

NATIONAL GUARD COMPANY TO BE RAISED IN CITY

H. C. GAMBLE NAMED CAPTAIN— WILL HAVE SIXTY-FIVE MEN

Jones and Kellenschmidt are Lieutenants—Will Get Army and Rifle Range—Pay for Drilling.

One of the biggest things offered to Canyon for several years, came Monday when it was proposed to establish in Canyon a company for the new National Guard being organized under the State Adjutant General which will be federalized under the new law.

Major Claude A. Adams of Crowell was conferring with National Guard officers in Amarillo Sunday regarding various towns, and Jack Jones heard of the meeting. He at once laid before the officers the possibility of Canyon being the logical town for a company, as it was planned to form a battalion of the companies now in existence at Amarillo, Hereford, and Clarendon, and wished the fourth company to be near by. Canyon is therefore given a chance to raise the company and quick action is needed to put over the proposition. Reports were wired to Major Adams this morning, and he wants all enlistments in by Sunday morning.

H. C. Gamble, Post Commander of the American Legion in Canyon has been recommended as captain of the company. Mr. Gamble served throughout the war in the air service as lieutenant. Jack Jones and Wesley Kellenschmidt were recommended as lieutenants. Both of these men are overseas veterans of the World War, both being sergeants while in service.

A full company is sixty-five men. The company will be accepted with an enlistment of fifty men, but this must be raised to sixty-five within six months.

Major Adams took considerable time Monday to explain to business men the advantages to be derived from a National Guard Company under the new law.

"Before the war," said Major Adams "the National Guard was looked upon as tin soldiers by the regular army. The Guard could get no appropriation. I have been in all branches for the past twenty-four years. If we had an armory, the citizens of the town had to pay for it. If we went to camp, we had to pay our railroad fare. We got such equipment as the regular army discarded."

"When the World War came," continued Major Adams, "the National Guard sent more combat divisions to France than did the regular army. Every Guard unit at the front acquitted itself with honor. The regular army officers saw they had been mistaken in their judgment of the Guard. When it became necessary to reorganize the army, the officers at once hit upon the plan of strengthening the National Guard and making it an intricate part of the federal system."

"When a company is placed in a town," said the Major, "the citizens are not asked for one cent. The state of Texas pays the rent on a building to be used for an armory. This money is ready to be paid for some building in Canyon. The federal government pays all of the remaining expense. We will construct a rifle range, the expense of which may run as high as $6500. We let the contract to some local man, and all materials will be bought in Canyon.

"The men are given pay for drilling. The money is ready for them, having been appropriated by congress. The regulations require five drill periods per month, one and one-half hours each. These periods are preferred (Continued on last page)

McNeil Boys Found Guilty in Hereford

The trial of H. C. McNeil which ended last Wednesday afternoon in the Deaf Smith county district court, resulted in Hugh being sentenced to four years in the penitentiary on the charge of violating the state liquor laws.

Abe McNeil was tried Saturday and Monday, the jury returning a verdict Monday night of guilty, and assessing the penalty as two and one-half years in the penitentiary. Abe was given one year on a similar charge in Randall county.

Hugh has yet to face the Randall county charge, which has three times been tried and resulted in a hung jury.

RANDALL COUNTY ROADS BEST IN THE PANHANDLE

Hon. H. H. Tracy, mayor of Tulla, stated at the Happy Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night that Randall county was recognized to have the best roads in the Panhandle.

The Plainview Herald upon different occasions has complimented Randall County's highways.

Eugene Devereux is Hurt in Football Game

Eugene Devereux, one of the most prominent young men in the Normal was injured in the society football game on the Normal grounds Saturday, while tackling a man and was hit on the head by the runner's knee. He was unconscious for several hours.

Physicians believe there is a small blood clot over the brain and that the covering of the brain was injured.

He was taken to Amarillo Tuesday afternoon for treatment.

The accident was one of the most regrettable to happen this year in the school. The physicians do not believe an operation will be necessary, but it will take weeks for nature to cure the injury.

FERGUSON-GAMBLE WEDDING

Miss Audrey Ferguson of Wichita Falls and Henry C. Gamble of this city were united in marriage Thanksgiving morning at nine o'clock at the home of Rev. Ted P. Hollifield, who officiated.

These young people are among the best known and most popular in Canyon, and their large circle of friends have been extending most hearty congratulations and best wishes.

The bride was a student in the Normal two years ago, and returned again for school this fall, but Cupid somewhat interfered with her plans and suddenly terminated her scholastic plans in the wedding ceremony of Thursday. Henry Gamble has been a citizen of Canyon for the past eleven years, being connected with the Canyon Supply Co. During the war he was a lieutenant in the air service, and instructor in this branch in the Texas camps. After being discharged, he was one of the men to put over the American Legion Post in Canyon, being elected Post Commander soon after the Post charter was received. It is largely through his efforts and ideas that the Club House was constructed, this being one of the very few Posts in Texas which has a separate Club House.

Members of the club held a reception dance, and shower for the bridal couple Thanksgiving night at the Club House.

BUFFALOES TIED THURSDAY'S GAME WITH BULL DOGS

SCORE OF 14 TO 14—VISITORS EXCELL IN FORWARD PASS

One of Best Football Games Witnessed On the Local Field—Season For 1921 Closes.

The Buffaloes put up one of the best games of football ever witnessed on the local field Thanksgiving day, and all but defeated Clarendon College. A deciding touchdown was needed to break the 14 to 14 tie. The Buffaloes had the ball on the four yard line with four downs to make the distance. When the last attempt was ended, there was six inches between the piskin and the goal line.

The teams were nearly equal in ground gaining ability, the visitors carrying the ball 406 yards, while the Buffaloes made in all 410 yards. The Buffaloes fought for practically every inch of the distance gained, while the Bull Dogs relied upon their superior ability with the forward pass.

The forward pass was the only thing that saved the Bull Dogs from a 14 to 0 defeat. Only six times during the game were the visitors able to make first down on straight football. They attempted the forward pass 31 times, getting away with 16 successful passes, for a total gain of 200 yards or half of their entire gain. The Normal completed five successful passes of the 12 attempts, and gained 50 yards by this method. After the Buffaloes had registered two touchdowns, Clarendon opened up with a series of short passes, which were responsible for their 14 points. Four receivers were rushed behind the Normal line. The one of the quartet which was not guarded was given the ball and hardly ever failed to make from 5 to 15 yards. The local team was not able to break up this ground gaining combination. The Normal intercepted two passes, and the visitors one.

The Bull Dogs were penalized twice for a total of 20 yards. The Buffaloes drew four penalties, amounting to 25 yards. The Buffaloes made three fumbles at critical times, while the visitors made but one.

Both teams attempted field kicks, neither of which went over the goal posts. The visitors received east, and after carrying the ball 20 yards were forced to kick. The Buffaloes tore loose with line snuggles, Johnson, Burson, Studor and Whitacre all being able to make short gains. After a return of 25 yards they were forced to kick from midfield, the ball going in play, in Clarendon's possession on practically the spot from which it was kicked. Clarendon carried to the 35 yard line where a drop kick was attempted, and the ball put into play on the 20 yard line. Line smashes netted 16 yards when another kick was called, the ball going high with little distance. Clarendon worked the ball to the 20 yard line when Johnson intercepted a forward pass and returned to the 45 yard line before being downed. Smashes (Continued on last page)

Mrs. Sheffy Injured Falling From Auto

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy went to Amarillo Friday afternoon to meet Mrs. Sheffy's sister. On the return after dark, the car was not running well. Mrs. Sheffy thought she had discovered the car to be on fire and called to Mr. Sheffy to stop. Just what happened, none of the three can say. Mrs. Sheffy does not remember to have jumped from the car, and it is thought that possibly the door came open and she fell out while trying to see whether or not the car was on fire.

Mrs. Sheffy was found by Mr. Sheffy and her sister unconscious by the roadside. She was hurried home and found to have fallen on her face and head. There is a slight concussion on the head, the shoulder blade fractured and her face and head badly bruised. She suffered very greatly for several hours after the accident, and while she will be disabled for several weeks from the results of the accident, her many friends are glad to know that she is recovering as well as could be expected.

What You Will Find In Randall County

At the Commercial League luncheon Tuesday, C. F. Walker presented some statistics which are of interest to every citizen in the county, and every prospective citizen. Here they are:

Number of acres in the county, 576,000.

381 farms, average of 1193 acres, with average of 305 acres in cultivation.

30,000 head of cattle.

4,100 head of hogs.

3,700 horses.

1,200 mules.

1,600 sheep.

Wheat in 1920 averaged 14.9 bushels, or 1575 bushels to the farm.

Grain sorghums averaged 18 bushels or 1170 bushels to the farm.

Oats averaged 27 bushels, or 900 bushels to the farm.

Increase in value in last ten years, 52 per cent.

The following shipments were made last year:

175 cars of cattle.

150 cars of hogs.

130 cars of wheat.

25 cars of grain sorghums.

5 cars of oats.

3 cars of horses and mules.

5 cars of sheep and goats.

35 cars of hay.

10 cars of mixed seed.

The approximate value of the shipments made was $600,000.

Rogers Trades for Sherman Co. Ranch

J. E. Rogers has traded his residence in the west part of town and his half section of land southwest of the city in on an eleven section ranch 10 miles south of Stratford, the trade being made with G. T. Whaley who owned the Sherman county ranch for twenty years. The ranch is a choice body of land, being fenced and cross fenced, with 640 acres in cultivation. There are three wells and windmills, and three houses with home improvements.

Mr. Whaley will move to Canyon about the first of April. He is coming here on account of the schools. The Whaley family are among the best known on the north plains and are highly desirable citizens.

Mr. Rogers states that his plans are not complete, other than he will move his cattle to the ranch in the spring, where they will be in the care of his sons. The Rogers family has lived in Randall county for thirty years, and it is not likely that J. E. will be content to live any place other than in Canyon. He will likely build a home near the Normal where Miss Mabel is one of the efficient teachers, and divide his time between the ranch and Canyon.

J. D. Gamble and A. M. Smith made the deal, which is one of the largest real estate trades made in several months.

ROBBINS TAKES OVER BUSINESS

Rhea Robbins moved from Portales this week, and this morning took charge of the Normal Grocery and Market which he bought last week from Joe Foster. Mr. Foster is moving out to his farm southeast of the city, while Mr. Robbins gets possession of the Foster home on East Houston street.

The Robbins family is welcomed to the city.

GOOD THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Those who attended the Thanksgiving service Tuesday morning at the Methodist church pronounced it to be one of the largest and best Thanksgiving services ever held in this city. Rev. E. A. Osborne, pastor of the Christian Church, preached a most forceful sermon fitting for the occasion.

HAPPY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAD BIG BANQUET TUESDAY 8 O'CLOCK P. M.

One of the biggest, best and most enjoyable occasions of the year was pulled off Tuesday night at Happy when the Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet which was attended by about 75, including guests from Canyon, Tulla, Amarillo and Wayside.

J. E. Moore, president of the Happy Chamber of Commerce, presided. Mr. Moore is a genuine booster for Happy first, last and all the time.

R. M. Fielder, secretary of the Commercial Club at Tulla, told how one's own town must be sold to all of the citizens of the community first, and then sold to the neighbors. After the town is thoroughly sold, there is a great community.

C. H. Jarrett, president of the Randall County Commercial League, was called upon to tell how things were done in Canyon. He was followed by C. W. Warwick, and then Mr. Moore called upon President J. A. Hill.

Mr. Hill told of his recent visits in other sections of the United States and the conditions confronting these sections. He finds the civilization of the Plains of Texas greater than these other sections. There is less economic differences and more social equality in the Panhandle. Mr. Hill gave his reason for this superior condition on

W. A. Warren will be the leader at the weekly luncheon of the Randall County Commercial League luncheon next Tuesday.

The luncheon will be held at the Crystal Cafe, of which P. D. Casey is now proprietor.

ENTER YOUR POULTRY

C. F. Walker calls attention to the fact that many Randall county poultry breeders are mistaken regarding the charges for entering the poultry show to be held in Amarillo Dec. 7-11.

There is only one charge—$1.00 per pen. The birds of the pen are allowed to show as individuals without extra charge. There is no membership fees, and no rentals on coops. $1 per pen covers all entrance charges.

Entries must be filed by Dec. 5. Mr. Walker hopes to see many Randall county breeders enter this show.

Randall county will have a show early in 1922, and breeders will get much valuable information by going to the Amarillo show.

FOUNDED CHRISTIAN PREACHER

The members of the Christian church surprised their pastor, Rev. E. A. Osborne, and his family, on the evening before Thanksgiving, by giving him a "pounding." When they left the pantry was full of all manner of good things. The Thanksgiving dinner was well provided for, and the pleasant evening spent by the minister and his family in company with the donors, put them in the grateful and happy frame of mind to enjoy it.

CAR OF SALT COSTLY

Did you know that the freight on a car of common stock salt amounted to just about double the cost of the salt from the shipping point? C. O. Keiser states he received a car of salt from Kansas which cost him $60. The freight charges were $120 plus $3.60 for war tax, making the car cost in all $183.60.

FOUR SPEAKERS URGE PROGRAM OF BETTER FARMING

J. M. Vetesk Leader at Weekly Luncheon Tuesday—Highway Engineer Also Speaker.

Twenty-nine were present Tuesday at the weekly luncheon of the Randall County Commercial League, at which time J. M. Vetesk presided and took up the subject of the dairy, poultry and hogs, and what these three mean to our county.

C. F. Walker was the first speaker and presented the facts which are published elsewhere in this issue of the News. Mr. Walker said that within three years hogs in this county had increased 300 per cent. He noted that almost as many car loads of hogs were being shipped from the county as cars of cattle. The value of hog shipments since January first had been about $100,000. He considered that with the hog comes the dairy cow and poultry, and that these three furnished an every day cash return for the farmer. He was sorry that he could get no record of the value of dairy and poultry products which have been shipped from the county.

Fred H. Ives, head of the Agricultural Department of the Normal, told of the work being done by his department. He stated that he averaged sending out circular letters every six weeks to prospective and former students in order to put before the young men of this county what the agricultural department of the school really had. He asked that the people of this county help him in every way to advertise his department.

The department, stated Mr. Ives, was giving about 20 courses which deal with all phases of farm life. In order to give practical training in judging of stock and poultry, he took his classes to the various farms over the county. He stated that he had driven his car 1540 miles carrying students to do this work.

Mr. Ives pointed out the fact that it was over 500 miles to the Texas A. & M. College; that the agricultural colleges of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico were closer than this. We have a wonderful territory, nearly 1000 miles in diameter to draw from for the agricultural department. Mr. Ives urged that the citizens of Canyon and Randall county become acquainted with the work being done in the Normal, not only in his department, but in all departments in order that they might better tell people who asked about the school and who wanted to move here.

Mr. Ives then gave his experience with the dairy herd at the Normal. He has eight cows, none of which were giving much milk just now. He was spending $2.50 per day for feed and labor, and was getting a return of $5 per day. He was anxious that farmers having dairy problems should bring them to his department. He believed that feeding was one of the great problems connected with the dairy cow. He was sorry that there were not more silos in this county, and was sure that his silo at the Normal had paid for itself in the two years of use. He stated that the income from his department from the sale of products was more than he received from the state for support. Five boys were paying their way through school by work in his department.

Mr. Ives believes that 75 per cent of the dairy cows in use did not pay. Some were not well bred, but the greatest trouble was in the feeding. (Continued on last page)

State Poultryman In Randall County

Ted Farley, representing the State Poultry Association, is working in the Panhandle country, assisting farmers to build up their poultry flocks. He goes to the farm home, goes over the birds of the flock, points out the strength and weakness of the individual birds, and tells the farmer where he can improve his flock.

He will start work around Canyon Friday, beginning at the A. B. Haynes home south of town. C. F. Walker is assisting him in reaching every farm house.

Poultry is one of the few things that is making the farmer any money this year, and every farmer is interested in raising better poultry.

Book Club Endorses Public Health Nurse

It is possible for Randall County to procure the services for the coming year of Mrs. Zula L. Powell, who was here for two weeks and started the public health work in the public schools.

At the meeting of the Woman's Book Club yesterday, it was voted that the Club use its influence to procure Mrs. Powell for this work. The women of the club were unanimous in their opinion that the Red Cross could spend its money for no better purpose than a public health nurse for a whole year. The following resolutions were adopted regarding the presence of contagious disease in Canyon:

Whereas, every year our town passes through various epidemics which take their toll in lives of our loved ones, and whereas an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure;

Be it resolved:

1. That the Woman's Book Club of Canyon go on record as health crusaders.
2. That we urge the physicians to be more strict in the quarantine of all contagious diseases.
3. That we co-operate to the fullest extent with the physicians in their effort to prevent the spread of all disease.
4. That we try to educate the mothers to the seriousness of all children's diseases, both as to its effect on their own children and as to the danger of contagion to and from others.

(a) By printing health articles in the Randall County News occasionally.

(b) By distributing circulars showing the symptoms, prevention, etc., of contagious diseases.

(c) By reporting all suspicious cases not only in our own families but in the families of others to the proper officers.

(d) By asking the pastors of the various churches to help us from their pulpits in preaching the gospel of good health.

(e) By requesting the teachers to send all sick children home immediately if feverish.

5. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, that they be printed in the Randall County News, and that a copy be handed to each physician in town.

Antlers Top Cousins Annual Football Game

The third annual game between the Antler and Cousins Literary Societies was played Saturday, resulting in the score of 21 to 6 in the Antlers favor.

The game created more interest than any clash that the school has witnessed this year. None of the regular squad was allowed to play. However, this did not mean that all of the men who played were inexperienced. Many of them were men of several years' experience.

Coach Burton made several finds, especially in backfield material. Knowles and Smith, fullbacks, Graves, halfback and Hannah, the brainy Antler quarter, were stars of the game and showed a wealth of football ability.

One regrettable incident marred the game. Eugene Devereux, left tackle on the Cousins squad, was knocked out in the last quarter of the game. It is feared that his skull is fractured.

Antler rooters went wild when Wallace made a sensational 70-yard run for touchdown from kickoff. He also caught a pass and added 30 yards to it for another touchdown. Wallace played two years with the Buffalo team.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CLASS HAVE HOG WEIGHING

The Vocational Agricultural Class at the Normal Training School had their November live stock examination out in the open this month. It consisted of estimating the weight of ten hogs. The Examination was held at Mr. Lewis' Hog Farm near the Normal. Each student had to write down his guess and give the weight to the teacher before the hog in question was weighed. The following boys won high places:

Jim Upfold, first place, missed sixty-nine pounds in his ten guesses. Harry Faulkner, came second with a total miss of seventy. Earle Smith came third with a total of seventy-one charged against him. The boys spend an hour and a half each day in studying live stock care and management.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

When Was the Drop?

A Dallas stationery house is advertising a BIG DROP IN ADDING MACHINE PAPER and announces that it will now sell paper in case lots at $10.

When was that drop? LAST JULY.

The Randall County News has been selling that paper since July at $10 per case. The big stationery house refused to take its loss, and has been selling the banks and business houses this adding machine paper for five months at from $5 to $6 per case more than the market price.

The big stationery houses are looking after their own interests.

Tell your printing needs to the Randall County News if you want the best service at the very lowest price.

The Randall County News has been awarded a state contract for printing because we produced the goods at a reasonable price.

DISTRICT JUDGE RELEASES MEN HELD ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Memphis, Nov. 21.—Four men arrested by Hall County officers in the brakes of Red River last week were released Sunday night by the district judge, who held that it is not illegal for one to have whiskey or whiskey making apparatus in his possession unless it is provided that the liquor is for sale purposes. The officers had spent thirty-six hours in the Red River brakes to locate the still and men.

BAPTIST CHURCH

No preaching services at the Baptist church Sunday, as the pastor is away attending the Baptist State Convention at Dallas, Texas.

Sunday School at the regular hour. It is hoped that we will have a large attendance at this service, regardless of the fact that we have no other services. The Sunday School is growing under the leadership of Mr. Humphreys and every Baptist ought to help him make it one of the greatest in the Panhandle.

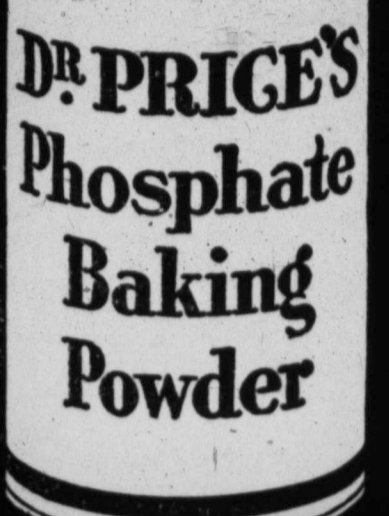

Come to Sunday School Sunday.

W. B. M. U. MEETING

On Nov. 29th, the Baptist women met in their monthly Missionary program with Mrs. S. B. McClure. Seventeen women were present and after the devotional, led by Mrs. Alice Davis each woman in an impressive manner testified to her belief in prayer. Many interesting incidents of answered prayer were mentioned. The program on to raise our children. Our hostess served delightful refreshments of heavenly hash, two kinds of cake and a cup of chocolate. Annie Mae and Charles Boone sweetly sang "Lullaby Days" and Miss Whitaker read "Haunted by a Song," both of which we enjoyed very much. We adjourned to meet next month with Mrs. Ballard.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce to the people of Canyon and Randall County that I am now in charge of the Normal Grocery and Market which I bought from Mr. Joe Foster last week.

CASH ONLY

I shall run the business on a strictly cash basis. I believe in a small profit for the merchant, and a quick turn over of the goods. Every man pays only his own account under the cash system. I am firmly convinced that the cash system is better for both the merchant and the customer.

I trust that all of the old customers of this store shall continue to give me their business, and it shall be my pleasure to conduct the Grocery and Market so that others shall be pleased to do their buying at this store.

Large Mail Order House Reads All Country Papers

"We have a bureau whose duty it is to read each week the country newspapers from all over the country. There is not a paper of any consequence in our trade territory that our bureau does not get. This bureau looks over these papers and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper we immediately flood that territory with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants use their local papers," said Herman Rosenfeld, advertising manager for Sears, Roebuck & Co.

Give Practical Gifts

This of all years is the one when practical gifts will be most appreciated and when a well chosen article will count for more than one selected hurriedly and carelessly.

Our plan this year in selecting our Christmas stocks has been to buy the newest and smartest of the most practical things we could find and at the same time remembering to keep the cost well within the reach of all.

SHOP EARLY PLEASE

There are so many things in a store of this kind which if selected for gifts are most pleasing to any woman. Women appreciate pretty things an especially so if they are well made and have the proper style touches. The many accessories of dress represented here will give the early shopper a wide and fitting field to select from. Had you thought of a Purse or a pair of Gloves?

A Silk Jersey Petticoat with a fancy flounce is an item of which a woman never has too many. These come in such a wide variety of colors and designs that all we can say is that each one is "dream" in itself. A Petticoat, while comparatively low in cost carries the tone of luxuriousness that most gifts do not have.

The Camisole is another gift that is appreciated because of its appropriateness and good taste. We have these in beautiful grades of Silk, Crepe de Chine and other materials trimmed in many new and novel ways each one pleasing in itself.

HOSIERY

A woman never has too many pairs of hose. Hosiery has for years been popular as a gift and particularly now when there are so many novelty designs worked into the finer grades. If you plan to give Hosiery you will find us especially well prepared for selections.

BLOUSES

There are many new Blouses now ready in our store which for workmanship and style bespeak the latest of the advanced modes and all are priced most reasonably. The Blouse offers an unusual opportunity in giving a tasteful practical gift.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE PRAIRIE

RELICS OF INTEREST COLLECTED BY HOME EC. DEPARTMENT

The department of Home Economics has recently made a collection of some valuable relics for exhibition. Among these is an exquisite point lace handkerchief loaned by Erma Dowd. It was made by Mrs. G. Dowd in Mississippi eighty years ago.

Another is a miniature shirt made in Liverpool, England, by Miss Isabel Moody about forty years ago in a contest for short stitches, in which it won the prize. It has descended through the family until now it belongs to Mrs. H. C. Dolcater, of Amarillo, Texas.

An infant dress made and embroidered by a woman near Liverpool, England, about seventy-five years ago is exceedingly interesting. It was first worn by Mr. George Tubb, and has descended through the generations until all his children and grandchildren have worn it. This dress also is in the possession of Mr. Dolcater, of Amarillo.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. is certainly on the map this year. It has not only given parties for the pleasure of the students, but it has also conducted excellent weekly programs intended for the spiritual development of the all-round girl. Anyone who passes room 105 on Thursday afternoons at 4:10 sees a group of girls in a semi-circle around the piano, which is decorated with palms and ferns. And surely the flowers are not growing more than those girls, for they are singing hymns together, praying together, thinking together and learning together how life to them, and through them to the world, can become "the more abundant life."

If the girls have needed the assistance of trained and experienced minds to direct them in their thinking, they certainly have not lacked for the very best. They have been making a study of student standards of action, and Miss Hudspeth, out of her wealth of experience and deep love for girls, presented many good ideas in the second meeting of the year, on "The purpose that should dominate a college girl." Mr. Sheffy treated the problems that arise in the readjustment to the conditions of a college community and suggested feasible solutions to these problems. Miss Bell, in a highly practical talk, presented the value of keeping an expense account, and gave plans for such an account.

On Mission day, Miss Lamb read to the girls "Geographical Adventures in Friendship," written by Miss Abbie Graham, our own one-time Secretary; and Fannie Cash, Chairman of the World Fellowship Committee, carried her audience around the world with the Y. W. C. A. The climax of all the meetings was reached in the last one, Nov. 17, at which time Rev. Osborne, pastor of the Christian Church, delivered an intensely interesting and scholarly address on "Friendships, as they arise from Christian Associations." One hundred and fifty people were present at this meeting, a goodly number of whom were boys, who came upon special invitation. This promises well for the Y. M. C. A., which is just now beginning its work. A highly appreciated addition to the program was a solo rendered by Mr. J. J. Powell.

Not the least of the attractions in these weekly Association meetings has been the social hour following. Some member of the Advisory Council has poured tea each time, and the girls have conversed in the friendliest manner over their cups. They have been learning, through this charming custom, to play as well as to work together.

BAPTIST STUDENTS' UNION

The Baptists of Texas are making an extensive effort to help their students over the state. One evidence of this interest was shown in the organization of the Baptist Students' Union and the annual conventions of this body. The convention was held this year on October 28 to 30, with Baylor College at Belton. Miss Elva Fronabarger, Baptist Student Secretary, Joye Mills and Paul Johnson represented our school at this meeting. Many plans are being made for the student phase of church work.

At 4 p. m., November the 16th, the members of the Philo Callos Club, charcoal and bags of lunch in hand, were off to the Wragge Grove for an afternoon's sketching. The fun increased as we proceeded. All were delighted that Love had not forgotten us on this occasion. Love was here; Love was there; Love was everywhere. When we reached our destination, every one went to work with a will, for Miss Fricke, Capt. John Smith-like, had said "He who works shall not eat." After all the sketches were finished and approved by the club, the cats began to disappear. Soon there was nothing left except a sack of grapes that had been kept for Mr. Wragge. But who should present the grapes? The boys proposed to select a girl by the process of elimination, but—Miss Pool had captured the grapes and was speeding away toward the house followed by the entire group. In front of the door the group halted and gave fifteen snappy "rahs" for Mr. Wragge. As Mr. Wragge approached, Miss Pool's courage failed. She stepped back and handed the grapes to a maiden who presented them saying, "Mr. Wragge, here are some grapes that were left from our lunch."

The Club will have its next meeting on November the 24th, at which time the following program will be given.

The Life of Whistler—Edith Rayzor.
The Open Door—Una Brooks.
Venice—Austin Love.
The End—Winnie Pool.

EDUCATION 4146 ROTATION PARTY

The Education classes of 41, 40k, and 40m were entertained Saturday evening, November 12th in the homes of Miss Ritchie, Mr. Sheffy, and Miss Brown by members of the faculty.

All students in the High School Department met at Miss Ritchie's. Pupils of the eighth and ninth grades, directed by Miss Witt and Miss Rogers, dramatized, "Young Lochinvar," for the students' entertainment.

The intermediate section met at Mr. Sheffy's where they took a physical and mental test. The physical test, which was given by Miss Mansfield, consisted of smiling and of playing nose and toe tag. The mental ability was tested by a Geography game and by interpretive drawing. Miss Elizabeth Bailey gave each person a list of questions which were answered by abbreviations of the names of the States. Pictures were drawn interpreting the poem read by Miss Fricke.

The primary-kindergarten section met at Miss Brown's. The group took part in physical exercise directed by Miss Yocom and Miss Hibbets. Mr. Allen and Mr. Guenther were "Star Performers" in interpretive dancing. The company was divided into groups of three, and they engaged in a word matching contest.

After the entertainment of the group at the home of meeting, each group progressed to one of the other homes. When the three homes had been visited each group returned to its place of meeting where refreshments were served.

S. O. L. CLUB PRESENTS SCENE FROM CAMP LIFE

A patriotic celebration of Armistice Day was presented in chapel last Thursday morning by a number of ex-service men. The scenes presented, as explained by Mr. Deveroux, were intended to illustrate soldier life in the army camps. The treatment of the soldiers by the different high and low officials was vividly portrayed.

The trial of Private Bolton was pushed thru in a "high handed" and illegal manner by the officer in authority, portrayed by Eugene Deveroux. The participation of the officials in the "crap shooting" was humorously emphasized. The singing of war songs by Messrs. Whitacre, Sanders, Powell, Tarlton, and Graves and the dog dancing by E. C. Graves furnished the very interesting and appreciative program.

MATHEMATICS-SCIENCE CLUB

The regular session of the Mathematics-Science Club promises to be even more interesting than the last meeting was, as it is expected that the program which has been arranged will be very interesting. Won't you come to room 104 November 23, at 3 o'clock and see.

UNCLE TOM CLARK

On the evening of our last Lyceum number, between acts, when everyone was craving music, "Uncle Tom" Clark played some beautiful selections on the piano, some of which were of his own composition. They portrayed his responsiveness to nature and his interpretation of the aesthetic; they were descriptive of the inner man, and revealed the spirit of kindness and love, which helps us to appreciate more our associations with this dear old man.

Mr. Clark holds a very warm place in the hearts and affections of all who are fortunate enough to know him. He has won the admiration of every student in school by his big heartedness, sympathetic nature, broad keen vision, his sense of humor, and the cheerful manner in which he greets everyone.

It is seldom that we find a man with so many accomplishments: he plays the piano, the violin, and the horn. Uncle Tommy is also a good singer, and he can instantly drive dull cares away and make an audience see the funny side of life by his humorous readings. Yet not all of his readings are only humorous, many of his selections are deep in their meaning and applications, and they lift us up and stimulate ambition to accomplish things really worth while.

This year will make Mr. Clark's third year as Instructor in the History Department of the West Texas State Normal College, and there are few who have a clearer insight into every day problems, or a more pleasing manner of presenting methods for their solution. He won a place in the hearts of many by his talks on, "Our Language," last week, and his music between acts on the evening of the Lyceum number.

—Lester Hill.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE PRAIRIE

ELAPHEIANS

On November 9, twenty-four strangely clad girls gathered at the Normal exactly at 8 a. m. Their unusual appearance and promptness was due to this warning which they had received:

"You are hereby notified to present yourself for initiation on Wednesday, November 9, 1921, at 7:30 p. m. in room 105. You will heed these instructions: Initiation will begin at 8 a. m., Wednesday, Nov. 9, and will end at 10 a. m. the same day.

1. You are to wear absolutely no paint, powder, or cream.
2. Wear hair parted in the middle, skinned down slick and braided in a single tight plait, tied near the end with a yellow and white ribbon. Wear no head covering.
3. Wear all visible clothing back side in front.
4. Wear a glove on the right hand.
5. Wherever you go, you are to carry a pillow on which you must sit.
6. Don't dare refuse to carry an old member's books when told to do so.
7. Be at school by eight o'clock and spend some time in the library during the day.
8. Be able to contribute some comical part of the program, or suffer the consequences.

WOE BE UNTO YOU if this summons you do not heed, or these directions you disobey.

THE SPANISH CLUB

The students of the Spanish Department met one day last week and re-organized the Spanish Club. The following officers were elected:

- President—Harper Allen.
- Vice-president—Louise Shanklin.
- Sec.—Treas.—Gilbert Tyler.
- Annual Rep.—Miss Mansfield.
- Prairie Rep.—Elizabeth Beck.

The club voted to study some of the social and economical problems of Mexico; to give plays in Spanish; to learn Spanish songs; to have Spanish socials; and to use the Spanish language as much as possible.

We have already had a delightful sun-set picnic followed by an interesting hour at the Mexican Camp, where the Mexicans entertained us with stringed instruments, and songs in their own language.

Spanish students, be progressive, join the Spanish Club.

SESAMES

On Friday night, November 18, the "fan room" was a place of mystery. Ask any brand new Sesame what happened there and the reply will be, "I became a Sesame." That's all.

"I'm glad that I'm a Sesame," were the words of forty eight new members and about the same number of old ones at the close of the very pleasant evening.

After the initiation was administered, all gathered in room 105. There, speeches were heard from new members on "My first impression upon becoming a Sesame." Miss Mansfield, one of the honorary members, lead in several lively games. Ice cream was served, and everyone left declaring that no society was so good and none so full of life and interest as the Sesame.

ANTLERS DOINGS

The Antler Literary Society met again Friday night, Nov. 18. Mr. Roy Baker, President of the Society, opened the program by performing a number of magical stunts. Boon Horn followed with an interesting discussion of a small boy's idea of cats.

Mr. Baker continued the program by leading in the discussion of disarmament. The text of Secretary Hughes' message to the Peace Conference was read. Our present relation to Japan was discussed by Mr. Carl Kemp.

After the program, the Society entered into a round table discussion on the question of challenging the Cousins Literary Society for a football game. Such a challenge was decided upon, and John McCarty went forthwith into the Cousins' lair to deliver the message.

Five new members were accepted by the Society.

SECOND YEAR NORMAL

President Lee Johnson called a meeting of the Second Year Normal students in the Auditorium at 10:00 o'clock Friday, November 4th. The purpose of the meeting was to see about changing the meeting time of the class. After a snappy little speech by Miss Parker, the vote was carried unanimously to have the meeting time changed from 7:30 a. m. on the first Wednesday of every month to the chapel period of the first Friday of every month.

GAMMA CHI

The Gamma Chi Club met Wednesday, November 9, at the home of Kathleen Jennings. The afternoon was pleasantly spent. A short business session was held after the social hour, at the termination of which the hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad, potato chips, sandwiches, coffee and mints.

THE OLD WELL

For those of us who are not too busy living in the present, or who have not forgotten our childhood, there are many pleasant memories. Some of our memories will stand out as naturally more interesting than others. And so it is with me in, the case of the old hand-dug well in our back yard.

When I was a little tot about four years old we moved to an old house in a small country town. The house was situated in the center of a large yard set with great oaks, and partly covered in grass and flowers. Out behind the house was that old well. It was never used, for it had, I was told, caved in, and was of course "no good" any more. But I must not go about it, for it was dangerous for children to get around it. And why should it not be so?

One day a neighbor's cow had slipped into the yard, and as she was accustomed to crossing a bridge, she started to walk across the platform over the old well. But that platform was not built for a bridge, and Mrs. Cow broke through and fell to the bottom. When men came with ropes and pulled her out, she was suffering from a broken leg, and was much besplashed with mud.

All this was revealed to me just as soon as we moved to the place; and naturally we children regarded the old well with awe. But many was the game we played in that old yard. Sometimes Indians or strange people of some kind stole out of that old well and attacked us. We always either killed them outright, or chased them back into the well so fast that they fell and were killed. We were sometimes mortally wounded in these battles of our imagination, but if we died we were always soon over it, and ready for the next fray.

As we, my playmates and I, grew up, so did the old well, for, feeding upon each cleanup day's trash, it grew as we did. Many of my toys and much of the dirt I used to play over went to the filling of that old well. And when I saw the old place last, the well had ceased to be anything more than a small sunken place in the hard packed earth of that old back yard.

MY FIRST DAY IN SCHOOL

Big-eyed and wondering, I sat on a bench with a group of children whom I did not know very well, and listened to the usual type of speech, characteristic of the first day of school. The long list of rules and directions emphatically read aloud, by the teacher, had no more meaning to me than the inscription written over the door; however, I was afraid to move, and sat erect, casting sidewise glances at the room about me.

The words of the inscription, which had been scrawled in chalk on the dirty, faded wall, were, "In God We Trust," a single picture, a calendar of George Washington, hung by one corner. The two wornout blackboards were remnants of better days. Some of the work of the previous year was partially erased, and in its place was naughtily boy had drawn a horrid picture labeled, "teacher."

The old-fashioned wooden water bucket sat on a box in one corner. The rusty dipper hung over the edge of the bucket in a guileless fashion. A wet spot on the floor indicated that the bucket was no longer very substantial.

One of the long home made benches placed near the door held a row of shining dinner buckets. Opposite this the extra benches were stacked up almost to the ceiling and formed a good rack for wraps. The hats, caps, and freshly starched sunbonnets were scattered promiscuously over the benches. This formed a good protection for the little frightened kitten which was crouched down in the corner meowing pitifully.

The rusty old stove stood (on three legs and a brick) in the center of the room, and served as a waste basket, as well as a heater, judging by the number of paper wads and fragments of torn notes lying thereabouts.

There were a few desks for the older pupils, but the beginners all sat on benches. The teacher, generally classed as, "The typical Old Maid," sat on a bench behind a homely little square table, and with a ruler in her hand vehemently exclaimed: "Always raise your right hand to get permission."

There were three dirty, grimy windows in each side, and when the warm September sun found its way in through an opened window, it shone on the heads of the beginners, who soon yielded to its influence and began to nod.

THE OLD BROTHER

He grew on a vine out in our back yard. He was a large watermelon which grew on a vine that had voluntarily come up in the yard.

We children anxiously watched it grow from day to day, and each morning we would run out to see if anything had harmed it during the night. One day someone remarked that, "Old Brother" was almost ripe, and afterwards it was always referred to as, "The Old Brother."

It was grown, and we thought it was ripe. One day after we children had held a consultation regarding its maturity, we decided to pull it the next

ROUT THE RATS

Why Kill the Rats?
 First—For financial and commercial reasons. It is estimated that in the United States, rats and mice destroy crops and other products to the value of $200,000,000, annually.
 Second—For sanitary reasons. They carry bubonic plague and many other diseases fatal to man.
 Third—For cleanliness. Why take the time and pains to clean up the town and leave the filthy rodents to dig, burrow and litter up the premises?
How to Exterminate Them?
 First—By making building rat-proof. There should be a city ordinance requiring all new buildings to be built rat proof. With proper care many existing buildings can be made rat-proof with but little work.
 Second—By killing, trapping and poisoning. The last method will be the most effective.
 But no method or methods will succeed without concert of action by all citizens both rural and urban. To this end the state is being organized into districts for a thorough campaign against these and all other rodents. We are in the Amarillo district. On the 7th of next month there will be a meeting in Amarillo to perfect a permanent organization.
 Let our Commercial League as well as the other civic organizations in Canyon send delegates to this meeting. Let us like patriots and good citizens heartily join our sister counties in this commendable work.
 Yours for improvement,
 A. N. HENSON.

Santa Claus has established headquarters at the News office, and letters addressed to the old fellow in care of this paper will receive prompt attention.

Three letters have so far been received for Santa, as follows:
Mr. Santa Claus:
 For Christmas I want a wicker doll buggy and a pillow and a pillow case and a doll cap and candy and nuts and fruit.
 From Virginia Jarrett.

Dear Santa Claus:
 Please bring Candy, animal kind, and a doll for my little sister and one for myself. My name is Margaret and you may send me a doll, stove and some girl candy and animals.
 Margaret Greenhill.

Mr. Santa Claus:
 For Christmas I want a wicker doll buggy and a big bisque sleepy doll, nuts, fruit and candy.
 From Iona Pearl McClure.

SUGGESTIVE READING

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories, meaning that they present corrupting ideas in an attractive dress. But there is a suggestiveness also of quite a different sort—the suggestiveness that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every

The Latest and Best

We offer the Case 15-27 Kerosene Tractor as the king of them all. It is creating a sensation all over the country. It is the result of 77 years of experience of the famous J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.

It pulls three plows in hard plowing—four plows under favorable conditions. It has abundant reserve power. It burns kerosene successfully and economically.

This sturdy tractor is adaptable for all kinds of drawbar and belt work. It drives a 26x46 Case Thresher with Feeder and Wind Stacker. Its pulley is properly placed for convenient "lining up."

It is small and compact and built for accessibility. No tractor is finer. You should become acquainted with its many superiorities, which we will be glad to explain. Don't buy before you see this better tractor.

THAT'S Different

NATIONAL GUARD TO BE RAISED IN CANYON

after night so as to not interfere with the regular work of any man. For each hour and a half the men drill, they are paid for a full day's work of a regular soldier of like rank. The buck private gets $1 for each 1 1/2 hours drill, and so on up the rank of first class privates, corporals, sergeants and commissioned officers. The pay roll for a company will amount to $8000 to $12,000 per year, all of the money coming from the federal treasury. Texas has been allotted three and one half million dollars for this work. If we don't use this money, eastern states will get it, as they are strong after all the money they can get.

"The equipment for the company," continued the Major, "is the standard army equipment, all new and all the very best. The value for one company is $30,000, all new rifles, new serge uniforms, new russet shoes, overcoats, in fact everything that the regular army soldier gets.

"Another great feature of the Guard is the summer training at Camp Mabry. This camp is one of the very finest in the United States. The men live in big brick barracks, with good beds, lights, baths, every convenience, and a mess hall that seats 5,000 men. Here ex-service men will find buddies with whom they served overseas. Last summer at Camp Mabry there was a great reunion among the ex-service men.

"I might point out," stated the Major, who served overseas, "that the ex-service men are certainly flocking to the National Guard. In Hereford 60 per cent of the new company is composed of overseas veterans. Any man who served as long as three months during the war may enlist for one year. All others are to enlist for three years.

"This is the last company in Texas that will be organized. I might say," stated the Major, "that I have calls from other towns who want this company. If Canyon falls down on raising the company this week, I will have to go to another town, and one of these Panhandle towns has already practically completed the enlistment of a company. But Canyon will get the company because it is the logical point for it to come, provided the enlistments run to fifty, and we would like to get the full sixty-five before the company is mustered in."

The officers are working hard this week to put over the enlistment. All of the business men with whom Major Adams conferred were highly pleased at the prospects of getting the company in Canyon and all are sure that it will be a great thing for Canyon to have.

DAIRY, POULTRY AND BETTER HOGS DISCUSSED TUESDAY

Thousands of dollars could be saved by the farmers through proper feeding. A. B. Haynes stated that the dairy business was his hobby. He had milked his way through college, and was milking his way through the world. For many years he had faith in this country as a dairy country. He urged that more silos be used. He had tried kafir in his silo, and had tried Indian corn, and found kafir almost as good. He stated that we should not ship out any hay from this country, but use it all for feeding dairy cows. He stated that in three dry years his cows had pulled him through, and that during the financial depression many farmers had found their cows were pulling them through.

Mr. Haynes believes that the only successful way to handle dairy cows is through an accurate record. He figures his heads worth $10, which is more than they will bring on the market, $5 for ensilage, and charges cotton seed and bran at cost. He is milking 12 cows, and found during the past month they had made $6 per head more than feed costs. Three years ago he had an expert keep his records, and at that time he was making the same per head from his herd. Taking out his labor costs, he found that his cows cleared $5 per month, and this did not take into consideration the skimmed milk fed to his pigs.

Mr. Haynes stated that Canyon needed either a creamery or a cheese factory. There was never any danger of oversupplying the market with dairy products.

The only way to test a cow is to weigh the milk and use the Babcock tester. Mr. Haynes believes in culling out the poor cows and butchering them. He would like to see a bull association organized.

B. B. Holland, representing the Mistletoe Creamery of Amarillo was called upon by Mr. Vetesk. He pointed out the fact that the Panhandle country was one of the greatest in America for dairy products. He pointed out the advantages of this section over the Wisconsin and eastern Kansas, which have become rich in the dairy business. There the cows must be kept in the barns for six months of the year on account of the weather, and land is from $300 up per acre. The dairy cow gives the farmer a cash income for 12 months in the year. Mr. Holland discourages a man new in the dairy business buying the best stock. He would have him take the herd he has and breed it up. A man must become accustomed to handling the dairy products before investing large sums in it.

Road Engineer Speaks

As a further feature of Tuesday's program, L. Messingab of Ft. Worth, representing the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, was introduced. He is a federal engineer and looks after roads upon which federal aid has been given.

Mr. Messingab stated that when federal aid was given a county for road building the county took an obligation to keep up the road perfectly. If this is not done, the county does not receive 100 per cent value for the money expended. Roads full of ruts and chuck holes may not be called first class roads. The engineer believes it a tragedy the way many federal aid roads are neglected. The counties are losing 75 to 80 per cent value of their cars by the ruts and bumps allowed to get into the road.

Too many counties drag the roads only after rains. This is by no means road maintenance, and roads treated that way will deteriorate very fast. The federal government expects the counties shall allow no ruts and chug holes to get into the roads. Keep the drag going after a rain until there is a hard, even, level crown, and then use the road maintainer to keep out the ruts is the only successful method. The engineer believes that the only way Randall county's highways may be put back in good condition is to tear them up with the maintainer, and then work out the humps and ruts.

The legislature passed a law prohibiting traffic on highways after a rain. Unfortunately this applies to only 36 counties in the state. He urged that Randall county ask to be included at the next session of the legislature. He believes that only 15 miles should be given to one man to maintain. Let him mow weeds when there is nothing else to do. We are paying for this maintenance by the wear on our cars, and getting nothing in return but a little rougher road all the while.

and short end runs landed the Buffaloes on the 25 yard line where a place kick just missed the goal. The quarter ended after Clarendon had carried the pig-skin 10 yards in three downs.

Clarendon started the second quarter by attempting passes. The long pass was unsuccessful. The ball was carried to the 47 yard line, and a kick was called. The Normal returned with a kick to midfield. Being unable to gain, Clarendon called another kick which landed on the 23 yard line. The ball was carried nearly across the field when Jackson intercepted.

A forward pass and ran 25 yards. After gaining 20 yards, the visitors were thrown for a 15 yard loss and forced to kick to the Normal's 40 yard line. The heavy back field rushed the ball to the 10 yard line, and Golden scored the first touchdown, Studor kicking goal. Buffaloes 7; Bull Dogs 0. Clarendon received west, and gained 15 yards by forward pass, when the Normal intercepted a pass on the visitors' 28 yard line and the half ended. Between halves the snake dance was put on by the student body. Before the game was called, the boys of Huntleigh Hall staged a mimic game which caused much amusement for the big crowd.

The Normal received east at the opening of third quarter. The heavy backs carried the ball to the 35 yard line, when Burson worked his way through the whole Clarendon team for a touchdown. Buffaloes 14; Bull Dogs 0.

Clarendon received west and by a series of short passes carried the ball across the field and over for a touchdown. Buffaloes 14; Bull Dogs 7.

Canyon received and with two successful passes, and a mixture of smashes and short end runs worked the ball to the four yard line where the most exciting period of the game was reached. With four downs to make the four yards, it looked as if the ball was twice taken over the line. The men were so badly piled up that by the time the referee had worked the ball to the ground, it showed not to be over, and six inches were between the ball and the goal line on the fourth down. A short end run would no doubt have netted another touchdown as every Clarendon player was massed in front of the Buffalo team. Clarendon kicked, the punt was fumbled and another chance at a touchdown was lost when the visitors recovered the ball upon their own 20 yard line. Barto Johnson received an injury on the leg and left the game for the first time this season. Capt. Dan Sanders and Whitacre are the only men playing every minute of time this season.

Clarendon started the air attack once more and carried the ball half way across the field when forced to kick. The Normal got the ball on her 20 yard line, and gained 8 yards when the quarter was up.

It looked as if the visitors did not have a chance to even the score when the final period opened. Both teams held their ground, and kicks were exchanged three times in midfield, when another series of short passes carried the ball over and allowed the Bull Dogs to even the score of 14 points each.

The Normal received west, advanced the ball from the 5 to 28 yard line, and kicked to the 40 yard line. Clarendon returned 10 yards when the Normal intercepted a forward pass and the game ended on their own 20 yard line.

The lineups as they started:

Buffaloes	Bull Dogs
Henry	Lane
Golden	Pope
Byrd	McLaren
Sanders	Naughtier
Bolton	Keemer
Lancaster	Hawkins
Mitchell	Smalley
Studor	Jackson
Johnson	Hallmark
Whitacre	G. Close

HAPPY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS BIG BANQUET

bunch believed it was time for West Texas to stand up in the legislature and demand our rights. He would demand that the West Texas State Normal College be made second in Texas only to the University. He praised the citizenship of this country, which was 99 percent white and English speaking. He believed that the greatest problem confronting this section was to get more settlers on our lands. There are the greatest advantages here, and the country has a wonderful future.

J. O. Bradenbaugh of Happy was next introduced. Fifteen years ago Mr. Bradenbaugh drove the first nail in Happy. He believes this section to be the paradise of America, after visiting 42 of our states. He praised the citizenship. He believes the towns should cut out their rivalry, and work together for the upbuilding of the whole country. The Panhandle is as large as Pennsylvania and has as many resources. "We need to advertise the country."

Judge J. E. Sweetson of Tulia spoke on the interdependence of good roads and good schools. He praised the work that was being done in this section in both lines. He characterized as a crazy idea the hard surfacing agitation. He believes our roads can be made as good as hard surfaced roads if given the proper attention. He wants to see the boys and girls educated on the farm so they will not leave the farm.

Hon. Lee Satterwhite was introduced as "the next Speaker of the House." Mr. Satterwhite does not believe it good policy to agitate division of the state. He stated that more and more each year the Panhandle country was becoming recognized by the legislature. The people of East Texas more and more realize that often their stock would go hungry were it not for the feed shipped to them from West Texas. He wants to see the Normal made the greatest educational institution in the Southwest. His words of praise of President Hill were applauded by every man present.

Mr. Satterwhite would like to see 300 families brought into the Happy territory, that this section might be properly developed.

J. W. McCrery of Wayside stated that never in his experience as a farmer did conditions look so dark to the farmer as right now. Farmers were selling their products for less than it cost them to produce it, and paying more for the goods they buy than it costs to produce them. He asked the business men to assist the farmers get back on their feet. Four good cow hides were sold by his neighbor for $10, and it took all this money to buy a pair of shoes for his wife. One cow hide would bring no more than a hime string costs.

J. L. Pope, editor of the Amarillo Daily News, spoke in his usual happy manner of the wonderful country we are living in. He asked that the energy used by communities to fight each other be used to boost the country as a whole. He believed in every man's duty to get behind his own community and work to make it better, or to move from that community. He was pleased at the tendency toward permanency in the Panhandle. He urged that the business man and the farmer get together and organize for the welfare of both.

H. H. Tracy, mayor of Tulia, plead for unity on the part of Panhandle citizens. He asked that the business men and farmers get together and use their best energies to work out the abnormal conditions which we are now living in. "Most any one can knock," said Mayor Tracy, "but it takes a wise man to make suggestions."

Barnett O'Brien, publisher of the Tulia Herald, closed the program by thanking the people of Happy on behalf of the visitors for the splendid banquet and entertainment given, and trusting that the meeting would be of great benefit to all present.
