist University students are presently attending the 40th Anniversary Celebration National Leadership Conference of the Future Business Leaders of America—Phi Beta Lambda through Thursday in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The students were winners in competition at the state convention and are representing Texas at the national conference.

Theme of the four-day meeting is "40 Years in Touch With The Business of America." Future Business Leaders of America—Phi Beta Lambda is a nonprofit vocational education organization of approximately 200,000 members and functions in public and private secondary and postsecondary schools, colleges and universities throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. It is recognized as an integral part of the vocational system of training by the U.S. Department of Education.

Those attending from Wayland are Tammy Adams, a delegate, daughter of Mrs. Johnny Adams of Lockney; Yinka Akande, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Akande of Nigeria, competing in extemporaneous speaking; Rebecca Hudman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F.L. Hudman of Bellevue, New Mexico, competing in accounting; and Dan Widger, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Widger of Amarillo, competing in data processing.

Young Farmers discuss Briscoe celebration

Silverton Young Farmers held a called meeting on June 29 to discuss the plans for the Silverton Young Farmers Rodeo and Briscoe County Birthday Celebration scheduled for August 12-14.

Kori Baird was selected as the Young Farmer Rodeo queen candidate. Rodeo secretaries are Fred Strange and Jealita Baird. Chairmen of the rodeo will be Jerry Baird, Hand Baird and Ricky Hester.

The Silverton Volunteer Fire Department will have the concession stand during the rodeo.

The annual barbeque will be held on Thursday the 12th following the parade. Tickets are priced at $3.00. People, 65 years of age or older, who have lived in Briscoe County at least 40 years, will be served free. The Young Farmers will rent a tent to use.

Members voted to have a Jack Pot Barrel Race during the rodeo. Stock producers will be Charlie Thompson of C Bar T Rodeo.

Few things are harder to put up with than the annoyance of a good example.

"We have fallen on evil times, and the world has grown very wicked. Governments are corrupt, and children are no longer respectful to their parents" (from a clay tablet in Istanbul, Turkey, dates about 3,000 BC.)

Winter to attend Young Cattlemen's Conference

Richard A. Winter of Plainview, has been selected by the Texas Cattle Feeders Association (TCFA) to attend a Young Cattlemen's Traveling Leadership Conference, July 18-23, to be conducted by the National Cattlemen's Association (NCA).

The TCFA, in cooperation with NCA, is sponsoring Winter's participation in the conference which is designed to assist in the development of future leaders for the beef cattle industry.

Winter is the assistant manager of Western Lockney Ltd., a custom cattle feeding business near Lockney.

Winter will join 23 other young cattlemen from across the nation in Denver on July 18 for the beginning of a tour that will take them across the nation to Chicago; Indianapolis; and Washington D.C.

They'll visit such places as the Denver NCA headquarters office, the automated box beef operations of Monfort of Colorado, the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, the research facilities of Elanco Products Co. in Indianapolis, and Washington D.C. While in the nation's capitol, they'll visit various offices of the Executive Branch of government, the Congress, and allied industry asso-

Registration underway

Amarillo College advance fall registration continues through August 6 for day and evening classes. Advance registration gives students the opportunity to guarantee class times and schedules and additional time to consult with advisors and counselors on career options.

Currently enrolled students - spring or summer 1982 - should report to the Registrar's Office for registration forms. Allied Health, Nursing, and Industrial Education students report to the Registrar's Office on the West Campus, 6222 West 9th. All other students report to the Registrar's Office on the Washington Street Campus.

Students not currently enrolled report to the Registrar's Office on the Washington Street Campus between the hours of 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Friday.

If tuition and fees are paid by August 13 classes will be reserved. If not paid by this date registration will be cancelled, and students will be required to report according to the schedule under regular registration on August 25.

The first day of fall classes is August 30.

Jim Waller takes top honors in respective halter class

One-hundred-twenty young horse enthusiasts representing 20 South Plains counties displayed their skills and mounts during the annual South Plains District 4-H Horse Show in Lubbock June 28-29. Twenty riders qualified for the State 4-H Horse Show to be held July 21-24 in Waco.

The high point county in the district show was Lamb, with Dawson second and Gaines third.

Champion judged horseman was Kathleen O'Shea of Lubbock County. Toby Floyd of Gaines County was runner-up.

In timid events, Stephanie Weaver of Scurry County took top individual honors. Kim King of Dawson County was runner-up.

Jim Waller of Floyd County took top honors in his respective halter class and represented his county well in several other performance classes at the District Horse Show.

Qualifying for the state show were: Christy Brown, Dawn Merritt, Kim King and Rogue' Nix of Dawson County; Toby Floyd, Shea Floyd and Tammy Eaton of Gaines County; Lynette Spencer, Melete Blackwell and Tony Blackwell of Lamb County; Tod Bradley, Steven Bagley and Joel Nelson of Castro County.

Also, Kathleen O'Shea, Pam Greaves

and Cindy Greaves, of Lubbock County; Kristy Spies, Bailey County; Stephanie Weaver, Scurry County; Jason Spenc, Lynn County, and Shelley Lewis of Briscoe County.

Judging this year's show was Ken Cook of San Angelo, West Central District Director with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

JIM WALLER represented Floyd County 4-H at the 1982 South Plains District 4-H Horse Show in Lubbock.

Latest estimates indicate that only 35,000-40,000 acres of cotton out of the original 210,000 planted acres in Floyd County remain. The remaining cotton has responded well to the last two weeks of hot weather, but the cotton is still over three weeks behind in development and that time can never be made up even under ideal growing conditions unless we have a very late freeze this fall.

Although the remaining cotton has survived the worst of the stormy weather, its battles are just beginning with the insects that infest cotton each year. Bollworm egglay is already very active south of Lubbock in Gaines and Terry Counties. Light populations of fleahoppers have also been observed in a few fields south of Lubbock. The fleahopper infests cotton most often during the first three weeks of squaring. Early planted cotton is beginning to square in the county, so Floyd County producers should begin watching for this pest.

A breakdown of the identification, scouting and control of fleahoppers prepared by Dr. James F. Leser, Extension Entomologist from Lubbock, is outlined below:

Description: Adult fleahopper is about 1/8 inch long and pale green. Nymphs resemble adults but lack wings, are very small and whitish in color. Fleahoppers are frequently confused with cotton aphids, minute pirate bugs and leafhoppers. Aphids move slowly and their abdomen has 2 cornicles (2 tubes sticking up from their tail end), minute pirate bug nymphs move quickly and are orange to yellow in color; leafhoppers can be several colors ranging from green to tan, they walk sideways in a crab-like halting movement and hold their wings in a "roof-like" manner; fleahoppers move quickly and fold their wings flat across their backs.

Seasonal Biology: Overwinters in the egg stage in weeds, later moves into cotton when squares are present. Life cycle is approximately 4 weeks long.

Damage: Both adults and nymphs suck sap out of tender plant parts, especially small squares. Injury is characterized by excessive blasting and shedding of small squares and reduction in the number of fruiting branches. Most squares attacked are pinhead size squares. Attacked plants can become whip-like or bushy from excessive vegetative branching.

Scouting Hints: Fleahoppers are predominantly a problem during the first 3 weeks a cotton plant is squaring. They can continue to be a problem in fields where economic infestations are not managed early in the fruiting sequence. Since hot, dry, windy weather conditions can cause similar damage symptoms, counts of both fleahopper numbers and damaged or missing squares are necessary for proper management decisions. Fleahoppers can be found anywhere on a cotton plant but early in the growing season they concentrate in the actively growing terminal area where squares are initiated. Cotton fleahoppers are very wary insects and scouts frequently miss a large number of fleahoppers which escape notice. Winged adults often take flight when scouts approach and nymphs will run down the stalk to the base of the plant and go undetected. A careful approach will be most productive. Number of beneficial arthropods, particularly spiders, should be considered in making any kind of fleahopper management decisions.

Management Decision-Making: Cotton fleahopper management must consider factors other than numbers of pests in the field. Insecticidal application decisions should be based on the number of fleahoppers present, squaring rate, small square loss and where in the fruiting cycle your cotton plants are. Excessive nitrogen, drastic changes in temperature and soil moisture, and other factors can influence squaring rate. Unless other causes of square shed are identified, treatment is justified when square set is less than 75 percent. Normally, a cotton plant will hold 90 percent or more of its squares during the first 3 weeks if nothing is wrong.

During the first 3 weeks of squaring, the economic threshold is 25-30 fleahoppers per 100 terminals combined with less than 75% square set. As plants increase in size and fruit load, higher fleahopper numbers can be tolerated without yield reduction. Spiders are important predators of fleahoppers and should be considered in making a control decision. Use lower rates to save beneficials and minimize bollworm problems.
