

County Judge Seeks Congressional Aid In Arranging For Placing County in New Federal Hospital District

Judge Raymond Wilson this week carried the case of the pending Castro County hospital to Representative Walter Rogers and Senator Ralph Yarborough.

In a letter to the two congressmen, Judge Wilson said that the primary stumbling block was out of the hands of the State Board of Administration of Hill-Burton Funds. The problem lies instead, the judge said, with a federally designated C- priority rating. He asked the two men to check into the possibility of Castro County being considered on its merits and as part of a hospital district. The letters he wrote sums up the work done to date on the hospital and says:

Dear Sir:

The following is a brief account of the several attempts made by Castro County to obtain a County Hospital.

On July 28, 1958, a petition was presented to the Commissioners Court requesting them to order an election to determine whether or not bonds of Castro County should be issued in the principal sum of $290,000 for the purpose of building a County Hospital.

After investigation the Court determined that the petition was in proper order, and ordered the election to be held on August 26, 1958.

The election was held with 899 votes being cast. For the issuance of Hospital Bonds 419, against the issuance of Hospital Bonds 480.

After the defeat of the bond election the Commissioners Court made application, through the State Department of Health, for matching Hill-Burton funds. This application is in proper order and is still on file with the State Department of Health.

In June, 1960 a petition for a Hospital Bond election was presented to the Commissioners Court. The election was called July 9, 1960 for a $225,000 bond issue. The bonds to be used only when matching Hill-Burton funds were obtained. We had a very representative vote. I believe about two-thirds of qualified voters voted, and the bond issue carried by approximately 2 to 1 majority.

We have contracted with a reputable firm of architects, (Haynes & Kirby) experienced in hospital work, and preliminary plans have been made. They are ready to begin work on final plans and specifications as soon as our application for Hill-Burton funds is approved. As soon as these plans and specifications are approved by Hill-Burton, a contract will be let and work begun immediately.

Castro County has an area of 876 square miles, and the only hospital facilities in the County is the present hospital at Dimmitt, an army barracks type wooden building with no modern patient rooms, which has been condemned by the State Department of Health. According to their standards, Castro County does not have a single hospital room.

We have five medical doctors in Castro County at present. We have had as many as 8 at one time. We have had many doctors leave Castro County, not because of lack of patients, but because of lack of hospital facilities.

Mr. Nuhn has assured me that our application is properly made and in good order. Our water supply has been approved by the State Department of Health.

We have C- priority rating for Hill-Burton funds. This rating, as you know, is not based on Castro County individually, but on the three-county area of Castro, Deaf Smith, and Parmer as set up for Hill-Burton consideration. The only Castro County hospital needs that are met, according to the State Department of Health, are by the hospitals in Deaf Smith and Parmer Counties. This is the case even though Castro County doctors are not permitted to take patients into these hospitals. The only way we can use these hospitals is to use doctors from those counties. Also there are parts of our county that are over 50 miles from either of these hospitals.

This C- priority was given Castro County several years ago, when these ratings were based on the 1950 census. Since that time, based on the 1960 census, the population of Dimmitt has increased 100.7 percent. The population of Castro County has increased 65 percent, and the population of this three-county area has increased 56 percent. We hope that this population increase will be considered by this board when our application comes up for action.

In September, 1961, we met with the State Board of Administration of Hill-Burton Funds. The above statement was presented to them at that time. They agreed with all the facts of the case as presented

Linda Discards Braces, Crutches; Mother Praises March of Dimes

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Dorothy E. Breese, young Columbus, Ohio, mother, tells of the remarkable progress made by her daughter in overcoming the disability caused by a severe birth defect.)

By DOROTHY E. BREESE

My little Linda has done far more things in her five years than most people even dream of being able to do in an entire lifetime.

Linda at 23 months after two operations for birth defects. And... Linda today, now able to walk without her crutches or leg braces.

As the March of Dimes 1961 National Poster Child, she met President Kennedy in person and rode on a float in his inauguration parade. She starred in an hour-long television program with some of the country's most popular television and movie stars.

Linda has traveled from coast to coast and seen her picture in nearly every newspaper printed. She has autograph books filled with the signatures of celebrities and famous people she has visited.

These are just some of the things Linda has done that are beyond the reach of most of us. But the one thing we wanted most for her was something the average person takes for granted—the ability to walk alone and unaided.

There were many times during the years that my husband, Dean, and I thought that Linda would never be able to throw away her braces and crutches. And to be truthful, there were terrifying moments when we feared we might even lose her.

Linda was born with an opening in her spinal column, a condition known medically as spina bifida. As a result, her body was seriously affected from the waist down.

When she was only a few hours old, Linda underwent a delicate operation that partially corrected this condition. The surgery was performed at Children's Hospital in Columbus where subsequently The National Foundation with March of Dimes funds established the first of its Birth Defects Clinical Study Centers in 1959.

When she was nine months old, it was found that Linda had water on the brain, which has the medical name of hydrocephalus. This condition was treated by the insertion of a "shunt" tube which drains the excess fluid from the head into the blood stream.

You can imagine how much we worried about our little girl in those early days, because we knew she was never far from death. It could have come at any time. After all, 250,000 infants are born in this country each year with a significant birth defect and 21,000 of them die.

But Linda continued to improve. She received specialized treatment at the March of Dimes-supported center. She got her leg braces and crutches. Linda hated them, but she learned to use them.

When, though—if ever—would she be able to run and play with her sister and two older brothers and the other neighborhood children?

The answer to that question depended on Linda, her doctors, the rehabilitation therapists, and us. We all worked together. We worked long, and we worked hard, but it was worth it.

Only the other day, Linda took her first halting steps across our living room without her crutches or leg braces. It was an unforgettable experience. In my excitement, I telephoned the good news to everyone I knew—and probably quite a few I didn't know. It was a real shout-from-the-household event.

Linda has won through. She improves every day. Now her trips to the birth defects center have been cut to just one every three months. Best of all—we have been able to enroll her in kindergarten.

Dean and I and the children remember the gloomy days. We know that many other parents of afflicted children are going through similar days of anxiety and heartbreak right now. But we also know that The National Foundation-March of Dimes is looking for the cause and cure of birth defects. March of Dimes contributions led to the triumph over polio, and I'm a firm believer in the slogan that "Your Dimes Will Do It Again."

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

Much of the criticism that has been directed against the Department of State since the formation of our country has been generated by the lack of information available to the general public on many of its activities and operations. Some have argued that the State Department as an entity considers itself separate and apart, and in some instances over and above, the other departments of government whether legislative, executive or judicial. That is occupies the position of royalty in the framework of our government, is therefore sacrosanct and should be above suspicion. This criticism has not been unjustified, and a complete and searching look into the workings of that department is long past due. This is not to say that every individual associated with the State Department is under a cloud of suspicion. However, unless more information is given to the public generally and a different attitude is assumed by those who staff the State Department, clouds of suspicion will begin to gather and the resulting storm will not be a pleasant one. Everyone realizes that since the State Department is involved in international affairs and is dealing in most sensitive issues with other sovereignties that there are many areas in which secrecy is absolutely necessary in serving the best interests of this country. They realize that many of the countries with which relations are constant do not have freedom of speech, freedom of the press, or a representative form of government. They realize that quick changes in policy can be made by those governments and that such policies will be made to our detriment unless a certain degree of secrecy is maintained in handling our international affairs. However, this does not mean that a purple curtain should be drawn around the operations of the Department of State to hide from the people all of its activities and its operations.

The Department of State of the United States of America is supposed to reflect this country. It should be the showpiece of America in advertising in other countries what we in this country are, what we believe in, and what we stand for. This cannot be accomplished if a large majority of those who enter this service must have a stereotyped background of an Ivy League college education and the ability to adopt a British accent in order to pierce the purple curtain. It has long been my feeling that there has been too little of the "Main Street" of America in our foreign service. Relatively speaking, we are a new and a young country, less than 200 years old. We are considered novices in the field of diplomacy by many other countries. Frankly, I do not care what the other countries think, and I do not believe that the practices and formulas adopted and utilized by those other countries in the past should constitute a diplomatic yardstick which must be strictly adhered to. It is time for this country to take a new look in the international relations field and the place to begin is with the State Department.

It was with this thought in mind that several of us Members of the Congress introduced a resolution a number of years back providing for a study to be conducted to determine ways and means of expanding and modernizing the foreign service of the United States. It was our thought that the doors to the foreign service division, as well as other divisions of the State Department should be opened to the brilliant young men and women all over this country. It was thought that there was a possibility for the creation of a foreign service academy similar to the academies maintained for the Army, Navy, and the Air Force. It was our thought that it was time in the history of America to draw back the purple curtain. This resolution has been re-introduced by me at each session of Congress, and I sincerely hope that action on it or a similar piece of legislation will be forthcoming this session.

In addition, I have also introduced a resolution for an investigation of six principal matters; mainly (1) to investigate the personnel of the Department of State of the United States of America; (2) to investigate the practices and procedures of choosing personnel in all divisions of the Department of State; (3) to investigate the methods, practices, and procedures in assigning personnel for both routine and special work or assignments; (4) to investigate the background and capabilities of all personnel with relation to the particular duties and assignments of the individual; (5) to investigate any and all personnel, whether directly assigned to or employed by the Department of State of the United States of America who have duties or assignments directly or indirectly connected with the operations of the Department of State in any manner whatsoever; and (6) to formulate recommendations concerning future adherence to or future changes in the methods, practices, procedures, and policies with relation to the staffing of the Department of State and any agencies, procedures, bureaus, boards, or other components of the Federal Government associated with the fulfillment of the duties of the Department of State.

If the purpose of these two resolutions can be carried out, it is my firm belief that much headway can be made toward the solution of many of the problems presently creating criticism, and also in maintaining the primary concept of self-government.

About Your HEALTH

A quality public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

HENRY A. HOLLE, M. D. Commissioner of Health

Over 12,000 general hospital beds, 550 beds for mental patients, and 350 nursing home beds have been made available to ailing Texans by virtue of a financial partnership in which the state has participated since 1947.

The opening of a cerebral palsy treatment center in Houston in mid-1961 brought to nearly 200 the number of projects completed in Texas under the Hill-Burton hospital and medical facilities survey and construction program.

Established by the Hill-Burton Act of 1947, the program is a unified local-state-federal effort to provide financial assistance to areas with the greatest need for supplementary hospital and medical facilities.

Guided by the 9-member State Board of Health, the program is administered in Texas by the Division of Hospital Services at the State Department of Health, under plans recommended by the State Advisory Hospital Council.

Fund grants up to 50 percent of total construction costs for general mental, tuberculosis and chronic disease, hospitals, public health centers, diagnostic and treatment facilities, rehabilitation units, and nursing homes may be made under the program. The balance of construction costs must be provided locally.

To be eligible for Hill-Burton assistance, a facility must fulfill a community need and must be sponsored by a private nonprofit organization, or by a city, county, state or other political subdivision. Projects may consist of completely new buildings or the remodeling or enlarging of existing facilities.

Texas began its participation in the program with the construction of the Demmitt Memorial Hospital in Carrizo Springs, a 28-bed general hospital which opened September 3, 1949.

Since then, construction has been completed on 162 nonprofit hospitals with the assistance of Hill-Burton fund grants.

In addition to these finished projects, nine rehabilitation units, 12 public health centers, and nine diagnostic and treatment centers have been put into operation.

The program has also provided financial assistance toward the purchase of special equipment for five laboratories and hospital improvement projects.

Mrs. A. A. Dodd and Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Dodd attended funeral services for a friend at Jal, New Mexico Monday. They also visited relatives.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Prather January 3, a little son, Michael Dan. Mr. and Mrs. Prather have two other sons, Ronald and David.

Building in 1961 Generally Average

Building in Castro County, based on building permit estimates at the City Hall, rocked along about normally during 1961.

$208,220 was spent on residential construction and 187,550 was spent on business construction. Neither figure includes the $90,000 plus spent on the new City Hall. The total was 395,770, or nearly half a million, which is about average for most years. A million-dollar school bond election was passed, but it will not be counted on last year's construction.

Biggest month was March, by far. During this time a total of $32,200 in residential and $75,000 in business building came to a total of $9,920. The remainder spread fairly evenly, except for January which was nil; April with 5,700; July with 8,000 and December with $60.

Bob and Joe Sheffy left Thursday by plane on a business trip to Kansas City Thursday.

Miss Linda Hance and Gary Compton Exchange Vows in Chapel Ceremony

Miss Linda Ray Hance and Gary Lynn Compton exchanged wedding vows in a candlelight chapel scene formed by candelabra entwined with greenery, baskets of white stock and gladioli Saturday at 7 in the evening January 13 at Dennis Chapel. Rev. Earl Landtroop read the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hance of Dimmitt and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Compton, Sr. of Forney.

Organ selections were played by Mrs. R. J. Cluck, Mrs. Truman Touchstone sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of lustrous satin faile fashioned with a scalloped portrait neckline accented with tiny seed pearls and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The molded bodice was fastened with small covered buttons in back and long, closely fitting sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands. The full skirt of unpressed pleats swept into a chapel train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. For a bouquet she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations placed on a white Bible.

Mrs. Jack Hodges of Amarillo attended her sister as Matron of Honor. Her dress was of royal blue peau de soie featuring a round neckline and cap sleeves. She wore a blue bandeau fashioned in the shape of a bow and white gloves. Her flowers were a cascade arrangement of white carnations.

Miss Sheralyn Hodges was the ring bearer and Miss Keri Hodges was the flower girl. Both little girls are nieces of the bride and their dresses were of light blue polished cotton with bouffant overskirts of white net. They wore white gloves and bandeaux of white carnations. The ring bearer carried the rings on a white satin, heart shaped pillow.

Robert Venner of Lubbock attended the bridegroom as best man. Kent Hance, brother to the bride and Wayne Meacham of Dimmitt were ushers.

Guests were registered at the chapel by Miss Sandra Thompson of Abilene and Mrs. Carl Cox, cousin to the bride of Lemesa.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. The table covered by a white embroidered linen cloth was centered with a candelabra surrounded by white chrysanthemums. Wedding cake was served by Miss Sandra Thompson and Mrs. Carl Cox served the punch.

For travel the bride wore a black and white wool dress with black accessories. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Compton are at home at 2014 15th Street in Lubbock.
