Lois Martin celebrates her 90th birthday

On a beautiful sunny Saturday afternoon after Thanksgiving, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Bill and Mildred Reagan in Lockney to attend the 90th birthday anniversary, November 24, 1983, of Mrs. Lois Martin of Lockney.

She was born November 24, 1893, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson Keeter of Canton, Georgia. Mr. Martin's family moved to Motley County (Flomot) Texas when she was four years old and her mother and baby sister died shortly after arriving here in the winter of 1898-1899. Their rock grave is a landmark today in a field at the foot of the Flomot cap. Mrs. Keeter was considered to be among the first white women buried in the Texas Panhandle.

Mrs. Martin married James Martin of Turkey, Texas, in 1910 and lived most of her adult life in South Texas, primarily in the towns of Cotulla and Cuero where Mr. Martin continued to reside until she came to Lockney to live with her brother, Claude Keeter, in the summer of 1973. Mr. Keeter died in June 1979 and since that time she has lived alone with the help of nearby nieces and nephews, Mildred Reagan, Joe Keeter of Lockney, Joy Assiter of Floydada and Olin Keeter of Plainview.

Because of her years of love and help for others, she was flooded with birthday greetings from around the United States including a beautiful birthday card from President and Mrs. Reagan.

Among those attending the celebration were the following nieces and nephews: Arvis Harwell of Oklahoma City, Olin Keeter of Amarillo, Wynelle George of Tullia, Joy and Tommy Assiter of Floydada, Bill and Mildred Reagan of Lockney and Joe and Lozelle Keeter of Lockney.

Great nieces and nephews attending were Cal and Sandra Demorest of Plainview, Vanda and Bob Ketchel of Amarillo, Denise George, Canyon; Renee Georgia, Tullia.

Others attending were Harry and Ruth Martimer of Durango, Colorado and Gary Martimer of Canyon, Texas.

Gins exceed 21,000 bales

As of Saturday, by most of the Lockney area cotton gins, a total of 21,609 bales of cotton had been ginned. This count includes Barwise, Providence, Crume, Paymaster, Sterley, Evans, Lockney Coop, and Lockney Gin. At least two of the gins surveyed said that they have about as many bales sitting on the yard to be ginned yet. After the ginning season is over we will have a complete count of bales ginned in the Lockney area.

Most of the cotton stripped so far has not measured up to what farmers had hoped to be their best year in quite sometime.

This year farmers have been plagued with a number of problems. First it did not rain much when farmers needed it the most, when cotton plants are very young. Then this summer it rained at the wrong time when the plants needed hot dry weather. Then in September we got an early freeze. The freeze damaged much of the area cotton crop. When the farmers began to strip this years crop, they were again plagued with wet weather, putting the harvest off for days at a time. The latest of these wet spells came Tuesday, November 22. But by Monday most farmers were back in the fields running strippers and module builders.

Producers and ginners alike are suffering from the early freeze, which had reduced both the quantity and the quality of the cotton. Cotton which was not badly hurt from the early freeze suffered from the high winds and wet weather which stripped cotton from the stalks and left nothing to strip.

We can hope that the wet winter weather will hold off for another two weeks so that farmers can get the rest of this years crop out of the fields.

Williams elected to Board

Lifelong Lockney resident Jerry Williams was elected to the American Angus Association Board of Directors at the organization's 100th annual meeting, held November 14 in Louisville, Kentucky. Williams will serve a three year term.

Jerry has been involved in raising and breeding Angus cattle all of his life, starting with working for his father, Lois Williams, until he was able to start his own herd about 20 years ago.

Jerry presently runs 50 to 65 mother cows and farms 1000 acres northwest of Lockney.

Being involved in the American Angus Association is a family tradition for the Williams family. Not only are Jerry and his father involved, the Williams' daughter, Libby, a senior at Lockney High School, is on the Texas Junior Angus board of directors. She is presently the Texas Junior Angus Assoc. princess. Their son Matt is also raising Angus cattle and exhibits them in stock shows in Lockney, Floyd County, and this past summer in Plainview.

The American Angus Association, celebrating its centennial year, is the world's largest beef breeding organization. The organization got its beginning on November 21 when a small band of Angus breeders met in a Chicago hotel room for the first meeting of the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders Association, the American Angus Association. Through excellent leadership and breeder participation the organization has become the largest and most influential beef breeders registry in the world.

One of the highlights of the centennial year has been the signing of National Packing Co. of Liberal, Kansas, to a certified Angus beef contract. This company is one of the major producers of beef in the United States. As of September they were producing 1000 head a week and that is expected to rise to 2000 by the end of the year.

The Angus Assoc. supports its youth through state Angus Associations. In 1983, 1271 new junior memberships were issued. Participation in the junior activities remains strong. There are three stock shows sponsored by the American Angus Assoc., the Eastern and Western Regionals and the National Junior Angus Show. This year some 800 head of Angus were shown by junior in these shows.

The young people involved in the Assoc. are the backbone of the future of the organization and the Texas Junior Angus Assoc. is the second in the nation with an active membership of 500.

The American Angus Assoc. provides breeders with new developments and techniques for breeding and improving the Angus breed. They work year round to serve breeders all over the United States and they have also been instrumental in improving the beef produced for consumption.

In times like these... By Mary Jo Fielding

When the U.S. Marines recently invaded Grenada they found Cuban records that showed that Fidel Castro planned to send 341 officers and 4,000 to the island. Such a plan would increase armed Cubans there to a force of 6,800. Six warehouses had been found with Soviet and Cuban arms.

Robert Dudley in the U.S. News stated a formidable task would confront the U.S. Navy if President Reagan ever ordered a quarantine of Soviet and Cuban vessels in Central America. U.S. ships would stop and search vessels steaming for Nicaragua, and would seize arms but would allow other goods to be delivered. However, Cuba and the Soviet Union could switch arms trafficking to small fishing boats and travelers, which are difficult to spot on the high seas. Too, the U.S. would get absolutely no aid from any of the seafaring countries, regardless that 80 percent of them are U.S. allies either in Europe or the Far East.

Robert Dudley concludes "As it now stands the Navy is fully capable of making a large dent in the arms traffic to Central America. But for that to happen, the Reagan administration must confront large risks that it may be loath to take at least at this point."

Lockney Care Center Capers

By Mavis Barton & Mary Jo Fielding

Last Monday, there were seven residents (nine of us including the driver) Mable Foster and Activity Director, Jackie Gerhardt, who rode on the Senior Citizens Bus. We went to Silverton by the way of Rock Creek. The residents on the bus were: Myrtle Paine, Hassie Arnold, Bessie Hunt, Esker Pyle, 'Boots' Strickland, Nena Loudermilk, and I (Mary Jo). I was amazed to see so many sheep. I never associated sheep to this part of the country (we lived in San Antonio at one time, and going through Fredericksburg and San Angelo, we saw a lot of sheep, so I had assumed they were native to Central Texas). On our sojourn to Silverton we saw a lot of them, and a darling ewe with her baby, which I had never seen before. I had the impulse of wanting to get off the bus and pet them.

When we got to Silverton, Jackie treated each of us to an ice cream cone. So we all had a good time enjoying the scenery and the ice cream.

Everyone enjoyed the drive and the scenery. On the way home, we stopped by a pasture with a prairie dog town and watched all the little "dogs" for a while. They sure are entertaining to watch, and provided several chuckles.

Tuesday, we had a family luncheon for Thanksgiving. We really had a good turnout of family and friends. Everyone brought a covered dish and we provided the turkey and dressing. Needless to say, we all ate too much, but it sure was good. After lunch, Kim Sherman, a music therapist from Plainview, shared with many of the residents and their families. We at the Center appreciate everyone's cooperation in making our luncheon a success.

Over the weekend, many of our residents went home for a visit with their family, friends, and loved ones.

We would like to express our sincere sympathy to the family of Jeffie Smith.

Help prevent

sexual abuse

of children

Sexual abuse of children is a serious problem in the United States. Sexual abuse may be defined as "anything sexual between an adult and a child in which the purpose is to gratify the sexual needs of an adult". Estimates of the incidence rate of sexual abuse vary, but many researchers agree that one in four girls and one in eleven boys have a sexual experience in childhood with a much older adult. While most sexual abuse victims are female, this may partially be due to the fact that males are much less likely to report sexual abuse. It is clear that the number of reported cases is just the "tip of the iceberg"; many children feel fear and guilt and do not report the incidents.

The popular image of the sexual offender as being a "pervert" or "molester" or "dirty old man" is not accurate. In from 60 to 80 percent of the sexual abuse cases the abuser is known to the child, either a relative, neighbor, or acquaintance of the victim.

Children need to be encouraged to report sexual abuse, for two main reasons:

1. Sexual abuse is not usually a single, isolated incident, but typically occurs repeatedly over a period of time, often years. If no intervention occurs, the abuse will continue for this particular child and may extend to other children as well.

2. The child may feel that he or she is to blame for the sexual episodes. The resultant guilt can have a devastating psychological impact on the child. This psychological trauma leads to the most long lasting damage to the child, not the physical trauma which may or may not occur. Therapy for the child needs to begin as soon as possible, to prevent lifelong psychological problems.

If a child reports a case of suspected sexual abuse to you, you should do the following:

1. Remain calm. The way in which the child's parents and involved professionals react are believed to be the most important factor in determining how traumatic the experience will be for the child. Your becoming emotional will not help.

2. Report the incident to your local Child Protective Services worker (in Lockney 652-2416 or 652-3548, in Floydada 983-2280, 24 hours a day) or on the toll free Child Abuse hotline (1-800-252-5400). In either case the incident will be investigated promptly and confidentially.

Varsity lose close game

The Lockney boys' varsity basketball team opened the 1983 season with a game against Crosbyton. Lockney lost the game by only two points, the final score being 46-44. Lockney was ahead at the half, but was unable to hold the lead in the second half.

High point players of the game were Paul Moats and Robert Rendon who had 12 points each. Coach Randy Josey stated that Moats played an exceptional game both offensively and defensively.

The second game of the season for the Horns was against Abernathy. The Horns did not fare as well in this game, as they were defeated by the Lopes with a score of 99-50.

Josey said that if the boys had played against Abernathy as they had against Crosbyton the score might not have been as bad. He also said that the Abernathy team is very good, and it will be hard for any team to beat them.

High pointers for the Abernathy game were Robert Rendon with 16 points and Jackie Cunyas with 9. Josey said Jackie played his best game in a while and that he expects the entire team to improve as the season progresses.

JV boys edge by Crosbyton

The junior varsity boys opened their season with a game against Crosbyton. The Lockney boys edged by Crosbyton with a score of 51-50. Jerry Mathis was the high point player for this game with 18 points and Johnny Torrez came in a close second with 17 points.

The second game for the JV was much like the varsity game against Abernathy. The Lopes loped over the Horns with a score of 66-27. Coach Josey said that the Abernathy teams were very tough this year and the boys just weren't able to score off them.

High point score for the Abernathy game was Jerry Mathis with 7 and next was Frizzell with 6.

Lady Horns open 83 season with victory

By Nancy Ray

The varsity girls season opened last Monday night with a victory over Crosbyton. What made this game so unusual was that five of our players fouled out leaving us with only three players on the court with about a minute left in the game and down by one point. Shawnda Brock drew two fouls back to back and made all four free throws giving us our victory by three points.

There were a total of 57 fouls in the game - too many under any circumstances and yet the girls played hard and basically did a good job. It's just going to take a few games to gain confidence in our new offense and in working together as a team.

Brock made 15 points, Foster had 13, Holt and Elam came up with seven each while Fitzgerald had 6 and McCormick, four.

The next night we played Abernathy and really had a tough time with this game. We went into this game scared and feeling somewhat defeated already because of their reputation as such a fine team. We got down too many points in the first half, because we couldn't seem to hit the basket. Karyn Foster was the only one who could do anything the first half.

Then we came back and finally started working together and playing like the aggressive team we are in the third quarter but we were just too far down to ever catch up.

I'm really pleased at how the girls stayed in there the entire game and came back after the half to work as a team. I think we learned about ourselves as a team in this game and we observed some things that we do not want to see happen again. Foster was high point with 13, Fitzgerald followed with 6, Holt and Brock each had 5, while McCormick and Cantu each contributed 4.

We next will be playing Tulia here Tuesday night. Great things are still to come for us as our season develops and we gain more confidence in ourselves in our offense and in each other.

Fruit-Flavored Cake Fosters Friendship

Officially recognized as Peace, Friendship and Good Will Week, the final seven days in October (October 25-31) have been set aside to foster human relations throughout the world.

An appropriate way to foster good relations with neighbors and friends is with this popular grass roots recipe passed across the border from friends in Canada. This version of the Friendship Cake was developed by the Betty Crocker Kitchens.

Fruits and juices ferment for several days before being passed on, along with the cake recipe, to two friends. The fruit and juice starter is then added to a brown sugar-flavored cake batter for a moist and delicious dessert.

It's a way to encourage good will not only with those who receive the starter but also with those who enjoy the result.

BUTTER-NUT FRIENDSHIP CAKE

At least 5 days before making the cake, begin preparation of Fruit and Juice Starter (below). Use 1 part each of the fruit and the juice in Cake (below). Give 1 part each of fruit and juice, with Cake recipe, to each of 2 friends.

FRUIT AND JUICE STARTER

1 can (6 ounces) frozen apple juice concentrate, thawed

1/2 cup sugar

2 teaspoons lemon juice

1 package active dry yeast

1 jar (10 ounces) maraschino cherries, undrained

2 cups raisins

1 package (8 ounces) dried apricots, cut up

1 can (15 1/2 ounces) crushed pineapple in juice, undrained

Day 1: Mix apple juice concentrate and 3 canfuls hot water in 2-quart plastic or glass container that has lid. Add sugar, lemon juice, yeast and cherries; stir until sugar is dissolved. Cover and let stand at room temperature, stirring twice more that day.

Day 2: Stir mixture twice.

Day 3: Stir in raisins.

Day 4: Stir in apricots.

Day 5: Stir in pineapple.

Drain fruit mixture, reserving juice. Divide both fruit and juice into 3 equal parts (there should be about 1 1/2 cups fruit and 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons juice in each part). Mix 1 part each fruit and juice. Store in refrigerator until ready to use.

CAKE

1/2 cup margarine or butter

1 cup packed brown sugar

1 cup chopped nuts

1 package Betty Crocker SuperMoist yellow, carrot or apple cinnamon cake mix

Fruit and juice from starter

1/2 cup vegetable oil

3 eggs

Heat oven to 350°. Grease and flour rectangular pan, 13x9x2 inches. Heat margarine in 1-quart saucepan until melted; stir in brown sugar. Heat over low heat, stirring constantly, until brown sugar is dissolved, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in nuts; reserve.

Beat cake mix (dry), 1 part each fruit and juice from starter, oil and eggs in large bowl on low speed, scraping bowl frequently, 30 seconds. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl occasionally, 2 minutes. Pour into pan. Sprinkle with nut mixture. Bake until cake pulls away from sides of pan and top springs back when touched lightly in center, 40 to 45 minutes. Cool completely.

High Altitude Directions (3500 to 6500 feet): Heat oven to 375°. Decrease brown sugar to 3/4 cup and juice from starter to 1/2 cup. Stir 1/2 cup all-purpose flour into cake mix (dry) and add 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons water.
