

FIRST WHEAT CUT THIS WEEK MAKES 40 1-2 BUSHELS

CLEM FRIEMEL THRESHES 35 ACRES—TESTS NO. ONE.

Joe Bedenk Is Harvesting 40 Bushel Wheat Also—Summer Fallow Yield is Very Fine.

Clem Friemel and Joe Bedenk were the first in Randall county to start their harvesters, both men getting their combines under way Saturday.

Mr. Friemel made 40½ bushels of wheat to the acre on his first 35 acres, and the wheat of Mr. Bedenk is going 40 bushels. Both are getting No. 1 wheat.

Harvest is now on in Randall county and the yield is going to be much better than was anticipated even two weeks ago.

Clem Friemel is the first to finish a field so as to give a definite result of the wheat yield. He completed a 35 acre field, which averaged 40½ bushels to the acre. This field was summer fallowed land. Mr. Friemel has 65 acres of wheat, now summer fallowed, which is estimated to be worth better than 30 bushels to the acre. He has oats that ought to make 70 bushels if the weather continues favorable.

John Bedenk got his combine to work Saturday and his wheat is making around 40 bushels to the acre. He has 200 acres of summer fallowed land and 600 acres on ordinary farmer land.

The wheat of both Mr. Friemel and Mr. Bedenk tests No. 1. They have polled the wheat with the Wheat Growers Association, drawing 60c per bushel at the present time. The wheat market is said to be opening at from 85c to 85c.

By the end of this week harvest will be in full blast all over the county. Farmers are getting their combines and harvesters ready to start during the coming few days.

Those who have been over the county much stated that there will be hundreds of acres in Randall county which will make 20 bushel of wheat and better this year, and that the oats is uniformly good.

Woodmen Take Game From Soldiers Here By Score of 5 to 2

The Amarillo Woodmen defeated the Company F. baseball team yesterday afternoon at Wragge's Park by a score of 5 to 2.

Tince Brown pitched a stellar game for the Soldiers and only hard luck and errors at critical times lost him the game. The Amarillo team got only four scattered hits, while Tince struck out 15 of their batters.

Two hit men and errors resulted in four scores for the Amarillo team in the first inning.

The Soldiers had several good chances at score, which were wasted in critical plays. They got away with eight hits.

CHALK TALK MONDAY.

Prof. L. E. Durham of Chicago will give a chalk talk at the Methodist church next Monday night at 8:00 o'clock under the auspices of the Missionary Auxiliary.

Mr. Durham is a teacher in one of the Methodist Colleges in Chicago and is a well known lecturer. His chalk talk will be interesting as well as highly profitable.

An admission charge of 10c for children and 35c for adults will be made for the benefit of the new Methodist church building.

TWO REGENTS NAMED.

Sam Sparks of Austin and Fred Martin of Ft. Worth have been named to the board of regents for teachers colleges by Governor Neff to fill the vacancies made by resignations last week of Royall R. Watkins and M. C. Parrish.

Mr. Sparks was a member of this board several years ago, and his return will be highly appreciated by the school authorities.

FOURTH IS QUIET HERE.

The Fourth of July was a very quiet day in Canyon, with no attempt at a celebration. Many of our citizens spent the day on the canyon, and a few went to neighboring towns.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Warren Takes a Long Lease on Two New West Side Store Rooms

W. A. Warren entered into a contract with Henry Bradford Friday for the two buildings Mr. Bradford's erecting on the west side of the square. The contract is for a term of six years and four months—to 1930.

Mr. Warren is going to greatly expand his business and he gets into the new building. One side of the building will be used for ladies wear and the other for men's wear. The front fifty feet of the building will be thrown together, while the rear forty feet will be divided into two rooms.

Mr. Warren came to Canyon two years ago and started then Man's Store. He later added the ladies ready to wear and changed the name to the Peoples Store. His great confidence in the future of Canyon and of the Panhandle is the cause of him now greatly enlarging his business.

Mr. Warren left Saturday for a visit to several Texas cities with a view of making a study of retail business in order to make his new store most valuable to the people of Canyon and Randall county.

669 Registered Saturday at Jarretts—$5.00 Given Mrs. Gamble

More than a thousand persons attended the Opening of the Jarrett Drug Company in the new store building Saturday, but only 669 registered during the day.

Mrs. O. N. Gamble registered a guess that 669 would be at the opening on Saturday, and was awarded the $5.00 prize offered. Guesses went as high 2000 and as low as 200. Thirty gallons of punch were served during the day.

COLLEGE BAND PLEASURES.

A large crowd greeted the College band in its first concert of the season. In addition to the splendid organization which was formed during the spring, director C. E. Strain has added some excellent band players from those attending the summer quarter, until the band is said to be by far the best the College has ever had.

The band will continue to give concerts through the summer quarter.

GOES LAND BANK MEETING.

W. J. Flesher will go to Houston Monday to attend a three days conference of the representatives of the Federal Land Bank, which Mr. Flesher represents in Randall county. He states that in addition to the business session which will be of great interest and profit to the representatives, an extensive entertainment program has been provided for by the Land Bank.

Call of Baptist Church Declined By Floydada Man

The local Baptist Church is still without a pastor as the result of a message from Rev. J. Pat Horton of Floydada to the Pulpit Committee, declining to accept the pastorate here.

Rev. Horton was issued a call about a month ago, and since that time made two trips to Canyon relative to the church here. He preached last Sunday morning and evening at the local Church.

STATE WARRANT DISCOUNT.

Discount on state warrants has been two percent up to this month, when it was raised by Austin banks to three percent, and it is stated that the discount rate may go to four percent. Indications are that the state will not return to a cash basis until the middle of 1924.

HAS HARVEST HANDS.

C. F. Walker states that he is in touch with the employment bureau in Amarillo and will be able to furnish harvest hands to all farmers who notify him in plenty of time.

There have been plenty of laborers up to the present time, but there is likely to be the usual shortage next week when harvest get under full headway.

200 YOUNG WOMEN WILL CAMP AT THE COBB RANCH AUG 1

MRS. DELANEY COMPLETES ARRANGEMENTS OF CAMP.

Walter Cobb Leases His Place on Canyon for the Camp of Girls from Northwest Texas Conference.

Mrs. Tom C. Delaney of Memphis was here Monday and completed arrangements with Walter Cobb for a lease on his ranch on the canyons south east of the city for the Annual Camp of the girls from the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference. Mrs. Delaney is Conference Superintendent of Young People, and will move to Canyon at the opening of the fall quarter of the College to have charge of the work among Methodist young people attending the College.

The Camp will be held for the first ten days of August. One hundred girls attended the camp at the Upchurch place northeast of Canyon last year, and from present indications there will be more than two hundred in attendance this year.

Mr. Cobb is building a fine brush arbor for the camp and will have two swimming pools. The location is ideal for such a camp.

The annual camp is held for religious purposes, but plenty of time is given to recreation and sports. Much time is given to music and the study of Missions and the Bible. A well qualified leader will be in charge of all phases of the work.

Mad Dog Killed Friday After Being at Large for More Than a Day

The dog of T. F. Burks which went mad last Wednesday was shot Friday by C. G. Aten, who followed it with S. B. McClure until convinced they had the right dog.

The dog was not seen from Wednesday until Friday. Residents in the north part of town who were ever on the look out for it, report that blood was found in weed patches north of the railroad, and suppose that the dog stayed over in that part during the time he was missing.

He was reported to be coming toward town, when Mr. Aten got his shot gun and riding with Mr. McClure in his car they found the dog and followed it for several blocks to make sure it was the right dog. Mr. Aten finally shot the dog, when it turned back toward the car.

It is urged that people watch their dogs for the coming three weeks. If the dog bite another dog, rabies will appear between the nine day and 27 day period.

Rev. F. B. McDowell Accepts Pastorate of Presbyterian Church

Rev. F. B. McDowell of Hebron, Ill., has accepted the call of the local Presbyterian church to become its pastor and will arrive here about the middle of August to begin his work.

Mr. McDowell is a young man of exceptional ability and training for the work that is opened for his church in Canyon, and comes eminently qualified to put over this work. He very highly pleased those with whom he came in contact when he preached two weeks ago.

LAWYER MOVES FROM SPUR.

James L. Wohlford is moving to this city from Spur to make his future home. He arrived the first truck load of his household goods Friday and his family will arrive during this week. Mr. Wohlford states that he is moving here primarily on account of the College, so that his two boys may enter the school this fall.

DRIVER SELLS CAFE.

A. E. Driver has sold his Cafe on the north side of the square to Mrs. Myrtle Rusk, but has changed the name to New Way Cafe.

WEED CUTTING ORDER OF THE DAY IN CANYON—CITY PASSES ORDINANCE REQUIRING ALL WEEDS TO BE CUT

In response to the call of the Mayor and President of the Commercial League, the citizens of Canyon put on a good weed cutting campaign, and those who have cut the weeds on and along their property are to be congratulated, and those who have not done so are urged to get busy this week.

Both Mayor C. N. Harrison and President of the Commercial League J. M. Vetesk have expressed great appreciation for the good weed cutting campaign that resulted from their appeal in the News last week, and urge that this campaign continue until the city is freed from weeds.

Mr. Harrison and Mr. Vetesk make the following statement:

"Last week there were lots of weeds cut in Canyon. There are many yet to be cut. We have a real good crop of weeds right around and adjoining the public square in several places. We hope that the citizens of Canyon will continue the good work of weed cutting and that no weeds are allowed to go to seed on any property in the city. A bigger weed crop next year will result if weeds are not cut right away. For those who do not have the time to personally cut their weeds, there are many boys and young men in Canyon anxious to do this work for a reasonable amount."

To strengthen the weed cutting campaign the city commission passed a weed ordinance at the meeting Monday night, which is published in this edition of the News. The city authorities will enforce the provisions of the ordinance against those who refuse to cut the weeds on their property.

GOVERNOR NEFF FILES THE STATE'S APPROPRIATIONS BILLS WITH SECRETARY OF STATE WITHOUT APPROVAL

NO ITEMS ARE VETOED BY GOVERNOR—COLLEGE GETS $420,000.00 FOR SUPPORT DURING THE COMING TWO YEARS.

Governor Pat M. Neff filed the appropriation bills for the state institutions with the secretary of state late last Wednesday, without his approval. However, the Governor vetoed no items in the various bills, allowing all to become the law without his approval.

Under the terms of the appropriations bill which became a law without the approval of the Governor, the West Texas State Teachers College is given $420,000.00 for support during the coming two years. In addition, there is an emergency appropriation of $6,000.00 for paving in front of the College campus.

The College will have $220,000.00 for the year beginning September 1, 1923, and $200,000 for the year beginning September 1, 1924.

The paving is the only permanent improvement allowed by the appropriations bill this year.

President Hill stated yesterday that the College will be greatly stunted in its work for the coming two years, especially on items of departmental upkeep. These items were cut very badly by the board of control, and later by the legislature.

Mr. Hill states that the paving along the College property will start soon. He will likely have the work on the campus done first, and then pave in front of the campus.

Mayor C. N. Harrison and Mr. Moxley were in conference with Mr. Hill yesterday to determine the steps necessary in the paving. They will attempt to put a thirty foot pavement in front of the College property, but this will rest largely with the property owners. R. A. Terrill was delegated by Mr. Hill to see the property owners and find the sentiment regarding the paving on this street.

Salaries, first year $171,170; second year $176,100.
Departmental maintenance, first year $15,130; second year $11,000.
Miscellaneous items, first year $8,700; second year $8,580.
Repairs and improvements, first year $20,000; second year $4,250.

Miss Elva Fronabarger Elected First Grade Teacher City School

Miss Elva Fronabarger was elected primary teacher and Irby Carruth was elected teacher in the grades of the city public schools at the meeting of the board of trustees on Tuesday night. Miss Fronabarger was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Erna Alsop. She has been a teacher in the schools before and has a large circle of friends in the city who will be glad to see her again in the school.

Mr. Carruth is a student in the College. He is now business manager of The Prairie. The board felt the necessity of having a man teacher in the grades on account of the division of work and all high school work being confined to the new building during the coming year.

The resignation of J. A. Guthrie as a member of the board of trustees was accepted. He has been a loyal and hard working member of the board during the past few days and his resignation was very reluctantly accepted.

The board of equalization was appointed as follows: J. A. Guthrie, W. A. Jennings and A. M. Smith. Lighting fixtures for the new school building were bought of the Canyon Light and Power Company.

BUILDING NEW HOUSE.

P. V. Winstead has started a new six room house across the street east of the J. T. Burnett home.

T-ANCHOR MEN OF DAYS OF 80's MEET NEXT MONTH

INVITATIONS TO ALL OLD COW PUNCHERS WITHIN 100 MILES.

Celebration Will be Held at Old T-Anchor Headquarters Just North of This City.

The old cow hands who worked on the T-Anchor and other ranches within a radius of 100 miles are called to meet at the old headquarters on Thursday, August 23rd for the Second Annual Reunion. The first meeting was held at Hereford last year, and an organization formed. A large number of the old cow hands were present, and greatly enjoyed renewing of old acquaintances.

A meeting was held last Thursday afternoon at the old headquarters of the T-Anchor Ranch, now the J. L. Pritchard home, and Mr. Pritchard extended a very cordial invitation to the boys to come back for the annual reunion and to make themselves at home. Those attending the meeting to make plans were: R. E. Baird, I. C. Jenkins, Dave Thomas, L. Gough of Amarillo, Miss Laura Hamner of Amarillo, and A. H. Elliston of Hereford.

Any of the men who were on the Plains during the 80's are invited to the reunion next month.

New Street Lighting Fixtures Being Installed in City of Canyon

Electrical fixtures for the new street lights in Canyon are being received and installed by the Canyon Light & Power Company.

The city is having installed twenty-six new street lights over the residence portion of the city, and twenty lights on the public square in the four ornamental posts which are to be put up.

All of the material for the additional lights are in transit, and according to Manager A. J. Arnold should be completely installed within the coming two weeks.

DISCUSS NEW CHURCH.

A meeting of the members of the Methodist church was held Friday evening at the church at which time the plan for starting the new building was discussed.

Rev. Hardy, presiding elder of this district, was present, and addressed the meeting.

The plans have been given several contractors to figure and bids will be opened about the middle of July.

AMARILLO DID NOT COME.

Only about half of the Amarillo National Guard team showed up Sunday to play the team from Company F.

A game was played by the Soldiers and a bunch from the College, the Soldiers winning by a score of 8 to 4.

PIPKIN BABY DIES.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Phipkin of Eastland on June 24 and died on the 27th.

The father is a Canyon boy, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phipkin.

HERB MILLER TO WED.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Herb R. Miller and Miss Blanche Cameron, which will be solemnized next Saturday at Hammond, Indiana.

STORK SPECIAL.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Donald Saturday morning at the sanitarium in Amarillo.

BUYS FILLING STATION.

SMALL RAIN Sunday.

A light rain of .06 of an inch fell in the city Sunday evening. The rain was reported heavier north of Canyon.

The College band is one of the best in West Texas. The concert Friday night was of exceptional merit. Unfortunately the city of Canyon has not made provision to bring these concerts to the public square. The only thing necessary is an adequate band stand, and the College band will play uptown. A band is one of the best business drawing cards a town may have. Canyon has the band, but has not been realizing on this business feature on account of the lack of the proper band stand.

The heavy rains of last month has brought forth a prolific weed crop. Weeds bring flies, mosquitoes, disease and death. The people of Canyon generally believe in a clean town. Unfortunately there are some with vacant lots which are not for sale who will not clean up their premises, but wait until the city or some neighbor upon whom they impose will take time and their own money to cut the weeds. The city commission is going after all those who will not cut the weeds on their property.

More than 25,000 bills were introduced in congress last year, which according to Congressman Jones, was more reading material than any one man could read in the space of one year's time. The trend of the time is more and more law. There is no wonder that our courts are overrun and unable to get off their work, having to take into consideration this great mass of legislation, which is more or less of duplication on many, many subjects.

President Harding is right in asking America to help enforce the prohibition law. Prohibition is the law of the land. It is as much the law of the land as the law against theft or murder, or arson. Yet men, who would be insulted were they charged with any of these other laws, will openly violate the prohibition law, and wink at the violators of the law. America can do a great thing by standing with the President in his demand for enforcement of the prohibition law.

Weeds make hay fever. We are in favor of lining up all hay fever patients, arming them with a good strong barrel stove each, and passing down the line all those who do not cut the weeds on their property. Sometimes civilization is at its highest point of efficiency when it reverts to the ways of the cave-man.

The hot weather is said to be mighty fine on the cotton and the corn, but is intensely unpleasant on those of us who are not cotton and corn.

S. W. Adams, editor of the Texas Commercial News, complains that neither the Texas Editorial Association nor the Texas Press association are willing to devote time to the discussion of problems confronting right and wholesome journalism. Therefore Mr. Adams proposes to organize the Association of Texas Journalists. We heartily approve of Mr. Adams' proposition, and suggest that the new association incorporate in its by-laws that seven-eighths of its time be given over to Mr. Adams to air his views on any and all subjects.—Quauh Teibume-Chief.

Amen. But you're dead wrong, Harry. The last provision is wholly inadequate, unnecessary and immaterial. It is a waste of space, time and words. Adams will see to it that he gets at least seven-eighths of the time and under proper conditions would be willing to take eight-eighths. Adams claims that the Texas Press association devotes all its time to unnecessary questions, such as making a newspaper profitable. Adams is probably the only man in Texas who does not have to sell his soul with the low and filthy idea of making a living from his publication. He runs a paper for the great and mighty Sugarland interests. The Sugarland people take such advertising space as is necessary and pay the bills.

What is wrong with America? A lot of fellows are devouring space in newspapers and magazines trying to tell us what is the matter with America. The only thing wrong we find is that these most successful failures are set free in this country in air the imaginary short-coming of the greatest nation and the most successful nation that has ever existed. There is nothing so tragic as a successful failure trying to tell how a successful thing should be run.

No so many people are shot to pieces on the Fourth of July as was the rule a few years ago when there was no fun in evidence except to shoot cannon fire crackers and dangerous top pistols. But more people raced with the trains to the crossing—and lost by the fraction of a second.

Crop conditions are looking fine for the Panhandle section this year. The Panhandle is coming back into its own as a result of the splendid conditions now confronting us.

"AND IT IS A COUNTRY WORTH LIVING FOR, FIGHTING AND DYING FOR"

By COL. P. E. HOLF, Chicago.

"Eight times America has gone to war under the Star-Spangled Banner, and not once have we taken an acre of ground or a dollar of money as a result of winning—that is the "American way." At the end of the world war nearly all the nations of Europe had to make new maps of their countries to take in the new territory they had acquired. After winning the war this country did not add a single acre to its area.

When we wanted territory we purchased it. We didn't declare war on the country owning the property and take it as spoils of conquest. Alaska, Florida, California, the Virgin Islands, the entire Middle West, were all purchased and paid for by the United States. In Cuba's hour of need we sent troops and our navy to her assistance, and then we withdrew and let Cuba remain an independent republic. In spite of all this, however, the foreign nations look upon us as an imperialistic nation, and we have been called the "Shylock of nations" by those who cannot understand our principles, our "American way." This country is not perfect, but it is the nearest perfect of all the nations on the face of the earth, and it is a country worth living for, fighting for and dying for.

The population of Canada is about equally divided between city dwellers and country dwellers. The total urban population is given as 4,352,773 and the total rural population 4,435,710. In Prince Edward Island and Saskatchewan the rural population runs about seventy-five per cent of the whole.

Dartmouth College has determined not to accept more than 2,000 students. A limit of 550 is set for the freshman class. An attempt is being made to get a wide geographical distribution of students. Dartmouth wants a national, not a sectional college; a college of many groups, not of one type—a microcosm of the national life.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The People's Store has leased the two new buildings being erected by Henry Bradford on the West Side of the square for six years and four months. The buildings will be ready for occupancy by September.

One of these new buildings will be used for our Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Department, and the other one for our Men's Department. It will be our purpose to increase our stock in all lines, making this one of the most complete and up-to-date stores in the Panhandle.

Mr. Warren is away this week, visiting the retail centers of Texas to study various kinds of plans of store management. He will make a personal study of the largest establishments with a view of giving Canyon the benefit of the long successful careers of these establishments.

Watch for announcements from this store, and make your plans now to buy your fall clothing from our big new stock which is now coming in, and which will be displayed in our new store buildings within a short while. It will pay you to wait a little while to do your buying.

MATTERS OF PRINCIPLE

When a man tells you that it is a matter of principle with him to do such and such a thing you usually find that he is trying to justify an act of a somewhat ungenerous character—such as entering a complaint against some one for discourtesy or neglect, or exacting the fulfillment of an obligation under harsh conditions, or pointing out with blunt frankness a friend's shortcomings, or refusing to contribute to the aid of a cause or an individual, or declining to make a loan to a friend. Perhaps every one of the acts that he thus justifies needs no justification, is in itself right and proper in the circumstances; unfortunately, explaining it on the ground of principle is likely to excite a question as to the nature of the principles that govern the person. For they seem to concern his own dignity and importance exclusively, his own rights and convenience—the duty of other people toward him rather than his duty toward other people.

Now the only principles on which a man may well pride himself are those that he somehow shrinks from announcing. It is a matter of principle with all decent people not to lie or cheat or betray, but anyone who called attention to some act of his as illustrating the principles of honesty and decency by which he was guided would be regarded with astonishment and even suspicion. The real "matters of principle" are the inner foundations on which the whole structure of character rests, and people do not talk about them, call attention to them, or explain them. Whenever we hear anyone say, "It is a matter of principle with me to," and so forth, we may be sure that it isn't any revelation of principle that he is about to give, but merely a side light on his egotism.

Child-birth

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Harman, Scranton, Pa., says:
"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to E. J. Field, Regulator Co., B. A. 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

House Joint Resolution No. 16

Proposing an amendment to Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which relates to taxation and revenues; by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, directing the Legislature to provide for the construction, operation and maintenance, under State control, of a State system of public highways; providing for an election for the ratification or rejection of amendment herein proposed, and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of said election.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there be submitted to the people of Texas, for ratification or rejection at a special election provided herein an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending said Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, which shall read as follows:

Section 9a. The Legislature is authorized and directed to provide for the creation, establishment, construction, maintenance and repair of a system of improved highways throughout the State to be under the control of the State; and in order that the State may provide the means, revenues and instrumentalities the establishment maintenance of such system of highways, the Legislature is empowered to levy and cause to be collected specific excise and ad valorem taxes in addition to those permitted for other purposes in the Constitution, but such an ad valorem tax shall be imposed only for the purpose of retiring the bonds authorized by vote of the people of this State as provided for hereinafter in this Section.

When said system shall have been designated and taken over for the State as provided in Section A hereof, the Legislature is authorized to make provision for the equitable compensation to such counties for the value of such improvements as have heretofore constructed by the Counties of the State.

Provided, also that save for the State highway system, in all other respects, Counties shall have the right to build, construct and maintain roads, turnpikes, and bridges within their respective boundaries and the Constitutional provisions relating thereto are not qualified or repealed by reason hereof.

The Legislature, at any Regular or Special Session, is authorized and directed to pass and enact all appropriate legislation necessary to carry out and effectuate the purpose and intent of these Articles.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1923, at which election this amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and shall make the publication required by the Constitution and Laws of the State.

Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the General Election Laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words:

"OFFICIAL BALLOT": "For the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." "Against the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways."

Those voters who favor such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words "Against the Amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." Those who oppose such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words, "For the amendment to Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the votes cast in such election.

The sum of Five Thousand Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the preparation and publication of this amendment and the election to be held hereunder.

S. L. STAPLES,
Secretary of State.

WHAT THE HIGHWAY AMENDMENT MEANS

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS MEASURE TO BE VOTED ON JULY 28

NO BONDS ARE AUTHORIZED

Places State Roads Under State Supervision—Rural Roads Under Counties

Waco, Texas.—W. V. Crawford, president of the Texas Highway Association, issued today a statement outlining the provisions of the proposed highway amendment to the State Constitution to be voted on by the people on July 28.

"In spite of all the discussion in the press," he said, "there seems to be a widespread misunderstanding of the proposed amendment. The many inquiries we have received indicate that a great many people do not know what it provides. It occurs to me, therefore, that a simple statement of its provisions is very necessary."

"The amendment proposes to add the following provisions to the State Constitution:

"The Legislature is authorized and directed to provide for the creation, establishment, construction, maintenance and repair of a system of improved highways throughout the State, to be under the control of the State, and in order that the State may provide the means, revenues and instrumentalities for the establishment and maintenance of such system of highways, the Legislature is empowered to levy and cause to be collected specific excise and ad valorem taxes, in addition to those permitted for other purposes in the Constitution, but such ad valorem taxes shall be imposed only for the purpose of retiring the bonds authorized by vote of the people of this State as provided for hereinafter in this section.

"When said system shall have been designated and taken over for the State as provided in Section A hereof the Legislature is authorized to make provision for the equitable compensation to such counties for the value of such improvements as have been theretofore constructed by the counties in the State.

"Provided, also that, save for the State highway system, in all other respects, counties shall have the right to build, construct and maintain roads, turnpikes and bridges within their respective boundaries, and the constitutional provisions relating thereto are not qualified or repealed by reason hereof."

"Then there is a section authorizing and directing the Legislature to enact legislation to put these provisions into effect.

"First of all it should be said that the provision which refers to ad valorem taxes can be ignored, for the section which would have authorized the issuance of bonds was stricken out by the Senate. It was intended to strike out also the reference to ad valorem taxes, but in the rush of the closing hours of the regular session this was overlooked. But it is inoperative and the same as though it had been stricken out. For it applies only to the section which was stricken out, and no ad valorem taxes could be levied if the amendment is adopted.

"If that point is kept in mind there should be no difficulty in understanding the amendment. It provides for the creation of a state highway system and for the levying of 'specific excise taxes' for the establishment and maintenance of such a system.

"If the amendment is adopted the designated state highways will be taken over by the state and the counties will be relieved of the duty and expense of constructing and maintaining such highways in the future.

"The excise taxes it authorizes does not increase the power of the state to raise revenue. The state can levy excise taxes now, only they are called occupation taxes. But one-fourth of all occupation taxes must go to the school fund, and this amendment would make possible the levying of such a tax for road purposes only. The gasoline tax is an instance of this. Gasoline can not be taxed for roads without also taxing it for schools under the present constitution. Under the amendment it could be taxed for roads alone.

"And finally the amendment provides that counties shall retain all their present powers and revenues with respect to roads. This will relieve the counties from constructing and maintaining state highways and leave them all their present revenue for purely county roads. The provision for compensating counties for roads taken over is a matter for the future and will require further action of the Legislature.

"The system which this amendment would inaugurate in Texas is the same as that in operation in all the other states in the Union with the exception of two or three. A Federal law requires that every state must have such a system within the next three years or forfeit any further Federal aid in building highways."

MICKIE SAYS—

FOUR DOORS ARE POPULAR

Instances in which two-door closed cars are being traded in for four-door closed cars are coming to notice with increasing frequency. This may be a prophetic indication. For the utmost convenience of the entire family it might as well be admitted that the "jump seat" in front should be dispensed with.

The two-door car is serving a tremendously useful purpose in educating the public to the desirability of the enclosed car, especially as its simplified construction has served to eliminate the old obstacle of price and bring really good closed cars within the reach of masses of buyers. But education in the use of closed cars is bringing about a demand for greater convenience. One alert maker has already capitalized this by advertising that "the crawling over days are over."

The little town of Djal-Ogii, in Armenia, is the proud possessor of the only modern electric lighting plant in the country. This is due to a young American, a resident director of the Near East Relief. He discovered an abandoned water mill perched on the banks of a swiftly running stream. He repaired the mill and installed a dynamo which generates eighty-five horse-power. Now the orphanage, the hospital and nearly every house in the village is lighted with electricity, to the astonishment of the natives, many of whom had never seen an electric light before.

Special arrangements will be made to provide a commodious camping ground for the old-timers who will attend with the old-fashioned chuck wagons and cowboy equipment.

Brazil has produced a new textile fiber known as fibrasco. This fiber has been known to grow in certain localities of Brazil for years but no commercial use was proposed for it until recently. THE LINE OF LEAST RESISTANCE

When we say of a person that he usually follows the line of least resistance we mean of course that his character is weak and undeveloped. Yet the fact that a man sometimes takes what he regards as the line of least resistance does not necessarily raise a presumption against him. The expression is a vague one and needs clarifying. The young man who has a definite bent toward some profession or trade or art and who consistently follows it may be said to be taking the line of least resistance, yet in doing so he may be giving evidence of strength and determination rather than of weakness.

In fact, the persons who let circumstances and accidents rather than their own tastes, desires, ambition and purpose shape their lives are those who follow the line of least resistance. However definite your bent may be, however pronounced your talent, however strong your ambition, to direct your course in accordance with them, is not to take the easiest way through life. It is to take the way that promises the richest satisfaction and the best returns if it is faithfully followed, but it is a hard road and requires resourcefulness as well as perseverance and toil for the surmounting of its obstacles. Even then, though the struggle will not be without its compensations, there is no certainty that it will end in any such attainment as the pilgrim had hopefully in view when he started out.

On the other hand, it is comparatively easy for anyone to slip into a routine job that, even though it is uninteresting, provides a living and calls for no initiative but only for faithfulness and mechanical performance, and to go on with increasing listlessness about the work and the chances that life offers. Following the line of least resistance never leads to success—always in the end to failure. Following your bent may lead you to success; it assures you anyway of a constant and fresh interest in life.

Who owns the Santa Fe?

Not a few persons, but many thousands, are stockholders in this great railway. All have a voice in its management. The number of stockholders living in states traversed by the Santa Fe is steadily increasing.

Every railroad has two classes of people interested in its financial structure—viz. the stockholders and the bondholders. In the minds of many, both classes are considered as owners. As a matter of fact, only the holders of the stock are owners. The bondholders are loaners of money, the bonds representing a mortgage on the property to insure payment of money loaned.

The Stockholders of the Santa Fe are, therefore, the owners of the road. Each share has an equal voice in all meetings of the Company. At the annual meeting vacancies in the Board of Directors are filled and such other business transacted as requires action by the stockholders.

Number of Stockholders—		Dividend Payments—
There were on December 31st last 64,643 stockholders, of which 29,820 were men, 29,235 women, and the balance made up of firms, estates, and institutions, among the latter being—		The Preferred Stock is limited to 5% dividends. The balance of the earnings of the Company is available for Common Stock dividends. Dividends on the Preferred Stock have been paid for 25 years and for 23 years those have not been below 5%. Dividends on the Common began in 1901 and have not been below 6% since 1909. Something has been added to surplus each year since the reorganization of the company January 1, 1896.

A mummy, perfectly preserved, believed to be that of an Inca chief, has been unearthed from a hill in the province of Salta, Argentina, near the Chilean border. A large number of artistic carvings and art objects of stone, copper, earthenware and onyx were buried with it. The nails, teeth and most of the hair are perfectly preserved, as are the vital organs, according to reports, which would indicate a method of embalming that may be superior even to the Egyptian. The methods used to unite the different parts of the implements, also found in the tomb, suggest handiwork similar to that of the Egyptians.

At midnight in Dawson City, Yukon Territory, as the celebration of Empire Day was at its height, tidings were brought to the dance halls and gambling places of the discovery of a silver ledge at Happy Creek, forty miles south of Yukon. Immediately the rush began and soon the waterways leading to Happy Creek were filled with rowboats, canoes and launches carrying eager prospectors.

LIFE WISDOM

They say, miracles are past; and we have our philosophical persons, to make modern and familiar, things supernatural and causeless. Hence is it that we make trifles of terrors; ensconcing ourselves into seeming knowledge, when we should submit ourselves to an unknown fear.—Shakespeare.

Most men of action incline to fatalism, and most men of thought believe in Providence.—Balzac.

Knowledge is the knowing that we can not know.—Emerson.

Do the truth you know and you shall learn the truth you need to know.—Geo. MacDonald.

The greatest truths are the simplest; and so are the greatest men.—Hare.

Love, beauty, joy, and worship are forever building, unbuilding, and rebuilding in each man's soul.—Plotinus. Map is saved by love and duty, and by the hope that springs from duty, or rather from the moral facts of consciousness, as a flower springs from the soil.—Amiel.

The will of the pure runs down from them into other natures, as water runs down from a higher into a lower vessel. This natural force is no more to be withstood than any other natural force.—Emerson.

To act in accordance with our knowledge of right and wrong is the moral part; to know right and wrong is the intellectual part.

Many Europeans and some Chinese have taken advantage of a clause in the Immigration Restriction Act, which provides that any person who has resided for a year in Mexico, Canada, Newfoundland, Cuba or Central or South America, can enter the United States without reference to numerical quotas. Within the last nine months 40,000 "Mexicans" and 62,000 "Canadians" have crossed the borders into the United States.

Locusts flew over Manila for six hours continuously on May 24, darkening the city at times. Sugar planters fear they will destroy the crops in the fields.

The Lilly whispered to the Rose: "The Tulip's fearfully stuck-up. You'd think so to see the creature's pose."

She was a golden alter-cup. There's method in her boldness, too; She catches twice her share of Dew."

The Rose into the Tulip's ear murmured: "The Lilly is a sight; Don't you believe she powders, dear. To make herself so saintly white? She takes some trouble, it is plain. Her reputation to sustain."

Said Tulip to the Lilly white: "About the rose—what do you think? Her color? Should you say it's quite—Well, quite a natural shade of pink?" "Natural!" the Lilly cried. "Good Saints! "Why everybody knows she paints!" —Oliver Herford.

A committee appointed by the National League of Women Voters reports a list of twelve greatest women in the United States together with the profession or occupation of each. The list is as follows: Jane Addams, philanthropy; Cecelia Beaux, painting; Anna Jump Cannon, astronomy; Carrie Chapman Catt, politics; Anna Botsford Comstock, natural history; Minnie Maddern Fiske, stage; Louise Homer, music; Julia Lathrop, child welfare; Florence Rena Sabin, anatomy; M. Carey Thomas, education; Martha Van Rensselaer, home economics; Edith Wharton, literature.

Dr. Eugene Lyman Fisk, diagnostician and author, says, "The 'average' person does not stand the best chance of living long. The man or woman who weighs twenty or thirty per cent below the average has the best chance for long life. It is safe to say the average individual reaches the ideal build at thirty. If he can keep near that build for the rest of his life, he increases his chances of longevity."

Forestry clubs, formed by boys and girls, are becoming popular, according to the United States Forest Service. Beginning with a forestry club, organized last year in Crestone, Colorado, the movement has spread to many other localities in that state. The clubs are formed under the direction of local men and women interested in both forestry and agriculture in co-operation with the county agent and the Forest Service.

The Red Cross organization is forty years old. Since 1882 the society has been first in offering medical aid, food shelter and money to victims of the world's calamities. Since 1919, the average yearly cost of disaster relief has been approximately $14,500,000. Since 1881 the American Red Cross has extended relief in 372 disasters, including cyclones, floods, plagues, volcanic eruptions, fires, earthquakes, mine disasters and epidemics.

Will a Rattlesnake Cross a Hair Rope?

El Paso, Texas.—A tourist passing through West Texas was told recently that if he put a hair rope around his neck on the ground at night, it would keep the rattlesnakes away; that a snake would not cross a hair rope.

He doubted it and threw a rope in front of a rattlesnake and the snake went over it like it wasn't there. He exploded the theory before hundreds of cowboys, a theory believed for years and years by ranchmen and cowpunchers.

The tourist told a reporter about it in an interview. He started something. Reading the easterner's statement that a rattlesnake would cross a hair rope the same as he would a gully, a rock or anything else he could crawl over, the cowboys and men who have been on the range for years and who have used the hair rope for snake protection, went to the newspaper and offered to bet.

Under the direction of the police, men got in an automobile and with a rope went to the desert and the mountains near El Paso to make a test. A snake was found. He went over the rope. The old timers contended the test wasn't fair because the rope was not genuine hair rope and the snake was not a rattler.

Then a Mexican who sells genuine hair ropes he makes himself, was drawn into the controversy and a hair rope to satisfy all was purchased. Now for a real rattlesnake. A medicine seller was located who had a collection of snakes and one big rattler, five feet long, with eight rattles and a button and sharp fangs was procured.

Now for the test. A big downtown plate glass display window was obtained, and the crowd gathered about. The hair rope was formed in a circle. The big rattler was turned loose. Hissing, rattling, holding his head erect and flashing his tongue, the snake went over the rope. Back and forth over the rope he went as if it hadn't been there.

The crowd laughed and the cowboys and ranchmen declared the test was not fair; that the snake was angered, and having been caged so long was not like a snake of the desert or plains. The snake was left alone. He calmed down and curled up in the sun in the corner of the window.

The snake woke up and began to crawl over the rope and another one that had been placed around the inside of the window. Back and forth, back and forth over both ropes, he went, never heeding.

HE THAT RULETH HIS SPIRIT

When you give someone a piece of your mind—
You are handing out something that no one wants—

You are giving something that will bring no value in return—
You are making investments in hatred that will never serve you well—

Explosions of temper may give a fancied relief—
But not from the backfire that will come in time—

Not from the loss of goodwill that one can live rightly without—
Not from pent up ill feelings that will try to get even with you—

A cool head gives a clear eye and a steady voice—
And clear eyes and a steady voice command respect—

And without respect our little success is quite an empty thing—
No man wants to boost the grouch—

No man offers aid many times to one who flies to pieces—
And says whatever he happens to think—

TEMPER INDICATES WEAKNESS, NOT STRENGTH—
It reflects discredit on the pilot of the mind—

It indicates that no one controls the very home of the soul.—Selected.

RADICALISM

The perpetual howl of Radicalism is that it is the sole voice of liberalism—that devotion to social progress is its field alone. These men would assume that all reform and human advance must come through government. They have forgotten that progress must come from the steady lift of the individual and that the measure of national idealism and progress is the quality of idealism in the individual.—Herbert Hoover.

The concluding dramatic scene of the Philippine insurrection in 1901 was General Funston's capture of Aguinaldo. In the guise of prisoners the adventurous Kausan and a few comrades penetrated to Aguinaldo's mountain headquarters, seized the leader and escaped to the American lines. Now, twenty years later, the sons of those two leaders appear among the successful candidates for admission to the United States Military Academy. Frederick Funston and Emilio Aguinaldo will be class mates at West Point for four years.

A DEPRAVED MULE

A Missouri mule was being shipped to a farmer in Virginia. A tag with shipping directions on it had been tied securely around his neck with a rope, but in the course of the journey the mule grew restive and chewed up both tag and rope.

This gave the negro brakeman great concern. He hurried to the conductor in the caboose. "Marse George," he yelled, "for de Lawd, where yo' spees to put 'off dat mule? He done eat up where he's gwine!"—St. Louis Star.

The Tubular Backbone

AN EXCLUSIVE FEATURE ON DURANT AND STAR MADE CARS

WHAT IS IT?

THE TUBULAR BACKBONE

IT is the greatest advance in automotive construction since the invention of pneumatic tires. IT is Wm. C. Durant's own patent, which definitely places Durant made cars in a class by themselves.

IT produces a rigidity in frame construction that adds years of life to the car.

IT causes the springs of the car to perform the functions for which they were intended.

IT does not add materiality to the cost of the car, but adds many dollars worth by its correct basic principle.

IT is the deciding factor that would cause you to buy a Durant or Star made car, if all other things were equal.

Alfalfa Cutting is Very Best, and Developed in Less Than Thirty Days

Alfalfa raisers are getting this cutting off the fields in fine shape. Most of the hay has been saved without rain.

It has been one of the best cuttings in years. The cutting developed in less than thirty days, owing to the good rains just after the last cutting.

RECITAL HIGHLY PLEASING

One of the rarest intellectual treats the West Texas State Teachers College has ever enjoyed was the visit last Monday of Dean Harold L. Butler, Dean of the College of Fine Arts, Syracuse University. Dean Butler gave a lecture, song recital Monday evening that proved not only enjoyable on account of the unusual numbers, but also because the entire program was beautifully done. Dean Butler's explanations relative to each song made the performance of double value to the audience.

A great deal might be said concerning the singing of the program, but writing or talking about a really good musical performance is for the most part idle.

Dean Butler's diction is faultless and coupled with his splendid voice and dramatic interpretation, makes his singing well nigh perfect. One wonders if his association with the old Castle Square Opera Company explains at least some of these splendid qualities. Not soon to be forgotten is his singing of the Grestlin, "Left."

Dean Butler violated a holy pact, which he made with himself several years ago in using Miss Pauline Brigham as his accompanist. He really never takes any chances on an unknown accompanist in his recitals, but it seems that Mr. Waldo Gelch, the violinist who played here a few weeks ago, had written Dean Butler of Miss Brigham's ability as an accompanist, consequently he decided to take the chance. Miss Brigham's accompanying of the songs was so well near perfect that Dean Butler declared he forgot all about having a strange accompanist, which he declares is the one unflinching test.

We hope we may have the pleasure of a visit from Dean Butler again soon—the sooner the better. His address to the students at chapel Tuesday morning on the subject of "Fine Arts" was splendidly received.

HE HELD THE WHIP HAND

A salesman sold a bill of goods to a merchant in a small town. They were returned as not satisfactory. The wholesale house undertook to collect anyway, and drew a sight draft on the bank at the customer's town. The bank returned the draft unpaid. Then the house wrote to the village postmaster and asked if the merchant was good for the amount of the bill. The letter was returned O. K'd at the bottom. Next the postmaster was asked to put the bill in the hands of a local lawyer for collection.

The answer received by the wholesalers ran as follows: "The undersigned is the merchant on whom you tried to palm off your worthless junk. The undersigned is also president of the bank that returned your draft. The undersigned is the postmaster to whom you wrote, and also the lawyer whom you tried to get to collect your bill. And if the undersigned were not also the pastor of the local church, the undersigned would tell you to go straight to the devil."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

ROSS GETS 35 YEARS

The jury at Lubbock gave Tom Ross 35 years in the penitentiary for killing W. D. Allison at Seminole on April 1st.

Both men will be tried for killing H. L. Roberson at the same time Allison was killed.

An ex-soldier who went up 14,000 feet in the air recovered his speech; on the other hand, most people up in the air would be extremely lucky if they lost theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Covington and family attended the County Singing Convention at Hereford Sunday.

The Randall County Singing Convention is to be held at Pleasantview Sunday. Everyone is invited to come and bring well filled baskets. Many visitors of other counties and states are expected. An arbor is being built for the purpose. Come and help make Sunday an enjoyable day.

There will be no Sunday School Sunday on account of the Singing Convention.

What's Wanted is the title of a book, put out by the British Institute of Patentees, that lists the inventions that the world really needs. The list includes: Glass that will bend; a smooth road surface that will not be slippery in wet weather; a furnace that will conserve ninety-five per cent of its heat; a process to make flannel unshrinkable; a noiseless aeroplane, and an aeroplane that can be managed safely and easily by a boy or girl; a motor engine of one-pound weight per horse power; methods to reduce friction; practical way of utilizing the tides; a process to extract phosphorus from vulcanized India rubber, so that it can be boiled up and used again; a pipe that can be cleaned easily and effectively; a temperance drink that will keep and yet not pall on the palate.

"Snowballing" in the building industry, where there are said to be fourteen jobs for every thirteen workers, has been one of the principal causes of excessive wages. If a skilled worker is getting $10 a day from one contractor, another offers him $11, a third $12, and finally the man is making $15 a day. That is "snowballing"; it may help the contractor in a pinch, but the man who intends to build will defer his project until he knows certainly what his labor will cost.

FACT AND COMMENT

It may be a good idea to send Germans to jail, but the darned German stork remains at liberty still.—Easton Express.

Writers who have worn out their superlatives need not try to invent new ones. The simpler way is for them to leave out all superlatives and notice how their writings gains in emphasis.

The timid man never creates anything. He who would make must dare. The thing to remember is that until Europe comes to order she won't come to order American goods.—El Paso Herald.

If you wish to know a man's real character, watch not what he says but what he does.

The new British Premier, Mr. Stanley Baldwin, is a first cousin to Mr. Rudyard Kipling. Mr. Kipling's mother was a sister of Mr. Baldwin's mother.

A corner in labor is not unlike a corner in stocks. When the public stops buying an article because the price is too high there soon comes a slump.

A London inventor has contrived an artificial throat for organ pipes that so regulates the currents of air as to make sounds that resemble the vowel sounds of human speech. To reproduce the human voice on the pipe organ has long been the dream of musicians; the new invention is said almost to realize it.

A machine recently installed in Leicester Square, London, shows an inquirer his route to any point in the city. There is a large wall map with trails of tiny electric lights along the principal thoroughfares and single lights at every important point. The inquirer simply presses a button at the side, opposite the name of his destination, and a trail of light on the map shows him how to get to it.

One of the proposals for revising the immigration law is to change the present three per cent quota based on the 1910 census to a five per cent quota based on the 1890 census. That would increase the possible number of immigrants by about forty-five thousand a year, but would cut off many from the south of Europe, to the advantage of those who wished to come from Great Britain, Germany, Norway, Sweden and France.
