Longhorns take Olton Mustangs

BY ANNA ANDERSON

Last week's game against the Olton Mustangs proved to be a beginning for a good season ahead for the Longhorns.

They may have found that big "E" they have been striving for. With this big "E" (effort) they can look forward to our next big games and the town will be behind them all the way.

Coach Knippa was quoted as having summed up this game in a word "Tupendous!"

The game began with a battle both the fourth quarter of the game for 3 first offensively and defensively with a no score in the first quarter.

The second quarter started out with a good move by Tony Rodriguez in a quarterback sweep for 4 yards to make the first big score and Moses Blanco to follow up with the field goal to score a total of 7 to 0 in the first half.

The second half came on with a battle, but both teams were plagued with several turnovers.

Olton was putting forth all they had in downs in a row finally capitalized on a Lockney fumble. Quarterback Mart Cordova plunged in from two yards out to bring the Mustangs to within one point of a tie. Knowing with 5 minutes left in the game they had to try for the extra 2 points to win, they gave it a shot. But with the defense shown by Kyle Brock and Victor Rodriguez they held the mighty Mustang offense to a total of 78 yards for the game and their passing game to zero. Turnovers are a problem and must be dealt with soon. There were a total of 10 fumbles by the Horn's offense with 7

The Mustang offense was plagued with 7 fumbles for the night with only 2 turnovers and several near-misses.

Looking to tomorrow's game with Ralls, they could be compared to Petersburg with great speed. With everyone back in force, though, and if the big "E" is there, the Longhorns can come out roaring and snorting over their

Two teachers hired

In a regular meeting of the Lockney School Board Tuesday, September 14 the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Payment of the current bills was approved.

In the superintendent's report W.H. Hallmark reported that all the buildings had new roofs after final touches were put on this week. Insurance presently purchased on the buildings contains a $5,000 deductible clause with catastrophy insurance coverage. Because of the damage received to the buildings during the past year, approximately $109,000 will be received by the school from the insurance companies.

Work on the old gym is progressing. The walls have been completed and work continues on the ceiling. It is hoped it can be completed in two weeks. The Texas Association School Board convention will be held October 2-4. Superintendent Hallmark will attend the combined convention for superintendents and school board members. A delegate and alternate will be named for the school board at a later date.

Some bookkeeping practices were updated to meet the mandates of the state to make the athletic budget and the lunchroom budget a part of the general operating fund.

Billie Lam and Marva Rasco were hired as kindergarten teachers to bring that total to 3. Additional hiring was made necessary as kindergarten enrollment presently stands at 62.

Total school enrollment figures are being kept under a careful eye by the board. In comparison the figures still show a loss over the same period at this time last year, but average daily attendance (ADA) has been budgeted at 720 and the figures indicate that average could be attained:

ENROLLMENT This Year Last Year (9/13/82)(9/11/81)206 235 High school 225 200 Junior high 388 365 Elementary 848

Totals differ by 77 since last year. Continue on page 3

THE WORK IN THE TARGET AREA in northeast Lockney is progressing. A sewer lift will be installed on the City's right-of-way on East Guest Street. New water and sewer lines will also be installed. Paving is scheduled for early spring.

Exhibit begins Thursday

The Floyd County Historial Museum will have a traveling exhibit available to the public free of charge entitled "Archeology in Texas."

The exhibit will be open for public viewing Thursday, September 23 through September 29. "Archeology in Texas" in a brief and concise manner spans the entire period of human occupation from the earliest prehistoric to historic periods. The Floyd county Historial Museum is fortunate to have this exhibit available for the education and pleasure of the public.

Texas has many and varied archeological sites. The oldest occupation contains bones of extinct animals such as the mammoth and giant bison and have been dated at about 9,000 B.C.

Sites dating from the next period are called the Archaic Period and indicate the existence of small bands of Indians who were frequently on the move in search of seasonally-available food. These nomadic people built few permanent shelters and made no pottery.

In the next period called Late Prehistoric is reflected in the adaptation of agriculture. Charred corn and beans and post holes of substantial structures and orname pottery are typical of this period of our pre-history.

Upon the settlement and exploration by people of European descent the lifeways of the Indians was drastically changed. This period of occupation is known as the Historic Period and deals not only with Indian occupation but with the early settlement of our state.

Letter to the Editor

To whom it may concern,

Imagine someone you love, a spouse, child, parent or friend that has been seriously ill or hurt. You rush them to the nearest hospital (Caprock Hospital) believing this will be the quickest. You have every confidence that the staff and doctors will be there to help.

In the emergency you ring the bell to call the nurse, and after 15 minutes you have to go in search for someone to help. During all this your loved one is in severe pain. You get the nurse and she calls the doctor (any of three) you start to wait. An hour goes by and nobody comes. Finally you go in search for the doctor. By the time he arrives it has been 11/2 hours since you came into the emergency.

We realize that other people were sick in the doctors office, but isn't the emergency room meant for emergencies? We figured that 1st and 2nd degree burns. over a large part of the body are considered an emergency. I never questioned the taxes I pay on the hospital till this very thing happened, but I do now. What am I paying for? This sort of thing shouldn't happen when we have 3 doctors and a fine equipped hospital.

As Always Peggy Cherry Former residents slain

Word has been received of the deaths of Ike and Carol Tickle, former residents of Lockney

Tickle, 48, and his wife, 45, were residing in Phoenix, Arizona.

Reports stated a family argument erupted early in the morning Thursday, September 9, between the couple. It continued until their daughter and son, Shawna 15 and Ralph 11 woke and prepared for school.

Tickle then began to argue with his daughter and to beat her, and knocking her to the floor. Her mother tried to intercede while her brother attempted to call relatives by telephone.

Tickle reportedly ripped the phone out of the wall and continued to beat his daughter and stomping her.

Once again his wife interceded, allowing the children to make a run to a

Evangelist speaks at MAC

Luis Torres, New Hope Crusade evangelist, will be the speaker in services to be held at Massie Activity Center in Floydada, Texas. The crusade services will begin at 7 p.m. on October 8 through October 11.

Luis Torres, who has been seen on the Praise The Lord Program, 700 Club and television shows through out the United States, has been a speaker for conferences, conventions, banquets, and churches. Luis, a former drug addict and fugitive from the law, entered the Teen Challenge rehabilation program in October of 1970. A heroin addict for five years and using $3000.00 a month, caused him to spend time in and out of jails, breaking into homes, stealing from his parents, and doing everything a drug addict has to do to support his habit. Then a minister came to the jail where he was being detained and told him of Christ's changing power. Luis's life was changed.

A .22 revolver was found along side of Tickle's body with 6 shells expended. Funeral services for Carol Tickle were held in Phoenix Monday. She was survived by her two children of the home, her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Barnes, and a stepmother, Lois Grider, all of Phoenix, and also a brother Allen Grider.

Tickle lived in a nearby hospital until Monday at 5:00 p.m. Arrangements for Tickle's funeral were not known. His original family lives in Virginia.

Martin Tickle, 18, a son, graduated from Brownfield High School last year after having attended the Lockney schools prior to that. He is an electrician in Brownfield presently.

Perspectives

The situation in Lebanon has obviously gone past the critical stage, yet it manages to continue expand, explode, and horrify us on almost a daily basis. Key to the problem over there seems to be the religious question, but in this instance, religion has very little to do with the problem, except to muddy the

That Christians, Jews, and Moslem are fighting simply shows the politicization of those terms. It is not a religious argument, it is a political argument which uses religious terms. The tenets of all three religions cry out against the sorts of atrocities which are being performed in Lebanon. What has happened is that Moslems are calling themselves that because their ancestors were, as are the Jews and the Christians. To be sure there would be active practitioners in each faith involved, but for the most part I suspect people are calling themselves one thing or another because that is the side they choose to be on or because of the aforementioned

We must be careful about supporting any one faction just because they happen to call themselves by a particular name. Because one group calls itself Christian, many feel that is the side which ought to win. And yet some of the barbarity performed by that group must be decried as it goes against the grain of Christian thought. Similarly, the Jewish involvement in this fracas may have little to do with their being God's chosen people, and their actions should be open for scrutiny as well.

Beyond the situation in Lebanon, we should be careful lest we fall into the same trap in the United States. With the emergence of the New Right, there exists the possibility that a "Christian" party could join the ranks of the Democrats, Republicans, Libertarians, etc. Such a party would not necessarily be Christian, merely politics.

VICTIMS WHO ARE LOCKED UP

I want to talk to you this week about an issue that troubles me greatly and which I know is of great concern to Texans. It seems that whenever I have spoken about crime in the past 12 months I have gotten a strong and troubled response. No matter where I am-Jewett. Roma or Dalhart—people tell me they are angry and afraid about crime in our state.

This anger and fear concerns me for two reasons. First, because this kind of anger and fear serves as a sort of 'jail" for innocent people. They are the ones locked in their homes at night while criminals go free. The second reason I am concerned is because unless something is done to stop the crime epidemic. people will be ripe for the kind of politician who will play on citizens' fears. The result could be that Texans lose their liberty in return for their "safety". In that sense, the crime problem is like a cancer gnawing at democracy. The incumbent Lt. Governor's response to the crime issue has been shameful. While he has been in office the crime rate has risen 131%. He has done nothing to attack crime in a substantial way. In fact, he has fought stronger anti-crime measures. He openly opposed the new wiretapping law designed to catch drug dealers. He openly opposed the Governor's anti-crime package by putting it in a legislative committee run by a hostile Senator, who promptly bottled it up. Much of the package passed anyway and now Mr. Hobby has the gall to go around the state taking credit for it!

His sympathies in the fight against crime are evident. Not long ago he allowed the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) to hold a fundraiser in his Houston mansion and he proudly defends it. The ACLU has consistently opposed laws that would make it easier to deal with the crime problem.

I think such two-faced maneuvering is disgraceful. It is obvious that if we are going to attack the crime problem, if we are ever going to give law officers, judges and prison guards the tools they need to make us safer, Bill Hobby will have to go.

If you have thoughts about this, I'd like to hear from you. Please write me at 1213 W 34th, Austin, 78705.

The annual Texas Assessment of Basic Skills tests were given to third, fifth, and ninth graders.

The TABS tests is intended to measure students' performance in mathematics, reading and writing.

Results were reported to individual school districts in June, with regional and statewide results given to the State Board of Education at its September session. For testing purposes, the state is divided into 20 regions by education service center areas.

Lubbock County is in the service center area which includes the counties of Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Cochran, Hockley, Terry, Crosby, Dickens, King, Yoakum, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Gaines, Dawson and

A comparison of statewide figures with regional figures shows the following: Third grade, Mathematics, statewide 77.8 percent, regional 80.7 percent, and Lockney 92 percent mastered the objectives; reading, statewide 81 percent, regional 81.8 percent, and Lockney 84 percent; writing statewide 81 percent, regional 80.2 percent, and Lockney 92 percent.

Fifth grade, mathematics, statewide 75.7 percent, regional 74.5 percent, and Lockney 95 percent; reading, 73.6 percent, regional 74 percent, and Lockney 78 percent; writing statewide 81.6 percent, regional 81.3 percent, and Lockney 83 percent.

Ninth grade, mathematics, statewide 77 percent, regional 77 percent, and Lockney 79 percent; reading statewide 72 percent, regional 72 percent and Lockney 72 percent; writing statewide 79 percent, regional 80 percent and Lockney 85 percent.

About 750,000 Texas public school students took the TABS tests in February. In Mathematics, such skills as adding, interpreting graphs and using fractions are measured; in reading such skills as identifying the main idea, following written directions and evaluating information are measured; and in writing, such skiils as spelling,

MRS. JOHN FORTENBERRY

Fortenberry, Summers exchange vows September 9th

Cynthia Ann Summers became the bride of John Cethus Fortenberry in a wedding ceremony held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Davis at 1103 Raleigh in Plainview, Thursday, September 9 with Judge Glenn Stone officiating. The bride is the daughter of Charles Summers of Plainview and Carolyn Stevenson of Sacramento, California. Parents of the groom are Durrel Fortenberry of Lockney and Marisa Fortenberry of Amarillo. The couple exchanged vows before a fireplace flanked with blue and white flowers in wicker baskets. Smaller side arrangements graced the mantel. A tall brass standard was topped with a white flower arrangement to one side.

The bride was given in marriage by John Phillips. She chose a princess style gown of organza and lace over satin. A sheer yoke outlined in scalloped lace was featured with a lace wedding ring collar. Full sheer sleeves ended in deep lace edged cuffs.

Her veil of illusion was bordered in lace and held by a caplet of organza and lace fell to a chapel train. The gown had been worn by the bride's sister, Mrs. Zalen Schulz, in her wedding.

The bride's bouquet was made of blue and white carnations.

Janice Crowe, maid of honor, wore a formal length dress of blue silk organza with a matching cape. Her bouquet was fashioned of matching blue and white carnations.

David Edwards of Floydada served as best man

A reception was held in the Davis home immediately following the ceremony. The table was laid with a white handmade crocheted lace cloth over blue. A centerpiece of white daisies and a silver candelabra accented with blue candles were used on the reception Assisting with the hospitalities were Mrs. Schulz and Mrs. Roy Roper, sisters of the bride.

After a wedding trip to the Dallas area, the couple will be at home in Well, we got us a new ceramic lady that comes from Plainview. The residents enjoy painting and will miss Chuck a lot.

Tuesday we had Bible study. Had a good group but, sure do miss Mr. Cates. He is so faithful and lead us in it. Wednesday we played bingo. Una Clark and Emmit Lawrence were our big winners this week. They both won six games each. The others are Sue Thompson with four games, Geneda Roberts with four games, and Vera Duke with two games.

Thursday we had the monthly birthday party for two of our residents. The residents were Walter Craft and Audrey Barnard. The residents enjoyed cake and punch. We appreciate the church ladies for giving the party

Partners make the ifference

You and SPS are partners. You, the customer, are the user of electricity, and we are the producer and distributor of that electricity. That makes us partners.

As partners, we work together toward common goals. We combine our talents and efforts to better manage electricity. And, we share ideas and responsibilities for a better way of life.

Partners make a difference. The difference is how efficiently electricity is used today and how its supply is managed, which affects its cost in the future.

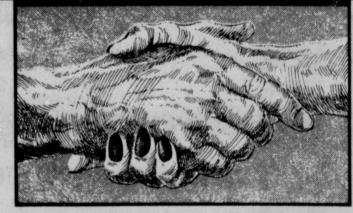

Your role as a partner is to make the most efficient use of electricity.

Our role, as Southwestern Public Service Company, is to invest the money to build and operate plants, and to provide the skilled professionals who make sure safe, dependable electricity is available when needed.

We depend on each other. Without us, your life would be less comfortable and less productive. Without you, our services would not be needed. We're partners, working together to make the difference. Hand in hand.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

"Fish" beat 'Lopes

After opening the season with a victory against the Abernathy Antelope Freshmen two weeks ago, the Lockney "Fish" attempted to make it two in a row over the 'Lopes last Thursday at Longhorn Stadium. But the Horns' efforts only managed to get them a tie as the two squads battled to a 0-0 standoff.

The lack of consistency on offense plagued the Longhorns, but the defense recorded its second shutout of the young season. To preserve the shutout, the 'Horns had an interception by Jerry Mathis in the end zone on the game's final play.

For his play in the game, George Basaldua and Ricky Key were selected "Horns of the Week". This honor goes to the player or players who displayed the most effort during the game. Next game for the 1-0-1 freshmen will be next Thursday in Abernathy.

'Horns fall to Colts

The 7th grade Lockney Shorthorns were plagued with mistakes as they lost to the Olton Colts 16-8. Two long touchdown runs in the first quarter were all that the Colts needed to down the young Horns.

Lockney came alive in the 3rd quarter with a 30 yard run by Javier Bernal. The try for two was good.

Olton put icing on the cake on the last play of the game as Lockney fumbled into the end zone and were issued a safety. Horn of the Week honors went to John Herrera due to a fine defensive effort.

The 7th graders will meet Ralls in Lockney at 5:00 Thursday.

Shorthorns tie

The 8th grade Lockney Shorthorns came from behind in the fourth quarter to tie the Olton Colts 14-14. Olton produced all their points in the first half as the Shorthorn defense had several letdowns.

In the fourth quarter Lockney came alive. A drive capped by a 25 yard scamper, by Dickie Hernandez, resulted in the first points for the Horns.

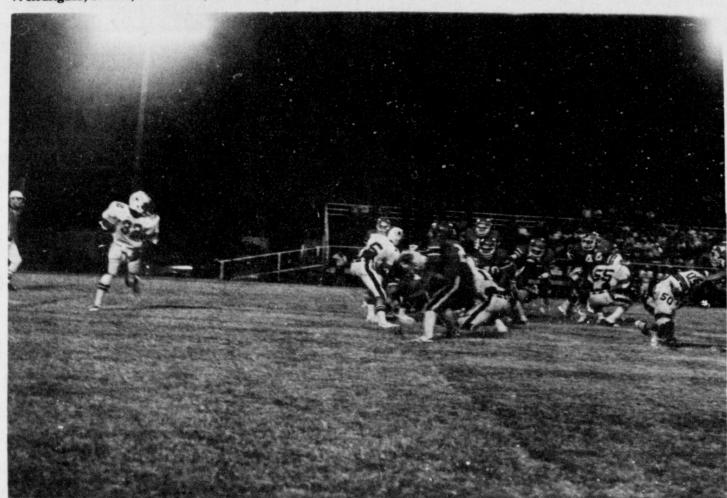

Lockney again drove the ball down after an Olton turnover. Steven Cates ran the ball in from the 3 yard line to tie the game. The try for two, fell inches short of the goal line.

Daniel Rodriquez received Horn of the week honors in the 8th grade.

The 8th grade Horns will play again grain

You see here a more economical way to haul grain to elevator or storage. It's the J&M 450-bushel gravity wagon mated with a husky 14-ton running gear. This big wagon tows easily behind a pick-up, a tractor, or another truck. (Think of hauling nearly twice the load behind just one engine!)
If there's a long wait at the elevator, the J&M wagon can stay there and free the towing vehicle for other work. Think of the trips you'll save. Think of the time you'll save. J&M wagons give you big, useful hauling capacity for a lot less investment in rolling stock

COOL DAYS SIGNAL TIME TO PLANT RYE

It seems that fall weather is finally upon us. Weather forecasters say that we've seen the last of our 90° days. Everything should start to grow better now. Most garden plants will breathe a sigh of relief and begin to stretch skyward with new growth. Tomatoes and peppers will stop dropping blooms and a good harvest will be assured. Lettuce and spinach seeds will pop out of the ground when planted rather than rotting as they did earlier if planted under high temperature conditions.

Another time is signaled by cool temperatures--rye planting time. Many gardeners overseed lawns or barren areas with ryegrass to prevent erosion of top soil during fall and winter. Of course, ryegrass enjoys cold temperatures and remains green throughout the winter while most commonly planted yard grasses are dormant.

Because many nurseries and garden centers are selling ryegrass seed, gardeners should understand that annual ryegrass used for lawns is not the rye which should be planted in vegetable gardens. Annual ryegrass remains small; cereal or Elbon rye grows much taller and provides much more organic matter that can be worked into the garden soil. Elbon rye should not be seeded before cool temperatures arrive since germination in hot soils is practically impossible.

After your cold susceptible crops have been killed by frost, pull them up and throw them in a garbage pile. Not only does this practice make your yard and garden more attractive, but it can also help you have a more successful 1983 spring garden. For instance, when removing these garden plants (especially tomatoes, beans, and okra). Examine their root systems for the presence of nematode "knots". However, you should be aware that not all nematodes which cause problems on plants cause knots on roots, and, in the case of extreme infestation, the knots may slough off and not be present when the plants are removed. Good healthy roots should be white and slicek if not damaged by nematodes. Roots which are decayed or rotted may indicate the presence of nematodes in your garden.

After pulling up those plants which have been destroyed by cold weather, you are faced with the prospect of some three or four months. If nematodes have been discovered, till up the empty space and treat it with Vapam, following label directions. Organic gardeners who would rather not use Vapam are truly faced with a dilemma since ignoring the nematodes will cause decreased spring production. Planting Elbon rye in these areas will beautify your garden, decrease nematode populations and increase the soil organic matter.

After several years of testing, cereal rye has proven to be the fastest growing, most cold tolerant annual grass available to home gardeners in Texas. You can plant cereal rye anytime between now and late fall. You should have a thick matt of grass approximately 10 to 15 inches high in late winter or early spring. The rye should be shredded with a lawnmower or flexible string trimmer and tilled into the soil so that rotting can occur before you plant in the empty space in your garden for the next spring. Ideally shredding and tillage one month before planting will allow for good decomposition.

> There are many advantages to following this practice of planting cereal rye in your garden. It beautifies the area with greenery. It will add high levels of organic matter to the garden soil. This type of "Green manure" crop decomposes rapidly. If these benefits were not enough, the roots of cereal serve as a trap-crop for nematodes. Once nematodes enter the cereal rye roots, they cannot escape and are doomed. When cereal rye decomposes it releases organic acids which tend to help reduce the alkalinity of garden soil, which is a problem on the soils in Floyd County.

> As mentioned earlier, gardeners should be careful to purchase cereal rye rather than annual ryegrass. Annual ryegrass is used to overseed lawns, and should not be used in your vegetable

Cereal rye can be planted by merely seeding directly on top of the garden soil and raking in. Apply seed at about the rate of 3/4 to one pound per hundred square feet of garden area to insure good coverage and adequate growth. Raking may not even be necessary. Be sure to water the rye regularly and fertilize for maximum growth. Always shred the rye before it forms seed heads since sprouting rye seed in early spring may become a nuisance. There is no danger of rye seeded in the fall becoming a weed problem during the spring since rye plants cannot withstand the hot temperature and will die.

Plant some cereal rye in your barren garden areas this year. It will reduce nematodes, add organic matter to the soil, reduce soil alkalinity, and decorate you neighborhood with greenery all

In this column, we will report on issues of interest to Floyd County farmers, ranchers, and agri-business-

Government Payments

The United States Department of Agriculture expects to distribute $4.1 billion for storage of reserve grains and Salt buildup increasing in Texas farmlands

Salt buildup in the soil due to saline seeps is becoming a growing problem in Texas farms and is affecting crop some time but continues to become worse," said Dr. Ed. Colburn, regarding the gradual buildup of salt in farmland. "It's basically a result of certain farming practices and the natural movement of water through soil."

dissolves salts that are present and moves them down to a compacted layer, explained Colburn, an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Texas A&M University System. The water then moves laterally to the lowest possible level, where it comes to the soil surface carrying all the concentrated

Texas agriculture successful are contributing to the salinity problem," said

Colburn. "These include soil and water conservation practices such as terracing, contour farming and maximizing

The agronomist noted that salt build-up was not a problem years ago when perennial vegetation covered much of the land and used moisture throughout the year. Thus salts did not have much crop residues on the soil surface."

"Farming practices that have made salt that has been leached down.

As water moves through the soil, it

"The problem has been with us for advance 1982 and 1983 deficiency and diversion payments. This level of government support will account for approximately 20% of the estimated 1982 net farm income. This is the highest level of government payments since 1970. In 1978, payments reached approximately $3 billion, but they constituted only about 11% of the net income.

On September 7, 1982, Governor Clements called the 3rd Special Session of the 67th Legislature for legislation to "maintain the solvency of the Unemployment Compensation Fund" and "to ensure school districts are able to continue to borrow money until their property tax funds are received."

In response, the Legislature passed the following:

opportunity to leach down and concentrate in the soil. Now, with land in field crops only 120 to 150 days or so out of the year and remaining bare the rest of the time, moisture is not used up so it leaches downward, carrying salts along.

After 20 to 40 years of such cropping patterns, particularly on marginal land,

Colburn said that the problem of saline seeps is evident over much of Texas, particularly in the Rolling Plains,

North Central Prairies, Rio Grande

Plains, Trans-Pecos, Coastal Bend and claypan areas. The problem also exists in all the plains states, especially in the "Saline seeps causing loss of crop production may range from just a few feet in diameter to several hundred acres." noted Colburn. "In smaller areas, subsurface drainage using an underground tile system would help answer, said the agronomist. While there has been much research on the effects of salinity on crops, little work has focused on saline seeps. It is not an easy problem for researchers and will

Unemployment Compensation

HB 1, by Clayton, will maintain the solvency of the Unemployment Compensation Fund by making certain changes. The fund is financed by a tax on payrolls of from 1/10% to 4% of the first $6,000 of salary of each individual on the payroll. The percentage varies for each employer according to the number of employees he fires who are eligible to then draw benefits from the fund. The percent also automatically increases whenever the fund used to pay benefits drops below $225 million.

The current weekly payment for an unemployed person who has worked long enough to earn benefits and who is actively seeking employment is $147 a week for up to 26 weeks. The benefit payments were not changed by this bill. Agricultural employers are exempt from payment of this tax. The agricultural exemption was not changed by the One purpose of HB 1 was to avoid the automatic increases brought about because a record number of people are out of work. The automatic increase would have been over 2,000%, so that the minimum tax would rise from $6 per employee to over $120 per employee. This amount has been changed to $24 for the last quarter of 1982, $42 for the first quarter of 1983, and $36 for the rest

1. Increases for any employer was limited to 5/10% for 1983 and 1984.

2. An additional tax of 3/10% for the last quarter of 1982 and 1/10% for the first quarter of 1983 is levied and set aside to pay interest on a loan from the Federal Fund to maintain the state fund until the increased tax replenishes it. Texas employers have for years been paying into this Federal Fund which was established so that states could borrow when their funds were temporarily depleted. The interest is only 10%, since Texas surplus funds are currently earning higher interest, borrowing from this Federal Fund was thought more economical. 3. The ceiling of the State fund is increased from $325 million to $500 million and the automatic tax increase (or decrease) is changed from 1/10% for each $5 million to 1/10% for each $45 million so that Texas employers will not again face such a dramatic increase. 4. The maximum tax for employers who fire a larger number of employees is changed form 4% to 6% (Federal law required an increased to 5.4% by 1985.)

5. The amount of salary subject to the tax is changed from $6,000 per employee to $7,000 (this change was required by Federal law.)

6. The interest on overdue tax is changed from 12% to 18%.

School Finance

HB 1, by Atkinson, will allow school district to borrow money before the tax roll is certified; previously they could only borrow after the roll was certified. The problem arose because school districts no longer havé control over the time their roll is certified, since this function has been transferred to the single appraisal district within each

Pest Management

BY DALE W. SPURGEON General Situation

Most cotton fields have open bolls and almost all are at least beginning to "cut out".

Many sorghum fields are turning. The latest fields I've seen are flowering

Most soybeans fields are well into pod fill, with some nearly finished filling pods.

Many corn fields are being harvested

As a general rule, bollworm numbers appear to be very low at this time. However, there are still some individual fields around with fairly high numbers

Sorghum

In the past week I have seen no new headworm infestations, unfortunately this does not mean they are not out there. I have seen plenty of moths in the field. I would be particularly concerned about fields in flowering, milk, or early soft-dough stages.

If you have sorghum fields which are flowering. I strongly suggest you check them for midge. This is one insect I've had no problem finding this past week.

Spider mites may still be a potential problem in some fields. Current population levels and the coming weather will determine whether or not they become a problem. Spider mite populations increase rapidly under hot, dry condi-

Soybeans

Podworms have been light in all the fields I have checked. Once again, as with the headworms in sorghum, this does not mean there are no soybean fields with podworm problems. Make a beat cloth (40"x36") and check your fields, you'll be amazed at how easy they are to check.

For your own information, some corn fields are having some lodging problems now. I examined one such field last week and from my observations it appeared that most of the lodging was caused by a stalk rot, more specifically, charcoal rot. Plants which were allowed to water stress are more susceptible to

To determine if lodging is due to Southwestern corn borer, split the stalk and examine for tunneling, then dig up the roots and split, examining for the presence of a borer. Borers which have not entered diapause (the overwintering stage) will be white with prominent black spots. Those which have diapaused will be white with no spots. Black spots or no black spots, they are both Southwestern corn bores

Shelly Bethel was honored with a slumber party in her parent's home Friday evening. The occasion was her birthday. Guests present were Twyla and Traca Lemons, Brandi Lackey, Holly Henderson and Suntal Patterson.

Jenese Lemons and Sarah of Seagraves spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lemons and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lemons and family. James and Jane had dinner with the Carl F. Lemons Sunday.

Gladys Fortenberry visited her daughter and husband, Patsy and Lagayette Boone in Lubbock Thursday. Rogene Bethel, Royce Bethel and Bud Taylor returned home Tuesday evening after spending a week touring in Colorado. The three men left last Wednesday on their motorcycles and traveled to Aspen. They ran into quite a bit of snow in the mountains of Silverton, Colorado and turned back toward home. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Our sympathy goes out to Albert and Evelyn Seay because of the death of her father, Stennie Russell, age 80 who passed away in a Ruidoso Hospital early Monday morning. Mr. Russell lived in Carrizoso. The funeral services were held in Mountain Aire and burial was in Round Top Cemetery. He is survived by his wife and three daughters. Joy and Jo and Evelvn.

Harold Gilbert of Santo, Texas visited from Tuesday until Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Welch.

Mrs. Peat Kelley visited Belle Lemons and Cephus and Imogene Fortenberry Thursday.

John and Cindy Fortenberry were honored with a wedding shower in the Fellowship Hall of the Assembly of God Church Monday evening. Gifts were placed on a table. Homemade ice cream and cake and cookies were served to the guests. A blue cloth was laid under a white lace cloth and blue napkins were used. The hostess gift was a vacuum cleaner. Hostesses were Leah Lackey, Martha Taylor, Vikki Yeary, Edna Gilly, Mrs. Vance Mitchell, Kay Bethel, Doris Hinkle, Duffy Hinkle and Dena Hinkle.

We are sorry to report that Edna Gilly is ill and we trust that she will regain her strength quickly

Joyce Osborne, and bring her home after she had spent the past two weeks down at Louisville, Texas with her daughter, Mrs. Karen Mauney, and Rev. and Mrs. Ron and Linda Somers and children who are just moving to Lousville into a new pastorate there. Mrs. Corda Taylor had been there visiting and Mrs. Osborne went home to Muleshoe with her mother to help her get settled, and Mrs. Osborne returned home this Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan and Connie Johnson and boys, Troy and Tracey were hosts this Sunday evening at their home to all those from the Baptist Church, with homemade ice cream and cakes for everyone and an evening of visiting and fellowship.

I.H. Parks who has been in the Central Plains Hospital recovering from major surgery, is doing well, and is expected to be able to come home to South Plains this Monday.

We extend best wishes to Mrs. Clara Mize, and hope a full recovery for her at the Central Plains Hospital. She entered there over the past weekend at the Plainview hospital.

Mrs. Mamie Wood came home from Caspar, Wyoming on Friday, after she had flown there from New Orleans, La. Tuesday afternoon. The funeral services for Mamie's sister, Mrs. Jo Hailey were held on Wednesday, and others who were there from here were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wood who drove there to Caspar. Mrs. Wood reported there were 14 inches of snow in Caspar, and it was cold and roads had to be taken slowly. Mrs. Wood had been in New Orleans several days previous to the sudden illness of her sister, Mrs. Hailey, and having to go to the hospital Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Pat and Glen Wood drove to the services of their aunt, Mrs. Jo Hailey in Caspar, Wyoming, leaving here Monday evening.

Ernest Smitherman was able to come home from the Central Plains Hospital in Plainview, on Saturday, and is getting along well, as Ruth, his wife, who recently had hip surgery there.

Mrs. Ruby Higginbotham arrived back home in South Plains last Monday after being gone for about two weeks on a trip to New Mexico and Colorado with her brother. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cypert of Amarillo. They had visited Carlsbad Caverns, Ruidoso, Angel Fire, Red River, and other parts of New Mexico, and went into Colorado at Colorado Springs for spots of interest to

Local

I have improved. I am getting the knack of the prediction business. I got 3 out of 5 this last week. Mr. Campbell of the Oilers was better than Mr. Zorn. What can I say Tech won a ballgame and on the anniversary of the Air Force. I have once again uncovered my crystal ball to forecast this weeks football frenzy. The Horns from the north have found the secret to winning. The boys will continue their winning ways this week against the Jackrabbits of Ralls. Horns Texas Tech at home against Baylor.

Homecoming game. Fan support. Sold out stadium. Disappointed crowd. Bears by 3. Sorry Raiders just can't see you winning this week. The Winds found new confidence this last week. This confidence should carry over this week into another win. The Hornets of Tulia will lose their sting. Winds by 14 or more.

And now my fine feathered fortune telling competitor. You beat me to a pulp last week by staying with the Oilers. I have yet to yield to the fact that your guesses can beat my high priced quality crystal ball from the five and dime. I bow to you this week and pay homage to your guesses.

One last prediction this week. The strike can't last long unless it is backed by the S.R.T.W. of A. (strife ridden televisionless wives of America). SRTW of A could be behind this whole thing.

The clue oh yes the clue. I am known by the North and the South and travel in

Now I know what's meant by the term thrill of victory and the agony of Folks, when I'm bad - I'm real bad. and when I'm good - I'm simply wonderful! Wonderful beng the word, 4 out of 5 being the result.

Local, I know you're despondent and blue, but let me help, son. Hold your head high, chest out, firm up that chin. I figure about now you're feeling somewhat like the official who got the "curds and whey" knocked out of him by the Seahawk's receiver that intercepted Houston's pass. Bad call, Sir! Oh well, you lose, Local - no camera playback to decide that one. End of time, Houston Oilers 23-Seattle Seahawks 21. Houston's on a roll and should slap Buffalo up beside the head by at least 10 points in next Sunday's game.

The Dallas Cowboys declared open season on the Saint Louis Cardinals in Sunday's gridiron clash by putting on the "bad hurt" with Dallas coming out on top 24 to 7. The Cowboys will have their hands full next Sunday when they travel to Minnesota and I can't help but believe that Dallas will be victorious. My super athletic inclination shows the Cowboys shooting past the Vikings by Now what can I say in regard to Texas Tech against Air Force. Not meaning to sound pessimistic in nature, I had figured last week against New Mexico would be Tech's only victory for the year. The Falcons should have sharpened their talons a little keener instead of letting Tech squeak by them 31 to 30. Now let's huddle and regroup for Saturday's game against Baylor. Hometown blues got me, Baylor by 13.

Lockney slid past Olton Friday night 7 to 6. Local we both had the Longhorns to win by more points - those boys just aren't playing up to our expectations. However, I still have faith - let's put them back on top against Ralls by 10

Floydada picked up some hurricanetype gales to blow past Muleshoe 21-6. Now that L.G. has those boys on the prowl, I'm looking for a victory over Tulia by 7 points this coming Friday

CLASS QUIZ By Fay Parker Buth

May I Have Your Attention Please. For Just a Minute Or So There's Something I'd Like To Say, And Some Things I'd Like To Know.

Like - Where Have You Been These Fifty Years.

Since We Left Old Lockney High -Did Each of You Take A Different Trail. When We Told Our Teachers Goodbye?

Did You Go North Or Did You Go South, Or Did You Go East Or West -Or Did You Decide To Stay Right Here, And Give To The World Your Best?

Did You Become A Movie Star. Or Did You Spend Your Time

Teaching -Did You Go Out and Farm The Land. Or Spread God's Word - By Preach-

Did You Go To Work For The F.B.I., Or Were You A Hometown Cop -Or Did You Go Into Politics.

And Climb Your Way To The Top?

Well - Really, It's Not So Important Whether You Went East Or West -Or If You Stayed Right Here At Home. And Feathered Your Little Nest.

But As You Traveled, Day After Day. Doing The Things You Wanted To

As You Worked and Studied and Planned To Make Your Dreams Come True

Did You Take Time To Look Around. And Really See Your Fellowman -And If He Was Down and Out Did You Give Him A Helping Hand?

Did You Take Time Out For Family Fun Was There Always Time To Pray? Did You Take Time To Read God's Word

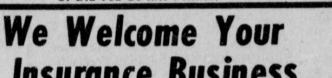

At The End Of A Busy Day?

Did You Help the Poor And Needy, Regardless Of Color Or Race -Was There Time To Pick Up A Crying

And Wipe The Tears From It's Little

If You Took Time For The Little Things. As You Traveled Mile After Mile -

Then You're A Wonder Person, My Friend And Your Life Has Been Worthwhile
