TWENTY-TWO 4-Hers accompanied by their sponsors embarked on their trip to state Monday, June 4.

4-Hers journey to State contest

Friday members of the Lockney 4-H Club presented the skit they will be performing in state competition for the Lockney Rotary Club.

The skit is a parody of the old Laugh-in tv series and is entitled "Floyd County 4-H Laugh-In". The skit, through humorous scenes and jokes, tells of the many things one can be involved in through the 4-H program. The skit was written by Charlotte Mitchell with the help of Mary True and Gayle Jackson.

Members of the skit cast include Rusty Teeter, Scott Howard, Lisa Terrell, Shawnda Brock, Clay Adrian, Libby Williams, Sherre Kinard, Monty Teeter, and Heather Holt. Accompanist for the skit is Gwen Lane.

The 4-H members left Tuesday for College Station at Texas A&M for the State competition. They will return Thursday.

Also qualifying for state during the district competition held May 5 was Earl Broseh who won a first place with his demonstration on the uses of the forest in the natural resources division.

Two other Lockney students qualified for the state competition also in an earlier contest held April 28. They are Wymon Rexrode and Matt Mitchell and they, along with Kim Zimmerman and Don Chessir of Floydada, will be participating in the state rifle team contest. In the April meet the Floyd County team placed second overall. This team placed first in the standing position and Matt Mitchell was the third high individual overall, the second high individual in the standing position, and third high in the prone position.

Also going to the state competition will be the Floyd County 4-H livestock judging team. Members include Keith Hancock, Chad Edwards, and Jason Brown. In district competition this team placed second overall and Hancock was the overall high individual in swine judging and Edwards was the overall high individual in beef. All the livestock team members are from Floydada.

The grass identification team going to state consists of members Shannon Edwards, Jana Lawson, Pam Richardson and Kellie Pitts, all of Floydada. This team qualified for state in the tri-district contest held in Matador on April 24. The Floyd County team placed third out of 60 counties that participated in the contest. Shannon Edwards, Kellie Pitts, Joe Scott and Shannon Shurbet placed first, second, third, and fourth high individuals, respectively, in district competition. Shannon Shurbet and Joe Scott were unable to attend contest at A&M.

There will be a total of 22 4-Hers, more than either Lubbock or Hale counties, journeying to the state competition to represent Floyd County.

Journeying to College Station with these 4-Hers will be sponsors Warren and Charlotte Mitchell, Sandy Adrian, BooBoo Lane, Kenneth and Juanita Broseh, Buster Terrell, and Eddie and Cheryl Teeter all of Lockney.

Making the trip from Floydada will be Tommy Hancock, Ritchie and Sue Crow, Mary True, Bennie Butler, and Pat Rowens.

$21 million construction project slated

Construction of a $21 million power line from Abernathy, Texas, to a site near Vernon, Texas, is planned for this fall, officials of Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS) said this week.

The line will allow SPS to exchange power with Public Service Company of Oklahoma (PSO) and other utilities in the eastern electrical grid.

"The line will follow an easterly route from SPS facilities near Abernathy to Oklaunion Power Station," said W.T. Seitz, SPS vice president of engineering and operation. "Connecting the two utilities in this way will enhance the service reliability of both."

Oklaunion Power Station is a coal-fired power plant currently under construction near Vernon. The plant is owned by West Texas Utilities Company (WTU) and PSO. Oklaunion Station is also the site of a proposed direct-current intertie between WTU and PSO.

"Southwestern Public Service Company's 345-kv power line will be 162 miles long. It will be supported by 100-foot tubular steel, H-frame structures," Seitz said.

SPS will purchase all construction materials, as well as provide engineering supervision, for the project.

Southwestern Public Service Company primarily provides electric utility service to a population of more than one million in a 70,000-square-mile area of the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas, eastern and southwestern New Mexico, the Panhandle of Oklahoma, and southwestern Kansas.

Amateur rodeo held last weekend

By Pam Armstrong

Highlighting the amateur rodeo in Lockney last weekend was the business-men calf dressing contest.

There were four teams from Lockney participating in the contest. Thursday night the team of Sam Fortenberry, Billy Joe Turner, and Kenneth Holt was pitted against the Fair Board team of Glen Graves, Barney Bill McCarter, and Donny McLaughlin, with Sam, Billy Joe, and Kenneth emerging victorious.

Friday night the Lockney Fire Department team of Rick Hayter, Marlon McDonald, and Danny Bollman was pitted against the mystery team of Gail Kring, Mike Ford, and Rick Hrbacek. The fire department team emerged the victors on Friday night.

On Saturday night the Fire Department team and the team of Sam, Billy Joe, and Kenneth competed for the championship. Sam, Kenneth, and Billy Joe again emerged victorious. The calf dressing event was an obvious crowd pleaser.

There were nearly 200 contestants in the rodeo and there were some excellent showings by these amateur cowboys and cowgirls. The cowboy coming the farthest was from Hugoton, Kansas but there were also entries from Lubbock, Amarillo, and New Mexico entered in the rodeo. Floyd County was also represented by five residents including Bylinda Billington who entered barrel racing, Gail Kring and Rick Hrbacek teamed together in team roping and Brett Marble and Clinton Ware also in team roping. Brett Marble also teamed with Jeff Busby in the team roping and won the event with a time of 5.642.

Stock for the rodeo was provided by the Terrell Rodeo Company of Roaring Springs.

The rodeo dance held after the Saturday night performance heard music provided by Mike Porter and the Mal Function Junction of Dickens.

Also highlighting the Saturday performance of the rodeo was the naming of the rodeo queen. Cindy Cooper received this honor by selling the most rodeo tickets. Cindy received a gift certificate from Brown's Department Store for her efforts. The other queen contestant was Amy Ansley.

They will be monitoring and transmitting on this channel and citizens wishing to keep abreast of severe weather in our area may monitor this channel but are asked not to interrupt or use this channel for non-emergency transmissions.

MAKERS OF THE FIRST PLACE CHILI in the chili cookoff sponsored by the Floyd County Fair Board were Ted Roberts and Joe Peralez.

Sterley wins chili cookoff

Saturday afternoon the Floyd County Fair Board held a chili cookoff in conjunction with the rodeo.

There were five entries in the cookoff including Cliff and Elaine Hardy, Hank Blanchard, Clar Schacht and Bud Rainey representing the Floyd County Farm Bureau, Billy Jo and Jinna Sue Turner, and Terry Roberts and Joe Peralez representing Sterley.

The first place prize in the chili cookoff went to the Sterley team of Ted and Joe, second place went to Billy Jo and Jinna Sue, third place winners were Cliff and Elaine Hardy, fourth place went to the Farm Bureau team of Clar and Bud, and Hank Blanchard came in fifth in the cookoff.

Following the judging the fair board sold chili, beans and tortillas to those who came out to taste some very good chili.

Judges for this years cookoff were Keith Jackson, Floyd Jackson, and Norman Caldwell.

Cliff and Elaine Hardy received a first place ribbon for their authentic old west set and the best costumes for the cookoff.

CHAMPION CALF DRESSERS from the amateur rodeo held last weekend were: Sam Fortenberry, Billy Joe Turner, and Kenneth Holt.

RANDY HENDERSON and TOM COFFMAN are pictured with the guns they won in the drawing at the Lockney Coop on June 1. The guns were won through a contest sponsored by American Cyanamid and the Lockney Coop to promote the use of Prowl herbicide. In order to enter the contest farmers had to purchase at least 25 gallons of Prowl to be used on the 1984 cotton crop. Randy Henderson received first choice of the two guns and chose the Browning, 12 gauge pump shotgun and Tom Coffman won the Remington 270 rifle.

Department of Public Safety cautions motorists

Now that school is out and vacation time is here motorists are heading for the road in droves, thus increasing their chances of having unfamiliar driving conditions.

Major V.J. Cawthon, Department of Public Safety Commander of Region 5 said, "When driving in the rural area, slow down before, not after entering a curve. If you wait until it seems urgent to slow down, it is too late. Your engine should be pulling your vehicle through the curve. This pulling force aids in directional control, when you use a safe speed in a curve."

The Major reminds the Texas motorist to be alert to the fact that many people lose their lives within 25 miles of departure and/or destination. This fatal fact of the road is due in great part of abusing the speed laws.

Plan your trip so that you have plenty of time to reach your destination and return in comfort. This means a minimum of night driving, no speeding and no driving when fatigued. Have a happy and safe school's out vacation.

Lockney Care Center

By Mavis Barton

Sunday, May 20th: I went home today and when I saw the mobile home on it's top, I could not remember if I mentioned it last week or not, it happened the week before, when we were having those highwinds, and heavy gusts and this Sunday it still had its wheels on top. It was being steadily dismantled, by who ever got there first.

The cotton was looking good, even ours in various stands of growth. My husband will be going to Flomot to plant cotton on his fathers ground this next week and I hope he has good luck and not have trouble with the tractor or planter boxes.

It was a quiet day, talking and eating T.V. dinners, he took a nap while I saw the football game on T.V. It was about seven thirty when we started back to Lockney and we went around a curve and saw several cars parked on both sides of the road and a Motley County Deputy's car with its lights blinking, so we waited. I heard my husband talking to somebody and he was giving directions to Motley County Deputy "Dude" Speed from Matador where to go and through an open gate and cut across the pasture. He had already caught the girl (about 15-years-old) in the cotton field and had her handcuffed, he put her in his car and spun his wheels in the ditch and took off. My husband was watching the man to see where he was making for, because our house and farm was in that direction. I watched the deputy's car going up the gravelled road, must have been seventy or eighty miles an hour. After he got into the pasture, the man who stopped to see which way the car was going and saw it coming towards him, he took off at high speed too, but the deputy got his man, handcuffed him and handed both of them over to Floyd County Sheriff Fred Cardinal.

Deputy Speed told my husband he had been chasing them at 120 mph.

So my quiet day ended with a little excitement. On the way to Floydada we met the break-down truck with lights flashing going east to pick up the fugitives car, which had spun around a couple of times and the front of the car was half way over a culvert in the ditch.

Monday, 21st: We had the State Health Inspectors here today and it just seemed a mad day rushing around. I was in bed and didn't know what was happening. They came and got me up and Nena Loudermilk was coming through the door and bringing my ceramic owl I had painted weeks ago. I think the air was blue by the time I was through talking. I think they should have come and at least asked me if I wanted to paint.

Tuesday, 22nd: No church group came today, only G.A. McAda and Silvia Yeary, a piano player, and while we were waiting for others to turn up, we started singing and got through singing just fine, and nobody else turned up. I think we did good, really good. We also had the State Health Inspectors again today and it was another rush about day. But I think they found everything ship shape.

They had Bingo today and Mary Jo asked me which one did I want, a grapefruit or an apple. I chose the apple.

Wednesday, 23rd: Well a church group came today. The First Methodist Church of Lockney came and we had a preacher too. There was no flag raised yesterday and today because the rope was fraying at the bottom of the flag. Esker Pyle had the rope pulled to the left of our window and the bushes were hiding whoever was working on it. But they finally got it fixed. Tomi came and asked me if I wanted to join a class of residents who would like to learn Spanish. There was five of us and there was Lewis Roberts, Mary Jo Fielding, myself, Richard Lanham and Mary McCracken. We were interested and forgot supper, everybody was waiting and we broke up the class at five twenty-five.

Thursday, 24th: Mrs. Jewel Miller was taken from the supper table a couple of nights ago not feeling well. And early this morning nurse Myrtle Gibson was called in and Mrs. Miller was wrapped up in blankets and taken to the hospital and just a short while later she passed away. So the flag was flying at half mast today.

Friday, 25th: We had exercise again this morning. I had my shower and Dixie trimmed my hair, she said we will keep it short this summer, which I think is going to be a good idea.

We were getting ready for church this morning and Tomi was calling church time, she said you can talk to him if you want, he is the only one to come so far. I went into the lobby and he handed out song books, we only sang one song, and he gave a short sermon and I think we were just wonderful. There was Richard Lanham, Mamma Hutsell, Mary McCracken, me, Mavis Barton, Mary Jo Fielding, Nena Loudermilk, Bessie Hunt, Edna Hunter, and the preacher thanked us for singing out like we did.

Durward and Flora Lee Jack and Eleanor Schacht went to Lubbock Memorial Day evening to watch grandsons Jackie Don Schacht and Fritz Schacht (sons of Otto and Madonna Schacht) play baseball. Along for the games were aunt Margaret Schacht and uncle Clar and Judy Schacht and Meredith.

The two boys' teams were playing simultaneously on adjoining fields, so the Lockney cheering section and the boys' parents switched from one game to the other, depending on which boy was up to bat. Jackie Don's minor-league team won their game, but Fritz's tee-ball team wasn't as fortunate.

Marlon and Sherry McDonald visited Sunday week in Amarillo with his sister, Kathie Cooper. Their son, Tyson, has been in Stephenville visiting with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raeford Evans.

He pitched the tent at the Floyd County chili cookoff Saturday and wore his frontier clothing while cooking his chili entry. The Beacon hopes soon to publish a feature story on Cliff's hobby.

In times like these...

By Mary Jo Fielding

There has been mining of Nicaragua's three major ports. American-financed guerrillas backed by the Central Intelligence Agency have a delicate objection, and that is to disrupt commercial shipping without sinking large vessels or costing lives.

Commandos operated at night in small speedboats and laid hundreds of mines in the harbors at El Bluff on Nicaragua's Caribbean coast and Puerto Sandino and Corinto on the Pacific. The charges planted are described as acoustic mines tethered to the ocean floor and detonated by the sound waves of passing ships.

The CIA sponsored venture has been aimed largely at driving up insurance rates of international shippers, which would discourage trade with Nicaragua. In the bay at Corinto, which handles three quarters of Nicaragua's international trade, explosives rocked at least two cargo ships - a British freighter landed with Nicaraguan molasses and a Japanese ship preparing to load cotton bales bound for Tokyo's textile mills.

There is concern among some that the missing could cause a large loss of life or spark a confrontation between Washington and Moscow. However, American intelligence officials believe this is unlikely because of the limited explosive power of the mines. Acoustic mines can be tuned to explode while a ship is still some distance away, thus minimizing the damage.

Even if the mining operation is abandoned, there will be harassment attacks against cargo ships by guerrillas in high powered boats armed with machine guns and rockets supplied by the CIA.

Let's talk.

Information about your changing telephone service from Jim West, Manager-Community Relations

Strength is vital

A strong Bell is good for Texas. It has a nice ring, and it's true.

When I meet with many of you at meetings and on the street, I usually talk about how important it is for Texas to have a strong and financially sound Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

My message is simple: The strength of Southwestern Bell Telephone is vital to the strength of a growing Texas.

Texas always has been a leader in telecommunications - and Texas must remain a leader. Top quality communications service is imperative to attract and hold the high technology, "clean" industry which is an integral part of the state's economic future.

And Texas must have a strong framework to assure that the state draws those high-tech firms. Education and transportation, for instance, are essential aspects. Telecommunications, a must in that framework, cannot be a second-class partner in the future of the Lone Star State.

Our state's high-tech companies thrive on communications. We know we must be able to meet their needs, and the needs of every Texas customer, efficiently and quickly. However, our ability to take care of the needs of every Texan, we serve in direct relationship to the revenues we have available.

Our partnership

We are in partnership with this state, and all Texans. We must have the dollars necessary to keep up and keep Texas in the forefront of telecommunications.

The demands of Texas as a high-growth area put intense pressures on our resources. That's why every one of the company's employees has to take on the personal responsibility of assuring that our revenues stretch as far as possible.

Why am I telling you all this? Because we feel our message of service and financial strength is one for all Texans.

Texans for Texans. It's what Southwestern Bell Telephone is all about.

A good value

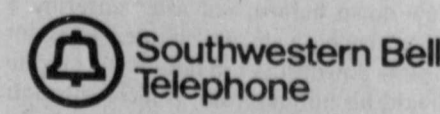

Your service. Take a closer look - it's a value!

Even though your rates for local telephone service will be going up a few cents, compare your monthly bill in relation to many other items. I think you'll find that it's a bargain.

Just think about some of the items you buy every month. The average cost of cable television is about $33 (basic package and two movie channels) and the cost of a fast-food meal for a family of four once a week for a month is about $40. Even a carton of cigarettes a week will run you about $32. And if you are like most Texans, you probably purchase about 800 gallons of gas a year. That's about $75 a month - just for one car.

Residential customers in Texas with basic, one-party service now pay an average of $10.35 per month for telephone service. When you think about it - and compare - it's so little for 24-hour, 7-day-a-week service that gives you access to your friends across town, across Texas and to any of the world's 450 million telephones.

The Rev. Michael O'Connor's

Perspectives

Well, it finally happened. I suppose it does to a lot of people, but I never really thought it would happen to me in small town America. I am talking about being robbed.

Of course I have read the stories about the recent burglaries, and I have had people in my congregation who have been broken into, but it still does not come home to you that you are a potential victim until it actually happens.

Let me hasten to add that while I was upset at having personal property taken from me, I am probably as much at fault as the character who took the stuff. I violated every principle of protecting one's property, and I did so because we live in a small town. I don't expect things like that to happen to me. So, I guess I had it coming to me.

The real problem I had with the whole experience is an attitude I have expressed publically which says that all my possessions really belong to God. The implications of such an attitude are that having someone take your stuff is not the end of the world. People have often questioned me as to how far I was willing to take that attitude. Do I not take normal precautions? What about having someone come and either ask for, or just take all my stuff?

Now I have experienced reality. How do I feel about it? First of all, what has taken did not amount to the values of anything I have read about being taken in this town, so from that perspective, I think I'm fortunate. Secondly, the theft amounts to an inconvenience more than anything else, even in the financial sphere, and I can handle an inconvenience. Thirdly, what really upset me was that most of what had been taken was given to me, the only real meaning I could attach to the loss. But even at that I found it curiously easy to get over the upset, forgive the unknown thief, and get on with it. After all, I do bear some responsibility for the loss.

I don't understand that kind of mentality any more. Once I might have, but now I do not. Why people do such things is beyond me, but I do know that when I replace the missing items, I think I'll follow a few more of the precautions I knew I should have followed to begin with. After all, I don't want to cause anyone else to be tempted and thus to fall.

 I hope everyone enjoyed Memorial Day. I'm glad to have this holiday because it gives us an opportunity to say "thanks" to all those wonderful, courageous soldiers who fought for us. Some of our memories are sad and we can remember some dark period in our history, but at least all those lives didn't die in vain because our American flag is still flying high.
 I would like to say thanks to all our wonderful volunteers for giving their time and services. Our residents appreciate you very much.

Tales From Tomi

by Tomasa Banda

The week has flown by before we knew what happened to it.

On Tuesday, we went to Floydada and back through the country to Lockney on our bus ride. The crops sure do need some rain. It was fun going through the country in such a beautiful day. Those residents going were Donie Hanson, Bessie Hunt, Alma McDonald, Betha Cunyus, Hassie Arnold, Mary Jo Fielding, Esker Pyle, and Richard Lanham.

On Wednesday, Simona Blanco came to call out bingo while Palonia Gomez helped some of our residents. Those residents who are bingo goers are Esker Pyle, Bessie Hunt, Richard Lanham, Roxie Workman, Mamie Wofford, Johnnie Newman, Mary Jo Fielding, Mary McDonald, Edna Hunter, Nena Loudermilk, and Lewis Roberts. They had a choice of apples, oranges and grapefruits for a prize. After bingo, we had our Spanish class.

Those in our Spanish class are Mary Jo Fielding, Mary McCracker, Nancy Hutsell, Richard Lanham, Bessie Hunt, and Clyde Morrison. Some of our residents can really speak and understand Spanish and I'm really proud of all of them. This group seems really eager and interested in learning Spanish.

On Thursday some of our residents watched a film entitled, "Someone's In the Kitchen With Jamie". It was an interesting film and our residents enjoyed it.

On Friday our residents enjoyed an

When Your Child Needs You...

Make Sure You're Only A Call Away.

You never know when a youngster may need to call from a coin phone. So, it's a good idea to have your child keep a quarter handy to telephone.

Southwestern Bell Telephone has a card for that purpose. It's called a "Quarter Keeper."

In addition to a slot designed to hold a quarter, it includes names and numbers to contact during an emergency.

To order your "Quarter Keeper," just complete the coupon.

The card reminds your child you're only a phone call away.
