ANNA LEE HOWREN AND WILL G. WORD

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED LAST WEDNESDAY.

Ceremony at 10:30 a. m.—Left immediately for Two Week's Trip to Colorado.

The marriage of Miss Anna Lee Howren to William G. Word was solemnized Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's father, Captain A. S. Howren. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Groves, of the Presbyterian church. Both of these young people are well known in Canyon as well as in other sections of the state and their marriage receives the hearty congratulations of numerous friends.

After a beautiful rendition of "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," by Mrs. Roach, sister of the bride, the bridal couple marched into the hall to the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Lola Word, sister of the groom. The bride looked beautiful in a grey traveling suit carrying a large bridal bouquet. After hearty congratulations the bridal couple gave the guests the slip and had gotten away in a carriage before the guests were aware.

Miss Howren is the youngest daughter of Captain A. S. Howren and has lived in the city for two years. She spent her girlhood days at Georgetown and for the past few years lived in Amarillo, in both places she has many friends who extend hearty congratulations. She is an accomplished young lady and is interested in all church and social affairs of the city.

Mr. Word has lived from boyhood on the Plains. He is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Word. He has spent several years away at school but last summer returned to Canyon to accept a position as secretary and treasurer of the Canyon Supply Co. He is an enterprising young business man and makes friends with all he meets.

The following were the invited out-of-town guests: Miss Ethel Farwell, of Channing; N. C. Hix, of Tulia; Grady Nobles, Ernest Thompson, Misses Julia Lockett and Irene Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holman, of Amarillo, and L. S. Sprivey, of Bellevue.

The News joins with their host of friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

The Training School.

In addition to the first four grades already planned, we intend to organize both the fifth and sixth grades in the Training School this summer. The school will open June 18th, and continue eight weeks, leaving a vacation of about four weeks between the summer and fall quarters. The children will be given credit for eight weeks' work, if attendance is regular and the work is satisfactory. The daily session of all grades will begin at 8:40 a. m. and close at 12:20 p. m.

See or telephone Miss Lamb at once if you wish your child to take this work.

J. C. Hunt went to Plainview Thursday to look over the political situation regarding his candidacy for re-election as representative from the 123rd legislative district.

THE PRESIDENT.

Hon. R. B. Cousins, President of the West Texas State Normal College.

ENROLLMENT IS 444 AT NORMAL

70 ARE REGISTERED DURING THE PAST WEEK.

Many are Coming for Second Series of State Examinations, Given July 28-Aug. 1.

The enrollment at the Normal college to date has reached 444. This figure is 70 above the registration of last week, 120 better than at the end of the second week last year and 94 better than the total enrollment of last summer's session. A number is still coming in daily and there is no doubt about reaching the 500 mark and even surpassing it before the close of the quarter.

President Cousins reports that word has been received from many teachers that they will not come for the first series of state examinations to be given on July 8-11, but will wait for the series on July 29-August 1. In order to take these examinations the student must attend the Normal at least twenty days.

The work generally is proceeding very nicely. The number of those who attend the session last year and are back this year for the work is very large. The professors report that interest in the work has been good and that everything points to a most pleasant quarter's work.

Fine Flax and Peanuts.

J. P. Sims, from the southwest part of the county was in the city Tuesday and reports that his crops are in excellent condition. Mr. Sims says that he has 60 acres of flax which is doing fine that his 160 acres of peanuts are in excellent condition. Mr. Sims came to the Plains from a peanut country in south Texas and after studying conditions on the Plains is convinced that peanuts will soon be one of the leading crops here. Mr. Sims has raised two or three crops on a smaller scale than this year and they have always proved to be very fine. Mr. Sims urges the farmers to plant more peanuts as there is always a ready market and a good price for them.

B. Y. P. U. RALLY.

Canyon Union Sends Invitations to Other Societies to Join Them in Plains Rally.

The following article from the Plains Baptist indicates the activity of the B. Y. P. U. of the local Baptist church in furthering the interest of Union work in the churches of the Plains, and tells of the coming rally which will be held in Canyon during July or August:

Upon the suggestion of the president, and sanction of the members of the Union, it is planned to have a B. Y. P. U. rally here sometime in July or August. Invitations for co-operation have been sent, or will be sent, to all of the local unions of the Plains. At this meeting it is hoped that the organization of an association of B. Y. P. U.'s will be perfected. This organization will be something similar to the Stamford B. Y. P. U. Assembly; the Lampasas B. Y. P. U. encampment or the Wichita Falls B. Y. P. U. encampment, and will be permanent.

At this meeting it will be determined whether or not it shall meet permanently at some certain place, or at one place one year and at another the next. Surely the needs of the Plains demand such an organization. Central Texas has her encampment at Lampasas; East Texas has her encampment at Jacksonville; Central West Texas has her assembly at Stamford; and North Texas has her encampment at Wichita Falls—why not the Plains country her assembly at Canyon or some other centrally located place. The Plains is a country reaching from Memphis to Dalhart, from Canadian to Lubbock and from Shamrock to Hereford, in which there is no such organization. This is a section of country the equal of which there is none in the state. May the unions of the Plains raise in the power of their might and make this assembly surpass anything of the kind in the state.

Merry Matrons Elect.

A business meeting of the Merry Maids and Matrons club was held at the Mrs. R. S. Pipkin home Tuesday afternoon at which a number of important subjects were discussed, followed by the election of officers for the coming year. The following were elected:

President—Mrs. F. P. Luke.
Vice President—Mrs. C. P. Hutchings.
Sec'y-Treas.—Mrs. C. W. Warwick.

CHOICE B. RANDELL MADE GOOD ADDRESS

DISCUSSES QUESTIONS OF SENATORIAL RACE.

Scores Other Candidates for Bringing Prohibition Question into the Campaign.

Hon. C. B. Randell, candidate for United States Senator from Texas, visited Canyon Wednesday morning and in an able address at the court house discussed the questions of the campaign as he believed them to exist. Mr. Randell is an able speaker and while having few followers in this section of the state made many friends upon his visit here and by his sound reasoning surprised those who had so strongly opposed his candidacy.

The general remarks of his speech were the same as those he had made in other places. The keynote of his addresses is the elimination of corrupt politics from congress. He discussed at length his anti-graft bill which is now pending in the congress and gave reasons why he should be sent to the senate to defend it there.

He stated that he was a good friend of Bailey, but bitterly attacked the position Bailey had taken on the tariff and other political questions. He scored Sheppard for persistently making prohibition an issue and showed what he had done to further the cause of prohibition in congress. He landed upon Wolters for running for the senate upon his record as an anti. He stated that he was the real representative of true democracy and affirmed the belief that the people would lay aside these petty questions and vote, not for Randell, but for the principles he advocated.

Fire Plugs Installed.

The two fire plugs, which were recently ordered by the city, arrived this week and are being installed. One will be placed on the corner by B. Frank Buie's residence on East Houston street and the other just one block south. With the 1000 feet of hose which the fire department has, the new plugs offer excellent fire protection to the residences in that portion of the city.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

216 Acres Near City Sells for $125 per Acre—H. C. Raffey, of Missouri, Makes Deal.

A deal was closed whereby M. F. Slover sold 216 acres of land north of the city for $125 per acre, taking in a section of Swisher county land at $25 per acre. H. C. Raffey, formerly of Jamesport, Mo., but who recently moved to Tulia, was the purchaser.

The Slover land was one of the most ideal farms near Canyon. There are 80 acres in alfalfa and the remainder lays very fine. Mr. Raffey bought the place in order to fix it up as an ideal country home.

Possession of the place will be given in two weeks. Mr. Raffey will move from Tulia and his father will also come from Jamesport, Mo. Mr. Slover will move into Canyon and look after his other interests near the city.

Some Fine Wheat.

Henry Weber brought to the city on Monday a few stalks of wheat which were gathered at random in his field and were pronounced by wheat experts as being exceptionally fine. The heads were over three inches long and were filling with very large grains. Mr. Weber says that while he did not have a great deal of rain before this week, that his wheat has been in fine condition all the while and that he has not suffered for rain. He says that his oats are looking very fine.

T. A. Foster III.

T. A. Foster has been very ill this week, suffering from paralysis. He was afflicted last Thursday night while walking on his porch. His family has been called to his bedside this week and owing to his very advanced age there seems little chance of his recovery. Mr. Foster is one of the oldest settlers on the Plains and has friends everywhere who are sad because of his illness.

Will Give Entertainment.

Prof. H. W. Morelock reports that he will give another entertainment at the Normal one week from Monday night, the slides of "Hiawatha" being shown this time.

Mrs. James Anderson will leave Friday for her home in Eastland after having spent a few weeks with her father, A. S. Howren.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE IN CANYON MAY 22

CONDUCTED BY I. W. NEILL OF STATE DEPARTMENT.

Important Questions Will be Discussed—Every Farmer in County Urged to Attend.

A communication to the News from Ed. R. Kone, state commissioner of agriculture, states that the department has arranged for a series of farmers' institutes to be held on the Plains and that June 22, 1:30 p. m., has been assigned for the day to visit Canyon. Important questions will be discussed at this time and it is desired that every farmer in the county will be present in order to profit by the meeting.

It is also desirable at that time to organize a permanent institute which will have regular meetings. The farmers should discuss the best men to be elected to the different offices—men who will take interest in the institute and who will work for its interest.

The following is Mr. Kone's announcement: Mr. Neill, Director of Farmers' Institutes will discuss Dry Farming; the Conservation of Moisture; Selection and Improvement of the Home Grown Seed; Diversification of Crops; the Cotton Root Rot; and the Boll Worm.

The State Department of Agriculture publishes, from time to time, valuable reports upon topics of vital interest to the farmers of the State. All institutes will receive copies of all bulletins issued by the Department free of cost, and will be placed on the regular mailing list for future bulletins and reports.

These institutes are farmers' meetings devoted to the up-building of the best interests of the farmer. It is urged, therefore, that farmers bring their families and devote, at least, one day to a careful study and discussion of the agricultural questions which lie nearest their hearts.

Two Good Rains This Week.

Two good rains have fallen this week, making a total of 2 1-4 inches for both. The first one was Sunday night when 3-4 of an inch fell and the second on Tuesday night, when rain started to fall at 8 o'clock and continued practically all night, making a total of 1 1-2 inches. The farmers report that crops are in fine condition and that wheat and oats are filling much better than was expected. The farmers who had their row crops in good condition say that it is growing fine. Where the crops were poorly tended, the weeds are making a rapid growth.

Married Thursday Morning.

Miss Pearl Ashby, of this city and J. H. Core, of Shamrock, were united in marriage Thursday morning at 7:30 at the W. M. Ashby home, Rev. J. S. Groves officiating. Miss Ashby has lived in this city for only a short time being the niece of W. M. Ashby. Mr. Core is a ranchman near Shamrock. The bridal couple left immediately for Amarillo and will go from there to their home at Shamrock.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Umphris, of Post City, arrived in the city this week and have opened the Commercial Hotel in the Smith Building at the southwest corner of the square.

SILO ON THE PLAINS

The following is the thirteenth of a series of articles on farming on the Plains of Texas, written by H. M. Bainer, Agricultural Demonstrator for the Santa Fe:

THE SILO

Twenty-five years ago very few farmers knew what a silo was. Today it is almost as common in well developed sections and in diversified farming districts, as are barns. Thousands of dairymen and stock raisers would want to quit business if they could not have silage to feed their stock during the larger part of the year.

Well informed farmers of today know that silage will reduce the cost of all lines of live stock feeding and raising. It will produce larger quantities of milk, beef, mutton, etc., at less cost than almost any other kind of feed. Under the silage method, one acre will more than double the net returns coming from the average single acre, without it.

The reading farmer knows that the silo is an air tight structure used for the preservation of green, juicy fodders and the chopped up feed, as it comes from the silo, is called "silage" or "ensilage."

By the use of the silo, the farmer is enabled to use with profit, that which without it he is losing. Authority tells us that at least 40 per cent of the feeding value of the corn crop is in the leaves and stalks and that 60 per cent is in the ear. When the stalks are left in the field nearly 40 cents on the dollar goes to waste and the remaining 60 cents is stored in the crib. Shock fodder will go about one fourth as far in the feeding value as the silage coming from the same acreage.

Silage Crops: In the north and east corn is considered as about the only silage crop, but in this section kaffir is found to be its equal. Green alfalfa, cow peas and peanuts, chopped and added to the kaffir, increases the feeding value of the silage very much. Any of these plants are ready to be placed in the silo just before the plant ripens or before the seed begins to get hard. Kaffir is ready when the seed is in the dough stage. With any of these silage crops, the entire plant, including the seed crop, is chopped into lengths of from one fourth inch to one inch and thrown into the silo, where it is packed by tramping and left to the fermentation process until ready to feed. In this green juicy and fermented stage, stock crave it, and are able to eat the entire plant, stalk, seed and leaves without any waste.

Silage enables the feeder to place all kinds of live stock under pasture conditions in winter months.

Size of Silo: From one to two feet of the silage on top of the silo always spoils. After taking this spoiled part off, it is necessary to feed a layer of from one and one-half to two inches daily in order to keep it from spoiling faster than it is being fed. On account of this, it is necessary that the diameter of the silo corresponds to the number of animals to be fed, while the height depends upon the length of time the silage is to be fed. By removing a two inch layer every day, a silo 30 feet high will furnish silage for six months. A silo 10 feet in diameter is large enough for twelve cows, and one 16 feet in diameter is large enough for thirty cows. A convenient height for a silo above the foundation is twice its diameter.

Cousins and Sesames.

On Monday night the Sesame and Cousins societies of the Normal entertained the new students and friends at the building. The scheme of entertainment was very novel, representing an excursion train with stop-over privileges at points of interest throughout the building. Tickets were given at the west door and after each guest had found their traveling mate by means of the names of the railway on the ticket, the train started, visiting "Paris," Gipsyland, Musicville, Hades and finally each guest had the honor of shaking hands with the "electrified presidential candidate." The excursion wound up at the auditorium where a short program was rendered and refreshments served. Several trains were necessary to accommodate the jolly crowd who enjoyed the trip immensely.

There is no real need of anyone being troubled with constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

Palo Duro and Barrett-Brownings.

The Palo Duro and Barrett-Browning literary societies of the Normal entertained the new students, the faculty and friends at the Normal building Saturday night. On entering the building each person was given a name card, the ladies to get men's names and the men to get ladies' names. The guests were then called to Prof. Marquis' laboratory where slides were shown of industrial pursuits in the olden countries both in the present day and olden times. The auditorium was then thrown open and after some excellent music, poses of scenes from early American life were presented. Punch was served as refreshments. The evening was very enjoyable for the many guests.

In practically every exchange we picked up this week, there is a list of young people who have come to attend the summer Normal. The people of the Plains more and more are realizing that the great state of Texas is behind the school located at Canyon and that she is going to give the young people the best possible opportunities of an education. Denominational schools are good where proper endowment can be raised but as a rule they are a continual drain upon the community where located. The state of Texas is running the West Texas State Normal and she invites every young man and woman in the state to come and take advantage of the educational opportunities that she has provided. One or two of our neighboring towns calls the Normal "Canyon's school." While Canyon has the most direct interest in the school of any town in the state, the school belongs to every town in the state and especially should the towns of the Plains feel a direct and personal interest in the progress and development of the school as it is going to figure so greatly in the future educational standards of the citizens of the Plains. Send your young people to the Normal, where the best has been provided for them.

A number of newspapers are making sport of Champ Clark's presidential candidacy and of his race for congress at the same time. In the first place, these papers greatly underestimated Mr. Clark's strength in the United States and little thought he would go to the convention with more votes than any other candidate, as he now has. In the second place, these papers do not want to see him nominated at any cost and are now scared to death because he has gained such great strength. With the great split in the republican party the democratic nominee is almost certain of election, and these papers overlook the fact that if Clark does not receive the nomination and subsequently the election, the democrats must have a strong man for speaker and that Clark is very capable in this place. Clark's record as speaker has been exceedingly good and if he does not receive the presidential nomination by all means ought to be returned to congress and elected speaker. There will be great work to do when the democratic president and congress is elected and Champ Clark will be needed. His candidacy for re-election is no joke, just as his opponents have discovered that his presidential candidacy was no joke.

Since Judge Ramsey says that prohibition is not an issue in this gubernatorial race, as the prohibitionists have taken no steps to ask for the submission of the question in 1913, there remains no reason why Governor Colquitt should not receive a large majority of the votes in Randall county. The governor has been very friendly to our section of the country, has given his support in the improvements at the Normal college, and while a few of his acts are subject to criticism he has made one of the best executives the state has had. Governor Colquitt is making friends everywhere he goes and will be re-elected by a large majority.

The wars in Cuba, Mexico and the Chicago republican national convention are getting hotter.

If you live on the Plains of Texas there is no need of worrying about a place to spend your vacation. Just bundle up a few old duds, take plenty to eat and go for a week or so to the canyons. You will find abundance of trees and water and the best place in the world to rest near the heart of nature.

The newest paper on the Plains is the Briscoe County Mirror, published at Silverton. A. W. Calahan, formerly of the Tulsa Standard, is the publisher. Mr. Calahan is an able newspaper man and will give the people of Silverton a good paper.

The Republican National Committee will just about kick T. R. S. hat all to pieces before they get through with it.

Tomorrow is the last day for county candidates to file their applications with the county chairman in order to get their names on the primary ballots.

We heard a man say to a farmer on the street the other day, "How do you stand in the senatorial race? Who's your man?" The farmer put on a rather quizzical smile and asked the inquirer that if he voted for Shepard would his wheat turn out any better, or if he voted for Wolters there would be any better maize and kaffir. The first man went on to explain at length the strong points of his candidate, but the farmer simply smiled and replied: "I'm too busy raising crops to stand here and discuss politics. If either one of these candidates would pay as much attention to us farmers as they do to the prohibition question, this country would be in a more prosperous condition. The farmers are going to vote for the best man and not the fellow who can make the biggest noise."

The Panhandle Is Ready For The Farmer

Here is a deep, rich soil, ready for the plow. An ample rainfall and a most healthful and splendid climate. Adequate railroad facilities by which to reach the markets of the world.

A return to normal climatic conditions, a greatly increased acreage of winter wheat, spring wheat, oats and barley, an unqualifiedly successful demonstration that Kaffir corn and Milo maize cannot be excelled as material for ensilage, the "better farming" spirit and the results of studying and developing this land assures a prosperous year.

The successful outcome of flax culture, demonstrated last year under conditions much less favorable than can confidently be reckoned on in the future has added another to the list of our resources.

Farms can be bought here now cheaper than they can later on, at prices which are certain of a steady advance as the summer and fall emigration stimulates the demand.

My farms are all favorably located, as regards towns and railroads and give the buyer a wide range in selection. All the improved farms are rented to good farmers and will produce a substantial revenue this year.

I am in position to give terms to suit the purchaser.

CARE OF STUBBLE AFTER GRAIN CUT

PLANT OR SOW PEAS OR SOW BEANS ON LAND.

President of Texas Industrial Congress Gives Ideas About These Two Crops.

Henry Exall, president of the Texas Industrial congress, sends the following article to the News regarding profitable crops for stubble fields:

The small grain crop of the state is now being harvested. If the land is allowed to lie idle it will very soon be covered with weeds that will go to seed and greatly increase this nuisance next year. If it has no crop on it with roots to protect and hold the soil together, and the season is excessively wet, it will waste from washing and thus lose a large amount of its soluble plant food. If the ground is dry and hard, the rain that should sink in would run off and leave the ground in bad condition for fall plowing.

Practically all of these troubles can be avoided and the fertility of the land greatly increased by discing it thoroughly, if it is loose enough to prepare a good seed bed in this way, and if not, by plowing and harrowing it just as quickly as possible after the crop is removed, and drilling from a peck to a half bushel of peas or soy beans to the acre. The peas will grow rapidly if the soil is properly prepared and make splendid pasture for cattle or hogs in the early fall, and hay if you care to cut it, and a very profitable crop to turn under as green manure to add to the humus, pliability and fertility of the soil.

Peas and beans being leguminous plants, vegetable bacteria form their nodules, or tiny homes upon the roots and increase and multiply under favorable conditions, at a fabulous rate. It has been estimated that these vegetable animals, as it were, double themselves every twenty minutes, that is, they mature in that time and separate into two individuals each of which ripens, as it were, into two, but going to house keeping for themselves, and so on, in geometrical ratio; where there was one a week ago there are a billion now. If the soil is sweet, that is, does not lack lime, there seems to be hardly any end to the increasing powers of these little entities. Their special value is in the fact that they bring nitrogen from the air into the soil and rapidly transforms it into nitrates suitable for plant food.

It has been estimated that where conditions are favorable and the soil has been thoroughly inoculated with bacteria from growing peas, beans, alfalfa or some other leguminous crop, that the nitrogen brought into the land annually from this source could not be purchased for less than $20 or $30 per acre. As nitrogen is absolutely essential to plant growth and is one of the most expensive of the mineral plant foods, it should be clear to every one that it is infinitely more profitable to grow leguminous cover-crops than other crops of the same weight that return just as much humus to the soil, but do not draw nitrogen from the atmosphere.

Plant peas and beans on your stubble and plant them soon.

Henry Exall, President Texas Commercial Congress.
