

HOSPITAL BOND ISSUE ELECTION SATURDAY

VOTERS OF RANDALL COUNTY WILL BE ASKED TO APPROVE $30,000 BOND ISSUE FOR HOSPITAL.

The hospital bond issue in Randall county will be settled next Saturday by the voters of the county.

The voters are asked to approve the issuance of $30,000 in bonds for the purpose of building and equipping a hospital in the county.

The issuance of bonds to this amount will add but very little to the amount of any property owner's taxes. In fact, in comparison to the good that will be derived from a hospital, the amount will be negligible.

The doctors of Randall county, who are in better position than any person in Randall county to appreciate the need of a hospital, have most enthusiastically approved the bond issue, and are urging that the voters approve the bonds Saturday.

Many of the leading citizens of Randall county are heartily in favor of the bond issue and are working for the hospital.

In this issue of the News will be found an appeal from President J. A. Hill in favor of the bond issue.

Vote in the special election Saturday that Randall county may make a progressive step forward.

NEWS WILL PUBLISH EARLY FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

The issue of the News next week will come out on Wednesday, instead of Thursday morning. This is done that the Thanksgiving Holiday may be observed.

Advertisers will please have copy ready by Monday afternoon. Correspondents who usually get copy in by Wednesday evening will please send in letters by Tuesday evening. Thank you.

The Randall County Commercial League will have a dinner at Cousins Hall Friday evening, Nov. 26, at six thirty o'clock. The annual election of officers will follow the dinner and toast program. Miss Jessie E. Rambo will have charge of the dinner. C. F. Walker has charge of the ticket sale. He must report early Tuesday morning to Miss Rambo the number who will attend the dinner. All wishing to attend the dinner should see Mr. Walker at once.

DEVELOPING PLANS FOR HOG SALE IN JANUARY

H. C. Roffey, secretary of the Randall County Swine Breeders Association, is rapidly developing the plans for the big sale which will be held in Canyon on January 15th. Col. Ed Henff of Oklahoma City has been secured as auctioneer for the sale.

Mr. Roffey states that all registered hogs of any breed will be allowed in the sale.

Mr. Roffey and C. F. Walker are lining up the fat barrows which will be taken to the Ft. Worth fat stock show in March. Mr. Walker would like to have at once the names of all breeders who will contribute barrows of any kind to this load.

AMERICAN LEGION BOYS WILL CONTINUE WORK UNTIL THANKSGIVING DAY.

H. C. Gamble, Director of the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call, yesterday received the following telegram from Dallas:

"Your county leading all counties of Texas in Fourth Roll Call, results on the basis of quota of ten per cent population of counties. Can you make special effort to be the first county in Texas to go over the top?"

This message was especially gratifying to the boys of the American Legion who have worked on the Red Cross Roll Call. Mr. Gamble stated yesterday afternoon that nearly 375 persons in Randall County had taken membership in the Red Cross for the coming year. The quota for Randall county is 500. The boys working under the direction of Mr. Gamble are making a great effort to complete the quota by tonight in order that Randall county be the first in the state to make its quota.

On Armistice Day, a considerable part of the town was covered, and a number of men did extensive work in different parts of the county. Some work has been done since that time.

Mr. Gamble states that every part of the county which has not been touched by Thanksgiving will be worked on that day. Thanksgiving is the last day of the drive, and the men highly interested in the drive are determined that Randall county will get more than the quota.

Those who have not paid their annual dues will greatly accommodate Mr. Gamble by calling upon him with a dollar for membership for the coming year.

ARMISTICE DAY IS OBSERVED IN CITY

More Than Seventy Ex-Service Men in Line Thursday to Honor Men Who Died.

Thursday morning was very cold and disagreeable, but in spite of the unpleasantness, more than seventy ex-service men gathered at the Legion Hall at 10 o'clock preparatory to the Armistice celebration. Headed by Post Commander H. C. Gamble, the company marched to the court house square and formed on the south side of the building where the program was held.

At the stroke of eleven, the company was brought to attention and stood at salute while church call and raps were sounded by the buglers.

In recognition of the fact that a Higher Power had guided the American Nation through the war, an Invocation was given by Rev. Ted P. Holfield.

Rev. Simeon Shaw was the first speaker. He spoke of the unique spirit of the American soldier—a soldier who does not understand the word retreat. After the Civil war it was thought that the blood of America would not readily respond to the call, but American blood had not run out; it had been thickened and strengthened for the new conflict. An appeal was made not to forget the idealism that caused our soldiers to make the sacrifice; but always to remember the courage that made them not only stand, but go forward.

President J. A. Hill spoke on "The Spirit of the Red Cross." Mr. Hill called attention to the fact that with victory comes the temptation to forget the ideals for which we fought and to let selfishness and greed creep in. He spoke of the American Red Cross as the highest embodiment of the Christian spirit. Our national perpetuity rests upon the spirit of the common people. Unless the American people will carry on in time of peace the spirit of unselfishness found during the war, America cannot expect to hold her high place in history. We must make this country the synonym of unselfishness.

Rev. Ted P. Holfield pictured the work of the American Red Cross in time of peace as it goes wherever calamity has come. He pictured it as giving its red blood to bring back vigor to the weak. He outlined the work the Red Cross is doing in preventing disease, in bettering child welfare, and in teaching people how to live. The appeal was made to help carry on the spirit of the Red Cross by becoming a member.

At the close, "America" was sung with patriotic vigor and the crowd was dismissed by Rev. Shaw.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE NEXT THURS.—HOLIFIELD TO PREACH

Rev. Ted P. Holfield, of the Presbyterian church will preach the annual Thanksgiving sermon at the Methodist church next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The service will be a union meeting of all churches in Canyon.

Red Cross Certificates Ready

Miss Botsai has the Red Cross certificates of all who have completed the Red Cross course, and she asks those who have not called for their certificates to do so at once.

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL

On next Saturday the people of Randall county will determine whether or not a county hospital will be built and maintained in and for this county. As a citizen of the county and also as a representative of the State of Texas, I wish to speak briefly on this question.

As a citizen of the county I am interested as is every other citizen, in the proper development of our country. It occurs to me that the first care of every civilized community is the physical welfare of its people. Life is the most sacred thing in the world and therefore we can afford anything that will conserve and promote it. Now there is no doubt that we are not at this time in condition to do this most effectively. I am strongly of the opinion that dozens of lives are lost each year in this county simply because we are not prepared to properly care for same. As a matter of fact one life is worth infinitely more than the proposed bond issue. If you do not think this is true I ask you which of your loved ones are you willing to exchange for the amount involved in the proposed expenditure?

Moreover the cost of a county hospital is nominal. If you think this proposal would entail heavy taxation I might suggest that you sit down and figure out in dollars and cents the exact amount the hospital would add to your individual tax account. Most of us would be willing, I dare say, to contribute each year more than the amount of the taxes this bond issue would impose, if we were asked to help care for the sick of our county.

In this connection, too, I wish to suggest that improvements of this kind never reduce the wealth of a community, or of an individual. Whatever we expend in public enterprise comes back to each of us in increased property values, because it makes our community a more desirable place in which to live and therefore attracts people from other communities. Even if this were not true we should nevertheless be amply repaid by the increased satisfaction which would be ours because of the assurance such an institution would give us. The satisfaction of knowing that in case of a serious illness we have a well equipped and modern hospital at our disposal would be worth far more than the few paltry dollars we would pay in taxes.

Finally, as a citizen, I feel a keen responsibility for the welfare of the thousands of young people who will attend the Normal in the years to come. I believe that it is my duty to do everything in my power to properly protect the physical lives of our young people who come to us to prepare for a life of service in our great state. I should like, therefore, as a citizen, to help make our town cleanest, the most healthful, and the safest place in all this country for our young people.

As representing, in some way, the State, I wish to say that the county can well afford to spend money rather freely on civic improvement. The State expects Canyon and Randall county to provide every reasonable accommodation for the care of the students of the West Texas State Normal College. The State now has an investment here conservatively valued at $1,000,000. It is spending annually here more than $200,000 and has all the years to come in which to increase this amount and expand the plant. Canyon has shown a magnificent spirit in securing and maintaining the school and no one can justly complain on this score. My point here is that the more spent in local civic improvement the more the State will be willing to spend here. If the county decides to build the hospital, I feel safe in saying that the State will more than match the investment by other improvements here that will enhance the value of our property still further and make our community a much more attractive place in which to live. I appeal therefore, to every citizen who is interested in the proper development of our young people, who values life more than money, who believes in the progressive development of our town and country, and who would like to see the State adopt an even more liberal policy in support of our State School to support by your vote and influence the proposed hospital bond issue.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. HILL.

BOOK CLUB WILL BRING PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

The Woman's Book Club met Wednesday with Mesdames C. W. Warwick, O. N. Gamble and L. F. Shetty, leaders. It was voted to have the regular meeting which would be held the 22 of December on the 15th.

The club voted to take charge of the Public Health Movement for the county which will arrange for a nurse who will investigate the health conditions of the school children of Randall county. The nurse is expected soon and will examine every school child in the county free of charge, advising the parents of any defects and suggesting the corrective treatment.

ELECTION RETURNS SATURDAY RECEIVED AT NEWS OFFICE

The Randall County News will receive the returns of Saturday's election from all precincts in the county.

Those interested in the returns are welcome to visit the News office during the evening.

WAYLAND WILL PLAY THE NORMAL HERE FRIDAY

Wayland College of Plainview will play the Normal here Friday afternoon at three o'clock on the Normal grounds.

The first game between the teams resulted in a 14 to 0 victory for Wayland. The Normal team has improved since that time, and should win Friday's game.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be Nov. 25. All members are requested to be present.

VICE PRESIDENT WILL LECTURE NOVEMBER 30

Hon. Thos. R. Marshall Will Lecture at the Normal Auditorium on Lyceum Course.

Hon. Thos. R. Marshall, Vice President of the United States, will lecture in Canyon on the night of November 30. The appointment is one of the numbers of the lyceum course.

Mr. Marshall has considerable reputation as a public speaker. The fact that he has been vice president for eight years makes him a distinctive man in American history. His message will be highly interesting and instructive.

Indications are that the attendance at his lecture will be exceptionally large. Large numbers are coming from Amarillo and Hereford for the lecture.

EXTRA—JOE STEELE GETS INTO THE MOVIE GAME

Last reports from California indicate that Doug Fairbanks and Bill Hart are much concerned over the latest developments in the movie game. A new rival has appeared upon the screen who has the goods and the inclination to replace the present favorite stars with the movie fans.

Joe Steele, erstwhile owner of the Normal Barber Shop, went to California a few weeks ago and has broken into the movie game. That Joe has the nerve and the disposition to make a success of the game, all of his friends in Canyon will quite readily agree.

Doctors Attitude Toward a County Hospital

We, the undersigned Medical Doctors of Canyon, are in favor of a County Sanitarium, for the following reasons:

- (1) Since it is our duty to render efficient medical service to our community, we feel that we cannot afford to be handicapped by the lack of convenience and equipment.
- (2) In the light of modern medical science, the best service cannot be gotten from the medical profession without a well equipped Sanitarium and without the assistance of trained nurses.
- (3) We frequently encounter surgical cases that should not be moved over rough roads. For such cases it is better and safer to import a surgeon than to export a patient.

- (4) There are numerous cases of illness, non-surgical in nature, that should have hospital care, for the double purpose of convenience to the family and safety to the patient.
- (5) This being a school town, we are especially subject to epidemics. To isolate these patients in a Sanitarium might check the spread of serious epidemics.
- (6) The students of the Normal College are away from parents. It is our duty in the future to be ready to render them more detailed attention in cases of illness, than they have had in the past.
- (7) It is a necessary asset to our community. It will enhance the value of our property. It will make Canyon and Randall county a better place in which to live.

(8) The hospitals in the neighboring towns are inadequate in space. We know of instances in which we could not get hospital space for our patients.

If you want the best that there is in the medical profession of your community, give us the advantage of a small, but well equipped sanitarium.

Bill Bryan is making a grand stand play to gain control of the defeated democratic party. Bryan played his highest trumps at San Francisco, but found the cards stacked against him. He immediately shut up like a clam, and refused to speak until the returns were in showing Cox was badly defeated. Now he is making suggestions as to how the democratic party shall be run. He is a big bully who sulks when he cannot run things his own way, and then glories in the defeat of those who were of a different mind than himself. Bryan wants Wilson to resign, followed by Marshall so Harding may be president at once. Those who know Wilson are certain that he is going to stick by his job until March 4th, and those who have followed the career of Bryan during the past few years realize the ridiculousness of the suggestion.

The $2.50 per year weekly newspaper has made its appearance in the Panhandle. The Clarendon News is raising its rates to that price. Those people outside a newspaper office may marvel at the nerve when other lines are seemingly on a great decline. The fact is that everything going into the making of a newspaper is steadily increasing every month. News print has advanced 3 cents per pound since the first of August. Before the war it sold at 2 3/4 cents per pound. The price today is nearly 17 cents per pound delivered in Canyon. The subscription price of a $2.00 per year weekly will not pay for the blank paper, say nothing of the work connected with the publishing of a weekly paper.

Report has it that the republican party will repudiate the order of President Wilson and throw the first, second and third class postoffices back on the pie counter. Wilson sought to avoid this scramble for patronage by putting the offices under the civil service. The republican charge is that this order was made after good democrats were selected for all the postoffices. The republicans are a hungry bunch. It has been a very lean eight years and if there is any way to do it, a lot of democratic postmasters are going to be hunting for jobs.

The News expresses deep sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cheney of the Southwest Plainsman in the death of Mrs. Cheney's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Jester. Mrs. Jester had just returned from an extended visit with her son in Louisiana when she was taken ill last Thursday with pneumonia. Her advanced age of 74 years made it impossible for her to fight off the disease and she passed away Tuesday afternoon. She was a noble woman and to have known her was a great privilege.

What is the life of your dear one worth? Can you figure it down to cold dollars and cents? Would you take $30,000 for that boy or girl? A hospital in Randall county might save their lives. Vote for the bond issue Saturday.

Saturday is the day for the hospital bond election. Vote for the hospital. It is very greatly needed in Canyon.

Townley Strong for Panhandle

James W. Townley of Abbie, Neb., was a business caller in the city last week, making the trip especially to look after his land south of the city. Mr. Townley has made several trips to Randall county during the past few years, and states that he never saw a country develop more rapidly and with a prospect of permanency than has the Panhandle country. He states he could hardly realize that he was passing through the same section that he visited upon his last trip.

Mr. Townley was a pioneer in Nebraska fifty years ago, coming to his section with his father when the country was as new as is Randall county. He has lived to see land worth $1.25 per acre in those days worth from $200 to $300 per acre. Mr. Townley states that the Randall county land this year made more wheat per acre than the high priced land of his country. He is not anxious to sell his land in this county, although he has received several offers, and believes that it will double in price during the next few years.

Mr. Townley urges good farming as the quickest way to develop the Panhandle, and insists that more trees be planted in the country as well as in the cities of the country.

Baptist Convention Very Fine

Mrs. B. T. Johnson reports that the Baptist State Convention held at El Paso last week was the greatest in the history of the church. The members were accorded a royal welcome by the citizens of El Paso who did everything in their power to make the convention a great success.

Mrs. Johnson states that the women of the W. M. U. last year pledged $635,000 to be raised by convention time. When the report was made, $708,123.99 had been paid. The women pledged $800,000 for the coming year.

Mrs. Johnson states that the members of the convention were taken in to Old Mexico and visited Juarez. She was amazed at the wickedness that is allowed in the city, with its open saloons, gambling joints and dives of all kinds. She was more amazed at the large number of well dressed American men and women who mingled with the Mexicans around the gambling tables. She states she can more appreciate the civilization of America after her visit to Juarez.

Brownfield Votes To Incorporate

While a reasonably heavy vote was polled here last Friday in the election to see whether or not the town would incorporate, it is estimated that probably 25 people did not express themselves in the matter. The official count showed that 117 qualified voters participated, and of these 82 were for incorporation, and 35 were opposed.—Brownfield Herald.

Boy Dies While Playing Ball

On Friday evening of last week as the basket ball teams were playing, Ward Congdon, who was one of the players on the Junior team, was taken suddenly ill and on going to the door at the rear of the room, fell, and died almost instantly. Heart failure, or a blood clot on the brain, are given as probable causes of his death. Ward, complaining of his belt being too tight, was presumably going to exchange the belt when he was stricken. As he did not respond to treatment given by those who assembled when he fell, the doctor was called. But it was a startling fact that Ward was beyond all human aid.—Higgins News.

The Panhandle fraternity was more than gratified, last week, to receive through the mails an announcement that "all right and title" to the Randall County News had been acquired by C. W. Warwick, for the past ten years editor of that excellent paper. Warwick had come to the point where he wanted a plant of his own and the stock of the News not being for sale, he disposed of his property in Canyon and was in correspondence with a large number of owners in different states looking to the purchase of a newspaper. However, the people of Canyon were averse to losing the best newspaperman who had ever been their way and ultimately the stockholders of the News agreed to sell their several interests. Warwick has made the News one of the representative papers of this section and it is altogether a matter for congratulations to all concerned that he is to remain in Canyon.

Saved His Packard

Eli Perkins, the coal passer who recently became an oil millionaire, saved his car from the sands of Pease river this week.

It cost him nearly one thousand dollars, however, and the packard had to be cased off before the car could be hoisted out of the sand, at one time all of it having disappeared from view but part of the steering wheel. Perkins himself took a shovel, and made a good hand at digging.

The Packard seemed to be in good shape in spite of its rough experience but it may cost him another thousand before the car is in proper condition again.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

Gas For Peach Tree Pest

The results of what is known as the para-dichlorobenzene treatment for the eradication of the peachtree borer lead experts of the United States Department of Agriculture to believe that a practical means has finally been found of ridding orchards of this disastrously destructive pest. Previously the only effective method of fighting the borer was by removing the soil around the base of the tree and digging the grubs out of their galleries with a knife. It is estimated that the borers have done $6,000,000 damage a year and that $2,000,000 a year has been spent in fighting them.

The para-dichlorobenzene method was first used extensively by orchardists in 1919. It consists in sprinkling fine crystals of the insecticide on the soil around the base of the infected tree and covering with earth to hold the gas. This gas is five times heavier than air and sinks down thru the soil. It is highly effective against the borer; and a pound of the insecticide, costing not more than 25 cents is sufficient for eight or ten trees. The labor is scarcely one-third of that formerly required. The saving therefore is great.—Denver Record-Stockman.

Cholera Among Hogs

JUST PLAIN FOLKS
There is no cause for any of us to become stiffnecked and haughty. We are all just common folks traveling along together, animated by the same hopes, desires and ambitions.
The grocer isn't necessarily fat simply because he has so many good things to eat for sale; he may owe for the stock he is selling. The butcher may get along on soup-bones in order to sell the fat steaks to the other fellow. The banker isn't necessarily rich because it is his business to handle money. It matters not what may be the line of business we are all just plain folks and doing the best we can to make our business a success.
At our bank the small depositor is treated as fairly and made to feel the same welcome as the big financier.
Kindness, courtesy, service, these are the things that count among sensible people everywhere.
If you are not doing business with this bank, come in for a visit, anyway, you are sure of the right kind of a welcome here.

THE NORMAL SQUAD SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Losses Game to Clarendon, But Holds Oklahoma Team in Scoreless Game.

Last Saturday afternoon our boys met the Weatherford, Oklahoma Normal eleven on our field in one of the hardest fought games of the season. Although the game ended unsatisfactorily to many who watched, both sides made it evident in every minute of the game that they were doing their best. The weather was cold and disagreeable. The field was covered with snow and ice, which prevented the boys from performing many excellent feats that they would have otherwise. In spite of this fact, however, along with the fumbling due to cold hands, many showed themselves masters of the game, and starred in several instances.

The game was called at the usual hour of 3:00, and the sound of the whistle found every man, on both squads, eager to enter the battle, while the large crowd of enthusiastic Normal student poured forth their cheers for the victory they felt sure would come. Besides the filled grand stand, many of the old time football "fans" from the town were lined up on one side of the gridiron and were more than anxious to see our boys carry the "pigskin" to the goal.

This game showed a marked improvement over previous games; and while the Oklahoma team outweighed the Canyon team by an average of about five pounds per man, the Canyon team made up this handicap in speed, the features of Canyon players being their successful forward passes. The Oklahoma players resorted mainly to end runs, their full-back gaining distances many times on these plays.

Parcells of Amarillo refereed the game and both sides were entirely satisfied with his decisions.

The rival teams met on the Tula gridiron Nov. 5th at 3:30 o'clock. The teams were evenly matched in weight; none could equal our second team in determination. The game was a fight from whistle to whistle. Stewart at quarter outwitted his opponent, enabling Scott to cross the goal for the first touchdown. It was made after a series of line plunges netting fifty yards. The second touchdown was made by Stewart very similarly. Wallace made the third by running fifty yards after completing a pass. The game ended on Canyon's five yard line. The score was piled up by the consistent help of the line.

Canyon line-up:

McDonald, full.
Younger, right end.
Stewart, quarter.

The president appointed the following committees: Social, Miss Celia Whitt of Lockney; Eris Gustavis; membership, E. C. Nelson of Ployada; Alberta Howell and Ward Pickens, Amarillo.

The purpose of the club is to promote fellowship and interest among students from the Panhandle section of the state.—Amarillo News.

China Awakening, Says Missionary Rev. Mr. Shipley, of Nashville, Tenn., a returned missionary from China, spoke at the chapel hour Friday morning. Mr. Shipley contrasted conditions as they existed in China twenty years ago with what they are today. The people, he says, are rapidly taking over western civilization, and he expects to see China in the near future take her place in the rank of the foremost nations of the earth.

The Paving Election The paving election recently held in Canyon carried by an overwhelming majority of 128 to 2. This shows that the people of Canyon are not without civic pride or progressive enterprise. The fact that the streets have been in a disgraceful condition for a number of years and that conditions are not in every way what they should be in a college town does not mean that the people are without progressive spirit. The war and the unsettled conditions that followed retarded paving and other civic improvements that were under consideration. With conditions approaching normal, the people of Canyon are determined to make their city a source of pride to themselves and a fit home for the College. Their civic pride and progressive spirit that so eloquently expressed itself in the recent paving election will doubtless speak as forcefully in the coming County Hospital election.

Are You Discouraged? Remember This

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the legislature in Illinois, and was badly swamped. He next entered business, failed, and spent seventeen years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner.

He was in love with a beautiful young woman to whom he became engaged—then she died.

Later he married a woman who was a constant burden to him.

Entering politics again, he ran for Congress and again was badly defeated.

He then tried to get an appointment to the United States Land Office, but failed.

He became a candidate for the United States Senate, and was badly defeated.

In 1856, he became a candidate for the Vice-Presidency and was again defeated.

In 1858 he was defeated by Douglas.

One failure after another—bad failures—great setbacks. In the face of all this he eventually became one of the country's greatest men, if not the greatest.

When you think of a series of setbacks like this, doesn't it make you feel kind of small to become discouraged, just because you think you are having a hard time of life?

—Praetorian Guard.

"Third Down; Three to Go!"

The big quarter-back gathered his strength for the plunge. The Panther line tightened. It had held before; it looked impregnable now. "Touch-down! Touch-down!" pleaded the Tiger rooters.

"Signals! Formation 'C'! Twenty-nine, thirty-four, nineteen, seven!" The crouching quarter met the ball and crashed head-down into the mass of fighting humanity. The line shook under the impact, wavered, but held!

Around the right end little Dixon dashed, almost unnoticed, for a touch-down! The time-keeper's whistle was drowned by a hoarse roar of victory from the Tiger stands.

—Olin E. Hinkle.

A Western man, Prof. Karl B. Musser, formerly with Washington State College, has been appointed representative of the extension service of the American Guernsey Cattle Club in states east of Chicago.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is unable to furnish men to fill all of the positions for which requests are made. The demand is so great for men with technical training.

In the Baptist Educational Institutions of Texas there are 6000 students. Arrangements are being made to take care of all who desire to enter these schools.

THE DANGER OF SHALLOUNESS

The man who has no depth of thought that lives on the surface of things, is a sorry man. He is not worth much any where in human affairs. No great task, no great undertaking can be entrusted to him. In the parlance of the street, he is "no good." "He is a little potato." "He is a light wad."

He flourishes in the twiddle-twaddle of social conventionalities. He is in the way of real folks.

Shallowness is a curse.

I am not writing about the idiot, the half-wit, the naturally and incurably weak minded. No, such stir our pity. I am talking about the fool that awakens our contempt. He has brains enough but somehow he is satisfied and pleased to skim along on the surface. He will not dig down to the roots of things. He could, but he just will not think into and back of and before and around things. Shallow thinking and acting have become a habit with him. His character has become established. There is no depth to him. Shallowness is his curse.

Human affairs demand thinking—thinking out in every direction. Such thinking takes time, much time—minute after minute and hour after hour, of serious sober thoughtfulness. The command "Be sober-minded" is no idle exhortation. It demands that without which every man is a failure.

Shallowness is stony ground. Good seed find soil enough to sprout in and may be to shoot forth and give promise of a yield; but alas, there is no depth.

As I have said this shallowness is not an inherent condition with these people. It is the result of wrong leadings in childhood and youth. Something has started and set them wrong. Then they have yielded to the temptation to go the way of the least resistance. They have thought more of the fleeting, thrilling pleasures incident to youth than they have of that rich, deep, and abiding sense of strength and confidence that comes of a knowledge of being prepared for the eventualities of life, which is enjoyed only by those who have dug deep and laid the foundations of life on the enduring rock of the right philosophy of living.

I have said what I have that I might say this word: As I see it, we are in the greatest danger of the curse of shallowness fastening itself on the American people than ever before in the history of our nation. More and more we are becoming an ease-loving, pleasure seeking people. Our children know nothing of the hard tasks, the privation, the long struggles of mind to solve the problems of how to get on, and many other things known to our fathers which called for long hours of study and toil, which long hours of meditation and labor has ever developed men of depth of character and breadth of vision and power of endurance and great initiative and executive ability. It has ever been that an ease loving, pleasure seeking spirit in individual or nation, has developed or produced shallowness of character that dooms to the ruin of all that make a magnificent people.

All the efforts of parents to make for their children flowery beds of ease; all the entertainments and amusements that tend, not to give rest and refreshment from honest worthwhile labor, but to develop in their devotees an abnormal thirst for excitement and such a love for them that duties of life are neglected that they may be indulged in. All the light trashy literature and the many worthless movies that play for hours upon the passions and awake no high aspirations and stir no holy emotions and start no deep and truth-searching thought. All such things and many others make for shallowness of character than which I know of no greater curse, no greater menace to all those traits of character that make a great and noble people.

Parents and teachers fight, as you would a serpent, every thing that makes for shallowness in the children and youth of our land. Learn to hate the thing and fight to the death the thing that threatens the well being of your child. Some of these things, like Satan, transform themselves into angels of light, yet in their influence there is the poison of the serpent. A good hater stands next to a good lover in greatness and usefulness, and they stand side by side in the human heart and make that man the mightiest fighter on earth for human good.

Swallowed a Grass Burr

Louis A. Smith while cutting feed a few days ago, had a trying experience. In some way a grass burr was flipped into his mouth and lodged in his throat. One doesn't have to draw on the imagination very hard to tell what he suffered for a little while. After trying to force it on down by swallowing pieces of bread and failing in that a piece of cotton attached to a string, and soaked in fat was swallowed which did the business, the burr was removed via the cotton and string. Joel correspondent in Hereford Brand.

High School Notes

Our basket ball girls went to Panhandle last week and played their first match game of the season. The score was 26 to 9 in our favor. The girls expect to play many more interesting games this season.

The reports have been given out and the five highest in the school grades are as follows:

Eighth: Imogene McIntire, Francis Reid, Lillian Cash, Mae Holifield and Olive Schramm.

Ninth: Florence Neal, Alice Smith, Ila Mae Hastings, Edward Gerald, Mayne Wood. Francis Hicks and Marjory Gordon-Cummings tied for the fourth place.

Tenth: Lillie May Fogerty, Opal Gill, Ola Robison, Grace Birch, Birch Campbell.

Our base horn and snare drum arrived and the band will soon begin work. The band will have over fourteen pieces and it is hoped it will be especially active in the school work. The orchestra is also coming along fine and is of great help in the chapel exercises.

The ninth grade English have a very interesting subject for this week's theme. It is to be called the "Birds of the Panhandle." Great things are hoped for the English department this year. We are sure that we will not be disappointed for the English must bear the greater part of the burden of affiliation.

Boys Good Bidders at Hog Sale

One little incident at the hog sale at the Wheeler county fair at Shamrock made a very strong impression on the Record editor. When the Rathjen hogs were put up for sale several boys about the age of twelve years began bidding on them in competition with the men and the boys kept bidding until each one purchased a sow. The last sow was purchased by a small boy who paid for it with a liberty bond. There we saw small boys buying registered hogs, while there are thousands of farmers over the Panhandle who have been raising hogs for forty years and yet have never attended a sale of thoroughbred hogs.

What an inspiration to watch those boys buying registered hogs and taking them right away from the men! If given even a fifty-fifty chance those sows will grow into herds and produce handsome bank accounts by the time the boys are twenty-one years of age. There is the solution of keeping the boy on the farm. Give him a chance to start to raising thoroughbred stock and get him interested in accomplishing something on his own account.

Hats off to the Wheeler county boys! Incidentally, one of the boys carried off about eight blue ribbons with a sow which he purchased when a pig, buying her from Frank Rathjen.—Canadian Record.

STUDENTS TO BE SENT TO FRANCE

University Fellowships to Be Awarded to Graduates of American Colleges.

Announcement has been made by J. L. Kendall, secretary for the Society for American Field Fellowships in French Universities, that the award of a number of fellowships will be made in the early part of 1921 for the year of 1921-1922.

There will be offered for open competition among graduates of American colleges and other suitably qualified candidates a number of fellowships not to exceed twenty-five, for the purpose of encouraging advanced study and research in French universities. The announcement says:

"The fellowships of the annual value of $200 and ten thousand francs are granted for one year and are renewable for a second year. They may be awarded in the following fields of study: Agriculture, anthropology, archaeology and history of art, astronomy, biology, botany, chemistry, classical languages and literature, criminology, economics, education, engineering, English language and literature, geography, history, law, mathematics, medicine and surgery, Oriental languages and literature, philosophy, physics, political science and international law, psychology, religion, romance languages and literature, Slavic languages and literature, sociology and zoology."

The successful contestants will be required to sail for France not later than July 1 of the year in which the award is made, to matriculate in a French university for the following session, and to pursue studies in the field of science designated in their awards.

It is stipulated that all applicants must be citizens of the United States and between 20 and 30 years old. They must be graduates of a college requiring four years of study for a degree, based on fourteen units of high school work; or graduates of a professional school requiring three years of study for a degree; or, if not qualified in either of these ways must be 24 years old and have spent five years in an industrial establishment in work requiring technical skill. Applicants must be of good moral character and intellectual ability and must have a practical ability to use French books.

It is pointed out that applications should reach the secretary of the society, 522 Fifth avenue, New York City, not later than Jan. 1, 1921. Application blanks are furnished by the society. Each application must be accompanied by a certificate of birth, a certificate of naturalization if needed; a certificate of college studies; a certificate of industrial work, if needed; a photograph, signed and taken within a year; printed or written articles; these and books, written or published by applicant and three testimonials to moral character, personality and intellectual ability.

No Use for Neutrals.

When Peisistratos was Tyrant of Athens, the fierce Athenian Democracy rose against him and his party and after days of fighting in the streets, drove him without the walls. After the victors had assembled in the Agora, a general amnesty was granted to those still within the city who had fought for the Tyrant's government; but those who had remained neutral were sentenced to death. The leaders of the people gave as their reason for this action the fact that any man who took so little interest in the City as not to take sides in a struggle of such importance to the City's welfare, was unfit to live.—The Rotarian.

GOOD BAND NEEDED IN CANYON--UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY OFFERED

Canyon has made several attempts to organize a band. On such occasions the band has usually been a success for a certain period, and then interest has lagged until the band finally disappeared.

Another opportunity has been offered in the coming of Mr. R. A. Brothers as a member of the Normal faculty.

Mr. Brothers is a musician of more than twenty years experience. He was a member of one of the best bands in Dallas before coming to the Normal. He is a solo cornetist of recognized ability. He is a teacher of all wind instruments and has had great success in all lines.

The Normal has had some good bands during the past few years. Unfortunately, there has usually been but little material for band work during the summer quarter—just the time that the band is in such great demand in the town and when it can be used to such great advantage.

The Music Department of the Normal is offering the services of Mr. Brothers to the community free of charge in order that a first class band may be organized of Canyon material. Mr. Brothers will direct the Normal band and have the regular practices at the school. The plan is to interest every person in Canyon who can play an instrument or who wants to play an instrument, organizing a Canyon band which will meet weekly for the purpose of building up primarily a Canyon organization. The Normal students who are in Mr. Brothers' band at the school will be invited to join in the Canyon band, but the main idea is to organize the band of local people so that there can be music on the public square in Canyon all through the summer months when there is seldom much material in the Normal band.

The offer of the music department in giving absolutely free the services of Mr. Brothers is indeed a very great opportunity to the young people of the community who want to join a band. Towns in the Panhandle which maintain a first class band are having to pay from $200 to $300 per month for the service that is being offered free to the people of Canyon.

Wallace R. Clark, head of the Music Department of the Normal, is very anxious to see all of the young people in Canyon join the Canyon band. Those boys and girls playing in the high school band are being invited to join in the practices, and there are some good musicians in this organization. There are a number of men who played in a town band which was organized here about ten years ago, and all of these men are being urged to get into practice and take a part in the new organization.

Newark, Texas, Nov. 10, 1920.

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church observed the Week of Prayer with very interesting and helpful programs, much interest was taken by some of the members and very good attendance.

On Thursday evening after service a little surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Sweat, Supt. of study and publicity, who is going away to teach. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Newton and every thing was in readiness for a very pleasant evening, conversation being the chief entertainment.

At the appointed time one of the ladies presented the guest of honor a gift in behalf of the Society. Immediately all were served with cake and fruit punch which we suspect had been prepared from the mysterious packages brought in from the cars.

Those present, including honoree, were Rev. and Mrs. McNeeley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bandy and daughter Miss Gladys, Mrs. Trebish and daughter Miss Dorothy, Mrs. Bragg and daughter Miss Auda, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Miller, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Swearingen, Mrs. Briscoe and two daughters, and Mrs. Flesher.

Begin Right Now to Conquer Your Rheumatism

If you are going to again rely upon the liniment bottle to try to rub your Rheumatism away, you will be doomed again to nothing but disappointment. A disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is not on the surface of the skin, and cannot be rubbed away.

Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, and in such cases the only logical treatment is to search out and remove these germs from the blood.

For this purpose there is no more satisfactory remedy than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been in use for more than fifty years, and has given such general satisfaction for Rheumatism.
