Driving while intoxicated laws to change January 1

During the 1983 regular session of the Texas Legislature a new Driving While Intoxicated law was passed. The new law will have dramatic effects on drivers arrested on DWI charges and on those convicted on DWI charges.

This new law will go into effect at 12:01 a.m. January 1.

The new law reads as follows: Intoxication is defined as someone with a blood alcohol level of .10 or above. DWI offenders who could once, through deferred adjudication, remove past DWI charges from their permanent records can no longer do so.

Refusal to take an intoxilyzer or blood or breath specimen to determine blood alcohol concentration will result in a mandatory 90 day suspension of the offender's drivers license. This refusal is also admissible in later criminal action of the offender.

Punishment for DWI offenders under the new law reads as follows: 1st DWI: $100-$2000 fine; minimum of 72 hours to 2 years in jail; 2nd DWI: $300-$2000 fine; minimum of 15 days to 2 years in jail; 3rd DWI: $500-$2000 fine; minimum of 30 days to 2 years in jail, or 60 days to 5 years in the state penitentiary. If a person causes serious bodily injury while driving while intoxicated, the minimum jail term is increased by 60 days and the minimum fine is increased by $500. Even if the above punishment is probated, offenders will be required to spend the minimum jail time listed for each offense. Added to the above required jail times, is DWI involuntary manslaughter which requires a minimum jail time of 120 days.

The new laws also have a provision that allows the district attorney to petition the court for the forfeiture of a vehicle from persons who are arrested for DWI while on probation for DWI involuntary manslaughter or from a person arrested for a fourth DWI related offense.

Juveniles will also feel the effects of the new laws. If a juvenile is arrested for a first DWI offense, the offender's drivers license will be suspended for 90 to 365 days. For a second offense the juvenile's license will be suspended from 365 days or until the legal drinking age is attained, which ever is longer. Juveniles may also be ordered to complete a DWI education program.

Since these new laws will go into effect on a night when more people are out celebrating than at any other time of the year, it is advisable to be informed of the new laws. The "buddy" system is recommended if one feels they are unable to properly control a motor vehicle.

One's own safety, as well as that of other holiday travelers, is well worth the effort.

IT HAS BEEN SO COLD that even the dogs need coats. Fifi, Joe and Lozell Keeter's poodle, show the new coat she got at a Christmas party.

Junior Varsity boys take first place in Earth tournament

December 15-17 saw the Junior Varsity boys in Springlake-Earth competing in a JV tournament. The boys won all three of their games of the tournament, bringing home the first place trophy from Earth.

The first game of the tournament pitted the boys against Hart. Lockney's JV won the game by 10 points with a final score 54-44. High pointers for the game were Johnny Torrez with 25 and Jerry Mathis with 14.

In the second game they won their game against Olton by a 4 point margin, 49-45. High pointers for the game was Joe Torrez with 11 and David Sutter-field, Hector Cortez, and Jerry Mathis tying with 10 points each.

The third and final game of the tournament pitted Lockney against Laz-buddie. The boys emerged victorious with a final score of 44-42. High pointers for the game were Johnny Torrez with 15 and David Sutterfield with 10.

December 19, the JV boys played in Crosbyton. The boys chalked up another win on the board with the final score of 48 to 35. High pointers for the game were Jerry Mathis with 19, Johnny Torrez with 13, and Hector Cortez with 10.

3 named to AJ All-District team

Last week the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal released its list of area players selected on the Lubbock AJ's All-District team.

Selected from Lockney on the first team were Robert Rendon, offense, and Terry Mathis, defense. Moses Blanco was chosen as second team defense and Robert Rendon made second team defense.

All of the players selected by the AJ to the 3-3A team were from Lockney and Floydada. Congratulations to these young men for their outstanding abilities this year.

IRS refunds await 4 Lockneyites

Checks for over 3,000 North Texas taxpayers have been returned to the IRS and are being held until claimed. The refunds total $1,348,634.82 with the average check being $442.61. Amounts range all the way from $1 to $14,550.

The four Lockney names appearing on the list include: Jose and Consecion Acosta, Marcelino and Maria Ortega, Rita F. Rairdon, and Mildred Wells, deceased.

Cagle said that the most usual reason for a refund check's failure to reach a taxpayer is that the taxpayer has moved and neglected to notify the IRS and the post office. "Even moving to a different apartment at the same street address can be the cause of the problem," he explained.

Two named to President's list at South Plains College

Suzan Rose and Adeena Widener of Lockney have been named to the President's Honor List at South Plains College for the 1983 fall semester.

To qualify for the President's List at SPC, students must maintain a 4.0 or "straight A" grade point average while enrolled for at least 12 semester hours. Students who maintain a 3.25 gpa or better are named to the Dean's List.

"We wish to extend our congratulations to these fine students who have demonstrated academic excellence which is found at South Plains College," said Dr. Bud Joyner, vice president for academic affairs. "We are always proud of the students who are named to the President and Dean's Honor Lists."

Incorrect social security info delays income tax processing

Newlyweds and others who changed their names last year should report their new name to the Social Security Administration (SSA). The name and Social Security numbers on tax returns are matched with those of the SSA in processing the returns. Refunds can be delayed if the name and Social Security number do not match, IRS says.

Another good way to guard against unnecessary refund delays, the IRS says, is to use the peel-off identification label provided with the tax package. If the name, address, or Social Security number is incorrect, changes can be made directly on the label.

Lockney area gins exceed 32,000 bales for the 1983 season

With only one Lockney area gin still running on Monday and an approximate estimation of the cotton they have left to gin, the total 1983 bale count for the Lockney area will be about 32,839. This count includes: Lockney Gin, Lockney Coop, Evans Sterley, Providence, Paymaster, Barwise and Marble Brothers gins.

This year's total bale count is almost a 1/2 increase over last years count. Last year the above gins, with the exception of Barwise and Evans who did not open last year, ginned only 11,399 collectively. All the gin managers were happy with the amounts they ginned this year, but stated that if there had not been a PIK program they would have ginned from 1/2 to 1/2 more cotton.

This year's weather also affected the cotton crop. Farmers did not get the early rain young plants needed and then rains came when the cotton needed hot, dry weather. An early freeze in September also damaged both the quality and quantity of the cotton yield.

Gin managers were pleased with the lint grades that came from this year's crop. Managers reported that there was some below grade cotton in this year's yield but the majority was good. Seed grade this year varied but the majority was fair to good.

With the yield almost being triple what last year's yield was we can hope that next year weather and government programs will not interfere with next year and farmers can again increase over the year's yield.

VARSITY GIRLS go through drills and shooting practice in preparation for the Slaton Tournament which starts today.

Lockney Care Center Capers

By Mavis Barton & Mary Jo Fielding

Monday, Dec. 19th: The snow stopped me from going home yesterday. I expected my husband to call and he did, he said it was 8° and light snow there. He said he was going to sit in his chair and watch the "Cowboys." I did a little work on my column and in the afternoon I went to church.

This morning it had snowed again and continued light snow all day.

Manemma Hutsell brought her grandchildren and great grandson, who was carrying the tray of Xmas cookies, I picked a round cookie with a face on it, and Manemma gave me a green tree cookie for Ida Rose who is still in the hospital.

Melvin Thacker is also still in the hospital.

Tuesday, 20th: It snowed again last night and was continuing through the day again, sometimes light and sometimes heavier. Later in the day it turned foggy and stuck to everything, the wires and tree limbs were sagging, but thank goodness it did no harm. This afternoon we had "Bingo" and had apples, oranges, and bananas. We had two "Blackouts."

Thursday, 22nd: I won't say anything about the weather, everybody knows it's pretty darned cold. We tried to keep warm with sweaters, jackets, coats and even dressing robes. We have a fire in the lobby and everybody can't sit around the fire.

We had an early supper tonight as the residents are having a Christmas party starting at six thirty, they had the lobby full of residents who were able to come. The John Francis group came and sang some carols and when they sang, "Here Comes Santa Claus," and he came into the lobby, there was a big welcoming applause for him. Santa had a word with Birdie Bradley, and he asked her if she wanted to hug him, and she said "No, I don't go for that kind of thing." Which caused a big laugh. Then he asked Weta Hill if she wanted to hug Santa, and she said something and then that caused another big laugh. Manemma Hutsell gave him a hug, and then he asked me "Do you want to hug Santa?" I said "You bet" and put my arms around his neck, and got my face buried in his beard. We had a good turn out and all came in with arms full of gifts. The Christmas tree was almost covered up with gifts. Then there were refreshments in the dining room. There were cookies of every kind and fruit cakes. I don't know who did all the baking, but we want to thank you very much for a wonderful ending of an exciting and pleasant Christmas party.

Friday, 23rd: Today was much like yesterday, we had another early supper, and the employees had their party tonight. The residents did not go to this party, but when you can hear them laughing and having a good time at my room at the north end and the dining room doors closed, it must have been a good success.

Last week proved to be a very busy but rewarding week for us at the Center. On Thursday, we had our annual Christmas tree. Despite the bad weather, there was a good turn out of family and friends. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. The following people helped make our party a success and we want to say thanks to: First State Bank, Silverton - fruit cakes.

LOA Junior Study Club, Silverton, for the cookies.

Lois Nance and her Home Demonstration group from Rock Creek for the cookies.

Hubert Frizzell for helping make the party special by being Santa Claus.

First Baptist Church Brotherhood for the candy, apples, oranges, and gum they provided for each resident.

Rowell's This-R-That for their generous donation of gifts for the residents.

First Baptist Church, Flomot, for the gifts they provided.

John Francis and his group from Silverton for their entertainment during the party.

Cindy Smith and her children, Jennifer, David, Scott, Carleigh and Charley, for the cute and delicious gingerbread men they made for us.

John and Diana Truitt for the apples and oranges and their faithfulness in serving us here. Good luck and come back often. We all love you.

On Friday, we had several good visits from our friends to wish us a Merry Christmas. Friday night, the staff had a dinner and their Christmas tree.

CEDAR HILL NEWS

by Grace Lemons

The weather is still very cold here and water pipes are frozen leaving many families without water.

Grace Lemons arrived home about on Christmas day from an extended trip to San Antonio and Dallas. Her brother, J.E. Anderson will begin another series of Chemotherapy this week and we trust that he will be able to go into remission. While Grace was in San Antonio, her son-in-law, Clark Gayley was hospitalized and have not determined his ailment at this point.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lemons and family enjoyed Christmas Eve dinner in the home of Linda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Cooper in Lockney. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Shackelford and family of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bigham and family and Mr. and Mrs. L.T. Cooper and family of Lockney. They also had their tree and exchanged gifts.

Edna Gilly was hostess in her home with a Christmas tree and supper and exchanging of gifts Saturday evening with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Harris and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Gilly, Amy and Tara, Mark and Lori and Emory and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Clark of Plainview present.

Johnnie and Delise Harris and girls of Lubbock, Craig and Trudi Gilly, Tara and Amy were guests in the home of Edna Gilly Sunday.

Edna Gilly went to Plainview Monday to have dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.N. Clark. Her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lucious Hill of Amarillo were also present.

Cindy and Danny Darling and baby son of Shallowater visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conner Sunday. They were on their way to Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mize had dinner in the home of Edna Beth and Bill Tye in Floydada Christmas Eve and dinner in the home of Walton and Veda Wilson Christmas day. Albert is not feeling well and his plate was brought to him at home.

Although a power outage left many homes in the community without lights the Assembly of God Church had power and the group met at the church Wednesday for their annual Christmas tree and Mexican supper served to around thirty five people. A love offering was presented to the Rev. Mitchell family expressing their love and appreciation of their service as pastor of the church and although they will be missed here we wish them success in their new pastorate in Oklahoma.

Connie and Steve Pritchett of Amarillo spent Christmas eve and exchanged gifts in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Welch. Christmas morning they were entertained with a Christmas breakfast and Mrs. Peat Kelley and Mrs. Ailene Welch were also present.

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without putting a few drops on yourself.
