MOVING FORWARD—Dickie Hernandez prepares to enter a crowd of Hart Longhorns in last Friday night's game. Hernandez rushed for 46 yards in 11 carries and he was called on more than once when Lockney was in the pinch. The Lockney team fell seven points short of a victory in the game and this week will face Hale Center there.

67 fail first six weeks

Sixty-seven Lockney junior high and high school students have failed the first six weeks of the 1986-87 school year, however only 29 of those are affected in the extra curricular activity area.

Last year at the same time Lockney had a total of 64 failures for the first six weeks. This year's figure is up by three, however the number of failures in high school dropped from 28 in the same period last year to 25 for the first six weeks this year.

The junior high noted an increase of six failures this year over last year.

Of those who are failing in at least one subject, the 29 in extra curricular activities may have the biggest adjustment. For the next six weeks they will be barred from all after school activities and practice sessions. They may resume their extra-curricular activities only if at the end of the second six weeks their grades are passing in those classes which they were failing.

In Lockney Junior High School there were a total of 42 students failing one or more subjects.

Of these 42 there were only 21 involved in extra curricular activities. Four students were lost in the sixth grade band, one in the seventh grade band and eight football players in the seventh grade. Eighth grade lost one band member and seven football players due to failures.

In Lockney High School there were a total of 25 students failing in at least one subject for the first six weeks.

Of those 25 only eight were involved in extra curricular activities. The high school band lost six members and two were lost on the junior varsity football team. Nineteen of the failures are not active in after school activities.

High school has a total of 168 enrolled and of those only 28 students are not involved in some form of after school activity.

In checking with the elementary school there were no expected failures, however elementary school failures are harder to ascertain in that the students are graded not only on subject matter but also social behavior.

Spaghetti meal

Junior Class members encourage the public to "Come one, come all" to their spaghetti supper before the Olton game on Oct. 31. Serving time will be 5-7 p.m. in the elementary cafeteria.

Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for children (10 and under).

Tickets will be available Tuesday, Oct. 21, from any junior class student or by calling 652-3825.

Meals may either be picked up or eaten on location. "Sorry, no delivery service," the juniors state.

Menu includes spaghetti, salad, coleslaw, bread sticks and tea or coffee.

Harvest Festival set Saturday at FUMC

Lockney United Methodist Church members, led by Andy Ford, are completing arrangements for the eighth annual Harvest Festival to be held at the church on Saturday.

Harvest Festival activities include the Country Store, a buffet luncheon, and an auction. Cooperation is the trademark of the event as the members donate all the items for sale, and all of the food except for the 22 turkeys that have been purchased for baking. As the church people work together to produce the Harvest Festival, fellowship results.

The Country Store will open at 10 a.m. in the church parlor to sell baked and canned goods and small craft items under $20. In charge are Charlotte Brock and Carolyn Jackson.

Food chairmen Kathy Kellison and Connie Sanders are expecting to serve close to 700 plates. The turkey, dressing and all the trimmings meal will be served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the fellowship hall. Tickets for adults are $3.50 and for children 12 and under, the price is $2.50. Ticket chairmen are Brett and Judy Gill.

Take-out sales plates also are available during that time. Delivery will be made to shut-ins; arrangements may be made by calling the church office at 652-2193. Take-out chairmen are Molly and Charles Huffman.

Concluding event of the Harvest Festival will be a 1 p.m. auction of handmade items donated by the church's members. Among the items will be a king-sized quilt constructed of blocks made by the ladies of the church.

Just a few more of the items consigned for the auction include a quilt rack, crocheted afghans, cross-stitch items and paintings. There will be something of interest to everyone.

Immediately after the auction, a drawing will be held for a door prize of a birdhouse handmade by Art Barker. Winner must be present.

The auction will be conducted by Benny Reagan and Mervin Evans, who donate their services each year. Chairmen of the auction are Owen and Kathleen Thornton. Auction clerks will be Wanda Baker and Faye Barker; Mike and Merle Mooney will be cashiers.

Posters advertising the event were made by Hazel Johnson. Childcare for children of the workers was arranged by Algene Barker.

Halloween tips from DPS

Halloween is fast approaching, a very special time for some very special little "goblins". Once again, hundreds of little children will be taking to our neighborhoods with that all so familiar chant "Trick or Treat."

Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region V, said, "Many disasters can be prevented this Halloween, if parents and motorists will use good judgment." Cawthon stated: "Small children should be accompanied by older children or adults and trick or treating be confined to those areas that the parents are familiar with. Costumes should be light in color, non-flammable and any type of mask used should not prevent the child from being able to see."

Parents should also instruct their children in some traffic safety tips, insuring they look in all directions before crossing streets and to walk, never run. A flashlight carried by the child can serve as a warning to motorists, and children should be instructed to use sidewalks whenever possible.

Motorists should use extra caution in residential areas and be on the lookout for kids darting into the streets between parked vehicles. Remember, they are

Lockney's cross country vies in White River Run Saturday

Lockney's cross country teams competed Saturday in the White River Run at Floydada and "came through in excellent form."

The first team to represent Lockney in the competition was junior high girls. Michelle Delgado finished first among junior high girls with a time of 14:22. Her teammates were Martha Harris, Calixta Guerrero and Sheda Hill.

Junior high boys "also made a good showing" with Kip Holt coming in second over all among junior high boys in a time of 20:38. Other members of the junior high boys were Roland Raisse, Ignacio Luna and Raul Molina.

Luciano Banda paced the junior varsity boys in a time of 20:33, followed by Michael DeLeon.

The varsity team finished in fourth place behind Muleshoe, Levelland and Floydada. Eddie Garza again led the team with an eighth place finish, followed by Cory Luna, 10th; Jorge Bernal, 16th; Mark Gatica, 26th; Albert Martinez, 27th; Henry Ruiz, 46th; and Joe Castro, 53rd. "These young men did an excellent job on the course and are looking very strong for our upcoming district meet," according to coaches.

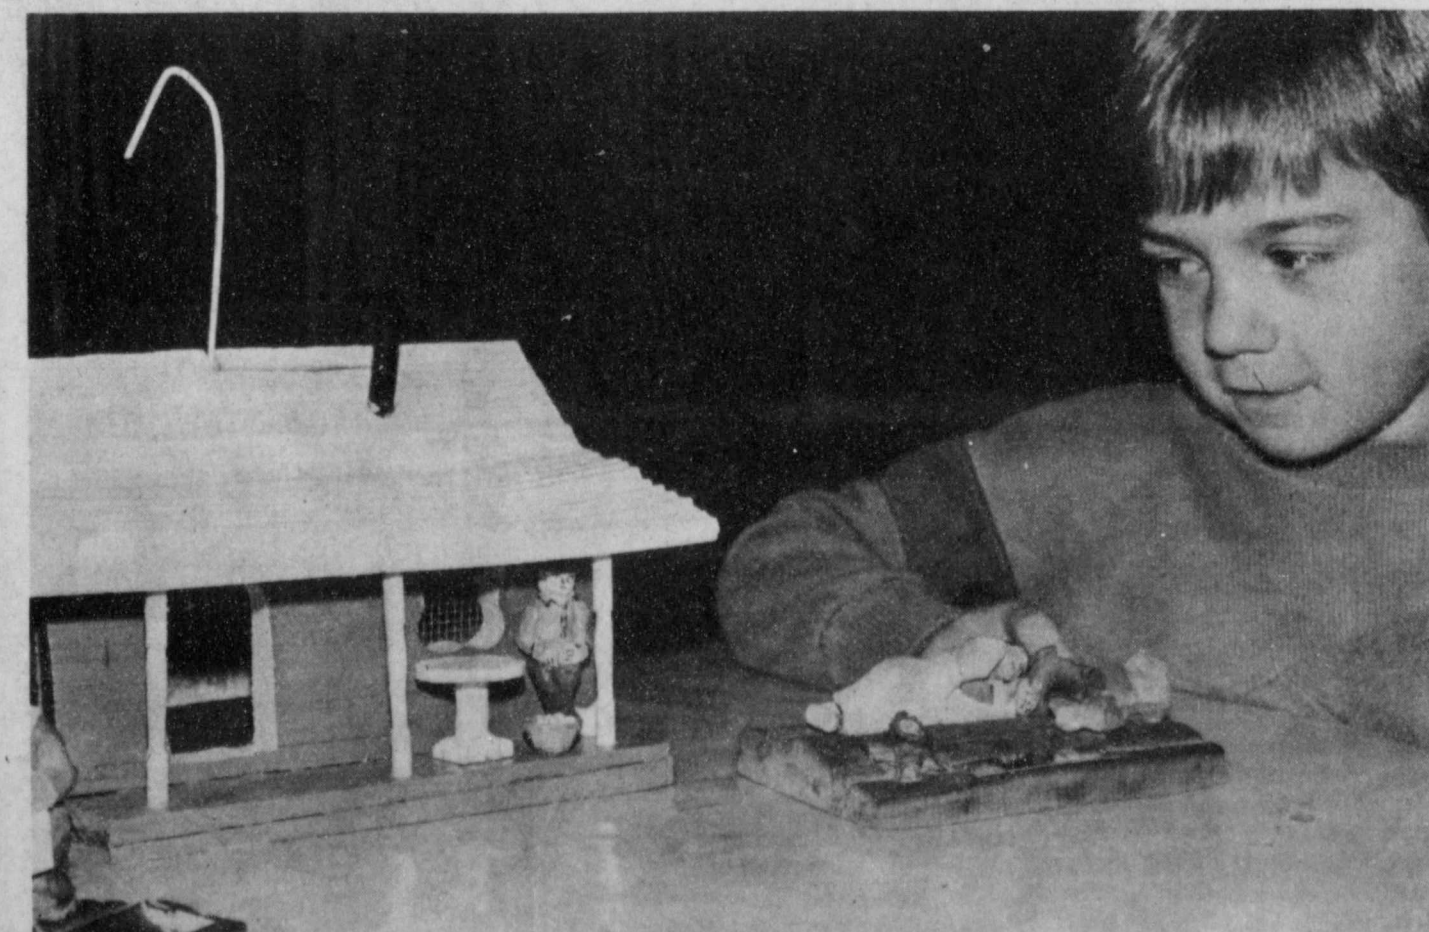

The varsity girls again finished as the 11th place team. They are "cutting seconds off of their times and will hopefully make this Saturday's district meet a big success." Melinda Molina finished 27th overall to lead her teammates in a time of 13:41, which continues to improve on her career best time. Close behind was Veronica Blanco (33rd), Joann Castro, Theresa Vasquez and Soyla Luna.

Final regular season meet will come this Saturday at Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock. The girls race begins at 8 a.m., followed by the boys.

"Our school will more than likely be the largest group to represent District 3-2A. We will have junior high girls and boys teams, a junior varsity boys team, girls varsity and boys varsity which will total close to 30 individuals," says Coach Patti Purser. "The other schools to represent as teams in our district will come from Hart and Abernathy girls and Hart boys.

"We have a great opportunity to win in the varsity boys division and would love to upset the strong Hart or Abernathy girls teams. I believe that this year's teams have made the biggest

HOMECOMING

"What is a Class Reunion?" was the title of an article in the October issue of McCall's. It bears more than one truth: "A class reunion is trying desperately to get into the same size dress you wore the day you graduated."

"A class reunion is dancing with your school beau and trying to remember what you ever saw in him."

"A class reunion is finding it hard to believe that the balding man with the potbelly was the captain of the football team."

"A class reunion is introducing your husband to everyone except the classmate who almost became your husband."

"A class reunion is seeing your principal and still being nervous."

"A class reunion is meeting an impeccably groomed woman in high fashion clothes and realizing that she was once the slob you shared your locker with."

"A class reunion is bringing 'homemade cookies' that you bought at a bakery."

"A class reunion is remembering only the good times."

SMUGGLING

The U.S. guard at the Mexican border asked the bicyclist what he was carrying in the two sacks slung over his shoulder. "Sand," the cyclist replied.

The guard checked and found nothing but sand. The same thing happened week after week.

Then finally, after six months, the cyclist failed to appear.

Soon after, the guard happened to meet the guy downtown.

"Say, buddy, you sure had us crazy," he said. "We knew you were smuggling something. I won't say a word — but what was it?"

"Bicycles," the guy said. —Bill Sayers, The Morton Tribune

EXHAUSTED RESOURCE

It seems that the natural resource which may be exhausted first will be the taxpayer!

PAY WHAT THEY'RE WORTH

Any day now, some poor gink is going to go home after a tough day at the office only to be faced with a crisis at home, when his wife meets him and announces there will be no dinner that night.

"I'm not cooking any more, or washing anything, or doing anything else around here until you renegotiate my contract," she will say. "And, by the way, Tommy says he's not mowing the lawn or carrying out the trash until you agree to pay him as much as Kevin, down the street, gets when he does those things for his parents. Our

Special film series to be shown at City Park Church of Christ

J.C. BAILEY

Making Things Right, When Things Go Wrong — a full-color film series about problems everyone faces, will begin at the City Park Church of Christ, located at 505 S. 5th, Floydada, beginning at 6:00 p.m.

These five films feature the humor and practical advice of Dr. Paul Faulkner and are based on years of counseling experience and major research studies. This excellent film series shows you why things always seem to work well for some people, while others fail at nearly everything they try. Truthfully, everyone struggles with problems related to friendships, marriage relationships, child-rearing, vocational crisis, personal ministry decisions and personal spiritual growth. Making Things Right is designed to be a step-by-step guide for putting a wide range of life's concerns back in order no matter how tangled things may have become.

Dr. Faulkner heads one of four programs in Texas certified by the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists to supervise counselor training. His first film series, Marriage Enrichment Series, also featuring Dr. Carl Brecheen, has been viewed by more than 3,000,000 people across the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.

Making Things Right is a five-part series of 35-minute presentations with titles including, "Choose a Positive Disposition," "Act Better Than You Feel," "Cut Your Line When It's Tangled," "Keep Cool, Even When You're Hot," and "Make Your Relationships Right."

This series was produced by Earl Miller, Producer of James Dobson's Focus on the Family.

Social Security News

By Terry J. Clements

Medicare beneficiaries may think that once their Medicare protection starts, it will always pay first for hospital and medical bills. This isn't always true. There are times when Medicare is the secondary health insurance payer—that is, when it pays after other sources pay for services.

There are three major situations where Medicare is the secondary payer.

If a beneficiary is entitled to Medicare solely on the basis of permanent kidney failure and is covered by an employer group health plan, Medicare is the secondary payer for an initial period of up to 12 months. The employer health plan pays first for kidney treatment and other health services during that time. If the employer plan doesn't pay in full, Medicare may make secondary payments to supplement the amount paid by the employer plan. Medicare becomes the primary health insurance payer at the end of the 12-month period.

Medicare also is the secondary payer for beneficiaries 65 or older who have employer group health coverage through their employer or through their spouse's employer. Under a special rule, employers with 20 or more employees must offer workers and their spouses 65 or older the same health insurance protection that is available to younger workers. The worker can accept or reject the employer health insurance plan. If the worker accepts the employer plan, Medicare becomes the secondary payer and can only help pay for any Medicare-covered services that are not paid by the employer plan. Beneficiaries who have employer group health coverage should be sure to tell hospitals, doctors, or others who provide medical services so that the services will be billed correctly.

You won't have to pay any medical insurance premium surcharge for late enrollment if you decide to wait until the special enrollment period. Ordinarily, if you don't take Medicare insurance at your first opportunity, your monthly premium is 10 percent higher for each 12-month period you could have been enrolled but weren't.

Under the special rules, however, the months you are 65 or older and have employer group health coverage will not count in figuring your medical insurance premium. (Note: workers and their spouses age 65 or older who have already enrolled in medical insurance can drop it and re-enroll during the special enrollment period without any premium surcharge.)

For more information about these special Medicare rules, contact your employer.

One final point you should remember if you plan to work past 65: Apply for Medicare hospital insurance two or three months before your 65th birthday. This way, your hospital insurance protection will start when you reach 65. There's no premium for hospital insurance if you have worked long enough under Social Security or Railroad Retirement or have worked long enough in Federal, State, or local government employment to be insured for Medicare purposes.

If you have any questions you may contact us at 1401-B West 5th Street, or call us at 293-9623.

excited and pre-occupied with trick or treating. Drivers need to be extra alert. For those of us who wish to participate in this upcoming Halloween evening and receive a visit from that little ghost or goblin, it is a good idea to remember to leave that front porch light on and to insure there are no obstructions in the walkways.

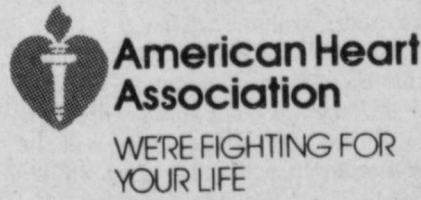

Major Cawthon stated, "If parents and motorists join together and think 'Safety First', Halloween, 1986 can be a safe and enjoyable evening for everyone."

In times like these... By Mary Jo Fielding

A former ambassador from a Third World nation remembers them well — the Soviet bloc employees who brought two overcoats to their office, one to hang on the rack when they arrived in the morning, one to wear when they went out to spy. Such stories illustrate the problem: The 2 suspected KGB agents that the U.S. has ordered expelled from the U.S.S.R. mission are but a drop in a brimming bucket of espionage at the U.N.

Left in place: Hundreds more Soviet employees, typists, technicians, diplomats and others, "known or suspected" by the FBI to be full-time espionage operatives. Their assignment is to gather intelligence and recruit Americans and foreign nationals to spy. "New York is the mecca of spying in the United States," says a high U.S. intelligence official. "Unlike in Washington or San Francisco every country has a large presence at the U.N. It's easy to blend in and cultivate a target."

That the Soviet Union and its allies use the U.N. as an espionage cover may be the worst-kept secret in New York. Former U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. Charles Lichenstein recalls receiving reports that Soviet employees routinely disappeared for 5 or 6 hours at a time and "never seemed to be engaged in any U.N. business...Nobility questioned that a substantial number of Soviets were engaged in espionage."

Hospice program explained to Athena Club

Program topic for the Oct. 14 meeting of Athena Study Club was the Hospice of the Plains, located at Central Plains Regional Hospital in Plainview. Athena member Vida Hrbacek, who is volunteer coordinator for the Hospice, and Claire Reid, RN, administrator and patient care coordinator, presented the program.

Special guest was Otero Scheele, LVN, a member of the medical staff of Hospice of the Plains.

Site of the meeting was the Providence community home of Gayle Jackson. Co-hostess was Virginia Owens.

Mrs. Reid explained that the care given by the Hospice of the Plains team is done at no cost to the terminally-ill patient. Of course medical supplies and medicines must be paid for by the patient, but the Hospice does have medical equipment to loan. If a patient's insurance allows payment for Hospice care, then fees may be charged. Hospice of the Plains is financed by donations, churches, fundraising projects and grants from foundations.

Hospice of the Plains accepts terminally-ill patients (with a life expectancy of six months or less) from Lamb, Hale, Swisher, Floyd and Briscoe counties. Referral should come from a doctor residing in one of those counties or in Lubbock County.

After certain requirements have been met, assessment is made by a team from the Hospice as to the needs of the patient. The team reviews the patient's care every two weeks, and attempts to meet the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the patient and his/her family during the patient's last months of life. The goal is for care that affirms the patient's dignity and allows the patient to remain at home.

The Hospice team includes nurses, a social worker, home health aides, chaplains and volunteers. Persons interested in volunteer work should contact Mrs. Hrbacek at Central Plains Regional Hospital. A 30-hour training course prepares the volunteers to aide the terminally-ill patients and their families.

During the business session led by Athena president Tanya Covington, two new members were welcomed to the club. They are Zelda Ellison and Leslie Patterson. Other members present were Barbara Mathis, Barbara Cawley, Sandra Turley, Gayle Sherman, Vera Jo Bybee, Betty Jackson and Donnie Meriwether. Guest was Glenna Davis of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

agents will contact you tomorrow and you can deal with them."

This is the way things are headed, with professional athletes leading the way with their ridiculous demands. The pro football league ought to adopt a policy of paying every player who makes the team the same base salary—no more than $300,000 a year—plus another $300 for every game they play in. And if some clown and his agent want an interest in the U.S. Mint, they oughta kick them out of the league.

No matter who they are or how good they are.

Thankfully in most of the private sector, you still can hire who you want to and pay them what you feel they are worth, although there are more and more areas where this is no longer the case. —Dalton Wood in The Lynn County News

FORMULA FOR LIFE

These are trying times. Times when many folks seem to have much more than they can bear. It is essential we keep the proper attitude and the proper perspective on our lives in times of stress and distress.

With those thoughts in mind, we came across a piece of prose this week that appropriately fits our times. If you will really read the words and take them to heart they can help a great deal. Try it, study it closely, practice it daily. We don't know who penned them originally, but anything this thoughtful is worth repeating for the ages:

Go quietly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly and listen to others; they, too, have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain or bitter, for there always will be greater and smaller persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs, for there are many persons whose word is worthless.

But let this not blind you to what virtue there is.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering these things of youth.

Do not distress yourself with dark imaginings.

Be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it

Dianne's Diary

We started this week out with a few birthdays. Pilar Hernandez turned 80 on Sunday, Hassie Arnold was 87 on Monday and our friend, Floyd "Horsefly" Barber celebrated his 74th birthday on Tuesday.

October 13: We made two trips to Plainview today. Our regular bus broke down and we borrowed a smaller one that only seats eight. We took our first group to McDonalds and had ice cream cones. They were so good. Then we headed home and picked up our second group. We went to Sonic and had cokes. The residents sure enjoyed that. On our way home we saw a car that the residents identified as a 1920 Model A Ford. That was a nice surprise.

On Tuesday, I attended the monthly activity director's meeting in Lubbock at the Western Sizzlin's. The topic discussed was "The Benefit of Laughter." We talked about how important it was to keep the residents' spirits up.

On Wednesday we had a busy afternoon. We decorated the lobby and the halls for Halloween. Quite a few participated. Afterwards we passed around a juice cart to quench the thirst we had worked up.

Thursday was our crafts day. Olga Salazar volunteered to come out and give us a hand. We completed our second A-B-C scrapbook. Thank you Olga for your time that you give so willingly to us.

Friday we played Bingo. This is our favorite game of all, and it is also the activity that attracts the most participants.

We would like to wish our friend Mr. Bagwell a speedy recovery so that we may have him back home from the hospital soon.

Our very own Bertie Bradley celebrated her 100th birthday on October 18. Her family helped her to celebrate here at the care center. There was such a big turnout of family members, they filled the dining room. Lots of cake and ice cream was passed out to all and pictures were taken with the honoree. It was truly a big, spectacular event. See you next week.

Shorthorns fall to Hart

The 8th grade Shorthorns traveled to Hart last Thursday. It was a very hard fought battle with Hart winning 12-8 to give the Shorthorns the first district defeat.

Each team moved the ball in the first quarter with no scoring. Lockney just missed a 35 yard goal to end the quarter.

Hart's fullback broke loose for a 50 yard touchdown midway through the second quarter. Halftime ended 6-0.

On the first play after halftime, Hart's tailback went 60 yards for the score. They Lockney defense stiffened and shot Hart out the rest of the way. Late in the third quarter, Arturo Gonzales scored on the quick pitch. The two point play was a pass from Kip Holt to Jerry Don Evans. The final was 12-8.

Outstanding plays on offense were: Orlando Mondragon, Arturo Gonzales, Steven Vasques, and Jason Bybee. On defense the standouts were Jeffrey Sutterfield, Johnny Peralez, Kip Holt, Carlos Rendon and Frank Jimenez.

The next game is a combined game with the 7th grade here Thursday at 5:00 vs. Hale Center.

Coach's Corner

By Bob Pursler

Friday night was a difficult time for Lockney football. It seemed that absolutely everything we feared could happen against Hart did happen in the first 24 minutes of the game.

Their speed and quickness, along with a pretty good passing exhibition by Brett Ritter, their quarterback gave us flashbacks of how it used to be when we were playing Post and Childress. They could and would score on you just about as fast as you could blink your eyes.

When we were down 27 to 7 it was certainly time to consider any and all other alternatives that might be possible. The '86 Horns did not give up. Of course we knew they wouldn't, but scoring right at the half to make it 27 to 14 was a big mental boost. At least at half time we were able to talk about the positive side of the first half.

I thought we played hard enough again in the second half to win the game. We just did not get it done when we had the opportunity.

We had a number of players that did very well including Lupe Basaldua on the offensive line, Javier Bernal again ran well and blocked well. Joe Torrez made some super catches, Rusty Teeter played well at defensive end and Steven Cates did a good job in the secondary.

Much of the credit for the Hart win needs to go to Hart. They played very well and gave a tremendous amount of effort.

This will be a good week to double check our character and see how well we respond to defeat. The last time we lost a district game was 1983 and it is taking some mental adjustment from players and coaches alike. We still have our destiny totally in our hands, however if we win out we can play some more, if we don't we won't.

This week we play Hale Center in Hale Center and it will certainly be a big game for us. Not only because it is a district game, but it gives us the opportunity to try to collect a debt from a little over a year ago in Plainview.

Thanks again for your support on Friday night. The Hart coach told me he had never seen support and enthusiasm like the people of Lockney game our team. That's like you. See you Friday night at Hale Center. The seventh, eighth, and junior varsity will play here Thursday night at 5:00 p.m.

SWBT urges Texans to become informed voters

Think back to last October. If you are like most of us, you probably had only a vague notion of what the strange word — sesquicentennial — meant. A year later, I would wager that there are very few Texans who aren't familiar with the term's meaning. Perhaps a few of us even learned how to spell and pronounce it.

Although many people may have grown a bit weary of the festivities surrounding Texas' century-and-a-half birthday, no one can deny that this event put the Lone Star State in the nation's spotlight.

Before that attention is diverted from us, however, we have one last opportunity to show the rest of the country that Texas is a dynamic state, committed to shaping its own future. And what better way to prove that fact, than by Texans voting in record numbers during the November general elections?

Few people would disagree that this year's elections are especially critical to our state, in light of our difficult economic situation. There is no doubt that the people we elect next month will be charting the future of Texas. Since each of us has a stake in this process, we must be certain our voices are heard by casting our ballot.

However, voting demands responsibility. Many would contend that it is better not to vote, than to vote without a firm grasp of the issues. As citizens of this state, we have an obligation to learn about each candidate's platform so that we are able to vote with the conviction of our beliefs.

Southwestern Bell Telephone is a strong advocate of our election process, and we encourage our employees to become informed voters. If they are so inclined, we encourage employees to become active in all levels of government.

Although we've heard it before, we all need to be reminded, now and again, that a democracy is only as strong as the people who participate in it. So this November, learn the issues and cast an informed vote.

Questions on a taxing subject

While on the subject of those things governmental and civic, I'd like to pose a couple of questions I heard on the radio the other day from a national columnist. They are on a favorite topic of most Texans ... taxes. Perhaps this exercise will give you something to ponder in your idle time.

Question #1 — Is it possible to divert taxes from individuals to businesses?

Some people would argue that when businesses do receive higher tax bills, they simply pass that surcharge along to the customer — that's you and me.

The reality is that in today's economy there are probably few businesses able — and fewer still willing — to absorb a greater tax burden. Proof of the unsettled business environment can be seen in the rash of recent bankruptcies.

Then, is it better to pay higher individual taxes or higher prices at the counter? We must decide that answer for ourselves.

Question #2 — Is it better to levy taxes from the federal or from the local level?

Corollary #1 — Does it matter, aren't we going to end up paying the bill anyway?

One argument can be made that when taxes are paid locally, there are fewer middlemen to claim a portion of those monies. Additionally, some would say local tax revenue can be monitored more closely by local residents. Theoretically, this allows each of us to have more of a say regarding how funds are spent.

Is this type of control evident in your community? If you answered, "No," speak up at your town's next council meeting. Your elected officials want to hear from you.

As you probably guessed, there are no right or wrong answers to these questions. This is usually the case when discussing complicated issues. However, I hope this short quiz may have started you thinking. We all need to give these kinds of topics some thought. After all, any constructive act has to begin with an idea. Perhaps something great will come from one of yours.

Lockney Horns fall short to Hart Horns

The Lockney Longhorns were unable to stop the Hart Longhorns as they squared off last Friday night in Lockney. The Lockney team fell to Hart by a score of 21 to 27.

Hart put the first score in the board and Lockney took the kickoff return from their own 20 yard line down to the endzone and scored their first touchdown of the night with 2:52 left in the first quarter.

The scoring drive began with a kickoff return, caught by Michael Monroe on the Lockney five yard line. He was stopped on the Lockney 20. Javier Bernal was given the first handoff and he made another first down on the Lockney 34. An incomplete pass and a two yard carry followed. On the third and eight play Steven Cates passed to Joe Torrez for a Lockney first down on their own 45 yard line.

Bernal was tackled for a three yard loss on the first down but on the second down play Cates found Matt Mitchell on the handoff and Mitchell gained another Lockney first down on the Hart 33 yard line.

A one yard loss was noted on the first down play and on the second down Jimmy Ballejo took the handoff and gained Lockney six yards. The third down handoff went to Mitchell who gained another first down for Lockney on the Hart 16 yard line.

Four plays later Jimmy Ballejo took the handoff two yards in for the score. Ben Schuster added to extra point kick and the score was tied.

In the second quarter Hart scored three more times before the Lockney team was able to add to their tally on the board.

Lockney's scoring drive began on their own 43 yard line and three complete passes highlighted this scoring drive which began with only 0:55 seconds left in the half. The drive culminated with just two seconds showing on the clock when Cates hit Bernal on a fifteen yard pass. Schuster again added the extra point.

Lockney battled back after the half and kept the Hart Horns from adding to their score tally. The Lockney team also added one more touchdown to their score before game's end.

This final score drive came with 9:35 left in the game.

Lockney began on their own 10 yard line. Bernal was called on for the first two carries of the drive and moved the Horns down to the Lockney 26 yard line. Jimmy Ballejo took a keeper on the second down play and moved Lockney to the Hart 40 yard line.

A penalty on Hart moved the Lockney Horns to the opponent's 23 yard line and then a penalty on the home team moved them back ten yards to the 43 yard line.

On the second down play Ballejo threw a 35 yard pass to Joe Torrez in the endzone, and Schuster added the extra point.

With about 3:12 left in the game it looked as if Lockney would have a chance to tie the score or win the game. On a second and eight play Lockney had the ball on the Hart 11 yard line. Ballejo threw a pass which was intercepted by the Hart quarterback. Hart managed to run the clock out and post a win for the night with the final score being Lockney 21 and Hart 27.

USDA targets export assistance for cotton

Acting Under Secretary of Agriculture Richard W. Goldberg announced plans for a $7-million promotion program for U.S. cotton in selected markets in Western Europe and Asia.

The program will involve educational and promotional campaigns aimed at reacquainting consumers and textile millers with the advantages of U.S. cotton.

The program is designed to counter unfair trade practices on the part of many U.S. competitors, according to Goldberg. "Other producing countries have employed production subsidies and incentive programs, export subsidies, the manipulation of exchange rates and currency devaluations which, when taken in combination, have driven down the world price of cotton to approximately two-thirds of the level five years ago," he said.

"These practices have had a devastating effect on U.S. exports, which in 1985/86 fell to their lowest level in more than 40 years."

Stocker cattle operators will soon be buying calves to put on winter pasture, and the type of animals they buy will go a long way in determining whether or not they will reap a profit.

"The stocker operator must buy cattle that will grow fast, be efficient in feed conversion and sell for top dollar," points out Dr. Larry Boleman, beef cattle specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Since the calves from his operation will be going to feedlots next spring, the stocker operator must also consider the value of these animals to the feeder, adds Boleman. The cattle feeder is interested in rate of gain in the feedlot, carcass cutability or yield and carcass quality.

"Stockers that have the potential for performing efficiently in the feedlot and producing a Choice carcass in the 1 to 2 yield grade class will demand a top price," says Boleman. "Buyers will often pay $3 to $5 more per hundred-weight for calves with that kind of potential compared to those that might only produce a Good grade carcass with a yield grade of 4 or 5."

This means that stocker and feeder cattle buyers must use their knowledge and experience to determine which calves will ultimately excel in feed efficiency, average daily gain and quality and cutability grades. Visual evaluation of frame size, muscling and breed characteristics help determine the economic outcome of the calf, says the beef cattle specialist.

"Frame size refers to the animal's skeletal size—its height and body length—in relation to its age," explains Boleman. "These evaluations in feeder calves are directly related to differences in mature sizes of cattle and therefore have an important bearing on the animal's performance in the feedlot." Frame size specifications are large, medium and small.

According to the specialist, muscling in feeder cattle refers to the development of the muscle system in relation to skeletal size. Feeders of the same age and frame size vary in thickness due to differences in bone structure, muscling and degree of fatness.

"Animals with a greater muscle thickness will normally produce a higher yield carcass than an animal of the same frame size that is narrow throughout," says Boleman. Muscle thickness is classified as to three levels—No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3—with No. 1 being tops.

As far as breed characteristics are concerned, Boleman points out that buyers usually pay the highest prices for crossbred feeder calves that contain traditional, exotic and Brahman breeding.

"Again, feeder cattle buyers select animals on the basis of how they think they will perform in the feedlot," he adds. "Ideally, they want an animal that will produce a Choice carcass with a No. 2 yield grade. That's the target that all cattlemen need to shoot at."

Loan price establishes standard for soybeans

The new marketing year for soybeans is at hand, and farmers can take their cue from the government's loan rate—$4.77 a bushel—as to what market prices will be.

The loan rate, which is down 5 percent from last year, has already made itself felt in the marketplace with current cash prices around $4.50 per bushel, points out Johnny Feagan, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

While the soybean oil market has continued to deteriorate, soybean meal prices are somewhat higher due to an increase in export use and domestic demand. However, with large world supplies of oilseeds on hand and record crops to be harvested, market prices will likely not go any other direction than down, says Feagan.

The loan rate is the price at which farmers may borrow money for a period after putting their beans into the government price support storage program. The government also lowered by 5 percent the minimum price at which it may sell soybeans that it already owns.

Some 61.8 million acres were planted to soybeans this year, down about 8 percent from 1985. Second crop plantings, mostly following wheat, were down sharply due to the price outlook and weather problems.

Feagan estimates that about 60.2 million acres of soybeans will be harvested to produce almost 2 billion bushels. This estimate is based on above average yields although drought-delaying plantings in the Southeast could be hurt by an early frost.

FARM NEWS

ORIENTATION TOUR SET FOR FAR EAST CUSTOMERS

Thirty textile mill executives from nine Far Eastern countries are participating in an intensive Cotton Belt orientation tour Oct. 11-26. The group will come from Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, and Thailand which are projected to buy about 4.5 million bales of U.S. cotton this year.

Earlier speculation that the 1986 deficiency payment rate on cotton might fall below the maximum 26 cents per pound expected by producers may have been off target, say officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The deficiency payment is to equal either the difference between the 81-cent target price and the 55-cent loan or the difference between the target and the weighted calendar year average price paid to farmers, whichever is smaller. Thus when the average farm price, weighted by volume, rises above the loan, the deficiency payment rate is reduced a like amount.

In January the average price to farmers came to 53 cents per pound. And with the heavy burden of surplus U.S. and world stocks there was no thought of the average rising above 55 cents. But the monthly average crept upward and through May had risen for the year to 55.1 cents. That's when doubts about the maximum deficiency payment sprouted.

The concern was justified by further average price increases, in June to 56.4 cents and in July to 58.6 cents, bringing the weighted average for the year up to 55.7 cents.

Then the new marketing year began under the 1985 farm act and no one, not even USDA, knew how the farm price would be calculated for the remainder of the year.

USDA statisticians considered figuring the farmer's price three ways, (1) the adjusted world price plus any equity paid in the market, (2) the loan value plus equity received, or (3) the loan repayment rate plus equity paid.

An official of USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) informed PCG this week that the latter option was chosen — a decision recommended by producer representatives, including PCG. It was quickly decided that there was no real connection between the average world price and the price received by growers, the official said, and the gain realized by producers from a repayment rate below the loan was decreed a government payment, not a part of the cotton's price.

As a result of these decisions, the average price received by farmers for August was reported by NASS at 47.2 cents, bringing the average for the year down to 54.9 cents. Also, the mid-September farm price was reported even lower, at 44.9 cents.

However, the NASS official cautioned, all figures now being used are subject to revision, and price movement from now through December is uncertain, "so there is no guarantee." The revised monthly prices and sales volume for January through July are expected either this month or next, he said.

Countless producers on the High Plains are facing a decision on whether or not to harvest cotton fields severely damaged by insects, heavy rains, a cool growing season, hail and/or the frost and freeze that hit the area October 12.

In addition to the economic aspects of crop value versus harvesting and ginning costs, many either have federal crop or multi-peril insurance that enters into the decision.

Producers filing early claims are finding that neither the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC) nor any of the multi-peril insurance companies require that cotton be harvested to determine the extent of loss, say officials of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Instead, adjusters are appraising fields for potential yields and deducting the potential from the number of pounds insured before calculating dollar losses.

PCG has voiced to FCIC officials producer objections to this deduction, arguing that the appraised yield is of no consequence to growers when it's obvious the yield and quality is so low that harvesting would result in a net loss.

The only response from FCIC so far has been that the insurance provides only a production guarantee, not a guarantee against economic loss, and the extent of damage has to be assessed accordingly.

Complaints have also been heard about disparity between the appraisals of adjusters for some 8 or 10 companies writing multi-peril insurance as well as different FCIC adjusters.

Although some differences are inevitable among adjusters, FCIC says, insuring companies and FCIC are aware of the need for uniformly fair adjustments and are working toward that goal. According to Ted Crouch, FCIC field operations director of College Station, a meeting of adjuster supervisors is planned for the week of October 20 to discuss potential problems and seek solutions.

Some producers also have asked questions about possible effects on future government program payment yields, says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson. "But unless the current law is changed, harvesting or abandoning this year's crop should have no effect at all on payment yields for 1987 or future years," he says.

Payment yields for 1986 and 1987 were fixed by the 1985 farm act at the average of payment yields for 1981 through 1985, excluding the high and low years. For 1988 and subsequent years the Secretary may set yields by the same formula, using the same years, or he has the option to use 1983 through 1986 payment yields and actual yields for 1987.
