

Widener first in football contest

Brandon Widener, Lockney, took first place honors in the opening week of the football contest sponsored by the Lockney Beacon and will receive first place prize money of $10.00.

Widener missed only three games, Floydada vs. Idalou, Texas A&M vs. L.S.U., and Abernathy vs. Post.

Second and third place winners missed four games each and the outcome was decided with the tie-breaker score which was 35.

Second place went to Ricky Mosley, Lockney, who missed four games and his tie-breaker score was 35. He will collect $6.00. Third place was garnered by Dwayne Wilson, Floydada, with four misses and a tie-breaker score of 27. His winning are $4.00.

Honorable mention went to four other contestants with only four losses each. The tie was broken with the tiebreaker score.

Jared Mosley, four losses and a tie-breaker of 49; James Moerbe, four losses and a tie-breaker of 20; Pat Stansell, four losses and a tie-breaker of 19; and Sarah Sanders with four losses and a tie breaker of 12.

Remember that at the end of the season, the Beacon will be awarding two tickets to the Dallas Cowboy - Houston Oilers game to the person who has the most total points at the end of the season. Points are earned for each correct answer on the contest entries. To remain in contention for the tickets it is important that you enter each week.

Drop entries by the Beacon office no later than 5:00 p.m. Friday. If you do not find us in use the mailbox in front or the drop box on the north side of the building. No mail entries will be accepted.

PTA holding membership drive

Lockney P.T.A. is conducting a membership drive. Forms were sent home with each student to be returned with the 3.00 membership fee for anyone wishing to join the organization.

There will be a prize for the classroom bringing in the largest percentage of members. This prize will be presented at the first meeting

The first PTA meeting of the year will be a spaghetti supper held in the Lockney Elementary Cafeteria on Monday, September 12 at 6:30 p.m. The spaghetti supper is free to PTA members who have joined prior to the supper. There will be a charge of 50 cents for children at the supper. There will be a short program on the special services and classes offered through the Lockney school system.

WHY YOU SHOULD BE A MEMBER

PTA works to enrich educational programs for every age level student in Lockney schools.

It helps you to be a well informed member of the educational team. It provides an opportunity for service to your school and community.

Many worthwhile programs are being planned for this school year and it will require the support of many interested parents to carry out these plans.

By joining PTA you can acquire knowledge, exchange experiences, and take part in ideas that help build better homes, better school, and better communities.

This year's theme is "PTA: The Bear Necessity." PTA is necessary in helping to maintain high standards for quality education. Over the past several years the PTA has tried to unite parents, teachers and school administrators into a working unit dedicated to improving education for Lockney and the county as a whole. Officers of the Lockney PTA will be "looking forward to seeing you at our first meeting and making this year the greatest!"

Officers for this year include Brenda Mangold, president; Sandra Cummings, vice-president; Carol Huggins, secretary-treasurer; Reeda Cay Smith, program chairman; Tracey Prater and Marsha Phillips project chairmen; Laura Wilson, membership chairman; and Kathy Allen, service chairman.

Buffalos and Longhorns clash in Petersburg game

The Lockney Longhorns and the Petersburg Buffaloes will meet Friday night in the Longhorn's first game on the road.

"Petersburg has a good ball club but they lost alot of people last year," Jim Clark, head coach says. "They are a young team like we are. We should be able to play with them."

Clark says the game plan won't change because he believes it will work. The offense needs to stay consistent and the defense needs more repetition to work on things they have been doing.

The Longhorns will meet the Buffaloes at 8:00 Friday.

LHS sets open house event

The Lockney High School faculty will be holding an open huse Tuesday, September 13 at 7:00 p.m.

This will give the faculty an opportunity to meet parents and answer any questions you may have. The teachers will try to give you a quick overview of what is being taught and what is expected from the children.

Refreshments will be served in the junior high cafeteria at 7:00. A short meeting with the principal, James Poole, will follow. At this time parents will become a "student" with their child and follow his/her schedule through the day. The open house should not last longer than 9:00.

Local teachers participate in Dallas in-service conference

Trenea Aston and Kathy Becker, teachers at Lockney High School, participated in the State Inservice Conference for the professional development of vocational home economics teachers in Dallas August 15-18. More than 2,700 teachers from school districts all across the state attended the three-and-one-half day conference.

The conference, coordinated by the Vocational Home Economics Education Division of the Texas Education Agency, focused on new content in the home economics program as set forth in the Master Plan for Vocational Education. The Master Plan, a part of the school reform package, was approved by the State Board of Education earlier in the year. Twenty-three concurrent sessions provided teachers with the foundation to effectively include the new concepts in all areas of instruction in home economics education. Content, approaches, background, research and strategies for teaching were covered by well-known experts from across the nation. Topics addressed included Nanny care, a new concept in child care training; computers revolutionizing the textile and apparel industry; help for school-age parents; life management skills; the impact of technology on the housing industry; key developments in the science of food and nutrition; teaching critical issues; families in transition; and positive outcomes with the at-risk student.

Nationally-known speakers highlighted three general sessions. Topics included an address on motivation, self-growth, positive mental attitude and communication by Maureen Burns, author and educator. Early childhood education specialist Carol Hoffman, discussed the underlying causes of human behavior and how teachers can channel behavior in positive ways. Closing the conference Judith Moyers, a home economist who serves on the boards of Paine Webber Investment Funds, the Ogden Group, Capital Research Group of California, and is vice chairman of the board of trustees of the State University of New York system, told the teachers how her home economics training had provided the necessary background for success with her family and in the corporate world.

"Vocational home economics hardly resembles the homemaking classes of just a few years ago," said Mary Harrison, president of the Vocational Home Economics Teachers Association of Texas (VHETAT). Harrison said that today's vocational home economics includes courses in life management skills, advanced food science and nutrition, apparel design, consumer economics, interior design, family finance, parenting education, child development, to name a few of the areas of instruction. In addition, vocational home economics teachers train students to enter the working world by giving them skills in jobs such as fashion design, hospitality services, child care, and entrepreneurship. Students also learn how to manage the dual role of wage earner and homemaker. Vocational home economics teaches "Skills for a Lifetime." A video by the same title, "Skills for a Lifetime" has been produced by the VHETAT to help the public better understand the new face of home economics.

TEAMS exams designed to test basic skills of pupils

By Joey Lozano
 Texas Education Agency Staff

For the fourth consecutive year, students in all odd-numbered grades in Texas public schools will be given state-wide examinations to determine their progress in mastering the basic skills of reading, writing and mathematics.

The Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) testing program was mandated by education reforms passed by the Texas Legislature in 1984. TEAMS tests cover the basic skills of students in grades 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11, with the eleventh grade test serving as an exit-level exam which students must pass in order to receive a diploma.

The TEAMS testing schedule for the 1988-89 school year calls for the exit-level exam (which consists of two parts, English language arts and mathematics) to be administered October 25 and 26 and again on May 2 and 3. Students have four opportunities to pass the exam, beginning in their junior year.

The exam for grades 3, 5, 7 and 9 will be administered between February 6 and 17, while the first grade exams will be given between April 3 and 14. School districts can choose any days between those dates to give the examinations.

Although high school students must pass the exit-level test in order to be eligible to receive a diploma, passing scores on the tests in other grades are not required for promotion, says Keith Cruse, director of student assessment for the Texas Education Agency.

"There is some misconception about passing requirements for the tests at grades 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9," Cruse says. "There are no penalties for not answering a certain number of questions correctly. The purpose of the tests is to gather information about how well students are mastering the basic skills."

Parents can learn how their child performed on TEAMS from the TEAMS Confidential Student Report, a standard report sent to all school districts. The report shows how many objectives a student mastered on each section of the test (mathematics, reading and writing), the total number of questions answered correctly on each section, and the scaled score for each section. Another section shows whether the student demonstrated mastery of the minimum competencies for that particular grade level on each section of the exam.

"By State Board of Education rule, the school district must send home to the parents information on mastery of specific objectives, how many questions the student answered correctly and the score on the writing test," Cruse said.

Cruse adds that the best way for parents to help their children prepare for the TEAMS test is to ensure they get adequate rest and understand the purpose of the test.

"Be sure that they get a good night's sleep and understand that the purpose of the test is to help with the student's instructional program," Cruse said.

Entries are now being taken for South Plains Fair

Members of 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America chapters from 23 area counties are eligible to compete in a junior steer show scheduled in conjunction with the 71st annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair in Lubbock September 24-October 1, according to general manager Steve L. Lewis.

Lewis said students from the following counties will be eligible: Bailey, Borden, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Kent, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Motley, Parmer, Scurry, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

Two steers per member will be allowed and premiums totaling $6,595 are being offered in the show. Entries must be received by September 6. A non-returnable entry fee of $5 must accompany every entry card.

Bill Thorne of Dalhart will judge the show, scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. on the last day of the eight-day run. Other officials include Bob Benson, superintendent, and Dennis Poole, assistant superintendent.

Competition will be in two divisions, including British breeds (purebred or high grade Angus, Herefords, Polled Herefords and Shorthorns) and crossbred and other breeds.

Premium payoffs will range from $20 to $100 for first. Champions and reserve champions of both divisions will get $200 and $100 respectively, plus banners. The show's grand champion will collect $1,250 while the reserve grand champion will pick up $1,000. Herdsman and Junior showmanship awards also will be made.

Have A Good Week!

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor:
 Thank you, Lockney, for a very successful blood drive during the Floyd County Fair on August 20, 1988. A total of thirty-three people volunteered to donate, and thirty-two were able to give. So far, sixty-one pints have been donated in Lockney in 1988. Lockney's support and cooperation enable us at United Blood Services to meet the daily demand for blood products in this area.

The goal of your community blood center is to provide blood around the clock. This is made possible by people like YOU who make the difference! Your support is truly appreciated by us and the patients who will benefit from your commitment.

Sincerely,
 Cheryl Keefer

Silver Haired legislature schedules public hearing

South Plains representatives to the second Texas Silver Haired Legislature will conduct a mock public hearing September 9 from 10 a.m. to noon at the South Plains Association of Governments, 1323 58th Street, Lubbock.

The hearing will allow the public and elected officials to have a say and possible influence on issues of concern to the elderly when the Silver Haired Legislature convenes in Austin September 19-22.

The South Plains Silver Haired Legislators — Manuel Ayers of Plainview, Dolly Brown of Slaton, Bill Eubanks of Lubbock and Fern Maddera of Levelland — will welcome testimony, both formal and informal, on issues ranging from health care and insurance to housing and future funding for aging programs.

In addition to the mock public hearing, awards will be presented to each of the Silver Haired Legislators.

All 116 Texas Silver Haired Legislators attended planning sessions in Austin in August, at which time members were appointed to committees.

Mr. Ayers was appointed to the utilities and natural resources committee; Ms. Brown was appointed to the health and human resources committee; Mr. Eubanks was appointed to the insurance committee; and Ms. Maddera was appointed to the state affairs committee, where she will serve as secretary.

The Silver Haired Legislature, established by the 69th Texas Legislature, is an elected non-partisan body of senior citizens whose purpose is to draft and propose suggested legislation for consideration by the Texas Legislature in 1989.

School lunches stress nutrition

Each school day in Texas, more than 1.7 million lunches and 500,000 breakfasts are served to public schoolchildren in the state.

Approximately 55 percent of the lunches served daily are provided free or at a reduced price to low income students through the National School Lunch program. There are more than one million students eligible to receive free or reduced price meals.

Eligibility requirements for free or reduced price lunches are based on a sliding scale tied to household income. For example, during the 1988-89 school year, public schoolchildren in a family of four would qualify for free lunches if the family income is $15,145 or less.

The same children would qualify for reduced price lunches if the family income is between $15,146 and $21,553.

A Type A lunch, or one that is eligible for reimbursement from the federal program, must meet a meal pattern requirement and must provide one-third of the daily nutritional needs for a student.

It is comprised of two ounces of cooked lean meat or a meat alternate, milk, bread, and usually two vegetables or a fruit and a vegetable.

The meal pattern requirement for the breakfast program is milk, fruit or vegetable juice, or fruit or vegetables and a cereal product. As often as practical and possible, an item that will yield protein, such as bacon, sausage or eggs should be served.

More than 95 percent, or 1,035 of the state's 1,087 school districts, participate in the lunch program and more than 94 percent, or 1,023 districts, participate in the breakfast program.

Approximately 5,700 schools operate the school lunch program and approximately 5,500 schools operate the breakfast program.

The School Lunch Act was enacted in 1946 making it one of the oldest federal programs in existence.

Next year, the budget for the school lunch program in Texas will be approximately $340,000,000.

Social Security News

By Terry J. Clements

The Social Security Administration encourages blind and disabled people receiving benefits to work despite their impairments. There are various work incentive provisions to help them become self-supporting. This column describes one of the supplemental security income (SSI) incentives. We call it a PASS—short for "plan for achieving self-support."

Under a PASS, a disabled or blind person can set aside income and/or resources over a specified period of time for a work goal such as vocational training, education, purchasing work-related equipment, or starting a business. The income and/or resources set aside do not count in determining the person's eligibility or payment amount. Working blind or disabled people who otherwise would not be eligible for SSI may be able to receive payments if they have a PASS.

A vocational counselor, social worker, employer, or Social Security representative, among others may help a person develop a plan for achieving self-support. The plan must include a feasible work goal, a specific savings or spending plan, and the intended time frame for carrying out the goal. It also must provide for a clearly identifiable accounting of the funds that are set aside.

We will evaluate the plan and determine if it is acceptable. We'll also help put the plan in writing. The person must then follow the plan but can negotiate revisions as needed.

It is important to note that, as earnings rise, an SSI recipient who does not now need a PASS may need one next month to remain eligible or increase his or her payment amount.

Anyone who wants more information about plans for achieving self-support should call any Social Security office. Social Security also has a leaflet available that describes the various work incentive provisions. It's called "Benefits For Disabled People Who Return To Work." Chamber Spotlight

The staff of the Lockney Beacon would like to apologize to the chamber members and the Lockney Chamber of Commerce this week for the absence of Chamber Spotlight. We have had camera difficulties and darkroom difficulties. It was a week of what can go wrong with a picture will go wrong. Because of the holiday Monday it was difficult to catch everyone for retaking of pictures. The pictures that were retaken again did not turn out again. We would like to assure the Lockney Chamber members that your chamber of commerce is trying to promote your businesses and with a little luck next week and some new darkroom supplies we will have pictures with our spotlights.

NEWSPAPERS No. 1

No Comparison In All-Around Use For Service

Newspapers are increasing their overwhelming leadership in media . . . because they have the best formula for service. Failure to recognize the effectiveness of newspaper advertising has destroyed many a business.

THE FACTS:

- 1) 8 out of 10 adults read a newspaper on an average weekday
- 2) Newspaper readership increases with income
- 3) Newspapers are read page-by-page
- 4) Newspaper ads are rated by the public as the "most helpful and most trustworthy"
- 5) People "look forward" to newspaper ads more than they do all others combined
- 6) Newspapers outperform broadcast media 2-to-1 in influencing sales
- 7) Most leading retailers carry their main messages in the newspaper
- 8) Newspapers are alone in delivering massive coverage and having something important to say to-and-about all income groups, all education groups, all occupational groups and all age groups.

. . . and each of these facts has been documented over-and-over by an endless variety of surveys.

IN HOT PURSUIT-A lone Longhorn makes a mad dash while being hotly pursued by four Rall Jackrabbits. The Longhorns lost to the Jackrabbits, 21-14, Friday night in the season opener. Photo by Peggy Hallmark

Longhorns lose by touchdown

By Holly Norwood

Along with the rain Friday, Ralls put a damper on Lockney's opening game by defeating the Horns 21-14.

The Horns scored first in the opening quarter. A key fumble recovery by Horns Wesley Teeter set up a Michael DeLeon 19 yard T.D. run. The extra point attempt failed.

Ralls rallied back late in the first quarter with a 6 yard T.D. run by quarterback Sven Appleton. The extra point was good bringing the Jackrabbits to a score of 7-6 Ralls at the end of the first quarter.

Another key defensive play by Lockney set up the only score in the second quarter. Michael DeLeon stole the ball from a Ralls receiver running it back to the Jackrabbits 35 yard line. The touchdown was set up by a pass reception by Joe Luis Guerrero on the 3 yard line. Jorge Bernal ran the ball in for Lockney's second T.D. Michael DeLeon scored the 2 point conversion. Lockney goes in at halftime ahead 14-7.

Ralls scored on their first possession in the third quarter. The Jackrabbits quarterback Sven Appleton scored on a 3 yard touchdown run and also scored a successful 2 point conversion. At the end of the third quarter Ralls 15, Lockney 14.

The winning touchdown was scored in the fourth quarter. On a penalty stricken possession, Jackrabbits Emilio Castro scored on a 12 yard run. The extra point attempt was no good.

"Overall we did a pretty good job," says Coach Jim Clark, "we made alot of mental mistakes that cost us. We have a young team so we still have a little ways to go to be the team we want but we'll get there."

The Horns will play in Petersburg Friday night at 8:00.

Ralls narrowly defeats J.V. Longhorns

The Lockney Junior Varsity Longhorns met the Ralls J.V. Jackrabbits Thursday night. Ralls narrowly defeated Lockney 7-0.

The only score of the game came in the first quarter. Ralls drove down the field and scored running with the extra point good.

The Lockney offense came alive in the second half completing a 37 yard pass and a 40 yard pass.

In the fourth quarter, the Horns quarterback Daniel Martinez completed a 40 yard pass to Johnny Perales. The Horns were on the 4 yard line on fourth down with :15 left on the clock. The Horns attempted the last play of the game with the pass just falling short.

"I think we out played them the second half but just couldn't score," Lockney Coach Phil Cotham stated.

The Junior Varsity will meet Petersburg here Thursday.

Ralls - Emilio Castro, 12 yard run; kick failed.

CONTEST RULES

Any subscriber or person purchasing a copy from a newsrack is eligible to enter, except for employees of Floyd County Newspapers. Three cash prizes are awarded weekly. Ties will split prize money. Staff members of this newspaper are sole judges of the contest and their decision is final.

It is not necessary to indicate scores on all the games, but total scores (combined total of both teams) of the tie-breaker must be indicated in football.

Circle the team you believe will win in each of the footballs. Deadline for submitting entries is 5 p.m. Friday and winners will be announced in the following week's issue.

Enter one entry per person per week. Print name and address plainly on blank below and bring entire page to the Beacon Office in Lockney before 5 p.m. on Friday. No mail entries will be accepted.

Tie breaker will be considered only in case of ties.

Contestants receive one point for each correct game throughout the season. The person with the greatest number of points for the season wins two tickets to the Cowboys-Houston Oilers game in Dallas on Nov. 24.
