

COM'L LEAGUE DISCUSSES WEEDS AND FINANCES

TWENTY-ONE ATTENDED MEET-
TUESDAY NOON.

President J. T. McKissick of Midland College Makes Very Interesting Talk to Business Men.

The attendance at the semi-monthly luncheon of the Randall County Commercial League Tuesday was not so large as usual, although there were 21 men present, and all enjoyed the meeting very much.

In the absence of President C. H. Jarrett, C. W. Warwick was leader, and called attention to the depleted condition of the treasury. Secretary Warren stated that several had volunteered to call at his store and pay their dues, and urged others to do the same.

Mayor J. D. Gamble was present and asked that a weed cutting campaign be put on. The town was looking very ragged with so many weeds growing high all over the city.

The matter was referred to the officers of Commercial League and officers of the Civic Improvement League with a request for a weed cutting day soon.

President Jas. T. McKissick of Midland College, who is conducting a revival for the Christian Church, was called upon and spoke for fifteen minutes in a very pleasing manner. He stated that it was always the unwilling fellow who had to be looked after and worked over. Most people will consider the other fellow's rights and feelings, but not all.

Mr. McKissick likes the spirit of optimism. The spirit of the smile. Too many people meet and resolve and then do nothing.

Canyon was highly complimented by the speaker. The college here is a great school. There is a great opportunity here for the citizenship of Canyon. The speaker urged that the citizens be alive and awake to the situation.

THE CHRISTIAN REVIVAL

The Christian Church changed its place of meeting last night to the big tent east of the I. O. O. F. hall.

The visiting Evangelist, Mr. Jas. T. McKissick, delivered an earnest and eloquent sermon, touched here and there with spontaneous humor and pathos. His subject was "The Ten Virgins." Mr. Osborne, the local minister has charge of the music, and will sing at each service.

These meetings will be held every night at 8:30 and at 11 o'clock Sunday mornings. Tuesday night the tent was cool in spite of the sultriness of the weather.

The congregational singing is hearty and inspiring.

Everybody is cordially invited at these services.

STATE SENATE CANDIDATE HERE

Arthur H. King of Throckmorton, candidate for the senate from this district, was in the city Friday and met many of the voters upon the streets of the city.

Mr. King is a member of the House and served on the appropriations committee. He stated that it was with great pleasure that he voted for as large an appropriation for the West Texas State Normal College as the condition of the state's finances would permit, and only regretted that conditions would not allow for a larger appropriation. He recognized the need of more dormitories and of more land for the college. He regretted very much that President J. A. Hill was not in the city during his visit here.

Mr. King is opposing for re-election Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock, who has been our senator for the past four years.

193 TAKE EXAMINATIONS.

State examinations were conducted Friday and Saturday by Judge Worth A. Jennings, 193 teachers taking this examination. Most of this number are here for the summer normal work in the College.

Examinations will be held at the Normal the first week in August, and Judge Jennings will hold another series of examinations on August 18-19.

Help keep Canyon clean!

All Citizens Called Upon to Help in Work of Keeping City Clean

Members and officers of the Civic League believe that the people who come to Canyon to take advantage of its school facilities, who attend its churches, and who live in rented houses, not paying taxes, are citizens of the town, nevertheless.

All citizens owe something to the town. They should help KEEP CANYON CLEAN. Renters frequently spoil the looks of the entire block in which they live by allowing the weeds to grow unmolested in the alleys; this is true of several blocks that are among the prettiest in town.

The Civic League and all other organizations of the town welcome these people who live in our midst for a time, but we do think that they in turn should help to keep the town presentable while here and leave it better when they leave.

Renters, please cut your weeds, keep your premises clean!
KEEP CANYON CLEAN!

ELECTION RETURNS JULY 22.

As stated a few weeks ago, the Randall County News will receive bulletins on primary night, July 22 giving returns from over the state in all state races. Returns will be gathered in Dallas by the Texas Election Bureau, comprised of the leading daily and weekly newspapers of the state.

The returns will come in hourly bulletins Saturday night, up until midnight, and continue through Sunday with frequent bulletins until the results are apparent.

The News is also asking each election judge in Randall county to telephone complete results of his voting box to the News office just as soon as the votes are counted.

Returns will be received at the News office and all interested are invited to come and get the news.

ANOTHER HERD NOMINATED.

The Duroc Jersey herd, of S. F. Poland China territory show which Foster has been nominated for the will be held during the Randall County Fair. Mr. Foster's herd brings the total number up to eleven, with more than twenty herds nominated in the Duroc Jersey futurity show which is also to be held during the Fair.

The Poland China show is for $200 cash prizes, as follows: 1st $40; 2nd $35; 3rd $30; 4th $25; 5th $20; 6th $15; 7th $12; 8th $10; 9th $8; 10th $5.

Primary Teacher Is Elected for Canyon Public Schools

At a meeting of the trustees of the Canyon Independent School District Monday night, Miss Erna Alsop was elected primary teacher for the coming year. Miss Alsop has taught in the primary grades in the Wellington and Vernon schools. She taught at Wellington for three years while L. F. Sherry was superintendent. She is in the Normal during this summer.

The election of Miss Alsop completes the faculty of the city schools for the coming year. One teacher for the ward school west of the city is yet to be elected.

The school building is being repainted on the outside, and other improvements done.

A board of equalization was appointed, consisting of Harvey Cash, C. R. Burrow and A. B. Haynes.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

July 7—James R. Higgins and Miss Ella Roenfeldt.

July 8—Felix E. Neff and Miss Ruby E. Evans.

Mr. McClure left Sunday evening to attend the funeral.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

A meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church is called by order of the Session, Sunday, July 23, to choose a committee to secure the service of a pastor.

CITY ELECTION CARRIED BY THE MAJORITY 77 TO 0

PAVING MATERIAL IS SHIPPED TO THE CITY.

Final Ordinance of Assessment Will Be Passed This Week and Published Next Week.

The city paving election which gives the contractor a lien upon the abutting property carried in the special election Saturday by a unanimous vote of 77.

The city council met Monday and canvassed the returns of the election. It was hoped that the council would be able to pass the assessment ordinance at the meeting Monday night, but owing to the fact that the contractor's bond had not been returned by the bonding company, this ordinance was not passed. The law requires that city council shall have the contractor's bond on hand before the ordinance of assessment is passed. The contractor expects to have the bond here by the end of this week, and the council may then pass the assessment ordinance which will be published in the News next week.

The contractor states that four car loads of brick are now on the way to the city and that construction will be started as soon as the brick arrives. Under the terms of the contract, the contractor has sixty working days to complete the paving around the public square.

BOY SCOUTS ARE CAMPING.

Four car loads of Boy Scouts went to the Baptist Encampment grounds Monday morning to spend the week. Rev. Milton Swift, of the Episcopal church is staying out with them.

ELECTION ON SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION WILL BE HELD SATURDAY; DISTRICT NO. 22 PETITIONS TO JOIN CITY SCHOOL

A very important election will be held Saturday of this week, when the voters of Common School District No. 22 will vote upon the proposition of consolidating with the Canyon Independent School District. District No. 22 is just north of the city, and practically all of the children of the district are now attending school in the city.

The voters of District No. 22 will vote upon the proposition of coming into the Canyon Independent School District, and the voters in the present district will vote to receive them into consolidation.

In March of this year districts Nos.

EX-STUDENTS WILL START WORK ON BUILDING PLANS

STUDENTS' COOPERATIVE HOME
TO COST $15,000.00.

Ex-Students Association, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Are Working On Plans To Finance Building.

Plans are rapidly developing in the Normal toward a $15,000.00 Co-Operative Students Home which will be used to house the young girls coming to the Normal. Pledge cards were printed yesterday and committees are at work today on the proposition of raising money for this building.

The Co-Operative Home is being worked out by the Ex-Students Association, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. This is the first plan of the building project. It is hoped that the building may be large enough to care for twenty-four young girls together with a matron.

The next building in mind will be a social center building, which is being sponsored by the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., and it is hoped to raise money for this social center through the churches. This project will be taken up as soon as the Co-Operative Home is fairly launched.

The Randall County Ex-Students are taking up the proposition of building a number of small buildings on the campus for light housekeeping. It is hoped soon to announce a plan for building these which will appeal to business men as a sound investment and at the same time help out a situation which is very pressing since the supply of light housekeeping rooms is far from adequate in the city.

40 Hommes 8 Chevaux Society Elected New Officers Monday Nite

The La La Society Locale No. 206 des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux held a meeting Monday night, July 10, in the Palo Duro Legion Hall. Officers were installed for the coming year and degrees were conferred upon three new members by the wrecking crew. The new order will hold its meetings semi-monthly.

This new order which was organized in Canyon only a few weeks ago is attracting much attention, not only in Canyon but other Posts over this section of the country are seeking information as to how it was formed, its procedure, and various other questions regarding it. It will be remembered that only five or six organizations of this kind are found in Texas at present.

The new officers for the coming year are as follows:

Chief de Cere—H. A. Brown.
Chief de Train—W. J. Kleinschmidt.
Commissaire-Intendant—R. M. Reynolds.

Correspondant—G. A. Farlow.
Garde Aux Chevaux—H. Harter.
Garde de Prisonnier—D. Jarrett, B. M. Hopkins, and J. Pritchard.

HARVEST IS GOING ON.

Harvest is on in Randall county, with a large part of the grain crop already cut.

There is not much wheat this spring but considerable oats and barley.

A few combines have started to run but no reports sent in as to the yield of grain.

Holfield Resigns As Pastor of Presbyterian Church; Goes to Clovis

Rev. Ted P. Holfield presented his resignation Sunday morning as pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and will leave Monday for Clovis where he has been called as pastor of the Presbyterian church of that splendid city.

Rev. Holfield served the Clovis church several years before coming to Canyon, and this is the second call he has had to return to his former pastorate.

The members of the local church were surprised and distinctly disappointed when the resignation of Mr. Holfield was presented. He is one of the most brilliant ministers who has ever served the local church, and during his pastorate the local church has greatly prospered.

In addition to the responsibilities of his own church, Rev. Holfield has taken a very active part in all work of the city and community. He has been active in the Commercial League, and as Scoutmaster the Boy Scouts have done a great work.

Mr. Holfield preaches his final sermon next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, there being no preaching at night on account of the revival in progress under the auspices of the Christian church.

CANDIDATES ARE HEARD BY MANY VOTERS MONDAY

LARGE NUMBER OF VOTERS AT-TEND TRADES DAY MEETING.

Most of County Candidates Present, but Do Not Make Speeches—District Candidates Speak.

Candidate day Monday brought out a larger crowd than was really expected owing to the very busy time of the year. More than a hundred voters gathered on the court house lawn and listened for two hours to the candidates discuss various political questions.

Judge A. N. Henson, County Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, presided and called upon the candidates in the order they will appear upon the primary ballots of this county.

Judge Henry S. Bishop was the first speaker. Judge Bishop is a candidate for re-election to the office of District Judge. Mr. Bishop stated that he was glad the meeting had been called in order that the people might have an opportunity to see and hear the candidates. He trusted that the custom would be adopted in all West Texas counties as it has been for many years down in the state. The Judge highly approved of the primary election law, and believed that it would never be abolished.

Judge Bishop then told of the official positions he had held in this district, being elected District Attorney for seven terms. After being out of office one term, he was elected to his present office of District Judge, and was now asking for a second term. He had always endeavored to be entirely impartial in court, and run his court so that it would be an honor to the people of the district.

Mr. Bishop discussed the present crime wave and expressed his belief that there would have been no crime wave if the good citizens would accept jury service. He urged the citizens not to shirk jury service.

Perry S. Pearson, opponent of Judge Bishop, was the next speaker. Mr. Pearson gave a short sketch of his life, having come from Atlanta, Ga., where he practiced law, to Amarillo eleven years ago. He recalled the strenuous reconstruction days through which the world had been passing and expressed a belief that there was a brighter future in immediate prospect. Mr. Pearson dwelt at length upon his beliefs as to duties incumbent upon a District Judge. He would have the Judge fair and impartial; the Judge could not take sides in a trial. Courts were a guarantee to life and liberty of the citizen, and every citizen was entitled to a fair and impartial trial.

Mr. Pearson stated that abuses of governmental powers always came by degrees. Tyranny in office may come by degrees when we see it. It is time to sit up and take serious consideration. Sober, serious thought is needed in this country today.

Lloyd Fletcher of Amarillo, candidate for District Attorney, was next called upon by the chairman. Mr. Fletcher stated that if elected it would be his duty and pleasure to prosecute the laws as written by the legislature. He recalled his work in the Department of Justice when he gathered evidence leading to the conviction of many who evaded the draft law.

W. J. Flesher of Canyon, candidate for District Attorney, reviewed his work in the county since coming here thirteen years ago. He believed in law enforcement and told of his work during the last session of District Court when he was appointed to this work during the last term of court. Mr. Flesher obtained four convictions in criminal cases tried during the term.

Mr. Flesher stated that if the people of Randall county could approve of his record as a citizen of this community and as a lawyer, he would certainly appreciate the votes of his home people upon election day.

Judge Henson called the roll of county and precinct candidates, and practically all of them appeared before the voters. Phil Jackson was the only to discuss his candidacy. He is a candidate for county judge and discussed his ideas as to the duties of the commissioners court and of the county judge.

Can you beat the Panhandle folks for optimism? You certainly cannot. To the real citizen of the Plains country, this is the greatest country on earth—under all conditions. In spite of the financial conditions, the Plains people have suffered less than the people of any section of the United States. The wheat crop is very short this year, and witness the opinion of two well known farmers: The first one said he was glad there was a practical wheat failure this year because the world is looking toward the Panhandle, and if there had been a good wheat crop this year land would have been in such great demand and the price would have risen so that the old timers here would have been forced out. Another farmer said yesterday he was glad for the wheat failure because he had come to realize that there was more money in hogs than in attempting to raise wheat. The feed crop for hogs was always sure. Wheat was not a sure crop. The price of hogs was good; wheat prices were uncertain. The hog crop was a hard and very expensive job. He predicted that less wheat would be planted in Randall county next year because of the storer and better way of making money through hogs.

Consolidated schools are recognized in the older states as the only way a county may offer first class educational advantages to the children. No parent worthy the name should be willing to sacrifice the interest of his child's educational advantages. The consolidated school is being adopted very fast in the progressive counties of the southwest in which the people are extremely interested in raising a generation of well educated young people. Two school districts of Randall county have expressed a desire for better schools and have voted by a good majority to consolidate with the Canyon Independent School District that the children of these districts may have better educational advantages. District No. 22, to the north of Canyon, will vote next Saturday on the question of coming into the county. The people of the Independent School District will vote at the same time to receive them into the consolidation. Let Randall county continue to show its interest in better schools by a large vote favoring consolidation in the election next Saturday. A vote for consolidation is a vote in favor of the boys and girls who will be ruling the affairs of Randall county within a few short years.

A number of friends of W. J. Flesher are making an appeal in this edition of the News to the voters of Randall county that they endorse Mr. Flesher by their vote in the primaries next week. Mr. Flesher has been a citizen of Randall county for thirteen years, during which time he has worked consistently for every progressive measure that would be for the upbuilding of Canyon and Randall county. This occasion is the second time in the history of this district that a man outside of Amarillo has asked the voters for a judicial office. Mr. Flesher has demonstrated his ability to handle the work of the office during the time he was County Attorney of Randall County, and during the last term of the District Court when he was appointed District Attorney for the term. The friends of Mr. Flesher are extremely anxious that Mr. Flesher receive the vote of Randall county in this election.

The railroad strike continues, with the strikers becoming more and more bold in certain parts of the country. The railroads are determined to upset the plans of the strikers. The people generally are little concerned over the strike, although there is danger that if the strike continue for several weeks railroad service will become badly handicapped.

Ousley sentiment is certainly increasing over the state from day to day and it is safe to prophesy that Ousley will be in the run-off in the August primary. All of the candidates are busy throwing brickbats at each other—and there are plenty of grounds for these missives in the antics of the other candidates in the campaign. Thomas and Mayfield are after each other, and if all they have to say regarding each other is true, neither should be trusted with the great office of United States senator. Ousley is escaping this mud-slinging of the other candidates simply because he is conducting his campaign upon a platform that will serve the people of Texas—a platform that is meeting the appeals of the people of Texas and a platform which will withstand the onslaughts of his opponents. Ousley is a safe and sane candidate—the best man in the race.

The Boy Scouts of Amarillo hauled into court every loafer on the streets of that city who was not armed with a fly swatter. There are enough men on the streets of Canyon. If made to use a fly swatter, to kill a million or so flies per day. The Boy Scouts of Canyon should follow the example of the Amarillo boys and help clean out the flies.

The people of Canyon certainly are in favor of the paving program of the city council. Only two votes were polled against the original paving elections, while the election Saturday was unanimous. The city council has the permission of the people of Canyon to push the paving out just as far as the money on hand will pay the bill.

Germany reports to be unable to meet the reparation payment due this month. Germany is about bankrupt. France is going to be worse than bankrupt if she continues her foolish policy of a huge standing army. There certainly is room for some men in every nation of the world today.

MR. THOMAS ON THE TARIFF
Star-Telegram: Mr. Cullen Thomas makes great capital of the fact that Woodrow Wilson vetoed the emergency tariff bill, and stoutly declares that he is with "Woodrow Wilson, Democrat," and not a "Warren G. Harding Democrat."
To hide behind a great name has ever been the last resort of those whose poverty of thought left them no other defense. Does Mr. Thomas seek to have the people of Texas believe that there is something infallible about Mr. Wilson's vetoes and that they shall be appealed to as to a final authority? Has Mr. Wilson never been mistaken in a veto? We are of the opinion that he was mistaken on more than one occasion, and we believe that this veto of the emergency tariff bill was one of the occasions. Will Mr. Thomas dispute the statement that he made mistakes in the matter of vetoes?

Mr. Wilson vetoed the Volstead prohibition enforcement act, just as he vetoed the emergency tariff bill. Will Mr. Thomas say that Mr. Wilson was not mistaken when he vetoed the Volstead act?

And if Mr. Thomas will not say that—if, on the contrary, Mr. Thomas declares that Mr. Wilson was entirely mistaken in vetoing the Volstead act and in recommending to Congress that the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer be permitted—what does he prove by citing the fact that Mr. Wilson vetoed the emergency tariff bill?

Mr. Thomas very studiously fails to mention that his own brother-in-law, the distinguished junior Senator from Texas, voted for the emergency tariff bill which Mr. Wilson vetoed. Is Morris Sheppard a Harding Democrat and not a Wilson Democrat? Senator Sheppard voted also for the Volstead act which Mr. Wilson vetoed. Why should Mr. Wilson's veto of any measure be cited as a final test of its iniquitous character?

The plain truth is that Mr. Thomas' position on the tariff does not resemble that of Mr. Wilson at all. His veto of the emergency tariff bill was thoroughly consistent with his declaration of his conversion to the principle of protection for manufactured products. Mr. Wilson's remarks in explanation of his support of the tariff board go further in the direction of the Republican idea of a tariff for protection than we would be willing to go, further than Senator Sheppard would be willing to go, further than Mr. Ousley would be willing to go, and in view of Mr. Thomas' "thundering" demand that the tariff walls be torn down, Mr. Wilson's position may be said to be at the other extreme from that of Mr. Thomas.

But on one thing they agree. They are both for free raw materials, and in that we do not hesitate to say that they are both mistaken. Senator Sheppard is right in disagreeing with his esteemed brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas, and with Mr. Wilson on that question. And there you have two very good reasons why Mr. Thomas should not be elected to the United States Senate. The first is that he will oppose Senator Sheppard in a matter that concerns vitally the interests of the people of Texas, and the other is that his election would play before many conscientious voters the necessity of choosing between two members of the same family to represent Texas in the United States Senate. A great many citizens of Texas would feel it highly improper and unbecoming a great State like Texas to have two brothers in law in the same United States Senate, and we are free to say that if only one of the two is to be in the Senate we prefer that it shall be Senator Sheppard, whose stand for the interests of Texas deserves the support of all good citizens.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Randall County—Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon Harrison B. Mayfield by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Randall County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, on the first Monday in September, A. D. 1922, the same being the 4th day of September, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of July, A. D. 1922, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 944, wherein Berl Mayfield is plaintiff and Harrison B. Mayfield is defendant; the nature of plaintiff's demand being as follows:
That on the 9th day of October, 1918 the Plaintiff and Defendant were lawfully married, and they continued to live together as husband and wife until Nov. 1st, 1921, when by reason of cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of the defendant towards plaintiff, she was forced and compelled to permanently abandon him since which they have not lived together as husband and wife. Plaintiff alleges that during the time she and defendant lived together, as aforesaid, she was kind and affectionate to him, but defendant unkind, harsh and cruel and tyrannical treatment towards Plaintiff which continued until Plaintiff was forced and compelled to abandon defendant. That during their marriage relation there was two children born to them, George Mayfield, Jr., on August 18th, 1919, and Carolyn Mayfield, Born January 10th, 1921. That Plaintiff is able to care for, educate and maintain said children, and wishes a decree of your Honorable court giving her that exclusive right as against defendant. That the Defendant did not support myself or the children. Plaintiff alleges that defendant's actions and conduct toward her generally are of such a nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable. That the residence and whereabouts of defendant is unknown to Plaintiff and have been unknown to her every since they have parted.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that said marriage between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved, and declared null and void, and that Plaintiff be restored to her maiden name, Berl Edwards, and for custody of the children and for judgment for costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general in law and in equity as in the premises she may be justly entitled to.

Herein fail not, but have you before said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Canyon, Texas, this 10th day of July, A. D. 1922.

AMARILLO IS LARGEST DISTRIBUTING POINT IN SOUTHWEST—LARGE STOCKS CARRIED BY MERCHANTS EVERY YEAR

BY RAY B. McCORKLE

"Amarillo Has It" is the slogan, and it is true. Despite the fact that numerous efforts have been made to withhold from Amarillo her rights in the commercial world, her enemies seem to be losing every day. Amarillo is the logical distributing point for the Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico. Her railroad facilities, her geographical location and her industry make this so.

Time has been when Amarillo was only a one horse town, but today she is a thriving city of some twenty thousand souls, a city where people do things. In truth Amarillo is destined to grow into one of the greatest cities in all the great Southwest. Her gas fields, her citizenship, her natural resources make this possible.

Amarillo dealers are not trying to take from dealers in the smaller towns their regular trade, but they are battling for the business that has been going to various cities in the North and East during past years. Her merchandise is identically the same, and her prices will bear inspection.

C. A. GRAY, PHOTOGRAPHER

Pictures are pictures any where you find them, but there are many kinds. Some pictures are just pictures, while others carry with them something that prove their superiority. Mr. Gray has been making pictures for many years and is an experienced photographer. It makes no difference what kind of work you care for, he can and will please you if given an opportunity.

His studio on East Seventh street is one of the most complete in all the Panhandle. Only the highest class of work is turned out here.

But it may be that you desire special work. If that is so Mr. Gray is in position to satisfactorily care for your wants. He makes any kind of picture, anywhere and at any time. Just call him and let him know what you want.

And while his work is superior to that turned out by many photographers, his prices are no more. With him it is just a matter of knowing how to do good work, and it costs no more—many times less—to do good work than poor. When in Amarillo he asks that you visit his studio.

MEYER AND MEYER

Meyer and Meyer have the distinction of being the first tailors in the Panhandle to manufacture clothing in their shop. For a number of years they conducted a very profitable business at Albuquerque, New Mexico, though about a year ago they decided to open a second store in Amarillo.

Heretofore people in this section either had to purchase ready made clothing or send their orders to the north and east. Now they may go to this store, examine all the articles that go into a suit or overcoat and make your selections. Your measure will be taken and within a short time your suit will be completed. A fit is guaranteed in every instance.

It might appear that an additional charge would be made, but such is not the case. Your Meyer and Meyer suit will cost you less, if any difference. Hundreds of beautiful patterns are carried and it makes no difference what kind of clothing you want, you can get just the thing you have wanted at this store.

Let your next suit be a "Made in Amarillo Suit."

LLOYD FLETCHER

Lloyd Fletcher, more familiarly known as "Red," is well known not only in Amarillo, but all over the entire Panhandle as one of the most accomplished attorneys in this section. For a number of years he was connected with the Department of Justice, and during that time had occasion to broaden himself in many ways.

During the past few months he has been engaged in the general practice of law, specializing on income tax reports. His knowledge of Federal and State law enables him to handle cases successfully in all courts.

At the solicitation of friends Mr. Fletcher decided a few months ago to make the race for district attorney. In doing so he realized that it would take time to visit the many voters in this district, but he has done his best to reach every one. He is a life long democrat, a fair and conscientious attorney, and an honorable citizen and gentleman.

He is making the race because he wants the office and feels that he is in position to satisfy the law abiding element of the district. Upon his own merits alone he asks that the voters of this district, both men and women give his claims careful consideration, and that they remember him favorably when they cast their vote.

The historic shop in London, which shipped the tea to Boston that later was thrown into the harbor by the famous tea party, has restored the sign that hung over the shop in 1650.

MCDONALD AUTO SUPPLY

This is really the fishing and camping season of the year, and tourists from all over the South are availing themselves of the opportunity to see the Southwest. Even a lot of people from over the Panhandle go for a week or ten days to the cool mountains in New Mexico. And doubtless others would do so were it not for the expense of laying in camping equipment.

This year that burden has been removed. Mr. McDonald has arranged to rent camping equipment at very moderate rates. Tents and camp cots, and the like may be procured at this store.

If you wish to buy you are sure to find just what you want and at reasonable prices. A new tent is not expensive, but you will enjoy camping in it for a few days each season. Then there are the automobile supplies. Anything you want.

If you are planning a trip call at this store and look over the stock before you make your purchases.

CITY DRUG COMPANY

The City Drug Company is indeed one of Amarillo's most popular stores. Further it is one of the largest in all the Panhandle. In truth it is what might be termed a department store. Drugs, sundries, paints, oils, paper, school supplies, and notions are carried, and you may make your selections from an enormous stock.

Then there are several special departments. Cold drinks, cigars, cigarettes, confections, fishing and camping equipment, sporting goods, books, and even jewelry. Enter this store and you will find all that you will find in any other well regulated drug store.

Competent and courteous clerks are there to wait on you, and it seems as though special attention is given every customer. You feel at home, and once you become acquainted you feel that it is your store—that you can get just what you want.

CRUDGINGTON MOTOR CO.

The Crudgington Motor Co. is one of Amarillo's most popular and widely known business institutions. Harvey M. Crudgington, the manager, is a believer in the "Chevrolet" car, and he never misses an opportunity to speak of it.

In truth the Chevrolet is one of the most popular cars of the day. It is moderate in price and yet has all the advantages of the larger and more expensive car.

Then the upkeep of a Chevrolet is very moderate, and when it is necessary to replace any part you will find them on sale at almost any town you may happen to be in.

There are a number of reasons why a Chevrolet is the most economical car on the market. If you contemplate buying a car of any kind it will pay you to investigate the Chevrolet. Call at the Crudgington Motor Company and ask for a demonstration. A sales-Chemvrolet. It will not place you under any obligation to buy.

A "Voice Museum" has been opened in Berlin. It records the voices of distinguished persons on phonograph records that have been surfaced with a special chemical substance which will preserve them for 10,000 years. The museum is to be international, and distinguished men who visit Berlin will be asked for "samples" of their voices, in addition to having their photographs taken.

Eighty per cent of the 1,900,000 inhabitants of the Far Eastern Republic are peasants. The area of this republic equals the combined areas of the new republics of Central Europe—Germany, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland, Austria and Hungary.

HOW MUCH?

We do not do business on price.

Yet, there is no clothing store in Amarillo that has better values.

Men who trade with us right along seldom ask "How much?" until they they have made a satisfactory selection.

They come to us primarily for high grade, standard goods, but they also know that the answer to this question, "How much?" will be as gratifying as the style and workmanship.

In every one of our departments—clothing, hats, haberdashery—you will find merchandise branded with names which guarantee the fullest measure of value, quality and satisfaction.

We can afford to accept a relatively small profit on each sale because these individual profits are multiplied many times.

AMARILLO IS LARGEST DISTRIBUTING POINT IN SOUTHWEST—LARGE STOCKS CARRIED BY MERCHANTS EVERY YEAR

BY RAY B. McCORKLE

"Amarillo Has It" is the slogan, and it is true. Despite the fact that numerous efforts have been made to withhold from Amarillo her rights in the commercial world, her enemies seem to be losing every day. Amarillo is the logical distributing point for the Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico. Her railroad facilities, her geographical location and her industry make this so.

Time has been when Amarillo was only a one horse town, but today she is a thriving city of some twenty thousand souls, a city where people do things. In truth Amarillo is destined to grow into one of the greatest cities in all the great Southwest. Her gas fields, her citizenship, her natural resources make this possible.

Amarillo dealers are not trying to take from dealers in the smaller towns their regular trade, but they are battling for the business that has been going to various cities in the North and East during past years. Her merchandise is identically the same, and her prices will bear inspection.

PLAINS LUBRICATING COMPANY

The Plains Lubricating Company has been doing business in Amarillo for almost two years, and during that time a very satisfactory business has been established. Officers of the company are: M. D. Sampson, L. S. Lahm, M. E. Lahm and R. H. Scales.

The business was first opened up at the corner of Fifth and Tyler streets, but within a few months it was necessary to move to larger quarters, so offices were equipped at the plant on Harrison.

A full line of oils and greases of all kinds are compounded, and because of the quality of these oils and greases repeat orders are numerous. Many grades of oil are compounded—a grease for every purpose. Just now the management is in position to supply all customers on short notice, but with business increasing every month, it is only a matter of time when the plant will have to be enlarged. Already plans are being made for this.

The Plains Lubricating company is strictly a Panhandle institution. All the officers are residents of Amarillo. First class merchandise at moderate prices is what they offer, and your business is solicited.

DAVE RUBIN

Dave Rubin is proprietor of the "Biggest Little Store in the Panhandle," and he is ever ready to acknowledge the fact. Mr. Rubin has been doing business in Amarillo for a number of years and is well acquainted with conditions in this section.

A full line of hats, shoes and other articles for men and boys will be found in his stock. And he carries the best. It is not the largest store in Amarillo, but is one of the most popular, at least one would suppose that its popularity could not be questioned when it is ever filled with buyers.

While it is not possible to satisfy every customer, Mr. Rubin makes an effort to do so, and as a general rule the buyer leaves his store feeling that he has been given a square deal.

Just now his supply of ready to wear suits is complete, and he is offering some real bargains. If you contemplate a purchase in the near future he asks that you call and examine his stock.

BEDA AUTO SUPPLY

Beda Auto Supply is one of Amarillo's most interesting stores. These people carry a full line of bearings, gaskets, rings, pistons, valves, springs and other automobile equipment. It is the one store where a person may get any Ford part. Both a retail and wholesale business is done.

It is the aim of the owners to give the best service possible and to sell the best goods possible, at the lowest price.

Many times a dollar or so invested in extra pieces of equipment will save the car owner many dollars. And it makes no difference what kind of a car you have, it is very probable that these people can care for your needs.

The store was opened during the latter part of December, 1920, and since that time a very profitable business has been conducted.

If you are in need of replacement parts for your car you are cordially invited to call at their store, 102-104 East Seventh street, where competent clerks will be glad to show you through their stock.

Blessed is the frying sized lad who doesn't consider his parents as a pair of idiots.

Blessed is the flapper who isn't decorated like a red barn.

Blessed is the mother-in-law who thinks her son-in-law is good enough for his wife.

Blessed is woman who can refrain from saying "I told you so" when her husband pounds his thumb with a hammer.

THE MONOGRAM

The Monogram is one of Amarillo's most popular stores. It is also one of her largest; the store having fronts on both East Fifth and Taylor streets. A full line of shoes, ready to wear articles, hats and other articles are carried in stock.

Managers of this store are progressive and the very latest styles will always be found on their shelves. Particular attention is given to the young man. In this store he can always find just what he wants and at prices that will please him. In fact their moderate prices are known all over the Panhandle. With them the price is the thing, yet quality is always considered.

If you have in mind an article or articles you desire to purchase, in all probability you will find just what you want at this store. At any rate courteous clerks will gladly show you through the stock whether you buy or not.

The Monogram has been in Amarillo for 10 years and during this time it has served the public in a creditable manner. Each year new departments and lines are added, and owners are ever on the alert to make it even a more popular trading place.

PERRY S. PEARSON

Perry S. Pearson, candidate for District Judge, has been a resident of Amarillo for eleven years. During this time he has been doing a general law practice. Before coming to Amarillo he practiced law in Atlanta, Ga., for eight years.

Mr. Pearson has the reputation of being one of the best and most successful lawyers in Amarillo, and if elected to the office of District Judge will make a fair, competent and impartial judge. His friends are numbered with his acquaintances, and all who know him speak of Mr. Pearson in the highest of terms.

SOUTHERN MINNEAPOLIS TRACTOR COMPANY

The Southern Minneapolis Tractor Company is one of the largest concerns of its kind in America. With branch houses scattered all over the land it is an easy matter to care for the needs of farmers on short notice.

Chas. L. Lowe is manager of the Amarillo branch, and while Mr. Lowe is a young man, he is a very successful dealer. He is experienced in all branches of machinery, and is able to help buyers choose machinery to fit their needs.

While the Southern Minneapolis Company has many lines of machinery, all of which are good, their tractors are worthy of special notice. Tractors are made in a number of sizes and shapes, and it makes no difference what a man may want he may rest assured that these people have a machine for his special needs.

The Texas Panhandle is indeed a farm power machinery country. The horse is gradually losing his popularity, and progressive farmers are installing tractors and various other labor saving devices. And although there are a number of companies represented in the Panhandle—many of them good, it is doubtful if a better machine is made than that sold by the Southern Minneapolis Company.

If you contemplate buying any equipment in the near future Mr. Lowe asks that you call at his office and look over the Great Minneapolis Line.

Blessed is the old bachelor who does not know just how children should be reared.

Blessed is the man who can work with the baby while its mother gets dinner and doesn't lose his temper and spank the baby.

Blessed is the husband who can find his clean shirt and his Sunday shoes without tearing up the contents of every bureau and wardrobe in the house.—Selected.

The infant son of G. T. Miller died Sunday night at 12 o'clock after a serious illness of about two weeks. Little Claire Willard was born, May 25, 1921, and died July 9, 1922. Everything that human hands could do was done, but the care and kindness of friends, neighbors and the nurse could not stay the hand of death. The death bells rang and Jesus beckoned and the little one departed to be with God. The loved ones hearts are broken with sorrow but they have a jewel in heaven which they shall some day meet on the golden shore. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Baptist church by Rev. Hall, and the little body was laid to rest in the Happy cemetery. The family has the sympathy of their many friends and may they look to the great Comforter who doeth all things well.

I. J. Kuper and family attended church in Hereford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Baker have recently bought the Charlie Trebesch place and will probably move there next week. Mr. and Mrs. Trebesch have lived in Happy for many years and have both been prominent church members of the Methodist church. Their many friends regret very much to see them leave Happy and we send best wishes for success and prosperity with them as they travel on life's journey.

Services were held Sunday morning and evening at the Methodist and Baptist churches, with large attendance. There will be services at the Methodist church next Sunday at the regular hour, 10 o'clock for Sunday School, 11 o'clock for church, 8:30 in the evening. There will be no services at the Baptist church next Sunday as Rev. Hall will preach at Wayside. B. Y. P. U. at 7:30. There will be services next Sunday morning and evening at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Miller of Lockney. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

While the district attorney was making an impassioned appeal to the jury in the Dalles, Oregon, recently, "Indian Spencer," in from the Warm Springs reservation, stepped to the judge's rostrum, and in tones audible in all part of the crowded courtroom, asked the judge, an old friend for the loan of 50 cents. The district attorney paused, stammered, and joined in the laughter. The Indian got his 50 cents and departed, the judge's gavel pounded and the trial was resumed.

A SERVICE FOR ALL

Our bank never fails to give as good service to the farmer as it gives to any business man. As a matter of fact few banks could exist in this day and age of the world without the co-operation of the farmers.

It is our aim to assist the farmers of this community to the best of our ability; and we welcome a responsible borrower quite as heartily as a substantial depositor.

FACULTY COMMITTEE THANKS BOARDING HOUSE KEEPERS

The Normal faculty committee on boarding houses wishes to thank the citizens of Canyon for handling the boarding and rooming of students for the summer term. Very few complaints have been made this term, and we feel that a rather difficult situation has been fairly well handled.

Many students will leave Canyon to return to their homes next week, but others will be entering for the second half of the term. It is requested that all vacancies be reported at once. If you have a room that you will rent for the next six weeks, please telephone No. 59 or mail a post card to Mr. W. E. Lockhart, stating the number of students you can furnish with room or board.

METHODIST CHURCH

We are having splendid Sunday School. The attendance is great. The subjects are fine. The teaching is excellent. We want you next Sunday.

Preaching at 10:45 by the pastor.

Junior League at 4:00 p. m.

Senior League at 7:00 p. m.

We will not have services at the evening hour because of the revival of the First Christian Church at the Tabernacle. They give to us a most cordial invitation to attend their services.

We will be glad to have you at our services.

J. H. HICKS, Pastor.

WHAT THE AVERAGE MAN HAS IN HIS AGE

I am writing this in my living room on a typewriter that weighs no more than a moderate-sized book.

Light is provided by a lamp in which burns two incandescent bulbs.

In an adjoining room is a telephone from which I can talk to any city on the continent.

On the wall is a thermostat which regulates the flow of gas in my furnace and keeps the room at an even temperature of seventy degrees.

Almost within arm's reach are several shelves of books filled with the most profound and beautifully expressed thoughts of the ages.

The floors of my home are cleaned with a suction sweeper, operated by electricity, while the clothes are put through an electric washer and ironed in an electrically driven mangle.

My children attend a school where they are given a better education than the sons of kings could command a century ago.

I enjoy all these things, and yet I am just an ordinary citizen with an ordinary income, living in an ordinary way. Tens of thousands have as much as I have and more.

And yet I kick and wonder what ails the world.

Were the good things of life ever so easily at the command of the ordinary man as they are today? Don't we all do a lot of weeping that we haven't any right to do. And if we are not careful, isn't there a danger that we will rip the greatest civilization the world has ever known?—William Feather, in the Philadelphia Ledger.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

H. F. Antick, Pastor.

All the services for the day next Sunday will be as usual at the Baptist church. We welcome all and any visitors. Come and have a good day at the Lord's house.

NUT THAT IS NOT A NUT

Robert S. Walker, in the Guide to Nature. No one, whether he is a student of Nature or not, can examine the litchi nut without admiring its beauty and the sanitary method by which the fruit is preserved. It is probable that not many Americans have seen litchi, but during the last few years it has been planted in Southern California, and its lovers are hopeful that this tree of Chinese origin will thrive, at least in some favored spots in the United States.

Thus far we have received the litchi fruit only in a dry state and in that condition in the markets is improperly called the litchi nut. It is not a nut in any sense of the word because the seed is not edible. The fruit is grown only for the fruit. It is an evergreen tree bearing the botanical name of Litchi Chinensis. It is a native of South China, where it attains a height of some twenty five feet.

It ripens its globular reddish fruit in midsummer. Each individual fruit measures from one and one-half to two inches in diameter. The flesh, white and juicy, is securely and snugly inclosed in a rough, brittle hull. The Chinese eat it raw, canned or dried. When dry it rattles in the hull and each has a large single seed in the center. The fruit that has reached the United States by importation has with a favorable reception, as it is different from anything we raise and is any other fruit that we import from other foreign countries.

DR. EDWARD HOWARD GRIGGS LECTURES TO W. T. S. N. C. STUDENTS

We have been very fortunate in having with us this week Dr. Edward Howard Griggs, renowned lecturer and writer, who comes to us direct from the teacher's college at Greeley, Colorado. The first of his series of lectures was given in chapel July third. The subject was "The Aim of Life." In this lecture Dr. Griggs declared, "The same virtue is demanded in organized society as is demanded in personal life. When the same relations exist between nations as exist between individuals, we shall have gone a long way in solving our problem." In this first lecture Dr. Griggs discussed personality in its relation to the problems of personal life. He said, "Personality is constantly changing in two lines: expansion and higher integration." As an example of the first rise of altruism in primitive man, Dr. Griggs cited the expansion of the mother's personality into a desire to protect and cherish her young. He stated further that the individual goes through the same altruistic experience as the race, beginning with very little extension of personality. "In the development of personality," said Dr. Griggs, "the substitution of aim in place of immediate desire is important; and the aim should be big enough to integrate in an unfolding process." He pointed out that care should be taken in choosing this aim, since even a bad or low aim will integrate action. Dr. Griggs concluded his lecture by saying, "The active life is largely for the sake of the spiritual life. The activity of loving is necessary to spiritual growth. The true service of others is the challenging service which helps them to climb."

Dr. Griggs' lecture of July fifth dealt with Self-Culture and Social Service Through the Vocation. He said, "Work and love are the greatest school masters of our lives. The aspects of our personal life are: work, love, education, and religion." In discussing the vocation as an open pathway of life, Dr. Griggs said, "If you are an honest man, you wish to pay your way. If not, you are a pauper or a thief. One of the ways of self-realization is through vocation. To-day we reverence people only as they serve. To make a living is only the preliminary aim of vocation. We must build the foundation and erect the superstructure before the curtain falls." Dr. Griggs said further, "Dreams are unlimited; accomplishment is definitely limited. When you construct the fragmentary part of the dream, you are the master of the dream and the idea. Art—one of the ways of life—is the freest vocation on earth. And yet, how poor is Art beside life!" Dr. Griggs concluded this, his second lecture, by a discussion of loyalty to the task in hand. He said, "The basis of culture is loyalty to the task in hand. Growth is impossible in every honest vocation. To possess money you must earn it; to possess knowledge you must earn knowledge. The man who looks down on his job will find it slipping away from him."

Dr. Griggs, in his lecture of July sixth, discussed the problem of personal relationships in its various aspects, showing that it was a second open pathway of life. He pointed out that to understand any thing one must have lived something. He declared that life is a series of adjustments—of the adjustment of one will and personality to another will and personality. He said, "Friendship is a challenge, searching down into what one has been. Its basis is moral sincerity and it is in this phase of personal relationship that we exert our deepest influence. For deep friendship there must be a wide range of common interests. The more different two people are, the more they have to give each other. Common experience is a bond of friendship." Concerning Marriage, Dr. Griggs said, "Marriage is the supreme challenge and demands frank facing of reality. The instincts of jealousy and revenge in primitive times were virtues; now they are vices. Jealousy and love are moral opposites." Dr. Griggs said that although sex was the old biological and physiological basis of marriage, the basis reached by evolution is a common intellectual, aesthetic, and moral life.

The subject of Dr. Griggs' lecture of July seventh was Culture in the Margin of Life, in which he dealt with love and work as two open paths of life. He declared, "The results which different persons get out of the same opportunities are surprising. We have to accept the capital we bring into the world and make the best of it. If you increase your capital just a little, you turn the scales. You can not begin to be economical unless you have money ahead." In speaking of the difference between a capital of time and a capital of money Dr. Griggs said, "If you want to save money, you must not spend it; if you want to save your time you must spend it. In the case our margin-time we are absolutely free." In discussing intellectual growth Dr. Griggs said, "We grow not by addition but by multiplication—morally and intellectually. One new idea makes all others different in relation to it." Dr. Griggs pointed out that it is only as the water goes over the mill wheel of life that we can use it. "We live only one moment at a time and balanced action is life. Play, he maintained, is the one perfect form of action, and conversation may be termed a form of social play. Dr. Griggs revealed the difference between the common man and the genius when he said, "Everybody knows the open secrets of life; the genius applies them." He brought his lecture to a close with these words, "Wisdom may be said to be seeing life steadily and whole; virtue, as truly then, is living life steadily and whole."

The subject of Dr. Griggs' lecture of July eighth was "The Modern Religious Problem." In his discussion Dr. Griggs said, "Our pursuit of culture always rests on something fundamental. Carlyle said, 'A man's religion is the most important thing about him.' Belief is never a matter of indifference. The adjustment to the universe is always personal." In speaking of the close relation between religion and conduct the lecturer said, "Religion is the soul; conduct is the body. What you really believe has a far deeper hold on you than what you think you believe. What you fundamentally believe molds every detail of action." In closing Dr. Griggs re-emphasized the fact that in everything concerning man there is growth—that nothing can stand still, and indicated the relation of this fact to the problem of religion.

We have enjoyed Dr. Griggs' lectures whole-heartily. The quiet grip of his personality, the sincerity and high intellectual and moral tone of his lectures we feel have helped us as a school to a better understanding of the problems of personal living and to a better conception of how to deal with them.

OFFERS UNPARALLELED OPPORTUNITIES

No State school in Texas has a more promising field for further development than has the West Texas State Normal College. The Panhandle-Plains Country is an Empire in itself. The distance, North and South, is greater than that from Austin to any other of the great cities of Texas except El Paso. The distance, East and West, approximates the distance from Dallas to Shreveport from San Antonio to Waco, from Ft. Worth to Austin, from Abilene to Dallas. The nearest State institution of higher learning is John Tarleton College at Stephenville—as far as Houston is from Dallas. The nearest senior college of any kind is Simmons College at Abilene nearly 300 miles away. Canyon offers the beauty of Colorado, near at hand, and the climate of California, right here at home. The West Texas State Normal College invites students from other parts of Texas to come and enjoy a most delightful climate, in an institution that offers all the advantages and comforts that can be found in Colorado institutions of learning.

ANOTHER DIAGNOSIS

BY MR. HAYS

"This country must have its amusement or it will go red," says Will H. Hays, high priest of moviedom. This is what they said in ancient Rome. So they had their amusement, and Rome did not go red, but rotten. There was a money question in ancient Rome; the interest question was pressing hard as it is today; elemental human rights sacredly belonging to every individual were overlooked in the false glare of general success; politics became increasingly corrupt, and social life grew infamously loose—and whoever the Will H. Hays of the period was, he said that Rome had to have her amusements or she would go red, or whatever the ancient equivalent to "red" may have been.

Besides being as old as the declining period of Rome, Mr. Hays' remedy is also as recent as the late prohibition of liquor. The increased social agitation which has come up since men's minds have been de-alcoholized is blamed on the absence of the saloon. It is perhaps true that the stupification procurable in the corner saloon might have postponed the social awakening for some years, maybe a generation. But on the other hand, it is also likely to be true that it was the social awakening which is responsible for getting the saloon out of the way as a hindrance to straight social thinking. Anyway, the cry we hear now is that "Bolshevism and the Reds would not have had a chance if we had kept the saloon." It is just a paraphrase of Mr. Hays—"This country must have its liquor or it will go red."

"This country is not going 'red.' And it will not be liquor nor amusements that will prevent it. The American spirit is going to shake off its attitude of cowed subservience, is going to look its problems in the face, is going to ask its self-appointed rulers to stand aside, and is going to put its life on a basis of justice and progress. That will not be revolution, but the liberation of the nation from all its unnatural and economic bondage. Nothing will suffer but unjust systems which cause suffering. But as for amusements helping, there is this to say: most of the revolutionary and immoral ideas now current have come to the popular mind through the channels of its amusements. Amusement has been subsidized by the vilest forms of propaganda.—Ford's Weekly.

MEXICO MAKING PROGRESS

Indianapolis Star: The Director-General of the National Railways points to the reconstruction work under way and accomplished as indication of the extent to which Mexico is getting on its feet. He says new steel and ties are being laid on the main line, from the City of Mexico to Laredo. The steel is obtained from the Monterrey Iron and Steel Works and the ties come from various domestic lumber mills. Several new stations are under the course of construction and new shops and roundhouses are nearly completed at Saltillo. The district through which that line runs is east of the area in which Villa and his followers have been most active. The Director-General contends that the Government practically has put the line back into the state of efficiency existing before the beginning of the various revolutions that have kept Mexico since the day of Diaz. He further explains that Villa's activities in recent months have not been sufficiently serious to prevent much construction work in Chihuahua, which that bandit is supposed to control. A rehabilitated railway system would be first-class evidence of Mexican progress, as it will be the first essential to permanent progress and security. Much of the success of the bandit gangs that have infested parts of Mexico has been due to inability of the central Government to move troops or supplies to the areas affected. Mexico needs unobstructed railways to fight its outlaws and to carry prosperity to its people. If it is getting them, it is making real progress.

IN CIVILIZED AMERICA, A. D. 1922

The following extract is from the Associated Press account of the mine riots at Herrin, Illinois:

"Out in a road near the mine six men, tied together and all wounded by bullets and blows, lay in a scorching sun, while hundreds of men and women laughed at their pleas for water."

"One of the men, his face bloody and one shoulder shot away, apparently was within a few minutes of death."

"Please, boys, give me a drink," he moaned.

"A laugh from the hundreds of spectators was the only reply."

"The correspondent rushed to a house for water and when he returned he was faced by a sword and quickly drawn pistols and told to keep away."

"When the man begged for water, 'for God's sake,' a young woman with a baby in her arms placed her foot on the mangled body and said:

"I'll see you in hell before you get any water."

"The men apparently had been dragged down a rock road behind an automobile. Their clothes were torn and pieces of gravel were imbedded in their mangled flesh."

"A miner told the Associated Press correspondent that he had seen 15 bodies thrown into a pond with rocks around their necks, Thursday. About 20 imported workers are missing."

MAP MAKING IN TWENTIETH CENTURY

London Times: The fascinating region, "unexplored" has vanished from great tracts of the interior of Africa, where railways now wind their way in its stead. Africa from a geographical standpoint had almost lost, indeed, in recent years its title of "the dark continent," which might now be more fitly applied to South America. This still holds tracts in its recesses where cartography is largely conjectural or unverified. The world has other dark spots in some of its larger islands, such as Borneo and New Guinea; and, apart from all difficulties of commissariat and climate, it is not yet possible to pick one's way through the interior of Australia with the precision of a walk in Surrey. Add to these problems those of the bed of the seas and of the Arctic and Antarctic tracts where land and sea are confused by a mask of ice, and it is clear that map makers may still congratulate themselves on the promise of a long and active career.

Nearly every Sunday afternoon a prominent Chicago business man takes a whistle and stands at an intersection of Sheridan road directing traffic for pleasure. At this point the pleasure traffic is so heavy that an average of 40 machines pass every minute in the afternoon hours.

INGHAM & MOODY

ALL WORK WARRANTED

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF TEXAS:

It is of the highest importance that the great commonwealth of Texas should at all times be fittingly represented in the United States Senate. This is particularly true during the next several years of reconstruction when national and international questions directly and vitally affecting the welfare of all the people will be shaped for the next half century.

In choosing a candidate for the Senate, the man, his platform declarations, campaign utterances and past record should be fully considered. Altogether they should square with Senatorial requirements. He, only, can be trusted to vote right on the many now unforeseen questions that will arise during a six-year senatorial term, who has in the past demonstrated his dependability.

It is our conviction that Cullen F. Thomas measures up to these standards for the Texas Senatorship.

For more than twenty years Mr. Thomas has been an unselfish leader in the state for progressive policies. Time and again he has successfully crossed swords with the enemies of good government. He was a pioneer in the fight for prohibition and equal suffrage. He has never faltered.

He has wide knowledge of public affairs, rare ability, deep-seated convictions, never-failing courage and vigor to continue his demonstrated capacity as gladiator in the Senate Chamber, in the committee room and on the stump.

Cullen F. Thomas is in all respects qualified for successful battle with the representatives of self and power in the United States Senate. He would be a "David" among "Goliaths" in these trying times of political warfare.

Cullen F. Thomas is clean in life. His integrity is above reproach. He is a Christian gentleman of the highest type.

From the beginning he has been a devoted friend of America's greatest world war veteran—the wounded statesman—Woodrow Wilson. Thomas fought for Wilson at Houston and at Baltimore. He is fighting for him now.

After careful consideration of all the candidates and the issues involved, we are firmly of the opinion that the best interests of Texas, the Nation and the Democratic party will be served by the nomination of Cullen F. Thomas for United States Senator, and we urge the Democrats of Texas to vote for him at the July primary.

GRABBERS WIN FIRST HALF OF SEASON

TURNER OF AMARILLO PITCHES TEAM TO VICTORY

The climax of the first half of the Summer School League series was reached last Wednesday afternoon when the Grabbers won their third game of the series over the Athletics. The Grabbers went through the series undefeated, although the Sluggers pushed them for front rank. Next week the second half of the series will begin.

Grabbers Down Sluggers

The best game the Summer League has yet staged was played Wednesday the 28th between the Grabbers and the Sluggers. The game was "nip and tuck" from start to finish. Several times during the contest it seemed that one team or the other had the game "sewed up," and a tie score made an extra inning necessary.

Turner, the Grabber pitcher, practically won his own game with two homers scoring four runs. Both hurlers pitched a good game, but Thurman's team failed to back him. An error in left field let in the winning run for the Grabbers.

Batteries: Grabbers, Turner and King; Sluggers, Thurman and Johnson.

Score 8 to 7.

Pirates Lose to Athletics

The Pirate-Athletic mixture proved to be a good ball game. The threatening weather caused a scarcity of fans but had little effect on the ball game.

Kingrey, the Pirate twirler again hit a snag of poor support and lost a game that should have been his.

Whittington, pitching for the Athletics, received excellent support in the pinches, and the hitting of his team mates gave him a 3 to 2 victory. A large number of errors on the part of the Pirates helped him considerably.

Batteries: Athletics, Whittington and Key; Pirates, Kingrey and Lockhart.

Score 3 to 2.

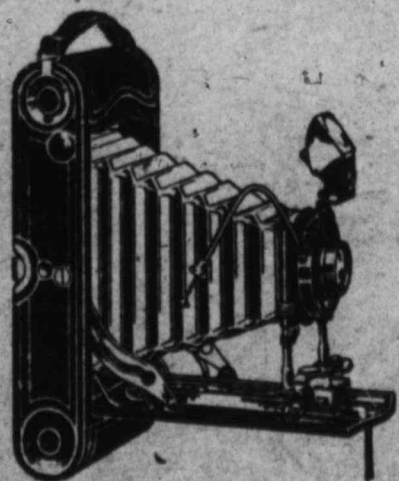

Grabbers Clinch Pennant

Many fans predicted that the Grabber-Athletic game would prove a bitter dose for the Grabbers, but good luck and their better pitcher made a win comparative easy. If Turner had received the best of support from his team, he might have had a shut-out game to his credit. All of the three runs scored by the Athletics were results of errors. This game gave the Grabbers a clinch on the pennant for the first half of the summer baseball season.

Batteries: Grabbers, Turner and King; Athletics, Whittington and Key. Score 5 to 3.

NOTICE OF HOLDING ELECTION

A petition having heretofore been presented to me, the undersigned, County Judge of Randall County, Texas, signed by the required number of legally qualified voters residing within said Common School District, No. 22, in Randall County, Texas, and the Canyon City Independent School District of said County and State, which petition was, on, to-wit, the 22 day of June, A. D. 1922, duly considered by me and an order issued and entered granting said petition and directing elections to be held within said respective districts, which order is as follows, to-wit:

"In the Matter of the Consolidation of Common School District No. 22, in Randall County, Texas, and the Canyon City Independent School District of said County and State, which petition was, on, to-wit, the 22 day of June, A. D. 1922, duly considered by me and an order issued and entered granting said petition and directing elections to be held within said respective districts, which order is as follows, to-wit:

"On this the 22 day of June, A. D. 1922, came on to be considered the petition presented to me, the undersigned, County Judge of Randall County, Texas, and signed by the required number of legally qualified voters residing within Common School District No. 22 and the Canyon City Independent School District, all located within Randall County, Texas, requesting that an election be held within each of said School Districts for the purpose of determining whether or not said Common School District No. 22 shall be consolidated with said Canyon City Independent School District; and it appearing that said petition is signed by more than twenty of the legally qualified voters residing within said Canyon City Independent School District, and by twenty of the legally qualified voters residing within said Common School District No. 22, and that said petition should be granted:

It is therefore ordered, that an election be held in each of said respective Districts on, to-wit, the 15th day of July, A. D. 1922, for the purpose of voting on such consolidation and deciding whether or not said Common School District No. 22 shall be consolidated with said Canyon City Independent School District thereafter to be known as the Canyon City Independent School District.

Wherefore, notice is hereby given that an election will be held within each of said School Districts on the 15th day of July, A. D. 1922, in compliance with the provisions and terms of said order, as above set forth.

Rheumatism at 60

How glorious you will feel, mother, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, too!

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

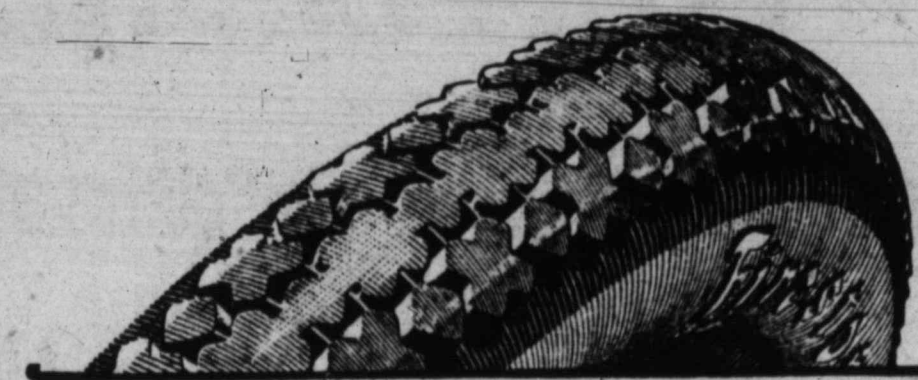

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight! The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disarranges the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S. S. S. now. Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Firestone

GUM-DIPPED CORDS

-and Their High Mileage Records

The high mileage records of Firestone Cords continue to emphasize the fact that Firestone methods are different and better. These records, steadily increasing in number and in mileage totals, justify the Firestone contention that there is one best way to build tires.

Among the primary sources of Firestone extra mileage is double gum-dipping—the saturation of the cord plies in a vat of liquid gum—thus coating each cord and virtually eliminating internal heat and friction.

Another is Firestone air bag curing, with its 200 pound pressure, which places every cord accurately and equalizes the tension.

By blending the rubbers of different plantations and types, and by tempering it before mixing, Firestone men add still more mileage.

Many cord tires are good—a few are better—Firestone users say one is best.

Those who have already experienced Firestone mileage, have stopped shopping and experimenting—they have made these cords standard equipment. Investigate your friends' success with Firestone Cords—and buy your next tire accordingly. Come in and get your share of extra mileage.

The latest method of sinking concrete piles was recently demonstrated in Omaha, when four piles were sunk the first 40 feet long, in 90 seconds. One pile, weighing more than six tons and 45 feet in length, was sunk to bed-rock at a depth of 84 feet. Each pile carried a water pipe set in the reinforced concrete. Water is forced at a high pressure through this pipe, digging a hole as the pipe sinks by its own weight.

An extensive art fraud was made known recently when experts discovered many bogus antiquities in the Li-Hung-Chung collection, purchased by a Swedish syndicate in 1919 for more than $250,000, from the son of Li-Hung-Chung, deceased. According to the story published in Stockholm, Li-Hung-Chung's son used a few pieces of his father's art treasures as the nucleus of a large collection which he purchased in Chinese shops for almost nothing and advertised as Li-Hung-Chung's own collection of a life time. The Swedish syndicate bought the lot upon supposedly expert advice.

The River Ton-le-Sap in French Indo-China flows inland part of the year, and then turns and flows outward, in the opposite direction, for the remainder of the year. During the rainy season it flows inland with depth sufficient to float steamers. During dry weather it flows outward, completely draining a small lake forming part of the river bed except for a small trickle down the center.

VOTE FOR FLESHER

W. J. FLESHER, CANDIDATE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, 47TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Mr. Flesher has been a citizen of Randall County for 13 years, and has always stood for the best interests of this county.

He believes in law enforcement, and if elected will prosecute the law without fear or favor. His record as County Attorney of Randall County, and Acting District Attorney during the last term of District Court shows him to be qualified to carry out the duties of this office.

Mr. Flesher is the second man in the history of the 47th Judicial District to offer for this office who did not reside in Amarillo.

The voters of Randall County should especially stay with their friend and neighbor in this election, and give him a practically unanimous vote in the primaries of July 22nd. W. J. Flesher will make you a good official and honor the office to which he is elected.

Ask your neighbors to vote for W. J. Flesher.
