REPORT OF NOMINEE IS A MATTER OF GOOD CONSCIENCE

As much as thousands of Democrats in Texas are now debating in their own minds what course to pursue in the general election, it is well to recall the past, for these lessons of experience are the best that can be read to an intelligent people. The courts of our land have held a political obligation is only a matter of good conscience—one's own being the monitor to direct the course of its owner. There are hundreds of instances cited in our past political history that can be cited to show that great possessing great minds have let their consciences tell them the course to pursue under certain concurring conditions rather than to let any party-direct the only course to be pursued.

It is a well-known fact that President Wilson came and again during his long career "scratched" the ticket rather than to vote for the man or the principles he deemed undemocratic; for James S. Hogg spoke openly frequently against Judge Parker while he was occupying the position of Chief of the Democratic party for the State; Cane Johnson tore the name of the Democratic nominee for president from the top of his ticket; Governor Neff in his campaign against the Thomasson declared from several platforms that he would not vote for Thomasson should he be nominated and the Hon. Earle Mayfield, as a Senator in the session following the nomination of Mr. Bailey by the Democratic convention of Texas, refused to vote for the confirmation of nomination. These are only a few of the very many instances where our public men have justified themselves in good conscience against voting for the nominee of the party. There are times when it becomes necessary for a man's conscience to tell him what to do. At the present time thousands of Democrats in Texas are admitting that they unwillingly voted in the recent primary for the nomination of a man they suspected was a member of a secret organization operating within the ranks of the Democratic party. Subsequent events have convinced them that their suspicions were well founded and today they are looking for a justification for admitting this nominee.

It is being affirmed and will be proven in the course of this impending campaign that a Democrat cannot be a member of the Ku Klux Klan because the principles of each are diametrically opposed to the other.

The Democratic party of this country was created by Jefferson and Madison, its primary purpose being to establish the Federal-Native American party of which John Adams was official head and whose principles were the same as those now being preached by the Know-Nothing or Ku Klux party.

It was in 1787 that this hostility of our foreign-born friends found expression in politics and this came from a group of statesmen who subsequently constituted the Federal party. James Madison was the outstanding name against the doctrine of race and color prejudices, and proclaimed in its name the doctrine of equal rights and untrammelled civil and religious liberty to both native and foreign born citizens. This great Virginian laid then the foundation for the Democratic party.

In 1800 the Democratic party led by Jefferson crushed the Federal party that preferred to persecute rather than to reward good citizenship. Jefferson's administration put into law the principles of democracy. Madison's administration continued Jefferson's liberal and humane policies. The year of 1812 was declared and conducted by the Democratic party for the purpose of protecting our foreign-born friends.

This "ism" of today was then known

Nativism. This same "ism"—a foul and ugly eruption, has been breaking out every twenty or thirty years during the period that has intervened since the foundation of this Government. Democracy found a cure for the disease in 1787, in 1800, in 1812, in 1844, and in 1855, and will find a preventative in 1922. Democracy since its conception has had to contend against Know-Nothingism or Ku Kluxism and this "ism" has been the most unscrupulous enemy the Democratic party has ever had to contend against. Ku Kluxism openly disregards the constitutional promises of equal rights, untrammelled religious and civil liberty to both native and foreign born and he who now subscribes to the doctrine of Know-Nothingism or Ku Kluxism of Nativism as being preached and practiced ceases to be a Democrat and the party fails to protect its history and cherished principles when it fails to drive from its councils those who are willing to barter its principles for political power. No Democrat can subscribe to the doctrine of creed or class prejudice nor can the Democratic party countenance any one singing this hymn of hate in its councils.

J. Ogden Armour is Lead of the great Armour packing interests. He is one of the clearest thinkers in the nation. The other day he declared that the real wage-question is not to divide the profits between capital and labor—which is a comparatively easy task, but to assure the making of the profits. Right here is where labor, and especially organized labor often "falls down," as it were. It resents capital making anything out of the operation of business, and when the enterprise in which it is employed experiences dull times and adverse markets, instead of trying to help it weather the storm, too often help push it to the fall. Too often when a person joins a union the idea is hammered into him continuously that he must hate those who own and those who manage the firm which he works for; that they are in a conspiracy to grind him down into slavery; they are getting rich off his labor, when as a matter of fact, maybe, little or no profits are being made. At the present time it is likely three-fourths of all the business and industrial enterprises in this nation are paying higher wages than the profits justify. And thousands are being conducted at a loss. In the matter of wages and treatment labor is faring well. The important thing is to keep at work. Plainview News.

When we reflect that Judge Landis is getting a salary of $50,000 a year as the head of national baseball leagues, and Will Hays is drawing down $100,000 as chief executive of the moving picture interests of this country, we turn to school teachers and those employed in many other pursuits which are doing really worth-while constructive work and who in many instances are drawing less than $1,200 a year, we know that something is wrong. We are not begrudging Mr. Hays nor Judge Landis their good fortune, but if we could swap jobs with either of them we'd do it before morning, regardless of the deep-seated affection we have for the newspaper game. But we are deploring a state of affairs which makes such salaries possible and so out of proportion with those paid men and women who are doing a million times more beneficial work. What Judge Landis is doing will scarcely help the youth of tomorrow. What Will Hays is doing isn't fixing it so a single man or woman in America can earn more or enjoy comforts in life more. The salary system in this country is going to prove a mighty serious proposition some of these days, if we don't give it a little more careful study.—Pampa News.

Miami Chief: We observe that a number of our neighboring towns are preparing to put on Lyceums for their winter's entertainment, using their own home talent. This appears to us to be an ideal plan for the smaller town, and might well be tried out in Miami this winter. We have the talent, as good as can be found in any town in the Panhandle, so why not? Let us see what can be done. We have no lyceum course for the coming winter, and some kind of entertainment should be arranged for. This plan has not the drawback that the ordinary lyceum course has, in that it takes a lot of money out of the community, but it keeps all of it right here, and at the same time the interest in a home talent course would be a lot stronger and we are sure that it would receive the support from the community that such a course would deserve. Let us get busy and work up a home talent Lyceum course for Miami this winter.

"If you want the business ask for it; merchants who expect business to come to them without going after it don't deserve it," declared Fred P. Mann in an address to merchants at a convention at North Dakota.

"Ignorance of advertising among retail merchants is appalling," he declared, describing different sections where he had been called upon for advice.

"I give the newspaper of Devils Lake full credit for being the greatest force in the building of Mann's store. Do you suppose I could have sold $500,000 worth of goods in a town of 8000 people without letting the entire district know what I had to sell?"

Volume 1, Number 1, of the Happy Call issued at Happy, Texas, came to our desk this week, with the name of J. O. Bradenbaugh, as local editor. The Call starts its first issue with a liberal amount of advertising from the Happy merchants. J. O. Bradenbaugh is one of the pioneer citizens of the Panhandle and is the founder of the town of Happy.

Canadian Record: Claude Newton Harrison of the golf club at Canyon made a hole in one shot, whatever that may be. It evidently is something like a home run with the bases full or striking out Babe Ruth with the score a tie and a man on first and second and two out. Anyway, the Canyon News says the lad will be given a club and a dozen golf balls by the local club and a certificate of membership in the American Hole-in-one Club.

State Press in Dallas News: Probably the Canyonder deserves all the prizes and plaudits that have been showered upon him. State Press himself is not an authority on golf. He knows that a golf ball is spherical and that it is built to withstand rough treatment at the hands of a maddened man armed with a lethal club. He also knows that men who play golf, or fight it, some of them seeming to be more pugnacious than playful in their relations to the ball, sooner or later become infatuated with the conflict. They neglect their wives, forget their obligations as fathers, ignore the church and run pell-mell into debt. The author of these antimad-versions, speaks as one who dallied with the tempter, but, owing to his superb self-control, desisted before he had to pawn his diamonds to pay club dues and sell his regular clothes to replenish his golfing wardrobe. Speaking, then, as one who knows, he will inform the mystified Canadian brother that to "make a hole in one shot" or "hole out in one," as it is called in the jargon of the links, is to drive the ball into the cup with a single blow of the club from the distance of the tee. The tee ing place is where the player is permitted by the rules of the game to elevate the ball on a hillock of sand and smite it with what is called the driver. Nine tees are permitted on a nine-hole course, eighteen on a standard course. All but the tee strokes must be made as the ball lies after the previous stroke. The tee shots are the great adventures. Most players endure the drudgery of the flat strokes for the recompense of a few tee shots. A good player can usually make a hole in four or five shots. A dub player, which includes most of the golfing population, requires from six to sixty strokes. You will comprehend, now after, that to hole out in one is a feat. It might just as well happen at Canyon as anywhere, as it is always an accident in any latitude. By the way, speaking of Canyon, that town is entitled to other distinctions than the one here treated of, and the Normal College, not yet mentioned. State Press was on a considerable trip not long ago, which took him into three cities of great size, in which he saw many beautiful ladies of various ages and proportions. But the prettiest of all was a young lady, not of San Francisco or Los Angeles, but of Canyon, Texas. She was on the train coming down through the Panhandle and debarked at Amarillo, much to S. P.'s regret. He didn't learn her name or inquire it. He was content just to admire her. Her pa and ma were with her and she was so interested in them she didn't even see State Press, notwithstanding he drilled up and down the aisle a good many times looking his pleasantest.

COLLEGE EDUCATION PAYS FARMER

A recent investigation among New York farmers showed that for every $100.00 labor income received annually by farmers with a district school education only, the farmers with a college education earned $206.00. For each $100.00 labor income made by Indiana farmers having a common school education only, those graduated from High School earned $216.00 and those with college training $264.00.

Hon. Dr. Charles Thwing found after an extended research that 277 times as many college trained men have amassed great wealth as those who did not go to college.

TWICE PROVEN

If you suffer backache, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It's Canyon evidence—doubly proven.

R. E. Hileman, prop. bicycle shop, says: "I found positive relief in using Doan's Kidney Pills for lameness across the small of my back and for my kidneys. I can conscientiously recommend them for lumbago and for embarrassment caused by the kidney secretions. I am quite over all difficulties of that nature since I used them." (Statement given January 17, 1911).

On May 1, 1919, Mr. Hileman said: "Since I used and recommended Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago, I have taken them whenever in need of such a remedy. Doan's have never failed to give instant relief and I am always glad to say a good word in favor of them."

FOOTBALL WITH A GOLDEN TEXT

Little Earl, aged three, lived near a certain college campus, and he was much excited last fall over the football games.

One day he placed a football that had been given him between his sturdy legs and leaned over it as he had seen the centre rush do. Then for a moment he was stumped. He knew that the players called out something before the ball was put into play, but he had no idea what it was. All he could think of was his Sunday School text; so he called out, "Be ye kind one to another—go!" and gave the ball a vigorous punch.—Youth's Companion.

BAKED PORK HAM—Select a ham not too fat. Score the rind several times. Place it in a very hot oven skin side up until browned over. Lower the heat and salt the ham well. Baste frequently with its own juices until when a fork is stuck into it, little juice will flow. It will take about three hours slow baking for an eight pound ham.

More Summer Dairy Profits

The dairymen who are making profits are feeding the cows on pasture. When they once stop to figure the actual results of grass only they find their cows don't milk so long, and it requires more feed in the winter to bring back milk production.

Dairymen everywhere are cutting the cost per gallon of milk production by feeding a little Cow Chow as a concentrate.

Cow Chow provides just the right proteins and minerals to balance grass. Cow Chow puts the proof of more summer profits right in the milk pail. Start a test today and prove it with your own cows.

The play was interrupted for a few minutes by cries of pain issuing from a piled up scrimmage and the umpire most went wild when they unstacked the pile and found his son on the bottom. LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need do to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads around about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all. to ADVERTISE in THIS PAPER
