

Now or Never "Wild Wild White"

One More Time "Ravaging Red"

66 participate in Old Timers game

By Pam Armstrong

The first Annual Lockney Old Timers football game has been deemed a success by both the Lockney Athletic Department and the ex-players who were on hand for the event. Most all of the ex-players had the same thing to say after the game was over and that was "I had a lot of fun and look forward to next year's game." Most also commented that they planned to be in better shape before the second annual event.

Events for the ex-players began on Friday with the issuing of equipment and signing in. Fifty-nine players were on hand to participate in the game.

Friday night some 130 people including players and their families enjoyed barbeque brisket, cooked by Dub Dipprey, beans, potato salad, and fresh corn on the cob. The group also enjoyed lots of time to visit and renew old acquaintances.

Saturday morning the practice session for all those playing in the game took place under the direction of the present and past coaches.

Fifty-nine former players were on hand for the game Saturday night and they were divided into the Now or Never "Wild Wild White" and the One More Time "Ravaging Red." The white team was coached by W.H. Hallmark, Jack Tayrien, and Bob Purser and the Red team was coached by Jim Warren, Steve Culwell, and Buddy Comer. The coaches on the red team were assisted by special guest Doc Mize.

The game ended with the score red 10 and white 6 and it was lots of fun to watch. For those who did not attend the game, they missed exciting and unforgettable football moments.

For a complete listing of the roster of both teams see elsewhere in the Beacon. Also for a write-up of the football game see inside the paper.

According to coach Bob Purser the event has raised about $800.00 for the athletic department and the money will probably be used to purchase weigh-room equipment.

Purser also expressed his special thanks to the Quarterback Club and to Dub Dipprey for cooking the meat for the barbeque.

Aston named to task force

Bill Aston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aston of Lockney was recently named to the Governor's Task Force to assist the Texas Department of Health develop recommendations to Governor White for a statewide helicopter ambulance service.

The task force is made up of several members who have a long history and knowledge of Emergency Medical Service and the use of helicopters in transporting sick and injured civilians, especially from remote areas of the state.

Aston will be serving with other notable figures on the task force and they include Dr. Red Duke of the University of Texas Health Science Center, Dennis Simmons of Austin E.M.S., and Pam West of the Tri-Regional Council of Governments. This endeavor will include the possible use of state police, military and civilian helicopters. This will be program similar to the Shock Trauma Center in the state of Maryland.

Aston is a 1969 graduate of Lockney High School and has served for 15 years in the Emergency Medical Service field. The past eight and one half years he has served as the director of the Aransas County E.M.S. He also serves on the Ambulance Provider Committee, and the Medical Directors Committee at the Health Department in Austin. He and his wife presently own and operate Offshore Ambulance Service which provides transportation of sick and injured persons working in offshore areas.

Five attend convention

Five members of the Lockney High School Future Farmers of America program were in Houston from July 9 through 12 for the 57th annual FFA state convention.

Attending were Terri Bailey, Lori Smith, Boyd Jackson, Joe Widner, and Troy Bigham. Also accompanying the group was Lockney FFA advisor Randall Robbins.

While at the convention two Lockney FFA students were awarded the Lone Star Farmer degrees. Joe Widner and Romeo Araujo were the recipients. Araujo was unable to attend the convention due to the recent rains which required him to remain in Lockney to tend his farm projects. Receiving this degree, which is the highest FFA honor at the State level is no easy task. One must have been enrolled in an FFA program for 24 months, and must have completed two years of instruction in a vocational course for agriculture occupation as well as having a supervised agricultural occupational program. One must also have earned and productively invested $500.00 net income from one's own work efforts in the supervised work program. Those receiving the award must also demonstrate leadership skills and have served as an officer in the local

"Achieving the Lone Star Farmer Degree is not an easy task" said Robbins, "and Joe and Romeo are to be congratulated for their hard work and the time they gave to achieve this honor."

This year's convention was highlighted by several keynote speakers which included Brad Bass, who is the National FFA Vice President. Bass was the 1983-84 Texas FFA president. Director of Vocational Agriculture in the Texas Education Agency, Jay L. Eudy was also a guest speaker. He addressed the gathering and also presented special awards at the convention. Eudy is also the Texas FFA advisor.

On Friday, the last day of the convention, Coby Shorter III, the 1984-85 Texas FFA president from Rice Consolidated High School, passed the gavel of office to newly elected state president Aaron Alejandro. Alejandro is from Boys Ranch High School and will serve during the 1985-86 year.

In between sessions at the State convention, members of the Lockney group took time for a trip to Galveston beach and also had time to see two of the Astros baseball games.

Entertainers sought for August 10 Extravaganza

Plans for the second annual, Chamber of Commerce sponsored Entertainment Extravaganza, Main Street U.S.A. are continuing and the event is planned for August 10 in downtown Lockney.

Entertainers now signed up to participate include Lisa Mosley, who will be playing the guitar and singing, Terry Keltz, who will also be singing, Jennifer Fortenberry and Mary Lindsey Poole, doing dance routines, and the Panhandle Ramblers, featuring Dowell Brewer and Louis Ray Stapp of Lockney, Jack Thompson and O.B. Barnes of Tulia, and Gary Williams of Kress, playing country music. Also Westwind will be closing the event.

This event spotlights local talent, and the Chamber would like to encourage more local performers to participate. Interested parties should call Cindy Smith at 652-2170 to sign up. There is no cost to the performers or the spectators.

Also during the event local merchants will be having sidewalk and "dollar day" sales at their respective stores. Many of these merchants will also be participating in merchandise giveaways. In order to sign up for the prizes it will be necessary to sign up in the respective stores. Some of the merchants signed up to participate are Brown's and The Outlet Store, Mize and Byrd Pharmacy's, Consumers Fuel, Texas Energy, Eddie's Beauty Shop, The Witches Hut, Elffe's Studio, and Schacht Flowers.

The sign-ups for these prize giveaways will begin on August 1 at the respective merchants.

This day promises to hold fun for the entire family so make plans to attend.

Also during the day there will be booths available through the local civic clubs. There is plenty of space available to the clubs that wish to sell anything from white elephant items to refreshments, according to a chamber spokesman.

Lockney couple indicted on charges in Hale County

Don and Helen Pigg of Lockney were indicted on charges of arson in the 64th judicial court of Hale County on July 22.

Bond and an arraignment hearing date were expected to be set in court on Tuesday morning, according to Becky McPherson, Assistant District Attorney of Hale County.

The charges and the indictment stem from a fire which destroyed The Fig Leaf, a specialty clothing store, owned by the couple. The store was located at 607 Broadway in Plainview.

The fire which was reported at about 6:00 p.m. on April 23 apparently started in the office and hallway area of the store. Samples of flooring in the store were sent to a special arson lab in Boston, Massachusetts earlier and the results were returned to the Hale County district attorney on July 1, when the warrant was issued for their arrest.

The couple was taken into custody by Floyd County law enforcement officers on July 3 at their home southwest of Lockney.

Burleson Memorial Roping to be Saturday in Flomot

The Burleson Memorial Roping Contest will be held in Flomot on July 28 with all proceeds from the event going to benefit the Clarendon College Scholarship Fund.

Four Lockney citizens will be at the event on Saturday. Earl Brosech has written and recorded a song entitled "No Pass, No Play" and will perform the song just before the roping contest starts. Also Terry Keltz, administrator of Lockney General Hospital will be participating in the art show the same day. Sam Fortenberry and Kenneth Gregg will be assisting in the event as announcers.

The roping contest will begin at 12 noon on Saturday, July 27. However, there will be many events which will kick off earlier. The art show will begin at 10:00 a.m. and there will be a washer and horseshoe pitching contest at 9:00 a.m. There will be something for everyone during the day so make plans now to attend.

In times like these... By Mary Jo Fielding

There is a renovated landmark in Washington, D.C. that is now open to the public after decades of controversy over it. It is a neighbor of the White House's and on June 15 began receiving small tour groups. The landmark is the Old Executive Office, which contains the offices of many in the administration, including that of Vice President George Bush, not on the tour.

The gray granite building is called locally the Old E.O.B. It was built in an ornate French style that flourished in the 19th century. It has 553 rooms, many with 14-foot ceilings, skylights, and crystal chandeliers. A centerpiece is the elaborately decorated Indian Treaty Room, in which many receptions were held.

Styles were changing even as the building was being constructed. It was under attack by critics before it was fully occupied by its original tenants, the State, War and Navy Departments.

In the 1960s, some architects recommended demolition, but others defended the building for its individuality, and they prevailed. Restoration was done by in-house staff.

JUNIOR TOURING TENNIS TEAM

Granddaughters of local residents compete in tennis

Top junior tennis players from Texas, Oklahoma, Illinois, and Mexico will be competing in England this summer representing John Newcombe's International Junior Touring Tennis Team. Stacey Baker, second on left, and Kari Baker, second from right, are the granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Baker, all of Lockney. The group left June 28 and will return August 15.

The team is comprised of eight girls and eight boys ages 13-18 who were selected from the best summer campers at Newcombe's Texas Ranch. The team was selected at Newk's Advanced Camp held every year at Christmas time. The team meets for a week of workouts at the Ranch, then travels to London for a week at the Wimbledon Championships. After watching Wimbledon, the prestigious squad plays a series of five one-week tournaments at Huddersfield, Solihull, Surbiton (girls), Blackpool (boys), Cheltenham, and Bournemouth. The squad will compete against top players from Great Britain, Europe, and Australia.

Playing on different surfaces is a highlight for Newk's team, particularly on the outstanding grass courts in England. Of course, the opportunity to watch Wimbledon and to see the top players in the world compete on grass is an experience of a lifetime! The cultural differences of Great Britain are also enjoyed by the squad, who are not accustomed to traditions such as "afternoon tea" and "queuing up". Several weeks of the trip are spent living with local families which makes for interesting comparisons in lifestyles!

Newk's International Team is coached by Sally Schwartz, a full-time pro at Newk's Tennis Ranch and five-year veteran of tennis travel in England. Craig Tyzzer, a top Australian coach, will also be coaching the team. The team is sponsored by AMF HEAD racket sports.

Care Center Capers

Howdy Folks!

Another week has gone by and I must clear up the confusion over our turtle. Mr. Earl Cooper deserves the credit for bringing our wandering turtle home again last Sunday. That made the second time Herman ran off that week. We'd like to thank Mr. Cooper for helping Herman find his way home yet again.

Monday, Aaron Kidd from Plainview brought Herman's long lost brother Gino over to Lockney. Gino came in from the West Coast where he's been starring in movies. Herman became jealous and ran off yet again. If anyone knows of Herman's whereabouts there is a reward being offered for his safe return.

It's been an exciting week around here. The R.S.V.P. bus took us to Floydada where the Dairy Queen treated us to ice cream. On the way home, we were caught in a rain shower and everyone got wet when we got out at the Care Center.

Western day was fun for all as the staff dressed up like cowboys and Indians. We were visited by some big name Indians in the form of movie stars. Sacred Ground is a great movie about Indians and their ways. Also Rocky visited us. This movie, starring Sylvester Stallone, whom Herman is named for was a big hit with the residents. The popcorn and lemonade were a big hit, too.

Well, its time to begin another exciting week here at the care center. Somebody, anybody, please bring Herman home. He is missed deeply by everyone.

Herman's quote for the week—When anyone mentions a cultivated woman to me I imagine her with parsley in her ears.

See you next week,
Tina Brockman
Activity Coordinator.

Social Security News

by Terry J. Clements

Social Security reaches a major milestone on August 14. It was just 50 years ago that the social security act was signed into law. It set into motion a major institution that is just as much a part of America for people who have grown up since the depression as public education or the post office. Just about everyone is affected by social security. Over 9 out of 10 workers pay into the program. And well over 36 million people—more than one in seven persons—receive monthly disability, survivors, and retirement benefits.

About $1.54 trillion in retirement and survivors payments were made from 1940 through June 1985, and about $191 billion in disability benefits were paid from 1957 through June. Without social security it is estimated that 15 million persons would be in the poverty group.

Under a pay-as-you-go system, social security taxes from today's workers finance benefits for current beneficiaries. Using social security as a mechanism, it's a way for one generation to care for another.

The impact of social security on the lives of our citizens has been nothing short of revolutionary. Benefits provide a modest base of income for most retirees who are able to live more independent lives. Millions of children can count on benefits should a parent die or start getting retirement or disability checks. And four out of five workers are insured for disability benefits and can get payments if they are unable to work for at least 12 months.

Social security has come a long way in five decades. The program works because it reflects the needs of people. Social security is sensitive to needed changes and responsive to challenges. It is a program all Americans can be proud of as it starts its second half century of providing service.

Lawson cuts third record

Liz Lawson, daughter-in-law of Verner (Squaler) and Helen Hodel of Lockney is preparing to release her third single record.

The new record, entitled "Ready" is due for release in late July. Her "gut feeling" is that this record will be her best recorded effort to date. The song was written by Lyn Childress and was recorded at Caldwell Studios in Lubbock with Don Caldwell and Lloyd Maines acting as the producers of the record.

Lawson has also released two other singles, the first "Here I Am On The Radio" was also produced by the Caldwell/Maines duo. This single was recommended in both Billboard and Cashbox magazines. The second single "I'm Hiding, You're Seeking" did not fare as good as the first but was selected as a "pick hit" in Cashbox magazine. Recommended and "pick hit" songs receive more air play from disc jockeys, according to Lawson.

Lawson began performing at the age of twelve and has performed all types of music including pop, jazz, light rock, and country. Lawson said, "when I was younger if someone had told me I would make a career singing country music I would not have believed them," because she did not like country music that much. But she says she has progressed and her tastes have changed.

Lawson has performed on the West Texas Opry several times. She presently sings part time with the Lubbock group Night Life in private clubs in the area.

She is married to former Lockney High School graduate Doug Hodel and they have a five-year-old daughter, Heather. Hodel is the public relations director for Lubbock's Methodist Hospital.

Lawson was the 1979 winner of the Miss Lubbock pageant.

OUT SHOT BILLY THE KID ...
In 1879 Billy the Kid and some of his pals were in the tough Panhandle town of Tascosa. A shooting match was arranged between Billy the Kid and Temple Houston, old Sam's youngest son. A plug of Navy chewing tobacco was thrown into the air; Houston shot a hole through the center of it. Billy the Kid said, "Who could do better?" and refused to continue the contest.

Bell installs new system to increase efficiency, service

A new computer system called FACS is being put to use by the Texas Division of Southwestern Bell Telephone to increase efficiency and improve customer service.

FACS is Facilities Assignment Control Systems. Its function is to mechanize telephone line assignments. The system replaces long-used manual processing procedures.

The first Texas usage of FACS is in Dallas.

Calamity Jane, the Western folk hero, was married a dozen times.

"Initial conversion to the new system has been successful because of extensive preparation and planning," said Jim West, Manager-Community Relations. "Cutover to FACS in other parts of Texas will begin this summer. The total Texas conversion will be a giant undertaking," West said. "This is one of the biggest projects in Southwestern Bell's History."

Southwestern Bell serves more than seven million lines in Texas. Conversion to FACS is progressing rapidly. By the end of 1985, about one-fourth of the lines should be mechanized by Facilities Assignment Control Systems. Complete statewide cutover is expected by mid-1988.

"Lockney can expect to be cut over to FACS by March 30, 1987, and Floydada by April 27, same year," said Jim West.

Red team defeats White 10 to 6

The first annual red/white Old Timers football game played last Saturday night ended with the Red team beating the White team by a score of 10 to 6.

The game began with the White team kicking off to the Red team and Jim Bob Martin put the first play in motion with the kickoff.

Isidro Galvan received the ball for the Red team and returned the ball to his own 37 yard line. On a third and 15 play just minutes into the game Red team quarterback Zach Cummings took the option and ran the ball 83 yards for the first touchdown of the game. The extra point was good and still in the first quarter the Red team took the lead 7 to 0.

Placido Gonzales of the Red team kicked off to the White team who ran the ball back to their own 28 yard line. On the second down play the ball was handed off to Robert Delgado who carried for 1 yard and on the third down and 9 play quarterback Bill Race attempted a pass which fell incomplete.

On the fourth down and 14 play, after being accessed a 5 yard penalty, Doug Warren punted to the Red team and Placido Gonzales returned the ball to his 43 yard line. After being accessed a penalty of 5 yards the Red team had the ball on its own 38 yard line. The ball was handed off to Curtis Ford who carried for 1 yard. The second down play was an incomplete pass and on the third down the ball was again handed to Ford who carried for 3 yards. On the fourth and 11 play Arnold Alaniz punted back to the White team. The White team took the ball on their own 30 yard line and quarterback Brent Hallmark attempted a pass to Gary Kent which fell incomplete. The plays on the second and third down ran much the same and the White teams Doug Warren punted back to the opposing Red team.

Steve Warren received the ball for the Red team and they started their move on their own 35 yard line. The Red team had three first downs in this run of plays but ran into trouble when the White teams Tandy Johnston intercepted a pass. The White team then took over on their own 21 yard line. They were set back one yard on the first play but on the second and 11 play the ball was handed off to Tandy Johnston who put the White team in a third and 2 situation Johnston again took the ball on the third down play but covered no ground. On the fourth down play Johnston again took the ball but this time garnered a first down on the White teams 35 yard line. The White team had three first down plays in this series and on a fourth and 16 play Doug Warren attempted a field goal which fell short of the mark, and the Red team took over on their own 23 yard line.

The Red team was unable to move the ball and lost ground and had to punt back to the White team in a fourth and 28 situation. The White team took the ball on their own 48 yard line and after three attempts to move the ball failed, the ball was handed off to Doug Warren on the fourth and 10 play and he covered 52 yards to the goal scoring the first and only time in the game for the White team. The attempt for the 2 point conversion failed and the score was 7 to 6 in favor of the Red team.

Just before the half the Red team had the ball on the White teams 36 yard line and an attempted field goal by the Red team failed.

Following halftime 59 well rested players took the field with the Red team in possession of the ball. After several attempts, a fourth down and one surge the first down failed and the White team regained possession.

They did not fare well either when, a third and 6 pass was intercepted by the Red team. After four plays including two first down plays, the Red team fumbled and the White team took over on their own 20 yard line. Five minutes into the third quarter the White team had six plays, including two first downs to their credit but were unable to move the ball and the ball was punted back to the Red team. Another six plays later the ball reverted back to the White team.

The ball continued to change hands with no scoring until the fourth quarter. With 4:38 left in the game the Red team scored three points on a field goal attempt from 15 yards out. The Red team had started with the ball on their own 37 yard line and a long pass was complete to Aaron Wilson. With another 1 and 10 play on the White teams 35 yard line. Curtis Ford took the handoff and carried for 9 yards and put the Red team in a 2 down and 1 yard situation. The attempt for the first down dive across the line failed and with third and inches to go the next dive across netted the Red team a first down on the 23 yard line. The Red team was unable to make a touchdown and on the fourth down and 2 play the field goal was made.

The game ended with the final score Red 10 and White 6. There were no major injuries to the players in the game, however the Red teams Charles Smith did suffer a dislocated shoulder in the second quarter of the game.

All the players commented that this was a fun event and despite the aches and pains and pulled muscles and bruises most all said they would look forward to next years game.

Team members of both teams are listed as follows:

Rogers receives doctorate

Ernest Paul Rogers was awarded the Doctor of Ministry Degree with Honors Certificate on April 17 by Dr. Glenn E. Tyler, President of the International Seminary, Orlando, Florida. Dr. Rogers, who is the brother of Mrs. W.L. Thomas of Lockney, graduated from Lockney High School in 1946 where he earned his varsity letter as halfback on the Longhorn Football Team. He also participated in basketball and boxing.

When asked to name the one person, other than a family member, who had been the strongest positive influence in his life, Dr. Rogers replied, "Without a doubt it was the late Sid Thomas who was coach of the Lockney Longhorns for several years. He was a man of great honor and integrity. He not only taught me how to play but he also taught me how to pray. He was my friend."

It was another longtime friend, Dr. Terry Douglas, who conferred the Honors Degree on Dr. Rogers in special ceremonies on June 19 before the congregation of Strasburg Baptist Church, where Dr. Rogers is serving as pastor while doing pioneer missions work with the Baptist Convention of Pennsylvania/South Jersey.

Dr. Rogers has been a Southern Baptist for forty-five years. He has served on the staff of churches in Texas, Louisiana and Pennsylvania. He has been serving in Pennsylvania since 1983.

When asked about other academic achievements Dr. Rogers stated, "Let me assure you that I am a laborer not a scholar. Academically, I am what you might call a slow starter. Thanks to Thelma Hodel, the Principal of L.H.S. at the time, I just barely graduated. I immediately entered the military service where I spent the next twenty-four years. There I learned how education increases advancement opportunities and also contributes to the quality of life. I also came to appreciate the fact that one is never too old to learn."

Dr. Rogers says, "I earned my bachelor's degree in 1968 at the University of Nebraska while still in the Army. Then after retirement in 1970 I took several professional courses. I enjoyed every one and benefitted from them but the real joy began in 1978 when I enrolled in graduate studies at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary while serving a church in Fort Worth. My studies were interrupted briefly in 1980 when I responded to the call to pastor a church in Louisiana. I continued independent study and earned a Master's Degree in 1981. These last four years have been spent doing research and gaining experience in the field of Christian missions and in writing my thesis. I still learn something new every day."

While on leave from the Army in 1952, then Lieutenant Rogers, married Myrtle Lee Scarbrough of Plainview. They have three children.

When asked about future retirement plans, Dr. Rogers responded, "I retired once from the Army in 1970 and didn't like it. Besides, any preacher's wife will tell you that a preacher never retires. However, we would not object too strenuously if we should happen to be called to a church nearer our grandchildren."

Free brochure available

A free brochure for families is available from the American Institute For Foreign Study Scholarship Foundation, whose offices are in Greenwich, Connecticut and San Francisco. "Host An International Student" describes ways in which families can share America with the world by participating in an exciting intercultural exchange program.

Hundreds of English-speaking teenagers from Spain, Germany, Japan, and more than 20 other countries are coming to the U.S. this fall to learn first-hand about American life and customs. "We encourage families to join this rewarding program by becoming Host Families for these appealing young people," said

Paul A. Cook, Executive Director of the Foundation. "Careful matching of the visiting student's interests to the family's plus local counseling from a Foundation representative assure the success of each exchange."

Single parent families, childless couples, and families with young, teenaged, or adult children are welcome to take part in the exchange, Cook added. Benefits include scholarships of up to $800 that can be applied toward international educational travel.

Energas files law suit

On Monday, July 22, 1985, Energas Company (OTC) filed companion suits against Cabot Corporation, Westar Transmission Company, Cranberry Pipeline Corporation, and Gas Marketing, Inc. The suits, filed in both U.S. and State District Courts in Lubbock, Texas allege, among other things, violations of Federal and State statutes relating to restraints of trade and anti-competitive activities.

Energas seeks damages based on artificially high prices paid for natural gas under provisions of a 1983 contract between the company and Westar which requires Energas to purchase all gas for its West Texas System from Westar. Energas also seeks to have Westar prohibited from enforcing the "all requirements" portion of that contract and would have Westar prohibited from refusing to transport gas for Energas in the future.

The suit alleges that Cabot Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries, among other things, committed the violations by manipulating the calculation of gas costs under the 1983 contract, and by refusing to grant Energas relief from the "all requirements" provision of the contract. By so refusing, the defendants have restrained Energas' ability to purchase lower cost gas for the West Texas System from other potential suppliers.

This condition has resulted in Westar having absolute control over the price Energas pays for gas for its West Texas System, while at the same time, Westar and its affiliates are in direct competition with Energas for certain large-volume customers' business.

Since the cost of gas constitutes a large portion of a customer's bill, Energas is seeking this relief primarily on behalf of its customers. Where appropriate, damages awarded based on past excessive costs would be refunded to Energas customers based on a formula to be determined at a later point in time. Future savings could also accrue to Energas customers through lower costs paid for gas.

Through this litigation, Energas Company expects to be able to maintain its competitive position which will enable it to retain current customers and attract new ones.

Energas is an independent natural gas distribution company headquartered in Amarillo, Texas and serving approximately 288,000 customers in 90 West Texas communities.

Lockney Briefs

Ethelyn Vernon and Kay Martin were sponsors Saturday for a group of 11 girls from First Baptist Church as they participated in a Girls Auxiliary day camp at Plains Baptist Assembly near Floydada. Ethelyn and Kay served as leaders as the girls enjoyed a special day with other girls from this area.

The local girls going to the day camp were Cynthia and Sarah Martin, Angie Henderson, Dalanda Watson, Haley Fletcher, Tracee and Heather Galey, Shannon Deweber, Many and Lee Ann Galloway and Kim Cumbie.

Sue Daniels, Brandon and Zan of Brownfield visited Saturday through Monday with Sue's sister, Ethelyn and Don Vernon, Donna, Tami and Robert.

Tony Arterburn of Moss Lake, near Gainesville, was a recent visitor with his parents, M.D. and Lorene Arterburn. He is due to come back to Lockney on August 5.

May Pearl Burns and Lottie Stewart went to Dickens Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Tom (Velma) Shaw. Mrs. Shaw was May Pearl's cousin, and the wife of Mrs. Stewart's nephew.

Gwen McPherson of Midland and Faye Whitfill of Silverton were in Lockney Thursday of last week to visit at Lockney Care Center with their mother, Mamie Wofford, 95; and with their sister, Wynona and O.C. Allison; and brothers, Lloyd and Myrl Wofford and Leun and Florine Wofford.

Gwen McPherson's daughters accompanied her to Lockney. They are Kay Feinkbner, her daughter and grandson of Midland; and Simone Through and Mitzi of Denver, Colorado. Mitzi is a student at the University of Montana.

Shelia and James Poole, Scott and Mary Lindsey, recently visited in Wichita Falls with Shelia's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Rogers, Jennifer and Sean; and with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wishon. The men enjoyed fishing for several days.

Rita Webster assisted her son, Dr. Bobby and Mamba Webster, Hilary, Jaime and Blake, in moving recently from Nashville, Tennessee, to Wichita, Kansas. Dr. Webster is an endocrinologist.

Mamba and the children arrived in Lockney Monday from Wichita to visit while Dr. Webster is in Montreal, Canada, for a week of study. They are here with R.V. and Rita Webster; and with Mamba's parents, Lucille and Jack Frizzell.

Another Frizzell daughter, Joy Camden and Roxie came Monday from Weatherford, Oklahoma, to visit for the week and to pick up her twin daughters, Adrienne and Autumn, who had been visiting several days with the Frizzells.

During the week of family get-togethers with the Websters and Frizzells, Hilary Webster's July 26 eleventh birthday is to be observed.

Other Lockneyites in on the reunion will be Mamba and Joy's brother, David and Pat Frizzell and Chad; sister, Jackie and Kenneth Holt, Kip and Heather; and nieces, Cindy and Phil Cotham and Todd, and Julie and Johnny Dorman and April.

In July, Sunnye and Larry Hammit of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, spent two weeks visiting in Lockney with her parents, Reed and Maudie Lawson; and in Plainview with his mother, Mrs. Claude Hammit. They were also guests of Sunnye's sister, Reeda Cay and Dan Smith, Tikka and Michele.

Joining them for one weekend were Gary and Ermi Hammit of Austin, and Larry and Sunnye's son.

Edith Cole of Throckmorton visited over the weekend with her parents, Duard and Mary Reves, and returned home her niece, Misti Murdoch of Hawley who had spent two weeks with her grandparents.

Barbara Bixler and Ryan of Watonga, Oklahoma, recently visited with another son, Rick and Melanie Bixler, Patrick and Ashley. Barbara visited for four days, and left Ryan to attend basketball camp at Texas Tech University in Lubbock last week. He is spending this week with the Bixlers.

Hamilton and Mildred Gammage's grandchildren were here last week for a visit. They are Chris and Michele Roberts of Lubbock and Shannon Gammage of Plainview. The Roberts children remained to visit this week also.

Vickie and Jack Ford and Chuck of Leoti, Kansas, left Monday after visiting in Lockney with their parents: M.C. and Billie Cook and Raz and Georgia Ford; and with Jack's sister, Dixie and Tom Johnson; and brothers, Jerry and Andy Ford and Ronnie, and Buck and Glenda Ford and Karen.

James Houck, son-in-law of Lockney resident Betha Cunyus, was recently

The Twenty-Third Pound

My appetite is my shepherd; I shall always want. It maketh me to sit down and stuff myself.

It leadeth me to my refrigerator repeatedly.

It leadeth me in the path of "Burger house" for a whopper.

It Destroyeth my shape. Yea, though I knoweth I gaineth, I will not stop eating for the food taseth so good.

The ice cream and cookies, they comfort me.

When the table is spread before me, it excitteth me, for I knoweth that, soon I shall dig in.

As I filleth my plate continuously, my clothes runneth smaller.

Surely bulges and excess weight shall follow me all the days of my life and I will be fat forever.

recognized for 25 years as a Kentucky Fried Chicken franchisee. He is married to the former Betty Cunyus, a 1942 graduate of Lockney High School.

Houck was presented a plaque by Bill Evans, senior vice president of Kentucky Fried Chicken. The presentation was made at a meeting of franchisees held recently in Las Vegas, with more than 3100 people attending.

Houck began in the chicken preparation business in the early 1960's in Orange County, Florida. He presently operates Kentucky Fried Chicken stores in Deland, Crystal River, Inverness, Florida, and several other outlets.

Houck was a personal friend of Colonel Sanders. During Sanders' lifetime he and Houck made several promotional tours through the southeast portion of the United States.

Lockneyite Martinez graduates from Lackland special course

Airman David G. Martinez, son of Louis and Brenda G. Martinez of Lockey, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force law enforcement specialist course at Lackland Air Force Base.

Graduates of the course studied general law enforcement duties, tactics, weapons training, physical apprehension and restraint and earned credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

Martinez is scheduled to serve with the 64th Security Police Squadron at Reese Air Force Base.

He is a 1984 graduate of Lockney High School.

Cotton

Most of the High Plains cotton crop is setting squares. The warmer weather we have experienced is facilitating more rapid square set. Some fields are blooming but the vast majority will not start blooming until late next week. Even later in some instances.

Cotton fleahopper numbers have been increasing in area cotton fields both north and south of Lubbock. Fields with silverleaf nightshade (whiteweed) problems are prime candidates for fleahopper infestations. If you must limit yourself to just a few fields checked — scout whiteweed infested fields. Do not, however, base control decisions on only the weedy areas of the fields or you will treat too often.

Use a sliding treatment level for fleahopper management decisions to stay on top of problem fields. Since fleahopper numbers generally increase more slowly in West Texas cotton fields than other parts of the state, we can use a more conservative threshold — one that utilizes both pest numbers and square set. During the first week of squaring I like to set about 90% of the plants' squares. In the 2nd week an overall square set of 80-85% is acceptable and after three weeks of squaring, 75% square set is adequate.

Fleahoppers damage very small squares. Usually, once a square reaches matchhead-size (with bracts removed), they are fleahopper safe. Most squares lost to fleahoppers range from 1/32" to 1/16" in size (outside measurement including bracts). These squares are found in the terminal whorl or in the 2nd or 3rd position on fruiting branches. If most squares lost are from these later fruiting branch positions and not the terminal whorl area, then fleahoppers are most likely not to blame. As the plant approaches bloom, it can adjust its square load under certain conditions. These fruiting branch positions are where most squares are shed.

Predator numbers are building in cotton including several kinds of crab spiders, minute pirate bugs and damsel bugs. Even a few big-eyed bugs are being found. Other insects found in cotton at this time are a few cotton aphids, several kinds of leafhoppers (which many people mistake for fleahoppers), whiteflies, and hooded beetles. This last one can be quite common at times but is considered a neutral insect — neither a good friend or foe.

Bollworm flurries continue to the south but very little spraying has been necessary. Bollworm activity as a whole, based on trap catches, should be down at this time. Most bollworm activity to the north has been absorbed by corn as corn earworms. I would expect the next increase in bollworm activity to occur sometime the week of July 15th. --JFL

Greenbugs have increased during the past several days and a few early-planted fields will be reaching a treatment level in the next week or so. If you haven't done so already, now is the time to start monitoring your sorghum for greenbugs. --WPM

Area men run for sorghum board

Albert Scheele of Lockney and three other grain sorghum producers of the Texas High Plains area are candidates for re-election to the office of Director of Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board. Their names will appear on the same ballot as referendums to establish a uniform grain sorghum checkoff throughout Texas.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board was established in twenty-nine counties of the Texas High Plains in 1969. Since that time, it has financed most of the promotion and market development for Texas sorghum. In this election, sorghum producers outside the current TGSPB area will vote on a proposal to join TGSPB and expand the program statewide.

In addition to Scheele the High Plains candidates are: Dennis W. Anthony of Friona in Parmer County, Weldon Shelton of Lamesa in Dawson County and Loyall Turner of Spearman in Hansford County. If the referendum to expand the program is approved by two-thirds of the producers voting, seven directors will be elected at-large from a slate of twenty-three. The seven directors-elect will join eight who are serving unexpired terms on the existing board. Directors are elected to six-year terms with one-third of them rotating off each two years.

The directors have the full responsibility of the TGSPB programs within limits approved by the voters. They have the authority to set the rate of the assessment but may not exceed the maximum specified in the referendum. They also hire staff, decide projects and determine collection procedures. They are elected officers of the State of Texas. They are not paid for their services but provisions have been made to reimburse them for travel expenses.

While farmers in counties outside the TGSPB area vote on the checkoff, those in the High Plains area will vote on a referendum to raise the maximum limit of the assessment from 1/4 cent per hundredweight to one cent. The proposition is to allow adjustments in assessments to meet the operating costs of the Eighties. If approved, the board of directors will have the authority to set the assessment at any rate which does not exceed one cent per cwt.

The TGSPB checkoff funds are used to finance the promotion of Texas grain sorghum in markets throughout the world. In recent years, TGSPB has concentrated most of its efforts in Mexico. Due largely to those efforts, Mexico is now buying as much U.S. sorghum as half of the Texas production. Other TGSPB projects are selling Texas sorghum in Asia and South America with demonstration projects beginning in China and the Midwest. TGSPB has conducted numerous research projects to prove the value of sorghum as a livestock feed. One such project persuaded USDA to raise the loan rate and price support of sorghum from 92% of that of corn to 95%. That project has added from 10 to 15 cents per hundredweight to sorghum's price each year since 1972.

The proposed TGSPB checkoff is a uniform way to finance the sorghum promotion for the benefit of all sorghum farmers. Participation is voluntary. Any producer who does not wish to pay the assessment simply requests and promptly receives a refund.

Anyone who has produced sorghum in Texas during at least one of the past three years is eligible to vote in the election. Ballots will be mailed to more than 60,000 Texas sorghum producers on the ASCS roll. Any producer who does not receive a ballot by August 1, may obtain one at his County Extension Office or by calling toll-free 1-800-692-4169. Farmers are also advised to use the toll-free number with any questions about the referendum or checkoff program.

SPHP begins pesticide project

To better ensure that workers engaged in all forms of agricultural production are protected from pesticide exposure, The South Plains Health Providers, Inc. has established a Pesticide Health Hazard Management Project. According to Project Coordinator Jeff Meckler, the project has two goals. "First, we want to educate as many workers as possible about the hazards of pesticides to prevent over-exposure or poisoning, and second, we want to provide screening to any worker who might have been poisoned."

TGSPB has toll free number

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board has provided a toll-free phone line for the benefit of sorghum farmers who have questions about the forthcoming grain sorghum checkoff referendum. The number, 1-800-692-4169, will be in operation from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, July 17 to August 15.

Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board (TGSPB) is conducting a statewide referendum on the proposition that grain sorghum may be assessed up to one cent per hundredweight to finance grain sorghum promotion and market development. The program is voluntary. Producers who do not wish to participate will request and promptly receive a refund.

Currently the project has targeted incoming farmworkers by distributing information in labor camps about recognition and treatment of pesticide poisoning, as well as information concerning new regulations protecting farmworkers from pesticide exposure. The clinic will also provide free screening to any worker who has been exposed to pesticides and who has experienced symptoms of pesticide poisoning within the previous 72 hours. This screening is free for farmworkers, farm operators, aerial sprayers, ground applicators, loaders, and anyone else who works with pesticides.

The clinic has recently obtained a slide-show presentation on pesticide safety for farmworkers, non-certified mixers, loaders, and applicators. A presentation for farmworkers or applicators is available upon request.

For further information about the project contact Jeff Meckler, the Pesticide Health Hazard Management Project Coordinator, at 293-8561.

Bindweed is taking over

Texas and Oklahoma Panhandle farmers are losing up to $88 per acre to field bindweed infestations, estimates Allen Wiese, weed scientist at Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Bushland, Texas.

"I started here 30 years ago, and I think field bindweed infestations are as bad or even worse than they ever were," Wiese says. "With 430,000 acres infested with field bindweed, that totals nearly $38 million lost annually to this tough perennial weed. And this doesn't even take into account the additional dollars lost to seed contamination."

At an $88 loss per acre, growers should be concerned about field bindweed control. Mark Boyles, Velsicol Chemical Corporation Product Development Representative, Ripley, Oklahoma, says fall is the best time to get control. "That's when the plant is storing its nutrients in the roots for the winter. A translocating herbicide, will more easily be carried along with the nutrients into the roots for best kill."

Wiese agrees, "You can get more for your money in terms of control with some herbicides in a fall-between-cropping application." He explains, "When you treat foliage in the fall before frost, the fall application will persist over winter until next spring. So you get two wacks at the weed for the price of one."

Boyles recommends a multi-year control program. "The advantage of a multi-year program over the best one-time application is that it spreads the cost of two quarts over two to three years. If you skip a year you're back to square one," he says. You must then continue with a maintenance program.

"The first year before you start this multi-year program you should set up the infestation for kill," Boyles says. "Essentially, every time the field bindweed pops its head out of the ground, you must cultivate or spray it. As you do this, the plant continues to use root reserves each time it emerges. Four to six weeks before you want to make your fall application, do not disturb the weeds. In fall, the plant will move nutrients downward to replenish the root reserves it depleted throughout the summer. Thus, with a herbicide application in the fall you'll get good translocation and control."

Wiese adds, "You have to keep after field bindweed every year or it will just come back as strong as ever. If you don't use follow-up treatments, you'll move from the 71 percent control you gained in one year, down to 34 percent control. You lose practically half the dollars you put into it from the start."

NEW 2157 2165 Superior grain yields with a good grazing bonus. Excellent straw strength, too!

Our researchers were impressed by the tremendous pasture production and grain yields from these new varieties during testing. And now that the varieties have stood the test of actual production on many farms under many conditions, the proof is in!

They grow off well and show strong resistance to SBMV, leaf rusts, fungal leaf blights, and the Hessian fly.

- New 2157 gives you good, early grazing, then stays with you through the winter. And the grain yields are right up there with anything you care to compare it against. Choose 2157 for dryland or limited water production.
- New 2165 works with your irrigation program to make the most of all you put into the crop. Pasture comes on strong in the fall and grain yields are among the best you'll find, bar none.
