

Council handles taxes, grant and trash pickup

The Lockney City Council met for the regular monthly meeting Monday, October 6, at 9:00 a.m.

First on the agenda was the passing of a resolution to tax personal property for the 1989 ad valorem tax roll. The personal property consists of vehicles, travel trailers, airplanes, and boats.

The city council also passed a resolution adopting the Citizen Participation Plan included in the 1988 Texas Community Development Program for 1988. The city voted to stay in compliance with the TCDP requirements and to apply for a paving grant for $280,000.00. The councilmen agreed to pay 15% of that grant. If the city received the grant the money would go to paving roads in the S.E. part of Lockney. "We have applied for this grant for four years," said Mayor Smith. "This will be our last shot at it, as you are only allowed to try five times to receive the grant."

CITY CONTRACTS TRASH DISPOSAL SERVICE

Next on the agenda for the councilmen was more discussion of the problem of waste disposal in the city. A representative with the Triple C Waste Services presented a proposal to the city for their consideration.

Triple C Waste Services handles the trash pickup in 15 other cities in the surrounding area.

After discussion and a special called public meeting at 7:00 p.m. on October 10, the council voted to accept the proposal of Triple C Waste Services, contingent on the contract and insurance that they present.

There will be no more burning of trash allowed in the city limits, or at the dump ground.

"This will alleviate pressure from the Lockney city dump," said Smith. "It will also save the city the costs of buying a bulldozer."

The councilmen also discussed the possibility of closing the dumpground to only a few days a week if this proposal was accepted.

The matter was tabled until more information could be obtained from the health department.

The health department has also informed the city that they would have to place barbed wire around the area they would now be using to bury the cement and metal that is currently at the old dumping ground. The councilmen voted unanimously to have the barbed wire put up.

MOONEY APPOINTED CITY JUDGE

In other action at the public hearing on October 10, Justice of the Peace, Mike Mooney, was appointed City Judge to replace Lester Green. Green's resignation was accepted at the regular council meeting on Oct. 6. The resignation is effective Nov. 1.

Mooney will retain his position as Justice of the Peace and continue to work the same amount of hours. This decision is contingent on the next meeting of the county commissioners.

The City Council then passed a resolution to purchase one new patrol car from the state. The patrol car would be put on a list with the state seeking bids for cars used for the highway patrol. The new car will be delivered around April 1.

DEPOSIT RAISED FOR COMMUNITY CENTER

The deposit for the community center was next on the agenda. Councilmen voted to raise the deposit from $50.00 to $100.00. The deposit will be given back to people when they clean up the center after use. The council felt it was necessary to raise the deposit because individuals had left the center in terrible shape after a party, and it would have cost more to have someone clean it up than what the original deposit would have covered. Since the money is returned after clean-up the councilmen were in general agreement that the added deposit would be more incentive to leave the center clean.

The plumbing code was amended next. Lead solder will now be prohibited in all plumbing in the City of Lockney.

The councilmen then voted to endorse Proposition I, a constitutional amendment which will be voted on during the general election. This amendment will prevent diversion of federal highway funds into any state funds for general revenue. The proposition calls for the funds to be used only for highways.

SEARCHING FOR DRUGS--Demonstrating how dogs will be used at Lockney High School and Junior High to search for drugs is handler Mary Calhoun and Labrador Retriever Sheba. The Lockney schools have contracted the services of BJR Private Investigations and Security Services Inc., from Gainesville Texas. The business is owned by Carl F. Rickert Jr., who is also under contract by approximately 50 other schools in Texas and Oklahoma. They also do industrial searches and train dogs for law enforcement and private citizens.

Lockney Fire Hall is site of October 15 open house

Open house will be held Saturday, October 15, from 1 to 6 p.m. at the fire hall in observance of the 66th anniversary of National Fire Prevention Week.

Governor William P. Clements Jr. has proclaimed the week of October 9-15, 1988 as Fire Prevention Week.

The fire department will be open for those wanting to come by and see the equipment. Volunteer firemen will be present to answer questions and pass out literature.

BLOOD DRIVE

A blood drive will be held October 18 from 3:00-6:00 in the office of the Lockney Beacon. The blood drive is sponsored by the Lockney General Hospital. Appointments are not necessary to donate blood. For more information contact Dimple Adams at the hospital.

Bradley story featured on October 20 Paul Harvey show

Wednesday, September 7, friends and neighbors of Doug Bradley came from all over to help harvest his 400 acres of corn.

Bradley had broken both his knees in a farming accident on September 1 and true to tradition of neighbors helping neighbors, 12 combines and approximately 30 trucks showed up in the Bradley field to harvest corn and haul it to the elevators.

The story was carried in the Lockney Beacon and even though it did not come as a surprise to the people in Floyd county who are used to this kind of help in times of need, it did cause a stir in New York.

The Floyd County Farm Bureau sent the Lockney story to their headquarters in hopes of the story being reprinted in the Farm Bureau magazine. Not only did it appeal to the Farm Bureau but it also appealed to the producers of the Paul Harvey radio show, which is sponsored by Farm Bureau.

The radio show, famous for its unique and sometimes heartwarming stories will broadcast the Doug Bradley story on October 20, at 12:00 noon, on KKYN 1090 and FM 99.

Drug abuse seminar scheduled by Lockney church groups

The churches of Lockney have come together to sponsor a Drug Abuse Seminar on October 16th at 7:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church. This seminar will be for parents, children and youth. Parents will be taught what the signs of drug abuse are. The youth will have the opportunity to talk with someone who has been a drug addict. He will tell them what he went through and how it is better not to get involved with drugs. This is an opportunity for Lockney to take a stand against drug abuse.

"From where I stand at this time, it would appear to me that drugs and their related consequences could easily be one of the major problems of our social structure that will have to be dealt with in the future," said Rev. Perry Zumwalt, minister of the Main Street Church of Christ. "It is now an ever-growing problem that needs attention by both students and adults. You are encouraged to be present Sunday evening to learn more about not only the general conditions, but also of the conditions in our own area."

"As a pastor, I have been able to see and hear about many of the needs of our youth," said Rev. Garry Higgs, pastor of the First Baptist Church. "One of the greatest needs of our youth is parents being willing to stop their children from doing these things that would hurt them. Drugs are a big problem in our city. Do you know how to tell if your child is on drugs? The best way to show love is to act on that love. You can demonstrate your love by keeping them from getting into things that hurt them. I would encourage you to bring your children with you to this seminar. They need to know that you love them enough to get involved!"

"Because of the serious nature of the drug traffic and drug abuse in our community and schools, I urge all our parents and children who can, to attend this seminar," said Rev. Frank Duckworth, minister of Church of Christ, West College & 3rd.

"We all recognize the phrase, 'Just Say No' as part of the campaign to encourage our kids, young people, and our adults to say no to the use of drugs," said Rev. Robert Kirk, pastor of the First United Methodist Church. "One thing we as Christians have failed to recognize is that by our silence and lack of cooperative action in our community, we are in fact saying yes to drugs. As pastor of First United Methodist Church in Lockney, I believe it is time to take action, to work together to become educated about drugs and to do all we can to rid our community of drugs and those who profit by selling them. Please join other Christians from our community this Sunday evening at 7:00 at First United Methodist Church so we can really begin to 'Just Say No.'"

Longhorn losing streak over, Owls defeated 13 - 0

By Holly Norwood

The Lockney Longhorns won their first game of the season Friday night, but more importantly their first district game. The Horns shut out the Hale Center Owls, 13-0.

The first half was definitely a defensive one. The Horns stopped several threatening fourth down attempts and capitalized on Owl turnovers.

Early in the second quarter, Horns recovered an Owl fumble but couldn't take advantage offensively. On the next Hale Center possession, Jorge Bernal recovered a second Owl fumble. Later in the half, Horn Jason Bybee caused a fumbled kickoff by tackling the Owl punter. The Horn possession ended in a fumble recovered by Hale Center.

With :44 left in the half, Lockney's offense pulled it together. The Horns drive began on Hale Center's 38 yard line. Lockney's Michael DeLeon and quarterback Louis Peralez led the Horns down the field for their first score. On third down and 10, Peralez pumped back a 24 yard T.D. to Juan Vargas. A Joe Louis Guerrero extra-point attempt was good. The Horns led at the half, 7-0.

Late in the third quarter, Hale Center tried to make a comeback. The Owls drove down to Lockney's 35 yard line. The Horns defense answered with a quarterback sack followed by holding the Owls on fourth and 7.

The Horns offense opened the fourth quarter with a score. Michael DeLeon scored on a 15 yard run. The extra-point kick was blocked. DeLeon was the top rusher for Lockney with 139 yards on 16 carries.

The Horns defense came alive again stopping two threatening Owl drives. Horns Jason Bybee and Wesley Teeter stopped the Owls on third and 15 causing Hale Center to punt. On the next possession, Hale Center drove down in Lockney's territory. An interception by Horn Kip Holt blew the Owl's last chance to score.

"The Horns played a good football game. The offense played a pretty good game but still made some errors. The defense really played a great game keeping us in the ballgame," head coach Jim Clarke says. "The Horns gave a good solid effort and getting better every week."

Lupe Coronado and Michael Martinez were top offensive players. They were the key to opening holes for DeLeon's success of gaining 139 yards.

It's the battle of the Longhorns Friday night when Lockney Longhorns meet the Hart Longhorns in District play. Both teams are 1-0 in district. Hart defeated Farwell last week, 14-13.

"We will have to play our best ball ever against Hart," Coach Clark says, "the key for us will be to stop Junior Washington. He's Hart's top rusher and one of their top defensive players."

Lockney will play in Hart Friday night.

BOBBY PINNER

Pinner named bank artist

Have a Nice Week!

Artist for the month of October at the First National Bank, Lockney, is Lockney native Bobby Pinner. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pinner.

Pinner works with wood, carving likenesses of birds, animals and cowboys.

Carving comes naturally to Pinner. He has been working with wood since he was nine years old and did his first carvings with a bar of Ivory soap.

Pinner's wife, Glenda, does some of the painting when the carving is finished. They work with acrylic to give the birds a life-like finish.

"With wood carving you start out large and work to small and many times they end up in the trash," Pinner said.

He works with white wood "which is the easiest," he said, and cedar, elm and pecan.

Pinner has his wood carvings placed at strategic locations in the bank and you are invited to come in and view his work.

Scouts launch food drive

A "Scouting for Food" canned food drive involving up to 7,000 South Plains scouts across a 20 county area was launched at a media kick off supper Friday, Oct. 7.

The event took place at the home of Judge and Mrs. Blair Cherry of Lubbock, and it set the stage for a food drive that will officially begin Nov. 1, and will be a part of a national drive by scouts to benefit various food banks.

Board members of the South Plains Council of Boy Scouts of America and of the South Plains Food Bank were present as were members of the Executive Committee of the U-Can-Share Food Drive, area volunteer "Scouting for Food" chairmen and professional scouting staffers.

The drive will involve between 5,000 and 7,000 scouts who will be working as part of a scouting effort to gather food and canned goods for food banks to be used to feed the hungry across the South Plains during the holiday season.

While this will be the first canned food drive the South Plains Council of Scouts has been involved in, it is a part of a national drive by the Scouts of America. The concept started four years ago with scouts in St. Louis and spread from there.

Scouts will canvass their neighborhoods, and the drive will involve 200 area merchants who will serve as collection points for persons dropping off food. The goal of the scouts and the South Plains Food Bank is to collect ten tons of food. The drive will end Nov. 19.

RAY MACHA LIKES FRED CARDINAL!

Ray Macha does not have any personal vendetta or hatred for Fred Cardinal. Contrary to what some people believe, Ray Macha likes Fred Cardinal as a person, but strongly disagrees with his policies as sheriff. So do many other police officers and citizens of Floyd County.

It has been imperative that some of the things that I disagree with become public so as to give the people of Floyd County a chance to make a knowledgeable decision on who they wish to vote for based on real facts. The real issue of this sheriff's race is not a Republican versus Democrat, or who can get along with who. But, do the people accept the way the sheriff's office is operating, or do they believe there needs to be a push toward modernization of law enforcement and professionalism.

I believe the people want better law enforcement. This November Floyd County citizens will decide with their vote who will be sheriff. Ray Macha will abide with the people's will. And, should Fred Cardinal be reelected, he will support the sheriff's office and the police departments of Floyd County even if he disagrees with the policies of the sheriff. Because, he has never lost the perspective that it is not our police officers who are the enemy, it is the criminal.

Political ad paid for by Ray Macha Campaign

IMPROVEMENTS RAY MACHA WOULD LIKE TO MAKE IN THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE

1. Appoint a qualified deputy as chief felony investigator for the sheriff's office, who will specialize in felony crime investigation in Floyd County. He will work closely with Floydada Police Department, Lockney Police Department, the district attorney's office and other law enforcement agencies to aid in a coordinated effort to apprehend felony criminals.

2. Concentrate patrol activities during high crime hours to help reduce the likelihood of criminal activity and increase the apprehension of violators. This would also help both police departments by providing added backup for officers working late shifts that are more subject to encounter serious crimes of violence.

3. Expand the number of reserve officers by certifying all jailers as reserve deputies, and a select few interested citizens who all must meet state requirements for peace officers. Properly trained reserves have been proven to be a real asset to communities who have them, and are a cost effective use of tax dollars. They can be used for crowd control, patrol, surveillance, crime prevention, etc. when properly trained. Volunteer reserve officers have contributed millions of dollars of free labor to police departments and sheriff's offices across this state, just as volunteer firemen have contributed their services to communities who could not afford fire protection otherwise. We currently have some reserve officers in this county, and I salute them for their contributions they make. We need some more and they need to be better utilized.

4. Place more responsibility on the jailers, and make the necessary changes that will provide proper jail security to protect citizens, jail employees, and prisoners. These changes will allow the sheriff and his deputies to concentrate more on investigations and patrol.

5. Increase public awareness of current criminal activities and conduct seminars on how to better protect yourself from becoming a criminal's victim. We can bring in experts in different fields to teach citizens how to better protect their property and person at no cost to the taxpayers. There are organizations who are more than willing to assist in this. Statistics show where citizens are trained in how to protect themselves, and proper steps to take in reporting a crime or suspicious activities, crime rates go down. Criminals look for an easy target, not a difficult one.

6. Insist that employees keep their training as current as possible, and strive to improve their abilities for the betterment of Floyd County. A modern, well trained, equipped law enforcement officer is a must in today's world.

October is stamp collecting month

Postmaster Meriwether announced today that October has been designated as National Stamp Collecting Month. The Special observance for 1988 showcases the carousel animals block of four commemorative stamps. Featured as the newest entries in the postal service's Fold art series, the lovely hand-carved carousel figures are expected to be among the most striking and popular of all the U.S. stamp subjects.

The theme of the eighth annual observance is "For the ride of a lifetime—collect stamps!" While the promotion is highlighting carousel stamps, other philatelic products are also available as well. "We encourage collectors to share the history, beauty, and excitement that can be found by collecting United States Stamps," Meriwether said.

Telephone assistance program to help elderly

A new financial assistance program, aimed at older, disabled Texans, has been established by the Texas Legislature in cooperation with the local exchange telephone companies throughout the state. "Tel-Assistance" is the name given to the new program.

"Tel-Assistance will reduce certain charges on a qualifying person's telephone bill by 65 percent," according to Tim Raven, President of the Texas Telephone Association. "Eligible customers may have Touchstone service or custom calling services, however, the discount will not apply to these services."

Raven adds that Tel-Assistance service recipients will also receive appropriate reduction of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) line charge. Discounts do not apply to long distance, telephone equipment or installation charges.

The Tel-Assistance program is under the direction of the Texas Department of Human Services. To qualify for Tel-Assistance, an applicant must meet several requirements.

Applicants must be 65 years of age or older and must be disabled. Additionally, applicants must be the head of a household and have an income at or below the Federal poverty level.

"Additional information regarding Tel-Assistance is available from the Texas Department of Human Services," Raven said. "Interested parties can call toll-free, 1-800-343-8353, or write to Tel-Assistance Service, Texas Department of Human Services, Mail Cole 952-X, P.O. Box 2901, Austin, Texas 78769."

Applicants for the program are processed by the Department of Human Services, as well. The Department will advise telephone companies if a person is eligible for Tel-Assistance.

Moerbe in first place during 6th week

The sixth edition of the Lockney Beacon football contest ended in a three way tie for first place. It took the tie breaker score to put Lanie Moerbe in first place. Her tie breaker score was 13. She only missed two games and will take home the first place check of $10.00.

Also with two misses is Johnny Dorman. His tie breaker score was 35 and he takes home the second place check of $6.00.

Winning third place is Boyd Lee. He also had two misses and his tie breaker score was 40. He earned the check of $4.00.

Honorable mention this week goes to those who missed three games. They are listed here along with their tie breaker scores: Omar Burleson, 18; Dottie Stansell, 21; W.L. Carthel, 30; Sarah Sanders, 35, and Eddie Fortenberry, 36.

The race for the Dallas Cowboys-Houston Oiler game tickets is a close contest. Only six points separate the top eleven contestants.
