

CONSOLIDATION CARRIED IN ALL THREE DISTRICTS

COMMISSIONERS COURT WILL CANVAAS THE RETURNS.

Election of School Trustees Will Be Held First Saturday in April Four to be Elected.

The proposition of consolidating the Common Schools Districts Nos. 2 and 18 with the Canyon City Independent School District carried in the election Saturday held in all three of the districts by a good vote.

In Canyon, the voters favored receiving the two districts by a majority of 110 to 3.

In No. 2, south of town, the vote was 27 to 9.

In No. 18, west of town, the vote was 9 to 6.

A special session of the commissioners court will be held this week to canvass the returns of the election in order that the voters in the newly added district may cast their votes in the trustee election. Only one election will be held in the new enlarged district, this being at the court house on Saturday, April first. Four trustees are to be elected on April first.

At the meeting of the board of trustees Monday night, it was decided that since the two districts had voted to come into the independent district, no tuition charge would be made for the remainder of the school year for those pupils coming to the Canyon school from the outside districts.

The following statement is given out regarding the Trustee Election on April 1:

"Four members of the board of trustees for the Canyon City Independent School District are to be chosen by the voters of this district at the election on April first, and will hold office for the coming two years. The three members who are to hold over for the coming year were asked by the retiring members to select four men whom in their judgment could best serve the interests of the people of this district should they be elected to office. This is a hard job imposed upon us, as there are many capable men in the district who are qualified to hold this office, and no doubt would patriotically give of their time to serve the schools should they be elected. All of the four men retiring from the board this year have faithfully served the district, and if we allowed our personal feelings to dictate in the matter, we would select those four men with whom we have worked during the past year.

"When the question of consolidation was being considered, the suggestion was made that one trustee be elected from each of the districts which are coming into the consolidation, and we therefore name Tom Slack from District No. 2 and A. N. Burgan from District No. 18, both good men and highly interested in school affairs.

"We are all agreed that G. G. Foster, president of the board of trustees, should remain on the board as there is not a man in the district who knows better the details of the district's business and will be exceedingly valuable in the business of the coming two years.

"For the fourth member, we have selected R. P. Jarrett. Mr. Jarrett has spent his life in the school room. He is exceedingly interested in the problems that confront this district, and will be of great benefit to this district when it comes to our new school building.

"The three men remaining on the board do not mean to dictate as to whom the voters shall select, but since it was left to us to choose, we have done our best. We shall not feel offended in the least if the voters wish to put other names on the ticket, or do not adhere to our judgment in this matter.

REMODELING CAFE.

Extensive improvements are being made at the Canyon Cafe this week, and the front of the building being entirely remodeled, with a new front and new windows being put in.

BUYS NORMAL BARBER SHOP.

V. R. Gardner of Tullia has bought the Normal Barber Shop and took possession this week. Mr. Gardner will move his family here from Tullia just as soon as he can get a house.

M. B. Bryant, former owner of the shop, will leave this week for Marlin.

Commercial League Presents Dr. Yeuell In Series of Lectures

An exceptional treat in the way of illustrated lectures will be presented to the people of Canyon beginning Friday night at the Methodist church. The lecturer is Dr. Herbert Yeuell. He is brought to Canyon by the Randall County Commercial League.

Dr. Yeuell is one of the most noted lecturers in this country. He is in Amarillo this week, and has filled to overflowing the auditorium of the Christian church. People have been turned away at practically every service during the past week.

All but one of the lectures are illustrated. The one on Sunday night will be given without pictures. Those who have seen these lectures state that the illustrations are above the average, and not in the class with those used in most illustrated lectures. Dr. Yeuell took most of these pictures himself during his travels.

The subjects of the lectures are as follows:

Friday night—"The Passion Play as I saw it in Oberammergau in 1910."

Saturday night—"Sunny Italy and Her Romances."

Sunday night—"One Night in Babylon."

Monday night—"Quo Vadis."

Tuesday night—"France of Yesterday and To-day."

Wednesday night—"Ben Hur."

Thursday night—"Wonders of America."

There will be no admission charged for these lectures. A silver offering will be taken after the lecture.

Baseball Season Will Open Next Week With Big Schedule

The prospects for a winning baseball team at West Texas State Normal College is exceedingly bright at present. With thirty-five aspirants out for practice it seems that Coach Burton will have a wealth of material to pick from.

The pitching staff seems to be the best that the Normal has ever seen.

Each season before this only two or three pitchers were out for the team but this year five new men who are famous in baseball circles in the Panhandle are out and working three hours each day. Big Boy Burns, a famous letter man from here is back and is showing great form. Bernice Graves, the curve ball artist from Plainview is out and will make a great showing this season. It will be remembered that he, in games last season that he beat the colors he is fighting for this season. Clyde Whitacre, the speed king from Hale Center will probably help put the Normal in the winning class. Gus Miller, who hails from Vega, Texas, has put the fear in many teams over the Panhandle and sent them home bearing the burden of defeat. Then Grady Burson, captain for the 1922 football season is showing worlds of smoke and Coach Burton states that if he can teach the big right hander the value of using more control that he will have everything he needs.

The pitching staff is not the only one where competition is great because every position on the diamond and in the pasture alike are hotly contested. A letter man is out for almost every position but new recruits are showing so much stuff that the letter men will have a job if they land a berth on the regular lineup.

The baseball season will open in Canyon next week with two games scheduled with Oklahoma Southwestern. D. A. Shirey states that other games have been scheduled, but owing to a little confusion in dates the complete schedule will not be ready for announcement this week.

Bartow Johnson has been out of the squad this week with serious illness, but is thought to be well on the way to recovery, and will be out next week.

RECITAL TONIGHT AT NORMAL

Mrs. Maud Gatchell Hicks of Boston will be presented in recital at the Normal tonight in one of the regular lyceum numbers. Mrs. Hicks will give a dramatic interpretation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It."

Miss Mary Morgan Brown states that Mrs. Hicks is a member of the faculty of the Emerson School of Oratory at Boston, and is probably the leading reader of this entire country. Miss Brown is highly interested in the entertainment as she is a personal friend of Mrs. Hicks.

EQUIPMENT FOR GUARD MEN HERE AND BEING ISSUED

EVERYTHING FROM A SHOE LACE TO BIG FIELD RANGE.

Stuff Stored in Court House Until a New Armory is Provided—Guard Drills on Tuesdays.

The equipment for the new National Guard Company in Canyon has arrived and Company will be fully equipped for field service just as soon as an armory has been secured.

A car load of equipment arrived Saturday, and Captain H. C. Gamble secured the three grand jury rooms in the court house for temporary quarters until an armory could be secured.

The equipment is right up to now stuff. Everything new and the very best that Uncle Sam has. A partial list has been unpacked and ready to be issued to the men as follows:

- Two uniforms
- One pair of shoes
- Extra shoe laces
- "Pup" tents
- Wall and pyram tents
- Mosquito netting for the tents
- Fatigue suits
- Rifles, bayonets, bayonet covers.
- 45 automatic pistols
- Targets for indoor practice
- Indoor rifles
- Field desks
- Books; some more books
- Mess kits
- 3600 rounds ammunition.
- 2500 rounds indoor ammunition
- 2500 rounds pistol ammunition
- Canteens
- Haversacks
- Overcoats and slickers
- Blankets, bed sacks, barrack bags.
- Axes, picks, rakes, shovels, brooms, buckets

And most important of all, a complete field range with all kinds of cooking utensils

The Company is still homeless so far as an armory is concerned, but there is expected to be some kind of arrangement made soon for a new building. Regular drills are held Tuesday nights at the Legion Hall, but this cannot be carried on long after the men start to drill with their arms as it will be too hard on the floors.

Walker Highly Pleased With Winnings at Ft. Worth Stock Show

C. F. Walker returned yesterday from Ft. Worth where he took stock and an agricultural exhibit to the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show.

Mr. Walker states that those who did not see the show cannot appreciate the class of competition over which the exhibits from Randall county won. A list of the hog winnings was given in the News last week.

Mr. Walker states that Alfred Vetek was the biggest winner from this county in the hog show, getting $60 premium money from three Poland China pigs. Alfred also received a silver medal for the best bred pig showing, this award came from the American Meat Packers Association, and is a distinct honor to Randall county as well as to the Vetek herd of Poland Chinas. The competition was exceptionally strong.

In the grain class, Mr. Walker found strong competition, mostly from West Texas counties, several of whom had spent a lot of money getting up an elaborate exhibit. Mr. Walker took an exhibit which was quickly gotten together, and his winnings are all the more commendable.

- Second on barley.
- First on rye
- First on cowpeas
- Third on baled alfalfa
- Second on sorghum hay, baled.
- Second on sudan hay, baled.

Mr. Walker states that he had never seen such interest shown in West Texas as at this Show. He stated that the folders he took from the Commercial League were eagerly taken by the people at the Show, and he noted especially that of the 2000 he gave out, not more than a dozen were thrown down by those who had taken one and passed on. He stated that people asked more question about Randall county that he had ever seen before. They were anxious to know more about this section of the state.

Mrs. Calliham and children were in Conway the past week end visiting relatives.

W. J. Flesher Out As Candidate for District Attorney

W. J. Flesher of Canyon has authorized the News to make the announcement of his candidacy for the office of District Attorney of the 47th Judicial District, subject to the Democratic primary on July 22, 1922. This district is composed of Randall, Potter, Armstrong and Donley counties.

Mr. Flesher has been a practicing attorney in Canyon for twelve years. During that time he served as county attorney, and was very successful in handling the business of this office. As county attorney he became acquainted with the duties that devolved upon the district attorney, as he helped materially with the work in the grand jury room, and in prosecution of criminal cases.

During the last term of district court in Randall county, Mr. Flesher was appointed district attorney by Judge Henry S. Bishop owing to the illness of district attorney W. H. Childers. It is a signal fact that Mr. Flesher obtained a conviction of every criminal case tried during the term. His work was highly complimented by the grand jury, other court officials, members of the different juries, and those citizens who had occasion to be in the court house during the trial of criminal cases.

Mr. Flesher has the unanimous endorsement of the business men of Canyon.

This is the first time in the history of this judicial district that an attorney outside of Amarillo has announced for a district office. Mr. Flesher has been strongly endorsed by the Amarillo attorneys, and attorneys in the other counties of this district, and if elected he is qualified to make the district an excellent official.

W. L. Garner Died Tuesday 9:00 P. M. Funeral Held Today

W. L. Garner died Tuesday evening at the family home on West Evelyn street. Mr. Garner recently underwent two serious operations at Plainview, but was recovering fine. He was taken ill about ten days ago with the flu and the asthma, with which he has suffered for many years, grew much worse. He realized for several days that he would soon pass away.

Mr. Garner was born in northern Alabama Feb. 11, 1848, and was 74 years, 1 month and 10 days of age at the time of his death. He moved to Texas in 1875 and to Randall county in December, 1905, settling on his farm west of the city. In 1909 he moved to Canyon. On April 18, 1909 his wife died.

One child of Mr. and Mrs. Garner died in infancy. There are living seven children, all excepting J. A. being here for the funeral. The children are:

- Mrs. W. R. Gibson, Ft. Chadbourne.
- J. A. Garner, Interior, South Dak.
- Mrs. J. W. Gates, O'Donnell
- M. P. Garner, Plainview
- W. F. Garner, Plainview
- Mrs. T. M. Boykin, Miles
- T. M. Garner, Canyon.

Mr. Garner and Mrs. M. A. Scott were married in 1912 at Waterloo, Alabama. They have made their home in Canyon since that time. A son of Mrs. Garner's, O. D. Scott, will arrive today for the funeral from his home at Duncan, Okla.

Mr. Garner has been a member of the Methodist church for many years, and when his health permitted was always in his place of worship at all services of the church. He took an active interest in the affairs of the community. He put up a brave fight when he was operated upon a few months ago, and maintained that he would recover even after the doctors had said there was no hope for him.

The funeral services will be held at the Methodist church this afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Hicks, and the body will be laid to rest by the side of his first wife in Dreamland cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Palmer of Hereford, are here for the funeral. He is a brother of Mrs. Garner.

BOOK CLUB ELECTION.

The Woman's Book Club held the annual election of officers at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon, the following being elected:

- President—Mrs. J. B. Gamble.
- Vice President—Mrs. O. N. Gamble.
- Secretary—Miss Agnes Meyers.
- Treasurer—Mrs. M. S. Blahir.
- Librarian—Mrs. L. G. Allen.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE FAVORS MORE PAY FOR SHERIFF AND COMMENDS SERVICES RENDERED BY W. C. BLACK

S. B. ORTON LEADER TUESDAY AND DISCUSSES THINGS THAT CANYON CAN DO TO MAKE THIS A BETTER TOWN.

There was only a small attendance at the weekly luncheon of the Randall County Commercial League Tuesday, there being twenty in attendance.

S. B. Orton was the leader for the day. Mr. Orton stated that Canyon was a good town, that it was a good place to live, that it was growing now and had not stopped growing during the financial difficulties; that the town would continue to grow year by year.

Mr. Orton stated that much had been discussed in the Commercial League luncheons that would make Canyon a better town, but that we had done more talking than working. He asked that we back up this talk with more work. He pointed out a number of fine things that had been done by the Commercial League and by the citizens of Canyon, two of which were the enlargement of the school district and the voting paring bonds. There is left a great deal to do to make Canyon a better town.

Mr. Orton stated that our streets should be in better condition. The town has good natural drainage, there being no town in this entire section with a better drainage system. Mr. Orton believed that the water from the west part of town may be kept from coming down onto the square by a few concrete culverts at the right places and by keeping the drain ditches to the south open.

Mr. Orton also believes that by a concerted action we can get a new depot. But he believes that every citizen in Canyon is going to have to get behind the depot proposition and show interest in the matter instead of just a few individuals talking about it.

The housing problem of Canyon will gradually take care of itself. Canyon has seen a lot of building during the past year to take care of the increasing number of students in the Normal. More houses will be built in the city as the student body increases.

Canyon is now a morally clean town, but can be made cleaner by all of the citizens working together. Physical cleanliness should be accompanied by moral cleanliness. The peace officers (Continued on last page)

Too Good Farming Weather Cuts Tractor School Attendance

The third annual Tractor School is being held at the Normal this week, and the programs are exceptionally good, but the attendance is very light.

The farmers are busy in the fields, taking advantage of the good weather that has followed the rains of last week. The ground is in excellent farming condition, and the farmers are doing the right thing by getting into the fields to conserve the moisture.

Fred H. Ives stated this morning that the Tractor School would be held in February next year.

STEWART IN SUPPLY CO.

D. Mack Stewart has accepted a position with the Canyon Supply Co. in the grocery department, taking the place of Oscar Hunt. Mr. Stewart states that this does not mean that he has in any sense withdrawn from the race for County Assessor. He has made a canvass of all of the town, part of the county, and will see all of the voters before the primary in July.

BAKERY RE-OPENS.

T. I. Poor, has re-opened his bakery on the south side of the square, which was put out of operation by the fire just before Christmas. The bakery has a fine brick building, erected by S. H. Heyser. Mr. Poor has installed the very latest baking equipment and has more coming which make his bakery shop very superior to the equipment he had before the fire.

ORDER FOR TREES MUST BE IN BY SATURDAY

C. F. Walker states that all orders for shade trees must be in his hands by Saturday of this week in order to guarantee shipment. The order will be sent to the experimental station at Lubbock where shade trees may be purchased at a much less cost than at the commercial nurseries.

GRAND JURY ENDS TERM; REPORTED NINE MORE BILLS

GRAND JURY IS IN SESSION FOR ELEVEN DAYS.

One of Busiest Sessions of District Court For Several Years Closes Saturday Night.

J. D. Martin was arrested Saturday under indictment of the grand jury for theft, and is now out under bond to appear at the next session of the district court.

The grand jury closed its investigations, Saturday afternoon, reporting to Judge Henry Bishop that the work of the term was completed. This grand jury was in session longer than any grand jury for a number of years, being at work for a total of eleven days. The grand jury in 1918 was in session for eight days, and the average length of grand jury sessions during the past few years has been about five days.

W. E. Bennett, R. A. Bellah and Z. G. Fogerson served as jury commissioners Friday and chose jurors for the coming term of court.

Judge Bishop remitted the fines imposed against Newt Reeves, T. V. Reeves, E. Newman, A. J. Walker, Will Cage and W. R. Moody, these men having presented valid excuses to the Judge for being late in court during the storm of last week.

R. Leslie Ward vs. J. J. Leavitt et al was continued.

R. A. Campbell vs. J. F. Brady et al, judgment for the plaintiff.

Cyrus Eakman vs. A. B. Miller, judgment for the plaintiff.

J. W. Turner's appeal bond was made Thursday.

The appeal bonds for J. D. Colthorp and Charlie Hull was approved Sunday and they were released from jail.

Minnie Parvin was given a divorce from R. A. Parvin.

The following is the report of the grand jury filed with Judge Bishop late Saturday afternoon.

The following report of the grand jury was given to Judge Bishop Saturday afternoon, and the jury dismissed for the term:

To the Honorable Judge of the District Court of Randall County, Texas. We, the Grand Jury of Randall County, Texas, now in session of the February term of Court held in Canyon, Texas, respectfully submit the following report:

We have examined over 120 witnesses, and have diligently inquired into all violations of the law that have come to our knowledge, and have returned fifteen true bills, including fourteen felonies and one misdemeanor, and we are sorry to report that we failed to find sufficient evidence on some complaints of grave importance to find a bill.

We heartily commend the faithful and efficient services of the sheriff of this county and his deputies and bailiffs in the discharge of the duties of this office and the earnest co-operation of the District Attorney, in the discharge of his duties.

We, therefore, respectfully ask to be discharged.

W. H. CRAIN, Foreman.

Wheat is coming up since the good rains and snow, and some people are beginning to talk about making a wheat crop this year. Don't count too strong on the wheat. It will probably be a miracle if a wheat crop is raised this year, as everything has to be almost perfect during the next three months to make any wheat.

EARTH'S RICHEST VALLEY

Seattle Post Intelligence: Mazatlan, Mexico—Descending southward from the State of Sonora, with its rich valleys and wealth of soil beyond all computation in value, the rapid train passed into the State of Sinaloa. Just one valley, no break in its vast expanse. Twenty million humans are starving to death in Eastern Europe, and here is rich land sufficient to furnish abundant food for the entire civilized races for centuries. And this without fertilizers. The dense black soil—literal plant food—richer than that often sold in seed stores, is here by thousands of square miles and of great depth, as deep as the ocean bottom was when the whole area was lifted up.

Time beyond imagination in millions of years was required for weeds, shrubs, vines and small trees to live, grow, fix and set matter from the air, die, decay and mix their debris with sand and fine silt from the mountain tops to fill this immense valley to its present level or depth. Imagination is helpless.

The Aryan race descended from their upland valley home on the north side of the Himalaya Mountains in India, in all probability 10,000 years ago. They emerged by the western gate and started westward. They founded Iran, Bactria, Asia Minor, Macedonia, Greece, Rome, England and came to the Atlantic. Here indeed was a barrier that endured for centuries. Columbus passed and millions followed. Northward impulse of the Aryans.

North America was crossed and now one of the chief events in the career of man is occurring—this indomitable race is piling up on the shores of the Pacific Ocean.

TRADED COW HIDE FOR A COCOANUT

A few days ago one of our citizens butchered a fat yearling. After the animal was dressed and the hide ready for market, he told his little boy, to take the hide down town and sell same and he could have one half of the proceeds, whatever the hide sold for. The little boy was very glad to make this bargain, so he put the hide on his bicycle to take down town to do his trading. Shortly the boy returned, but he did not look very pleased with his trade and said: "Papa, I got only 13c (thirteen cents) for the whole hide, please give me all of it."

Well, of course the father had to let the boy have all the money. The little boy went back to town to do some more trading, and after returning home after his second trip, he looked more satisfied. He declared that he got what he wanted anyhow. The grocerman had let him have a cocoanut for his 13c, thought the regular price was 15c per cocoanut.—Abernathy Review.

LET IT BE SAID

Here is a good word for the American business man. He has had many an ill word spoken of him in recent years by a public unable to discriminate between the honest merchant, who is in the majority, and the profiteer.

American wholesale prices now average 26 per cent higher than pre-war according to Dun's.

British wholesale prices average 67 per cent higher than in July, 1914.

Prices in the United States have declined faster than in any other country.

That is a big thing to say of any nation's store keepers these times, besides it speaks well for the country.

WHAT HE WANTED TO KNOW

Miss Gibson was very rich and Mr. Hanna was very poor. She liked him, but that was all, and he was well aware of the fact. One evening he grew somewhat tender and at last he said: "You are very rich aren't you, Helen?"

"Yes, Tom," replied the girl frankly, "I am worth about $2,000,000."
"Will you marry me, Helen?"
"Oh, no, Tom, I couldn't."
"I knew you wouldn't."
"Then why did you ask?"
"Oh, I just wanted to know how a man feels when he loses two million."

HUSBANDS AS COOKS

Never let your husband acquire the slightest knowledge of the culinary art. When he learns how to fry an egg, Friend Wife has lost one of her matrimonial props.

This is the most important secret of domestic bliss, according to Admiral Tsal Ting-Can, of the Chinese navy.

His theory isn't that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, but that when a husband learns to cook it makes him independent of his wife and that is fatal.

USES AMERICA'S OLD SLANG

Elsie McCormick in the Japan Advertiser: When the wandering Shanghai resident returns after a visit to America his friends hang on his words with an interest that is not confined entirely to the news from home. When at last he remarks that an impecunious acquaintance "hasn't enough money to buy bird-seed for a coo-koo-clock" his auditors have the combined look of a fisherman who has caught something and a man who is filling away an important memorandum for future reference. At the next party they attend, any one of his hearers is likely to draw the conversation around to the impecunious friends just for the privilege of pulling the memorandum out of its cerebral filing case and watching the results.

To be anywhere from two to five years behind the latest slang is one of the penalties of living in Shanghai. Nothing gives the average American quite such a consciousness of antiquity as being behind the fashion in slang. Shanghai to the Chinese is the fountainhead of the merry quip, the pert sentence, and the latest fragment of argot. Nanking road is China's Broadway, and many bits of acrobatic language that originated in the New World has traveled by junk up the Yangtze, by barrow into Szechuen and by yak into Tibet.

A hat is a "lid" in both the Chinese and American communities. A man in jail is euphemistically spoken of as a "government guest," and a policeman is known as a "street watchdog." Instead of "chicken feed" copper change is called "small hair."

The query which on Main street might be rendered, "What's the idea of the glad rags?" becomes on Nanking road, "Why so much paint?"

Some of the Chinese slang expressions, however, could have originated only in the society of the Far East. Thus a man speaks of his father-in-law as his "mountain," the idea being that a father-in-law is a protection against all economic storms and a place for mining rich ores. This view of the function of a father-in-law would seem extremely optimistic in the Occident, where the married man who "lives off his wife's folks" is considered a subject for apology and a proper person to serve with chicken necks.

When a mother says her children have official business, she uses a phrase which throws no violets on Chinese hygienic standards. The remark means that her young hopefuls are down with smallpox, so called because it is supposed to be an inevitable as the routine business of a Government.

In China many an expression that first saw the light in the New World may some time be dressed up in gold and given a front row position in a presidential edict.

CYCLONE AT MEMPHIS
One death and one, probably, fatal injury and a score of minor injuries to persons, and a heavy loss of property resulted from a storm which swept this section Saturday morning.

Granpa Hall, 73, father of J. J. Hall, who lives just south of Eli, died at six o'clock this morning from injuries received when the Hall residence was demolished.

Clarence Newbrough, the 11-year-old son of J. W. Newbrough, of the same neighborhood, lies at the point of death from injuries received in the same manner.

The families of Bedford Moore and Henry Taylor, whose houses were destroyed escaped injury by taking refuge in storm cellars.

Eight or ten residences were utterly destroyed in the path of the storm and practically all the barns, out-houses and windmills were blown down. The property loss can not be estimated with any degree of accuracy but will reach many thousands of dollars.—Memphis Democrat.

TWO DESERT SNAKES GIVEN NORMAL BY FORMER STUDENT
The Biology department of the West Texas State Normal College received recently from Paul Lipscomb, a former student, who is now in Arizona, two snakes peculiar to the desert region of that country. He requested that his former classmates name the snakes. They are small non-poisonous reptiles, with yellow and brown spots or checks over a pale skin. To date they have not been named. They are attracting much attention due to their diminutive size and strange color combination.

Such help as we can give each other in this world is a debt to each other; and the man who perceives a superiority or a capacity in a subordinate, and neither confesses nor assists it, is not merely a withholder of kindness, but the committer of injury.—Ruskin.

Unhappy are those countries where the multitude of charities makes all the world live at ease but those who work.—Montesquieu.

THAT DULL ACHING
Don't Worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. G. A. Jones, Canyon, says: "I was troubled continually with my back. Through the small of my back was a steady bearing down pain and it was so sore I could hardly stoop over to pick up anything. At night my back was sore and ached so I couldn't sleep at all. I also had awful dizzy spells and headaches. My kidneys were weak and troubled me, too. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and bought a supply from the City Drug Store. Three boxes of Doan's cured me of every symptom of the trouble."

KEEP ON PADDLING
One evening found two frogs in search of richer feeding grounds. Suddenly they came upon a bucket of cream setting in the middle of the small creek they were exploring. They decided to take the chance and into the pail they jumped.

"May as well give up," cried one, after vainly floundering around in an attempt to escape. "We're goners."

"No use trying. This stuff's too thick to swim in, too thin to jump from, and too slippery to crawl out of—bound to die anyway, may as well die tonight." And so saying, he sank to the bottom and passed out.

His companion doggedly kept on paddling, paddling, paddling. The next morning found him perched on a mass of butter eagerly disposing of the flies that came swarming from all directions.

The trouble with most Americans who fail to succeed is not that they are not brilliant enough, but because they are not thorough enough. They dislike the tediousness, the study, and the labor involved in laying foundations.—Bird Notes, Wallace Pencil Co., St. Louis.

People will not look forward to posterity who never look backward to their ancestors.—Burke.

SOME SALESMAN!
There is a story going the rounds that is worth passing on. Things on the farm were just about as bad as they could be. Wheat had failed, oats went to straw but no heads, rains rotted out the potatoes and early frosts killed the corn. There wasn't one single money crop.

One morning the old farmer looked around to see if there wasn't something which could be turned into a few dollars cash and his eye lit on the last crop of all—a pile of turnips.

"Here, Jed," he said to his son, "put some of these turnips in a bag, drive to town and see if you can sell them."

At chore time Jed came driving home. The old man went to the gate to meet him.

"Did you sell any turnips, boy?"

"Naw, I drove up and down the streets all day and no one asked what I had in the bag."—Empeco News.

Farm Bureau Meeting Held Last Saturday

Many farmers from Randall County attended the Farm Bureau organization meeting at Canyon, Saturday, March 18th. Among the speeches made was that of G. F. Slaughter of Dallas who explained the insurance feature of the American Farm Bureau and that of Prof. F. R. Phillips of the West Texas State Normal College, who gave a brief history of Farmers' Organizations past and present.

The greatest interest in the Farm Bureau in Randall County centers in the wheat marketing feature; however, one farmer, George Frank, stated that he had been offered five dollars per ton for mill heads through the organization than he could secure from the local market.

As the wheat farmers had until April first to join, it was decided to postpone election of permanent officers until after that date, in order to give all members a chance to vote their choice.

Henry F. Miller made a report upon the Amarillo meeting, which meeting he had attended as a delegate from Randall county. The farmers are becoming very much interested in the Farm Bureau movement, not that they want to organize farmers' stores as organizations have done in the past, but that they may grade and sell their products to better advantage.

Happy Happenings

A fire broke out in the tin building west of the garage, where mattresses are being made and remodeled, about noon Saturday. It was supposed that a match was in one of the mattresses on which they were working. The fire spread rapidly, but was finally extinguished when several fire extinguishers were obtained and a large number of men helped. If the fire had reached the garage building and the oil tanks near it, probably all the business section of Happy would have burned.

John Martin, eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin, has been real sick the past week with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bray of Canyon visited Mrs. Bray's sister, Mrs. Miller Currie, Monday.

Miss Mildred Zoeller spent Friday night and Saturday with Miss Eugenia Evans.

Mrs. Embury Finley received a telegram Friday, stating the death of her brother, Marvin Garrison, who now lives in Virginia, but formerly lived near Happy. He first had the flu, and as he was recovering he took pneumonia and lived only a few days. Marvin's friends were numbered here by his acquaintances. He attended High School here in 1920 and his death was a great shock to all his school mates. His mother died in the latter part of 1921, when Mr. Finley and her brother, Guy Garrison, went to Virginia. Their many friends extend to them their greatest sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Miss Vesta Goad of Arney spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Esta Goad.

The return baseball game between Happy and Canyon was played at Canyon Wednesday afternoon. Although the Happy boys fought steadily and steadfastly for every break, they were defeated by a score of 13 to 7. But, of course they do not feel disgraced, nor discouraged, and they are ready, willing and anxious to play again.

Singing was very good Sunday with a fairly good attendance and good interest. It will be held at the school auditorium again next Sunday at 3:30 o'clock. A committee has been appointed to prepare some special music for next Sunday. So come next Sunday and help keep this organization going and working.

Ernest Miller, Leon Lawson and Cecil Bates visited friends in Canyon Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones and babies and Miss Fessie Jones were visiting in Amarillo Tuesday night and Wednesday.

W. H. Doyle went to Plainview Friday to bring Mrs. Doyle home. She has been in the sanitarium there.

The High School girls basketball team played against the town team Friday evening, but were defeated.

How Firestone Has Reduced the Cost of Tire Service

Size	Jan. 1921 Prices	Jan. 1922 Prices	Reduction
30 x 3 Fabric	$18.75	$ 9.85	47%
30 x 3½ " ✓	22.50	11.65	48%
30 x 3½ Cord	35.75	17.50	51%
32 x 4 "	56.55	32.40	43%
33 x 4½ "	67.00	42.85	36%
33 x 5 "	81.50	52.15	36%

HOW the cost of building quality tires has been brought down to the lowest level in history was explained by H. S. Firestone, President of the Company, to the stockholders at the annual meeting on December 18, 1921.

1. All inventories and commitments at or below the market.
2. Increased manufacturing efficiency and volume production reduced factory overhead 55%.

3. Selling costs reduced 33%.
Mr. Firestone stated, "This reduction in prices is made possible by our unusually advantageous buying facilities, and the enthusiasm, loyalty and determination of our 100% stockholding organization."

"Due credit must be given to Firestone dealers who are selling Firestone tires on a smaller margin of profit. This brings every Firestone saving direct to the customer."

The saving through first cost plus the saving through high mileage double Firestone economy and is daily adding new fame to the Firestone principle of service.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

The Parent-Teachers' Association met at the school house Friday afternoon. On account of the contest among the school children, an unusually large crowd, was present. An excellent literary program was rendered by the pupils. The Junior Orchestra deserves special mention. The readings given Misses Mildred Jackson and Dalma Fry were greatly appreciated. A very enjoyable duet was given by Marion and Otis Higdon. Mrs. E. J. Simmons read a splendid paper on "How to Develop Continuity in Children."

The next regular meeting will be the social meeting. The contest is getting interesting. Come out next week, and cast your vote. The results of the contest are:

Primary Grades 45 votes.
Intermediate, 26 votes.
High School 9 votes.

ENTERTAINED AT THOMAS HOME

A crowd of young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Thomas last Saturday evening, in honor of Mr. Luther Carr. The guests consisted of the following: Misses Hattie Anderson, Annie Wood, Fay Lockhart, Joy Bowman, Zoda Stanfield, Beta Baldwin, Velma Snider, Thelma Clinkscale, and Esther Rudolph. The young men were Messrs. Luther Carr, Everett Dison, Everett Key, Lewis Hill, Jim Webb, Elmer Marshall, Heyden Goodnight, and Bryan Witt. After playing a number of games the guests were served with delicious eats by Miss Babston and Miss Wood. As punch was served Miss Anderson gave a toast, to which Mr. Carr and Miss Bowman responded. Just as the guests were leaving Mrs. Thomas presented each with a lovely carnation. The guests went away wishing that Mr. Carr might go home quite often if he would only come back.

There will be no service at our church at 7:30 as we dismiss to join in the above named service.

At 11 o'clock we will have our annual Congregational meeting, at which time we will have reports from the various organizations of the church. This should be a meeting of especial interest to every Presbyterian in Canyon. Come.

TED P. HOLLIFIELD, Pastor.

PHILLIPS RAFFS CIGARETTES

In speaking about the recent action of the Canyon Parent-Teacher organization in asking that the cigarette law be strictly enforced in Randall County, Frank R. Phillips of the Normal had the following to say:

"For the last ten years I have studied the boy problem. I have heard their side of the story and I have had fathers to tell me their side of the question. I have had many people ask me about certain boys and their ability to do special jobs. I have had several to tell me that they did not want boys to work for them who smoked cigarettes, but I have never had a man yet to ask for a boy or man to work for him who could smoke cigarettes. One of the greatest problems that I have is to show my boys the evil of this practice. I certainly approve of the methods adopted in the Canyon Mothers' Clubs and suggest that the best method of procedure is to teach the harmful effects of cigarettes to the boy's body. I wish that it was possible for every state school to have a set of lungs that has been taken from a boy who used cigarettes and one from a normal person to use for comparison. Boys cannot be driven, but they can be shown. Again, I approve of the action taken by the State Teachers' Association in asking the legislature to pass a law prohibiting the sale of this form of smoking material in the State of Texas."

The Commercial League of Canyon has also passed resolutions favoring that the cigarette law be enforced.

THE EVOLUTION OF AN OLD BARN

The Old Barn Built By President R. B. Cousins is Made Into a College Infirmary.

Have you ever noticed the two storied white house just between the Administration Building and Cousins Hall? Have you visited this house since it became the infirmary? If not, you have missed the treat of the year. Away back in 1910, as the walls of the first administration building began to cast its shadows upon the campus, this house was built just back of the present home of the President. In this barn, Ex-President Cousins kept his surly and pony. It was a rather good barn, but nobody ever dreamed that twelve years later it would become a resort for sick and injured students.

A few years later, when Mr. Cousins bought a car, the old barn was moved aside to make room for a new brick garage. Then came the hungry tongue of fire and licked up the Administration building. Shacks were built, and Mr. Cousins' barn was used as a manual training building downstairs, and as a music hall upstairs.

After the new building had been built, for a year or so the old barn missed the faces of the students and was used as a store house for the farm equipment of the Agriculture Department. Then, along came Mr. Ives and converted the building into "Cozy Cottage," a rooming place for boys who worked for the Agriculture Department. Last year, Miss Harriett Graham, the Y. W. C. A. Secretary, turned the first floor into a Y. W. lunch room and social center. It was here that the students could buy sandwiches, hot drinks, soup, etc., at a cheap price, for their lunches. The Y. W. C. A. held all of its social gatherings here, and the former barn was the scene of many candy pullings, pie sales, and parties.

Just a little while before last Christmas, the song of the hammer and saw reached the ears of passers-by, and a little later, the former barn was "sporting" a new coat of paint. Under the direction of Mrs. Marr, the College nurse, Mr. Terrill, and others the building was partitioned, the walls being boarded and stained a soft and beautiful restful green. Today, from the outside, the building looks like a modern residence. Now, it is not Mr. Cousins' barn, but as up-to-date an infirmary as ingenuity, a few dollars, and Mrs. Marr can make it.

The lower floor contains the nurse's office, nurse's bedroom, a bath room, a kitchenette, and a boys' ward with four beds in it. A broad stairway leads to the upper floor where there are two girls' wards with six beds, an operating room equipped with the simpler operating appliances, and another large room containing emergency equipment.

If you ever have a spare moment, visit the College Infirmary. It will be well worth your time.

Hoboes Coming Thick and Fast on Santa Fe

Wednesday night, March 15, the home-trained, hospitable, average citizens of Hereford, who constitute nearly one hundred per cent of the local population, glanced at the clock, saw it was ten o'clock, yawned, stretched, laid aside The Brand, put out the cat, took a look at the heavens, neglected to lock the door and went peacefully to bed, satisfied with the consciousness of another daily grind of duty performed, secure in a citizenship under the Stars and Stripes, emblematic of the greatest peace-loving republic on earth.

About the same time, we are informed by the Night Watchman, fourteen hoboes—"Knights of the road"—jobless, ragged, hungry, devil-may-care fellows, were being carefully rounded up by Night Watchman Baker and Constable Richards and herded into the plant of the Light Company opposite the depot, where they would not suffer from the cold and, more important still could be under the watchful eyes and prevented from spreading out over the city.

If you sat up late, or if you had to get up for any cause, did you happen to notice the lights "wink"—if so, did you know what it meant? The answer is that one or more of the transient visitors had left the light plant, against orders and Night Engineer Weaver was merely warning the Watchman of that fact. Mr. Baker may have been in his restaurant, or at the other end of Main street at that moment, but when the lights "winked" he knew the reason and beat it to the light plant pronto, to round up the man who had broken his parole.

This hobo problem is assuming threatening proportions in Hereford. An average of five spend the night here every night. Recently the average has begun to rise. The problem is what to do with them, how to get them away, and, as a matter of pure humanity, to see that they do not suffer for food while here.

Their ages range from fourteen to fifty-five. They are nearly all westward bound, tured to the Pacific Coast, the Golden State. Train crews naturally fight them off where possible. They avoid the larger places, where police protection is better and vagrancy laws stringent. Besides they know that the average small town is more hospitable and the chances for "cats" are better.

Tuesday a solid flat-car of Bo's went through. Of the fourteen rounded up here Wednesday night, one was a lad

SHERIFF'S SALE
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Randall:

By virtue of an Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Swisher County, on the 6th day of February, 1922, by J. M. Simpson, Clerk of said Court against W. E. Armstrong and R. E. Prewitt, jointly and severally for the sum of Twelve hundred, Thirteen and 64-100 ($1213.64) Dollars and costs of suit, in cause No. 1387 in said Court, styled Tullia Bank and Trust Co., versus W. E. Armstrong et al and placed in my hands for service, I, W. C. Black as Sheriff of Randall County, Texas, did on the 10th day of February 1922, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Randall County, described as follows, to-wit:

The N. W. One-Fourth of Section No. 66, Block M-9, Certificate No. 6-175, in Randall County, Texas, and levied on as the property of said W. E. Armstrong and R. E. Prewitt and on Tuesday, the 4th day of April, 1922, at the Court House door of Randall County, in the town of Canyon, Texas, between the hours of ten A. M. and four P. M. I will sell said Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said W. E. Armstrong and R. E. Prewitt by virtue of said levy and said Order of Sale.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Randall County News, a newspaper published in Randall County.

Witness my hand, this 7th day of March 1922.

of barely fourteen, sick, too. Two had no shoes. They got off, or are put off, here and at night are naturally attracted by the warm-looking appearance of the light plant across the tracks. THREE KILLED AT CHILDRSS

Childress, March 17.—Three people were shot dead here this afternoon. Joe Scott, 18, and Mary Belle Leach, 16, were shot and killed by Ben Crowe, 50, who then shot and killed himself, according to the verdict at an inquest late this afternoon following the tragedy.

Testimony developed that Crowe approached Scott, a railway employe as he was standing on a working platform and handed him a note. While Scott was reading the note, Crowe shot him through the heart with a pistol, witnesses said.

Scott spoke only a few words after being shot. He asked that a doctor be called quickly. An ambulance was called, but the youth died before it arrived.

Crowe then returned to his home, where he shot the girl, who was his stepdaughter, witnesses said, and he then put a bullet through his own brain.

The trouble impended is indicated by several notes which various persons received alluding to a row with Scott. One of these notes directed disposition of his children and another of his insurance.

It is said that Crowe had been brooding over his troubles for several days, and that Thursday night he met a young man down town and made threats but was persuaded he was talking to the wrong person.

Scott was the son of Mrs. H. A. Richardson of Childress. He was an employe of the tank gang of the Fort Worth & Denver. His father who left here several years ago was last heard of in Amarillo. Crowe also was a shop workman. Both of the men had good reputations.

After the bodies were removed to the morgue letters were taken from Crowe's pocket addressed to his son, Robert, daughter, Susie, and to the public. A letter found on Scott was also made public.

Watch the little folks speed home for Kellogg's Corn Flakes

It's great to see child-enthusiasm for Kellogg's; great to see every one in the family enjoy their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor! To sit down before a heaping bowlful of these cheery, oven-browned "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" and some milk or cream—and fresh fruit, if it's handy—is just about the very last word in appetizing appeal! And, your good taste will prove that!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes ought to be superior—they are the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery; never hard to eat; never a disappointment!

Be certain to get Kellogg's—the kind in the RED and GREEN package—because none are genuine without the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Toasted Corn Flakes!

Miss Hudspeth Woman's Dean At W. T. S. N. C.

Miss Mary E. Hudspeth, head of the department of Spanish and dean of women in the West Texas State Normal College, was born at Monticello, Drew County, Ark. When she was five years old her father moved his family to San Antonio, at that time the mecca for sufferers of tuberculosis. From the time she was seven until she was thirteen years old she lived on a ranch in Bandera County, Texas.

Her early education was received in a country school which usually lasted two or three months during the year, and was inadequately equipped and poorly taught. This lack of early advantages was in a measure overcome by the instruction she received from her mother who was a college graduate. At the age of fourteen she entered the high school at Monticello, Ark., where she received a fairly good foundation in English, Latin and mathematics. After finishing high school she entered Baylor University at Waco where she remained until within a few months of graduation. She was called home on account of the illness of her mother.

Baylor University at the time Miss Hudspeth was a student there, was under the old regime with Dr. Rufus C. Bursleson as president. It boasted of only two buildings, Bursleson Hall and the administration building, but there was enrolled as students at that time a galaxy of young men who have since made distinction in the state of Texas. Among them may be mentioned Governor Pat Neff, Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University; Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas, and Dr. B. H. Carroll, American counsel at Madrid.

In 1900 Miss Hudspeth entered Peabody Normal College where she won a Peabody scholarship and received the L. I. diploma in 1902. In 1903 she received the A. B. degree from the University of Nashville. She has done graduate work in Vanderbilt University, University of Chicago, Columbia University, and University of California.

Miss Hudspeth taught Latin for two years in the high school of Colorado, Texas. She was for four years principal of the Baptist Academy at Rusk, Texas, and was just previous to coming to Canyon in 1910, teacher in the El Paso High School. She has been a member of the faculty of the West Texas State Normal College since 1910, being one of the two women yet in the school who were members of the original faculty.

A PLEASANT HOUR IN THE Y. W. C. A. REST ROOM

In three chill dimensions the corridor spread dark and empty. As I passed along, the entire building resounded in echo. Through a window, at the extremity of the passage, I saw a meager portion of blue-black cloud. Outside, the north wind flung at furious intervals. I approached a solitary open door.

A bit of clear light led me into the Y. M. C. A. rest room. Within, a wealth of lulling warmth radiated through air faintly tinged with perfume from a modest bouquet on the secretary's desk. The room had only one occupant. A girl wearing a red sweater and cap sat by the desk busily copying notes. As I entered, she glanced up and smiled, pleasantly. I sat down near a radiator and, having no lessons to interfere, indulged in comfortable idleness and day-dreaming. Presently a few girls strolled in. Groups formulated here and there from which issued laughter and friendly conversation. Others passed in and out. Of this number, I noted, there was scarcely one who failed to greet the girl in the red sweater. Many of news or to discuss with her the holidays that had just passed. Naturally, as one will, I contrasted the appearance of the girl at the desk with that of others who passed by. Although her dress was extremely neat, it was not out of the ordinary. Certainly, her black hair was not arranged in accordance with the prevailing mode. Neither did she possess pronounced beauty of feature. Indeed, many others were more expensively clad and more beautiful; yet, she was the favorite of them all. Watching the various groups and individuals, I wondered why this one girl should prove so attractive. Another student entered the room, walked across to the desk and addressed some remark to the girl. She looked up from her work so willingly and with such a good-natured expression one would think it was a pleasure to be interrupted. To the few casual advances which were made she responded heartily; and, as her acquaintance departed, she looked after her with smiling, friendly eyes. She held this same cheerful attitude, I noticed, toward every individual with whom she came in contact. Few of the faces which I saw that period were as good-natured and as swift to acquire an expression of kindness and solicitude toward other people as hers. I knew then, of course, why her friends were so numerous.

The bell sounded. I walked down the hall thinking how much more pleasant would be our lives in general if we could only accept—or rather, acquire—the viewpoint of the girl in the red sweater.

Canton Four Wheel Riding Lister

An easy lift is secured by a balance spring on the lever. The bottom works on a single ball and it takes the ground the instant it is lowered. Long bearings on the axles prevent the frame from wobbling, and gives it the strength and rigidity needed for the best work. The Canton is one of those easy running machines you sometimes hear about, but don't always see, unless it is a Canton. We want you to see this lister before you buy. It's a dandy.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE FAVORS MORE PAY TO SHERIFF

need more encouragement in their efforts to enforce the law. The peace officers are not getting pay for the work they are doing, and the enforcement of the peace is now done almost purely from a sense of duty. The sheriff of Randall county is paid the same amount of money that was paid eight years ago when the cost of living was much less. The county pays but $50 per month, which does not pay the gasoline and telephone bills. When ever the sheriff of Randall county goes out to arrest a criminal, it costs him money out of his own pocket. Sheriff Black has spent more than fifty dollars every month for the past six months for telephone calls, gas, tires and car repair, to say nothing of the depreciation of his car. He has gotten nothing for his time, and has had to pay out money for a deputy in some of the cases. The arrest of one man cost him recently $25. As long as this is the case, it is not encouraging for the sheriff to go out and get criminals.

Mr. Orton called upon a number to express their opinion as to the work and pay of the sheriff's office. C. W. Warwick and E. H. Powell believed that a peace officer should be paid in just proportion to the services he was rendering, and would favor an increase in the sheriff's salary.

L. G. Allen stated that he had been in public service many years, and had found that the public always gave just as little as possible for public service. Yet the public is always willing to pay for good service when all of the facts are laid before them. No good citizen wants to see a public official suffer from lack of pay. The public does not want to see officials lose money in the discharge of their public duties. Mr. Allen suggested that it was as much the duty of the public to report law violations to the officials as it was to see that they had financial support.

A resolution was presented and adopted endorsing the work of Sheriff Black in making the county a good sheriff, and as a body his work was endorsed.

A committee was appointed to work out the fact concerning the pay and expenses of the sheriff's office and to take action toward getting these facts before the public and to the commissioners court. This committee is G. G. Foster, A. W. Blough and C. W. Warwick.

Rev. E. A. Osborne presented the facts regarding the coming of Dr. Herbert Yenell for a series of lectures beginning Friday night of this week, and asked that the lectures be held under the auspices of the Commercial League. The motion to this effect was carried.

Attention was called to the Palo Duro National Park meeting to be held in Amarillo this afternoon. The following were appointed to attend: President Hill, Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Reeves, A. W. Blough, W. A. Warren, Judge A. N. Henson, Rev. J. H. Hicks. All others who could do so were asked to attend.

President J. A. Hill reported that he was now ready to take up the proposition of the camp ground with the Commercial League, and offered the west part of the Whittenburg land which was recently bought by the state for the use of the college. This land adjoins the highway. A committee was appointed to go into detail and report at the next week the arrangements that may be made with Mr. Hill regarding the tourists camp ground. The fol-

Glee Club Will be in Canyon for Concert

One of the most pleasing entertainments of the year comes to Canyon on the night of April first when the glee club from the Southern Methodist University will appear in concert at the Methodist church under the auspices of the choir of that church.

There are thirty men in this glee club. Their concert in different towns of the plains have been exceptionally pleasing. It is not often that a real university glee club is heard in this country, and the people of Canyon are exceptionally fortunate in the opportunity offered next week.

Following is the committee: C. D. Lester, J. M. Vetosk, C. W. Warwick.

G. G. Foster was appointed to be the leader next Tuesday and the luncheon will be held at the Canyon Cafe.

ATTEND MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Panhandle Medical Association is being held in Amarillo this week. All of the doctors of Canyon have been attending the meetings.

Dr. F. M. Wilson is on the program to discuss "The ethical gentlemen in the medical profession," and Dr. C. E. Donnell will discuss "Influenza versus similar diseases."

If the treaties are ratified, it will be another example of the triumph of mind over matter.—Souix City Journal.

65,000 GIRLS LOST IN YEAR

LINE VAST NUMBER OF WOMEN TO MYSTERY FATE

DO YOU KNOW "WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME" ?

THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF REASONS - THE MOST IMPORTANT OF WHICH ARE VIVIDLY DEPICTED IN THIS PULSE STIRRING PHOTO-DRAMA ADAPTED FROM THE FAMOUS STAGE SUCCESS

IT WAS A BLOW—

That almost broke mother's heart when the boy left home—but what must it mean to her when her daughter steps out from the parental roof into the world's terrific maelstrom?

No picture of recent date has been given quite so much public notice or created so much interest over America as "WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME."

HAVE YOU WONDERED WHY?

It is because so many girls leave home each year that it has become a National problem as well as a domestic one.

"THERE'S A REASON"

This condition of affairs is the unhappy result of some unnecessary cause. Why do girls leave home? Well, Why?

SEE THIS PICTURE

And perhaps your eyes will be opened to things that you haven't previously thought of.
