

NORMAL BUILDING WILL BE READY FOR DEDICATION NEXT WEEK--PROGRAM ON 21st

The new building of the West Texas State Normal College is practically completed. The big work about the magnificent building is completed and now only the finishing touches remain to make the building perfect.

This week only a few men are engaged on the building. They are doing the little odds and ends which are always connected with a great building. However all of this work will be completed by the time the dedication exercises begin on Friday afternoon, April 21st.

The seats for the auditorium are here and a large number of men are at work putting them down.

The light fixtures are expected to arrive by today.

The steam heat has been turned into the building and the pipes tested.

President Cousins states that the Board of Regents will arrive on the 11:30 train on the 21st. The exercises will start at 3 o'clock.

The program for the day is to be found in this issue of the News.

The chuck wagon feed for the Panhandle Press Association, the members of the Board of Regents, and the railway officials will be held at six o'clock.

The Culp recital begins at eight thirty o'clock.

The faculty has decided to move into the new building as soon as possible after the day of dedication. It is thought that possibly most of the work will be moved over on the Monday following. In order that the Regents may examine the building without obstruction, none of the new fixtures will be installed until after it has been officially received.

Mr. Cousins states that it possible that a contract will be closed with the Canyon Power Co. for power for the new building. He trusts that it will be possible for the two institutions to get together on terms in order that the day service may be obtained, not only for the school, but also for the town.

Mr. Cousins was in Lipscomb's last week at an educational rally and states there will be a large number of people from that section here on that date. He recently visited the southplains and found that people from that section are coming in large numbers.

Sold Land by News Ad.

A. M. Ballew of Hale, Mo., was in the city last week to close a deal for his land west of the city. Mr. Ballew offered his land for sale through the classified-ad column in the News. P. Friemel saw the ad, and knowing that Randall county land is a good investment, bought the property.

The ad cost but little, considering the big deal that it closed.

Submission Petition Here.

The petition to the state executive committee to place on the primary ballot the question of submission of the prohibition question was in the city this week and received a large number of signatures among the local voters.

The petition no doubt will receive sufficient names to place the question on the ticket. If the voters are favorable to the question in July there will be an election in 1917 to decide whether or not the state shall go dry.

Business Men's Meeting.

The Canyon Business Men's Association will meet at the News office tonight for the purpose of going over the details of the dedication day program and to see that nothing has been omitted which ought to be done for the betterment of the day.

Commissioners Court Session.

The commissioners court was in session Monday and Tuesday of this week. Only routine matters of the county were before the court, with the addition of the annual settlement with tax collector Worth A. Jennings.

FORMAL RECEPTION OF THE NEW BUILDING

West Texas State Normal College

Canyon, Texas, April 21, 1916 3 o'Clock P. M.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Name, and Role. Includes Invocations, Announcements, Song, Alma Mater, Presentation of Keys, Report-Fidelity to Plans, Report-Quality of Work, Address, Music, Speaking, Vocal Solo, Brief Addresses, and Formal Dismissal.

CANYON MUST TAKE CARE OF A BIG CROWD ON APRIL 21st

The indications are that many people will be in Canyon April 21 and 22. The entire Board of Regents will probably be here. The Panhandle Press Association will be with us April 21, and the Panhandle Teachers' Association will be in session April 21 and 22.

Others who have spare rooms should notify Professor J. W. Reid, so that he may list these rooms to be used, if necessary, on the night of April 21. This entertainment need not be offered free, but that would be the nice thing to do where it can be done, without sacrifice--but rooms should be comfortable, food should be abundant and the welcome cordial, and at reasonable rates, when charged for.

The people of Canyon have done the creditable thing in the past and we feel sure they will do the proper, generous, and wise thing in this event. Let every one help. If we fail we shall be hurt. If we succeed in entertaining the people to their satisfaction April twenty-first, this year, will make the beginning of a greater career for the town and the school.

Respectfully, R. B. COUSINS, President.

Great Pro Speaker Here.

The two speeches Friday and Saturday nights at the Baptist church by John D. Camp of Georgia on the prohibition question were pronounced to be among the greatest ever heard on that subject in the city.

County Court in Session.

County court opened Monday but little business was expected for this week. A few cases which were on the docket, and one man paid a fine for gaming. The jury cases will be taken up on the third week of the court.

Building New Home.

Mrs. Bentley has begun the construction of a new five room cottage on lots west of the Stilwell home. Mrs. Bentley is a sister of R. McGee.

City Pharmacy Gets Pathephone

The latest machine on the market which is creating highly favorable comment is the Pathe Pathephone. It is a talking machine with all of the good points of the older machines and has many that the old ones do not have.

The City Pharmacy has been looking into the talking machine proposition for a long time and wanted the best on the market. Mr. McIntire says that he now has the machine that he has waited for and is pleased at the contract he has closed for the agency.

G. A. STRATTON DIED MONDAY AT WHITE HOME IN HAPPY

G. A. Stratton died Monday night at 6 o'clock at the home of his daughter at Happy, having been ill but a short time. Mr. Stratton lacked but 18 days of being 68 years of age.

Mr. Stratton is well known in Randall and surrounding counties. He has been in this section for many years and had a large circle of friends who are grieved to know of his death.

The funeral services were held yesterday at Happy and the body brought to Canyon for interment.

The following are the children who survive Mr. Stratton and who have the sympathy of the community: Mrs. C. A. Leath, Jim and Eugend, all living at Petrolia; Mrs. Will White of Happy; Mrs. Fannie Smith and Mrs. Pearl Leap, living in California; G. R. and C. H. who live at Canyon.

East End Clean Up.

Friday afternoon will be clean up day for the Normal addition. Classes will be closed in the Normal and the students will get out and clean up that part of town in a proper manner.

A great amount of work is needed in the city before the 21st, especially in the business section.

It has been suggested that all of the business houses close from 12 to 4 o'clock Friday afternoon of this week and that the business men make a united effort to clean up this section.

Mayor Wilson is urging the manner and trusts that arrangements can be made for the closing tomorrow.

W. D. Howren was in Amarillo Friday on business.

"The Loreley" April 22.

The Normal Chorus and the members of the Canyon Choral Club will sing Mendelsson's Unfinished Opera "The Loreley" on the night of April 22nd, complimentary to the Panhandle Teachers Association, which meets in this city April 21 and 22. A chorus of sixty voices and a stringed orchestra will interpret the work, under the direction of Miss Kline.

The production takes but forty-five minutes. From 8:00 to 9:15 there will be a formal reception by the faculty members for the visitors and friends. While there is no charge for the evening, all must procure a ticket at the Normal for admission that night.

Proclamation.

Whereas my attention has been called to the various and sundry kinds of waste material which has accumulated in the back yards and alleys and which is almost universal, and whereas it is necessary that some united action be taken on the part of our citizenship to clean up this accumulated waste material.

Now, therefore, I, F. M. Wilson, mayor of Canyon, Texas, do hereby proclaim Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15 as clean up days and especially request all citizens to give personal attention to the removal of rubbish and debris from their premises and alleys.

Respectfully, F. M. WILSON, Mayor.

JULIA CULP COMING WEEK FROM FRIDAY NIGHT--21st

A telegram from the manager of Madam Julia Culp on Monday stated that without fail the great lieder singer would appear in Canyon on the night of the 21st.

Madam Culp is coming all of the way from New York City for the recital and this is a great compliment to the people of Canyon that so distinguished an artist will come this great distance for one recital.

The tickets will be put on sale in Canyon Friday morning at the News office. The sale will be held at the News office all next week, with possibly the exception of Friday afternoon when it is likely that the sale will be moved to the new Normal building during the dedication exercises.

The tickets will sell at $1.50 for the main floor. Under the balcony, $1.00. The balcony will be opened only the students, both Normal and high school. The seats will not be reserved in the balcony, but every student will get a good seat.

The people of the city are urged to buy their tickets on Friday of this week, as far as possible. There are plenty of good seats but the outside demand will be greater than usual, and of course the home people will want good seats.

The seat sale will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock Friday morning. Do not ask the News people to save out seats. Come and get them Friday morning. Phone calls will be good for seats only after the board is opened Friday morning, and all seats saved out must be paid for by Thursday night of next week.

New Home in West End.

Breeding Bros. are building a new five room cottage in the east end of town, just across from the Younger home. The young men are from Memphis, and one of them is going to the Normal while the other one builds the house.

Rain Last Night.

Rain begun falling last night at 11:20 and continued for several hours, in a slow fall. A quarter inch is reported.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

Teddy Sober and Teddy What?
 (Louisville Courier-Journal.)

What will Terrible Teddy do to the editor of the Duluth Herald, who has gone back to the files of The Outlook and from the issue for Sept. 23, 1914, resurrected these remarks by Teddy himself?

"A deligation of Belgians has arrived to invoke our assistance. What action our government can or will take I know not."

"It has been assumed that no action can be taken that will interfere with our neutrality. It is certainly eminently desirable that we should remain entirely neutral, and nothing but urgent need would warrant breaking our neutrality and taking sides one way or the other."

"Of course, it would be folly to jump into the gulf ourselves to no good purpose, and very probably nothing we could have done would have helped Belgium. We have not the smallest responsibility for what has befallen her, and I am sure that the sympathy of this country for the suffering of the men, women and children of Belgium is very real."

"Nevertheless, this sympathy is compatible with full acknowledgment of the unwisdom of uttering a single word of official protest unless we are prepared to make that protest effective; and only the clearest and most urgent national duty would ever justify us in deviating from our rule of neutrality and noninterference."

And what does the Teddy of today have to say of the Teddy of Sept. 23, 1914? The Teddy of today cannot find too much to say about our failure to smash neutrality and wade into the war because of Germany's treatment of Belgium in the summer of 1914. He cannot be too fierce in his denunciation of Woodrow Wilson because he did not plunge into war for Belgium alongside of Great Britain. And at the time when he wrote his Outlook contribution in September, 1914, the outrage on Belgium was considerably fresher in the public mind—if not in the Roosevelt mind—than it is today, nearly two years later. Why does the colonel now so furiously arraign the President for following the very policy which the colonel himself in 1914 proclaimed as the proper policy?

TRAVELING SALESMAN LIES; LOCAL MAN CAUGHT HIM

Salesmen are sent out by their respective firms to sell goods. Some firms restrict their salesman in that they require them to tell the truth. Many firms do not. They want the business, no matter how it comes.

Here is what happened in Canyon Saturday:

A salesman came into town and on his rounds, visited one of our business men. He stated that his house could furnish the business man a certain article at a stated price. The local man replied that there was a firm in Canyon in this very line and that he could get the stated article at this same price. Where upon the traveling salesman began to ridicule the idea that any firm in Canyon could furnish the article at this price. He insisted upon booking the order at once.

This business man was wiser than many people who are confronted by smooth tongued salesmen. He refused to take the article until he found out about the local firms prices.

The case was that of a job of printing. He came to the News office at once and asked what a certain kind of job was worth. The price this office has always maintained was the same of the salesman, and no transportation to pay.

We would like to know how many business men of Canyon, and other people too, have sent away for printing, on the supposition that the News cannot handle the job as cheaply as the foreign concerns? And that upon the word of the salesman, without asking what the News would charge? If a man sends away because he don't want to do business with the home concern, we have nothing to say, but if he simply takes the word of the salesman that the foreign concern will be able to furnish the article cheaper than the home man, something is sadly wrong with his make up as a man.

Of far, north-western land?
Have you seen the many canyons
Which appear to us so grand?

Have you seen the crystal streamlets?

Till it joins a larger current
And to the distant sea doth go.

Have you seen the glorious sunrise?
And its beauty colors gleaming,
Shooting across the eastern sky,
A flood of sunlight streaming.

Recital by Julia Culp.

From Springfield Republican—One of the most delightful concerts of the season was the song recital given Thursday night at the municipal Auditorium by Mme Julia Culp. It was her first appearance in this city, but her programs last year at Smith college and in the Holyoke music club course had taught music lovers what to expect from this accomplished and interesting Dutch lieder singer. Mme. Culp is an artist of fine quality and positive character, whose interpretations are always sincere, intelligent and carefully studied. In whatever she sings one feels a firm grasp of the whole and a consistent management of the details; the result is an artist unity which commands admiration even if for a given song one may favor a different interpretation—a matter sometimes of taste, but often merely of tradition.

Her voice is of a sort admirably suited for lieder, a full, warm and smooth mezzo-soprano, to which hardly any type of song comes amiss. With so ample a natural volume, probably little development was needed and her singing has the ease and freshness seldom found except in "natural" singers, though long study must go to the perfecting of their natural gifts. It is the great advantage of an ample voice that it gives the effect of unlimited reserve power, a gift the more valuable in lieder because of the peculiar intimacy of this form of art; even when transferred to a great hall it requires a lower tension, so to speak than the art of the theatre. Last night Mme. Culp's voice with the utmost ease and naturalness filled all parts of the Auditorium and her enunciation, whether in German, French or English, was beautifully distinct—the one song which she sang in her native tongue may be taken as a matter of course.

Her first group was made up of four very fine Schubert songs, all beautifully sung. "Sei mir gegruesset" ("Angel of Beauty"), one of the loveliest of all Schubert's airs and used by him in a violin work, is better known and perhaps more telling as a soprano song, but she made it suave and delightful, lacking only a little in melodic continuity. "Die Post," a little gem, was charmingly sung, with lightness, grace, and feeling. In the familiar "Serenade" there was no undue bearing on; the tender melody was made sweet but not cloying. To the "Ave Maria" she gave an interpretation of her own; it was notably for the perfection of her diminuendo.

All these are favorite songs, but the second group brought some little known lyrics. First came a striking song, "When I Bring Colored Toys," by the English composer, John Alden (composer, of "The Air-Force of a Perambulator," in which there are fine opportunities of which the singer took full advantage. The little song is the songs by Beethoven, "Faithful Jonnie" and "The Cottage Maid," both of which she made delightful, but the former is much the finer. And to close the group there was a pretty Dutch serenade by S. de Lange. For encore she sang with much sweetness and feeling the old English ballad, "Long, Long Ago," a song so effective that it is a wonder that contralto singers have ever let it drop out of memory.

Varying the usual practice, Mme. Culp put the lightest group next to the last. It open with the "Japanese Death Song," by Earl Cranston Sharp, from which she extracted all there is in it, which musically is not much. Then came Purcell's pretty "Passing By," and another favorite old English song, "I've Been Roaring." And to close the group there were two songs by James H. Rogers, "Wind Song," and "The Star," which give an opportunity for certain effects but have no great musical content. There was more beauty in the old French song, "Mignonette," which she sang for encore.

One of the finest groups the singer saved to the last. It was made up of four beautiful songs by Brahms, each sung with admirable art. First came "Vor dem Fenster," a song of love and parting, "Vergebliches Staendchen," a delightful semicomical serenade, which she sang with arch humor. "Der Schmied," in which she and her remarkable accompanist, Coenraad V. Bos, collaborated in a thrilling interpretation of the spirit of the forge, and the favorite "Wiegenlied," which was beautifully sung, at a slower tempo than most singers would care to take. Here again as more than once, the exceptional beauty of her diminuendo appeared. For an encore, to the great pleasure of the audience, she repeated "Der Schmied," and her hearers not yet being content she graciously added Mendelssohn's favorite song, "Auf Fluegeln des Gesanges."

COME TO CANYON TO LIVE.

KEEP PLACE CLEAN SO FLIES WON'T BOTHER YOU

If you want to be rid of the fly evil this summer get the habit of keeping your premises clean. Once you get the habit it won't be much trouble to do so.

Drain your garbage, wrap it in paper and put it in a metal bucket with a fly-proof lid. Every day or two burn or bury this garbage or have it hauled away.

If you keep a horse, don't have a manure pile or bin. Put the manure in a small receptacle—say, a tin tub or a barrel which can be kept covered from flies. Have this taken away and spread on a field often more than once a week.

If you have an outdoor toilet, see that the vault is closed up tight where the house fits over it. Use sod to make it so if you cannot get cement. Use plenty of lime on the sewage and keep covers on the seat holes.

Keep your house screened, keep a swatter handy and keep your eye peeled—for during cold or rainy weather a few flies almost surely will wander in. Vigilance and action on your part will so discourage the flies after one or two seasons that they will keep away from your premises.

Tell this to your neighbors and urge them to join you in the campaign against the fly pest. Pretty soon others will see the advantage of sanitation, and if there's any "git-up-and-git" in the neighborhood it will not be long until everybody in your end of the town will have the sanitary habit.

It is not expensive to get rid of flies. There are people who may feel they cannot afford to buy a garbage can or other little necessities of clean premises. Where there's a will there's a way. If you cannot afford today to spend any money, set your mind on cleaning up the place and do the best you can. Use such extra tubs and buckets as you have at hand. Above all, don't be lazy. Clean up right!

School Children Should Fight 'Em

The schools must help in the campaign against flies. Each of the various grades should take a particular part of the work, says a writer in the International Harvester company bulletin. Let one grade canvass the town and enlist the grocers, meat shops, restaurants and householders in a movement to clean up alleys and back yards, provide for proper disposition of garbage and for sanitary outhouses.

Another grade might make fly traps and sell them to the various grocers and butchers for use at their places of business and to the city authorities for use in public places. That was done successfully in Holland, Mich., last year.

Still another grade may collect all the information which can be secured on the subject of flies. All grades may write compositions on "The Fly," "The Fly's Travels," "Confessions of a Fly," "Dangers of a Housefly," and similar subjects. Prizes may be offered for the best essay from each grade.

Flies Diminish the Milk Flow By Annoying Cows

Cows seriously annoyed by flies do not give more than 60 per cent as much milk as they would ordinarily. It is to the advantage of farmers and others who keep cows to protect them from flies this summer. It can be done quite simply. In the first place, spray each animal with a mixture composed of three parts fish oil and one part kerosene. Apply it with a small spray pump. Secondly, keep the stable and barnyard as free as possible of manure. Remove it frequently and use some simple disinfectant freely about the premises.

Fly Talk Is Dirty

When people discuss the fly evil frankly and seriously they use dirty talk necessarily. It is a nasty subject, but we are bound to consider it for our own protection, and to take steps to abate the evil.

How does typhoid fever spread? Generally it is communicated when the solid and liquid food to be eaten by healthy persons is contaminated in some manner with human excrement from someone who has the disease.

This is where the house fly gets in its filthy work. Suppose your next-door neighbor has typhoid fever. The waste matter cast from his intestinal tract is emptied into the outside toilet on his premises. Flies swarm about the toilet vault until dinner time at your home. Then some of them attend your meal. They alight on the food and poison it with germs—either from their hairy feet or by depositing a speck which also contains germs.

Do not look down on this statement. Ask your doctor if it is not the gospel truth. Then get busy and help kill the flies. Thus you may keep death out of your own home.

Do These Facts Mean Anything To You?

1. During the month of March—which was distinctly a winter month in most sections of the country—the American people bought 1200 Paige "Fairfields" and paid for them one million, five hundred and fifty-four thousand dollars.

2. At the time this advertisement is written, every single dealer in the Paige sales organization has attempted to increase his regular allotment of cars.

3. Many Paige distributors have already sold their entire April allotments of the Fairfield "Six-46"—and are now taking special allotments as fast as we can supply them.

Just read these three paragraphs over again—and discover for yourself the real significance of such overwhelming demand for one motor car.

We don't suggest that you merely "follow the crowd." We don't suggest that you be influenced by any other consideration than your own personal preference.

But we do maintain that there must be an intelligent reason for such nation-wide indorsement of the Paige Fairfield "Six-46." We want you to discover that reason.

A visit to the Paige dealer will, undoubtedly, put you on the right track. But don't delay too long, please. See this car while "immediate deliveries" are still possible.

Demand for Eight Hour Day.

(A. M. HOVE)

Formal demand for an eight hour day without reduction in pay was on March 30th presented by the train service employees to the management of every railroad in the United States, thirty days being given the roads in which to decline or accept the new Phone 80.

The management of the four major organizations is in full control of the program and request is made that the railroads combine in appointing a joint committee for conference.

The main features of the demand are: "In all road work 100 miles or less, 8 hours or less shall constitute a day, except in passenger service. On runs of 100 miles or less overtime will begin at the expiration of 8 hours. All overtime to be computed on the minute basis and paid for at time and one-half the pro rata rate. No one shall receive less for 8 hours or 100 miles than they now receive for a minimum day or 100 miles for the class of engine used or for service performed. Eight hours or less will constitute a day in all yard and switching service. Eight hours or less at present 10 hour pay will constitute a day's work in hosting service. All over 8 hours within any 24 hour period to be computed and paid for at rate of time and one-half." All present favored rules to stand.

This demand comes from over 300,000 engine and train men, the best paid railroad employees. It is in fact a demand for increase in wages that have been materially advanced since 1906. Cutting two hours from the working day and at the same time penalizing overtime will increase the cost of operating the railroads. It is estimated that the increase will total $100,000,000.00 a year. Such an increase will either throw the railroads into the hands of receivers with attendant scum and curtailed service or the increase must be met by the public in the form of higher freight rates. In either case it is a serious matter to the public, should this demand for an eight hour day be granted.

Once in the Park Theatre in Brooklyn he came off the stage in something of a rage and demanded, "What's that noise? Have it stopped!" "It's the rain on the roof," said one of the stage hands. "Well, have it stopped!" he said, and strode off to his dressing-room.—American Magazine.

Wayland has once defeated Seth Ward this year. Seth Ward and the Normal went for thirteen innings in a game, resulting in a tie score. However, the Normal showed better material, but lost by unpardonable fielding errors.

Athletic Director D. A. Shirley says that the team has been hard at work and that the blunders of the first game will not show up in the coming intercollegiate games.

Judge C. T. Word was at Beaumont, Kansas, last week where he leased grass land to ship 1750 head of steers within the next few weeks where they will be pastured during the summer. Judge Word reports that his cattle are in fine condition. He says he never saw a better winter for cattle than we have just had. He feed his cattle well, preparing for a hard winter and they have come out of the open winter in fine condition.

Smoke Stack Down.

A. J. Arnolds states that the smoke stack at the power plant was brown down Sunday morning. The stack was old, which was the immediate cause of its going over.

A new stack will be put up at once. Every now and then comes a word removing all doubt as to whether Italy and Austria are actually fighting.—San Francisco Chronicle.

HEREFORD EASY FOR NORMAL BASEBALL TEAM—SCORE 18-4

Hereford came to Canyon Monday with what they said was a cracker-jack ball team, composed of mainly a big league pitcher and catcher. The score was 18 to 4 in favor of the Normal, which doesn't claim to have any big leaguers.

The Normal team put up a better game than they did against Seth Ward a week ago. Only two errors were registered against the locals, but they were responsible for two runs of the visitor's.

The Normal team certainly hits the gait they should hold the remainder of the season when it came to bat. The team average was .405. One home run, two three baggers and three two baggers were scored for them, with eight singles added.

The game does not count on the intercollegiate score, being in the nature of a practice game for the Normal.
