

THE STAYEYER.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO STOCK-FARMING.

CANYON CITY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY, 16, 1902.

NO. 42.

Wright Writings.

Here we come again. What has got the matter with the cousins, they have quit writing. We are having the prettiest weather for the time of year we ever saw. Farmers have commenced plowing. The cattle are looking well considering. No one has lost any calves or yearlings lately. Tudor & Son have shipped out a lot of calves and yearlings this week. Mr. Shannon and a Mr. Bailey are visiting Mr. Tudor. Mr. Bailey is a brother to Mrs. Tudor. They are prospecting so some one told us. Frank Moore has sold his place and has built him a house some where in the Running Water neighborhood, one mile north of Mr. Duvall. Mr. John McCune has given Mr. Baker a $100.00 order for apple trees. He intends to set out 10 acres. A good investment. Mr. Baker has trees that have borne apples at one year old. Everyone could have fruit if they would try. If we can have seasons the plains will come to the front. Quite a lot of grain was sown last fall and has been a great benefit for pasturage for poor cattle. Col Tracy was at Wright, he has been sick. He said he had just worked too hard this fall and his nerves gave away but is better now. They have their new house nearly completed. It is the neatest house at Wright. Quite a lot of folks in town to-day. The Methodist people turned out to church last Sunday and were disappointed, the preacher failed to come, never learned why he did not come. The young folks met and had singing at Mr. Ross'. Quite a turnout. No news for this week. A happy new year to all. Cricket. Oscar Hunt & Co. are showing the handsomest line of pictures, moldings, frames, etc. ever exhibited in the Panhandle.

Mr. J. M. Vansant is now in the real estate business and solicits the patronage of the public. Give him a trial and be pleased at the results. Quannah has one institution which has done more than all else combined to advertise her to the world, and to keep before the people of the Panhandle the fact that she is the real thing. That is her Fair. It is a rare thing that an institution of this kind is continued as long as this has been, and growing larger and better each year. The stockholders were not at all discouraged by the adverse conditions during the last meeting, but have put their shoulders to the wheel and said the fair must go on. A meeting of the stockholders will be held at an early date for the election of officers, and work will begin at once for the next meeting which will probably take place about the first week in September. Canyon City can and should have just as good a fair. Now is the time, while business is not crowding everybody as it will later on, to call a meeting and lay plans for the coming Reunion and fine stock show. We desire to call your attention to the beautiful display of furniture at Oscar Hunt & Co's store, some lovely pieces and suites for sale at reasonable prices.

Kansas City Stock Report.

Kansas City Stock Yards, January 11, 1902. Seldom has the local dressed beef trade experienced such violent fluctuations as those which emphasized the feature of the cattle market of the past week: The light receipts during Christmas week and continued limited offerings during the week following enabled salesmen to force trading values up to what appeared to the packers to be an exaggerated basis and when Monday's cattle supply at the different markets was displayed to be of liberal proportions covered became independent and buyers bid values to the extent of 25 to 30 percent. Tuesday's supply was also liberal and a further reduction was made which caused a cessation of consignments and Wednesday's trading was done on a basis that showed some signs of recuperation. Thursday's and Friday's arrivals were light, however, and, buyers, becoming anxious, cut their weights and prices went back to where they had left off the week before. This was only true of the better grades of heavy steers but medium weight steers and female cattle showed a considerable portion of their prestige to have been regained by the close of the week. The top price for corn cattle was $6.70 which was paid on Friday and, quality considered, was as high a price as has been realized in the past twelve months. During the first half of the week

there was a fair run of meal-fed cattle from the south on the market and, while they are well received, shippers became dissatisfied with the lower tendencies and refrained from marketing, thus losing the benefit of the subsequent advance. The best meal cattle sold up to 5.40, the top price having been secured by a four car consignment of 1398 pound steers from the J. H. Gilliland feed lots at White Eagle, O. T. The other offerings of the week ranged in value from 4.15 to 5.10, including shipments from Denison, Gainesville, Belton, Troy, Dallas, Kaufman, Waxahachie, Corsicana, Groesbeck and Denton, Texas and many Oklahoma and Indian Territory points. Packers were favorably impressed with the meal-fed offerings and indications are favorable for satisfactory and remunerative prices throughout the feeding season. The stocker and feeder market was active throughout the week and maintained a steadily strengthening aspect regardless of outside fluctuations. The popular range of prices was from 3.00 to 4.50 for ordinary to good feeding property, and about 6000 cattle and calves were shipped to the country. The speculative demand is active and as there are a number of liberal country buyers on the market the immediate future of the stocker and feeder market looks encouraging. Hog receipts were liberal during the week so far as numbers apply but the average weight—170 pounds is the lightest ever recorded. The demand continues good but there has been a slight decline as compared with the close of the previous week. Heavy hogs sell at 6.40 to 6.50; mixed and medium weight packers at 6.00 to 6.45; lights at 5.35 to 6.25 and pigs at 4.25 to 5.30. The sheep receipts have increased to about normal proportions but not enough are coming to supply the demand. Despite sharp reductions of Eastern values the local trade has shown some advance during the past week with good lambs selling up to 5.90 and strictly choice lots quotable at 6.00 to 6.25. Fed Western Wethers sold up to 4.60 and fat ewes at 3.75 to 4.25, all tops being the highest of the season. The strength of the market can best be realized by noting a series of fed New Mexico yearlings that now bring 5.25 as compared with 4.75 when the first consignments arrived about the first of the year. Receipts of live stock for the past week were: Cattle.....29,500 Hogs.....76,000 Sheep.....12,000 For the preceding week: Cattle.....22,500 Hogs.....77,000 Sheep.....8,900 Corresponding week last year: Cattle.....31,300 Hogs.....82,600 Sheep.....13,200

Get your old buggy fixed up like new. Harter can and will do it right for more or less, according to the amount of fixing it needs. Mr. W. C. Kenyon went to Amarillo Sunday. If you want a first class meal, nicely cooked and neatly served, for only 25¢, go to the Rogerson hotel. For artistic wall paper see Oscar Hunt & Co., they have some of the prettiest designs and colorings ever shown here. Prices always right. Prof. H. S. Guyer was trading in town last Friday. Home Comfort coffee is the best. J. A. Wansley & Co. JEWELRY! R. B. Redfearn, the old reliable, has on sale, a beautiful line of solid gold, rolled gold, sterling silver and plated rings, pins, brooches, cuff buttons, collar buttons, fancy stick pins, bracelets, in fact a line too numerous to mention. Call and see what marvelous bargains he is offering. Remember REDFEARN.

THE STAYER.

Official organ of Camp Stonewall Jackson, U. C. V.

Mrs. R. W. Morgan, Editor and Publisher.

SUBSCRIPTION.
One Year, $1.00
Six months, .50

FOR GOVERNOR
Sergeant Sam W. T. Lanham

Notice to Our Patrons.

Owing to press of other business Mr. Morgan retires from the management of the Stayer and I assume full charge. No one is responsible for anything that may appear in its columns but myself. Mr. Morgan has no connection whatever with it. I will make all contracts and pay all debts. Respectfully soliciting a continuance of the public patronage I am
Yours Very Truly,
Mrs. R. W. Morgan.

After the first of February the Stayer will no longer be sent free to any one. We have, for months, sent out hundreds of copies each week to non-subscribers for the benefit of our advertisers; but as is usual at this season, merchants cut their advertising down as low as possible, some omitting it entirely; but the paper's expense goes on just the same and we cannot afford the extra cost that more liberal patronage enabled us to stand before. We have made the Stayer a household word in all the country tributary to Canyon City; and hope that many of those to whom it has so long been a weekly visitor will see fit to subscribe as we will make a low rate to readers out of the county. Remember no one out of Randall county now owes us a cent for the paper but if you desire it continued we will expect you to so notify us and then you will be expected to pay for it. You can tell your postmaster whether you want it or not and either pay him or send 75 cents direct to us or let us know that you will pay when you can. Should we see fit to resume the free list we will make it known.

Mr. Sam H. Henderson, of Amarillo, representing the Waters Pierce Oil Co., was in town today.

Mr. F. M. Coulter has bought out the barber shop of Mr. Street and will conduct a first-class shop where a man can get a shave or a hair cut that is a luxury instead of a nuisance as it usually is by the ordinary run of barbers.

While business is not so rushing it seems to us it would be a good time to discuss the next Re-union. Those interested should not do as was done last year, wait until the time for the re-union is almost here and then have to rush and finally open the snow when only half ready. Surely, experience has taught the business men who were called on to do double work, that it is to their interest to begin early this year. Other arrangements should be made for water. The railroad people have been more than kind in this matter; but the supply was inadequate last year and they could not help it. We should then, if for no other reason, begin to plan now.

Mr. Max Stern, the well known optician, who comes every year, is here now, prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. He fits any eyes up so they can be used unless they are entirely gone. Office at Victoria Hotel.

Mr. Chas. R. Burrow leaves tonight for a ten days business and pleasure trip to central Texas. He is going to see Her and whether he comes back alone or not is the question that is puzzling "Nortine" and others.

If you want to sleep on a splendid bed; new, nice and perfectly clean; with an abundance of good blankets; go to the Reg. room Hotel.

To Our Patrons and Friends:

We wish to say that on and after Jan. 1st. 1902, we will sell

Yours For Trade,

Canyon Mercantile Co.

We made the office of Doctors O'Dell & Stewart, up-stairs over The Hadley Drug Company's, a brief visit this week. These doctors have a Static machine and X-ray apparatus. We took a view of one of our hands and was greatly surprised to see the bony frame work as distinctly as if it was not covered with too solid flesh. We also was in contact with some of their various electrical appliances and looked over a glittering array of surgical instruments of almost every known kind. Dr. O'Dell, the senior partner has a very thorough knowledge of eye ear and throat troubles as well as female diseases and has taken several post graduate courses in these specialties. Dr. Stewart is a graduate of Tulane University and has had some years practice. These gentlemen are certainly well fitted to aid suffering humanity. Very few offices outside large cities are so well equipped with all the latest and best methods employed in medicine and surgery and if any one feels the need of medical or surgical attention they should certainly consult Doctors O'Dell & Stewart.

Locals, alas, are as scarce as dollars in an editor's pocket. Nobody can tell us anything, we don't know anything ourselves and there it is.

To our country correspondents we would say that The Stayer will continue to come to you for a year and we hope you will not fail to write regularly as you have kindly done in the past.

By reading their ad on the first page it will be seen that Messrs. Smith Walker & Co. will continue in business. This will be good news to the firm's many patrons who would hardly know how to get along without them. It is especially good news for Canyon City because she needs every business firm now in business as well as the prospective establishments, for her trade is constantly increasing.

Lewis Bently is down from Dalhart.

SHORT HORNS FOR SALE.

Full Blood, unregistered Short Horn Cattle for sale cheap. If taken in next thirty days, I will sell at a bargain 23 cows, 9 one-year-olds, 10 two-year-olds; heifers. The cows will be safe with calf by Registered Short Horn bull. I have sold their bull calves at weaning time from

$35 TO $50 EACH

This is a chance for some one to get a good herd. My reason for selling these cattle are, I have three herds to handle, and by disposing of the short horns it gives me more pasture facilities. Come soon, as they are going fast. Call on or write to Canyon Ceta Stock Farm, Ceta, Texas.

C. T. DeGraftenreid, Prop.

Fanchon, Texas, Jan. 15, 1902
Dear Stayer:

As I was looking through your paper last night wondering what to read, I saw that ticket No. 460 drew the big doll at Street's store. I was surprised to look at my tickets and see that I had No. 460. I am proud of her. I think she is beautiful, as a doll. I send many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Street for presenting such a gift to the many patrons of their store.

Yours Truly,
Iva Ward.

The political pot has begun to "bille" furiously down in Texas. Many of our esteemed exchanges are filled to overflowing with announcements, each more glowing than the last; Up here, so far as we know, no one is willing to offer himself as a sacrifice on the altar of his country.

M. C. Chamlee, the Jeweler has on hand a large stock of watches. Call and get his prices when you want a watch or clock.

Messrs. J. H. Rockwall of Houston and C. M. Hardin of Amarillo, both interested in the Amarillo and Canyon Lumber Companies were in town last Saturday.

Dr. Edgar P. Lewis of Drs. Dodson & Lewis, dentists of Amarillo, will be at Canyon Feb. 3, 4, and 5, inclusive. Three days only.

If you do not believe advertising pays ask Mr. Newman of The M. T. Jones Lumber Co.

Many of the blotches, pimples and other affections of the skin are caused by the failure of the liver and kidneys to cast off impurities, which remain in the system. Herbine will stimulate the liver and kidneys, and cleanse the system of all impurities. Price 50¢ at Hadley Drug Co.

Mr. Wm. Ward and daughter, Miss Iva, made us a brief but pleasant call yesterday.

Mr. I. G. Trimble has sold his residence; consideration $1,250. This trade was made by Buie & Wallace.

WORLD'S MEAT CONSUMPTION.

It has been computed that the world consumes 8,420,000 tons of meat yearly. This includes beef, mutton and pork. The United States are credited with contributing 4,500,000 tons, Russia 2,290,000 tons, Germany 1,520,000 tons, France 1,200,000 tons, Great Britain 760,000 tons, Australia 600,000 tons and Argentine 420,000 tons.—Fort Worth Register.

Messrs. John A. Wallace and B. Frank Buie have formed a partnership in the real estate business and will buy and sell anything in their line. They will be hard to beat as Mr. Buie is a first class land lawyer and thoroughly posted on all titles, while everybody knows trading John Wallace can't be beat in nosing out a bargain.

100 Steers Sold.

W. H. Portwood of Decatur recently sold to Col J. W. Corn of Bear Creek, 100 steers from his ranch at Seymour. They were shipped from Wichita Falls to Weatherford where they are now on feed. It is understood that the terms of this sale were made on a basis of 3 cents.—Colorado Stockman.

For Sale Cheap.

Four beautiful shade trees now ready to set out. Will be sold cheap because I do not need them. They are black walnut and ever-bearing mulberry, two years old and well grown. Call on or address G. J. Parsons M. D. Canyon, Texas.

Mr. John A. Gaut is back from a business and pleasure trip to Denver.

Card of Thanks.

We extend our sincere thanks to all the ladies of Canyon who so kindly assisted us in caring for our dear wife and mother during her last illness and death. We are

The properties of Ballard's Snow Liniment possesses a range of usefulness greater than any other remedy. A day seldom passes in every household, especially where there are children, that it is not needed. Price 25¢ and 50¢ at Hadley Drug Co.

In a suit for breach of promise in a Chicago court the defendant stated that on one occasion the plaintiff kissed him, and that he stood like a statue because he could not help himself. The jury was out one minute and returned a verdict for $1,500 for the plaintiff. It is unnecessary to say that the jury was composed wholly of men, and did not believe a word of the story of any man standing like a statue and being kissed because he could not help himself.

To our subscribers who are in arrears we would say: if you will kindly pay your subscription up to the present and one year in advance we will give The Sunny South one year free. The Sunny South is a most excellent weekly paper, containing the very best southern literature. Remember it will come absolutely free if you pay up for The Stayer.

Territory Coal Mine Fire.

Hartshorne, I. T., Jan. 13.—A fire broke out in the New Slope No. 7 at Dow coal mine, one of the principal tributaries of the Choctaw Coal system, this afternoon. At 8 o'clock tonight four bodies were brought to the surface. Ten more men are probably in the mine. Relief has been sent from this place.—Dallas News.

MAKING BABY BEEF.

Constant Demand for it.

At the recent meeting of Kansas breeders at Topeka Prof. Cottrell furnished them with some valuable information respecting the raising of beef. He asserted positively:

That the small farmer can market beef animals at 12 or 14 months profitably.

That such cattle must be sold in April, May and June, before grass cattle come in and when butchers want light cuts.

That baby beef can be produced at half the cost of a mature beef.

That a constant demand for the article exists.

That heifers can be marketed most profitably at that age.

Prof. Cottrell's talk was of absorbing interest. He related how 130 head of calves, some range feeders, others picked up around Manhattan and the rest bred on the state farm averaging 400 pounds when put on feed at weaning time, had been fed seven months and sold with an average gain of 400 pounds fetching top prices.

While Kansas feeders usually take from nine to fifteen hundred pounds of grain to put on one hundred pounds of meat, and Prof. Henry says in his book 1000 pounds is the average, these calves, Prof. Cottrell said, sold when a year old, consumed only 500 pounds of grain to put on 100 pounds of meat, this being the great advantage of making baby beef. He had ascertained from packers that a steady demand existed for this class of beef and urged farmers to go into raising it. April, May and June are the best months to market it. Butchers then want light cuts with no waste of fat and bone; later they can handle heavier carcasses. The worst time to market baby beef is in July, August and September when it comes into competition with grass stuff.

"If we can put this beef on the Chicago market at one-half the consumption of grain needed for mature beef and get the same price it is not difficult to see that there is a profit in the business" said Cottrell. "It affords the only means of getting the same price for heifers as for steers. You can take a year old heifer and get $45 or $50 for her and you can't do it at any other age. Packers prefer heifers of this age for baby beef, as they are better filled out."

In this experiment greater gains were made by skim milk raised calves, next with those raised on pasture and the least with range calves which took considerable time to tame, showing that the advantage lies with the man who raises his own cattle and keeps them in small lots.

Prof. Cottrell stated that an acquaintance of his living near Chicago had marketed pure bred Herefords 14 months old at 1000 to 1200 pounds each but he advised crossing as they make faster gains. He would take good shorthorn milkers with angus or hereford sires, securing $50 to $75 worth of butter fat from the cow and forcing the calves for baby beef, each selling for $45 or $50 at a year old.—Fort Worth Register.

Federal Line Changed.

Information has been received here that the Federal quarantine will be moved one county
North and West across the entire State of Texas and also across Oklahoma, for the coming year. The Texas State line will remain where it is, and this will create a neutral strip one county wide across the entire state, consisting of the following counties: Tom Green,
Irion, Sterling, Mitchell, Scurry,
Fisher, Jones, Haskell, Knock, Foard, Wilbarger and Hardeman. The State will inspect cattle at the State quarantine line, which will be at the present location of the line, and there will in addition be Federal inspection at the new Federal line, 80 miles North and West of the State line. This arrangement seems to imply the Federal government is not satisfied with the State's system of inspection, and proposes to take a free hand in the situation.
Lack of space precludes further mention of the matter in this issue, but next week we shall treat it more fully.—Colorado

LOW PRICES.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 13.—
A sale of thoroughbred registered Shorthorn cattle was held here to-day by Burrows & Bradford of Columbia, Mo. The sale started as an auction sale,
but because of the low prices
bid, the auction was discontinued, and the sale changed into a private one. In all fifty-five animals were sold, the price ranging from $65 for the lowest to $220 for Lapeen Second, who brought the top figure.—Fort Worth Register.

BRENT C. TAYLOR, LIVERY FEED AND SALE STABLE.

Bus meets all trains. Baggage and packages delivered to any part of the city at small cost.
Nice rigs and good teams always ready.

In a recent interview with the live stock editor of the San Antonio Express, Mr. A. R. Berry, a well known cattle dealer and feeder of Fort Worth, said: "The man who is going to make the most money on fed cattle in the future is the one who makes a study of feed and feeding. The result of the carcass contest at the Chicago show is a lesson to feeders which they will do well to heed. The consumers of beef have learned that there is such a thing as buying beef with a larger proportion of lean than has formerly been the case and it is but natural that they will demand it. This meat can be produced if the feeder will supplant the slipshod methods of the past, and I might say of the present, with a system based on a knowledge of feeds and their value in producing meat without the superabun-dance of fat. The experiments by the agricultural college make it possible for a man to inform himself on this important question without much trouble or expense, and he should do so.—Farm and Ranch.

We call your attention to the fact that Brent C. Taylor has discontinued the coal, grain and feed business and will devote his entire time and attention to the livery business; he will therefore be in position to give the very best service to be had anywhere.

Big Cattle Deal.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 14.—Chittim & Paris and J. M. Chittim have just concluded a sale of 12,000 head of mixed cattle to Albert P. Rachel of Karnes City, the price paid being $18 per head or $156,000. The cattle will form a part of 20,000 head that Rachel will ship to his Indian Territory ranch.—Dallas News.

Pasturing Wheat.

Oklahoma Station Bulletin.

While it is not possible to accurately forecast the outcome of the wheat crop, reasonable prudence would suggest that for the present wheat should not be pastured to any great extent. The conditions have been such during the summer and fall just past that much wheat was sown in soil that had been poorly prepared, and even with the best of preparation, there has not been sufficient moisture for vigorous growth. There were heavy rains during the fall of 1900 and the soil was filled with moisture and thoroughly saturated. With these conditions and favorable winter weather, wheat furnished an unusual amount of pasture last winter and was in some cases actually benefited by pasturing. The conditions are entirely different at present. In general, the fall rains have been sufficient only to moisten the soil to a depth of about six inches while the subsoil has scarcely been reached by the water. The wheat is thus dependant upon the rains that come during the winter and while it is possible that there may be plenty of rain for the purpose, the average rainfall of the past season has been insufficient. It is true that feed is scarce and high in price and wheat pasture sells for good prices. Some prefer to take what is to be had in the way of pasture from the wheat crop and to plant some other crop if the wheat is harmed by pasturing, fearing that possibly wheat may not yield well next harvest even if not pastured. Looked at in this light, pasturing wheat is profitable, even though it kills the wheat. But it will not do to follow the practice of last winter when it was scarcely possible to pasture wheat too heavily in Oklahoma.

A Nervy Cowboy.

A recent report from Phoenix, Arizona, says: For nearly an hour last Saturday James Evans, a cowboy with the X-L outfit, in the Four Peaks country, submitted to an experience which has come to few men. Evans holds the steer-tying championship of the northwest part of the territory. He won "his spurs" by roping, throwing and tying a vicious steer in twenty-four seconds, the world's record two years ago. He was in charge of a round-up and with five other cow hands was putting 1500 cattle into the Sunflower valley.

While camped for the night, on a high mesa, ending abruptly with a drop of 200 feet, less than eleven miles to the south, a storm swept through the mountains. The herd became nervous at the display of lightning and started in a stampede, headed for the south. Evans and his men mounted hurriedly, and circling to the front of the maddened cattle, tried to turn them to the east and swing them back into place. Evans headed his men, and with whoops and revolver shots, vainly tried to stop or turn the swiftly rushing hoofs and horns. In the dense black of the night Evans' horse lost his footing and went down in a heap, one front leg in a gopher hole. The horse of "Shorty" Davis, close behind, stumbled over Evans' horse and Davis came to earth and lay still, unconscious. His horse was up and off in a moment, and Evans' mount was useless with a broken leg.

Fifty yards away came the herd, and a short flash of lightning showed Evans the futility of attempting to escape by either side. The swiftly moving sea of steer-flesh reached 100 yards each way. Unable to arouse Davis and never thinking of leaving his disabled comrade, Evans took the only chance of saving them both. His revolver and that of Davis he emptied into the center of the herd, cutting a breach in the front mass. Then throwing the inanimate form of Davis over his shoulder, he waited his opportunity. As one of the leaders brushed by Evans leaped alongside. With one movement he put the body of Davis across the broad shoulders of the steer and mounted also. Vainly the frantic animal leaped, bucked and jumped. With his legs wrapped tightly around his bolting, bucking, mount, Evans drove his spurs deep in, and held himself and Davis in place. With his double load the steer, wild with rage, agony and fright, rapidly left the herd in the rear, and veering slowly to the right in a furious gallop, carried his riders out of the path of the herd. Out of danger Evans, totally exhausted, rolled off the back of his strange rescuer, and a half hour later, when his cowboys turned the herd at the canyon's rim and rode back to look for the foreman and Davis, they found the two, both unconscious. The weary steer, with his sides covered with blood, lay exhausted a short distance away.

The X-L outfit has ordered a medal for Evans, and there is one steer on that ranch pensioned for his life time, on the best alfalfa in the valley.—Miami Chief.

Prevent Pneumonia.
An established fact is that pneumonia can be prevented by a cold or from an attack of influenza. Among the thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for these diseases, you will not find a single case that has ever been in pneumonia, which is conclusively that it is a preventive of that dread disease. Wright Writings.
Here we come again. What has got the matter with the cousins, they have quit writing. We are having the prettiest weather for the time of year we ever saw. Farmers have commenced plowing. The cattle are looking well considering. No one has lost any calves or yearlings lately. Tudor & Son have shipped out a lot of calves and yearlings this week. Mr. Shannon and a Mr. Bailey are visiting Mr. Tudor. Mr. Bailey is a brother to Mrs. Tudor. They are prospecting so some one told us. Frank Moore has sold his place and has built him a house some where in the Running Water neighborhood, one mile north of Mr. Duval. Mr. John McCune has given Mr. Baker a $100.00 order for apple trees. He intends to set out 10 acres. A good investment. Mr. Baker has trees that have borne apples at one year old. Everyone could have fruit if they would try. If we can have seasons the plains will come to the front. Quite a lot of grain was sown last fall and has been a great benefit for pasturage for poor cattle. Col Tracy was at Wright, he has been sick. He said he had just worked too hard this fall and his nerves gave away but is better now. They have their new house nearly completed. It is the neatest house at Wright. Quite a lot of folks in town to-day. The Methodist people turned out to church last Sunday and were disappointed, the preacher failed to come, never learned why he did not come. The young folks met and had singing at Mr. Ross'. Quite a turnout. No news for this week. A happy new year to all. Cricket. Oscar Hunt & Co. are showing the handsomest line of pictures, moldings, frames, etc. ever exhibited in the Panhandle.

Mr. J. M. Vansant is now in the real estate business and solicits the patronage of the public. Give him a trial and be pleased at the results. Quannah has one institution which has done more than all else combined to advertise her to the world, and to keep before the people of the Panhandle the fact that she is the real thing. That is her Fair. It is a rare thing that an institution of this kind is continued as long as this has been; and growing larger and better each year. The stockholders were not at all discouraged by the adverse conditions during the last meeting, but have put their shoulders to the wheel and said the fair must go on. A meeting of the stockholders will be held at an early date for the election of officers, and work will begin at once for the next meeting which will probably take place about the first week in September.—Quannah Observer. Canyon City can and should have just as good a fair. Now is the time, while business is not crowding everybody as it will later on, to call a meeting and lay plans for the coming Reunion and fine stock show? We desire to call your attention to the beautiful display of furniture at Oscar Hunt & Co's. store, some lovely pieces and suites for sale at reasonable prices.

Kansas City Stock Report.

Kansas City Stock Yards, January 11, 1902.

Seldom has the local dressed beef trade experienced such violent fluctuations as those which emphasized the feature of the cattle market of the past week. The light receipts during Christmas week and continued offerings during the week following enabled salesmen to force bidding values up to what appeared to the packers to be an exaggerated basis and when Monday's cattle supply at the different markets was discovered to be of liberal proportions buyers became independent and depressed values to the extent of 25 to 30 cents. Tuesday's supply was also liberal and a further reduction was made which caused a cessation of consignments and Wednesday's trading was done on a basis that showed some signs of recuperation. Thursday's and Friday's arrivals were light, however, and, buyers, becoming anxious, cut their weights and prices went back to where they had left off the week before. This was only true of the better grades of heavy steers but medium weight steers and female cattle showed a considerable portion of their prestige to have been regained by the close of the week. The top price for corn cattle was 6.70 which was paid on Friday and, quality considered, was as high a price as has been realized in the past twelve months. During the first half of the week

there was a fair run of meal-fed cattle from the south on the market and, while they are well received, shippers became dissatisfied with the lower tendencies and refrained from marketing, thus losing the benefit of the subsequent advance. The best meal cattle sold up to 5.40, the top price having been secured, by a four car consignment of 1398 pound steers from the J. H. Gilliland feed lots at White Eagle, O. T. The other offerings of the week ranged in value from 4.15 to 5.10, including shipments from Denison, Gainesville, Belton, Troy, Dallas, Kaufman, Waxahatchie, Corsicana, Groesbeck and Denton, Texas and many Oklahoma and Indian Territory points. Packers were favorably impressed with the meal-fed offerings and indications are favorable for satisfactory and remunerative prices throughout the feeding season. The stocker and feeder market was active throughout the week and maintained a steadily strengthening aspect regardless of outside fluctuations. The popular range of prices was from 3.00 to 4.50 for ordinary to good feeding property, and about 6000 cattle and calves were shipped to the country. The speculative demand is active and as there are a number of liberal country buyers on the market the immediate future of the stocker and feeder market looks encouraging. Hog receipts were liberal during the week so far as numbers apply but the average weight—170 pounds

—is the lightest ever recorded. The demand continues good but there has been a slight decline as compared with the close of the previous week. Heavy hogs sell at 6.40 to 6.50; mixed and medium weight packers at 6.00 to 6.45; lights at 5.35 to 6.25 and pigs at 4.25 to 5.30. The sheep receipts have increased to about normal proportions but not enough are coming to supply the demand. Despite sharp reductions of Eastern values the local trade has shown some advance during the past week with good lambs selling up to 5.90 and strictly choice lots quotable at 6.00 to 6.25. Fed Western Wethers sold up to 4.60 and fat ewes at 3.75 to 4.25, all tops being the highest of the season. The strength of the market can best be realized by noting a series of fed New Mexico yearlings that now bring 5.25 as compared with 4.75 when the first consignments arrived about the first of the year. Receipts of live stock for the past week were:
Cattle.....29,500
Hogs.....76,000
Sheep.....12,000
For the preceding week:
Cattle.....22,500
Hogs.....77,000
Sheep.....8,800
Corresponding week last year:
Cattle.....31,300
Hogs.....82,000
Sheep.....15,200

FOR GOVERNOR
Sergeant Sam W. T. Lanham

Notice to Our Patrons.

Owing to press of other business Mr. Morgan retires from the management of the Stayer and I assume full charge. No one is responsible for anything that may appear in its columns but myself, Mr. Morgan has no connection whatever with it. I will make all contracts and pay all debts. Respectfully soliciting a continuance of the public patronage I am
Yours Very Truly,
Mrs. R. W. Morgan.

After the first of February the Stayer will no longer be sent free to any one. We have, for months, sent out hundreds of copies each week to non-subscribers for the benefit of our advertisers; but as is usual at this season, merchants cut their advertising down as low as possible, some omitting it entirely; but the paper's expense goes on just the same and we cannot afford the extra cost that more liberal patronage enabled us to stand before. We have made the Stayer a household word in all the country tributary to Canyon City, and hope that many of those to whom it has so long been a weekly visitor will see fit to subscribe as we will make a low rate to readers out of the county. Remember no one out of Randall county now owes us a cent for the paper but if you desire it continued we will expect you to notify us and then you will be expected to pay for it. You can tell your postmaster whether you want it or not and either pay him or send 75 cents direct to us or let us know that you will pay when you can. Should we see fit to resume the free list we will make it known.

Mr. Sam H. Henderson, of Amarillo, representing the Waters Pierce Oil Co., was in town today.

Mr. F. M. Coulter has bought out the barber shop of Mr. Street and will conduct a first-class shop where a man can get a shave or a hair cut that is a luxury instead of a nuisance as it usually is by the ordinary run of barbers.

While business is not so rushing it seems to us it would be a good time to discuss the next Re-union. Those interested should not do as was done last year, wait until the time for the re-union is almost here and then have to rush and finally open the snow when only half ready. Surely, experience has taught the business men who were called on to do double work, that it is to their interest to begin early this year. Other arrangements should be made for water. The railroad people have been more than kind in this matter; but the supply was inadequate last year and they could not help it. We should then, if for no other reason, begin to plan now.

Mr. Max Stern, the well known optician, who comes every year is here now, prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. He fits any eyes up so they can be used unless they are entirely gone. Office at Victoria Hotel.

Mr. Chas. R. Burrow leaves tonight for a ten days business and pleasure trip to central Texas. He is going to see Her and whether he comes back alone or not is the question that is puzzling "Norine" and others.

We made the office of Doctors O'Dell & Stewart, up stairs over The Hadley Drug Company's, a brief visit this week. These doctors have a Static machine and X-ray apparatus. We took a view of one of our hands and was greatly surprised to see the bony frame work as distinctly as if it was not covered with too solid flesh. We also was in contact with some of their various electrical appliances and looked over a glittering array of surgical instruments of almost every known kind. Dr. O'Dell, the senior partner has a very thorough knowledge of eye ear and throat troubles as well as female diseases and has taken several post graduate courses in these specialties. Dr. Stewart is a graduate of Tulane University and has had some years practice. These gentlemen are certainly well fitted to aid suffering humanity. Very few offices outside large cities are so well equipped with all the latest and best methods employed in medicine and surgery and if any one feels the need of medical or surgical attention they should certainly consult Doctors O'Dell & Stewart.

Locals, alas, are as scarce as dollars in an editor's pocket. Nobody can tell us anything, we dont know anything ourself and there it is.

To our country correspondents we would say that The Stayer will continue to come to you for a year and we hope you will not fail to write regularly as you have kindly done in the past.

By reading their ad on the first page it will be seen that Messrs. Smith Walker & Co. will continue in business. This will be good news to the firm's many patrons who would hardly know how to get along without them. It is especially good news for Canyon City because she needs every business firm now in business as well as the prospective establishments, for her trade is constantly increasing.

Dear Stayer:
As I was looking through your paper last night wondering what to read, I saw that ticket No. 460 drew the big doll at Street's store. I was surprised to look at my tickets and see that I had No. 460. I am proud of her. I think she is beautiful, as a doll. I send many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Street for presenting such a gift to the many patrons of their store.

MAKING BABY BEEF.

Constant Demand for It.

At the recent meeting of Kansas breeders at Topeka Prof. Cottrell furnished them with some valuable information respecting the raising of beef. He asserted positively:

That the small farmer can market beef animals at 12 or 14 months profitably.

That such cattle must be sold in April, May and June, before grass cattle come in and when butchers want light cuts.

That baby beef can be produced at half the cost of a mature beef.

That a constant demand for the article exists.

That heifers can be marketed most profitably at that age.

Prof. Cottrell's talk was of absorbing interest. He related how 180 head of calves, some range feeders, others picked up around Manhattan and the rest bred on the state farm averaging 400 pounds when put on feed at weaning time, had been fed seven months and sold with an average gain of 400 pounds fetching top prices.

While Kansas feeders usually take from nine to fifteen hundred pounds of grain to put on one hundred pounds of meat, and Prof. Henry says in his book 1000 pounds is the average, these calves, Prof. Cottrell said, sold when a year old, consumed only 500 pounds of grain to put on 100 pounds of meat, this being the great advantage of making baby beef. He had ascertained from packers that a steady demand existed for this class of beef and urged farmers to go into raising it. April, May and June are the best months to market it. Butchers then want light cuts with no waste of fat and bone; later they can handle heavier carcasses. The worst time to market baby beef is in July, August and September when it comes into competition with grass stuff.

"If we can put this beef on the Chicago market at one-half the consumption of grain needed for mature beef and get the same price it is not difficult to see that there is a profit in the business" said Cottrell. "It affords the only means of getting the same price for heifers as for steers. You can take a year old heifer and get $45 or $50 for her and you can't do it at any other age. Packers prefer heifers of this age for baby beef, as they are better filled out."

In this experiment greater gains were made by skim milk raised calves, next with those raised on pasture and the least with range calves which took considerable time to tame, showing that the advantage lies with the man who raises his own cattle and keeps them in small lots.

Prof. Cottrell stated that an acquaintance of his living near Chicago had marketed pure bred Herefords 14 months old at 1000 to 1200 pounds each but he advised crossing as they make faster gains. He would take good shorthorn milkers with angus or hereford sires, securing $50 to $75 worth of butter fat from the cow and forcing the calves for baby beef, each selling for $45 or $50 at a year old.—Fort Worth Register.

BRENT C. TAYLOR, LIVERY FEED AND SALE STABLE.

Bus meets all trains. Baggage and packages delivered to any part of the city at small cost. Nice rigs and good teams always ready.

In a recent interview with the live stock editor of the San Antonio Express, Mr. A. R. Berry, a well known cattle dealer and feeder of Fort Worth, said: "The man who is going to make the most money on fed' cattle in the future is the one who makes a study of feed and feeding. The result of the carcass contest at the Chicago show is a lesson to feeders which they will do well to heed. The consumers of beef have learned that there is such a thing as buying beef with a larger proportion of lean than has formerly been the case and it is but natural that they will demand it. This meat can be produced if the feeder will supplant the slipshod methods of the past, and I might say of the present, with a system based on a knowledge of feeds and their value in producing meat without the superabun-dance of fat. The experiments by the agricultural college make it possible for a man to inform himself on this important question without much trouble or expense, and he should do so.—Farm and Ranch.

We call your attention to the fact that Brent C. Taylor has discontinued the coal, grain and feed business and will devote his entire time and attention to the livery business; he will therefore be in position to give the very best service to be had anywhere.

Pasturing Wheat.

Oklahoma Station Bulletin.

While it is not possible to accurately forecast the outcome of the wheat crop, reasonable prudence would suggest that for the present wheat should not be pastured to any great extent. The conditions have been such during the summer and fall just past that much wheat was sown in soil that had been poorly prepared, and even with the best of preparation, there has not been sufficient moisture for vigorous growth. There were heavy rains during the fall of 1900 and the soil was filled with moisture and thoroughly saturated by the water. The wheat is thus dependant upon the rains that come during the winter and while it is possible that there may be plenty of rain for the purpose, the average rainfall of the past season has been insufficient. It is true that feed is scarce and high in price and wheat pasture sells for good prices. Some prefer to take what is to be had in the way of pasture from the wheat crop and to plant some other crop if the wheat is harmed by pasturing, fearing that possibly wheat may not yield well next harvest even if not pastured. Looked at in this light, pasturing wheat is profitable, even though it kills the wheat. But it will not do to follow the practice of last winter when it was scarcely possible to pasture wheat too heavily in Oklahoma.

amount of pasture last winter and was in some cases actually benefited by pasturing. The conditions are entirely different at present. In general, the fall rains have been sufficient only to moisten the soil to a depth of about six inches while the subsoil has scarcely been reached by the water. The wheat is thus dependant upon the rains that come during the winter and while it is possible that there may be plenty of rain for the purpose, the average rainfall of the past season has been insufficient. It is true that feed is scarce and high in price and wheat pasture sells for good prices. Some prefer to take what is to be had in the way of pasture from the wheat crop and to plant some other crop if the wheat is harmed by pasturing, fearing that possibly wheat may not yield well next harvest even if not pastured. Looked at in this light, pasturing wheat is profitable, even though it kills the wheat. But it will not do to follow the practice of last winter when it was scarcely possible to pasture wheat too heavily in Oklahoma.

A Nervy Cowboy.

A recent report from Phoenix, Arizona, says: For nearly an hour last Saturday James Evans, a cowboy with the X-L outfit, in the Four Peaks country, submitted to an experience which has come to few men. Evans holds the steer-tying championship of the northwest part of the territory. He won "his spurs" by roping, throwing and tying a vicious steer in twenty-four seconds, the world's record two years ago. He was in charge of a round-up and with five other cow hands was putting 1500 cattle into the Sunflower valley.

While camped for the night, on a high mesa, ending abruptly with a drop of 200 feet, less than eleven miles to the south, a storm swept through the mountains. The herd became nervous at the display of lightning and started in a stampede, headed for the south. Evans and his men mounted hurriedly, and circling to the front of the maddened cattle, tried to turn them to the east and swing them back into place. Evans headed his men, and with whoops and revolver shots, vainly tried to stop or turn the swiftly rushing hoofs and horns. In the dense black of the night Evans' horse lost his footing and went down in a heap, one front leg in a gopher hole. The horse of "Shorty" Davis, close behind, stumbled over Evans' horse and Davis came to earth and lay still, unconscious. His horse was up and off in a moment, and Evans' mount was useless with a broken leg.

Fifty yards away came the herd, and a short flash of lightning showed Evans the futility of attempting to escape by either side. The swiftly moving sea of steer-flesh reached 100 yards each way. Unable to arouse Davis and never thinking of leaving his disabled comrade, Evans took the only chance of saving them both. His revolver and that of Davis he emptied into the center of the herd, cutting a breach in the front mass. Then throwing the inanimate form of Davis over his shoulder, he waited his opportunity. As one of the leaders brushed by Evans leaped alongside. With one movement he put the body of Davis across the broad shoulders of the steer and mounted also. Vainly the frantic animal leaped, bucked and jumped. With his legs wrapped tightly around his bolting, bucking, mount, Evans drove his spurs deep in, and held himself and Davis in place. With his double load the steer, wild with rage, agony and fright, rapidly left the herd in the rear, and veering slowly to the right in a furious gallop, carried his riders out of the path of the herd. Out of danger Evans, totally exhausted, rolled off the back of his strange rescuer, and a half hour later, when his cowboys turned the herd at the canyon's rim and rode back to look for the foreman and Davis, they found the two, both unconscious. The weary steer, with his sides covered with blood, lay exhausted a short distance away.

The X-L outfit has ordered a medal for Evans, and there is one steer on that ranch pensioned for his life time, on the best alfalfa in the valley.—Miami Chief.

RAILROADS CREATE PROSPERITY.
This has been demonstrated by the marked improvement in conditions along

"THE DENVER ROAD"
In
THE TEXAS PANHANDLE.
Whither other lines have come to share in the results of the good times in that section.

PROSPERITY DEMANDS RAILROADS.
The Chicago, Rock Island & Mexico
Already crossing "The Denver Road" at Dallart.
The Choctaw, Oklahoma & Gulf
Soon to join "The Denver Road" at Wichita Falls and Amarillo
The Blackwell, Enid & Southwestern
Now building to "The Denver Road" at Vernon.
The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient
Expected to join "The Denver Road" at Chillicothe.
The Frisco System
Which may meet "The Denver Road" at Acme.
The Arkansas & Choctaw
Headed for "The Denver Road" at Wichita Falls.

All this, taken with the activity of immigration and real estate agents, many new settlers, numbers buying Special 50 Day Home Seekers' Tickets, and others seeking information, indicates that "THE DENVER ROAD" is considered good company in a desirable neighborhood.

Arbuckles' famous Roasted Coffee

The low price at which Arbuckles' famous roasted coffee can be sold is made possible by its enormous sale. It should not be classed with the inferior imitations sold at a cent a pound less than Arbuckles'. It has a quality greatly superior to these imitations and makes many more cupsfuls to the pound. No other firm in the world can buy coffee to so good advantage as the producers of Arbuckles' Coffee. No other coffee is cleaned, roasted or blended with such great care and skill. When you buy Arbuckles' you get better quality and greater value than you can get in any other coffee at anywhere near the same price. You also get with each package a definite part in some useful article. Full information with each package. Save the signatures.
