

TRADES DAY BIGGEST DAY OF THE YEAR

ENTERTAINMENT PRO- GRAM VERY FINE

Biggest Crowd Canyon Has Had on Trades Day for Several Months
Enjoys the Program.

The people of Canyon said they were going to pull the biggest Trades Day Canyon has ever had, and the big crowd which came to the city Monday were not disappointed, and thoroughly agreed that Canyon had put over her promise.

From 10:30 in the morning until 5:15 in the afternoon there was something doing every minute. The chicken throw, rat killing contest, golf exhibition, races and boxing all drew attention and held the interest of the crowd from 10:30 until 2:30. The citizens of Canyon came down town early in the morning to enjoy the fun, while a very large number of farmers were in early of see the sports. The members of the entertainment committee, Frank R. Phillips, C. L. Condrey and E. E. Foy, are certainly to be congratulated for the excellency of the entertainment program, and the snap with which it was pulled off.

The auction sale in the afternoon conducted by B. M. Johnson was one of the biggest and best ever held on Trades Day.

Trades Day as a whole was a very great success. The people of Randall county feel that conditions are fast becoming normal and are settling down to business. The fine crop prospects have done much to restore confidence.

The May Trades Day comes on May 9th. It will be a big day in Canyon. Don't overlook it.

Volunteer Wheat is Detriment to Crop

On the whole the wheat crop is looking fine. The early wheat that was not grazed is however, not looking so well as the late crop.

A number of wheat experts have called attention to the detriment of the volunteer wheat, of which there is so much this year.

The volunteer wheat has made the crop entirely too thick on the ground, and therefore the ground is quickly sapped of its moisture. The greatest danger from volunteer wheat is that of transmission of all diseases from one year to another through the volunteer crop. It is pointed out that in rice growing sections the volunteer crop must be killed out every third year in order to keep down the disease and keep the seed strong and healthy.

INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Institute will begin Monday afternoon at 4:30. Bro. Hill has kindly offered his home for these services, for the convenience of the Normal students.

There will be a night session at the church at 7:00 o'clock for the local membership. The following courses will be given: "The Sunday School Manual," "Training in Church Membership" and a course in Missions. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

NO TRESPASSING ON COURT HOUSE BLUE GRASS

"Keep off the Grass" signs have been placed on the court house lawn by Sheriff W. C. Black and Judge Worth A. Jennings.

The Sheriff explains that the blue grass is struggling for existence, and will not stand the romping which is continually going on when the lawn is opened to all.

The trespassing rule will be strictly enforced and a fine attached to any who violate the same.

S. M. Downing shipped five cars of hogs to California Tuesday.

OSCAR HUNT GETS FOOT VERY BADLY SMASHED

Oscar Hunt was the victim of a very painful accident Friday night upon the return trip from Stratford. He was riding in the J. A. Guthrie car. As Mr. Guthrie drove in front of the Hunt home, the gas was cut off and the car coasted, Mr. Guthrie intending to stop in front of the walk leading to the house. Mr. Hunt did not notice that the car was moving and stepped to the ground, being thrown under the car. Mr. Guthrie saw what had happened, and applied the brakes. The back wheel caught Mr. Hunt's right foot, breaking two toes and badly tearing the flesh on both toes.

It will not be possible to set the broken bones until the flesh heals. Mr. Hunt will be laid up for several weeks as a result of the accident.

Ten Make Trip To Abo Meeting

Canyon was represented by ten men at the Abo Pass meeting which was held Friday in Stratford. The cars of S. B. McClure and J. A. Guthrie carried the men on the trip. The bunch left Canyon at 5:45 Friday morning and had breakfast at the Amarillo Hotel. The trip started at 7:30 with representatives present from Clovis, Hereford, Friona, Canyon, and Amarillo. The first stop made was at Dumas, where after coffee and cakes had been served a few speeches were made. The trip then continued to Stratford where a big dinner was served the hungry bunch. The meeting was held at 1:30, the purpose of which was to divert traffic to the south thru this section.

The cars then left for Dalhart where a short meeting was held. No stops were made on the way home. The cars from Canyon travelled 256 miles on the trip. Those going from Canyon were J. A. Guthrie, Harvey Cash, Oscar Hunt, W. J. Flesher, S. B. Orton, S. B. McClure, A. E. Wise, T. C. Thompson, H. W. Morelock and C. W. Warwick.

District Conference at Lockney

The District Conference of the Methodist church will be held at Lockney Friday and Saturday of this week. Rev. Simeon Shaw and several members of the local church are expecting to attend this conference.

Time Change in Canyon, May 1st

The new law returning the time zone of the Panhandle back to the Central time is supposed to take effect Sunday morning. Owing to the fact that the Santa Fe has ordered the change made May 1st, it is expected that most towns along the Santa Fe will not make the change in time until that date.

R. McGee, local agent for the Santa Fe, stated yesterday that he had received no orders on the change of time, either for the railroad or for the Western Union. He received notice a few days ago that a new time table would be ready for distribution about the first of May.

President J. A. Hill states that the Normal will not change its time until the Santa Fe makes the change.

The Amarillo papers state that the Ft. Worth & Denver and the Rock Island will make the change Sunday morning.

Brumley-Holland Wedding

Miss Dixie Lee Brumley and Harry Holland of Amarillo were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. C. Brumley, Rev. M. F. Gathright of Amarillo officiating.

The bride has made her home in Canyon with her parents for the past two years and has a very large circle of friends among the young people of Canyon. The groom is a prominent young business man of Amarillo, being owner of a men's furnishing business. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony.

The young couple will make their home in Amarillo, the good wishes of their many friends in Canyon going with them.

Women Make Good Report

Mrs. C. M. Ackerman left yesterday for Wichita Falls to attend the meeting of the women of the Amarillo Presbytery today, Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Ackerman is secretary-treasurer of this work. She states that the women were apportioned to raise $1300 and she will report to the meeting a total of more than $4450, which has been raised by the women of the Presbytery.

MAYER PLANS BIG SYSTEM OF GAS PLANT

ASKS BONUS OF $75,000 FROM CANYON

Good Attendance Thursday Night at Meeting Held at District Court Room—No Action Taken.

There was a good sized crowd Thursday night at the court house to hear the plan of Edward R. Mayer of Amarillo regarding his plan to bring natural gas to Canyon.

Mr. Mayer developed his idea, not that Canyon alone should be served by this gas line, but that the size should be increased sufficiently to care for Canyon, Hereford, Happy, Tulia, Kress and Plainview, with a possible extension to Clovis. While Canyon could be served with a four inch line, Mr. Mayer wants to see a ten inch line run from Amarillo in order that all of the above named towns may be supplied with gas.

The plant Mr. Mayer proposes would cost more than a million dollars. He states that he has interested eastern capital, but so far has not been able to show them that the plant would pay interest of five percent. To offset this large cost, Mr. Mayer asked that the towns along the line put up a bonus. When pressed for the amount of bonus he would expect Canyon to pay, Mr. Mayer suggested $75,000. He stated that he would expect $150,000 from Hereford, and believed that Hereford would readily pay this sum of money. He expected a larger bonus from Plainview. He had already taken the matter up with Clovis, but no action had been taken.

Mr. Mayer stated that he would sell gas for domestic purposes at 70c and for heating purposes at 30c. He believed that at these prices the gas would be much cheaper than coal.

Mr. Mayer stated that a representative of eastern capital would be in Amarillo within ten days or two weeks and he would like to know by that time if Canyon was interested in raising the bonus to get the gas.

NOTE—D. L. McDonald of Hereford stated to Canyon citizens Friday that the people of Hereford would campaign to raise the bonus of $150,000, while the Clovis News of last week reported that the citizens of that city believed the bonus asked of them to be excessive, and no attempt would be made to raise the bonus. Meetings are to be held in Tulia and Plainview by Mr. Mayer this week.

Watkins Not Guilty

J. P. Watkins was tried in County Court Tuesday on the charge of defraud, having given a dry check. The jury found Watkins not guilty.

Fair Fund Gets $43 on Trades Day

The Randall County Fair fund received in donations Trades Day the sum of $43.75 as the result of the articles contributed for the benefit of the fund. The following were the contributions:

Gus Leseberg, two hogs which sold for $21.50.
G. W. Johnson, one hog which sold for $10.00.
H. C. Roffey, two roosters, which brought $2.25.

C. F. Walker, one calf which brought $10.00.

The Fair Association will receive donations of any kind to be sold at the regular monthly Trades Day for the purpose of enlarging the fund for the big county fair this fall.

Agriculture Boys Visit Meat Market

The Vocational Agricultural Class of the Normal Training School made a trip to Amarillo last Friday for the purpose of visiting the meat market at that place. Mr. McElroy, owner of the market, gave a demonstration in cutting meats, explained the working of the refrigeration plant, and showed the boys how sausage was made on a large scale. After the boys had been given their work at the market, they visited the Great Western Mill.

The court will be in session next Monday to start the check on the annual report of the tax collector.

Good Crowd Takes Trades Trip Thursday

There was a fine crowd taking the Trades Trip Thursday, when the Canyon Trades Day boosters visited the Wayside community.

Five cars left Canyon early Thursday morning, visiting the various communities along the way, and arrived at Wayside at 12:30 where dinner was eaten. On the way back Happy was visited, and the Trades Day boosters spent about an hour.

Conditions look very fine in the southwest part of the county which was visited by the trades excursion. The people in that section are feeling fine over the wheat outlook, and believe that normal conditions are fast being restored.

NORMAL TEAM WINS GAMES OF CLARENDON

TEAM MAKES A GOOD SHOWING HERE

First Game 7 to 9; Yesterday's Game
Ten Innings With 5 to 6
Score for Normal.

The Normal baseball team came back strong after the defeats of the trip made last week, and succeeded in winning two games from Clarendon College Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. The Normal boys showed up stronger in every department.

The first game Tuesday was a fine exhibition, the Normal leading by a score of 8 to 0 up to the eighth, when assured of an easy victory the boys let up for a minute and Clarendon ran in 7 scores. In the final period the Normal team annexed another score.

Yesterday's game was more spectacular in that the game was close throughout. At the end of the 9th inning the score stood 4 to 4. The Clarendon team came up to bat and added one score in the first part of the tenth inning. The Normal boys closed the contest by getting away with two scores and winning the game. The two scores were added by the use of four bunts which the Clarendon players were not able to handle.

Helm pitched for the Normal the first day and Walker for Clarendon. Helm showed up very fine.

Bonbright pitched the second game for the Normal. It was his first appearance as a pitcher, and his work was highly praised. Slightly pitched a good game for Clarendon yesterday.

Wants Trees and Flowers for Cemetery

W. H. "Dad" McCorkle, caretaker for the Dreamland Cemetery, is doing splendid work in putting the cemetery in fine condition. He wants more trees, shrubbery and flowers for the cemetery in order that the site may be improved in appearance. He is taking care of all of the plants in the cemetery, but is anxious that those interested give him more plants.

First of all he wants a driveway with trees on either side extending across the cemetery. Next he wants flowers between the trees, and flowers and shrubbery of all kinds for the lots. He is very anxious to keep all lots in perfect condition.

"Dad" is putting his soul into the work of beautifying the cemetery and with a little assistance from the men and women of Canyon will greatly improve the appearance of the cemetery.

City Council Meets

The first meeting of the city council for the new year was held Tuesday night. The new members were sworn in and the council organized for work.

Open Homes to Students

If Fathers and Mothers of the different churches in Canyon could see the imperative need of opening our homes and extending love and hospitality to students of our Normal College for entertainment, also social visits on Sunday, our lives would be made rich and happy because of their association. Numbers of boys and girls have gone out from this College to bless the world with useful lives. We must awake from our deep slumber and value Christian Character Building more than fine furniture in our homes. We pass this way only one time. We cannot recall lost opportunities; but make use of the present.

This is a seed sowing time. Harvest will soon come. The young people of today will be the leaders of tomorrow. We, as parents will reap what we sow. There are many "aching, crushed hearts" today because of "seed sowing."
Mrs. B. T. Johnson.

Normal Team Lost Both Debates Friday

Friday was an unlucky day so far as the Normal debaters were concerned, as both teams representing the school were defeated.

Mody C. Bonbright and Lester Hill debated at Huntsville, while the school was represented in the ideal debate against Commerce by T. D. Tarleton and I. C. Baumon.

The question of the open shop was the subject for the Normal debates this year.

THE GAS SITUATION

The people of Canyon would like to have natural gas if it can be procured at a reasonable price. There are many advantages to natural gas, but people these days are trying to get value received for the money they spend, and investments that promise nothing, are shied at by all investors.

Those who attended the meeting at the court house Thursday night were quite firmly convinced that Canyon is not interested in gas under the proposition offered by Mr. Mayer. It must be taken into consideration that the gas field might possibly be depleted in fifteen or twenty years. To pay a bonus of $75,000 for a limited number of years' service would make gas too much of a luxury. Then the rate promised is not low enough to allow the use of gas for anything except domestic purposes. It would be out of reason to attempt to heat with 30 cent gas.

Canyon is still as far from getting natural gas as she was before the meeting of Thursday night. It is quite possible that the town will get these conveniences some day if the Amarillo field is as large as it is reported to be, but that time is no doubt very remote.

It appears to the News man that an ice plant and 24-hour electric service would be more beneficial to Canyon than the bringing of natural gas which would cost the people a large bonus and a high consumption rate. A high tension line from Amarillo which would have cost more than thirty thousand dollars a year ago could now be built for about twenty thousand. This is getting down close to pre-war prices. We believe that this proposition could be handled locally either with a stock company which would own the line from Amarillo and sell the juice to the local plant at a less cost than it can be produced in Canyon, or it could be handled by a bonus. The News would most prefer to see a bonus paid to local concerns which can develop something that we now have and need, rather than dig deep into the pockets of the people of this community for something unknown and with a possible limited future. Canyon is vitally interested in an ice plant and 24-hour service, and is the thing that can readily be developed and maintained through a little local cooperation.

There has been considerable said in West Texas during the past week regarding the division of the state as a result of the veto of the West Texas A. & M. Collegiate Governor Neff. The division of the State truly come in the distant future, but those who stop to consider, building a new state at this time, would hardly take the chance, with the prospects of the tax rate being pushed up to 6 or 8 per cent of the actual value of all property in this section.

The News man rode on the highways of nine counties Thursday and Friday, and none of these counties have highways to compare with Randall county. The only bad places on the Randall county highways are to be found on the creeks north and south of town. When these places have been fixed up, Randall county will have two highways of which the people can justly be very proud.

The Quinlan-Tribune Chief is soon to change from a weekly to a semi-weekly publication. Harry Koch is, one of the most wide awake and progressive newspaper men in Texas. Congress is in session, and the republicans with a very large majority in both houses promise to forthwith save the country. However, they are finding it mighty hard to get away from the precedents of the past eight years, and one after another the doctrines of Woodrow Wilson are being accepted and executed by President Harding.

The press gang of the Panhandle will meet in Amarillo Friday and Saturday. The bunch is planning for the greatest convention in the history of the association. Joe Taylor, Dallas News State Press, will be one of the prominent speakers.

The Hale Center Record was bought last week by Cass McGee, a former employee of this paper. Cass is a rustler, and knows the printing and newspaper game well. His many friends in Canyon wish him success in his new field.

April Trades Day was the biggest Trades Day Canyon has had in a year. The May Trades Day will be a bigger one. Don't miss it.

The people of Canyon can hardly say this week that they have no place to go. There is something doing every minute in Canyon this week.

Now what are you going to do when the Indians come to take charge of Canyon and the Panhandle country?

Indebted to Goodnight

Ever since that early day when Colonel Goodnight and his good wife came to the Panhandle Country, the debt that this section owes them, has been steadily increasing. Colonel Goodnight was a prominent figure in the events of that stirring and soul-stirring time and gave liberally of his time, means and influence for the good of the country.

It has been most gratifying to his friends to see this debt acknowledged and some appreciation of the great service he has rendered the Panhandle shown him while he is still with us. Even the State of Texas has finally come through tardily, to accord him some of the honors he has so richly deserved. Were it not that he belongs to the Panhandle, his name would be recorded in history of the state along with those of Sam Houston and other illustrious pioneers. In that day, perhaps not so far distant, when the Panhandle shall be given its just due in the histories by reason of being a state by itself, Colonel Goodnight and our other Panhandle pioneers will receive the credit and honor which is justly theirs.

And now comes the Government at Washington, acknowledging that it is indebted to Colonel Goodnight for an idea by which the herds of buffalo belonging to Uncle Sam will contribute to their own support.

Most of "our" folks have seen the splendid articles made from the wool which the buffalo shed in the spring; Colonel Goodnight has gathered it from the trees and bushes and had it woven into blankets and spun into yarn at considerable expense. It makes cloth that is, at once very warm and very light in weight, a blanket six by seven feet, weighing but a little more than four pounds. The Colonel, himself, has a sweater made from the yarn and during the war he sent General Pershing socks knit from it which were gratefully acknowledged by the World War veteran.

The spinning and weaving of the Buffalo wool is but one of the lesser services which Colonel Goodnight and his wife have rendered the Panhandle, the state, the nation, and humanity. It was they who preserved for posterity the remnant of the great Southwestern herd of buffalo; it was through Colonel Goodnight's indefatigable and painstaking efforts that the cattalo was developed and more recently, and as yet unnamed animal resulting from crossing the karakule sheep and the hog.

The Panhandle is proud of this redoubtable pioneer and hopes that he may yet be persuaded to lay aside his personal aversion to publicity and give to the youth of this section the story of his life. It would be an interesting and thrilling tale and put many of the modern "best sellers" in the shade. —Printed in the Hartley County News.

"Pioneer Days in the Panhandle"

"Pioneer Days in the Southwest" is the title of a book recently secured by the Panhandle Historical Society. The volume contains thrilling descriptions of buffalo hunting, Indian fights and massacres, cowboy life, and home-building during the period from 1850 to 1879. Two or three characteristic chapters will introduce us to the contents.

In the first chapter is a brief account of the work of Mr. Charles Goodnight, who was the first settler in the Panhandle, and who has played such an important part in the development of this section. The chapter closes with an account of the Goodnight plan to preserve to Texas and the nation a few of the Panhandle buffaloes. The winter of '77 and '78 closed out forever the great herds; only a few scattering bunches were left. Mr. Goodnight captured four buffalo calves and conveyed them to the ranch. Each was adopted by a milk cow. They soon became tame and were allowed to run with their adopted mothers on the range with the other milk stock. "Here," says Emanuel Dubbs, "was the beginning of the present Goodnight herd which has preserved to Texas this noble animal and has made the Goodnight much famous." Another chapter of special interest is that in which Mr. Dubbs recounts his experience at Adobe Walls, Lefla Lake, and at a point near Clarendon (the confluence of Barton Creek and the Sadler). The most harrowing experience of this period was his return to camp, at the place last mentioned, to find the naked body of one of his men thrown across a wagon tongue that had been elevated by putting under one end of it an ox yoke. An examination of the body revealed the fact that the man had been tortured to death. The savages had driven splinters under the skin and set fire to them.

The County organization of this time reveals the vastness of the sparsely settled Panhandle territory. In 1879 Wheeler County was organized and Mr. Dubbs was elected County Judge. Wheeler then had attached to it for judicial purposes 26 other counties.

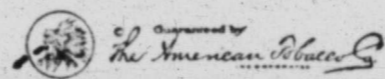

Mr. Dubbs closes his reminiscent account of these early experiences with the following significant prophecy: "I desire to add in conclusion that this great country, the Panhandle of Texas, which was virtually reclaimed from savagery and opened up to settlement by buffalo hunters and pioneers, will team with thousands of happy homes, whose occupants will once in a while give a kind thought to the memory of those who braved so many dangers, blazing the way for future progress and greatness."

THERE'S energy—animation—life—an insistent activity to "do the job"—there's all that about a Columbia Storage Battery.

That's why motorists everywhere speak of that Columbia "difference" in standing up even while subject to a prolonged starting drain that would greatly lower the vitality of the ordinary battery.

Our specialty is service, and we will prolong to the utmost the life of any storage battery you may be using. But when the day for a new purchase arrives—as you expect it to eventually—we will demonstrate "Columbia Reserve Power"—so effectually that you simply will insist on putting it on your car.

Field's "Little Boy Blue"
New York Evening Post: Eugene Field's "Little Boy Blue" was published in the first issue of America, a weekly with which one of his close friends was connected. In that number also appeared James Russell Lowell's "St. Michael the Weigher." A race for popularity between the poems at once developed. Which would have the greater run in the newspapers of the country?

"Field and I," Charles H. Dennis writes in the Chicago Daily News, "looked for them through innumerable newspaper pages, clipping them and counting the clippings. To Field's great glee 'Little Boy Blue' written as it was by an unknown poet, soon began to out-foul Lowell's more pretentious effort. Its lead grew longer day by day, till it was plainly established. One day Dennis tried to perpetrate a fraud on Field. With the help of the printers, he made up a bundle of spurious clippings of 'St. Michael the Weigher' and laid them on Field's desk in an imposing pile, far outweighing the day's clippings of 'Little Boy Blue.' When Field came in he was riveted by the clippings for half an hour. Then his sudden guffaw announced discovery of the fraud. 'Oh, no,' he said, 'That won't go down. Mike needs your help badly, but the Little Boy beat you both.'"

Not So Slow
Within the past month a London newspaper received £2,000 for a single advertisement of a sale from a leading firm of London merchants. It is claimed to be a world record. The advertisement filled four pages and the rate was £500 a page. The statement is made that the same firm and its associated companies spent in the same newspaper over $2,000,000—£53,000—during 1920.

This item is worth noticing because it is symptomatic. There is an outbreak of big advertising in every part of the world. Most persons are under the impression that the disposition of the merchants to fill pages of newspaper space is a new kind of American exaggeration. As a matter of fact, the world has a new awakening to the tremendous force of publicity, and business leaders everywhere are realizing that they must get in the game or go out of business. It isn't American only; it is world-wide, but it surely is funny to find Johnny Bull trying to lead the procession. When it comes to going after business, the old fellow is not so slow, and just now he is sprinting to beat the band.—Baltimore Sun.

Stand Up for the U. S. A.
Yakima Republic: Life on the island of Palmito del Verde, where 300 former Yakima Valley residents are establishing a colony, is no longer the splendid adventure in a modern garden of Eden which it once seemed. When the Yakimans left they were certain they were going to find a Twentieth Century Eden. Now many of them are getting discouraged and wish they were back in this valley, according to the letters received from them.

Miss Thomas, one of the emigrants, was bitten by a poisonous scorpion, and is so ill that his recovery seems unlikely. Another man has been bitten by a centipede and is also in a serious physical condition.

The Yakimans are finding that while crops grow rapidly the weeds grow more rapidly and the desire for work decreases. They have learned that during the rainy season the heavens give their sole and undivided attention to the business of pouring water. The ants swarm over the houses in myriads, the Yakimian exiles have discovered, and they are compelled to construct coal oil barriers to protect their food. There is no doubt that the colonists are acutely homesick.

$30,000 Whistler Challenged
London Chronicle: M. Bonin, the Paris magistrate, is investigating the curious affair of an alleged false oil painting.

Fifteen years ago a young Parisian artist, named Stany Sassy, when about to leave on a holiday, called an old Montmartre dealer into his studio to sell some of his pictures. The dealer having bought several for a few hundred francs, noticed a picture just painted by the artist, and representing flowers in a jug and cherries on a tin plate. The dealer said he could not buy this picture, but offered to give the artist an old camera for it. Sassy gladly accepted.

A few months after the dealer told the artist that he had sold the picture for eighty francs. Sassy never heard any more about it.

Recently when passing the shop of an important Parisian picture dealer he recognized the picture in the window.

To his astonishment it was signed Whistler and dated 1859. And the price demanded by the merchant was $30,000!

Although the picture had been somewhat modified. Sassy was absolutely sure it was not the work of the English master, but his own, and lodged a complaint with the police.

Inquiry shows that this pseudo Whistler was sold in London in 1911 for 120 pounds, and was passed into various hands until it was bought last year for 4,000 pounds by the present owner.

Killing a Town
—A town that never has anything to do in a public way is on the way to the cemetery. Any citizen who will do nothing for his town is helping to dig the grave. A man that "cusses" the town furnishes the coffin. The man who is so selfish as to have no time from his business to give affairs is making the shroud. THE MAN WHO WILL NOT ADVERTISE IS DRIVING THE HEARSE. The man who is always pulling back from any public enterprise throws bouquets on the grave. The man who is so stingy as to be howling hard times, preaches the funeral and sings the doxology. And thus the town lies buried from all sorrow and care.—Downs (Kans.) News.

TRADE MARK

More and more every day the demand for the Fordson Tractor increases because the Fordson has demonstrated so much usefulness, so much economy, so much labor saving, so much money saving, along so many lines of activity. The farmer has discovered that not only for plowing, harrowing, discing, seeding, mowing, reaping and threshing, but a multitude of other uses; cutting wood, feed, grinding feed, churning, washing, furnishing water in the house, making electric light possible in the house and around the barns, so that as a matter of fact, there is hardly an hour in the day when the Tractor cannot be made a profitable servant. There is the ditching to do; there are roads to fix; and so on down the line of the numerous calls that constantly face the farmer the Fordson steps in and does the work, shoulders the complete burden of the toil and the hard work, one might almost say "drudgery."

This is the Age of Machinery, the day when man plans the day's work, or the year's work, and then turns it over to the Tractor to execute. Get the book, "The Fordson at Work," because it is free. If you cannot call for it, write and we will mail it to you. The Tractor is not only a necessity to every farmer but is an established utility along a great many commercial lines. Our allotment is limited to so many each month. Let's have your order now.

Watch for the announcement of the date of the Fordson Demonstration at our garage. A free school on the operation of Tractors will be conducted.

FEED YOUNG CHICKENS OFTEN AND SPARINGLY—GOOD RULES

Young chickens should be fed a little at a time and often. They should be fed early in the morning and just before going to "bed" at night, and not less than two times in the intervening period. For the first two weeks they may be fed three meals of soft and three of hard, feeding less soft feed as they grow older.

No more moistened soft feed should be given at one time than they will eat up clean. Poultry specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture say if any feed is left it should be removed or it will grow sour and cause bowel looseness and dysentery. The finely cracked grains may safely be used from the start, but the chicks do not as a rule grow as rapidly as when a part of the feed is ground. When the chicks are from 4 to 6 weeks old the frequency of feeding may be decreased to three times a day.

From the very first chicks should be induced to exercise; activity is a prime factor in promoting health and growth. Feed grain in the litter, and make them scratch for it. A little fine chaff or finely cut clover makes a good litter.

Come to Canyon to live.

PLAINVIEW AND PADUCAH RAISE SUBSCRIPTION MONEY

Plainview and Paducah School Districts are having some worries about the manner in which the last month of their nine-month school terms shall be financed.

At Plainview definite proposals have not been worked out, according to the Herald of that city, but the statement is made that the school will be continued.

At Paducah a mammoth box supper was held which raised a considerable sum of money and a home chautauqua is also planned to finish out a fund of $2,500 needed.

In order for schools to maintain their affiliation units with the State University the full nine month term must be completed.

About the A. & M. Funeral

While the people of Northwest Texas have been looking forward for years to the establishment of a West Texas A. & M., yet we think that so far as the Plains and Panhandle country is concerned, speaking from a local or selfish standpoint, it is just as well that the measure was vetoed by the governor. The Panhandle-Plains is an empire in itself and standing out as an empire has received very little recognition from the state. The A. & M. established by the 1921 legislature would have been established below the Cap Rock. One prominent legislator stated that Abilene had been selected as the location.

The Panhandle has to consider the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, a powerful organization, whose activities are practically all below the Cap Rock, and it is presumed that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce would work for some town down in that semi-arid region below the Cap Rock which has crop failures at regular intervals and by which, through comparison, the Panhandle-Plains is so sadly misjudged. In point of crop failures the Abilene-Stamford-Sweetwater region of West Texas needs an A. & M. In point of undeveloped agricultural resources and potential possibilities the Panhandle-Plains should have an A. & M.

All the more galling to Panhandle folks is the fact that Abilene is almost the exact geographical center of Texas. Lines drawn from Texarkana to El Paso, from Dalhart to Port Arthur, from Sabine to Seminole, from Vernon to Eagle Pass, will show that Abilene is the geographical center of the state. A circle large enough to lay the map of Texas in so that all points are inside the circle will show that Abilene is almost the bull's eye of that circle, the exact center being a few miles southeast of Abilene.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce that is really the Center of Texas as Chamber of Commerce. Yet, with its far-reaching and powerful organization, it stands between the densely populated eastern and southern portions of the state and the region which we rightfully claim as West Texas, as the representative of West Texas. It does not seem possible to get by that organization to bring an A. & M. above the Cap Rock. "West Texas" means to the eastern and southern part of the state, that portion around Abilene-Stamford-Sweetwater.

All the Panhandle-Plains country will ever get from Texas is the Normal at Canyon. The political barons of Texas are even now wondering how they ever appropriated the money to establish that, and the building up of the Canyon Normal will be all we can ever hope for.

Central Texas may some day get an A. & M. from Texas, but the Panhandle-Plains never will.—Canadian Record.

CANYON IN THE '90's

Having the Blues

I have been confined to my bed for weeks at a time, suffering with some bodily ailment; I have contracted extremely contagious diseases and as a result had to watch a quarantine card for four weeks; but never, never have I been tortured by a worse visitor than the disease called "blues." To me this word suggests unutterable horrors—something which upsets the person affected, as well as everyone who comes in contact with him.

Of course, there are different species of the menace, but the kind that makes my disposition worst is what is known as the "homesickness blues." With this to contend with nothing satisfies, and everything goes wrong.

As I walk to the city post office I wonder if they have written; perhaps, oh, maybe I have a large letter awaiting me! But when I reach my box, I find it as cold and desolate as ever. Oh, yes; I can look around and see stacks of mail in the other boxes, but likely the owners of these aren't anxious; they receive letters every day—their folks are thoughtful enough.

I trudge back to my boarding house slowly; thinking all the while of my ill-luck, that I would like to run away from the whole civilization. I climb the stairs and go to my room, only to get this greeting from one of the girls: "Oh, why that desolate look? Let me tell you my news! Mother has written that I am to come home in two weeks. Oh—!" Yes, everyone now has to go out of her way to let the hear of some letter from home, from someone who does not interest me in the least.

I look around the room, and all I can see is a stack of books—what do those teachers think we are, anyway? I open a history and endeavor to concentrate my frustrated brain, but a picture of anything but history comes into my mind. Suddenly I hear my name called. I dash down stairs and discover I have a telegram. I know it can't be anything but bad news, but upon opening it, hurrah! "Meet me in Amarillo to-morrow. Mother."

At Last===A Tube That Closes Punctures

You Pull the Nail and Keep Moving

It Adds 20 to 50 per cent to the Casing's Life

With the Compression Inner Tube there are no long waits on the road—no dirty back-breaking tire changing—nothing to do but pull out the nail and keep moving. Here's why: Compression tubes are about three times as thick as ordinary tubes. Their circumference is greater than the inside circumference of the casing. They are moulded with corrugations which conform to the smooth surface of the casing when deflated. The air pressure, instead of stretching the tube, COMPRESSES it. Thus when the nail is removed the hole closes up automatically. No air is lost!

Compression Tubes—once inflated—are always firm—the proper air pressure is constantly maintained. They add many miles to the life of the casing practically eliminates pinching and rim-cuts—makes the car ride easier. You are not only able to say—GOODBYE PUNCTURES—when your car is equipped with Compression Tubes—but you save money on tires, gasoline, etc. You owe it to your sense of motoring economy to investigate Compression Tubes. Come in and let us SHOW you this puncture-closing tube today.

Lemandy
Where the broad Canadian river
Winds its way thru hills of sand,
Where the double-M commander
Had come and stamped his brand.

There in chaps and wide sombrero
Was a lad of sent eighteen;
He'd ridden the range with veterans
And their friendships he had gained.

He'd ridden there in the summer;
He had worked there 'till the fall;
He'd asked them for their bronchos
He'd ridden them one and all.

On one joyous fall morning
He had heard the cowboys bet
That upon the camp at Tar Box
Was a bronc he couldn't "set."

He had seen the boss that morning;
And he made this boast to him:
That the horse to throw Lemandy
Didn't run on double-M.

When the grinning group of cowboys
Heard the bossman tell the story,
Then at once they rounded Tar Box
And they caught in all his glory.

Chateau Thierry, the wild broncho;
He, the horse as black as night,
Won the title he was wearing
Through his aptitude to fight.

When at last he was corralled,
When a cowboy threw the loop
That had settled over Chateau,
There was heard a deafening whoop.

They had conquered him at last;
By his ears they held him tense
As they beckoned to Lemandy
From his seat upon the fence.

He then came from his position
With his saddle in his hand;
He had made a reckless boast
And would back it like a man.

With a sure hand and steady
The saddle to its place he flung;
Then, when everything was ready,
Astride the vicious black he swung.

The wind had ceased its moaning;
Every cloud had donned a frown;
When the cowboys shrieked "ye ready?"
And Lemandy said, "I am."

Of this wild and wicked bucking
That was staged upon the range
This had been the roughest ever
This had been a complete change.

Now old Chateau grew his wildest;
Between his feet he waxed his head;
Now Lemandy rode his boldest
And his spurs brought streaks of red.

But old Chateau turned the saddle,
Threw Lemandy o'er his head
Where he lay as pale as lilies,
Still and silent, but not dead.

Then as quick as forked lightning
Sounded loud the battering raps
Of the cruel and hardened hoofs
As they struck the bat-wing chaps.

Then he turned as if to run,
But his mind he changed instead,
And he made a final blow
At Lemandy's pallid head.

When Lemandy had recovered,
To his friends he said; and smiled,
"You can ride old Chateau Thierry,
But to me he still is wild."

We're a Sweet Tooth People
Americans have long since held the record as the greatest sugar eaters in the world, and having no others to beat they have proceeded to surpass themselves. With candy, cakes, pies, ice cream, soft drinks and chewing gum, and a hundred other articles, we sweeten ourselves from one end of the year to the other. It is understood that the custard pies used in the movies are not sweetened, which represents a considerable saving.

Notice how we are eating more sugar every year. In 1905 we averaged 71 pounds per head; in 1910, 78; in 1913, 86; in 1914, 90; in 1916, 80; in 1919, 79; in 1919, 84, and in 1920, 92. There was a little falling off during the war stringency, and the lack of sugar was one of the greatest hardships of the whole business. But last year the United States produced nearly 3,000,000,000 pounds of sugar, and we ate nearly 1,000,000,000 pounds more. But that does not mean that we grow our own sugar. We produce only about one-fourth of what we eat. Since 1907 we have produced more beet sugar than cane sugar—last year more than twice as much.

Prohibition is said to be partly responsible for the increase in sugar consumption, but just how is not very clear. Perhaps the man who wants a glass of beer munches a slab of chocolate, or the fellow who has a craving for gin takes it out on a few gum drops. More probably the man with a thirst goes to the soft-drink stand and swallows a lemon soda or something of that sort. It is not the big fat man who consumes the sugar; it is the little girl (also the big girl) who likes candy and ice cream. She is the one who makes the sugar market.

"The Whistling Kirk"
Victoria Colonist: Nearly all children know that James Watt was the inventor of the steam engine, but there are, perhaps, very few who have heard that he was not only a musician, but that he built his own organ. In his time and for long after, the Presbyterians of Scotland and in Canada considered it wicked to play the organ in a church. Last year was the centenary of the death of the great inventor, who lived to be a very old man. A writer in Munsey's Magazine, after naming many of the machines and instruments first made by the man, who, as a boy, wondered at his mother's teakettle bubbled over the fire, tells us that he designed and built the first organ ever used in a Scotch Presbyterian Church. It was originally a small chamber organ that he built for his own use when he was instrument maker in Glasgow, but when he went to live in Birmingham, where he was partner in Boulton's iron works, he left the organ in Glasgow, and it came into the possession of the minister of St. Andrew's Church. For some time Watt's organ was used only for choir practice on week days and was covered and kept out of sight on the Sabbath. One Sunday in August, 1807, however, it was played during the service by an organist of Episcopal faith. The Episcopalians at that time were known in Scotland as "the whistling kirk," because they had adopted the organ—called by good Presbyterians "a kist of whistles"—as a legitimate part of their church music. Presbyterian Glasgow was shocked by the innovation.

Property
Property is desirable; is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is homeless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when rich.—Abraham Lincoln.

If we were to divide the vast army of workers of mature age into two classes, the savers and the spend-thrifts, we should practically separate the creditable from the discreditable, the exemplary from the pitiable, and the sober from the intemperate.—Andrew Carnegie.

Canal Traffic Grows
Washington Star: Nearly eight ships a day passed through the Panama Canal during the year 1920. The total number in transit was 2,814, aggregating 40,378,000 net tons and carrying a total cargo of 11,236,000 tons. This traffic established a new high record, exceeding that of the previous year by about 50 per cent. During the month of December the tolls amounted to $1,007,875, the greatest sum taken in any month except last September, and the total for the year was $10,295,000. These figures show what a big work has been done at the isthmus since it was pierced. They fully justify the immense expenditure of the enterprise. They refute all the gloomy forecasts of failure that were advanced when this country seriously undertook the job. And the canal traffic is just in its early development. The chances are that the year 1921 will show a new high record in tonnage and in tolls, and that the number of ships passing through daily will rise to ten or higher. Think of the time saved by those ships daily passing between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans by a few hours' sailing. In the aggregate the steaming time of the 2,814 ships around the horn would amount to many years, the fuel consumption to millions of tons, the cost of transportation to an incalculable sum of money. The Panama canal stands as one of the best investments ever made by any nation.

Business is Improving

Evidences of improvements exhibited by business conditions in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District during February, by comparison with the previous month and as shown by statistics given in subsequent reports, are outlined in the following resume issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

- A 50 per cent increase in building activity.
- A 40 per cent increase in orders received by wholesale dry goods firms.
- A 20 per cent increase in business of department stores.
- A 30 per cent decrease in commercial failures.
- A 10 per cent decrease in outstanding loans of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas.

The reports state that the above resume sums up the more important features of business improvement for the month.

The Only Solid Basis

Religion is the only solid basis for Society. Religion is to society what cement is to a modern building—it makes all parts compact and coherent. The teachings of Christ have been the basis of all Christian legislation for nearly 2,000 years and continues to be the light and guide for hundreds of millions of souls. Neither Solon, Lycurgus nor Justinian nor Napoleon nor any other framer of laws ever exerted a tith of the influence which the gospel of Christ exercises on the human races.—Cardinal Gibbons.

Sheriff's Sale

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Randall.
By virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Tarrant County, on the 18th day of March, 1921, by Mrs. G. Frank Coffey, Clerk of said Court, against J. I. Eyles, et vir versus J. I. Campbell and C. C. Jones and J. M. Turner, and placed in my hands for service, I, W. C. Black, as Sheriff of Randall County, Texas, did on the 26th day of March, 1921, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Randall County, described as follows, to-wit:

SECOND TRACT:
190 acres of land being the Northwest one-fourth of Survey 67, Block B-5, patented by the State of Texas to the Texas Land Company, December 31st, 1880, by patent No. 291, Vol. 61, by virtue of Certificate No. 15-3673, issued to H. & G. N. R. Co., all situated in Randall County, Texas, excepting however, 30 acres out of the Northeast Corner of said first tract now owned by Wm. Willard and not herein conveyed.

It is hereby decreed that Order of Sale issue to the Sheriff of Randall County, Texas, to sell said property as provided by law on the First Tuesday in May, 1921.

It is also ordered and decreed that the said property be first offered for sale in Fifty (50) acre Tracts, and if the property be so sold the expense of dividing the same into 50 acre tracts is hereby assessed against all of said defendants, as is provided by law in such cases.

That if there be no bidder for said property in fifty acre tracts, then in that event, the same shall be offered for sale as a whole.

And levied upon as the property of said J. I. Campbell and C. C. Jones and J. M. Witness my hand, this 26th day of March, 1921.

W. C. BLACK, Sheriff,
Randall County, Texas.

War Insurance Cost

New York Times:—Some idea of the mass of business handled by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance in Washington may be gained from figures recently published by the bureau. According to these, the checks mailed daily in payment of insurance policies would, if joined end to end, reach thirty eight times the height of Washington Monument. Four miles of checks are, by this computation, mailed daily. Insurance applications received on an average day would, it is stated, form a belt one and a half miles long, or more than eight times the height of the Eiffel Tower.

The matter of names seems to have given the bureau more trouble than anything else. If Willie Smith, for instance, fails to give essential correct information as to his address a hunt must be made through files containing 3,411 other "Willie Smiths." In the bureau's large family there are 51,000 Smiths, 48,000 Browns, 47,000 Williamses, and 28,000 Joneses. There are in the files fifty-two John O'Briens fourteen of whom made allotments to wives named Mary.

Among the odd signatures prompted by humor and eccentricity which have been found upon application blanks, are the following: Milt Gosh, Velvet Couch, P. Phurbus Brown, Asad Experience Wilson, Will Swindle, Slaughter Bugg, Willie Darling, Isaac Did-Not-Butcher and Lloyd George Parliament.

The charge that the Government is making money through the insurance business is denied in the pamphlet in vigorous language. "This statement is utterly false" it reads. "The premiums paid by Uncle Sam's fighting men total about $300,000,000 but much more than $1,000,000,000,000 has already been allowed of over $70,000,000 which the Government has borne."

The New Germany

Kansas City Star: General Tasker H. Bliss, formerly American representative on the supreme war council at Paris, appeared before the House Naval Committee with a plea for disarmament. He declared: "The nation that would refuse to agree to any proposition looking to disarmament or at least a reduction of its military establishment could be written down as the next Germany and the United States could make its plans accordingly." General Bliss said that Marshal Foch and other great military figures shared his view that some cessation of the present building and arming is absolutely necessary.

Sesostris

Sole Lord of Lords and very King of Kings.
He sits within the desert, carved in stone;
Inscrutable, colossal and alone,
And ancienter than memory of things
Graved on his front the sacred beetle clings;
Distain sits on his lips; and in a frown
Scorus lives upon his forehead for a crown.
The affrighted ostrich dare not dust
her wings
Ahear this presence. The long caravan's
Dazed camels pause, and mute the Bedouins stare.
The symbol of past power more than

Kings despair;

And dark throats totter in the bale-

Deserted Nests

And thou, dear nest, whence joy and praise
The thankful oriole used to pour,
Swing'st empty while the north winds
chase
Their snowy swarms from Labrador;
But, loyal to the happy past,
I love thee still for what thou wast.

Ah, when the summer graces flee
From other nests more dear than thou,
And, where June crowded once, I see
Only bare trunk and disheveled bough
When springs of life that gleaned and gushed
Run chilled, and slower, and are hushed.

When our own branches, naked long,
The vacant nests of spring betray,
Nurseries of passion, love and song
That vanished as our year grew grey;
When life drone o'er a tale twice told
O'er embers pleading with the cold—

I'll trust that, like the birds of spring,
Our goods goes not without repair.
But only flies to soar and sing
Far off in some divine air,
Where we shall find it in the calms
Of that fair garden 'neath the palms.
—Lowell.

Resourceful Youth

Honstog Post: Entering a store a woman asked the youth behind the counter if she could see his employer. The boy went behind a thin partition and shouted into a back part of the shop.

"Can you come up? Lady wants to see you?"
A distant voice replied promptly.
"What's she like—old or young?"
The customer waited in suppressed amusement to see how the youth would answer the embarrassing question, since he must know she could hear both query and reply. But he was tactful.
"You'll be satisfied when you come up," he said promptly.

Similar Cases Being Published In Each Issue.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Canyon. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot task for better proof.

J. A. Carr, county road Supt., Canyon, says: "For six or eight months I had some trouble with my back and kidneys. My back was sore and stiff a great deal of the time and mornings when I first got up it was especially so. My kidneys were very weak and acted entirely too often. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised with such good results that I began using them. Right from the start I was relieved and they seemed to fix my kidneys up and relieve me of all the storeness in my back."

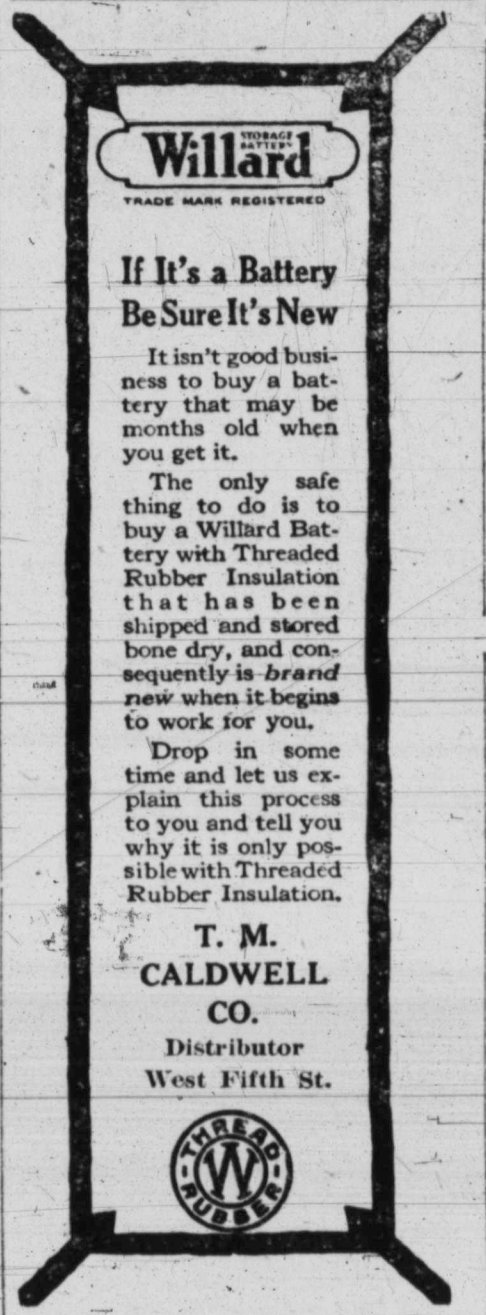

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Carr had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

JERSEYS

CANYON, TEXAS

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1921, AT FOSTER BARN
1:00 O'CLOCK

At the solicitation of some of the Purebred Breeders of Canyon, who are interested in better Dairy Stock, we are selling a car load of Real Dairy Cows on the above date. This is a choice selected offering of REGISTERED AND HIGH GRADE JERSEYS of Popular Blood lines. Almost the entire offering are FRESH or HEAVY SPRINGERS and ready to go to work now.

Now this is not a "good, bad and indifferent bunch"; but we have selected them with but one object—"Take good ones or none." There are no culls in the bunch, and, while they are only in medium flesh, we believe you will agree with us that they are the kind that will make you money and make friends for the Jersey Breed.

OUR WAY OF SELLING

A plain statement will be made on each animal when brought into the ring. And on the Registered ones, Pedigrees will be read from the stand. Every animal will be Guaranteed a breeder and as represented. Every animal offered will be sold regardless of price, without by-bids or Protection of any kind. In other words, "YOU SET THE PRICE." If you need a milk cow either Registered or High Grade, you can't afford to miss this sale. We are saving you your express bill by bringing them to your door. They have been Tuberculin Tested, you run no risks.

We will bring one or two well bred Young Bulls good enough to head any herd. Sale RAIN OR SHINE. Don't let the weather keep you away. The worse the weather, the better bargains you will be able to secure.

The following will be the program on April 27:

Paper: "A Kentucky Cardinal" and "Aftermath."

Discussion: "Allen's Longer Stories: 'The Choir Invisible,' 'The Reign of the Law,' 'The Mettle of the Pasture.'"

Paper: "Madison Cawein Kentucky's Nature Poet."

Paper: "The Poetry of Samuel Minturn Peck."

Reading: "An Alabama Garden."

Leaders: Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Sone.

City Property Sold

Supt. C. L. Sone has sold his home on West Houston street to G. S. Ballard, possession to be given next month.

S. R. McClure reports the sale of the S. F. Foster residence to J. E. Dickinson, who lives north of town, and three lots in block 11, Normal Addition to H. C. Dreup of Dimmitt.

Indianapolis News: We may feel justly satisfied in learning that the public debt to the United States is being steadily reduced. Figures given out recently in Washington show that a reduction of $192,352,075 in our national debt has been effected during the month ending on Dec. 31. At that date the debt stood at $23,582,224,168, compounded with $24,175,136,244 on Nov. 30, and $26,596,701,648 on Aug. 31, 1919, when the war debt reached its maximum. The figures even now are little short of staggering, especially to those who are accustomed to think in terms of pre-war levels. In 1913, for example, our national debt amounted to what today we would consider the ridiculously small total of $1,280,564,000.

The fact that really sizeable reductions in the public debt have already been effected justifies us in looking to the future with real optimism. The annual interest charges on the outstanding public debt of $29,000,000,000 still thrusts upon the taxpayers a terrible burden. But each month should see that burden grow appreciably lighter. The present generation need hardly expect that the debt of the United States will ever again fall under two billions. But there is no reason why it should not shrink within a comparatively few years to the neighborhood of ten billions.

Bad After Effects

From every oil town nowadays come reports of broke millionaires thronging the streets. Well, they had a good time while the oil boom lasted, and that is about their only consolation. Most of them threw money away like drunken sailors, and convinced us that a spendthrift really has no business with money. As his easy way of acquiring and spending money has a bad effect upon the steady workers, the only ones worth anything to civilization. People who live beyond their means not only wind up invariably in a much humbler fashion than they started, but during their short career dazzle and lead astray other shortsighted folks.

Height of Generosity

American Legion Weekly: When the church in Newton, Mass., attended by Darius Cobb, the well-known painter, was trying to raise money to lift the mortgage, a mass meeting was held to solicit contributions. It came Mr. Cobb's turn to tell what he would give for the cause.

"I haven't any money, but I'll give a $200 picture," he said. When all the contributions were in, it was found there was still a deficit, and the members of the congregation were asked to increase their donations. "All right," said Cobb, "I'll do my share. I'll raise the price of my picture to $300."

The Better Part

Lo! as I dreamed methought there came
One riding proudly and alone:
And loud he clariomed, "I am Fame!
Choose wouldst thou take me for thine own?"
I read his name writ on the skies,
I marked his lonely majesty,
But found no rest within his eyes,
Then answered, "Nay, I would not take thee!"

And next another sought my side,
Silken and soft her vesture shone.
"Rejoice—rejoice with me," she cried,
"Sing and be glad, ere day be gone."
I marked the garlands on her brow,
I marked the roses in her hair,
Red roses once, pale roses now.
Then passed and left her lonely
there.

At last one timidly drew nigh,
Drew nigh and nestled to my breast,
So sweet, so still, save one glad cry,
Which broke the silence of her rest.
I poured my kisses on her head,
I clasped her closely to my heart,
"Rest on, my queen, my love!" I said,
And so I found the Better Part.
—Pamela Russell in Answers.

Not What He Wanted

Gladys and Algy were lovers and they sat very close together in a secluded spot in the park. Perhaps other lovers have done the same.
When they were nice and comfy Algy noticed a young urechin staring at them through a bush.
"Boy," called our Algy, "here's 2 pence; go and get yourself some sweets!"
"I don't want any sweets," replied the urechin.
"Well, here's a shilling; run away and play."
"I don't want your shilling."
"Well, what do you want?"
"I want to see."
