Here's Something About S. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now—the cause of skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils and so on, is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it. When the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't com-

The shale rock is dumped in the hopper and comes out at the rear end of the machine as black dust made up of hydrocarbons of high commercial value. According to the president of the Colorado School of Mines, the invention will revolutionize the oil industry. Why not let this newspaper save you labor? Labor-saving devices are the modern methods. They spell efficiency. Why stay in the old rut? This is what you have been doing for years—wasting your time and energy in sending out separate notices of meetings regarding your lodge to each member. (This means that you have to address from 50 to 100 postal cards or envelopes in addition to preparing the notices for mailing out. Why not put your notice in an advertisement under "Lodge Notices" in this paper? You could do it for $1.25 and save all that labor. It's the modern way. It's the way most lodges are doing in the up-to-date communities. What would be more interesting in this paper than a column or two of such notices? Your members would look for this feature in every issue. And then, think of the labor it would save you. Just write out one notice and bring it to us. That's all. Simple, isn't it? You bet. Try it and you won't do it any other way. We are here to serve you and ready to make suggestions.

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM THE PRAIRIE

Bureau Secures Employment for Many Teachers

According to Prof. L. F. Sheffy, head of the Department of History, and who has charge of the Teachers' Employment Bureau of the College, teaching positions have been secured for twenty-five students for the coming year. He states that there are about twenty-five more on the waiting list, and dozens of others are waiting to be called.

Mr. Sheffy says that positions can be secured for near all of the teachers who desire positions. There is an over supply of teachers in the Panhandle at the present time due to various reasons. The first reason for this is due to the fact that higher salaries are paid for teachers in the Panhandle than in other sections of the State. Another reason is that a great many people are coming into the teaching profession due to the lowering of wages in other lines of work.

All schools desiring teachers should apply to the Teachers' Employment Bureau of the West Texas State Normal College as it has many very capable and experienced teachers who desire positions.

ANTON B. Y. P. U. ATTENDS ASSOCIATIONAL MEETING

Twenty-seven students motored to Derry Sunday morning, July 30 as representatives of the local Union to the Association of the B. Y. P. U. Tulla also was well represented, and her orchestra furnished special music for the occasion. The Herford B. Y. P. U. members, all third in numbers, were a lively group. In fact, every delegation made its presence felt, especially at the dinner hour when a bountiful "dinner on the ground" was spread.

The afternoon program was rendered by the Associational B. Y. P. U., which Paul Johnson, a Normal student, is president. The first topic, "Baptists, and Their Place in the World," was discussed by Miss Mabel Leigh, also a student in the Normal, and Grace Briggs, of the Tulla B. Y. P. U. told "Why We Should Attend Baptist Encampment."

Vocal solos and orchestra numbers gave variety to the program. The next meeting of the Association will be held in Tulla. "Prairie" Representatives.

MRS. MONTFORT TO TEACH IN THE NORMAL HIGH SCHOOL

Mrs. Tommie Montfort, B. A., from the West Texas State Normal College last spring, has been selected by President Hill to take the place of Missable Rogers, resigned, in the Normal High School for the next year. Mrs. Montfort has been attending the College for the past several years, and has proven herself to be very competent in every line of work that she has attempted.

WORKING ON HANDBOOK

The associate editors, Olin E. Hinkle and Winnie Mae Crawford, and the faculty advisors, Miss Edds and Mr. Morelock, have begun work on the Buffalo Handbook for the 1922-23 session. The publication of the Handbook is sponsored by the Young Men and Young Women's Christian Associations. This is the first time that the Handbook has been published for the benefit of students in the long session.

The staff reports that there will be many new and interesting features to the 1922-23 Handbook, and that it will be a thing to be treasured by the students.

The copy will be turned over to the local printers by August 15, and the book will be ready for distribution before the opening of the regular session on September 25.

SUNRISE BREAKFAST

You may be sure that anybody who gets up these mornings in time for a sunrise-breakfast is, indeed, peppy. But that is exactly what the Wise County Club did on Saturday morning, July 29. Nine members went to the creek north of town and cooked their breakfast. The cool, early morning air and the fragrant odors of the cooking breakfast whetted our appetites keenly, and we did full justice to the tempting breakfast.

It was necessary that we leave our campfire sooner than we wished for some of us were due at 7:30 classes. We took with us the memory of a pleasant outing which still lasts.

All members who were not present missed a decidedly jolly time, and we want you with us the next time. Reporter.

BOARD OF CONTROL MEMBER HERE

L. W. Tittle, a member of the Board of Control of the Texas Normal Colleges, was here from Austin on Friday, July 28. He inspected the local college plant, and went over the plans and budget of the institution with President J. A. Hill.

C. C. T. REORGANIZES

A number of students from Coleman, Runnels, Coke, Tom Green and Concho counties recently re-organized the club known as the Concho-Cororado Teachers of the West Texas State Normal College. Mrs. Mary West is president and Miss Imogene Leonard is secretary of the organization. The club plans to have an entertainment in the near future.

HISTORY OF HEMPHILL COUNTY PRESENTED TO HIS SOCIETY

A copy of "The History of Hemphill County," by Mr. Lyle Nagel, has been presented to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society by Judge Newton Willis of Canadian, Texas. Mr. Nagel was winner of the $25 first prize for a history of the county, the prize being offered by Judge Willis. The judge, thinking that the paper would be of interest to the generations to come, was kind enough to present the Historical Society with a copy.

VISITS GOODNIGHT RANCH

A party made up of Misses Hattie M. Anderson, Mary Campbell, Marie Kiker, Sarah Platt, Enid Williams, and Mrs. Mary West paid a visit to the Goodnight Ranch at Goodnight, Texas, one day recently.

Leaving Canyon at six o'clock, the party cooked breakfast at Six Mile Crossing, and then proceeded on their journey. On reaching Goodnight, Mr. W. J. McAllister, the present owner of the ranch, and Mr. W. J. Sikes acted as guides for the party in their trip over the ranch.

The three hundred head of buffalo were probably of most interest to the excursionists. The guide stated that there were about fifty yearling buffaloes, about fifty calves, and about two hundred grown buffaloes on the ranch. About fifty of the buffaloes will be for sale this fall. They saw seventy or eighty head of cattle, a cross between cattle and buffaloes. The guide said that a one sixteenth buffalo and one fifteenth-sixteenths cow was the most successful mixture for the cattle. The party saw seven or eight head of elk and seven or eight head of deer.

The party was unable to visit the entire ranch as it is composed of thirteen sections of land. Nor were they able to see Col. Goodnight or the inside of his house which is said to contain many curios and relics.

The entire party reports a most enjoyable time. The trip was not only one of pleasure, but was educational.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin of Plainview attended the plays given by the Devereux Players last week.

Judge J. E. Sweptson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tucker of Tulla saw "The Great Galeoto" Friday night as the guests of Mrs. F. E. Savage.

Miss Elizabeth Reek, who received a B. A. Degree from the College last spring, visited friends in Canyon last week.

WHY HE WASN'T PROMOTED

He grumbled. He watched the clock. He was stung by a bad look. He was always behindhand. He was willing, but unfitted. He didn't believe in himself. He asked too many questions. His stock excuse was "I forgot." He wasn't ready for the next step. He did not put his heart into his work.

He learned nothing from his mistakes. He felt that he was above his position.

He was content to be a second-rate man.

He ruined his ability by half-doing things.

He chose his friends from among his inferiors.

He never dared to act on his own judgment.

He did not think it worth while to learn how.

THE HOME PAPER

"A prophet is not without honor in his own country," may be very appropriately applied to a small town newspaper.

When it is brought from the post-office at home, its pages are glanced through, and the headlines are read somewhat hurriedly.

Not so with this same unassuming little paper when its readers are many miles from home. How eagerly they scramble for it!

Pat had been in this country for several years when Mike arrived. Pat was very anxious to show Mike all the wonders of his new home so he took him out to eat some persimmons.

Mike said, "That's foin Pat, throw me down another one."

Pat selected one not so ripe. This one Mike also ate. The next one Pat threw Mike was green and after much sputtering Pat made out this demand from Mike: "Pat, Pat, if ye do be wanting to hear any news from the old home ye'd better be comin' down in a hurry fer I'm closen' up.—Exchange.

GEESE—BY A YOUNG GANDER

Here is a school boy's essay on geese:

"Geese is a low heavy-set bird composed mostly of meat and feathers. His head sits on one side and he sits on the other. Geese can't sing much on account of the dampness of the moisture. There ain't no between to his toes and he carries a toy balloon in his stomach to keep him from sinking. Some geese when they get big are called ganders and have curls on their tails. Ganders don't have to sit and hatch, but they just loaf and go swimming and eat. If I was a goose I'd rather be a gander any time."—The Marion Line.

THE MASTERY OF WORDS

Words come to most of us so easily and flow so lightly that we find it hard to realize their enormous power; and we toss them about with as much casual indifference as if they were not glowing sparks flitting wind-borne through an inflammable world.

Though we have heard and read so much on the subject, most of us still fail to appreciate the immense importance of words in modern democracy.

It is a curious thing that the master of words is so likely to be the victim of them. We often say and believe that clever orators speak only for effect and are not themselves convinced by the arguments they use.

The truth is that words are a magnificent weapon that cuts both ways. They are likely to mislead the tongue that utters as well as the ear that hears. Fortunate indeed are those who gain the mastery of them without being mastered by them.

Fire in the peat bogs of Minnesota continue the year around. Buried under the snow in winter, the fires smoulder, and in the spring their presence is made known by the smoke which sifts through crevices in the baked soil.

Direct Mail Advertising is discussed

Direct mail advertising was discussed at the weekly luncheon of Amarillo Advertising Club at the Amarillo Hotel Monday noon under the leadership of Jeff Thomas. Among those speaking on the subject were W. O. Blackburn and C. D. Sears of the Multigraph Shop. Mr. Allen told of his experiences in direct mail advertising. He said that he sent out several hundred telegrams a few months ago and that he made sales as a direct result. At any time he sent out 1,950 letters about 150 were not delivered, he said. This direct mail advertising done partly because of a coupon method used here, he declared. He urged greater selection of lists so as to reach special classes. The remainder of his discussion was on advertisements he had run in local newspapers. Mr. Blackburn said that the mail lists were too incomplete, and also advised compiling lists to reach various trades and certain classes of people. Mail lists only connect up with newspaper advertising, he said. For instance, he said the mail lists usually gained only the poll tax payers and did not include the great mass of young people under 21. He said that he had sent out 2,000 copies of a cloth-bound book twice a year, but saw little result from it. However, he said that he felt the connection with local newspaper advertising was valuable. Mr. Thomas said that a mailing list would help to sell high-grade merchandise. He declared that high-quality merchandise would give better satisfaction and that in the long run a merchant was doing a customer a service by persuading him or her to purchase superior goods. Mr. Sears said that compiling of a mailing list was a difficult task because of the limited demand for it. Another problem of direct mail advertising brought up by Mr. Sears was in regard to the preparation of the list. He urged that great care be taken in writing sales letters. Amarillo News.

Recently, when the ancient walls of Canton, China, were razed to make room for a street railway, contractors offered to do the work for whatever treasure the walls might contain. The work was divided among several applicants, every one of whom discovered such quantities of ancient coin and ornaments hidden away in the walls that the work, though done without other payment, was profitable to him.

How much a farmer depends on rain can be judged from the fact that under general farming conditions about twenty inches of water are necessary to raise a crop. Translate inches into tons and we have the rather startling figure of 2270 tons of water necessary to grow an acre of crops. A soaking rain that without cost will spread some two hundred tons of water over every drought-ridden area is a boon beyond reckoning.

In the reserve officers' Training Corps of two hundred and twenty-seven colleges and preparatory schools there are ninety-seven thousand students, of whom more than two thousand will get second lieutenantcies this year. Students who choose the advanced courses of two years get throughout the college year a commutation of forty cents a day for rations. The sum though small helps many men to work their way through college.

Colonies in French Morocco have grown with such rapidity since the French government refers to them as Le Wild West. Places that a few years ago were no more than water holes in the desert or small military outposts are now thriving communities of several thousand inhabitants.

The English sparrow invaded Alaska this spring for the first time. It arrived in America about the year 1859 and has been gradually working westward ever since. It has already spread over nearly the whole of Europe and in spite of everything seems likely to make a place for itself all the way round the world.

The South China Government has one Chinese woman aviator. Miss Mupia Ju is said to be an accomplished pilot and to be ready to take her turn with the other aviators in fighting the battles of her country.

"A young fellow shouldn't get discouraged when he finds his job a little bigger than he is," said the old citizen of Little Lot. "Almost every job in the world has to be tackled by somebody that isn't quite up to it."

The wise advertisers all over the country have discovered that direct advertising is the most expensive gets little or no returns. Newspaper advertising is being used almost exclusively by the big advertisers of the United States because newspaper goes into the home to read by the family—the mail carrier in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred goes into the trash can in the office without being opened. The newspaper is the cheapest and way to reach the buying public. In Randall county, the News goes more than ninety percent of the homes of Randall county people. Everyone is buying. The wise merchant carries weekly messages into the homes through the Randall county News. Insurance—Real Estate represent some of the strongest insurance Companies in America.
